2 Further, David sent one third^h of the people under the hand of Jo'abⁱ and one third under the hand of A-bish'ai^j the son of Ze-ru'iah, Jo'ab's brother,^k and one third under the hand of It'tai^l the Git'tite. Then the king said to the people: "I myself also shall without fail go out with YOU." 3 But the people said: "You must not go out,^m for if we should at all flee, they would not set heart upon us;ⁿ and if half of us would die, they would not set heart upon us, because you are worth ten thousand of us;^o and now it would be better if you would be of service to us to give help^p from the city." 4 So the king said to them: "Whatever seems good in YOUR eyes I shall do."^q And the king kept standing at the side of the gate,^r and all the people themselves went out by hundreds and by thousands.^s 5 And the king went on to command Jo'ab and A-bish'ai and It'tai, saying: "Deal gently^t for my sake with the young man Ab'sa-lom." And all the people themselves heard when the king commanded all the chiefs over the matter of Ab'sa-lom.

6 And the people continued on their way out to the field to meet Israel; and the battle came to be in the forest of E'phra-im.^{*u} 7 Finally the people of Israel^v were defeated^w there before the servants of David, and the slaughter there turned out to be great on that day, of twenty thousand men. 8 And the battle there got to be spread out over all the land that was in sight. Furthermore, the forest did more in eating up the people than the sword did in eating them up on that day.

9 Eventually Ab'sa-lom found himself before the servants of David. And Ab'sa-lom was riding upon a mule, and the mule got to come under the network of boughs of a massive big tree, so that his head got caught fast in the big tree, and he was taken up between the heavens and the earth,^a as the mule itself that was under him passed along. 10 Then a certain man saw it and told Jo'ab^b and said: "Look! I have seen Ab'sa-lom hung in a big tree." 11 At this Jo'ab said to the man who was telling him: "And here you saw it, and why did you not strike him down to the earth there? Then it would have been my obligation to give you ten pieces of silver and a belt."^c 12 But the man said to Jo'ab: "And although I were weighing upon my palms a thousand pieces of silver, I should not thrust my hand out against the king's son; for in our hearing* it was that the king commanded you and A-bish'ai and It'tai, saying, 'WATCH, whoever [you are], over the young man, over Ab'sa-lom.'^d 13 Otherwise I should have dealt treacherously against his soul and the whole matter itself would not be hidden from the king,^e and you yourself would take a position off on the side." 14 To this Jo'ab said: "Let me not hold myself up this way before you!" With that he took three shafts* in his palm and proceeded to drive^f them through the heart of Ab'sa-lom while he was yet alive in the heart^g of the big tree. 15 Then ten attendants carrying Jo'ab's weapons came around and struck Ab'sa-lom, that they might put him to death.^h 16 Jo'ab now blew the horn,ⁱ that the people might return from chasing after Israel; for Jo'ab had held back the people. 17 Finally they took Ab'sa-lom and pitched him in the forest into a big hollow and raised up over him a very big pile of stones.^j As for all Israel, they fled each man to his home.*

18 Now Ab'sa-lom himself, while he was alive, had taken and proceeded to raise up for himself a pillar,^k which is in the Low Plain of the King,^a for he said: "I have no son in order to keep my name in remembrance."^b So he called the pillar by his own name,^c and it continues to be called Ab'sa-lom's Monument down to this day.

19 Now as regards A-him'a-az^d the son of Za'dok, he said: "Let me run, please, and break the news to the king, because Jehovah has judged him [to free him] from the hand of his enemies."^e 20 But Jo'ab said to him: "You are not a man of news this day, and you must break the news on another day; but this day you must not break the news, for the very reason that* the king's own son has died."^f 21 Then Jo'ab said to the Cush'ite:^g "Go, tell the king what you have seen." At that the Cush'ite bowed to Jo'ab and began to run. 22 A-him'a-az the son of Za'dok now said once again to Jo'ab: "Let, now, happen whatever will, let me also myself, please, run behind the Cush'ite." However, Jo'ab said: "Why is it that you yourself have to run, my son, when there is no news being found for you?" 23 [Still he said:]* "Let, now, happen whatever will, let me run." So he said to him: "Run!" And A-him'a-az began to run by the way of the District,^h and he eventually passed by the Cush'ite.

