7 Now it came about in the days of A'hazⁱ the son of Jo'tham the son of Uz'zi'ah, the king of Judah, that Re'zin^j the king of Syria and Pe'kah^k the son of Rem-a-li'ah,^{*} the king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem for war against it, and he^l proved unable to war against it.^l

2 And a report was made to the house of David, saying: "Syria has leaned^{*} upon E'phra-im."^m

And his heart and the heart of his people began to quiver, like the quivering of the trees of the forest because of a wind.ⁿ

3 And Jehovah proceeded to say to Isaiah: "Go out, please, to meet A'haz, you and She'ar-ja'shub^{*o} your son, to the end of the conduit^p of the upper pool by the highway of the laundryman's field.^q

yourself and keep undisturbed.^a Do not be afraid, and do not let your heart itself be timid^b because of the two tail ends of these smoking logs, because of the hot anger of Re'zin and Syria and the son of Rem-a-li'ah,^c 5 for the reason that Syria [with] E'phra-im and the son of Rem-a-li'ah has advised what is bad against you, saying: 6 "Let us go up against Judah and tear it apart and by breakthroughs take it for ourselves; and let us make another king reign inside it, the son of Tab'e-el."^d

7 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "It will not stand, neither will it take place.^e 8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Re'zin; and within just sixty-five years E'phra-im will be shattered to pieces so as not to be a people.^f 9 And the head of E'phra-im is Samar'ia,^g and the head of Samar'ia is the son of Rem-a-li'ah.^h Unless you people have faith, you will in that case not be of long duration."^{i,j,k}

10 And Jehovah went on speaking some more to A'haz, saying: 11 "Ask for yourself a sign from Jehovah your God,^l making it as deep as She'ol* or making it high as the upper regions." 12 But A'haz said: "I shall not ask, neither shall I put Jehovah to the test."

13 And he proceeded to say: "Listen, please, O house of David. Is it such a little thing for you to tire out men, that you should also tire out my God?^k 14 Therefore Jehovah* himself will give you men a sign: Look! 18 "And it must occur in that day that Jehovah will whistle for the flies* that are at the extremity of the Nile canals of Egypt and for the bees*^g that are in the land of As-syr'i-a,^h 19 and they will certainly come in and settle down, all of them, upon the precipitous torrent valleys and upon the clefts of the crags and upon all the thorn thickets and upon all the watering places.ⁱ

20 "In that day, by means of a hired razor in the region of the River,^j even by means of the king of As-syr'i-a,^k Jehovah* will shave the head and the hair of the feet,^l and it^a will sweep away even the beard itself.^l

10 Woe to those who are enacting harmful regulations^a and those who, constantly writing, have written out sheer trouble, 2 in order to push away the lowly ones from a legal case and to wrest away justice from the afflicted ones of my people,^b for the widows to become their spoil, and that they may plunder even the fatherless boys!^c 3 And what will you men do at the day of being given attention^d and at the ruin, when it comes from far away?^e Toward whom will you flee for assistance,^f and where will you leave your glory,^g 4 except it be that one must bow down under the prisoners and that people keep falling under those who have been killed?^h In view of all this his anger has not turned back, but his hand is stretched out still.ⁱ

5 "Aha, the Ass-yr'i-an,^j the rod for my anger,^k and the stick that is in their hand for my denunciation! 6 Against an apostate^l nation I shall send him, and against the people of my fury I shall issue a command to him,^m to take much spoil and to take much plunder* and to make itⁿ a trampling place like the clay of the streets.ⁿ 7 Though he may not be that way, he will feel inclined; though his heart may not be that way, he will scheme, because to annihilate is in his heart,^o and to cut off nations not a few.^p 8 For he will say, 'Are not my princes at the same time kings?'^q 9 Is not Cal'no^r just like Car'che-mish?^s Is not Ha'math^t just like Ar'pad?^u Is not Sa-mar'i-a^v just like Damascus?^w 10 Whenever my hand has reached the kingdoms of the valueless god whose graven images are more than those at Jerusalem and at Sa-mar'i-a,^x 11 will it not be that just as I shall have done to Sa-mar'i-a and to her valueless gods,^y even so I shall do to Jerusalem and to her idols?^z

15 The pronouncement against Mo'ab:^b Because in the night it has been despoiled, Ar^c of Mo'ab itself has been silenced. Because in the night it has been despoiled, Kir^d of Mo'ab itself has been silenced. 2 He has gone up to The House and to Di'bon,^e to the high places, to a weeping. Over Ne'bo^f and over Med'e-ba^g Mo'ab itself howls. On all heads in it there is baldness;^h every beard is clipped. 3 In its streets they have girded on sackcloth.ⁱ Upon the roofs^j thereof^k and in the public squares thereof everyone thereof howls, going down with weeping.^l 4 And Hesh'bon and E-le'a'leh^m cry out. As far as Ja'hazⁿ their voice has been heard. That is why the armed men of Mo'ab themselves keep shouting. His very soul has quivered within him.

5 My own heart cries out over Mo'ab himself.^o The runaways thereof are as far along as Zo'ar^p [and] Eg'lath-she-li'shi-yah.^q For on the ascent of Lu'hith^r—with weeping [each] one goes up on it; for on the way to Hor-o-na'im^s they arouse the outcry about the catastrophe.

6 For the very waters of Nim'rim^t become sheer desolations. For the green grass has dried up, the grass has come to an end; nothing has become green.^u

7 That is why the leftovers and their stored goods that they have put up, they keep carrying them away right over the torrent valley of the poplars.

8 For the outcry has gone around the territory of Mo'ab.^v The howling thereof is clear to Eg-la'im; the howling thereof is clear to Be'er-e'lim, 9 because the very waters of Di'mon have become full of blood. For upon Di'mon I shall place additional things, such as a lion for the escapees of Mo'ab who escape and for the remaining ones of the ground.^w

14 At evening time, why, look! there is sudden terror. Before morning—it is no more.^a This is the share of those pillaging us, and the lot belonging to those plundering us.^b

18 Ha for the land of the whirring insects with wings,* which is in the region of the rivers of E-thi-o'pia!^c 2 It is the one sending forth envoys^d by means of the sea, and by means of vessels of papyrus upon the surface of the waters, [saying:] "Go, YOU swift messengers, to a nation drawn out and scoured,* to a people fear-inspiring everywhere, a nation of tensile strength* and of treading down, whose land the rivers have washed away."^e

3 All YOU inhabitants of the productive land*^f and YOU residents of the earth, you will see a sight just as when there is the raising up of a signal* upon the mountains,^g and YOU will hear a sound just as when there is the blowing of a horn.^h 4 For this is what Jehovah has said to me: "I will keep undisturbed and look upon my established place,ⁱ like the dazzling heat along with the light,^j like the cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.^k 5 For before the harvest, when the blossom comes to perfection and the bloom becomes a ripening grape, one must also cut off the sprigs with pruning shears and must remove the tendrils, must lop [them] off.^l 6 They will be left all together for the bird of prey of the mountains and for the beast of the earth.^m And upon it the bird of prey will certainly pass the summer, and upon it even every beast of the earth will pass the harvesttime.ⁿ

you inhabitants of the land of Te'ma,^a confront the one fleeing away with bread for him. 15 For because of the swords they have fled away, because of the drawn sword, and because of the bent bow and because of the heaviness of the war.

16 For this is what Jehovah* has said to me: "Within yet a year, according to the years of a hired laborer,^b all the glory of Ke'dar^c must even come to its end. 17 And the ones remaining over of the number of bow[men], the mighty men of the sons of Ke'dar, will become few,^d for Jehovah himself, the God of Israel, has spoken [it]."^e

25 "In that day," is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, "the peg^k that is driven in a lasting place will be removed,^l and it must be hewn down and fall, and the load that is upon it must be cut off, for Jehovah himself has spoken [it]."^m

Tyre must be forgotten seventy years,^a the same as the days of one king. At the end of seventy years it will happen to Tyre as in the song of a prostitute:^b 16 "Take a harp, go around the city, O forgotten prostitute.^c Do your best at playing on the strings; make your songs many, in order that you may be remembered."

17 And it must occur at the end of seventy years that Jehovah will turn his attention to Tyre, and she must return to her hire^d and commit prostitution with all the kingdoms of the earth upon the surface of the ground.^e 18 And her profit and her hire^f must become something holy to Jehovah. It will not be stored up, nor be laid up, because her hire will come to be for those dwelling before Jehovah,^g for eating to satisfaction and for elegant covering.^h

24 Look! Jehovah is emptying the landⁱ and laying it waste,^j and he has twisted^k the face of it^l and scattered its inhabitants.^m 2 And it must come to be the same for the people as for the priest; the same for the servant as for his master;ⁿ the same for the maidservant as for her mistress; the same for the buyer as for the seller; the same for the lender as for the borrower; the same for the interest taker^o as for the one paying the interest.^{o,k}

7 The new wine has gone to mourning, the vine has withered,^c all those glad at heart have gone to sighing.^d

8 The exultation of the tambourines has ceased, the noise of the highly elated ones has discontinued, the exultation of the harp has ceased.^e 9 It is with no song that they drink wine; the intoxicating liquor becomes bitter to those drinking it. 10 The deserted town has been broken down;^f every house has been shut up from entering.

11 There is an outcry in the streets for [want of] wine. All rejoicing has passed away;^g the exultation of the land has departed.^h 12 In the city an astonishing condition has been left behind; the gate has been crushed to a mere rubble heap.^b

Awake and cry out joyfully, YOU residents in the dust!^a For your dew^b is as the dew of mallows,^c and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death* drop [in birth].^d

20 "Go, my people, enter into your interior rooms, and shut your doors behind you.^e Hide yourself for but a moment until the denunciation passes over.^f 21 For, look! Jehovah is coming forth from his place to call to account the error of the inhabitant of the land against him,^g and the land will certainly expose her bloodshed*^h and will no longer cover over her killed ones."ⁱ

27 In that day Jehovah,^j with his hard and great and strong sword,^k will turn his attention to Levi'a-athan,^l the gliding serpent,^m even to Levi'a-athan, the crooked serpent, and he will certainly kill the sea monsterⁿ that is in the sea.

2 In that day sing to her,^o YOU people: "A vineyard^p of foaming wine!* 3 I, Jehovah, am safeguarding her.^q Every moment I shall water her.^r In order that no one may turn his attention against her, I shall safeguard her even night and day.^s 4 There is no rage that I have.^t Who will give me thornbushes^u [and] weeds in the battle? I will step on such. I will set such on fire at the same time.^v 5 Otherwise let him take hold of my stronghold, let him make peace with me; peace let him make with me."^w

6 In the coming [days] Jacob will take root, Israel* will put forth blossoms and actually sprout; and they will simply fill the surface of the productive land* with produce.^y

He must expel [her] with his blast, a hard one in the day of the east wind.^b 9 Therefore by this means the error of Jacob will be atoned for,^c and this is all the fruit [when] he takes away his sin,^d when he makes all the stones of the altar like chalkstones that have been pulverized, so that the sacred poles^e and the incense stands will not rise up.^f 10 For the fortified city will be solitary, the pasture ground will be left to itself and abandoned like a wilderness.^g There the calf will graze, and there it will lie down; and he will actually consume her boughs.^h 11 When her sprigs have dried up, women coming in will break [them] off, lighting them up.ⁱ For it is not a people of keen understanding.^j That is why its Maker will show it no mercy, and its own Former will show it no favor.^k

Jehovah* has someone strong and vigorous.^a Like a thunderous storm of hail,^b a destructive storm, like a thunderous storm of powerful, flooding waters,^c he will certainly do a casting down to the earth with force.^d 3 With the feet the eminent crowns of the drunkards of E'phra-im will be trampled^e down. 4 And the fading flower^f of its decoration of beauty that is upon the head of the fertile valley must become like the early fig^g before summer, that, when the seer sees it, while it is yet in his palm, he swallows it down.

5 In that day Jehovah of armies^h will become as a crown of decorationⁱ and as a garland of beauty^j to the ones remaining^k over* of his people, 6 and as a spirit of justice* to the one sitting in the judgment,^l and as mightiness [to] those turning away the battle from the gate.^k

20 For the couch has proved too short for stretching oneself on, and the woven sheet itself is [too] narrow when wrapping oneself up. 21 For Jehovah will rise up just as at Mount Pe-ra’-zim,^h he will be agitated just as in the low plain near Gib’e-on,ⁱ that he may do his deed—his deed is strange—and that he may work his work^{}—his work is unusual.^j 22 And now do not show yourselves scoffers,^k in order that YOUR bands may not grow strong, for there is an extermination, even something decided upon, that I have heard of from the Sovereign^l Lord, Jehovah of armies, for all the land.^{,m} not with a threshing instrument^a that black cummin is given a treading; and upon cummin no wheel of a wagon is turned. 29 "Woe to Ar'iel,^h to Ar'iel, the town where David encamped!ⁱ Add year upon year, you people; let the festivals^j run the round. 2 And I have to make things tight^k for Ar'iel, and there must come to be mourning and lamentation,^l and she must become to me as the altar hearth of God.^m 3 And I must encamp on all sides against you,ⁿ and I must lay siege to you with a palisade^o and raise up against you siege-works.^p 4 And you must become low so that you will speak from the very earth, and as from the dust your saying will sound low.^q And like a spirit medium your voice must become even from the earth, and from the dust your own saying will chirp.^r 5 And the crowd of those strange to you must become just like fine powder,^s and the crowd of the tyrants^t just like the chaff that is passing away.^u And it must occur in an instant, suddenly.^v 6 From Jehovah of armies you will have attention with thunder and with quaking and with a great sound, storm wind and tempest, and the flame of a devouring fire."^w all those waging war against her, and the siege towers against her and those making things tight for her.^a 8 Yes, it must occur just as when someone hungry dreams and here he is eating, and he actually awakes and his soul is empty;^b and just as when someone thirsty dreams and here he is drinking, and he actually awakes and here he is tired and his soul is dried out; thus it will occur with the crowd of all the nations that are waging war against Mount Zion.^c

9 Linger, you men, and be amazed;^d blind yourselves, and be blinded.^e They have become intoxicated,^f but not with wine; they have moved unsteadily, but not because of intoxicating liquor.^g

10 For upon you men Jehovah has poured a spirit of deep sleep;^h and he closes your eyes, the prophets,ⁱ and he has covered even your heads,^j the visionaries.^k 11 And for you men the vision of everything becomes like the words of the book that has been sealed up,^l which they give to someone knowing the writing, saying: "Read this out loud, please," and he has to say: "I am unable, for it is sealed up";^m 12 and the book must be given to someone that does not know writing, [somebody] saying: "Read this out loud, please," and he has to say: "I do not know writing at all."

13 And Jehovah* says: "For the reason that this people have come near with their mouth, and they have glorified me merely with their lips,ⁿ and they have removed their heart itself far away from me,^o and their fear toward me becomes men's commandment that is being taught,^p 14 therefore here I am, the One that will act wonderfully again with this people,^q in a wonderful manner and with something wonderful; and the wisdom of their wise men must perish, and the very understanding of their discreet men will conceal itself.”^a

15 Woe to those who are going very deep in concealing counsel from Jehovah himself,^b and whose deeds have occurred in a dark place,^c while they say: “Who is seeing us, and who is knowing of us?”^d 16 The perversity of YOU men! Should the potter* himself be accounted just like the clay?^e For should the thing made say respecting its maker: “He did not make me?”^f And does the very thing formed actually say respecting its former: “He showed no understanding?”^g

17 Is it not yet but a very little time and Leb’a-non must be turned into an orchard^h and the orchard itself will be accounted just as a forest?ⁱ 18 And in that day the deaf ones will certainly hear the words of the book,^j and out of the gloom and out of the darkness even the eyes of the blind ones will see.^k 19 And the meek^l ones will certainly increase their rejoicing in Jehovah himself, and even the poor ones of mankind* will be joyful in the Holy One of Israel himself,^m 20 because the tyrant must reach his end,ⁿ and the bragger must come to his finish,^o and all those keeping alert to do harm^p must be cut off, 21 those bringing a man into sin by [his] word,^q and those who lay bait even for the one reproving in the gate,^r and those who push aside the righteous one with empty arguments.^s

22 Therefore this is what Jehovah has said to the house of Jacob, he that redeemed Abraham:^t “Jacob will not now be ashamed, nor will his own face now grow pale;^u 23 for when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in the midst of him,^v they will sanctify* my name,^w and they will certainly sanctify the Holy One of Jacob,^x and the God of Israel^y they will regard with awe.^y 24 And those who are erring in

31 Woe to those going down to Egypt for assistance,^f those who rely on mere horses,^g and who put their trust in war chariots,^h because they are numerous, and in steeds,ⁱ because they are very mighty, but who have not looked to the Holy One of Israel and have not searched for Jehovah himself.^j 2 And he is also wise^k and will bring in what is calamitous,^k and he has not called back his own words;^l and he will certainly rise up against the house of evildoers^m and against the assistance of those practicing what is hurtful.ⁿ

And Jehovah himself will stretch out his hand, and he that is offering help will have to stumble, and he that is being helped will have to fall,^q and at the same time they will all of them come to an end.

4 For this is what Jehovah has said to me: "Just as the lion growls, even the maned young lion,^r over its prey, when there is called out against it a full number of shepherds, [and] in spite of their voice he will not be terrified and in spite of their commotion he will not stoop; in the same way Jehovah of armies will come down to wage war over Mount Zion and over her hill.^s 5 Like birds flying, Jehovah of armies will in the same way defend Jerusalem.^t

He has broken the covenant;^a he has contemned the cities;^b he has taken no account of mortal man.^c 9 The land* has gone mourning, has withered away.^d Leb'a-non has become abashed;^e it has moldered.^f Shar'on^g has become like the desert plain; and Ba'shan and Car'mel are shaking off [their leaves].^h

10 "Now I will rise up,"ⁱ says Jehovah, "now I will exalt myself;^j now I will lift myself up.^k 11 You people conceive dried grass;^l you will give birth to stubble. YOUR own spirit, as a fire,^m will eat YOU up.ⁿ 12 And peoples must become as the burnings of lime. As thorns cut away, they will be set ablaze even with fire.^o 13 Hear, YOU men who are far away, what I must do!^p And know, YOU who are nearby, my mightiness.^q 14 In Zion the sinners have come to be in dread;^r shivering has grabbed hold of the apostates:^s 'Who of us can reside for any time with a devouring fire?'^t Who of us can reside for any time with long-lasting conflagrations?"^u

15 "There is one who is walking in continual righteousness^v and speaking what is upright,^w who is rejecting the unjust gain from frauds,^x who is shaking his hands clear from taking hold on a bribe,^y who is stopping up his ear from listening to bloodshed, and who is closing his eyes so as not to see what is bad.^z 16 He is the one that will reside on the heights themselves;^{aa} his secure height will be craggy places difficult to approach.^{ab} His own bread will certainly be given [him];^{ac} his water supply will be unfailing."^{ad}

20 Behold Zion,^d the town of our festal occasions!^e Your own eyes will see Jerusalem an undisturbed abiding place, a tent that no one will pack up.^f Never will its tent pins be pulled out, and none of its ropes will be torn in two.^g

21 But there the Majestic One,^h Jehovah, will be for us a place of rivers,ⁱ of wide* canals. On it no galley fleet will go, and no majestic ship will pass over it. 22 For Jehovah is our Judge,^j Jehovah is our Statute-giver,^k Jehovah is our King;^l he himself will save us.^m

23 Your* ropes must hang loose; their mast they will not hold firmly erect; they have not spread a sail.

At that time even spoil in abundance will have to be divided up; the lame ones themselves will actually take a big plunder.ⁿ 24 And no resident will say: "I am sick."^o The people that are dwelling in [the land]* will be those pardoned for their error.^p

34 Come up close, you nations, to hear;^q and you national groups,^r pay attention. The father himself can give knowledge^a to his own sons concerning your trueness.

20 O Jehovah, [undertake] to save me,^b and we shall play my string selections^c

All the days of our life at the house of Jehovah.^d

21 And Isaiah proceeded to say: "Let them take a cake of pressed dried figs and rub [it] in upon the boil,^e that he may revive."^f 22 Meantime, Heze-ki-ah said: "What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of Jehovah?"^g

39 At that time Mer'o-dachbal'a-dan^h the son of Bal'a-dan the king of Babylon*ⁱ sent letters and a gift^j to Heze-ki'ah, after he heard that he had been sick but was strong again.^k 2 So Heze-ki'ah began to rejoice over them^l and proceeded to show them his treasure-house,^m the silver and the gold and the balsam oilⁿ and the good oil and all his armory^o and all that was to be found in his treasures. There proved to be nothing that Heze-ki'ah did not show them in his own house^p and in all his dominion.^q

3 After that Isaiah the prophet came in to King Heze-ki'ah and said to him:^r
"What did these men say, and from where did they proceed to come to you?"

So Heze-ki'ah said: "From a distant land they came to me, from Babylon."^s

4 And he went on to say: "What did they see in your house?"^t To this Hezeki'ah said: "Everything that is in my house they saw. There proved to be nothing that I did not show them in my treasures." 5 Isaiah now said to Heze-ki'ah:^u "Hear the word of Jehovah of armies, 6 'Look! Days are coming, and all that is in your own house and that your forefathers have stored up down to this day will actually be carried to Babylon.'^v 'Nothing will be left,'^w Jehovah has said. 7 'And some of your own sons that will come forth from you, to whom you will become father,

Isa 39:1* "Babylon," Vg; LXX, "Babylonia"; MTSy, "Babel."

will themselves be taken^a and actually become court officials^b in the palace of the king of Babylon.”^c

8 At that Hez-ek-i’ah said to Isaiah: “The word of Jehovah that you have spoken is good.”^d And he went on to say: “Because peace and truth^e will continue in my own days.”^f

40 “COMFORT, comfort my people,” says the God of YOU men.*^g

2 “SPEAK to the heart of Jerusalem^h and call out to her that her military service* has been fulfilled,ⁱ that her error has been paid off.^j For from the hand of Jehovah she has received a full amount^k for all her sins.”^k

3 Listen! Someone is calling out* in the wilderness:^l “Clear up the way^m of Jehovah,ⁿ YOU people! MAKE the highway for our God through^a the desert plain straight.^o” 4 Let every valley be raised up,^o and every mountain and hill be made low.^p And the knobby ground must become level land, and the rugged ground a valley plain.^q 5 And the glory of Jehovah will certainly be revealed,^r and all flesh must see [it] together,^s for the very mouth of Jehovah has spoken [it].”^t

6 Listen! Someone is saying: “Call out!”^u And one said: “What shall I call out?”

“All flesh is green grass, and all their loving-kindness^a is like the blossom of the field.” 7 The green grass has dried up, the blossom has withered,^w because the very spirit of Jehovah has blown upon it.^x Surely the people are green grass.^y 8 The green grass has dried up, the blossom has withered;^z but as for the word of our God, it will last to time indefinite.”^a

17 They must be turned back, they will be very much ashamed, those who are putting trust in the carved image,^d those who are saying to a molten image: "You are our gods."^e

18 Hear, you deaf ones; and look forth to see, you blind ones.^f 19 Who is blind, if not my servant, and who is deaf as my messenger whom I send? Who is blind as the one rewarded,* or blind as the servant of Jehovah?^g 20 It was a case of seeing many things, but you did not keep watching.^h It was a case of opening the ears, but you* did not keep listening.ⁱ 21 Jehovah himself for the sake of his righteousness^j has taken a delight in that he should magnify the law* and make it majestic. 22 But it is a people plundered and pillaged,^k all of them being trapped in the holes, and in the houses of detention they have been kept hidden.^l They have come to be for plunder without a deliverer,^m for pillage without anyone to say: "Bring back!"

23 Who among you people will give ear to this? Who will pay attention and listen for later times?ⁿ 24 Who has given Jacob for mere pillage, and Israel to the plunderers? Is it not Jehovah, the One against whom we have sinned, and in whose ways they did not want to walk and to whose law they did not listen?^o 25 So He kept pouring out upon him rage, his anger, and the strength of war.^p And it kept consuming him all around,^q but he took no note;^r and it kept blazing up against him, but he would lay nothing to heart.^s

43 And now this is what Jehovah has said, your Creator,^t O Jacob, and your Former,^u O Israel: "Do not be afraid, for I have repurchased you."^v I have called [you] by your name.^x

Isa 44:9* "And as their witnesses." Heb., we'e-dheh-hem'. The next word (hem'mah, "they [are]") is marked with extraordinary points by the Sopherim, indicating that it should be canceled because of being merely a dittography of the pronominal ending (hem, "their") of the word preceding it. The pronoun for "they" is also absent in Sy. Accordingly the passage should read: "and as their witnesses they [the darlings; the carved images] see nothing and know nothing, in order that they [the formers of the carved image] may be ashamed." Ignoring the extraordinary points, the passage would read: "and they [Heb., hem'mah] are their witnesses that see nothing and that know nothing, in order that they may be ashamed." despoiling and breakdown are in their highways.^a 8 The way of peace^b they have ignored, and there is no justice in their tracks.^c Their roadways they have made crooked for themselves.^d No one at all treading in them will actually know peace.^e

9 That is why justice has come to be far away from us, and righteousness does not catch up with us. We keep hoping for light, but, look! darkness; for brightness, [but] in continuous gloom we kept walking.^f 10 We keep groping for the wall just like blind men, and like those without eyes we keep groping.^g We have stumbled at high noon just as in evening darkness; among the stout ones [we are] just like dead people.^h 11 We keep groaning, all of us, just like bears; and like doves we mournfully keep cooing.ⁱ We kept hoping for justice,^j but there was none; for salvation, [but] it has stayed far away from us.^k 12 For our revolts have become many in front of you;^l and as for our sins, each one has testified against us.^m For our revolts are with us; and as for our errors, we well know them.ⁿ

13 There have been transgressing and a denying of Jehovah,^o and there was a moving back from our God,* a speaking of oppression and revolt,^p a conceiving and a muttering of words of falsehood from the very heart.^q 14 And justice was forced to move back,^r and righteousness itself kept standing simply far off.^s For truth has stumbled even in the public square, and what is straightforward is unable to enter.^t 15 And the truth proves to be missing,^u and anyone turning away from badness is being despoiled.^v

“Watchers are coming from a land far away,^h and they will let out their voice against the very cities of Judah. 17 Like guards of the open field they have become against her on all sides,ⁱ because she has rebelled even against me,”^j is the utterance of Jehovah. 18 “Your* way and your dealings—there will be a rendering^k of these to you.^{ak} This is the calamity upon you, for it is bitter; because it has reached clear to your heart.”

19 O my intestines, my intestines! I am in severe pains in the walls of my heart.^l My heart is boisterous within me.^m I cannot keep silent, for the sound of the horn is what my soul has heard, the alarm signal of war.ⁿ 20 Crash upon crash is what has been called out, for the whole land has been despoiled.^o Suddenly my tents have been despoiled,^p in a moment my tent cloths. 21 How long shall I keep seeing the signal, keep hearing the sound of the horn?^q 22 For my people is foolish.^r Of me they have not taken note.^s They are unwise sons; and they are not those having understanding.^t Wise they are for doing bad, but for doing good they actually have no knowledge.^u

Jer 4:13* Or, “vultures.” 18* “Your,” fem. sing. 18* “There will be a rendering.” In Heb. this is a verb in the infinitive absolute, indefinite as to time and impersonal. 18^a “Your way and your dealings have done these things to you,” in agreement with TLXXSyVg and some Heb. mss.

23 I saw the land,* and, look! [it was] empty and waste;^a and into the heavens, and their light was no more.^b 24 I saw the mountains, and, look! they were rocking, and the hills themselves were all given a shaking.^c 25 I saw, and, look! there was not an earthling man,* and the flying creatures of the heavens had all fled.^d 26 I saw, and, look! the orchard itself was a wilderness, and the very cities of it had all been torn down.^e It was because of Jehovah, because of his burning anger.

27 For this is what Jehovah has said: "A desolate waste is what the whole land will become,^f and shall I not carry out a sheer extermination?"^g 28 On this account the land will mourn,^h and the heavens above will certainly become dark.ⁱ It is because I have spoken, I have considered, and I have not felt regret, nor shall I turn back from it.^j 29 Because of the sound of the horse-men and bow shooters the entire city is running away.^k They have entered into the thickets, and into the rocks* they have gone up.^l Every city is left, and there is no man* dwelling in them."

30 Now that you* are despoiled, what will you do, since you used to clothe yourself with scarlet, since you used to deck yourself with ornaments of gold, since you used to enlarge your eyes with black paint?^m It is in vain that you used to make yourself pretty.ⁿ Those lusting after [you] have rejected you; they keep seeking for your very soul.^o 31 For a voice like that of a sick woman* I have heard, the distress like that of a woman giving birth to her first child,^p the voice of the daughter of Zion who keeps gasping for breath. She keeps spreading out her palms:^q "Woe, now, to me, for my soul is tired of the killers!"^r

Jer 4:23* Or, "the earth." Heb., ha-'a-rets. 25* "An earthling man." Heb., ha-'a-dham. 27* Or, "but an extermination I shall not carry out." 29* "And into the rocks." 5 Go roving about in the streets of Jerusalem and see, now, and know, and seek for yourselves in her public squares whether YOU can find a man,^a whether there exists anyone doing justice,^b anyone seeking faithfulness,^c and I shall forgive her. 2 Even if they should say: "As Jehovah is alive!" they would thereby be swearing to sheer falsehood.^d

3 O Jehovah, are not those eyes of yours toward faithfulness?^e You have struck them,^f but they did not become ill.^g You exterminated them.^h They refused to take discipline.ⁱ They made their faces harder than a crag.^j They refused to turn back.^k 4 Even I myself had said: "Surely they are of low class. They acted foolishly, for they have ignored the way of Jehovah, the judgment of their God."^l 5 I will go my way to the great ones and speak with them;^m for they themselves must have taken note of the way of Jehovah, the judgment of their God.ⁿ Surely they themselves must have all together broken the yoke; they must have torn apart the bands."^o

6 That is why a lion out of the forest has struck them, a wolf itself of the desert plains keeps despoiling them,^p a leopard is keeping awake at their cities.^q Everyone going forth from them gets torn to pieces. For their transgressions have become many; their acts of unfaithfulness have become numerous.^r

7 How can I forgive you* for this very thing? Your own sons have left me, and they keep swearing* by what is no God.^s And I kept satisfying them,^t but they continued committing adultery,^v and to the house of a prostitute woman they go in troops. 8 Horses seized with sexual heat, having [strong] testicles, they have become. 9 The wise ones have become ashamed.^d They have become terrified and will be caught. Look! They have rejected the very word of Jehovah, and what wisdom do they have?^e 10 Therefore I shall give their wives to other men, their fields to those taking possession;^f for, from the least one even to the greatest one, each one is making unjust gain;^g from the prophet even to the priest, each one is acting falsely.^h 11 And they try to heal the breakdownⁱ of the daughter of my people lightly,^j saying: “There is peace! 18 A grief that is beyond curing has come up into me.^d My heart is ill.

19 Here there is the sound of the cry for help of the daughter of my people from a land far away:^e “Is Jehovah not in Zion?^f Or is her king not in her?”^g

“Why is it that they have offended me with their graven images, with their vain foreign gods?”^h

20 “The harvest has passed, the summer has come to an end; but as for us, we have not been saved!”ⁱ

21 Over the breakdown^j of the daughter of my people I have become shattered.^k I have grown sad. 9 O that my head were waters, and that my eyes were a source of tears!^q Then I could weep day and night for the slain ones of the daughter of my people.^r

2 O that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of travelers!^s Then I would leave my people and go away from them, for all of them are adulterers,^t a solemn assembly of treacherous dealers;^u 3 and they bend their tongue as their bow in falsehood;^v but not for faithfulness have they proved mighty in the land.^w

6 "Your sitting is in the midst of deception.ⁱ Through deception they have refused to know me,"^j is the utterance of Jehovah.

7 Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies has said: "Here I am smelting them, and I have to examine them,^k because how otherwise shall I act on account of the daughter of my people?^l 8 Their tongue is a slaughtering arrow.^m Deception is what it has spoken. With his mouth, peace is what [a person] keeps speaking with his own companion; but within himself he sets his ambush."ⁿ

13 And Jehovah proceeded to say: "On account of their leaving my law that I gave [to be] before them, and [because] they have not obeyed my voice and have not walked in it,"^b 14 but they kept on walking after the stubbornness of their heart^c and after the Ba'al images,^d about which their fathers had taught them;^e 15 therefore this is what Jehovah of armies, the God* of Israel, has said, 'Here I am making them, that is, this people, eat wormwood,^f and I will make them drink poisoned water;^g 16 and I will scatter them among the nations that neither they nor their fathers have known,^h and I will send after them the sword until I shall have exterminated them.'ⁱ

For the sword belonging to Jehovah is devouring from one end of the land even to the other end of the land.ⁿ There is no peace for any flesh. 13 They have sown wheat, but thorns are what they have reaped.^o They have worked themselves sick; they will be of no benefit.^p And they will certainly be^{*} ashamed of the products of you people because of the burning anger of Jehovah."

14 This is what Jehovah has said against all my bad neighbors,^{*q} who are touching the hereditary possession that I caused my people, even Israel, to possess:^r "Here I am uprooting them from off their ground;^s and the house of Judah I shall uproot from the midst of them.^t 15 And it must occur that after my uprooting them I shall again certainly have mercy upon them^u and will bring them back, each one to his hereditary possession and each one to his land."^v people in swearing by my name,^a 'As Jehovah is alive!' just as they taught my people to swear by Ba'al,^b they will also be built up in the midst of my people.^c 17 But if they will not obey, I will also uproot that nation, uprooting and destroying [it],^d is the utterance of Jehovah.

13 This is what Jehovah has said to me: "Go,^{*} and you must get for yourself a linen belt and put it upon your hips, but you must not bring it into any water." 2 So I got the belt in accord with the word of Jehovah and put it upon my hips. 3 And the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to me a second time, saying: 4 "Take the belt that you got, that is upon your hips, and rise up, go to the Eu-phra'tes,^e and hide it there in a cleft of the crag." 5 So I went and hid it by the Eu-phra'tes, just as Jehovah had commanded me.

6 But it came about at the end of many days that Jehovah proceeded to say to me: "Rise up, go to the Eu-phra'tes and take from there the belt that I commanded you to hide there." 7 Accordingly I went to the Eu-phra'tes and dug and took the belt from the place in which I had hid it, and, look! the belt had been ruined; it was not fit for anything.

8 Then the word of Jehovah occurred to me, saying: 9 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'In the same way I shall bring to ruin the pride of Judah^f and the abundant pride of Jerusalem. 10 This bad people who are refusing to obey my words,^g who are walking in the stubbornness of their heart^h and who keep walking after other gods^{} in order to serve them and to bow down to them,ⁱ will also become just like this belt that is fit for nothing.' 11 'For just as a belt clings to the hips of a man,^{} so I caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling even to me,^j is the utterance of Jehovah, 'in order to become to me a people^k and a name^l and a praise and something beautiful; but they did not obey.'^m

And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 "You must not take for yourself a wife, and you must not come to have sons and daughters in this place.^o 3 For this is what Jehovah has said concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who are giving them birth and concerning their fathers who are causing their birth in this land,^p 4 'With deaths from maladies they will die.^q They will not be bewailed,^r neither will they be buried.^s As manure upon the surface of the ground they will become;^t and by the sword and by famine they will come to an end,^u and their dead bodies will actually serve as food for the flying creatures of the heavens and for the beasts of the earth."^v

"For I have taken away my peace from this people," is the utterance of Jehovah, 'even loving-kindness* and mercies.^a 6 And they will certainly die, the great ones and the small ones, in this land. They will not be buried,^b neither will people beat themselves for them, nor will anyone make cuts upon himself^c or make himself bald for them.^d 7 And they will not deal out to them any bread on account of mourning to comfort someone over the dead;^e neither will they give them the cup of consolation to drink on account of one's father and on account of one's mother.^f 8 And you must enter no house of banqueting at all to sit down with them to eat and to drink.^g

9 "For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God* of Israel, has said, 'Here I am causing to cease out of this place before the eyes of YOU people and in YOUR days the voice of exultation and the voice of rejoicing, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.'^h

10 "And it must occur that, when you tell to this people all these words and they actually say to you, 'On what account has Jehovah spoken against us all this great calamity, and what is our error and what is our sin with which we have sinned against Jehovah our God?' 11 you must also say to them, "On account of the fact that YOUR fathers left me,"ⁱ is the utterance of Jehovah, "and they kept going after other gods* and serving them and bowing down to them.^k But me they left, and my law they did not keep.^l 12 And YOU yourselves have acted worse in YOUR doing than YOUR fathers,^m and here YOU are walking each one after the stubbornnessⁿ of his bad heart in not obeying me.^o 13 And I will hurl YOU out from off this land^p into the land that YOU yourselves have not known,^q neither YOUR fathers, and there YOU will have to serve other gods^r day and night, because I shall not give YOU any favor."^s

20 Now Pash’hur the son of Im’mer,^a the priest, who was also the leading commissioner in the house of Jehovah,^b kept listening to Jeremiah while prophesying these words. 2 Then Pash’hur struck Jeremiah the prophet^c and put him into the stocks^d that were in the Upper Gate of Benjamin, which was in the house of Jehovah. 3 But it came about on the following day that Pash’hur proceeded to let Jeremiah out from the stocks,^e and Jeremiah now said to him:

“Jehovah has called your name,^f not Pash’hur,* but Fright all around.”^g 4 For this is what Jehovah has said, ‘Here I am making you a fright to yourself and to all your lovers,* and they will certainly fall by the sword of their enemies^h while your eyes will be looking on;’ and all Judah I shall give into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will actually take them into exile in Babylon and strike them down with the sword.ⁱ 5 And I will give all the stored-up things of this city and all its product and all its precious things; and all the treasures of the kings of Judah I am going to give into the hand of their enemies.^k And they will certainly plunder them and take them and bring them to Babylon.^l 6 And as for you, O Pash’hur, and all the inhabitants of your house, YOU will go into captivity;^m and to Babylon you will come and there you will die and there you yourself will be buried with all your lovers,ⁿ because you have prophesied to them in falsehood.”^o

7 You have fooled me, O Jehovah, so that I was fooled. You used your strength against me, so that you prevailed.^p I became an object of laughter all day long; everyone is holding me in derision.^q 8 For as often as I speak, I cry out. Violence and despoiling are

2 Therefore this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said against the shepherds who are shepherding my people: "YOU yourselves have scattered my sheep; and YOU kept dispersing them, and YOU have not turned your attention to them."^c

"Here I am turning my attention upon YOU for the badness of YOUR dealings,"^d is the utterance of Jehovah.

3 "And I myself shall collect together the remnant of my sheep out of all the lands to which I had dispersed them,^e and I will bring them back to their pasture ground,^f and they will certainly be fruitful and become many."^g 4 And I will raise up over them shepherds who will actually shepherd them;^h and they will be afraid no more, neither will they be struck with any terror,ⁱ and none will be missing," is the utterance of Jehovah.

5 "Look! 7 "Therefore, look! there are days coming," is the utterance of Jehovah, "and they will no more say, 'Jehovah is alive who brought the sons of Israel up out of the land of Egypt,'^p 8 but, 'Jehovah is alive who brought up and who brought in the offspring^q of the house of Israel out of the land of the north and out of all the lands to which I have dispersed them,' and they will certainly dwell on their own ground."^r

3 And Jehovah proceeded to say to me: "What are you seeing, Jeremiah?" So I said: "Figs, the good figs being very good, and the bad ones being very bad, so that they cannot be eaten for badness."^a

7 "But you did not listen to me," is the utterance of Jehovah, "to the intent that you might offend me with the work of your hands, for calamity to yourselves."^h

Jer 25:22* Or, "coastland." 26 "Sheshach," MVg; T, "Babel." This appears to be a cryptographic name for Babel (Babylon) by the device called 'ath-bash' that disguises the true name by taking the last letter of the Heb. alphabet, Taw, for the first, 'Aleph, and the second to the last letter, Shin, for the second letter, Behth, and so on. Thus in "Babel" each Behth, "b," would stand for Shin, La'medh would stand for Kaph, and the name would become She-shakh'. 27 "The God of." Heb., 'Elo-heh'. 30 Or, "against."

his abiding place. A shout like that of those treading [the winepress] he will sing out against all the inhabitants of the earth.^a 31 "A noise will certainly come clear to the farthest part* of the earth, for there is a controversy that Jehovah has with the nations.^b He must personally put himself in judgment with all flesh.^c As regards the wicked ones, he must give them to the sword,^d is the utterance of Jehovah.

34 "Howl, YOU shepherds, and cry out!^j And wallow about,^k YOU majestic ones of the flock,^l because YOUR days for slaughtering and for YOUR scatterings have been fulfilled,^m and YOU must fall like a desirable vessel!ⁿ 35 And a place to flee to has perished from the shepherds, and a means of escape from the majestic ones of the flock.^o 36 Listen! The outcry of the shepherds, and the howling of the majestic ones of the flock, for Jehovah is despoiling their pasturage. 37 And the peaceful abiding places have been rendered lifeless* because of the burning anger of Jehovah.^p 38 He has left his covert just like a maned young lion,^q for their land has become an object of astonishment because of the maltreating sword* and because of his burning anger."^r

26 In the beginning of the royal rule of Je-hoi'a-kim^a the son of Jo-si'ah, the king of Judah, this word occurred from Jehovah, saying: 2 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Stand in the courtyard of the house of Jehovah,^b and you must speak concerning all the cities of Judah that are coming in to bow down at the house of Jehovah all the words that I will command you to speak to them.^c Do not take away a word.^d 3 Perhaps they will listen and return, each one from his bad way,^e and I shall have to feel regret for the calamity that I am thinking to execute upon them because of the badness of their dealings.^f 4 And you must say to them: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'If you will not listen to me by walking in my laws^g that I have put before you,^h 5 by listening to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I am sending to you, even rising up early and sending [them], whom you have not listened to,ⁱ 6 I will, in turn, make this house like that in Shi'loh,^j and this city I shall make a malediction to all the nations of the earth.'^k"

7 And the priests and the prophets and all the people began to hear Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of Jehovah.^l 8 So it came about that when Jeremiah had completed speaking all that Jehovah had commanded [him] to speak to all the people, then the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold of him, saying: "You will positively die.^m 9 Why is it that you have prophesied in the name of Jehovah, saying, 'Like that in Shi'lohⁿ is how this house will become, and this very city will be devastated so as to be without an inhabitant?'" And all the people kept congregating themselves about Jeremiah in the house of Jehovah.

