11 While they were listening to these things he spoke in addition an illustration, because he was near Jerusalem and they were imagining that the kingdom of God was going to display itself instantly.^m 12 Therefore he said: "A certain man of noble birth traveled to a distant land to secure kingly power* for himself and to return." 13 Calling ten slaves of his he gave them ten

mi'nas* and told them, 'Do business till I come.'^a 14 But his citizens hated^b him and sent out a body of ambassadors after him, to say, 'We do not want this [man] to become king over us.'^c

15 "Eventually when he got back after having secured the kingly power,* he commanded to be called to him these slaves to whom he had given the silver money, in order to ascertain what they had gained by business activity.^d 16 Then the first one presented himself, saying, 'Lord,* your mi'na gained ten mi'nas.'^e 17 So he said to him, 'Well done, good slave! Because in a very small matter you have proved yourself faithful, hold authority over ten cities.'^f 18 Now the second came, saying, 'Your mi'na, Lord, made five mi'nas.'^g 19 He said to this one also, 'You, too, be in charge of five cities.'^h 20 But a different one* came, saying, 'Lord, here is your mi'na, that I kept laid away in a cloth. 21 You see, I was in fear of you, because you are a harsh man; you take up what you did not deposit and you reap what you did not sow.'ⁱ 22 He said to him, 'Out of your own mouth^j I judge you, wicked slave. You knew, did you, that I am a harsh man, taking up what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow?'^k 23 Hence why is it you did not put my silver money in a bank? Then on my arrival I would have collected it with interest.'^l

24 "With that he said to those standing by, 'Take the mi'na from him and give it to him that has the ten mi'nas.'^m 25 But they said to him, 'Lord, he has ten mi'nas!'— 26 'I say to you, To everyone that has, more will be given; but from the one that does not have, even what he has will be taken away.'ⁿ 27 Moreover, these enemies of mine that did not want me to become king over them BRING here and slaughter them before me.'^o

28 So, after he had said these things, he began to go on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.^a 29 And when he got near to Beth'phage and Beth'any at the mountain called Mount of Olives,^b he sent forth two of the disciples,^c 30 saying: "Go into the village that is within sight of YOU, and in it after YOU pass in YOU will find a colt tied, on which none of mankind ever sat. Loose it and bring it."^d 31 But if anyone asks YOU, 'Why is it you are loosing it?' YOU must speak in this way, 'The Lord needs it.'^e 32 So those who were sent forth departed and found it just as he said to them.^f 33 But as they were loosing the colt the owners of it said to them: "Why are YOU loosing the colt?"^g 34 They said: "The Lord needs it."^h 35 And they led it to Jesus, and they threw their outer garments upon the colt and set Jesus upon [it].ⁱ

36 As he moved^j along they kept spreading their outer garments on the road.^k 37 As soon as he got near the road down the Mount of Olives all the multitude of the disciples started to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice concerning all the powerful works they had seen,^l 38 saying: "Blessed is the One coming as the King in Jehovah's* name!"^m Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest places!"ⁿ 39 However, some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to him: "Teacher, rebuke your disciples."^o 40 But in reply he said: "I tell YOU, If these remained silent, the stones^p would cry out."

41 And when he got nearby, he viewed the city and wept over it,^q 42 saying: "If you, even you, had discerned^r in this day the things having to do with peace—but now they have been hid from your eyes.^s 43 Because the days will come upon you when your enemies will build around you a fortification^t with pointed stakes^u and will encircle^v you and distress^w you from every side, 44 and they will dash you and your children within you to the ground,^x and they will not leave a stone upon a stone^y in you, because you did

45 And he entered into the temple and started to throw out those who were selling,^b 46 saying to them: "It is written, 'And my house will be a house of prayer,'^c but YOU made it a cave of robbers."^d

47 Furthermore, he went teaching daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the principal ones of the people were seeking to destroy him;^e 48 and yet they did not find the effective thing for them to do, for the people one and all kept hanging onto him to hear him.^f

20 On one of the days while he was teaching the people in the temple and declaring the good news, the chief priests and the scribes with the older men came near,^g 2 and they spoke up, saying to him: "Tell us by what authority you do these things, or who it is that gave you this authority."^h 3 In reply he said to them: "I will also ask YOU a question, and YOU tell me:ⁱ 4 Was the baptism* of John from heaven or from men?"^j 5 Then among themselves they drew conclusions, saying: "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why is it you did not believe him?'"^k 6 But if we say, 'From men,' the people one and all will stone us,^l for they are persuaded that John^m was a prophet."ⁿ 7 So they replied that they did not know its source. 8 And Jesus said to them: "Neither am I telling you by what authority I do these things."^o

9 Then he started to tell the people this illustration: "A man planted a vineyard^p and let it out to cultivators, and he traveled abroad for considerable time.^q 10 But in due season he sent out a slave^r to the cultivators,^s that they might give him some of the fruit of the vineyard.^t The cultivators, however, sent him away empty,^u after beating him up. 11 But he repeated and sent them a different slave. That one also they beat up and dishonored and sent away empty.^a 12 Yet again he sent a third;^b this one also they wounded and threw out. 13 At this the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my son the beloved.^c Likely they will respect this one.' 14 When the cultivators caught sight of him they went reasoning with one another, saying, 'This is the heir; let us kill him, that the inheritance may become ours.'^d 15 With that they threw him outside the vineyard and killed^e him. What, therefore, will the owner of the vineyard do to them?^f 16 He will come and destroy these cultivators and will give the vineyard to others."^h

On hearing [this] they said: "Never may that happen!" 17 But he looked upon them and said: "What, then, does this that is written mean, 'The stone which the builders rejected,ⁱ this has become the chief cornerstone?'" 18 Everyone falling upon that stone will be shattered.^k As for anyone upon whom it falls,^l it will pulverize him."^m

19 The scribes and the chief priests now sought to get their hands on him in that very hour, but they feared the people; for they perceived that he spoke this illustration with them in mind.ⁿ 20 And, after observing him closely, they sent out men secretly hired to pretend that they were righteous, in order that they might catch^o him in speech, so as to turn him over to the government and to the authority of the governor.^p 21 And they questioned him, saying: "Teacher, we know you speak and teach correctly and show no partiality, but you teach the way of God in line with truth:^q 22 Is it lawful for us to pay tax to Caesar* or not?"^r 23 But he detected their cunning and said to them:^s 24 "Show me a de-nar'i-us.* Whose image and inscription does it have?" They said: "Caesar's."^t 25 He said to them: "By all means, then, pay back Caesar's things to Caesar,^u but God's things to

God."^a 26 Well, they were not able to catch him in this saying before the people, but, in amazement at his answer, they said nothing.^b

27 However, some of the Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came up^c and questioned him, 28 saying: "Teacher, Moses^d wrote us, 'If a man's brother dies having a wife, but this one remained childless, his brother^e should take the wife and raise up offspring from her for his brother.'^f 29 Accordingly there were seven brothers; and the first took a wife and died childless.^g 30 So the second, 31 and the third took her. Likewise even the seven: they did not leave children behind, but died off.^h 32 Lastly, the woman also died.ⁱ 33 Consequently, in the resurrection,^j of which one of them does she become [the] wife? For the seven got her as wife."^k

34 Jesus said to them: "The children of this system of things* marry^k and are given in marriage, 35 but those who have been counted worthy^l of gaining that system of things^m and the resurrection from the deadⁿ neither marry nor are given in marriage. 36 In fact, neither can they die^o anymore, for they are like the angels, and they are God's children* by being children of the resurrection.^p 37 But that the dead are raised up even Moses disclosed, in the account about the thornbush,^q when he calls Jehovah* 'the God of Abraham* and God of Isaac and God of Jacob.'^r 38 He is a God, not of the dead, but of the living, for they are all living to him."^s 39 In response some of the scribes said: "Teacher, you spoke well." 40 For no longer did they have the courage to ask him a single question.

41 In turn he said to them: "How is it they say that the Christ is David's

45 Then, while all the people were listening he said to the disciples:^c 46 "Look out for the scribes who desire to walk around in robes and like greetings in the marketplaces* and front seats in the synagogues and most prominent places at evening meals,^d 47 and who devour the houses of the widows^e and for a pretext make long prayers. 21 Now as he looked up he saw the rich dropping their gifts into the treasury chests.^g 2 Then he saw a certain needy widow drop two small coins of very little value there,^h 3 and he said: "I tell you truthfully, This widow, although poor, dropped in more than they all did.ⁱ 4 For all these dropped in gifts* out of their surplus, but this [woman] out of her want dropped in all the means of living she had."^j

5 Later, as certain ones were speaking concerning the temple, how it was adorned with fine stones and dedicated things,^k 6 he said: "As for these things that you are beholding, the days will come in which not a stone upon a stone will be left here and not be thrown down."^l 7 Then they questioned him, saying: "Teacher, when will these things actually be, and what will be the sign when these things are destined to occur?"^m 8 He said: "Look out that you are not misled;ⁿ for many will come on the basis of my name, saying, 'I am he,' and, 'The due time has approached.'^o Do not go after them. 9 Furthermore, when you hear of wars and disorders, do not be terrified.^p For these things must occur first, but the end* does not [occur] immediately."

in the temple,^a but by night he would go out and lodge on the mountain called the Mount of Olives.^b 38 And all the people^c would come early in the day to him in the temple to hear him.

22 Now the festival of the unfermented cakes, the so-called Passover,^d was getting near. 2 Also, the chief priests and the scribes were seeking the effective way for them to get rid of him,^e for they were in fear of the people.^f 3 But Satan entered into Judas, the one called Is-car'i-ot, who was numbered among the twelve;^g 4 and he went off and talked with the chief priests and [temple] captains about the effective way to betray him to them.^h 5 Well, they rejoiced and agreed to give him silver money.ⁱ 6 So he consented, and he began to seek a good opportunity to betray him to them without a crowd around.^j

7 The day of the unfermented cakes now arrived, on which the passover [victim] must be sacrificed;^k 8 and he dispatched Peter and John, saying: "Go and get the passover ready^l for us to eat." 9 They said to him: "Where do you want us to get [it] ready?" 10 He said to them:^m "Look! When YOU enter into the city a man carrying an earthenware vessel of water will meet YOU. Follow him into the house into which he enters.ⁿ 11 And YOU must say to the landlord of the house, 'The Teacher says to you: "Where is the guest room in which I may eat the passover with my disciples?"'^o 12 And that [man] will show YOU a large upper room furnished. Get [it] ready there."^p 13 So they departed and found it just as he had said to them, and they got the passover ready.^q

14 At length when the hour came, he reclined at the table, and the apostles with him.^r 15 And he said to them: "I have greatly desired to eat this passover with YOU before I suffer; 16 for I tell YOU, I will not eat it again until it becomes fulfilled in the kingdom of God."^s 17 And, accepting a cup,^t he gave thanks and said: "Take this and pass it from one to the other among yourselves; 18 for I tell you, From now on I will not drink again from the product of the vine until the kingdom of God arrives."^a

19 Also, he took a loaf,^b gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to them, saying: "This means* my body^c which is to be given in YOUR behalf.^d Keep doing this in remembrance of me."^e 20 Also, the cup^f in the same way after they had the evening meal, he saying: "This cup means the new covenant^g by virtue of my blood,^h which is to be poured out in YOUR behalf."ⁱ

21 "But, look! the hand of my betray-er^j is with me at the table.^k 22 Because the Son of man is going his way according to what is marked out;^l all the same, woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!"^m 23 So they started to discuss among themselves the question of which of them would really be the one that was about to do this.ⁿ

24 However, there also arose a heated dispute among them over which one of them seemed to be greatest.^o 25 But he said to them: "The kings of the nations lord it over them, and those having authority over them are called Benefactors.^p 26 You, though, are not to be that way.^q But let him that is the greatest among YOU become as the youngest,^r and the one acting as chief as the one ministering."^s 27 For which one is greater, the one reclining at the table or the one ministering? Is it not the one reclining at the table? But I am in YOUR midst as the one ministering.^t

28 "However, YOU are the ones that have stuck^u with me in my trials;^v 29 and I make a covenant with YOU, just as my Father has made a covenant^w with me, for a kingdom,^x 30 that YOU may eat^y and drink at my table in my kingdom,^z and sit on thrones^a to judge the twelve tribes of Israel.

35 He also said to them: "When I sent^g YOU forth without purse and food pouch and sandals, YOU did not want for anything, did you?" they beheld the things that occurred, began to return, beating their breasts. 49 Moreover, all those acquainted with him were standing at a distance.^a Also, women, who together had followed him from Gal'i-lee, were standing beholding these things.^b

50 And, look! a man named Joseph, who was a member of the Council,^c a good and righteous man^c— 51 this [man] had not voted in support of their design and action^d—he was from Ari-ma-the'a, a city of the Ju-de'ans,^e and was waiting for the kingdom of God;^e 52 this man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.^f 53 And he took it down^g and wrapped it up in fine linen, and he laid him in a tomb^h carved in the rock, in which no man had yet lain.ⁱ 54 Now it was the day of Preparation,^j and the evening light of the sabbath^k was approaching.^k 55 But the women, who had come with him out of Gal'i-lee, followed along and took a look at the memorial tomb^l and how his body was laid;^m 56 and they went back to prepare spices and perfumed oils.ⁿ But, of course, they rested on the sabbath^o according to the commandment.

24 On the first day of the week, however, they went very early to the tomb, bearing the spices they had prepared.^p 2 But they found the stone rolled away from the memorial tomb,^q 3 and when they entered they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.^r 4 While they were in perplexity over this, look! two men in flashing clothing stood by them.^s 5 As the [women] became frightened and kept their faces turned to the ground, the [men] said to them: "Why are you looking for the living One among the dead? 6 [[He is not here, but has been raised up.]]^t Recall how he spoke to you while he was yet in Gal'i-lee,^u 7 saying that the Son of man must be delivered into the

What has come into existence 4 by means of him was life,^b and the life was the light^c of men.* 5 And the light is shining in the darkness,^d but the darkness has not overpowered it.

for a witness,^a in order to bear witness about the light,^b that people of all sorts might believe through him.^c 8 He was not that light,^d but he was meant to bear witness^e about that light.

9 The true light^f that gives light^g to every sort of man^h was about to come into the world.ⁱ 10 He was in the world,^j and the world came into existence through him,^k but the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own home, but his own people did not take him in.^k 12 However, as many as did receive him,^l to them he gave authority to become God's children,^m because they were exercising faith in his name;ⁿ 13 and they were born, not from blood* or from a fleshly will or from man's will, but from God.^o

14 So the Word became flesh^p and resided* among us, and we had a view of his glory, a glory such as belongs to an only-begotten son^q from a father; and he was full of undeserved kindness and truth.^r 15 (John bore witness about him, yes, he actually cried out—this was the one who said [it]—saying: "The one coming behind me has advanced in front of me, because he existed before me.")^s 16 For we all received from out of his fullness,^t even undeserved kindness upon undeserved kindness.^u 17 Because the Law was given through Moses,^v the undeserved kindness* and the truth* came to be through Jesus Christ. 18 No man has seen God at any time;^w the only-begotten god*^x who is in the bosom [position]^y with the Father is the one that has explained him.^b

19 Now this is the witness* of John when the Jews sent forth priests and Levites from Jerusalem to him to ask him: "Who are you?"^c 20 And he confessed and did not deny, but confessed: "I am not the Christ."^d 21 And they asked him: "What, then? Are you Eli-

Compare Job 33:23; Ps 91:11. 51^a Or, "in the service of." 2:4* Lit., "What to me and to you?" meaning "What is there in common between me and you?" An idiom; a repellent question indicating objection. See App 7B. 6* Likely the bath that equaled 22 L (5.81 gal). See App 8A.

Gal'i-lee as [the] beginning of his signs, and he made his glory^a manifest; and his disciples put their faith in him.

12 After this he and his mother and brothers^b and his disciples went down to Ca-per'na-um,^c but they did not stay there many days.

13 Now the passover^d of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusa-lem.^e

14 And he found in the temple those selling cattle and sheep and doves^f and the money brokers in their seats.

15 So, after making a whip of ropes, he drove all those with the sheep and cattle out of the temple, and he poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.^g

16 And he said to those selling the doves: "Take these things away from here! Stop making the house^h of my Father a house of merchandise!"ⁱ

17 His disciples called to mind that it is written: "The zeal for your house will eat me up."^j

18 Therefore, in answer, the Jews said to him: "What sign^k have you to show us, since you are doing these things?"

19 In answer Jesus said to them: "Break down this temple,^{*1} and in three days I will raise it up."

20 Therefore the Jews said: "This temple was built in forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?"

21 But he was talking about the temple^m of his body. 22 When, though, he was raised up from the dead, his disciples called to mindⁿ that he used to say this; and they believed the Scripture and the saying that Jesus said.

23 However, when he was in Jeru-salem at the passover, at its festival,^o many people put their faith in his name,^p viewing his signs that he was perform-ing.^q

24 But Jesus himself was not entrusting^r himself to them because of his knowing them all 25 and because he was in no need to have anyone bear witness about man, for he himself knew what was in man.^s

3 Now there was a man of the Phar-isees, Nic-o-de'mus^a was his name, a ruler of the Jews. 2 This one came to him in the night^b and said to him: "Rabbi,^c we know that you as a teacher^d have come from God;^e for no one can perform these signs^f that you perform unless God is with him."^g 3 In answer Jesus said to him:^h "Most truly I say to you, Unless anyone is born again,^{*1} he cannot see the kingdom of God."^j 4 Nic-o-de'mus said to him: "How can a man be born when he is old? He cannot enter into the womb of his mother a second time and be born, can he?" 5 Jesus answered: "Most truly I say to you, Unless anyone is born from wa-ter^k and spirit,^{*1} he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. 6 What has been born from the flesh is flesh, and what has been born from the spirit is spir-it.^m 7 Do not marvel because I told you, You people must be born again.ⁿ 8 The wind^{*o} blows where it wants to, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone that has been born from the spirit."^p

9 In answer Nic-o-de'mus said to him: "How can these things come about?"

10 In answer Jesus said to him: "Are you a teacher of Israel and yet do not know these things?^q 11 Most truly I say to you, What we know we speak and what we have seen we bear wit-ness^r of, but you people do not receive the witness we give.^s 12 If I have told you earthly things and yet you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?^{*t} 13 Moreover, no man has ascended into heaven^u but he that descended from heaven,^v the Son of man.^w 14 And just as Moses lifted up the serpent^a in the wilderness, so the Son of man must be lifted up,^b 15 that everyone believing in him may have everlasting life.^c

16 "For God loved^d the world* so much that he gave his only-begotten Son,^e in order that everyone exercising faith^f in him might not be destroyed^g but have everlasting life.^h 17 For God sent forth his Son into the world, not for him to judgeⁱ the world, but for the world to be saved^j through him. 18 He that exercises faith in him is not to be judged.^k He that does not exercise faith has been judged already, because he has not exercised faith in the name of the only-begotten Son of God.^l 19 Now this is the basis for judgment, that the light^m has come into the worldⁿ but men have loved the darkness rather than the light,^o for their works were wicked. 20 For he that practices vile things^p hates the light and does not come to the light, in order that his works may not be reproved.^q 21 But he that does what is true comes to the light,^r in order that his works may be made manifest as having been worked in harmony with God."

22 After these things Jesus and his disciples went into Ju-de'an country, and there he spent some time with them and did baptizing.^s 23 But John^t also was baptizing in Ae'non near Sa'lim, because there was a great quantity of water^u there, and people kept coming and being baptized;^v 24 for John had not yet been thrown into prison.^w

25 Therefore a dispute arose on the part of the disciples of John with a Jew concerning purification.^x 26 So they came to John and said to him: "Rabbi, the man that was with you across the Jordan, to whom you have borne witness,^y see, this one is baptizing and all are going to him."^z 27 In answer John said: "A man cannot receive a single thing unless it has been given him from heaven.^a 28 You yourselves bear me witness that I said, I am not

Father. 22 You worship what you do not know;^a we worship what we know, because salvation originates with the Jews.^b 23 Nevertheless, the hour is coming, and it is now, when the true worshipers will worship the Father with spirit^c and truth,^d for, indeed, the Father is looking for suchlike ones to worship him.^e 24 God is a Spirit,^f and those worshiping him must worship with spirit and truth."^g 25 The woman said to him: "I know that Mes-si'ah^h is coming, who is called Christ.ⁱ Whenever that one arrives, he will declare all things to us openly." 26 Jesus said to her: "I who am speaking to you am he."^j

27 Now at this point his disciples arrived, and they began to wonder because he was speaking with a woman. Of course, no one said: "What are you looking for?" or, "Why do you talk with her?" 28 The woman, therefore, left her water jar and went off into the city and told the men: 29 "Come here, see a man that told me all the things I did. This is not perhaps the Christ,^k is it?" 30 They went out of the city and began coming to him.

31 Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, saying: "Rabbi,^l eat." 32 But he said to them: "I have food to eat of which you do not know." 33 Therefore the disciples began saying to one another: "No one has brought him anything to eat, has he?" 34 Jesus said to them: "My food^m is for me to do the willⁿ of him that sent me and to finish his work.^o 35 Do you not say that there are yet four months before the harvest comes? Look! I say to you: Lift up your eyes and view the fields, that they are white for harvesting.^p 36 Already the reaper is receiving wages and gathering fruit for everlasting life,^q so that the sower^r and the reaper may rejoice together.^s 37 In this respect, indeed, the saying is true, One is the sower and another the reaper. 38 I dispatched you to reap what you have spent no labor on. Others have labored,^t and YOU have entered into the benefit of their labor."

39 Now many of the Samar'itans out of that city put faith^a in him on account of the word of the woman who said in witness: "He told me all the things I did."^b 40 Therefore when the Samar'itans came to him, they began asking him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days.^c 41 Consequently many more believed on account of what he said,^d 42 and they began to say to the woman: "We do not believe any longer on account of your talk; for we have heard for ourselves^e and we know that this man is for a certainty the savior^f of the world."

43 After the two days he left there for Gal'ilee.^g 44 Jesus himself, however, bore witness that in his own homeland a prophet has no honor.^h 45 When, therefore, he arrived in Gal'ilee, the Gal'ile'ans received him, because they had seen all the things he did in Jerusalem at the festival,ⁱ for they also had gone to the festival.^j

46 Accordingly he came again to Ca'na^k of Gal'ilee, where he had turned the water into wine.^l Now there was a certain attendant of the king whose son was sick in Ca-per'na-um.^m 47 When this man heard that Jesus had come out of Jude'a into Gal'ilee, he went off to him and began asking him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of dying. 48 However, Jesus said to him: "Unless YOU people see signsⁿ and wonders,^o YOU will by no means believe." 49 The attendant of the king said to him: "Lord,^p come down before my young child dies." 50 Jesus said to him: "Go your way;^q your son lives."^r The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and went his way. 51 But already while he was on his way down his slaves met him to say that his boy was living.^s 52 Therefore he began to inquire of them the hour in which he got better in health. the seventh hour^a the fever^a left him." 53 Therefore the father knew it was in the very hour^b that Jesus said to him: "Your son lives." And he and his whole household believed.^c 54 Again this was the second sign^d Jesus performed when he came out of Jude'a into Gal'ilee.

5 After these things there was a^e festival^e of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 2 Now in Jerusalem at the sheepgate^f there is a pool designated in Hebrew Beth-za'tha,^g with five colonnades. 3 In these a multitude of the sick, blind, lame and those with withered members, was lying down. 4 — 5 But a certain man was there who had been in his sickness for thirty-eight years. 6 Seeing this man lying down, and being aware that he had already been [sick] a long time,^h Jesus said to him: "Do you want to become sound in health?"ⁱ 7 The sick man answered him: "Sir, I do not have a man to put me into the pool when the water is disturbed; but while I am coming another steps down ahead of me." 8 Jesus said to him: "Get up, pick up your cot and walk."^j 9 With that the man immediately became sound in health, and he picked up his cot and began to walk.

Now on that day it was a sabbath.^j 10 Therefore the Jews began to say to the cured man: "It is Sabbath, and it is not lawful^k for you to carry the cot." 11 But he answered them: "The very one that made me sound in health said to me, 'Pick up your cot and walk.'" 12 They asked him: "Who is the man that told you, 'Pick it up and walk'?"

13 But the healed man did not know who he was, for Jesus had turned aside, there being a crowd in the place.

14 After these things Jesus found him in the temple and said to him: "See, you have become sound in health. Do not sin anymore, in order that something worse does not happen to you."

15 The man went away and told the Jews it was Jesus that made him sound in health. 16 So on this account the Jews went persecuting^a Jesus, because he was doing these things during Sabbath. 17 But he answered them: "My Father has kept working until now, and I keep working."^b 18 On this account, indeed, the Jews began seeking all the more to kill him,^c because not only was he breaking the Sabbath but he was also calling God his own Father,^d making himself equal^e to God.

19 Therefore, in answer, Jesus* went on to say to them: "Most truly I say to you, The Son cannot do a single thing of his own initiative,^f but only what he beholds the Father doing.^f For whatever things that One does, these things the Son also does in like manner. 20 For the Father has affection for the Son^g and shows him all the things he himself does, and he will show him works greater than these, in order that you may marvel.^h 21 For just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive,ⁱ so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to.^j 22 For the Father judges no one at all, but he has committed all the judging to the Son,^k 23 in order that all may honor the Son^l just as they honor the Father. of God and those who have given heed will live. 26 For just as the Father has life in himself,^a so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself.^b 27 And he has given him authority to do judging,^c because Son of man^d he is. 28 Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs^e will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life,^f those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.^g 30 I cannot do a single thing of my own initiative;^h just as I hear, I judge; and the judgment that I render is righteous,^h because I seek, not my own will, but the willⁱ of him that sent me.

31 "If I alone bear witness^j about myself, my witness is not true.^k 32 There is another that bears witness about me, and I know that the witness which he bears^l about me is true. 33 You have dispatched men to John, and he has borne witness to the truth.^m 34 However, I do not accept the witness from man, but I say these things that you may be saved.ⁿ 35 That man was a burning and shining lamp, and you for a short time were willing to rejoice greatly in his light.^o 36 But I have the witness greater than that of John, for the very works that my Father assigned me to accomplish, the works themselves that I am doing,^p bear witness about me that the Father dispatched me. 37 Also, the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me.^q You have neither heard his voice at any time nor seen his figure;^r 38 and you do not have his word remaining in you, because the very one whom he dispatched you do not believe.

witness about me.^a 40 And yet you do not want to come to me that you may have life.^b 41 I do not accept glory from men,^c 42 but I well know that you do not have the love of God in you.^d 43 I have come in the name of my Father,^e but you do not receive me; if someone else arrived in his own name, you would receive that one. 44 How can you believe, when you are accepting glory^f from one another and you are not seeking the glory that is from the only God?^g 45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father; there is one that accuses you, Moses,^h in whom you have put your hope. 46 In fact, if you believed Moses you would believe me, for that one wrote about me.ⁱ 47 But if you do not believe the writings of that one,^j how will you believe my sayings?"

6 After these things Jesus departed across the sea of Gal'i-lee, or Ti-be'-ri-as.^k 2 But a great crowd kept following him, because they were beholding the signs he was performing upon those who were ill.^l 3 So Jesus went up into a mountain,^m and there he was sitting with his disciples. 4 Now the passover,ⁿ the festival of the Jews, was near. 5 When, therefore, Jesus raised his eyes and observed that a great crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip: "Where shall we buy loaves for these to eat?"^o 6 However, he was saying this to test him, for he himself knew what he was about to do. 7 Philip answered him: "Two hundred de-na'r'i-i* worth of loaves is not enough for them, so that each one may get a little."^p 8 One of his disciples, Andrew the brother of Simon Peter, said to him: 9 "Here is a little boy that has five barley loaves^q and two small fishes. number.^a 11 So Jesus took the loaves and, after giving thanks, he distributed them to those reclining, likewise also as much of the small fishes as they wanted.^b 12 But when they had their fill^c he said to his disciples: "Gather together the fragments that remain over, so that nothing is wasted." 13 Therefore they gathered them together, and they filled twelve baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten.^d

14 Hence when the men saw the signs he performed, they began to say: "This is for a certainty the prophet^e that was to come into the world." 15 Therefore Jesus, knowing they were about to come and seize him to make him king, withdrew^f again into the mountain all alone.

16 When evening fell, his disciples went down to the sea,^g 17 and, boarding a boat, they set out across the sea for Ca-per'na-um. Well, by now it had grown dark and Jesus had not yet come to them. 18 Also, the sea began to be stirred up because a strong wind was blowing.^h 19 However, when they had rowed about three or four miles,ⁱ they beheld Jesus walking upon the sea and getting near the boat; and they became fearful.^j 20 But he said to them: "It is I; have no fear!"^j 21 Therefore they were willing to take him into the boat, and directly the boat was at the land to which they were trying to go.^k

22 The next day the crowd that was standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no boat there except a little one, and that Jesus had not entered into the boat with his disciples but that only his disciples had left; 23 but boats from Ti-be'-ri-as arrived near the place where they ate the bread after the Lord* had given thanks. 24 Therefore when the crowd saw that neither Jesus was there nor his disciples, they boarded their little boats and came to Ca-per'na-um to look^l for Jesus.

Joh 6:19* Lit., "about twenty-five or thirty stadia." A stadium equaled one eighth of a Roman mile, 185 m (606.75 English ft). 23 Or, "Master."

25 So when they found him across the sea they said to him: "Rabbi,^a when did you get here?" 26 Jesus answered them and said: "Most truly I say to you, You are looking for me, not because YOU saw signs, but because YOU ate from the loaves and were satisfied.^b 27 Work, not for the food that perishes,^c but for the food that remains for life everlasting,^d which the Son of man will give you; for upon this one the Father, even God, has put his seal [of approval]."^e

28 Therefore they said to him: "What shall we do to work the works of God?" 29 In answer Jesus said to them: "This is the work of God, that YOU exercise faith^f in him whom that One sent forth."^g 30 Therefore they said to him: "What, then, are you performing as a sign,^h in order for us to see [it] and believe you? What work are you doing? 31 Our forefathers ate the mannaⁱ in the wilderness, just as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'^j" 32 Hence Jesus said to them: "Most truly I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but my Father does give you the true bread from heaven.^k 33 For the bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." 34 Therefore they said to him: "Lord, always give us this bread."^l

35 Jesus said to them: "I am the bread of life. He that comes to me will not get hungry at all, and he that exercises faith in me will never get thirsty at all."^m 36 But I have said to you, You have even seen meⁿ and yet do not believe.ⁿ 37 Everything the Father gives me will come to me, and the one that comes to me I will by no means drive away;^o 38 because I have come down from heaven^p to do, not my will, but the will of him that sent me.^q 39 This is the will of him that sent me, that I should lose nothing out of all that he has given me but that I should resurrect^r it at the last day.

40 For this is the will of my Father, that everyone that beholds the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life,^a and I will resurrect him at the last day."^b

41 Therefore the Jews began to murmur at him because he said: "I am the bread that came down from heaven";^c 42 and they began saying:^d "Is this not Jesus the son of Joseph,^e whose father and mother we know? How is it that now he says, 'I have come down from heaven'?" 43 In answer Jesus said to them: "Stop murmuring among yourselves. 44 No man can come to me unless the Father, who sent me, draws him;^f and I will resurrect him in the last day.^g 45 It is written in the Prophets, 'And they will all be taught^h by Jehovah.'^h Everyone that has heard from the Father and has learned comes to me.ⁱ 46 Not that any man has seen the Father,^j except he who is from God; this one has seen the Father.^k 47 Most truly I say to you, He that believes has everlasting life.^l

48 "I am the bread^m of life. 49 YOUR forefathers ate the mannaⁿ in the wilderness and yet died. 50 This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that anyone may eat of it and not die. 51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven; if anyone eats of this bread he will live forever; and, for a fact, the bread that I shall give is my flesh^o in behalf of the life of the world."^p

52 Therefore the Jews began contending with one another, saying: "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" 53 Accordingly Jesus said to them: "Most truly I say to you, Unless you eat the flesh^q of the Son of man and drink his blood,^r you have no life^s in yourselves. 54 He that feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has everlasting life, and I shall resurrect^t him at the last day; 55 for my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

Joh 6:45* Or, "be those taught." 45* See App 1D.

56 He that feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood remains in union with me,* and I in union with him.^a 57 Just as the living^b Father sent me forth and I live because of the Father, he also that feeds on me, even that one will live because of me.^c 58 This is the bread that came down from heaven. It is not as when YOUR forefathers ate and yet died. He that feeds on this bread will live forever.”^d 59 These things he said as he was teaching in public assembly at Ca-per’na-um.

60 Therefore many of his disciples, when they heard this, said: “This speech is shocking; who can listen to it?”^e

61 But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples were murmuring about this, said to them: “Does this stumble^f you?”

62 What, therefore, if YOU should behold the Son of man ascending to where he was before?^g 63 It is the spirit that is life-giving;^h the flesh is of no use at all. The sayings that I have spoken to you are* spiritⁱ and are life.^j

64 But there are some of YOU that do not believe.” For from [the] beginning Jesus knew who were the ones not believing and who was the one that would betray him.^k 65 So he went on to say: “This is why I have said to YOU, No one can come to me unless it is granted him by the Father.”^l

66 Owing to this many of his disciples went off to the things behind^m and would no longer walk with him.ⁿ

67 Therefore Jesus said to the twelve: “YOU do not want to go also, do you?”

68 Simon Peter^o answered him: “Lord, whom shall we go away to?^p You have sayings of everlasting life;^q 69 and we have believed and come to know that you are the Holy One of God.”^r

70 Jesus answered them: “I chose YOU twelve,^s did I not? Yet one of YOU is a slanderer.”^t 71 He was, in fact, speaking of Judas [the son] of Simon Is-car’i-ot; for this one was going to betray^u him, although one of the twelve.

7 Now after these things Jesus continued walking about in Gal’ilee, for he did not want to walk about in Ju-de’a, because the Jews were seeking to kill^a him. 2 However, the festival of the Jews, the festival of tabernacles,^b was near. 3 Therefore his brothers^c said to him: “Pass on over from here and go into Ju-de’a, in order that your disciples also may behold the works you do. 4 For nobody does anything in secret while himself seeking to be known publicly. If you do these things, manifest yourself to the world.” 5 His brothers^d were, in fact, not exercising faith in him.^e 6 Therefore Jesus said to them: “My due time is not yet present,^f but YOUR due time is always at hand. 7 The world has no reason to hate YOU, but it hates me, because I bear witness concerning it that its works are wicked.^g 8 You go up to the festival; I am not yet going up to this festival, because my due time^h has not yet fully come.”ⁱ 9 So after he told them these things, he remained in Gal’ilee.

10 But when his brothers had gone up to the festival, then he also went up himself, not openly but as in secret.^j 11 Therefore the Jews began looking^k for him at the festival and saying: “Where is that [man]?” 12 And there was a lot of subdued talk about him among the crowds.^l Some would say: “He is a good man.” Others would say: “He is not, but he misleads the crowd.” 13 No one, of course, would speak about him publicly because of the fear of the Jews.^m

14 When by now the festival was half over, Jesus went up into the temple and began teaching.ⁿ 15 Therefore the Jews fell to wondering, saying: “How does this man have a knowledge of letters,^o when he has not studied* at the schools?”^p 16 Jesus, in turn, answered them and said: “What I teach is not mine, but belongs to him that sent me.^q 17 If anyone desires to do His will, he will know concerning the teaching whether it is from God^a or I speak of my own originality.* 18 He that speaks of his own originality is seeking his own glory; but he that seeks the glory^b of him that sent him, this one is true, and there is no unrighteousness in him. 19 Moses gave you the Law,^c did he not? But not one of you obeys the Law. Why are you seeking to kill me?"^d 20 The crowd answered: "You have a demon.*^e Who is seeking to kill you?" 21 In answer Jesus said to them: "One deed I performed,^f and you are all wondering. 22 For this reason Moses has given you the circumcision^g—not that it is from Moses, but that it is from the forefathers^h—and you circumcise a man on a sabbath. 23 If a man receives circumcision on a sabbath in order that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you violently angry at me because I made a man completely sound in health on a sabbath?" 24 Stop judging from the outward appearance, but judge with righteous judgment."ⁱ

25 Therefore some of the inhabitants of Jerusalem began to say: "This is the man they are seeking to kill,^k is it not? 26 And yet, see! he is speaking in public,^l and they say nothing to him. The rulers have not come to know for a certainty that this is the Christ, have they?"^m 27 On the contrary, we know where this man is from;ⁿ yet when the Christ comes, no one is to know where he is from."^o 28 Therefore Jesus cried out as he was teaching in the temple and said: "You both know me and know where I am from.^p Also, I have not come of my own initiative,^q but he that sent me is real,^r and you do not know him.^s 29 I know him,^t because I am a representative from him, and that One sent me forth."^u 30 Hence they began seeking to get hold of him,^v but no one laid a hand upon him, because his hour^w had not yet come. 31 Still, many of the crowd put faith in him;^x and they commenced saying: "When the Christ arrives, he will not perform more signs^y than this man has performed, will he?"

32 The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things about him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees dispatched officers to get hold of him.^a 33 Therefore Jesus said: "I continue a little while longer with you before I go to him that sent me.^b 34 You will look for me,^c but you will not find me, and where I am you cannot come."^d 35 Therefore the Jews said among themselves: "Where does this [man] intend going, so that we shall not find him? He does not intend to go to the [Jews] dispersed*^e among the Greeks and teach the Greeks, does he? 36 What does this saying mean that he said, 'You will look for me, but you will not find me, and where I am you cannot come'?"

37 Now on the last day, the great day of the festival,^f Jesus was standing up and he cried out, saying: "If anyone is thirsty,^g let him come to me and drink. 38 He that puts faith in me,^h just as the Scripture has said, 'Out from his inmost part streams of living water will flow.'ⁱ 39 However, he said this concerning the spirit which those who put faith in him were about to receive; for as yet there was no spirit,^j because Jesus had not yet been glorified.^k 40 Therefore some of the crowd that heard these words began saying: "This is for a certainty The Prophet."^l 41 Others were saying: "This is the Christ."^m But some were saying: "The Christⁿ is not actually coming out of Gal'i-lee, is he?"^o 42 Has not the Scripture said that the Christ is coming from the offspring of David,^p and from Beth'le-hem^q the village where David used to be?"^r 43 Therefore a division over him developed among the crowd.^s 44 Some of them, though, were wanting to get hold of him, but no one did lay [his] hands upon him.

45 Therefore the officers went back to the chief priests and Pharisees, and the latter said to them: "Why is it you did not bring him in?" 46 The officers replied: "Never has [another] man spoken like this." 47 In turn the Pharisees answered: "You have not been misled also, have you?" 48 Not one of the rulers or of the Pharisees has put faith in him, has he?^b 49 But this crowd that does not know the Law are accursed people."^c 50 Nicodemus, who had come to him previously, and who was one of them, said to them: 51 "Our law does not judge a man unless first it has heard^d from him and come to know what he is doing, does it?" 52 In answer they said to him: "You are not also out of Gal'ilee, are you? Search and see that no prophet is to be raised up out of Gal'ilee."*

8 12 Therefore Jesus spoke again to them, saying: "I am the light^e of the world. He that follows me will by no means walk in darkness,^f but will possess the light of life." 13 Hence the Pharisees said to him: "You bear witness about yourself; your witness is not true." 14 In answer Jesus said to them: "Even if I do bear witness about myself, my witness^g is true, because I know where I came from and where I am going.^h But you do not know where I came from and where I am

53 So they went each one to his home.

8 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. 2 At daybreak, however, he again presented himself at the temple, and all the people began coming to him, and he sat down and began to teach them. 3 Now the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman caught at adultery, and, after standing her in their midst, 4 they said to him: "Teacher, this woman has been caught in the act of committing adultery. 5 In the Law Moses prescribed for us to stone such sort of women. What, really, do you say?" 6 Of course, they were saying this to put him to the test, in order to have something with which to accuse him. But Jesus bent down and began to write with his finger in the ground. 7 When they persisted in asking him, he straightened up and said to them: "Let the one of you that is sinless be the first to throw a stone at her." 8 And bending over again he kept on writing in the ground. 9 But those who heard this began going out, one by one, starting with the older men, and he was left alone, and the woman that was in their midst. 10 Straightening up, Jesus said to her: "Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?" 11 She said: "No one, sir." Jesus said: "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way; from now on practice sin no more."

Jesus said to them: "Why am I even speaking to you at all?" ^{*} 26 I have many things to speak concerning you and to pass judgment upon. As a matter of fact, he that sent me is true, and the very things I heard from him I am speaking in the world." ^b 27 They did not grasp that he was talking to them about the Father. 28 Therefore Jesus said: "When once you have lifted up ^c the Son of man, ^d then you will know that I am [he], ^e and that I do nothing of my own initiative; ^{*f} but just as the Father taught me I speak these things. ^g 29 And he that sent me is with me; he did not abandon me to myself, because I always do the things pleasing to him." ^h 30 As he was speaking these things, many put faith in him. ⁱ

31 And so Jesus went on to say to the Jews that had believed him: "If you remain in my word, ^j you are really my disciples, 32 and you will know the truth, ^k and the truth will set you free." ^l 33 They replied to him: "We are Abraham's offspring ^{*m} and never have we been slaves to anybody. ⁿ How is it you say, 'You will become free'?" 34 Jesus answered them: "Most truly I say to you, Every doer of sin is a slave of sin. ^o 35 Moreover, the slave does not remain in the household forever; the son remains forever. ^p 36 Therefore if the Son sets you free, you will be actually free. ^q 37 I know that you are Abraham's offspring; but you are seeking to kill me, ^r because my word makes no progress among you. ^s 38 What things I have seen with my Father ^t I speak; ^u and you, therefore, do the things you have heard from [YOUR] father." 39 In answer they said to him: "Our father is Abraham." ^v Jesus said to them: "If you are Abraham's children, ^w do the works of Abraham. 40 But now you are seeking to kill me, a man that has told you the truth that

It is my Father that glorifies me,^a he who YOU say is YOUR God; 55 and yet you have not known him.^b But I know him.^c And if I said I do not know him I should be like YOU, a liar. 9 Now as he was passing along he saw a man blind from birth. 2 And his disciples asked him: "Rabbi,ⁱ who sinned,^j this man or his parents,^k so that he was born blind?" 3 Jesus answered: "Neither this man sinned nor his parents, but it was in order that the works of God might be made manifest in his case.^l 4 We must work the works of him that sent me while it is day;^m the nightⁿ is coming when no man can work. 5 As long as I am in the world, I am the world's light."^o 6 After he said these things, he spit on the ground and made a clay with the saliva, and put his clay upon the [man's] eyes^p 7 and said to him: "Go wash^q in the pool of Silo'am"^r (which is translated 'Sent forth'). say to him: "How, then, were your eyes opened?"^a 11 He answered: "The man called Jesus made a clay and smeared [it] on my eyes and said to me, 'Go to Silo'am^b and wash.' I therefore went and washed and gained sight."^c 12 At this they said to him: "Where is that [man]?" He said: "I do not know."^d

13 They led the once-blind man himself to the Pharisees. 14 Incidentally it was Sabbath^e on the day that Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes.^f 15 This time, therefore, the Pharisees also took up asking him how he gained sight.^g He said to them: "He put a clay upon my eyes, and I washed and have sight."^h 16 Therefore some of the Pharisees began to say: "This is not a man from God, because he does not observe the Sabbath."ⁱ Others began to say: "How can a man that is a sinner perform signs^j of that sort?" So there was a division^k among them. 17 Hence they said to the blind man again: "What do you say about him, seeing that he opened your eyes?" The [man] said: "He is a prophet."^l

18 However, the Jews did not believe concerning him that he had been blind and had gained sight, until they called the parents of the man that gained sight. 19 And they asked them: "Is this YOUR son who you say was born blind? How, then, is it he sees at present?" 20 Then in answer his parents said: "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. 21 But how it is he now sees we do not know, or who opened his eyes we do not know. Ask him. He is of age. He must speak for himself." 22 His parents said these things because they were in fear^m of the Jews, for the Jews had already come to an agreement that, if anyone confessed him as Christ, he should get expelled from the synagogue.*ⁿ 23 This is why his parents said: "He is of age. QUESTION him."^o

24 Therefore a second time they called the man that had been blind and

said to him: "Give glory to God;^a we know that this man is a sinner." 25 In turn he answered: "Whether he is a sinner I do not know. One thing I do know, that, whereas I was blind, I see at present." 26 Therefore they said to him: "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" 27 He answered them: "I told you already, and yet you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You do not want to become his disciples also, do you?" 28 At this they reviled him and said: "You are a disciple of that [man], but we are disciples of Moses." 29 We know that God has spoken to Moses;^b but as for this [man], we do not know where he is from."^c 30 In answer the man said to them: "This certainly is a marvel,^d that you do not know where he is from, and yet he opened my eyes. 31 We know that God does not listen to sinners,^e but if anyone is God-fearing and does his will, he listens to this one.^f 32 From of old it has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of one born blind. 33 If this [man] were not from God,^g he could do nothing at all." 34 In answer they said to him: "You were altogether born in sins,^h and yet are you teaching us?" And they threw him out!ⁱ

35 Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and, on finding him, he said: "Are you putting faith in the Son^j of man?" 36 The [man] answered: "And who is he, sir, that I may put faith in him?" 37 Jesus said to him: "You have seen him and, besides, he that is speaking with you is that one."^k 38 Then he said: "I do put faith [in him], Lord."^l And he did obeisance^l to him. 39 And Jesus said: "For [this] judgment^m I came into this world: that those not seeing might seeⁿ and those seeing might become blind."^o 40 Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and they said to him: "We are not blind also,^p are we?" 41 Jesus said to them: "If you were blind, you would

7 Therefore Jesus said again: "Most truly I say to you, I am the door^o of the sheep. 8 All those that have come in place of me are thieves and plunderers;^p but the sheep have not listened to them.^q 9 I am the door;^r whoever enters through me will be saved, and he will go in and out and find pasture.^s 10 The thief^t does not come unless it is to steal and slay and destroy.^u I have come that they might have life and might have it in abundance. 11 I am the fine shepherd;^v the fine shepherd surrenders his soul in behalf of the sheep.^w 12 The hired^x man, who is no shepherd and to whom the sheep do not belong as his own, beholds the wolf coming and abandons the sheep and flees—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them^y— 13 because he is a hired^z man and does not care for the sheep.^a 14 I am the fine^{} shepherd, and I know my sheep^b and my sheep know me,^c 15 just as the Father knows me and I know the Father;^d and I surrender my soul^{} in behalf of the sheep.^e

16 "And I have other sheep,^a which are not of this fold;^b those also I must bring,* and they will listen to my voice,^c and they will become one flock, one shepherd.^d 17 This is why the Father loves me,^e because I surrender my soul,^f in order that I may receive it again. 18 No man has taken* it away from me, but I surrender it of my own initiative. I have authority to surrender it, and I have authority to receive it again.^g The commandment^h on this I received from my Father."

19 Again a divisionⁱ resulted among the Jews because of these words. 20 Many of them were saying: "He has a demon^j and is mad. Why do you listen to him?" 21 Others would say: "These are not the sayings of a demonized man. A demon cannot open blind people's eyes, can it?"

22 At that time the festival of dedication* took place in Jerusalem. It was wintertime, 23 and Jesus was walking in the temple in the colonnade of Sol'o-mon.^k 24 Therefore the Jews encircled him and began to say to him: "How long are you to keep our souls in suspense? If you are the Christ,^l tell us outspokenly."^m 25 Jesus answered them: "I told you, and yet you do not believe. The works that I am doing in the name of my Father, these bear witness about me."ⁿ 26 But you do not believe, because you are none of my sheep.^o 27 My sheep^p listen to my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.^q 28 And I give them everlasting life,^r and they will by no means ever be destroyed,^s and no one will snatch them out of my hand.^t 29 What my Father^u has given me is something greater than all other things,^v and no one can snatch them out of the hand of the Father.^a 30 I and the Father are one."^b

31 Once more the Jews lifted up stones to stone him.^c 32 Jesus replied to them: "I displayed to you many fine works from the Father. For which of those works are you stoning me?" 33 The Jews answered him: "We are stoning you, not for a fine work, but for blasphemy,^d even because you, although being a man, make yourself a god."^e 34 Jesus answered them: "Is it not written in your Law,^f 'I said: "You are gods"?'^g 35 If he called 'gods'^h those against* whom the word of God came, and yet the Scripture cannot be nullified,ⁱ 36 do you say to me* whom the Father sanctified and dispatched into the world, 'You blaspheme,' because I said, I am God's Son?" 37 If I am not doing the works^k of my Father, do not believe me. 38 But if I am doing them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works,^l in order that you may come to know and may continue knowing that the Father is in union with me and I am in union with the Father."^m 39 Therefore they tried again to seize him;ⁿ but he got out of their reach.^o

40 So he went off again across the Jordan to the place where John was baptizing^p at first, and he stayed there. 41 And many people came to him, and they began saying: "John, indeed, did not perform a single sign, but as many things as John said about this man were all true."^q 42 And many put faith in him there.^r

11 Now there was a certain man sick, Laz'a-rus* of Beth'a-ny, of the village of Mary and of Martha^s her sister. 2 It was, in fact, the Mary that greased the Lord* with perfumed oil^t and wiped his feet dry with her hair,^a whose brother Laz'a-rus was sick. 3 Therefore his sisters dispatched word to him, saying: "Lord, see! the one for whom you have affection^b is sick." 4 But when Jesus heard it he said: "This sickness is not with death as its object, but is for the glory of God,^c in order that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

5 Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Laz'a-rus. 6 However, when he heard that he was sick, then he actually remained two days in the place where he was. 7 Then after this he said to the disciples: "Let us go into Ju-de'a again." 8 The disciples said to him: "Rabbi,^d just lately the Ju-de'ans^e were seeking to stone you,^e and are you going there again?" 9 Jesus answered: "There are twelve hours of daylight, are there not? If anyone walks in daylight^f he does not bump against anything, because he sees the light of this world. 10 But if anyone walks in the night,^g he bumps against something, because the light is not in him."

11 He said these things, and after this he said to them: "Laz'a-rus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep."^h 12 Therefore the disciples said to him: "Lord, if he has gone to rest, he will get well."ⁱ 13 Jesus had spoken, however, about his death. But they imagined he was speaking about taking rest in sleep. 14 At that time, therefore, Jesus said to them outspokenly: "Laz'a-rus has died,^j 15 and I rejoice on your account that I was not there, in order for you to believe. But let us go to him." 16 Therefore Thomas, who was called The Twin,^k said to his fellow disciples: "Let us also go, that we may die with him."^l

of about two miles.* 19 Accordingly many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary in order to console^a them concerning their brother. 20 Therefore Martha, when she heard that Jesus was coming, met him; but Mary^b kept sitting at home. 21 Martha therefore said to Jesus: "Lord,^c if you had been here my brother would not have died.^c 22 And yet at present I know that as many things as you ask God for,^d God will give you." 23 Jesus said to her: "Your brother will rise."^e 24 Martha said to him: "I know he will rise in the resurrection^f on the last day." 25 Jesus said to her: "I am the resurrection and the life.^g He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life;^h 26 and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all.ⁱ Do you believe this?" 27 She said to him: "Yes, Lord; I have believed that you are the Christ the Son of God, the One coming into the world." 28 And when she had said this, she went off and called Mary her sister, saying secretly: "The Teacher^k is present and is calling you." 29 The latter, when she heard this, got up quickly and was on her way to him.

30 Jesus had not yet, in fact, come into the village, but he was still in the place where Martha met him. 31 Therefore the Jews that were with her in the house^l and that were consoling her, on seeing Mary rise quickly and go out, followed her, supposing that she was going to the memorial tomb^m to weep there. 32 And so Mary, when she arrived where Jesus was and caught sight of him, fell at his feet, saying to him: "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."ⁿ 33 Jesus, therefore, when he saw her weeping and the Jews that came with her weeping, groaned in the spirit and became troubled;^a 34 and he said: "Where have you laid him?" They said to him: "Lord, come and see." 35 Jesus gave way to tears.^b 36 Therefore the Jews began to say: "See, what affection he used to have for him!"^c 37 But some of them said: "Was not this [man] that opened the eyes^d of the blind man able to prevent this one from dying?"

38 Hence Jesus, after groaning again within himself, came to the memorial tomb.^e It was, in fact, a cave, and a stone^f was lying against it. 39 Jesus said: "TAKE the stone^g away." Martha, the sister of the deceased, said to him: "Lord, by now he must smell, for it is four days." 40 Jesus said to her: "Did I not tell you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?"^h 41 Therefore they took the stone away. Now Jesus raised his eyes heavenwardⁱ and said: "Father, I thank you that you have heard me."^j 42 True, I knew that you always hear me; but on account of the crowd^k standing around I spoke, in order that they might believe that you sent me forth."^l 43 And when he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice: "Laz'a-rus,* come on out!"^m 44 The [man] that had been dead came out with his feet and hands bound with wrappings,ⁿ and his countenance was bound about with a cloth. Jesus said to them: "Loose him and let him go."

45 Therefore many of the Jews that had come to Mary and that beheld what he did put faith in him;^o 46 but some of them went off to the Pharisees and told them the things Jesus did.^p 47 Consequently the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered the San'he-drin^q together and began to say: "What are we to do, because this man performs many signs?"^r 48 If we let him alone this way, they will all put faith in him,^s and the Romans^t will come and take away both our place^u and our nation."^v 49 But a certain one of them, Ca'ia-phas, who was high priest that year,^v said to them: "You do not know anything at all, 50 and YOU do not reason out that it is to YOUR benefit for one man to die^a in behalf of the people and not for the whole nation to be destroyed."^b 51 This, though, he did not say of his own originality; but because he was high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was destined to die for the nation, 52 and not for the nation only, but in order that the children of God who are scattered^c about he might also gather together in one.^d 53 Therefore from that day on they took counsel to kill him.^e

54 Hence Jesus no longer walked about publicly^f among the Jews,^g but he departed from there to the country near the wilderness, into a city called E'phra-im,^h and there he remained with the disciples. 55 Now the passoverⁱ of the Jews was near, and many people went up out of the country to Jerusalem before the passover in order to cleanse themselves ceremonially.^j 56 Therefore they went looking for Jesus and they would say to one another as they stood around in the temple: "What is YOUR opinion? That he will not come to the festival at all?" 57 As it was, the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone got to know where he was, he should disclose [it], in order that they might seize him.

12 Accordingly Jesus, six days before the passover, arrived at Beth'a-ny,^k where Laz'a-rus^{1} was whom Jesus had raised up from the dead. 2 Therefore they spread an evening meal for him there, and Martha^m was ministering,ⁿ but Laz'a-rus was one of those reclining at the table with him.^o 3 Mary, therefore, took a pound^{} of perfumed oil, genuine nard,^p very costly, and she greased the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet dry with her hair.^q The house became filled with the scent of the perfumed oil. 4 But Judas Is-car'i-ot,^r one of his disciples, who was about to betray him, said: 5 "Why was it this perfumed^s oil was not sold for three hundred de-nar'i* and given to the poor^a people?" 6 He said this, though, not because he was concerned about the poor, but because he was a thief^b and had the money box^c and used to carry off the monies put in it. 7 Therefore Jesus said: "Let her alone, that she may keep this observance in view of the day of my burial.^d 8 For you have the poor^e always with you, but me you will not have always."

9 Therefore a great crowd of the Jews got to know he was there, and they came, not on account of Jesus only, but also to see Laz'a-rus, whom he raised up from the dead.^f 10 The chief priests now took counsel to kill Laz'a-rus also,^g 11 because on account of him many of the Jews were going there and putting faith in Jesus.^h

12 The next day the great crowd that had come to the festival, on hearing that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 took the branches of palm treesⁱ and went out to meet him. And they began to shout:^j "Save, we pray you!"^k Blessed is he that comes in Jehovah's^l name,¹ even the king^m of Israel!" 14 But when Jesus had found a young ass,ⁿ he sat on it, just as it is written: 15 "Have no fear, daughter of Zion. Look! Your king is coming,^o seated upon an ass's colt."^p 16 These things his disciples took no note of at first,^q but when Jesus became glorified,^r then they called to mind that these things were written respecting him and that they did these things to him.^s

17 Accordingly the crowd that was with him when he called Laz'a-rus^t out of the memorial tomb and raised him up from the dead kept bearing witness.^u 18 On this account the crowd, because they heard he had performed this sign,^v also met him. 19 Therefore the Pharisees^w said among themselves: "You observe YOU are getting absolutely nowhere. See! The world has gone after him."^x

20 Now there were some Greeks^a among those that came up to worship at the festival. 21 These, therefore, approached Philip^b who was from Beth-sa'i-da of Gal'i-lee, and they began to request him, saying: "Sir, we want to see Jesus."^c 22 Philip came and told Andrew. Andrew and Philip came and told Jesus.

23 But Jesus answered them, saying: "The hour has come for the Son of man to be glorified.^d 24 Most truly I say to you, Unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains just one [grain]; but if it dies,^e it then bears much fruit. 25 He that is fond of his soul^f destroys it, but he that hates his soul^f in this world will safeguard it for everlasting life.^g 26 If anyone would minister to me, let him follow me, and where I am there my minister^h will be also.^h If anyone would minister to me, the Father will honor him.ⁱ 27 Now my soul is troubled,^j and what shall I say? Father, save me out of this hour.^k Nevertheless, this is why I have come to this hour. 28 Father, glorify your name." Therefore a voice^l came out of heaven: "I both glorified [it] and will glorify [it] again."^m

29 Hence the crowd that stood about and heard it began to say that it had thundered. Others began to say: "An angel has spoken to him." 30 In answer Jesus said: "This voice has occurred, not for my sake, but for YOUR sakes.ⁿ 31 Now there is a judging of this world; now the ruler of this world^o will be cast out.^p 32 And yet I, if I am lifted^q up from the earth, will draw men of all sorts^r to me."^r 33 This he was really saying to signify what sort of death he was about to die.^s 34 Therefore the crowd answered him: "We heard from the Law that the Christ remains forever;^t and how is it you say that the Son

Walk while YOU have the light, so that darkness^c does not overpower you; and he that walks in the darkness does not know where he is going.^d 36 While you have the light, exercise faith in the light, in order to become sons of light."^e

Jesus spoke these things and went off and hid from them. 37 But although he had performed so many signs before them, they were not putting faith in him, 38 so that the word of Isaiah the prophet was fulfilled which he said: "Jehovah,* who has put faith in the thing heard by us?"^f And as for the arm of Jehovah,^g to whom has it been revealed?"^g 39 The reason why they were not able to believe is that again Isaiah said: 40 "He has blinded their eyes and he has made their hearts hard,^h that they should not see with their eyes and get the thought with their hearts and turn around and I should heal them."ⁱ 41 Isaiah said these things because he saw his glory,^j and he spoke about him. 42 All the same, many even of the rulers actually put faith in him,^k but because of the Pharisees they would not confess [him], in order not to be expelled from the synagogue;^{*1} 43 for they loved the glory of men more than even the glory of God.^m

44 However, Jesus cried out and said: "He that puts faith in me puts faith, not in me [only], but in him [also] that sent me;"ⁿ 45 and he that beholds me beholds [also] him that sent me.^o 46 I have come as a light into the world,^p in order that everyone putting faith in me may not remain in the darkness.^q 47 But if anyone hears my sayings and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I came, not to judge the world,^r but to save the world.^s 48 He that disregards me and does not receive my sayings has one to judge him. that I have spoken is what will judge him in the last day; 49 because I have not spoken out of my own impulse, but the Father himself who sent me has given me a commandment as to what to tell and what to speak.^a 50 Also, I know that his commandment means* everlasting life.^b Therefore the things I speak, just as the Father has told me [them], so I speak [them]."^c

Now, because he knew before the festival of the passover that his hour had come^d for him to move out of this world to the Father,^e Jesus, having loved his own that were in the world,^f loved them to the end. 2 So, while the evening meal was going on,* the Devil having already put it into the heart of Judas Is-car'i-ot,^g the son of Simon, to betray him,^h 3 he, knowing that the Father had given all things into [his] handsⁱ and that he came forth from God and was going to God,^j 4 got up from the evening meal and laid aside his outer garments. And, taking a towel, he girded himself.^k 5 After that he put water into a basin and started to wash the feet^l of the disciples and to dry them off with the towel with which he was girded. 6 And so he came to Simon Peter. He said to him: "Lord,* are you washing my feet?"^m 7 In answer Jesus said to him: "What I am doing you do not understand at present, but you will understand after these things."ⁿ 8 Peter said to him: "You will certainly never wash my feet." Jesus answered him: "Unless I wash you,^o you have no part with me." 9 Simon Peter said to him: "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head." 10 Jesus said to him: "He that has bathed^p does not need to have more than his feet washed, but is wholly clean. And you men are clean, but not all." 11 He knew, indeed, the man betraying him.^q This is why he said: "Not all of YOU are clean." 12 When, now, he had washed their feet and had put his outer garments on and laid himself down at the table

Joh 12:50* Or, "is." 13:2 Or, "was being prepared." 6 Or, "Master."

again, he said to them: "Do YOU know what I have done to YOU? 13 You address me, 'Teacher,'^a and, 'Lord,'^b and YOU speak rightly, for I am such.^c 14 Therefore, if I, although Lord and Teacher, washed YOUR feet,^d YOU also ought to wash the feet of one another.^e 15 For I set the pattern for YOU, that, just as I did to YOU, YOU should do also.^f 16 Most truly I say to YOU, A slave is not greater than his master, nor is one that is sent forth* greater than the one that sent him.^g 17 If YOU know these things, happy YOU are if YOU do them.^h 18 I am not talking about all of YOU; I know the ones I have chosen.ⁱ But it is in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled,^j 'He that used to feed on my bread has lifted up his heel against me.'^k 19 From this moment on I am telling YOU before it occurs,^l in order that when it does occur YOU may believe that I am [he]. 20 Most truly I say to YOU, He that receives anyone I send receives me [also].^m In turn he that receives me, receives [also] him that sent me."ⁿ

21 After saying these things, Jesus became troubled in spirit, and he bore witness and said: "Most truly I say to YOU, One of YOU will betray me."^o 22 The disciples began to look at one another, being at a loss as to which one he was saying [it] about.^p 23 There was reclining in front of Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, and Jesus loved* him.^q 24 Therefore Simon Peter nodded to this one and said to him: "Tell who it is about whom he is saying [it]."^r 25 So the latter leaned back upon the breast of Jesus and said to him: "Lord, who is it?"^s 26 Therefore Jesus answered: "It is that one to whom I shall give the morsel that I dip."^t And so, having dipped the morsel, he took and gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Is-car'i-ot. 27 And after the morsel then Satan entered into the latter.^u Jesus, therefore, said to him: "What you are doing get done more quickly." 28 However, none of those reclining at the table knew for what purpose he said this to him. 29 Some, in fact, were imagining, since Judas was holding the money box,^a that Jesus was telling him: "Buy what things we need for the festival," or that he should give something to the poor.^b 30 Therefore, after he received the morsel, he went out immediately. And it was night.^c

31 Hence when he had gone out, Jesus said: "Now the Son of man is glorified,^d and God is glorified in connection with him.* 32 And God will himself glorify him,^e and he will glorify him immediately. 33 Little children,^f I am with YOU a little longer. 36 Simon Peter said to him: "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered: "Where I am going you cannot follow me now, but you will follow afterwards."^k 37 Peter said to him: "Lord, why is it I cannot follow you at present? 8 Philip said to him: "Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us."