24 Now David was sitting between the two gates.ⁱ Meantime, the watchman^j went to the roof of the gate by the wall. At length he raised his eyes and saw and, look! there was a man running by himself. 25 So the watchman called and told the king, at which the king said: "If he is by himself, there is news in his mouth." And he kept coming, steadily getting nearer. 26 The watchman now saw another man running. The watchman therefore called to the gatekeeper and said: "Look! Another man running by himself!" at which the king said: "This one also is a news bearer." 27 And the watchman went on to say: "I am seeing that the running style of the first is like the running style^a of A-him'a-az^b the son of Za'dok," at which the king said: "This is a good man,^c and with good news^d he should come." 28 Eventually A-him'a-az called and said to the king: "It is well!"^e With that he bowed to the king with his face to the earth. And he went on to say: "Blessed^e be Jehovah your God, who has surrendered^f the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king!"

29 However, the king said: "Is it well with the young man Ab'sa-lom?" To this A-him'a-az said: "I saw the great commotion at the time Jo'ab sent the king's servant and your servant, and I did not know what it was."^g 30 So the king said: "Step aside, take your position here." At that he stepped aside and kept standing still.

31 And here was the Cush'ite^h coming in, and the Cush'ite began to say: "Let my lord the king accept news, for Jehovah has judged you today [to free you] from the hand of all those rising up against you." 32 But the king said to the Cush'ite: "Is it well with the young man Ab'sa-lom?" To this the Cush'ite said: "May the enemies of my lord the king and all those who rose up against you for evil become as the young man."ⁱ

33 Then the king became disturbed and went up to the roof chamber^k over the gateway and gave way to weeping; and this is what he said as he walked: "My son Ab'sa-lom, my son, my son! Ab'sa-lom! O that I might have died, I myself, instead of you, Ab'sa-lom my son, my son!"^m

19 Later it was reported to Jo'ab: "Look! The king is weeping, and he carries on mourning over Ab'sa-lom."ⁿ 2 So the salvation on that day came to be an occasion of mourning on the part of all the people, because the people heard say on that day: "The king has felt hurt over his son." 3 And the people began to steal away on that day to come into the city,^a just as the people would steal away when they felt disgraced because they fled in the battle. 4 And the king himself covered up his face, and the king continued crying out with a loud voice: "My son Ab'sa-lom! Ab'sa-lom my son, my son!"^b

5 Finally Jo'ab came in to the king at the house and said: "You have today put to shame the face of all your servants, the ones providing escape for your soul today^c and for the soul of your sons^d and your daughters^e and the soul of your wives^f and the soul of your concubines,^g 6 by loving those hating you and by hating those loving you; for you have reported today that chiefs and servants are nothing to you, because I well know today that if only Ab'sa-lom were alive and all of us others were today dead, why, in that case it would be right in your eyes. 7 And now rise up, go out and speak straight to the heart^h of your servants, because, by Jehovah, I do swear that, in case you are not going out, not a man will lodge with you tonight;ⁱ and this will certainly be worse for you than all the injury that has come upon you from your youth until now." 8 Accordingly the king rose up and seated himself in the gate,^j and to all the people they made the report, saying: "There is the king sitting in the gate." And all the people began to come before the king.