10 In time the princes of Judah got to hear these words, and they proceeded to come up from the house of the king to the house of Jehovah^o and to sit down in the entrance of the new gate of Jehovah.^p 11 And the priests and the prophets began to say to the princes and to all the people: "To this man* the judgment of death belongs,^a because he has prophesied concerning this city just as you have heard with YOUR OWN EARS."^b

12 At that Jeremiah said to all the princes and to all the people: "It was Jehovah that sent me to prophesy concerning this house and concerning this city all the words that you have heard.^c

13 And now make YOUR ways and YOUR dealings good,^d and obey the voice of Jehovah YOUR God, and Jehovah will feel regret for the calamity that he has spoken against you.^e 14 And as for me, here I am in YOUR hand.^f Do to me according to what is good and according to what is right in YOUR eyes.^g 15 Only you should by all means know that, if you are putting me to death, it is innocent blood that you are putting upon yourselves and upon this city and upon her inhabitants,^h for in truth Jehovah did send me to you to speak in YOUR ears all these words."ⁱ

16 Then the princes^j and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets: "There is no judgment of death belonging to this man,^k for it was in the name of Jehovah our God that he spoke to us."^l

17 Furthermore, certain ones* of the older men of the land rose up and began saying to all the congregation of the people:^m 18 "Mi'cahⁿ of Mo'resh-eth^o himself happened to be prophesying in the days of Heze-ki'ah^a the king of Judah^p and went on to say to all the people of Judah, 'This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "Zion herself will be plowed up as a mere field,^q and Jerusalem herself will become mere heaps of ruins,^r and the mountain of the House will be for high places of a forest."^s

20 "And there also happened to be a man* prophesying in the name of Jehovah, U-ri'jah* the son of She-mai'ah^a from Kir'iath-je'a-rim.^c And he kept prophesying against this city and against this land in accord with all the words of Jeremiah. 21 And King Je-hoi'a-kim^d and all his mighty men and all the princes got to hear his words, and the king began seeking to put him to death.^e When U-ri'jah got to hear [of it] he at once became afraid^f and ran away and came into Egypt. 22 But King Je-hoi'a-kim sent men to Egypt, El-na'than the son of Ach'bor^g and other men with him to Egypt. 23 And they proceeded to bring U-ri'jah out from Egypt and to bring him to King Je-hoi'a-kim, who then struck him down with the sword^h and cast his dead body into the graveyard of the sons of the people."

24 Moreover, it was the hand of A-hi'-kamⁱ the son of Sha'phan^j that proved to be with Jeremiah, in order not to give him into the hand of the people to have him put to death.^k

27 In the beginning of the kingdom of Je-hoi'a-kim* the son of Jo-si'ah,^l the king of Judah, this word occurred to Jeremiah* from Jehovah, saying: 2 "This is what Jehovah has said to me, 'Make for yourself bands and yoke bars,^m and you must put them upon your neck.ⁿ 3 And you must send them to the king of E'dom^o and to the king of Mo'ab^p and to the king of the sons of Am'mon^q and to the king of Tyre^r and to the king of Si'don^s by the hand of the messengers who are coming to Jerusalem to Zede-ki'ah* the king of

17 So Han-a-ni'ah the prophet died in that year, in the seventh month.^d

29 And these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the remainder of the older men of the exiled people and to the priests and to the prophets and to all the people, whom Neb-u-chad-nez'zar had carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon,^e 2 after Jec-o-ni'ah^f the king and the lady^g and the court officials, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem,^h and the craftsmen and the builders of bulwarksⁱ had gone forth from Jerusalem. 3 It was by the hand of El-a'sah the son of Sha'phan^j and Gem-a-ri'ah the son of Hil-ki'ah, whom Zed-e-ki'ah^k the king of Judah sent to Babylon to Neb-u-chad-nez'zar the king of Babylon, saying:

10 “For this is what Jehovah has said, ‘In accord with the fulfilling of seventy years at Babylon I shall turn my attention to YOU people,^b and I will establish toward YOU my good word in bringing YOU back to this place.’^c

11 “For I myself well know the thoughts that I am thinking toward YOU,^d is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘thoughts of peace, and not of calamity,^e to give YOU a future and a hope.’^f

12 And YOU will certainly call me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to YOU.^g

13 “And YOU will actually seek me and find [me],^h for YOU will search for me with all YOUR heart.ⁱ 14 And I will let myself be found by YOU,^j is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘And I will gather YOUR body of captives and collect YOU together out of all the nations and out of all the places to which I have dispersed you,’^k is the utterance of Jehovah. ‘And I will bring YOU back to the place from which I caused YOU to go into exile.’^l

17 “This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “Here I am sending against them the sword,^o the famine^p and the pestilence,^q and I will make them like the burst-open figs that cannot be eaten for badness.”^r

18 "I have positively heard E'phraim bemoaning himself,^b 'You have corrected me, that I may be corrected,^c like a calf that has not been trained.^d Cause me to turn back, and I shall readily turn back,^e for you are Jehovah my God.^f 19 For after my turning back I felt regret;^g and after my being led to know I made a slap upon the thigh.^h I became ashamed, and I also felt humiliated,ⁱ for I had carried the reproach of my youth.'^j

20 "Is E'phraim a precious son to me, or a fondly treated child?^k For to the extent of my speaking against him I shall without fail remember him further.^l That is why my intestines have become boisterous for him.^m By all means I shall have pity upon him,"ⁿ is the utterance of Jehovah.

21 "Set up road marks for yourself.* Place signposts for yourself.^o Fix your heart upon the highway, the way that you will have to go.^p Come back, O virgin of Israel. Come back to these cities of yours.^q 22 How long will you turn this way and that,^r O unfaithful daughter?^s For Jehovah has created a new thing in the earth: A mere female will press around an able-bodied man."^t

23 This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: "They will yet say this word in the land of Judah and in his cities, when I shall gather their captives, 'May Jehovah bless you,^u O righteous dwelling place,^v O holy mountain.^w 24 And in it* Judah and all his cities will certainly dwell all together, farmers and those who have set out with the drove.^x 25 For I will saturate the tired soul, and every languishing soul I will fill."^x

28 “And it must occur that just as I had kept alert toward them^b to uproot and to pull down and to tear down and to destroy and to do damage,^c so I shall keep alert toward them to build up and to plant,”^d is the utterance of Jehovah. 29 “In those days they will no more say, ‘The fathers were the ones that ate the unripe grape, but it was the teeth of the sons that got set on edge.’”^e 30 But it will be each one for his own error that one will die.^f Any man* eating the unripe grape, his will be the teeth that will be set on edge.”

31 “Look! 33 “For this is the covenantⁿ that I shall conclude with the house of Israel after those days,”^o is the utterance of Jehovah. “I will put my law within them,^p and in their heart I shall write it.^q And I will become their God, and they themselves will become my people.”^r

34 “And they will no more teach each one his companion and each one his brother,^s saying, ‘KNOW Jehovah!’^t for they will all of them know me, from the least one of them even to the greatest one of them,”^u is the utterance of Jehovah. “For I shall forgive their error, and their sin I shall remember no more.”^v

35 This is what Jehovah, the Giver of the sun for light by day,^a the statutes^b of* the moon^c and the stars for light by night,^d the One stirring up the sea that its waves may become boisterous,^e the One whose name is Jehovah of armies,^f has said: 36 “‘If these regulations could be removed from before me,’^g is the utterance of Jehovah, ‘those who are the seed of Israel could likewise cease from proving to be a nation before me always.’”^h

37 This is what Jehovah has said: “‘If the heavens up above could be measured and the foundations of the earth below could be searched out,ⁱ I myself also could reject the entire seed of Israel on account of all that they have done,’^j is the utterance of Jehovah.”

38 “Look! There are days coming,”^k is the utterance of Jehovah, “and the city will certainly be built^l to Jehovah from the Tower of Hanan-el^l to the Corner Gate.^m 39 And the line for measurementⁿ will yet actually go forth straight ahead to the hill of Ga’reb, and it will certainly go around to Go’ah. 40 And all the low plain of the carcasses^o and of the fatty ashes,^p and all the terraces as far as the torrent valley of Kid’ron,^q clear to the corner of the Horse Gate^r toward the sunrising, will be something holy to Jehovah.^s It will not be uprooted, neither will it be torn down anymore to time indefinite.”^t that laid the command upon us, saying, ‘YOU must drink no wine, neither YOU nor YOUR sons, to time indefinite.’^a 7 And no house must YOU build, and no seed must YOU sow; and no vineyard must YOU plant, nor must it come to be YOURS. But in tents YOU should dwell all YOUR days, in order that YOU may keep living many days upon the surface of the ground where YOU are residing as aliens.^b 8 So we keep obeying the voice of Je-hon'a-dab* the son of Re'chab our forefather in everything that he commanded^c us by drinking no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons and our daughters,^d 9 and by not building houses for us to dwell in, so that no vineyard or field or seed should become ours. 10 And we keep dwelling in tents and obeying and doing according to all that Jon'a-dab^e our forefather commanded us.^f 11 But it came about when Neb-u-chad-rez'zar the king of Babylon came up against the land^g that we began to say, ‘Come, and let us enter into Jerusalem because of the military force of the Chal-de'ans and because of the military force of the Syrians,* and let us dwell in Jerusalem.’”^h 12 And the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to Jeremiah, saying: 13 “This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Go, and you must say to the men* of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem: “Did YOU not continually receive exhortation to obey my words?”’ⁱ is the utterance of Jehovah. 14 “There has been a carrying out of the words of Je-hon'a-dab the son of Re'chab,^j that he commanded his sons, to drink no wine, and they have drunk none down to this day, because they have obeyed the commandment of their forefather.^k And as for me, I have spoken to YOU men, rising up early and speaking,^l but YOU have not obeyed me.” 15 And I kept sending to YOU all my servants the prophets,ⁿ rising up early and sending [them], saying, ‘Turn back,

17 "Therefore this is what Jehovah, the God of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'Here I am bringing upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the calamity that I have spoken against them,ⁱ for the reason that I have spoken to them but they did not listen, and I kept calling to them but they did not answer.'^j"

18 And to the household of the Re'-chabites Jeremiah said: "This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'For the reason that YOU have obeyed the commandment of Je-hon'a-dab^k YOUR forefather and continue keeping all his commandments and doing according to all that he commanded YOU,^l 19 therefore this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: "There will not be cut off from Jon'a-dab the son of Re'chab a man to stand^m before me always."ⁿ

36 Now it came about in the fourth year of Je-hoi'a-kim^o the son of Jo-si'ah, the king of Judah, that this word occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: 2 "Take for yourself a roll of a book,^p and you must write in it all the words^q that I have spoken to you against Israel and against Judah^r and against all the nations,^s since the day that I spoke to you, since the days of Jo-si'ah, clear down to this day.^t 3 Perhaps those of the house of Judah will listen to all the calamity that I am thinking of doing to them,^u to the end that they may return, each one from his bad way,^v and that I may actually forgive their error and their sin."^w

Eze 8:11

4 And Jeremiah proceeded to call Bar'uch^a the son of Ne-ri'ah that Bar'uch might write at the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of Jehovah that He had spoken to him, on the roll of the book.^b 5 Then Jeremiah commanded Bar'uch, saying: "I am shut up. I am unable to enter into the house of Jehovah.^c 6 And you yourself must enter in and read aloud from the roll that you have written at my mouth the words of Jehovah^d in the ears of the people at the house of Jehovah in the day of fast;^e and also in the ears of all Judah who are coming in from their cities you should read them aloud.^f 7 Perhaps their request for favor will fall before Jehovah^g and they will return, each one from his bad way,^h for great is the anger and the rage that Jehovah has spoken against this people."ⁱ

8 And Bar'uch^j the son of Ne-ri'ah proceeded to do according to all that Jeremiah the prophet had commanded him, to read aloud from the book^k the words of Jehovah at the house of Jehovah.^l

9 Now it came about in the fifth year of Je-hoi'a-kim^m the son of Jo-si'ah, the king of Judah, in the ninth month,ⁿ that all the people in Jerusalem and all the people that were coming in from the cities of Judah into Jerusalem proclaimed a fast before Jehovah.^o 10 And Bar'uch began to read aloud from the book the words of Jeremiah at the house of Jehovah, in the dining room^p of Gem-a-ri'ah^q the son of Sha'phan^r the copyist,^s in the upper courtyard, at the entrance of the new gate of the house of Jehovah,^t in the ears of all the people.

11 And Mi-cai'ah^u the son of Gem-a-ri'ah the son of Sha'phan^v got to hear all the words of Jehovah from out of the book. 12 At that he went down to the house of the king, to the dining room of the secretary, and, look! there is where all the princes were sitting,

14 Then all the princes sent out to Bar'uchⁱ Je-hu'di^j the son of Neth-a-ni'-ah^k the son of Shel-e-mi'ah^k the son of Cush'i, saying: "The roll from which you read aloud in the ears of the people—take it in your hand and come." Accordingly Bar'uch the son of Ne-ri'ah^l took the roll in his hand and came in to them.^k 15 Then they said to him: "Sit down, please, and read it aloud in our ears." So Bar'uchⁱ read aloud in their ears.

16 Now it came about that as soon as they heard all the words, they looked at one another in dread; and they proceeded to say to Bar'uch: "We shall without fail tell the king all these words."^m 17 And Bar'uch they asked, saying: "Tell us, please, How did you write all these words from his mouth?"ⁿ 18 Then Bar'uch said to them: "Out of his mouth he kept declaring to me all these words, and I was writing in the book with ink."^o 19 Finally the princes said to Bar'uch: "Go, conceal yourself, you and Jeremiah, so that no one at all will know where you men are."^p

20 Then they came in to the king, to the courtyard,^q and the roll they entrusted to the dining room^r of E-lish'a-ma^s the secretary; and they began to tell all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Je-hu'diⁱ out to get the roll. Accordingly he got it out of the dining room of E-lish'a-ma^a the secretary.^b And Je-hu'di began to read it aloud in the ears of the king and in the ears of all the princes standing by the king. 22 And the king was sitting in the winter house,^c in the ninth month,^d with a brazier^e burning before him. 23 Then it came about that as soon as Je-hu'di had read three or four page-columns, he proceeded to tear it apart with the secretary's knife, pitching [it] also into the fire that was in the brazier until all the roll ended up in the fire that was in the brazier.^f 24 And they felt no dread;^g neither did the king and all his servants, who were listening to all these words, rip their garments apart.^h 25 And even El-na'thanⁱ and De-la'iah^j and Gem-a-ri'-ah^k themselves pleaded with the king not to burn the roll, but he did not listen to them.^l 26 Further, the king commanded Je-rah-me-el the son of the king and Se-rai'ah^m the son of Az-riel and Shel-e-mi'ahⁿ the son of Ab-de-el to get Bar'uch the secretary and Jeremiah the prophet.^m But Jehovah kept them concealed.ⁿ

27 And the word of Jehovah occurred further to Jeremiah after the king had burned up the roll with the words that Bar'uch^o had written at the mouth of Jeremiah,^p saying: 28 "Take again for yourself a roll, another one, and write on it all the first words that proved to be on the first roll, which Je-hoi'a-kim the king of Judah burned up.^q 29 And against Je-hoi'a-kim the king of Judah you should say, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "You yourself have burned up this roll,^r saying, 'Why is it that you have written on it,^s saying: "The king of Babylon will come without fail and will certainly bring this land to ruin and cause man^t and beast to cease from it?"'^t

32 And Jeremiah himself took another roll and then gave it to Bar'uch the son of Ne-ri'ah, the secretary,^g who proceeded to write upon it at the mouth^h of Jeremiah all the words of the book that Je-hoi'a-kim the king of Judah had burned in the fire;ⁱ and there were added to them many more words like those.

37 And King Zed-e-ki'ah^j the son of Jo-si'ah^k began to reign in place of Co-ni'ah^{1} the son of Je-hoi'a-kim,^m whom Neb-u-chad-rez'zar the king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.ⁿ 2 And he himself and his servants and the people of the land did not listen to the words of Jehovah^o that he spoke by means of Jeremiah the prophet.^p salem.^a 6 Then the word of Jehovah occurred to Jeremiah the prophet, saying: 7 "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'This is what YOU men should say to the king of Judah, the one sending YOU to me to inquire of me;^b "Look! The military force of Phar'aoth that is coming forth to YOU people for the purpose of assistance will have to go back to their land, Egypt.^c 8 And the Chal-de'ans will certainly come back and fight against this city and capture it and burn it with fire."^d 9 This is what Jehovah has said: "Do not deceive YOUR souls,^e saying, 'The Chal-de'ans will without fail go away from against us,' because they will not go away. 10 For if YOU men had struck down all the military force of the Chal-de'ans who are fighting YOU^f and there remained over among them men* pierced through,^g they would each one in his tent rise up and actually burn this city with fire.'""

11 And it occurred when the military force of the Chal-de'ans had withdrawn themselves from against Jerusalem^h because of the military force of Phar'aoth,ⁱ 12 that Jeremiah began to go forth from Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin^j and to get [his] portion from there in the midst of the people. 13 So it came about when he was in the Gate of Benjamin^k that the officer holding the oversight, whose name was I-ri'jah the son of Shel-e-mi'ah the son of Han-a-ni'ah, was there. At once he took hold of Jeremiah the prophet, saying: "It is to the Chal-de'ans that you are falling away!"^{* 14} But Jeremiah said: "It is false!^l I am not falling away to the Chal-de'ans." But he did not listen to him. So I-ri'jah kept hold of Jeremiah and brought him in to the princes. 15 And the princes^m began to get indignant at Jeremiah,ⁿ and they struck him^o and put him into the house of fetters,^p in the house of Je-hon'a-than^q the secretary, for this was what they had made the house of detention.^r 16 When Jeremiah came into the house of the cistern^a and into the vaulted rooms, then Jeremiah continued dwelling there many days.

17 And King Zed-e-ki'ah proceeded to send and take him, and the king began asking him questions in his house in a place of concealment.^b And he went on to say: "Does there exist a word from Jehovah?" To this Jeremiah said: "There does exist!" And he said further: "Into the hand of the king of Babylon you will be given!"^c

18 Then Jeremiah said to King Zed-e-ki'ah: "In what way have I sinned against you and against your servants and against this people,^d so that YOU men have put me into the house of detention? 19 Where, now, are YOUR prophets who prophesied to YOU, saying, 'The king of Babylon will not come against YOU men and against this land'?"^e

20 And now listen, please, O my lord the king. May my request for favor,^f please, fall before you, and do not send me back to the house of Jehon'a-athan^g the secretary, that I may not die there."^h

21 Accordingly King Zed-e-ki'ah commanded, and they then put Jeremiah in custody in the Courtyard of the Guard;ⁱ and there was a giving of a round loaf of bread to him daily from the street of the bakers,^j until all the bread was exhausted from the city.^k And Jeremiah continued dwelling in the Courtyard of the Guard.^l

38 And Sheph-a-ti'ah the son of Pash'hur and Ju'cal^m the son of Shel-e-mi'ahⁿ and Pash'hur the son of Mal-chi'jahⁿ got to hear the words that Jeremiah was speaking to all the people,^o saying: 2 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'The one continuing to dwell in this city is the one that will die by the sword,^p by the famine^q and by the pestilence.^r But the one going out to the Chal-de'ans is the one that will keep living and that will certainly come to have his soul as a spoil and alive.'^s 3 This is what Jehovah has said, 'Without fail this city will be given into the hand of the military force of the king of Babylon, and he will certainly capture it."^a

4 And the princes began to say to the king: "Let this man,^{*} please, be put to death,^b for that is how he is weakening the hands of the men of war who are left remaining in this city and the hands of all the people, by speaking to them according to these words.^c For this man is one seeking not for the peace of this people but for calamity." 5 So King Zed-e-ki'ah said: "Look! 6 And they proceeded to take Jeremiah and throw him into the cistern of Mal-chi'jah^e the son of the king, which was in the Courtyard of the Guard.^f So they let Jeremiah down by means of ropes. Now in the cistern there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah began to sink down into the mire.^g

7 And E'bed-mel'ech the E-thi-o-pi-an,^{*h} a man who was a eunuch and who was in the house of the king, got to hear that they had put Jeremiah into the cistern; and the king was sitting in the Gate of Benjamin.ⁱ 8 So E'bed-mel'ech went out of the house of the king and spoke to the king, saying: 9 "O my lord the king, these men have done bad in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have thrown into the cistern, so that he will die^j where he is because of the famine.^k For there is no bread anymore in the city."

10 Then the king commanded E'bed-mel'ech the E-thi-o-pi-an, saying: "Take in your charge^{*} from this place thirty men, and you must get Jeremiah the prophet up out of the cistern before he dies."^l 11 Accordingly E'bed-mel'ech took the men in his charge and went into the house of the king to beneath the treasury^m and took from there

Jeremiah now did so.^b 13 Finally they drew out Jeremiah by means of the ropes and brought him up out of the cistern. And Jeremiah continued to dwell in the Courtyard of the Guard.^c

14 And King Zed-e-ki'ah proceeded to send and take Jeremiah the prophet to him^d to the third entryway,^e which is in the house of Jehovah,^f and then the king said to Jeremiah: "I am asking something of you. 17 Jeremiah now said to Zed-e-ki'ah: "This is what Jehovah, the God of armies,^k the God of Israel,^l has said, 'If you will without fail go out to the princes of the king of Babylon, your soul will also certainly keep living and this city itself will not be burned with fire, and you yourself and your household will certainly keep living.'^m 18 But if you will not go out to the princes of the king of Babylon, this city must also be given into the hand of the Chal-de'ans, and they will actually burn it with fire,ⁿ and you yourself will not escape out of their hand."^o

Neb-u'zar-ad'an^a the chief of the bodyguard^b took into exile to Babylon.^c

10 And some of the people, the lowly ones who had nothing at all, Neb-u'zar-ad'an the chief of the bodyguard let remain in the land of Judah;^d and he went on to give them vineyards and compulsory services on that day.^e

11 Furthermore, Neb-u-chad-rez'zar the king of Babylon gave command concerning Jeremiah by means of Neb-u'zar-ad'an the chief of the bodyguard, saying: 12 "Take him and keep your own eyes set upon him, and do not do to him anything bad at all.^f But just as he may speak to you, so do with him."^g

13 Accordingly Neb-u'zar-ad'an^h the chief of the bodyguard and Neb-u-shaz'ban the Rab'saris,* and Ner'gal-share'zer the Rab'mag and all the principal menⁱ of the king of Babylon sent; 14 they even proceeded to send and take Jeremiah out of the Courtyard of the Guard^j and give him over to Ged-a-li'ah^k the son of A-hi'kam^k the son of Sha'phan,^l in order to bring him forth to [his] house, that he might dwell in the midst of the people.

15 And to Jeremiah the word of Jehovah occurred while he happened to be shut up in the Courtyard of the Guard,^m saying: 16 "Go, and you must say to E'bed-mel'echⁿ the E-thi-o'pian, 'This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: "Here I am bringing true my words upon this city for calamity and not for good,^o and they will certainly happen before you in that day."^p

17 "And I will deliver you in that day,^q is the utterance of Jehovah, 'and you will not be given into the hand of the men of whom you yourself are scared.'^r

18 "For I shall without fail furnish you an escape, and by the sword you will not fall; and you will certainly come to have your soul as a spoil,^s because you have trusted in me," is the utterance of Jehovah."

Jer 39:13* See vs 3 ftn, "Rabsaris." 13 Or, "the chiefs of." Heb., rab-beh.

40 The word that occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah after Neb-u'zar-ad'an^a the chief of the bodyguard sent him from Ra'mah,^b when he took him while he was bound with handcuffs in the midst of all the exiles of Jerusalem and of Judah, who were being taken into exile in Babylon.^c 2 Then the chief of the bodyguard took Jeremiah and said to him: "Jehovah your God himself spoke this calamity against this place,^d 3 that Jehovah might bring [it] true and do just as he has spoken, because YOU people have sinned against Jehovah and have not obeyed his voice. And this thing has happened to YOU.^e 4 And now, look! I have let you loose today from the handcuffs that were upon your hands. If it is good in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, come, and I shall keep my eye upon you.^f But if it is bad in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, refrain. See! The entire land is before you. To wherever it is good and right in your eyes to go, go there."^g

5 And he was yet not one that would return, when [Neb-u'zar-ad'an said]: "Do return to Ged-a-li'ah^h the son of A-hi'-kamⁱ the son of Sha'phan,^j whom the king of Babylon has commissioned over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him in the midst of the people; or to wherever it is right in your eyes to go, go."^k

And the chief of the bodyguard then gave him a food allowance and a present and let him go.^l 6 Accordingly Jeremiah came to Ged-a-li'ah^m the son of A-hi'-kam at Miz'pahⁿ and took up dwelling with him in the midst of the people who were left remaining in the land.

7 In time all the chiefs* of the military forces who were in the field,^o they and their men, got to hear that the king of Babylon had commissioned Ged-a-li'ah the son of A-hi'-kam over the land and that he had commissioned him [over] the men and women and little children and some of the lowly people of the land, who had not been taken into exile in Babylon.^p 8 So they came to Ged-a-li'ah at Miz'pah, even Ish'ma-el^q the son of Neth-a-ni'ah* and Jo-ha'nan^a and Jon'a-than, the sons of Ka-re'ah, and Se-rai'ah the son of Tan-hu'meth and the sons of E'phai the Ne-top'h'a-thite^b and Jez-a-ni'ah^c the son of the Ma-ac'a-thite,^d they and their men.^e 9 And Ged-a-li'-ah^f the son of A-hi'-kam^g the son of Sha'phan^h proceeded to swearⁱ to them and to their men, saying: "Do not be afraid of serving the Chal-de'ans. Continue dwelling in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you.^j 10 And as for me, here I am dwelling in Miz'pah,^k in order to stand before the Chal-de'ans who will come to us. And as for YOU yourselves, gather wine^l and summer fruits and oil and put [them] in YOUR vessels and dwell in YOUR cities that YOU have seized."

11 And all the Jews that were in Mo'ab and among the sons of Am'mon and in E'dom and those who were in all the [other] lands,^m they also heard that the king of Babylon had given a remnant to Judah and that he had commissioned over them Ged-a-li'ahⁿ the son of A-hi'-kam the son of Sha'phan. 12 And all the Jews began to return from all the places to which they had been dispersed, and they kept coming into the land of Judah to Ged-a-li'ah at Miz'pah.^o And they went gathering wine and summer fruits in very great quantity.

13 As for Jo-ha'nan^p the son of Ka-re'ah^q and all the chiefs of the military forces who were in the field,^r they came to Ged-a-li'ah at Miz'pah. 14 And they proceeded to say to him: "Do you not at all know that Ba'a-lis, the king of the sons of Am'mon,^s himself has sent Ish'ma-el^t the son of Neth-a-ni'ah^u to strike you to the soul?" But Ged-a-li'ah the son of A-hi'-kam did not believe them.^v

15 And Jo-ha'nan^w the son of Ka-re'-ah himself said to Ged-a-li'ah, in a place of concealment in Miz'pah: "I want to go, now, and strike down Ish'ma-el the son of Neth-a-ni'ah, as no one at all will know.^x Why should he strike you to the soul,* and why must all those of Judah who are being collected together to you be scattered and the remnant of Judah perish?"^a 16 But Ged-a-li'ah^b the son of A-hi'kam^c said to Jo-ha'nan the son of Ka-re'ah: "Do not do this thing, for it is a falsehood that you are speaking concerning Ish'ma-el."^d

41 So it came about in the seventh month that Ish'ma-el^e the son of Neth-a-ni'ah the son of E-lish'a-ma^f of the royal offspring^g and [of the] principal men of the king and ten other men with him^h came to Ged-a-li'ahⁱ the son of A-hi'kam at Miz'pah.^j And there they began to eat bread together in Miz'pah.^j 2 Then Ish'ma-el the son of Neth-a-ni'ah and the ten men that happened to be with him rose up and struck down Ged-a-li'ah the son of A-hi'kam the son of Sha'phan with the sword.^k So he put to death the one whom the king of Babylon had commissioned over the land.^l 3 And all the Jews who happened to be with him, that is, with Ged-a-li'ah, in Miz'pah, and the Chal-de'ans who were found there, that is, the men of war, Ish'ma-el struck down.

4 And it came about on the second day of the putting of Ged-a-li'ah to death, when there was no one at all that knew [it],^m 5 then there came men from She'chem,ⁿ from Shi'loh^o and from Sa-mar'i-a,^p eighty men with their beards shaved off^q and with their garments ripped apart and with cuts made upon themselves,^r and there were grain offering and frankincense^s in their hand to bring to the house of Jehovah. 6 So Ish'ma-el the son of Neth-a-ni'ah went out from Miz'pah to meet them, weeping while he was walking along.^t And it came about that as soon as he encountered them he proceeded to say to them: "Come to Ged-a-li'ah the son of A-hi'kam." 7 But it occurred that as soon as they came into the midst of the city, Ish'ma-el the son of Neth-a-ni'ah went slaughtering them [and throwing them]* into the midst of the cistern, he and the men that were with him.^a

8 But there were ten men that were found among them who immediately said to Ish'ma-el: "Do not put us to death, for there exist in our possession hidden treasures in the field, wheat and barley and oil and honey."^b So he refrained, and he did not put them to death in the midst of their brothers. 9 Now the cistern into which Ish'ma-el^c threw all the carcasses of the men that he had struck down was a great cistern,* the one that King A'sa had made because of Ba'a-sha the king of Israel.^d It was the one that Ish'ma-el the son of Neth-a-ni'ah^e filled with those slain.

10 Then Ish'ma-el took captive all the remnant of the people who were in Miz'pah,^e the daughters of the king^f and all the people who were remaining over in Miz'pah,^g whom Neb-u-zar-ad'an the chief of the bodyguard had put in the custody of Ged-a-li'ah the son of A-hi'kam.^h So Ish'ma-el the son of Neth-a-ni'ah took them captive and went off to cross over to the sons of Am'mon.ⁱ

11 In time Jo-ha'nan^j the son of Ka-re'ah and all the chiefs of the military forces^k who were with him got to hear all the bad that Ish'ma-el the son of Neth-a-ni'ah had done. 12 Consequently they took all the men and went off to fight against Ish'ma-el the son of Neth-a-ni'ah and found him by the abundant waters that were in Gib'e-on.^l

13 Then it came about that as soon as all the people that were with Ish'ma-el saw Jo-ha'nan the son of Ka-re'ah and all the chiefs of the military forces who were with him, they began to rejoice. 14 And all the people whom Ish'ma-el had led captive from Miz'pah^m proceeded to turn around and return and go to Jo-ha'nan the son of Ka-re'ah. 15 And as for Ish'ma-el the son of Neth-a-ni'ah, he escapedⁿ with eight men from before

Jo-ha'nān, that he might go to the sons of Am'mon.

16 Jo-ha'nān^a the son of Ka-re'ah and all the chiefs of the military forces who were with him now took all the remnant of the people whom they brought back from Ish'ma-el the son of Neth-a-ni'ah, from Miz'pah, after he had struck down Ged-a-li'ah^b the son of A-hi'kam, able-bodied men, men of war, and the wives and the little children and the court officials, whom he brought back from Gib'eon. 17 So they went and took up dwelling in the lodging place of Chim'ham that was beside Beth'le-hem,^c in order to go on and enter into Egypt,^d 18 because of the Chal-de'ans;^e for they had become afraid because of them,^f since Ish'ma-el the son of Neth-a-ni'ah had struck down Ged-a-li'ah the son of A-hi'kam,^g whom the king of Babylon had commissioned over the land.^h

42 Then all the chiefs of the military forces and Jo-ha'nānⁱ the son of Ka-re'ah and Jez-a-ni'ah^{*j} the son of Ho-shai'ah^k and all the people, from the smallest one even to the greatest one, approached 2 and said to Jeremiah the prophet: "May our request for favor, please, fall before you, and do you pray in our behalf to Jehovah your God,^l in behalf of all this remnant, for we have been left remaining, a few out of many,^m just as your eyes are seeing us. 3 And may Jehovah your God tell us the way in which we should walk and the thing that we should do."ⁿ

4 At that Jeremiah the prophet said to them: "I have heard. Here I am praying to Jehovah YOUR God according to YOUR words;^o and it will certainly occur that every word that Jehovah gives in answer to YOU I shall tell YOU.^p I shall not hold back from YOU a word."^q

5 And they, for their part, said to Jeremiah: "May Jehovah prove to be a true and faithful witness against us^r if it is not according to every word with which Jehovah your God sends you to us that we shall exactly do.^s 6 Whether good or bad, it is the voice of Jehovah our God to whom we are sending you that we shall obey, to the intent that it may go well with us because we obey the voice of Jehovah our God."^a

7 Now it came about at the end of ten days that the word of Jehovah proceeded to occur to Jeremiah.^b 8 So he called for Jo-ha'nān the son of Ka-re'ah and for all the chiefs of the military forces who were with him and for all the people, from the smallest one even to the greatest one;^c 9 and he went on to say to them: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel, to whom YOU sent me to cause your request for favor to fall before him,^d has said, 10 'If YOU will without fail keep dwelling in this land,^e I will also build YOU up and I shall not tear [YOU] down, and I will plant YOU and I shall not uproot [YOU];^f for I shall certainly feel regret over the calamity that I have caused to YOU.^g 11 Do not be afraid because of the king of Babylon, of whom YOU are in fear."^h

"Do not be afraid because of him,ⁱ is the utterance of Jehovah, 'for I am with YOU, in order to save YOU and to deliver YOU out of his hand.^j 12 And I shall give to YOU mercies, and he will certainly have mercy upon YOU and return YOU to YOUR own soil.^k

13 "But if YOU are saying: "No; we are not going to dwell in this land!" in order to disobey the voice of Jehovah YOUR God,^l 14 saying: "No, but into the land of Egypt we shall enter,^m where we shall see no war and the sound of the horn we shall not hear and for bread we shall not go hungry; and there is where we shall dwell";ⁿ 15 even now therefore hear the word of Jehovah, O remnant of Judah. This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: "If YOU yourselves positively set YOUR faces to enter into Egypt and YOU actually enter in to reside there as aliens,^o 16 it must also occur that the very sword of which YOU are afraid will there catch up with YOU in the land of Egypt,^p and the very famine at which YOU are in a fright will there closely follow after YOU to Egypt;^q and there is where YOU will die.^r 17 And it will come about that all the men that have set their faces to enter into Egypt to reside there as aliens will be the ones to die by the sword, by the famine and by the pestilence;^a and they will not come to have a survivor or an escapee, because of the calamity that I am bringing in upon them.”^b

18 “For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Just as my anger and my rage have been poured out upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem,^c so my rage will be poured out upon YOU because of YOUR entering into Egypt, and YOU will certainly become a curse and an object of astonishment and a malediction and a reproach,^d and you will no more see this place.’^e

19 “Jehovah has spoken against YOU, O remnant of Judah. Do not enter into Egypt.^f You should positively know that I have borne witness against YOU today,^g 20 that you have committed error against YOUR souls;^h for YOU yourselves have sent me to Jehovah YOUR God, saying, ‘Pray in our behalf to Jehovah our God; and according to everything that Jehovah our God says tell us that way, and we shall certainly do.’ⁱ 21 And I tell YOU today, but YOU will certainly not obey the voice of Jehovah YOUR God or anything with which he has sent me to YOU.^j 22 And now YOU should positively know that by the sword,^k by the famine and by the pestilence YOU will die in the place into which YOU do delight to enter to reside as aliens.”^l

43 Now it came about that as soon as Jeremiah finished speaking to all the people all the words of Jehovah their God with which Jehovah their God had sent him to them, even all these words,^m 2 Az-a-ri’ah the son of Ho-shai’ahⁿ and Jo-ha’nan^o the son of Ka-re’ah and all the presumptuous men^p proceeded to say to Jeremiah: “It is a falsehood that you are speaking.^q Jehovah our God has not sent you, saying, ‘Do not enter into Egypt to reside there as aliens.”^a 3 But Bar’uch^b the son of Ne-ri’ah is instigating you against us for the purpose of giving us into the hand of the Chal-de’ans, to put us to death or to take us into exile in Babylon.”^c

4 And Jo-ha’nan the son of Ka-re’ah and all the chiefs of the military forces and all the people did not obey the voice of Jehovah,^d to keep on dwelling in the land of Judah.^e 5 So Jo-ha’nan the son of Ka-re’ah and all the chiefs of the military forces took all the remnant of Judah that had returned from all the nations to which they had been dispersed, in order to reside for a while in the land of Judah,^f 6 even the able-bodied men and the wives and the little children and the daughters of the king^g and every soul^h that Neb-u’zar-ad’an^h the chief of the bodyguard had let stay with Ged-a-li’ahⁱ the son of A-hi’kam^j the son of Sha’phan,^k and Jeremiah the prophet and Bar’uch^l the son of Ne-ri’ah. 7 And they finally came into the land of Egypt,^m for they did not obey the voice of Jehovah; and they came gradually as far as Tah’pan-hes.ⁿ

8 Then the word of Jehovah occurred to Jeremiah in Tah’pan-hes, saying: 9 “Take in your hand great stones, and you must hide them in the mortar in the terrace of bricks that is at the entrance of the house of Phar’aoh in Tah’pan-hes before the eyes of the Jewish men.^o 10 And you must say to them, ‘This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said: “Here I am sending and I will take Neb-u-chad-rez-zar the king of Babylon,^p my servant,^q and I will place his throne right above these stones that I have hidden, and he will certainly extend his state tent^r over them. 11 And he must come in and strike the land of Egypt.^r Whoever is [due] for deadly plague will be for deadly plague, and whoever is [due] for captivity will be for captivity, and whoever is [due] for the sword will be for the sword.^s 12 And I will set a fire ablaze in the houses of the gods of Egypt;^t and he will certainly burn

44 The word that occurred to Jeremiah for all the Jews that were dwelling in the land of Egypt,^b the ones dwelling in Mig'dol^c and in Tah'panhes^d and in Noph^e and in the land of Path'ros,^f saying: 2 “This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘You yourselves have seen all the calamity that I have brought in upon Jerusalem^g and upon all the cities of Judah, and here they are a devastated place this day, and in them there is no inhabitant.^h 3 It is because of their badness that they did in order to offend me by going and making sacrificial smokeⁱ and rendering service to other gods whom they themselves had not known, neither YOU nor YOUR forefathers.^j 4 And I kept sending to YOU all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending,^k saying: “Do not do, please, this detestable sort of thing that I have hated.”^l 5 But they did not listen,^m nor did they incline their ear to turn back from their badness by not making sacrificial smoke to other gods.ⁿ 6 So my rage, and my anger, was poured out and it burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem;^o and they came to be a devastated place, a desolate waste, as at this day.”^p

7 “And now this is what Jehovah, the God of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Why are YOU causing a great calamity to YOUR souls,^q in order to cut off from yourselves man and woman, child and suckling,^r out of the midst of Judah, so that you do not leave over for yourselves a remnant; 8 by offending me with the works of YOUR hands by making sacrificial smoke to other gods^a in the land of Egypt, into which YOU are entering to reside as aliens; for the purpose of causing a cutting off of yourselves and for the purpose of YOUR becoming a malediction and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?^b

9 Have YOU forgotten the bad deeds of YOUR forefathers^c and the bad deeds of the kings of Judah^d and the bad deeds of their wives^e and YOUR own bad deeds and the bad deeds of YOUR wives,^f that they have done in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 And down to this day they did not feel crushed,^g and they did not become afraid,^h nor did they walk in my lawⁱ and in my statutes that I put before YOU and before YOUR forefathers.^j

11 “Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, has said, ‘Here I am setting my face against YOU for calamity and for cutting off all Judah.^k 12 And I will take the remnant of Judah who set their faces to enter into the land of Egypt to reside there as aliens,^l and they will all certainly come to their finish in the land of Egypt.^m They will fall by the sword; [and] by the famineⁿ they will come to their finish, from the smallest one even to the greatest one; by the sword and by the famine they will die. And they must become a curse, an object of astonishment and a malediction and a reproach.^o

13 And I will hold an accounting against those dwelling in the land of Egypt, just as I held an accounting against Jerusalem, with the sword, with the famine and with the pestilence.^p 14 And there will come to be no escapee or survivor for the remnant of Judah who are entering in to reside there as aliens, in the land of Egypt,^q even to return to the land of Judah to which they are lifting up their soul[ful desire] to return in order to dwell;^r for they will not return, except some escaped ones.’”

15 And all the men who were knowing that their wives had been making sacrificial smoke to other gods,^a and all the wives who were standing as a great congregation, and all the people who were dwelling in the land of Egypt,^b in Path'ros,^c proceeded to answer Jeremiah, saying: 16 "As regards the word that you have spoken to us in the name of Jehovah, we are not listening to you;^d 17 but we shall positively do every word that has gone forth from our mouth,^e in order to make sacrificial smoke to the 'queen of the heavens'^f and to pour^g out to her drink offerings,^h just as we ourselvesⁱ and our forefathers,^j our kings^k and our princes did in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, when we used to be satisfied with bread and to be well off, and we did not see any calamity at all.^k 18 And from the time that we ceased to make sacrificial smoke to the 'queen of the heavens' and pour out drink offerings to her we have lacked everything, and by the sword and by the famine we have come to our finish."^m

19 "Also, when* we were making sacrificial smoke to the 'queen of the heavens'ⁿ and [were disposed] to pour out drink offerings to her,^o did we without asking our husbands make for her sacrificial cakes, in order to make an image of her, and to pour out drink offerings to her?"^p

20 In turn Jeremiah said to all the people, to the able-bodied men and to the wives and to all the people, who were answering him with a word, saying: 21 "As for the sacrificial smoke that YOU made in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem,^q YOU^r and YOUR forefathers,^s YOUR kings^t and YOUR princes^u and the people of the land,* was it not this that Jehovah remembered and that proceeded to come up into his heart?^v 22 Finally Jehovah was no longer able to put up with

47 This is what proved to be the word of Jehovah to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philis'tines^c before Phar'aoh proceeded to strike down Ga'za.^d 2 This is what Jehovah has said:

“Look! Waters are coming^e up from the north^f and have become a flooding torrent. 7 “How can it stay quiet, when Jehovah himself has given a command to it? It is for Ash'ke-lon and for the coast of the sea.^x There is where he has designated it^y to be.”