9 Jesus said to him: "Have I been with you men so long a time, and yet, Philip, you have not come to know me? He that has seen me has seen the Father^j [also]. How is it you say, 'Show us the Father'?^k 10 Do you not believe that I am in union with the Father and the Father is in union with me?^l The things I say to you men I do not speak of my own originality;^m but the Father who remains in union with me is doing his works.ⁿ 11 Believe me that I am in union with the Father and the Father is in union with me; otherwise, believe on account of the works themselves.^o 12 Most truly I say to you, He that exercises faith in me, that one also will do the works that I do; and he will do works greater^p than these, because I am going my way to the Father.^q 13 Also, whatever it is that you ask in my name, I will do this, in order that the Father may be glorified in connection with the Son.^r 14 If you ask^s anything in my name, I will do it.

he will declare to you the things coming.^a 14 That one will glorify me,^b because he will receive from what is mine and will declare it to you.^c 15 All the things that the Father has are mine.^d That is why I said he receives from what is mine and declares [it] to you. 16 In a little while you will behold me no longer,^e and, again, in a little while you will see me.^f

17 Therefore some of his disciples said to one another: "What does this mean that he says to us, 'In a little while you will not behold me, and, again, in a little while you will see me,' and, 'because I am going to the Father'?" 18 Hence they were saying: "What does this mean that he says, 'a little while'? We do not know what he is talking about."^g 19 Jesus knew^h they were wanting to question him, so he said to them: "Are you inquiring among yourselves over this, because I said, In a little while you will not behold me, and, again, in a little while you will see me? 20 Most truly I say to you, You will weep and wail, but the world will rejoice; you will be grieved,ⁱ but your grief will be turned into joy.^h 21 A woman, when she is giving birth, has grief, because her hour has arrived;ⁱ but when she has brought forth the young child, she remembers the tribulation no more because of the joy that a man has been born into the world. 22 You also, therefore, are now, indeed, having grief; but I shall see you again and your hearts will rejoice,^j and your joy no one will take from you. 23 And in that day^k you will ask me no question at all. Most truly I say to you, If you ask the Father for anything^l he will give it to you in my name.^m 24 Until this present time you have not asked a single thing in my name. Ask and you will receive, that your joy may be made full.ⁿ

Further, I am leaving the world and am going my way to the Father."^c

29 His disciples said: "See! Now you are speaking with plainness, and are uttering no comparison. 30 Now we know that you know all things^d and you do not need to have anyone question you.^e By this we believe that you came out from God."^f 31 Jesus answered them: "Do you believe at present? 32 Look! The hour is coming, indeed, it has come, when you will be scattered each one to his own house^g and you will leave me alone; and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.^h 33 I have said these things to you that by means of meⁱ you may have peace.^j In the world you are having tribulation, but take courage! I have conquered the world."^k

17 Jesus spoke these things, and, raising his eyes to heaven,^k he said: "Father, the hour has come; glorify your son, that your son may glorify you,^l 2 according as you have given him authority over all flesh,^m that, as regards the whole [number] whom you have given him,ⁿ he may give them everlasting life.^o 3 This means everlasting life,^p their taking in knowledge^q of you,^r the only true God,^r and of the one whom you sent forth, Jesus Christ.^s 4 I have glorified^t you on the earth, having finished the work you have given me to do."^u 5 So now you, Father, glorify me alongside yourself with the weapons.^a 4 Jesus, therefore, knowing all the things coming upon him,^b went forth and said to them: "Whom are YOU looking for?" 5 They answered him: "Jesus the Naz-a-rene."^c He said to them: "I am [he]." Now Judas, his betrayer,^d was also standing with them.

6 However, when he said to them: "I am [he]," they drew back^e and fell to the ground. 7 Therefore he asked them again: "Whom are YOU looking for?" They said: "Jesus the Naz-a-rene."

8 Jesus answered: "I told you I am [he]. If, therefore, it is I YOU are looking for, let these go"; 9 in order that the word might be fulfilled which he said: "Of those whom you have given me I have not lost a single one."^f

10 Then Simon Peter, as he had a sword, drew it and struck the slave of the high priest and cut his right ear off.^g The name of the slave was Malchus. 11 Jesus, however, said to Peter: "Put the sword into [its] sheath.^h The cup that the Father has given me, should I not by all means drinkⁱ it?"

12 Then the soldier band and the military commander* and the officers of the Jews seized Jesus and bound him, 13 and they led him first to An'-nas; for he was father-in-law to Ca'ia-phas, who was high priest that year.^j 14 Ca'ia-phas was, in fact, the one that counseled the Jews that it was to their benefit for one man to die in behalf of the people.^k

15 Now Simon Peter as well as another disciple was following Jesus.^l That disciple was known to the high priest, and he went in with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest, 16 but Peter was standing outside at the door.^m Therefore the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper and brought Peter in. 17 The servant girl, the doorkeeper, then said to Peter: "You are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?" He said: "I am not."ⁿ 18 Now the slaves and the officers were standing about, as they had built a charcoal^a fire, because it was cold, and they were warming themselves. Peter also was standing with them and warming himself.

19 And so the chief priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching. 20 Jesus answered him: "I have spoken to the world publicly. I always taught in a synagogue and in the temple,^b where all the Jews come together; and I spoke nothing in secret. 21 Why do you question me? Question those who have heard what I spoke to them. See! These know what I said." 22 After he said these things, one of the officers that was standing by gave Jesus a slap^c in the face and said: "Is that the way you answer the chief priest?" 23 Jesus answered him: "If I spoke wrongly, bear witness concerning the wrong; but if rightly, why do you hit me?" 24 Then An'nas sent him away bound to Caiaphas the high priest.^d

25 Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. Then they said to him: "You are not also one of his disciples, are you?" He denied it and said: "I am not."^e 26 One of the slaves of the high priest, being a relative of the man whose ear Peter cut off,^f said: "I saw you in the garden with him, did I not?" 27 However, Peter denied it again; and immediately a cock crowed.^g

28 Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the governor's palace.^h It was now early in the day. But they themselves did not enter into the governor's palace, that they might not get defiledⁱ but might eat the passover. 29 Therefore Pilate came outside to them and said: "What accusation do you bring against this man?" 30 In answer they said to him: "If this man were not a wrongdoer, we would not have delivered him up to you." 31 Hence Pilate said to them: "Take him yourselves and judge him according to your law."^k The Jews said to him: "It is not lawful for us to kill anyone."^l 32 This, in order that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled which he said to signify what sort of death he was destined to die.^m

33 So Pilate entered into the governor's palace again and called Jesus and said to him: "Are you the king of the Jews?"^a 34 Jesus answered: "Is it of your own originality that you say this, or did others tell you about me?"^b 35 Pilate answered: "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you up to me.^c What did you do?" 36 Jesus answered:^d "My kingdom is no part of this world.^e If my kingdom were part of this world, my attendants would have fought^f that I should not be delivered up to the Jews. But, as it is, my kingdom is not from this source." 37 Therefore Pilate said to him: "Well, then, are you a king?" Jesus answered: "You yourself are saying that I am a king.^g For this I have been born, and for this I have come into the world, that I should bear witness^h to the truth.ⁱ Everyone that is on the side of the truth^j listens to my voice."^k 38 Pilate said to him: "What is truth?"^l

And after saying this, he went out again to the Jews and said to them: "I find no fault in him.^k 39 Moreover, you have a custom that I should release a man to you at the passover.^l Do you, therefore, wish me to release to you the king of the Jews?" 40 Then they shouted again, saying: "Not this man, but Bar-ab'bas!" Now Bar-ab'bas was a robber.^m

19 At that time, therefore, Pilate took Jesus and scourged him.ⁿ 2 And the soldiers braided a crown of thorns and put it on his head and arrayed him with a purple outer garment;^o 3 and they began coming up to him and saying: "Good day, you King of the Jews!" Also, they would give him slaps in the face.^p 4 And Pilate went outside again and said to them: "See! I bring him outside to you in or-

8 When, therefore, Pilate heard this saying, he became more fearful; 9 and he entered into the governor's palace again and said to Jesus: "Where are you from?" Pilate said to them: "Shall I impale YOUR king?" The chief priests answered: "We have no king but Caesar."^a 16 At that time, therefore, he handed him over to them to be impaled.^b

Then they took charge of Jesus. 17 And, bearing the torture stake^{*} for himself,^c he went out^d to the so-called Skull Place,^e which is called Gol'gotha^Δ in Hebrew;^e 18 and there they impaled him,^f and two other [men] with him, one on this side and one on that, but Jesus in the middle.^g 19 Pilate wrote a title also and put it on the torture stake. It was written: "Jesus the Naz-a-rene' the King of the Jews."^h 20 Therefore many of the Jews read this title, because the place where Jesus was impaled was near the city;ⁱ and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, in Greek. 21 However, the chief priests of the Jews began to say to Pilate: "Do not write 'The King of the Jews,' but that he said, 'I am King of the Jews.'" 22 Pilate answered: "What I have written I have written."

23 Now when the soldiers had impaled Jesus, they took his outer garments and made four parts, for each soldier a part, and the inner garment. But the inner garment was without a seam, being woven from the top throughout its length.^j 24 Therefore they said to one another: "Let us not tear it, but let us determine by lots over it whose it will be." This was that the scripture might be fulfilled: "They apportioned my outer garments among themselves, and upon my apparel they cast lots."^k And so the soldiers really did these things.

25 By the torture stake of Jesus, however, there were standing his mother^l and the sister of his mother; Mary^m the wife of Clo'pas, and Mary Mag'da-lene.ⁿ 26 Therefore Jesus, seeing his mother and the disciple whom he loved^{*o} standing by, said to his mother: "Woman, see! Your son!" 27 Next he said to the disciple: "See! Your mother!" And from that hour on the disciple took her to his own home.

28 After this, when Jesus knew that by now all things had been accomplished, in order that the scripture might be accomplished he said: "I am thirsty."^a

29 A vessel was sitting there full of sour wine. Therefore they put a sponge full of the sour wine upon a hyssop [stalk] and brought it to his mouth.^b

30 When, now, he had received the sour wine, Jesus said: "It has been accomplished!"^c and, bowing his head, he delivered up [his] spirit.^{*d}

31 Then the Jews, since it was Preparation,^e in order that the bodies might not remain^f upon the torture stakes on the Sabbath, (for the day of that Sabbath was a great one),^g requested Pilate to have their legs broken and the [bodies]* taken away. 32 The soldiers came, therefore, and broke the legs of the first [man] and those of the other [man] that had been impaled with him. 33 But on coming to Jesus, as they saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. 34 Yet one of the soldiers jabbed his side with a spear,^h and immediately blood and water came out. 35 And he that has seen [it] has borne witness, and his witness is true, and that man knows he tells true things, in order that you also may believe.ⁱ 36 In fact, these things took place in order for the scripture to be fulfilled: "Not a bone of his will be crushed."^j 37 And, again, a different scripture says: "They will look to the One whom they pierced."^k

38 Now after these things Joseph from Ar-i-ma-the'a, who was a disciple of Jesus but a secret one out of [his] fear of the Jews,^l requested Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him permission.^m Therefore he came and took his body away.ⁿ 39 Nic-o-de'mus also, the man that came to him in the night the first time, came bringing a roll* of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds* [of it].^a 40 So they took the body of Jesus and bound it up with bandages with the spices,^b just the way the Jews have the custom of preparing for burial.

41 Incidentally, at the place where he was impaled there was a garden, and in the garden a new memorial tomb,^c in which no one had ever yet been laid.

42 There, then, on account of the preparation^d of the Jews, they laid Jesus, because the memorial tomb was nearby.

20 On the first day^e of the week Mary Mag'da-lene came to the memorial tomb early, while there was still darkness, and she beheld the stone already taken away from the memorial tomb.^f 2 Therefore she ran and came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple,^g for whom Jesus had affection, and she said to them: "They have taken away the Lord* out of the memorial tomb,^h and we do not know where they have laid him."

3 Then Peterⁱ and the other disciple went out and started for the memorial tomb. 4 Yes, the two together began to run; but the other disciple ran ahead of Peter with greater speed and reached the memorial tomb first. 5 And, stooping forward, he beheld the bandages lying,^j yet he did not go in. 6 Then Simon Peter also came following him, and he entered into the memorial tomb. And he viewed the bandages lying,^k 7 also the cloth that had been upon his head not lying with the bandages but separately rolled up in one place. 8 At that time, therefore, the other disciple who had reached the memorial tomb first also went in, and he saw and believed. 9 For they did not yet discern the scripture that he must rise from the dead.^l 10 And so the disciples went back to their homes.

11 Mary, however, kept standing outside near the memorial tomb, weeping. Then, while she was weeping, she stooped forward to look into the memorial tomb 12 and she viewed two angels^a in white sitting one at the head and one at the feet where the body of Jesus had been lying. 13 And they said to her: "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them: "They have taken my Lord away, and I do not know where they have laid him." 14 After saying these things, she turned back and viewed Jesus standing, but she did not discern it was Jesus.^b 15 Jesus said to her: "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?"^c She, imagining it was the gardener, said to him: "Sir, if you have carried him off, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." 16 Jesus said to her: "Mary!"^d Upon turning around, she said to him, in Hebrew: "Rab-bo'ni!"^e (which means "Teacher!") 17 Jesus said to her: "Stop clinging to me. For I have not yet ascended to the Father. But be on your way to my brothers^f and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father^g and YOUR Father and to my God^h and YOUR God.'" 18 Mary Magdalene came and brought the news to the disciples: "I have seen the Lord!" and that he said these things to her.ⁱ

19 Therefore, when it was late on that day, the first of the week,^k and, although the doors were locked where the disciples were for fear^l of the Jews, Jesus came^m and stood in their midst and said to them: "May you have peace."ⁿ 20 And after he said this he showed them both his hands and his side.^o Then the disciples rejoiced^p at seeing the Lord. 21 Jesus, therefore, said to them again: "May you have peace. Just as the Father has sent me forth,^q I also am sending you."^r 22 And after he said this he blew upon them and said to them: "Receive holy spirit."^s 23 If you forgive the sins of any persons,^t they stand forgiven to them; if you retain those of any persons, they stand retained."^u who was called The Twin,^{*} was not with them when Jesus came. 25 Consequently the other disciples would say to him: "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them: "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails and stick my finger into the print of the nails and stick my hand into his side,^a I will certainly not believe."^b

26 Well, eight days later his disciples were again indoors, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and he stood in their midst and said: "May you have peace."^c

27 Next he said to Thomas: "Put your finger here, and see my hands, and take your hand^d and stick it into my side, and stop being unbelieving but become believing."^e 28 In answer Thomas said to him: "My Lord and my God!"^f 29 Jesus said to him: "Because you have seen me have you believed? Happy are those who do not see and yet believe."^g

30 To be sure, Jesus performed many other signs also before the disciples, which are not written down in this scroll.^h 31 But these have been written downⁱ that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God, and that, because of believing,^j you may have life by means of his name.

21 After these things Jesus manifested himself again to the disciples at the sea of Ti-be'ri-as; but he made the manifestation in this way. 2 There were in company Simon Peter and Thomas, who was called The Twin,^k and Na-than'a-el^l from Ca'na of Gal'ilee and the sons of Zeb'e-dee^m and two others of his disciples. 3 Simon Peter said to them: "I am going fishing." They said to him: "We also are coming with you." Out they went and got aboard the boat, but during that night they caught nothing.ⁿ

4 However, just as it was getting to be morning, Jesus stood on the beach, but the disciples did not, of course, discern that it was Jesus.^o 5 Then Jesus said to them: "Young children, you do not have anything to eat, do you?" They answered "No!" to him. 6 He said to them: "Cast the net on the right side of the boat and you will find [some]."^a Then they cast it, but they were no longer able to draw it in because of the multitude of the fishes.^b 7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus used to love^c said to Peter:^d "It is the Lord!"^e Hence Simon Peter, upon hearing that it was the Lord, girded about himself his top garment, for he was naked, and plunged into the sea. 8 But the other disciples came in the little boat, for they were not a long way from land, only about three hundred feet* away, dragging the net of fishes.

9 However, when they disembarked onto land they beheld lying there a charcoal fire^e and fish lying upon it and bread. 10 Jesus said to them: "Bring some of the fish you just now caught."^f 11 Simon Peter, therefore, went on board and drew the net to land full of big fishes, one hundred and fifty-three of them. But although there were so many the net did not burst. 12 Jesus said to them: "Come, take YOUR breakfast."^g Not one of the disciples had the courage to inquire of him: "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. 13 Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them,^h and the fish likewise. 14 This was now the third time^h that Jesus appeared to the disciples after his being raised up from the dead.

15 When, now, they had breakfasted, Jesus said to Simon Peter: "Simon son of John,* do you love^e me more than these?"ⁱ He said to him: "Yes, Lord, you know I have affection for you."^{aj} He said to him: "Feed my lambs."^k 16 Again he said to him, a second time: "Simon son of John, do you love^{e1} me?" He said to him: "Yes, Lord, you know I have affection for you."^h He said to him:

"Shepherd my little sheep."^a 17 He said to him the third time: "Simon son of John, do you have affection for me?"^{*} Peter became grieved that he said to him the third time: "Do you have affection for me?" So he said to him: "Lord, you know all things;^b you are aware that I have affection for you."^h Jesus said to him: "Feed my little sheep.^c 18 Most truly I say to you, When you were younger, you used to gird yourself and walk about where you wanted. But when you grow old you will stretch out your hands and another [man] will gird^d you and bear you where you do not wish."^e 19 This he said to signify by what sort of death^f he would glorify God.^g So, when he had said this, he said to him: "Continue following me."^h

20 Upon turning about Peter saw the disciple whom Jesus used to love^{*1} following, the one who at the evening meal had also leaned back upon his breast and said: "Lord, who is the one betraying you?" 21 Accordingly, when he caught sight of him, Peter said to Jesus: "Lord, what will this [man do]?" 22 Jesus said to him: "If it is my will for him to remain until I come,ⁱ of what concern is that to you? You continue following me." 23 In consequence, this saying went out among the brothers, that that disciple would not die. However, Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but: "If it is my will for him to remain^k until I come, of what concern is that to you?"

24 This is the disciple^l that bears witness about these things and that wrote these things, and we know that the witness he gives is true.^m

25 There are, in fact, many other things also which Jesus did, which, if ever they were written in full detail, I suppose, the world itself could not contain the scrolls written.^{*n}

ACTS OF APOSTLES

1 The first account, O The-oph'i-lus,^a I composed about all the things Jesus started both to do and to teach,^b 2 until the day that he was taken up,^c after he had given commandment through holy spirit to the apostles whom he chose.^d 3 To these also by many positive proofs he showed himself alive after he had suffered,^e being seen by them throughout forty days and telling the things about the kingdom of God.^f 4 And while he was meeting with them he gave them the orders: "Do not withdraw from Jerusalem,^g but keep waiting for what the Father has promised,^h about which you heard from me; 5 because John, indeed, baptized with water, but you will be baptized in holy spiritⁱ not many days after this."

6 When, now, they had assembled, they went asking him: "Lord,^{} are you restoring the kingdom^j to Israel at this time?" 7 He said to them: "It does not belong to you to get knowledge of the times or seasons^k which the Father has placed in his own jurisdiction;^l 8 but you will receive power^m when the holy spirit arrives upon you, and you will be witnessesⁿ of me both in Jerusalem^o and in all Ju-de'a and Sam-ar'i-a^p and to the most distant part^q of the earth."^a 9 And after he had said these things, while they were looking on, he was lifted up^r and a cloud caught him up from their vision.^s 10 And as they were gazing into the sky while he was on his way,^t also, look! two men in white^u garments stood alongside them, 11 and they said: "Men of Gal'i-lee, why do you stand looking into the sky? 12 Then they returned^b to Jerusalem from a mountain called the Mount of Olives, which is near Jerusalem, being a sabbath day's journey^c away. 13 So, when they had entered, they went up into the upper chamber,^d where they were staying, Peter as well as John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Barthol'o-mew and Matthew, James [the son] of Al-phae'us and Simon the zealous one,^e and Judas [the son] of James.^e 14 With one accord all these were persisting in prayer,^f together with some women^g and Mary the mother of Jesus and with his brothers.^h book of Psalms, 'Let his lodging place become desolate, and let there be no dweller in it,'^a and, 'His office of oversight let someone else take.'^b 21 It is therefore necessary that of the men that assembled with us during all the time in which the Lord Jesus went in and out* among us,^c 22 starting with his baptism by John^d and until the day he was received up from us,^e one of these men should become a witness with us of his resurrection."^f

23 So they put up two, Joseph called Bar'sab-bas, who was surnamed Justus, and Mat-thi'as. 24 And they prayed and said: "You, O Jehovah,* who know the hearts of all,^g designate which one of these two men you have chosen, 25 to take the place of this ministry and apostleship,^h from which Judas deviated to go to his own place." 26 So they cast lotsⁱ over them, and the lot fell upon Mat-thi'as; and he was reckoned along with the eleven^j apostles.

2 Now while the day of the [festival of] Pentecost^k was in progress they were all together at the same place, 2 and suddenly there occurred from heaven a noise just like that of a rushing stiff breeze, and it filled the whole house in which they were sitting.^l 3 And tongues as if of fire^m became visible to them and were distributed about, and one sat upon each one of them, 4 and they all became filled with holy spiritⁿ and started to speak with different tongues,^o just as the spirit was granting them to make utterance.

5 As it was, there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews,^p reverent men,^q from every nation of those under heaven. 6 So, when this sound occurred, the multitude came together and were bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. 7 Indeed, they were astonished and began to wonder and say: "See here, all these who are speaking are Gal-ile'ans,^r are they not? 8 And yet how is it we are hearing, each one of us, his own language in which we were born? 9 Par'thi-ans and Medes^a and E'lam-ites,^b and the inhabitants of Mes-o-po-ta'mi-a, and Jude'a^c and Cap-pa-do'cia,^d Pon'tus^e and the [district of] Asia,^f 10 and Phryg'i-a^g and Pam-phyl'i-a,^h Egypt and the parts of Lib'y-a, which is toward Cy-re'ne, and sojourners from Rome, both Jews and proselytes,ⁱ 11 Cre'tans^j and Arabi-ans,^k we hear them speaking in our tongues about the magnificent things of God." 12 Yes, they were all astonished and were in perplexity, saying one to another: "What does this thing purport to be?" 13 However, different ones mocked at them and began to say: "They are full of sweet wine."^l

14 But Peter stood up with the eleven^m and raised his voice and made this utterance to them: "Men of Jude'a and all you inhabitants of Jerusalem,ⁿ let this be known to you and give ear to my sayings. 15 These [people] are, in fact, not drunk,^o as you suppose, for it is the third hour* of the day. 16 On the contrary, this is what was said through the prophet Joel, 17 "And in the last days," God says, "I shall pour out some of my spirit"^p upon every sort of flesh,"^q and YOUR sons and YOUR daughters will prophesy and YOUR young men will see visions and YOUR old men^r will dream dreams;^q 18 and even upon my men slaves and upon my women slaves I will pour out some of my spirit in those days, and they will prophesy.^r 19 And I will give portents in heaven above and signs on earth below, blood and fire and smoke mist;^s 20 the sun^t will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood before the great and illustrious day of Jehovah* arrives.^u 21 And everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah* will be saved."^v

Lord: "Sit at my right hand,^a 35 until I place your enemies as a stool for your feet."^b 36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know for a certainty that God made him both Lord^c and Christ, this Jesus whom YOU impaled."^d

37 Now when they heard this they were stabbed to the heart,^e and they said to Peter and the rest of the apostles: "Men, brothers, what shall we do?"^f 38 Peter [said] to them: "Repent,^g and let each one of YOU be baptized^h in the nameⁱ of Jesus Christ for forgiveness^j of YOUR sins, and YOU will receive the free gift^k of the holy spirit. 39 For the promise^l is to YOU and to YOUR children and to all those afar off,^m just as many as Jehovah* our God may call to him."ⁿ 40 And with many other words he bore thorough witness and kept exhorting them, saying: "Get saved from this crooked generation."^o 41 Therefore those who embraced his word heartily were baptized,^p and on that day about three thousand souls were added.^q 42 And they continued devoting themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to sharing [with one another],^r to taking of meals^s and to prayers.^t

43 Indeed, fear began to fall upon every soul, and many portents and signs began to occur through the apostles.^u 44 All those who became believers were together in having all things in common,^v 45 and they went selling their possessions^w and properties and distributing the [proceeds] to all, just as anyone would have the need.^x 46 And day after day they were in constant attendance at the temple with one accord,^y and they took their meals in private homes* and partook of food with great rejoicing^z and sincerity of heart, 47 praising God and finding favor with all the people.^a At the same time Jeho-

3 Now Peter and John were going up into the temple for the hour of prayer, the ninth hour,*^c 2 and a certain man that was lame from his mother's womb^d was being carried, and they would daily put him near the temple door that was called Beautiful,^e in order to ask gifts of mercy from those entering into the temple.^f 3 When he caught sight of Peter and John about to go into the temple he began requesting to get gifts of mercy.^g 4 But Peter, together with John, gazed^h at him and said: "Take a look at us."ⁱ 5 So he fixed his attention upon them, expecting to get something from them. 6 However, Peter said: "Silver and gold I do not possess, but what I do have is what I give you:^j In the name of Jesus Christ the Naz-a-rene',^j walk!"^k 7 With that he took hold of him by the right hand^l and raised him up. Instantly the soles of his feet and his anklebones were made firm;^m 8 and, leaping up,ⁿ he stood up and began walking, and he entered with them into the temple,^o walking and leaping and praising God. 9 And all the people^p got sight of him walking and praising God. 10 Moreover, they began to recognize him, that this was the man that used to sit for gifts of mercy at the Beautiful^q Gate of the temple, and they became filled with astonishment and ecstasy^r at what had happened to him.

11 Well, as the man was holding onto Peter and John, all the people ran together to them at what was called Sol'o-mon's colonnade,^s surprised out of their wits. 12 When Peter saw this, he said to the people: "Men of Israel, why are YOU wondering over this, or why are YOU gazing at us as though by personal power or godly devotion we have made him walk?"^t 13 The God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob,^u the God of our forefathers, has glorified^v his Servant,^w Jesus, whom YOU, for YOUR part, delivered up^x and disowned before Pi-

4 Now while the [two]* were speaking to the people, the chief priests and the captain of the temple^a and the Sadducees^b came upon them, 2 being annoyed because they were teaching the people and were plainly declaring the resurrection from the dead in the case of Jesus;^c 3 and they laid their hands upon them and put them in custody till the next day,^d for it was already evening. 4 However, many of those who had listened to the speech believed,^e and the number of the men became about five thousand.^f

5 The next day there took place in Jerusalem the gathering together of their rulers and older men* and scribes^g 6 (also An'nas^h the chief priest and Ca'ia-phasⁱ and John and Alexander and as many as were of the chief priest's kinsfolk), 7 and they stood them in their midst and began to inquire: "By what power or in whose name did YOU do this?"^j 8 Then Peter, filled with holy spirit,^k said to them:

"Rulers of the people and older men, 9 if we are this day being examined, on the basis of a good deed to an ailing man,^l as to by whom this man has been made well,* 10 let it be known to all of YOU and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ the Naz-a-rene',^m whom YOU impaled*ⁿ but whom God raised up from the dead,^o by this one* does this man stand here sound in front of YOU. 11 This is 'the stone that was treated by YOU builders as of no account that has become the head of the corner.'^p 12 Furthermore, there is no salvation in anyone else, for there is not another name^q under heaven that has been given among men by which we must get saved."^r

And they began to recognize about them that they used to be with Jesus;^a 14 and as they were looking at the man that had been cured standing with them,^b they had nothing to say in rebuttal.^c 15 So they commanded them to go outside the San'he-drin hall, and they began consulting with one another, 16 saying: "What shall we do with these men?"^d Because, for a fact, a noteworthy sign has occurred through them, one manifest to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem;^e and we cannot deny it. 17 Nevertheless, in order that it may not be spread abroad further among the people, let us tell them with threats not to speak anymore upon the basis of this name to any man at all."^f

18 With that they called them and charged them, nowhere to make any utterance or to teach upon the basis of the name of Jesus. 19 But in reply Peter and John said to them: "Whether it is righteous in the sight of God to listen to YOU rather than to God, judge for yourselves. 20 But as for us, we cannot stop speaking about the things we have seen and heard."^g 21 So, when they had further threatened them, they released them, since they did not find any ground on which to punish them and on account of the people,^h because they were all glorifying God over what had occurred; 22 for the man upon whom this sign of healing had occurred was more than forty years old.

23 After being released they went to their own peopleⁱ and reported what things the chief priests and the older men had said to them. 24 Upon hearing this they with one accord raised their voices to God^j and said:

"Sovereign^k Lord,* you are the One who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all the things in them,^l 25 and who through holy spirit said by the mouth of our forefather David,^m your servant, 'Why did nations become tumultuous and peoples meditate upon empty things?^a 26 The kings of the earth took their stand and the rulers massed together as one against Jehovah* and against his anointed one.^b 27 Even so, both Herod and Pontius Pilate^c with [men of] nations and with peoples of Israel were in actuality gathered together in this city against your holy^d servant Jesus, whom you anointed,^e 28 in order to do what things your hand and counsel had foreordained to occur.^f 29 And now, Jehovah,* give attention to their threats,^g and grant your slaves to keep speaking your word with all boldness,^h 30 while you stretch out your hand for healing and while signs and portentsⁱ occur through the name^j of your holy servant^k Jesus.”

31 And when they had made supplication, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken;^l and they were one and all filled with the holy spirit^m and were speaking the word of God with boldness.ⁿ

32 Moreover, the multitude of those who had believed had one heart and soul,^o and not even one would say that any of the things he possessed was his own; but they had all things in common.^p 33 Also, with great power the apostles continued giving forth the witness concerning the resurrection of the Lord Jesus;^q and undeserved kindness in large measure was upon them all. 34 In fact, there was not one in need among them;^r for all those who were possessors of fields or houses would sell them and bring the values of the things sold 35 and they would deposit them at the feet of the apostles.^s In turn distribution^t would be made to each one, just as he would have the need. 36 So Joseph, who was surnamed Bar’na-bas^u by the apostles, which means, when translated, Son of Comfort, a Levite, a native of Cyprus, 37 possessing a piece of land, sold it and brought the money and deposited it at the feet of the apostles.^v

5 However, a certain man, An-a-ni’as by name, together with Sap-phi-ra his wife, sold a possession 2 and secretly held back some of the price, his wife also knowing about it, and he brought just a part and deposited it at the feet of the apostles.^a 3 But Peter said: “An-a-ni’as, why has Satan^b emboldened you* to play false^c to the holy spirit^d and to hold back secretly some of the price of the field? 4 As long as it remained with you did it not remain yours, and after it was sold did it not continue in your control? Why was it that you purposed such a deed as this in your heart? You have played false,^e not to men, but to God.”^f 5 On hearing these words An-a-ni’as fell down and expired.^g And great fear^h came over all those hearing of it. 6 But the younger men rose, wrapped him in cloths,ⁱ and carried him out and buried him.

7 Now after an interval of about three hours his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8 Peter said to her: “Tell me, did YOU [two] sell the field for so much?” She said: “Yes, for so much.” 9 So Peter said to her: “Why was it agreed upon between YOU [two] to make a test^j of the spirit of Jehovah?* Look! The feet of those who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out.” 10 Instantly she fell down at his feet and expired.^k When the young men came in they found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her alongside her husband. 11 Consequently great fear came over the whole congregation* and over all those hearing about these things.

12 Moreover, through the hands of the apostles many signs and portents continued to occur among the people;^l and they were all with one accord in Sol’o-mon’s colonnade.^m 13 True, not a one of the others had the courage to join himself to them;ⁿ nevertheless, the people were extolling them.^o 14 More than that, believers in the Lord kept on being added, multitudes both of men and of women;^a 15 so that they brought the sick out even into the broad ways and laid them there upon little beds and cots, in order that, as Peter would go by, at least his shadow might fall upon some one of them.^b 16 Also, the multitude from the cities around Jerusalem kept coming together, bearing sick people and those troubled with unclean spirits, and they would one and all be cured.

17 But the high priest and all those with him, the then existing sect of the Sadducees, rose and became filled with jealousy,^c 18 and they laid hands upon the apostles and put them in the public place of custody.^d 19 But during the night Jehovah's* angel^e opened the doors of the prison,^f brought them out and said: 20 "Be on YOUR way, and, having taken a stand in the temple, keep on speaking to the people all the sayings about this life."^g 21 After hearing this, they entered into the temple at daybreak and began to teach.

Now when the high priest and those with him arrived, they called together the San'he-drin and all the assembly of older men* of the sons of Israel,^h and they sent out to the jail to have them brought. 22 But when the officers got there they did not find them in the prison. So they returned and made report, 23 saying: "The jail we found locked with all security and the guards standing at the doors, but on opening up we found no one inside." 24 Well, when both the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they fell into a quandary over these matters as to what this would come to.ⁱ 25 But a certain man arrived and reported to them: "Look! The men YOU put in the prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people."^j 26 Then the captain went off with his officers and proceeded to bring them, but without violence, as they were afraid^k of being stoned by the people.

27 So they brought them and stood them in the San'he-drin hall. And the high priest questioned them 28 and said: "We positively ordered^a YOU not to keep teaching upon the basis of this name, and yet, look! YOU have filled Jerusalem with YOUR teaching,^b and YOU are determined to bring the blood^c of this man upon us." 29 In answer Peter and the [other] apostles said: "We must obey God as ruler rather than men.^d 30 The God of our forefathers raised^e up Jesus, whom YOU slew, hanging him upon a stake.*^f 31 God exalted this one as Chief Agent^g and Savior^h to his right hand,ⁱ to give repentance^j to Israel and forgiveness of sins.^k 32 And we are witnesses of these matters,^l and so is the holy spirit,^m which God has given to those obeying him as ruler."

33 When they heard this, they felt deeply cut and were wanting to do away with them.ⁿ 34 But a certain man rose in the San'he-drin, a Pharisee named Ga-ma'li-el,^o a Law teacher esteemed by all the people, and gave the command to put the men outside for a little while.^p 35 And he said to them: "Men of Israel,^q pay attention to yourselves as to what YOU intend to do respecting these men. 36 For instance, before these days Theu'das rose, saying he himself was somebody,^r and a number of men, about four hundred, joined his party.^s But he was done away with, and all those who were obeying him were dispersed and came to nothing. 37 After him Judas the Gal-i-le'an rose in the days of the registration,^t and he drew off people after him. And yet that man perished, and all those who were obeying him were scattered abroad. 38 And so, under the present circumstances, I say to YOU, Do not meddle with these men, but let them alone; (because, if this scheme or this work is from men, it will be overthrown;^u 39 but if it is from God,^v YOU will not be able to overthrow them;)^w otherwise, YOU may perhaps be found fighters actually against God."^x 40 At this they gave heed to him, and they summoned the apostles, flogged them,^a and ordered them to stop speaking upon the basis of Jesus' name,^b and let them go.

41 These, therefore, went their way from before the San'he-drin, rejoicing^c because they had been counted worthy to be dishonored in behalf of his name.^d

42 And every day in the temple and from house to house*^e they continued without letup teaching^f and declaring the good news^g about the Christ, Jesus.^g

6 Now in these days, when the disciples were increasing, a murmuring arose on the part of the Greek-speaking^h Jews* against the Hebrew-speaking Jews,ⁱ because their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution.^{Δi}

2 So the twelve called the multitude of the disciples to them and said: "It is not pleasing for us to leave the word of God to distribute [food]* to tables.^j

3 So, brothers, search out^k for yourselves seven certified men from among you, full of spirit and wisdom,^l that we may appoint them over this necessary business; 4 but we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word."^m 5 And the thing spoken was pleasing to the whole multitude, and they selected Stephen, a man full of faith and holy spirit,ⁿ and Philip^o and Proch'o-rus and Ni-ca'nor and Ti'mon and Par'me-nas and Nic-o-la'us, a proselyte of Antioch; 6 and they placed them before the apostles, and, after having prayed, these laid their hands^a upon them.

7 Consequently the word of God went on growing,^b and the number of the disciples kept multiplying in Jerusalem very much;^c and a great crowd of priests^d began to be obedient^e to the faith.

8 Now Stephen, full of graciousness and power, was performing great portents and signs^f among the people.

9 But certain men rose up of those from the so-called Synagogue of the Freedmen,* and of the Cy-re'ni-ans and Alexandrians^g and of those from Ci-li'-cia^h and Asia, to dispute with Stephen; 10 and yet they could not hold their own against the wisdomⁱ and the spirit with which he was speaking.^j 11 Then they secretly induced men to say:^k "We have heard him speaking blasphemous^l sayings against Moses and God."

12 And they stirred up the people and the older men* and the scribes, and, coming upon him suddenly, they took him by force and led him to the San'he-drin.^m

13 And they brought forward false witnesses,ⁿ who said: "This man does not stop speaking things against this holy place and against the Law.^o 14 For instance, we have heard him say that this Jesus the Naz-a-rene' will throw down this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us."

15 And as all those sitting in the San'he-drin gazed at him,^p they saw that his face was as an angel's face.^q

7 But the high priest said: "Are these things so?" 2 He said: "Men, brothers and fathers, hear. The God of glory^r appeared to our forefather Abraham while he was in Mes-opo-ta'mi-a, before he took up residence in Ha'ran,^s 3 and he said to him, 'Go out from your land and from your relatives and come on into the land I shall show you.'^t 4 Then he went out from the land of the Chal-de'ans and took up residence in Ha'ran. And from there, after his father died,^a [God]* caused him to change his residence to this land in which you now dwell.^b 5 And yet he did not give him any inheritable possession in it, no, not a footbreadth;^c but he promised to give it to him as a possession,^d and after him to his seed,^e while as yet he had no child.^f 6 Moreover, God spoke to this effect, that his seed would be alien residents^g in a foreign land^h and [the people] would enslave them and afflict [them] for four hundred years.ⁱ 7 'And that nation for which they will slave I shall judge,'^j God said, 'and after these things they will come out and will render sacred service* to me in this place.'^k

8 "He also gave him a covenant of circumcision;^l and thus he became the father of Isaac^m and circumcised him on the eighth day,ⁿ and Isaac of Jacob, and Jacob of the twelve family heads.^o 9 And the family heads became jealous^p of Joseph and sold him into Egypt.^q But God was with him,^r 10 and he delivered him out of all his tribulations and gave him graciousness and wisdom in the sight of Phar'aoh king of Egypt. And he appointed him to govern Egypt and his whole house.^s 11 But a famine came upon the whole of Egypt and Ca'naan, even a great tribulation; and our forefathers were not finding any provisions.^t 12 But Jacob heard there were foodstuffs in Egypt^u and he sent our forefathers out the first time.^v 13 And during the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers;^w and the family stock of Joseph became manifest to Phar'aoh.^x 14 So Joseph sent out and called Jacob his father and all his relatives from that place,^y to the number of seventy-five souls.^z 15 Jacob went down into Egypt.^{aa} And he deceased;^b and so did our forefathers,^c 16 and they were transferred to She'-

17 "Just as the time was approaching for [fulfillment of] the promise that God had openly declared to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,^d 18 until there rose a different king over Egypt, who did not know of Joseph.^e 19 This one used statecraft against our race^f and wrongfully forced the fathers to expose their infants, that they might not be preserved alive.^g 20 In that particular time Moses was born,^h and he was divinely beautiful.ⁱ And he was nursed three months in [his] father's home. 21 But when he was exposed, the daughter of Phar'aoh picked him up and brought him up as her own son.^j 22 Consequently Moses was instructed in all the wisdom^k of the Egyptians. In fact, he was powerful in his words^l and deeds.

23 "Now when the time of his fortieth year was being fulfilled, it came into his heart to make an inspection of his brothers, the sons of Israel.^m 24 And when he caught sight of a certain one being unjustly treated, he defended him and executed vengeance for the one being abused by striking the Egyptian down.ⁿ 25 He was supposing his brothers would grasp that God was giving them salvation by his hand,^o but they did not grasp [it]. 26 And the next day he appeared to them as they were fighting, and he tried to bring them together again in peace,^p saying, 'Men, you are brothers. i-a^a and began to preach the Christ to them. 6 With one accord the crowds were paying attention to the things said by Philip while they listened and looked at the signs he was performing. 7 For there were many that had unclean spirits,^b and these would cry out with a loud voice and come out. Moreover, many that were paralyzed^c and lame were cured. 8 So there came to be a great deal of joy in that city.^d

9 Now in the city there was a certain man named Simon, who, prior to this, had been practicing magical arts^e and amazing the nation of Samar'ia, saying he himself was somebody great.^f 10 And all of them, from the least to the greatest, would pay attention to him and say: “This man is the Power of God, which can be called Great.”

11 So they would pay attention to him because of his having amazed them for quite a while by his magical arts.

12 But when they believed Philip, who was declaring the good news of the kingdom of God^g and of the name of Jesus Christ, they proceeded to be baptized, both men and women.^h 13 Simon himself also became a believer, and, after being baptized, he was in constant attendance upon Philip;ⁱ and he was amazed at beholding signs and great powerful works taking place.

14 When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samar'ia had accepted the word of God,^j they dispatched Peter and John to them; 15 and these went down and prayed for them to get holy spirit.^k 16 For it had not yet fallen upon any one of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.^l 17 Then they went laying their hands upon them,^m and they began to receive holy spirit.

18 Now when Simon saw that through the laying on of the hands of the apostles the spirit was given, he offered them money,ⁿ 19 saying: “Give me also this authority, that anyone upon whom I lay my hands may receive holy spirit.” 20 But Peter said to him: “May your silver perish with you, because you thought through money to get possession of the free gift of God.^a

21 You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not straight in the sight of God.^b 22 Repent, therefore, of this badness of yours, and supplicate Jehovah^c that, if possible, the device of your heart may be forgiven you; 23 for I see you are a* poisonous gall^d and a bond of unrighteousness.”^e 24 In answer Simon said: “YOU men, make supplication for me^f to Jehovah* that none of the things YOU have said may come upon me.”

25 Therefore, when they had given the witness thoroughly and had spoken the word of Jehovah,* they turned back to Jerusalem, and they went declaring the good news to many villages of the Samar'i-tans.^g

26 However, Jehovah's* angel^h spoke to Philip, saying: “Rise and go to the south to the road that runs down from Jerusalem to Ga'za.” (This is a desert road.) 27 With that he rose and went, and, look! an E-thi-o'pi-anⁱ eunuch,^j a man in power under Can-da'ce queen of the E-thi-o'pi-ans, and who was over all her treasure. He had gone to Jerusalem to worship,^k 28 but he was returning and was sitting in his chariot and reading aloud the prophet Isaiah.^l 29 So the spirit said^m to Philip: “Approach and join yourself to this chariot.” 30 Philip ran alongside and heard him reading aloud Isaiah the prophet, and he said: “Do you actually know what you are reading?” 31 He said: “Really, how could I ever do so, unless someone guided me?” And he entreated Philip to get on and sit down with him. 32 Now the passage of Scripture that he was reading aloud was this: “As a sheep he was brought to the slaughter, and as a lamb that is voiceless before its shearers, so he does not open his mouth.”ⁿ 33 During his humiliation the judgment was taken away from him.^o Who will tell the details of his generation?* Because his life is taken away from the earth.”^a

34 In answer the eunuch said to Philip: “I beg you, About whom does the prophet say this? About himself or about some other man?” 35 Philip opened his mouth^b and, starting with this Scripture,^c he declared to him the good news about Jesus. 36 Now as they were going over the road, they came to a certain body of water, and the eunuch said: “Look! A body of water; what prevents me from getting baptized?”^d 37 — 38 With that he commanded the chariot to halt, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. 39 When they had come up out of the water, Jehovah's* spirit quickly led Philip away,^e and the eunuch did not see him anymore, for he kept going on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found to be in Ash'dod,* and he went through the territory and kept on declaring^f the good news to all the cities until he got to Caes-a-re'a.^g

9 But Saul, still breathing threat and murder^h against the disciplesⁱ of the Lord, went to the high priest 2 and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, in order that he might bring bound to Jerusalem any whom he found who belonged to The Way,*^j both men and women.

3 Now as he was traveling he approached Damascus, when suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him,^k 4 and he fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him: “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?”^l 5 He said: “Who are you, Lord?” He said: “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.”^m 6 Nevertheless, riseⁿ and enter into the city, and what you must do will be told you.” 7 Now the men that were journeying with him^o were standing speechless,^p hearing, indeed, the sound

10 There was in Damascus a certain disciple named An-a-ni'as,^d and the Lord said to him in a vision: "An-a-ni'as!" He said: "Here I am, Lord." 11 The Lord said to him: "Rise, go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man named Saul, from Tarsus.^e For, look! he is praying, 12 and in a vision* he has seen a man named An-a-ni'as come in and lay his hands upon him that he might recover sight."^f 13 But An-a-ni'as answered: "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how many injurious things he did to your holy ones* in Jerusalem. 14 And here he has authority from the chief priests to put in bonds all those calling upon your name."^g 15 But the Lord said to him: "Be on your way, because this man is a chosen vessel^h to me to bear my name to the nationsⁱ as well as to kings^j and the sons of Israel. 16 For I shall show him plainly how many things he must suffer for my name."^k

17 So An-a-ni'as went off and entered into the house, and he laid his hands upon him and said: "Saul, brother, the Lord, the Jesus that appeared to you on the road over which you were coming, has sent me forth, in order that you may recover sight and be filled with holy spirit."^l 18 And immediately there fell from his eyes what looked like scales, and he recovered sight; and he rose and was baptized, 19 and he took food and gained strength.^m

He got to be for some days with the disciples in Damascus,ⁿ 20 and immediately in the synagogues he began to preach Jesus,^o that this One is the Son of God. 21 But all those hearing him gave way to astonishment and would say: "Is this not the man that ravaged^a those in Jerusalem who call upon this name, and that had come here for this very purpose, that he might lead them bound to the chief priests?"^b 22 But Saul kept on acquiring power all the more and was confounding the Jews that dwelt in Damascus as he proved logically that this is the Christ.^c

23 Now when a good many days were coming to a close, the Jews took counsel together to do away with him.^d

24 However, their plot against him became known to Saul. But they were closely watching also the gates both day and night in order to do away with him.^e

25 So his disciples took him and let him down by night through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a basket.^f

26 On arriving in Jerusalem^g he made efforts to join himself to the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, because they did not believe he was a disciple. 27 So Bar'na-bas came to his aid^h and led him to the apostles, and he told them in detail how on the road he had seen the Lordⁱ and that he had spoken to him,^j and how in Damascus^k he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus. 28 And he continued with them, walking in and out* at Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord;^l 29 and he was talking and disputing with the Greek-speaking Jews.* But these made attempts to do away with him.^m 30 When the brothers detected this, they brought him down to Caes-a-re'a and sent him off to Tarsus.ⁿ

31 Then, indeed, the congregation^o throughout the whole of Jude'a and Gal'ilee and Samar'i-a entered into a period of peace, being built up; and as it walked in the fear of Jehovah*^p and in the comfort of the holy spirit^q it kept on multiplying.

32 Now as Peter was going through all [parts] he came down also to the holy ones* that dwelt in Lyd'da.^r 33 There he found a certain man named Ae-ne'-as, who had been lying flat on his cot for eight years, as he was paralyzed. 34 And Peter said to him:^a "Ae-ne'as, Jesus Christ heals you.^b Rise and make up your bed." And he rose immediately. 35 And all those who inhabited Lyd'da and the [plain of] Shar'on^c saw him, and these turned to the Lord.^d

36 But in Jop'pa^e there was a certain disciple named Tab'i-tha, which, when translated, means Dor'cas.* She abounded in good deeds^f and gifts of mercy that she was rendering. 37 But in those days she happened to fall sick and die. So they bathed her and laid her in an upper chamber. 38 Now as Lyd'da was near Jop'pa,^g when the disciples heard that Peter was in this city they dispatched two men to him to entreat [him]: "Please do not hesitate* to come on as far as us." 39 At that Peter rose and went with them. And when he arrived, they led him up into the upper chamber; and all the widows presented themselves to him weeping and exhibiting many inner garments and outer garments^h that Dor'cas used to make while she was with them.ⁱ 40 But Peter put everybody outside^j and, bending his knees, he prayed, and, turning to the body, he said: "Tab'i-tha,* rise!" She opened her eyes and, as she caught sight of Peter, she sat up.^k 41 Giving her his hand, he raised her up,^l and he called the holy ones and the widows and presented her alive.^m 42 This became known throughout all Jop'pa, and many became believers on the Lord.ⁿ 43 For quite a few days he remained in Jop'pa^o with a certain Simon, a tanner.^p

10 Now in Caes-a-re'a there was a certain man^q of the Italian band,^r as it was called, 2 a devout man^s and one fearing^t God together with all his household, and he made many gifts of mercy to the people^u and made supplication to God continually.^v 3 Just about the ninth hour^a of the day he saw plainly in a vision^b an angel^c of God come in to him and say to him: "Cornelius!" 4 The man gazed at him and, becoming frightened, said: "What is it, Lord?" He said to him: "Your prayers^d and gifts of mercy have ascended as a remembrance before God.^e 5 So now send men to Jop'pa and summon a certain Simon who is surnamed Peter. 6 This man is being entertained by a certain Simon, a tanner, who has a house by the sea."^f 7 As soon as the angel that spoke to him had left, he called two of his house servants and a devout soldier from among those who were in constant attendance upon him,^g 8 and he related everything to them and dispatched them to Jop'pa.^h

9 The next day as they were pursuing their journey and were approaching the city, Peter went up to the housetopⁱ about the sixth hour^j to pray.^k 10 But he became very hungry and wanted to eat. While they were preparing, he fell into a trance^l 11 and beheld heaven opened^l and some sort of vessel descending like a great linen sheet being let down by its four extremities upon the earth; 12 and in it there were all sorts of four-footed creatures and creeping things of the earth and birds of heaven.^m 13 And a voice came to him: "Rise, Peter, slaughter* and eat!"ⁿ 14 But Peter said: "Not at all, Lord, because never have I eaten anything defiled and unclean."^o 15 And the voice [spoke] again to him, the second time: "You stop calling defiled^p the things God has cleansed." 16 This occurred a third time, and immediately the vessel was taken up into heaven.^q

17 Now while Peter was in great perplexity inwardly over what the vision he had seen might mean, look! the men dispatched by Cornelius had made inquiries for Simon's house and stood there at the gate.^r 18 And they called out and inquired whether Simon who was surnamed Peter was being entertained

there. 19 As Peter was going over in his mind about the vision, the spirit^a said: "Look! Three* men are seeking you. 20 However, rise, go downstairs and be on your way with them, not doubting at all, because I have dispatched them."^b 21 So Peter went downstairs to the men and said: "Look! I am the one YOU are seeking. What is the cause for which you are present?" 22 They said: "Cornelius, an army officer, a man righteous and fearing God^c and well reported^d by the whole nation of the Jews, was given divine instructions* by a holy angel to send for you to come to his house and to hear the things you have to say." 23 Therefore he invited them in and entertained them.

The next day he rose and went off with them, and some of the brothers that were from Jop'pa went with him. 24 On the day after that he entered into Caes-a-re'a. Cornelius, of course, was expecting them and had called together his relatives and intimate friends. 25 As Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet and did obeisance to him. 26 But Peter lifted him up, saying: "Rise; I myself am also a man."^e 27 And as he conversed with him he went in and found many people assembled, 28 and he said to them: "You well know how unlawful it is for a Jew to join himself to or approach a man of another race;^f and yet God has shown me I should call no man defiled or unclean.^g 29 Hence I came, really without objection, when I was sent for. Therefore I inquire the reason that you have sent for me."

30 Accordingly Cornelius said: "Four days ago counting from this hour I was praying in my house at the ninth hour,^h when, look! a man in bright raimentⁱ stood before me 31 and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been favorably heard and your gifts of mercy have been remembered before God.'^j 32 Send, therefore, to Jop'pa and call for Simon, who is surnamed Peter.^a This man is being entertained in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea."^b 33 Therefore I at once sent to you, and you did well in coming here. And so at this time we are all present before God to hear all the things you have been commanded by Jehovah* to say."^c

34 At this Peter opened his mouth and said: "For a certainty I perceive that God is not partial,^d 35 but in every nation the man that fears him and works righteousness is acceptable to him.^e 36 He sent out the word^f to the sons of Israel to declare to them the good news of peace^g through Jesus Christ: this One is Lord of all [others].^h 37 YOU know the subject that was talked about throughout the whole of Ju-de'a, starting from Gal'i-lee after the baptism that John preached,ⁱ 38 namely, Jesus who was from Naz'a-reth, how God anointed him with holy spirit^j and power, and he went through the land doing good and healing all those oppressed by the Devil;^k because God was with him.^l 39 And we are witnesses of all the things he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem; but they also did away with him by hanging him on a stake.^m 40 God raised this One up on the third day and granted him to become manifest,ⁿ 41 not to all the people, but to witnesses appointed beforehand by God,^o to us, who ate and drank with him^p after his rising from the dead. 42 Also, he ordered us to preach^q to the people and to give a thorough witness that this is the One decreed by God to be judge of the living and the dead.^r 43 To him all the prophets bear witness,^s that everyone putting faith in him gets forgiveness of sins through his name."^t

44 While Peter was yet speaking about these matters the holy spirit fell upon all those hearing the word.^u 45 And the faithful ones that had come with Peter who were of those circumcised were amazed, because the free gift of the holy spirit was being poured out also upon people of the nations.^a 46 For they heard them speaking with tongues and magnifying God.^b Then Peter responded: 47 "Can anyone forbid water so that these might not be baptized^c who have received the holy spirit even as we have?" 48 With that he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.^d Then they requested him to remain for some days.

11 Now the apostles and the brothers that were in Ju-de'a heard that people of the nations^e had also received the word of God. 2 So when Peter came up to Jerusalem, the [supporters] of circumcision^f began to contend with him, 3 saying he had gone into the house of men that were not circumcised and had eaten with them. 4 At this Peter commenced and went on to explain the particulars to them, saying:

5 "I was in the city of Jop'pa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, some sort of vessel descending like a great linen sheet being let down by its four extremities from heaven, and it came clear to me. 6 Gazing into it, I made observations and saw four-footed creatures of the earth and wild beasts and creeping things and birds of heaven.^g 7 I also heard a voice say to me, 'Rise, Peter, slaughter and eat!'^h 8 But I said, 'Not at all, Lord, because a defiled or unclean thing has never entered into my mouth.'ⁱ 9 The second time the voice from heaven answered, 'You stop calling defiled the things God has cleansed.'^j 10 This occurred for a third time, and everything was pulled up again into heaven.^k 11 Also, look! at that instant there were three men standing at the house in which we were, they having been dispatched from Caesare'a to me.^l 12 So the spirit^m told me to go with them, not doubting at all. But these six brothers also went with me, and we entered into the house of the man."ⁿ

13 "He reported to us how he saw the angel stand in his house and say, 'Dispatch men to Jop'pa and send for Simon who is surnamed Peter,^a 14 and he will speak those things to you by which you and all your household may get saved.^b 15 But when I started to speak, the holy spirit fell upon them just as it did also upon us in [the] beginning.^c 16 At this I called to mind the saying of the Lord, how he used to say, 'John, for his part, baptized with water,'^d but YOU will be baptized in holy spirit.'^e 17 If, therefore, God gave the same free gift to them as he also did to us who have believed upon the Lord Jesus Christ,^f who was I that I should be able to hinder God?"^g

18 Now when they heard these things, they acquiesced,^h and they glorified God,ⁱ saying: "Well, then, God has granted repentance for the purpose of life to people of the nations also."^j

19 Consequently those who had been scattered^k by the tribulation that arose over Stephen went through as far as Phoe-ni'cia^l and Cy'prus^m and Antioch, but speaking the word to no one except to Jews only.ⁿ 20 However, out of them there were some men of Cy'prus and Cy-re'ne that came to Antioch and began talking to the Greek-speaking people,^o declaring the good news of the Lord Jesus.^p 21 Furthermore, the hand of Jehovah^q was with them, and a great number that became believers turned to the Lord.^r

22 The account about them got to the ears of the congregation that was in Jerusalem, and they sent out Bar'na-bas^s as far as Antioch. 23 When he arrived and saw the undeserved kindness^t of God, he rejoiced^u and began to encourage them all to continue in the Lord with hearty purpose;^v 24 for he was a good man and full of holy spirit and of faith. And a considerable crowd was added to the Lord.^w 25 So he went off to Tarsus^x to make a thorough search for Saul^y 26 and, after he found him, he brought him to Antioch. It thus came about that for a whole year they gathered together with them in the congregation and taught quite a crowd, and it was first in Antioch that the disciples were by divine providence called* Christians.^a

27 Now in these days prophets^b came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28 One of them named Ag'a-bus^c rose and proceeded to indicate through the spirit that a great famine was about to come upon the entire inhabited earth;^d which, for that matter, did take place in the time of Claudius. 29 So those of the disciples determined, each of them according as anyone could afford it,^e to send a relief^f ministration to the brothers dwelling in Ju-de'a; 30 and this they did, dispatching it to the older men* by the hand of Bar'na-bas and Saul.^g

12 About that particular time Herod* the king applied his hands to mistreating^h some of those of the congregation. 2 He did away with James the brother of Johnⁱ by the sword.^j 3 As he saw it was pleasing to the Jews,^k he went on to arrest Peter also. (As it was, those were days of the unfermented cakes.)^l 4 And laying hold of him, he put him in prison,^m turning him over to four shifts of four soldiers each to guard him, as he intended to produce him for the people after the passover.ⁿ 5 Consequently Peter was being kept in the prison; but prayer^o to God for him was being carried on intensely by the congregation.

6 Now when Herod was about to produce him, that night Peter was sleeping bound with two chains between two soldiers, and guards before the door were keeping the prison. 7 But, look! Jehovah's* angel stood^p by, and a light shone in the prison cell. Striking Peter on the side, he roused him,^q saying: "Rise quickly!" And his chains fell^r off his hands. 8 The angel^s said to him: "Gird yourself and bind your sandals on." He did so. Finally he said to him: "Put your outer garment^t on and keep following me." 9 And he went out and kept following him, but he did not know that what was happening through the angel was real. In fact, he supposed he was seeing a vision.^a 10 Going through the first sentinel guard and the second they got to the iron gate leading into the city, and this opened to them of its own accord.^b And after they went out they advanced down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him. 11 And Peter, coming to himself, said: "Now I actually know that Jehovah* sent his angel forth^c and delivered^d me out of Herod's hand and from all that the people of the Jews were expecting."

12 And after he considered it, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John who was surnamed Mark,^e where quite a few were gathered together and praying. 13 When he knocked at the door of the gateway, a servant girl named Rhoda came to attend to the call, 14 and, upon recognizing the voice of Peter, out of joy she did not open the gate, but ran inside and reported that Peter was standing before the gateway. 15 They said to her: "You are mad." But she kept on strongly asserting it was so. They began to say: "It is his angel."^f 16 But Peter remained there knocking. When they opened, they saw him and were astonished. 17 But he motioned^g to them with his hand to be silent and told them in detail how Jehovah* brought him out of the prison, and he said: "Report these things to James^h and the brothers." With that he went out and journeyed to another place.

18 Well, when it became day,ⁱ there was no little stir among the soldiers over what really had become of Peter. 19 Herod^j made diligent search for him and, when not finding him, he examined the guards and commanded them to be led off [to punishment];^k and he went down from Ju-de'a to Caes-are'a and spent some time there.

20 Now he was in a fighting mood against the people of Tyre and of Si'-

don. So with one accord they came* to him and, after persuading Blastus, who was in charge of the bedchamber of the king, they began suing for peace, because their country was supplied with food* from that of the king. 21 But on a set day Herod clothed himself with royal raiment and sat down upon the judgment seat and began giving them a public address. 22 In turn the assembled people began shouting: "A god's voice, and not a man's!"^b 23 Instantly the angel of Jehovah* struck him,^c because he did not give the glory to God;^d and he became eaten up with worms and expired.

24 But the word* of Jehovah* went on growing and spreading.^f

25 As for Bar'na-bas* and Saul, after having fully carried out the relief^h ministration in Jerusalem, they returned and took along with them John,ⁱ the one surnamed Mark.

13 Now in Antioch there were prophets^j and teachers in the local congregation, Bar'na-bas as well as Sym'e-on who was called Ni'ger, and Lucius* of Cy-re'ne, and Man'a-en who was educated with Herod the district ruler,* and Saul. 2 As they were publicly ministering^l to Jehovah* and fasting, the holy spirit said: "Of all persons set Bar'na-bas and Saul^m apart for me for the work to which I have called them." 3 Then they fasted and prayed and laid their handsⁿ upon them and let them go.

4 Accordingly these men, sent out by the holy spirit, went down to Se-leu'cia, and from there they sailed away to Cy'prus. 5 And when they got to be in Sal'a-mis they began publishing the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. They had John* also as an attendant.

met up with a certain man, a sorcerer, a false prophet,^a a Jew whose name was Bar-Je'sus, 7 and he was with the proconsul* Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. Calling Bar'na-bas and Saul to him, this man earnestly sought to hear the word of God. 8 But El'y-mas the sorcerer (that, in fact, is the way his name is translated) began opposing them,^b seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. 9 Saul, who is also Paul,* becoming filled with holy spirit, looked at him intently 10 and said: "O man full of every sort of fraud and every sort of villainy, you son of the Devil,^c you enemy of everything righteous, will you not quit distorting the right ways of Jehovah?" 11 Well, then, look! Jehovah's hand is upon you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sunlight for a period of time." Instantly a thick mist and darkness fell upon him, and he went around seeking men to lead him by the hand.^d 12 Then the proconsul,^e upon seeing what had happened, became a believer, as he was astounded at the teaching of Jehovah.*

13 The men, together with Paul, now put out to sea from Pa'phos and arrived at Perga in Pam-phyli'a.^f But John* withdrew from them and returned^h to Jerusalem. 14 They, however, went on from Perga and came to Antioch in Pi-sid'i-a and, going into the synagogueⁱ on the sabbath day, they took a seat. 15 After the public reading of the Law^j and of the Prophets the presiding officers^k of the synagogue sent out to them, saying: "Men, brothers, if there is any word of encouragement for the people that you have, tell it." 16 So Paul rose, and motioning^l with his hand, he said:

"Men, Israelites and you [others] that fear God, hear.^m 17 The God of this people Israel chose our forefathers, and he exalted the people during their alien residence in the land of Egypt and brought them out of it with an uplifted

"And after these things* he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet.^d 21 But from then on they demanded a king,^e and God gave them Saul son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin,^f for forty years. 22 And after removing him,^g he raised up for them David as king,^h respecting whom he bore witness and said, 'I have found David the son of Jes'se,ⁱ a man agreeable to my heart,^j who will do all the things I desire.'^k 23 From the offspring^l of this [man] according to his promise God has brought to Israel a savior,^m Jesus, 24 after John,ⁿ in advance of the entry of that One,^o had preached publicly to all the people of Israel baptism [in symbol] of repentance. 25 But as John was fulfilling his course, he would say, 'What do YOU suppose I am? I am not he.* But, look! one is coming after me the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.'^p

26 "Men, brothers, YOU sons of the stock of Abraham and those [others] among YOU who fear God, the word of this salvation has been sent forth to us.^q 27 For the inhabitants of Jerusalem and their rulers did not know this One,^r but, when acting as judges, they fulfilled the things voiced by the Prophets,^s which things are read aloud every Sabbath, 28 and, although they found no cause for death,^t they demanded of Pilate that he be executed.^u 29 When, now, they had accomplished all the things written about him,^v they took him down from the stake^{*w} and laid him in a memorial tomb.^x 30 But God raised him up from the dead;^y 31 and for many days he became visible to those who had gone up with him from

32 "And so we are declaring to you the good news about the promise made to the forefathers,^b 33 that God has entirely fulfilled it to us their* children in that he resurrected Jesus;^c even as it is written in the second psalm, 'You are my son, I have become your Father this day.'^d 34 And that fact that he resurrected him from the dead destined no more to return to corruption, he has stated in this way, 'I will give you people the loving-kindnesses to David that are faithful.'^e 35 Hence he also says in another psalm, 'You will not allow your loyal one to see corruption.'^f 36 For David,^g on the one hand, served the express will of God in his own generation and fell asleep [in death] and was laid with his forefathers and did see corruption.^h 37 On the other hand, he whom God raised up did not see corruption.ⁱ

38 "Let it therefore be known to you, brothers, that through this One a forgiveness of sins is being published to you;^j 39 and that from all the things from which you could not be declared guiltless by means of the law of Moses,^k everyone who believes is declared guiltless by means of this One.^l 40 Therefore see to it that what is said in the Prophets does not come upon you, 41 'Behold it, you scorners, and wonder at it, and vanish away, because I am working a work in YOUR days, a work that YOU will by no means believe even if anyone relates it to you in detail.'^m

42 Now when they were going out, the people began entreating for these matters to be spoken to them on the following sabbath.ⁿ 43 So after the synagogue assembly was dissolved, many of the Jews and of the proselytes who worshiped [God]* followed Paul and Bar'na-bas,^o who in speaking to them began urging^p them to continue in the undeserved kindness of God.^q

of Jehovah.^a 45 When the Jews got sight of the crowds, they were filled with jealousy^b and began blasphemously contradicting the things being spoken by Paul.^c 46 And so, talking with boldness, Paul and Bar'na-bas said: "It was necessary for the word of God to be spoken first to YOU.^d Since YOU are thrusting it away^e from YOU and do not judge yourselves worthy of everlasting life, look! we turn to the nations.^f 47 In fact, Jehovah has laid commandment upon us in these words, 'I have appointed you as a light of nations,^g for you to be a salvation to the extremity^h of the earth.'^h"

48 When those of the nations heard this, they began to rejoice and to glorify the word of Jehovah,ⁱ and all those who were rightly disposed for everlasting life became believers.^j 49 Furthermore, the word of Jehovah went on being carried throughout the whole country.^k 50 But the Jews^l stirred up the reputable women who worshiped [God]* and the principal men of the city, and they raised up a persecution^m against Paul and Bar'na-bas and threw them outside their boundaries.ⁿ 51 These shook the dust off their feet against themⁿ and went to I-co'ni-um.^o 52 And the disciples continued to be filled with joy^o and holy spirit.