As for Israel, they had fled each one to his home.^k 9 And all the people came to be involved in dispute in all the tribes of Israel, saying: "It was the king that delivered us out of the palm of our enemies,^l and he it was that provided escape for us out of the palm of the Phi-lis'tines; and now he has run away out of the land from Ab'sa-lom.^m 10 As for Ab'sa-lom, whom we anointed over us," he has died in the battle.ⁿ So now why are you doing nothing to bring the king back?"^p ing: "SPEAK to the older men of Judah,^a saying, 'Why should YOU become the last ones to bring the king back to his house, when the word of all Israel itself has come to the king at his house? 12 My brothers YOU are; my bone and my flesh YOU are.^b So why should YOU become the last ones to bring the king back?' 13 And to A-ma'sa YOU should say,^c 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? So may God do to me and so may he add to it^d if you will not become the army chief before me always instead of Jo'ab.'^e"

14 And he proceeded to bend the heart of all the men of Judah as one man,^f so that they sent word to the king: "Come back, you and all your servants."

15 And the king began to go back and got to come as far as the Jordan. As for Judah, they came to Gil'gal^g to go and meet the king, to conduct the king across the Jordan. 16 Then Shim'e-i^h the son of Ge'raⁱ the Ben'ja-min-ite, who was from Ba-hu'rim,^j hurried and went down with the men of Judah to meet King David. 17 And there were with him a thousand men from Benjamin. (And also Zi'ba^k the attendant of the house of Saul and his fifteen sons^l and twenty servants of his were with him, and they made it successfully* to the Jordan before the king. 18 And he* crossed the ford^m to conduct the household of the king across and to do what was good in his eyes.) As for Shim'e-i the son of Ge'ra, he fell down before the king when he was about to cross the Jordan.ⁿ 19 He now said to the king: "Do not let my lord attribute error to me, and do not remember the wrong that your servant did^o on the day that my lord the king went out* of Jerusalem, so that the king should lay it to his heart.^p 20 For your servant well

21 At once A-bish'ai^b the son of Ze-ru'iah^c answered and said: "In return for this should not Shim'e-i be put to death, in that he called evil down upon the anointed* of Jehovah?"^d 22 But David said: "What do I have to do with you men,^e you sons of Ze-ru'iah, that you should become today a resister^f of me? Will anyone today be put to death in Israel?^g For do I not well know that today I am king over Israel?" 23 Then the king said to Shim'e-i: "You will not die." And the king went on to swear to him.^h

24 As for Me-phib'o-shethⁱ the grandson of Saul,* he came down to meet the king; and he had not attended to his feet^j nor had he attended to his mustache^k nor had he washed his garments from the day that the king went away until the day that he came in peace. 25 And it came about that, when he came to Jerusalem to meet the king, then the king said to him: "Why did you not go with me, Me-phib'o-sheth?" 26 To this he said: "My lord the king, it was my servant^l that tricked me. For your servant had said, 'Let me saddle the female ass for me that I may ride upon it and go with* the king,' for your servant is lame.^m 27 So he slanderedⁿ your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is as an angel^o of the [true] God, and so do what is good in your eyes. 28 For all the household of my father would have become nothing but doomed to death* to my lord the king, and yet you placed your servant among those eating at your table.^p So

29 However, the king said to him: "Why do you yet keep speaking your words? I do say, You and Zi'ba should share in the field."^b 30 At this Me-phib'o-sheth said to the king: "Let him even take the whole,^c now that my lord the king has come in peace to his house."

31 And Barzil'lai^d the Gil'e-ad-ite himself came down from Ro-ge'lim that he might pass on to the Jordan with the king so as to escort him to the Jordan. 32 And Barzil'lai was very old, being eighty years of age;^e and he himself supplied the king with food while he was dwelling in Ma-ha-na'im,^f for he was a very great^g man. 33 So the king said to Barzil'lai: "You yourself cross over with me, and I shall certainly supply you with food with me in Jerusalem."^h 34 But Barzil'lai said to the king: "What are the days of the years of my life like, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? 35 I am eighty years old today.ⁱ Could I discern between good and bad, or could your servant taste what I ate and what I drank,^j or could I listen^k anymore to the voice of male and female singers?^l So why should your servant become a burden^m anymore to my lord the king? 36 For it is just a little way that your servant could bring the king along to the Jordan, and why should the king repay me with this reward?"ⁿ 37 Let your servant return, please, and let me die^o in my city close by the burial place of my father and my mother.^p But here is your servant Chim'ham.^q Let him cross over with my lord the king; and you do to him what is good in your eyes."