La Title* In Hebrew this book is named by its first word. Heb., 'Eh-khah! "How!", Gr., Thre'noi, "Dirges; Laments." Vg^c(Lat.), "Thre'ni, that is, the Lamentations of Jeremiah the Prophet." 1:1* This chapter is a dirge in acrostic, or Heb. alphabetic, form with 22 sections to correspond to the 22 letters of the Heb. alphabet, each successive section beginning with the successive letter of the Heb. alphabet as indicated above each section. Compare Ps 119:1 ftns. 1^a LXX gives the following introduction to vs 1: "And it occurred that, after Israel had been taken captive and Jerusalem had been desolated, Jeremiah sat down weeping and lamented with this lamentation over Jerusalem and said." Vg^{mas} introduce as follows: "And it occurred that, after Israel had been led away into captivity and Jerusalem was deserted, Jeremiah the prophet sat weeping and wailed with this lamentation over Jerusalem; and sighing with a bitter spirit, and moaning woefully, he said." T introduces as follows: "Jeremiah the prophet and great priest said."

and broken her bars in pieces. Her king and her princes are among the nations.^a There is no law.^b

Her own prophets also have found no vision from Jehovah.^c

* [Yohdh]

10 The older men of the daughter of Zion sit down on the earth, [where] they keep silence.^d

They have brought up dust upon their head.^e They have girded on sackcloth.^f

The virgins of Jerusalem have brought their head down to the very earth.^g

□ [Kaph]

11 My eyes have come to their end in sheer tears.^h My intestines are in a ferment.ⁱ

My liver has been poured out to the very earth,^j on account of the crash of the daughter of my people.^k

Because of the fainting away of child and suckling in the public squares of the town.^l

□ [La'medh]

12 To their mothers they kept saying: "Where are grain and wine?"^m

Because of their fainting away like someone slain in the public squares of the city,

Because of their soul being poured out into the bosom of their mothers.

□ [Mem]

13 Of what shall I use you as a witness? What shall I liken to you, O daughter of Jerusalem?ⁿ

What shall I make equal to you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion?^o

For your breakdown^p is just as great as the sea. Who can bring healing to you?^q

□ [Nun]

14 Your own prophets have visioned for you worthless and unsatisfying things,^a

And they have not uncovered your error in order to turn back your captivity,^b

But they kept visioning for you worthless and misleading pronouncements.^c

□ [Sa'mekh]

15 At you all those passing along on the road have clapped their hands.^d

They have whistled^e and kept wagging their head^f at the daughter of Jerusalem, [saying:]

"Is this the city of which they used to say, 'It is the perfection of prettiness, an exultation for all the earth?'"^g

□ [Pe']

16 At you all your enemies have opened their mouth.^h

They have whistled and kept grinding the teeth.ⁱ They have said: "We will swallow [her]"^j down.^k

This indeed is the day that we have hoped for.^k We have found! We have seen!"^l

□ [A'yin]

17 Jehovah has done what he had in mind.^m He has accomplished his saying,ⁿ

What he had commanded from the days of long ago.^o He has torn down and shown no compassion.^p

And over you he causes the enemy to rejoice.^q He has made the horn of your adversaries high.^r

□ [Tsa-dheh']

There were in the midst of her those pouring out the blood of righteous ones.^a

J [Nun]

- 14 They have wandered about as blind^b in the streets.^c They have become polluted with blood,^d

So that none are able to touch their garments.^e

□ [Sa'mekh]

- 15 "Get out of the way! Unclean!"^f they have called out to them. "Get out of the way! Get out of the way! Do not touch!"^g

For they have gone homeless.^h They have also wandered about.ⁱ People have said among the nations: "They will not reside again as aliens."^j

- 16 The face of Jehovah has divided them up.^k He will not look upon them again.^l

Men will certainly show no consideration even for the priests.^m They will certainly show no favor even to the old men.ⁿ

▷ [A'yin]

During our looking about we have looked out to a nation that can bring no salvation.^p

▷ [Tsa-dheh']

- 18 They have hunted our steps^q so that there is no walking in our public squares.

Our end has drawn near. Our days have come to their full, for our end has come.^r

▷ [Qohph]

EZEKIEL*

1 Now it came about in the thirtieth year, in the fourth [month], on the fifth [day] of the month, while I was in the midst of the exiled^a people by the river Che'bar,^b that the heavens were opened^c and I began to see visions of God.^{*d} 2 On the fifth [day] of the month, that is, [in] the fifth year of the exile of King Je-hoi'a-chin,^{*e} 3 the word of Jehovah occurred^f specifically to Ezekiel^g the son of Bu'zi the priest in the land of the Chal-de'ans^h by the river Che'bar, and upon him in that place the hand of Jehovah came to be.ⁱ

4 And I began to see, and, look! there was a tempestuous wind^{*j} coming from the north, a great cloud mass^k and quivering fire,^l and it^m had a brightness all around, and out of the midst of itⁿ there was something like the look of electrum,^o out of the midst of the fire.^m 5 And out of the midst of it there was the likeness of four living creatures,^{*n} and this was how they looked: they had some ice, stretched out over their heads up above.^a 23 And under the expanse their wings were straight, one to the other. Each one had two wings covering on this side and each one had two covering on that side their bodies. 24 And I got to hear the sound of their wings, a sound like that of vast waters,^b like the sound of the Almighty One, when they went, the sound of a tumult,^c like the sound of an encampment.^d When they stood still, they would let their wings down.

25 And there came to be a voice above the expanse that was over their head. (When they stood still, they would let their wings down.) 26 And above the expanse that was over their head there was something in appearance like sapphire stone,^e the likeness of a throne.^f And upon the likeness of the throne there was a likeness of someone in appearance like an earthling man upon it,^g up above. 27 And I got to see something like the glow of electrum,^h like the appearance of fire all around inside thereof,ⁱ from the appearance of his hips and upward; and from the appearance of his hips and downward I saw something like the appearance of fire, and he had a brightness all around. 28 There was something like the appearance of the bow^j that occurs in a cloud mass on the day of a pouring rain. 21 “For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘So, too, [it will be] when there will be my four injurious acts of judgment^b—sword and famine and injurious wild beast and pestilence^c—that I shall actually send upon Jerusalem in order to cut off from it earthling man and domestic animal.’^d 22 But, look! there will certainly be left remaining in it an escaped company, those being brought forth.^e Sons and daughters, here they are! 23 “‘And they will certainly comfort you people when you see their way and their dealings; and you will have to know that it was not without cause that I shall have done all that I must do against^{*} her,’ is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.”^g

15 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 “Son of man, in what way does the vine^h tree happen to be different from every other tree, the shoot, that has come to be among the trees of the forest? 3 Is there taken from it a pole with which to do some work? 17 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, propound a riddle^a and compose a proverbial saying toward the house of Israel.^b 3 And you must say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "The great eagle,^c having great wings,^d with long pinions, full of plumage, which had color variety, came to Leb'a-non^e and proceeded to take the treetop^f of the cedar.^g 4 He plucked off the very top of its young shoots and came bringing it to the land of Ca'-naan,^h in a city of traders he placed it. 5 Furthermore, he took some of the seed of the landⁱ and put it in a field for seed. As a willow by vast waters,^j as a willow tree he placed it. 6 And it began to sprout and gradually became a luxuriantly growing vine low in height,^k inclined to turn its foliage inward; and as for its roots, they gradually came to be under it. And it finally became a vine and produced shoots and sent forth branches.^l

7 " "And there came to be another great eagle,^m having great wings, and having large pinions,ⁿ and, look! this very vine stretched its roots hungrily toward him.^o And its foliage it thrust out to him in order [for him] to irrigate it, away from the garden beds where it was planted.^p 8 Into a good field, by vast waters, it was already transplanted,^q in order to produce boughs and to bear fruit, to become a majestic vine."^r

9 "Say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Will it have success?^s Will not someone tear out its very roots^t and make its very fruit scaly? And must [not] all its freshly plucked sprouts become dry?^u It will become dry. Neither by a great arm nor by a multitudinous people will it have to be lifted up from its roots. 10 And, look! although transplanted, will it have success? Will it not dry up completely, even as when the east wind touches it?^v In the garden beds of its sprout it will dry up."^w

11 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 12 "Say, please, to the rebellious house,^x 'Do you people actually not know what these things mean?" Say, 'Look! The king of Babylon* came to Jerusalem and proceeded to take its king^a and its princes and bring them to himself at Babylon.^b 13 Furthermore, he took one of the royal seed^c and concluded* a covenant with him and brought him into an oath;^d and the foremost men of the land he took away,^e 14 in order that the kingdom might become low,^f unable to lift itself up, that by keeping his covenant it* might stand.^g 15 But he finally rebelled^h against him in sending his messengersⁱ to Egypt, [for it] to give him horses^j and a multitudinous people. Will he have success? Will he escape, he who is doing these things, and who has broken a covenant? And will he actually escape?"^j

16 "'As I am alive,"^k is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, "in the place of the king who put in as king the one that despised his oath^l and that broke his covenant, with him in the midst of Babylon he will die.^m 17 And by a great military force and by a multitudinous congregation Pharaoh will not make him effective in the war," by throwing up a siege rampart and by building a siege wall, in order to cut off many souls.ⁿ 18 And he has despised an oath^p in breaking a covenant, and, look! he had given his hand^q and has done even all these things. He will not make his escape."^r

19 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "As I am alive, surely my oath that he has despised^s and my covenant that he has broken—I will even bring it upon his head. 20 And I will spread over him my net, and he will certainly be caught in my hunting net;^t and I will bring him to Babylon and put myself on judgment with him there respecting his unfaithfulness with which he acted against me."^u 21 And as regards all the fugitives of his in all his bands, by the

30 And the word of Jehovah continued to occur to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, prophesy, and you must say,^d 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "Howl, you people, 'Alas for the day!'^e 3 for a day is near, yes, a day belonging to Jehovah is near.^f A day of clouds,^g an appointed time of nations it will prove to be.^h 4 And a sword will certainly come into Egypt,ⁱ and severe pains must occur in E-thi-o'pi-a* when one falls slain in Egypt and they actually take its wealth and its foundations are actually torn down.^j 5 E-thi-o'pi-a* and Put^k and Lud and all the mixed company*^m and Chub and the sons of the land of the covenant—with them they will fall by the very sword."ⁿ Jehovah has said, 'I will also cause the crowd of Egypt to cease by the hand of Neb-u-chad-rez'zar the king of Babylon.^a 11 He and his people with him, the tyrants of [the] nations,^b are being brought in to reduce the land to ruin. And they must draw their swords against Egypt and fill the land with the slain.^c 12 And I will make the Nile canals^d dry ground and will sell the land into the hand of bad men,^e and I will cause the land and its fullness to be desolated by the hand of strangers.^f I myself, Jehovah, have spoken."^g

13 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'I will also destroy the dungy idols^h and cause the valueless gods to cease out of Noph,ⁱ and there will no more prove to be a chieftain out of the land of Egypt; and I shall certainly put fear in the land of Egypt.^j 14 And I will bring Path'ros^k to desolation and set a fire in Zo'an^l and execute acts of judgment in No.^m 15 And I will pour out my rageⁿ upon Sin,* the fortress of Egypt, and cut off the crowd of No.^o 16 And I will set a fire in Egypt. Sin will without fail be in severe pains, and No itself will come to be for capture by breaches; and as regards Noph—there will be adversaries during the daytime! 17 As for the young men of On*^p and Pi-be'seth, by the sword they will fall, and into captivity the [cities] themselves will go. 18 And in Te-haph'ne-hes^q the day will actually grow dark, when I break there the yoke bars of Egypt.^r And in her the pride of her strength will actually be made to cease.^s As for her, clouds themselves will cover her,^t and into captivity her own dependent towns* will go.^u 19 And I will execute acts of judgment in Egypt;^v and they will have to know that I am Jehovah."^w

22 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'Here I am against Phar'aoth the king of Egypt,^c and I will break his arms,^d the strong one and the broken one,^e and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.^f 23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the lands.^g 24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon^h and give my sword into his hand,ⁱ and I will break the arms of Phar'aoth, and as a deadly wounded one he will certainly do a great deal of groaning before him.^j 25 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the very arms of Phar'aoth will fall; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I give my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he actually extends it out against the land of Egypt.^k 26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations^l and disperse them among the lands; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah.'

the fifth day of the month of our exile, that there came to me the escaped one from Jerusalem,^a saying: "The city has been struck down!"^b

22 Now the very hand of Jehovah had come to be upon me in the evening before the coming of the escaped one,^c and He proceeded to open my mouth prior to [that one's] coming to me in the morning, and my mouth was opened and I proved to be speechless no longer.^d

23 And the word of Jehovah began to occur to me, saying: 24 "Son of man, the inhabitants of these devastated places^e are saying even concerning the soil of Israel, 'Abraham happened to be just one and yet he took possession of the land.'^f And we are many; to us the land has been given as something to possess.'^g

25 "Therefore say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "With* the blood you keep eating,^h and your eyes you keep lifting to your duncy idols,ⁱ and blood you keep pouring out.^j So should you possess the land?^k 26 You have depended* upon your sword.^l You* have done a detestable thing,^m and you have defiled each one the wife of his companion.ⁿ So should you possess the land?"^o

27 "This is what you should say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: "As I am alive, surely the ones who are in the devastated places will fall by the sword itself;^p and the one who is upon the surface of the field, to the wild beast I shall certainly give him for food;^q and those who are in the strong places and in the caves^r will die by the pestilence itself. 28 And I shall actually make the land a desolate waste,^s even a desolation, and the pride of its strength must be made to cease^t and the mountains of Israel must be laid desolate,^u with no one passing through. 29 And they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I make the land a desolate waste,^v even a desolation, on

31 And they will come in to you, like the coming in of people, and sit before you as my people;^d and they will certainly hear your words but these they will not do,^e for with their mouth they are expressing lustful desires [and] after their unjust gain is where their heart is going.^f 32 And, look! you are to them like a song of sensuous loves, like one with a pretty voice and playing a stringed instrument well.^g And they will certainly hear your words, but there are none doing them.^h 33 And when it comes true—look! it must come trueⁱ—they will also have to know that a prophet himself had proved to be in the midst of them.”^j

33 “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘In the day of my cleansing YOU from all YOUR errors I will also cause the cities to be inhabited,^d and the devastated places must be rebuilt.’^e 34 And the desolated land itself will be cultivated, whereas it had become a desolate waste before the eyes of every passerby.^f 35 And people will certainly say: “That land yonder which was laid desolate has become like the garden* of E’den,^g and the cities that were a waste and that were laid desolate and that were torn down are fortified; they have become inhabited.”^h 36 And the nations that will be left remaining round about YOU will have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have built the things torn down,ⁱ I have planted what has been laid desolate. I myself, Jehovah, have spoken and I have done [it].”^j

37 “This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, ‘This is what I shall yet let myself be searched for by the house of Israel to do for them:^k I shall multiply them like a flock with men.*^l 38 Like a flock of holy persons, like the flock of Jerusalem in her festal seasons,^m thus the cities that had been a waste will become full of a flock of men;ⁿ and people will have to know that I am Jehovah.”

37 The hand of Jehovah proved to be upon me,^o so that he brought me forth in the spirit* of Jehovah^p and set me down in the midst of the valley plain, and it was full of bones.^q 2 And he had me pass along by them all round about, and, look! there were

5 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said to these bones: "Here I am bringing into YOU breath,* and you must come to life."^c 6 And I will put upon YOU sinews and cause to come upon YOU flesh, and I will overlay upon YOU skin and put in YOU breath, and YOU must come to life;^d and YOU will have to know that I am Jehovah."^e

7 And I prophesied just as I had been commanded.^f And a sound began to occur as soon as I prophesied, and here there was a rattling, and bones began to approach, bone to its bone. 8 And I saw, and, look! upon them sinews themselves and flesh itself came up and skin began to be overlaid upon them above. 10 And I prophesied just as he had commanded me, and the breath proceeded to come into them, and they began to live and stand upon their feet,ⁱ a very, very great military force.

11 And he went on to say to me: "Son of man, as regards these bones, they are the whole house of Israel.^j Here they are saying, 'Our bones have become dry, and our hope has perished.^k We have been severed off to ourselves.' 12 Therefore prophecy, and you must say to them, 'This is what the Sover-

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile,^a in the start of the year, on the tenth [day] of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city had been struck down,^b on this very same day the hand of Jehovah proved to be upon me,^c so that he brought me to that place.^d 2 In the visions of God* he brought me to the land of Israel and gradually set me down upon a very high mountain,^e on which there was something like the structure of a city to the south.^f

3 And he proceeded to bring me there, and, look! there was a man.* His appearance was like the appearance of copper,^g and there was a flax cord in his hand, and a measuring reed,^h and he was standing in the gate.^h 4 And the man began to speak to me: “Son of man,ⁱ see with your eyes, and with your ears hear, and set your heart upon all that I am showing you, because for the purpose of [my] showing you, you have been brought here. Tell everything that you are seeing to the house of Israel.”^j

5 And, look! there was a wall outside the house all round about. And in the hand of the man there was the measuring reed* of six cubits, by a cubit and a handbreadth.^k And he began to measure the breadth of the thing built,^l one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 Then he came to the gate, the front of which is toward the east,^k and went up by its steps. And he began to measure the threshold of the gate,^l one reed in width, and the other threshold, one reed in width. 7 And the guard chamber was one reed in length and one

Hence, a “measuring reed of six cubits” equaled 3.11 m (10.2 ft). 5* “The thing built.” Heb., hab-bin-yan; LXX, “outer (advance) wall.”

reed in width, and between the guard chambers^a there were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate beside the porch of the gate toward the interior was one reed.

8 And he proceeded to measure the porch of the gate toward the interior, one reed.^b 9 So he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its side pillars,* two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the interior.

10 And the guard chambers of the gate toward the east were three on this side and three on that side. The three of them were of the same measurement, and the side pillars were of the same measurement, on this side and on that side.

11 Then he measured the width of the entrance of the gate, ten cubits; the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 And the fenced area in front of the guard chambers was one cubit, and there was a fenced area of one cubit on [either] side. And the guard chamber was six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side.

13 And he went on to measure the gate from the roof of the [one] guard chamber to the roof of the other, a width of twenty-five cubits;^c entrance was across from entrance. 14 Then he made side pillars of sixty cubits, even to the side pillar[s] of the courtyard in the gate[s] all around.* 15 And by the front of the gate of the entryway [to] by the front of the porch of the inner gate was fifty cubits.

16 And there were windows of narrowing frames^d for the guard chambers and for their side pillars toward the inside of the gate all around, and that is the way it was for the porches. And the windows were all around toward the inside, and on the side pillars there were palm-tree figures.^e

19 And he proceeded to measure the width from in front of the lower gate to the front of the inner courtyard. Outside it was a hundred cubits, to the east and to the north.

20 And the outer courtyard had a gate the front of which was toward the north. He measured its length and its width. 21 And its guard chambers were three on this side and three on that side. Eze 41:6

was a canopy of wood over the front of the porch outside. 26 And there were windows of narrowing frames^a and palm-tree figures over here and over there along the sides of the porch and the side chambers of the house and the canopies.

42 And he gradually brought me forth^b to the outer courtyard* by the way toward the north.^c And he proceeded to bring me to the dining-room^d [block] that was in front of the separated area^{ee} and that was in front of the building^e to the north. 2 Before the length of a hundred cubits there was the north entrance, and the width was fifty cubits. 3 In front of the twenty [cubits] that belonged to the inner courtyard^f and in front of the pavement^g that belonged to the outer courtyard there was gallery^h opposite gallery in three [stories]. 4 And before the dining rooms there was a walkway ten cubits in width to the inside,ⁱ a way of one cubit,* and their entrances were to the north. 5 And as for the dining rooms, the uppermost ones were shorter, for the galleries took away from them, more than the lowest ones and than the middle ones, as regards [the] building. 6 For they were in three stories,^j and they had no pillars like the pillars of the courtyards. That is why more room was taken away than from the lowest ones and from the middle ones from the floor.

7 And the stone wall that was outside was close by the dining rooms toward the outer courtyard before the [other] dining rooms. Its length was fifty cubits. 8 For the length of the dining rooms that were toward the outer courtyard was fifty cubits, and, look! before the temple it was a hundred cubits. 9 And from below these dining rooms the entryway was to the east, when one comes in to them from the outer courtyard.

10 In the width of the stone wall of the courtyard toward the east, before the separated area^a and before the building, there were dining rooms.^b

11 And there was a way before them like the appearance of the dining rooms that were toward the north,^c so their length was [and] so their width was; and all their exits [were alike], and their plans alike and their entrances alike.

12 And like the entrances of the dining rooms that were toward the south was the entrance at the head of the way, the way before the corresponding stone wall toward the east, when one comes in to them.^d

13 And he proceeded to say to me: "The dining rooms of the north [and] the dining rooms of the south that are before the separated area,^e they are the holy dining rooms,* where the priests who are approaching^f Jehovah eat the most holy things.^g There they deposit the most holy things and the grain offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering, because the place is holy.^h

14 When they, the priests, have come in, they will not also go out from the holy place* to the outer courtyard, but there they will deposit their garments in which they customarily minister,ⁱ for they are something holy. They will clothe themselves with other garments,^j and must approach to what has to do with the people."

15 And he finished the measurements of the inner house, and he brought me out by the way of the gate the front of which was toward the east,^k and he measured it all around.

16 He measured the eastern side* with the measuring reed. It was five hundred reeds,^l by the measuring reed,¹ round about.

17 He measured the northern side, five hundred reeds,* by the measuring reed, round about.

Jehovah has said, "That is enough of you, O chieftains of Israel!"^a

"Remove the violence and the despoiling,^b and do justice and righteousness themselves.^c Lift your expropriations^d off my people,"^d is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. 10 'Accurate scales and an accurate e'phah and an accurate bath measure you men should come to have.^e 11 As regards the e'phah and the bath measure, there should come to be but one fixed amount, for the bath* to carry a tenth of a ho'mer^f and the tenth of the ho'mer an e'phah,^g with reference to the ho'mer, its required amount should prove to be. 12 And the shekel*^h is twenty ge'rahs.^h Twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, fifteen shekels should prove to be the ma'neh for you.ⁱ

13 "This is the contribution that you should offer, the sixth part of the e'phah from the ho'mer of wheat, and the sixth part of the e'phah from the ho'mer of barley; 14 and as for the allowance of the oil, there is the bath measure of the oil. The bath is a tenth of the cor. Ten baths are a ho'mer; because ten baths are a ho'mer. 15 And one sheep out of the flock, out of two hundred from the livestock* of Israel,^j for the grain offering^j and for the whole burnt offering^k and for the communion sacrifices,^l in order to make atonement for them,^m is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

16 "As for all the people of the land,* they will be responsible for this contributionⁿ to the chieftain in Israel.^o 17 And upon the chieftain^p will devolve the whole burnt offerings^q and the grain offering^r and the drink offerings^s during the festivals^t and during the new moons^u and during the sabbaths,^v during all the festal seasons of the house of Israel.^a He will be the one to provide the sin offering and the grain offering and the whole burnt offering and the communion sacrifices, in order to make atonement in behalf of the house of Israel.^b

18 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, 'In the first [month], on the first [day] of the month, you should take a young bull, a son of the herd, a sound one,^b and you must purify the sanctuary* from sin.^c 19 And the priest must take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it upon the doorpost*^d of the House and upon the four corners of the surrounding ledge belonging to the altar^e and upon the doorpost of the gate of the inner courtyard. 20 And that is how you will do on the seventh [day] in the month because of any man* making a mistake^f and because of any inexperienced one; and YOU people must make atonement for the House.^g

21 "In the first [month], on the fourteenth day of the month, there should occur for YOU the passover.^h As a festival for seven days unfermented cakes* are what should be eaten.ⁱ 22 And on that day, in his own behalf and in behalf of all the people of the land, the chieftain must provide a young bull as a sin offering.^j 23 And for the seven days of the festival^k he should provide as a whole burnt offering to Jehovah seven young bulls and seven rams, sound ones, daily for the seven days,^l and as a sin offering a buck of the goats daily. 24 And as a grain offering an e'phah for the young bull and an e'phah for the ram he should provide, and, as regards oil, a hin to the e'phah.^m

19 And he proceeded to bring me in by the entryway^d that was by the side of the gate to the holy dining rooms, those belonging to the priests, that were facing to the north,^e and, look! there was a place there on both rear sides* to the west. 20 And he proceeded to say to me: "This is the place where the priests will boil the guilt offeringⁱ and the sin offering,^g [and] where they will bake the grain offering,^h in order to carry nothing out to the outer courtyard so as to sanctify the people."^{ji}

47 And gradually he brought me back to the entrance of the House,^b and, look! there was water^c going forth from under the threshold of the House eastward,^d for the front of the House was east. And the water was going down from under, from the right-hand side of the House, south of the altar.

3 When the man* went forth eastward with a measuring line in his hand,^h he also proceeded to measure a thousand in cubits and to make me pass through the water, water [up] to the ankles.^h

4 And he continued measuring a thousand and then made me pass through the water, water [up] to the knees.

And he continued measuring a thousand and now made me pass through—water [up] to the hips.

5 And he continued measuring a thousand. It was a torrent that I was not able to pass through, for the water had got high, water [permitting] swimming, a torrent that could not be passed through.

6 At that he said to me: "Have you seen [this], O son of man?"

Then he had me walk and had me return* [to] the bank of the torrent.

7 When I returned, why, look! on the bank of the torrent there were very many trees, on this side and on that side.ⁱ 8 And he went on to say to me: "This water is going forth to the eastern region and must go down through the Ar'a-bah.*^j And it must come to the

DANIEL

1 In the third year of the kingship of Je-hoi'a-kim^a the king of Judah, Neb-u-chad-nez'zar the king of Babylon^a came to Jerusalem and proceeded to lay siege to it.^b 2 In time Jehovah^c gave into his hand Je-hoi'a-kim the king of Judah^c and a part of the utensils^d of the house of the [true] God,^e so that he brought them to the land of Shi'nar^{ae} to the house of his god; and the utensils he brought to the treasure-house of his god.^{af}

Chal-de'ans. 5 Furthermore, to them the king appointed a daily allowance from the delicacies^a of the king and from his drinking wine, even to nourish them for three years, that at the end of these they might stand before the king.

6 Now there happened to be among them some of the sons of Judah, Daniel,^b Han-a-ni'ah, Mish'a-el and Az-a-ri'ah.^c 7 And to them the principal court official went assigning names.^d So he assigned to Daniel [the name of] Bel-teshaz'zar;^e and to Han-a-ni'ah, Sha'drach; and to Mish'a-el, Me'shach; and to Az-a-ri'ah, A-bed'ne-go.^f

8 But Daniel determined in his heart that he would not pollute^g himself with the delicacies of the king and with his drinking wine. And he kept requesting of the principal court official that he might not pollute himself.^h 9 Accordingly the [true] God gave Daniel over to loving-kindnessⁱ and to mercy before the principal court official.^j 10 So the principal court official said to Daniel: "I am in fear of my lord^k the king, who has appointed YOUR food and YOUR drink.^l Why, then, should he see YOUR faces dejected-looking in comparison with the children who are of the same age as YOURS, and [why] should YOU have to make my head guilty to the king?" 11 But Daniel said to the guardian whom the principal court official^a had appointed over Daniel, Han-a-ni'ah, Mish'a-el and Az-a-ri'ah: 12 "Please, put your servants to the test for ten days, and let them give us some vegetables^b that we may eat and water that we may drink; 13 and let our countenances and the countenance of the children who are eating the delicacies of the king appear before you, and according to what you see do with your servants."

14 Finally he listened to them as regards this matter and put them to the test for ten days. 15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared better and fatter in flesh than all the children who were eating the delicacies of the king.^c 16 So the guardian kept on taking away their delicacies and their drinking wine and giving them vegetables.^d 17 And as for these children, the four of them, to them the [true] God gave knowledge and insight in all writing and wisdom;^e and Daniel himself had understanding in all sorts of visions and dreams.^f

18 And at the end of the days that the king had said to bring them in,^g the principal court official also proceeded to bring them in before Neb-u-chad-nez'zar. 19 And the king began to speak with them, and out of them all no one was found like Daniel, Han-a-ni'ah, Mish'a-el and Az-a-ri'ah;^h and they continued to stand before the king.ⁱ 20 And as regards every matter of wisdom [and] understanding^j that the king inquired about from them, he even got to find them ten times better than all the magic-practicing priests^k [and] the conjurers^l that were in all his royal realm. 21 And Daniel continued on until the first year of Cyrus* the king.^m

2 And in the second year of the kingship of Neb-u-chad-nez'zar, Neb-u-chad-nez'zar dreamed dreams;ⁿ and his spirit began to feel agitated,^o and his very sleep was made to be something beyond him. 2 So the king said to call the magic-practicing priests^a and the conjurers and the sorcerers and the Chal-de'ans to tell the king his dreams.^b And they proceeded to come in and to stand before the king. 3 Then the king said to them: "There is a dream that I have dreamed, and my spirit is agitated to know the dream." 4 At that the Chal-de'ans spoke to the king in the Ar-a-ma'ic language:^{*c} "O king, live on even for times indefinite.^d Say what the dream is to your servants, and we shall show the very interpretation."^e

5 The king was answering and saying to the Chal-de'ans: "The word is being promulgated by me: If YOU men do not make the dream known to me, and its interpretation, dismembered^f is what YOU will be, and into public privies YOUR own houses will be turned.^g 6 But if the dream and its interpretation YOU will show, gifts and a present and much dignity YOU will receive on my part.^h Therefore show me the very dream and its interpretation."

7 They answered a second time and were saying: "Let the king say what the dream is to his servants, and we shall show its very interpretation."

8 The king was answering and saying: "For a fact, I am aware that time is what YOU men are trying to gain, forasmuch as YOU have perceived that the word is being promulgated by me. 9 For if YOU do not make known to me the very dream, this one and only sentenceⁱ is upon you. But it is a lying and wrong word that YOU have agreed to say before me,^j until the time itself is changed. Therefore tell me the very dream, and I shall know that YOU can show the very interpretation of it."

10 The Chal-de'ans answered before the king, and they were saying: "There does not exist a man on the dry land that is able to show the matter of the king, forasmuch as no grand king or governor has asked such a thing as this of any magic-practicing priest or conjurer or Chal-de'an. 11 But the thing that the king himself is asking is difficult, and nobody else exists who can show it before the king except the gods,*^a whose own dwelling does not exist with flesh at all.^b

12 Because of this the king himself became angry and got very furious,^c and he said to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.^d 13 And the order itself went out, and the wise men were about to be killed;^e and they looked for Daniel and his companions, for them to be killed.

14 At that time Daniel,* for his part, addressed himself with counsel and sensibleness^f to Ar'i-och the chief of the king's bodyguard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon. 15 He was answering and saying to Ar'i-och the officer of the king: "For what reason is there such a harsh order on the part of the king?" Then it was that Ar'i-och made known the matter itself to Daniel.^g 16 So Daniel himself went in and asked from the king that he should give him time expressly to show the very interpretation to the king.^h

17 After that Daniel went to his own house; and to Han-a-ni'ah, Mish'a-el and Az-a-ri'ah his companions he made known the matter, 18 even [for them] to ask for merciesⁱ on the part of the God* of heaven^j concerning this secret,^k in order that they might not destroy Daniel and his companions with the remainder of the wise men of Babylon.^l

19 Then it was that to Daniel in a night vision the secret was revealed.^m Consequently Daniel himself blessedⁿ the God of heaven.* 20 Daniel was answering and saying: "Let the name of God* become blessed^o from time indefinite even to time indefinite, for wisdom and mightiness—for they belong

24 Because of this Daniel himself went in to Ar'i-och,^k whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon.^l He went, and this is what he said to him: "Do not destroy any wise men of Babylon. Take me in before the king,^m that I may show the interpretation itself to the king."

25 Then it was that Ar'i-och, in a hurry, took Daniel in before the king, and this is what he said to him: "I have found an able-bodied man of the exiles*ⁿ of Judah who can make known the interpretation itself to the king."^o 26 The king was answering and saying to Daniel, whose name was Bel-te-shaz-zar:^p "Are you competent enough to make known to me the dream that I beheld, and its interpretation?"^q 27 Daniel was answering before the king and saying: "The secret that the king himself is asking, the wise men, the conjurers, the magic-practicing priests [and] the astrologers themselves are unable to show to the king.^r 28 However, there exists a God* in the heavens who is a Revealer of secrets,^s and he has made known to King Neb-u-chad-nez-zar^t what is to occur in the final part of the days.^u Your dream and the visions of your head upon your bed—this it is:

31 "You, O king, happened to be beholding, and, look! a certain immense image. That image, which was large and the brightness of which was extraordinary, was standing in front of you, and its appearance was dreadful.

32 As regards that image, its head was of good gold,^d its breasts and its arms were of silver,^e its belly and its thighs were of copper,^f 33 its legs were of iron,^g its feet were partly of iron and partly of molded clay.^h 34 You kept on looking until a stoneⁱ was cut out^j not by hands,^k and it struck the image on its feet of iron and of molded clay and crushed them.^l 35 At that time the iron, the molded clay, the copper, the silver and the gold were, all together, crushed and became like the chaff from the summer threshing floor,^m and the windⁿ carried them away so that no trace at all was found of them.^o And as for the stone that struck the image, it became a large mountain and filled the whole earth.^p

7 The king was calling out loudly to bring in the conjurers, the Chal-de'ans and the astrologers.^d The king was answering and saying to the wise men of Babylon: "Any man that will read this writing and show me its very interpretation, with purple he will be clothed,^e with a necklace of gold about his neck, and as the third one in the kingdom he will rule."^f

8 At that time all the wise men of the king were coming in, but they were not competent enough to read the writing itself or to make known to the king the interpretation.^g 9 Consequently King Bel-shaz'zar was very much frightened and his complexion was changing within him; and his grandees were perplexed.^h

10 As regards the queen, because of the words of the king and his grandees she entered right into the banqueting hall. The queen answered and said: "O king, keep living even to times indefinite.ⁱ Do not let your thoughts frighten you, nor let your complexion be changed. 11 There exists a capable man in your kingdom in whom there is the spirit of holy gods;^j and in the days of your father illumination and insight and wisdom like the wisdom of gods were found in him, and King Neb-u-chad-nez'zar your father himself set him up as chief^k of the magic-practicing priests, the conjurers, the Chal-de'ans [and] the astrologers, [even] your father, O king; 12 forasmuch as an extraordinary spirit and knowledge and insight to interpret dreams^l and the explanation of riddles and the untying of knots had been found in him,^m in Daniel, whom the king himself named Bel-te-shaz'zar.ⁿ Now let Daniel himself be called, that he may show the very interpretation."

13 Accordingly Daniel himself was

29 At that time Bel-shaz'zar commanded,* and they clothed Daniel with purple, with a necklace of gold about his neck; and they heralded* concerning him that he was to become the third ruler in the kingdom.^b

30 In that very night* Bel-shaz'zar the Chal-de'an king was killed^c 31* and Da-ri'us^{ad} the Mede himself received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

6 It seemed good to Da-ri'us, and he set up over the kingdom one hundred and twenty satraps, who were to be over the whole kingdom;^e 2 and over them three high officials, of whom Daniel was one,^f in order that these satraps^g might continually be giving to them the report and the king himself might not become the loser.^h 3 Then it was that this Daniel was steadily distinguishing himselfⁱ over the high officials and the satraps, forasmuch as an extraordinary spirit^j was in him;^j and the king was intending to elevate him over all the kingdom.

4 At that time the high officials and the satraps themselves were constantly seeking to find some pretext against Daniel respecting the kingdom;^k but there was no pretext or corrupt thing at all that they were able to find, forasmuch as he was trustworthy and no negligence or corrupt thing at all was found in him.^l 5 Consequently these able-bodied men were saying: "We shall

6 Accordingly these high officials and satraps themselves entered as a throng to the king,^b and this is what they were saying to him: "O Da-ri'us the king, live on even for times indefinite."^c

7 All the high officials of the kingdom, the prefects and the satraps, the high royal officers and the governors, have taken counsel together to establish a royal statute^d and to enforce an interdict, that whoever makes a petition to any god or man* for thirty days except to you, O king, should be thrown to the lions' pit.^e 8 Now, O king, may you establish the statute and sign the writing,^f in order for [it] not to be changed, according to the law of the Medes and the Persians,^g which is not annulled."^h

9 In accord with this, King Da-ri'us himself signed the writing and the interdict.ⁱ

10 But Daniel, as soon as he knew that the writing had been signed, entered into his house, and, the windows in his roof chamber being open for him toward Jerusalem,^j even three times in a day^k he was kneeling on his knees and praying^l and offering praise before his God,^m as he had been regularly doing prior to this.ⁿ 11 At that time these able-bodied men themselves crowded in and found Daniel petitioning and imploring favor before his God.^o

12 Then it was that they approached and were saying before the king concerning the interdict of the king: "Is there not an interdict that you have signed that any man that asks a petition from any god or man for thirty days except from you, O king, he should be thrown to the lions' pit?"^p The king was answering and saying: "The matter is well established according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, which is not annulled."^q 13 Immediately they answered, and they were saying before the king: "Daniel,^a who is of the exiles* of Judah,^b has paid no regard to you, O king, nor to the interdict that you signed, but three times in a day he is making his petition."^c 14 Consequently the king, as soon as he heard the word, it was very displeasing to him,^d and toward Daniel he set [his] mind in order to rescue him;^e and till the setting of the sun he kept on striving to deliver him. 15 Finally these able-bodied men themselves entered as a throng to the king, and they were saying to the king: "Take note, O king, that the law belonging to the Medes and the Persians is that any interdict^f or statute that the king himself establishes is not to be changed."^g

16 Accordingly the king himself commanded,^h and they brought Daniel and threw him into the pit of the lions.ⁱ The king was answering and saying to Daniel: "Your God" whom you are serving with constancy, he himself will rescue you."^j 17 And a stone was brought and placed on the mouth of the pit, and the king sealed it with his signet ring and with the signet ring of his grantees, in order that nothing should be changed in the case of Daniel.^k

18 At that time the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting,^l and no musical instruments* were brought in before him, and his very sleep fled from him.^m 19 Finally the king himself, at dawn, proceeded to get up in the daylight, and in a hurry he went right to the lions' pit. 20 And as he got near to the pit, he cried out with a sad voice even to Daniel. The king was speaking up and saying to Daniel: "O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God* whom you are serving with constancyⁿ been able to rescue you from the lions?"^o 21 Immediately Daniel himself spoke even with the king: "O king, live on even to times indefinite. 22 My own God^p sent his angel^q and shut the mouth of the lions,"^r

23 Then it was that the king himself became very glad,^c and Daniel himself he commanded to be lifted up out of the pit. And Daniel was lifted up out of the pit, and there was no hurt at all found on him, because he had trusted in his God.^d

24 And the king commanded, and they brought these able-bodied men who had accused* Daniel,^e and into the lions' pit they threw them,^f their sons and their wives;^g and they had not reached the bottom of the pit before the lions had got the mastery over them, and all their bones they crushed.^h wrote down the dream itself.^a The complete account of the matters he told.

2 Daniel was speaking up and saying:

“I happened to be beholding in my visions during the night, and, see there! the four winds*^b of the heavens were stirring up the vast sea.^c 3 And four huge beasts^d were coming up out of the sea,^e each one being different^f from the others.

4 “The first one was like a lion,^g and it had the wings of an eagle.^h I kept on beholding until its wings were plucked out, and it was lifted up from the earthⁱ and was made to stand up on two feet just like a man, and there was given to it the heart of a man.^j

5 “And, see there! another beast, a second one, it being like a bear.^k And on one side it was raised up,^l and there were three ribs in its mouth between its teeth; and this is what they were saying to it, ‘Get up, eat much flesh.’^m

6 “After this I kept on beholding, and, see there! another [beast],* one like a leopard,ⁿ but it had four wings of a flying creature on its back.^o And the beast had four heads,^o and there was given to it rulership indeed.

7 “After this I kept on beholding in the visions of the night, and, see there! a fourth beast, fearsome and terrible and unusually strong.^p And it had teeth of iron, big ones. It was devouring and crushing, and what was left it was treading down with its feet. And it was something different from all the [other] beasts that were prior to it, and it had ten horns.^q 8 I kept on considering the horns, and, look! another horn, a small one,^r came up in among them, and there were three of the first horns that were plucked up from before it. And, look! there were eyes like the eyes of a man in this horn, and there was a mouth speaking grandiose things.^s

His clothing was white just like snow,^c and the hair of his head was like clean wool.^d His throne was flames of fire;^e its wheels were a burning fire.^f 10 There was a stream of fire flowing and going out from before him.^g There were a thousand thousands that kept ministering to him,^h and ten thousand times ten thousand that kept standing right before him.ⁱ The Court^j took its seat, and there were books that were opened.

11 "I kept on beholding at that time because of the sound of the grandiose words that the horn was speaking;^k I kept on beholding until the beast was killed and its body was destroyed and it was given to the burning fire.^l 12 But as for the rest of the beasts,^m their rulerships were taken away, and there was a lengthening in life given to them for a time and a season.ⁿ

distressed within on account of it, and the very visions of my head began to frighten me.^a 16 I went up close to one of those who were standing, that I might request from him reliable information on all this.^b And he said to me, as he went on to make known to me the very interpretation of the matters,

Aram., qad-di-sheh' 'Elyoh-nin (pl. of 'Elyohn), forming with the Aram. word for "holy ones" a second pl. word, or else copying the plurality of "holy ones" because of being so close in the sentence. 23 "This is what he said, 'As for the fourth beast, there is a fourth kingdom that will come to be on the earth, that will be different from all the [other] kingdoms; and it will devour all the earth and will trample it down and crush it.^a 24 And as for the ten horns, out of that kingdom there are ten kings that will rise up;^b and still another one will rise up after them, and he himself will be different from the first ones,^c and three kings he will humiliate.^d 25 And he will speak even words against the Most High,^e and he will harass continually^f the holy ones themselves of the Supreme One.^g And he will intend to change times^h and law,ⁱ and they^j will be given into his hand for a time, and times and half a time.^k 26 And the Court* itself proceeded to sit,^l and his own rulership they finally took away, in order to annihilate [him] and to destroy [him] totally.^m" changed in me; but the matter itself I kept in my own heart."^a

8 In the third year of the kingship of Bel-shaz'zar^b the king, there was a vision that appeared to me, even me, Daniel, after the one appearing to me at the start.^c 2 And I began to see in the vision; and it came about, while I was seeing, that I was in Shu'shan^d the castle, which is in E'lam^e the jurisdictional district; and I proceeded to see in the vision, and I myself happened to be by the watercourse* of U'lai.^f 3 When I raised my eyes, then I saw, and, look! a ram^g standing before the watercourse, and it had two horns. And the two horns were tall, but the one was taller than the other,^h and the taller was the one that came up afterward.ⁱ 4 I saw the ram making thrusts to the west* and to the north and to the south,^j and no wild beasts kept standing before it, and there was no one doing any delivering out of its hand.^k And it did according to its will,^l and it put on great airs.