14 Now in I-co'ni-um^p they entered together into the synagogue^q of the Jews and spoke in such a manner that a great multitude of both Jews and Greeks^r became believers. 2 But the Jews that did not believe stirred up^s and wrongly influenced the souls of people of the nations against the brothers.^t 3 Therefore they spent considerable time speaking with boldness by the authority of Jehovah,* who bore witness to the word of his undeserved kindness

by granting signs and portents to occur through their hands.^a 4 However, the multitude of the city was split, and some were for the Jews but others for the apostles. 5 Now when a violent attempt took place on the part of both people of the nations and Jews with their rulers, to treat them insolently and pelt them with stones,^b 6 they, on being informed of it, fled^c to the cities of Lyc-a-o'ni-a, Lys'tra and Der'be and the country round about; 7 and there they went on declaring the good news.^d

8 Now in Lys'tra there was sitting a certain man disabled in his feet, lame from his mother's womb,^e and he had never walked at all. 9 This man was listening to Paul speak, who, on looking at him intently and seeing he had faith^f to be made well,* 10 said with a loud voice: "Stand up erect on your feet." And he leaped up and began walking.^g 11 And the crowds, seeing what Paul had done, raised their voices, saying in the Lyc-a-o'ni-an tongue: "The gods^h have become like humans and have come down to us!" 12 And they went calling Bar'na-bas Zeus,* but Paul Her'mes,ⁱ since he was the one taking the lead in speaking. 13 And the priest of Zeus, whose [temple] was before the city,* brought bulls and garlands to the gates and was desiring to offer sacrifices^j with the crowds.

14 However, when the apostles Bar'na-bas and Paul heard of it, they ripped their outer garments and leaped out into the crowd, crying out 15 and saying: "Men, why are YOU doing these things? We also are humans^k having the same infirmities^k as YOU do, and are declaring the good news to YOU, for YOU to turn from these vain^l things to the living God,^m who made the heavenⁿ and the earth and the sea and all the things in them. 16 In the past generations he permitted all the nations to go on in their ways,^o 17 although, indeed, he did not leave himself without witness in that he did good,^a giving YOU rains^b from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling YOUR hearts to the full with food and good cheer.”^c 18 And yet by saying these things they scarcely restrained the crowds from sacrificing to them.

19 But Jews arrived from Antioch and I-co’ni-um and persuaded the crowds,^d and they stoned Paul and dragged him outside the city, imagining he was dead.^e 20 However, when the disciples surrounded him, he rose up and entered into the city. And on the next day he left with Bar’na-bas for Der’be.^f 21 And after declaring the good news to that city and making quite a few disciples,^g they returned to Lys’tra and to I-co’ni-um and to Antioch, 22 strengthening the souls of the disciples,^h encouraging them to remain in the faith and [saying]: “We must enter into the kingdom of God through many tribulations.”ⁱ 23 Moreover, they appointed* older men^j for them in each congregation and, offering prayer with fastings,^k they committed them to Jehovah[†] in whom they had become believers.

24 And they went through Pi-sid’ia and came into Pam-phyli’a,^m 25 and, after speaking the word* in Perga, they went down to At-ta-li’a. 26 And from there they sailed off for Antioch,ⁿ where they had been entrusted to the undeserved kindness of God for the work they had fully performed.^o

27 When they had arrived and had gathered the congregation together, they proceeded to relate^p the many things God had done by means of them, and that he had opened to the nations the door to* faith.^q 28 So they spent not a little time with the disciples.

15 And certain men came down from Ju-de’a^r and began to teach the brothers: “Unless YOU get circumcised* according to the custom of Moses,^t YOU cannot be saved.” 2 But when there had occurred no little dissension and disputing by Paul and Bar’na-bas with them, they arranged for Paul and Bar’na-bas and some others of them to go up to the apostles and older men* in Jerusalem^a regarding this dispute.

3 Accordingly, after being conducted partway by the congregation,^b these men continued on their way through both Phoeni’cia and Samar’ia, relating in detail the conversion* of people of the nations,^c and they were causing great joy to all the brothers.^d 4 On arriving in Jerusalem they were kindly received^e by the congregation and the apostles and the older men, and they recounted the many things God had done by means of them.^f 5 Yet, some of those of the sect of the Pharisees that had believed rose up from their seats and said: “It is necessary to circumcise them^g and charge them to observe the law of Moses.”^h

6 And the apostles and the older men gathered together to see about this affair.ⁱ 7 Now when much disputing^j had taken place, Peter rose and said to them: “Men, brothers, YOU well know that from early days God made the choice among YOU that through my mouth people of the nations should hear the word of the good news and believe;^k 8 and God, who knows the heart,^l bore witness by giving them the holy spirit,^m just as he did to us also. 9 And he made no distinction at all between us and them,ⁿ but purified their hearts by faith.^o 10 Now, therefore, why are YOU making a test of God by imposing upon the neck of the disciples a yoke^p that neither our forefathers nor we were capable of bearing?^q 11 On the contrary, we trust to get saved through the undeserved kindness^r of the Lord Jesus in the same way as those people also.”^s

12 At that the entire multitude became silent, and they began to listen to Bar’na-bas and Paul relate the many signs and portents that God

did through them among the nations.^a 13 After they quit speaking, James answered, saying: "Men, brothers, hear me.^b 14 Sym'e-on^c has related thoroughly how God for the first time turned his attention to the nations to take out of them a people for his name.^d 15 And with this the words of the Prophets agree, just as it is written, 16 'After these things I shall return and rebuild the booth* of David that is fallen down; and I shall rebuild its ruins and erect it again,^e 17 in order that those who remain of the men may earnestly seek Jehovah,* together with people of all the nations, people who are called by my name,^f says Jehovah,^g who is doing these things.^h 18 known from of old.'ⁱ 19 Hence my decision is not to trouble those from the nations who are turning to God,^h 20 but to write them to abstain* from things polluted by idols^j and from fornication^k and from what is strangled^l and from blood.^m 21 For from ancient times* Moses has had in city after city those who preach him, because he is read aloud in the synagogues on every sabbath."^m

22 Then the apostles and the older men* together with the whole congregation favored sending chosen men from among them to Antioch along with Paul and Bar'na-bas, namely, Judas who was called Bar'sab-basⁿ and Silas, leading men among the brothers; 23 and by their hand they wrote:

"The apostles and the older men, brothers, to those brothers in Antioch^o and Syria and Cil'icia^p who are from the nations: Greetings! 24 Since we have heard that some from among us have caused you trouble with speeches,^q trying to subvert YOUR souls, although we did not give them any instructions,^a 25 we have come to a unanimous accord^b and have favored choosing men to send to you together with our loved ones, Bar'na-bas and Paul,^c 26 men that have delivered up their souls* for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.^d 27 We are therefore dispatching Judas and Silas,^e that they also may report the same things by word.^f 28 For the holy spirit^g and we ourselves have favored adding no further burden^h to you, except these necessary things, 29 to keep abstaining from things sacrificed to idolsⁱ and from blood^j and from things strangled^k and from fornication.^l 30 If you carefully keep yourselves from these things,^m you will prosper. Good health to you!"^{na}

30 Accordingly, when these men were let go, they went down to Antioch, and they gathered the multitude together and handed them the letter.ⁿ 31 After reading it, they rejoiced over the encouragement.^o 32 And Judas and Silas, since they themselves were also prophets,^p encouraged the brothers with many a discourse and strengthened them.^q 33 So, when they had passed some time, they were let go in peace^r by the brothers to those who had sent them out. 34 — 35 However, Paul and Bar'na-bas continued spending time in Antioch^s teaching and declaring, with many others also, the good news of the word of Jehovah.*^t

are.”^a 37 For his part, Bar’na-bas was determined to take along also John, who was called Mark.^b 38 But Paul did not think it proper to be taking this one along with them, seeing that he had departed from them from Pam-phyl’ia^c and had not gone with them to the work. 39 At this there occurred a sharp burst of anger, so that they separated from each other; and Bar’na-bas^d took Mark along and sailed away to Cy’prus.^e 40 Paul selected Silas^f and went off after he had been entrusted by the brothers to the undeserved kindness of Jehovah.^g 41 But he went through Syria and Cili’cia, strengthening the congregations.^h

16 So he arrived at Der’be and also at Lys’tra.ⁱ And, look! a certain disciple was there by the name of Timothy,^j the son of a believing Jewish woman but of a Greek father, 2 and he was well reported on by the brothers in Lys’tra and I-co’ni-um.^k 3 Paul expressed the desire for this man to go out with him, and he took him and circumcised^l him because of the Jews that were in those places, for one and all knew that his father was a Greek. 4 Now as they traveled on through the cities they would deliver to those there for observance the decrees that had been decided upon by the apostles and older men* who were in Jerusalem.^m 5 Therefore, indeed, the congregations continued to be made firm in the faithⁿ and to increase in number from day to day.

6 Moreover, they went through Phryg’ia and the country of Gala’tia,^o because* they were forbidden by the holy spirit to speak the word in the [district of] Asia. 7 Further, when getting down to Mys’ia they made efforts to go into Bi-thyn’ia,^p but the spirit of Jesus did not permit them. 8 So they passed Mys’ia by and came down to Tro’as.^q 9 And during the night a vision^r appeared to Paul: a certain Mac-e-do’ni-an man was standing and entreating him and saying: “Step over into Mac-e-do’ni-a and help us.” 10 Now as soon as he had seen the vision, we sought to go forth into Mac-e-do’ni-a,^a drawing the conclusion that God had summoned us to declare the good news* to them.

11 Therefore we put out to sea from Tro’as and came with a straight run to Sam’o-thrace, but on the following day to Ne-ap’o-lis, 12 and from there to Phi-ly’pi,^b a colony, which is the principal city of the district of Mac-e-do’ni-a.^c We continued in this city, spending some days. 13 And on the sabbath day we went forth outside the gate beside a river, where we were thinking there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and began speaking to the women that had assembled. 14 And a certain woman named Lyd’ia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thy-a’ti-ra^d and a worshiper of God, was listening, and Jehovah* opened her heart^e wide to pay attention to the things being spoken by Paul. 15 Now when she and her household got baptized,^f she said with entreaty: “If you men have judged me to be faithful to Jehovah,* enter into my house and stay.”^g And she just made us come.^h

16 And it happened that as we were going to the place of prayer, a certain servant girl with a spirit,ⁱ a demon of divination,^j met us. She used to furnish her masters with much gain^k by practicing the art of prediction. 17 This [girl] kept following Paul and us and crying out^l with the words: “These men are slaves of the Most High God, who are publishing to you the way of salvation.” 18 This she kept doing for many days. Finally Paul got tired of it^m and turned and said to the spirit: “I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.”ⁿ And it came out that very hour.^o

into the marketplace* to the rulers,^a 20 and, leading them up to the civil magistrates, they said: "These men are disturbing^b our city very much, they being Jews, 21 and they are publishing customs^c that it is not lawful for us to take up or practice, seeing we are Romans." 22 And the crowd rose up together against them; and the civil magistrates, after tearing the outer garments off them, gave the command to beat them with rods.^d 23 After they had inflicted many blows upon them,^e they threw them into prison, ordering the jailer to keep them securely.^f 24 Because he got such an order, he threw them into the inner prison^g and made their feet fast in the stocks.^h

25 But about the middle of the nightⁱ Paul and Silas were praying and praising God with song;^j yes, the prisoners were hearing them. 26 Suddenly a great earthquake occurred, so that the foundations of the jail were shaken. Moreover, all the doors were instantly opened, and the bonds of all were loosened.^k 27 The jailer, being awakened out of sleep and seeing the prison doors were open, drew his sword and was about to do away with himself,^l imagining that the prisoners had escaped.^m 28 But Paul called out with a loud voice, saying: "Do not hurt yourself,ⁿ for we are all here!" 29 So he asked for lights and leaped in and, seized with trembling, he fell down^o before Paul and Silas. 30 And he brought them outside and said: "Sirs, what must I do^p to get saved?" 31 They said: "Believe on the Lord Jesus and you will get saved,^q you and your household."^r 32 And they spoke the word of Jehovah* to him together with all those in his house.^s 33 And he took them along in that hour of the night and bathed their stripes; and, one and all, he and his were baptized^t without delay. 34 And he brought them into his house and set a table before them, and he rejoiced greatly with all his household now that he had believed God.

35 When it became day, the civil magistrates^a dispatched the constables to say: "Release those men." 36 So the jailer reported their words to Paul: "The civil magistrates have dispatched men that you [two] might be released. Now, therefore, come out and go YOUR way in peace." 37 But Paul said to them: "They flogged us publicly uncondemned, men who are Romans,^b and threw us into prison; and are they now throwing us out secretly? No, indeed! but let them come themselves and bring us out." 38 So the constables reported these sayings to the civil magistrates. These grew fearful when they heard that the men were Romans.^c 39 Consequently they came and entreated them and, after bringing them out, they requested them to depart from the city. 40 But they came out of the prison and went to the home of Lyd'ia, and when they saw the brothers they encouraged^d them and departed.

17 They now journeyed through Am-phil'o-lis and Ap-o-l'o-ni-a and came to Thes-sa-lo-ni'ca,^e where there was a synagogue of the Jews. 2 So according to Paul's custom^f he went inside to them, and for three sabbaths he reasoned with them from the Scriptures,^g 3 explaining and proving by references that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer^h and to rise from the dead,ⁱ and [saying]: "This is the Christ,^j this Jesus whom I am publishing to you." 4 As a result some of them became believers^k and associated themselves with Paul and Silas,^l and a great multitude of the Greeks who worshiped [God] and not a few of the principal women did so.

5 But the Jews, getting jealous,^m took into their company certain wicked men of the marketplace idlers and formed a mob and proceeded to throw the city into an uproar.ⁿ And they assaulted the house of Ja'son^o and went seeking to have them brought forth to the rabble. 6 When they did not find them they dragged Ja'son and certain brothers to the city rulers,* crying out: "These men that have overturned^a the inhabited earth are present here also, 7 and Ja'son has received them with hospitality. And all these [men] act in opposition to the decrees^b of Caesar,* saying there is another king,^c Jesus." 8 They indeed agitated the crowd and the city rulers when they heard these things; 9 and first after taking sufficient security* from Ja'son and the others they let them go.

10 Immediately by night^d the brothers sent both Paul and Silas out to Beroea, and these, upon arriving, went into the synagogue of the Jews. 11 Now the latter were more noble-minded than those in Thessa-loni'ca, for they received the word with the greatest eagerness of mind, carefully examining^e the Scriptures^f daily as to whether these things were so.^g 12 Therefore many of them became believers, and so did not a few of the reputable^h Greek women and of the men. 13 But when the Jews from Thessa-loni'ca learned that the word of God was published also in Beroea by Paul, they came there also to inciteⁱ and agitate^j the masses. 14 Then the brothers immediately sent Paul off to go as far as the sea;^k but both Silas and Timothy remained behind there. 15 However, those conducting Paul brought him as far as Athens and, after receiving a command for Silas and Timothy^l to come to him as quickly as possible, they departed.

16 Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit within him came to be irritated^m at beholding that the city was full of idols. 17 Consequently he began to reason in the synagogue with the Jewsⁿ and the other people who worshiped [God] and every day in the marketplace^o with those who happened to be on hand. 18 But certain ones of both the Ep-i-cu-re'an and the Sto'ic philosophers^p took to conversing with him controversially, and some would say: "What is it this chatterer* would like to tell?"^a Others: "He seems to be a publisher of foreign deities."^b This was because he was declaring the good news of Jesus and the resurrection.^b 19 So they laid hold of him and led him to the Are-op'a-gus,* saying: "Can we get to know what this new teaching^c is which is spoken by you? 20 For you are introducing some things that are strange to our ears. Therefore we desire to get to know what these things purport to be."^d 21 In fact, all Athenians and the foreigners sojourning there would spend their leisure time at nothing but telling something or listening to something new. 22 Paul now stood in the midst of the Are-op'a-gus^e and said:

"Men of Athens, I behold that in all things YOU seem to be more given to the fear of the deities^f than others are. 23 For instance, while passing along and carefully observing YOUR objects of veneration I also found an altar on which had been inscribed 'To an Unknown God.' Therefore what YOU are unknowingly giving godly devotion to, this I am publishing to you. 24 The God that made the world and all the things in it, being, as this One is, Lord of heaven and earth,^g does not dwell in handmade temples,^h 25 neither is he attended to by human hands as if he needed anything,ⁱ because he himself gives to all [persons] life^j and breath^k and all things. 26 And he made out of one [man]^l every nation^m of men, to dwell upon the entire surface of the earth,ⁿ and he decreed the appointed times^o and the set limits of the dwelling of [men],^p 27 for them to seek God,^q if they might grope for him and really find him,^r although, in fact, he is not far off from each one of us. 28 For by^a him we have life and move and exist,^a even as certain ones^a of the poets^b among you have said, 'For we are also his progeny.'

29 "Seeing, therefore, that we are the progeny of God,^c we ought not to imagine that the Divine Being^d is like gold or silver or stone, like something sculptured by the art and contrivance of man.^e 30 True, God has overlooked the times of such ignorance,^f yet now he is telling mankind that they should all everywhere repent.^g 31 Because he has set a day in which he purposes to judge^h the inhabited earthⁱ in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and he has furnished a guarantee^j to all men in that he has resurrected^k him from the dead."

32 Well, when they heard of a resurrection of the dead, some began to mock,^l while others said: "We will hear you about this even another time."

33 Thus Paul went out from their midst, 34 but some men joined themselves to him and became believers, among whom also were Di-o-nys-i-us, a judge of the court of the Ar-e-op'a-gus,^m and a woman named Dam'a-ris, and others besides them.

18 After these things he departed from Athens and came to Corinth. 2 And he found a certain Jew named Aq'ui-la,ⁿ a native of Pon'tus who had recently come from Italy,^o and Pris-cil'la his wife, because of the fact that Claudius^p had ordered all the Jews to depart from Rome. and would persuade Jews and Greeks.*

5 When, now, both Silas^a and Timothy^b came down from Mac-e-do'ni-a, Paul began to be intensely occupied with the word, witnessing to the Jews to prove that Jesus is the Christ.^c 6 But after they kept on opposing and speaking abusively,^d he shook out his garments^e and said to them: "Let YOUR blood^f be upon YOUR own heads. I am clean.^g From now on I will go to people of the nations."^h 7 Accordingly he transferred from there and went into the house of a man named Titius Justus, a worshiper of God, whose house was adjoining the synagogue. 8 But Cris'pusⁱ the presiding officer of the synagogue became a believer in the Lord, and so did all his household. And many of the Corinthians that heard began to believe and be baptized. 9 Moreover, by night the Lord said to Paul^j through a vision: "Have no fear, but keep on speaking and do not keep silent, 10 because I am with you^k and no man will assault you so as to do you injury; for I have many people in this city." 11 So he stayed set there a year and six months, teaching among them the word of God.

12 Now while Gal'li-o was proconsul^l of A-cha'ia,^m the Jews rose up with one accord against Paul and led him to the judgment seat,ⁿ 13 saying: "Contrary to the law this person leads^o men to another persuasion in worshipping God." 14 But as Paul was going to open his mouth, Gal'li-o said to the Jews: "If it were, indeed, some wrong or a wicked act of villainy, O Jews, I would with reason put up patiently with you. 15 But if it is controversies over speech and names^p and the law^q among YOU, YOU yourselves must see to it. I do not wish to be a judge of these things." 16 With that he drove them away from the judgment seat. 17 So they all laid hold of Sos'the-nes^r the presiding officer of the synagogue and went to beating him in front of the judgment seat. But

Ac 18:4* Lit., "Hellenes." Gr., Hel'lenas. 12* A provincial governor for the Roman Senate. 12* The Roman province of southern Greece with its capital at Corinth.

Gal'li-o would not concern himself at all with these things.

18 However, after staying quite some days longer, Paul said good-bye to the brothers and proceeded to sail away for Syria, and with him Pris-cil'la and Aq'ui-la, as he had the hair of his head clipped short^a in Cen'chre-ae,^{b} for he had a vow. 19 So they arrived at Eph'esus, and he left them there; but he himself entered into the synagogue^c and reasoned with the Jews. 20 Although they kept requesting him to remain for a longer time, he would not consent 21 but said good-bye^d and told them: "I will return to YOU again, if Jehovah^{} is willing."^e And he put out to sea from Eph'esus 22 and came down to Caes-are'a. And he went up^{*} and greeted the congregation, and went down to Antioch.

23 And when he had passed some time there he departed and went from place to place through the country of Ga-la'ti-a^f and Phryg'i-a,^g strengthening^h all the disciples.

24 Now a certain Jew named A-pol'los,ⁱ a native of Alexandria, an eloquent man, arrived in Eph'esus; and he was well versed in the Scriptures.^j 25 This [man] had been orally instructed in the way of Jehovah^{} and, as he was aglow with the spirit,^k he went speaking and teaching with correctness the things about Jesus, but being acquainted with only the baptism^l of John. 26 And this [man] started to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Pris-cil'la and Aq'ui-la^m heard him, they took him into their company and expounded the way of God more correctly to him. 27 Further, because he was desiring to go across into A-cha'ia, the brothers wrote the disciples, exhorting them to receive him kindly. So when he got there, he greatly helpedⁿ those who had believed on account of [God's]^{} undeserved kindness;^o 28 for with intensity he thoroughly proved the Jews to be wrong publicly, while he demonstrated by the Scriptures^a that Jesus was the Christ.^b

19 In the course of events, while A-pol'los^c was in Corinth, Paul went through the inland parts and came down to Eph'esus,^d and found some disciples; 2 and he said to them: "Did you receive holy spirit^e when YOU became believers?" They said to him: "Why, we have never heard whether there is a holy spirit."^f 3 And he said: "In what, then, were YOU baptized?" They said: "In John's baptism."^g 4 Paul said: "John baptized with the baptism [in symbol] of repentance,^h telling the people to believe in the one coming after him,ⁱ that is, in Jesus." 5 On hearing this, they got baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.^j 6 And when Paul laid his hands^k upon them, the holy spirit came upon them, and they began speaking with tongues and prophesying.^l 7 All together, there were about twelve men.

8 Entering into the synagogue,^m he spoke with boldness for three months, giving talks and using persuasion concerning the kingdomⁿ of God. 9 But when some went on hardening themselves and not believing,^o speaking injuriously about The Way^p before the multitude, he withdrew from them^q and separated the disciples from them,^r daily giving talks in the school [auditorium] of Ty-ran'nus.^{*} 10 This took place for two years,^s so that all those inhabiting the [district of] Asia^t heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God kept performing extraordinary works of power through the hands of Paul,^u 12 so that even cloths and aprons were borne from his body to the ailing people,^v and the diseases left them, and the wicked spirits came out.^w 13 But certain ones of the roving Jews who practiced the casting out of demons^x also undertook to name the name of the Lord Jesus^y over those having the wicked spirits, saying: "I solemnly charge^z YOU by Jesus whom Paul preaches." 14 Now there were seven sons of a certain Sce'va, a Jewish chief priest, doing this. 15 But in answer the wicked spirit said to them: "I know Jesus^a and I am acquainted with Paul;^b but who are YOU?" 16 With that the man in whom the wicked spirit was leaped upon them,^c got the mastery of one after the other,* and prevailed against them, so that they fled naked and wounded out of that house. 17 This became known to all, both the Jews and the Greeks that dwelt in Eph'e-sus; and a fear^d fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus went on being magnified.^e 18 And many of those who had become believers would come and confess^f and report their practices openly. 19 Indeed, quite a number of those who practiced magical^g arts brought their books together and burned them up before everybody. And they calculated together the prices of them and found them worth fifty thousand pieces of silver. 20 Thus in a mighty way the word of Jehovah* kept growing and prevailing.^h

21 Now when these things had been completed, Paul purposed in his spirit that, after going through Mac-e-do'ni-aⁱ and A-cha'ia, he would journey to Jerusalem,^j saying: "After I get there I must also see Rome."^k 22 So he dispatched to Mac-e-do'ni-a two of those who ministered to him, Timothy^l and Eras'tus,^m but he himself delayed for some time in the [district of] Asia.

23 At that particular time there arose no little disturbanceⁿ concerning The Way.* 24 For a certain man named De-me'tri-us, a silversmith, by making silver shrines* of Ar'te-mis^o furnished the craftsmen no little gain;^p 25 and he gathered them and those who worked at such things^q and said: "Men, YOU well know that from this business we have our prosperity.^r 26 Also, YOU behold and hear how not only in Eph'e-sus^a but in nearly all the [district of] Asia this Paul has persuaded a considerable crowd and turned them to another opinion, saying that the ones that are made by hands^b are not gods. 27 Moreover, the danger exists not only that this occupation of ours will come into disrepute but also that the temple of the great goddess Ar'te-mis^c will be esteemed as nothing and even her magnificence which the whole [district of] Asia and the inhabited earth worships is about to be brought down to nothing." 28 Hearing this and becoming full of anger, the men began crying out, saying: "Great is Ar'te-mis of the E-phe'sians!"

29 So the city became filled with confusion, and with one accord they rushed into the theater, taking forcibly along with them Ga'ius and Ar-is-tar'chus,^d Mac-e-do'ni-ans, traveling companions of Paul. 30 For his part, Paul was willing to go inside to the people, but the disciples would not permit him. 31 Even some of the commissioners of festivals and games,* who were friendly to him, sent to him and began pleading for him not to risk himself in the theater. 32 The fact is, some were crying out one thing and others another;^e for the assembly was in confusion, and the majority of them did not know the reason why they had come together. 33 So together they brought Alexander out of the crowd, the Jews thrusting him up front; and Alexander motioned with his hand and was wanting to make his defense to the people. 34 But when they recognized that he was a Jew, one cry arose from them all as they shouted for about two hours: "Great^f is Ar'te-mis of the E-phe'sians!"

35 When, finally, the city recorder had quieted^g the crowd, he said: "Men of Eph'e-sus, who really is there of mankind that does not know that the city of the E-phe'sians is the temple keeper of the great Ar'te-mis and of the image that fell from heaven?" 36 Therefore since these things are indisputable, it is becoming for YOU to keep calm and not act rashly.^a 37 For YOU have brought these men who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our goddess. 38 Therefore if De-me'tri-us^b and the craftsmen with him do have a case against someone, court^c days are held and there are proconsuls;^d let them bring charges against one another. 39 If, though, YOU are searching for anything beyond that, it must be decided in a regular assembly. 40 For we are really in danger of being charged with sedition over today's affair, no single cause existing that will permit us to render a reason for this disorderly mob." 41 And when he had said these things,^e he dismissed the assembly.^f

20 Now after the uproar had subsided, Paul sent for the disciples, and when he had encouraged them and bidden them farewell,^g he went forth to journey into Mac-e-do'ni-a.^h 2 After going through those parts and encouraging the ones there with many a word,ⁱ he came into Greece. 3 And when he had spent three months there, because a plot^j was hatched against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he made up his mind to return through Mac-e-do'ni-a. 4 There were accompanying him Sop'a-ter^k the son of Pyr'rhus of Ber-oe'a, Ar-is-tar'chus^l and Se-cun'dus of the Thes-sa-lo'ni-ans, and Ga'ius of Der'be, and Timothy,^m and from the [district of] Asia Tych'i-cusⁿ and Troph'i-mus.^o 5 These went on and were waiting for us in Tro'as;^p 6 but we put out to sea from Philip'pi after the days of the unfermented cakes,^q and we came to them in Tro'as^r within five days; and there we spent seven days.

7 On the first day^s of the week, when we were gathered together to have a meal,* Paul began discoursing to them, as he was going to depart the next day; and he prolonged his speech until midnight. 8 So there were quite a few lamps in the upper chamber^a where we were gathered together. 9 Seated at the window, a certain young man named Eu'ty-chus fell into a deep sleep while Paul kept talking on, and, collapsing in sleep, he fell down from the third story and was picked up dead. 10 But Paul went downstairs, threw himself upon him^b and embraced him and said: "STOP raising a clamor, for his soul* is in him."^c 11 He now went upstairs and began the meal* and took food, and after conversing for quite a while, until daybreak, he at length departed. 12 So they took the boy away alive and were comforted beyond measure.

13 We now went ahead to the boat and set sail to As'sos, where we were intending to take Paul aboard, for, after giving instructions to this effect, he himself was intending to go on foot.

14 So when he caught up with us in As'sos, we took him aboard and went to Mit-y-le'ne; 15 and, sailing away from there the succeeding day, we arrived opposite Chi'os, but the next day we touched at Sa'mos, and on the following day we arrived at Mi-le'tus. 16 For Paul had decided to sail past Eph'e-sus,^d in order that he might not spend any time in the [district of] Asia; for he was hastening to get to Jerusalem^e on the day of the [festival of] Pentecost if he possibly could.

17 However, from Mi-le'tus he sent to Eph'e-sus and called for the older men*^f of the congregation. 18 When they got to him he said to them: "You well know how from the first day that I stepped into the [district of] Asia^g I was with you the whole time,^h 19 slavingⁱ for the Lord with the greatest lowliness of mind^j and tears and trials that befell me by the plots^k of the Jews; 20 while I did not hold back from telling YOU any of the things that were profitable nor from teaching^l YOU publicly and from house^a to house.* 21 But I thoroughly bore witness^b both to Jews and to Greeks about repentance^c toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus. 22 And now, look! bound in the spirit,^d I am journeying to Jerusalem, although not knowing the things that will happen to me in it, 23 except that from city to city the holy spirit^e repeatedly bears witness to me as it says that bonds and tribulations are waiting for me.^f 24 Nevertheless, I do not make my soul* of any account as dear to me,^g if only I may finish my course^h and the ministryⁱ that I received^j of the Lord Jesus, to bear thorough witness to the good news of the undeserved kindness of God.^k

25 "And now, look! I know that all of YOU among whom I went preaching* the kingdom^m will see my face no more. 26 Hence I call YOU to witness this very day that I am clean from the blood^l of all men, 27 for I have not held back from telling YOU all the counsel^m of God. 28 Pay attentionⁿ to yourselves^o and to all the flock,^p among which the holy spirit has appointed YOU overseers,*^q to shepherd the congregation of God,^r which he purchased with the blood^s of his own [Son].^a 29 I know that after my going away oppressive wolves^t will enter in among YOU and will not treat the flock with tenderness, 30 and from among YOU yourselves men will rise and speak twisted things^u to draw away the disciples after themselves.^v

31 "Therefore keep awake, and bear in mind that for three years,^w night and day, I did not quit admonishing^x each one with tears. 32 And now I commit

YOU to God^a and to the word of his undeserved kindness, which [word] can build YOU up^b and give YOU the inheritance among all the sanctified ones.^c 33 I have coveted no man's silver or gold or apparel.^d 34 You yourselves know that these hands have attended to the needs of me^e and of those with me. 35 I have exhibited to YOU in all things that by thus laboring^f YOU must assist those who are weak,^g and must bear in mind the words of the Lord Jesus, when he himself said, 'There is more happiness in giving^h than there is in receiving.'

36 And when he had said these things, he kneeledⁱ down with all of them and prayed. 37 Indeed, quite a bit of weeping broke out among them all, and they fell upon Paul's neck^j and tenderly kissed^k him, 38 because they were especially pained at the word he had spoken that they were going to behold his face^l no more. So they proceeded to conduct^m him to the boat.

21 Now when we had torn ourselves away from them and put out to sea, we ran with a straight course and came to Cos, but on the next [day] to Rhodes, and from there to Pat'ara. 2 And when we had found a boat that was crossing to Phoe-ni'cia, we went aboard and sailed away. 3 After coming in sight of the island of Cy'prusⁿ we left it behind on the left side and sailed on to Syria,^o and landed at Tyre, for there the boat was to unload [its] cargo.^p 4 By a search we found the disciples and remained here seven days. But through the spirit^q they repeatedly told Paul not to set foot in Jerusalem. 5 So when we had completed the days, we went forth and started on our way; but they all, together with the women and children, conducted us as far as outside the city. And kneeling^r down on the beach we had prayer 6 and said good-bye^s to one another, and we went up into the boat but they returned to their homes.

7 We then completed the voyage from

Tyre and arrived at Ptolemaïs, and we greeted the brothers and stayed one day with them. 8 The next day we set out and arrived in Caesare'a,^a and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelizer,* who was one of the seven men,^b and we stayed with him. 9 This man had four daughters, virgins, that prophesied.^c 10 But while we were remaining quite a number of days, a certain prophet named Agabus^d came down from Jude'a, 11 and he came to us and took up the girdle of Paul, bound his own feet and hands and said: "Thus says the holy spirit, 'The man to whom this girdle belongs the Jews will bind^e in this manner in Jerusalem and deliver^f into the hands of people of the nations.'" 12 Now when we heard this, both we and those of that place began entreating him not to go^g up to Jerusalem. 13 Then Paul answered: "What are you doing by weeping^h and making me weak at heart?ⁱ Rest assured, I am ready not only to be bound but also to die^j at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." 14 When he would not be dissuaded, we acquiesced with the words: "Let the will^k of Jehovah* take place."

15 Now after these days we prepared for the journey and began going up to Jerusalem.^l 16 But some of the disciples from Caesare'a^m also went with us, to bring us to the man at whose home we were to be entertained, a certain Mna'son of Cyprus, an early disciple. 17 When we got into Jerusalem,ⁿ the brothers received us gladly.^o 18 But on the following [day] Paul went in with us to James;^p and all the older men* were present.^q 19 And he greeted them and began giving in detail an account^r of the things God did among the nations through his ministry.^s

20 After hearing this they began to glorify God, and they said to him: "You behold, brother, how many thousands* of believers there are among the Jews; and they are all zealous for the Law.^a 21 But they have heard it rumored about you that you have been teaching all the Jews among the nations an apostasy* from Moses,^b telling them neither to circumcise^c their children nor to walk in the [solemn] customs. 22 What, then, is to be done about it? In any case they are going to hear you have arrived. 23 Therefore do this which we tell you: We have four men with a vow upon themselves. 24 Take these men along^d and cleanse yourself ceremonially with them and take care of their expenses,^e that they may have their heads shaved.^f And so everybody will know that there is nothing to the rumors they were told about you, but that you are walking orderly, you yourself also keeping the Law.^g 25 As for the believers from among the nations, we have sent out,^h rendering our decision that they should keep themselves from what is sacrificed to idolsⁱ as well as from blood^j and what is strangled^k and from fornication.^l"^m

26 Then Paul took the men along the next day and cleansed himself ceremonially with themⁿ and went into the temple, to give notice of the days to be fulfilled^o for the ceremonial cleansing, until the offering^p should be presented for each one of them.^q

27 Now when the seven^r days were about to be concluded, the Jews from Asia on beholding him in the temple began to throw all the crowd into confusion,^s and they laid their hands upon him, 28 crying out: "Men of Israel, help! This is the man that teaches everybody everywhere against the people^t and the Law and this place and, what is more, he even brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place."^u 29 For they had previously seen Trophimus^v the Ephe'sian in the city with him, but they were imagining Paul had brought him into the temple. 30 And the whole city was set in an uproar,^a and a running together of the people occurred; and they laid hold of Paul and dragged him outside the temple.^b And immediately the doors were closed. 31 And while they were seeking to kill him, information came up to the commander* of the band that all Jerusalem was in confusion;^c 32 and he at once took soldiers and army officers* and ran down to them.^d When they caught sight of the military commander^e and the soldiers, they quit beating Paul.

33 Then the military commander came near and took hold of him and gave command for him to be bound with two chains;^f and he proceeded to inquire who he might be and what he had done. 34 But some in the crowd began shouting out one thing, and others another.^g So, being unable himself to learn anything certain because of the tumult, he commanded him to be brought to the soldiers' quarters.^h 35 But when he got upon the stairs, the situation became such that he was being carried along by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd; 36 for the multitude of the people kept following, crying out: "Take him away!"ⁱ

37 And as he was about to be led into the soldiers' quarters, Paul said to the military commander: "Am I allowed to say something to you?" He said: "Can you speak Greek? 38 Are you not really the Egyptian who before these days stirred up a sedition^j and led the four thousand dagger* men out into the wilderness?" 39 Then Paul said: "I am, in fact, a Jew,^k of Tarsus^l in Cil-l'cia, a citizen of no obscure city. So I beg you, permit me to speak to the people." 40 After he gave permission, Paul, standing on the stairs, motioned^m with his hand to the people. When a great silence fell, he addressed them in the Hebrewⁿ language, saying:

22 "Men, brothers^a and fathers, hear my defense^b to YOU now." 2 (Well, when they heard he was addressing them in the Hebrew language,^c they kept all the more silent, and he said:) 3 "I am a Jew,^d born in Tarsus of Cil-l'cia,^e but educated in this city at the feet of Ga-ma'l-i-el,^f instructed according to the strictness^g of the ancestral Law, being zealous^h for God just as all of YOU are this day. 4 And I persecuted this Way to the death,ⁱ binding and handing over to prisons^j both men and women, 5 as both the high priest and all the assembly of older men can bear me witness. From them I also procured letters^l to the brothers in Damascus, and I was on my way to bring also those who were there bound to Jerusalem to be punished.

6 "But as I was journeying and drawing close to Damascus, about midday, suddenly out of heaven a great light flashed all around me,^m 7 and I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?'" 8 I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' And he said to me, 'I am Jesus the Naza-rene', whom you are persecuting.^o 9 Now the men that were with me^p beheld, indeed, the light but did not hear^q the voice of the one speaking to me.^r 10 At that I said, 'What shall I do,' Lord?' The Lord said to me, 'Rise, go your way into Damascus, and there you will be told about everything it is appointed for you to do.'^s 11 But as I could not see anything for the glory of that light, I arrived in Damascus, being led by the hand of those who were with me.^t

12 "Now An-a-ni'as, a certain man reverent according to the Law, well reported^u on by all the Jews dwelling there, 13 came to me and, standing by me, he said to me, 'Saul, brother, have your sight again!'"^v And I looked up at him that very hour. 14 He said, 'The God of our forefathers^w has cho-

Rise, get baptized^f and wash^g your sins away by your calling^h upon his name.^h

17 "But when I had returned to Jerusalemⁱ and was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance^j 18 and saw him saying to me, 'Hurry up and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not agree^k to your witness concerning me.' 19 And I said, 'Lord, they themselves well know that I used to imprison^l and flog in one synagogue after another those believing upon you;^m 20 and when the blood of Stephenⁿ your witness was being spilled, I myself was also standing by and approving^o and guarding the outer garments of those doing away with him.' 21 And yet he said to me, 'Get on your way, because I shall send you out to nations far off.'^p

22 Now they kept listening to him down to this word, and they raised their voices, saying: "Take such a [man] away from the earth, for he was not fit to live!"^q 23 And because they were crying out and throwing their outer garments about and tossing dust into the air,^r 24 the military commander^s ordered him to be brought into the soldiers' quarters and said he should be examined under scourging, that he might know fully for what cause they were shouting^t against him this way. 25 But when they had stretched him out for the whipping,^u Paul said to the army officer^v standing there: "Is it lawful for YOU men to scourge a man that is a Roman^w and uncondemned?" 26 Well, when the army officer heard this, he went to the military commander and made report, saying: "What are you intending to do? Why, this man is a Roman." 27 So the military commander approached and said to him: "Tell me, Are you a Roman?"^a He said: "Yes." 28 The military commander responded: "I purchased these rights as a citizen^b for a large sum [of money]." Paul said: "But I was even born^b [in them]."^c

29 Immediately, therefore, the men that were about to examine him with torture withdrew from him; and the military commander became afraid on ascertaining that he was a Roman^c and that he had bound him.

30 So, the next day, as he desired to know for sure just why he was being accused by the Jews, he let him loose and commanded the chief priests and all the San'he-drin to assemble. And he brought Paul down and stood him among them.^d

23 Looking intently at the San'he-drin Paul said: "Men, brothers, I have behaved before God with a perfectly clear conscience^e down to this day." 2 At this the high priest An-a-ni'as ordered those standing by him to strike^f him on the mouth. 3 Then Paul said to him: "God is going to strike you, you whitewashed^g wall. Do you at one and the same time sit to judge me in accord with the Law^h and, transgressing the Law,ⁱ command me to be struck?" 4 Those standing by said: "Are you reviling the high priest of God?" 5 And Paul said: "Brothers, I did not know he was high priest. For it is written, 'You must not speak injuriously of a ruler of your people.'^j

6 Now when Paul took note that the one part was of Sadducees^k but the other of Pharisees, he proceeded to cry out in the San'he-drin: "Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee,^l a son of Pharisees. Over the hope of resurrection^m of the dead I am being judged."ⁿ 7 Because he said this, a dissension^o arose between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the multitude was split. 8 For Sadducees^p say there is neither resurrection^q nor angel nor spirit, but the Pharisees publicly declare them all.* 9 So there broke out a loud screaming,^a and some of the scribes of the party of the Pharisees rose and began contending fiercely, saying: "We find nothing wrong in this man;^b but if a spirit or an angel spoke to him,^c—" 10 Now when the dissension grew great, the military commander became afraid that Paul would be pulled to pieces by them, and he commanded the force of soldiers^d to go down and snatch him from their midst and bring him into the soldiers' quarters.*

11 But the following night the Lord stood by himⁱ and said: "Be of good courage!^g For as you have been giving a thorough witness^h on the things about me in Jerusalem, so you must also bear witness in Rome."ⁱ

12 Now when it became day, the Jews formed a conspiracy^j and bound themselves with a curse,^k saying they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.^l 13 There were more than forty men that formed this oath-bound conspiracy; 14 and they went to the chief^m priests and the older menⁿ and said: "We have solemnly bound ourselves with a curse not to take a bite of food until we have killed Paul. 15 Now, therefore, you together with the San'he-drin make it clear to the military commander why he should bring him down to you as though you intended to determine more accurately the matters involving him.ⁿ But before he gets near we will be ready to do away with him."^o

16 However, the son of Paul's sister heard of their lying in wait,^p and he came and entered into the soldiers' quarters and reported it to Paul. 17 So Paul called one of the army officers to him and said: "Lead this young man off to the military commander, for he has something to report to him."^q 18 Therefore this man took him and led him to the military commander and said: "The prisoner Paul called me to him and requested me to lead this young man to you, as he has something to tell you." 19 The military commander took him^a by the hand and withdrew and began inquiring privately: "What is it you have to report to me?" 20 He said: "The Jews have agreed to request you to bring Paul down to the San'he-drin tomorrow as though intending to learn something more accurate about him.^b 21 Above all things, do not let them persuade you, for more than forty men of theirs are lying in wait^c for him, and they have bound themselves with a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have done away with him;^d and they are now ready, waiting for the promise from you." 22 Therefore the military commander let the young man go after ordering him: "Do not blab to anyone that you have made these things clear to me."

23 And he summoned a certain two of the army officers and said: "Get two hundred soldiers ready to march clear to Caesare'a, also seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen, at the third hour^e of the night. 24 Also, provide beasts of burden that they may have Paul ride and convey him safely to Felix the governor." 25 And he wrote a letter having this form:

26 "Claudius Lys'i-as to his excellency, Governor Felix:^f Greetings! 27 This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be done away with by them, but I came suddenly with a force of soldiers and rescued him,^g because I learned he was a Roman.^h 28 And wishing to ascertain the cause for which they were accusing him, I brought him down into their San'he-drin.ⁱ 29 I found him to be accused about questions of their Law,^j but not charged with a single thing deserving of death or bonds.^k 30 But because a plot^l that is to be laid against the man has been disclosed to me, I am at once sending him to you, and commanding the accusers to speak against him before you."^m

31 Therefore these soldiers^m took

Paul according to their orders and brought him by night to An-tip'a-tris. 32 The next day they permitted the horsemen to go on with him, and they returned to the soldiers' quarters. 33 The [horsemen] entered into Caes-a-re'a^a and delivered the letter to the governor and also presented Paul to him. 34 So he read it and inquired from what province he was, and as-certain-ed^b that he was from Ci-li'cia.^c 35 "I shall give you a thorough hearing," he said, "when your accusers ar-rive also."^d And he commanded that he be kept under guard in the prae-to'ri-an palace of Herod.

24 Five days later the high priest An-a-ni'as^e came down with some older men* and a public speaker, a cer-tain Ter-tul'lus, and they gave infor-mation^f to the governor^g against Paul. 2 When he was called, Ter-tul'lus start-ed accusing him, saying:

"Seeing that we enjoy great peace^h through you and that reforms are tak-ing place in this nation through your forethought, 3 at all times and also in all places we receive it, Your Excel-lencyⁱ Felix, with the greatest thank-fulness. 4 But that I may not hinder you any further, I beseech you to hear us briefly in your kindness. 5 For we have found this man a pestilent^j fellow and stirring up seditions^k among all the Jews throughout the inhabited earth and a spearhead* of the sect^l of the Naz-a-renes',¹ 6 one who also tried to profane the temple^m and whom we seized. 7* — 8 From him you yourself can by examination find out about all these things of which we are accusing him."

ernor nodded to him to speak, answered: "Knowing well that this nation has had you as judge for many years, I readily speak in my defense^a the things about myself, 11 as you are in a po-sition to find out that for me it has not been more than twelve days since I went up to worship^b in Jerusalem; 12 and they found me neither in the temple^c arguing with anyone nor caus-ing a mob^d to rush together, either in the synagogues or throughout the city. 13 Nor can they prove^e to you the things of which they are accus-ing me right now. 14 But I do admit this to you, that, according to the way that they call a 'sect,' in this manner I am rendering sacred service* to the God of my forefathers,^f as I believe all the things set forth in the Law^g and written in the Prophets; 15 and I have hope^h toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrec-tion*ⁱ of both the righteous^j and the un-righteous.^k 16 In this respect, indeed, I am exercising myself continually to have a consciousness^l of committing no offense against God and men. 17 So after quite a number of years I arrived to bring gifts of mercy to my nation, and offerings.^m 18 While I was at these matters they found me ceremonially cleansed in the temple,ⁿ but not with a crowd or with a tumult. But there were certain Jews from the [district of] Asia, 19 who ought to be present before you and to accuse me if they might have anything against me.^o 20 Or, let the [men] here say for themselves what wrong they found as I stood before the San'he-drin, 21 except with respect to this one utterance which I cried out while standing among them, 'Over the resurrection of the dead I am today being judged before you!'"^p

22 However, Felix,^q knowing quite accurately the matters concerning this Way,^a began to put the [men] off and said: "Whenever Lys-i-as^b the military commander* comes down, I shall decide upon these matters involving you."

23 And he ordered the army officer* that the man be kept and have some relaxation [of custody], and that he forbid no one of his people to wait upon him.^c

24 Some days later Felix^d arrived with Dru-sil-la his wife, who was a Jew-ess,^e and he sent for Paul and listened to him on the belief in Christ Jesus.^f

25 But as he talked about righteousness^g and self-control^h and the judgmentⁱ to come, Felix became frightened and answered: "For the present go your way, but when I get an opportune time I shall send for you again."

26 At the same time, though, he was hoping for money^j to be given him by Paul. On that account he sent for him even more frequently and would converse with him.^k

27 But, when two years had elapsed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and because Felix desired to gain favor^l with the Jews, he left Paul bound.

25 Therefore Festus, after enter-ing^m upon the [government of the] province,* went up three days later to Jerusalem from Caes-are'a;ⁿ 2 and the chief priests and the principal men of the Jews gave him information^o against Paul. So they began to entreat him, 3 asking for themselves as a favor against the [man] that he would send for him to come to Jerusalem, as they were laying an ambush^p to do away with him along the road. 4 However, Festus answered that Paul was to be kept in Caes-are'a and that he himself was about to depart shortly for there. 5 "Hence let those who are in power among you," he said, "come down with me and accuse him,^q if there is anything out of the way about the man."

6 So when he had spent not more than eight or ten days among them, he went down to Caes-are'a, and the next day he sat down on the judgment seat^a and commanded Paul to be brought in. 7 When he arrived, the Jews that had come down from Jerusalem stood round about him, leveling against him many and serious charges^b for which they were unable to show evidence.

8 But Paul said in defense: "Neither against the Law of the Jews nor against the temple^c nor against Caesar* have I committed any sin."^d

9 Festus, desiring to gain favor^e with the Jews, said in reply to Paul: "Do you wish to go up to Jerusalem and be judged there before me concerning these things?"

10 But Paul said: "I am standing before the judgment seat of Caesar,^f where I ought to be judged. I have done no wrong to the Jews,^g as you also are finding out quite well. 11 If, on the one hand, I am really a wrongdoerⁱ and have committed anything deserving of death,^j I do not beg off from dying; if, on the other hand, none of those things exists of which these [men] accuse me, no man can hand me over to them as a favor. I appeal to Caesar!"^k

12 Then Festus, after speaking with the assembly of counselors, replied: "To Caesar you have appealed; to Caesar you shall go."

13 Now when some days had passed, Agrip-pa* the king and Berni-ce* arrived in Caes-are'a for a visit of courtesy to Festus. 14 So, as they were spending a number of days there, Festus laid before the king the matters respecting Paul, saying:

"There is a certain man left prisoner by Felix, 15 and when I was in Jerusalem the chief priests and the older men* of the Jews brought information^l about him, asking a judgment of condemnation against him. 16 But I replied to them that it is not Roman procedure to hand any man over as a favor before the accused man meets his accusers^m face to face and gets a chance to speak in his defense concerning the complaint. 17 Therefore when they got together here, I made no delay, but the next day I sat down on the judgment seat and commanded the man to be brought in. 18 Taking the stand, the accusers produced no charge^a of the wicked things I had supposed concerning him. 19 They simply had certain disputes with him concerning their own worship^b of the deity^c and concerning a certain Jesus who was dead but who Paul kept asserting was alive.^c 20 So, being perplexed as to the dispute over these matters, I proceeded to ask if he would like to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters.^d 21 But when Paul appealed^e to be kept for the decision by the August One,^f I commanded him to be kept until I should send him on up to Caesar.^g

22 Here Agrip'pa [said] to Festus: "I myself would also like to hear the man."^h "Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him."ⁱ 23 Therefore, on the next day, Agrip'pa and Berni'ce came with much pompous^j show and entered into the audience chamber together with military commanders^k as well as men of eminence in the city, and when Festus gave the command, Paul was brought in. 24 And Festus said: "King Agrip'pa and all YOU men who are present with us, YOU are beholding this man concerning whom all the multitude of the Jews together have applied to me both in Jerusalem and here, shouting that he ought not to live any longer."^l 25 But I perceived he had committed nothing deserving of death.^m So when this [man] himself appealedⁿ to the August One, I decided to send him. 26 But concerning him I have nothing certain to write to [my] Lord.^o Therefore I brought him forth before you, and especially before you, King Agrip'pa, in order that, after the judicial examination has taken place,^a I might get something to write. 27 For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner and not also to signify the charges against him."

26 Agrip'pa^b said to Paul: "You are permitted to speak in behalf of yourself." Then Paul stretched his hand out^c and proceeded to say in his defense:^d

2 "Concerning all the things of which I am accused^e by Jews, King Agrip'pa, I count myself happy that it is before you I am to make my defense this day, 3 especially as you are expert on all the customs^f as well as the controversies among Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

4 "Indeed, as to the manner of life^g from youth up that I led from [the] beginning among my nation and in Jerusalem, all the Jews 5 that have been previously acquainted with me from the first know, if they but wish to bear witness, that according to the strictest sect^h of our form of worshipⁱ I lived a Pharisee.^j 6 And yet now for the hope^k of the promise^l that was made by God to our forefathers I stand called to judgment; 7 whereas our twelve tribes are hoping to attain to the fulfillment of this promise by intensely rendering him sacred service^m night and day.ⁿ Concerning this hope I am accused^m by Jews, O king.

8 "Why is it judged unbelievable among YOU men that God raises up the dead?"^o 9 I, for one, really thought within myself I ought to commit many acts of opposition against the name of Jesus the Naz-a-rene^p; 10 which, in fact, I did in Jerusalem, and many of the holy ones I locked up in prisons,^q as I had received authority from the chief priests;^r and when they were to be executed, I cast my vote^s against them. 11 And by punishing them many times in all the synagogues^t I tried to force them to make a recantation; and since

I was extremely mad against them, I went so far as to persecuting them even in outside cities.

12 "Amid these efforts as I was journeying to Damascus^a with authority and a commission from the chief priests, 13 I saw at midday on the road, O king, a light beyond the brilliance of the sun flash from heaven about me and about those journeying with me.^b

14 And when we had all fallen to the ground I heard a voice say to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? To keep kicking against the goads makes it hard for you.'^c 15 But I said, 'Who are you, Lord?' And the Lord said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.'^d 16 Nevertheless, rise and stand on your feet.^e For to this end I have made myself visible to you, in order to choose you as an attendant and a witness^f both of things you have seen and things I shall make you see respecting me; 17 while I deliver you from [this] people and from the nations, to whom I am sending you,^g 18 to open their eyes,^h to turn them from darknessⁱ to light^j and from the authority of Satan^k to God, in order for them to receive forgiveness of sins^l and an inheritance^m among those sanctifiedⁿ by [their] faith in me.'

19 "Wherefore, King A-grip'pa, I did not become disobedient to the heavenly sight,^o 20 but both to those in Damascus^p first and to those in Jerusalem,^q and over all the country of Ju-de'a, and to the nations^r I went bringing the message that they should repent and turn to God by doing works that befit repentance.^s 21 On account of these things Jews seized me in the temple and attempted to slay me.^t 22 However, because I have obtained the help^u that is from God I continue to this day bearing witness to both small and great, but saying nothing except things the Prophets^v as well as Moses^w stated were going to take place, 23 that the Christ was to suffer^x and, as the first to be resurrected^y from the dead, he was going to publish light^a both to this people and to the nations."^b

24 Now as he was saying these things in his defense, Festus said in a loud voice: "You are going mad,^c Paul! Great learning is driving you into madness!"

25 But Paul said: "I am not going mad, Your Excellency Festus, but I am uttering sayings of truth and of soundness of mind. 26 In reality, the king to whom I am speaking with freeness of speech well knows about these things; for I am persuaded that not one of these things escapes his notice, for this thing has not been done in a corner.^d 27 Do you, King A-grip'pa, believe the Prophets? I know you believe."^e 28 But A-grip'pa said to Paul: "In a short time you would persuade me to become a Christian."^f 29 At this Paul said: "I could wish to God that whether in a short time or in a long time not only you but also all those who hear me today would become men such as I also am, with the exception of these bonds."

30 And the king rose and so did the governor and Ber-ni'ce and the men seated with them. 31 But as they withdrew they began talking with one another, saying: "This man practices nothing deserving death^g or bonds."^h 32 Moreover, A-grip'pa said to Festus: "This man could have been released if he had not appealedⁱ to Caesar."^j

27 Now as it was decided for us to sail away to Italy,^k they proceeded to hand both Paul and certain other prisoners over to an army officer^l named Julius of the band of Augus'tus. 2 Going aboard a boat from Ad-ra-myt'ti-um that was about to sail to places along the coast of the [district of] Asia, we set sail, there being with us Ar-is-tar'chusⁱ a Mac-e-do-ni-an from Thes-salo-ni'ca. 3 And the next day we landed at Si'don, and Julius treated Paul with human kindness^j and permitted him to go to his friends and enjoy [their] care.^k

4 And putting out to sea from there we sailed under the [shelter of] Cyprus, because the winds were contrary; 5 and we navigated through the open sea along Cili'cia and Pamphyl'i-a and put into port at My'ra in Ly'cia-a. 6 But there the army officer found a boat* from Alexandria^a that was sailing for Italy, and he made us board it. 7 Then, after sailing on slowly quite a number of days and coming to Cni'dus with difficulty, because the wind did not let us get on, we sailed under the [shelter of] Crete at Sal-mo'ne, 8 and coasting along it with difficulty we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near which was the city La-se'a.

9 As considerable time had passed and by now it was hazardous to navigate because even the fast [of atonement^b day]* had already passed by, Paul made a recommendation, 10 saying to them: "Men, I perceive that navigation is going to be with damage and great loss not only of the cargo and the boat but also of our souls."^c 11 However, the army officer went heeding the pilot and the shipowner rather than the things said by Paul. 12 Now as the harbor was inconvenient for wintering, the majority advised setting sail from there, to see if they could somehow make it to Phoenix to winter, a harbor of Crete that opens toward the north-east and toward the southeast.*

13 Moreover, when the south wind blew softly, they thought they had as good as realized their purpose, and they lifted anchor and began coasting in-shore along Crete. 14 After no great while, however, a tempestuous wind^d called Eu-ro-aq'ui-lo* rushed down upon it. 15 As the boat was violently seized and was not able to keep its head against the wind, we gave way and were borne along. 16 Now we ran under [the shelter of] a certain small island called Cau'da, and yet we were hardly able to get possession of the skiff^e at the stern. 17 But after hoisting it aboard they began using helps to undergird the boat; and being in fear of running aground on the Syr'tis,* they lowered the gear and thus were driven along. 18 Yet because we were being violently tossed with the tempest, the following [day] they began to lighten^a the ship; 19 and the third [day], with their own hands, they threw away the tackling of the boat.

20 When, now, neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no little tempest^b was lying upon us, all hope of our being saved finally began to be cut off. 21 And when there had been a long abstinence from food, then Paul stood up in the midst of them^c and said: "Men, you certainly ought to have taken my advice and not have put out to sea from Crete and have sustained this damage and loss.^d 22 Still, now I recommend to you to be of good cheer, for not a soul* of you will be lost, only the boat will. 23 For this night there stood near me an angel^e of the God to whom I belong and to whom I render sacred service,"^f 24 saying, 'Have no fear, Paul. You must stand before Caesar,^g and, look! God has freely given you all those sailing with you.' 25 Therefore be of good cheer, men; for I believe God^h that it will be exactly as it has been told me. 26 However, we must be cast ashore on a certain island."ⁱ

27 Now as the fourteenth night fell and we were being tossed to and fro on the [sea of] A'dri-a,* at midnight the sailors began to suspect they were drawing near to some land. 28 And they sounded the depth and found it twenty fathoms;* so they proceeded a short distance and again made a sounding and found it fifteen fathoms. 29 And because of fearing we might be cast somewhere upon the rocks, they cast out four anchors from the stern and began wishing for it to become day. 30 But when the sailors began seeking to escape from the boat and lowered the skiff into the sea under the pretense of intending to let down anchors from the prow, 31 Paul said to the army officer and the soldiers: "Unless these men remain in the boat, YOU cannot be saved."^a 32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the skiff^b and let it fall off.

33 Now close to the approach of day Paul began to encourage one and all to take some food, saying: "Today is the fourteenth day YOU have been on the watch and YOU are continuing without food, having taken nothing for yourselves. 34 Therefore I encourage YOU to take some food, for this is in the interest of YOUR safety; for not a hair^c of the head of one of YOU will perish." 35 After he said this, he also took a loaf, gave thanks^d to God before them all and broke it and started eating. 36 So they all became cheerful and themselves began taking some food. 37 Now, all together, we souls* in the boat were two hundred and seventy-six." 38 When they had been satisfied with food, they proceeded to lighten^e the boat by throwing the wheat overboard into the sea.

39 Finally when it became day, they could not recognize the land but they were observing a certain bay with a beach, and on this they were determined, if they could, to beach^f the boat. 40 So, cutting away the anchors, they

The copyist for B evidently made a mistake by combining the final Omega, ω (oi), of the preceding Gr. word, $\pi\lambda\omicron\iota\omega$ (plōiōi), with the next letter, Sigma, ς (s), standing for 200, to form the Gr. word $\omega\varsigma$ (hos, "about"). Hence the actual number is 276 instead of 76.

let them fall into the sea, at the same time loosing the lashings of the rudder oars and, after hoisting the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. 41 When they lighted upon a shoal washed on each side by the sea, they ran the ship aground and the prow got stuck and stayed immovable, but the stern began to be violently broken to pieces." 42 At this it became the determination of the soldiers to kill the prisoners, that no one might swim away and escape. 43 But the army officer desired to bring Paul safely through and restrained them from their purpose. And he commanded those able to swim to cast themselves into the sea and make it to land first, 44 and the rest to do so, some upon planks and some upon certain things from the boat. And thus it came about that all were brought safely to land.^b

28 And when we had made it to safety, then we learned that the island was called Malta.^c 2 And the foreign-speaking people* showed us extraordinary human kindness,^d for they kindled a fire and received all of us helpfully because of the rain that was falling and because of the cold.^e 3 But when Paul collected a certain bundle of sticks and laid it upon the fire, a viper came out due to the heat and fastened itself on his hand. 4 When the foreign-speaking people caught sight of the venomous creature hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another: "Surely this man is a murderer, and although he made it to safety from the sea, vindictive justice did not permit him to keep on living." 5 However, he shook the venomous creature off into the fire and suffered no harm.^f 6 But they were expecting he was going to swell up with inflammation or suddenly drop dead. After they waited for a long while and beheld nothing hurtful happen to him, they changed their mind and began saying he was a god.^g

7 Now in the neighborhood of that place the principal man of the island, named Publi-us, had lands; and he received us hospitably and entertained us benevolently three days. 8 But it happened that the father of Publi-us was lying down distressed with fever and dysentery, and Paul went in to him and prayed, laid his hands^a upon him and healed him.^b 9 After this occurred, the rest of the people on the island who had sicknesses also began to come to him and be cured.^c 10 And they also honored us with many gifts and, when we were setting sail, they loaded us with things for our needs.

11 Three months later we set sail in a boat from Alexandria^d that had wintered in the island and with the figure-head "Sons of Zeus."^e 12 And putting into port at Syracuse we remained three days, 13 from which place we went around and arrived at Rhe'gi-um. And a day later a south wind sprang up and we made it into Pu-te'o-li* on the second day. 14 Here we found brothers and were entreated to remain with them seven days; and in this way we came toward Rome. 15 And from there the brothers, when they heard the news about us, came to meet us as far as the Marketplace of Ap'pi-us* and Three Taverns^f and, upon catching sight of them, Paul thanked God and took courage.^g 16 When, finally, we entered into Rome, Paul was permitted^h to stay by himself with the soldier guarding him.

17 However, three days later he called together those who were the principal men of the Jews. When they had assembled, he proceeded to say to them: "Men, brothers, although I had done nothing contrary to the people or the customs of our forefathers,ⁱ I was delivered over as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.^j

23 They now arranged for a day with him, and they came in greater numbers to him in his lodging place. And he explained the matter to them by bearing thorough witness concerning the kingdom of God^j and by using persuasion with them concerning Jesus from both the law of Moses^k and the Prophets,^l from morning till evening. 24 And some began to believe^m the things said; others would not believe.ⁿ 25 So, because they were at disagreement with one another, they began to depart, while Paul made this one comment:

"The holy spirit aptly spoke through Isaiah the prophet to YOUR forefathers, 26 saying, 'Go to this people and say: "By hearing, YOU will hear but by no means understand; and, looking, YOU will look but by no means see." 27 For the heart of this people has grown un-receptive,^o and with their ears they have heard without response, and they have shut their eyes; that they should never see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and turn back, and I should heal them.'"^p 28 Therefore let it be known to YOU that this, the means by which

1 Paul, a slave^a of Jesus Christ and called^b to be an apostle,^c separated to God's good news,^d 2 which he promised aforetime through his prophets^e in the holy Scriptures, 3 concerning his Son, who sprang from the seed^f of David^g according to the flesh,^h 4 but who with powerⁱ was declared* God's Son^j according to the spirit^k of holiness by means of resurrection from the dead^l—yes, Jesus Christ our Lord, 5 through whom we* received undeserved kindness^m and an apostleshipⁿ in order that there might be obedience of faith among all the nations^o respecting his name, 6 among which [nations] you also are those called to belong to Jesus Christ— 7 to all those who are in Rome as God's beloved ones, called^p to be holy ones:^q*

May YOU have undeserved kindness and peace^r from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ.^r

8 First of all, I give thanks* to my God through Jesus Christ concerning all of YOU, because YOUR faith is talked about^s throughout the whole world. 9 For God, to whom I render sacred service* with my spirit in connection with the good news about his Son, is my witness^t of how without ceasing I always er, for those who are contentious^a and who disobey the truth^b but obey unrighteousness there will be wrath and anger,^c 9 tribulation and distress, upon the soul of every man who works what is injurious, of the Jew^d first and also of the Greek;^e 10 but glory and honor and peace for everyone who works what is good,^f for the Jew first^g and also for the Greek.^h 11 For there is no partiality with God.ⁱ

ing abhorrence of the idols, do you rob^a temples? 23 You, who take pride in law, do you by your transgressing of the Law^b dishonor God? 24 For “the name of God is being blasphemed on account of you people among the nations”;^c just as it is written.