5 And I, for my part, kept on considering, and, look! there was a male of the goats^j coming from the sunset upon the surface of the whole earth,* and it was not touching the earth. And as regards the he-goat, there was a conspicuous horn between its eyes.^k 6 And it kept coming all the way to the ram possessing the two horns, which I had seen standing before the watercourse;* and it came running toward it in its powerful rage.

7 And I saw it coming into close touch with the ram, and it began showing bitterness toward it, and it proceeded to strike down the ram and to break its two horns, and there proved to be no power in the ram to stand before it. So it threw it to the earth and trampled

8 And the male of the goats, for its part, put on great airs^b to an extreme; but as soon as it became mighty, the great horn was broken, and there proceeded to come up conspicuously four instead of it, toward the four winds* of the heavens.^c

9 And out of one of them there came forth another horn, a small one,^d and it kept getting very much greater toward the south* and toward the sunrising and toward the Decoration.^{ae} 10 And it kept getting greater all the way to the army of the heavens,^f so that it caused some of the army and some of the stars^g to fall to the earth, and it went trampling them down.^h 11 And all the way to the Princeⁱ of the army it put on great airs, and from him the constant [feature]*^j was taken away, and the established place of his sanctuary was thrown down.^k 12 And an army itself was gradually given over,^l together with the constant [feature],^m because of transgression;ⁿ and it kept throwing truth^o to the earth,^p and it acted and had success.^q

13 And I got to hear a certain holy one^r speaking, and another holy one proceeded to say to the particular one who was speaking: "How long will the vision be of the constant [feature]^s and of the transgression causing desolation,^t to make both [the] holy place and [the] army things to trample on?"^u 14 So he said to me: "Until two thousand three hundred evenings [and] mornings; and [the] holy place will certainly be brought into its right condition."^{vv}

15 Then it came about that, while I myself, Daniel, was seeing the vision

Am 5:19* "A man." Heb., 'ish. 26* Or, "you have carried." 26* "Sakkuth." Heb., Sik-kuth'. The name was purposely vocalized in Heb. to correspond to shiq-quts', "disgusting thing." It possibly refers to a star-god, for it is put in a parallelism with the "star of your god" in the same vs. LXXSy, "the tent"; Lat., taberna-culum. 26^a "Your king." Heb., mal-kekhem'; Gr., Mo-lokh'; Syr., demal-kum; Lat., Mo'loch. 26^b "Kaiwan." Or, "Kewan." Heb., Ki-yun', vowel-pointed intentionally to correspond with shiq-quts', "disgusting thing." Evidently the Akkadian star Kai-ma'nu, or Kai-wa'nu, is meant, because this occurs in Akkadian inscriptions as the name for Saturn (a star-god). Gr., Rhai-phan'; in Ac 7:43 in Stephen's quotation, Rhom-pha'. 26^c "Your god." Heb., 'elo-heh-khem', referring to a false god.

OBADIAH*

1 The vision of O-ba-di'ah:

This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said regarding E'dom:^a "There is a report that we have heard from Jehovah, and there is an envoy that has been sent among the nations, 'Rise up, YOU people, and let us rise up against her in battle.'"^b

2 "Look! Small is what I have made you among the nations.^c You are despised very much.^d 3 The presumptuousness of your heart is what has deceived you,^e you who are residing in the retreats of the crag,^f the height where he dwells,^g saying in his heart, 'Who will bring me down to [the] earth?' 4 If you should make your position high like the eagle, or if among the stars there were a placing of your nest, down from there I would bring you,"^g is the utterance of Jehovah.

5 "If it were thieves that came in to you, if despoilers [came in] by night, to what extent* would you have been silenced?^h Would they not steal as much as they wanted? Or if it were grape gatherers that came in to you, would they not let some gleanings remain?ⁱ 6 O the extent to which* those of E'sau have been searched out!^j [How] his concealed treasures have been sought out! 7 As far as the boundary they have sent you. The very men* in covenant with you have all deceived^k you. The men at peace with you have prevailed against you.^l Those [eating] food with you^m will place a net under you as one in whom there is no discernment.^m 8 Will it not be in that day?" is the utterance of Jehovah.

For the sea was continually growing more tempestuous. 12 So he said to them: "Lift me up and hurl me into the sea, and the sea will become still for YOU; because I am aware that it is on my account that this great tempest is upon YOU."^h 13 But the men tried to work their way through, in order to bring [the ship] back to the dry land; yet they were unable, because the sea was continually growing more tempestuous against them.ⁱ

14 And they proceeded to call out to Jehovah and to say: "Ah, now, O Jehovah, may we, please, not perish because of the soul^{*} of this man! And do not put upon us innocent blood,^k since you yourself, O Jehovah, have done according to what you have delighted in!"^l 15 Then they lifted up Jo'nah and hurled him into the sea; and the sea began to halt from its raging.^m 16 At that the men began to fear Jehovah greatly,ⁿ and so they offered a sacrifice to Jehovah^o and made vows.^p

17* Now Jehovah appointed a great fish^q to swallow Jo'nah,^q so that Jo'nah came to be in the inward parts of the fish three days and three nights.^r

2 Then Jo'nah prayed to Jehovah his God^{*} from the inward parts of the fish^a 2 and said:

"Out of my distress I called out to Jehovah,^b and he proceeded to answer me.^c

Out of the belly of She'ol^{*} I cried for help.^d

You heard my voice.^e

3 When you threw me [to] the depths, into the heart of the open sea,^f

Then a very river encircled me. All your breakers and your waves—over me they passed on.^g

4 And as for me, I said, 'I have been driven away from in front of your eyes!^h

How shall I^{*} gaze again upon your holy temple?'ⁱ

5 Waters encircled me clear to [the] soul;^j the watery deep itself^{*} kept enclosing me.

Weeds were wound around my head.

6 To the bottoms of [the] mountains I went down.

As for the earth, its bars were upon me for time indefinite.

But out of [the] pit you proceeded to bring up my life, O Jehovah my God.^k

7 When my soul^{*} fainted away within me,^l Jehovah was the One whom I remembered.^m

Then my prayer came in to you, into your holy temple.ⁿ

8 As for those who are observing the idols of untruth, they leave their own loving-kindness.^o

9 But as for me, with the voice of thanksgiving I will sacrifice to you.^p

What I have vowed, I will pay.^q Salvation belongs to Jehovah.^r

10 In time Jehovah commanded* the fish, so that it vomited out Jo'nah onto the dry land.^a

3 Then the word of Jehovah occurred to Jo'nah the second time, saying:^b 2 "Get up, go to Nin'e-veh the great city, and proclaim to her the proclamation^c that I am speaking to you."

3 At that, Jo'nah got up and went to Nin'e-veh in accord with the word of Jehovah.^{*d} Now Nin'e-veh herself proved to be a city great to God,^{*e} with a walking distance of three days. 4 Finally Jo'nah started to enter into the city the walking distance of one day, and he kept proclaiming and saying: "Only forty days more, and Nin'e-veh will be overthrown."^f

5 And the men* of Nin'e-veh began to put faith in God,^g and they proceeded to proclaim a fast and to put on sackcloth,^h from the greatest one of them even to the least one of them. 6 When the word reached the king of Nin'e-veh,ⁱ then he rose up from his throne and put off his official garment from himself and covered himself with sackcloth and sat down in the ashes.^j 7 Furthermore, he had the cry made, and he had it said in Nin'e-veh, by the decree of the king and his great ones, saying:

"No man and no domestic animal, no herd and no flock, should taste anything at all. None should take food. Even water they should not drink.^k 8 And let them cover themselves with sackcloth, man and domestic animal; and let them call out to God with strength and come back,^l each one from his bad way and from the violence that was in their hands. 9 Who is there knowing whether the [true] God may turn back and actually feel regret^m and turn back from his burning anger, so that we may not perish?"ⁿ their works,^a that they had turned back from their bad way;^b and so the [true] God felt regret^c over the calamity that he had spoken of causing to them; and he did not cause [it].^d

4 To Jo'nah, though, it was highly displeasing,^e and he got to be hot with anger. 2 Hence he prayed to Jehovah* and said: "Ah, now, O Jehovah, was not this an affair of mine,^f while I happened to be on my own ground? That is why I went ahead and ran away to Tar'shish;^g for I knew that you are a God^a gracious and merciful,^h slow to anger and abundant in loving-kindness,^h and feeling regret over the calamity.ⁱ 3 And now, O Jehovah, take away, please, my soul^j from me, for my dying is better than my being alive."^k

4 In turn Jehovah said: "Have you rightly become hot with anger?"^l

5 Then Jo'nah went out of the city and sat down east of the city; and gradually he made for himself there a booth, that he might sit under it in the shade^m until he would see what would become of the city.ⁿ 6 Accordingly Jehovah God* appointed a bottle-gourd plant,^o that it should come up over Jo'nah, in order to become a shade over his head, to deliver him from his calamitous state.^o And Jo'nah began to rejoice greatly over the bottle-gourd plant.

7 But the [true] God appointed a worm^p at the ascending of the dawn on the next day, that it should strike the bottle-gourd plant; and it gradually dried up.^q 8 And it came about that, as soon as the sun shone forth, God* also went on to appoint a parching east wind,^r and the sun kept striking upon the head of Jo'nah, so that he was swooning away;^s and he kept asking that his soul^t might die, and he repeat-it to life! In the midst of [the] years may you make it known. During the agitation, to show mercy may you remember.^a

3 God* himself proceeded to come from Te'man,^b even a Holy One from Mount Pa'ran.^b Se'lah.^{ac}

His dignity covered [the] heavens;^d and with his praise the earth became filled.^e

4 As for [his]* brightness, it got to be just like the light.^f He had two rays* [issuing] out of his hand, and there the hiding of his strength was.^g

5 Before him pestilence kept going,^h and burning fever would go forth at his feet.ⁱ

6 He stood still, that he might shake up [the] earth.^j He saw, and then caused nations to leap.^k

And the eternal mountains got to be smashed;^l the indefinitely lasting hills bowed down.^m The walkings of long ago are his.

7 Under what is hurtful I saw the tents of Cu'shan.* The tent cloths of the land of Mid'ianⁿ began to be agitated.^o

8 Is it against the rivers, O Jehovah, is it against the rivers that your anger has become hot,^p or is your fury against the sea?^q For you went riding upon your horses;^r your chariots were salvation.^s

9 In [its] nakedness your bow comes to be uncovered.^t The sworn oaths of [the] tribes are the thing said.*^u Se'lah. With rivers you proceeded to split [the] earth.^v

11 Sun—moon—stood still,^c in the lofty abode thereof.^d Like light your own arrows kept going.^e The lightning of your spear served for brightness.^f

12 With denunciation you went marching [through] the earth. In anger you went threshing [the] nations.^g

13 And you went forth for the salvation of your people,^h to save your anointed one.* You broke to pieces the head one out of the house of the wicked one.ⁱ There was a laying of the foundation bare, clear up to the neck.^j Se'lah.

HAGGAI*

1 In the second year of Da-ri'us the king,^a in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of Jehovah occurred by means of Hag'gai^b the prophet to Ze-rub'ba-bel^c the son of She-al'ti-el,^d the governor of Judah,^e and to Joshua^f the son of Je-hoz'a-dak^g the high^h priest, saying:

2 "This is what Jehovah of armies^{*h} has said, 'As regards this people, they have said: "The time has not come, the time of the house of Jehovah, for [it] to be built."'"

3 And the word of Jehovah continued to come by means of Hag'gai the prophet, saying: 4 "Is it the time for YOU yourselves to dwell in YOUR paneled houses,ⁱ while this house is waste?^k 5 And now this is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'Set YOUR heart upon YOUR ways.^l 6 YOU have sown much seed, but there is a bringing of little in.^m There is an eating, but it is not to satisfaction.ⁿ There is a drinking, but not to the point of getting intoxicated. There is a putting on of clothes, but it is not with anyone's getting warm; and he that is hiring himself out is hiring himself out for a bag having holes.'" 7 "This is what Jehovah of armies has said, 'Set YOUR heart upon YOUR ways.'^p

8 "Go up to the mountain,^{*} and YOU must bring in lumber.^q And build the house,^r that I may take pleasure in it^s and I may be glorified,^t Jehovah has said."

ZECHARIAH

1 In the eighth month in the second year of Da-ri'us^a the word of Jehovah occurred to Zech-a-ri'ah^b the son of Bere-chi'ah^c the son of Id'do^c the prophet, saying: 2 “Jehovah grew indignant at YOUR fathers—very much so.^d

3 “And you must say to them, ‘This is what Jehovah of armies^e has said: “Return to me,^e is the utterance of Jehovah^f of armies, ‘and I shall return to you,’^f Jehovah^g of armies has said.”’

4 “‘Do not become like YOUR fathers^h to whom the former prophets called,^h saying: “This is what Jehovahⁱ of armies has said, ‘Return, please, from YOUR bad ways and from YOUR bad dealings.”’ⁱ

“But they did not listen, and they paid no attention to me,^j is the utterance of Jehovah.

5 “‘As for YOUR fathers, where are they?^a And as for the prophets,^b was it to time indefinite that they continued to live? 6 However, as regards my words and my regulations that I commanded my servants, the prophets,^c did they not catch up with YOUR fathers?^d So they returned and said: ‘According to what Jehovah of armies had in mind to do to us,^e according to our ways and according to our dealings, that is how he has done with us.’^f

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, that is, the month She'bat, in the second year of Da-ri'us,^g the word of Jehovah occurred to Zech-a-ri'ah^h the son of Bere-chi'ah^c the son of Id'do^c the prophet, saying: 8 “I saw [in] the night, and, look! a man^j riding on a red horse,^k and he was standing still among the myrtle trees^l that were in the deep place;^g and behind him there were horses red, bright red, and white."^a

9 And so I said: "Who are these, my lord?"^{*b}

At that the angel^c who was speaking with me said^c to me: "I myself shall show you who these very ones are."

10 Then the man who was standing still among the myrtle trees answered and said: "These are the ones whom Jehovah has sent forth to walk about in the earth."^{*d}

11 And they proceeded to answer the angel of Jehovah who was standing among the myrtle trees and to say: "We have walked about in the earth,^e and, look! the whole earth is sitting still and having no disturbance."^f

12 So the angel of Jehovah answered and said: "O Jehovah of armies, how long will you yourself not show mercy to Jerusalem and to the cities of Judah,^g whom you have denounced these seventy years?"^h

13 And Jehovah proceeded to answer the angel who was speaking with me, with good words, comforting words;ⁱ

14 and the angel who was speaking with me went on to say to me: "Call out, saying, 'This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "I have been jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with great jealousy."^j 15 With great indignation I am feeling indignant against the nations that are at ease;^k because I, for my part, felt indignant to only a little extent,^l but they, for their part, helped toward calamity."^m

16 "Therefore this is what Jehovah has said, "I shall certainly return to Jerusalem with mercies.ⁿ My own house will be built in her,"^o is the utterance of Jehovah of armies, "and a measuring line itself will be stretched out over Jerusalem."^p

20 Furthermore, Jehovah showed me four craftsmen. 21 At that I said: "What are these coming to do?"

And he went on to say: "These are the horns^g that dispersed Judah to such an extent that no one at all raised his head; and these others will come to set them trembling, to cast down the horns of the nations that are lifting up a horn against the land of Judah,^h in order to disperse her."^h

2 And I proceeded to raise my eyes and see; and, look! there was a man,ⁱ and in his hand a measuring rope.^j 2 So I said: "Where are you going?"

In turn he said to me: "To measure Jerusalem, in order to see what her breadth amounts to and what her length amounts to."^k

3 And, look! the angel who was speaking with me was going forth, and there was another angel going forth to meet him. 4 Then he said to him: "Run, speak to the young man over there, saying, "As open rural country Jerusalem will be inhabited,^k because of the multitude of men and domestic animals in the midst of her."^l 5 And I myself shall become to her," is the utterance of Jehovah, "a wall of fire all around,^m and a glory is what I shall becomeⁿ in the midst of her."ⁿ

6 "Hey there! Hey there! Flee, then, you people, from the land of the north,"^o is the utterance of Jehovah.

3 And he proceeded to show me Joshua*^v the high priest standing before the angel^w of Jehovah, and Satan^x standing at his right hand in order to resist^y him. 2 Then [the angel^x of] Jehovah* said to Satan: "Jehovah rebuke^y you, O Satan, yes, Jehovah rebuke you, he who is choosing Jerusalem!^z Is this one not a log snatched out of the fire?"^a three shepherds in one lunar month,^a as my soul gradually became impatient with them,^b and also their own soul felt a loathing toward me. 9 At length I said: “I shall not keep shepherding YOU.*^c The one that is dying, let her die. And the one that is being effaced, let her be effaced.^d And as for the ones left remaining, let them devour, each one the flesh of her companion.”^e 10 So I took my staff Pleasantness^f and cut it to pieces,^g in order to break my covenant that I had concluded with all the peoples.^h 11 And it came to be broken in that day, and the afflicted ones of the flock*ⁱ who were watching^j me got to know in this way that it was the word of Jehovah.

12 Then I said to them: “If it is good in YOUR eyes,^k give [me] my wages; but if not, refrain.” And they proceeded to pay^l my wages, thirty pieces of silver.¹

13 At that, Jehovah said to me: “Throw it to the treasury*^m—the majestic value with which I have been valued from their standpoint.”ⁿ Accordingly I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw it into the treasury at the house of Jehovah.^o

14 Then I cut in pieces my second staff, the Union,^p in order to break the brotherhood^q between Judah and Israel.^r

MALACHI*

1 A pronouncement:

The word of Jehovah^a concerning Israel by means of Mal'a-chi:*

2 "I have loved YOU people,"^b Jehovah has said.

And YOU have said: "In what way have you loved us?"^c

"Was not E'sau the brother of Jacob?"^d is the utterance of Jehovah. "But I loved Jacob,^e 3 and E'sau^f I have hated; and I finally made his mountains a desolated waste^g and his inheritance for the jackals of [the] wilderness."^h

4 "Because E'dom* keeps saying, 'We have been shattered, but we shall return and build [the] devastated places,' this is what Jehovah of armiesⁱ has said, 'They, for their part, will build; but I, for my part, shall tear down.^j And people will certainly call them "the territory^k of wickedness" and "the people whom Jehovah has denounced^l to time indefinite." 5 And YOUR own eyes will see [it], and YOU yourselves will say: "May Jehovah be magnified over the territory of Israel."^m"

6 "'A son, for his part, honors a father;ⁿ and a servant, his grand master."^o So if I am a father,ⁿ where is the honor to me?^o And if I am a grand master, where is the fear^p of me?" Jehovah of armies has said to YOU, O priests who are despising my name.^q

"And you have said: "In what way have we despised your name?"

7 "[By] presenting upon my altar polluted bread."

See 3:1 ftn, "Messenger." 1:1* "Malachi," MTSyVg; LXX, "his messenger (angel)." 4* Meaning "Red; Ruddy." A secondary name given to Esau, according to Ge 25:30; Ge 36:1. 4* "Jehovah of armies." Heb., Yehwah' tseva-ohth. This expression occurs 24 times in Mal. See App 1j. 4* Or, "boundary; border." 6* "His grand master." Mal 4:4* LXX moves vs 4 to follow vs 6, thus making the prophecy end on a hopeful note. 5* "Elijah." Heb., 'Eli-yah'; LXXVg, "Elias." 6* Or, "the land." Heb., ha-'a'rets; Lat., ter'ram. 6* Or, "with a ban." Heb., che'rem. Because of this stern ending to this prophecy the Jews have a custom to repeat the reading of vs 5, which has a happy tone. Similar repetitions have been made at the end of other books such as Ecclesiastes, Isaiah and Lamentations.

7 Then Herod secretly summoned the astrologers and carefully ascertained from them the time of the star's appearing; 8 and, when sending them to Beth'le-hem, he said: "Go make a careful search for the young child, and when you have found it report back to me, that I too may go and do it obeisance."^{pe} 9 When they had heard the king, they went their way; and, look! the star they had seen [when they were] in the east^{*f} went ahead of them, until it came to a stop above where the young child was.

10 On seeing the star they rejoiced very much indeed. 11 And when they went into the house they saw the young child with Mary its mother, and, falling down, they did obeisance to it. They also opened their treasures and presented it with gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. 12 However, because they were given divine warning^g in a dream not to return to Herod, they withdrew to their country by another way.

13 After they had withdrawn, look! Jehovah's* angel^h appeared in a dream to Joseph, saying: "Get up, take the young child and its mother and flee into

16 Then Herod, seeing he had been outwitted by the astrologers,* fell into a great rage, and he sent out and had all the boys in Beth'le-hem and in all its districts done away with, from two years of age and under, according to the time that he had carefully ascertained from the astrologers.^c 17 Then that was fulfilled which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying: 18 "A voice was heard in Ra'mah,^d weeping and much wailing; it was Rachel^e weeping for her children, and she was unwilling to take comfort, because they are no more."

Moreover, being given divine warning in a dream,^g he withdrew into the territory of Gal'i-lee,^h 23 and came and dwelt in a city named Naz'a-reth,ⁱ that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through the prophets: "He will be called a Naz'a-rene."^j

3 In those days John* the Baptist^a came preaching^a in the wilderness^b of Ju-de'a, 2 saying: "REPENT,^c for the kingdom of the heavens* has drawn near."^d 3 This, in fact, is the one spoken of through Isaiah the prophet^e in these words: "Listen! Someone is crying out in the wilderness, 'Prepare' the way of Jehovah,* YOU people! Make his roads straight."^f 4 But this very John had his clothing of camel's hair^g and a leather girdle^h around his loins; his food too was insect locustsⁱ and wild honey.^j 5 Then Jerusalem* and all Ju-de'a and all the country around the Jordan made their way out to him, 6 and people were baptized by him in the Jordan River,^k openly confessing their sins.

7 When he caught sight of many of the Pharisees and Sadducees^l coming to the baptism, he said to them: "YOU offspring of vipers,^m who has intimated to YOU to flee from the coming wrath?"ⁿ 8 So then produce fruit that befits repentance;^o 9 and do not presume to say to yourselves, 'As a father we have Abraham.'^p For I say to YOU that God is able to raise up children to Abraham^q from these stones. 10 Already the ax^r is lying at the root of the trees; every tree, then, that does not produce fine fruit is to be cut down^s and thrown into the fire.^t 11 I, for my part, baptize* YOU with water^u because of YOUR repentance;^v but the one coming^w after me is stronger than I am, whose sandals I am not fit to take off.^x That one will baptize YOU people with holy spirit^y and with fire.^z 12 His winnowing shovel

13 Then Jesus came from Gal'ilee^c to the Jordan to John, in order to be baptized^d by him. 14 But the latter tried to prevent him, saying: “I am the one needing to be baptized by you, and are you coming to me?” 15 In reply Jesus said to him: “Let it be, this time, for in that way it is suitable for us to carry out all that is righteous.”^e Then he quit preventing him. 16 After being baptized Jesus immediately came up from the water; and, look! the heavens were opened up,^f and he saw descending like a dove^g God's spirit coming upon him.^h 17 Look! Also, there was a voiceⁱ from the heavens that said: “This is my Son,^j the beloved,^k whom I have approved.”^l

4 Then Jesus was led by the spirit up into the wilderness^m to be temptedⁿ by the Devil. 2 After he had fasted forty days and forty nights,^o then he felt hungry. 3 Also, the Tempter^p came and said to him: “If you are a son of God,^q tell these stones to become loaves of bread.” 4 But in reply he said: “It is written, ‘Man must live, not on bread alone, but on every utterance coming forth through Jehovah's* mouth.’”^r

5 Then the Devil took him along into the holy city,^s and he stationed him upon the battlement of the temple 6 and said to him: “If you are a son of God, hurl yourself down;^t for it is written, ‘He will give his angels a charge concerning you, and they will carry you on their hands, that you may at no time strike your foot against a stone.’”^u 7 Jesus said to him: “Again it is written, ‘You must not put Jehovah* your God to the test.’”^v

8 Again the Devil took him along to an unusually high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world*^w and their glory, 9 and he said to him:

good news* of the kingdom and curing every sort of disease^a and every sort of infirmity among the people. 24 And the report about him went out into all Syria;^b and they brought him all those faring badly,^c distressed with various diseases and torments, demon-possessed and epileptic^d and paralyzed persons, and he cured them. 25 Consequently great crowds followed him from Gal'ilee^e and De-cap'o-lis* and Jerusalem^f and Ju-de'a and from the other side of the Jordan.

5 When he saw the crowds he went up into the mountain; and after he sat down his disciples came to him; 2 and he opened his mouth and began teaching them, saying:

3 "Happy" are those conscious of their spiritual need,^g since the kingdom of the heavens belongs to them.^h

4 "Happy are those who mourn, since they will be comforted.ⁱ

5 "Happy are the mild-tempered^j ones, since they will inherit the earth.^k

6 "Happy are those hungering and thirsting^l for righteousness, since they will be filled.^m 7 "Happy are the merciful,ⁿ since they will be shown mercy.

8 "Happy are the pure in heart,^o since they will see God.^p

9 "Happy are the peaceable,^q since they will be called 'sons' of God.^r 10 "Happy are those who have been persecuted^s for righteousness' sake, since the kingdom of the heavens belongs to them.

11 "Happy are YOU when people reproach^t YOU and persecute^u YOU and lyingly say every sort of wicked thing against YOU for my sake. 12 Rejoice and leap for joy,^v since YOUR reward^w is great in the heavens; for in that way they persecuted the prophets^x prior to YOU.

same thing? 47 And if YOU greet YOUR brothers only, what extraordinary thing are YOU doing? Are not also the people of the nations doing the same thing? 48 YOU must accordingly be perfect, as YOUR heavenly Father is perfect.*^a

6 "Take good care not to practice YOUR righteousness^b in front of men in order to be observed by them; otherwise YOU will have no reward with YOUR Father who is in the heavens. 2 Hence when you go making gifts of mercy,^c do not blow a trumpet^d ahead of you, just as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may be glorified by men. Truly I say to YOU, They are having their reward in full. 3 But you, when making gifts of mercy, do not let your left hand know what your right is doing, 4 that your gifts of mercy may be in secret; then your Father who is looking on in secret will repay you.^e

5 "Also, when YOU pray, YOU must not be as the hypocrites; because they like to pray standing^f in the synagogues and on the corners of the broad ways to be visible to men.^g Truly I say to YOU, They are having their reward in full. 6 You, however, when you pray, go into your private room^h and, after shutting your door, pray to your Father who is in secret;ⁱ then your Father who looks on in secret will repay you. 7 But when praying, do not say the same things over and over again,^j just as the people of the nations do, for they imagine they will get a hearing for their use of many words. 8 So, do not make yourselves like them, for God YOUR Father knows what things YOU are needing^k before ever YOU ask him.

as to what YOU will eat or what YOU will drink, or about YOUR bodies as to what YOU will wear.^a Does not the soul mean more than food and the body than clothing?^b 26 Observe intently the birds^c of heaven, because they do not sow seed or reap or gather into storehouses; still YOUR heavenly Father feeds them. Are YOU not worth more than they are?^d 27 Who of YOU by being anxious can add one cubit to his life span?^e 28 Also, on the matter of clothing, why are YOU anxious? Take a lesson from the lilies^f of the field, how they are growing; they do not toil, nor do they spin; 29 but I say to YOU that not even Sol'o-mon^g in all his glory was arrayed as one of these. 30 If, now, God thus clothes the vegetation of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much rather clothe YOU, YOU with little faith?^h 31 So never be anxiousⁱ and say, 'What are we to eat?' or, 'What are we to drink?' or, 'What are we to put on?' 32 For all these are the things the nations are eagerly pursuing. For YOUR heavenly Father knows YOU need all these things.^j

33 "Keep on, then, seeking^k first the kingdom and his righteousness,^k and all these [other] things will be added to YOU.^l 34 So, never be anxious about the next day,^m for the next day will have its own anxieties. Sufficient for each day is its own badness.

24 "Therefore everyone that hears these sayings of mine and does them will be likened to a discreet man, who built his house upon the rock-mass.^g 25 And the rain poured down and the floods came and the winds blew and lashed against that house, but it did not cave in, for it had been founded upon the rock-mass. 26 Furthermore, everyone hearing these sayings of mine and not doing^h them will be likened to a foolish man,ⁱ who built his house upon the sand. 27 And the rain poured down and the floods came and the winds blew and struck against that house^j and it caved in, and its collapse was great."^k

28 Now when Jesus finished these sayings, the effect was that the crowds were astounded^l at his way of teaching; 29 for he was teaching them as a person having authority,^m and not as their scribes.

8 After he had come down from the mountain great crowds followed him. 2 And, look! a leprous manⁿ came up and began doing obeisance to him, saying: "Lord, if you just want to, you can make me clean."^o 3 And so, stretching out [his] hand, he touched him, saying: "I want to. Be made clean."^p And immediately his leprosy was cleansed away.^q 4 Then Jesus said to him: "See that you tell no one,^r but go, show yourself to the priest,^s and offer the gifts^t that Moses appointed, for the purpose of a witness to them."

treating him 6 and saying: "Sir, my manservant is laid up in the house with paralysis, being terribly torment-^aed." 7 He said to him: "When I get there I will cure him." 8 In reply the army officer said: "Sir, I am not a fit man for you to enter under my roof, but just say the word and my manservant will be healed. 9 For I too am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me, and I say to this one, 'Be on your way!'^a and he is on his way, and to another, 'Come!' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this!' and he does it." 10 Hearing that, Jesus became amazed and said to those following him: "I tell you the truth, With no one in Israel have I found so great a faith.^b 11 But I tell you that many from eastern parts and western^c parts will come and recline at the table with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom^d of the heavens;^e 12 whereas the sons of the kingdom^f will be thrown into the darkness outside. There is where [their] weeping and the gnashing* of [their] teeth will be."^g 13 Then Jesus said to the army officer: "Go. Just as it has been your faith, so let it come to pass for you."^h And the manservant was healed in that hour.

14 And Jesus, on coming into Peter's house, saw his mother-in-lawⁱ lying down and sick with fever.^j 15 So he touched her hand,^k and the fever left her, and she got up and began ministering to him.^l 16 But after it became evening,* people brought him many demon-possessed persons; and he expelled the spirits with a word, and he cured all who were faring badly; 17 that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying: "He himself took our sicknesses and carried our diseases."^m

18 When Jesus saw a crowd around him, he gave the command to shove off for the other side.ⁿ 19 And a certain scribe came up and said to him: "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you are about to go."^o 20 But Jesus said to

23 And when he got aboard a boat,^c his disciples followed him. 24 Now, look! a great agitation arose in the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves; he, however, was sleeping.^d 25 And they came and woke^e him up, saying: "Lord, save us, we are about to perish!" 26 But he said to them: "Why are you fainthearted, you with little faith?"^f Then, getting up, he rebuked the winds and the sea, and a great calm set in.^g 27 So the men became amazed and said: "What sort of person is this,^h that even the winds and the sea obey him?"

28 When he got to the other side, into the country of the Gad-arenes',ⁱ there met him two demon-possessed men^j coming out from among^k the memorial tombs, unusually fierce, so that nobody had the courage to pass by on that road. 29 And, look! they screamed, saying: "What have we to do with you,^{*} Son of God?"^k Did you come here to torment us^l before the appointed time?"^m 30 But a long way off from them a herd of many swine was at pasture. 31 So the demons began to entreat him, saying: "If you expel us, send us forth into the herd of swine."ⁿ 32 Accordingly he said to them: "Go!" They came out and went off into the swine; and, look! the entire herd rushed over the precipice into the sea and died in the waters.^o 33 But the herders fled and, going into the city, they reported everything, including the affair of the demon-possessed men. 34 And, look! all the city turned out to meet Jesus; and after having seen him, they earnestly urged him to move out from their districts.^a

9 So, boarding the boat, he proceeded across and went into his own city.^b 2 And, look! they were bringing him a paralyzed man lying on a bed.^c On seeing their faith Jesus said to the paralytic: "Take courage, child; your sins are forgiven."^d 3 And, look! certain of the scribes said to themselves: "This fellow is blaspheming."^e 4 And Jesus, knowing their thoughts,^f said: "Why are you thinking wicked things in your hearts?"^g 5 For instance, which is easier, to say, Your sins are forgiven, or to say, Get up and walk?"^h 6 However, in order for you to know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins—" then he said to the paralytic: "Get up, pick up your bed, and go to your home."ⁱ 7 And he got up and went off to his home. 8 At the sight of this the crowds were struck with fear, and they glorified God,^k who gave such authority^l to men.

9 Next, while passing along from there, Jesus caught sight of a man named Matthew seated at the tax office, and he said to him: "Be my follower."^m Thereupon he did rise up and follow him.ⁿ 10 Later, while he was reclining at the table in the house,^o look! many tax collectors and sinners came and began reclining with Jesus and his disciples. 11 But on seeing this the Pharisees began to say to his disciples: "Why is it that your teacher eats with tax collectors and sinners?"^p 12 Hearing [them], he said: "Persons in health do not need a physician,^q but the ailing do. 13 Go, then, and learn what this means, 'I want mercy, and not sacrifice.'^r For I came to call, not righteous people, but sinners."

14 Then John's disciples came to him and asked: "Why is it that we and the Pharisees practice fasting but your disciples do not fast?"^s 15 At this Jesus said to them: "The friends of the bridegroom* have no reason to mourn as long as the bridegroom^t is with them, do they? But days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away^a from them, and then they will fast.^b 16 Nobody sews a patch of unshrunk cloth upon an old outer garment; for its full strength would pull from the outer garment and the tear would become worse.^c 17 Neither do people put new wine into old wineskins; but if they do, then the wineskins burst and the wine spills out and the wineskins are ruined.^d But people put new wine into new wineskins, and both things are preserved.^e

18 While he was telling them these things, look! a certain ruler^f who had approached began to do obeisance to him,^g saying: "By now my daughter must be dead;^h but come and lay your hand upon her and she will come to life."ⁱ

19 Then Jesus, getting up, began to follow him; also his disciples did. 20 And, look! a woman suffering twelve years from a flow of blood^j came up behind and touched the fringe^k of his outer garment;^l 21 for she kept saying to herself: "If I only touch his outer garment I shall get well."^m 22 Jesus turned around and, noticing her, said: "Take courage, daughter; your faith has made you well."ⁿ And from that hour the woman became well.^o

23 When, now, he came into the ruler's house^p and caught sight of the flute players and the crowd in noisy confusion,^q 24 Jesus began to say: "Leave the place, for the little girl did not die, but she is sleeping."^r At this they began to laugh at him scornfully.^s 25 As soon as the crowd had been sent outside, he went in and took hold of her hand,^t and the little girl got up.^u 26 Of course, the talk about this spread out into all that region.

27 As Jesus was passing along from there, two blind men^v followed him, crying out and saying: "Have mercy on us," Son of David." 28 After he had gone into the house, the blind men came to him, and Jesus asked them: "Do you have faith^a that I can do this?" They answered him: "Yes, Lord." 29 Then he touched their eyes,^b saying: "According to YOUR faith let it happen to YOU." 30 And their eyes received sight. Moreover, Jesus sternly charged them, saying: "See that nobody gets to know it."^c 31 But they, after getting outside, made it public about him in all that region.^d

32 Now when they were leaving, look! people brought him a dumb man possessed of a demon;^e 33 and after the demon had been expelled the dumb man spoke.^f Well, the crowds felt amazement^g and said: "Never was anything like this seen in Israel." 34 But the Pharisees began to say: "It is by the ruler of the demons that he expels the demons."^h

35 And Jesus set out on a tour of all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and preachingⁱ the good news of the kingdom and curing every sort of disease and every sort of infirmity.^j 36 On seeing the crowds he felt pity^k for them, because they were skinned^l and thrown about like sheep without a shepherd.^m 37 Then he said to his disciples: "Yes, the harvest is great, but the workers are few.ⁿ 38 Therefore, beg the Master of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest."^o

10 So he summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits,^a in order to expel these and to cure every sort of disease and every sort of infirmity.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, giving them these orders:^g "Do not go off into the road of the nations, and do not enter into a Sa-mar'i-tan city;^h 6 but, instead, go continually to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.ⁱ 7 As YOU go, preach, saying, 'The kingdom of the heavens has drawn near.'^j 8 Cure sick people,^k raise up dead persons, make lepers clean, expel demons. YOU received free, give free.^l 9 Do not procure gold or silver or copper for YOUR girdle purses,^m 10 or a food pouch for the trip, or two undergarments,ⁿ or sandals or a staff; for the worker deserves his food.ⁿ

11 "Into whatever city or village YOU enter, search out who in it is deserving, and stay there until YOU leave.^o 12 When YOU are entering into the house, greet the household; 13 and if the house is deserving, let the peace YOU wish it come upon it;^p but if it is not deserving, let the peace from YOU return upon YOU. 14 Wherever anyone does not take YOU in or listen to YOUR words, on going out of that house or that city shake the dust off YOUR feet.^q 15 Truly I say to YOU, It will be more endurable for the land of Sod'om^r and Go-mor'rah on Judgment Day than for that city.^s

16 "Look! I am sending you forth as sheep amidst wolves;^t therefore prove yourselves cautious as serpents^u and yet innocent as doves.^v 17 Be on YOUR guard against men;^w for they will deliver you up to local courts,^x and they will scourge^y you in their synagogues.^z 18 Why, you will be haled before governors and kings^a for my sake, for

7 While these were on their way, Jesus started to say to the crowds respecting John: "What did YOU go out into the wilderness to behold?^h A reed being tossed by a wind?" 8 What, then, did YOU go out to see? A man dressed in soft garments? Why, those wearing soft garments are in the houses of kings.ⁱ 9 Really, then, why did YOU go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell YOU, and far more than a prophet.^k 10 This is he concerning whom it is written, 'Look! I myself am sending forth my messenger* before your face, who will prepare your way ahead of you!' 11 Truly I say to YOU people, Among those born of women^m there has not been raised up a greater than John the Baptist;* but a person that is a lesser one in the kingdomⁿ of the heavens is greater than he is. 12 But from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of the heavens is the goal toward which men press, and those pressing forward are seizing it.^o 13 For all, the Prophets and the Law, prophesied until John;^p 14 and if YOU want to accept it, He himself is 'E-li'jah* who is destined to come.'^q 15 Let him that has ears listen.^r

16 "With whom shall I compare this generation?^s It is like young children sitting in the marketplaces who cry out to their playmates,^t 17 saying, 'We played the flute for YOU, but YOU did not dance; we wailed, but YOU did not beat yourselves in grief.'^u 18 Correspondingly, John came neither eating nor drinking,^v yet people say, 'He has a

20 Then he started to reproach the cities in which most of his powerful works had taken place, because they did not repent:^d 21 "Woe to you, Cho-ra'-zin! Woe to you, Beth-sa'i-da!^e because if the powerful works had taken place in Tyre and Si'don that took place in you, they would long ago have repented in sackcloth and ashes.^f 22 Consequently I say to you, It will be more endurable for Tyre and Si'don on Judgment Day^g than for you.^h 23 And you, Cap-er'na-um,ⁱ will you perhaps be exalted to heaven?^j Down to Ha'des^k you will come;^k because if the powerful works that took place in you had taken place in Sod'om, it would have remained until this very day. 24 Consequently I say to you people, It will be more endurable for the land of Sod'om on Judgment Day than for you."^l

25 At that time Jesus said in response: "I publicly praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and intellectual ones and have revealed them to babes.^m 26 Yes, O Father, because to do thus came to be the way approved by you. 27 All things have been delivered to me by my Father,ⁿ and no one fully knows the Son but the Father,^o neither does anyone fully know the Father but the Son and anyone to whom the Son is willing to reveal him.^p 28 Come to me, all you who are toiling and loaded down,^q and I will refresh you. 29 Take my yoke^r upon you^s and learn from me,^s for I am mild-tempered^t and lowly in heart, and you will find refreshment^u for your

12 At that season Jesus went through the grainfields on the sabbath.^b His disciples got hungry and started to pluck heads of grain and to eat.^c 2 At seeing this the Pharisees said to him:^d "Look! Your disciples are doing what it is not lawful to do on the sabbath."^e 3 He said to them: "Have you not read what David did when he and the men with him got hungry?^f 4 How he entered into the house of God and they ate the loaves of presentation,^g something that it was not lawful^h for him to eat, nor for those with him, but for the priests only?ⁱ 5 Or, have you not read in the Law^j that on the sabbaths the priests in the temple treat the sabbath as not sacred and continue guiltless?^k 6 But I tell you that something greater than the temple^l is here. 7 However, if you had understood what this means,* 'I want mercy,^m and not sacrifice,'ⁿ you would not have condemned the guiltless ones. 8 For Lord of the sabbath^o is what the Son of man is."^p

9 After departing from that place he went into their synagogue; 10 and, look! a man with a withered hand!^q So they asked him, "Is it lawful to cure on the sabbath?" that they might get an accusation against him.^r 11 He said to them: "Who will be the man among you that has one sheep and, if this falls into a pit^s on the sabbath, will not get hold of it and lift it out?^t 12 All considered, of how much more worth is a man than a sheep!^u So it is lawful to do a fine thing on the sabbath."^v 13 Then he said to the man: "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored sound like the other hand.^v 14 But the Pharisees went out and took counsel against him that

22 Then they brought him a demon-possessed man, blind and dumb; and he cured him, so that the dumb man spoke and saw. 23 Well, all the crowds were simply carried away and began to say:^k "May this not perhaps be the Son of David?"^l 24 At hearing this, the Pharisees said: "This fellow does not expel the demons except by means of Beel'ze-bub,* the ruler of the demons."^m 25 Knowing their thoughts,ⁿ he said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself comes to desolation,^o and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. 26 In the same way, if Satan expels Satan, he has become divided against himself; how, then, will his kingdom stand? 27 Moreover, if I expel the demons by means of Beel'ze-bub,^p by means of whom do YOUR sons expel them? 13 On that day Jesus, having left the house, was sitting by the sea; 2 and great crowds gathered to him, so that he went aboard a boat and sat down,^j and all the crowd was standing on the beach. 3 Then he told them many things by illustrations,* saying: "Look! 10 So the disciples came up and said to him: "Why is it you speak to them by the use of illustrations?"^g 11 In reply he said: "To you it is granted to understand the sacred secrets^h of the kingdom of the heavens, but to those people it is not granted.ⁱ 12 For whoever has, more will be given him and he will be made to abound;^j but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.^k 13 This is why I speak to them by the use of illustrations, because, looking, they look in vain, and hearing, they hear in vain, neither do they get the sense of it;^l 14 and toward them the prophecy of Isaiah is having fulfillment, which says, 'By hearing, you will hear but by no means get the sense of it; and, looking, you will look but by no means see.'^m 15 For the heart of this people has grown unreceptive,* and with their ears they have heard without response,ⁿ and they have shut their eyes; that they might never see with their eyes and hear with their ears and get the sense of it with their hearts and turn back, and I heal them."^o

16 "However, happy are YOUR eyes^p because they behold, and YOUR ears because they hear. 17 For I truly say to you, Many prophets^q and righteous men desired to see the things you are beholding and did not see them,^r and to hear the things you are hearing and did not hear them."^s

18 "You, then, listen to the illustration of the man that sowed.^t 19 Where anyone hears the word of the kingdom but does not get the sense of it, the wicked one^u comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart; this

33 Another illustration he spoke to them: "The kingdom of the heavens is like leaven,^c which a woman took and hid in three large measures* of flour, until the whole mass was fermented."

34 All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds by illustrations. Indeed, without an illustration he would not speak to them;^d 35 that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet who said: "I will open my mouth with illustrations, I will publish things hidden since the founding."^e

36 Then after dismissing the crowds he went into the house. And his disciples came to him and said: "Explain to us the illustration of the weeds* in the field." 37 In response he said: "The sower of the fine seed is the Son of man; 38 the field is the world;^f as for the fine seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; but the weeds are the sons of the wicked^g one, 39 and the enemy that sowed them is the Devil.^h The harvestⁱ is a conclusion* of a system of things,^j and the reapers are angels. 40 Therefore, just as the weeds are collected and burned with fire, so it will be in the conclusion of the system of things.^k 41 The Son of man will send forth his angels, and they will collect out from his kingdom all things that cause stumbling^l and persons who are doing lawlessness, 42 and they will pitch them into the fiery furnace.^m There is where [their] weeping and the gnashing of [their] teeth will be.ⁿ 43 At that time the righteous ones will shine^o as bright-

45 "Again the kingdom of the heavens is like a traveling merchant seeking fine pearls. 46 Upon finding one pearl of high value,^e away he went and promptly sold all the things he had and bought it.^f

47 "Again the kingdom of the heavens is like a dragnet let down into the sea and gathering up [fish] of every kind.^g 48 When it got full they hauled it up onto the beach and, sitting down, they collected the fine^h ones into vessels, but the unsuitableⁱ they threw away. 49 That is how it will be in the conclusion of the system of things:^{} the angels will go out and separate the wicked^j from among the righteous^k 50 and will cast them into the fiery furnace. 51 "Did you get the sense of all these things?" They said to him: "Yes." 52 Then he said to them: "That being the case, every public instructor,^{} when taught respecting the kingdom of the heavens,^m is like a man, a householder, who brings out of his treasure store things new and old."ⁿ

53 Now when Jesus had finished these illustrations he went across country from there. 54 And after coming into his home territory^o he began to teach them in their synagogue,^p so that they were astounded and said: "Where did this man get this wisdom and these powerful works? 55 Is this not the carpenter's son?^q Is not his mother called Mary, and his brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas? 56 And his sisters, are they not all with us?^r Where, then, did this man get all these things?"^s 57 So they began to stumble at him.^t But Jesus said to them: "A 14 At that particular time Herod, the district ruler,^{} heard the report about Jesus^c 2 and said to his servants: "This is John the Baptist. He was raised up from the dead, and this is why the powerful works^{} are operating in him."^d 3 For Herod had arrested John and bound him and put him away in prison on account of Herod's wife of Philip his brother.^e 4 For John had been saying to him: "It is not lawful for you to be having her."^f 5 However, although he wanted to kill him, he feared the crowd, because they took him for a prophet.^g 6 But when Herod's birthday^h was being celebrated the daughter of Herod's wife danced at it and pleased Herod so much 7 that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked.ⁱ 8 Then she, under her mother's coaching, said: "Give me here upon a platter the head of John the Baptist."^j 9 Grieved though he was, the king out of regard for his oaths and for those reclining with him commanded it to be given;^k 10 and he sent and had John beheaded in the prison. 11 And his head was brought on a platter and given to the maiden, and she brought it to her mother.^l 12 Finally his disciples came up and removed the corpse and buried him^m and came and reported to Jesus. 13 At hearing this Jesus withdrew from there by boat into a lonely place for isolation;ⁿ but the crowds, getting to hear of it, followed him on foot from the cities.

14 Now when he came forth he saw a great crowd; and he felt pity^o for them, and he cured their sick ones.^p 15 But when evening fell his disciples came to him and said: "The place is lonely and the hour is already far advanced; send the crowds away, that they may go into the villages and buy themselves things to eat."^q 16 How-

23 Eventually, having sent the crowds away, he went up into the mountain by himself to pray.^h Though it became late, he was there alone. 24 By now the boat was many hundreds of yards* away from land, being hard put to it by the waves,ⁱ because the wind was against them. 25 But in the fourth watch period* of the night he came to them, walking over the sea.^j 26 When they caught sight of him walking on the sea, the disciples were troubled, saying: "It is an apparition!"^k And they cried out in their fear. 27 But at once Jesus spoke to them with the words: "Take courage, it is I;^l have no fear." 28 In reply Peter said to him: "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you over the waters." 29 He said: "Come!" Thereupon Peter, getting down off the boat,^m walked over the waters and went toward Jesus. 30 But looking at the windstorm, he got afraid and, after starting to sink, he cried out: "Lord, save me!" 31 Immediately stretching out his hand Jesus caught hold of him and said to him: "You with little faith, why did you give way to doubt?"^a 32 And after they got up into the boat, the windstorm abated. 33 Then those in the boat did obeisance to him, saying: "You are really God's Son."^b 34 And they got across and came to land in Gen-nes'a-ret.^c

35 Upon recognizing him the men of that place sent forth into all that surrounding country, and people brought him all those who were ill.^d 36 And they went entreating him that they might just touch the fringe of his outer garment;^e and all those who touched it were made completely well.

15 Then there came to Jesus from Jerusalem^f Pharisees and scribes, saying: 2 "Why is it your disciples overstep the tradition of the men of former times? For example, they do not wash their hands when about to eat a meal."^g

3 In reply he said to them: "Why is it YOU also overstep the commandment of God because of YOUR tradition?"^h 4 For example, God said, 'Honor your father and your mother';ⁱ and, 'Let him that reviles father or mother end up in death.'^j 5 But YOU say, 'Whoever says to his father or mother: "What-ever I have by which you might get benefit from me is a gift dedicated to God," 6 he must not honor his father at all.'^k And so YOU have made the word of God invalid because of YOUR tradition.^l 7 YOU hypocrites,^m Isaiahⁿ aptly prophesied about YOU, when he said, 8 'This people honors me with their lips, yet their heart is far removed from me.'^o 9 It is in vain that they keep worshipping me, because they teach commands of men as doctrines."^p 10 With that he called the crowd near and said to them: "Listen and get the sense of it:^q 11 Not what enters into [his] mouth defiles a man; but it is what proceeds out of [his] mouth that defiles a man."^r

12 Then the disciples came up and said to him: "Do you know that the Pharisees stumbled at hearing what you said?"^a 13 In reply he said: "Every plant that my heavenly Father did not plant will be uprooted.^b 14 LET them be. Blind guides is what they are. If, then, a blind man guides a blind man, both will fall into a pit."^c 15 By way of response Peter said to him: "Make the illustration* plain to us."^d 16 At this he said: "Are YOU also yet without understanding?^e 17 Are YOU not aware that everything entering into the mouth passes along into the intestines and is discharged into the sewer?" 18 However, the things proceeding out of the mouth come out of the heart, and those things defile a man.^f 19 For example, out of the heart come wicked reasonings,^g murders, adulteries, fornications, thievery, false testimonies, blasphemies.^h 20 These are the things defiling a man; but to take a meal with unwashed hands does not defile a man."ⁱ

21 Leaving there, Jesus now withdrew into the parts of Tyre and Si'don.^j 22 And, look! a Phoeni'cian^{*k} woman from those regions came out and cried aloud, saying: "Have mercy on me,^l Lord, Son of David. My daughter is badly demonized." 23 But he did not say a word in answer to her. So his disciples came up and began to request him: "Send her away; because she keeps crying out after us." 24 In answer he said: "I was not sent forth to any but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."^m 25 When the woman came she began doing obeisance to him, saying: "Lord, help me!"ⁿ 26 In answer he said: "It is not right to take the bread of the children and throw it to little dogs."^o 27 She said: "Yes, Lord; but really the little dogs do eat of the crumbs falling from the table of their masters."^o 28 Then Jesus said in reply to her: "O woman, great is your faith; let it happen to you as you wish." And her daughter was healed from that hour on.^p

29 Crossing country from there, Jesus next came near the sea of Gal'i-lee,^a and, after going up into the mountain,^b he was sitting there. 30 Then great crowds approached him, having along with them people that were lame, maimed, blind, dumb, and many otherwise, and they fairly threw them at his feet, and he cured them;^c 31 so that the crowd felt amazement as they saw the dumb speaking and the lame walking and the blind seeing, and they glorified the God of Israel.^d

32 But Jesus called his disciples to him and said:^e "I feel pity^f for the crowd, because it is already three days that they have stayed with me and they have nothing to eat; and I do not want to send them away fasting. They may possibly give out on the road." 33 However, the disciples said to him: "Where are we in this lonely place going to get sufficient loaves to satisfy a crowd of this size?"^g 34 At this Jesus said to them: "How many loaves have YOU?" They said: "Seven, and a few little fishes." 35 So, after instructing the crowd to recline upon the ground, 36 he took the seven loaves and the fishes and, after offering thanks, he broke them and began distributing to the disciples, the disciples in turn to the crowds.^h 37 And all ate and were satisfied, and as a surplus of fragments they took up seven provision baskets full.ⁱ 38 Yet those eating were four thousand men, besides women and young children. 39 Finally, after sending the crowds away, he got into the boat and came into the regions of Mag'a-dan.^j

16 Here the Pharisees^k and Sadducees approached him and, to tempt him, they asked him to display to them a sign from heaven.^l 2 In reply he said to them: "[When evening falls YOU are accustomed to say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is fire-red'; 3 and at morning, 'It will be wintry, rainy weather today, for the sky is fire-red, but gloomy-looking.' You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but the signs of the times YOU cannot interpret.]]^a 4 A wicked and adulterous* generation keeps on seeking for a sign, but no sign will be given it^b except the sign of Jo'nah.^c With that he went away, leaving them behind.^d

5 Now the disciples crossed to the other side and forgot to take loaves along.^e 6 Jesus said to them: "Keep your eyes open and watch out for the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."^f 7 So they began to reason among themselves, saying: "We did not take any loaves along." 8 Knowing this, Jesus said: "Why are you doing this reasoning among yourselves, because you have no loaves, you with little faith?" 9 Do you not yet see the point, or do you not remember the five loaves in the case of the five thousand and how many baskets you took up?^h 10 Or the seven loaves in the case of the four thousand and how many provision baskets you took up?ⁱ 11 How is it you do not discern that I did not talk to you about loaves? But watch out for the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."^j 12 Then they grasped that he said to watch out, not for the leaven of the loaves, but for the teaching^k of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

13 Now when he had come into the parts of Caesare'a Philip'pi, Jesus went asking his disciples: "Who are men saying the Son of man is?"^l 14 They said: "Some say John the Baptist,^m others Eli'jah,ⁿ still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." 15 He said to them: "You, though, who do you say I am?"^o 16 In answer Simon Peter said: "You are the Christ,^p the Son of the living God."^q 17 In response Jesus said to him: "Happy you are, Simon son of Jo'nah,* because flesh and blood did not reveal [it] to you, but my Father who is in the heavens did.^r 18 Also, I say to you, You are Peter,^s and on this

17 Six days later Jesus took Peter and James and John his brother along and brought them up into a lofty mountain by themselves.^c 2 And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone as the sun,^d and his outer garments became brilliant as the light.^e 3 And, look! there appeared to them Moses and E-li’jah, conversing with him.^f 4 Responsively Peter said to Jesus: “Lord, it is fine for us to be here. If you wish, I will erect three tents here, one for you and one for Moses and one for E-li’jah.”^g 5 While he was yet speaking, look! a bright cloud overshadowed them, and, look! a voice out of the cloud, saying: “This is my Son, the beloved, whom I have approved;^h listen to him.”ⁱ 6 At hearing this the disciples fell upon their faces and became very much afraid.^j 7 Then Jesus came near and, touching them, said: “Get up and have no fear.”^k 8 When they raised their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus himself only.^l 9 And as they were descending from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying: “Tell the vision to no one until the Son of man is raised up from the dead.”^m

10 However, the disciples put the question to him: “Why, then, do the scribes say that E-li’jah must come first?”ⁿ 11 In reply he said: “E-li’jah, indeed, is coming and will restore all things.”^o 12 However, I say to you that E-li’jah has already come and they did not recognize him but did with him the things they wanted. In this way also the Son of man is destined to suffer at their hands.”^p 13 Then the disciples perceived that he spoke to them about John the Baptist.^q

14 And when they came toward the crowd,^r a man approached him, kneeling down to him and saying: 15 “Lord, have mercy on my son, because he is an epileptic and is ill, for he falls often into the fire and often into the water;^a 16 and I brought him to your disciples, but they could not cure him.”^b 17 In reply Jesus said: “O faithless and twisted generation,^c how long must I continue with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him here to me.”^d 18 Then Jesus rebuked it,^e and the demon came out of him;^f and the boy was cured from that hour.^g 19 Thereupon the disciples came up to Jesus privately and said: “Why is it we could not expel it?”^h 20 He said to them: “Because of your little faith. For truly I say to you, If you have faith the size of a mustard grain, you will say to this mountain, ‘Transfer from here to there,’ and it will transfer, and nothing will be impossible for you.”ⁱ 21* —

22 It was while they were gathered together in Gal’i-lee that Jesus said to them: “The Son of man is destined to be betrayed into men’s hands,^j 23 and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up.”^k Consequently they were very much grieved.^l

24 After they arrived in Ca-per’na-um the men collecting the two drachmas* [tax] approached Peter and said: “Does your teacher not pay the two drachmas [tax]?”^m 25 He said: “Yes.” However, when he entered the house Jesus got ahead of him by saying: “What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive duties or head tax? From their sons or from the strangers?”ⁿ 26 When he said: “From the strangers,” Jesus said to him: “Really, then, the sons are tax-free. 27 But that we do not cause them to stumble,^o you go to the sea, cast a fishhook, and take the first fish coming up and, when you open its mouth, you will find a stater coin.* Take that and give it to them for me and you.”^p

18 In that hour the disciples came near to Jesus and said: "Who really is greatest in the kingdom of the heavens?"^a 2 So, calling a young child to him, he set it in their midst^b 3 and said: "Truly I say to you, Unless you turn around and become as young children,^c you will by no means enter into the kingdom of the heavens."^d 4 Therefore, whoever will humble^e himself like this young child is the one that is the greatest in the kingdom of the heavens;^f 5 and whoever receives one such young child on the basis of my name receives me [also].^g 6 But whoever stumbles one of these little ones who put faith in me, it is more beneficial for him to have hung around his neck a millstone^h such as is turned by an ass and to be sunk in the wide, open sea.ⁱ

7 "Woe to the world due to the stumbling blocks! Of course, the stumbling blocks must of necessity come,^j but woe to the man through whom the stumbling block^k comes! 8 If, then, your hand or your foot is making you stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you;^l it is finer for you to enter into life maimed or lame than to be thrown with two hands or two feet into the everlasting fire."^m 9 Also, if your eye is making you stumble, tear it out and throw it away from you; it is finer for you to enter one-eyed into life than to be thrown with two eyes into the fiery Geh-en'na.ⁿ 10 See to it that you men do not despise one of these little ones; for I tell you that their angels^o in heaven always behold the face of my Father* who is in heaven.^p 11 —

12 "What do you think? If a certain man comes to have a hundred sheep and one of them gets strayed,^q will he not leave the ninety-nine upon the mountains and set out on a search for the one that is straying?^r 13 And if he happens to find it, I certainly tell you, he rejoices more over it than over

21 Then Peter came up and said to him: "Lord, how many times is my brother to sin against me and am I to forgive him?^m Up to seven times?"ⁿ

22 Jesus said to him: "I say to you, not, Up to seven times, but, Up to seventy-seven times."^o

23 "That is why the kingdom of the heavens has become like a man, a king,^p that wanted to settle accounts^q with his slaves. 24 When he started to settle them, there was brought in a man who owed him ten thousand talents [=60,000,000 de-nar'i-i].* 25 But because he did not have the means to

19 Now when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Gal'i-lee and came to the frontiers of Jude'a across the Jordan.¹ 2 Also, great crowds followed him, and he cured them there.^m ply he said: "Did you not read that he who created them from [the] beginning made them male and female?"⁵ and said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and his mother^b and will stick to his wife, and the two will be one flesh?'^c 6 So that they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has yoked together let no man put apart."^d 7 They said to him: "Why, then, did Moses prescribe giving a certificate of dismissal and divorcing her?"^e 8 He said to them: "Moses, out of regard for YOUR hardheartedness,^f made the concession to YOU of divorcing YOUR wives, but such has not been the case from [the] beginning.^g 9 I say to YOU that whoever divorces his wife, except on the ground of fornication,^h and marries another commits adultery."^h

10 The disciples said to him: "If such is the situation of a man with his wife, it is not advisable to marry."ⁱ 11 He said to them: "Not all men make room for the saying, but only those who have the gift.^j 12 For there are eunuchs that were born such from their mother's womb,^k and there are eunuchs that were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs that have made themselves eunuchs on account of the kingdom of the heavens. 13 Then young children were brought to him, for him to put his hands upon them and offer prayer; but the disciples reprimanded them.^m 14 Jesus, however, said: "Let the young children alone, and stop hindering them from coming to me, for the kingdom of the heavens belongs to suchlike ones."ⁿ 15 And he put his hands upon them and went from there.^o

20 “For the kingdom of the heavens is like a man, a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard.^a 2 When he had agreed with the workers for a denar'ius* a day,^b he sent them forth into his vineyard. 3 Going out also about the third hour,^c he saw others standing unemployed in the marketplace;^d 4 and to those he said, ‘You also, go into the vineyard, and whatever is just I will give you.’ 5 So off they went. Again he went out about the sixth^e and the ninth hour^f and did likewise. 6 Finally, about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing, and he said to them, ‘Why have you been standing here all day unemployed?’ 7 They said to him, ‘Because nobody has hired us.’ He said to them, ‘You too go into the vineyard.’^g

8 “When it became evening,^h the master of the vineyard said to his man in charge, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages,ⁱ proceeding from the last to the first.’ 9 When the eleventh-hour men came, they each received a denar'ius. 10 So, when the first came, they concluded they would receive more; but they also received pay at the rate of a denar'ius. 11 On receiving it they began to murmur against the householder^j 12 and said, ‘These last put in one hour's work; still you made them equal to us who bore the burden of the day and the burning heat!’ 13 But in reply to one of them he said, ‘Fellow, I do you no wrong. 20 Then the mother of the sons of Zeb'e-dee^d approached him with her sons, doing obeisance and asking for something from him.^e 21 He said to her: "What do you want?" 22 Jesus said in answer: "You men do not know what you are asking for. Can you drink the cup^g that I am about to drink?" They said to him: "We can."

23 He said to them: "You will indeed drink my cup,^h but this sitting down at my right hand and at my left is not mine to give, but it belongs to those for whom it has been prepared by my Father."

24 When the ten others heard of this, they became indignant at the two brothers.ⁱ 25 But Jesus, calling them to him, said: "You know that the rulers of the nations lord it over them and the great men wield authority over them.^k

26 This is not the way among you;^l but whoever wants to become great among you must be your minister,^{*m} 27 and whoever wants to be first among you must be your slave.ⁿ 28 Just as the Son of man came, not to be ministered to, but to minister^{*o} and to give his soul^a a ransom^a in exchange for many."^p

of David!"^a 31 But the crowd sternly told them to keep silent; yet they cried all the louder, saying: "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!"^b 32 So Jesus stopped, called them and said: "What do you want me to do for you?" 33 They said to him: "Lord, let our eyes be opened."^c 34 Moved with pity, Jesus touched their eyes,^d and immediately they received sight, and they followed him.^e

21 Well, when they got close to Jerusalem and arrived at Beth'phage on the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent forth two disciples,^f 2 saying to them: "Be on your way into the village that is within sight of you, and you will at once find an ass tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me.^g 3 And if someone says anything to you, you must say, 'The Lord needs them.' At that he will immediately send them forth."

4 This actually took place that there might be fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet, saying: 5 "TELL the daughter of Zion, 'Look! Your King is coming to you,^h mild-tempered,ⁱ and mounted upon an ass, yes, upon a colt, the offspring of a beast of burden.'"^j

6 So the disciples got on their way and did just as Jesus ordered them. 7 And they brought the ass and its colt, and they put upon these their outer garments, and he seated himself upon them.^k 8 Most of the crowd spread their outer garments^l on the road, while others began cutting down branches from the trees and spreading them on the road.^m 9 As for the crowds, those going ahead of him and those following kept crying out: "Save, we pray,^{*n} the Son of David!"^o Blessed is he that comes in Jehovah's[#] name!^p Save him, we pray, in the heights above!"^q

10 Now when he entered into Jerusalem,^r the whole city was set in commotion, saying: "Who is this?" 11 The crowds kept telling: "This is the prophet^a Jesus, from Naz'a-reth of Gal'i-lee!"

12 And Jesus entered into the temple and threw out all those selling and buying in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves.^b

13 And he said to them: "It is written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer,'^c but you are making it a cave of robbers."^d 14 Also, blind and lame persons came up to him in the temple, and he cured them.

15 When the chief priests and the scribes saw the marvelous things he did^e and the boys that were crying out in the temple and saying: "Save, we pray,^f the Son of David!"^g they became indignant 16 and said to him: "Do you hear what these are saying?" Jesus said to them: "Yes. Did you never read^h this, 'Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings you have furnished praise?'"ⁱ 17 And leaving them behind he went outside the city to Beth'a-ny and passed the night there.^j

18 While returning to the city early in the morning, he got hungry.^k

19 And he caught sight of a fig tree by the road and went to it, but he found nothing^l on it except leaves only, and he said to it: "Let no fruit come from you anymore forever."^m And the fig tree withered instantly. 20 But when the disciples saw this, they wondered, saying: "How is it that the fig tree withered instantly?"ⁿ 21 In answer Jesus said to them: "Truly I say to you, if only you have faith and do not doubt,^o not only will you do what I did to the fig tree, but also if you say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and cast into the sea,' it will happen.^p 22 And all the things you ask in prayer, having faith, you will receive."^q

23 Now after he went into the temple, the chief priests and the older men of the people came up to him while he was teaching and said:^r "By what authority do you do these things? And who gave you this authority?"^s 24 In reply Jesus said to them: "I, also, will ask you one thing. If you tell it to me, I also will tell you by what authority I do these things:^a 25 The baptism by John, from what source was it? From heaven or from men?"^b But they began to reason among themselves, saying: "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why, then, did you not believe him?'"^c 26 If, though, we say, 'From men,' we have the crowd to fear,^d for they all hold John as a prophet."^e 27 So in answer to Jesus they said: "We do not know." He, in turn, said to them: "Neither am I telling you by what authority I do these things."^f

28 "What do you think? A man had two children.^g Going up to the first, he said, 'Child, go work today in the vineyard.' 29 In answer this one said, 'I will, sir,'^h but did not go out. 30 Approaching the second, he said the same. In reply this one said, 'I will not.' Afterwards he felt regretⁱ and went out. 31 Which of the two did the will of [his] father?"^j They said: "The latter." Jesus said to them: "Truly I say to you that the tax collectors and the harlots are going ahead of you into the kingdom of God. 32 For John came to you in a way of righteousness,^k but you did not believe him.^l However, the tax collectors and the harlots believed him,^m and you, although you saw [this], did not feel regret afterwards so as to believe him.

33 "Hear another illustration:^{*} There was a man, a householder,ⁿ who planted a vineyard and put a fence around it and dug a winepress in it and erected a tower,^o and let it out to cultivators, and traveled abroad.^p 34 When the season of the fruits came around, he dispatched his slaves to the cultivators to get his fruits. 35 However, the cultivators took his slaves, and one they beat up, another they killed, another they stoned.^q 36 Again he dispatched other slaves, more than the first, but they did the same to these.^r 37 Lastly he dispatched his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 38 On seeing the son the cultivators said among themselves, 'This is the heir;^s come, let us kill him and get his inheritance!"^a 39 So they took him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.^b 40 Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those cultivators?" 41 They said to him: "Because they are evil, he will bring an evil destruction^c upon them and will let out the vineyard to other cultivators, who will render him the fruits when they become due."^d

42 Jesus said to them: "Did you never read in the Scriptures, 'The stone that the builders rejected^e is the one that has become the chief cornerstone.'^f From Jehovah* this has come to be, and it is marvelous in our eyes'? 43 This is why I say to YOU, The kingdom of God will be taken from YOU and be given to a nation producing its fruits.^g 44 Also, the person falling upon this stone will be shattered. As for anyone upon whom it falls, it will pulverize him."^h

45 Now when the chief priests and the Pharisees had heard his illustrations, they took note that he was speaking about them.ⁱ 46 But, although they were seeking to seize him, they feared the crowds, because these held him to be a prophet.^j

22 In further reply Jesus again spoke to them with illustrations, saying:^k 2 "The kingdom of the heavens has become like a man, a king, that made a marriage feast^l for his son. 3 And he sent forth his slaves to call those invited to the marriage feast,^m but they were unwilling to come."ⁿ 4 Again he sent forth other slaves,^o saying, "Tell those invited: 'Look! I have prepared my dinner,^p my bulls and fattened animals are slaughtered, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage feast."^q 5 But unconcerned they went off, one to his own field, another to his commercial business;^r 6 but the rest, laying hold of his slaves, treated them insolently and killed them.^s

7 "But the king grew wrathful, and sent his armies and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.^t 8 Then he said to his slaves, 'The marriage

11 "When the king came in to inspect the guests he caught sight there of a man not clothed with a marriage garment.^e 12 So he said to him, 'Fellow, how did you get in here not having on a marriage garment?'^f He was rendered speechless. 13 Then the king said to his servants,* 'Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the darkness outside. 15 Then the Pharisees went their way and took counsel together in order to trap him in his speech.ⁱ 16 So they dispatched to him their disciples, together with party followers of Herod,^j saying: "Teacher, we know you are truthful and teach the way of God in truth, and you do not care for anybody, for you do not look upon men's outward appearance.^k 17 Tell us, therefore, What do you think? 23 On that day Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection,^c came up to him and asked him:^c 24 "Teacher, Moses said, 'If any man dies without having children, his brother must take his wife in marriage and raise up offspring for his brother.'^d 25 Now there were seven brothers with us; and the first married and deceased, and, not having offspring, he left his wife for his brother.^e 26 It went the same way also with the second and the third, until through all seven.^f 27 Last of all the woman died. 28 Consequently, in the resurrection, to which of the seven will she be wife? For they all got her."^g

29 In reply Jesus said to them: "YOU are mistaken, because YOU know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God;^h 30 for in the resurrection neither do men marry nor are women given in marriage,ⁱ but are as angels in heaven. 31 As regards the resurrection of the dead, did YOU not read what was spoken to YOU by God, saying,^j 32 'I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob?'^k He is the God,^{*} not of the dead, but of the living."^l 33 On hearing [that], the crowds were astounded at his teaching.^m

34 After the Pharisees heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they came together in one group. 35 And one of them, versed in the Law,ⁿ asked, testing him: 36 "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?"^o 37 He said to him: "You must love Jehovah* your God with your whole heart and with your whole soul and with your whole mind."^p 38 This is the greatest and first commandment. 39 The second, like it, is this, 'You must love your neighbor as yourself.'^q

YOUR house^f is abandoned to you.^g 39 For I say to you, You will by no means see me from henceforth until you say, 'Blessed is he that comes in Jehovah's* name!'"^h

24 Departing now, Jesus was on his way from the temple, but his disciples approached to show him the buildings of the temple.ⁱ 2 In response he said to them: "Do you not behold all these things? Truly I say to you, By no means will a stone be left here upon a stone and not be thrown down."^j

3 While he was sitting upon the Mount of Olives, the disciples approached him privately, saying: "Tell us, When will these things be, and what will be the sign of your presence^k* and of the conclusion^l* of the system of things?"^m

4 And in answer Jesus said to them: "Look out that nobody misleads you;ⁿ 5 for many will come on the basis of my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,'* and will mislead many." 6 You are going to hear of wars and reports of wars; see that you are not terrified. For these things must take place, but the end^o* is not yet.^p

7 "For nation will rise* against nation^q and kingdom against kingdom,^r and there will be food shortages^s and earthquakes^t in one place after another. 8 All these things are a beginning of pangs of distress.

6 While Jesus happened to be in Beth'a-ny^h in the house of Simon the leper,ⁱ 7 a woman with an alabaster case of costly perfumed oil^j approached him, and she began pouring it upon his head as he was reclining at the table.

8 On seeing this the disciples became indignant and said: "Why this waste?^k

9 For this could have been sold for a great deal and been given to poor^l people." 10 Aware of this,^m Jesus said to them: "Why do you try to make trouble for the woman? For she did a fine deed toward me."ⁿ 11 For you always have the poor^o with you, but you will not always have me.^p 12 For when this woman put this perfumed oil upon my body, she did it for the preparation of me for burial.^q 13 Truly I say to you, Wherever this good news is preached^r in all the world,^s what this woman did shall also be told as a remembrance of her."^r

14 Then one of the twelve, the one called Judas Is-car'i-ot,^s went to the chief priests 15 and said: "What will you give me to betray him to you?"^t They stipulated to him thirty silver pieces.^u

16 So from then on he kept seeking a good opportunity to betray him.^a

17 On the first day of* the unfermented cakes^b the disciples came up to Jesus, saying: "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the passover?"^c

18 He said: "Go into the city to So-and-so^d and say to him, The Teacher says, 'My appointed time is near; I will celebrate the passover with my disciples at your home.'^e 19 And the disciples did as Jesus ordered them, and they got things ready for the passover.^f

20 When, now, it had become evening,^g he was reclining at the table with the twelve disciples.^h 21 While they were eating, he said: "Truly I say to you, One of you will betray me."ⁱ

22 Being very much grieved at this, they commenced each and every one to say to him: "Lord, it is not I, is it?"^j

23 In reply he said: "He that dips his hand with me in the bowl is the one that will betray me.^k 24 True, the Son of man is going away, just as it is written^l concerning him, but woe^m to that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed!ⁿ It would have been finer for him if that man had not been born."

25 By way of reply Judas, who was about to betray him, said: "It is not I, is it, Rabbi?" He said to him: "You yourself said [it]."

26 As they continued eating, Jesus took a loaf^o and, after saying a blessing, he broke it^p and, giving it to the disciples, he said: "TAKE, eat. All the other disciples also said the same thing.^h

36 Then Jesus came with them to the spotⁱ called Geth-sem'a-ne, and he said to the disciples: "Sit down here while I go over there and pray."^j 37 And taking along Peter and the two sons^k of Zeb'e-dee, he started to be grieved and to be sorely troubled.^l 38 Then he said to them: "My soul is deeply grieved, even to death.^m Stay here and keep on the watch with me."ⁿ 39 And going a little way forward, he fell upon his face, praying^o and saying: "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup^p pass away from me. Then all the disciples abandoned him and fled.^a

57 Those who took Jesus into custody led him away to Ca'ia-phas^b the high priest, where the scribes and the older men were gathered together.^c 58 But Peter kept following him at a good distance, as far as the courtyard^d of the high priest, and, after going inside, he was sitting with the house attendants to see the outcome.^e

59 Meantime the chief priests and the entire San'he-drin* were looking for false witness against Jesus in order to put him to death,^f 60 but they found none, although many false witnesses came forward.^g Later on two came forward 61 and said: “This man said, ‘I am able to throw down the temple* of God and build it up in three days.’”^h 62 With that the high priest stood up and said to him: “Have you no answer? What is it these are testifying against you?”ⁱ 63 But Jesus kept silent.^j So the high priest said to him: “By the living God I put you under oath^k to tell us whether you are the Christ! the Son of God!” 64 Jesus said^m to him: “You yourself said [it].”ⁿ Yet I say to you men, From henceforth^o you will see the Son of man^p sitting at the right hand^q of power and coming* on the clouds of heaven.”^r 65 Then the high priest ripped his outer garments, saying: “He has blasphemed!^s What further need do we have of witnesses?^t See! Now YOU have heard the blasphemy.”^u 66 What is YOUR opinion?” They returned answer: “He is liable to death.”^v 67 Then they spit into his face^w and hit* him with their fists. Others slapped him in the face,^y 68 saying: “Prophecy to us, you Christ.^z Who is it that struck you?”^a

69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard; and a servant girl came up to him, saying: “You, too, were with

And immediately a cock crowed.^e 75 And Peter called to mind the saying Jesus spoke, namely: "Before a cock crows, you will disown me three times."^f And he went outside and wept bitterly.^g

27 When it had become morning, all the chief priests and the older men of the people held a consultation against Jesus so as to put him to death.^h 2 And, after binding him, they led him off and handed him over to Pilate the governor.ⁱ

3 Then Judas, who betrayed him, seeing he had been condemned, felt remorse and turned the thirty^j silver pieces back to the chief priests and older men, 4 saying: "I sinned when I betrayed righteous blood."^k They said: "What is that to us? You must see to that!"^l 5 So he threw the silver pieces into the temple^m and withdrew, and went off and hanged himself.^m 6 But the chief priests took the silver pieces and said: "It is not lawful to drop them into the sacred treasury, because they are the price of blood."ⁿ 7 After consulting together, they bought with them the potter's field to bury strangers. 8 Therefore that field has been called "Field of Blood"ⁿ to this very day. 9 Then what was spoken through Jeremiah^o the prophet was fulfilled, saying: "And they took^o the thirty silver pieces,^o the price upon the man that was priced, the one on whom some of the sons of Israel set a price, 10 and they gave^{*} them for the potter's^a field, according to what Jehovah^b had commanded me."

11 Jesus now stood before the governor; and the governor put the question to him: "Are you the king of the Jews?"^b Jesus replied: "You yourself say [it]."^c

12 But, while he was being accused^d by the chief priests and older men, he made no answer.^e 13 Then Pilate said to him: "Do you not hear how many things they are testifying against you?"^f

14 Yet he did not answer him, no, not a word, so that the governor wondered very much.^g

15 Now from festival to festival it was the custom of the governor to release a prisoner to the crowd, the one they wanted.^h 16 Just at that time they were holding a notorious prisoner called Bar-ab'bas.ⁱ 17 Hence when they were gathered together Pilate said to them: "Which one do you want me to release to you, Bar-ab'bas or Jesus the so-called Christ?"^j 18 For he was aware that out of envy^k they had handed him over.^l 19 Moreover, while he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent out to him, saying: "Have nothing to do with that righteous^m man,^{*} for I suffered a lot today in a dreamⁿ because of him." 20 But the chief priests and the older men persuaded the crowds to ask for Bar-ab'bas,^o but to have Jesus destroyed. 21 Now in responding the governor said to them: "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" They said: "Bar-ab'bas."^p 22 Pilate said to them: "What, then, shall I do with Jesus the so-called Christ?" They all said: "Let him be impaled!"^q 23 He said: "Why, what bad thing did he do?" Still they kept crying out all the more: "Let him be impaled!"^r

24 Seeing that it did no good but, rather, an uproar was arising, Pilate took water^s and washed his hands before the crowd, saying: "I am innocent of the blood of this [man].* You yourselves must see to it." 25 At that all the people said in answer: "His blood come upon us and upon our children."^a 26 Then he released Bar-ab^b to them, but he had Jesus whipped^b and handed him over to be impaled.^c

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the governor's palace and gathered the whole body of troops together to him.^d 28 And disrobing him, they draped him with a scarlet cloak,^e 29 and they braided a crown out of thorns and put it on his head and a reed in his right hand. And, kneeling before him, they made fun^f of him, saying: "Good day, you King of the Jews!"^g 30 And they spit^h upon him and took the reed and began hitting him upon his head. 31 Finally, when they had made funⁱ of him, they took the cloak off and put his outer garments upon him and led him off for impaling.^j

32 As they were going out they found a native of Cy-re'ne named Simon.^k This man they impressed into service to lift up his torture stake. 33 And when they came to a place called Gol-go-tha,^l that is to say, Skull Place,^m 34 they gave him wine mixed with gallⁿ to drink; but, after tasting it, he refused to drink.ⁿ 35 When they had impaled^o him they distributed his outer garments^p by casting lots,^q 36 and, as they sat, they watched over him there. 37 Also, they posted above his head the charge against him, in writing: "This is Jesus the King of the Jews."^r

38 Then two robbers were impaled with him, one on his right and one on his left.^s 39 So the passersby began speaking abusively^t of him, wagging^u their heads 40 and saying: "O you would-be thrower-down of the temple^v and builder of it in three days, save yourself! If you are a son of God, come down off the torture stake!"^w 41 In like manner also the chief priests with the scribes and older men began making fun of him and saying:^a 42 "Others he saved; himself he cannot save! He is King^b of Israel; let him now come down off the torture stake and we will believe on him.^c 43 He has put his trust in God; let Him now rescue^d him if He wants him, for he said, 'I am God's Son.'^e 44 In the same way even the robbers that were impaled together with him began reproaching him.^f

45 From the sixth hour^g on a darkness fell^h over all the land, until the ninth hour.^h 46 About the ninth hour Jesus called out with a loud voice, saying: "E'li, E'li, la'ma sa-bach-tha'ni?"ⁱ that is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"^j 47 At hearing this, some of those standing there began to say: "This man is calling E-li'jah."^k 48 And immediately one of them ran and took a sponge and soaked it with sour^k wine and put it on a reed and went giving him a drink.^l 49 But the rest of them said: "Let him be! Let us see whether E-li'jah comes to save him."^m [[Another man took a spear and pierced his side, and blood and water came out.]]ⁿ 50 Again Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and yielded up [his] spirit.^o

51 And, look! the curtain^p of the sanctuary was rent in two, from top to bottom,^q and the earth quaked, and the rock-masses were split.^r 52 And the memorial tombs were opened and many bodies of the holy ones that had fallen asleep were raised up, 53 (and persons,^s coming out from among the memorial tombs after his being raised up, entered into the holy city,^s and they became visible to many people. 54 But the army officer^t and those with him watching over Jesus, when they saw the earthquake and the things happening, grew very much afraid, saying: "Certainly this was God's Son."^a

55 Moreover, many women were there viewing from a distance,^b who had accompanied Jesus from Gal'i-lee to minister to him;^c 56 among whom was Mary Mag'da-lene, also Mary the mother of James and Jo'ses,* and the mother of the sons of Zeb'e-dee.^d

57 Now as it was late in the afternoon, there came a rich man of Ari-ma-the'a, named Joseph, who had also himself become a disciple of Jesus.^e

58 This man went up to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.^f Then Pilate commanded it to be given over.^g

59 And Joseph took the body, wrapped it up in clean fine linen,^h 60 and laid it in his new memorial tomb,ⁱ which he had quarried in the rock-mass. And, after rolling a big stone to the door of the memorial tomb, he left.^j

61 But Mary Mag'da-lene and the other Mary continued there, sitting before the grave.^k

62 The next day, which was after the Preparation,^l the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered together before Pilate, 63 saying: "Sir, we have called to mind that that impostor said while yet alive, 'After three days' I am to be raised up.' 64 Therefore command the grave to be made secure until the third day, that his disciples may never come and stealⁿ him and say to the people, 'He was raised up from the dead!' and this last imposture will be worse than the first." 65 Pilate said to them: "You have a guard.^o Go make it as secure as you know how." 66 So they went and made the grave secure by sealing the stone^p and having the guard.

28 After* the sabbath, when it was growing light on the first day of the week, Mary Mag'da-lene and the other Mary came to view the grave.^q descended from heaven and approached and rolled away the stone, and was sitting on it.^a 3 His outward appearance was as lightning,^b and his clothing as white as snow.^c 4 Yes, for fear of him the watchmen trembled and became as dead men.

5 But the angel^d in answer said to the women: "Do not YOU be fearful, for I know YOU are looking for Jesus^e who was impaled.* 6 He is not here, for he was raised up,^f as he said. Come, see the place where he was lying. 7 And go quickly and tell his disciples that he was raised^g up from the dead, and, look! he is going ahead of YOU into Gal'i-lee;^h there YOU will see him. Look! I have told you."ⁱ

8 So, quickly leaving the memorial tomb, with fear and great joy, they ran to report to his disciples.^j 9 And, look! Jesus met them and said: "Good day!" They approached and caught him by his feet and did obeisance to him.

10 Then Jesus said to them: "Have no fear! Go, report to my brothers,^k that they may go off into Gal'i-lee; and there they will see me."

11 While they were on their way, look! some of the guard^l went into the city and reported to the chief priests all the things that had happened. 12 And after these had gathered together with the older men and taken counsel, they gave a sufficient number of silver pieces to the soldiers^m 13 and said: "Say, 'His disciplesⁿ came in the night and stole him while we were sleeping.' 14 And if this gets to the governor's ears, we will persuade [him] and will set YOU free from worry." 15 So they took the silver pieces and did as they were instructed; and this saying has been spread abroad among the Jews up to this very day.