25 Circumcision^d is, in fact, of benefit only if you practice law;^e but if you are a transgressor of law, your circumcision^f has become uncircumcision.^g 26 If, therefore, an uncircumcised^h person keeps the righteous requirementsⁱ of the Law, his uncircumcision will be counted as circumcision, will it not?^j 27 And the uncircumcised [person] that is such by nature will, by carrying out the Law, judge you^k who with its written code and circumcision are a transgressor of law. 28 For he is not a Jew who is one on the outside,^l nor is circumcision that which is on the outside upon the flesh.^m 29 But he is a Jew who is one on the inside,ⁿ and [his] circumcision is that of the heart^o by spirit, and not by a written code.^p The praise^q of that one comes, not from men, but from God.^r

3 What, then, is the superiority of the Jew,^s or what is the benefit of the circumcision?^t 2 A great deal in every way. First of all, because they were entrusted with the sacred pronouncements^u of God.^v 3 What, then, [is the case]? But let God be found true,^z though every man be found a liar,^a even as it is written: “That you might be proved righteous in your words and might win when you are being judged.”^b 5 However, if our unrighteousness brings God’s righteousness^c to the fore, what shall we say? God is not unjust^a when he vents his wrath, is he? (I am speaking as a man^b does.) 6 Never may that happen! How, otherwise, will God judge the world?^c

7 Yet if by reason of my lie the truth of God^d has been made more prominent to his glory, why am I also yet being judged as a sinner?^e 8 And [why] not [say], just as it is falsely charged^f to us and just as some men state that we say: "Let us do the bad things that the good things may come"?^g The judgment^h against those [men] is in harmony with justice.ⁱ

9 What then? Are we in a better position?^j Not at all! For above we have made the charge that Jews as well as Greeks are all under sin;^k 10 just as it is written: "There is not a righteous [man], not even one;"^l 11 there is no one that has any insight, there is no one that seeks for God.^m 12 All [men] have deflected, all of them together have become worthless; there is no one that does kindness, there is not so much as one.ⁿ 13 "Their throat is an opened grave, they have used deceit with their tongues."^o "Poison of asps is behind their lips."^p 14 "And their mouth is full of cursing and bitter expression."^q 15 "Their feet are speedy to shed blood."^r 16 "Ruin and misery are in their ways,"^s 17 and they have not known the way of peace."^t 18 "There is no fear of God before their eyes."^u

The [Greek] article indicates a particular law, or the Mosaic law; without the article, reference may be to 'law' as a principle."

may be stopped^a and all the world may become liable^b to God for punishment.^c 20 Therefore by works of law no flesh will be declared righteous^d before him, for by law^e is the accurate knowledge of sin.^f

21 But now apart from law God's righteousness^g has been made manifest, as it is borne witness^h to by the Lawⁱ and the Prophets;^j 22 yes, God's righteousness through the faith in Jesus^k Christ,^l for all those having faith.^m 23 For there is no distinction.ⁿ 24 For all have sinned^o and fall short of the glory of God,^p 24 and it is as a free gift^q that they are being declared righteous by his undeserved kindness^r through the release by the ransom^s [paid] by Christ^t Jesus. 25 God set him forth as an offering for propitiation^u through faith in his blood.^v This was in order to exhibit his own righteousness, because he was forgiving the sins^w that occurred in the past while God was exercising forbearance;^x 26 so as to exhibit his own righteousness^y in this present season, that he might be righteous even when declaring righteous^z the man that has faith in Jesus.

faith?^a Never may that happen! On the contrary, we establish law.^b

4 That being so, what shall we say about Abraham our forefather^c according to the flesh?^{} 2 If, for instance, Abraham were declared righteous as a result of works,^d he would have ground for boasting; but not with God. 3 For what does the scripture say? "Abraham exercised faith in Jehovah,^{} and it was counted to him as righteousness."^e 4 Now to the man that works^f the pay is counted,^{} not as an undeserved kindness,^g but as a debt.^h 5 On the other hand, to the man that does not work but puts faithⁱ in him who declares the ungodly one righteous, his faith is counted as righteousness.^j 6 Just as David also speaks of the happiness^{} of the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: 7 "Happy are those whose lawless deeds have been pardoned^k and whose sins have been covered;^l 8 happy is the man whose sin Jehovah^{*} will by no means take into account."^m faith while in the uncircumcised state which our father^a Abraham had.

13 For it was not through law that Abraham or his seed had the promise^b that he should be heir of a world, but it was through the righteousness by faith.^c 14 For if those who adhere to law are heirs, faith has been made useless and the promise has been abolished.^d 15 In reality the Law produces wrath,^e but where there is no law, neither is there any transgression.^f

16 On this account it was as a result of faith, that it might be according to undeserved kindness,^g in order for the promise^h to be sure to all his seed,ⁱ not only to that which adheres to the Law, but also to that which adheres to the faith of Abraham. (He is the father^j of us all, 17 just as it is written: "I have appointed you a father of many nations.")^k This was in the sight of the One in whom he had faith, even of God, who makes the dead alive^l and calls^{*} the things that are not as though they were.^m 18 Although beyond hope, yet based on hope he had faith,ⁿ that he might become the father of many nations^o in accord with what had been said: "So your seed will be."^p 19 And, although he did not grow weak in faith, he considered his own body, now already deadened,^q as he was about one hundred years old,^r also the deadness of the womb of Sarah.^s 20 But because of the promise^t of God he did not waver in a lack of faith,^u but became powerful by his faith,^v giving God glory 21 and being fully convinced that what he had promised he was also able to do.^w 22 Hence "it was counted to him as righteousness."^x

23 That "it was counted^y to him" was written, however, not for his sake only,^z 24 but also for the sake of us to whom it is destined to be counted, because we believe on him who raised Jesus our Lord up from the dead.^a 25 He was delivered up for the sake of our trespasses^b and was raised up for the sake of declaring us righteous.^c

Ro 4:17* Or, "summons."

5 Therefore, now that we have been declared righteous as a result of faith,^a let us enjoy peace^b with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 through whom also we have gained our approach^c by faith* into this undeserved kindness in which we now stand; and let us exult, based on hope^d of the glory of God. 3 And not only that, but let us exult while in tribulations,^e since we know that tribulation produces endurance;^f 4 endurance, in turn, an approved condition;^g the approved condition, in turn, hope,^h 5 and the hope does not lead to disappointment;ⁱ because the love of God^j has been poured out into our hearts^k through the holy spirit,^l which was given us.

6 For, indeed, Christ, while we were yet weak,^m died for ungodly men* at the appointed time.ⁿ 7 For hardly will anyone die for a righteous [man];^o indeed, for the good^p [man], perhaps, someone even dares to die.^q 8 But God recommends his own love^r to us in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.^s 9 Much more, therefore, since we have been declared righteous now by his blood,^t shall we be saved through him from wrath.^u 10 For if, when we were enemies,^v we became reconciled to God through the death of his Son,^w much more, now that we have become reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.^x 11 And not only that, but we are also exulting in God through our Lord Jesus Christ,* through whom we have now received the reconciliation.^y

12 That is why, just as through one man^z sin entered into the world and death^a through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned^b—13 For until the Law sin was in the world, but sin is not charged against anyone when there is no law.^c 14 Nevertheless, death ruled as king from Adam down to Moses,^d even over those who had not sinned after the likeness of the transgression by Adam,^a who bears a resemblance to him* that was to come.^b

15 But it is not with the gift as it was with the trespass. For if by one man's trespass many died, the undeserved kindness of God and his free gift with the undeserved kindness by the one man^c Jesus Christ abounded much more to many.^d 16 Also, it is not with the free gift^e as it was with the way things worked through the one [man] that sinned.^f For the judgment^g resulted from one trespass in condemnation,^h but the gift resulted from many trespasses in a declaration of righteousness.ⁱ 17 For if by the trespass of the one [man]^j death ruled as king^k through that one, much more will those who receive the abundance of the undeserved kindness^l and of the free gift^m of righteousness rule as kingsⁿ in life through the one [person], Jesus Christ.^o

18 So, then, as through one trespass the result to men of all sorts was condemnation,^p likewise also through one act of justification*^q the result to men of all sorts^r is a declaring of them righteous for life.^s 19 For just as through the disobedience of the one man many^t were constituted sinners, likewise also through the obedience^u of the one [person] many^v will be constituted righteous.^w 20 Now the Law^x came in beside* in order that trespassing might abound.^y But where sin^z abounded, undeserved kindness^a abounded still more. 21 To what end? That, just as sin ruled as king with death,^b likewise also undeserved kindness^c might rule as king through righteousness with everlasting life^d in view through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 Consequently, what shall we say? Shall we continue in sin, that undeserved kindness may abound?^a 2 Never may that happen! Seeing that we died with reference to sin,^b how shall we keep on living any longer in it?^c 3 Or do you not know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus^{d} were baptized into his death?^e 4 Therefore we were buried^f with him through our baptism into his death, in order that, just as Christ was raised up from the dead through the glory of the Father,^g we also should likewise walk in a newness of life.^h 5 For if we have become united with him^{} in the likeness of his death,ⁱ we shall certainly also be [united with him in the likeness] of his resurrection;^j 6 because we know that our old personality^{} was impaled with [him],^k that our sinful body^l might be made inactive,^l that we should no longer go on being slaves to sin.^m 7 For he who has died has been acquitted^{} from [his] sin.ⁿ

8 Moreover, if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him.^o 9 For we know that Christ, now that he has been raised up from the dead,^p dies no more;^q death is master over him no more. 10 For [the death] that he died, he died with reference to sin once for all time;^r but [the life] that he lives, he lives with reference to God.^s 11 Likewise also you: reckon yourselves to be dead^t indeed with reference to sin but living^u with reference to God by Christ Jesus.

12 Therefore do not let sin continue to rule as king^v in your mortal bodies that you should obey their desires.^w 13 Neither go on presenting your members to sin^x as weapons of unrighteousness,^y but present yourselves to God as those alive^z from the dead, also your members to God as weapons^a of righteousness. 14 For sin must^{*} not be master over you, seeing that you are not under law^a but under undeserved kindness.^b

15 What follows? Shall we commit a sin because we are not under law^c but under undeserved kindness?^d Never may that happen! 16 Do you not know that if you keep presenting yourselves to anyone as slaves to obey him, you are slaves of him because you obey him,^e either of sin^f with death in view^g or of obedience^h with righteousnessⁱ in view? 17 But thanks to God that you were the slaves of sin but you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching to which you were handed over.^j 18 Yes, since you were set free^k from sin, you became slaves^l to righteousness.^m 19 I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh:ⁿ for even as you presented your members^o as slaves to uncleanness^p and lawlessness with lawlessness in view,^{*} so now present your members as slaves to righteousness with holiness in view.^q 20 For when you were slaves of sin,^r you were free as to righteousness.

21 What, then, was the fruit^s that you used to have at that time? Things^{t} of which you are now ashamed. For the end^u of those things is death.^u 22 However, now, because you were set free from sin but became slaves to God,^v you are having your fruit^w in the way of holiness, and the end everlasting life.^x 23 For the wages^{} sin pays is death,^y but the gift^{*z} God gives is everlasting life^a by Christ Jesus our Lord.^b

7 Can it be that you do not know, brothers, (for I am speaking to those who know law,) that the Law is master over a man as long as he lives?^c 2 For instance, a married woman^{*} is bound by law to her husband while he is alive; but if her husband dies, she is discharged from the law of her husband.^d

CHAP. 7 c Ro 3:19; d Nu 30:8; 1Co 7:39.

Ro 6:19* "With lawlessness in view." B omits. 21* Or, "used to have at that time from the things." 21* Or, "finish." Gr., te'los. 23* "Wages." Lat., sti-pen'dia. 23* Lit., "gracious gift." Gr., kha'risma; Lat., gra'tia. 7:2* Or, "woman subject to a husband."

3 So, then, while her husband is living, she would be styled an adulteress* if she became another man's.^a But if her husband dies, she is free from his law, so that she is not an adulteress if she becomes another man's.^b

4 So, my brothers, you also were made dead to the Law^c through the body of the Christ, that you might become another's,^d the one's who was raised up from the dead,^e that we should bear fruit^f to God. 5 For when we were in accord with the flesh,^g the sinful passions that were excited by the Law were at work in our members that we should bring forth fruit to death.^h 6 But now we have been discharged from the Law,ⁱ because we have died^j to that by which we were being held fast, that we might be slaves*^k in a new sense by the spirit,^l and not in the old sense by the written code.^m

7 What, then, shall we say? Is the Law sin?ⁿ Never may that become so! Really I would not have come to know sin^o if it had not been for the Law; and, for example, I would not have known covetousness^p if the Law had not said: "You must* not covet."^q 8 But sin, receiving an inducement through the commandment,^r worked out in me covetousness of every sort, for apart from law sin was dead.^s 9 In fact, I was once alive apart from law;^t but when the commandment arrived,^u sin came to life again, but I died.^v 10 And the commandment which was to life,^w this I found to be to death.^x 11 For sin, receiving an inducement through the commandment, seduced^y me and killed me through it. 12 Wherefore, on its part, the Law is holy,^z and the commandment is holy and righteous^a and good.^b

13 Did, then, what is good become death to me? Never may that happen! But sin did, that it might be shown as sin working out death for me through that which is good;^c that sin might become far more sinful through the commandment.^a 14 For we know that the Law is spiritual;^b but I am fleshly, sold under sin.^c 15 For what I am working out I do not know. For what I wish,* this I do not practice; but what I hate is what I do. 16 However, if what I do not wish is what I do,^d I agree that the Law is fine.^e 17 But now the one working it out is no longer I, but sin that resides in me.^f 18 For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, there dwells nothing good;^g for ability to wish^h is present with me, but ability to work outⁱ what is fine is not [present]. 19 For the good that I wish I do not do,^j but the bad that I do not wish is what I practice. 20 If, now, what I do not wish is what I do, the one working it out is no longer I, but the sin dwelling in me.^k

21 I find, then, this law in my case: that when I wish to do what is right,^l what is bad is present with me.^m 22 I really delightⁿ in the law of God according to the man^o I am within, 23 but I behold in my members^p another law warring^q against the law of my mind^r and leading me captive to sin's law^s that is in my members. 24 Miserable* man that I am! Who will rescue me from the body undergoing this death?^t 25 Thanks to God through Jesus Christ our Lord!^u So, then, with [my] mind I myself am a slave to God's law,^v but with [my] flesh to sin's law.^w

8 Therefore those in union with Christ Jesus have no condemnation.^x 2 For the law^y of that spirit^z which gives life^a in union with Christ Jesus has set you free^b from the law of sin and of death.^c 3 For, there being an incapability on the part of the Law,^d while it was weak^e through the flesh, God, by sending his own Son^f in the likeness of sinful flesh^g and concerning sin,^h condemned sin in the flesh, 4 that the righteous requirement of the Law might be fulfilled^a in us who walk, not in accord with the flesh, but in accord with the spirit.^b 5 For those who are in accord with the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh,^c but those in accord with the spirit on the things of the spirit.^d 6 For the minding of the flesh means death,^e but the minding of the spirit^f means life and peace; 7 because the minding of the flesh means enmity^g with God, for it is not under subjection^h to the law of God, nor, in fact, can it be. 8 So those who are in harmony with the fleshⁱ cannot please God.

9 However, you are in harmony, not with the flesh, but with the spirit,^j if God's spirit truly dwells in you.^k But if anyone does not have Christ's spirit,^l this one does not belong to him. 10 But if Christ is in union with you,^m the body indeed is dead on account of sin, but the spirit is lifeⁿ on account of righteousness. 11 If, now, the spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he that raised up Christ Jesus from the dead^o will also make your mortal bodies alive^p through his spirit that resides in you.

12 So, then, brothers, we are under obligation, not to the flesh to live in accord with the flesh;^q 13 for if you live in accord with the flesh you are sure to die;^r but if you put the practices of the body to death^s by the spirit, you will live. 14 For all who are led by God's spirit, these are God's sons.^t 15 For you did not receive a spirit of slavery causing fear^u again, but you received a spirit^v of adoption^w as sons,^x by which spirit we cry out: "Abba,"^y Father!" 16 The spirit^y itself bears witness^z with our spirit^a that we are God's children.^b 17 If, then, we are children, we are also heirs: heirs indeed of God, but joint heirs^c with Christ, provided we suffer^d together that we may also be glorified together.^e

sufferings^a of the present season do not amount to anything in comparison with the glory^b that is going to be revealed in us. 19 For the eager expectation^c of the creation^d is waiting for the revealing of the sons of God.^e 20 For the creation was subjected to futility,^f not by its own will but through him that subjected it, on the basis of hope^g 21 that^h the creation^b itself also will be set freeⁱ from enslavement to corruption and have the glorious freedom of the children of God. 22 For we know that all creation keeps on groaning together and being in pain together until now. 23 Not only that, but we ourselves also who have the firstfruits,^j namely, the spirit, yes, we ourselves groan^k within ourselves, while we are earnestly waiting for adoption as sons,^l the release from our bodies by ransom. 24 For we were saved in [this] hope;^m but hope that is seen is not hope, for when a man sees a thing, does he hope for it? 25 But if we hopeⁿ for what we do not see,^o we keep on waiting for it with endurance.^p

my brothers,^a my relatives according to the flesh,^b 4 who, as such, are Israelites,^c to whom belong the adoption as sons^d and the glory^e and the covenants^f and the giving of the Law^g and the sacred service^h and the promises;ⁱ 5 to whom the forefathers^j belong and from whom the Christ [sprang] according to the flesh:^k God,^l who is over all,^{*} [be] blessed forever. Amen.

6 However, it is not as though the word of God had failed.^m For not all who [spring] from Israel are really "Israel."ⁿ 7 Neither because they are Abraham's seed are they all children,^o but: "What will be called 'your seed' will be through Isaac."^p 8 That is, the children in the flesh^q are not really the children of God,^r but the children by the promise^s are counted as the seed. 9 For the word of promise was as follows: "At this time I will come and Sarah will have a son."^t 10 Yet not that case alone, but also when Re-bek'ah conceived twins^u from the one [man], Isaac our forefather: 11 for when they had not yet been born nor had practiced anything good or vile,^v in order that the purpose of God respecting the choosing might continue dependent, not upon works, but upon the One who calls,^w 12 it was said to her: "The older will be the slave of the younger."^x 13 Just as it is written: "I loved Jacob, but E'sau I hated."^y

14 What shall we say, then? Is there injustice with God?^z Never may that become so! 15 For he says to Moses: "I will have mercy upon whomever I do have mercy, and I will show compassion to whomever I do show compassion."^a 16 So, then, it depends, not upon the one wishing nor upon the one running, but upon God,^b who has mercy.^c 17 For the Scripture says to Phar'ah: "For this very cause I have let you remain,* that in connection with you I may show my power, and that my name may be declared in all the earth."^a

18 So, then, upon whom he wishes he has mercy,^b but whom he wishes he lets become obstinate.^c

19 You will therefore say to me: "Why does he yet find fault? For who has withstood his express will?"^d 20 O man,^e who, then, really are you to be answering back to God?^f Shall the thing molded say to him that molded it, "Why did you make me this way?"^g

21 What? Does not the potter^h have authority over the clay to make from the same lump one vessel for an honorable use, another for a dishonorable use?ⁱ 22 If, now, God, although having the will to demonstrate his wrath and to make his power known, tolerated with much long-suffering vessels of wrath made fit for destruction,^j 23 in order that he might make known the riches^k of his glory upon vessels^l of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory,^m 24 namely, us, whom he called not only from among Jews but also from among nations,ⁿ [what of it]? 25 It is as he says also in Ho-se'a: "Those not my people^o I will call 'my people,' and her who was not beloved 'beloved';^p 26 and in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' there they will be called 'sons of the living God.'"^q

27 Moreover, Isaiah cries out concerning Israel: "Although the number of the sons of Israel may be as the sand of the sea,^r it is the remnant that will be saved.^s 28 For Jehovah* will make an accounting on the earth, concluding it and cutting it short."^t 29 Also, just as Isaiah had said aforetime: "Unless Jehovah* of armies^u had left a seed to us, we should have become just like Sod'om, and we should have been made just like Go-mor'rah."^v

30 What shall we say, then? That people of the nations, although not pursuing righteousness, caught up with righteousness,^a the righteousness that results from faith;^b 31 but Israel, although pursuing a law of righteousness, did not attain to the law.^c 32 For what reason? Because he pursued it, not by faith, but as by works.^d They stumbled on the "stone of stumbling";^e 33 as it is written: "Look! I am laying in Zion a stone^f of stumbling and a rock-mass of offense,^g but he that rests his faith on it* will not come to disappointment."^h

10 Brothers, the goodwill of my heart and my supplication to God for them are, indeed, for their salvation.ⁱ 2 For I bear them witness* that they have a zeal^j for God; but not according to accurate knowledge;^k 3 for, because of not knowing the righteousness of God^l but seeking to establish their own,^m they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God.ⁿ 4 For Christ is the end* of the Law,^o so that everyone exercising faith may have righteousness.^p

5 For Moses writes that the man that has done the righteousness of the Law will live by it.^q 6 But the righteousness resulting from faith speaks in this manner: "Do not say in your heart,^r 'Who will ascend into heaven?'^s that is, to bring Christ^t down; 7 or, 'Who will descend into the abyss?'^u that is, to bring Christ up from the dead."^v 8 But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your own mouth and in your own heart";^w that is, the "word"^x of faith, which we are preaching.^y 9 For if you publicly declare that 'word in your own mouth,^z that Jesus is Lord,^{aa} and exercise faith in your heart that

God raised him up from the dead,^a you will be saved.^b 10 For with the heart^c one exercises faith for righteousness, but with the mouth one makes public declaration^d for salvation.

11 For the Scripture says: "None that rests^e his faith on him will be disappointed."^f 12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek,^g for there is the same Lord over all, who is rich^h to all those calling upon him. 13 For "everyone who calls on the name of Jehovahⁱ will be saved."^j 14 However, how will they call on him in whom they have not put faith?^j How, in turn, will they put faith in him of whom they have not heard? How, in turn, will they hear without someone to preach?^k 15 How, in turn, will they preach unless they have been sent forth?^l Just as it is written: "How comely are the feet of those who declare good news of good things!"^m

16 Nevertheless, they did not all obey the good news.ⁿ For Isaiah says: "Jehovah,^o who put faith in the thing heard from us?"^o 17 So faith follows the thing heard.^p In turn the thing heard is through the word about Christ.^q 18 Nevertheless I ask, They did not fail to hear, did they? Why, in fact, "into all the earth their sound went out,^r and to the extremities^s of the inhabited earth^t their utterances."^s 19 Nevertheless I ask, Israel did not fail to know, did they?^t First Moses says: "I will incite you people to jealousy through that which is not a nation; I will incite you to violent anger through a stupid nation."^u 20 But Isaiah becomes very bold and says: "I was found by those who were not seeking me;^v I became manifest to those who were not asking for me."^w 21 But as respects Israel he says: "All day long I have spread out my hands toward a people that is disobedient^x and talks back."^y

11 I ask, then, God did not reject his people, did he?^a Never may that happen! For I also am an Israelite,^b of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.^c 2 God did not reject his people, whom he first recognized.^d Why, do you not know what the Scripture says in connection with Eli'jah, as he pleads with God against Israel?^e 3 "Jehovah,^f they have killed your prophets, they have dug up your altars, and I alone am left, and they are looking for my soul."^g 4 Yet, what does the divine pronouncement^h say to him? "I have left seven thousand men over for myself, [men] who have not bent the knee to Ba'al."^h 5 In this way, therefore, at the present season also a remnantⁱ has turned up according to a choosing^j due to undeserved kindness. 6 Now if it is by undeserved kindness,^k it is no longer due to works;^l otherwise, the undeserved kindness no longer proves to be undeserved kindness.^m

7 What, then? The very thing Israel is earnestly seeking he did not obtain,ⁿ but the ones chosen^o obtained it. The rest had their sensibilities blunted;^p 8 just as it is written: "God^q has given them a spirit of deep sleep,^r eyes so as not to see and ears so as not to hear, down to this very day."^r 9 Also, David says: "Let their table^s become for them a snare and a trap and a stumbling block and a retribution;^s 10 let their eyes become darkened so as not to see, and always bow down their back."^t

11 Therefore I ask, Did they stumble so that they fell^u completely? Never may that happen! But by their false step^v there is salvation to people of the nations,^w to incite them to jealousy.^x 12 Now if their false step means riches to the world, and their decrease means riches to people of the nations,^y how much more will the full number^z of them mean it!

13 Now I speak to you who are people of the nations. Forasmuch as I am, in reality, an apostle^a to the nations,^b I glorify^c my ministry,^d 14 if I may by any means incite [those who are] my own flesh to jealousy and save^e some from among them.^f 15 For if the casting of them away^g means reconciliation^h for the world, what will the receiving of them mean but life from the dead? 16 Further, if the [part taken as] first-fruitsⁱ is holy, the lump is also; and if the root is holy,^j the branches are also.

17 However, if some of the branches were broken off but you, although being a wild olive, were grafted in among them^k and became a sharer of the olive's^l root of fatness,^m 18 do not be exulting over the branches. If, though, you are exulting over them,ⁿ it is not you that bear the root,^o but the root [bears] you.^p 19 You will say, then: "Branches were broken off^q that I might be grafted in."^r 20 All right! For [their] lack of faith^s they were broken off, but you are standing by faith.^t Quit having lofty ideas,^u but be in fear.^v 21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you.^w 22 See, therefore, God's kindness^x and severity.^y Toward those who fell there is severity,^z but toward you there is God's kindness; provided you remain^a in his kindness; otherwise, you also will be lopped off.^b 23 They also, if they do not remain in their lack of faith, will be grafted in;^c for God is able to graft them in again. 24 For if you were cut out of the olive tree that is wild by nature and were grafted^d contrary to nature into the garden olive tree, how much rather will these who are natural be grafted into their own olive tree!^e

25 For I do not want you, brothers, to be ignorant of this sacred secret,^f in order for you not to be discreet in your own eyes: that a dulling of sensibilities^g has happened in part to Israel until the full number^h of people of the nations has come in,ⁱ 26 and in this manner all Israel^j will be saved. Just as it is written: "The deliverer will come out of Zion^k and turn away ungodly practices from Jacob."^l 27 And this is the drink;^a for by doing this you will heap fiery coals upon his head."^b 21 Do not let yourself be conquered by the evil, but keep conquering the evil with the good.^c

13 Let every soul^{} be in subjection^d to the superior authorities,^e for there is no authority^f except by God;^g the existing authorities stand placed in their relative^h positionsⁱ by God.^j 2 Therefore he who opposes^{} the authority has taken a stand against the arrangement of God; those who have taken a stand against it will receive judgment to themselves.^j 3 For those ruling are an object of fear, not to the good deed, but to the bad.^k Do you, then, want to have no fear of the authority? Keep doing good,^l and you will have praise from it;^{} 4 for it^{} is God's minister^m to you for your good.^m But if you are doing what is bad,ⁿ be in fear: for it is not without purpose that it bears the sword; for it is God's minister, an avenger^o to express wrath upon the one practicing what is bad.

5 There is therefore compelling reason^{*} for YOU people to be in subjection, not only on account of that wrath but also on account of [YOUR] conscience.^p 6 For that is why YOU are also paying taxes; for they are God's public servants^{q} constantly serving this very purpose.^r 7 Render^{} to all their dues, to him who [calls for] the tax, the tax;^r to him who [calls for] the tribute, the tribute; to him who [calls for] fear, such fear;^s to him who [calls for] honor, such honor.^t

as all others;^a let each [man] be fully convinced in his own mind. 6 He who observes the day observes it to Jehovah.* Also, he who eats, eats to Jehovah,^b for he gives thanks to God;^c and he who does not eat does not eat to Jehovah,^{ad} and yet gives thanks to God.^e 7 None of us, in fact, lives with regard to himself only,^f and no one dies with regard to himself only; 8 for both if we live, we live to Jehovah,^g and if we die, we die to Jehovah.^h Therefore both if we live and if we die, we belong to Jehovah.^{ai} 9 For to this end Christ died and came to life again,^j that he might be Lord over both the dead^k and the living.^l

10 But why do you judge your brother?^m Or why do you also look down on your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgmentⁿ seat of God; 11 for it is written: "'As I live,' says Jehovah,^o 'to me every knee will bend down, and every tongue will make open acknowledgment to God.'"^p 12 So, then, each of us will render an account for himself to God.^q

13 Therefore let us not be judging^r one another any longer, but rather make this YOUR decision,^s not to put before a brother^t a stumbling block^u or a cause for tripping. 14 I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is defiled in itself;^v only where a man considers something to be defiled, to him it is defiled.^w 15 For if because of food your brother is being grieved, you are no longer walking in accord with love.^x Do not by your food ruin that one for whom Christ died.^y 16 Do not, therefore, let the good YOU people do be spoken of with injury to YOU. 17 For the kingdom of God^z does not mean* eating and drinking,^a but [means]^r righteousness^b and peace^c and joy^d with holy spirit. 18 For he who in this regard slaves for Christ is acceptable to God and has approval with men.^a

19 So, then, let us pursue the things making for peace^b and the things that are upbuilding to one another.^c

20 Stop tearing down the work of God just for the sake of food.^d True, all things are clean, but it is injurious to the man who with an occasion for stumbling eats.^e 21 It is well not to eat flesh or to drink wine or do anything over which your brother stumbles.^f 22 The faith that you have, have it in accord with yourself in the sight of God.^g Happy is the man that does not put himself on judgment by what he approves. 23 But if he has doubts, he is already condemned if he eats,^h because [he does] not [eat] out of faith. Indeed, everything that is not out of faith is sin.ⁱ

15 We, though, who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of those not strong,^j and not to be pleasing ourselves.^k 2 Let each of us please [his] neighbor in what is good for [his] upbuilding.^l 3 For even the Christ did not please himself;^m but just as it is written: "The reproaches of those who were reproaching you have fallen upon me."ⁿ 4 For all the things that were written aforetime were written^o for our instruction,^p that through our endurance^q and through the comfort^r from the Scriptures we might have hope.^s 5 Now may the God who supplies endurance and comfort grant you to have among yourselves the same mental attitude^t that Christ Jesus had, 6 that with one accord^u you may with one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Therefore welcome one another,^v just as the Christ also welcomed us,^w with glory to God in view. 8 For I say that Christ actually became a minister^x of those who are circumcised^y in behalf of God's truthfulness,^z so as to verify the promises^a He made to their forefathers, 9 and that the nations^b might glorify God for his mercy.^a Just as it is written: "That is why I will openly acknowledge you among the nations* and to your name I will make melody."^b 10 And again he says: "Be glad, you nations, with his people."^c 11 And again: "Praise Jehovah,* all you nations, and let all the peoples praise him."^d 12 And again Isaiah says: "There will be the root of Jes'se,^e and there will be one arising to rule nations;^f on him nations will rest their hope."^g 13 May the God who gives hope fill you with all joy and peace by your believing, that you may abound in hope with power of holy spirit.^h

14 Now I myself also am persuaded about you, my brothers, that you yourselves are also full of goodness, as you have been filled with all knowledge,ⁱ and that you can also admonish one another.^j 15 However, I am writing you the more outspokenly on some points, as if reminding^k you again, because of the undeserved kindness given to me from God^l 16 for me to be a public servant* of Christ Jesus to the nations,^m engaging in the holy work of the good newsⁿ of God, in order that the offering,^o namely, these nations, might prove to be acceptable,^p it being sanctified with holy spirit.^q

made it my aim not to declare the good news where Christ had already been named, in order that I might not be building on another man's foundation;^a 21 but, just as it is written: "Those to whom no announcement has been made about him will see, and those who have not heard will understand."^b

22 Therefore also I was many times hindered from getting to you.^c 23 But now that I no longer have [untouched] territory in these regions, and for some years having had a longing to get to you^d 24 whenever I am on my way to Spain,^e I hope, above all, when I am on the journey there, to get a look at you and to be escorted^f partway there by you after I have first in some measure been satisfied with your company. 25 But now I am about to journey to Jerusalem to minister to the holy ones.^g 26 For those in Mac-e-do'ni-a and A-cha'ia^h have been pleased to share up their things by a contributionⁱ to the poor of the holy ones in Jerusalem. 27 True, they have been pleased to do so, and yet they were debtors to them; for if the nations have shared in their spiritual things,^j they also owe it to minister publicly to these with things for the fleshly body.^k 28 Hence after I have finished with this and have got this fruit^l securely to them, I shall depart by way of you for Spain.^m 29 Moreover, I know that when I do come to you I shall come with a full measure of blessing from Christ.ⁿ

30 Now I exhort you, brothers,* through our Lord Jesus Christ and through the love of the spirit,^o that you exert yourselves with me in prayers to God for me,^p 31 that I may be delivered^q from the unbelievers in Jude'a and that my ministry which is for Jerusalem^r may prove to be acceptable to the holy ones,^s 32 so that when I get to you with joy by God's will I shall be refreshed^t together with you. 33 May the God who gives peace be with all of you.^u Amen.

THE FIRST TO THE CORINTHIANS

1 Paul, called to be an apostle^a of Jesus Christ through God's will,^b and Sos'the-nes^c our brother 2 to the congregation of God that is in Corinth,^d to you who have been sanctified^e in union with Christ Jesus, called to be holy ones,^f together with all who everywhere are calling upon the name^g of our Lord, Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:^h

3 May you have undeserved kindnessⁱ and peace^j from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ.^k

4 I always thank God for you in view of the undeserved kindness^l of God given to you in Christ Jesus;^m 5 that in everything you have been enrichedⁿ in him, in full ability to speak and in full knowledge,^o 6 even as the witness^{*} agreement,^a and that there should not be divisions^b among YOU, but that YOU may be fitly united in the same mind and in the same line of thought.^c 11 For the disclosure^d was made to me about YOU, my brothers, by those of [the house of] Chlo'e, that dissensions exist among YOU. 12 What I mean is this, that each one of YOU says: "I belong to Paul," "But I to A-pol'los,"^e "But I to Ce'phas," "But I to Christ." 13 The Christ exists divided.^f Paul was not impaled^g for YOU, was he? 18 For the speech about the torture stake is foolishnessⁿ to those who are perishing,^o but to us who are being saved^p it is God's power.^p 19 For it is written: "I will make the wisdom of the wise [men] perish,^q and the intelligence of the intellectual^r [men] I will shove aside."^s 20 Where is the wise man? 22 For both the Jews ask for signs^a and the Greeks look for wisdom;^b 23 but we preach Christ impaled,^c to the Jews a cause for stumbling^d but to the nations foolishness;^e 24 however, to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power^a of God and the wisdom^b of God. 25 Because a foolish thing^c of God is wiser than men, and a weak thing^d of God is stronger than men.^e

26 For YOU behold his calling of YOU, brothers, that not many wise^d in a fleshly way were called,^e not many powerful,^f not many of noble birth; 27 but God chose the foolish things of the world,^g that he might put the wise men to shame; and God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put the strong things to shame;^h 28 and God chose the ignoble things of the world and the things looked down upon, the things that are not,ⁱ that he might bring to nothing^j the things that are, 29 in order that no flesh might boast^k in the sight of God. 30 But it is due to him that YOU are in union with Christ Jesus, who has become to us wisdom^l from God, also righteousness^m and sanctificationⁿ and release by ransom;^o 31 that it may be just as it is written: "He that boasts, let him boast in Jehovah."^p

2 And so I, when I came to YOU, brothers, did not come with an extravagance^q of speech^r or of wisdom declaring the sacred secret^s of God to YOU. 2 For I decided not to know anything among YOU except Jesus Christ,^t and him impaled. 3 And I came to YOU in weakness and in fear and with much trembling;^u 4 and my speech and what I preached were not with persuasive words of wisdom but with a demonstration of spirit and power,^v 5 that YOUR faith might be, not in men's wisdom,^w but in God's power.^x

6 Now we speak wisdom among those who are mature,^y but not the wisdom^z of this system of things nor that of the rulers of this system of things,^{aa} who are to come to nothing.^a 7 But we speak God's wisdom in a sacred secret,^b the hidden wisdom, which God foreordained before the systems^a of things^{*} for our glory. 8 This [wisdom] not one of the rulers^b of this system of things came to know,^c for if they had known [it] they would not have impaled^d the glorious Lord. 9 But just as it is written: "Eye has not seen and ear has not heard, neither have there been conceived in the heart of man the things that God has prepared for those who love him."^e 10 For it is to us God has revealed^f them through his spirit,^g for the spirit^h searches into all things, even the deepⁱ things of God.

11 For who among men knows the things of a man except the spirit^j of man that is in him? So, too, no one has come to know the things of God, except the spirit^k of God. 12 Now we received, not the spirit^l of the world, but the spirit^m which is from God, that we might know the things that have been kindly given us by God.ⁿ 13 These things we also speak, not with words taught by human wisdom,^o but with those taught by [the] spirit,^p as we combine spiritual [matters] with spiritual [words].^q

14 But a physical^{} man does not receive the things of the spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; and he cannot get to know [them],^r because they are examined spiritually. 15 However, the spiritual^s man^{} examines indeed all things, but he himself is not examined^t by any man. 16 For "who has come to know the mind of Jehovah,^u that he may instruct him?"^v But we do have the mind^w of Christ.^x

3 And so, brothers, I was not able to speak to YOU as to spiritual men,^x but as to fleshly men, as to babes^y in Christ. 2 I fed YOU milk, not something to eat,^z for YOU were not yet strong enough. In fact, neither are YOU strong enough now,^a 3 for YOU are yet fleshly.^b For whereas there are jealousy and strife among YOU,^c are YOU not fleshly and are YOU not walking as men do?^d 4 For when one says: "I belong to Paul," but another says: "I to A-pol'los,"^e are you not simply men?

5 What, then, is A-pol'los?^f Yes, what is Paul? Ministers^g through whom you became believers, even as the Lord granted each one. 6 I planted,^h A-pol'los watered,ⁱ but God kept making [it] grow;^j 7 so that neither is he that plants anything^k nor is he that waters, but God who makes [it] grow.^l 8 Now he that plants and he that waters are one,^m but each [person] will receive his own reward according to his own labor.ⁿ 9 For we are God's fellow workers.^o You people are God's field under cultivation,^p God's building.^q

10 According to the undeserved kindness^r of God that was given to me, as a wise director of works I laid a foundation,^s but someone else is building on it. But let each one keep watching how he is building on it.^t 11 For no man can lay any other foundation^u than what is laid, which is Jesus Christ.^v 12 Now if anyone builds on the foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood materials, hay, stubble, 13 each one's work will become manifest, for the day will show it up, because it will be revealed by means of fire;^w and the fire itself will prove what sort of work each one's is. 14 If anyone's work that he has built on it remains,^x he will receive a reward;^y 15 if anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved;^z yet, if so, [it will be] as through fire.^a

16 Do you not know that you people are God's temple,*^a and that the spirit of God dwells in you?^b 17 If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him;^c for the temple of God is holy,^d which [temple]^e you people are.^f

18 Let no one be seducing himself: If anyone among you thinks he is wise^g in this system of things,* let him become a fool, that he may become wise.^h

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God;ⁱ for it is written: "He catches the wise in their own cunning."^j

20 And again: "Jehovah* knows that the reasonings of the wise men are futile."^k

21 Hence let no one be boasting in men; for all things belong to you,^l 22 whether Paul or A-pol'los^m or Ce'phas or the world or life or death or things now here or things to come,ⁿ all things belong to you; 23 in turn you belong to Christ;^o Christ, in turn, belongs to God.^p

4 Let a man so appraise us as being subordinates*^q of Christ and stewards^r of sacred secrets^s of God. 2 Besides, in this case, what is looked for in stewards*^t is for a man to be found faithful.^u 3 Now to me it is a very trivial matter that I should be examined by you or by a human tribunal.^v Even I do not examine myself. 4 For I am not conscious^w of anything against myself. Yet by this I am not proved righteous, but he that examines me is Jehovah.^x 5 Hence do not judge^y anything before the due time, until the Lord comes,^z who will both bring the secret things of darkness to light^a and make the counsels of the hearts manifest,^b and then each one will have his praise come to him* from God.^c

fermented cakes of sincerity and truth.^a

9 In my letter I wrote you to quit mixing in company with fornicators, 10 not [meaning] entirely with the fornicators^b of this world^c or the greedy persons and extortioners or idolaters. Otherwise, you would actually have to get out of the world.^d 11 But now I am writing you to quit mixing in company^e with* anyone called a brother that is a fornicator or a greedy^f person or an idolater or a reviler or a drunkard^g or an extortioner, not even eating with such a man. 12 For what do I have to do with judging those outside?^h Do you not judge those inside,ⁱ 13 while God judges those outside?^j "Remove the wicked [man] from among yourselves."^k

6 Does anyone of you that has a case^l against the other dare to go to court before unrighteous men,^m and not before the holy ones?ⁿ 2 Or do you not know that the holy ones will judge^o the world?^p And if the world is to be judged by you, are you unfit to try very trivial^q matters? 3 Do you not know that we shall judge angels?^r Why, then, not matters of this life? 4 If, then, you do have matters of this life to be tried,^s is it the men looked down upon in the congregation that you put in as judges?^t 5 I am speaking to move you to shame.^u Is it true that there is not one wise man^v among you that will be able to judge between his brothers, 6 but brother goes to court with brother, and that before unbelievers?^w

7 Really, then, it means altogether a defeat for you that you are having lawsuits^x with one another. Why do you not rather let yourselves be wronged?^y Why do you not rather let yourselves be defrauded?^z 8 To the contrary, you wrong and defraud, and your brothers at that.^a have from God? Also, YOU do not belong to yourselves,^a 20 for YOU were bought with a price.^b By all means, glorify God^c in the body^d of YOU people.

7 Now concerning the things about which YOU wrote, it is well for a man not to touch^e a woman; 2 yet, because of prevalence of fornication,^f let each man have his own wife^g and each woman have her own husband. 3 Let the husband render to [his] wife her due;^h but let the wife also do likewise to [her] husband.ⁱ 4 The wife does not exercise authority over her own body, but her husband does;^j likewise, also, the husband does not exercise authority over his own body, but his wife does.^k 5 Do not be depriving each other [of it],^l except by mutual consent for an appointed time,^m that YOU may devote time to prayer and may come together again, that Satan may not keep temptingⁿ YOU for YOUR lack of self-regulation.^o 6 However, I say this by way of concession,^p not in the way of a command.^q 7 But I wish all men were as I myself am.^r Nevertheless, each one has his own gift^s from God, one in this way, another in that way.

8 Now I say to the unmarried persons^t and the widows, it is well for them that they remain even as I am.^u 9 But if they do not have self-control,^v let them marry, for it is better to marry^w than to be inflamed [with passion].^x

10 To the married people I give instructions, yet not I but the Lord,^y that a wife should not depart from her husband;^z 11 but if she should actually depart, let her remain unmarried or else make up again with her husband; and a husband should not leave his wife.

12 But to the others I say, yes, I, not the Lord:^a If any brother has an unbelieving wife, and yet she is agreeable to dwelling with him, let him not leave us, that it is well for a man to continue as he is.^a 27 Are you bound to a wife?^b Stop seeking a release.^c Are you loosed from a wife? Stop seeking a wife. 28 But even if you did marry, you would commit no sin.^d And if a virgin [person] married, such one would commit no sin. However, those who do will have tribulation in their flesh.^e But I am sparing YOU.

29 Moreover, this I say, brothers, the time left is reduced.^f Henceforth let those who have wives be as though they had none,^g 30 and also those who weep be as those who do not weep, and those who rejoice as those who do not rejoice, and those who buy as those not possessing, 31 and those making use of the world^h as those not using it to the full; for the scene of this world is changing.ⁱ 32 Indeed, I want YOU to be free from anxiety.^j The unmarried man is anxious for the things of the Lord, how he may gain the Lord's approval. 33 But the married man is anxious^k for the things of the world, how he may gain the approval of his wife,^l 34 and he is divided. Further, the unmarried woman, and the virgin, is anxious for the things of the Lord,^m that she may be holy both in her body and in her spirit. However, the married woman is anxious for the things of the world, how she may gain the approval of her husband.ⁿ 35 But this I am saying for YOUR personal advantage, not that I may cast a noose upon YOU, but to move YOU to that which is becoming^o and that which means constant attendance upon the Lord without distraction.^p

36 But if anyone thinks he is behaving improperly toward his virginity,^q if that^r is past the bloom of youth,^a and this is the way it should take place, let him do what he wants; he does not sin. Let them marry.^r 37 But if anyone stands settled in his heart, having no necessity, but has authority over his own will and has made this decision in his own heart, to keep his own virginity, he will do well.^a 38 Consequently he also that gives his virginity in marriage does well,^b but he that does not give it* in marriage will do better.^c

39 A wife is bound during all the time her husband is alive.^d But if her husband should fall asleep [in death], she is free to be married to whom she wants, only in* [the] Lord.^e 40 But she is happier if she remains as she is,^f according to my opinion. I certainly think I also have God's spirit.^g

8 Now concerning foods offered to idols:^h we know we all have knowledge.ⁱ Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.^j 2 If anyone thinks he has acquired knowledge of something,^k he does not yet know [it] just as he ought to know [it].^l 3 But if anyone loves God,^m this one is known by him.ⁿ

4 Now concerning the eating^o of foods offered to idols, we know that an idol is nothing^p in the world,^q and that there is no God but one.^r 5 For even though there are those who are called "gods,"^s whether in heaven^t or on earth,^u just as there are many "gods" and many "lords,"^v 6 there is actually to us one God^w the Father,^x out of whom all things are, and we for him;^y and there is one Lord,^z Jesus Christ,^{aa} through whom all things are,^{ab} and we through him.

7 Nevertheless, there is not this knowledge in all persons;^{ac} but some, being accustomed until now to the idol, eat food as something sacrificed to an idol,^{ad} and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.^{ae} 8 But food will not commend us to God;^{af} if we do not eat, we do not fall short, and, if we eat, we have no credit to ourselves.^{ag} 9 But keep watching that this authority of YOURS does not somehow become a stumbling block to those who are weak.^{ah} 10 For

if anyone should see you, the one having knowledge, reclining at a meal in an idol temple,^a will not the conscience of that one who is weak be built up to the point of eating foods offered to idols?^a 11 Really, by your knowledge, the man that is weak is being ruined, [your] brother for whose sake Christ died.^b 12 But when YOU people thus sin against YOUR brothers and wound their conscience^c that is weak, YOU are sinning against Christ. 13 Therefore, if food makes my brother stumble,^d I will never again eat flesh at all, that I may not make my brother stumble.^e

9 Am I not free?^f Am I not an apostle?^g Have I not seen Jesus our Lord?^h Are not YOU my work in [the] Lord?ⁱ 2 If I am not an apostle to others, I most certainly am to YOU, for YOU are the seal confirming^j my apostleship in relation to [the] Lord.

3 My defense to those who examine me is as follows:^j 4 We have authority to eat^k and drink, do we not? 5 We have authority to lead about a sister as a wife,^l even as the rest of the apostles and the Lord's brothers^m and Ce'phas,ⁿ do we not? 6 Or is it only Bar'na-bas^o and I that do not have authority to refrain from [secular] work?^p 7 Who is it that ever serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit?^q Or who shepherds a flock and does not eat some of the milk of the flock?^r

8 Am I speaking these things by human standards?^s Or does not the Law^t also say these things? 9 For in the law of Moses it is written: "You must not muzzle a bull when it is threshing out the grain."^u Is it bulls God is caring for? 10 Or is it altogether for our sakes he says it? Really for our sakes it was written,^v because the man who plows ought to plow in hope and the man who threshes ought to do so in hope of being a partaker.^w

to you, is it something great if we shall reap things for the flesh from you?^a 12 If other men partake of this authority over you,^b do we not much more so? Nevertheless, we have not made use of this authority,^c but we are bearing all things, in order that we might not offer any hindrance to the good news^d about the Christ. 13 Do you not know that the men performing sacred duties eat^e the things of the temple, and those constantly attending^f at the altar have a portion for themselves with the altar?

14 In this way, too, the Lord ordained^g for those proclaiming the good news to live by means of the good news.^h

15 But I have not made use of a single one of these [provisions].ⁱ Indeed, I have not written these things that it should become so in my case, for it would be finer for me to die than—no man is going to make my reason for boasting^j void! 16 If, now, I am declaring the good news,^k it is no reason for me to boast, for necessity^l is laid upon me. Really, woe^m is me if I did not declare the good news! 17 If I perform this willingly,ⁿ I have a reward;^o but if I do it against my will, all the same I have a stewardship^p entrusted to me. 18 What, then, is my reward? That while declaring the good news I may furnish the good news without cost,^q to the end that I may not abuse my authority in the good news.

19 For, though I am free from all persons, I have made myself the slave^r to all, that I may gain^s the most persons. 20 And so to the Jews I became as a Jew,^t that I might gain Jews; to those under law I became as under law,^u though I myself am not under law,^v that I might gain those under law. 21 To those without law^w I became as without law,^x although I am not without law toward God but under law^y toward Christ,^z that I might gain those without law. 22 To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak.^a I have become all things to people of all sorts,^b that I might by all means save some. 23 But I do all things for the sake of the good news, that I may become a sharer^a of it with [others].

24 Do you not know that the runners^b in a race all run, but only one receives the prize?^c Run^d in such a way that you may attain it.^e 25 Moreover, every man taking part in a contest exercises self-control^f in all things. Now they, of course, do it that they may get a corruptible crown,^g but we an incorruptible one.^h 26 Therefore, the way I am runningⁱ is not uncertainly; the way I am directing my blows is so as not to be striking the air;^j 27 but I pummel my body^k and lead it as a slave, that, after I have preached to others, I myself should not become disapproved^l somehow.

10 Now I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that our forefathers were all under the cloud^m and all passed through the seaⁿ 2 and all got baptized into Moses^o by means of the cloud and of the sea; 3 and all ate the same^p spiritual food^q 4 and all drank the same spiritual drink.^r For they used to drink from the spiritual rock-mass^s that followed them, and that rock-mass^s meant^t the Christ.^u 5 Nevertheless, on most of them God did not express his approval,^v for they were laid low^v in the wilderness.

6 Now these things became our examples,^w for us not to be persons desiring injurious things,^w even as they desired them. 7 Neither become idolaters, as some of them did;^x just as it is written: "The people sat down to eat and drink, and they got up to have a good time."^y 8 Neither let us practice fornication, as some of them committed fornication,^z only to fall, twenty-three thousand [of them] in one day.^a 9 Neither let us put Jehovah^b to the test, as some of them put [him] to the test,^a only to perish by the serpents.^b 10 Neither be murmurers, just as some of them murmured,^c only to perish by the destroyer.^d 11 Now these things went on befalling them as examples,^e and they were written for a warning^f to us upon whom the ends^g of the systems of things^h have arrived.

12 Consequently let him that thinks he is standing beware that he does not fall.^s 13 No temptation has taken you except what is common to men.^h But God is faithful,ⁱ and he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear,^j but along with the temptation he will also make the way out^k in order for you to be able to endure it.

14 Therefore, my beloved ones, flee^l from idolatry.^m 15 I speak as to men with discernment;ⁿ judge for yourselves what I say. 16 The cup^o of blessing which we bless, is it not a sharing in the blood of the Christ? The loaf which we break,^p is it not a sharing in the body of the Christ?^q 17 Because there is one loaf, we, although many,^r are one body,^s for we are all partaking of that one loaf.^t

18 LOOK at that which is Israel in a fleshly way:^u Are not those who eat the sacrifices sharers with^v the altar?^w 19 What, then, am I to say? That what is sacrificed to an idol is anything, or that an idol is anything?^x 20 No; but I say that the things which the nations^y sacrifice they sacrifice to demons,^z and not to God; and I do not want you to become sharers with the demons.^{aa} 21 You cannot be drinking the cup of Jehovah^{ab} and the cup of demons; you cannot be partaking of "the table of Jehovah"^{ac} and the table of demons. 22 Or "are we inciting Jehovah^{ad} to jealousy"?^a We are not stronger^b than he is, are we?

23 All things are lawful; but not all things are advantageous.^c All things are lawful;^d but not all things build up.^e

24 Let each one keep seeking, not his own [advantage],^f but that of the other person.^g

25 Everything that is sold in a meat market keep eating,^h making no inquiry on account of your conscience;ⁱ

26 for "to Jehovah^j belong the earth and that which fills it."^k 27 If anyone of the unbelievers invites you and you wish to go, proceed to eat everything that is set before you,^l making no inquiry on account of your conscience.^m

28 But if anyone should say to you: "This is something offered in sacrifice," do not eat on account of the one that disclosed it and on account of conscience.ⁿ 29 "Conscience," I say, not your own, but that of the other person.

For why should it be that my freedom is judged by another person's conscience?^o 30 If I am partaking with thanks, why am I to be spoken of abusively over that for which I give thanks?^p

31 Therefore, whether you are eating or drinking or doing anything else, do all things for God's glory.^q 32 Keep from becoming causes for stumbling^r to Jews as well as Greeks and to the congregation of God, 33 even as I am pleasing all people in all things,^s not seeking my own advantage^t but that of the many, in order that they might get saved.^u

11 Become imitators of me, even as I am of Christ.^v

2 Now I commend you because in all things you have me in mind and you are holding fast the traditions^w just as I handed [them] on to you. 3 But I want you to know that the head of every man is the Christ;^x in turn the head of a woman is the man;^y in turn the head of the Christ is God.^a 4 Every man that prays or prophesies having something on his head shames his head;^b 5 but every woman that prays or prophesies^c with her head uncovered* shames her head,^d for it is one and the same as if she were a [woman] with a shaved head.^e 6 For if a woman does not cover herself, let her also be shorn; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to be shorn or shaved,^f let her be covered.^g

7 For a man ought not to have his head covered, as he is God's image^h and glory;ⁱ but the woman is man's glory.^j 8 For man is not out of* woman, but woman out of^k man;^k 9 and, what is more, man was not created for the sake of the woman, but woman for the sake of the man.^l 10 That is why the woman ought to have a sign of authority* upon her head^m because of the angels.ⁿ

11 Besides, in connection with [the] Lord neither is woman without man nor man without woman.^o 12 For just as the woman is out of the man,^p so also the man is through the woman;^q but all things are out of God.^r 13 Judge for YOUR own selves: Is it fitting for a woman to pray uncovered to God? 14 Does not nature itself teach YOU that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him; 15 but if a woman has long hair, it is a glory^s to her? Because her hair is given her instead of a headdress.^t 16 However, if any man seems to dispute^u for some other custom,^v we have no other, neither do the congregations of God.

17 But, while giving these instructions, I do not commend YOU because it is, not for the better, but for the worse that YOU meet together.^w 18 For first of all, when YOU come together in a congregation, I hear* divisions* exist among YOU;^x and in some measure I believe it. 19 For there must also be sects^y

among YOU, that the persons approved may also become manifest among YOU.^a

20 Therefore, when you come together to one place, it is not possible to eat* the Lord's evening meal.^b

21 For, when YOU eat [it],* each one takes his own evening meal beforehand, so that one is hungry but another is intoxicated. 22 Certainly you do have houses for eating and drinking, do YOU not?^c Or do YOU despise the congregation of God and make those who have nothing^d ashamed? What shall I say to you? Shall I commend you? In this I do not commend you.

23 For I received from the Lord* that which I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus in the night^e in which he was going to be handed over took a loaf

24 and, after giving thanks, he broke it^f and said: "This means* my body^g which is in YOUR behalf. Keep doing this in remembrance^h of me." 25 He did likewise respecting the cupⁱ also, after he had the evening meal, saying: "This cup means the new covenant^j by virtue of my blood.^k Keep doing this, as often as YOU drink it, in remembrance^l of me." 26 For as often^m as YOU eat this loaf and drink this cup, you keep proclaiming the deathⁿ of the Lord, until he arrives.^o

27 Consequently whoever eats the loaf or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily will be guilty^p respecting the body and the blood^q of the Lord. 28 First let a man approve himself after scrutiny,^r and thus let him eat of the loaf and drink of the cup. 29 For he that eats and drinks eats and drinks judgment^s against himself if he does not discern the body. 30 That is why many among you are weak and sickly, and quite a few are sleeping^t [in death]. 31 But if we would discern what we ourselves are, we would not be judged.^u 32 However, when we are judged,^v we are disciplined by Jehovah,^w that we may not become condemned^a with the world.^b 33 Consequently, my brothers, when YOU come together to eat [it],^c wait for one another. 34 If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home,^d that YOU may not come together for judgment.^e But the remaining matters I will set in order when I get there.

12 Now concerning the spiritual gifts,^f brothers, I do not want YOU to be ignorant. 2 You know that when YOU were people of the nations,^g YOU were being led away to those voiceless^h idolsⁱ just as YOU happened to be led. 3 Therefore I would have YOU know that nobody when speaking by God's spirit says: "Jesus is accursed!"^j and nobody can say: "Jesus is Lord!" except by holy spirit.^k

4 Now there are varieties of gifts,^l but there is the same spirit;^m 5 and there are varieties of ministries,ⁿ and yet there is the same Lord;^o 6 and there are varieties of operations,^p and yet it is the same God^q who performs all the operations in all persons.^r 7 But the manifestation of the spirit is given to each one for a beneficial purpose.^s 8 For example, to one there is given through the spirit speech of wisdom,^t to another speech of knowledge^u according to the same spirit, 9 to another faith^v by the same spirit, to another gifts of healings^w by that one spirit, 10 to yet another operations of powerful works,^x to another prophesying,^y to another discernment^z of inspired utterances,^{aa} to another different tongues,^b and to another interpretation^c of tongues. 11 But all these operations the one and the same spirit performs,^d making a distribution^e to each one respectively just as it wills.^f are one body,^a so also is the Christ.^b 13 For truly by one spirit we were all baptized^c into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink^d one spirit.

12 For just as the body is one but has many members, and all the members of that body, although being many,

14 For the body, indeed, is not one member, but many.^e 15 If the foot should say: "Because I am not a hand, I am no part of the body," it is not for this reason no part of the body.^f 16 And if the ear should say: "Because I am not an eye, I am no part of the body," it is not for this reason no part of the body.^g 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the [sense of] hearing be? If it were all hearing, where would the smelling be? 18 But now God has set the members in the body, each one of them, just as he pleased.^h

19 If they were all one member,ⁱ where would the body be? 20 But now they are many members,^j yet one body. 21 The eye cannot say to the hand: "I have no need of you"; or, again, the head [cannot say] to the feet: "I have no need of you." 22 But much rather is it the case that the members of the body which seem to be weaker^k are necessary, 23 and the parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, these we surround with more abundant honor,^l and so our unseemly parts have the more abundant comeliness, 24 whereas our comely parts do not need anything. Nevertheless, God compounded^m the body, giving honor more abundant to the part which had a lack, 25 so that there should be no divisionⁿ in the body, but that its members should have the same care for one another.^o 26 And if one member suffers, all the other members suffer^p with it; or if a member is glorified,^q all the other members rejoice with it.^p

27 Now YOU are Christ's body, and members individually.^q 28 And God has set the respective ones in the congregation,^r first, apostles;^s second, prophets;^a third, teachers;^b then powerful works;^c then gifts of healings;^d helpful services,^e abilities to direct,^f different tongues.^g 29 Not all are apostles, are they? Not all are prophets, are they? Not all are teachers, are they? Not all perform powerful works, do they?^h 30 Not all have gifts of healings, do they? Not all speak in tongues,ⁱ do they? Not all are translators,^j are they? 31 But keep zealously seeking the greater* gifts.^j And yet I show YOU a surpassing way.^k

13 If I speak in the tongues^l of men and of angels but do not have love, I have become a sounding [piece of] brass or a clashing cymbal.^m 2 And if I have the gift of prophesyingⁿ and am acquainted with all the sacred secrets^o and all knowledge,^p and if I have all the faith so as to transplant* mountains,^q but do not have love, I am nothing.^r 3 And if I give all my belongings to feed others,^s and if I hand over my body,^t that I may boast, but do not have love,^u I am not profited at all.

4 Love*^v is long-suffering* and kind.* Love is not jealous,^y it does not brag,^z does not get puffed up,^a 5 does not behave indecently,^b does not look for its own interests,^c does not become provoked.^d It does not keep account of the injury.^e 6 It does not rejoice over unrighteousness,^f but rejoices with the truth.^g 7 It bears all things,^h believes all things,ⁱ hopes all things,^j endures all things.^k

8 Love never fails.^l But whether there are [gifts of] prophesying, they will be done away with; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will be done away with.^m 9 For we have partial knowledgeⁿ and we prophesy partially;^o 10 but when that which is complete arrives,^p that which is partial will be done away with. 11 When I was a babe, I used to speak as a babe, to think as a babe, to reason as a babe; but now that I have become a man,^a I have done away with the [traits] of a babe. 12 For at present we see in hazy outline* by means of a metal mirror,^b but then it will be face to face.^c At present I know partially,^d but then I shall know accurately even as I am accurately known.^d 13 Now, however, there remain faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.*^e

14 Pursue love, yet keep zealously seeking the spiritual gifts,^f but preferably that YOU may prophesy.^g 2 For he that speaks in a tongue speaks, not to men, but to God, for no one listens,^h but he speaks sacred secretsⁱ by the spirit. 3 However, he that prophesies upbuilds^j and encourages and consoles men by his speech. 4 He that speaks in a tongue upbuilds himself, but he that prophesies upbuilds a congregation. 5 Now I would like for all of YOU to speak in tongues,^k but I prefer that YOU prophesy.^l Indeed, he that prophesies is greater than he that speaks in tongues,^m unless, in fact, he translates, that the congregation may receive upbuilding. 6 But at this time, brothers, if I should come speaking to YOU in tongues, what good would I do YOU unless I spoke to you either with a revelation*ⁿ or with knowledge^o or with a prophecy or with a teaching?

7 As it is, the inanimate things* give off sound,^p whether a flute or a harp; unless it makes an interval to the tones, how will it be known what is being played on the flute or on the harp? 8 For truly, if the trumpet sounds an indistinct call, who will get ready for battle?^q 9 In the same way also, unless YOU through the tongue utter speech easily understood,^a how will it be known what is being spoken? You will, in fact, be speaking into the air.^b 10 It may be that there are so many kinds of speech sounds in the world, and yet no [kind] is without meaning. 11 If, then, I do not understand the force of the speech sound, I shall be a foreigner^c to the one speaking, and the one speaking will be a foreigner to me. 12 So also you yourselves, since you are zealously desirous of [gifts of the] spirit,^d seek to abound in them for the upbuilding of the congregation.^e

13 Therefore let the one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may translate.^f

14 For if I am praying in a tongue, it is my [gift of the] spirit that is praying,^g but my mind is unfruitful. 15 What is to be done, then? I will pray with the [gift of the] spirit, but I will also pray with [my] mind. I will sing praise^h with the [gift of the] spirit, but I will also sing praise with [my] mind.ⁱ 16 Otherwise, if you offer praise with a [gift of the] spirit, how will the man occupying the seat of the ordinary person say "Amen" to your giving of thanks, since he does not know what you are saying? 17 True, you give thanks in a fine way, but the other man is not being built up.^k 18 I thank God, I speak in more tongues than all of you do.^l 19 Nevertheless, in a congregation I would rather speak five words with my mind, that I might also instruct others orally, than ten thousand words in a tongue.^m

20 Brothers, do not become young children in powers of understanding,ⁿ but be babes as to badness;^o yet become full-grown in powers of understanding.^p 21 In the Law it is written: "With the tongues of foreigners and with the lips of strangers"^q I will speak to this people,^r and yet not even then will they give heed to me," says Jehovah."^s 22 Consequently tongues are for a sign,^t not to the believers, but to the unbelievers,^u whereas prophesying is, not for the unbelievers, but for the believers.^v

23 Therefore, if the whole congregation comes together to one place and they all speak in tongues,^a but ordinary people or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are mad? 24 But if you are all prophesying and any unbeliever or ordinary person comes in, he is reproved by them all,^b he is closely examined by all; 25 the secrets of his heart become manifest,^c so that he will fall upon [his] face* and worship God, declaring: "God is really among you."^d

26 What is to be done, then, brothers? When you come together, one has a psalm,* another has a teaching, another has a revelation, another has a tongue, another has an interpretation.^e Let all things take place for upbuilding.^f 27 And if someone speaks in a tongue, let it be limited to two or three at the most, and in turns; and let someone translate.^g 28 But if there be no translator, let him keep silent in the congregation and speak to himself^h and to God. 29 Further, let two or three prophetsⁱ speak, and let the others discern the meaning.^j 30 But if there is a revelation to another^k one while sitting there, let the first one keep silent. 31 For you can all prophesy^l one by one, that all may learn and all be encouraged.^m 32 And [gifts of] the spirit* of the prophets are to be controlled by the prophets. 33* For God is [a God], not of disorder,ⁿ but of peace.^o

As in all the congregations of the holy ones, 34 let the women keep silent^p in the congregations, for it is not permitted for them to speak, but let them be in subjection,^q even as the Law^r says. 35 If, then, they want to learn something, let them question their own husbands at home, for it is disgraceful^s for a woman to speak in a congregation.