16 However, the eleven disciples went into Gal'i-lee^o to the mountain where Jesus had arranged for them, 17 and when they saw him they did obeisance, but some doubted.^p 18 And

MARK

1 [The] beginning of the good news^a about^b Jesus Christ: 2 Just as it is written in Isaiah the prophet: "(Look! I am sending forth my messenger^c before your face, who will prepare your way;)"^a 3 listen! someone is crying out in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way of Jehovah,* YOU people, make his roads straight,'"^b 4 John the baptizer^c turned up in the wilderness, preaching baptism [in symbol] of repentance for forgiveness of sins.^c 5 Consequently all the territory of Ju-de'a and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem made their way out to him, and they were baptized by him in the Jordan River, openly confessing their sins.^d 6 Now John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a leather girdle around his loins,^e and was eating insect locusts^f and wild honey.^g 7 And he would preach, saying: "After me someone stronger than I am is coming; I am not fit to stoop and untie the laces of his sandals.^h 8 I baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with holy spirit."ⁱ

9 In the course of those days Jesus came from Naz'a-reth of Gal'i-lee and was baptized in the Jordan by John.^j 10 And immediately on coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being parted, and, like a dove, the spirit coming down upon^a him;^a 11 and a voice came out of the heavens: "You are my Son, the beloved; I have approved you."^b

12 And immediately the spirit^c impelled him to go into the wilderness.^c

13 So he continued in the wilderness forty days,^d being tempted by Satan,^e and he was with the wild beasts, but the angels were ministering to him.^f

14 Now after John was put under arrest Jesus went into Gal'i-lee,^g preaching the good news of God^h 15 and saying: "The appointed time has been fulfilled,ⁱ and the kingdom of God has drawn near. Be repentant,^j YOU people, and have faith in the good news."^k

16 While walking alongside the sea of Gal'i-lee he saw Simon^k and Andrew the brother of Simon casting [their nets] about in the sea, for they were fishers.^l

17 So Jesus said to them: "Come after me, and I shall cause you to become fishers of men."^m 18 And at once they abandoned their nets and followed him.ⁿ

19 And after going a little farther he saw James the [son] of Zeb'e-dee and John his brother, in fact, while they were in their boat mending their nets;^o 20 and without delay he called them.

Mr 1:10 Or, "into"; that is, to enter into him. 12^a Or, "the active force." Gr., to pneu'-ma; J^{17,18,22}(Heb.), ha-ru'ach. See Ge 1:2 ftn, "Force."

In turn they left their father Zeb'e-dee in the boat with the hired men and went off after him. 21 And they went their way into Caper'na-um.^a

No sooner was it the sabbath than he entered into the synagogue and began to teach. 22 And they became astounded at his way of teaching,^b for there he was teaching them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.^c 23 Also, at that immediate time there was in their synagogue a man under the power of an unclean spirit, and he shouted,^d 24 saying: "What have we to do with you,* Jesus you Naz'a-rene'?^e Did you come to destroy us? I know^f exactly who you are, the Holy One^g of God."^h 25 But Jesus rebuked it, saying: "Be silent, and come on out of him!"ⁱ 26 And the unclean spirit, after throwing him into a convulsion and yelling at the top of its voice, came on out of him.^j 27 Well, the people were all so astonished that they began a discussion among themselves, saying: "What is this? A new teaching! He authoritatively orders even the unclean spirits, and they obey him."^k 28 So the report about him spread out immediately in all directions through all the country round about in Gal'i-lee.^l

29 And immediately they went out of the synagogue and went into the home of Simon^m and Andrew with James and John. 30 Now Simon's mother-in-lawⁿ was lying down sick with a fever,^o and they at once told him about her. 31 And going to her he raised her up, taking her by the hand; and the fever left her,^p and she began ministering to them.^q

32 After evening had fallen, when the sun had set, the people began bringing him all those who were ill^r and those demon-possessed;^s 33 and the whole city was gathered right at the door. 34 So he cured many that were ill with various sicknesses,^t and he expelled many demons, but he would not let the demons speak, because they knew him to be Christ.^u

35 And early in the morning, while it was still dark, he rose up and went outside and left for a lonely place,^a and there he began praying.^b 36 However, Simon and those with him hunted him down 37 and found him, and they said to him: "All are looking for you."^c 38 But he said to them: "Let us go somewhere else, into the village towns nearby, that I may preach^d there also, for it is for this purpose I have gone out."^e 39 And he did go, preaching in their synagogues throughout the whole of Gal'i-lee and expelling the demons.^f

40 There also came to him a leper, entreating him even on bended knee, saying to him: "If you just want to, you can make me clean."^g 41 At that he was moved with pity,^h and he stretched out his hand and touched him, and said to him: "I want to. Be made clean."ⁱ 42 And immediately the leprosy vanished from him, and he became clean.^j 43 Furthermore, he gave him strict orders and at once sent him away,^k 44 and said to him: "See that you tell nobody a thing, but go show yourself to the priest^l and offer in behalf of your cleansing the things Moses directed,^k for a witness to them."^l 45 But after going away the man started to proclaim it a great deal and to spread the account abroad, so that [Jesus]* was no longer able to enter openly into a city, but he continued outside in lonely places. Yet they kept coming to him from all sides.^m

2 However, after some days he again entered into Caper'na-um and he was reported to be at home.ⁿ 2 Consequently many gathered, so much so that there was no more room, not even about the door, and he began to speak the word^o to them. 3 And men came bringing him a paralytic carried by four.^p 4 But not being able to bring him right to [Jesus]* on account of the crowd, they removed the roof over where he was, and having dug an opening they lowered the cot on which the paralytic was lying.^q 5 And when Jesus saw their faith^r he said to the paralytic: "Child, your sins are forgiven.”^a 6 Now there were some of the scribes there, sitting and reasoning in their hearts:^b 7 “Why is this man talking in this manner? He is blaspheming. Who can forgive sins except one, God?”^c 8 But Jesus, having discerned immediately by his spirit that they were reasoning that way in themselves, said to them: “Why are YOU reasoning these things in YOUR hearts?”^d 9 Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and pick up your cot and walk’?^e 10 But in order for YOU men to know that the Son of man^f has authority to forgive sins upon the earth,”^g —he said to the paralytic: 11 “I say to you, Get up, pick up your cot, and go to your home.”^h 12 At that he did get up, and immediately picked up his cot and walked out in front of them all,ⁱ so that they were all simply carried away, and they glorified God, saying: “We never saw the like of it.”^j

13 Again he went out beside the sea; and all the crowd kept coming to him, and he began to teach them. 14 But as he was passing along, he caught sight of Le’vi^k the [son] of Al-phae’us sitting at the tax office, and he said to him: “Be my follower.” And rising up he followed him.^l 15 Later he happened to be reclining at the table in his house, and many tax collectors^m and sinners were reclining with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many of them and they began following him.ⁿ 16 But the scribes of the Pharisees, when they saw he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, began saying to his disciples: “Does he eat with the tax collectors and sinners?”^o 17 Upon hearing this Jesus said to them: “Those who are strong do not need a physician, but those who are ill do. I came to call, not righteous people, but sinners.”^p

18 Now John’s disciples and the Pharisees practiced fasting. So they came and said to him: “Why is it the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees practice fasting, but your disciples do not practice fasting?”^q 19 And Jesus said to them: “While the bride-

23 Now it happened that he was proceeding through the grainfields on the sabbath, and his disciples started to make their way plucking^g the heads of grain.^h 24 So the Pharisees went saying to him: “Look here! And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored.^c 6 At that the Pharisees went out and immediately began holding council with the party followers of Herod^d against him, in order to destroy him.^e means Sons of Thunder), 18 and Andrew and Philip and Bar-thol'o-mew and Matthew and Thomas and James the [son] of Al-phae'us and Thad-dae'us and Simon the Ca-na-nae'an 19 and Judas Is-car'i-ot, who later betrayed him.^a

And he went into a house. 20 Once more the crowd gathered, so that they were not able even to eat a meal.^b 21 But when his relatives^c heard about it, they went out to lay hold of him, for they were saying: "He has gone out of his mind."^d 22 Also, the scribes that came down from Jerusalem were saying: "He has Be-el'ze-bub,* and he expels the demons by means of the ruler of the demons."^e 23 So, after calling them to him, he began to say to them with illustrations: "How can Satan expel Satan? 24 Why, if a kingdom becomes divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand;^f 25 and if a house becomes divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.^g 26 Also, if Satan has risen up against himself and become divided, he cannot stand, but is coming to an end.^h 27 In fact, no one that has got into the house of a strong man is able to plunderⁱ his movable goods unless first he binds the strong man, and then he will plunder his house.^j 28 Truly I say to you that all things will be forgiven the sons of men, no matter what sins and blasphemies they blasphemously commit.^k 29 However, whoever blasphemes against the holy spirit has no forgiveness forever, but is guilty of everlasting sin."^l 30 This, because they were saying: "He has an unclean spirit."^m

31 Now his mother and his brothersⁿ came, and, as they were standing on the outside, they sent in to him to call him.^o 32 As it was, a crowd was sitting around him, so they said to him: "Look! Your mother and your brothers outside are seeking you."^p 33 But in reply he said to them: "Who are my mother and my brothers?"^q 34 And having looked about upon those sitting around him in a circle, he said: "See, my mother and my brothers!" 35 Whoever does the will of God, this one is my brother and sister and mother."^b

4 And he again started teaching beside the sea.^c And a very great crowd gathered near him, so that he went aboard a boat and sat out on the sea, but all the crowd beside the sea were on the shore.^d 2 So he began to teach them many things with illustrations^e and to say to them in his teaching:^f 3 "Listen. Look! The sower went out to sow.^g 4 And as he was sowing, some [seed] fell alongside the road, and the birds came and ate it up.^h 5 And other [seed] fell upon the rocky place where it, of course, did not have much soil, and it immediately sprang up because of not having depth of soil.ⁱ 6 But when the sun rose, it was scorched, and for not having root it withered.^j 7 And other [seed] fell among the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.^k 8 But others fell upon the fine soil,^l and, coming up and increasing, they began to yield fruit, and they were bearing thirtyfold, and sixty and a hundred."^m 9 So he added the word: "Let him that has ears to listen listen."ⁿ

10 Now when he got to be alone, those around him with the twelve began questioning him on the illustrations.^o 11 And he proceeded to say to them: "To YOU the sacred secret^p of the kingdom of God has been given, but to those outside all things occur in illustrations,^q 12 in order that, though looking, they may look and yet not see, and, though hearing, they may hear and yet not get the sense of it, nor ever turn back and forgiveness be given them."^r 13 Further, he said to them: "You do not know this illustration, and so how will YOU understand all the other illustrations?"

14 "The sower sows the word.^s 15 These, then, are the ones alongside the road where the word is sown; but as soon as they have heard [it] Satan comes^t and takes away the word that was sown in them.^u 16 And likewise

these are the ones sown upon the rocky places: as soon as they have heard the word, they accept it with joy.^a 17 Yet they have no root in themselves, but they continue for a time; then as soon as tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, they are stumbled.^b 18 There are still others who are sown among the thorns; these are the ones that have heard the word,^c 19 but the anxieties^d of this system of things^e and the deceptive power of riches^e and the desires^f for the rest of the things make inroads and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.^g 20 Finally, the ones that were sown on the fine soil are those who listen to the word and favorably receive it and bear fruit thirtyfold and sixty and a hundred."^h

21 And he went on to say to them: "A lamp is not brought to be put under a measuring basket or under a bed, is it? It is brought to be put upon a lampstand, is it not?ⁱ 22 For there is nothing hidden except for the purpose of being exposed; nothing has become carefully concealed but for the purpose of coming into the open.^j 23 Whoever has ears to listen, let him listen."^k

24 He further said to them: "Pay attention to what YOU are hearing.^l With the measure that YOU are measuring out, YOU will have it measured out to YOU,^m yes, YOU will have more added to YOU.ⁿ 25 For he that has will have more given to him; but he that does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him."^o

26 So he went on to say: "In this way the kingdom of God is just as when a man casts the seed upon the ground,^p 27 and he sleeps at night and rises up by day, and the seed sprouts and grows tall, just how he does not know.^q 28 Of its own self the ground bears fruit gradually, first the grass-blade, then the stalk head, finally the full grain in the head. 29 But as soon as the fruit permits it, he thrusts in the sickle, because the harvesttime has come."

30 And he went on to say: "With what are we to liken the kingdom of God, or in what illustration shall we set it out?^a 31 Like a mustard grain, which at the time it was sown in the ground was the tiniest of all the seeds that are on the earth^b— 32 but when it has been sown, it comes up and becomes greater than all other vegetables and produces great branches,^c so that the birds of the heaven^d are able to find lodging under its shadow."^e

33 So with many illustrations^f of that sort he would speak the word to them, as far as they were able to listen. 34 Indeed, without an illustration he would not speak to them, but privately to his disciples he would explain all things.^g

35 And on that day, when evening had fallen, he said to them: "Let us cross to the other shore."^h 36 So, after they had dismissed the crowd, they took him in the boat, just as he was, and there were other boats with him.ⁱ

37 Now a great violent windstorm broke out, and the waves kept dashing into the boat, so that the boat was close to being swamped.^j 38 But he was in the stern, sleeping upon a pillow. So they woke him up and said to him: "Teacher, do you not care that we are about to perish?"^k 39 With that he roused himself and rebuked the wind and said to the sea: "Hush! Be quiet!"^l And the wind abated, and a great calm set in.^m 40 So he said to them: "Why are you fainthearted? Do you not yet have any faith?" 41 But they felt an unusual fear, and they would say to one another: "Who really is this, because even the wind and the sea obey him?"ⁿ

5 Well, they got to the other side of the sea into the country of the Ger'a-senes.^o 2 And immediately after he got out of the boat a man under the power of an unclean spirit met him from among the memorial tombs.^p 3 He had his haunt among the tombs; and up to that time absolutely nobody was able to bind him fast even with a chain, 4 because he had oftentimes been bound with fetters and chains, but the chains were snapped apart by him and the fetters were actually smashed; and nobody had the strength to subdue him. 5 And continually, night and day, he was crying out in the tombs and in the mountains and slashing himself with stones. 6 But on catching sight of Jesus from a distance he ran and did obeisance to him, 7 and, when he had cried out with a loud voice,^a he said: "What have I to do with you,^b Jesus, Son of the Most High God?^c I put you under oath^d by God not to torment me."^e 8 For he had been telling it: "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit."^f 9 But he began to ask him: "What is your name?" And he said to him: "My name is Legion,^g because there are many of us."^h 10 And he entreated him many times not to send the spirits out of the country.ⁱ

11 Now a great herd of swine^j was there at the mountain feeding.^k 12 So they entreated him, saying: "Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them."^l 13 And he permitted them. With that the unclean spirits came out and entered into the swine; and the herd rushed over the precipice into the sea, about two thousand of them, and they drowned one after another in the sea.^m 14 But the herders of them fled and reported it in the city and in the countryside; and people came to see what it was that had happened.ⁿ 15 So they came to Jesus, and they beheld the demon-possessed [man] sitting clothed and in his sound mind, this [man] that had had the legion; and they grew fearful. 16 Also, those who had seen it related to them how this had happened to the demon-possessed [man] and about the swine. 17 And so they started to entreat him to go away from their districts.^o

possessed began entreating him that he might continue with him.^a 19 However, he did not let him, but said to him: "Go home to your relatives,^b and report to them all the things Jehovah^c has done for you and the mercy^d he had on you." 20 And he went away and started to proclaim* in the De-cap'o-lis^e all the things Jesus did for him, and all the people began to wonder.^f

21 After Jesus had crossed back again in the boat to the opposite shore a great crowd gathered together to him; and he was beside the sea.^g 22 Now one of the presiding officers of the synagogue, Ja'i-rus by name, came and, on catching sight of him, he fell at his feet^h 23 and entreated him many times, saying: "My little daughter is in an extreme condition. Would you please come and put your handsⁱ upon her that she may get well and live."^j 24 At that he went off with him. And a great crowd was following him and pressing against him.^k

25 Now there was a woman subject to a flow of blood^l twelve years,^m 26 and she had been put to many pains by many physiciansⁿ and had spent all her resources and had not been benefited but, rather, had got worse. 27 When she heard the things about Jesus, she came behind in the crowd and touched^o his outer garment; 28 for she kept saying: "If I touch just his outer garments I shall get well."^p 29 And immediately her fountain of blood dried up, and she sensed in her body that she had been healed of the grievous sickness.^q

30 Immediately, also, Jesus recognized in himself that power^r had gone out of him, and he turned about in the crowd and began to say: "Who touched my outer garments?"^s 31 But his disciples began to say to him: "You see the crowd pressing in upon you,^t and do you say, 'Who touched me?'" 32 However, he was looking around to see her that had done this. 33 But the woman, frightened and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before him and told him the whole truth.^a 34 He said to her: "Daughter, your faith has made you well.* Go in peace,^b and be in good health from your grievous sickness."^c

35 While he was yet speaking, some men from the home of the presiding officer of the synagogue came and said: "Your daughter died! Why bother the teacher any longer?"^d 36 But Jesus, overhearing the word being spoken, said to the presiding officer of the synagogue: "Have no fear, only exercise faith."^e 37 Now he did not let anyone follow along with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James.^f

38 So they came to the house of the presiding officer of the synagogue, and he beheld the noisy confusion and those weeping and letting out many wails, 39 and, after stepping in, he said to them: "Why are YOU causing noisy confusion and weeping? The young child has not died, but is sleeping."^g 40 At this they began to laugh scornfully at him. But, having put them all out, he took along the young child's father and mother and those with him, and he went in where the young child was.^h 41 And, taking the hand of the young child, he said to her: "Tal'i-tha cu'mi," which, translated, means: "Maiden, I say to you, Get up!"ⁱ 42 And immediately the maiden rose and began walking, for she was twelve years old. And at once they were beside themselves with great ecstasy.^j 43 But he ordered them again and again to let no one learn^k of this, and he said that something should be given her to eat.

6 And he departed from there and came into his home territory, and his disciples followed him.^l 2 When it became sabbath, he started teaching in the synagogue; and the greater number of those listening were astounded and said: "Where did this man get these things?^a And why should this wisdom have been given this man, and such powerful works be performed through his hands? 3 This is the carpenter^b the son of Mary^c and the brother of James^d and Joseph^e and Judas and Simon,^e is it not? And his sisters are here with us, are they not?" So they began to stumble at him.^f 4 But Jesus went on to say to them: "A prophet is not unhonored except in his home territory^g and among his relatives and in his own house."^h 5 So he was able to do no powerful work there except to lay his hands upon a few sickly ones and cure them. 6 Indeed, he wondered at their lack of faith. And he went round about to the villages in a circuit, teaching.ⁱ

7 Now he summoned the twelve, and he initiated sending them out two by two,^j and he began to give them authority over the unclean spirits.^k 8 Also, he gave them orders to carry nothing for the trip except a staff alone, no bread, no food pouch,^l no copper money in their girdle purses,^m 9 but to bind on sandals, and not to wear two undergarments.ⁿ 10 Further, he said to them: "Wherever YOU enter into a home,^o stay there until YOU go out of that place.^p 11 And wherever a place will not receive YOU nor hear YOU, on going out from there shake off the dirt that is beneath YOUR feet for a witness^q to them."^r 12 So they set out and preached in order that people might repent;^r 13 and they would expel many demons^s and grease many sickly people with oil^t and cure them.^u

14 Now it got to the ears of King Herod, for the name of [Jesus]^v became public, and people were saying:^w "John the baptizer^x has been raised from the dead, and on that account the powerful works are operating in him."^y 15 But others were saying: "It is E-li'jah."^z Still others were saying: "It is a prophet like one of the prophets."^a 16 But when Herod heard it he began to say: "The John that I beheaded, this one has been raised up."^b 17 For Herod himself had sent out and arrested John and bound him in prison on account of Her-o'di-as the wife of Philip his brother, because he had married her.^c 18 For John had repeatedly said to Herod: "It is not lawful for you to be having the wife of your brother."^d 19 But Her-o'di-as was nursing a grudge^e against him and was wanting to kill him, but could not.^f 20 For Herod stood in fear^g of John, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man;^h and he was keeping him safe. And after hearingⁱ him he was at a great loss what to do, yet he continued to hear him gladly.

21 But a convenient day^j came along when Herod spread an evening meal on his birthday^k for his top-ranking men and the military commanders^l and the foremost ones of Gal'i-lee. 22 And the daughter of this very Her-o'di-as came in and danced and pleased Herod and those reclining^m with him. The king said to the maiden: "Ask me for whatever you want, and I will give it to you."ⁿ 23 Yes, he swore to her: "Whatever you ask me for, I will give it to you,^o up to half my kingdom."^p 24 And she went out and said to her mother: "What should I ask for?" She said: "The head of John the baptizer."^q 25 Immediately she went in with haste to the king and made her request, saying: "I want you to give me right away on a platter the head of John the Baptist."^r 26 Although he became deeply grieved, yet the king did not want to disregard her, in view of the oaths and those reclining at the table.^s 27 So the king immediately dispatched a body guardsman and commanded him to bring his head. And he went off and beheaded him in the prison^t 28 and brought his head on a platter, and he gave it to the maiden, and the maiden gave it to her mother.^u 29 When his disciples heard of it they came and took up his corpse and laid it in a memorial tomb.^a

30 And the apostles gathered together before Jesus and reported to him all the things they had done and taught.^b

31 And he said to them: "Come, you yourselves, privately into a lonely place^c and rest up a bit."^d For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure time even to eat a meal.^e

32 So off they went in the boat for a lonely place to themselves.^f

33 But people saw them going and many got to know it, and from all the cities they ran there together on foot and got ahead of them.^g 34 Well, on getting out, he saw a great crowd, but he was moved with pity^h for them, because they were as sheep without a shepherd.ⁱ And he started to teach them many things.^j

35 By now the hour had grown late, and his disciples came up to him and began to say: "The place is isolated, and the hour is already late.^k 36 Send them away, that they may go off into the countryside and villages round about and buy themselves something to eat."^l

37 In reply he said to them: "You give them something to eat." At this they said to him: "Shall we go off and buy two hundred denar'ii* worth of loaves and give [them] to the people to eat?"^m

38 He said to them: "How many loaves have you? Go see!" After ascertaining it, they said: "Five, besides two fishes."ⁿ

39 And he instructed all the people to recline by companies^o on the green grass.^p

40 And they laid themselves down in groups of a hundred and of fifty.^q

41 Taking now the five loaves and the two fishes he looked up to heaven and said a blessing,^r and broke^s the loaves up and began giving them to the disciples, that these might place them before the people; and he divided up the two fishes for all. 42 So they all ate and were satisfied;^t 43 and they took up fragments, twelve baskets full, aside from the fishes. 44 Furthermore, those who ate of the loaves were five thousand men.^u

45 And, without delay, he compelled his disciples to board the boat and go on ahead to the opposite shore toward Beth-sa'i-da, while he himself dismissed the crowd.^a 46 But after saying good-bye to them he went off into a mountain to pray.^b

47 Evening having now fallen, the boat was in the midst of the sea, but he was alone on the land.^c

48 And when he saw them being hard put^d to it in their rowing, for the wind was against them, about the fourth watch of the night^e he came toward them, walking on the sea; but he was inclined to pass them by. 49 At catching sight of him walking on the sea they thought: "It is an apparition!" and they cried aloud.^f

50 For they all saw him and were troubled. But immediately he spoke with them, and he said to them: "Take courage, it is I; have no fear."^g

51 And he got up into the boat with them, and the wind abated. At this they were very much amazed within themselves,^h

52 for they had not grasped the meaning of the loaves, but their hearts continued dull of understanding.ⁱ

53 And when they got across to land, they came into Gen-nes'a-ret and anchored ship nearby.^j

54 But as soon as they got out of the boat, people recognized him, 55 and they ran around all that region and started to carry about on cots those who were ailing to where they heard he was. 56 And wherever he would enter into villages or cities or countryside^k they would place the sick ones in the marketplaces, and they would plead with him that they might touch^l just the fringe^m of his outer garment. And as many as did touch it were made well.ⁿ

7 Now the Pharisees and some of the scribes that had come from Jerusalem gathered about him.^o 2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat their meal with defiled hands, that is, unwashed ones^p— 3 for the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands up to the elbow,^q

holding fast the tradition of the men of former times, 4 and, when back from market, they do not eat unless they cleanse themselves by sprinkling; and there are many other traditions^a that they have received to hold fast, baptisms of cups and pitchers and copper vessels;^b— 5 so these Pharisees and scribes asked him: "Why is it your disciples do not conduct themselves according to the tradition of the men of former times, but they take their meal with defiled hands?"^c 6 He said to them: "Isaiah aptly prophesied about you hypocrites, as it is written,^d 'This people honor me with [their] lips, but their hearts are far removed from me.'^e 7 It is in vain that they keep worshipping me, because they teach as doctrines commands of men."^f 8 Letting go the commandment of God, you hold fast the tradition of men."^g

9 Further, he went on to say to them: "Adroitly you set aside the commandment^h of God in order to retain your tradition. 10 For example, Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother,'ⁱ and, 'Let him that reviles father or mother end up in death.'^j 11 But you men say, 'If a man says to his father or his mother: "Whatever I have by which you may get benefit from me is corban,"^k (that is, a gift dedicated^l to God),"^m— 12 you men no longer let him do a single thing for his father or his mother,ⁿ 13 and thus you make the word of Godⁿ invalid by your tradition which you handed down. And many things^o similar to this you do." 14 So, calling the crowd to him again, he proceeded to say to them: "Listen to me, all of you, and get the meaning.^p 15 There is nothing from outside a man that passes into him that can defile him; but the things that issue forth out of a man are the things that defile a man."^q 16 —

17 Now when he had entered a house away from the crowd, his disciples began to question him respecting the illustration.^a 18 So he said to them: "Are you also without perception like them?^b Are you not aware that nothing from outside that passes into a man can defile him, 19 since it passes, not into [his] heart, but into [his] intestines, and it passes out into the sewer?"^c 20 Further, he said: "That which issues forth out of a man is what defiles a man;^d 21 for from inside, out of the heart of men,^e injurious reasonings issue forth: fornications,^f thieveries, murders,^g 22 adulteries, covetings,^h acts of wickedness, deceit, loose conduct,ⁱ an envious eye,^j blasphemy, haughtiness, unreasonable-ness. 23 All these wicked things issue forth from within and defile a man."^k

24 From there he rose up and went into the regions of Tyre and Si'don.^l And he entered into a house and did not want anyone to get to know it. Yet he could not escape notice;^m 25 but immediately a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard about him and came and prostrated herself at his feet.ⁿ 26 The woman was a Grecian, a Sy-ro-phoe-ni'cian nationally; and she kept asking him to expel the demon from her daughter.^o 27 But he began by saying to her: "First let the children be satisfied, for it is not right to take the bread of the children^p and throw it to the little dogs."^q 28 In reply, however, she said to him: "Yes, sir, and yet the little dogs underneath the table eat of the crumbs^r of the little children."^s 29 At that he said to her: "Because of saying this, go; the demon has gone out of your daughter."^t 30 So she went away to her home and found^a the young child laid on the bed and the demon gone out.

31 Now coming back out of the regions of Tyre he went through Si'don to the sea of Gal'i-lee up through the midst of the regions of De-cap'o-lis.*^b

32 Here they brought him a man deaf and with a speech impediment, and they entreated him to lay his hand upon him.^c

33 And he took him away from the crowd privately and put his fingers into the man's ears and, after spitting, he touched his tongue.^d

34 And with a look up into heaven^e he sighed^f deeply and said to him: "Eph'pha-tha," that is, "Be opened."

35 Well, his hearing powers were opened,^g and the impediment* of his tongue was loosed, and he began speaking normally.

36 With that he charged them not to tell anyone;^h but the more he would charge them, that much more they would proclaim it.ⁱ

37 Indeed, they were being astounded^j in a most extraordinary way and they said: "He has done all things well. He even makes the deaf hear and the speechless speak."^k

8 In those days, when there was again a big crowd and they had nothing to eat, he summoned the disciples and said to them:^l 2 "I feel pity^m for the crowd, because it is already three days that they have remained near me and they have nothing to eat; 3 and if I should send them off to their homes fasting, they will give out on the road. Indeed, some of them are from far away." 4 But his disciples answered him: "From where will anybody here in an isolated place be able to satisfy these people with loaves?"ⁿ 5 Still he went on to ask them: "How many loaves have you?" They said: "Seven."^o 6 And he instructed the crowd to recline on the ground, and he took the seven loaves, gave thanks,^p broke them, and began to give them to his disciples to serve, and they served them to the crowd.^q 7 They also had a few little fishes; and, having blessed these, he told them also to serve these.^a 8 Accordingly they ate and were satisfied, and they took up surpluses of fragments, seven provision baskets full.^b 9 Yet there were about four thousand [men]. Finally he sent them away.^c

10 And immediately he boarded the boat with his disciples and came into the parts of Dal-ma-nu'tha.^d 11 Here the Pharisees came out and started disputing with him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, to put him to the test.^e

12 So he groaned deeply^f with his spirit, and said: "Why does this generation seek a sign? Truly I say, No sign will be given to this generation."^g 13 With that he left them, got aboard again, and went off to the opposite shore.

14 As it was, they forgot to take loaves along, and except for one loaf they had nothing with them in the boat.^h

15 And he began to order them expressly and say: "Keep YOUR eyes open, look out for the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."ⁱ 16 So they went arguing with one another over the fact that they had no loaves.^j

17 Noting this, he said to them: "Why do YOU argue over your having no loaves?^k Do YOU not yet perceive and get the meaning? Do YOU have YOUR hearts dull of understanding?"^l

18 "Though having eyes, do YOU not see; and though having ears, do YOU not hear?"^m And do YOU not remember, 19 when I broke the five loavesⁿ for the five thousand [men], how many baskets full of fragments YOU took up?" They said to him: "Twelve."^o

20 "When I broke the seven for the four thousand [men], how many provision baskets full of fragments did YOU take up?" And they said to him: "Seven."^p 21 With that he said to them: "Do YOU not yet get the meaning?"^q

22 Now they put in at Beth-sa'i-da. Here people brought him a blind man, and they entreated him to touch^r him. 23 And he took the blind man by the hand, brought him outside the village, and, having spit^s upon his eyes, he laid his hands upon him and began to ask him: "Do you see anything?" 24 And the man looked up* and began saying: "I see men, because I observe what seem to be trees, but they are walking about." 25 Then he laid his hands again upon the man's eyes, and the man saw clearly, and he was restored, and he was seeing everything distinctly. 26 So he sent him off home, saying: "But do not enter into the village."^a

27 Jesus and his disciples now left for the villages of Caesare'a Philippi, and on the way he began questioning his disciples, saying to them: "Who are men saying that I am?"^b 28 They said to him: "John the Baptist,^c and others, E-li'jah,^d still others, One of the prophets."^e 29 And he put the question to them: "You, though, who do you say I am?" In answer Peter* said to him: "You are the Christ."^f 30 At that he strictly charged them not to tell anyone about him.^g 31 Also, he started teaching them that the Son of man must undergo many sufferings and be rejected by the older men and the chief priests and the scribes and be killed,^h and rise three days later.ⁱ 32 Indeed, with outspokenness he was making that statement. But Peter took him aside and started rebuking him.^j 33 He turned, looked at his disciples and rebuked Peter, and said: "Get behind me, Satan, because you think, not God's thoughts,^k but those of men."^l

34 He now called the crowd to him with his disciples and said to them: "If anyone wants to come after me, let him disown himself and pick up his torture stake* and follow me continually.^m 35 For whoever wants to save his soul* will lose it; but whoever loses his soul for the sake of me and the good news will save it."ⁿ 36 Really, of what benefit is it for a man to gain the whole world and to forfeit his soul?^a 37 What, really, would a man give in exchange for his soul?^b 38 For whoever becomes ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of man will also be ashamed^c of him when he arrives in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."^d

9 Furthermore, he went on to say to them: "Truly I say to you, There are some of those standing here that will not taste death at all until first they see the kingdom of God already come in power."^e 2 Accordingly six days later Jesus took Peter and James and John along, and brought them up into a lofty mountain to themselves alone. And he was transfigured before them,^f 3 and his outer garments became glistening, far whiter than any clothes cleaner on earth could whiten them.^g 4 Also, E-li'jah with Moses appeared to them, and they were conversing with Jesus.^h 5 And responsively Peter said to Jesus: "Rabbi, it is fine for us to be here, so let us erect three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for E-li'jah."ⁱ 6 In fact, he did not know what response he should make, for they became quite fearful. 7 And a cloud formed, overshadowing them, and a voice^j came out of the cloud: "This is my Son,^k the beloved; listen to him."^l 8 Suddenly, however, they looked around and saw no one with them any longer, except Jesus alone.^m

9 As they were coming down out of the mountain, he expressly ordered them not to relateⁿ to anybody what they saw, until after the Son of man had risen from the dead.^o 10 And they took the word to heart,^p but discussed among themselves what this rising from the dead meant. 11 And they began to question him, saying: "Why do the scribes say that first E-li'jah^q must come?"^r 12 He said to them: "E-li'jah does come first and restore all things;^a but how is it that it is written respecting the Son of man that he must undergo many sufferings^b and be treated as of no account?^c 13 But I say to YOU, E-li'jah,^d in fact, has come, and they did to him as many things as they wanted, just as it is written respecting him."^e

14 When, now, they came toward the other disciples, they noticed a great crowd about them and scribes disputing with them.^f 15 But as soon as all the crowd caught sight of him they were stunned, and, running up to him, they began to greet him. 16 And he asked them: "What are YOU disputing with them?" 17 And one of the crowd answered him: "Teacher, I brought my son to you because he has a speechless spirit;^g 18 and wherever it seizes him it dashes him to the ground, and he foams and grinds his teeth and loses his strength. And I told your disciples to expel it, but they were not capable."^h 19 In response he said to them: "O faithless generation,ⁱ how long must I continue with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him to me."^j

20 So they brought him to him. But at the sight of him the spirit at once threw [the child]* into convulsions, and after falling on the ground he kept rolling about, foaming.^k 21 And he asked his father: "How long has this been happening to him?" He said: "From childhood on; 22 and time and again it would throw him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him.^l But if you can do anything, have pity on us and help us." 23 Jesus said to him: "That expression, 'If you can'! Why, all things can be to one if one has faith."^m

24 Immediately crying out, the father of the young child was saying: "I have faith! Help me out where I need faith!"ⁿ

25 Jesus, now noticing that a crowd was running together upon [them], rebuked^o the unclean spirit, saying to it: "You speechless and deaf spirit, I order

you, get out of him and enter into him no more." 26 And after crying out and going through many convulsions it got out;^a and he became as dead, so that the greater number of them were saying: "He is dead!" 27 But Jesus took him by the hand and raised him up, and he rose.^b 28 So after he entered into a house his disciples proceeded to ask him privately: "Why could we not expel it?"^c 29 And he said to them: "This kind cannot get out by anything except by prayer."^d

30 From there they departed and went their way through Gal'i-lee, but he did not want anyone to get to know it. 31 For he was teaching his disciples and telling them: "The Son of man is to be delivered* into men's hands, and they will kill him,^e but, despite being killed, he will rise three days later."^f 32 However, they were not understanding the saying, and they were afraid to question him.^g

33 And they came into Ca-per'na-um. Now when he was inside the house he put the question to them: "What were YOU arguing over on the road?"^h 34 They kept silent, for on the road they had argued among themselves who is greater.ⁱ 35 So he sat down and called the twelve and said to them: "If anyone wants to be first, he must be last of all and minister of all."^j 36 And he took a young child, stood it in their midst and put his arms around it and said to them:^k 37 "Whoever receives one of such young children on the basis of my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives, not me only, but also him that sent me forth."^l

38 John said to him: "Teacher, we saw a certain man expelling demons by the use of your name and we tried to prevent him,^m because he was not accompanying us."ⁿ 39 But Jesus said: "Do not try to prevent him, for there is no one that will do a powerful work on the basis of my name that will quickly be able to revile me;^o 40 for he that

43 "And if ever your hand makes you stumble, cut it off; it is finer for you to enter into life maimed than with two hands to go off into Ge-hen'na,* into the fire that cannot be put out.^e

44* — 45 And if your foot makes you stumble, cut it off; it is finer for you to enter into life lame^f than with two feet to be pitched into Ge-hen'na.^g

49 "For everyone must be salted^k with fire. 50 Salt is fine; but if ever the salt loses its strength,* with what will you season it itself? Have salt^m in yourselves, and keep peace" between one another."

10 From there he rose and came to the frontiers of Ju-de'a and across the Jordan, and again crowds came together to him, and as he was accustomed to do he again went teaching them.^o 2 Pharisees now approached and, to put him to the test, began questioning him whether it was lawful for a man to divorce a wife.^p 3 In answer he said to them: "What did Moses command you?" 4 They said: "Moses allowed the writing of a certificate of dismissal and divorcing [her]."^q 5 But Jesus said to them: "Out of regard for

YOUR hardheartedness^a he wrote YOU this commandment. 6 However, from [the] beginning of creation 'He* made them male and female.^b 7 On this account a man will leave his father and mother, 8 and the two will be one flesh;^c so that they are no longer two, but one flesh. 9 Therefore what God yoked together let no man put apart."^d 10 When again in the house^e the disciples began to question him concerning this. 11 And he said to them: "Whoever divorces* his wife and marries another commits adultery^f against her, 12 and if ever a woman, after divorcing her husband, marries another, she commits adultery."^g

13 Now people began bringing him young children for him to touch these; but the disciples reprimanded them.^h

14 At seeing this Jesus was indignant and said to them: "Let the young children come to me; do not try to stop them, for the kingdom of God belongs to suchlike ones.ⁱ 15 Truly I say to YOU, Whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a young child will by no means enter into it."^j 16 And he took the children into his arms and began blessing them, laying his hands upon them.^k

17 And as he was going out on his way, a certain man ran up and fell upon his knees before him and put the question to him: "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit everlasting life?"^l

18 Jesus said to him: "Why do you call me good?^m Nobody is good, except one, God.ⁿ 19 You know the commandments, 'Do not murder,^o Do not commit adultery,^p Do not steal,^q Do not bear false witness,^r Do not defraud,^s Honor your father and mother.'^t 20 The man said to him: "Teacher, all these things I have kept from my youth on." 21 Jesus looked upon him and felt love for him and said to him: "One thing is missing about you: Go, sell what things you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven, and come be my follower."^a 22 But he grew sad at the saying and went off grieved, for he was holding many possessions.^b

23 After looking around Jesus said to his disciples: "How difficult a thing it will be for those with money^c to enter into the kingdom of God!"^d 24 But the disciples gave way to surprise^e at his words. In response Jesus again said to them: "Children, how difficult a thing it is to enter into the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God."^f 26 They became still more astounded and said to him: "Who, in fact, can be saved?"^g 27 Looking straight at them Jesus said: "With men it is impossible, but not so with God, for all things are possible with God."^h 28 Peter started to say to him: "Look! We left all things and have been following you."ⁱ 29 Jesus said: "Truly I say to you men, No one has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for my sake and for the sake of the good news!^j 30 who will not get a hundredfold^k now in this period of time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and fields, with persecutions,^l and in the coming system of things* everlasting life. 31 However, many that are first will be last, and the last first."^m

32 Now they were advancing on the road up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going in front of them, and they felt amazement; but those who followed began to fear. Once again he took the twelve aside and started to tell them these things destined to befall him:ⁿ 33 "Here we are, advancing up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be delivered to the chief priests and the 35 And James and John, the two sons of Zeb'e-dee,^c stepped up to him and said to him: "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever it is we ask you for."^d 36 He said to them: "What do you want me to do for you?" 37 They said to him: "Grant us to sit down, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory."^e 38 But Jesus said to them: "You do not know what you are asking for. Are you able to drink the cup which I am drinking, or to be baptized with the baptism* with which I am being baptized?"^f 39 They said to him: "We are able." At that Jesus said to them: "The cup I am drinking you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am being baptized you will be baptized."^g 40 However, this sitting down at my right or at my left is not mine to give,^h but it belongs to those for whom it has been prepared."

41 Well, when the ten others heard about it, they started to be indignant at James and John.ⁱ 42 But Jesus, after calling them to him, said to them: "You know that those who appear to be ruling the nations lord it over them and their great ones wield authority over them."^j 43 This is not the way among you; but whoever wants to become great among you must be your minister,^k 44 and whoever wants to be first among you must be the slave of all.^l 45 For even the Son of man came, not to be ministered to,^m but to minister and to give his soul* a ransomⁿ in exchange for many."^o

46 And they came into Jer'i-cho. But as he and his disciples and a considerable crowd were going out of Jer'i-cho, Bartimae'us (the son of Timae'us), a blind beggar, was sitting beside the road.^a 47 When he heard that it was Jesus the Naz-a-rene', he started shouting and saying: "Son of David,^b Jesus, have mercy on me!"^c 48 At this many began sternly telling him to be silent; but he kept shouting that much more: "Son of David, have mercy on me!"^d 49 So Jesus stopped and said: "CALL him." And they called the blind man, saying to him: "Take courage, get up, he is calling you."^e 50 Throwing off his outer garment, he leaped to his feet and went to Jesus. 51 And in answer to him Jesus said: "What do you want me to do for you?"^f The blind man said to him: "Rab-bo'ni,* let me recover sight."^g 52 And Jesus said to him: "Go, your faith has made you well."^h And immediately he recovered sight,ⁱ and he began to follow him on the road.^j

11 Now when they were getting near to Jerusalem, to Beth'pha-ge and Beth'a-ny^k at the Mount of Olives, he dispatched two of his disciples^l 2 and told them: "Go into the village that is within sight of you, and as soon as YOU pass into it you will find a colt tied, on which none of mankind has yet sat; loose it and bring it."^m 3 And if anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs it, and will at once send it off back here.'ⁿ 4 So they went away and found the colt tied at the door, outside on the side street, and they loosed it.^o 5 But some of those standing there began to say to them: "What are you doing loosing the colt?"^p 6 They said to these just as Jesus had said; and they let them go.^q

7 And they brought the colt^r to Jesus, and they put their outer garments upon it, and he sat on it.^s 8 Also, many spread their outer garments^t on the road, but others cut down foliage^u from the fields.^v 9 And those going in front and those coming behind kept crying out: "Save, we pray!"^a Blessed is he that comes in Jehovah's^r name!^b 10 Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!^c Save, we pray, in the heights above!"^d 11 And he entered into Jerusalem, into the temple; and he looked around upon all things, and, as the hour was already late, he went out to Beth'a-ny with the twelve.^e

12 The next day, when they had come out from Beth'a-ny, he became hungry.^f 13 And from a distance he caught sight of a fig tree that had leaves, and he went to see whether he would perhaps find something on it. But, on coming to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season of figs.^g 14 So, in response, he said to it: "Let no one eat fruit from you anymore forever."^h And his disciples were listening.

15 Now they came to Jerusalem. There he entered into the temple and started to throw out those selling and buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves;ⁱ 16 and he would not let anyone carry a utensil through the temple, 17 but he kept teaching and saying: "Is it not written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer' for all the nations"?^j But you have made it a cave of robbers."^k 18 And the chief priests and the scribes heard it, and they began to seek how to destroy him;^l for they were in fear of him, for all the crowd was continually being astounded at his teaching.^m

19 And when it became late in the day, they would go out of the city. 20 But when they were passing by early in the morning, they saw the fig tree already withered up from the roots.ⁿ 21 So Peter, remembering it, said to him: "Rabbi, see! the fig tree that you cursed has withered up."^a 22 And in reply Jesus said to them: "Have faith in God. 23 Truly I say to you that whoever tells this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart but has faith that what he says is going to occur, he will have it so.^b 24 This is why I tell you, All the things you pray and ask for have faith that you have practically received, and you will have them.^c 25 And when you stand praying, forgive^d whatever you have against anyone; in order that your Father who is in the heavens may also forgive you your trespasses."^e 26 —

27 And they came again to Jerusalem. And as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the older men came to him^f 28 and began to say to him: "By what authority do you do these things? or who gave you this authority to do these things?"^g 29 Jesus said to them: "I will ask you one question. You answer me, and I will also tell you by what authority I do these things.^h 30 Was the baptismⁱ by John from heaven or from men? Answer me."^j 31 So they began to reason among themselves, saying: "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why is it, therefore, you did not believe him?'^k 32 But dare we say, 'From men?'"—They were in fear of the crowd, for these all held that John had really been a prophet.^l 33 Well, in reply to Jesus they said: "We do not know." And Jesus said to them: "Neither am I telling you by what authority I do these things."^m

12 Also, he started to speak to them with illustrations: "A man planted a vineyard,ⁿ and put a fence around it, and dug a vat for the winepress and erected a tower,^o and let it out to cultivators,^p and traveled abroad.^q 2 Now in due season he sent forth a slave

12 At that they began seeking how to seize him, but they feared the crowd, for they took note that he spoke the illustration with them in mind. So they left him and went away.^p

13 Next they sent forth to him some of the Pharisees and of the party followers of Herod,^q to catch him in his speech.^r 14 On arrival these said to him: "Teacher, we know you are truthful and you do not care for anybody, for you do not look upon men's outward appearance, but you teach the way of God in line with truth:^s Is it lawful to pay head tax to Caesar^t or not? 15 Shall we pay, or shall we not pay?"^u Detecting their hypocrisy, he said to them: "Why do you put me to the test? 18 Now Sadducees came to him, who say there is no resurrection, and they put the question to him:^e 19 "Teacher, Moses wrote us that if someone's brother dies and leaves a wife behind but does not leave a child, his brother^f should take the wife and raise up offspring from her for his brother.^g 20 There were seven brothers; and the first took a wife, but when he died he left no offspring.^h 21 And the second took her, but died without leaving offspring; and the third the same way. 22 And the seven did not leave any offspring. Last of all the woman also died.ⁱ 23 In the resurrection to which of them will she be wife? For the seven got her as wife."^j 24 Jesus said to them: "Is not this why YOU are mistaken, YOUR not knowing either the Scriptures or the power of God?^k 25 For when they rise from the dead, neither do men marry nor are women given in marriage, but are as angels in the heavens.^l 26 But concerning the dead, that they are raised up, did YOU not read in the book of Moses, in the account about the thornbush, how God said to him, 'I am the God of Abraham and God of Isaac and God of Jacob'?^m 27 He is a God, not of the dead, but of the living. You are much mistaken."ⁿ

28 Now one of the scribes that had come up and heard them disputing, knowing that he had answered them in a fine way, asked him: "Which commandment is first of all?"^o 29 Jesus answered: "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel, Jehovah* our God is one Jehovah,'^p 30 and you must love Jehovah* your God with your whole heart and with your whole soul^q and with your whole mind and with your whole strength."^a 31 The second is this, 'You must love your neighbor as yourself.'^b There is no other commandment greater than these." 32 The scribe said to him: "Teacher, you well said in line with truth, 'He is One, and there is no other than He';^c 33 and this loving him with one's whole heart and with one's whole understanding and with one's whole strength and this loving one's neighbor as oneself is worth far more than all the whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."^d 34 At this Jesus, discerning he had answered intelligently, said to him: "You are not far from the kingdom of God." But nobody had the courage anymore to question him.^e

35 However, when making a reply, Jesus began to say as he taught in the temple: "How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is David's son?^f 36 By the holy spirit^g David himself said, 'Jehovah* said to my Lord: "Sit at my right hand until I put your enemies beneath your feet."^h 37 David himself calls him 'Lord,' but how does it come that he is his son?"ⁱ

And the great crowd was listening to him with pleasure.^j 38 And in his teaching he went on to say: "Look out for the scribes^k that want to walk around in robes and want greetings in the marketplaces* 39 and front seats in the synagogues and most prominent places at evening meals.^l 40 They are the ones devouring the houses^m of the widows and for a pretext making long prayers; these will receive a heavier judgment."ⁿ

41 And he sat down with the treasury chests^o in view and began observing how the crowd was dropping money* into the treasury chests;^p and many rich people were dropping in many coins.^q 42 Now a poor widow came and dropped in two small coins,* which have very

13 As he was going out of the temple one of his disciples said to him: "Teacher, see! what sort of stones and what sort of buildings!"^d 2 However, Jesus said to him: "Do you behold these great buildings?^e By no means will a stone be left here upon a stone^f and not be thrown down."^g

3 And as he was sitting on the Mount of Olives with the temple in view, Peter^h and James and John and Andrew began to ask him privately:ⁱ 4 "Tell us, When will these things be, and what will be the sign when all these things are destined to come to a conclusion?"^j 5 So Jesus started to say to them: "Look out that nobody misleads YOU.^k 6 Many will come on the basis of my name, saying, 'I am he,' and will mislead many.^l 7 Moreover, when you hear of wars and reports of wars, do not be terrified; [these things] must take place, but the end^m is not yet."ⁿ

8 "For nation will rise* against nation and kingdom against kingdom,ⁿ there will be earthquakes*^o in one place after another, there will be food shortages.^p These are a beginning of pangs of distress.^q

the morning;^a 36 in order that when he arrives suddenly, he does not find you sleeping.^b 37 But what I say to you I say to all, Keep on the watch."^c

14 Now the passover^d and the [festival^e of] unfermented cakes was two days later.^f And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to seize him by crafty device and kill him;^g 2 for they repeatedly said: "Not at the festival; perhaps there might be an uproar of the people."^h

3 And while he was at Beth'a-ny in the house of Simon the leper,ⁱ as he was reclining at the meal, a woman came with an alabaster case of perfumed oil, genuine nard, very expensive. Breaking open the alabaster case she began to pour it upon his head.^j 4 At this there were some expressing indignation among themselves: "Why has this waste of the perfumed oil taken place?^k 5 For this perfumed oil could have been sold for upward of three hundred denar'i-i* and been given to the poor!" And they were feeling great displeasure at her.^l 6 But Jesus said: "Let her alone. Why do you try to make trouble for her? She did a fine deed toward me.^m 7 For you always have the poorⁿ with you, and whenever you want to you can always do them good, but me you do not have always.^o 8 She did what she could; she undertook beforehand to put perfumed oil on my body in view of the burial.^p 9 Truly I say to you, Wherever the good news is preached in all the world,^q what this woman did shall also be told as a remembrance of her."^r

10 And Judas Is-car'i-ot, one of the twelve, went off to the chief priests in order to betray him to them.^s 11 When they heard it, they rejoiced and promised to give him silver money.^t So he began seeking how to betray him conveniently.^u

mented^a cakes, when they customarily sacrificed the passover [victim], his disciples^b said to him: "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the passover?"^c 13 With that he sent forth two of his disciples and said to them: "Go into the city, and a man carrying an earthenware vessel of water will encounter you.^d Follow him, 14 and wherever he goes inside say to the householder, 'The Teacher says: "Where is the guest room for me where I may eat the passover^e with my disciples?"'^f 15 And he will show you a large upper room, furnished in preparation; and there prepare for us."^g 16 So the disciples went out, and they entered the city and found it just as he said to them; and they prepared for the passover.^h

17 After evening had fallen he came with the twelve.ⁱ 18 And as they were reclining at the table and eating, Jesus said: "Truly I say to you, One of you, who is eating^j with me, will betray me."^k 19 They started to be grieved and to say to him one by one: "It is not I, is it?"^l 20 He said to them: "It is one of the twelve, who is dipping with me into the common bowl."^m 21 True, the Son of man is going away, just as it is written concerning him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would have been finer for that man if he had not been born."ⁿ

22 And as they continued eating, he took a loaf, said a blessing, broke it and gave it to them, and said: "Take it, this means my body."^o 23 And taking a cup, he offered thanks and gave it to them, and they all drank out of it.^p 24 And he said to them: "This means^q my 'blood^r of the covenant,'^s which is to be poured^t out in behalf of many.^u 25 Truly I say to you, I shall by no means drink anymore of the product of the vine until that day when I drink it new^v in the kingdom of God."^w 26 Fi-

The hour has come!^b Look! The Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.^c 42 Get up, let us go.^d Look! My betrayer has drawn near."^e

43 And immediately, while he was yet speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, arrived and with him a crowd with swords and clubs from the chief priests and the scribes and the older men.^f

44 Now his betrayer had given them an agreed sign, saying: "Whoever it is I kiss, this is he; take him into custody and lead him away safely."^g 45 And he came straight up and approached him and said: "Rabbi!" and kissed^h him very tenderly. 46 So they laid their hands upon him and took him into custody.ⁱ 47 However, a certain one of those standing by drew his sword and struck the slave of the high priest and took his ear off.^j 48 But in response Jesus said to them: "Did you come out with swords and clubs as against a robber to arrest me?"^k 49 Day after day I was with you in the temple teaching,^l and yet you did not take me into custody. Nevertheless, it is in order that the Scriptures^m may be fulfilled."ⁿ

50 And they all abandoned^o him and fled.^p 51 But a certain young man wearing a fine linen garment over his naked body began to follow him nearby; and they tried to seize him,^q 52 but he left his linen garment behind and got away naked.*

53 They now led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests and the older men and the scribes assembled.^r 54 But Peter, from a good distance, followed him^s as far as in the courtyard of the high priest; and he was sitting together with the house attendants and warming himself before a bright fire. 55 Meantime the chief priests and the whole San'he-drin were looking for testimony against Jesus to put him to death,^a but they were not finding any.^b 56 Many, indeed, were giving false witness against him,^c but their testimonies were not in agreement.^d 57 Also, certain ones were rising and bearing false witness against him, saying: 58 "We heard him say, 'I will throw down this temple* that was made with hands and in three days I will build another not made with hands.'"^e 59 But neither on these grounds was their testimony in agreement.

60 Finally the high priest rose in their midst and questioned Jesus, saying: "Do you say nothing in reply? What is it these are testifying against you?"^f

61 But he kept silent and made no reply at all.^g Again the high priest began to question him and said to him: "Are you the Christ the Son of the Blessed One?"^h 62 Then Jesus said: "I am; and you persons will see the Son of manⁱ sitting at the right hand^j of power and coming* with the clouds of heaven."^k 63 At this the high priest ripped his inner garments^l and said: "What further need do we have of witnesses?"^m

64 You heard the blasphemy.ⁿ What is evident to you?" They all condemned him to be liable to death. 65 And some started to spit^o on him and to cover his whole face and hit him with their fists and say to him: "Prophecy!" And, slapping him in the face, the court attendants took him.^p

66 Now while Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came,^q 67 and, seeing Peter warming himself, she looked straight at him and said: "You, too, were with the Naz'a-rene', this Jesus."^r 68 But he denied it, saying: "Neither do I know him nor do I understand* what you are saying," and he went outside to the vestibule.^a 69 There the servant girl, at the sight of him, started again to say to those standing by: "This is one of them."^b 70 Again he was denying it. And once more after a little while those standing by began saying to Peter: "Certainly you are one of them, for, in fact, you are a Gal-i-le'an."^c 71 But he commenced to curse and swear:^d "I do not know this man of whom you speak."^e 72 And immediately a cock crowed a second time;^f and Peter recalled the saying that Jesus spoke to him: "Before a cock crows twice, you will disown me three times."^g And he broke down and gave way to weeping.^h

15 And immediately at dawn the chief priests with the older men and the scribes, even the whole San'-he-drin, conducted a consultation,ⁱ and they bound Jesus and led him off and handed him over to Pilate.^j 2 So Pilate put the question to him: "Are you the king^k of the Jews?" In answer to him he said: "You yourself say [it]."^l 3 But the chief priests proceeded to accuse him of many things.^m 4 Now Pilate began questioning him again, saying: "Have you no reply to make?"ⁿ See how many charges they are bringing against you."^o 5 But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate began to marvel.^p

6 Well, from festival to festival he used to release to them one prisoner, whom they petitioned for.^q 7 At the time there was the so-called Bar-ab'bas in bonds with the seditionists, who in their sedition had committed murder.^r 8 So the crowd came on up and started to make petition according to what he used to do for them. 9 Pilate responded to them, saying: "Do you want me to release to you the king of the Jews?"^s 10 For he was aware that because of envy^t the chief priests had handed him over.^u 11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release Bar-ab'bas to them, instead.^v 12 Again in reply Pilate was saying to them: "What, then, shall I do with him whom you call the king^a of the Jews?"^b 13 Once more they cried out: "Impale him!"^c 14 But Pilate went on to say to them: "Why, what bad thing did he do?" Still they cried out all the more: "Impale him!"^d 15 At that Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd,^e released Bar-ab'bas to them, and, after having Jesus whipped, he handed him over to be impaled.^f

16 The soldiers now led him off into the courtyard, that is, into the governor's palace; and they called the whole body of troops together,^g 17 and they decked him with purple and braided a crown of thorns and put it on him.^h 18 And they started greeting him: "Good day,ⁱ you King of the Jews!" 19 Also, they would hit him on the head with a reed and spit upon him and, bending their knees, they would do obeisance to him.^j 20 Finally, when they had made fun of him, they stripped him of the purple and put his outer garments upon him. And they led him out to impale him.^k 21 Also, they impressed into service a passerby, a certain Simon of Cy-re'ne, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Ru'fus, that he should lift up his torture stake.^l

22 So they brought him to the place Gol'gotha, which means, when translated, Skull Place.^m 23 Here they tried to give him wine drugged with myrrh,ⁿ but he would not take it.^o 24 And they impaled him and distributed his outer garments^p by casting the lot over them as to who takes what.^q 25 It was now the third hour,^r and they impaled him. 26 And the inscription of the charge^s against him was written above, "The King of the Jews."^t 27 Moreover, they impaled two robbers with him, one on his right and one on his

33 When it became the sixth hour* a darkness fell over the whole land until the ninth hour.^g 34 And at the ninth hour Jesus called out with a loud voice: "E'li, E'li, la'ma sa-bach-tha-ni?"^h which means, when translated: "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"ⁱ 35 And some of those standing near, on hearing it, began to say: "See! er of James the Less and of Jo'ses,* and Sa-lo'me,^a 41 who used to accompany him^b and minister to him when he was in Gal'i-lee, and many other women who had come up together with him to Jerusalem.^c

42 Now as it was already late in the afternoon, and since it was Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, 43 there came Joseph of Arima-the'a, a reputable member of the Council, who also himself was waiting for the kingdom of God.^d He took courage to go in before Pilate and asked for the body^e of Jesus. 44 But Pilate wondered whether he was already dead, and, summoning the army officer, he asked him whether he had already died. 45 So after making certain from the army officer, he granted the corpse to Joseph.^f 46 Accordingly he bought fine linen and took him down, wrapped him in the fine linen and laid him^g in a tomb^h which was quarried out of a rock-mass; and he rolled a stone up to the door of the memorial tomb.ⁱ 47 But Mary Mag'da-lene and Mary the mother of Jo'ses* continued looking at where he had been laid.^j

Mr 16:8* Manuscript L 019 (Codex Regius of the eighth cent.) contains both long and short conclusions after vs 8, giving the short conclusion first and prefixing to each conclusion a note that says these passages are current in some quarters, while evidently not recognizing either conclusion as authoritative.

LONG CONCLUSION

Certain ancient manuscripts (ACD) and versions (VgSy^{c,p}) add the following long conclusion, but which MSy^aArm omit:

9 After he rose early on the first day of the week he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had expelled seven demons. 10 She went and reported to those who had been with him, as they were mourning and weeping. 11 But they, when they heard he had come to life and had been viewed by her, did not believe. 12 Moreover, after these things he appeared in another form to two of them walking along, as they were going into the country; 13 and they came back and reported to the rest. Neither did they believe these. 14 But later he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were reclining at the table, and he reproached their lack of faith and hardheartedness, because they did not believe those who had beheld him now raised up from the dead. 15 And he said to them: "Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. 16 He that believes and is baptized will be saved, but he that does not believe will be condemned. 17 Furthermore, these signs will accompany those believing: By the use of my name they will expel demons, they will speak with tongues, 18 and with their hands they will pick up serpents, and if they drink anything deadly it will not hurt them at all. They will lay their hands upon sick persons, and these will become well."

19 So, then, the Lord Jesus, after having spoken to them, was taken up to heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. 20 They, accordingly, went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and backed up the message through the accompanying signs.

SHORT CONCLUSION

Some late manuscripts and versions contain a short conclusion after Mark 16:8, as follows:

But all the things that had been commanded they related briefly to those around Peter. Further, after these things,

Jesus himself sent out through them from the east to the west the holy and incorruptible proclamation of everlasting salvation.

1 Whereas many have undertaken to compile a statement of the facts^a that are given full credence among us, 2 just as those who from [the] beginning^b became eyewitnesses^c and attendants of the message*^d delivered these to us, 3 I resolved also, because I have traced all things from the start with accuracy, to write them in logical order^e to you, most excellent^f Theophylus,^g 4 that you may know fully the certainty of the things that you have been taught orally.^h

5 In the days of Herod,ⁱ king of Jude'a, there happened to be a certain priest named Zech-a-ri'ah* of the division of A-bi'jah,^j and he had a wife from the daughters of Aaron,^k and her name was Elizabeth. 6 They both were righteous^l before God because of walking blamelessly^m in accord with all the commandmentsⁿ and legal^o requirements of Jehovah.*^p 7 But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren,^q and they both were well along in years.

8 Now as he was acting as priest in the assignment of his division^r before God, 9 according to the solemn practice of the priestly office it became his turn to offer incense^s when he entered into the sanctuary* of Jehovah;^t 10 and all the multitude of the people was praying outside at the hour of offering incense.^u 11 To him Jehovah's* angel appeared, standing at the right side of the incense altar.^v 12 But Zech-a-ri'ah became troubled at the sight, and fear fell upon him.^a 13 However, the angel said to him: "Have no fear, Zech-a-ri'ah, because your supplication has been favorably heard,^b and your wife Elizabeth will become mother to a son to you, and you are to call his name John.^c 14 And you will have joy and great gladness, and many will rejoice^d over his birth; 15 for he will be great before Jehovah.^e But he must drink no wine and strong drink at all,^f and he will be filled with holy spirit*^g right from his mother's womb;^h 16 and many of the sons of Israel will he turn back to Jehovah*^h their God. 17 Also, he will go before him with E-li'jah's*ⁱ spirit and power, to turn back the hearts^j of fathers to children and the disobedient ones to the practical wisdom of righteous ones, to get ready for Jehovah*^k a prepared people."^l

18 And Zech-a-ri'ah said to the angel: "How am I to be sure of this? For I am aged^m and my wife is well along in years." 19 In reply the angel said to him: "I am Ga'bri-el,*ⁿ who stands near before God, and I was sent forth to speak^o with you and declare the good news^p of these things to you. 20 But, look! you will be silent^p and not able to speak until the day that these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their appointed time." 21 Meanwhile the people continued waiting for Zech-a-ri'ah,^q and they began to wonder at his delaying in the sanctuary. 22 But when he came out he was not able to speak to them, and they perceived that he had just seen a supernatural^a sight in the sanctuary; and he kept making signs to them, but remained dumb. 23 When, now, the days of his public service^a were fulfilled,^b he went off to his home.

24 But after these days Elizabeth his wife became pregnant;^c and she kept herself secluded for five months, saying: 25 "This is the way Jehovah* has dealt with me in these days when he has given me his attention to take away my reproach among men."^d

26 In her* sixth month the angel Gabriel^e was sent forth from God to a city of Gal'ilee named Naz'a-reth, 27 to a virgin promised in marriage to a man named Joseph of David's house; and the name of the virgin^f was Mary.^g 28 And when he went in before her he said: "Good day,^h highly favored one, Jehovah is with you."ⁱ 29 But she was deeply disturbed at the saying and began to reason out what sort of greeting this might be. 30 So the angel said to her: "Have no fear, Mary, for you have found favor^k with God; 31 and, look! you will conceive in your womb and give birth to a son,^l and you are to call his name Jesus.^m 32 This one will be greatⁿ and will be called Son of the Most High;^o and Jehovah God will give him the throne^p of David his father,^q 33 and he will rule as king over the house of Jacob forever, and there will be no end of his kingdom."^r

34 But Mary said to the angel: "How is this to be, since I am having no intercourse^s with a man?" 35 In answer the angel said to her: "Holy spirit^t will come upon you, and power of the Most High will overshadow you. For that reason also what is born will be called holy,^u God's Son.^v 36 And, look! Elizabeth your relative has also herself conceived Jehovah's* slave girl!^c May it take place with me according to your declaration." At that the angel departed from her.

39 So Mary rose in these days and went into the mountainous country with haste, to a city of Judah, 40 and she entered into the home of Zech-a-ri-ah and greeted Elizabeth. 41 Well, as Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the infant in her womb leaped; and Elizabeth was filled with holy spirit, 42 and she called out with a loud cry and said: "Blessed are you among women, and blessed^d is the fruit of your womb! 43 So how is it that this [privilege] is mine, to have the mother of my Lord* come to me? 44 For, look! as the sound of your greeting fell upon my ears, the infant in my womb leaped with great gladness.^e 45 Happy too is she that believed, because there will be a complete performance^f of those things spoken to her from Jehovah.*"^g

46 And Mary said: "My soul magnifies* Jehovah,^h 47 and my spirit cannot keep from being overjoyedⁱ at God my Savior;^k 48 because he has looked upon the low position of his slave girl.^l For, look! from now on all generations will pronounce me happy;^m 49 because the powerful One has done great deeds for me, and holy is his name;ⁿ 50 and for generations after generations his mercy is upon those who fear him.^o 51 He has performed mightily with his arm,^p he has scattered abroad those who are haughty in the intention of their hearts.^q 52 He has brought down men of power^r from thrones and exalted lowly ones;^s 53 he has fully satisfied hungry ones with good things^t and he has sent away empty those who had wealth.^u 54 He has come to the aid of Israel his servant,^a to call to mind mercy,^b 55 just as he told to our forefathers, to Abraham and to his seed,* forever.”^c 56 Then Mary remained with her about three months, and returned to her own home.

57 The time now became due for Elizabeth to give birth, and she became mother to a son. 58 And the neighbors and her relatives heard that Jehovah* had magnified his mercy^d to her, and they began to rejoice^e with her. 59 And on the eighth day they came to circumcise the young child,^f and they were going to call it by the name of its father, Zech-a-ri'ah. 60 But its mother answered and said: “No, indeed! but he shall be called John.” 61 At this they said to her: “There is no one among your relatives that is called by this name.” 62 Then they went asking its father by signs what he wanted it to be called. 63 And he asked for a tablet and wrote: “John^g is its name.” At this they all marveled. 64 Instantly his mouth was opened^h and his tongue loosed and he began to speak, blessing God. 65 And fear fell upon all those living in their neighborhood; and in the whole mountainous country of Ju-de'a all these things began to be talked around, 66 and all that heard made note of it in their hearts,ⁱ saying: “What really will this young child be?” For the hand^j of Jehovah* was indeed with it.

67 And Zech-a-ri'ah its father was filled with holy spirit,^k and he prophesied,^l saying: 68 “Blessed be Jehovah* the God of Israel,^m because he has turned his attention and performed deliveranceⁿ toward his people.^o 69 And he has raised up a horn^p of salvation* for us in the house of David his servant, 70 just as he, through the mouth of his holy prophets from of old,^q has spoken 71 of a salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all those hating us;^r 72 to perform the mercy in connection with our forefathers and to call to mind

80 And the young child went on growing^k and getting strong in spirit, and he continued in the deserts until the day of showing himself openly to Israel.

2 Now in those days a decree^l went forth from Caesar* Augus'tus for all the inhabited earth^m to be registered; 2 (this first registration took place when Qui-rin'i-us was governor of Syria;) 3 and all people went traveling to be registered,ⁿ each one to his own city. 4 Of course, Joseph also went up from Gal'i-lee, out of the city of Naz'a-reth, into Ju-de'a, to David's city, which is called Beth'le-hem,^o because of his being a member of the house and family of David,^p 5 to get registered with Mary,^q who had been given him in marriage as promised,^r at present heavy with child.^s 6 While they were there, the days came to the full for her to give birth. 7 And she gave birth to her son, the firstborn,^t and she bound him with cloth bands and laid him in a manger,^u because there was no place for them in the lodging room.*

15 So when the angels had departed from them into heaven, the shepherds began saying to one another: "Let us by all means go clear to Beth'le-hem and see this thing that has taken place, which Jehovah*ⁱ has made known to us." 16 And they went with haste and found Mary as well as Joseph, and the infant lying in the manger. 17 When they saw it, they made known the saying that had been spoken to them concerning this young child. 18 And all that heard marveled over the things told them by the shepherds, 19 but Mary began to preserve all these sayings, drawing conclusions in her heart.^m 20 Then the shepherds went back, glorifying and praising God for all the things they heard and saw, just as these had been told them.

22 Also, when the days for purifying^a them according to the law of Moses came to the full, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to Jehovah,* 23 just as it is written in Jehovah's* law: "Every male opening a womb must be called holy to Jehovah,"^{ab} 24 and to offer sacrifice according to what is said in the law of Jehovah:* "A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."^c

25 And, look! there was a man in Jerusalem named Sim'e-on, and this man was righteous and reverent, waiting for Israel's consolation,^d and holy spirit it was upon him. 26 Furthermore, it had been divinely revealed to him by the holy spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Christ^e of Jehovah.* 27 Under the power of the spirit^f he now came into the temple; and as the parents brought the young child Jesus in to do for it according to the customary practice of the law,^g 28 he himself received it into his arms and blessed God and said: 29 "Now, Sovereign Lord,* you are letting your slave go free in peace^h according to your declaration; 30 because my eyes have seen your means of savingⁱ 31 that you have made ready in the sight of all the peoples,^j 32 a light^k for removing the veil^l from the nations*^m and a glory of your people Israel." 33 And its father and mother continued wondering at the things being spoken about it. 34 Also, Sim'e-on blessed them, but said to Mary its mother: "Look! 36 Now there was Anna a prophetess, Phan'u-el's daughter, of Ash'er's tribe (this woman was well along in years, 41 Now his parents were accustomed to go from year to year to Jerusalem^h for the festival of the passover.

42 And when he became twelve years old, they went up according to the customⁱ of the festival 43 and completed the days. But when they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, and his parents did not notice it. 44 Assuming that he was in the company traveling together, they covered a day's distance^j and then began to hunt him up among the relatives and acquaintances. 45 But, not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem, making a diligent search for him. 46 Well, after three days they found him in the temple,^k sitting in the midst of the teachers and listening to them and questioning them. 47 But all those listening to him were in constant amazement at his understanding and his answers.^l 48 Now when they saw him they were astounded, and his mother said to him: "Child, why did you treat us this way? 3 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Ti-be'ri-us Caesar,* when Pontius Pilate was governor of Ju-de'a, and Herod^f was district ruler^g of Gal'i-lee, but Philip his brother was district ruler of the country of It-u-rae'a and Trach-o-ni'tis, and Ly-sa'ni-as was district ruler of Abi-le'ne, 2 in the days of chief priest An'nas and of Ca'ia-phas,^h God's declaration came to Johnⁱ the son of Ze-ch-a-ri'ah in the wilderness.^j

3 So he came into all the country around the Jordan, preaching baptism [in symbol] of repentance for forgiveness of sins,^j 4 just as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet: "Listen! Someone is crying out in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way of Jehovah,* YOU people, make his roads straight.'^k 5 Every gully must be filled up, and every mountain and hill leveled down, and the curves must become straight ways and the rough places smooth ways;^l 6 and all flesh will see the saving means of God."^m

7 Therefore he began to say to the crowds coming out to be baptized by him: "YOU offspring of vipers,ⁿ who has intimated to YOU to flee from the coming wrath?^o 8 Therefore produce fruits that befit repentance.*^p And do not start saying within yourselves, 'As a father we have Abraham.' For I say to YOU that God has power to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. 9 Indeed, the ax is already in position at the root of the trees; every tree, therefore, not producing fine fruit is to be cut down and thrown into the fire.”^a

10 And the crowds would ask him: “What, then, shall we do?”^b 11 In reply he would say to them: “Let the man that has two undergarments share with the man that has none, and let him that has things to eat do the same.”^c

12 But even tax collectors came to be baptized, and they said to him: “Teacher, what shall we do?”^d 13 He said to them: “Do not demand anything more than the tax rate.”^e 14 Also, those in military service would ask him: “What shall we also do?” And he said to them: “Do not harass anybody or accuse^f anybody falsely, but be satisfied with YOUR provisions.”^g

15 Now as the people were in expectation and all were reasoning in their hearts about John: “May he perhaps be the Christ?”^h 16 John gave the answer, saying to all: “I, for my part, baptize YOU with water; but the one stronger than I am is coming, the lace of whose sandals I am not fit to untie.ⁱ He will baptize YOU people with holy spirit and fire.^j 17 His winnowing shovel is in his hand to clean up his threshing floor completely and to gather^k the wheat into his storehouse, but the chaff^l he will burn up with fire^m that cannot be put out.”

18 Therefore he also gave many other exhortations and continued declaring good news to the people. 19 But Herod the district ruler,^{*} for being reproved by him concerning Her-o’di-as the wife of his brother and concerning all the wicked deeds that Herod did,ⁿ 20 added also this to all those [deeds]: he locked John up in prison.^o

21 Now when all the people were baptized, Jesus^p also was baptized^{*} and, as he was praying, the heaven^q was opened up 22 and the holy spirit in bodily shape like a dove came down upon him, and a voice came out of heaven: “You are my Son, the beloved; I have approved you.”^r sus replied to him: "It is written, 'Man must not live by bread alone.'"^{*a}

5 So he brought him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the inhabited earth in an instant of time; 6 and the Devil said to him: "I will give you all this authority^{b} and the glory of them, because it has been delivered to me, and to whomever I wish I give it.^c 7 You, therefore, if you do an act^d of worship before me, it will all be yours." 8 In reply Jesus said to him: "It is written, 'It is Jehovah your God^e you must worship, and it is to him alone you must render sacred service.'"^{*f}

9 Now he led him into Jerusalem and stationed him upon the battlement^g of the temple and said to him: "If you are a son of God, hurl yourself down from here;^h 10 for it is written, 'He will give his angels a charge concerning you, to preserve you,'ⁱ 11 and, 'They will carry you on their hands, that you may at no time strike your foot against a stone.'"^j 12 In answer Jesus said to him: "It is said, 'You must not put Jehovah* your God to the test.'"^k 13 So the Devil, having concluded all the temptation, retired from him until another convenient time.^l

14 Now Jesus returned in the power of the spirit into Gal'i-lee.^m And good talk concerning him spread out through all the surrounding country.ⁿ 15 Also, he began to teach in their synagogues, being held in honor by all.^o

16 And he came to Naz'a-reth,^p where he had been reared; and, according to his custom on the sabbath day, he entered into the synagogue,^q and he stood up to read. 17 So the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed him, and he opened the scroll and found the place where it was written: 18 "Jehovah's* spirit^r is upon me, because he anointed^s

me to declare good news to the poor, he sent me forth to preach a release to the captives and a recovery of sight to the blind, to send the crushed ones away with a release,^a 19 to preach Jehovah's^a acceptable year."^b 20 With that he rolled up the scroll, handed it back to the attendant and sat down; and the eyes of all in the synagogue were intently fixed upon him. 21 Then he started to say to them: "Today this scripture that you just heard^a is fulfilled."^c

22 And they all began to give favorable witness about him and to marvel at the winsome words^d proceeding out of his mouth, and they were saying: "This is a son of Joseph, is it not?"^e

23 At this he said to them: "No doubt you will apply this illustration^a to me, 'Physician,' cure yourself; the things^a we heard as having happened in Capernaum^b do also here in your home territory."^c 24 But he said: "Truly I tell you that no prophet is accepted in his home territory. 25 For instance, I tell you in truth, There were many widows in Israel in the days of Eli'jah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, so that a great famine fell upon all the land,ⁱ 26 yet Eli'jah was sent to none of those [women], but only to Zar'e-phath^{} in the land of Si'don to a widow. 27 Also, there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Eli'sha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed, but Na'a-man the man of Syria."ⁱ 28 Now all those hearing these things in the synagogue became filled with anger;^m 29 and they rose up and hurried him outside the city, and they led him to the brow of the mountain^{*} upon which their city had been built, in order to throw him down headlong.ⁿ 30 But he went through the midst of them and continued on his way.^o

31 And he went down to Capernaum,^p a city of Gal'ilee. And he was teaching them on the sabbath; 32 and they were astounded at his way of teaching,^a because his speech was with authority.^b 33 Now in the synagogue there was a man with a spirit,^c an unclean demon,^{*} and he shouted with a loud voice: 34 "Ah! What have we to do with you,^d Jesus you Naz-a-rene?"^e Did you come to destroy us? I know^f exactly who you are, the Holy One of God."^g 35 But Jesus rebuked it, saying: "Be silent, and come out of him." So, after throwing the man down in their midst, the demon came out of him without hurting him.^h 36 At this, astonishment fell upon all, and they began to converse with one another, saying: "What sort of speech is this, because with authority and power he orders the unclean spirits, and out they come?"ⁱ 37 So the news concerning him kept going out into every corner of the surrounding country.^j

38 After getting up out of the synagogue he entered into Simon's home. Now Simon's mother-in-law was distressed with a high fever, and they made request of him for her.^k 39 So he stood over her and rebuked the fever,^l and it left her. Instantly she rose and began ministering to them.^m 40 But when the sun was setting, all those who had people sick with various diseases brought them to him. By laying his hands upon each one of them he would cure them.ⁿ 41 Demons also would come out of many,^o crying out and saying: "You are the Son^p of God." But, rebuking them, he would not permit them to speak,^q because they knew him^r to be the Christ.^s 42 However, when it became day, he went out and proceeded to a lonely place.^t But the crowds began hunting about for him and came out as far as he was, and they tried to detain him from going away from them. 43 But he said to them: "Also to other cities I must declare the good news of the kingdom of God, because for this I was sent forth."^u 44 Accordingly he went on preaching in the synagogues of Ju-de'a.^a

5 On an occasion when the crowd was pressing close upon him and listening to the word of God, he was standing beside the lake of Gen-nes'a-ret.^b 2 And he saw two boats docked at the lakeside, but the fishermen had got out of them and were washing off their nets.^c 3 Going aboard one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to pull away a bit from land. Then he sat down, and from the boat^d he began teaching the crowds. 4 When he ceased speaking, he said to Simon: "Pull out to where it is deep, and YOU men let down YOUR nets^e for a catch." 5 But Simon in reply said: "Instructor, for a whole night we toiled and took nothing,^f but at your bidding I will lower the nets." 6 Well, when they did this, they enclosed a great multitude of fish. In fact, their nets began ripping apart. 7 So they motioned to their partners in the other boat to come and assist them;^g and they did come, and they filled both boats, so that these began to sink. 8 Seeing this, Simon Peter^h fell down at the knees of Jesus, saying: "Depart from me, because I am a sinful man, Lord."ⁱ 9 For at the catch of fish which they took up astonishment overwhelmed him and all those with him, 10 and likewise both James and John, Zeb'e-dee's sons,^j who were sharers with Simon. But Jesus said to Simon: "Stop being afraid. From now on you will be catching men alive."^k 11 So they brought the boats back to land, and abandoned everything and followed him.^l

12 On a further occasion while he was in one of the cities, look! a man full of leprosy! When he caught sight of Jesus he fell upon his face and begged him, saying: "Lord, if you just want to, you can make me clean."^m 13 And so, stretching out his hand, he touched him, saying: "I want to. Be made clean." And immediately the leprosy vanished from him.ⁿ 14 And he gave the man orders to tell nobody:^a "But go off and show yourself to the priest,^b and make an offering^c in connection with your cleansing, just as Moses directed, for a witness* to them."^d 15 But the word about him was spreading the more, and great crowds would come together to listen and to be cured of their sicknesses.^e 16 However, he continued in retirement in the deserts and praying.^f

17 In the course of one of the days he was teaching, and Pharisees and teachers of the law who had come out of every village of Gal'i-lee and Ju-de'a and Jerusalem were sitting there; and Jehovah's* power was there for him to do healing.^g 18 And, look! men carrying on a bed a man who was paralyzed, and they were seeking a way to bring him in and place him before him.^h 19 So, not finding a way to bring him in on account of the crowd, they climbed up to the roof, and through the tiling they let him down with the little bed among those in front of Jesus.ⁱ 20 And when he saw their faith he said: "Man, your sins are forgiven you."^j 21 Thereupon the scribes and the Pharisees started to reason, saying: "Who is this that is speaking blasphemies?^k Who can forgive sins except God alone?"^l 22 But Jesus, discerning their reasonings, said in answer to them: "What are YOU reasoning out in YOUR hearts?^m 23 Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'?ⁿ 24 But in order for YOU to know that the Son of man has authority on the earth to forgive sins—" he said to the paralyzed man: "I say to you, Get up and pick up your little bed and be on your way home."^o 25 And instantly he rose up before them, picked up what he used to lie on and went off to his home, glorifying God.^p 26 Then an ecstasy^q seized one and all, and they began to glorify God, and they became filled with fear, saying: "We have seen strange things today!"^r

27 Now after these things he went out and beheld a tax collector named

Le'vi sitting at the tax office, and he said to him: "Be my follower."^a 28 And leaving everything^b behind he rose up and went following him. 29 Also, Le'vi spread a big reception feast for him in his house; and there was a great crowd of tax collectors and others who were with them reclining at the meal.^c 30 At this the Pharisees and their scribes began murmuring to his disciples, saying: "Why is it you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"^d 31 In reply Jesus said to them: "Those who are healthy do not need a physician,^e but those who are ailing do.^f 32 I have come to call, not righteous persons, but sinners to repentance."^g

33 They said to him: "The disciples of John fast frequently and offer supplications, and so do those of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink."^h 34 Jesus said to them: "You cannot make the friends of the bridegroom* fast while the bridegroom is with them, can you?"ⁱ 35 Yet days will come when the bridegroom^j will indeed be taken away from them;^k then they will fast in those days."^l

36 Further, he went on to give an illustration to them: "No one cuts a patch from a new outer garment and sews it onto an old outer garment; but if he does, then both the new patch tears away and the patch from the new garment does not match the old."^m 37 Moreover, no one puts new wine into old wineskins; but if he does, then the new wine will burst the wineskins,ⁿ and it will be spilled out and the wineskins will be ruined.^o 38 But new wine must be put into new wineskins. 39 No one that has drunk old wine wants new; for he says, 'The old^p is nice.'^q

6 Now on a sabbath he happened to be passing through grainfields, and his disciples were plucking^a and eating the heads of grain, rubbing them with their hands.^b 2 At this some of the Pharisees said: "Why are YOU doing what is not lawful^c on the sabbath?"^d 3 But Jesus said in reply to them:

"Have YOU never read the very thing David^a did when he and the men with him got hungry?"^b 4 How he entered into the house of God and received the loaves of presentation^c and ate and gave some to the men with him, which it is lawful for no one to eat but for the priests only?"^d 5 And he went on to say to them: "Lord of the sabbath is what the Son of man is."^e

6 In the course of another sabbath^f he entered into the synagogue and began teaching. And there was a man present whose right hand was withered.^g 7 The scribes and the Pharisees were now watching^h him closely to see whether he would cure on the sabbath, in order to find some way to accuse him.ⁱ 8 He, however, knew their reasonings,^j yet he said to the man with the withered hand: "Get up and stand in the center." And he rose and took his stand.^k 9 Then Jesus said to them: "I ask YOU men, Is it lawful on the sabbath to do good^l or to do injury, to save or to destroy a soul?"^m 10 And after looking around at them all, he said to the man:ⁿ "Stretch out your hand." He did so, and his hand was restored.^o 11 But they became filled with madness, and they began to talk over with one another what they might do to Jesus.^p

12 In the progress of these days he went out into the mountain to pray,^q and he continued the whole night in prayer to God.^r 13 But when it became day he called his disciples to him and chose from among them twelve, whom he also named apostles:^s 14 Simon, whom he also named Peter,^t and Andrew his brother, and James and John,^u and Philip^v and Barthol'o-mew, 15 and Matthew and Thomas,^w and James [the son] of Alphae'us, and Simon who is called "the zealous one,"^x 16 and Judas [the son] of James, and Judas Is-car'i-ot, who turned traitor.^y

there was a great crowd of his disciples, and a great multitude of people^a from all of Ju-de'a and Jerusalem and the maritime country of Tyre and Si'don, who came to hear him and be healed of their sicknesses.^b 18 Even those troubled with unclean spirits were cured.

19 And all the crowd were seeking to touch^c him, because power^d was going out of him and healing them all.

20 And he lifted up his eyes upon his disciples and began to say:^e

"Happy^{*} are YOU poor,^f because YOURS is the kingdom of God.

21 "Happy are YOU who hunger^g now, because YOU will be filled.^h

"Happy are YOU who weep now, because YOU will laugh.ⁱ

22 "Happy are YOU whenever men hate^j YOU, and whenever they exclude YOU and reproach YOU and cast out^k YOUR name as wicked for the sake of the Son of man. 23 Rejoice in that day and leap, for, look! YOUR reward is great in heaven, for those are the same things their forefathers used to do to the prophets.^l

24 "But woe to YOU rich persons,^m because YOU are having YOUR consolation in full.ⁿ

25 "Woe to YOU who are filled up now, because YOU will go hungry.^o

"Woe, YOU who are laughing now, because YOU will mourn and weep.^p

26 "Woe, whenever all men speak well of YOU, for things like these are what their forefathers did to the false prophets.^q

27 "But I say to YOU who are listening, Continue to love YOUR enemies,^r to do good^s to those hating YOU, 28 to bless those cursing YOU, to pray for those who are insulting YOU.^t 29 To him that strikes you on the one cheek,^u offer the other also; and from him that takes away^v your outer garment, do not withhold even the undergarment. 30 Give to everyone asking you,^w and from the one taking your things away do not ask [them] back.