36 What? Was it from you that the word of God came forth,^t or was it only as far as you that it reached?

37 If anyone thinks he is a prophet or gifted with the spirit,* let him acknowledge the things I am writing to you, because* they are the Lord's commandment.^a 38 But if anyone is ignorant, he continues ignorant. 39 Consequently, my brothers, keep zealously seeking the prophesying,^b and yet do not forbid the speaking in tongues.^c 40 But let all things take place decently and by arrangement.^d

15 Now I make known to you, brothers, the good news^e which I declared to you,^f which you also received, in which you also stand,^g 2 through which you are also being saved,^h with the speech with which I declared the good news to you, if you are holding it fast, unless, in fact, you became believers to no purpose.ⁱ

3 For I handed on to you, among the first things, that which I also received,^j that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures;^k 4 and that he was buried,^l yes, that he has been raised^m up the third dayⁿ according to the Scriptures;^o 5 and that he appeared to Ce'phas,^p then to the twelve.^q 6 After that he appeared to upward of five hundred brothers at one time, the most of whom remain to the present,^r but some have fallen asleep [in death]. 7 After that he appeared to James,^s then to all the apostles;^t 8 but last of all he appeared also to me^u as if to one born prematurely.*

9 For I am the least^v of the apostles, and I am not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted^w the congregation of God. 10 But by God's undeserved kindness^x I am what I am. And his undeserved kindness that was toward me did not prove to be in vain,^y but I labored in excess of them all,^z yet not I but the undeserved kindness of God that is with me.^a 11 However, whether it is I or they, so we are preaching and so you have believed.^b dead,^a how is it some among you say there is no resurrection* of the dead?^b 13 If, indeed, there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised up.^c 14 But if Christ has not been raised up, our preaching is certainly in vain, and our faith is in vain.^d 15 Moreover, we are also found false witnesses of God,^e because we have borne witness^f against God that he raised up the Christ,^g but whom he did not raise up if the dead are really not to be raised up.^h 16 For if the dead are not to be raised up, neither has Christ been raised up. 17 Further, if Christ has not been raised up, your faith is useless; you are yet in your sins.ⁱ 18 In fact, also, those who fell asleep [in death] in union^j with Christ perished.^k — 19 If in this life only we have hoped in Christ,^l we are of all men most to be pitied.

20 However, now Christ has been raised up from the dead,^m the firstfruitsⁿ of those who have fallen asleep [in death].^o 21 For since death^p is through a man, resurrection^q of the dead is also through a man. 22 For just as in Adam all are dying,^r so also in the Christ all will be made alive.^s 23 But each one in his own rank: Christ the firstfruits,^t afterward those who belong to the Christ during his presence.^u 24 Next, the end,^{} when he hands over the kingdom to his God and Father, when he has brought to nothing all government and all authority and power.^v 25 For he must rule as king until [God] has put all enemies under his feet.^w 26 As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing.^{} 27 For [God] "subjected all things under his feet."^y But when he says that 'all things have been subjected,'^z it is evident that it is with the exception of the one who subjected all things to him.^a

28 But when all things will have been subjected to him,^a then the Son himself will also subject himself* to the One^b who subjected all things to him, that God may be all things to everyone.^c

29 Otherwise, what will they do who are being baptized for the purpose of* [being] dead ones?^d If the dead are not to be raised up at all,^e why are they also being baptized^f for the purpose of [being] such? 30 Why are we also in peril every hour?^g 31 Daily I face death.^h This I affirm by the exultationⁱ over you, brothers, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. 32 If, like men,* I have fought with wild beasts at Eph'e-sus,^j of what good is it to me? If the dead are not to be raised up, "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we are to die."^k 33 Do not be misled. Bad associations spoil* useful habits.^l

34 Wake up to soberness^m in a righteous way and do not practice sin, for some are without knowledge of God.ⁿ I am speaking to move you to shame.^o

35 Nevertheless, someone will say: "How are the dead to be raised up? Yes, with what sort of body are they coming?"^p 36 You unreasonable person! What you sow is not made alive unless first it dies;^q 37 and as for what you sow, you sow, not the body that will develop, but a bare grain,^r it may be, of wheat or any one of the rest; 38 but God gives it a body^s just as it has pleased him,^t and to each of the seeds its own body. 39 Not all flesh is the same flesh, but there is one of mankind, and there is another flesh of cattle, and another flesh of birds, and another of fish.^u 40 And there are heavenly^v bodies, and earthly^w bodies;^w but the glory^x of the heavenly bodies is one sort, and that of the earthly bodies is a different sort. 41 The glory of the sun^y is one sort, and the glory of the moon^a is another, and the glory of the stars^b is another; in fact, star differs from star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead.^c It is sown in corruption, it is raised up in incorruption.^d 43 It is sown in dishonor,^e it is raised up in glory.^f It is sown in weakness,^g it is raised up in power.^h 44 It is sown a physicalⁱ body,ⁱ it is raised up a spiritual body.^j If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual one. 45 It is even so written: "The first man Adam became a living soul."^k The last Adam became a life-giving^l spirit.^m 46 Nevertheless, the first is, not that which is spiritual, but that which is physical, afterward that which is spiritual.ⁿ 47 The first man is out of the earth and made of dust;^o the second man is out of heaven.^p 48 As the one made of dust^q [is], so those made of dust [are] also; and as the heavenly one^r [is], so those who are heavenly [are] also.^s 49 And just as we have borne the image^t of the one made of dust, we shall bear* also the image^u of the heavenly one.

50 However, this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit God's kingdom,^v neither does corruption inherit incorruption.^w 51 Look! I tell you a sacred secret: We shall not all fall asleep [in death], but we shall all be changed,^x 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, during* the last trumpet. For the trumpet^y will sound, and the dead will be raised up incorruptible, and we shall be changed. 53 For this which is corruptible must put on incorruption,^z and this which is mortal^a must put on immortality.* 54 But when [this which is corruptible puts on incorruption and]* this which is mortal puts on immortality, then the saying will take place that is written: "Death^a is swallowed up forever."^b 55 "Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?"^c 56 The sting^d producing death is sin, but the power for sin is the Law.^e 57 But thanks to God, for he gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!^f

58 Consequently, my beloved brothers, become steadfast,^g unmovable, always having plenty to do in the work of the Lord,^h knowing that YOUR labor is not in vainⁱ in connection with [the] Lord.

16 Now concerning the collection^j that is for the holy ones,^k just as I gave orders to the congregations of Ga-la'ti-a,^l do that way also yourselves. 2 Every first day of the week let each of YOU at his own house set something aside in store as he may be prospering, so that when I arrive collections will not take place then. 3 But when I get there, whatever men YOU approve of by letters,^m these I shall send to carry YOUR kind gift to Jerusalem. 4 However, if it is fitting for me to go there also, they will go there with me.

5 But I shall come to YOU when I have gone through Mac-e-do-ni-a, for I am going through Mac-e-do-ni-a;ⁿ 6 and perhaps I shall stay or even pass the winter with YOU, that YOU may conduct^o me partway to where I may be going. 7 For I do not want to see YOU just now on [my] passing through, for I hope to remain some time with YOU,^p if Jehovah^q permits.^r 8 But I am remaining in Eph'e-sus^s until the [festival of] Pentecost; 9 for a large door that leads to activity has been opened to me,^t but there are many opposers.

10 However, if Timothy^u arrives, see that he becomes free of fear among YOU, for he is performing the work of Jehovah,^a even as I am. 11 Let no one, therefore, look down upon him.^b Conduct him partway in peace, that he may get here to me, for I am waiting for him with the brothers.

12 Now concerning A-pol'los^c our brother, I entreated him very much to come to YOU with the brothers, and yet it was not his will at all to come now; but he will come when he has the opportunity.

13 Stay awake,^d stand firm in the faith,^e carry on as men,^f grow^g mighty,^g

14 Let all YOUR affairs take place with love.^h

15 Now I exhortⁱ YOU, brothers: YOU know that the household of Steph'a-nas is the firstfruitsⁱ of A-cha'ia^h and that they set themselves to minister to the holy ones.^j 16 May YOU also keep submitting yourselves to persons of that kind and to everyone cooperating and laboring.^k 17 But I rejoice over the presence^l of Steph'a-nasⁱ and For-tu-na'tus and A-cha'i-cus, because they have made up for YOUR not being here.

18 For they have refreshed my spirit^m and YOURS. Therefore recognize men of that sort.ⁿ

19 The congregations of Asia send YOU their greetings.^o Aq'ui-la and Pris'-ca together with the congregation that is in their house^p greet YOU heartily in [the] Lord. 20 All the brothers greet YOU. Greet one another with a holy kiss.^q

21 [Here is] my greeting, Paul's, in my own hand.^r

22 If anyone has no affection for the Lord, let him be accursed.^s O our Lord, come!^t 23 May the undeserved kindness of the Lord Jesus be with YOU. 24 May my love be with all of YOU in union with Christ Jesus.

THE SECOND TO THE CORINTHIANS

1 Paul, an apostle^a of Christ Jesus through God's will, and Timothy^b [our] brother to the congregation of God that is in Corinth, together with all the holy ones^c who are in all of A-cha'ia:^d

2 May YOU have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ.^e

3 Blessed be the God and Father^f of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies^g and the God of all comfort,^h 4 who comforts us in all our tribulation,ⁱ that we may be able to comfort^j those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God.^k 5 For just as the sufferings for the Christ abound in us,^l so the comfort we get also abounds through the Christ.^m 6 Now whether we are in tribulation, it is for YOUR comfort and salvation;ⁿ or whether we are being comforted, it is for YOUR comfort that operates to make YOU endure the same sufferings that we also suffer.^o 7 And so our hope for YOU is unwavering, knowing as we do that, just as you are sharers of the sufferings, in the same way YOU will also share the comfort.^p

8 For we do not wish YOU to be ignorant, brothers, about the tribulation that happened to us in the [district of] Asia,^q that we were under extreme pressure beyond our strength, so that we were very uncertain even of our lives.^r 9 In fact, we felt within ourselves that we had received the sentence of death. This was that we might have our trust,^s not in ourselves, but in the God who raises up the dead.^t 10 From such a great thing as death he did rescue us and will rescue us;^a and our hope is in him that he will also rescue us further.^b 11 YOU also can help along by YOUR supplication for us,^c in order that thanks^d may be given by many in our behalf for what is kindly given to us due to many [prayerful] faces.^e

12 For the thing we boast of is this, to which our conscience bears witness,^f that with holiness and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom^g but with God's undeserved kindness, we have conducted ourselves in the world, but more especially toward YOU. 13 For we are really not writing YOU things except those which YOU well know^h or also recognize; and which I hope YOU will continue to recognize to the end,ⁱ 14 just as YOU have also recognized, to an extent, that we are a cause for YOU to boast,^j just as YOU will also be for us in the day of our Lord Jesus.^k

15 So, with this confidence, I was intending before to come to YOU,^l that you might have a second¹ [occasion for] joy, 16 and after a stopover with YOU to go to Mac-e-do'ni-a,^m and to come back from Mac-e-do'ni-a to YOUⁿ and be conducted^o partway by YOU to Ju-de'a. 17 Well, when I had such an intention, I did not indulge in any lightness,^p did I? Or what things I purpose, do I purpose [them] according to the flesh,^q that with me there should be "Yes, Yes" and "No, No"?^r 18 But God can be relied upon that our speech addressed to YOU is not Yes and yet No.^s 19 For the Son of God,^t Christ Jesus, who was preached among you through us, that is, through me and Sil-va'nus and Timothy,^a did not become Yes and yet No, but Yes has become Yes in his case.^b

2Co 1:13 Lit., "you are reading." 18 Or, "Yes and No in one breath." Lit., "Yes and No." Gr., Nai kai Ou; Lat., EST et NON; J17.18 (Heb.), Hen wa-Lo".

20 For no matter how many the promises^c of God are, they have become Yes by means of him.^{d} Therefore also through him is the "Amen"^e [said] to God for glory through us. 21 But he who guarantees that YOU and we belong to Christ and he who has anointed^f us is God. 22 He has also put his seal^g upon us and has given us the token^h of what is to come,^{} that is, the spirit,ⁱ in our hearts.

23 Now I call upon God as a witness^j against my own soul that it is to spare you^k that I have not yet come to Corinth. 24 Not that we are the masters^l over YOUR faith, but we are fellow workers^m for YOUR joy, for it is by [YOUR] faithⁿ that you are standing.^o

2 For this is what I have decided for myself, not to come to YOU again in sadness.^p 2 For if I make YOU sad,^q who indeed is there to cheer me except the one that is made sad by me? 3 And so I wrote this very thing, that, when I come, I may not get sad^r because of those over whom I ought to rejoice;^s because I have confidence^t in all of you that the joy I have is that of all of you. 4 For out of much tribulation and anguish of heart I wrote YOU with many tears,^u not that you might be saddened,^v but that YOU might know the love that I have more especially for YOU.

5 Now if anyone has caused sadness,^w he has saddened, not me, but all of YOU to an extent—not to be too harsh in what I say. 6 This rebuke^x given by the majority is sufficient for such a man, 7 so that, on the contrary now, you should kindly forgive^y and comfort [him], that somehow such a man may not be swallowed up by his being overly sad.^z 8 Therefore I exhort YOU to confirm YOUR love^a for him. 9 For to this end also I write to ascertain the proof of YOU, whether YOU are obedient in all things.^a 10 Anything YOU kindly forgive anyone, I do too.^b In fact, as for me, whatever I have kindly forgiven, if I have kindly forgiven anything, it has been for YOUR sakes in Christ's sight; 11 that we may not be overreached by Satan,^c for we are not ignorant of his designs.^d

12 Now when I arrived in Tro'as^e to declare the good news about the Christ, and a door was opened to me in [the] Lord,^f 13 I got no relief in my spirit on account of not finding Titus^g my brother, but I said good-bye to them and departed for Mac-e-do'ni-a.^h

14 But thanks be to God who always leadsⁱ us in a triumphal procession in company^j with the Christ and makes the odor of the knowledge of him perceptible through us in every place!^k 15 For to God we are a sweet odor^l of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing;^m 16 to the latter ones an odor issuing from death to death,ⁿ to the former ones an odor issuing from life to life. And who is adequately qualified for these things?^o 17 [We are;] for we are not peddlers^{*} of the word of God^p as many men are,^q but as out of sincerity, yes, as sent from God, under God's view, in company with Christ, we are speaking.^r

3 Are we starting again to recommend ourselves?^s Or do we, perhaps, like some men, need letters^t of recommendation to YOU or from YOU? 2 You yourselves are our letter,^u inscribed on our^{*} hearts and known and being read by all mankind.^v 3 For you are shown to be a letter of Christ written by us as ministers,^w inscribed not with ink but with spirit^x of a living God, not on stone tablets,^y but on fleshly tablets, on hearts.^z

2Co 2:17* Or, "those who commercialize (make gain); adulterators." 3:2* "Our," P⁴⁶ABCDVG^hSy^h; n, "your." 3* Or, "on tablets, on fleshly hearts."

4 Now through the Christ we have this sort of confidence^a toward God. 5 Not that we of ourselves are adequately qualified to reckon anything as issuing from ourselves,^b but our being adequately qualified* issues from God,^c 6 who has indeed adequately qualified us to be ministers* of a new covenant,^d not of a written code,^e but of spirit;^f for the written code condemns^g to death, but the spirit makes alive.^h

7 Moreover, if the code which administers deathⁱ and which was engraved* in letters in stones^j came about in a glory,^k so that the sons of Israel could not gaze intently at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face,^l [a glory] that was to be done away with, 8 why should not the administering of the spirit^m be much more with glory?ⁿ 9 For if the code administering condemnation*^o was glorious,^p much more does the administering of righteousness^q abound with glory.^r 10 In fact, even that which has once been made glorious has been stripped of glory in this respect,^s because of the glory that excels it.^t 11 For if that which was to be done away with was brought in with glory,^u much more would that which remains be with glory.^v

12 Therefore, as we have such a hope,^w we are using great freeness of speech, 13 and not doing as when Moses would put a veil* upon his face, that the sons of Israel might not gaze intently at the end^y of that which was to be done away with. 14 But their mental powers were dulled.^z For to this present day the same veil remains unlifted at the reading of the old covenant,^{aa} because it is done away with by means of Christ.^b 15 In fact, down till today whenever Moses is read,^a a veil lies upon their hearts.^b 16 But when there is a turning to Jehovah,* the veil is taken away.^c 17 Now Jehovah* is the Spirit;^d and where the spirit^e of Jehovah^{ff} is, there is freedom.^g 18 And all of us,^h while we with unveiled faces reflect like mirrors the glory of Jehovah,ⁱ are transformed^j into the same image^k from glory to glory,^l exactly as done by Jehovah^{mm} [the] Spirit.^a

4 That is why, since we have this ministryⁿ according to the mercy that was shown us,^o we do not give up; 2 but we have renounced the underhanded things of which to be ashamed,^p not walking with cunning, neither adulterating the word of God,^q but by making the truth manifest recommending ourselves to every human conscience in the sight of God.^r 3 If, now, the good news we declare is in fact veiled, it is veiled among those who are perishing,^s 4 among whom the god* of this system of things^{tt} has blinded the minds^u of the unbelievers,^u that the illumination^{vv} of the glorious good news^w about the Christ,^x who is the image^x of God, might not shine through.^y 5 For we are preaching, not ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord,^z and ourselves as YOUR slaves^a for Jesus' sake. 6 For God is he who said: "Let the light shine* out of darkness,"^b and he has shone on our hearts to illuminate^c [them] with the glorious knowledge^{dd} of God by^a the face of Christ.^e

earthen^a vessels,^b that the power^c beyond what is normal may be God's^d and not that out of ourselves.^e 8 We are pressed in every way,^f but not cramped beyond movement; we are perplexed, but not absolutely with no way out;^g 9 we are persecuted, but not left in the lurch;^h we are thrown down,ⁱ but not destroyed.^j 10 Always we endure everywhere in our body the death-dealing treatment given to Jesus,^k that the life of Jesus may also be made manifest in our body.^l 11 For we who live are ever being brought face to face with death^m for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus may also be made manifest in our mortal flesh.ⁿ 12 Consequently death is at work in us, but life in YOU.^o

13 Now because we have the same spirit of faith as that of which it is written: "I exercised faith, therefore I spoke,"^p we too exercise faith and therefore we speak, 14 knowing that he who raised Jesus^q up will raise us up also together with Jesus and will present us together with YOU.^r 15 For all things are for YOUR sakes,^s in order that the undeserved kindness which was multiplied should abound because of the thanksgiving of many more to the glory of God.^t

16 Therefore we do not give up, but even if the man we are outside is wasting away, certainly the man we are inside^u is being renewed from day to day. 17 For though the tribulation is momentary^v and light, it works out for us a glory that is of more and more surpassing weight and is everlasting;^w 18 while we keep our eyes, not on the things seen, but on the things unseen.^x For the things seen are temporary,^y but the things unseen are everlasting.^z

everlasting^a in the heavens. 2 For in this dwelling house we do indeed groan,^b earnestly desiring to put on the one for us from heaven,^c 3 so that, having really put it on, we shall not be found naked.^d 4 In fact, we who are in this tent groan, being weighed down; because we want, not to put it off, but to put on the other,^e that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.^f 5 Now he that produced us for this very thing is God,^g who gave us the token^h of what is to come,ⁱ that is, the spirit.^j

6 We are therefore always of good courage and know that, while we have our home in the body, we are absent from the Lord,^k 7 for we are walking by faith, not by sight.^l 8 But we are of good courage and are well pleased rather to become absent from the body and to make our home with the Lord.^m 9 Therefore we are also making it our aim that, whether having our home with him or being absent from him,ⁿ we may be acceptable to him.^o 10 For we must all be made manifest before the judgment seat of the Christ,^p that each one may get his award for the things done through the body, according to the things he has practiced, whether it is good or vile.^q

11 Knowing, therefore, the fear^r of the Lord, we keep persuading^s men, but we have been made manifest to God. However, I hope that we have been made manifest also to YOUR consciences.^t 12 We are not again recommending^u ourselves to YOU, but giving YOU an inducement for boasting in respect to us,^v that YOU may have [an answer] for those who boast over the outward appearance^w but not over the heart.^x 13 For if we were out of our mind,^y it was for God; if we are sound in mind,^z it is for YOU. 14 For the love the Christ has^a compels us, because this is what we have judged, that one man died for all;^a so, then, all had died; 15 and he died for all that those who live might live no longer for themselves,^b but for him^c who died for them and was raised up.^d

16 Consequently from now on we know no man according to the flesh.^e Even if we have known Christ according to the flesh,^f certainly we now know him so no more.^g 17 Consequently if anyone is in union with Christ, he is a new creation;^h the old things passed away,ⁱ look! new things have come into existence.^j 18 But all things are from God, who reconciled^k us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry^l of the reconciliation, 19 namely, that God was by means of Christ^m reconciling a worldⁿ to himself,^o not reckoning to them their trespasses,^p and he committed the word^q of the reconciliation to us.^r

20 We^s are therefore ambassadors^t substituting for^u Christ,^v as though God were making entreaty through us.^w As substitutes for Christ we beg:^x "Become reconciled to God." 21 The one who did not know sin^y he made to be sin^z for us, that we might become God's righteousness^z by means of him.

6 Working together with him,^a we also entreat you not to accept the undeserved kindness of God and miss its purpose.^b 2 For he says: "In an acceptable time I heard you, and in a day of salvation I helped you."^c Look! Now is the especially acceptable time.^d Look! Now is the day of salvation.^e

3 In no way are we giving any cause for stumbling,^f that our ministry might not be found fault with;^g 4 but in every way we recommend^h ourselves as God's ministers,ⁱ by the endurance of much, by tribulations, by cases of need, by difficulties,^a 5 by beatings, by prisons,^b by disorders, by labors, by sleepless nights, by times without food,^c 6 by purity, by knowledge, by long-suffering,^d by kindness,^e by holy spirit, by love free from hypocrisy,^f 7 by truthful speech, by God's power;^g through the weapons^h of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,^{*} 8 through glory and dishonor, through bad report and good report; as deceiversⁱ and yet truthful, 9 as being unknown and yet being recognized,^j as dying and yet, look! we live,^k as disciplined^l and yet not delivered to death,^m 10 as sorrowing but ever rejoicing, as poor but making many rich, as having nothing and yet possessing all things.ⁿ

11 Our mouth has been opened to you, Corinthians, our heart^o has widened out. 12 You are not cramped for room within us,^p but YOU are cramped for room in YOUR own tender affections.^q 13 So, as a recompense in return—I speak as to children^r—YOU, too, widen out.

2 ALLOW room for us.^j We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have taken advantage of no one.^k 3 I do not say this to condemn you. For I have said before that you are in our hearts to die and to live with us.^l 4 I have great freeness of speech toward you. I have great boasting in regard to you.^m I am filled with comfort,ⁿ I am overflowing with joy in all our affliction.^o

5 In fact, when we arrived in Mac-e-do'ni-a,^p our flesh got no relief,^q but we continued to be afflicted^r in every manner—there were fights without, fears within. 6 Nevertheless God, who comforts^s those laid low, comforted us by the presence* of Titus; 7 yet not alone by his presence, but also by the comfort with which he had been comforted over you, as he brought us word^t again of your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced yet more.

8 Hence even if I saddened you by my letter,^u I do not regret it. Even if I did at first regret it, (I see that that letter saddened you, though but for a little while,)* 9 now I rejoice, not because you were just saddened, but because you were saddened into repenting;^v for you were saddened in a godly way,^w that you might suffer no damage in anything due to us. 10 For sadness in a godly way makes for repentance* to salvation that is not to be regretted;^x but the sadness of the world produces death.^y 11 For, look!

this very thing, your being saddened in a godly way,^a what a great earnestness it produced in you, yes, clearing of yourselves, yes, indignation, yes, fear, yes, longing, yes, zeal, yes, righting of the wrong!^b In every respect you demonstrated yourselves to be chaste in this matter. 12 Certainly, although I wrote you, I did it, neither for the one who did the wrong,^c nor for the one who was wronged, but that your earnestness for us might be made manifest among you in the sight of God. 13 That is why we have been comforted.

However, in addition to our comfort we rejoiced still more abundantly due to the joy of Titus, because his spirit^d has been refreshed by all of you. 14 For if I have made any boast to him about you, I have not been put to shame; but as we have spoken all things to you in truth, so also our boasting^e before Titus has proved to be true. 15 Also, his tender affections are more abundant toward you, while he calls to mind the obedience^f of all of you, how you received him with fear and trembling. 16 I rejoice that in every way I may have good courage by reason of you.^g

8 Now we let you know, brothers, about the undeserved kindness of God that has been bestowed upon the congregations of Mac-e-do'ni-a,^h 2 that during a great test under affliction their abundance of joy and their deep poverty made the riches of their generosity abound.ⁱ 3 For according to their actual ability,^j yes, I testify, beyond their actual ability this was, 4 while they of their own accord kept begging us with much entreaty for the [privilege of] kindly giving and for a share in the ministry destined for the holy ones.^k 5 And not merely as we had hoped, but first they gave themselves to the Lord^l and to us through God's will. 6 This led us to encourage Titus^m that, just as he had been the one to initiate it among you, so too he should complete this same kind giving on your part. 7 Nevertheless, just as you are abounding in everything,^a in faith and word and knowledge^b and all earnestness and in this love of ours to YOU, may YOU also abound in this kind giving.

8 It is not in the way of commanding YOU,^c but in view of the earnestness of others and to make a test of the genuineness of YOUR love, that I am speaking. 9 For YOU know the undeserved kindness of our Lord Jesus Christ,* that though he was rich he became poor for YOUR sakes,^d that YOU might become rich^e through his poverty.

10 And in this I render an opinion:^f for this matter is of benefit to YOU,^g seeing that already a year ago YOU initiated not only the doing but also the wanting [to do];^h 11 now, then, finish up also the doing of it, in order that, just as there was a readiness to want to do, so also there should be a finishing up of it out of what YOU have.* 12 For if the readiness is there first, it is especially acceptable according to what a person has,ⁱ not according to what a person does not have. 13 For I do not mean for it to be easy for others,^j but hard on YOU; 14 but that by means of an equalizing YOUR surplus just now might offset their deficiency, in order that their surplus might also come to offset YOUR deficiency, that an equalizing might take place.^k 15 Just as it is written: "The person with much did not have too much, and the person with little did not have too little."^l

16 Now thanks be to God for putting the same earnestness for YOU in the heart of Titus,^m 17 because he has indeed responded to the encouragement, but, being very earnest, he is going forth of his own accord to YOU. 18 But we are sending along with him the brother whose praise in connection with the good news has spread through all the congregations. 19 Not only that, but he was also appointedⁿ by the congregations to be our traveling companion in connection with this kind gift to be administered by us for the glory^a of the Lord and in proof of our ready mind.^b

20 Thus we are avoiding having any man find fault^c with us in connection with this liberal contribution^d to be administered by us. 21 For we "make honest provision, not only in the sight of Jehovah,* but also in the sight of men."^e

22 Moreover, we are sending with them our brother whom we have often proved in many things to be earnest, but now much more earnest due to his great confidence in YOU. 23 If, though, there is any question about Titus, he is a sharer with me and a fellow worker^f for YOUR interests; or if about our brothers, they are apostles* of congregations and a glory of Christ. 24 Therefore demonstrate to them the proof of YOUR love^g and of what we boasted^h about YOU, before the face of the congregations.

9 Now concerning the ministryⁱ that is for the holy ones, it is superfluous for me to write YOU, 2 for I know YOUR readiness of mind of which I am boasting to the Mac-e-do'ni-ans about YOU, that A-cha'ia has stood ready now for a year,^j and YOUR zeal has stirred up the majority of them. 3 But I am sending the brothers, that our boasting about YOU might not prove empty in this respect, but that YOU may really be ready,^k just as I used to say YOU would be. 4 Otherwise, in some way, if Mac-e-do'ni-ans should come with me and find YOU not ready, we—not to say YOU—should be put to shame in this assurance of ours. 5 Therefore I thought it necessary to encourage the brothers to come to YOU in advance and to get ready in advance YOUR bountiful gift previously promised,^l that thus this might be ready as a bountiful gift and not as something extorted.*^m

6 But as to this, he that sows sparingly^a will also reap sparingly; and he that sows bountifully^b will also reap bountifully. 7 Let each one do just as he has resolved in his heart, not grudgingly^c or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.^d

8 God, moreover, is able to make all his undeserved kindness abound toward YOU, that, while YOU always have full self-sufficiency in everything, YOU may have plenty for every good work.^e

9 (Just as it is written: "He has distributed widely, he has given to the poor ones, his righteousness* continues forever."^f) 10 Now he that abundantly supplies seed to the sower and bread for eating^g will supply and multiply the seed for YOU to sow and will increase the products of YOUR righteousness.^h

11 In everything YOU are being enriched for every sort of generosity, which produces through us an expression of thanks to God;ⁱ 12 because the ministry of this public service is not only to supply abundantly the wants of the holy ones^j but also to be rich with many expressions of thanks to God. 13 Through the proof that this ministry gives, they glorify God because YOU are submissive to the good news about the Christ,^k as YOU publicly declare YOU are, and because YOU are generous in YOUR contribution to them and to all;^l 14 and with supplication for YOU they long for you because of the surpassing undeserved kindness^m of God upon YOU.

15 Thanks be to God for his indescribable free gift.ⁿ

10 Now I myself, Paul, entreat YOU by the mildness^o and kindness^p of the Christ, lowly though I am in appearance^q among YOU, whereas when absent I am bold toward YOU.^r 2 Indeed I beg that, when present, I may not use boldness with that confidence with which I am counting on taking bold measures^s against some who appraise us as if we walked according to [what we are in the] flesh. 3 For though we walk in the flesh,^a we do not wage warfare* according to [what we are in the] flesh.^b 4 For the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly,^c but powerful by God^d for overturning strongly entrenched things. 5 For we are overturning reasonings and every lofty thing raised up against the knowledge of God;^e and we are bringing every thought into captivity to make it obedient to the Christ; 6 and we are holding ourselves in readiness to inflict punishment for every disobedience,^f as soon as YOUR own obedience has been fully carried out.^g

7 You look at things according to their face value.^h If anyone trusts in himself that he belongs to Christ, let him again take this fact into account for himself, that, just as he belongs to Christ, so do we also.ⁱ 8 For even if I should boast^j a bit too much about the authority that the Lord gave us to build YOU up and not to tear YOU down,^k I would not be put to shame, 9 that I may not seem to want to terrify YOU by [my] letters. 10 For, say they: "[His] letters are weighty and forceful, but [his] presence* in person is weak^l and [his] speech contemptible."^m

11 Let such a man take this into account, that what we are in our word by letters when absent, such we shall also be in action when present.ⁿ 12 For we do not dare to class ourselves among some or compare ourselves with some who recommend themselves.^o Certainly they in measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves with themselves have no understanding.^p

13 For our part we will boast, not outside our assigned boundaries,^q but according to the boundary of the territory that God apportioned to us by measure, making it reach even as far as YOU.^r 14 Really we are not over-stretching ourselves as if we did not reach to YOU, for we were the first to come even as far as YOU in declaring the good news about the Christ.^a

15 No, we are not boasting outside our assigned boundaries in the labors of someone else,^b but we entertain hope that, as YOUR faith is being increased,^c we may be made great among YOU with reference to our territory.^d Then we will abound still more, 16 to declare the good news to the countries beyond YOU,^e so as not to boast in someone else's territory where things are already prepared. 17 "But he that boasts, let him boast in Jehovah."^f 18 For not the one who recommends himself is approved,^g but the man whom Jehovah^{*h} recommends.ⁱ

11 I wish YOU would put up with me in some little unreasonableness.^j But, in fact, YOU are putting up with me! 2 For I am jealous over YOU with a godly jealousy,^k for I personally promised YOU in marriage^l to one husband^m that I might present YOU as a chasteⁿ virgin to the Christ.^o 3 But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent seduced Eve^p by its cunning, YOUR minds might be corrupted^q away from the sincerity and the chastity that are due the Christ.^r 4 For, as it is, if someone comes and preaches a Jesus other than the one we preached,^s or YOU receive a spirit other than what YOU received,^t or good news^u other than what YOU accepted, you easily put up [with him].^v 5 For I consider that I have not in a single thing proved inferior^w to YOUR superfine^x apostles. 6 But even if I am unskilled in speech,^y I certainly am not in knowledge;^z but in every way we manifested [it] to YOU in all things.^a

7 Or did I commit a sin by humbling myself^b that you might be exalted, because without cost^c I gladly declared the good news of God to you? 8 Other congregations I robbed by accepting provisions in order to minister to you;^d

9 and yet when I was present with YOU and I fell in need, I did not become a burden to a single one,^a for the brothers that came from Mac-e-do-ni-a^b abundantly supplied my deficiency. Yes, in every way I kept myself unburdened to YOU and will keep myself so.^c 10 It is a truth^d of Christ in my case that no stop shall be put to this boasting^e of mine in the regions of A-cha'ia. 11 For what reason? Because I do not love you? God knows [I do].^f

12 Now what I am doing I will still do,^g that I may cut off the pretext from those who are wanting a pretext for being found equal to us in the office of which they boast. 13 For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers,^h transforming themselves into apostles of Christ.ⁱ 14 And no wonder, for Satan himself keeps transforming himself into an angel of light.^j 15 It is therefore nothing great if his ministers^k also keep transforming themselves into ministers of righteousness. But their end shall be according to their works.^l

16 I say again, Let no man think I am unreasonable. Still, if you really do, accept me even if as unreasonable, that I too may do some little boasting.^m 17 What I speak I speak, not after the Lord's example, but as in unreasonableness, in this cocksureness peculiar to boasting.ⁿ 18 Since many are boasting according to the flesh,^o I too will boast. 19 For you gladly put up with the unreasonable persons, seeing YOU are reasonable. 20 In fact, YOU put up with whoever enslaves YOU,^p whoever devours [what you have], whoever grabs [what you have], whoever exalts himself over [you], whoever strikes you in the face.^q

21 I say this to [our] dishonor, as though our position had been weak.

But if anyone else acts bold in something—I am talking unreasonably^r—I too am acting bold in it. 22 Are they Hebrews? I am one also.^s Are they Israelites? I am one also. Are they Abraham's seed? I am also.^a 23 Are they ministers of Christ? I reply like a madman, I am more outstandingly one:^b in labors more plentifully,^c in prisons more plentifully,^d in blows to an excess, in near-deaths often.^e 24 By Jews I five times received forty strokes^f less one, 25 three times I was beaten with rods,^g once I was stoned,^h three times I experienced shipwreck,ⁱ a night and a day I have spent in the deep; 26 in journeys often, in dangers from rivers, in dangers from highwaymen,^j in dangers from [my own] race,^k in dangers from the nations,^l in dangers in the city,^m in dangers in the wilderness, in dangers at sea, in dangers among false brothers, 27 in labor and toil, in sleepless nightsⁿ often, in hunger and thirst,^o in abstinence from food^p many times, in cold and nakedness.

28 Besides those things of an external kind, there is what rushes in on me from day to day, the anxiety for all the congregations.^a 29 Who is weak,^r and I am not weak? Who is stumbled, and I am not incensed?

30 If boasting there must be, I will boast^s of the things having to do with my weakness. 31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, even the One who is to be praised^t forever, knows I am not lying. 32 In Damascus the governor^u under A-re'tas the king was guarding the city of the Damascenes^v to seize me,^w 33 but through a window in the wall I was lowered in a wicker basket^x and escaped his hands.

12 I have to boast. It is not beneficial; but I shall pass on to supernatural visions^y and revelations of [the] Lord. 2 I know a man in union with Christ who, fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or out of the body I do not know; God knows—was caught away^z as such to the third heaven. 3 Yes, I know such a man—whether in the body or apart from the body,^a I do not know,^b God knows— 4 that he was caught away into paradise^b and heard unutterable words which it is not lawful for a man to speak. 5 Over such a man^c I will boast, but I will not boast over myself, except as respects [my] weaknesses.^c 6 For if I ever do want to boast,^d I shall not be unreasonable, for I shall say the truth. But I abstain, in order that no one should put to my credit more than what he sees I am or he hears from me, 7 just because of the excess^e of the revelations.

Therefore, that I might not feel overly exalted,^e there was given me a thorn^f in the flesh,^f an angel of Satan, to keep slapping me, that I might not be overly exalted. 8 In this behalf I three times^g entreated the Lord that it might depart from me; 9 and yet he really said to me: "My undeserved kindness is sufficient^h for you; for [my] power is being made perfect in weakness."^h Most gladly, therefore, will I rather boast as respects my weaknesses,ⁱ that the power of the Christ may like a tent remain over me. 10 Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in insults, in cases of need, in persecutions and difficulties, for Christ. For when I am weak, then I am powerful.^k

11 I have become unreasonable. You compelled me^l to, for I ought to have been recommended by you. For I did not prove to be inferior to [your] superfine^m apostles in a single thing, even if I am nothing.ⁿ 12 Indeed, the signs of an apostle^o were produced among you by all endurance,^p and by signs and portents and powerful works.^q 13 For in what respect is it that you became less than the rest of the congregations, except that I myself did not become a burden to you?^r Kindly forgive me this wrong.

14 Look! This is the third time^s I am ready to come to YOU, and yet I will not become a burden. For I am seeking, not YOUR possessions,^a but YOU; for the children^b ought not to lay up for [their] parents, but the parents for [their] children.^c 15 For my part I will most gladly spend and be completely spent for YOUR souls.^d If I love YOU the more abundantly, am I to be loved the less? 16 But be that as it may, I did not burden YOU down.^e Nevertheless, YOU say, I was "crafty" and I caught YOU "by trickery."^f 17 As for any one of those I have dispatched to YOU, I did not take advantage of YOU through him, did I? 18 I urged Titus and I dispatched the brother with him. Titus did not take advantage of YOU at all, did he?^g We walked in the same spirit,^h did we not? In the same footsteps, did we not?

19 Have you been thinking all this while that we have been making our defense to YOU? It is before God that we are speaking in connection with Christ. But, beloved ones, all things are for YOUR upbuilding.ⁱ 20 For I am afraid that somehow, when I arrive,^j I may find YOU not as I could wish and I may prove to be to YOU not as YOU could wish, but, instead, there should somehow be strife, jealousy,^k cases of anger, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, cases of being puffed up, disorders.^l 21 Perhaps, when I come again, my God might humiliate me among YOU, and I might mourn over many of those who formerly sinned^m but have not repented over their uncleanness^{*} and fornicationⁿ and loose conduct^{ao} that they have practiced.

13 This is the third time^p I am coming to YOU. "At the mouth of two witnesses or of three every matter must be established."^q 2 I have said previously and, as if present the second time and yet absent now, I say in advance to those who have sinned before and to all the rest, that if ever I come again* I will not spare,^a 3 since YOU are seeking a proof of Christ speaking in me,^b [Christ] who is not weak toward YOU but is powerful among YOU. 4 True, indeed, he was impaled^{*c} owing to weakness,^d but he is alive owing to God's power.^e True, also, we are weak with him, but we shall live together with him^f owing to God's power^g toward YOU.^h

5 Keep testing whether YOU are in the faith, keep proving what YOU yourselves are.^h Or do YOU not recognize that Jesus Christ is in union with YOU?ⁱ Unless YOU are disapproved. 6 I truly hope YOU will come to know we are not disapproved.

7 Now we pray^j to God that YOU may do nothing wrong, not that we ourselves may appear approved, but that YOU may be doing what is fine, though we ourselves may appear disapproved. 8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but only for the truth.^k 9 We certainly rejoice whenever we are weak but YOU are powerful;^l and for this we are praying,^m YOUR being readjusted.* 10 That is why I write these things while absent, that, when I am present, I may not act with severityⁿ according to the authority that the Lord gave me, to build up^o and not to tear down.

11 Finally, brothers, continue to rejoice, to be readjusted, to be comforted,^p to think in agreement,^q to live peaceably;^r and the God of love and of peace^s will be with YOU. 12 Greet one another with a holy kiss.^t 13 All the holy ones send YOU their greetings.

TO THE GALATIANS

1 Paul,^a an apostle,^b neither from men nor through a man, but through Jesus Christ^c and God the Father,^d who raised him up from the dead,^e 2 and all the brothers with me,^f to the congregations of Ga-la'tia:^g*

3 May you have undeserved kindness and peace^h from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ. 4 He gave himself for our sinsⁱ that he might deliver us from the present wicked system of things^j; according to the will^k of our God and Father, 5 to whom be the glory forever and ever.^l Amen.

6 I marvel that YOU are being so quickly removed from the One^m who called YOU with Christ's undeserved kindnessⁿ over to another sort of good news.^o 7 But it is not another; only there are certain ones who are causing YOU trouble^p and wanting to pervert the good news about the Christ.^q 8 However, even if we or an angel out of heaven were to declare to YOU as good news something beyond what we declared to YOU as good news, let him be accursed.^r 9 As we have said above, I also now say again, Whoever it is that is declaring to YOU as good news something beyond what YOU accepted,^s let him be accursed.

10 Is it, in fact, men I am now trying to persuade or God? Or am I seeking to please men?^t If I were yet pleasing men,^u I would not be Christ's slave.^v 11 For I put YOU on notice, brothers, that the good news which was declared by me as good news is not something human;^w 12 for neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught [it], except through revelation* by Jesus Christ.^a

13 YOU, of course, heard about my conduct formerly in Ju'da-ism,^b that to the point of excess I kept on persecuting^c the congregation of God and devastating it,^d 14 and I was making greater progress in Ju'da-ism than many of my own age in my race,^e as I was far more zealous^f for the traditions^g of my fathers. 15 But when God, who separated me from my mother's womb* and called^h [me] through his undeserved kindness,ⁱ thought good 16 to reveal his Son in connection with me,^j that I might declare the good news about him to the nations,^k I did not go at once into conference with flesh and blood.^l 17 Neither did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles previous to me,^m but I went off into Arabia, and I came back again to Damascus.ⁿ

18 Then three years later I went up to Jerusalem^o to visit* Ce'phas,^p and I stayed with him for fifteen days. 19 But I saw no one else of the apostles, only James^q the brother^r of the Lord. 20 Now as to the things I am writing YOU, look! in the sight of God, I am not lying.^s

21 After that I went^t into the regions of Syria and of Cili'cia. 22 But I was unknown by face to the congregations of Ju-de'a that were in union with Christ;^u 23 they only used to hear: "The man that formerly persecuted^v us is now declaring the good news about the faith which he formerly devastated."^w 24 So they began glorifying^x God because of me.

2 Then after fourteen years I again went up to Jerusalem^a with Bar'na-bas,^b taking also Titus along with me. 2 But I went up as a result of a revelation.^c And I laid before them^d the good news which I am preaching* among the nations, privately, however, before those who were outstanding men, for fear that somehow I was running^e or had run in vain.^f 3 Nevertheless, not even Titus,^g who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised,^h although he was a Greek. 4 But because of the false brothersⁱ brought in quietly,^j who sneaked in to spy upon our freedom^k which we have in union with Christ Jesus, that they might completely enslave^l us— 5 to these we did not yield by way of submission,^m no, not for an hour, in order that the truthⁿ of the good news might continue with you.

6 But on the part of those who seemed to be something^o—whatever sort of men they formerly were makes no difference to me^p—God* does not go by a man's outward appearance^q—to me, in fact, those outstanding men imparted nothing new. 7 But, on the contrary, when they saw that I had entrusted^r to me the good news for those who are uncircumcised,^s just as Peter [had it] for those who are circumcised^t— 8 for He who gave Peter powers necessary for an apostleship to those who are circumcised gave powers also to me^u for those who are of the nations; 9 yes, when they came to know the undeserved kindness^v that was given me,^w James^x and Ce'phas and John, the ones who seemed to be pillars,^y gave me and Bar'na-bas^z the right hand of sharing together,^a that we should go to the nations, but they to those who are circumcised. 10 Only we should keep the poor in mind.^b This very thing I have also earnestly endeavored to do.^c

before the arrival of certain men from James,^a he used to eat^b with people of the nations; but when they arrived, he went withdrawing and separating himself, in fear^c of those of the circumcised class.^{d} 13 The rest of the Jews also joined him in putting on this pretense,^e so that even Bar'na-bas^f was led along with them in their pretense.^{} 14 But when I saw they were not walking straight according to the truth of the good news,^g I said to Ce'phas before them all:^h "If you, though you are a Jew, live as the nations do, and not as Jews do, how is it that you are compelling people of the nations to live according to Jewish practice?"ⁱ

15 We who are Jews by nature,^j and not sinners^k from the nations, 16 knowing as we do that a man is declared righteous,^{l} not due to works of law, but only through faith^m toward Christ Jesus, even we have put our faith in Christ Jesus, that we may be declared righteous due to faith toward Christ,ⁿ and not due to works of law, because due to works of law no flesh will be declared righteous.^o 17 Now if we, in seeking to be declared righteous by means of Christ,^p have also ourselves been found sinners,^q is Christ in reality sin's minister?^r May that never happen! 18 For if the very things that I once threw down I build up again,^s I demonstrate myself to be a transgressor.^t 19 As for me, through law I died toward law,^u that I might become alive toward God.^v 20 I am impaled along with Christ.^w It is no longer I that live,^x but it is Christ that is living in union with me.^y Indeed, the life that I now live^z in flesh I live by the faith that is toward the Son of God, who loved me and handed himself over for me.^a 21 I do not shove aside the undeserved kindness of God;^b for if righteousness

is through law,^a Christ actually died for nothing.^b

3 O senseless Ga-la'tians, who is it that brought YOU under evil influence,^c YOU before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly portrayed impaled?^d 2 This alone I want to learn from YOU: Did YOU receive the spirit^e due to works of law^f or due to a hearing^g by faith?^h 3 Are YOU so senseless? After starting in spirit^h are YOU now being completed in flesh?ⁱ 4 Did YOU undergo so many sufferings to no purpose?^j If it really was to no purpose. 5 He, therefore, who supplies YOU the spirit^k and performs powerful works^l among YOU, does he do it owing to works of law or owing to a hearing by faith? 6 Just as Abraham "put faith in Jehovah,* and it was counted to him as righteousness."^m

7 Surely you know that those who adhere to faithⁿ are the ones who are sons of Abraham.^o 8 Now the Scripture, seeing in advance that God would declare people of the nations righteous due to faith, declared the good news beforehand to Abraham, namely: "By means of you all the nations will be blessed."^p 9 Consequently those who adhere to faith are being blessed^q together with faithful* Abraham.^r

10 For all those who depend upon works of law are under a curse; for it is written: "Cursed is every one that does not continue in all the things written in the scroll of the Law in order to do them."^s 11 Moreover, that by law no one is declared righteous^t with God is evident, because "the righteous one will live by reason of faith."^u 12 Now the Law does not adhere to faith, but "he that does them shall live by means of them."^v 13 Christ by purchase^w released^x us from the curse of the Law by becoming a curse^y instead of us, because it is written: "Accursed is every man hanged upon a stake."^z 14 The purpose was that the blessing of Abraham might come to be by means of Jesus

Christ for the nations,^a that we might receive the promised spirit^b through our faith.^c

15 Brothers, I speak with a human illustration: A validated covenant, though it is a man's, no one sets aside or attaches additions to it.^d 16 Now the promises were spoken to Abraham^e and to his seed.^f It* says, not: "And to seeds," as in the case of many such, but as in the case of one:^g "And to your seed,"^h who is Christ.ⁱ 17 Further, I say this: As to the covenant previously validated by God,^j the Law that has come into being four hundred and thirty years^k later does not invalidate it, so as to abolish the promise.^l 18 For if the inheritance is due to law, it is no longer due to promise;^m whereas God has kindly given it to Abraham through a promise.ⁿ

19 Why, then, the Law? It was added to make transgressions manifest,^o until the seed should arrive^p to whom the promise had been made; and it was transmitted through angels^q by the hand of a mediator.^r 20 Now there is no mediator where only one person is concerned, but God is only one.^s 21 Is the Law, therefore, against the promises of God?^t May that never happen! For if a law had been given that was able to give life,^u righteousness would actually have been by means of law.^v 22 But the Scripture^w delivered up all things together to the custody of sin,^x that the promise resulting from faith toward Jesus Christ might be given to those exercising faith.^y

23 However, before the faith arrived,^z we were being guarded under law,^a being delivered up together into custody, looking to the faith that was destined to be revealed.^b 24 Consequently the Law has become our tutor*

leading to Christ,^a that we might be declared righteous^b due to faith. 25 But now that the faith has arrived,^c we are no longer under a tutor.^d

26 YOU are all, in fact, sons^e of God through YOUR faith in Christ Jesus. 27 For all of YOU who were baptized into Christ^f have put on Christ.^{*g} 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek,^h there is neither slave nor freeman,ⁱ there is neither male nor female;^j for YOU are all one [person] in union with Christ Jesus.^k 29 Moreover, if you belong to Christ, YOU are really Abraham's seed,^l heirs with reference to a promise.^m

4 Now I say that as long as the heir is a babe he does not differ at all from a slave,ⁿ lord of all things though he is, 2 but he is under men in charge^o and under stewards^{*} until the day his father appointed beforehand. 3 Likewise we also, when we were babes, continued enslaved by the elementary^p things belonging to the world. 4 But when the full limit of the time arrived,^q God sent forth his Son,^r who came to be out of a woman^s and who came to be under law,^t 5 that he might release by purchase^u those under law,^v that we, in turn, might receive the adoption as sons.^w

6 Now because YOU are sons, God has sent forth the spirit^{} of his Son into our hearts and it cries out: "Abba,^{} Father!"^y 7 So, then, you are no longer a slave but a son; and if a son, also an heir through God.^z

8 Nevertheless, when YOU did not know God,^a then it was that you slaved for those who by nature are not gods.^b 9 But now that YOU have come to know God, or rather now that YOU have come to be known by God,^c how is it that YOU are turning back again to the weak^d and beggarly elementary^e things and want to slave for them over again?^f 10 YOU are scrupulously observing days^g and months^h and seasons^{*} and years. 11 I fear for YOU, that somehow I have toiled to no purpose^a respecting YOU.

12 Brothers, I beg YOU, Become as I am,^b because I used to be also as YOU are.^c YOU did me no wrong.^d 13 But YOU know that it was through a sickness of my flesh I declared the good news to YOU the first time.^e 14 And what was a trial^{} to YOU in my flesh, YOU did not treat with contempt or spit at in disgust; but YOU received me like an angel^f of God, like Christ Jesus.^g 15 Where, then, is that happiness YOU had?^h For I bear YOU witness that, if it had been possible, YOU would have gouged out YOUR eyes and given them to me.ⁱ 16 Well, then, have I become YOUR enemy^j because I tell YOU the truth?^k 17 They zealously seek YOU,^l not in a fine way, but they want to shut YOU off [from me], that YOU may zealously seek them.^m 18 However, it is fine for YOU to be zealously sought for in a fine causeⁿ at all times, and not only when I am present^o with YOU, 19 my little children,^p with whom I am again in childbirth pains until Christ is formed in YOU.^q 20 But I could wish to be present with YOU just now^r and to speak in a different way,^{} because I am perplexed^s over YOU.

21 Tell me, YOU who want to be under law,^t Do you not hear the Law?^u 22 For example, it is written that Abraham acquired two sons, one by the servant girl^v and one by the free woman;^w 23 but the one by the servant girl was actually born in the manner of flesh,^x the other by the free woman through a promise.^y 24 These things stand as a symbolic drama;^z for these [women] mean two covenants,^a the one from Mount Si'nai,^b which brings forth children for slavery, and which is Ha'gar. 25 Now this Ha'gar means Si'nai,^c a mountain in Arabia, and she corresponds with the Jerusalem today, for she is in slavery^a with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem^b above is free, and she is our mother.^c

27 For it is written: "Be glad, you barren woman who does not give birth; break out and cry aloud, you woman who does not have childbirth pains; for the children of the desolate woman are more numerous than [those] of her who has the husband."^d 28 Now we, brothers, are children belonging to the promise the same as Isaac was.^e 29 But just as then the one born in the manner of flesh began persecuting^f the one born in the manner of spirit, so also now.^g 30 Nevertheless, what does the Scripture say? "Drive out the servant girl and her son, for by no means shall the son of the servant girl be an heir with the son of the free woman."^h 31 Wherefore, brothers, we are children, not of a servant girl,ⁱ but of the free woman.^j

5 For such freedom^k Christ set us free.^l Therefore stand fast,^m and do not let yourselves be confined again in a yoke of slavery.ⁿ

2 See! I, Paul, am telling you that if you become circumcised,^o Christ will be of no benefit to you. 3 Moreover, I bear witness again to every man getting circumcised that he is under obligation to perform the whole Law.^p 4 You are parted from Christ, whoever you are that try to be declared righteous by means of law;^q you have fallen away from his undeserved kindness.^r 5 For our part we by spirit are eagerly waiting for the hoped-for righteousness^s as a result of faith.^t 6 For as regards Christ Jesus^u neither circumcision is of any value nor is uncircumcision,^v but faith^w operating through love^x [is].

7 You were running well.^y Who hindered you from keeping on obeying the truth?^z 8 This sort of persuasion is not from the One calling you.^{aa} 9 A little leaven ferments the whole lump.^{ab} 10 I am confident^{ac} about you who are to his flesh will reap corruption from his flesh,^a but he who is sowing with a view to the spirit^b will reap everlasting life from the spirit.^c 9 So let us not give up in doing what is fine,^d for in due season we shall reap if we do not tire out.^e 10 Really, then, as long as we have time favorable for it,^f let us work what is good toward all, but especially toward those related to [us] in the faith.^g

11 SEE* with what large letters* I have written YOU with my own hand.^h

12 All those who want to make a pleasing appearance in the flesh are the ones that try to compel YOU to get circumcised,ⁱ only that they may not be persecuted for the torture stake* of the Christ,^j Jesus.^k 13 For not even do those who are getting circumcised keep the Law themselves,^k but they want YOU to be circumcised that they may have cause for boasting in YOUR flesh.

14 Never may it occur that I should boast, except in the torture stake^l of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world has been impaled to me^m and I to the world. 15 For neither is circumcision anything nor is uncircumcision,ⁿ but a new creation^o [is something].

16 And all those who will walk orderly by this rule of conduct,* upon them be peace and mercy, even upon the Israel* of God.^p

17 Henceforth* let no one be making trouble for me, for I am carrying on my body the brand marks^q [of a slave] of Jesus.^r

TO THE EPHESIANS

1 Paul, an apostle^a of Christ Jesus through God's will,^b to the holy ones who are [in Eph'es-us]^c and faithful ones^c in union^d with Christ Jesus:

2 May YOU have undeserved kindness^e and peace^f from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,^g for he has blessed us^h with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly placesⁱ in union with Christ, 4 just as he chose^j us in union with him before the founding^k of the world, that we should be holy and without blemish^l before him in love.^m 5 For he foreordainedⁿ us to the adoption^o through Jesus Christ as sons^p to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,^q 6 in praise^r of his glorious undeserved kindness^s which he kindly conferred upon us by means of [his] loved one.^t 7 By means of him we have the release by ransom through the blood^u of that one, yes, the forgiveness^v of [our] trespasses, according to the riches of his undeserved kindness.^w

8 This he caused to abound toward us in all wisdom^x and good sense, 9 in that^y he made known to us the sacred secret^z of his will. It is according to his good pleasure which he purposed in himself^{aa} 10 for an administration^{ab} at the full limit of the appointed times,^b namely, to gather^c all things together his graciousness toward us in union^{as} with Christ Jesus.

8 By this undeserved kindness, indeed, YOU have been saved through faith;^b and this not owing to YOU,^c it is God's gift.^d 9 No, it is not owing to works,^e in order that no man should have ground for boasting.^f 10 For we are a product of his work^g and were created^h in unionⁱ with Christ Jesus for good works,^j which God prepared in advance^k for us to walk in them.

11 Therefore keep bearing in mind that formerly YOU were people of the nations as to flesh;^l "uncircumcision" YOU were called by that which is called "circumcision" made in the flesh with hands^m—12 that YOU were at that particular time without Christ,ⁿ alienated^o from the state of Israel and strangers to the covenants of the promise,^p and YOU had no hope^q and were without God in the world.^r 13 But now in union with Christ Jesus YOU who were once far off have come to be near by the blood^s of the Christ. 14 For he is our peace,^t he who made the two parties^u one^v and destroyed the wall^w in between^x that fenced^y them off. 15 By means of his flesh^z he abolished the enmity,^{aa} the Law of commandments consisting in decrees,^{ab} that he might create the two peoples^{ac} in union with himself into one new man^{ad} and make peace; 16 and that he might fully reconcile^{ae} both peoples in one body^{af} to God through the torture^{ag} stake, because he had killed off the enmity^{ah} by means of himself.^{ai} 17 And he came and declared the good news of peace^{aj} to YOU, the ones far off,

19 Certainly, therefore, YOU are no longer strangers^e and alien residents,^f but YOU are fellow citizens^g of the holy ones^h and are members of the householdⁱ of God, 20 and YOU have been built up upon the foundation^j of the apostles^k and prophets,^l while Christ Jesus himself is the foundation cornerstone.^m 21 In union with him the whole building, being harmoniously joined together,ⁿ is growing into a holy temple^o for Jehovah.^{ao} 22 In union with him^p YOU, too, are being built up together into a place for God to inhabit by spirit.^q

3 On account of this I, Paul, the prisoner^r of Christ Jesus in behalf of YOU, the people of the nations^s— 2 if, really, YOU have heard about the stewardship^t of the undeserved kindness of God that was given me with YOU in view, 3 that by way of a revelation the sacred secret was made known to me,^u just as I wrote previously in brief. 4 In the face of this YOU, when YOU read this, can realize the comprehension^v I have in the sacred secret^w of the Christ. 5 In other generations this [secret]^x was not made known to the sons of men as it has now been revealed^y to his holy apostles and prophets^z by spirit, 6 namely, that people of the nations should be joint heirs and fellow members of the body^a and partakers with us of the promise^b in union with Christ Jesus through the good news. 7 I became a minister^c of this according to the free gift of the undeserved kindness of God that was given me according to the way his power operates.^d

to the nations^a the good news about the unfathomable riches^b of the Christ 9 and should make men see* how the sacred secret^c is administered^{ad} which has from the indefinite past been hidden in God, who created all things.^e 10 [This was] to the end that now to the governments and the authorities^f in the heavenly places there might be made known through the congregation^g the greatly diversified wisdom of God,^h 11 according to the eternal purpose that he formed in connection with the Christ,ⁱ Jesus our Lord, 12 by means of whom we have this freeness of speech and an approach^j with confidence through our faith in him. 13 Wherefore I ask YOU not to give up on account of these tribulations^k of mine in YOUR behalf, for these mean* glory for YOU.

14 On account of this I bend my knees^l to the Father,^m 15 to whom every familyⁿ in heaven and on earth owes its name,^o 16 to the end that he may grant YOU according to the riches^p of his glory to be made mighty in the man YOU are inside^q with power through his spirit,^r 17 to have the Christ dwell through [YOUR] faith in YOUR hearts with* love;^s that YOU may be rooted^t and established on the foundation,^u 18 in order that YOU may be thoroughly able to grasp mentally^v with all the holy ones what is the breadth and length and height and depth,^w 19 and to know the love of the Christ^x which surpasses knowledge, that YOU may be filled with all* the fullness^y that God gives.

20 Now to the one who can, according to his power which is operating^z in us, do more than superabundantly beyond all the things we ask or conceive,^a 21 to him be the glory by means of the congregation and by means of Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever.^b Amen.

all things into him who is the head,^a Christ. 16 From him all the body,^b by being harmoniously joined together and being made to cooperate* through every joint that gives what is needed, according to the functioning of each respective member in due measure, makes for the growth of the body for the building up of itself in love.^c

17 This, therefore, I say and bear witness to in [the] Lord, that you no longer go on walking just as the nations^d also walk in the unprofitableness of their minds,^e 18 while they are in darkness mentally,^f and alienated^g from the life that belongs to God, because of the ignorance^h that is in them, because of the insensibilityⁱ of their hearts. 19 Having come to be past all moral sense,^j they gave themselves over to loose^k conduct* to work uncleanness^l of every sort with greediness.^m

20 But you did not learn the Christ to be so,ⁿ 21 provided, indeed, that you heard him and were taught by means of him,^o just as truth^p is in Jesus, 22 that you should put away the old personality^q which conforms to your former course of conduct and which is being corrupted^r according to his deceptive desires;^s 23 but that you should be made new in the force actuating your mind,^t 24 and should put on^u the new personality^v which was created^w according to God's will in true righteousness^x and loyalty.

25 Wherefore, now that you have put away falsehood,^y speak truth each one of you with his neighbor,^z because we are members belonging to one another.^a 26 Be wrathful,^b and yet do not sin;^c let the sun not set with you in a provoked state,^d 27 neither allow place for the Devil.^e 28 Let the

31 Let all malicious bitternessⁱ and anger and wrath and screaming and abusive speech^j be taken away from you along with all badness.^k 32 But become kind^l to one another, tenderly compassionate,^m freely forgiving one another just as God also by Christ freely forgave YOU.ⁿ

5 Therefore, become imitators of God,^o as beloved children, 2 and go on walking in love,^p just as the Christ also loved YOU^q and delivered himself up for YOU as an offering^r and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling odor.^s

3 Let fornication^t and uncleanness of every sort or greediness^u not even be mentioned among YOU,^v just as it befits holy people;^w 4 neither shameful conduct^x nor foolish talking nor obscene jesting, things which are not becoming, but rather the giving of thanks.^z 5 For you know this, recognizing it for yourselves, that no fornicator^a or unclean person or greedy person^b—which means being an idolater—has any inheritance in the kingdom of the Christ and of God.^c

6 Let no man deceive you with empty words,^d for because of the aforesaid* things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience.^e 7 Therefore do not become partakers with them;^f 8 for YOU were once darkness,^g but YOU are now light^h in connection with [the] Lord. light, 9 for the fruitage of the light consists of every sort of goodness and righteousness and truth.^a 10 Keep on making sure of what is acceptable^b to the Lord; 11 and quit sharing^c with [them] in the unfruitful works that belong to the darkness,^d but, rather, even be reproving^e [them], 12 for the things that take place in secret by them it is shameful even to relate.^f 13 Now all the things that are being reprovéd^g are made manifest by the light, for everything that is being made manifest^h is light. 14 Wherefore he* says: "Awake,ⁱ O sleeper, and arise from the dead,^j and the Christ will shine^k upon you."

15 So keep strict watch that how you walk^l is not as unwise but as wise [persons], 16 buying out the opportunity time^m for yourselves, because the days are wicked.ⁿ 17 On this account cease becoming unreasonable, but go on perceiving^o what the will^p of Jehovah* is. 18 Also, do not be getting drunk^q with wine, in which there is debauchery,^r but keep getting filled with spirit,^s 19 speaking to yourselves with psalms^t and praises^u to God and spiritual songs, singing^v and accompanying yourselves with music^w in YOUR hearts to Jehovah,^x 20 in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ giving thanks* always for all things to our* God and Father.

21 Be in subjection to one another^y in fear of Christ. 22 Let wives be in subjection^z to their husbands as to the Lord, 23 because a husband is head of his wife^a as the Christ also is head of the congregation,^b he being a savior of [this] body. 24 In fact, as the congregation is in subjection to the Christ, so let wives also be to their husbands in everything.^c 25 Husbands, continue loving YOUR wives,^d just as the Christ also loved the congregation and delivered up himself for it,^a 26 that he might sanctify it,^b cleansing it with the bath of water by means of the word,^c 27 that he might present the congregation to himself in its splendor,^d not having a spot or a wrinkle or any of such things, but that it should be holy and without blemish.^e

28 In this way husbands ought to be loving their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself, 29 for no man ever hated his own flesh; but he feeds and cherishes it,^f as the Christ also does the congregation, 30 because we are members of his body.^g 31 "For this reason a man will leave [his] father and [his] mother and he will stick to his wife, and the two will become one flesh."^h 32 This sacred secretⁱ is great. Now I am speaking with respect to Christ and the congregation.^j 33 Nevertheless, also, let each one of YOU individually so love his wife^k as he does himself; on the other hand, the wife should have deep respect^l for her husband.

6 Children, be obedient* to YOUR parents^m in unionⁿ with [the] Lord,^o for this is righteous:^o 2 "Honor your father and [your] mother";^p which is the first command with a promise:^q 3 "That it may go well with you and you may endure a long time on the earth."^r 4 And YOU, fathers, do not be irritating* YOUR children,^s but go on bringing them up^t in the discipline^u and mental-regulating^v of Jehovah.^a

5 YOU slaves, be obedient to those who are [YOUR] masters in a fleshly sense,^w with fear and trembling* in the sincerity of YOUR hearts, as to the Christ, 6 not by way of eye-service as men pleasers,^y but as Christ's slaves, doing the will of God whole-souled.^z 7 Be slaves with good inclinations, as to Jehovah,^{aa} and not to men, 8 for

1 Paul and Timothy, slaves^a of Christ Jesus, to all the holy ones in union with Christ Jesus who are in Phil'ip'pi,^b along with overseers* and ministerial servants:^c

2 May you have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ.^d

3 I thank my God always upon every remembrance of you^e 4 in every supplication of mine for all of you,^f as I offer my supplication with joy, 5 because of the contribution* you have made to the good news from the first day until this moment. 6 For I am confident of this very thing, that he who started a good work in you will carry it to completion^h until the dayⁱ of Jesus Christ. 7 It is altogether right for me to think this regarding all of you, on account of my having you in my heart,^j all of you being sharers^k with me in the undeserved kindness, both in my [prison]^l bonds and in the defending^m and legalⁿ establishing of the good news.

8 For God is my witness of how I am yearning for all of you in such tender affection^o as Christ Jesus has. 9 And this is what I continue praying, that your love may abound^p yet more

21 For in my case to live is Christ,^k and to die,^l gain. 22 Now if it be to live on in the flesh, this is a fruitage of my work^m—and yet which thing to select I do not make known.* 23 I am under pressure from these two things;ⁿ but what I do desire is the releasing* and the being with Christ,^o for this, to be sure, is far better.^p 24 However, for me to remain in the flesh is more necessary on YOUR account.^q 25 So, being confident of this, I know I shall remain^r and shall abide with all of YOU for YOUR advancement^s and the joy that belongs to [YOUR] faith, 26 so that YOUR exultation may overflow in Christ Jesus by reason of me through my presence* again with YOU.

2 If, then, there is any encouragement in Christ,^c if any consolation of love, if any sharing of spirit,^d if any tender affections^e and compassions, 2 make my joy full in that YOU are of the same mind^f and have the same love, being joined together in soul, holding the one thought in mind,^g 3 doing nothing out of contentiousness^h or out of egotism,ⁱ but with lowliness of mind considering that the others are superior^j to YOU, 4 keeping an eye, not in personal interest upon just YOUR own matters,^k but also in personal interest upon those of the others.^l

5 Keep this mental attitude* in YOU that was also in Christ Jesus,^m 6 who, although he was existing in God's form,ⁿ gave no consideration to a seizure,* namely, that he should be equal to God.^o 7 No, but he emptied himself and took a slave's form^p and came to be in the likeness of men.^q 8 More than that, when he found himself in fashion as a man,^r he humbled himself and became obedient as far as death,^s yes, death on a torture stake.^t 9 For this very reason also God exalted him to a superior position^u and kindly gave him the name that is above every [other] name,^v 10 so that in the name of Jesus every knee should bend of those in heaven and those on earth and those under the ground,^w 11 and every tongue should openly acknowledge^x that Jesus Christ is Lord^y to the glory of God the Father.^z

12 Consequently, my beloved ones, in the way that YOU have always obeyed,^a not during my presence only, but now much more readily during my absence, keep working out YOUR own salvation with fear^b and trembling; 13 for God is the one that, for the sake of [his]

19 For my part I am hoping in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you shortly, that I may be a cheerful soul^q when I get to know about the things pertaining to you. 20 For I have no one else of a disposition like his who will genuinely care^r for the things pertaining to you. 21 For all the others are seeking their own interests,^s not those of Christ Jesus. 22 But you know the proof he gave of himself, that like a child^t with a father he slaved with me in furtherance of the good news. 23 This, therefore, is the man I am hoping to send just as soon as I have seen how things stand concerning me. 24 Indeed, I am confident^{*} in [the] Lord that I myself shall also come shortly.^u

25 However, I consider it necessary to send to you E-paph-ro-di'tus,^v my brother and fellow worker^w and fellow soldier,^x but your envoy^{} and private servant for my need, 26 since he is longing to see all of you^{} and is depressed because you heard he had fallen sick. 27 Yes, indeed, he fell sick

nearly to the point of death; but God had mercy^a on him, in fact, not only on him, but also on me, that I should not get grief upon grief. 28 Therefore with the greater haste I am sending him, that on seeing him you may rejoice again and I may be the more free from grief. 29 Therefore give him the customary welcome^b in [the] Lord with all joy; and keep holding men of that sort dear,^c 30 because on account of the Lord's^{*} work he came quite near to death, exposing his soul^d to danger,^e that he might fully make up for your not being here to render private service to me.^f

3 Finally, my brothers, continue rejoicing in [the] Lord.^g To be writing the same things to you is not troublesome for me, but it is of safety to you.

2 Look out for the dogs,^h look out for the workers of injury, look out for those who mutilate the flesh.^h 3 For we are those with the real circumcision,ⁱ who are rendering sacred service^j by God's spirit^j and have our boasting in Christ Jesus^k and do not have our confidence in the flesh,^l 4 though I, if anyone, do have grounds for confidence also in the flesh.

If any other man thinks he has grounds for confidence in the flesh, I the more so:^m 5 circumcised the eighth day,ⁿ out of the family stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin,^o a Hebrew [born] from Hebrews;^p as respects law, a Pharisee;^q 6 as respects zeal, persecuting the congregation;^r as respects righteousness that is by means of law, one who proved himself blameless. 7 Yet what things were gains to me, these I have considered loss on account of the Christ.^s 8 Why, for that matter, I do indeed also consider all things to be loss on account of the excellent value of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord.^t On account of him I have taken the loss of all things and I consider them as a lot of refuse,^a that I may gain Christ 9 and be found in union with him, having, not my own righteousness, which results from law,^b but that which is through faith^c in Christ, the righteousness that issues from God on the basis of faith,^d 10 so as to know him and the power of his resurrection^e and a sharing in his sufferings,^f submitting myself to a death like his,^g 11 [to see] if I may by any means attain to the earlier resurrection^h from the dead.

12 Not that I have already received it or am already made perfect,ⁱ but I am pursuing^j to see if I may also lay hold^k on that for which I have also been laid hold^l on by Christ Jesus.* 13 Brothers, I do not yet consider myself as having laid hold on [it]; but there is one thing about it: Forgetting the things behind^m and stretching forward to the things ahead,ⁿ 14 I am pursuing down toward the goal^o for the prize^p of the upward call^q of God by means of Christ Jesus. 15 Let us, then, as many of us as are mature,^r be of this mental attitude;^s and if you are mentally inclined otherwise in any respect, God will reveal the above [attitude] to you. 16 At any rate, to what extent we have made progress, let us go on walking orderly^t in this same routine.*

17 Unitedly become imitators^u of me, brothers, and keep your eye on those who are walking in a way that accords with the example you have in us.^v 18 For there are many, I used to mention them often but now I mention them also with weeping, who are walking as the enemies of the torture stake^w of the Christ,* 19 and their finish^x is destruction,^y and their god is their belly,^z and their glory consists in their shame,^{aa} and they have their minds upon things on the earth.^{ab} 20 As for us, our citizenship^{ac} exists in the heavens,^d

But now it has been made manifest^u to his holy ones, 27 to whom God has been pleased to make known what are the glorious riches^v of this sacred secret^w among the nations. It is Christ^x in union with YOU, the hope of [his]^y glory.^z 28 He is the one we are publicizing,^{aa} admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom,^{ab} that we may present every man complete^{ac} in union with Christ. 29 To this end I am indeed working hard, exerting myself^c in accordance with the operation^d of him and which is at work in me with power.^e

2 For I want you to realize how great a struggle^a I am having in behalf of you and of those at La-o-di-ce'a^a and of all those who have not seen my face in the flesh, 2 that their hearts may be comforted,^c that they may be harmoniously joined together in love^d and with a view to all the riches of the full assurance of [their] understanding,^e with a view to an accurate knowledge of the sacred secret of God, namely, Christ.^f 3 Carefully concealed in him are all the treasures of wisdom and of knowledge.^g 4 This I am saying that no man may delude^h you with persuasive arguments.ⁱ 5 For though I am absent in the flesh, all the same I am with you in the spirit,^j rejoicing and beholding YOUR good order^j and the firmness of YOUR faith^k toward Christ.

6 Therefore, as you have accepted Christ Jesus the Lord, go on walking in union^l with him, 7 rooted^m and being built upⁿ in him and being stabilized in the faith,^o just as you were taught, overflowing with [faith]^p in thanksgiving.^q

8 Look out: perhaps there may be someone who will carry^r you off as his prey through the philosophy^r and empty deception^s according to the tradition of men, according to the elementary^t things of the world and not according to Christ; 9 because it is in him that all the fullness^u of the divine^v quality^w dwells bodily. 10 And so you are possessed of a fullness by means of him, who is the head of all government and authority.^x 11 By relationship^y with him you were also circumcised^z with a circumcision performed without hands by the stripping off the body of the flesh,^a by the circumcision that belongs to the Christ, 12 for you were buried with him in [his]^b baptism,^b and by relationship with him you were also raised^c up together through [YOUR] faith^d in

1 Paul and Sil-va'nus and Timothy^b to the congregation of the Thessa-lo'ni-ans in union^c with God the Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ:

May YOU have undeserved kindness and peace.^d

2 We always thank God when we make mention concerning all of YOU in our prayers,^e 3 for we bear incessantly in mind YOUR faithful work^f and [your] loving labor^g and [your] endurance due to [your] hope^h in our Lord Jesus Christ before our God and Fa-ther. 4 For we know, brothers loved by God, his choosing of YOU,^h 5 because the good news we preach did not turn up among YOU with speech alone but also with powerⁱ and with holy spir-it and strong conviction,^j just as YOU know what sort of men we became to YOU for YOUR sakes;^k 6 and YOU be-came imitators^l of us and of the Lord,^m seeing that YOU accepted the word under much tribulationⁿ with joy of holy spirit,^o 7 so that you came to be an example to all the believers in Mac-e-do'ni-a and in A-cha'ia.*

8 The fact is, not only has the word of Jehovah^p sounded forth from YOU in Mac-e-do'ni-a and A-cha'ia, but in every place YOUR faith^q toward God has spread abroad,^r so that we do not need to say anything. 9 For they themselves keep reporting about the way we first en-tered in among YOU and how YOU turned to God from [YOUR] idols^s to slave for a living^t and true^u God, 10 and to wait^v for his Son from the heavens,^w whom he raised up from the dead,^x namely,

Jesus, who delivers us from the wrath which is coming.^a

2 To be sure, YOU yourselves know, brothers, how our visit^b to YOU has not been without results,^c 2 but how, after we had first suffered^d and been insolently treated^e (just as YOU know) in Phi-lyp'pi,^f we mustered up boldness^g by means of our God to speak^h to YOU the good news of God with a great deal of struggling. 3 For the exhorta-tion we give does not arise from error or from uncleannessⁱ or with deceit, 4 but, just as we have been proved by God as fit to be entrusted^j with the good news, so we speak, as pleasing,^k not men, but God, who makes proof of our hearts.^k

5 In fact, at no time have we turned up either with flattering speech,^l (just as YOU know) or with a false front^m for covetousness,ⁿ God is witness! 6 Nei-ther have we been seeking glory from men,^o no, either from YOU or from oth-ers, though we could be an expensive burden^p as apostles of Christ. 7 To the contrary, we became gentle^q in the midst of YOU, as when a nursing moth-er cherishes^r her own children. 8 So, having a tender affection for YOU,^s we were well pleased to impart to YOU, not only the good news of God, but also our own souls,^t because YOU became beloved^u to us.

9 Certainly you bear in mind, broth-ers, our labor and toil. It was with working^v night and day, so as not to put an expensive burden upon any one of you,^v that we preached the good news of God to you. 10 You are witnesses, God is also, how loyal and righteous and unblamable^a we proved to be to you believers. 11 In harmony with that you well know how, as a father^b does his children, we kept exhorting^c each one of you, and consoling and bearing witness to you, 12 to the end that you should go on walking^d worthily of God who is calling^e you to his kingdom^f and glory.

13 Indeed, that is why we also thank God incessantly,^g because when you received God's word,^h which you heard from us, you accepted it, not as the word of men,ⁱ but, just as it truthfully is, as the word of God, which^{*} is also at work in you believers.^j 14 For you became imitators,^k brothers, of the congregations of God that are in Judea in union with Christ Jesus, because you also began suffering^k at the hands of your own countrymen the same things as they also [are suffering] at the hands of the Jews, 15 who killed even the Lord Jesus^l and the prophets^m and persecuted us.ⁿ Furthermore, they are not pleasing God, but are against [the interests of] all men, 16 as they try to hinder^o us from speaking to people of the nations that these might be saved,^p with the result that they always fill up the measure^q of their sins. But his^r wrath has at length^a come upon them.^r

17 As for ourselves, brothers, when we were bereaved^{*} of you for but a short time,^s in person, not in heart, we endeavored far more than is usual to see your faces with great desire.^s 18 For this reason we wanted to come to you, yes, I Paul, both once and a second time, but Satan cut across our path. 19 For what is our hope or joy or crown^t of exultation—why, is it not in fact you?—before our Lord Jesus at his presence?^u 20 You certainly are our glory and joy.

3 Hence, when we could bear it no longer, we saw good to be left alone in Athens;^a 2 and we sent Timothy,^b our brother and God's minister^{*} in the good news^c about the Christ, in order to make you firm and comfort you in behalf of your faith, 3 that no one might be swayed by these tribulations.^d For you yourselves know we are appointed to this very thing.^e 4 In fact, too, when we were with you, we used to tell you beforehand^f that we were destined to suffer tribulation,^g just as it has also happened and as you know.^h 5 That is why, indeed, when I could bear it no longer, I sent to know of your faithfulness,ⁱ as perhaps in some way the Tempter^j might have tempted you, and our labor might have turned out to be in vain.^k

6 But Timothy has just now come to us from you^l and given us the good news about your faithfulness and love,^m and that you continue having good remembrance of us always, yearning to see us in the same way, indeed, as we also do you.ⁿ 7 That is why, brothers, we have been comforted^o over you in all our necessity and tribulation through the faithfulness you show,^p 8 because now we live if you stand firm in [the] Lord.^q 9 For what thanksgiving can we render to God concerning you in return for all the joy with which we are rejoicing^r on your account before our God, 10 while night and day we make more than extraordinary supplications^s to see your faces and to make good the things that are lacking about your faith?^t

11 Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus^u direct our way prosperously to you. 12 Moreover, may the Lord cause you to increase,^v yes, make you abound, in love^w to one another and to all, even as we also do to you; 13 to the end that he may make your hearts firm, unblamable^x in holiness before our God and

Father at the presence^a of our Lord Jesus with all his holy ones.^b

4 Finally, brothers, we request YOU and exhort YOU by the Lord Jesus, just as YOU received [the instruction] from us on how YOU ought to walk^c and please God, just as YOU are in fact walking, that you would keep on doing it more fully.^d 2 For you know the orders^e we gave YOU through the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is what God wills, the sanctifying^f of you,^g that you abstain from fornication;^h 4 that each one of YOU should know how to get possession of his own vesselⁱ in sanctification^j and honor, 5 not in covetous sexual appetite^k such as also those nations^k have which do not know God;^l 6 that no one go to the point of harming and encroach upon the rights of his brother in this matter,^m because Jehovahⁿ is one who exacts punishment for all these things,ⁿ just as we told YOU beforehand and also gave YOU a thorough witness.^o 7 For God called us, not with allowance for uncleanness,^p but in connection with sanctification.^p 8 So, then, the man that shows disregard^q is disregarding, not man, but God,^r who puts his holy spirit^s in you.

9 However, with reference to brotherly love,^t YOU do not need us to be writing YOU, for YOU yourselves are taught by God^u to love one another;^v 10 and, in fact, YOU are doing it to all the brothers in all of Mac-e-do-ni-a. But we exhort YOU, brothers, to go on doing it in fuller measure, 11 and to make it YOUR aim to live quietly^w and to mind YOUR own business^x and work with YOUR hands,^y just as we ordered YOU; 12 so that you may be walking decently^z as regards people outside^a and not be needing anything.^b want YOU to be ignorant concerning those who are sleeping^a [in death]; that YOU may not sorrow just as the rest also do who have no hope.^b 14 For if our faith is that Jesus died and rose again,^c so, too, those who have fallen asleep [in death] through Jesus God will bring with him.^d 15 For this is what we tell YOU by Jehovah's^e word,^e that we the living who survive to the presence of the Lord^f shall in no way precede those who have fallen asleep [in death]; 16 because the Lord^g himself will descend from heaven^h with a commanding call, with an archangel's^h voice and with God's trumpet,ⁱ and those who are dead in union with Christ will rise first.^j 17 Afterward we the living who are surviving^k will, together^l with them,^k be caught away^l in clouds^m to meetⁿ the Lord^o in the air; and thus we shall always be with [the] Lord.^o 18 Consequently keep comforting one another with these words.

5 Now as for the times and the seasons,^p brothers, you need nothing to be written to you. 2 For you yourselves know quite well that Jehovah's^q day^q is coming exactly as a thief in the night.^r 3 Whenever it is that they^s are saying: "Peace^t and security!" then sudden destruction^u is to be instantly upon them just as the pang of distress upon a pregnant woman;^v and they will by no means escape.^w 4 But you, brothers, you are not in darkness,^x so that that day should overtake you as it would thieves,^y 5 for you are all sons of light^z and sons of day.^a We belong neither to night nor to darkness.^b

6 So, then, let us not sleep^a on as the rest do,^b but let us stay awake^c and keep our senses.^d 7 For those who sleep^e are accustomed to sleep at night,^f and those who get drunk are usually drunk at night. 8 But as for us who belong to the day, let us keep our senses and have on the breastplate^g of faith^h and love and as a helmetⁱ the hope of salvation;^j 9 because God assigned us, not to wrath,^k but to the acquiring of salvation^l through our Lord Jesus Christ.^m 10 He died for us,ⁿ that, whether we stay awake or are asleep, we should live together with him.^o 11 Therefore keep comforting one another and building one another up,^p just as YOU are in fact doing.^q

12 Now we request YOU, brothers, to have regard for those who are working hard among YOU and presiding^r over^s YOU in [the] Lord and admonishing YOU; 13 and to give them more than extraordinary consideration in love because of their work.^t Be peaceable with one another.^u 14 On the other hand, we exhort YOU, brothers, admonish the disorderly,^v speak consolingly to the depressed souls,^w support the weak, be long-suffering^x toward all. 15 See that no one renders injury for injury to anyone else,^y but always pursue what

THE SECOND TO THE THESSALONIANS

1 Paul and Sil-va'nus* and Timothy^a to the congregation of the Thes-sa-lo'ni-ans in union with God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ:

2 May YOU have undeserved kindness and peace from God the Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ.^b

3 We are obligated to give God thanks always for YOU,^c brothers, as it is fitting, because YOUR faith is growing^d exceedingly and the love of each and all of YOU is increasing one toward the other.^e

4 As a result we ourselves take pride^f in YOU among the congregations of God because of YOUR endurance and faith in all YOUR persecutions and the tribulations that YOU are bearing.^g 5 This is a proof of the righteous judgment of God,^h leading to YOUR being counted worthy of the kingdom of God,ⁱ for which YOU are indeed suffering.^j day with wonder in connection with all those who exercised faith, because the witness* we gave met with faith among YOU.

11 To that very end indeed we always pray for YOU, that our God may count YOU worthy of [his] calling^a and perform completely all he pleases of goodness and the work of faith with power; 12 in order that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in YOU,^b and YOU in union^c with him, in accord with the undeserved kindness^d of our God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.*

him,^a that he may become ashamed.^b

15 And yet do not be considering him as an enemy, but continue admonishing^c him as a brother.

16 Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace constantly in every way.^d The Lord be with all of you.

17 [Here is] my greeting, Paul's, in my own hand,^e which is a sign in every letter; this is the way I write.

18 The undeserved kindness^f of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you.

TIMOTHY

1 Paul, an apostle^a of Christ Jesus under command of God^b our Savior^c and of Christ Jesus, our hope,^d 2 to Timothy,^e a genuine child^f in the faith:

May there be undeserved kindness, mercy, peace from God [the] Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.^g

3 Just as I encouraged you to stay in Eph'e-sus when I was about to go my way into Mac-e-do'ni-a,^h so I do now, that you might commandⁱ certain ones not to teach different doctrine,^j 4 nor to pay attention to false stories^k and to genealogies, which end up in nothing,^l but which furnish questions for research rather than a dispensing^m of anything by God in connection with faith. 5 Really the objectiveⁿ of this mandate is love^o out of a clean heart^p and out of a good conscience^q and out of faith without hypocrisy.^r 6 By deviating from these things certain ones have been turned aside^s into idle talk,^t

7 wanting to be teachers^a of law,^b but not perceiving either the things they are saying or the things about which they are making strong assertions.

8 Now we know that the Law is fine^c provided one handles it lawfully.^d 9 in the knowledge of this fact, that law is promulgated, not for a righteous man, but for persons lawless^e and unruly,^f ungodly and sinners, lacking loving-kindness,^g and profane, murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, manslayers, 10 fornicators,^h men who lie with males, kidnappers, liars, false swearers,ⁱ and whatever other thing is in opposition^j to the healthful teaching^k 11 according to the glorious good news of the happy^l God, with which I was entrusted.^m

12 I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who imparted power to me, because he considered me faithfulⁿ by assigning me to a ministry,^o 13 although formerly I was a blasphemer and a persecutor^p and an insolent^q man. ness of our Lord abounded exceedingly^a along with faith and love that is in connection with Christ Jesus.^b 15 Faithful and deserving of full acceptance is the saying^c that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.^d Of these I am foremost.^e 16 Nevertheless, the reason why I was shown mercy^f was that by means of me as the foremost case Christ Jesus might demonstrate all his long-suffering for a sample of those who are going to rest their faith^g on him for everlasting life.^h

18 This mandateⁿ I commit to you, child, Timothy, in accord with the predictions^o that led directly on to you, that by these you may go on waging the fine warfare;^p 19 holding faith and a good conscience,^q which some have thrust aside^r and have experienced shipwreck concerning [their] faith.^s 20 Hymenae^t and Alexander^u belong to these, and I have handed them over to Satan^v that they may be taught by discipline^w not to blaspheme.^z

2 I therefore exhort, first of all, that supplications, prayers,^x intercessions, offerings of thanks, be made concerning^{} all sorts of men,^y 2 concerning kings^z and all those who are in high station;^a in order that we may go on leading a calm and quiet life with full godly devotion^{} and seriousness.^b 3 This is fine and acceptable^c in the sight of our Savior, God,^d 4 whose will is that all sorts of men^e should be saved^f and come to an accurate knowledge^g of truth.^h 5 For there is one God,ⁱ and one mediator^j between God^k and men,¹ a man, Christ Jesus,^m 6 who gave himself a corresponding ransom^{*} for all^{*a} —[this is] what is to be witnessed to at its own particular times. 7 For the purpose of this witness^b I was appointed a preacher and an apostle^c—I am telling the truth,^d I am not lying—a teacher of nations^e in the matter of faith^f and truth.

8 Therefore I desire that in every place the men carry on prayer, lifting up loyal hands,^g apart from wrath^h and debates.ⁱ 9 Likewise I desire the women to adorn themselves in well-arranged dress, with modesty^j and soundness of mind, not with styles of hair braiding and gold or pearls or very expensive garb,^k 10 but in the way that befits women professing to reverence God,^{*1} namely, through good works.^m

11 Let a woman learn in silence^{} with full submissiveness.ⁿ 12 I do not permit a woman to teach,^o or to exercise authority over a man,^p but to be in silence. 13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve.^q 14 Also, Adam was not deceived,^r but the woman was thoroughly deceived^s and came to be in transgression.^t 15 However, she will be kept safe^{} through childbearing,^u provided they continue in faith and love and sanctification along with soundness of mind.^v

3 That statement is faithful.^w If any man is reaching out for an office of overseer,^{} he is desirous of a fine work. 2 The overseer^{} should therefore be irreprehensible,^y a husband of one wife, moderate^z in habits,^{}

ing God, a pillar and support^a of the truth. 16 Indeed, the sacred secret^b of this godly devotion^c is admittedly great: 'He was made manifest in flesh,^c was declared righteous in spirit,^d appeared to angels,^e was preached about among nations,^f was believed upon in [the] world,^g was received up in glory.'^h

4 However, the inspired utteranceⁱ says definitely that in later periods of time^j some will fall away^j from the faith, paying attention to misleading inspired utterances^{kl} and teachings of demons,^l 2 by the hypocrisy of men who speak lies,^m marked in their conscienceⁿ as with a branding iron; 3 forbidding to marry,^o commanding to abstain from foods^p which God created^q to be partaken of with thanksgiving by those who have faith^r and accurately know the truth. 4 The reason for this is that every creation of God is fine,^s and nothing is to be rejected^t if it is received with thanksgiving,^u 5 for it is sanctified^v through God's word and prayer over [it].

6 By giving these advices to the brothers you will be a fine minister of Christ Jesus, one nourished with the words of the faith and of the fine teaching^v which you have followed closely.^w 7 But turn down the false stories^x which violate what is holy and which old women tell. On the other hand, be training yourself with godly devotion^y as your aim.^y 8 For bodily training^z is beneficial for a little; but godly devotion^{aa} is beneficial for all things,^a as it holds promise of the life now and that which is to come.^b 9 Faithful and deserving of full acceptance is that statement.^c

10 For to this end we are working hard and exerting ourselves,^a because we have rested our hope^b on a living God, who is a Savior^c of all sorts of men,^d especially of faithful ones.^e

11 Keep on giving these commands^f and teaching them.^g 12 Let no man ever look down on your youth.^h On the contrary, become an exampleⁱ to the faithful ones^j in speaking, in conduct, in love, in faith, in chasteness.^k 13 While I am coming, continue applying yourself to public^l reading,^m to exhortation, to teaching. 14 Do not be neglecting the giftⁿ in you that was given you through a prediction^o and when the body of older men^p laid their hands^q upon you. 15 Ponder over these things;^r be absorbed in them, that your advancement^s may be manifest to all [persons]. 16 Pay constant attention to yourself^t and to your teaching.^u Stay by these things, for by doing this you will save both yourself and those who listen to you.^v

5 Do not severely criticize an older man.^w To the contrary, entreat him as a father, younger men as brothers, 2 older women^x as mothers, younger women as sisters^y with all chasteness.

24 The sins of some men are publicly manifest,^j leading directly to judgment, but as for other men [their sins] also become manifest later.^k 25 In the same way also the fine works are publicly manifest^l and those that are otherwise cannot be kept hid.^m

6 Let as many as are slaves under a yoke keep on considering their owners worthy of full honor,ⁿ that the name of God and the teaching may never be spoken of injuriously.^o 2 Moreover, let those having believing owners^p not look down on them,^q because they are brothers.^r On the contrary, let them the more readily be slaves, because those receiving the benefit of their good service^s are believers and beloved.

THE SECOND TO TIMOTHY

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through God's will^a according to the promise of the life^b that is in union with Christ Jesus,^c 2 to Timothy, a beloved child:^d

May there be undeserved kindness, mercy, peace from God [the] Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.^e

3 I am grateful to God, to whom I am rendering sacred service^f as my forefathers^g did and with a clean conscience,^h that I never leave off remembering you in my supplications,ⁱ night and day 4 longing to see you,^j as I remember your tears, that I may get filled with joy. 5 For I recollect the faith^k which is in you without any hypocrisy,^l and which dwelt first in your grandmother Lo'is and your mother Eu'nice, but which I am confident is also in you.

6 For this very cause I remind you to stir up like a fire^m the giftⁿ of God which is in you through the laying of my hands upon you.^o 7 For God gave us not a spirit of cowardice,^p but that of power^q and of love and of soundness of mind.^r 8 Therefore do not become

TO THE HEBREWS

1 God, who long ago spoke on many occasions^a and in many ways to our forefathers by means of the prophets,^b 2 has at the end of these days^c spoken to us by means of a Son,^d whom he appointed heir of all things,^e and through whom he made^f the systems of things.* 3 He is the reflection* of [his] glory^g and the exact representation of his very being,^h and he sustains all things by the word of his power;ⁱ and after he had made a purification for our sins^j he sat down on the right hand^k of the Majesty^l in lofty places.¹ 4 So he has become better than the angels,^m to the extent that he has inherited a nameⁿ more excellent than theirs.

5 For example, to which one of the angels did he ever say: “You are my son; I, today, I have become your father”?^o And again: “I myself shall become his father, and he himself will become my son”?^p 6 But when he again brings his Firstborn^q into the inhabited earth,

2 That is why it is necessary for us to pay more than the usual attention to* the things heard^g by us, that we may never drift away.^h 2 For if the word spoken through angelsⁱ proved to be firm, and every transgression and disobedient act received a retribution* in harmony with justice;^j 3 how shall we escape^k if we have neglected^l a salvation of such greatness^m in that it began to be spoken through [our] Lordⁿ and was verified^o for us by those who heard him, 4 while God joined in bearing witness with signs as well as portents and various powerful works^p and with distributions^q of holy spirit according to his will?^r

5 For it is not to angels that he has subjected the inhabited earth* to come,^s about which we are speaking. 6 But a certain witness has given proof somewhere, saying: “What is man that you keep him in mind,^t or [the] son of man that you take care of him?”^u 7 You made him a little* lower than angels; with glory and honor^v you crowned him, and appointed him over the works of your hands.^w 8 All things you subjected under his feet.”^x For in that he subjected all things to him^y [God]* left nothing that is not subject to him.^z Now, though, we do not yet see all things in subjection to him;^a 9 but we behold Jesus, who has been made a little* lower than angels,^b crowned with glory^c and honor for having suffered death,^d that he by God's undeserved kindness might taste death for every^e [man].^e

10 For it was fitting for the one for whose sake all things are^f and through whom all things are, in bringing many sons to glory,^g to make the Chief Agent^h of their salvation perfect through sufferings.ⁱ 11 For both he who is sanctifying and those who are being sanctified^j all [stem] from one,^k and for this cause he is not ashamed to call them “brothers,”^l 12 as he says: “I will declare your name to my brothers; in the middle of [the] congregation* I will praise you with song.”^m 13 And again: “I will have my trust in him.”ⁿ And again: “Look! I and the young children, whom Jehovah* gave me.”^o

14 Therefore, since the “young children” are sharers of blood and flesh, he also similarly partook of the same things,^p that through his death^q he might bring to nothing^r the one having the means to cause death,^s that is, the Devil;^t 15 and [that] he might emancipate^u all those who for fear of death^v were subject to slavery all through their lives.^w 16 For he is really not assisting angels at all, but he is assisting Abraham's seed.^x 17 Consequently he was obliged to become like his “brothers” in all respects,^y that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest* in things pertaining to God,^z in order to offer propitiatory* sacrifice* for the sins of the people.^b 18 For in that he himself has suffered when being put to the test,^c he is able to come to the aid of those who are being put to the test.^d

3 Consequently, holy brothers, partakers of the heavenly calling,^e consider the apostle^f and high priest whom we confess^g—Jesus. 2 He was faithful^h to the One that made him such, as Mosesⁱ was also in all the house of that One.^j 3 For the latter is counted worthy of more glory^k than Moses, inasmuch as he^l who constructs it has more honor than the house.^m 4 Of course, every house is constructed by someone, but he that constructed all things is God.ⁿ 5 And Moses as an attendant^o was faithful in all the house* of that One as a testimony of the things that were to be spoken afterwards,^p 6 but Christ [was faithful] as a Son^q over the house of that One. We are the house of that One,^r if we make fast our hold on our freeness of speech and our boasting over the hope firm to the end.^s

7 For this reason, just as the holy spirit^t says: "Today if you people listen to his own voice," 8 do not harden YOUR hearts as on the occasion of causing bitter anger,^u as in the day of making the test^v in the wilderness,^w 9 in which YOUR forefathers made a test of me with a trial, and yet they had seen my works^x for forty years.^y 10 For this reason I became disgusted with this generation and said, "They always go astray in their hearts,^z and they themselves have not come to know my ways."^{aa} 11 So I swore in my anger, "They shall not enter^{ab} into my rest."^{ac}

12 Beware, brothers, for fear there should ever develop in any one of YOU a wicked heart lacking faith* by drawing away^{ad} from the living God;^{ae} 13 but keep on exhorting^{af} one another each day, as long as it may be called "Today,"^a for fear any one of you should become hardened by the deceptive^b power* of sin. 14 For we actually become partakers of the Christ^c only if we make fast our hold on the confidence we had at the beginning firm to the end,^d 15 while it is being said: "Today if you people listen to his own voice,^e do not harden YOUR hearts as on the occasion of causing bitter anger."^f

16 For who were they that heard and yet provoked to bitter anger?^g Did not, in fact, all do so who went out of Egypt under Moses?^h 17 Moreover, with whom did [God]* become disgusted for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?ⁱ 18 But to whom did he swear^k that they should not enter into his rest except to those who acted disobediently?^l 19 So we see that they could not enter in because of lack of faith.^m

4 Therefore, since a promise is left of entering into his rest,ⁿ let us fear that sometime someone of you may seem to have fallen short of it.^o 2 For we have had the good news declared to us also,^p even as they also had;^q but the word which was heard did not benefit them,^r because they were not united by faith^s with those who did hear.^t 3 For we who have exercised faith do enter into the rest, just as he has said: "So I swore^u in my anger, 'They shall not enter^v into my rest,'"^w although his* works were finished^x from the founding^y of the world.^z 4 For in one place he has said of the seventh day as follows: "And God* rested on the seventh day from all his works,"^{aa} 5 and again in this place: "They shall not enter into my rest."^a

6 Since, therefore, it remains for some to enter into it, and those to whom the good news^b was first declared did not enter in because of disobedience,^c 7 he again marks off a certain day by saying after so long a time in David's [psalm] "Today"; just as it has been said above: "Today if you people listen to his own voice,^d do not harden your hearts."^e 8 For if Joshua^f had led them into a place of rest,^g [God]^h would not afterward have spoken^h of another day. 9 So there remains a sabbath resting for the people of God.ⁱ 10 For the man that has entered into [God's]^j rest^j has also himself rested from his own works,^k just as God did from his own.

11 Let us therefore do our utmost to enter into that rest, for fear anyone should fall in the same pattern of disobedience.^l 12 For the word^m of God is aliveⁿ and exerts power^o and is sharper than any two-edged sword^p and pierces even to the dividing of soul^q and spirit,^r and of joints and [their] marrow, and [is] able to discern^s thoughts and intentions^t of [the] heart.^u 13 And there is not a creation that is not manifest to his sight,^v but all things are naked and openly exposed to the eyes of him with whom we have an accounting.^w speech^a to the throne of undeserved kindness, that we may obtain mercy and find undeserved kindness for help at the right time.^b

5 For every high priest taken from among men is appointed in behalf of men over the things pertaining to God,^c that he may offer gifts and sacrifices for sins.^d 2 He is able to deal moderately with the ignorant and erring ones since he also is surrounded with his own weakness,^e 3 and on its account he is obliged to make offerings for sins as much for himself as for the people.^f

4 Also, a man takes this honor, not of his own accord,^g but only when he is called by God,^h just as Aaronⁱ also [was]. 5 So too the Christ did not glorify himself^j by becoming a high priest,^k but [was glorified^l by him] who spoke with reference to him: "You are my son; I, today, I have become your father."^m 6 Just as he says also in another place: "You are a priest forever according to the mannerⁿ of Mel-chiz'e-dek."^o

7 In the days of his flesh [Christ] offered up supplications and also petitions^p to the One who was able to save him out of death, with strong^q outcries and tears, and he was favorably heard for his godly fear.^r 8 Although he was a Son, he learned obedience from the things he suffered;^s 9 and after he had been made perfect^t he became responsible for everlasting salvation^u to all those obeying him,^v 10 because he has been specifically called by God a high priest according to the manner of Mel-chiz'e-dek.^w

11 Concerning him we have much to say and hard to be explained,^x since you have become dull in your hearing.^y 12 For, indeed, although you ought to be teachers^z in view of the time, you again need someone to teach you from the beginning the elementary things^a of the sacred pronouncements of God;^b and you have become such as need milk, not solid food.^c 13 For everyone that partakes of milk is unacquainted with the word of righteousness, for he is a babe.^d 14 But solid food belongs to mature people, to those who through use have their perceptive powers^e trained^f to distinguish both right and wrong.^g

6 For this reason, now that we have left the primary^h doctrine about the Christ,ⁱ let us press on to maturity,^j not laying a foundation again,^k namely, repentance from dead works,^l and faith toward God,^m 2 the teaching on baptismsⁿ and the laying on of the hands,^o the resurrection of the dead^p and everlasting judgment.^q 3 And this we will do, if God indeed permits.^r

4 For it is impossible as regards those who have once for all been enlightened,^s and who have tasted the heavenly free gift,^t and who have become partakers of holy spirit,^u 5 and who have tasted^v the fine word of God and powers of the coming system of things,^w 6 but who have fallen away,^x to revive^y them again to repentance,^z because they impale^{aa} the Son of God afresh for themselves and expose him to public shame.^{ab} 7 For example, the ground that drinks in the rain which often comes upon it, and that then brings forth vegetation suitable to those for whom it is also cultivated,^{ac} receives in return a blessing from God. 8 But if it produces thorns and thistles, it is rejected and is near to being cursed;^{ad} and it ends up with being burned.^{ae}

9 However, in YOUR case, beloved ones, we are convinced of better things and things accompanied with salvation, although we are speaking in this way.

10 For God is not unrighteous so as to forget YOUR work and the love you showed for his name,^a in that you have ministered^b to the holy ones^c and continue ministering. 11 But we desire each one of you to show the same industriousness^d so as to have the full assurance^e of the hope^f down to the end,^g 12 in order that you may not become sluggish,^h but be imitatorsⁱ of those who through faith and patience^j inherit the promises.^k

13 For when God made his promise to Abraham,^l since he could not swear by anyone greater, he swore^m by himself, 14 saying: "Assuredly in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply you."ⁿ 15 And thus after [Abraham]* had shown patience, he obtained [this] promise.^o 16 For men swear by the one greater,^p and their oath is the end of every dispute, as it is a legal guarantee to them.^q 17 In this manner God, when he purposed to demonstrate more abundantly to the heirs^r of the promise the unchangeableness^s of his counsel, stepped in^t with an oath, 18 in order that, through two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie,^u we who have fled to the refuge may have strong encouragement to lay hold on the hope^v set before us. 19 This [hope]^w we have as an anchor for the soul, both sure and firm, and it enters in within^x the curtain,^y 20 where a forerunner has entered in our behalf,^z Jesus, who has become a high priest according to the manner of Mel-chiz'e-dek forever.^{aa}

7 For this Mel-chiz'e-dek, king of Sa'-lem, priest of the Most High God,^{ab} who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him^{ac} 2 and to whom Abraham apportioned

a tenth from all things,^a is first of all, by translation, "King of Righteousness," and is then also king of Sa'lem,^b that is, "King of Peace." 3 In being fatherless, motherless, without genealogy, having neither a beginning of days^c nor an end of life, but having been made like the Son of God,^d he remains a priest perpetually.^e

4 BEHOLD, then, how great this man was to whom Abraham, the family head,^{} gave a tenth out of the chief spoils.^f 5 True, the men from the sons of Le'vi^g who receive their priestly office have a commandment to collect tithes^h from the peopleⁱ according to the Law, that is, from their brothers, even if these have issued from the loins of Abraham;^j 6 but the man who did not trace his genealogy^k from them took tithes from Abraham^l and blessed him who had the promises.^m 7 Now without any dispute,^{} the less is blessed by the greater.ⁿ 8 And in the one case it is men who are dying that receive tithes,^o but in the other case it is someone of whom it is witnessed that he lives.^p 9 And, if I may use the expression, through Abraham even Le'vi who receives tithes has paid tithes, 10 for he was still in the loins^q of his forefather when Mel-chiz'e-dek met him.^r

11 If, then, perfection^s were really through the Levitical priesthood,^t (for with it as a feature^{*} the people were given the Law,) what further need would there be^v for another priest to arise according to the manner^w of Mel-chiz'e-dek^x and not said to be according to the manner of Aaron? 12 For since the priesthood is being changed,^y there comes to be of necessity a change also of the law.^z 13 For the man respecting whom these things are said has been a member of another tribe,^{aa} from which no one has officiated at the altar.^{ab} 14 For it is quite plain that our Lord has sprung up out of Judah,^{ac} a tribe about which Moses spoke nothing concerning priests.

15 And it is still more abundantly clear that with a similarity^{} to Mel-chiz'e-dek^a there arises another priest,^b 16 who has become such, not according to the law of a commandment depending upon the flesh,^c but according to the power of an indestructible^{} life,^d 17 for in witness it is said: "You are a priest forever according to the manner of Mel-chiz'e-dek."^e

18 Certainly, then, there occurs a setting aside of the preceding commandment on account of its weakness^f and ineffectiveness.^g 19 For the Law made nothing perfect,^h but the bringing in besides of a better hopeⁱ did, through which we are drawing near to God.^j 20 Also, to the extent that it was not without a sworn oath, 21 (for there are indeed men that have become priests without a sworn oath, but there is one with an oath sworn by the One who said respecting him: "Jehovah^{} has sworn^k (and he will feel no regret), 'You are a priest forever,'")^l 22 to that extent also Jesus has become the one given in pledge of a better covenant.^m 23 Furthermore, many had to become priests [in succession]ⁿ because of being prevented by death^o from continuing as such, 24 but he because of continuing alive forever^p has his priesthood without any successors.^{} 25 Consequently he is able also to save completely those who are approaching God through him, because he is always alive to plead^{*} for them.^q

26 For such a high priest as this was suitable for us,^r loyal,^s guileless,^t undefiled,^u separated from the sinners,^v and become higher than the heavens.^w 27 He does not need daily,^x as those high priests do, to offer up sacrifices, first for his own sins^a and then for those of the people:^b (for this he did once^c for all time when he offered^d himself up;) 28 for the Law appoints men high priests^e having weakness,^f but the word of the sworn oath^g that came after the Law appoints a Son, who is perfected^h forever.

8 Now as to the things being discussed this is the main point: We have such a high priestⁱ as this, and he has sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty* in the heavens,^j 2 a public servant* of the holy place^k and of the true tent,^l which Jehovah^m put up, and not man.ⁿ 3 For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices;ⁿ wherefore it was necessary for this one also to have something to offer.^o 4 If, now, he were upon earth, he would not be a priest,^p there being [men] who offer the gifts according to the Law, 5 but which [men] are rendering sacred service in a typical representation^q and a shadow^r of the heavenly things; just as Moses, when about to make the tent^s in completion, was given the divine command:^t "For says he: 'See that you make all things after [their] pattern^u that was shown to you in the mountain.'"^u 6 But now [Jesus]* has obtained a more excellent public service, so that he is also the mediator^v of a correspondingly better covenant,^w which has been legally established upon better promises.^x

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, no place would have been sought for a second;^y 8 for he does find fault with the people when he says: "Look! There are days coming," says Jehovah,^z "and I will conclude with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah a new covenant;^z 9 not accord-

13 In his saying "a new [covenant]" he has made the former one obsolete.*l Now that which is made obsolete and growing old is near to vanishing away.^m

9 For its part, then, the former [covenant] used to have ordinances of sacred serviceⁿ and [its] mundane^o holy place.^o 2 For there was constructed a first tent [compartment]^p in which were the lampstand^q and also the table^r and the display of the loaves;^s and it is called "the Holy Place."^t 3 But behind the second curtain^u was the tent [compartment] called "the Most Holy."^u 4 This had a golden censer^w and the ark of the covenant^x overlaid all around with gold,^y in which were the golden jar having the manna^z and the rod of

6 After these things had been constructed this way, the priests enter the first tent [compartment]^e at all times to perform the sacred services;^f 7 but into the second [compartment] the high priest alone enters once a year,^g not without blood,^h which he offers for himself and for the sins of ignorance of the people.ⁱ 8 Thus the holy spirit makes it plain that the way^k into the holy place* had not yet been made manifest while the first tent was standing.^l 9 This very [tent] is an illustration^m for the appointed time that is now here,ⁿ and in keeping with it both gifts and sacrifices are offered.^o However, these are not able to make the [man] doing sacred service^p perfect^q as respects his conscience,^r 10 but have to do only with foods^s and drinks^t and various baptisms.^u They were legal requirements pertaining to the flesh^v and were imposed until the appointed time to set things straight.^w

11 However, when Christ came as a high priest^x of the good things that have come to pass,* through the greater and more perfect tent not made with hands, that is, not of this creation,* 12 he entered, no, not with* the blood^y of goats and of young bulls, but with his own blood,^z once for all time into the holy place and obtained* an everlasting deliverance^a [for us].^a 13 For if the blood of goats^b and of bulls^c and the ashes^a of a heifer sprinkled on those who have been defiled^b sanctifies to the extent of cleanness of the flesh,^c 14 how much more will the blood^d of the Christ, who through an everlasting spirit offered^e himself without blemish to God, cleanse^f our consciences from dead works^g that we may render sacred service^h to [the] living God?

15 So that is why he is a mediatorⁱ of a new covenant, in order that, because a death has occurred for [their] release by ransom^j from the transgressions under the former covenant,^k the ones who have been called might receive the promise of the everlasting inheritance.^l

16 For where there is a covenant,^m the death of the [human] covenanterⁿ needs to be furnished. 17 For a covenant is valid over dead [victims],* since it is not in force at any time while the [human] covenanter is living. 18 Consequently neither was the former [covenant]^o inaugurated* without blood.^o 19 For when every commandment according to the Law had been spoken by Moses to all the people,^p he took the blood of the young bulls and of the goats with water and scarlet wool and hyssop^q and sprinkled the book* itself and all the people, 20 saying: "This is the blood of the covenant that God has laid as a charge upon YOU."^r 21 And he sprinkled the tent^s and all the vessels of the public service likewise with the blood.^t 22 Yes, nearly all things are cleansed with blood^u according to the Law, and unless blood is poured out^v no forgiveness takes place.^w

23 Therefore it was necessary that the typical representations^x of the things in the heavens should be cleansed by these means,^y but the heavenly things themselves with sacrifices that are better than such sacrifices. 24 For Christ

entered, not into a holy place made with hands,^a which is a copy of the reality,^b but into heaven itself,^c now to appear before the person of God for us.^d 25 Neither is it in order that he should offer himself often, as indeed the high priest enters into the holy place^e from year to year^f with blood not his own. 26 Otherwise, he would have to suffer often from the founding^g of the world. But now he has manifested himself^h onceⁱ for all time at the conclusion^j of the systems of things^k to put sin away through the sacrifice of himself.^k 27 And as it is reserved for men^l to die once for all time, but after this a judgment,^m 28 so also the Christ was offered onceⁿ for all time to bear the sins of many;^o and the second time^p that he appears^q it will be apart from sin^r and to those earnestly looking for him for [their] salvation.^s

10 For since the Law has a shadow^t of the good things to come, but not the very substance of the things, [men] can never with the same sacrifices from year to year which they offer continually make those who approach perfect.^u 2 Otherwise, would the [sacrifices] not have stopped being offered, because those rendering sacred service^v who had been cleansed once for all time would have no consciousness of sins anymore?^v 3 To the contrary, by these sacrifices there is a reminding of sins from year to year,^w 4 for it is not possible for the blood of bulls and of goats to take sins away.^x

5 Hence when he comes into the world he says: “Sacrifice and offering you did not want,^y but you prepared a body for me.^z 6 You did not approve of whole burnt offerings* and sin [offering].^a 7 Then I said, ‘Look! I am come (in the roll of the book* it is written about me)^b to do your will, O God.’”^c 8 After first saying: “You did not want nor did you approve of sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sin [offering]”^d—[sacrifices] that are offered according to the Law^e— 9 then he actually says: “Look! I am come to do your will.”^f He does away with what is first that he may establish what is second.^g 10 By the said “will”^h we have been sanctifiedⁱ through the offering^j of the body of Jesus Christ once^k for all time.

11 Also, every priest takes his station^l from day to day^m to render public service and to offer the same sacrifices often, as these are at no time able to take sins away completely.ⁿ 12 But this [man] offered one sacrifice for sins perpetually^o and sat down at the right hand of God,^p 13 from then on awaiting until his enemies should be placed as a stool for his feet.^q 14 For it is by one [sacrificial] offering^r that he has made those who are being sanctified perfect^s perpetually. 15 Moreover, the holy spirit^t also bears witness to us, for after it has said: 16 “‘This is the covenant that I shall covenant toward them after those days,’ says Jehovah.* ‘I will put my laws in their hearts, and in their minds I shall write them,’”^u 17 [it says afterwards:]* “And I shall by no means call their sins and their lawless deeds to mind anymore.”^v 18 Now where there is forgiveness^w of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.^x

the holy place* by the blood of Jesus, 20 which he inaugurated for us as a new and living way through the curtain,^b that is, his flesh,^c 21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God,^d 22 let us approach with true hearts in the full assurance of faith, having had our hearts sprinkled from a wicked conscience^e and our bodies bathed with clean water.^f 23 Let us hold fast the public declaration* of our hope^g without wavering,^h for he is faithfulⁱ that promised. 24 And let us consider one another to incite^j to love and fine works,^k 25 not forsaking the gathering of ourselves together,^l as some have the custom, but encouraging^m one another, and all the more so as you behold the day drawing near.ⁿ

26 For if we practice sin willfully^o after having received the accurate knowledge of the truth,^p there is no longer any sacrifice for sins left,^q 27 but [there is] a certain fearful expectation of judgment^r and [there is] a fiery jealousy that is going to consume those in opposition.^s 28 Any man that has disregarded the law of Moses dies without compassion, upon the testimony of two or three.^t 29 Of how much more severe a punishment,^u do you think, will the man be counted worthy who has trampled^v upon the Son of God and who has esteemed as of ordinary value the blood^w of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and who has outraged the spirit^x of undeserved kindness with contempt? 30 For we know him that said: "Vengeance is mine; I will recompense";^y and again: "Jehovah" will judge his people."^z 31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of [the] living God.^a theater^a both to reproaches and tribulations, and sometimes while you became sharers with those who were having such an experience.^b 34 For you both expressed sympathy for those in prison and joyfully took the plundering^c of YOUR belongings, knowing YOU yourselves have a better and an abiding possession.^d

35 Do not, therefore, throw away YOUR freeness of speech,^e which has a great reward^f to be paid it. 36 For you have need of endurance,^g in order that, after YOU have done the will of God,^h YOU may receive the [fulfillment of the] promise.ⁱ 37 For yet "a very little while,"^j and "he who is coming will arrive and will not delay."^k 38 "But my righteous one will live by reason of faith,"^l and, "if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him."^m 39 Now we are not the sort that shrink back to destruction,ⁿ but the sort that have faith to the preserving alive of the soul.^o

11 Faith^p is the assured expectation* of things hoped^q for, the evident demonstration^r of realities^a though not beheld.^b 2 For by means of this the men of old times* had witness borne to them.^c

3 By faith we perceive that the systems of things*^d were put in order^e by God's word,^f so that what is beheld has come to be out of things that do not appear.^g

4 By faith Abel offered God a sacrifice of greater worth than Cain,^h through which [faith] he had witness borne to him that he was righteous, God bearing witnessⁱ respecting his gifts;

and through it he, although he died, yet speaks.^a

5 By faith E'noch^b was transferred so as not to see death, and he was nowhere to be found because God had transferred him;^c for before his transference he had the witness that he had pleased God well.^d 6 Moreover, without faith^e it is impossible to please [him] well,^f for he that approaches God must believe that he is^g and that he becomes the rewarder^h of those earnestly seeking him.ⁱ

7 By faith Noah,^j after being given divine warning of things not yet beheld,^k showed godly fear and constructed an ark^l for the saving of his household; and through this [faith] he condemned the world,^m and he became an heir of the righteousnessⁿ that is according to faith.

8 By faith Abraham,^o when he was called, obeyed in going out into a place he was destined to receive as an inheritance; and he went out, although not knowing where he was going.^p 9 By faith he resided as an alien in the land of the promise as in a foreign land,^q and dwelt in tents^r with Isaac^s and Jacob;^t the heirs with him of the very same promise.^u 10 For he was awaiting the city^v having real foundations, the builder^w and maker of which [city] is God.^x

11 By faith also Sarah^y herself received power to conceive seed, even when she was past the age limit,^z since she esteemed him faithful who had promised.^{aa} 12 Hence also from one [man],^{ab} and him as good as dead,^{ac} there were born [children] just as the stars of heaven for multitude and as the sands that are by the seaside, innumerable.^{ad}

are without the discipline of which all have become partakers, YOU are really illegitimate children,^a and not sons. 9 Furthermore, we used to have fathers who were of our flesh to discipline us,^b and we used to give them respect. Shall we not much more subject ourselves to the Father of our spiritual life* and live?^c 10 For they for a few days used to discipline us according to what seemed good to them,^d but he does so for our profit that we may partake of his holiness.^e 11 True, no discipline seems for the present to be joyous, but grievous;^f yet afterward to those who have been trained by it it yields peaceable fruit,^g namely,* righteousness.^h

12 Hence straighten up the hands that hang downⁱ and the enfeebled knees,^j 13 and keep making straight paths for YOUR feet,^k that what is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather that it may be healed.^l 14 Pursue peace with all people,^m and the sanctificationⁿ without which no man will see the Lord,^o 15 carefully watching that no one may be deprived of the undeserved kindness of God;^p that no poisonous root^q may spring up and cause trouble and that many may not be defiled by it;^r 16 that there may be no fornicator nor anyone not appreciating sacred things, like E'sau,^s who in exchange for one meal gave away his rights as firstborn.^t 17 For YOU know that afterward also when he wanted to inherit the blessing^u he was rejected,^v for, although he earnestly sought a change of mind* with tears,^w he found no place for it.^x

18 For YOU have not approached that which can be felt^y and which has been set aflame with fire,^z and a dark cloud and thick darkness and a tempest,^a 19 and the blare of a trumpet^b and the voice of words;^c on hearing which voice the people implored that no word should be added to them.^a 20 For the command was not bearable to them: "And if a beast touches the mountain, it must be stoned."^b 21 Also, the display* was so fearsome that Moses said: "I am fearful and trembling."^c 22 But YOU have approached a Mount Zion^d and a city^e of [the] living God, heavenly Jerusalem,^f and myriads* of angels,^g 23 in general assembly,^h and the congregation of the firstbornⁱ who have been enrolled^j in the heavens, and God the Judge of all,^k and the spiritual lives^l of righteous ones who have been made perfect,^m 24 and Jesus the mediatorⁿ of a new covenant,^o and the blood of sprinkling,^p which speaks in a better way than Abel's [blood].^q

THE LETTER OF JAMES

1 James, ^aa slave^b of God and of [the] Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes^c that are scattered^d about.^e

Greetings!

2 Consider it all joy, my brothers, when YOU meet with various trials,^e

3 knowing as YOU do that this tested quality of ^eYOUR faith works out endurance.^f

4 But let endurance have its work complete, that YOU may be complete^g and sound in all respects, not lacking in anything.^h

5 So, if any one of YOU is lacking in wisdom,ⁱ let him keep on asking God,^j for he gives generously to all and without reproaching;^k and it will be given him.^l

6 But let him keep on asking^m in faith, not doubtingⁿ at all,ⁿ for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven by the wind^o and blown about. 7 In fact, let not that man suppose that he will receive anything from Jehovah;^p 8 he is an indecisive^q man, unsteady^r in all his ways.

9 But let the lowly brother exult over his exaltation,^s 10 and the rich one^t over his humiliation, because like a flower of the vegetation he will pass away.^u 11 For the sun rises with its burning heat and withers the vegetation, and its flower drops off and the beauty of its outward appearance perishes. So, too, the rich man will fade away in his ways of life.^v

12 Happy is the man that keeps on enduring trial,^w because on becoming approved he will receive the crown of life,^a which Jehovah^{} promised to those who continue loving him.^b 13 When under trial,^c let no one say: "I am being tried by God." For with evil things God cannot be tried nor does he himself try anyone. 14 But each one is tried by being drawn out and enticed^{} by his own desire.^d 15 Then the desire, when it has become fertile, gives birth to sin;^e in turn, sin, when it has been accomplished, brings forth death.^f

16 Do not be misled,^g my beloved brothers. 17 Every good gift^h and every perfect present is from above,ⁱ for it comes down from the Father of the [celestial] lights,^j and with him there is not a variation of the turning of the shadow.^k 18 Because he willed^l it, he brought us forth by the word of truth,^m for us to be certain firstfruitsⁿ of his creatures.

19 Know this, my beloved brothers. Every man must be swift about hearing, slow about speaking,^o slow about wrath;^p 20 for man's wrath does not work out God's righteousness.^q 21 Hence put away all filthiness and that superfluous thing, badness,^r and accept with mildness the implanting of the word^s which is able to save YOUR souls.^t

22 However, become doers of the word,^u and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves with false reasoning.^v 23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word, and not a doer,^w this one is like

10 For whoever observes all the Law but makes a false step* in one point, he has become an offender against them all.^f 11 For he who said: "You must not commit adultery,"^g said also: "You must not murder."^h If, now, you do not commit adultery but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of law.

12 Keep on speaking in such a way and keep on doing in such a way as those do who are going to be judged by the law of a free people.ⁱ 13 For the one that does not practice mercy will have [his] judgment without mercy.^j Mercy exults triumphantly over* judgment.

Show me your faith apart from the works, and I shall show you my faith by my works."^q 19 You believe there is one God, do you?^r You are doing quite well. And yet the demons believe and shudder.^s 20 But do you care to know, O empty man, that faith apart from works is inactive? 21 Was not Abraham our father^t declared righteous by works after he had offered up Isaac his son upon the altar?^a 22 You behold that [his] faith worked along with his works and by [his] works [his] faith was perfected,^b 23 and the scripture was fulfilled which says: "Abraham put faith in Jehovah,* and it was counted to him as righteousness,"^c and he came to be called "Jehovah's^d friend."^d

24 You see that a man is to be declared righteous^e by works,^f and not by faith alone.^g 25 In the same manner was not also Ra'hab^h the harlot declared righteous by works, after she had received the messengers hospitably and sent them out by another way?ⁱ 26 Indeed, as the body without spirit^j is dead,^j so also faith without works is dead.^k

3 Not many of YOU should become teachers,^l my brothers, knowing that we shall receive heavier judgment.^m 2 For we all stumble many times.ⁿ If anyone does not stumble in word,^o this one is a perfect man,^p able to bridle also [his] whole body. 3 If we put bridles^q in the mouths of horses for them to obey us,^r we manage also their whole body. 4 Look! Even boats, although they are so big and are driven by hard winds, are steered by a very small rudder^s to where the inclination of the man at the helm wishes.

5 So, too, the tongue is a little member and yet makes great brags.^t Look! How little a fire it takes to set so great a woodland on fire! 6 Well, the tongue is a fire.^u The tongue is constituted a world of unrighteousness among our members, for it spots up all the body^v and sets the wheel of natural life aflame and it is set aflame by Ge-hen'-na.* 7 For every species of wild beast as well as bird and creeping thing and sea creature is to be tamed and has been tamed by humankind.^w 8 But the tongue, not one of mankind can get it tamed. An unruly injurious thing, it is full of death-dealing poison.^x 9 With it we bless Jehovah,^y even [the] Fa-

4 Adulteresses,^c do YOU not know that the friendship with the world is enmity with God?^d Whoever, therefore, wants to be a friend^e of the world is constituting himself an enemy of God.^f 5 Or does it seem to you that the scripture says to no purpose: "It is with a tendency to envy that the spirit^g which has taken up residence within us keeps longing"? 6 However, the undeserved kindness which he gives is greater.^h Hence it says: "God opposes the haughty ones,ⁱ but he gives undeserved kindness to the humble ones."^j

7 Subject yourselves,^k therefore, to God; but oppose^{*} the Devil,^l and he will flee from YOU.^m 8 Draw close to God, and he will draw close to YOU.ⁿ Cleanse YOUR hands, YOU sinners,^o and purify YOUR hearts,^p YOU indecisive^q ones. 9 Give way to misery and mourn and weep.^r Let YOUR laughter be turned into mourning, and [YOUR] joy into dejection.^s 10 Humble yourselves in the eyes of Jehovah,^t and he will exalt YOU.^u

4 Coming to him as to a living stone,^b rejected,^c it is true, by men,^d but chosen, precious, with God,^e 5 YOU yourselves also as living stones are being built up a spiritual house^f for the purpose of a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices^g acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.^h 6 For it is contained in Scripture: "Look! I am laying in Zion a stone, chosen, a foundation cornerstone, precious; and no one exercising faith in it will by any means come to disappointment."ⁱ

7 It is to you, therefore, that he is precious,^j because YOU are believers; but to those not believing, "the identical stone that the builders rejected^k has become [the] head of [the] corner,"^l 8 and "a stone of stumbling and a rock-mass of offense."^m These are stumbling because they are disobedient to the word.ⁿ To this very end they were also appointed.^o 9 But YOU are "a chosen race,"^p a royal priesthood, a holy nation,^q a people for special possession,^r that YOU should declare abroad the excellencies"^s of the one that called YOU out of darkness into his wonderful light.^t 10 For YOU were once not a people, but are now God's

1Pe 2:3 "The Lord." Gr., ho Kyrios. In a comment on this vs F. J. A. Hort wrote in The First Epistle of St Peter, London, 1898, p. 104: "In the Psalm [34:8] ὁ κύριος stands for Jehovah, as it very often does, the LXX. inserting and omitting the article with κύριος on no apparent principle. On the other hand the next verse shews St Peter to have used ὁ κύριος in its commonest though not universal N.T. sense, of Christ. It would be rash however to conclude that he meant to identify Jehovah with Christ. No such identification can be clearly made out in the N.T. St Peter is not here making a formal quotation, but merely borrowing O.T. language, and applying it in his own manner. His use, though different from that of the Psalm, is not at variance with it, for it is through the χρηστότης [khre-sto'tes, "kindness"] of the Son that the χρηστότης of the Father is clearly made known to Christians: 'he that hath seen me hath seen the Father.'" See App 6F. 6* Or, "by no means be ashamed." 7* Or, "It is you, therefore, that have the precious estimation." 8* Or, "stumbling at the word because they are unbelievably disobedient." 9* "Race." Gr., ge-nos; different from gene-a, "generation," as in Mt 24:34. 9* Lit., "virtues."

8 Finally, all of YOU be like-minded,^a showing fellow feeling,^{*} having brotherly affection, tenderly compassionate,^b humble in mind.^c 9 not paying back injury for injury^d or reviling for reviling,^e but, to the contrary, bestowing a blessing,^f because YOU were called to this [course], so that YOU might inherit a blessing.

10 For, "he that would love life and see good days,^g let him restrain his tongue^h from what is bad and [his] lips from speaking deception,ⁱ 11 but let him turn away from what is bad^j and do what is good; let him seek peace and pursue it.^k 12 For [the] eyes^l of Jehovah* are upon the righteous ones, and his ears are toward their supplication;^m but [the] face of Jehovah* is against those doing bad things."ⁿ

13 Indeed, who is the man that will harm YOU if YOU become zealous for what is good?^o 14 But even if you should suffer for the sake of righteousness, you are happy.^p However, the object of their fear do not YOU fear,^q neither become agitated.^r 15 But sanctify the Christ as Lord* in YOUR hearts,^s always ready to make a defense^t before every one that demands of you a reason for the hope in YOU, but doing so together with a mild temper^u and deep respect.^v

16 Hold a good conscience,^v so that in the particular in which YOU are spoken against they may get ashamed^w who are speaking slightly of YOUR good conduct in connection with Christ.^x 17 For it is better to suffer because YOU are doing good,^y if the will of God wishes it, than because YOU are doing evil.^z 18 Why, even Christ died once for all time concerning sins,^a a righteous [person] for unrighteous ones,^b that he might lead YOU to God,^c he being put to death in the flesh,^d but being made alive in the spirit.^e 19 In this [state]

also he went his way and preached* to the spirits in prison,^a 20 who had once been disobedient^b when the patience of God^c was waiting in Noah's days, while the ark was being constructed,^d in which a few people, that is, eight souls, were carried safely through the water.^e

21 That which corresponds to this* is also now saving YOU,^f namely, baptism, (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the request made to God for a good conscience,)^g through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.^h 22 He is at God's right hand,ⁱ for he went his way to heaven; and angels^j and authorities and powers were made subject to him.^k

4 Therefore since Christ suffered in the flesh,^l YOU too arm yourselves with the same mental disposition;^m because the person that has suffered in the flesh has desisted from sins,ⁿ 2 to the end that he may live the remainder of [his] time in the flesh,^o no more for the desires of men, but for God's will.^p 3 For the time^q that has passed by is sufficient for YOU to have worked out the will of the nations^r when you proceeded in deeds of loose conduct,^s lusts, excesses with wine,^t revelries, drinking matches, and illegal idolatries.^u 4 Because YOU do not continue running with them in this course to the same low sink of debauchery,^v they are puzzled and go on speaking abusively of YOU.^w 5 But these people will render an account to the one^x ready to judge those living and those dead.^y 6 In fact, for this purpose the good news was declared also to the dead,^z that they might be judged as to the flesh from the standpoint of men^a but might live as to the spirit^b from the standpoint of God.

virtue. 4 Through these things he has freely given us the precious and very grand promises,^a that through these YOU may become sharers in divine^b nature,^c having escaped from the corruption that is in the world^d through lust.

5 Yes, for this very reason, by YOUR contributing in response all earnest effort,^e supply to YOUR faith virtue,^f to [YOUR] virtue knowledge,^g 6 to [YOUR] knowledge self-control, to [YOUR] self-control^h endurance, to [YOUR] endurance godly devotion,ⁱ 7 to [YOUR] godly devotion brotherly affection, to [YOUR] brotherly affection love.^j 8 For if these things exist in YOU and overflow, they will prevent YOU from being either inactive or unfruitful^k regarding the accurate knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 For if these things are not present in anyone, he is blind, shutting his eyes [to the light],^l and has become forgetful^m of his cleansingⁿ from his sins of long ago. 10 For this reason, brothers, all the more do YOUR utmost to make the calling^o and choosing^p of YOU sure for yourselves; for if YOU keep on doing these things YOU will by no means ever fail.^q 11 In fact, thus there will be richly supplied to YOU the entrance^r into the everlasting^s kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.^t

12 For this reason I shall be disposed always to remind^u YOU of these things, although YOU know [them] and are firmly set in the truth^v that is present [in YOU].^w 13 But I consider it right, as long as I am in this tabernacle,^x to rouse you up by way of reminding you,^y 14 knowing as I do that the putting off of my tabernacle is soon to be,^z just as also our Lord Jesus Christ signified to me.^a 15 So I will do my utmost also at every time that, after my departure,^b YOU may be able to make mention of these things^c for yourselves.