34 Also, if YOU lend [without interest]^d to those from whom YOU hope to receive, of what credit is it to YOU? Even sinners lend [without interest] to sinners that they may get back as much.^e

35 To the contrary, continue to love YOUR enemies and to do good and to lend^f [without interest], not hoping for anything back; and YOUR reward will be great, and YOU will be sons of the Most High,^g because he is kind^h toward the unthankful and wicked. 36 Continue becoming merciful, just as YOUR Father is merciful.ⁱ

Against it the river dashed, and immediately it collapsed, and the ruin^k of that house became great.^l

7 When he had completed all his sayings in the hearing of the people, he entered into Ca-per-na-um.^m 2 Now a certain army officer's* slave, who was dear to him, was ailing and was about to pass away.ⁿ 3 When he heard about Jesus, he sent forth older men of the Jews to him to ask him to come and bring his slave safely through. 4 Then those that came up to Jesus began to entreat him earnestly,* saying: "He is worthy of your conferring this upon him, 5 for he loves our nation^o and he himself built the synagogue for us." 6 So Jesus started off with them. not consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and let my servant be healed. 8 For I too am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me, and I say to this one, 'Be on your way!' and he is on his way, and to another, 'Come!' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this!' and he does it."^a 9 Well, when Jesus heard these things he marveled at him, and he turned to the crowd following him and said: "I tell you, Not even in Israel have I found so great a faith."^b 10 And those that had been sent, on getting back to the house, found the slave in good health.^c

11 Closely following this* he traveled to a city called Na'in, and his disciples and a great crowd were traveling with him. 12 As he got near the gate of the city, why, look! there was a dead man^d being carried out, the only^e-begotten* son of his mother. Besides, she was a widow. A considerable crowd from the city was also with her. 13 And when the Lord* caught sight of her, he was moved with pity^f for her, and he said to her: "Stop weeping."^g 14 With that he approached and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still, and he said: "Young man, I say to you, Get up!"^h

15 And the dead man sat up and started to speak, and he gave him to his mother.ⁱ 16 Now fear^j seized them all, and they began to glorify God, saying: "A great prophet^k has been raised up among us," and, "God has turned his attention to his people."^l 17 And this news concerning him spread out into all Ju-de'a and all the surrounding country.

18 Now John's disciples reported to him about all these things.^m 19 So John summoned a certain two of his disciples and sent them to the Lord* to say: "Are you the Coming One or are we to expect a different one?"ⁿ 20 When they came up to him the men said: "John the Baptist dispatched us to you to say, 'Are you the Coming One or are we to expect another?"* 21 In that hour he cured many of sicknesses^a and grievous diseases and wicked spirits, and granted many blind persons the favor of seeing. 22 Hence in answer he said to the [two]: "Go YOUR way,^b report to John what YOU saw and heard: the blind^c are receiving sight, the lame are walking, the lepers are being cleansed and the deaf are hearing, the dead are being raised up, the poor are being told^d the good news.^e 23 And happy is he who has not stumbled over me."^f

24 When the messengers of John had gone away, he started to say to the crowds concerning John: "What did YOU go out into the wilderness to behold? A reed being tossed by the wind?^g 25 What, then, did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft outer garments?^h Why, those in splendid dress and existing in luxury are in royal houses.ⁱ 26 Really, then, what did YOU go out to see? A prophet?^j Yes, I tell YOU, and far more than a prophet.^k 27 This is he concerning whom it is written, 'Look! I am sending forth my messenger before your face,' who will prepare your way ahead of you."^l 28 I tell you, Among those born of women there is none greaterⁿ than John; but a person that is a lesser one in the kingdom of God is greater than he is."^o 29 (And all the people and the tax collectors, when they heard [this],* declared God to be righteous,^p they having been baptized with the baptism^q of John.^q 30 But the Pharisees and those versed in the Law disregarded the counsel^r of God to them, they not having been baptized by him.)

31 "With whom, therefore, shall I compare the men of this generation, and whom are they like?^s 32 They are like young children sitting in a marketplace and crying out to one another, and who say, 'We played the flute for YOU, but YOU did not dance; we wailed, but YOU did not weep.'^t 33 Correspondingly, John the Baptist has come neither

36 Now a certain one of the Pharisees kept asking him to dine with him. Accordingly he entered into the house^e of the Pharisee and reclined at the table. 37 And, look! a woman who was known in the city to be a sinner learned that he was reclining at a meal in the house of the Pharisee, and she brought an alabaster^f case of perfumed oil, 38 and, taking a position behind at his feet, she wept and started to wet his feet with her tears and she would wipe them off with the hair of her head. Also, she tenderly kissed his feet and greased them with the perfumed oil. 39 At the sight the Pharisee that invited him said within himself: "This man, if he were a prophet,^g would know who and what kind of woman it is that is touching him, that she is a sinner."^h 40 But in reply Jesus said to him: "Simon, I have something to say to you." He said: "Teacher, say it!"

41 "Two men were debtors to a certain lender; the one was in debt for five hundred de-na'rii,*ⁱ but the other for fifty. 42 When they did not have anything with which to pay back, he freely forgave^j them both. Therefore, which of them will love him the more?" 43 In answer Simon said: "I suppose it is the one to whom he freely forgave the more." He said to him: "You judged correctly." 44 With that he turned to the woman and said to Simon: "Do you behold this woman? I entered into your house; you gave me no water^k for my feet. But this woman wet my feet with her tears and wiped them off with her hair. 45 You gave me no kiss;^l but this woman, from the hour that I came in, did not leave off tenderly kissing my feet. 46 You did not grease my head with oil;^a but this woman greased my feet with perfumed oil. 47 By virtue of this, I tell you, her sins, many though they are, are forgiven,^b because she loved much; but he who is forgiven little, loves little.” 48 Then he said to her: “Your sins are forgiven.”^c 49 At this those reclining at the table with him started to say within themselves: “Who is this man who even forgives sins?”^d 50 But he said to the woman: “Your faith has saved you;^e go your way in peace.”^f

8 Shortly afterwards he went journeying from city to city and from village to village, preaching* and declaring the good news of the kingdom of God.^g And the twelve were with him, 2 and certain women^h that had been cured of wicked spirits and sicknesses, Mary the so-called Mag'da-lene, from whom seven demons had come out,ⁱ 3 and Jo-an'na^j the wife of Chu'za, Herod's man in charge, and Su-san'na and many other women, who were ministering to them from their belongings.

4 Now when a great crowd had collected together with those that went to him from city after city, he spoke by means of an illustration:^k 5 “A sower went out to sow his seed. Well, as he was sowing, some of it fell alongside the road and was trampled down, and the birds of heaven ate it up.^l 6 Some other landed upon the rock-mass, and, after sprouting, it dried up because of not having moisture.^m 7 Some other fell among the thorns, and the thorns that grew up with it choked it off.ⁿ 8 Some other fell upon the good soil, and, after sprouting, it produced fruit a hundredfold.”^o As he told these things, he proceeded to call out: “Let him that has ears to listen, listen.”^p

9 But his disciples began to ask him what this illustration might mean.^q 10 He said: “To you it is granted to understand the sacred secrets of the kingdom of God, but for the rest it is in illustrations,^r in order that, though looking, they may look in vain and, though hearing, they may not get the meaning.^a 11 Now the illustration^b means this: The seed is the word of God.^c 12 Those alongside the road are the ones that have heard,^d then the Devil^e comes and takes the word away from their hearts in order that they may not believe and be saved.^f 13 Those upon the rock-mass are the ones who, when they hear it, receive the word with joy, but these have no root; they believe for a season, but in a season of testing they fall away.^g 14 As for that which fell among the thorns, these are the ones that have heard, but, by being carried away by anxieties and riches and pleasures^h of this life, they are completely choked and bring nothing to perfection.ⁱ 15 As for that on the fine soil, these are the ones that, after hearing the word with a fine and good heart,^j retain it and bear fruit with endurance.^k

16 “No one, after lighting a lamp, covers it with a vessel or puts it underneath a bed, but he puts it on a lamp-stand, that those stepping in may behold the light.^l 17 For there is nothing hidden^m that will not become manifest, neither anything carefully concealed that will never become known and never come into the open.” 18 Therefore, pay attention to how you listen; for whoever has, more will be given him,^o but whoever does not have, even what he imagines he has will be taken away from him.”^p

19 Now his mother and brothers^q came toward him, but they were unable to get to him because of the crowd.^r 20 However, it was reported to him: “Your mother and your brothers are standing outside wanting to see you.”^s 21 In reply he said to them: “My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it.”^t

22 In the course of one of the days he and his disciples got into a boat, and he said to them: “Let us cross to the other side of the lake.” So they set sail.^u 23 But as they were sailing he fell asleep. Now a violent windstorm descended upon the lake, and they began to fill up with [water] and to be in danger.^a 24 Finally they went to him and roused him, saying: "Instructor, Instructor, we are about to perish!"^b Rousing himself, he rebuked^c the wind and the raging of the water, and they subsided, and a calm set in. 25 Then he said to them: "Where is YOUR faith?" But struck with fear, they marveled, saying to one another: "Who really is this, for he orders even the winds and the water, and they obey him?"^d

26 And they put in to shore in the country of the Ger'a-senes,* which is on the side opposite Gal'i-lee.^e 27 But as he got out onto land a certain man from the city who had demons met him. And for a considerable time he had not worn clothing, and he was staying, not at home, but among the tombs.^f 28 At the sight of Jesus he cried aloud and fell down before him, and with a loud voice he said: "What have I to do with you,^g Jesus Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me."^h 29 (For he had been ordering the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For over a long time it had held him fast,ⁱ and he was repeatedly bound with chains and fetters under guard, but he would burst the bonds and be driven by the demon into the lonely places.) 30 Jesus asked him: "What is your name?" He said: "Legion," because many demons had entered into him.^j 31 And they kept entreating^k him not to order them to go away into the abyss.^l 32 Now a herd of a considerable number of swine^m was feeding there on the mountain; so they entreated him to permit them to enter into those.ⁿ And he gave them permission. 33 Then the demons went out of the man and entered into the swine, and the herd rushed over the precipice into the lake and drowned.^o 34 But when the herders saw what had happened, they fled and reported it to the city and to the countryside.^p

35 Then people turned out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons came out, clothed and in his sound mind, sitting at the feet of Jesus; and they became fearful.^a 36 Those who had seen it reported to them how the demon-possessed man had been made well.^b 37 So all the multitude from the surrounding country of the Ger'a-senes asked him to get away from them, because they were in the grip of great fear.^c Then he went aboard the boat and turned away. 38 However, the man from whom the demons had gone out kept begging to continue with him; but he dismissed the man, saying:^d 39 "Be on your way back home, and keep on relating what things God did for you."^e Accordingly he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city what things Jesus did for him.^f

40 When Jesus got back, the crowd received him kindly, for they were all expecting him.^g 41 But, look! a man named Ja'i-rus came, and this man was a presiding officer of the synagogue. And he fell at the feet of Jesus and began to entreat him to enter into his house,^h 42 because he had an only-begotten* daughter about twelve years old and she was dying.ⁱ

As he was going the crowds thronged him.^j 43 And a woman, subject to a flow of blood^k for twelve years, who had not been able to get a cure from anyone,^l 44 approached from behind and touched the fringe*^m of his outer garment,ⁿ and instantly her flow of blood stopped.^o 45 So Jesus said: "Who was it that touched me?"^p When they were all denying it, Peter said: "Instructor, the crowds are hemming you in and closely pressing you."^q 46 Yet Jesus said: "Someone touched me, for I perceived that power^r went out of me."^s 47 Seeing that she had not escaped notice, the woman came trembling and fell down before him and disclosed before all the people the cause for which she touched him and how she was healed instantly.^a 48 But he said to her: "Daughter, your faith has made you well;^b go your way in peace."^c

49 While he was yet speaking, a certain representative of the presiding officer of the synagogue came, saying: "Your daughter has died; do not bother the teacher any longer."^d 50 On hearing this, Jesus answered him: "Have no fear, only put forth faith,^e and she will be saved." 51 When he reached the house he did not let anyone go in with him except Peter and John and James and the girl's father and mother.^f 52 But people were all weeping and beating themselves in grief for her. So he said: "STOP weeping,^g for she did not die but is sleeping."^h 53 At this they began to laugh at him scornfully, because they knew she had died.ⁱ 54 But he took her by the hand and called, saying: "Girl, get up!"^j 55 And her spirit^k returned, and she rose^l instantly, and he ordered something to be given her to eat.^m 56 Well, her parents were beside themselves; but he instructed them to tell no one what had happened.ⁿ

9 Then he called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all the demons and to cure sicknesses.^o 2 And so he sent them forth to preach the kingdom of God and to heal, 3 and he said to them: "Carry nothing for the trip, neither staff nor food pouch, nor bread nor silver money; neither have two undergarments.^p 4 But wherever you enter into a home, stay there and leave from there.^q 5 And wherever people do not receive you, on going out of that city^r shake the dust off your feet for a witness against them."^s 6 Then starting out they went through the territory from village to village, declaring the good news and performing cures everywhere.^t

7 Now Herod the district ruler* heard of all the things happening, and he was in great perplexity because of its being said by some that John had been raised up from the dead,^a 8 but by others that Eli'jah had appeared, but by still others that a certain one of the ancient prophets had risen. 9 Herod said: "John I beheaded.^b Who, then, is this about whom I am hearing such things?" So he was seeking^c to see him.

10 And when the apostles returned they recounted to him what things they had done.^d With that he took them along and withdrew to privacy^e into a city called Beth-sa'i-da. 11 But the crowds, getting to know it, followed him. And he received them kindly and began to speak to them about the kingdom of God,^f and he healed those needing a cure.^g 12 Then the day started to decline. The twelve now came up and said to him: "Dismiss the crowd, that they may go into the villages and countryside round about and procure lodging and find provisions, because out here we are in a lonely place."^h 13 But he said to them: "You give them something to eat."ⁱ They said: "We have nothing more than five loaves and two fishes,^j unless perhaps we ourselves go and buy food-stuffs for all these people."^k 14 They were, in fact, about five thousand men.^l But he said to his disciples: "Have them recline as at meals, in groups of about fifty each."^m 15 And they did so and had them all recline. 16 Then taking the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, blessed them and broke them up and began to give them to the disciples to set before the crowd.ⁿ 17 So they all ate and were satisfied, and the surplus that they had was taken up, twelve baskets of fragments.^o

18 Later, while he was praying alone, the disciples came together to him,^p and he questioned them, saying: "Who are the crowds saying that I am?"^q 19 In reply they said: "John the Baptist;* but others, E-li'jah," and still others, that one of the ancient prophets has risen."^a 20 Then he said to them: "You, though, who do you say I am?" Peter said in reply:^b "The Christ^c of God." 21 Then in a stern talk to them he instructed them not to be telling this to anybody,^d 22 but said: "The Son of man must undergo many sufferings and be rejected by the older men and chief priests and scribes, and be killed,^e and on the third day be raised up."^f

23 Then he went on to say to all: "If anyone wants to come after me, let him disown himself^g and pick up his torture stake* day after day and follow me continually.^h 24 For whoever wants to save his soul* will lose it; but whoever loses his soul for my sake is the one that will save it.ⁱ 25 Really, what does a man benefit himself if he gains the whole world but loses his own self or suffers damage?^j 26 For whoever becomes ashamed of me and of my words, the Son of man will be ashamed of this one when he arrives in his glory and that of the Father and of the holy angels.^k 27 But I tell you truthfully, There are some of those standing here that will not taste death at all until first they see the kingdom of God."^l

28 In actual fact, about eight days after these words, he took Peter and John and James along and climbed up into the mountain to pray.^m 29 And as he was praying the appearanceⁿ of his face became different and his apparel became glitteringly white.^o 30 Also, look! two men were conversing with him, who were Moses and E-li'jah.^p 31 These appeared with glory and began talking about his departure* that he was destined to fulfill at Jerusalem.^q 32 Now Peter and those with him were weighed down with sleep; but when they got fully awake they saw his glory^a and the two men standing with him. 33 And as these were being separated from him, Peter said to Jesus: "Instructor, it is fine for us to be here, so let us erect three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for E-li'jah," he not realizing what he was saying.^b 34 But as he was saying these things a cloud formed and began to overshadow them. As they entered into the cloud, they became fearful.^c 35 And a voice^d came out of the cloud, saying: "This is my Son, the one that has been chosen.^e Listen to him."^f 36 And as the voice occurred Jesus was found alone.^g But they kept quiet and did not report to anyone in those days any of the things they saw.^h

37 On the succeeding day, when they got down from the mountain, a great crowd met him.ⁱ 38 And, look! a man cried out from the crowd, saying: "Teacher, I beg you to take a look at my son, because he is my only^j-begotten,^{*k} 39 and, look! a spirit^l takes him, and suddenly he cries out, and it throws him into convulsions with foam, and it scarcely withdraws from him after bruising him. 40 And I begged your disciples to expel it, but they could not."^m 41 In response Jesus said: "O faithless and twisted generation,ⁿ how long must I continue with you and put up with you? Lead your son over here."^o 42 But even as he was approaching, the demon dashed him to the ground and violently convulsed him. However, Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the boy and delivered him to his father.^p 43 Well, they all began to be astounded at the majestic power^{*q} of God.

Now as they were all marveling at all the things he was doing, he said to his disciples: 44 "Give lodgment to these words in your ears, for the Son of man is destined to be delivered into the hands of men."^r 45 But they continued without understanding of this saying. In fact, it was concealed from them that they might not see through it, and they were afraid to question him about this saying.^a

46 Then a reasoning entered among them as to who would be^a the greatest of them.^b 47 Jesus, knowing the reasoning of their hearts, took a young child, set it beside him^c 48 and said to them: "Whoever receives this young child on the basis of my name receives me [too], and whoever receives me receives him [also] that sent me forth.^d For he that conducts himself as a lesser^e one among all of YOU is the one that is^a great."^f

49 In response John said: "Instructor, we saw a certain man expelling demons^g by the use of your name and we tried to prevent^h him, because he is not following^a with us."ⁱ 50 But Jesus said to him: "Do not YOU men try to prevent [him], for he that is not against YOU is for YOU."^j

51 As the days were now coming to the full for him to be taken up,^k he firmly set his face to go to Jerusalem. 52 So he sent forth messengers in advance of him. And they went their way and entered into a village of Sa-mar'i-tans,^l to make preparation for him; 53 but they did not receive him, because his face was set for going to Jerusalem.^m 54 When the disciples James and Johnⁿ saw this they said: "Lord,^a do you want us to tell fire^o to come down from heaven and annihilate them?" 55 But he turned and rebuked them. 56 So they went to a different village.

57 Now as they were going on the road, someone said to him: "I will follow you to wherever you may depart."^p 58 And Jesus said to him: "Foxes have dens and birds of heaven have roosts, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay down his head."^q 59 Then he said to another: "Be my follower." 10 After these things the Lord designated seventy^a others and sent them forth by twos^b in advance of him into every city and place to which he himself was going to come. 2 Then he began to say to them: "The harvest,ⁱ indeed, is great, but the workers^j are few. you, Beth-sa'i-da!^a because if the powerful works that have taken place in you had taken place in Tyre and Sidon, they would long ago have repented sitting in sackcloth and ashes.^b 14 Consequently it will be more endurable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you.^c 15 And you, Ca-per'na-um, will you perhaps be exalted to heaven?^d Down to Ha'des* you will come!

16 "He that listens^e to you listens to me [too]. And he that disregards you disregards me [too]. Moreover, he that disregards me disregards^f [also] him that sent me forth."

17 Then the seventy* returned with joy, saying: "Lord," even the demons are made subject^h to us by the use of your name." 18 At that he said to them: "I began to behold Satan already fallenⁱ like lightning from heaven. 19 Look! I have given you the authority to trample underfoot serpents^j and scorpions,^k and over all the power of the enemy,^l and nothing will by any means do you hurt. 20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice over this, that the spirits are made subject to you, but rejoice because YOUR names^m have been inscribed in the heavens." 21 In that very hour he became overjoyedⁿ in the holy spirit and said: "I publicly praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have carefully hidden these things from wise^o and intellectual ones, and have revealed them to babes. Yes, O Father, because to do thus came to be the way approved by you. 22 All things have been delivered^p to me by my Father, and who the Son is no one knows but the Father;^q and who the Father is, no one [knows] but the Son,^r and he to whom the Son is willing to reveal him."

23 With that he turned to the disciples by themselves and said: "Happy are the eyes that behold the things you are beholding.^s 24 For I say to you, Many prophets and kings desired to see^t the things you are beholding but did not see them, and to hear the things you are hearing but did not hear them."

25 Now, look! a certain man versed in the Law^a rose up, to test him out, and said: "Teacher, by doing what shall I inherit everlasting life?"^b 26 He said to him: "What is written in the Law?^c How do you read?" 27 In answer he said: "'You must love Jehovah* your God with your whole heart and with your whole soul^d and with your whole strength and with your whole mind,^e and, 'your neighbor as yourself.'"^f 28 He said to him: "You answered correctly; 'keep on doing this and you will get life.'"^g

29 But, wanting to prove himself righteous, the man said to Jesus: "Who really is my neighbor?"^h 30 In reply Jesus said: "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jer'i-cho and fell among robbers, who both stripped him and inflicted blows, and went off, leaving him half-dead. 31 Now, by coincidence, a certain priest was going down over that road, but, when he saw him, he went by on the opposite side.ⁱ 32 Likewise, a Levite also, when he got down to the place and saw him, went by on the opposite side.^j 33 But a certain Sa-mar'i-tan^k traveling the road came upon him and, at seeing him, he was moved with pity. 34 So he approached him and bound up his wounds, pouring oil and wine upon them.^k Then he mounted him upon his own beast and brought him to an inn and took care of him. 35 And the next day he took out two de-nar'i-i,* gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him, and whatever you spend besides this, I will repay you when I come back here.' 36 Who of these three seems to you to have made himself neighbor^l to the man that fell among the robbers?" 37 He said: "The one that acted mercifully^m toward him." Jesus then said to him: "Go your way and be doingⁿ the same yourself."

38 Now as they were going their way he entered into a certain village. Here a certain woman named Martha^o received him as guest into the house.

Lu 10:27* See App 1D. 27* Or, "life." See App 4A. 35* See App 8A.

39 This woman also had a sister called Mary, who, however, sat down at the feet^a of the Lord and kept listening to his word. 40 Martha, on the other hand, was distracted^b with attending to many duties. So, she came near and said: "Lord,* does it not matter to you that my sister has left me alone to attend to things?^c Tell her, therefore, to join in helping me." 41 In answer the Lord said to her: "Martha, Martha, you are anxious^d and disturbed about many things.^e 42 A few things,^f though, are needed, or just one.* For her part, Mary chose the good portion,^g and it will not be taken away from her."

11 Now on the occasion of his being in a certain place praying, when he stopped, a certain one of his disciples said to him: "Lord, teach us how to pray,^h just as John also taught his disciples."ⁱ

2 Then he said to them: "Whenever YOU pray,^j say, 'Father, let your name be sanctified.*^k Let your kingdom come.'^l 3 Give us our bread^m for the day according to the day's requirement. 4 And forgive us our sins,ⁿ for we ourselves also forgive everyone that is in debt^o to us; and do not bring us into temptation."^p

5 Further, he said to them: "Who of you will have a friend and will go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, loan me three loaves, 6 because a friend of mine has just come to me on a journey and I have nothing to set before him'? 7 And that one from inside says in reply, 'Quit making me trouble.^q The door is already locked, and my young children are with me in bed; I cannot rise up and give you anything.' 8 I tell YOU, Although he will not rise up and give him anything because of being his friend, certainly because of his bold persistence^r he will get up and give him what things he needs."

9 Accordingly I say to YOU, Keep on asking,^a and it will be given YOU; keep on seeking,^b and YOU will find; keep on knocking, and it will be opened to YOU. 10 For everyone asking receives,^c and everyone seeking finds, and to everyone knocking it will be opened. 11 Indeed, which father is there among YOU who, if his son^d asks for a fish, will perhaps hand him a serpent instead of a fish? 12 Or if he also asks for an egg, will hand him a scorpion? 13 Therefore, if YOU, although being wicked, know how to give good gifts to YOUR children,^e how much more so will the Father in heaven give holy spirit^f to those asking him!"

14 Later he was expelling a dumb^g demon. After the demon came out, the dumb man spoke. And the crowds marveled. 15 But certain ones of them said: "He expels the demons by means of Be-el'ze-bub* the ruler of the demons."^h 16 However, others, to tempt him, began seeking a signⁱ out of heaven from him. 17 Knowing their imaginations^j he said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself comes to desolation, and a house [divided] against itself falls.^k 18 So if Satan is also divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand?^l Because YOU say I expel the demons by means of Be-el'ze-bub. 19 If it is by means of Be-el'ze-bub I expel the demons, by whom do YOUR sons^m expel them? Because of this they will be judges of YOU. 20 But if it is by means of God's fingerⁿ I expel the demons, the kingdom of God has really overtaken YOU.^o 21 When a strong man,^p well armed, guards his palace, his belongings continue in peace. 22 But when someone stronger^q than he is comes against him and conquers him,^r he takes away his full armament in which he was trusting, and he divides out the things he despoiled him of. 23 He that is not on my side is against me, and he that does not gather with me scatters.^s out of a man, it passes through parched places in search of a resting-place, and, after finding none, it says, 'I will return to my house out of which I moved.'^a 25 And on arriving it finds it swept clean* and adorned. 26 Then it goes its way and takes along seven^b different* spirits more wicked than itself, and, after getting inside, they dwell there; and the final circumstances of that man become worse than the first.'^c

27 Now as he was saying these things a certain woman out of the crowd raised her voice and said to him: "Happy is the womb^d that carried you and the breasts that you sucked!" 28 But he said: "No, rather, Happy are those hearing the word of God and keeping it!"^e

29 When the crowds were massing together, he started to say: "This generation is a wicked generation; it looks for a sign.^f But no sign will be given it except the sign of Jo'nah.^g 30 For just as Jo'nah^h became a sign to the Nin'e-vites, in the same way will the Son of man be also to this generation. 31 The queenⁱ of the south will be raised up in the judgment with the men of this generation and will condemn them; because she came from the ends* of the earth to hear the wisdom of Sol'o-mon, but, look! something more^j than Sol'o-mon is here. 32 The men of Nin'e-veh will rise in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it; because they repented at what Jo'nah preached;^k but, look! something more^l than Jo'nah is here. 33 After lighting a lamp, a person puts it, not in a vault nor under a measuring basket, but upon the lampstand,^m that those stepping in may behold the light. 34 The lamp of the body is your eye. all be as bright^a as when a lamp gives you light by its rays."

37 When he had spoken this, a Pharisee requested him to dine^b with him. So he went in and reclined at the table. 38 However, the Pharisee was surprised at seeing that he did not first wash^c before the dinner. 39 But the Lord said to him: "Now YOU Pharisees, YOU cleanse the outside of the cup and dish, but the inside^d of YOU is full of plunder and wickedness.^e 40 Unreasonable persons! He that made the outside^f made also the inside, did he not? 41 Nevertheless, give as gifts of mercy^g the things that are inside, and, look! all [other] things are clean about YOU.* 42 But woe to YOU Pharisees, because YOU give the tenth^h of the mint and the rue and of every [other] vegetable, but YOU pass by the justice* and the love of God! 45 In answer a certain one of those versed^l in the Law said to him: "Teacher, in saying these things you also insult us." 46 Then he said: "Woe also to YOU who are versed in the Law, because you load men with loads hard to be borne, but YOU yourselves do not touch the loads with one of YOUR fingers!"^m

47 "Woe to YOU, because YOU build the memorial tombs of the prophets, but YOUR forefathers killed them!"ⁿ 48 Certainly YOU are witnesses of the deeds of YOUR forefathers and yet YOU give consent^o to them, because these killed^p the prophets* but you are building [their tombs]. 49 On this account the wisdom^q of God also said, 'I will 53 So when he went out from there the scribes and the Pharisees started in to press upon him terribly and to ply him with questions about further things, 54 lying in wait^h for him, to catchⁱ something out of his mouth.

12 In the meantime, when the crowd had gathered together in so many thousands* that they were stepping upon one another, he started out by saying first to his disciples: "Watch out for the leaven^j of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.^k 2 But there is nothing carefully concealed that will not be revealed, and secret that will not become known.^l 3 Wherefore what things you say in the darkness will be heard in the light,^m and what you whisperⁿ in private rooms will be preached from the housetops.^m 4 Moreover, I say to you, my friends,ⁿ Do not fear those who kill the body and after this are not able to do anything more.^o 5 But I will indicate to you whom to fear: Fear him^p who after killing has authority to throw into Ge-hen^q.^a Yes, I tell you, fear^r this One. 6 Five sparrows sell for two coins of small value,^s do they not? 41 Then Peter said: "Lord,^{*} are you saying this illustration to us or also to all?" 42 And the Lord said: "Who really is the faithful steward,^{e} the discreet^f one, whom his master will appoint over his body of attendants to keep giving them their measure of food supplies at the proper time?^g 43 Happy is that slave, if his master on arriving finds him doing so!^h 44 I tell YOU truthfully, He will appoint him over all his belongings.ⁱ 45 But if ever that slave should say in his heart, 'My master delays coming,'^j and should start to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink and get drunk,^k 46 the master of that slave will come on a day that he is not expecting [him] and in an hour that he does not know,^l and he will punish him with the greatest severity^{} and assign him a part with the unfaithful ones.^m 47 Then that slave that understood the will of his master but did not get ready or do in line with his will will be beaten with many strokes.ⁿ 48 But the one that did not understand^o and so did things deserving of strokes will be beaten with few.^p Indeed, everyone to whom much was given, much will be demanded^q of him; and the one whom people put in charge of much, they will demand more than usual of him.^r

54 Then he went on to say also to the crowds: "When you see a cloud rising in western parts, at once you say, 'A storm is coming,' and it turns out so."^e 55 And when you see that a south wind is blowing, you say, 'There will be a heat wave,' and it occurs. 56 Hypocrites, you know how to examine the outward appearance of earth and sky, but how is it you do not know how to examine this particular time?^f 57 Why do you not judge also for yourselves what is righteous?^g 58 For example, when you are going with your adversary at law to a ruler, get to work, while on the way, to rid yourself of the dispute with him, that he may never hale you before the judge, and the judge deliver you to the court officer, and the court officer throw you into prison.^h 59 I tell you, You will certainly not get out from there until you pay over the last small coin of very little value."ⁱ

13 At that very season there were certain ones present that reported to him about the Gal-il-e'ans^j whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. 2 So in reply he said to them: "Do you imagine that these Gal-il-e'ans were proved worse sinners^k than all other Gal-il-e'ans because they have suffered these things? 3 No, indeed, I tell you; but, unless you repent, you will all likewise be destroyed.^l 4 Or those eighteen upon whom the tower in Si-lo'am* fell, thereby killing them, do you imagine that they were proved greater debtors than all other men inhabiting Jerusalem? 5 No, indeed, I tell you; but, unless you repent, you will all be destroyed in the same way."^a 6 Then he went on to tell this illustration: "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard,^b and he came looking for fruit on it,^c but found none.^d 7 Then he said to the vine-dresser, 'Here it is three years* that I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, but have found none. Why really should it keep the ground useless?" 8 In reply he said to him, 'Master, let it alone* also this year, until I dig around it and put on manure; 9 and if then it produces fruit in the future, [well and good]; but if not, you shall* cut it down.'^e"^h

10 Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. 11 And, look! a woman with a spiritⁱ of weakness for eighteen years, and she was bent double and was unable to raise herself up at all. 12 When he saw her, Jesus addressed her and said to her: "Woman, you are released^j from your weakness." 13 And he laid his hands on her; and instantly she straightened up,^k and began to glorify God. 14 But in response the presiding officer of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus did the cure on the sabbath, began to say to the crowd: "There are six days on which work ought to be done;^l on them, therefore, come and be cured, and not on the sabbath day."^m 15 However, the Lord* answered him and said: "Hypocrites,ⁿ does not each one of you on the sabbath untie his bull or his ass from the stall and lead it away to give it drink?^o 16 Was it not due, then, for this woman who is a daughter of Abraham,^p and whom Satan held bound, look! eighteen years, to be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?" 17 Well, when he said these things, all his opposers began to feel shame;^q but all the crowd began to rejoice at all the glorious things done by him.^a

18 Therefore he went on to say: "What is the kingdom of God like, and with what shall I compare it?"^b 19 It is like a mustard grain that a man took and put in his garden, and it grew and became a tree, and the birds of heaven^c took up lodging in its branches."^d

20 And again he said: "With what shall I compare the kingdom of God?" 21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in* three large measures^e of flour until the whole mass was fermented."^e

22 And he journeyed through from city to city and from village to village, teaching and continuing on his journey to Jerusalem.^f 23 Now a certain man said to him: "Lord, are those who are being saved few?"^g He said to them: 24 "Exert^h yourselves vigorously* to get in through the narrow door,ⁱ because many, I tell you, will seek to get in but will not be able,^j 25 when once the householder has got up and locked the door, and you start to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Sir, open to us.'^k But in answer he will say to you, 'I do not know where you are from.'^l 26 Then you will start saying, 'We ate and drank in front of you, and you taught in our broad ways.'^m 27 But he will speak and say to you, 'I do not know where you are from. Get away from me, all you workers of unrighteousness!'ⁿ 28 There is where [YOUR] weeping and the gnashing of [YOUR] teeth^o will be, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God,^p but yourselves thrown outside. 29 Furthermore, people will come from eastern parts and western, and from north and south,^q and will recline at the table in the kingdom of God.^r 30 And, look! there are those last who will be first, and there are those first who will be last."^s

And on an occasion when he went into the house of a certain one of the rulers of the Pharisees on the sabbath to eat a meal,^j they were closely watching him.^k 2 And, look! there was before him a certain man who had dropsy. 3 So in response Jesus spoke to those versed in the Law and to the Pharisees, saying: "Is it lawful on the sabbath to cure or not?"^l 4 But they kept silent. With that he took hold of [the man], healed him and sent [him] away. 5 And he said to them: "Who of you, if his son or bull falls into a well,^m will not immediately pull him out on the sabbath day?"ⁿ 6 And they were not able to answer back on these things.^o

7 He then went on to tell the invited men an illustration, as he marked how they were choosing the most prominent places for themselves, saying to them:^p 8 "When you are invited by someone to a marriage feast, do not lie down in the most prominent place.^q Perhaps someone more distinguished than you may at the time have been invited by him, 9 and he that invited you and him will come and say to you, 'Let this man have the place.' And then you will start off with shame to occupy the lowest place.^a

10 But when you are invited, go and recline in the lowest place,^b that when the man that has invited you comes he will say to you, 'Friend, go on up higher.' Then you will have honor in front of all your fellow guests.^c 11 For everyone that exalts himself will be humbled and he that humbles himself will be exalted.^d

12 Next he proceeded to say also to the man that invited him: "When you spread a dinner or evening meal, do not call your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors. Perhaps sometime they might also invite you in return and it would become a repayment to you. 13 But when you spread a feast, invite poor people, crippled, lame, blind;^e 14 and you will be happy, because they have nothing with which to repay you. For you will be repaid in the resurrection^f of the righteous ones."

15 On hearing these things a certain one of the fellow guests said to him: "Happy is he who eats bread* in the kingdom of God."^g

16 [Jesus]* said to him: "A certain man was spreading a grand evening meal, and he invited many.^h 17 And he sent his slave out at the hour of the evening meal to say to the invited ones, 'Come, because things are now ready.' 18 But they all in common started to beg off.ⁱ The first said to him, 'I bought a field and need to go out and see it; I ask you, Have me excused.'^{jk} 19 And another said, 'I bought five yoke of cattle and am going to examine them; I ask you, Have me excused.'^l 20 Still another said, 'I just married^m a wife and for this reason I cannot come.' 21 So the slave came up and reported these things to his master. Then the householder became wrathful and said to his slave, 'Go out quickly into the broad ways and the lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor and crippled and blind and lame.'ⁿ 22 In time the slave said, 'Master, what you ordered has been done, and yet there is room.' 23 And the master said to the slave, 'Go out into the roads^a and the fenced-in places, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.^b 24 For I say to you people, None of those men that were invited shall have a taste of my evening meal.'^c

25 Now great crowds were traveling with him, and he turned and said to them: 26 "If anyone comes to me and does not hate his father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own soul,^d he cannot be my disciple.^e 27 Whoever is not carrying his torture stake^f and coming after me cannot be my disciple.^g 28 For example, who of you that wants to build a tower does not first sit down and calculate the expense,^h to see if he has enough to complete it? 29 Otherwise, he might lay its foundation but not be able to finish it, and all the onlookers might start to ridicule him, 30 saying, 'This man started to build but was not able to finish.' 31 Or what king, marching to meet another king in war, does not first sit down and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand troops to cope with the one that comes against him with twenty thousand?ⁱ 32 If, in fact, he cannot do so, then while that one is yet far away he sends out a body of ambassadors and sues for peace.^j 33 Thus, you may be sure, none of you that does not say good-bye to all his belongings^k can be my disciple."

34 "Salt, to be sure, is fine. But if even the salt loses its strength, with what will it be seasoned?^l 35 It is suitable neither for soil nor for manure. People throw it outside. Let him that has ears to listen, listen."^m

15 Now all the tax collectorsⁿ and the sinners^o kept drawing near to him to hear him. 2 Consequently both the Pharisees and the scribes kept muttering, saying: "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them."^p

Lu 14:26* Or, "life." See App 4A. 27* See App 5c.

3 Then he spoke this illustration to them, saying: 4 "What man of YOU with a hundred sheep, on losing one of them, will not leave the ninety-nine behind in the wilderness and go for the lost one until he finds it?"^a 5 And when he has found it he puts it upon his shoulders and rejoices.^b 6 And when he gets home he calls his friends and his neighbors together, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, because I have found my sheep that was lost.'^c 7 I tell YOU that thus there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner that repents^d than over ninety-nine righteous ones who have no need of repentance.^e

8 "Or what woman with ten drachma* coins, if she loses one drachma coin, does not light a lamp and sweep her house and search carefully until she finds it? 9 And when she has found it she calls the women who are her friends and neighbors together, saying, 'Rejoice with me, because I have found the drachma coin that I lost.' 10 Thus, I tell YOU, joy arises among the angels of God over one sinner that repents."^f

11 Then he said: "A certain man had two sons.^g 12 And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the part of the property that falls to my share.'^h Then he divided his means of livingⁱ to them. 13 Later, after not many days, the younger son gathered all things together and traveled abroad into a distant country, and there squandered his property by living a debauched life.^j 14 When he had spent everything, a severe famine occurred throughout that country, and he started to be in need. 15 He even went and attached himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to herd swine.^k 16 And he used to desire to be filled with the carob pods which the swine were eating, and no one would give him [anything].^l

17 "When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many hired men of my father are abounding with bread, while I am

16 Then he went on to say also to the disciples: “A certain man was rich and he had a steward,^c and this one was accused to him as handling his goods wastefully.^d 2 So he called him and said to him, ‘What is this I hear about you? Hand in the account^e of your stewardship, for you can no longer manage the house.’ 3 Then the steward said to himself, ‘What am I to do, seeing that my master^f will take the stewardship away from me? I know what I shall do, so that, when I am put out of the stewardship, people will receive me into their homes.’^g 5 And calling to him each one of the debtors of his master he proceeded to say to the first, ‘How much are you owing my master?’ 6 He said, ‘A hundred bath measures* of olive oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your written agreement back and sit down and quickly write fifty.’ 7 Next, he said to another one, ‘Now you, how much are you owing?’ He said, ‘A hundred cor measures* of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your written agreement back and write eighty.’ 8 And his master commended the steward, though unrighteous, because he acted with practical wisdom;^h for the sons of this system of things* are wiser in a practical way toward their own generation than the sons of the light are.’

18 Then he went on to tell them an illustration with regard to the need for them always to pray and not to give up,^f 2 saying: "In a certain city there was a certain judge that had no fear of God and had no respect for man. 3 But there was a widow in that city and she kept going^g to him, saying, 'See that I get justice from my adversary at law.' 4 Well, for a while he was unwilling, but afterward he said to himself, 'Although I do not fear God or respect a man, 5 at any rate, because of this widow's continually making me trouble,^h I will see that she gets justice, so that she will not keep coming and pummelingⁱ me to a finish.'" 6 Then the Lord said: "HEAR what the judge, although unrighteous, said! 7 Certainly, then, shall not God cause justice^j to be done for his chosen ones who cry out to him day and night, even though he is long-suffering^k toward them? 8 I tell you, He will cause justice to be done to them speedily.^l Nevertheless, when the Son of man arrives, will he really find the faith^{*} on the earth?"

15 Now people began to bring him also their infants* for him to touch these; but on seeing it the disciples began to reprimand them.ⁱ 16 However, Jesus called the [infants] to him, saying: "Let the young children come to me, and do not try to stop them. 31 Then he took the twelve aside and said to them: "Look! 35 Now as he was getting near to Jer'i-cho a certain blind man was sitting beside the road begging.^o 36 Because he heard a crowd moving through he began to inquire what this might mean. 37 They reported to him: "Jesus the Naz-a-rene^p is passing by!"^q 38 At that he cried out, saying: "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"^r 39 And those going in advance began to tell him sternly to keep quiet, but that much more he kept shouting: "Son of David, have mercy on me."^s 40 Then Jesus stood still and commanded the [man] to be led to him.^t After he got near, [Jesus]* asked him: 41 "What

19 And he entered Jer'i-cho^f and was going through. 2 Now here there was a man called by the name Zac-chae'us; and he was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. 3 Well, he was seeking to see^g who this Jesus was, but he could not for the crowd, because he was small in size. 4 So he ran ahead to an advance position and climbed a fig-mulberry tree* in order to see him, because he was about to go through that way. 5 Now when Jesus got to the place, he looked up and said to him: "Zac-chae'us, hurry and get down, for today I must stay in your house." 6 With that he hurried and got down and with rejoicing he received him as guest. 7 But when they saw [it], they all fell to muttering,^h saying: "With a man that is a sinner he went in to lodge." 8 But Zac-chae'us stood up and said to the Lord:* "Look! The half of my belongings, Lord, I am giving to the poor, and whatever I extorted from anyone by false accusationⁱ I am restoring fourfold."^j 9 At this Jesus said to him: "This day salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham.^k 10 For the Son of man came to seek and to save what was lost."^l