16 No, it was not by following artfully contrived false stories^a that we acquainted you with the power and presence^b of our Lord Jesus Christ,^c but it was by having become eyewitnesses of his magnificence.^c 17 For he received from God the Father honor and glory,^d when words such as these^e were borne to him by the magnificent glory: "This is my son, my beloved, whom I myself have approved."^{ee} 18 Yes, these words^f we heard^f borne from heaven while we were with him in the holy mountain.^g

19 Consequently we have the prophetic word^h [made] more sure;ⁱ and you are doing well in paying attention to it as to a lamp^j shining in a dark place, until day dawns and a daystar^k rises, in YOUR hearts. 20 For you know this first, that no prophecy of Scripture springs from any private interpretation.^l 21 For prophecy was at no time brought by man's will,^m but men spoke from Godⁿ as they were borne along by holy spirit.^o

2 However, there also came to be false prophets among the people, as there will also be false teachers among YOU.^p These very ones will quietly bring in destructive sects^q and will disown even the owner that bought them,^q bringing speedy destruction upon themselves. 2 Furthermore, many will follow^r their acts of loose conduct,^s and on account of these the way of the truth will be spoken of abusively.^t 3 Also, with covetousness they will exploit you with counterfeit words.^u But as for them, the judgment from of old^v is not moving slowly, and the destruction of them is not slumbering.^w and blemishes, indulging with unrestrained delight in their deceptive teachings* while feasting together with you.^a 14 They have eyes full of adultery^b and unable to desist from sin,^c and they entice* unsteady souls. They have a heart trained in covetousness.^d They are accursed children.* 15 Abandoning the straight path, they have been misled. They have followed the path of Ba'laam,ⁱ [the son] of Be'or, who loved the reward of wrongdoing,^e 16 but got a reproof for his own violation of what was right.*^h A voiceless beast of burden, making utterance with the voice of a man,ⁱ hindered the prophet's mad course.^j

17 These are fountains without water,^k and mists driven by a violent storm, and for them the blackness of darkness has been reserved.^l 18 For they utter swelling expressions of no profit, and by the desires of the flesh^m and by loose habits they enticeⁿ those who are just escaping^o from people who conduct themselves in error. 19 While they are promising them freedom,^p they themselves are existing as slaves of corruption.^q For whoever is overcome by another is enslaved by this one.^r 20 Certainly if, after having escaped from the defilements of the world^s by an accurate knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they get involved again with these very things and are overcome,^t the final conditions have become worse for them than the first.^u 21 For it would have been better for them not to have accurately known the path of righteousness* than after knowing it accurately to turn away from the holy commandment delivered to them.*^w 22 The saying of the true proverb has happened to them: "The dog^x has returned to its own vomit, and the sow that was bathed to rolling in the mire."^y

3 Beloved ones, this is now the second letter I am writing YOU, in which, as in my first one,^a I am arousing YOUR clear thinking faculties* by way of a reminder,^b 2 that YOU should remember the sayings previously spoken by the holy prophets^c and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through YOUR apostles.^d 3 For YOU know this first, that in the last days^e there will come ridiculers^f with their ridicule, proceeding according to their own desires^g 4 and saying:^h "Where is this promised presence* of his? Why, from the day our forefathers fell asleep [in death], all things are continuing exactly as from creation's beginning."ⁱ

5 For, according to their wish, this fact escapes their notice, that there were heavens^k from of old and an earth standing compactly out of water^l and in the midst of water^m by the word of God; 6 and by those [means] the world of that time suffered destruction when it was deluged with water.ⁿ 7 But by the same word the heavens^o and the earth^p that are now are stored up for fire^q and are being reserved to the day of judgment^r and of destruction of the ungodly men.^s

8 However, let this one fact not be escaping YOUR notice, beloved ones, that one day is with Jehovah* as a thousand years and a thousand years as one day.^t 9 Jehovah* is not slow respecting his promise,^u as some people consider slowness, but he is patient with you because he does not desire any to be destroyed but desires all to attain to repentance.^v 10 Yet Jehovah's* day^w will come as a thief,^x in which the heavens will pass away^y with a hissing noise,^z but the elements* being intensely hot will be dissolved,^a and earth^b and the works in it will be discovered.^c

11 Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of persons ought you to be in holy acts of conduct and deeds of godly devotion, 12 awaiting^d and keeping close in mind* the presence^e of the day of Jehovah,^{ae} through which [the] heavens being on fire will be dissolved^f and [the] elements being intensely hot will melt! 13 But there are new heavens^g and a new earth^h that we are awaiting according to his promise, and in these righteousness is to dwell.ⁱ

14 Hence, beloved ones, since YOU are awaiting these things, do YOUR utmost to be found finally by him spotless^j and unblemished and in peace.^k 15 Furthermore, consider the patience* of our Lord as salvation, just as our beloved brother Paul according to the wisdom^l given him also wrote YOU,^m 16 speaking about these things as he does also in all [his] letters. In them, however, are some things hard to understand, which the untaught* and unsteady are twisting,ⁿ as [they do] also the rest of the Scriptures,^o to their own destruction.

17 You, therefore, beloved ones, having this advance knowledge,^p be on YOUR guard that YOU may not be led away with them by the error of the law-defying people* and fall from YOUR own steadfastness.^q 18 No, but go on growing in the undeserved kindness and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.^r To him [be] the glory both now and to the day of eternity.^r

1 That which was from [the] beginning,*^a which we have heard,^b which we have seen with our eyes,^c which we have viewed^d attentively and our hands felt,^e concerning the word of life,^f 2 (yes, the life was made manifest,^g and we have seen and are bearing witness^h and reporting to you the everlasting lifeⁱ which was with the Father and was made manifest to us,) 3 that which we have seen and heard we are reporting also to you,^j that you too may be having a sharing with us.^k Furthermore, this sharing^l of ours is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ.^m 4 And so we are writing these things that our joy may be in full measure.*ⁿ

5 And this is the message which we have heard from him and are announcing to you,^o that God is light^p and there is no darkness at all in union with him.^q 6 If we make the statement:^r "We are having a sharing with him," and yet we go on walking in the darkness,^r we are lying and are not practicing the truth.^s 7 However, if we are walking in the light as he himself is in the light,^t we do have a sharing with one another,^u and the blood^v of Jesus his Son cleanses^w us from all sin.^x

2 My little children, I am writing you these things that you may not commit a sin.^a And yet, if anyone does commit a sin, we have a helper^b with the Father, Jesus Christ, a righteous one.^c 2 And he is a propitiatory^d sacrifice^e for our sins,^f yet not for ours^g only but also for the whole world's.^h 3 And by this we have the knowledge that we have come to know him, namely, if we continue observing his commandments.ⁱ 4 He that says: "I have come to know him,"^j and yet is not observing his commandments,^k is a liar, and the truth is not in this [person].^l 5 But whoever does observe his word,^m truthfully in this [person] the love of God has been made perfect.ⁿ By this we have the knowledge that we are in union with him.^o 6 He that says he remains in union^p with him is under obligation himself also to go on walking just as that one walked.^q

7 Beloved ones, I am writing you, not a new commandment, but an old commandment^r which you have had from [the] beginning.^s This old commandment is the word which you heard. 8 Again, I am writing you a new commandment, a fact that is true in his case and in yours, because the darkness^t is passing away and the true light^a is already shining.

9 He that says he is in the light and yet hates^b his brother is in the darkness up to right now.^c 10 He that loves his brother remains in the light,^d and there is no cause for stumbling in his case.^e 11 But he that hates his brother is in the darkness and is walking in the darkness,^f and he does not know where he is going,^g because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 I am writing YOU, little children, because YOUR sins have been forgiven YOU for the sake of his name.^h 13 I am writing YOU, fathers, because YOU have come to know him who is from [the] beginning.ⁱ I am writing YOU, young men,^j because YOU have conquered the wicked one.^k I write YOU, young children,^l because YOU have come to know the Father.^m 14 I write YOU, fathers,ⁿ because YOU have come to know him who is from [the] beginning.^o I write YOU, young men, because YOU are strong^p and the word of God^q remains in YOU^r and YOU have conquered the wicked one.^s

15 Do not be loving either the world or the things in the world.^t If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him;^u 16 because everything in the world^v—the desire of the flesh^w and the desire of the eyes^x and the showy display^y of one's means of life^z—does not originate with the Father, but originates with the world.^{aa} 17 Furthermore, the world is passing away and so is its desire,^{ab} but he that does the will^{ac} of God remains forever.^b

18 Young children, it is the last hour,^c and, just as YOU have heard that antichrist^d is coming,^e even now there have come to be many antichrists;^f from which fact we gain the knowledge that it is the last hour. 19 They went out from us, but they were not of our sort;^g for if they had been of our sort, they would have remained with us.^h But [they went out] that it might be shown up that not all are of our sort.^a 20 And YOU have an anointing^b from the holy one;^c all of YOU have knowledge.^d 21 I write YOU, not because YOU do not know the truth,^e but because YOU know it,^f and because no lie originates with the truth.^g

22 Who is the liar if it is not the one that denies that Jesus is the Christ?^h This is the antichrist,ⁱ the one that denies the Father and the Son.^j 23 Everyone that denies the Son does not have the Father either.^k He that confesses^l the Son has the Father also.^m 24 As for YOU, let that which YOU have heard from [the] beginning remain in YOU.ⁿ If that which YOU have heard from [the] beginning remains in YOU, YOU will also abide in union^o with the Son and in union with the Father.^p 25 Furthermore, this is the promised thing that he himself promised us, the life everlasting.^q

26 These things I write YOU about those who are trying to mislead YOU.^r 27 And as for YOU, the anointing^s that YOU received from him remains in YOU, and YOU do not need anyone to be teaching YOU;^t but, as the anointing from him is teaching YOU about all things,^u and is true^v and is no lie, and just as it has taught YOU, remain in union^w with him. 28 So now, little children,^x remain in union^y with him, that when he is made manifest^z we may have freedom of speech^{aa} and not be shamed away from him at his presence.^{ab} 29 If YOU know that he is righteous,^b YOU gain the knowledge that everyone who practices righteousness has been born from him.^c

3 See what sort of love^d the Father has given us, so that we should be called children of God;^e and such we are. That is why the world^f does not have a knowledge of us, because it has not come to know him.^g 2 Beloved ones, now we are children of God,^a but as yet it has not been made manifest what we shall be.^b We do know that whenever he^{*} is made manifest^c we shall be like him,^d because we shall see him just as he is.^e 3 And everyone who has this hope set upon him purifies^f himself just as that one is pure.^g

4 Everyone who practices^{} sin^h is also practicing lawlessness,ⁱ and so sin^j is lawlessness. 5 You know too that that one was made manifest to take away [our]^{} sins,^k and there is no sin^l in him. 6 Everyone remaining in union^m with him does not practice sin;ⁿ no one that practices sin has either seen him or come to know him.^o 7 Little children, let no one mislead you; he who carries on righteousness is righteous, just as that one is righteous.^p 8 He who carries on sin originates with the Devil,^{*} because the Devil has been sinning from [the] beginning.^q For this purpose the Son of God was made manifest,^r namely, to break up the works of the Devil.^s

9 Everyone who has been born^{*} from God does not carry on sin,^t because His [reproductive] seed remains in such one, and he cannot practice sin, because he has been born from God.^u 10 The children of God and the children of the Devil are evident by this fact: Everyone who does not carry on righteousness^v does not originate with God, neither does he who does not love his brother.^w 11 For this is the message which you have heard from [the] beginning,^x that we should have love for one another;^y 12 not like Cain, who originated with the wicked one and slaughtered^z his brother. And for the sake of what did he slaughter him? Because his own works were wicked,^a but those of his brother [were] righteous.^b

13 Do not marvel, brothers, that the world hates you.^a 14 We know we have passed over from death to life,^b because we love the brothers.^c He who does not love remains in death.^d

15 Everyone who hates^e his brother is a manslayer,^f and you know that no manslayer^g has everlasting life remaining in him.^h 16 By this we have come to know love,ⁱ because that one surrendered his soul^{} for us;^j and we are under obligation to surrender [our] souls^{} for [our]^a brothers.^k 17 But whoever has this world's means for supporting life^l and beholds his brother having need^m and yet shuts the door of his tender compassions upon him,ⁿ in what way does the love of God remain in him?^o 18 Little children, let us love,^p neither in word nor with the tongue,^q but in deed^r and truth.^s

19 By this we shall know that we originate with the truth,^t and we shall assure^{*} our hearts before him 20 as regards whatever our hearts may condemn us in,^u because God is greater than our hearts and knows all things.^v 21 Beloved ones, if [our] hearts do not condemn [us], we have freeness of speech toward God;^w 22 and whatever we ask we receive from him,^x because we are observing his commandments and are doing the things that are pleasing in his eyes.^y 23 Indeed, this is his commandment, that we have faith in the name of his Son Jesus Christ^z and be loving one another,^a just as he gave us commandment. 24 Moreover, he who observes his commandments remains in union with him, and he in union with such one;^b and by this we gain the knowledge that he is remaining in union with us,^c owing to the spirit^d which he gave us.

4 Beloved ones, do not believe every inspired expression,^a but test the inspired expressions^a to see whether they originate with God,^b because many false prophets have gone forth into the world.^c

2 You gain the knowledge of the inspired expression from God^d by this: Every inspired expression that confesses Jesus Christ as having come in the flesh originates with God,^e 3 but every inspired expression that does not confess Jesus does not originate with God.^f Furthermore, this is the anti-christ's [inspired expression] which you have heard was coming,^g and now it is already in the world.^h

4 You originate with God, little children, and you have conquered those [persons],ⁱ because he that is in union^j with you is greater^k than he that is in union with the world.^l 5 They originate with the world;^m that is why they speak [what proceeds] from the world and the world listens to them.ⁿ 6 We originate with God.^o He that gains the knowledge of God listens to us;^p he that does not originate with God does not listen to us.^q This is how we take note of the inspired expression of truth and the inspired expression of error.^r

7 Beloved ones, let us continue loving one another,^s because love^t is from God, and everyone who loves has been born from God^u and gains the knowledge of God.^v 8 He that does not love has not come to know God, because God is love.^w 9 By this the love of God was made manifest in our case,^x because God sent forth his only-begotten^y Son^z into the world that we might gain life through him.^{aa} 10 The love is in this respect, not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent forth his Son as a propitiatory^{ab} sacrifice^{ac} for our sins.^{ad}

obligation to love one another.^a 12 At no time has anyone beheld God.^b If we continue loving one another, God remains in us and his love is made perfect in us.^c 13 By this we gain the knowledge that we are remaining in union^d with him and he in union with us,^e because he has imparted his spirit to us.^f 14 In addition, we ourselves have beheld^g and are bearing witness^h that the Father has sent forth his Son as Savior of the world.ⁱ 15 Whoever makes the confession that Jesus Christ^j is the Son of God,^k God remains in union with such one and he in union with God.^l 16 And we ourselves have come to know and have believed the love^m that God has in our case.

God is love,ⁿ and he that remains in loveⁿ remains in union with God and God remains in union^o with him. 17 This is how love has been made perfect with us, that we may have freeness of speech^p in the day of judgment,^q because, just as that one is, so are we ourselves in this world.^r 18 There is no fear in love,^s but perfect love throws fear outside,^t because fear exercises a restraint.^u Indeed, he that is under fear has not been made perfect in love.^v 19 As for us, we love, because he first loved us.^w

20 If anyone makes the statement: "I love God," and yet is hating his brother, he is a liar.^x For he who does not love his brother,^y whom he has seen, cannot be loving God, whom he has not seen.^z 21 And this commandment we have from him,^{aa} that the one who loves God should be loving his brother also.^{ab}

knowledge that we are loving^a the children of God,^b when we are loving God and doing his commandments.^c 3 For this is what the love^d of God means, that we observe his commandments;^e and yet his commandments are not burdensome,^f 4 because everything that has been born^g from God conquers the world.^h And this is the conquestⁱ that has conquered^j the world, our faith.^k

5 Who is the one that conquers^l the world^m but he who has faithⁿ that Jesus is the Son of God?^o 6 This is he that came by means of water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water^p only, but with the water and with the blood.^q And the spirit^r is that which is bearing witness,^s because the spirit is the truth. 7 For there are three witness bearers,^t 8 the spirit^u and the water^v and the blood,^w and the three are in agreement.^x

9 If we receive the witness men give,^y the witness God gives is greater, because this is the witness God gives, the fact that he has borne witness^z concerning his Son. 10 The [person] putting his faith in the Son of God has the witness^{aa} given in his own case.^{ab} The [person] not having faith in God has made him a liar,^{ac} because he has not put his faith in the witness given,^{ad} which God as witness^{ae} has given concerning his Son. 11 And this is the witness given, that God gave us everlasting life,^{af} and this life is in his Son.^{ag} 12 He that has the Son has this life; he that does not have the Son of God does not have this life.^{ah}

1 The older man^a to Ga'ius, the beloved, whom I truly love.^b

2 Beloved^c one, I pray that in all things you may be prospering^d and having good health,^e just as your soul is prospering.^f 3 For I rejoiced very much^g when brothers came^h and bore witness to the truth you hold, just as you go on walking in the truth.ⁱ 4 No greater cause for thankfulness do I have than these things, that I should be hearing that my children go on walking in the truth.^j

5 Beloved one, you are doing a faithful work in whatever you do for the brothers,^k and strangers at that,^l 6 who have borne witness to your love before the congregation. These you will please^m send on their way in a manner worthy of God.^k 7 For it was in behalf of [his]ⁿ name that they went forth, not taking anything^l from the people of the nations. 8 We, therefore, are under obligation to receive such persons hospitably,^m that we may become fellow workers in the truth.ⁿ

13 And every creature that is in heaven and on earth and underneath the earth^a and on the sea, and all the things in them, I heard saying: "To the One sitting on the throne^b and to the Lamb^c be the blessing and the honor^d and the glory^e and the might forever and ever." 14 And the four living creatures went saying: "Amen!" and the elders^f fell down and worshiped.^g

6 And I saw when the Lamb^h opened one of the seven seals,ⁱ and I heard one of the four living creatures^j say with a voice as of thunder: "Come!"^k 2 And I saw, and, look! a white horse;^l and the one seated^m upon it had a bow;ⁿ and a crown was given him,^o and he went forth conquering^p and to complete his conquest.^q

3 And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature^r say: "Come!" 4 And another came forth, a fiery-colored horse; and to the one seated upon it there was granted to take peace away from the earth so that they should slaughter one another; and a great sword was given him.^s

5 And when he^t opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature^u say: "Come!" And I saw, and, look! a black horse; and the one seated upon it had a pair of scales^v in his hand. 6 And I heard a voice as if in the midst^w of the four living creatures^x say: "A quart^y of wheat for a de-nar'i-us,^z and three quarts of barley for a de-nar'i-us; and do not harm the olive oil and the wine."^a

7 And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature^a say: "Come!" 8 And I saw, and, look! a pale horse; and the one seated upon it had the name Death. And Ha'des^b was closely following him. And authority was given them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with

9 And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar^d the souls^e of those slaughtered^f because of the word of God and^g because of the witness^g work^g that they used to have. 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying: "Until when, Sovereign^h Lord^h holy and true,ⁱ are you refraining from judging^j and avenging our blood^k upon those who dwell on the earth?" 11 And a white^l robe was given to each of them; and they were told to rest a little while longer, until the number was filled also of their fellow slaves and their brothers who were about to be killed^m as they also had been.

12 And I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and a great earthquake occurred; and the sun became black as sackclothⁿ of hair, and the entire moon became as blood,^o 13 and the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as when a fig tree shaken by a high wind casts its unripe figs. 14 And the heaven departed as a scroll that is being rolled up,^p and every mountain and [every] island were removed from their places.^q

15 And the kings of the earth and the top-ranking ones and the military commanders^r and the rich and the strong ones and every slave and [every] free person hid themselves in the caves and in the rock-masses^r of the mountains.

16 And they keep saying to the mountains and to the rock-masses: "Fall over us^s and hide us from the face of the One seated on the throne^t and from the wrath of the Lamb," 17 because the great day^v of their wrath^w has come, and who is able to stand?"^x

19 And the temple [sanctuary]^{*} of God^a that is in heaven^a was opened, and the ark^b of his covenant was seen in his temple [sanctuary].^c And there occurred lightnings and voices and thunders and an earthquake and a great hail.

12 And a great sign^d was seen in heaven, a woman^e arrayed with the sun, and the moon was beneath her feet, and on her head was a crown of twelve stars, 2 and she was pregnant. And she cries out in her pains^f and in her agony to give birth.

3 And another sign was seen in heaven, and, look! a great fiery-colored dragon,^g with seven heads and ten horns and upon its heads seven diadems; 4 and its tail^h drags a third of the starsⁱ of heaven, and it hurled them down to the earth.^j And the dragon^{*} kept standing before the woman^k who was about to give birth,^l that, when she did give birth, it might devour^m her child.

5 And she gave birth to a son,ⁿ a male, who is to shepherd all the nations with an iron rod.^o And her child was caught away to God and to his throne.^p 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness,^q where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed^r her there a thousand two hundred and sixty days.^s

7 And war broke out in heaven: Mi-chael^t and his angels battled with the dragon, and the dragon and its angels battled 8 but it did not prevail, neither was a place found for them any longer in heaven. 9 So down the great dragon^u was hurled, the original serpent,^v the one called Devil^w and Satan,^x who is misleading the entire inhabited earth;^y

bridles of the horses,^a for a distance of a thousand six hundred furlongs.^{ab}

15 And I saw in heaven another sign,^c great and wonderful, seven angels^d with seven plagues.^e These are the last ones, because by means of them the anger^f of God is brought to a finish.^g

2 And I saw what seemed to be a glassy sea^h mingled with fire, and those who come off victoriousⁱ from the wild beast and from its image^j and from the number^k of its name standing by* the glassy sea,^l having harps^m of God. 3 And they are singing the song of Mosesⁿ the slave of God and the song of the Lamb,^o saying:

“Great and wonderful are your works,^p Jehovah* God, the Almighty.^q Righteous and true are your ways,^r King of eternity.^s 4 Who will not really fear you,^t Jehovah,^u and glorify your name,^v because you alone are loyal?^w For all the nations will come and worship before you,^x because your righteous decrees have been made manifest.”^y

5 And after these things I saw, and the sanctuary of the tent^z of the witness^{aa} was opened in heaven,^b 6 and the seven angels^c with the seven plagues^d emerged from the sanctuary, clothed with clean, bright linen^e and girded about their breasts with golden girdles. 7 And one of the four living creatures^f gave the seven angels seven golden bowls that were full of the anger of God,^g who lives forever and ever.^h 8 And the sanctuary became filled with smoke because of the glory of Godⁱ and because of his power, and no one was able to enter into the sanctuary until the seven plagues^j of the seven angels were finished.

16 And I heard a loud voice^a out of the sanctuary say to the seven angels: "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the anger^b of God into the earth."

2 And the first one^c went off and poured out his bowl into the earth.^d And a hurtful and malignant ulcer^e came to be upon the men that had the mark of the wild beast^f and that were worshiping its image.^g

3 And the second one^h poured out his bowl into the sea.ⁱ And it became blood^j as of a dead man, and every living soul died, [yes,] the things in the sea.^k

4 And the third one^l poured out his bowl into the rivers^m and the fountains of the waters. And they became blood.ⁿ

5 And I heard the angel over the waters say: "You,* the One who is and who was,^o the loyal^p One, are righteous, because you have rendered these decisions,^q 6 because they poured out the blood of holy ones and of prophets,^r and you have given them blood^s to drink. They deserve it."^t 7 And I heard the altar say: "Yes, Jehovah* God, the Almighty,^u true and righteous are your judicial decisions."^v

8 And the fourth one^w poured out his bowl upon the sun; and to [the sun]* it was granted to scorch^x the men^y with fire. 9 And the men were scorched with great heat, but they blasphemed the name^z of God, who has the authority^{aa} over these plagues, and they did not repent so as to give glory^{ab} to him.

10 And the fifth one poured out his bowl upon the throne of the wild beast.^b And its kingdom became darkened,^c and they began to gnaw their tongues for [their] pain, 11 but they blasphemed^d the God of heaven for their pains and for their ulcers, and they did not repent of their works.

12 And the sixth one^e poured out his bowl upon the great river Eu-phra'tes,^f and its water was dried up,^g that the way might be prepared for the kings^h from the rising of the sun.

13 And I saw three unclean inspired expressions^a [that looked] like frogs^b come out of the mouth of the dragon^c and out of the mouth of the wild beast^d and out of the mouth of the false prophet.^e 14 They are, in fact, expressions inspired^f by* demons and perform signs,^g and they go forth to the kings^h of the entire inhabited earth,ⁱ to gather them together to the war^j of the great day^k of God the Almighty.^l

16 And they gathered them together to the place* that is called in Hebrew Har-Ma-ged'on.^p

17 And the seventh one poured out his bowl upon the air.^q At this a loud voice^r issued out of the sanctuary from the throne, saying: "It has come to pass!" 18 And lightnings and voices and thunders occurred, and a great earthquake^s occurred such as had not occurred since men came to be on the earth,^t so extensive an earthquake,^u so great. 19 And the great city^v split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell; and Babylon* the Great^w was remembered in the sight of God, to give her the cup of the wine of the anger of his wrath.^x 20 Also, every island fled, and mountains were not found.^y 21 And a great hail^z with every stone about the weight of a talent^{aa} descended out of heaven upon the men,^{ab} and the men blasphemed^{ac} God due to the plague of hail,^b because the plague of it was unusually great.

The Divine Name in the Hebrew Scriptures Heb., יהוה (YHWH)

"Jehovah" (Heb., יהוה, YHWH), God's personal name, first occurs in Ge 2:4. The divine name is a verb, the causative form, the imperfect state, of the Hebrew verb הוה (ha-wah, "to become"). Therefore, the divine name means "He Causes to Become." This reveals Jehovah as the One who, with progressive action, causes himself to become the Fulfiller of promises, the One who always brings his purposes to realization. See Ge 2:4 ftn, "Jehovah"; App 3c. Compare Ex 3:14 ftn.

The greatest indignity that modern translators render to the Divine Author of the Holy Scriptures is the removal or the concealing of his peculiar personal name. Actually his name occurs in the Hebrew text 6,828 times as יהוה (YHWH or JHVH), generally referred to as the Tetragrammaton (literally meaning "having four letters"). By using the name "Jehovah," we have held closely to the original-language texts and have not followed the practice of substituting titles such as "Lord," "the Lord," "Adonai" or "God" for the divine name, the Tetragrammaton.

Today, apart from a few fragments of the early Greek Septuagint where the sacred name is preserved in Hebrew, only the Hebrew text has retained this most important name in its original form of four letters, יהוה (YHWH), the exact pronunciation of which has not been preserved. Current circulating texts of the Greek Septuagint (LXX), Syriac Peshitta (Sy) and Latin Vulgate (Vg) substitute the mere title "Lord" for God's unique name.—See App 1c.

The text located in the U.S.S.R., namely, the Codex Leningrad B 19^a, used for Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia (BHS), vowel-points the Tetragrammaton to read Yehwah, Yehwih and a number of times Yehowah, as in Ge 3:14. The edition of the Hebrew text by Ginsburg (Gins.) vowel-points YHWH to read Yehowah. While many translators favor the pronunciation "Yahweh," the New World Translation continues to use the form "Jehovah" because of people's familiarity with it for centuries. Moreover, it preserves, equally with other forms, the four letters of the divine name, YHWH or JHVH.—See ad under "Jehovah."

The practice of substituting titles for the divine name that developed among the Jews was applied in later copies of the Greek Septuagint, the Latin Vulgate, and many other translations, ancient and modern. Therefore, A Greek-English Lexicon, by Liddell and Scott (LS), p. 1013, states: "ὁ Κύριος, =Hebr. Yahweh, Lxx Ge. 11.5, al." Also, the Greek Lexicon of the Roman and Byzantine Periods, by E. A. Sophocles, Cambridge, U.S.A., and Leipzig, 1914, p. 699, says under κύριος (Ky'-rios): "Lord, the representative of יהוה. Sept. passim [scattered throughout]." Moreover, Dictionnaire de la Bible, by F. Vigouroux, Paris, 1926, col. 223, says that "the Septuagint and the Vulgate contain Κύριος and Dominus, 'Lord,' where the original contains Jehovah." Regarding the divine name, A Compendious Syriac Dictionary, edited by J. Payne Smith, Oxford, 1979 reprint, p. 298, says that Mar-ya "in the [Syriac] Peshitta Version of the O. T. represents the Tetragrammaton."

Jehovah's name was first restored to the English Bible by William Tyndale. In 1530 he published a translation of the first five books of the Bible into English. He included Jehovah's name once, in Ex 6:3. In a note in this edition Tyndale wrote: "Iehovah is God's name . . . Moreover, as oft as thou seist LORD in great letters (except there be any error in the printing) it is in Hebrew Iehovah." From this the practice arose among translators to use Jehovah's name in just a few places, but to write "LORD" or "God" in most places where the Tetragrammaton occurs in Hebrew. This practice was adopted by the translators of the King James Version in 1611, where Jehovah's name occurs only four times, namely, in Ex 6:3; Ps 83:18; Isa 12:2; 26:4.

Further, Theological Wordbook of the Old Testament, Vol. 1, Chicago (1980), p. 13, says: "To avoid the risk of taking God's name (YHWH) in vain, devout Jews began to substitute the word 'ādōnā(y) for the proper name itself. Although the Masoretes left the four original consonants in the text, they added the vowels ē (in place of ā for other reasons) and ā to remind the reader to pronounce 'ādōnā(y) regardless of the consonants. This feature occurs more than six thousand times in the Hebrew Bible. Most translations use all capital letters to make the title 'LORD.' Exceptions are the ASV [American Standard Version] and New World Translation which use 'Jehovah,' Amplified [Bible] which uses 'Lord,' and JB [The Jerusalem Bible] which uses 'Yahweh.' . . . In those places where 'ādōnā(y) yhw̄h occurs the latter word is pointed with the vowels from 'ēlōhīm, and the English renderings such as 'Lord GOD' arose (e.g. Amos 7:1)."

DIVINE NAME IN THE HEBREW SCRIPTURES (NW)

The very frequency of the appearance of the name attests its importance to the Bible's author, whose name it is. The Tetragrammaton occurs 6,828 times in the Hebrew text (BHK and BHS). This is confirmed by the Theologisches Handwörterbuch zum Alten Testament, Vol. I, edited by E. Jenni and C. Westermann, 3rd ed., Munich and Zurich, 1978, cols. 703, 704. The New World Translation renders the Tetragrammaton as "Jehovah" in all occurrences except Jg 19:18, where see ftn.

Based on the readings in LXX, we have restored the Tetragrammaton in three places and rendered it as "Jehovah," namely, in De 30:16; 2Sa 15:20 and 2Ch 3:1, where the footnotes in BHK give יהוה.

According to BHK and BHS footnotes, in Isa 34:16 and Zec 6:8 the divine name should be read instead of the first-person singular pronoun "my." We restored the divine name in these two places and rendered it as "Jehovah."

For an explanation of the 141 additional restorations of the divine name, see App 1b.

The name "Jehovah" occurs 6,973 times in the text of the Hebrew Scriptures of the New World Translation, including three combination names (Ge 22:14; Ex 17:15; Jg 6:24) and six occurrences in the superscriptions of the Psalms (7; 18 [3 times]; 36; 102). These nine occurrences are included in the 6,828 times in BHK and BHS.

THE SHORTER FORM OF THE DIVINE NAME

The shorter form of the divine name occurs 50 times in the Masoretic text as Yah, rendered "Jah." Following is a list of its occurrences: Ex 15:2; 17:16; Ps 68:4, 18; 77:11; 89:8; 94:7, 12; 102:18; 104:35; 105:45; 106:1, 48; 111:1; 112:1; 113:1, 9; 115:17, 18, 18;

Scribal Changes Involving the Divine Name

The 134 Changes

In 134 places the Jewish Sopherim (scribes) altered the original Hebrew text from YHWH to 'Adho-nai'. Gins.^{Mas}, Vol. IV, p. 28, § 115, says: "We have seen that in many of these one hundred and thirty-four instances in which the present received text reads Adonai in accordance with this Massorah, some of the best MSS. and early editions read the Tetragrammaton, and the question arises how did this variation obtain? The explanation is not far to seek. From time immemorial the Jewish canons decreed that the incommunicable name is to be pronounced Adonai as if it were written אדני ['Adho-nai'] instead of יהוה [YHWH]. Nothing was, therefore, more natural for the copyists than to substitute the expression which exhibited the pronunciation for the Tetragrammaton which they were forbidden to pronounce."

Following is a list of these 134 places, according to Gins.^{Mas}, Vol. I, pp. 25, 26, § 115:

Ge 18:3, 27, 30, 31, 32; 19:18; 20:4; Ex 4:10, 13; 5:22; 15:17; 34:9, 9; Nu 14:17; Jos 7:8; Jg 6:15; 13:8; 1Ki 3:10, 15; 22:6; 2Ki 7:6; 19:23; Ezr 10:3; Ne 1:11; 4:14; Job 28:28; Ps 2:4; 16:2; 22:30; 30:8; 35:17, 22, 23; 37:13; 38:9, 15, 22; 39:7; 40:17; 44:23; 51:15; 54:4; 55:9; 57:9; 59:11; 62:12; 66:18; 68:11, 17, 19, 22, 26, 32; 73:20; 77:2, 7; 78:65; 79:12; 86:3, 4, 5, 8, 9, 12, 15; 89:49, 50; 90:1, 17; 110:5; 130:2, 3, 6; Isa 3:17, 18; 4:4; 6:1, 8, 11; 7:14, 20; 8:7; 9:8, 17; 10:12; 11:11; 21:6, 8, 16; 28:2; 29:13; 30:20; 37:24; 38:14, 16; 49:14; La 1:14, 15, 15; 2:1, 2, 5, 7, 18, 19, 20; 3:31, 36, 37, 58; Eze 18:25, 29; 21:9; 33:17, 20; Da 1:2; 9:3, 4, 7, 9, 15, 16, 17, 19, 19, 19; Am 5:16; 7:7, 8; 9:1; Mic 1:2; Zec 9:4; Mal 1:12, 14.

We restored the original reading in 133 places and rendered it as "Jehovah." The only exception is Ps 68:26, where BHK and BHS already have the Tetragrammaton.—See Ps 68:26 fn., "Jehovah."

Eight Other Changes

According to Gins.^{int}, pp. 368, 369, in some instances the Jewish Sopherim substituted 'Elo-him' for the Tetragrammaton. We restored the original reading in eight places and rendered it as "Jehovah," namely, in Ps 14:1, 2, 5; 53:1, 2, 4, 5, 6.

Thus we restored the Tetragrammaton in the above 141 places and rendered it as "Jehovah."

The Divine Name in Ancient Greek Versions

LXX^P Fouad Inv. 266, first century B.C.E., retained the divine name (יהוה) in the Greek translation in De 32:3, 6.

Codex Alexandrinus (A), fifth century C.E., replaced the divine name (יהוה) with abbreviated forms of Ky'rios in the Greek translation in De 32:3, 6.

The Aleppo Codex (Al), tenth century C.E., in Hebrew, preserved the divine name (יהוה) that appeared in the early Hebrew text in De 32:3, 6.*

Over the past several decades many fragments of ancient Greek versions of the Hebrew Scriptures have been discovered wherein the divine name was found written, usually in Hebrew letters. This indicates that the divine name was used in Greek versions until well into the ninth century C.E. We are presenting ten manuscripts that contain the divine name, along with pertinent information.

(1) LXX^P Fouad Inv. 266 renders the divine name by the Tetragrammaton written in square Hebrew characters (אֱלֹהִים) in the following places: De 18:5, 5, 7, 15, 16; 19:8, 14; 20:4, 13, 18; 21:1, 8; 23:5; 24:4, 9; 25:15, 16; 26:2, 7, 8, 14; 27:2, 3, 7, 10, 15; 28:1, 1, 7, 8, 9, 13, 61, 62, 64, 65; 29:4, 10, 20, 29; 30:9, 20; 31:3, 26, 27, 29; 32:3, 6, 19. Therefore, in this collection the Tetragrammaton occurs 49 times in identified places in Deuteronomy. In addition, in this collection the Tetragrammaton occurs three times in unidentified fragments, namely, in fragments 116, 117 and 123. This papyrus, found in Egypt, was dated to the first century B.C.E.

In 1944 a fragment of this papyrus was published by W. G. Waddell in JTS, Vol. 45, pp. 158-161. In 1948, in Cairo, Egypt, two Gilead-trained missionaries of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society obtained photographs of 18 fragments of this papyrus and permission to publish them. Subsequently, 12 of these fragments were published in the New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures, 1950, pp. 13, 14. Based on the photographs in this publication, the following three studies were produced: (1) A. Vaccari, "Papiro Fuad, Inv. 266. Analisi critica dei Frammenti pubblicati in: 'New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures.' Brooklyn (N. Y.) 1950 p. 13s.," published in Studia Patristica, Vol. I, Part I, edited by Kurt Aland and F. L. Cross, Berlin, 1957, pp. 339-342; (2) W. Baars, "Papyrus Fouad Inv. No. 266," published in the Nederlands Theologisch Tijdschrift, Vol. XIII, Wageningen, 1959, pp. 442-446; (3) George Howard, "The Oldest Greek Text of Deuteronomy," published in the Hebrew Union College Annual, Vol. XLII, Cincinnati, 1971, pp. 125-131.

Commenting on this papyrus, Paul Kahle wrote in Studia Evangelica, edited by Kurt Aland, F. L. Cross, Jean Danielou, Harald Riesenfeld and W. C. van Unnik, Berlin, 1959, p. 614: "Further pieces of the same papyrus were reproduced from a photo of the papyrus by the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society in the introduction to an English translation of the New Testament, Brooklyn, New York, 1950. A characteristic of the papyrus is the fact that the name of God is rendered by the Tetragrammaton in Hebrew square letters. An examination of the published fragments of the papyrus undertaken at my request by Pater Vaccari resulted in his concluding that the papyrus, which must have been written about 400 years earlier than Codex B, contains perhaps the most perfect Septuagint text of Deuteronomy that has come down to us."

A total of 117 fragments of LXX^P Fouad Inv. 266 were published in Études de Papyrologie, Vol. 9, Cairo, 1971, pp. 81-150, 227, 228. A photographic edition of all the fragments of this papyrus was published by Zaki Aly and Ludwig Koenen under the title Three Rolls of the Early Septuagint: Genesis and Deuteronomy, in the series "Papyrologische Texte und Abhandlungen," Vol. 27, Bonn, 1980.

(2) LXX^{VT} 10^a renders the divine name by the Tetragrammaton written in ancient Hebrew characters (אֱלֹהִים) in the following places: Jon 4:2; Mic 1:1, 3; 4:4, 5, 7; 5:4, 4; Hab 2:14, 16, 20; 3:9; Zep 1:3, 14; 2:10; Zec 1:3, 3, 4; 3:5, 6, 7. This leather scroll, found in the Judean desert in a cave in Nahal Hever, was dated to the end of the first century C.E. The fragments of this scroll were published in Supplements to Vetus Testamentum, Vol. X, Leiden, 1963, pp. 170-178.

(3) LXX^{TEJ} 12 renders the divine name by the Tetragrammaton written in ancient Hebrew characters (אֱלֹהִים) in Jon 3:3. This shred of parchment, found in the Judean desert in a cave in Nahal Hever, was dated to the end of the first century C.E. It was published in Israel Exploration Journal, Vol. 12, 1962, p. 203.

(4) LXX^{VT} 10^b renders the divine name by the Tetragrammaton written in ancient Hebrew characters (אֱלֹהִים) in the following places: Zec 8:20; 9:1, 1, 4. This parchment scroll, found in the Judean desert in a cave in Nahal Hever, was dated to the middle of the first century C.E. It was published in Supplements to Vetus Testamentum, Vol. X, 1963, p. 178.

(5) 4Q LXX Lev^v renders the divine name in Greek letters ΙΑΩ (IAO) in Le 3:12; 4:27. This papyrus manuscript, found in Qumran Cave 4, was dated to the first century B.C.E. A preliminary report of this manuscript was presented in Supplements to Vetus Testamentum, Vol. IV, 1957, p. 157.

(6) LXX^P Oxy. VII.1007 renders the divine name by abbreviating the Tetragrammaton in the form of a double Yohdh (אֱלֹהִים) in Ge 2:8, 18. This vellum leaf, dated to the third century C.E., was published in The Oxyrhynchus Papyri, Part VII, edited with translations and notes by Arthur S. Hunt, London, 1910, pp. 1, 2.

(7) Aq^{Burkitt} renders the divine name by the Tetragrammaton written in ancient Hebrew characters (אֱלֹהִים) in the following places: 1Ki 20:13, 13, 14; 2Ki 23:12, 16, 21, 23, 25, 26, 27. These fragments of the Greek text of the version of Aquila were published by F. Crawford Burkitt in his work Fragment of the Books of Kings According to the Translation of Aquila, Cambridge, 1898, pp. 3-8. These palimpsest fragments of the books of Kings were found in the synagogue genizah in Cairo, Egypt. They were dated to the end of the fifth century or the beginning of the sixth century C.E.

(8) Aq^{Taylor} renders the divine name by the Tetragrammaton written in ancient Hebrew characters (אֱלֹהִים) in the following places: Ps 91:2, 9; 92:1, 4, 5, 8, 9; 96:7, 7, 8, 9, 10, 13; 97:1, 5, 9, 10, 12; 102:15, 16, 19, 21; 103:1, 2, 6, 8. These fragments of the Greek text of the version of Aquila were published by C. Taylor in his work Hebrew-Greek Cairo Genizah Palimpsests, Cambridge, 1900, pp. 54-65. These fragments were dated after the middle of the fifth century C.E., but not later than the beginning of the sixth century C.E.

(9) Sym^P Vindob. G. 39777 renders the divine name by the Tetragrammaton written in archaic Hebrew characters (אֱלֹהִים or אֱלֹהִים) in the following places: Ps 69:13, 30, 31. This fragment of a parchment roll with part of Ps 69 in Symmachus (68 in LXX), kept in the Österreichische Nationalbibliothek, Vienna, was dated to the third or fourth century C.E. It was published by Dr. Carl Wessely in Studien zur Palaeographie und Papyruskunde, Vol. XI, Leipzig, 1911, p. 171.

Here we reproduce the fragment of this papyrus containing the divine name.

(10) Ambrosian O 39 sup. renders the divine name by the Tetragrammaton written in square Hebrew characters (יהוה) in all five columns in the following places: Ps 18:30, 31, 41, 46; 28:6, 7, 8; 29:1, 1, 2, 2, 3, 3; 30:1, 2, 4, 7, 8, 10, 10, 12; 31:1, 5, 6, 9, 21, 23, 23, 24; 32:10, 11; 35:1, 22, 24, 27; 36:Sup, 5; 46:7, 8, 11; 89:49 (in columns 1, 2 and 4), 51, 52. This codex, dated to the end of the ninth century C.E., has five columns. The first column contains a transliteration of the Hebrew text into Greek, the second column has the Greek version of Aquila, the third column has the Greek version of Symmachus, the fourth column contains the LXX and the fifth column contains the Greek version of Quinta. A facsimile edition of this palimpsest, together with a transcript of the text, was published in Rome in 1958 by Giovanni Mercati under the title Psalterii Hexapli Reliquiae . . . Pars prima. Codex Rescriptus Bybliothecae Ambrosianae O 39 sup. Phototypice Expressus et Transcriptus.

These ten manuscript fragments indicate that the translators of the Hebrew text into Greek used the divine name where it occurred in the Hebrew text. Moreover, the occurrence of the Tetragrammaton in Zec 9:4 corroborates the claim that the Jewish Sophim replaced the Tetragrammaton with 'Adh-onai' (Sovereign Lord) in the Hebrew text in 134 places. —See App 1b.

The Divine Name in the Christian Greek Scriptures "Jehovah." Heb., יהוה (YHWH or JHVH)

From App 1a and 1c it is evident that the Tetragrammaton in Hebrew characters (יהוה) was used in both the Hebrew text and the Greek Septuagint. Therefore, whether Jesus and his disciples read the Scriptures in either Hebrew or Greek, they would come across the divine name. In the synagogue at Nazareth, when Jesus rose and accepted the book of Isaiah and read 61:1, 2 where the Tetragrammaton occurs twice, he pronounced the divine name. This was in accordance with his determination to make Jehovah's name known as can be seen from his prayer to his Father: "I have made your name manifest to the men you gave me out of the world. . . . I have made your name known to them and will make it known."—Joh 17:6, 26.

There is evidence that Jesus' disciples used the Tetragrammaton in their writings. In his work De viris illustribus [Concerning Illustrious Men], chapter III, Jerome, in the fourth century, wrote the following: "Matthew, who is also Levi, and who from a publican came to be an apostle, first of all composed a Gospel of Christ in Judaea in the Hebrew language and characters for the benefit of those of the circumcision who had believed. Who translated it after that in Greek is not sufficiently ascertained. Moreover, the Hebrew itself is preserved to this day in the library at Caesarea, which the martyr Pamphilus so diligently collected. I also was allowed by the Nazarenes who use this volume in the Syrian city of Beroea to copy it." (Translation from the Latin text edited by E. C. Richardson and published in the series "Texte und Untersuchungen zur Geschichte der altchristlichen Literatur," Vol. 14, Leipzig, 1896, pp. 8, 9.)

Matthew made more than a hundred quotations from the inspired Hebrew Scriptures. Where these quotations included the divine name he would have been obliged faithfully to include the Tetragrammaton in his Hebrew Gospel account. When the Gospel of Matthew was translated into Greek, the Tetragrammaton was left untranslated within the Greek text according to the practice of that time.

Not only Matthew but all the writers of the Christian Greek Scriptures quoted verses from the Hebrew text or from the Septuagint where the divine name appears. For example, in Peter's speech in Ac 3:22 a quotation is made from De 18:15 where the Tetragrammaton appears in a papyrus fragment of the Septuagint dated to the first century B.C.E. (See App 1c §1.) As a follower of Christ, Peter used God's name, Jehovah. When Peter's speech was put on record the Tetragrammaton was here used according to the practice during the first century B.C.E. and the first century C.E.

Sometime during the second or third century C.E. the scribes removed the Tetragrammaton from both the Septuagint and the Christian Greek Scriptures and replaced it with Ky'rios, "Lord" or Theos, "God."

Concerning the use of the Tetragrammaton in the Christian Greek Scriptures, George Howard of the University of Georgia wrote in Journal of Biblical Literature, Vol. 96, 1977, p. 63: "Recent discoveries in Egypt and the Judean Desert allow us to see first hand the use of God's name in pre-Christian times. These discoveries are significant for N[ew] T[estament] studies in that they form a literary analogy with the earliest Christian documents and may explain how NT authors used the divine name. In the following pages we will set forth a theory that the divine name, יהוה (and possibly abbreviations of it), was originally written in the NT quotations of and allusions to the O[ld] T[estament] and that in the course of time it was replaced mainly with the surrogate Ky'rios [abbreviation for Ky'rios, "Lord"]. This removal of the Tetragrammaton, in our view, created a confusion in the minds of early Gentile Christians about the relationship between the 'Lord God' and the 'Lord Christ' which is reflected in the MS tradition of the NT text itself."

We concur with the above, with this exception: We do not consider this view a "theory," rather, a presentation of the facts of history as to the transmission of Bible manuscripts.

RESTORING THE DIVINE NAME

Throughout the centuries many translations of parts or of all the Christian Greek Scriptures have been made into Hebrew. Such translations, designated in this work by "J" with a superior number, have restored the divine name to the inspired Christian Greek Scriptures in various places. They have restored the divine name not only when coming upon quotations from the Hebrew Scriptures but also in other places where the texts called for such restoration.

To know where the divine name was replaced by the Greek words Ky'rios and Theos, we have determined where the inspired Christian writers have quoted verses, passages and expressions from the Hebrew Scriptures and then we have referred back to the Hebrew text to ascertain whether the divine name appears there. In this way we determined the identity to give Ky'rios and The'os and the personality with which to clothe them.

To avoid overstepping the bounds of a translator into the field of exegesis, we have been most cautious about rendering the divine name in the Christian Greek Scriptures, always carefully considering the Hebrew Scriptures as a background. We have looked for agreement from the Hebrew versions to confirm our rendering. Thus, out of the 237 times that we have rendered the divine name in the body of our translation, there is only one instance where we have no agreement from the Hebrew versions. But in this one instance, namely, 1Co 7:17, the context and related texts strongly support rendering the divine name. —See 1Co 7:17 ftn, "Jehovah."

Following is a list of the 237 places where the name "Jehovah" occurs in the main text of the New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures. Supporting the rendering are various sources listed by their respective symbols. For an explanation of the symbols ("J" references), see the Introduction under "Textual Symbols."

The following list also indicates the Greek word to be found at these locations in the Westcott and Hort Greek text. Ky'rios, "Lord," and its various forms are designated by Ky. Similarly, The'os, "God," and its various forms are designated by Th. An asterisk (*) preceding either of these symbols indicates that the Greek word is accompanied by the definite article in the Greek text. A plus sign (+) following the verse citation indicates that there is additional information to be found in a footnote on that verse.

"Sovereign Lord"
Heb., 'Adho-nai'

The Hebrew word 'Adho-nai' without an additional suffix always refers to Jehovah God, denoting his sovereign power. Therefore, it is appropriate to render it as "Sovereign Lord." 'Adho-nai' occurs 439 times in BHK and BHS. We have restored the original reading in 133 places where the original reading "Jehovah" was changed by the Sopherim to 'Adho-nai'. (See App 1B.) Therefore, this reduces from 439 to 306 the number of places where 'Adho-nai' occurs. In these 306 places the New World Translation renders 'Adho-nai' as "Sovereign Lord."

The expression 'Adho-nai' Yehwih, "Sovereign Lord Jehovah," is found 285 times in BHK and BHS, namely, in Ge 15:2, 8; De 3:24; 9:26; Jos 7:7; Jg 6:22;

"The [true] God"
Heb., ha-'Elo-him'

The title 'Elo-him', when preceded by the definite article ha, gives the expression ha-'Elo-him'. This expression occurs 376 times in M. In 368 places it refers to the true God, Jehovah, and in 8 places it refers to other gods.

Zorell^{18b}, p. 54, says: "In the Holy Scriptures especially the one true God, Jahve, is designated by this word; אֱלֹהִים elohim Ge 5:22; 6:9, 11; 17:18; 20:6; Ex 3:12; 19:17 and in several books written in prose; יְהוָה Yahweh is the [one true] God' De 4:35; 4:39; Jos 22:34; 2Sa 7:28; 1Ki 8:60 etc."—Brackets his.

The New World Translation renders ha-'Elo-him' as "the [true] God" in all 368 places where it refers to Jehovah. Following is a list of these 368 places: Ge 5:22, 24; 6:2, 4, 9, 11; 17:18; 20:6, 17; 22:1, 3, 9; 27:28; 31:11; 35:7; 41:25, 28, 32, 32; 42:18; 44:16; 45:8; 48:15, 15; Ex 1:17, 21; 2:23; 3:1, 6, 11, 12, 13; 4:20, 27; 14:19; 17:9; 18:5, 12, 16, 19, 19; 19:3, 17, 19; 20:20, 21; 21:6, 13; 22:8, 9; 24:11, 13; Nu 22:10; 23:27; De 4:35, 39; 7:9; 33:1; Jos 14:6; 22:34; 24:1; Jg 6:20, 36, 39; 7:14; 13:6, 6, 8, 9, 9; 16:28; 18:31; 20:2, 27; 21:2; 1Sa 4:4, 8, 8, 13, 17, 18, 19, 21, 22; 5:1, 2, 10, 10, 11; 6:20; 9:7, 8, 10; 10:3, 5, 7; 14:18, 18, 36; 2Sa 2:27; 6:2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 7, 12, 12; 7:2, 28; 12:16; 14:17, 20; 15:24, 24, 25, 29; 16:23; 19:27; 1Ki 8:60;

In the following eight places ha-'elo-him' refers to other gods: Ex 18:11; 22:20; De 10:17; Jg 10:14; 2Ch 2:5; Ps 86:8; 136:2; Jer 11:12.

Heb., ha-'El'

The title 'El, when preceded by the definite article ha, gives the expression ha-'El'. This expression occurs 32 times in M in the singular and it always refers to the true God, Jehovah. Gesenius' Hebrew Grammar (GK), § 126 e, renders ha-'Elo-him' and ha-'El' as "the one true God."

The New World Translation renders ha-'El' as "the [true] God" in all 32 places where it occurs in M in the singular, namely, in Ge 31:13; 35:1, 3; 46:3; De 7:9; 10:17; 33:26; 2Sa 22:31, 33, 48; Ne 1:5; 9:32; Job 13:8; 21:14; 22:17; 31:28; 33:6; 34:10, 37; 40:9; Ps 18:30, 32, 47; 57:2; 68:19, 20; 77:14; 85:8; Isa 5:16; 42:5; Jer 32:18; Da 9:4.

The plural of 'el is 'elim. In M 'elim occurs once preceded by the definite article, namely, in Ex 15:11, where it refers to other gods.

"The [true] Lord"
Heb., ha-'A-dhohn'

The title 'A-dhohn', "Lord; Master," when preceded by the definite article ha, "the," gives the expression ha-'A-dhohn, "the [true] Lord." The use of the definite article ha before the title 'A-dhohn' limits the application of this title exclusively to Jehovah God.

In M the expression ha-'A-dhohn occurs nine times, namely, in Ex 23:17; 34:23; Isa 1:24; 3:1; 10:16, 33; 19:4; Mic 4:13; Mal 3:1.

The plural of 'A-dhohn' is 'adho-nim'. In M the expression ha-'adho-nim, "the lords," occurs twice, namely, in De 10:17; Ps 136:3.

Titles and Descriptive Terms Applying to Jehovah

ALMIGHTY. Heb., Shad-dai, plural to denote excellence, occurs 41 times and is translated "Almighty" or "Almighty One." (Ge 49:25; Ps 68:14) The corresponding word in the Christian Greek Scriptures is Pan-to-kra'tor and means "Almighty," or, "Ruler Over All; One Who Has All Power." (2Co 6:18; Re 15:3) The expression 'El Shad-dai', "God Almighty," occurs seven times in M and indicates that Jehovah has irresistible power.—Ge 17:1; Ex 6:3.

ANCIENT OF DAYS. Aram., 'At-tiq' Yoh-min', meaning "One Advanced [or, Aged] in Days."—Da 7:9, 13, 22.

CREATOR. Heb., Boh-re. (Isa 40:28; 42:5) GRAND CREATOR.—Ec 12:1.

FATHER. Heb., 'Av'; Gr., Pater; Lat., Pa'ter; as Creator (Isa 64:8); as giver of everlasting life to all those who exercise faith. (Joh 5:21) The expression "Holy Father" is used exclusively with reference to Jehovah.—Joh 17:11. Compare Mt 23:9.

GOD. Heb., 'El', without the definite article, probably meaning "Mighty One; Strong One."—Ge 14:18.

GOD. Heb., 'Eloh'ah', singular of 'Elo-him', without the definite article. It occurs 41 times in Job and 16 times in other books.—Job 3:4.

GOD. Heb., 'Elo-him', without the definite article. In The American Journal of Semitic Languages and Literatures, Vol. XXI, Chicago and New York, 1905, p. 208, Aaron Ember wrote: "That the language of the Q[oid] T[estament] has entirely given up the idea of plurality in אֱלֹהִים ['Elo-him'] (as applied to the God of Israel) is especially shown by the fact that it is almost invariably construed with a singular verbal predicate, and takes a singular adjectival attribute. . . . אֱלֹהִים ['Elo-him'] must rather be explained as an intensive plural, denoting greatness and majesty, being equal to The Great God. It ranks with the plurals אֲדֹנָי ['adho-nim], "master" and בָּעָלִים [be'-alim], "owner; lord", employed with reference to human beings." 'Elo-him' draws attention to Jehovah's strength as the Creator and occurs 35 times in the creation account.—Ge 1:1-2:4.

GOD OF GODS (LORD OF LORDS).—De 10:17; Da 2:47.

GOD OF TRUTH. Heb., 'El 'emeth', indicating that Jehovah is true and faithful in all his dealings.—Ps 31:5.

GRAND GOD. Aram., 'Elah' rav'.—Da 2:45.

HAPPY GOD. Gr., ma-ka'ri-os The-os.—Compare 1Ti 1:11.

HOLY GOD. Heb., 'Elo-him' qedho-shim'.—Jos 24:19.

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY. Heb., qa-dhohsh', qa-dhohsh', qa-dhohsh'. This expression as applied to Jehovah includes holiness, cleanness, purity and sacredness to the superlative degree.—Isa 6:3; Re 4:8.

INDEFINITELY LASTING GOD. Heb., 'El 'oh-lam'.—Ge 21:33.

INSTRUCTOR. Heb., Moh-reh. (Job 36:22) GRAND INSTRUCTOR.—Isa 30:20.

I SHALL PROVE TO BE WHAT I SHALL PROVE TO BE.—See Ex 3:14 fn.

JEALOUS. Heb., Qan-na, meaning "Insisting on Exclusive Devotion."—Ex 34:14; see also Eze 5:13.

JEHOVAH GOD.—Ge 2:4. See App 1A.

JEHOVAH OF ARMIES. This expression with minor variations occurs 283 times in M. It also occurs twice in the Christian Greek Scriptures where Paul and James quoted or alluded to prophecies in the Hebrew Scriptures. (See Ro 9:29; Jas 5:4.) The expression "Jehovah of armies" indicates the power held by the Ruler of the universe, who has at his command vast forces of spirit creatures.—Ps 103:20, 21; 148:2; Isa 1:24; Jer 32:17, 18. See App 1E.

KING OF ETERNITY. Gr., Basileus' ton ai-o'non.—Compare 1Ti 1:17.

KING OF THE NATIONS. Heb., Me'lekh hag-goh-yim.—Jer 10:7.

LIVING GOD. Heb., 'Elo-him', with the plural adjective chai-yim' (De 5:26); or with the singular adjective chai (Isa 37:4, 17); Gr., The-os' zon.—Compare Heb 3:12.

MAJESTY. Gr., Mega-lo-sy'ne, denoting his lofty, superior position. (Compare Heb 1:3; 8:1.) MAJESTIC ONE. Heb., 'Ad-dir'.—Isa 33:21.

MAKER. Heb., 'O-seh'. (Ps 115:15; Jer 10:12) GRAND MAKER.—Isa 54:5.

MOST HIGH. Heb., 'Elyohn'.—De 32:8; Ps 9:2; 83:18.

MOST HOLY ONE. Heb., Qedho-shim', plural to denote excellence and majesty.—Fr 30:3.

OVERSEER OF YOUR SOULS.—1Pe 2:25.

THE ROCK. Heb., hats-Tsur'. (De 32:4) Figuratively used to describe Jehovah's qualities as perfect, just, faithful, righteous and upright; as father (De 32:18); as a stronghold (2Sa 22:32; Isa 17:10); as a secure height and refuge (Ps 62:7; 94:22); as a source of salvation.—De 32:15; Ps 95:1.

SAVIOR. Heb., Moh-shi'a' (Isa 43:11; 45:21); Gr., Soter'.—Compare Lu 1:47.

SHEPHERD.—Ps 23:1; 1Pe 2:25.

SOVEREIGN LORD.—Ge 15:2; Lu 2:29. See App 1E.

SUPREME ONE. Aram., 'Elyoh-nin'.—Da 7:18, 22, 27.

THE [TRUE] GOD. Heb., ha-'Elo-him'.—See App 1F.

THE [TRUE] GOD. Heb., ha-'El'.—See App 1G.

Extraordinary Points Puncta extraordinaria

In 15 passages in M certain words are stigmatized or dotted. Some Hebrew manuscripts exhibit vertical or horizontal strokes instead of dots, or puncta. The 15 places where the extraordinary points occur are: Ge 16:5; 18:9; 19:33; 33:4; 37:12; Nu 3:39; 9:10; 21:30; 29:15; De 29:29; 2Sa 19:19; Ps 27:13; Isa 44:9; Eze 41:20; 46:22. See our footnotes for a discussion of these passages.

The exact meaning of the dots is disputed. Some consider them to be marks of erasure. Others think the dots indicate that in some collated manuscripts the words thus stigmatized were missing, so that the reading is doubtful. Still others think the dots are simply a device to aid the reader to remember some explanation that the ancient Hebrews had connected with these words. Also, there are those who argue that the dots were intended to guard against the omission by copyists of elements in the Hebrew text which, at first glance or after comparison with parallel Scripture passages, seemed to be superfluous.

Concerning the extraordinary points, Gins.^{int}, pp. 320, 321, says: "It will thus be seen that the points were regarded by the ancient authorities as marking the letters and words in question as spurious and that the Prophet Elias [Elijah], who is to solve all doubts and difficulties, will give his decision on them when he appears. The practice of using dots to stigmatize words as spurious was not restricted to those days. Later scribes continued the example of the ancient Sopherim, as may be seen by the student of Hebrew MSS."

Emendations (Corrections) of the Sopherim "Tiqqune Sopherim"

Eighteen Emendations of the Sopherim

In the margin of certain Hebrew manuscripts of the Masoretic text there are notations that read: "This is one of the eighteen emendations of the Sopherim," or similar expressions. These emendations (corrections) were made with good intentions because the original passage appeared to show either irreverence for God or disrespect for his earthly representatives. Following is a list of the Eighteen Emendations of the Sopherim, according to Gins.^{int}, pp. 347-363: Ge 18:22; Nu 11:15; 12:12; 1Sa 3:13; 2Sa 16:12; 20:1; 1Ki 12:16; 2Ch 10:16; Job 7:20; 32:3; Ps 106:20; Jer 2:11; La 3:20; Eze 8:17; Ho 4:7; Hab 1:12; Zec 2:8; Mal 1:13.

Other Emendations of the Sopherim

According to Gins.^{int}, pp. 362, 363, the St. Petersburg Codex of 916 C.E. registers two more alterations made by the Sopherim, namely, in Mal 1:12; 3:9. In those two places we have restored the text to the original reading. Our footnotes indicate the original reading as well as the actual reading in M.

Emendations in the Text but Not Recorded in the Masoretic Notes

According to Gins.^{int}, p. 363, there are "a few passages into which changes have been introduced by the authorised redactors of the text, but which are not expressly mentioned in the official Lists. Foremost amongst these are instances in which the original reading described blasphemy or cursing God. Such profane phrases were deemed offensive to the ears of the devote[d] worshippers when the Scriptures were read publicly before the congregation." We have restored the text to the original reading in the following seven places: 2Sa 12:14; 1Ki 21:10, 13; Job 1:5, 11; 2:5, 9. Our footnotes indicate the original reading as well as the actual reading in M.

Scribal Changes Involving the Divine Name

Transliteration has reference to exchanging the characters of one language script for another language script to enable pronunciation. In English this is also known as romanizing.—See Aid to Bible Understanding (ad) under the headings “Hebrew, II” and “Greek.”

HEBREW—Transliteration Chart

□	Cha-teph-seghohl'	e as in met
□	Cha-teph-qa'mets	o as in not

Special Combinations

◌ֶ	= ai	◌ֻ	= oh
◌ֹ	= eh	◌ֺ	= u
◌ֻ	= ey	◌ֽ	= av

CONCERNING THE VOWELS: All the vowels in this chart appear below the line except Choh'lem (◌ֹ), which is placed above, and Shu'req (◌ֻ), which appears in the bosom of Waw (◌ֻ = u). The vowel sign (◌) is used to represent both the Qa'mets, “a” and the Qa'mets cha-tuph, “o.” If the vowel sign (◌) occurs in a closed unaccented syllable, it must be short and pronounced o as in nor. The vowel sign (◌) is pronounced “o” when followed by a silent Shewa'' (e.g., חֹכְמָה, chokh-mah); when followed by a Daghes Forte (the doubling dot in the center of the consonant) but still unaccented (e.g., חֹנֶה, chon-ne'ni); or, when followed by a Maqqeph (similar to a raised English hyphen) that has the effect of deleting any preceding accent (e.g., כֹּל-אֲשֶׁר, kol'-asher). If it is followed by a Cha-teph-qa'mets, it is also short and pronounced “o.”

If though, the vowel sign (◌) occurs in an open syllable (e.g., יָקוּם, ya-qum) or in a syllable, which, though closed, is accented (e.g., לָמָּה, lam'mah), then it is a as in awl. Note also that a Metheg (a short vertical stroke that serves as a kind of half accent) placed to the left of a Qa'mets leaves the syllable open and makes the Shewa'' vocal (e.g., אֶחָדָה, 'a-khelah).

A Shewa'' is vocalized and transliterated as an e, when under a consonant at the beginning of a syllable (e.g., קֶטֶל, qetol); when under a consonant that follows an open syllable identified by a Metheg (e.g., קֶטֶל־הַ, qatelah); when after a long vowel (e.g., שׁוֹמֵרִים, shoh-merim); when one Shewa'' follows another in the middle of a word, the first is silent and the second is vocal (e.g., יִקְטְלוּ, yiq-telu); or, when under a doubled consonant (e.g., קִטְטְלוּ, qit-telu). However, when the Shewa'' follows a short vowel or when it stands under a consonant closing a syllable, it is silent and considered a syllable divider (e.g., יִקְטֹל, yiq-tol).

Hebrew Prefixes and Suffixes

A characteristic of Hebrew is its use of prefixes and suffixes to form compound words. For example, betsal-me'nu, "in our image," occurs in Ge 1:26. The Hebrew word for "image" is preceded by the prefix be, "in," and followed by the suffix e'nu, "our," thus producing the compound expression "in our image."

In the footnote apparatus you will encounter many prefixes (including conjunctions and articles) and suffixes attached to Hebrew basic words. Following are some of the more common ones found in the footnote apparatus of this Reference Bible.

PREFIXES in Hebrew (small word forms added before the Hebrew basic word)

ha, he, ho	=	the (definite article) or at times the particle indicating a question
we, u	=	and, but, also (conjunctive, connective)
be, ve	=	in, into, by, with
ke, khe	=	as, like, according to
le	=	to, for, at, of, against
me	=	from, of

SUFFIXES in Hebrew (small word forms added after the Hebrew basic word)

Added to singular words

—(e)kha	=	your (masc. sing.)
—ekh	=	your (fem. sing.)
—oh	=	his
—ah	=	her
—e'nu	=	our
—(e)khem	=	your (masc. pl.)
—(e)khen	=	your (fem. pl.)
—am	=	their (masc. pl.)
—an	=	their (fem. pl.)

Added to plural words

—ey'kha	=	your (masc. sing.)
—a'yikh	=	your (fem. sing.)
—av'	=	his
—ey'ha	=	her
—eh'nu	=	our
—eh-khem'	=	your (masc. pl.)
—eh-khen'	=	your (fem. pl.)
—eh-hem'	=	their (masc. pl.)
—eh-hen'	=	their (fem. pl.)

Plural Endings

—im	=	pl. of masc. words (e.g. su-sim' , "horses")
—oth, oth	=	pl. of fem. words
—eh, ai	=	pl. of masc. words in the Hebrew construct state

Dual Endings, usually indicating pairs

—a'yim	e.g., su-sa'yim , "pair of horses"
--------	---

Particle of Direction (accusative)

-----	--

The Hebrew verb has two states, the perfect state and the imperfect state. The perfect state indicates completed action. The imperfect state indicates incomplete or continuous action, or action in progress. In Ge 1:1 "created" in Hebrew is a verb in the perfect state, showing that the action of creating the heavens and the earth was completed. In Ge 2:2 "proceeded to rest" in Hebrew is a verb in the imperfect state, indicating an incomplete or continuous action, or action in progress. (Compare Heb 4:4-7.) Therefore, in Hebrew, action that took place in the past could be indicated by verbs in the imperfect state if that action is viewed as incomplete, while action taking place in the future could be indicated by verbs in the perfect state if that action is viewed as complete. The imperfect state of the Hebrew verb could be rendered in English by using auxiliary words such as "proceeded," "went on," "continued," etc.

Concerning the fundamental characteristic of the imperfect state in Hebrew, James Washington Watts* wrote in his work A Distinctive Translation of Genesis, Grand Rapids, Michigan (1963), pp. 129, 130: "The fundamental characteristic of all imperfects is incompleteness. . . . The incompleteness of these imperfects, when they are in the indicative mood, appears either in a progressive form or a frequentative form. The context is relied upon to indicate one or the other, for the structure of the verb is the same in both cases.

"If the context indicates a single act or state, the force is progressive. The action is pictured in the process of development. In such case the primary idea of the verb in English is not sufficient to convey its full meaning. The addition of an auxiliary like 'proceed' or an adverb like 'gradually' is needed if the translator sees an occasion for bringing out the full force. When a narrative is unfolding rapidly and the sequence of events is more important than the vivid portrayal of progress in some particular event, the translator may depend solely upon conjunctive adverbs like 'afterward' to indicate both sequence and progress. Progress in this case is not brought out fully. There is merely movement from one action or state to another without definite portrayal of progress within the second. The use of this limited translation means that the translator sees no special reason for bringing out the idea of progress more fully at that point. The account in English would become tedious if he did. On the other hand, if the translator sees that the account is enriched by bringing out the full force of the verb, he is at liberty to do so.

"If the context indicates more than one occurrence of the act or state, the force is frequentative. Again the primary idea of the verb in English is not sufficient to convey the full meaning. The addition of an auxiliary like 'continued' or an adverb like 'frequently' is needed to reveal the full meaning of repetition or customary occurrence."

Throughout the centuries scholars have been amazed at the capability of the Hebrew language to express past events by using verbs in the imperfect state, and to express future events by using verbs in the perfect state. In an attempt to explain this peculiarity, they developed the theory of Waw Consecutive. Concerning this theory, O. L. Barnes, in his work A New Approach to the Problem of the Hebrew Tenses and Its Solution Without Recourse to Waw-Consecutive, Oxford (1965), pp. 4, 5, wrote: "The matter has been needlessly complicated by the introduction and slavish adherence to the doctrine of Waw Consecutive, or its more ancient forbear Waw Converse (the latest name proposed for it is Waw Conservative). Very briefly, though there have been a variety of modifications of the theme, this states that the 'and - Waw ' appearing before the first of a series of consecutive Hebrew Verbs in the Imperfect Tense, if preceded by a Hebrew Verb in the Perfect Tense, indicates that all of them should be read or taken as Perfects (instead of what they really are: Imperfects) and vice versa, provided of course certain vowels associated with the Waw ' in the Imperfect are present."

Regarding the validity of this theory, O. L. Barnes wrote on p 1 of his work: "We may rightly ask why the 'and - Waw ' has this strange converting power. Some recent grammars, in an attempt to by-pass the absurdity, state that it is not really the 'and - Waw ' that has this converting power, but it is the key or guide we must look for to indicate the conversion; in end-result, therefore, it amounts to precisely the same thing. I trust it will be evident from what is stated here that in fact the 'and - Waw ' neither has this power, nor is its assumption necessary to explain the rapid, sometimes abrupt, change in sequence of the Hebrew Tenses. In other words, we may dispense completely with the mythical Waw-Consecutive theory invented by grammarians."

About one hundred years ago, Benjamin Wills Newton, in his work The Altered Translation of Genesis ii, 5, London, 1888, pp. 49-51, took a firm stand against the theory of Waw Consecutive. After giving a sample translation of Ge 1:3-8, Newton concluded on pp. 50, 51: "Throughout the chapter the future is used to denote progression. In our translation we rightly enough use the past, for we are unable by our future tense similarly to mark progression. There is an expansiveness in the Hebrew use of the future which our future has not; and, consequently, greater accuracy of statement. I may add that there certainly is no room for the theory of Waw converse in this chapter, and no ground for saying (because our future cannot adapt itself to the elasticity of the Hebrew future) that therefore the Hebrew future is to be shorn of its prerogatives and commuted into a past. It is marvellous that any one should have ventured to propose anything so preposterous."

Following, we give Ge 1:3-8 from three different versions: Benjamin Wills Newton's translation, New World Translation and James Washington Watts' translation.

* Author of A Distinctive Translation of Genesis (1963), of Exodus (1977) and of Isaiah (1979).

Benjamin Wills Newton's translation (1888) (brackets his)

And God proceeded to say [future], Let Light become to be, and Light proceeded to become to be [future].

And God proceeded to view [future] the Light, that it [was] good; and God proceeded to divide [future] between the Light and the darkness; and God proceeded to call [future] the light Day, and the darkness He called [not "proceeded to call"; the past tense is used] Night; and evening proceeded to be [future], and morning proceeded to be [future] Day one.

And God proceeded to say [future] Let there become a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it become divisive between waters and waters.

And God proceeded to make [future] the firmament, and proceeded to divide [future] between the waters which [are] below in relation to the firmament and the waters which [are] above in relation to the firmament;

and God proceeded to call [future] the firmament Heavens; and evening proceeded to become [future] and morning proceeded to become [future] Day second.

New World Translation (1953)

3 And God proceeded to say: "Let light come to be." Then there came to be light.

4 After that God saw that the light was good, and God brought about a division between the light and the darkness.

5 And God began calling the light Day, but the darkness he called Night. And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, a first day.

6 And God went on to say: "Let an expanse come to be in between the waters and let a dividing occur between the waters and the waters."

7 Then God proceeded to make the expanse and to make a division between the waters that should be beneath the expanse and the waters that should be above the expanse. And it came to be so.

8 And God began to call the expanse Heaven. And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, a second day.

James Washington Watts' translation (1963) (brackets his)

3 Afterward God proceeded to say, "Let there be light"; and gradually light came into existence.

4 Also God proceeded to observe the light, [seeing] that it was good; so he proceeded to divide the light and the darkness.

5 Then God began to call the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. Thus there came to be an evening and a morning, even one day.

6 Then God continued, saying, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, also let there be a separation between the waters."

7 Accordingly, God proceeded to divide the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse; and gradually it came to be so.

8 Thereafter God began to call the expanse Heavens. Thus there came to be an evening and a morning, a second day.

The New World Translation has not followed the unfounded theory of Waw Consecutive when translating Hebrew verbs. This age-old theory does not convey the power and forcefulness of the Hebrew verbs in their original states. Therefore, the New World Translation presents the Hebrew verbs with accurate meaning and dynamism by maintaining a distinction between the perfect and the imperfect states of the Hebrew verbs.

"Soul"—A Living Creature, Human or Animal; Life as an Intelligent Person; Other Uses
Heb., נֶפֶשׁ (ne'phesh); Gr., ψυχή (psy-khe'); Lat., a'ni-ma

In the Hebrew Scriptures the Hebrew word ne'phesh occurs 754 times, first in Ge 1:20. The New World Translation consistently renders it "soul" and in each case it proves understandable in the light of its context. The use of this one Hebrew word in many different contexts helps us to ascertain the basic idea inherent in the word as the Bible writers used it, namely, that it is a person, an individual, or a lower creature; or, the life that a person or an animal enjoys as such. This is totally different from what the ancient Egyptians, Babylonians, Greeks and Romans religiously and philosophically called a soul.

In the Christian Greek Scriptures the Greek word psy-khe' occurs by itself 102 times, first in Mt 2:20. This includes Eph 6:6 and Col 3:23, where it is in the expression "whole-souled." Additionally it is used in many compound Greek words such as in Php 2:2, 19; 1Th 5:14. The New World Translation consistently renders psy-khe' as "soul." This uniform rendering by the same English word proves very enlightening as to how the inspired writers used psy-khe' and what properties they ascribed to it.

To aid in understanding the uses of "soul," we have grouped below, under various headings, texts where "soul" occurs.

Animals are souls

Ge 1:20, 21, 24, 30; 2:19; 9:10, 12, 15, 16; Le 11:10, 46, 46; 24:18; Nu 31:28; Job 41:21; Eze 47:9.

"Sheol," "Hades"—The Common Grave of Mankind; Gravedom
Heb., שְׁאוֹל (she'ohl); Gr., ᾗδης (hai'des); Lat., infer'nus; Syr., shiul

The Sixty-Six Occurrences of Sheol

"Sheol" occurs 66 times in the New World Translation of the Hebrew Scriptures, namely, in Ge 37:35; 42:38; 44:29, 31; Nu 16:30, 33; De 32:22; 1Sa 2:6; 2Sa 22:6; 1Ki 2:6, 9; Job 7:9; 11:8; 14:13; 17:13, 16; 21:13; 24:19; 26:6; Ps 6:5; 9:17; 16:10; 18:5; 30:3; 31:17; 49:14, 14, 15; 55:15; 86:13; 88:3; 89:48; 116:3; 139:8; 141:7; Pr 1:12; 5:5; 7:27; 9:18; 15:11, 24; 23:14; 27:20; 30:16; Ec 9:10; Ca 8:6; Isa 5:14; [7:11]; 14:9, 11, 15; 28:15, 18; 38:10, 18; 57:9; Eze 31:15, 16, 17; 32:21, 27; Ho 13:14, 14; Am 9:2; Jon 2:2; Hab 2:5.

The occurrences of "Sheol" in the Hebrew Scriptures cover the 65 times it occurs in M, and one instance in Isa 7:11, where see ftn. In all cases the New World Translation uses "Sheol" for the Hebrew word she'ohl. The Greek Septuagint generally renders she'ohl as hai'des.

The derivation of the Hebrew word she'ohl is uncertain. According to one derivation, it means the "place of inquiry"; according to another, the "hollow place" or "resting-place"; according to still another, "the place that asks for and demands all without distinction of persons." It is in the earth and is always associated with the dead, and plainly means the common grave of mankind, gravedom, or the earthly (not sea) region of the dead. In contrast, the Hebrew word ge'vor means an individual grave or burial place.—Ge 23:4, 6, 9, 20.

The Ten Occurrences of Hades

"Hades," perhaps meaning "the unseen place," occurs ten times in the New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures, namely, in Mt 11:23; 16:18; Lu 10:15; 16:23; Ac 2:27, 31; Re 1:18; 6:8; 20:13, 14.

In Ac 2:27, Peter's quotation of Ps 16:10 shows Hades is the equivalent of Sheol and is applied to the common grave of mankind (in contrast with the Greek word ta'phos, an individual grave). The Latin word corresponding to Hades is infer'nus (sometimes infer'us). It means "that which lies beneath, the lower region," and well applies to the grave. It is thus a fitting approximation of the Greek and Hebrew terms.

In the inspired Scriptures these words are associated with death and the dead, not with life and the living. (Re 20:13) In themselves the words "Sheol" and "Hades" contain no thought or hint of pleasure or pain.

"Gehenna"—Symbol of Complete Destruction
Heb., גֵּהֶנּוֹם (geh hin-nom, "valley of Hinnom");
Gr., γέεννα (ge'en-na); Lat., ge-hen'na

"Gehenna" means "valley of Hinnom," for it is the Greek form of the Hebrew geh hin-nom. In Jos 18:16, where "valley of Hinnom" occurs, LXX reads "Gehenna." It occurs 12 times in the Christian Greek Scriptures, first appearing in Mt 5:22. The New World Translation renders it "Gehenna" in all its occurrences, namely, in Mt 5:22, 29, 30; 10:28; 18:9; 23:15, 33; Mr 9:43, 45, 47; Lu 12:5; Jas 3:6.

The valley of Hinnom lay to the west and south of ancient Jerusalem. (Jos 15:8; 18:16; Jer 19:2, 6) Under the later kings of Judah it was used for the idolatrous worship of the pagan god Molech, to which god human sacrifices were offered by fire. (2Ch 28:3; 33:6; Jer 7:31, 32; 32:35) To prevent its use again for such religious purposes, faithful King Josiah had the valley polluted, particularly the part called Topheth. —2Ki 23:10.

The Jewish commentator David Kimhi (1160?-1235?), in his comment on Ps 27:13, gives the following historical information concerning "Gehinnom": "And it is a place in the land adjoining Jerusalem, and it is a loathsome place, and they throw there unclean things and carcasses. Also there was a continual fire there to burn the unclean things and the bones of the carcasses. Hence, the judgment of the wicked ones is called parabolically Gehinnom."

The valley of Hinnom became the dumping place and incinerator for the filth of Jerusalem. Bodies of dead animals were thrown in to be consumed in the fires to which sulphur, or brimstone, was added to assist the burning. Also bodies of executed criminals, who were considered undeserving of a decent burial in a memorial tomb, were thrown in. If such dead bodies landed in the fire they were consumed, but if their carcasses landed upon a ledge of the deep ravine their putrefying flesh became infested with worms, or maggots, which did not die until they had consumed the fleshy parts, leaving only the skeletons.

No living animals or human creatures were pitched into Gehenna to be burned alive or tormented. Hence, the place could never symbolize an invisible region where human souls are tormented eternally in literal fire or attacked forever by undying worms. Because the dead criminals cast there were denied a decent burial in a memorial tomb, the symbol of the hope of a resurrection, Gehenna was used by Jesus and his disciples to symbolize everlasting destruction, annihilation from God's universe, or "second death," an eternal punishment.

Therefore, to have one's dead body cast into Gehenna was considered the worst kind of punishment. From the literal Gehenna and its significance, the symbol of the 'lake burning with fire and sulphur' was drawn. —Re 19:20; 20:10, 14, 15; 21:8.

"Tartarus"

2Pe 2:4—"By throwing them into Tartarus"
Gr., Tar-ta-ro'sas; Lat., de-trac'tos in Tar'ta-rum;
Syr., 'a-gen 'e-nun beThach-ta-ya-tha'

"Tartarus" is found only in 2Pe 2:4. It is included in the Greek verb tar-ta-ro'o, and so in rendering the verb, the phrase "by throwing them into Tartarus" has been used.

In the Iliad, by the ancient poet Homer, the word tar'ta-ros denotes an underground prison as far below Hades as the earth is below heaven. Those confined in it were not human souls, but the lesser gods, spirits, namely, Cronus and the other Titans who had rebelled against Zeus (Jupiter). It was the prison established by the mythical gods for the spirits whom they had driven from the celestial regions, and it was below the Hades where human souls were thought to be confined at death. In mythology tar'ta-ros was the lowest of the lower regions and a place of darkness. It enveloped all the underworld just as the heavens enveloped all that was above the earth. Therefore, in pagan Greek mythology tar'ta-ros was reputed to be a place for confining, not human souls, but Titan spirits, and a place of darkness and abasement.

In Job 40:15 (40:20, LXX) we read concerning Behemoth: "And when he has gone up to a steep mountain, he causes joy to the quadrupeds in the deep [ἐν τῷ τάρταρῳ ("in the tartarus").] In Job 41:31, 32 (41:23, 24, LXX) we read concerning Leviathan: "He makes the deep boil like a brazen caldron; and he regards the sea as a pot of ointment, and the lowest part of the deep [τὸν δὲ τάρταρον τῆς ἀβύσσου ("the tartarus of the abyss")] as a captive: he reckons the deep as his range." The use of tar'ta-ros in these verses in LXX makes it plain that the word was used to signify a low place, yes, the "lowest part" of the abyss.—Compare 2Pe 2:4 fn.

The inspired Scriptures do not consign any human souls to tar'ta-ros but consign there only spirit creatures, namely, "the angels that sinned." Their being cast into tar'ta-ros denotes the deepest abasement for them while they are still living. This serves as punishment for their sin of rebellion against the Most High God. The apostle Peter associates darkness with their low condition, saying that God "delivered them to pits of dense darkness to be reserved for judgment."—2Pe 2:4.

The pagans in their mythological traditions concerning Cronus and the rebellious Titan gods presented a distorted view regarding the abasement of rebellious spirits. In contrast, Peter's use of the verb tar-ta-ro'o, "cast into Tartarus," does not signify that "the angels that sinned" were cast into the pagan mythological Tartarus, but that they were abased by the Almighty God from their heavenly place and privileges and were delivered over to a condition of deepest mental darkness respecting God's bright purposes. Also they had only a dark outlook as to their own eventuality, which the Scriptures show is everlasting destruction along with their ruler, Satan the Devil. Therefore, Tartarus denotes the lowest condition of abasement for those rebellious angels.

In the inspired Scriptures, Tartarus bears no relationship to Hades, which is the common grave of the human dead. The sinful angels and the dead human souls are not associated together in tar'ta-ros as a place of eternal conscious torment of creatures. Tartarus will pass away when the Supreme Judge destroys the rebellious angels presently in that condition of abasement.

"Fornication"—Every Kind of Unlawful Sexual Intercourse
Mt 5:32—Gr., por-nei'a (por-nei'a); Lat., *for-ni-ca'ti-o

The Greek word por-nei'a covers a broad meaning. Bauer, p. 693, says under the word por-nei'a that it means "prostitution, unchastity, fornication, of every kind of unlawful sexual intercourse."

Commenting on Jesus' words in Mt 5:32 and 19:9, TDNT, Vol. VI, p. 592, says that "πορνεία [por-nei'a] refers to extra-marital intercourse." Therefore, the Scriptures use the term por-nei'a in connection with married persons. The same dictionary, on p. 594, in connection with Eph 5:3, 5, says that Paul "realises that not every one has the gift of continence, 1 C. 7:7. As a protection against the evil of fornication the [single] man who does not have [continence] should take the divinely prescribed way of a lawful marriage, 1 C. 7:2." Hence, the Scriptures use the term por-nei'a also in connection with unmarried persons engaging in unlawful sex relations and practices.—See 1Co 6:9.

B. F. Westcott, coeditor of the Westcott and Hort Greek text, in his work, Saint Paul's Epistle to the Ephesians, London and New York, 1906, p. 76, comments on the various meanings of por-nei'a in the Scriptures in a note on Eph 5:3, saying: "This is a general term for all unlawful intercourse, (1) adultery: Hos. ii. 2, 4 (LXX.); Matt. v. 32; xix. 9; (2) unlawful marriage, 1 Cor. v. 1; (3) fornication, the common sense as here [Eph 5:3]." By "the common sense" evidently reference is made to the modern, limited, sense involving only unmarried persons.

In addition to this literal meaning, in certain places in the Christian Greek Scriptures por-nei'a has a symbolic meaning. Concerning this meaning Zorell^{Gr}, col. 1106, says under por-nei'a: "apostasy from the true faith, committed either entirely or partially, defection from the one true God Jahve to foreign gods [4Ki 9:22; Jer 32:9; Ho 6:10 etc.; for God's union with his people was considered like a kind of spiritual matrimony]: Re 14:8; 17:2, 4; 18:3; 19:2." (Brackets his; 4Ki in LXX corresponds to 2Ki in M.)

In the Greek text por-nei'a occurs in the following 25 places: Mt 5:32; 15:19; 19:9; Mr 7:21; Joh 8:41; Ac 15:20, 29; 21:25; 1Co 5:1, 1; 6:13, 18; 7:2; 2Co 12:21; Ga 5:19; Eph 5:3; Col 3:5; 1Th 4:3; Re 2:21; 9:21; 14:8; 17:2, 4; 18:3; 19:2.

The related verb por-neu'o, rendered in NW as "practice fornication" or "commit fornication," occurs in the following eight places: 1Co 6:18; 10:8, 8; Re 2:14, 20; 17:2; 18:3, 9.

The related verb ek-por-neu'o, rendered in NW as "commit fornication excessively," occurs once, in Jude 7.—Compare Jg 2:17 fn.

The related noun por-ne, rendered in NW as "harlot," occurs in the following 12 places: Mt 21:31, 32; Lu 15:30; 1Co 6:15, 16; Heb 11:31; Jas 2:25; Re 17:1, 5, 15, 16; 19:2.

The related noun por-nos, rendered in NW as "fornicator," occurs in the following ten places: 1Co 5:9, 10, 11; 6:9; Eph 5:5; 1Ti 1:10; Heb 12:16; 13:4; Re 21:8; 22:15. LS, p. 1450, defines this word as meaning "catamite, sodomite, fornicator, idolater."

Christ's Presence (Parousia)
Mt 24:3—Gr., τὸ σημεῖον τῆς σῆς παρουσίας

- 1864 "the SIGN of THY presence"
- 1897 "the sign of thy presence"
- 1903 "the signal of Your presence"
- 1950 "the sign of your presence"

The Emphatic Diaglott (J²¹), by Benjamin Wilson, New York and London.

The Emphasised Bible, by J. B. Rotherham, Cincinnati.

The Holy Bible in Modern English, by F. Fenton, London.

New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures, Brooklyn.

The Greek noun pa-rou-si'a literally means a "being alongside," the expression being drawn from the preposition para' (alongside) and ou-si'a (a "being"). The word pa-rou-si'a occurs 24 times in the Christian Greek Scriptures, namely, in Mt 24:3, 27, 37, 39; 1Co 15:23; 16:17; 2Co 7:6, 7; 10:10; Php 1:26; 2:12; 1Th 2:19; 3:13; 4:15; 5:23; 2Th 2:1, 8, 9; Jas 5:7, 8; 2Pe 1:16; 3:4, 12; 1Jo 2:28. In these 24 places the New World Translation renders pa-rou-si'a as "presence."

The related verb pa-rei-mi literally means "be alongside." It occurs 24 times in the Christian Greek Scriptures, namely, in Mt 26:50; Lu 13:1; Joh 7:6; 11:28; Ac 10:21, 33; 12:20 (ftn.); 17:6; 24:19; 1Co 5:3, 3; 2Co 10:2, 11; 11:9; 13:2, 10; Ga 4:18, 20; Col 1:6;

Heb 12:11; 13:5; 2Pe 1:9, 12; Re 17:8. In these places the New World Translation renders pa-rei-mi as "(be) present" or "present himself."

From the contrast that is made between the presence and the absence of Paul both in 2Co 10:10, 11 and in Php 2:12, the meaning of pa-rou-si'a is plain. Also, from the comparison of the pa-rou-si'a of the Son of man with the "days of Noah," in Mt 24:37-39, it is evident that this word means "presence."

Liddell and Scott's A Greek-English Lexicon (LS), p. 1343, gives as the first definition of pa-rou-si'a the English word presence. Likewise TDNT, Vol. V, p. 859, states under the subheading "The General Meaning": παρουσία [pa-rou-si'a] denotes especially active presence."

The word pa-rou-si'a, "presence," is different from the Greek word e-leu-sis, "coming," which occurs once in the Greek text, in Ac 7:52, as e-leu-se-os (Lat., ad-ven-tu). The words pa-rou-si'a and e-leu-sis are not used interchangeably. TDNT, Vol. V, p. 865, noted that "the terms [pa-rei-mi and pa-rou-si'a] are never used for the coming of Christ in the flesh, and παρουσία never has the sense of return. The idea of more than one parousia is first found only in the later Church [not before Justine, second century C.E.] . . . A basic prerequisite for understanding the world of thought of primitive Christianity is that we should fully free ourselves from this notion [of more than one parousia]."

Concerning the meaning of this word, Israel P. Warren, D.D., wrote in his work The Parousia, Portland, Maine (1879), pp. 12-15: "We often speak of the 'second advent,' the 'second coming,' etc., but the Scriptures never speak of a 'second Parousia.' Whatever was to be its nature, it was something peculiar, having never occurred before, and being never to occur again. It was to be a presence differing from and superior to all other manifestations of himself to men, so that its designation should properly stand by itself, without any qualifying epithet other than the article,—THE PRESENCE."

"From this view of the word it is evident, I think, that neither the English word 'coming' nor the Latin 'advent' is the best representative of the original. They do not conform to its etymology; they do not correspond to the idea of the verb from which it is derived; nor could they appropriately be substituted for the more exact word, 'presence,' in the cases where the translators used the latter. Nor is the radical [root] idea of them the same. 'Coming' and 'advent' give most prominently the conception of an approach to us, motion toward us; 'parousia' that of being with us, without reference to how it began. The force of the former ends with the arrival; that of the latter begins with it. Those are words of motion; this of rest. The space of time covered by the action of the former is limited, it may be momentary; that of the latter unlimited. . . .

"Had our translators done with this technical word 'parousia' as they did with 'baptisma,'—transferring it unchanged,—or if translated using its exact etymological equivalent, presence, and had it been well understood, as it then would have been, that there is no such thing as a 'second Presence,' I believe that the entire doctrine would have been different from what it now is. The phrases, 'second advent,' and 'second coming,' would never have been heard of. The church would have been taught to speak of THE PRESENCE OF THE LORD, as that from which its hopes were to be realized, whether in the near future or at the remotest period,—that under which the world was to be made new, a resurrection both spiritual and corporeal should be attained, and justice and everlasting awards administered."

Also, Bauer, p. 630, states that pa-rou-si'a "became the official term for a visit of a person of high rank, especially of kings and emperors visiting a province." In Mt 24:3, as well as in other texts such as 1Th 3:13 and 2Th 2:1, the word pa-rou-si'a refers to the royal presence of Jesus Christ since his enthronement as King in the last days of this system of things.

"Torture Stake"

Gr., σταυρός (stau-ros'); Lat., crux

"Torture stake" in Mt 27:40 is used in connection with the execution of Jesus at Calvary, that is, Skull Place. There is no evidence that the Greek word stau-ros' here meant a cross such as the pagans used as a religious symbol for many centuries before Christ.

In the classical Greek the word stau-ros' meant merely an upright stake, or pale, or a pile such as is used for a foundation. The verb stau-ro'o meant to fence with pales, to form a stockade, or palisade, and this is the verb used when the mob called for Jesus to be impaled. It was to such a stake, or pale, that the person to be punished was fastened, just as the popular Greek hero Prometheus was represented as tied to rocks. Whereas the Greek word that the dramatist Aeschylus used to describe this simply means to tie or to fasten, the Greek author Lucian (Prometheus, I) used ana-stau-ro'o as a synonym for that word. In the Christian Greek Scriptures ana-stau-ro'o occurs but once, in Heb 6:6. The root verb stau-ro'o occurs more than 40 times, and we have rendered it "impale," with the footnote: "Or, 'fasten on a stake (pole).'"

The inspired writers of the Christian Greek Scriptures wrote in the common (koinē) Greek and used the word stau-ros' to mean the same thing as in the classical Greek, namely, a simple stake, or pale, without a crossbeam of any kind at any angle. There is no proof to the contrary. The apostles Peter and Paul also use the word xy'lon to refer to the torture instrument upon which Jesus was nailed, and this shows that it was an upright stake without a crossbeam, for that is what xy'lon in this special sense means. (Ac 5:30; 10:39; 13:29; Ga 3:13; 1Pe 2:24) In LXX we find xy'lon in Ezr 6:11 (1 Esdras 6:31), and there it is spoken of as a beam on which the violator of law was to be hanged, the same as in Ac 5:30; 10:39.

The Latin dictionary by Lewis and Short gives as the basic meaning of crux "a tree, frame, or other wooden instruments of execution, on which criminals were impaled or hanged." In the writings of Livy, a Roman historian of the first century B.C.E., crux means a mere stake. "Cross" is only a later meaning of crux. A single stake for impalement of a criminal was called in Latin crux simplex. One such instrument of torture is illustrated by Justus Lipsius (1547-1606) in his book De cruce libri tres, Antwerp, 1629, p. 19. The photograph of the crux simplex on our p. 1578 is an actual reproduction from his book.

The book Das Kreuz und die Kreuzigung (The Cross and the Crucifixion), by Hermann Fulda, Breslau, 1878, p. 109, says: "Trees were not everywhere available at the places chosen for public execution. So a simple beam was sunk into the ground. On this the outlaws, with hands raised upward and often also with their feet, were bound or nailed." After submitting much proof, Fulda concludes on pp. 219, 220: "Jesus died on a simple death-stake: In support of this there speak (a) the then customary usage of this means of execution in the Orient, (b) indirectly the history itself of Jesus' sufferings and (c) many expressions of the early church fathers."

Paul Wilhelm Schmidt, who was a professor at the University of Basel, in his work Die Geschichte Jesu (The History of Jesus), Vol. 2, Tübingen and Leipzig, 1904, pp. 386-394, made a detailed study of the Greek word stau-ros. On p. 386 of his work he said: "σταυρός [stau-ros] means every upright standing pole or tree trunk." Concerning the execution of punishment upon Jesus, P. W. Schmidt wrote on pp. 387-389: "Beside scourging, according to the gospel accounts, only the simplest form of Roman crucifixion comes into consideration for the infliction of punishment upon Jesus, the hanging of the unclad body on a stake, which, by the way, Jesus had to carry or drag to the execution place to intensify the disgraceful punishment. . . . Anything other than a simple hanging is ruled out by the wholesale manner in which this execution was often carried out: 2000 at once by Varus (Jos. Ant. XVII 10, 10), by Quadratus (Jewish Wars II 12. 6), by the Procurator Felix (Jewish Wars II 15. 2), by Titus (Jewish Wars VII. 1)."

Evidence is, therefore, completely lacking that Jesus Christ was crucified on two pieces of timber placed at right angles. We do not want to add anything to God's written Word by inserting the pagan cross-concept into the inspired Scriptures, but render stau-ros and xy'lon according to the simplest meanings. Since Jesus used stau-ros to represent the suffering and shame or torture of his followers (Mt 16:24), we have translated stau-ros as "torture stake," to distinguish it from xy'lon, which we have translated "stake," or, in the footnote, "tree," as in Ac 5:30.

The Releasing to Be With Christ Php 1:23—"releasing." Gr., a-na-ly'sai; Lat., dis-sol'vi

The verb a-na-ly'sai is used as a verbal noun here. It occurs only once more in the Christian Greek Scriptures, in Lu 12:36, where it refers to Christ's return. The related noun a-na-ly-sis occurs once, in 2Ti 4:6, where the apostle says: "The due time for my releasing is imminent." In Lu 12:36 we have rendered the verb "returns" because it refers to the breaking away and departing of the servants' master from the wedding feast, so dissolving the feast. But here in Php 1:23 we have not rendered the verb as "returning" or "departing" but as "releasing." The reason is that the word may convey two thoughts: the apostle's own releasing to be with Christ at his return and the Lord's releasing of himself from heavenly restraints to return as he promised.

In no way is the apostle here saying that immediately at his death he would be changed into a spirit to be with Christ forever. Such getting to be with Christ the Lord will first be possible at Christ's return, when the dead in Christ will rise first, according to the apostle's own inspired statement in 1Th 4:15-17. It is to this return of Christ and the apostle's releasing to be always with the Lord that Paul refers in Php 1:23. He says there that two things are immediately possible for him, namely, (1) to live on in the flesh and (2) to die. Because of the circumstances to be considered, he expressed himself as being under pressure from these two things, not making known which thing he would select. Then he presents a third thing, which he really desires. There is no question about his desire for this thing as preferable, namely, "the releasing," for it means his being with Christ.

Therefore, the expression to a-na-ly'sai, "the releasing," cannot be applied to the apostle's death as a human creature and his departing from this life. It must refer to the events at the time of Christ's return and presence (see App 5B) and the rising of all those dead in Christ to be with him forever.

Das Evangelium nach Johannes, by Jürgen Becker, Würzburg, Germany.

These translations use such words as "a god," "divine" or "godlike" because the Greek word θεός (the-os') is a singular predicate noun occurring before the verb and is not preceded by the definite article. This is an anarthrous the-os'. The God with whom the Word, or Logos, was originally is designated here by the Greek expression ὁ θεός, that is, the-os' preceded by the definite article ho. This is an articular the-os'. Careful translators recognize that the articular construction of the noun points to an identity, a personality, whereas a singular anarthrous predicate noun preceding the verb points to a quality about someone. Therefore, John's statement that the Word or Logos was "a god" or "divine" or "godlike" does not mean that he was the God with whom he was. It merely expresses a certain quality about the Word, or Logos, but it does not identify him as one and the same as God himself.

In the Greek text there are many cases of a singular anarthrous predicate noun preceding the verb, such as in Mr 6:49; 11:32; Joh 4:19; 6:70; 8:44; 9:17; 10:1, 13, 33; 12:6. In these places translators insert the indefinite article "a" before the predicate noun in order to bring out the quality or characteristic of the subject. Since the indefinite article is inserted before the predicate noun in such texts, with equal justification the indefinite article "a" is inserted before the anarthrous θεός in the predicate of John 1:1 to make it read "a god." The Sacred Scriptures confirm the correctness of this rendering.

In his article "Qualitative Anarthrous Predicate Nouns: Mark 15:39 and John 1:1," published in Journal of Biblical Literature, Vol. 92, Philadelphia, 1973, p. 85, Philip B. Harner said that such clauses as the one in Joh 1:1, "with an anarthrous predicate preceding the verb, are primarily qualitative in meaning. They indicate that the logos has the nature of theos. There is no basis for regarding the predicate theos as definite." On p. 87 of his article, Harner concluded: "In John 1:1 I think that the qualitative force of the predicate is so prominent that the noun cannot be regarded as definite."

Following is a list of instances in the gospels of Mark and John where various translators have rendered singular anarthrous predicate nouns occurring before the verb with an indefinite article to denote the indefinite and qualitative status of the subject nouns:

Scripture Text	New World Translation	King James Version	An American Translation	New International Version	Revised Standard Version	Today's English Version

12:6	a thief	a thief	a thief	a thief	a thief	a thief

"For there are three witness bearers, the spirit and the water and the blood, and the three are in agreement."—1Jo 5:7, 8.

This rendering is in agreement with the Greek texts by C. Tischendorf (eighth ed., 1872); Westcott and Hort (1881); Augustinus Merk (ninth ed., 1964); José Maria Bover (fifth ed., 1968); United Bible Societies (third ed., 1975); Nestle-Aland (26th ed., 1979).

After "witness bearers" the cursive mss No. 61 (16th century) and No. 629 (in Latin and Greek, 14th to 15th century) and Vg^h add the words: "in heaven, the Father, the Word and the holy spirit; and these three are one. (8) And there are three witness bearers on earth." But these words are omitted by κ ABVgSy^{h,p}.

With the Blood of God's Own Son
Ac 20:28—Gr., διὰ τοῦ αἵματος τοῦ ἰδίου
(di-a' tou hai'ma-tos tou i-di'ou)

The Holy Bible in Modern English, by F. Fenton, London.

New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures, Brooklyn.

1966 "through the death of his own Son"

Today's English Version, American Bible Society, New York.

Grammatically, this passage could be translated as in the King James Version and Douay Version, "with his own blood." That has been a difficult thought for many. That is doubtless why ACDSy^h (margin) (followed by Moffatt's translation) read "the congregation of the Lord," instead of "the congregation of God." When the text reads that way it furnishes no difficulty for the reading, "with his own blood." However, κ BVg read "God" (articulate), and the usual translation would be "God's blood."

The Greek words τοῦ ἰδίου (tou i-di'ou) follow the phrase "with the blood." The entire expression could be translated "with the blood of his own." A noun in the singular number would be understood after "his own," most likely God's closest relative, his only-begotten Son Jesus Christ. On this point J. H. Moulton in A Grammar of New Testament Greek, Vol. 1 (Prolegomena), 1930 ed., p. 90, says: "Before leaving ἰδιος [i-di-os] something should be said about the use of ὁ ἰδιος [ho i-di-os] without a noun expressed. This occurs in Jn 1st 13th, Ac 4th 24th. In the papyri we find the singular used thus as a term of endearment to near relations . . . In Expos. vi. iii. 277 I ventured to cite this as a possible encouragement to those (including B. Weiss) who would translate Acts 20th 'the blood of one who was his own.'"

Alternately, in The New Testament in the Original Greek, by Westcott and Hort, Vol. 2, London, 1881, pp. 99, 100 of the Appendix, Hort stated: "it is by no means impossible that YIOY [hui'ou], 'of the Son' dropped out after TOYIDIOY [tou i-di'ou], 'of his own'" at some very early transcription affecting all existing documents. Its insertion leaves the whole passage free from difficulty of any kind."

The New World Translation renders the passage literally, adding "Son" in brackets after ἰδιου to read: "with the blood of his own [Son]."

"God, Who Is Over All"

Ro 9:5—Gr., καὶ ἐξ ὧν ὁ χριστὸς τὸ κατὰ σάρκα, ὁ ὢν ἐπὶ πάντων, θεὸς εὐλογητὸς εἰς τοὺς αἰῶνας· ἀμήν (kai ex hon ho khri-stos' to ka-ta' sar'ka, ho on e-pi' pan'ton, The-os' eu-lo-ge-tos' eis tous ai-o-nas; a-men')

1934 "and from whom by physical descent the Christ came. God who is over all be blessed through the ages! Amen."

The Riverside New Testament, Boston and New York.

1935 "and theirs too (so far as natural descent goes) is the Christ. (Blessed for evermore be the God who is over all! Amen.)"

A New Translation of the Bible, by James Moffatt, New York and London.

1950 "and from whom Christ sprang according to the flesh: God who is over all be blest forever. Amen."

New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures, Brooklyn.

- 1952 "and of their race, according to the flesh, is the Christ. God who is over all be blessed for ever. Amen." Revised Standard Version, New York.
- 1961 "and from them, in natural descent, sprang the Messiah. May God, supreme above all, be blessed for ever! Amen." The New English Bible, Oxford and Cambridge.
- 1966 "and Christ, as a human being, belongs to their race. May God, who rules over all, be praised for ever! Amen." Today's English Version, American Bible Society, New York.
- 1970 "and from them came the Messiah (I speak of his human origins). Blessed forever be God who is over all! Amen." The New American Bible, New York and London.

These translations take ὁ ὢν (ho on) as the beginning of an independent sentence or clause referring to God and pronouncing a blessing upon him for the provisions he made. Here and in Ps 67:19 LXX the predicate εὐλογητός (eulo-ge-tos, "blessed") occurs after the subject θεός (The-os, "God").—See Ps 68:19 ftn.

In his work A Grammar of the Idiom of the New Testament, seventh ed., Andover, 1897, p. 551, G. B. Winer says that "when the subject constitutes the principal notion, especially when it is antithetical to another subject, the predicate may and must be placed after it, cf. Ps. lxvii. 20 Sept [Ps 67:19 LXX]. And so in Rom. ix. 5, if the words ὁ ὢν ἐπὶ πάντων θεός εὐλογητός etc. [ho on epi' pan-ton The-os' eulo-ge-tos, etc.] are referred to God, the position of the words is quite appropriate, and even indispensable."

A detailed study of the construction in Ro 9:5 is found in The Authorship of the Fourth Gospel and Other Critical Essays, by Ezra Abbot, Boston, 1888, pp. 332-438. On pp. 345, 346 and 432 he says: "But here ὁ ὢν [ho on] is separated from ὁ χριστός [ho khri-stos] by τὸ κατὰ σάρκα [to ka-ta' sar'ka], which in reading must be followed by a pause,—a pause which is lengthened by the special emphasis given to the κατὰ σάρκα [ka-ta' sar'ka] by the τὸ [to]; and the sentence which precedes is complete in itself grammatically, and requires nothing further logically; for it was only as to the flesh that Christ was from the Jews. On the other hand, as we have seen (p. 334), the enumeration of blessings which immediately precedes, crowned by the inestimable blessing of the advent of Christ, naturally suggests an ascription of praise and thanksgiving to God as the Being who rules over all; while a doxology is also suggested by the Ἀμήν [A-men] at the end of the sentence. From every point of view, therefore, the doxological construction seems easy and natural. . . . The naturalness of a pause after σάρκα [sar'ka] is further indicated by the fact that we find a point after this word in all our oldest MSS. that testify in the case,—namely, A, B, C, L, . . . I can now name, besides the uncials A, B, C, L, . . . at least twenty-six cursives which have a stop after σάρκα, the same in general which they have after αἰῶνας [ai-o-nas] or Ἀμήν [A-men]."

Therefore, Ro 9:5 ascribes praise and thanksgiving to God. This scripture does not identify Jehovah God with Jesus Christ.

- 1972 "of the great God and of Christ Jesus our saviour" The New Testament in Modern English, by J. B. Phillips, New York.

*Translated from French.

In this place we find two nouns connected by καὶ (kai, "and"), the first noun being preceded by the definite article τοῦ (tou, "of the") and the second noun without the definite article. A similar construction is found in 2Pe 1:1, 2, where, in vs 2, a clear distinction is made between God and Jesus. This indicates that when two distinct persons are connected by καὶ, if the first person is preceded by the definite article it is not necessary to repeat the definite article before the second person. Examples of this construction in the Greek text are found in Ac 13:50; 15:22; Eph 5:5; 2Th 1:12; 1Ti 5:21; 6:13; 2Ti 4:1. This construction is also found in LXX. (See Pr 24:21 ftn.) According to An Idiom Book of New Testament Greek, by C. F. D. Moule, Cambridge, England, 1971, p. 109, the sense "of the great God, and of our Saviour Jesus Christ . . . is possible in κοινή [koinē] Greek even without the repetition [of the definite article]."

A detailed study of the construction in Tit 2:13 is found in The Authorship of the Fourth Gospel and Other Critical Essays, by Ezra Abbot, Boston, 1888, pp. 439-457. On p. 452 of this work the following comments are found: "Take an example from the New Testament. In Matt. xxi. 12 we read that Jesus 'cast out all those that were selling and buying in the temple,' τοὺς πωλοῦντας καὶ ἀγοράζοντας [tous polountas kai agorazontas]. No one can reasonably suppose that the same persons are here described as both selling and buying. In Mark the two classes are made distinct by the insertion of τοὺς before ἀγοράζοντας; here it is safely left to the intelligence of the reader to distinguish them. In the case before us [Tit 2:13], the omission of the article before σωτήρος [so-te'ros] seems to me to present no difficulty,—not because σωτήρος is made sufficiently definite by the addition of ἡμῶν [he-mon'] (Winer), for, since God as well as Christ is often called "our Saviour," ἡ δόξα τοῦ μεγάλου θεοῦ καὶ σωτήρος ἡμῶν [he doxa tou me-ga'lou The-ou' kai so-te'ros he-mon'], standing alone, would most naturally be understood of one subject, namely, God, the Father; but the addition of Ἰησοῦ Χριστοῦ τοῦ σωτήρος ἡμῶν [I-e-sou' Khri-stou' to so-te'ros he-mon'] changes the case entirely, restricting the σωτήρος ἡμῶν to a person or being who, according to Paul's habitual use of language, is distinguished from the person or being whom he designates as ὁ θεός [ho The-ou'], so that there was no need of the repetition of the article to prevent ambiguity. So in 2 Thess. i. 12, the expression κατὰ τὴν χάριν τοῦ θεοῦ ἡμῶν καὶ κυρίου [ka-ta' ten kha-rin tou The-ou' he-mon' kai ky-ri-ou] would naturally be understood of one subject, and the article would be required before κυρίου if two were intended; but the simple addition of Ἰησοῦ Χριστοῦ τοῦ κυρίου [I-e-sou' Khri-stou' to ky-ri-ou] makes the reference to the two distinct subjects clear without the insertion of the article."

Therefore, in Tit 2:13, two distinct persons, Jehovah God and Jesus Christ, are mentioned. Throughout the Holy Scriptures it is not possible to identify Jehovah and Jesus as being the same individual.

Sixth Century "before Abraham was born, I was"

Ethiopic—Edition: Novum Testamentum . . . Æthiopice (The New Testament . . . in Ethiopic), by Thomas Pell Platt, revised by F. Praetorius, Leipzig, 1899.

The action expressed in Joh 8:58 started "before Abraham came into existence" and is still in progress. In such situation εἶμι (ei-mi'), which is the first-person singular present indicative, is properly translated by the perfect indicative. Examples of the same syntax are found in Lu 2:48; 13:7; 15:29; Joh 5:6; 14:9; 15:27; Ac 15:21; 2Co 12:19; 1Jo 3:8.

Concerning this construction, A Grammar of the Idiom of the New Testament, by G. B. Winer, seventh edition, Andover, 1897, p. 267, says: "Sometimes the Present includes also a past tense (Mdv. 108), viz. when the verb expresses a state which commenced at an earlier period but still continues,—a state in its duration; as, Jno. xv. 27 ἀπ' ἀρχῆς μετ' ἐμοῦ ἐστὶ [ap' ar-khes' met' e-mou' e-ste'], viii. 58 πρὶν Ἀβραὰμ γενέσθαι ἐγὼ εἶμι [prîn A-bra-am' gene'sthai e-go' ei-mi]."

Likewise, A Grammar of New Testament Greek, by J. H. Moulton, Vol. III, by Nigel Turner, Edinburgh,

1963, p. 62, says: "The Present which indicates the continuance of an action during the past and up to the moment of speaking is virtually the same as Perfective, the only difference being that the action is conceived as still in progress . . . It is frequent in the N[ew] T[estament]: Lk 2⁴⁸ 13⁷ . . . 15²⁹ . . . Jn 5⁶ 8³⁸ . . ."

Attempting to identify Jesus with Jehovah, some say that Ἐγώ εἰμι (e-go' ei-mi) is the equivalent of the Hebrew expression 'ani' hu', "I am he," which is used by God. However, it is to be noted that this Hebrew expression is also used by man.—See 1Ch 21:17 fn.

Further attempting to identify Jesus with Jehovah, some try to use Ex 3:14 (LXX) which reads: Ἐγώ εἰμι ὁ ὢν (E-go' ei-mi ho on), which means "I am The Being," or, "I am The Existing One." This attempt cannot be sustained because the expression in Ex 3:14 is different from the expression in Joh 8:58. (See Ex 3:14 fn.) Throughout the Christian Greek Scriptures it is not possible to make an identification of Jesus with Jehovah as being the same person.—See 1Pe 2:3 fn; App 6A, 6E.

Cobras Responding to Sound

Ps 58:4b, 5a—"Deaf like the cobra that stops up its ear, that will not listen to the voice of charmers."

In The New York Times, January 10, 1954, § 4, p. 9, under the title "Are Snakes 'Charmed' by Music?" the following report on Ps 58:4, 5 is found: "Dr. David I. Macht, research pharmacologist of the Mount Sinai Hospital in Baltimore [U.S.A.], is one of the world's leading authorities on cobra snake venom. (Cobra venom is an accepted medication, in blood disorders, for instance.) Dr. Macht reported that in working with cobras and cobra venom he became acquainted with a number of Hindu physicians, well educated, and from different parts of India. All agreed that cobras respond to some musical tones, from musical pipes or fifes. Some forms of music excite the animals more than other forms, the physicians reported. Indian children, playing in the dark in the countryside, are even warned not to sing lest their sounds attract cobras, he said. Dr. Macht commented that Shakespeare, who repeatedly referred to serpents as deaf . . . merely repeated a common misunderstanding. On the other hand Dr. Macht said, the psalmist was right who implied conversely, in Psalm 58, Verse 5, that serpents can hear . . . Contrary to the claims of some naturalists, Dr. Macht said, snakes are 'charmed' by sounds, not by movements of the charmer."

Likewise, in an article published in the German zoological magazine Grzimeks Tier, Sielmanns Tierwelt (Grzimek's Animal, Sielmann's Animal World), July 1981, pp. 34, 35, the author tells of a cobra that lived on his estate in Sri Lanka in a termite hill. He asked a snake charmer to catch the wild snake and get it to dance. The author reports: "After I had assured my guest that there really was a cobra living there, he sat down in front of the termite hill and began to play his pipe. After a long time—I no longer believed anything would happen—the cobra raised its head several centimeters out of a hole. Before the snake could open its mouth the charmer hurried over and grabbed its head between his thumb and two fingers." The Indian thereupon actually got the snake to dance.

Therefore, there is evidence that the cobra does "listen to the voice of charmers."

Repellent Questions Indicating Objection

Mt 8:29—"What have we to do with you, Son of God?"

This question of the demons to Jesus is an ancient idiomatic form of question that is found in the Hebrew Scriptures in eight places, namely, in Jos 22:24; Jg 11:12; 2Sa 16:10; 19:22; 1Ki 17:18; 2Ki 3:13; 2Ch 35:21; Ho 14:8. In the Christian Greek Scriptures as well as in the Syriac version a literal translation is made of the ancient Hebrew expression, and it occurs six times, namely, in Mt 8:29; Mr 1:24; 5:7; Lu 4:34; 8:28; Joh 2:4. Literally translated, the question in Mt 8:29 reads: "What is there to us [or, to me] and to you?" and means, "What is there in common between us [or, me] and you?" "What do we [or, I] and you have in common?" Or, as rendered above, "What have we to do with you?"

In every case in the Scriptures, Hebrew and Greek, it is a repellent form of question, indicating objection to the thing suggested, proposed or suspected. This is supported by the positive form of putting the matter in Ezr 4:3 (1 Esdras 5:67, LXX): "You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God." Literally, "It does not pertain to you and to us to build a house to our God." The same form of expression in the imperative mood is the request made to Pilate by his wife concerning Jesus, who was up before her husband for trial, in Mt 27:19: "Have nothing to do with that righteous man." Literally: "Let there be nothing between you and that righteous man."

Couched in that very common form, Jesus' question to his mother in Joh 2:4 cannot be excluded from the one category. It bears all the features of repellency or resistance to his mother in proposing his course for him. So in his case we have rendered it the same as in all other cases of the like question: "What have

I to do with you, woman? My hour has not yet come." Other translators render it more strongly: "Do not try to direct me. It is not yet time for me to act." (An American Translation) "Trouble me not, woman; my hour has not yet come."—The Four Gospels, by C. C. Torrey, based on Aramaic.

Jesus Resurrected on the Day "After the Sabbath"

Mt 28:1—"After the sabbath"

Gr., Ὀψὲ . . . σαββάτων (o-pse . . . sab-ba'ton)

J. H. Thayer, in A Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament, fourth ed., Edinburgh (1901), p. 471, says: "Ὀψὲ σαββάτων, the sabbath having just passed, after the sabbath, i.e. at the early dawn of the first day of the week—(an interpretation absolutely demanded by the added specification τῇ ἐπιφωσκῇ καὶ [te] e-pi-pho-sk(ou' sei) . . . , "when it was growing light" etc.], Mt. xxviii. 1." Also, Zorell^{6r}, column 969, says: "post [after]: Ὀψὲ σαββάτων Mt 28:1 'post sabbatum' ['after the sabbath']." Moreover, Bauer, p. 601, says under Ὀψὲ: "after Ὀψὲ σαββάτων after the Sabbath Mt 28:1."

"Covenant" Used in the Ancient Hebrew Sense

Heb 9:16—Gr., διαθήκη (di-a-the'ke)

1887 "For where a covenant is, the death of the covenant-victim to come in is necessary"

The Holy Bible, by Robert Young, Edinburgh.

1897 "For where a covenant is it is necessary for the death to be brought in of him that hath covenanted"

The Emphasised Bible, by J. B. Rotherham, Cincinnati.

1950 "For where there is a covenant, the death of the human covenanter needs to be furnished."

New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures, Brooklyn.

The word di-a-the'ke occurs 33 times in the Greek text, namely, in Mt 26:28; Mr 14:24; Lu 1:72; 22:20; Ac 3:25; 7:8; Ro 9:4; 11:27; 1Co 11:25; 2Co 3:6, 14; Ga 3:15, 17; 4:24; Eph 2:12; Heb 7:22; 8:6, 8, 9, 10; 9:4, 15, 16, 17, 20; 10:16, 29; 12:24; 13:20; Re 11:19. The New World Translation renders the Greek word di-a-the'ke as "covenant" in these 33 places.

The word di-a-the'ke occurs in quotations from the Hebrew Scriptures seven times, namely, in Ro 11:27 (from Isa 59:21); Heb 8:8 (from Jer 31:31), 9 (twice, from Jer 31:32), 10 (from Jer 31:33); 9:20 (from Ex 24:8); 10:16 (from Jer 31:33). In these seven quoted texts the Hebrew word in M is בְּרִית (berith, "covenant"), and the Greek word in LXX is διαθήκη (di-a-the'ke).

Although the obvious meaning of di-a-the'ke in the Christian Greek Scriptures is in the ancient Hebrew sense of "covenant," many modern translators render di-a-the'ke in Heb 9:16, 17 as "will" or "testament." They thus indicate that the writer of the book of Hebrews intended a change of meaning for this Greek word.

However, the Cyclopedia of Biblical, Theological, and Ecclesiastical Literature, by John McClintock and James Strong, Grand Rapids, Michigan, 1981 reprint, Vol. II, p. 544, states: "The Sept. having rendered בְּרִית (which never means will or testament, but always covenant or agreement) by διαθήκη consistently throughout the O. T., the N. T. writers, in adopting that word, may naturally be supposed to intend to convey to their readers, most of them familiar with the Greek O. T., the same idea. . . . In the confessedly difficult passage, Heb. ix, 16, 17, the word διαθήκη has been thought by many commentators absolutely to require the meaning of will or testament. On the other side, however, it may be alleged that, in addition to what has just been said as to the usual meaning of the word in the N. T., the word occurs twice in the context, where its meaning must necessarily be the same as the translation of בְּרִית, and in the unquestionable sense of covenant (comp. διαθήκη καινή [di-a-the'ke kainē, "new covenant"], Heb. ix, 15, with the same expression in viii, 8; and διαθήκη, ix, 16, 17, with ver. 20, and Exod. xxiv, 8)."

Likewise, B. F. Westcott, coeditor of the Westcott and Hort Greek text, in his work, The Epistle to the Hebrews, London, 1892, p. 300, wrote the following:

"The Biblical evidence then, so far as it is clear, is wholly in favour of the sense of 'covenant,' with the necessary limitation of the sense of the word in connexion with a Divine covenant. When we pass to the consideration of the sense of διαθήκη in c. ix. 15 ff. one preliminary remark offers itself. The connexion of vv. 15—18 is most close: v. 16 ὅπου γὰρ [ho'pou gar, "For where"] . . . : v. 18 ὅθεν οὐδέ [ho'then oude', "Consequently neither"] . . .

"This connexion makes it most difficult to suppose that the key-word (διαθήκη) is used in different senses in the course of the verses, and especially that the characteristic of a particular kind of διαθήκη, essentially different from the πρώτη διαθήκη [pro'te di-a-the'ke, "former covenant"] of vv. 15, 18, should be brought forward in v. 16. For it is impossible to maintain that the sacrifices with which the Old Covenant was inaugurated could be explained on the supposition that it was a 'Testament.' Nor does it appear that it could be called a 'Testament' in any sense.

"It is then most reasonable to conclude that διαθήκη has the same sense throughout, and that the sense is the otherwise universal one of 'covenant,' unless there are overwhelming arguments against such a view."

Therefore, in Heb 9:16, 17, the Greek word diatheke has the same meaning as in the surrounding verses, namely, "covenant," corresponding to the Hebrew word berith. These verses are imbedded in the apostle's discussion of the Mosaic Law covenant as compared with its antitype, the new covenant. Paul speaks of the mediator (covenanter) dying in order for the covenant to become legal and binding. In the case of the Law covenant, the animal victims took the place of Moses, the mediator (covenanter) of the Law covenant, their blood substituting for his in legalizing and making the covenant operative. Correspondingly, in the case of the new covenant, Jesus Christ, the mediator (covenanter) of the new covenant, actually gave his perfect human life in sacrifice. When he shed his blood in death, the new covenant was validated.

The Expressions "The Old Testament" and "The New Testament"

(e-pi' tet a-na-gno'sei tes pa-lai-as' di-a-the-kes);

Lat., in lectione veteris testamenti

1611 "in the reading of the old testament"

King James Version.

1950 "at the reading of the old covenant"

New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures, Brooklyn.

Today it is a common practice to refer to the Scriptures written in Hebrew and Aramaic as "The Old Testament." This is based on the reading in 2Co 3:14 in the Latin Vulgate and the King James Version. The Christian Greek Scriptures are commonly called "The New Testament." It is to be noted that in 2Co 3:14 the word diathekes means "covenant," as in the other 32 places where it occurs in the Greek text.—See App 7D.

Concerning the meaning of the Latin word testamentum (genitive, testamenti), Edwin Hatch, in his work Essays in Biblical Greek, Oxford, 1889, p. 48, states that "in ignorance of the philology of later and vulgar Latin, it was formerly supposed that 'testamentum,' by which the word [diatheke] is rendered in the early Latin versions as well as in the Vulgate, meant 'testament' or 'will,' whereas in fact it meant also, if not exclusively, 'covenant.'" Likewise, in A Bible Commentary for English Readers by Various Writers, edited by Charles Ellicott, New York, Vol. VIII, p. 309, W. F. Moulton wrote that "in the old Latin translation of the Scriptures testamentum became the common rendering of the word [diatheke]. As, however, this rendering is very often found where it is impossible to think of such a meaning as will (for example, in Ps. lxxxiii, 5, where no one will suppose the Psalmist to say that the enemies of God 'have arranged a testament against Him'), it is plain that the Latin testamentum was used with an extended meaning, answering to the wide application of the Greek word."—See Ps 25:10 and Ps 83:5 ftns.

In view of the above, the rendering "old testament" in the King James Version in 2Co 3:14 is incorrect. Many modern translations correctly read "old covenant" at this point. Here the apostle Paul is not referring to the Hebrew and Aramaic Scriptures in their entirety. Neither does he mean that the inspired Christian writings constitute a "new testament (covenant)." The apostle is speaking of the old Law covenant, which was recorded by Moses in the Pentateuch and which makes up only a part of the pre-Christian Scriptures. For this reason he says in the next verse, "whenever Moses is read."

Therefore, there is no valid basis for the Hebrew and Aramaic Scriptures to be called "The Old Testament" and for the Christian Greek Scriptures to be called "The New Testament." Jesus Christ himself referred to the collection of sacred writings as "the Scriptures." (Mt 21:42; Mr 14:49; Joh 5:39) The apostle Paul referred to them as "the holy Scriptures," "the Scriptures" and "the holy writings." (Ro 1:2; 15:4; 2Ti 3:15) In harmony with the inspired utterance in Ro 1:2, the New World Translation contains in its title the expression "the Holy Scriptures."

Money, Weights, Measures

The following values are averages based on Biblical evidence and archaeological finds. All modern equivalents used in this work are to be considered approximate. The liquid and dry measures are U.S. equivalents.

To calculate present-day value of gold or silver, determine the latest value per gram or per ounce troy and multiply by the number of grams or ounces troy.

TABLE OF MONEY BY WEIGHT IN HEBREW SCRIPTURES

		Modern Equivalent
1 gerah	= $\frac{1}{20}$ shekel	= 0.57 g	= 0.01835 oz t
1 bekah (half shekel)	= 10 gerahs	= 5.7 g	= 0.1835 oz t
1 shekel	= 2 bekahs	= 11.4 g	= 0.367 oz t
1 mina (maneh)	= 50 shekels	= 570 g	= 18.35 oz t
1 talent	= 60 minas	= 34.2 kg	= 1101 oz t
1 daric (Persian, gold)		= 8.4 g	= 0.27 oz t
1 daric (Persian, silver) (also called shekel)		= 5.60 g	= 0.18 oz t

TABLE OF GREEK AND ROMAN MONEY BY WEIGHT IN GREEK SCRIPTURES

		Modern Equivalent
1 lepton (Jewish, copper or bronze)	= $\frac{1}{2}$ quadrans
1 quadrans (Roman, copper or bronze)	= 2 lepta
1 as or assarion (Roman and provincial, copper or bronze)	= 4 quadrantes
1 denarius (Roman, silver)	= 16 asses	= 3.85 g	= 0.124 oz t
1 drachma (Greek, silver)		= 3.40 g	= 0.109 oz t
1 didrachma (Greek, silver)	= 2 drachmas	= 6.80 g	= 0.218 oz t
1 tetradrachma (a silver stater)	= 4 drachmas	= 13.6 g	= 0.436 oz t
1 mina	= 100 drachmas	= 340 g	= 10.9 oz t
1 talent (gold or silver)	= 60 minas	= 20.4 kg	= 654 oz t

LIQUID MEASURES

1 log	= $\frac{1}{4}$ cab	= 0.31 L	= 0.66 pt (U.S.)
1 cab	= 4 logs	= 1.22 L	= 2.58 pt (U.S.)
1 hin	= 3 cabs	= 3.67 L	= 7.75 pt (U.S.)
1 bath	= 6 hins	= 22 L	= 5.81 gal (U.S.)
1 cor*	= 10 baths	= 220 L	= 58.1 gal (U.S.)

DRY MEASURES

1 cab	= 4 logs	= 1.22 L	= 2.2 dry pt (U.S.)
1 omer	= $1\frac{1}{5}$ cabs	= 2.2 L	= 2 dry qt (U.S.)
1 seah	= $3\frac{1}{3}$ omers	= 7.33 L	= 6.66 dry qt (U.S.)
1 ephah	= 3 seahs	= 22 L	= 20 dry qt (U.S.)
1 homer (cor)	= 10 ephahs	= 220 L	= 200 dry qt (U.S.)

LINEAR MEASURES

1 handbreadth	= 4 fingerbreadths	= 7.4 cm	= 2.9 in.
1 span	= 3 handbreadths	= 22.2 cm	= 8.75 in.
1 cubit	= 2 spans	= 44.5 cm	= 17.5 in.
1 long cubit*	= 7 handbreadths	= 51.8 cm	= 20.4 in.
1 reed	= 6 cubits	= 2.67 m	= 8.75 ft
1 long reed	= 6 long cubits	= 3.11 m	= 10.2 ft
1 fathom		= 1.8 m	= 6 ft

*Possibly the same as the "former" cubit in 2Ch 3:3.

"Mile." Gr., mi'lli-on. (Mt 5:41) Probably the Roman mile (5,000 Roman ft; 1,479.5 m; 4,854 English ft.). In the Greek text in Lu 24:13; Joh 6:19; 11:18 the distance figures are given in terms of stadia. (One Roman stadium = $\frac{1}{8}$ Roman mi or 625 Roman ft; 185

m; 606.75 English ft.) In the New World Translation the stadia figures in Lu 24:13; Joh 6:19; 11:18 have been converted to statute miles of 5,280 ft each. For example, in Lu 24:13 "sixty stadia" is given as "about seven miles" (c. 11 km or 7.5 Roman mi).

The Calendar Months of the Bible