38 Accordingly the king said: "With me Chim'ham will go across, and I myself shall do to him what is good in your eyes; and all that you may choose [to lay] upon me I shall do for you." 39 All the people now began to cross the Jordan, and the king himself crossed; but the king kissed^r Barzil'lai and blessed^s him, after which he returned to his place. 40 When the king went across to Gil'gal,^a Chim'ham himself crossed with him, and also all the people of Judah, and also half the people of Israel, that they might bring the king across.

41 And, look! all the men of Israel were coming to the king, and they proceeded to say to the king: "Why did^b our brothers the men of Judah steal you that they might bring the king and his household and all the men of David with him over the Jordan?"^c 42 At this all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel: "Because the king is closely related to us;^d and why is it that you have become angry over this thing? Have we eaten at all at the king's expense, or has a gift been carried to us?"

43 However, the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said: "We^e have ten parts in the king,^f so that even in David we are more than you." Why, then, have you treated us^g with contempt, and why did not our^h matter become firstⁱ for us to bring our king back?" But the word of the men of Judah was more severe than the word of the men of Israel.

20 Now there happened to be there a good-for-nothing man,^g whose name was She'ba,^h the son of Bich'ri a Ben'ja-min-ite; and he proceeded to blow the hornⁱ and say: "We have no share in David, and we have no inheritance in the son of Jes'se.^j Every one to his gods,^k O Israel!" 2 At that all the men of Israel began to go up from following David to follow She'ba the son of Bich'ri;^l but as for the men of Judah, they stuck to their king from the Jordan to Jerusalem.^m at Jerusalem.^a Then the king took the ten women,^b the concubines whom he had left behind to take care of the house, and he put them in a house of confinement, but he kept on supplying food to them. And with them he did not have any relations,^c but they continued shut up closely until the day of their dying, in a widowhood with a living [husband].*

4 The king now said to A-ma'sa:^d "Call the men of Judah together to me within three days, and you yourself stand here." 5 So A-ma'sa went to call Judah together; but he came later than the fixed time that he had appointed for him. 6 Then David said to A-bish'ai:^e "Now She'ba^f the son of Bich'ri will be worse for us than Ab'sa-lom.^g You yourself take the servants^h of your lord and chase after him, that he may not actually find for himself fortified cities and escape before our eyes."* 7 Accordingly the men of Jo'abⁱ and the Cher'e-thites^j and the Pel'e-thites^k and all the mighty men went out after him; and they went on out of Jerusalem to chase after She'ba the son of Bich'ri. 8 They were close by the great stone that is in Gib'e-on,^l and A-ma'sa^m himself came to meet them. Now Jo'ab was girded, clothed with a garment; and upon him there was girded a sword attached to his hip, in its sheath. And he himself came forth, and so it* fell out.

9 And Jo'ab proceeded to say to A-ma'sa: "Is it all right with you, my brother?"ⁿ Then Jo'ab's right hand took hold of A-ma'sa's beard so as to kiss him.^o 10 As for A-ma'sa, he was not on guard against the sword that was in Jo'ab's hand; so that he struck him^p with it in the abdomen, and his intestines spilled out to the earth, and he did not have to do it to him again. So he died. And Jo'ab and A-bish'ai his brother, for their part, chased after She'ba the son of Bich'ri.

11 And a certain one of Jo'ab's young men stood over him and kept saying:

"Whoever has found delight in Jo'ab and whoever belongs to David,^a let him follow Jo'ab!" 12 All the while A-ma'sa was wallowing in the blood^b in the middle of the highway. When the man saw that all the people stood still, then he moved A-ma'sa from the highway to the field. Finally he cast a garment over him, as he saw that everyone coming up to him stood still.^c 13 As soon as he had removed him from the highway, each man passed by following Jo'ab to chase after She'ba^d the son of Bich'ri.

14 And [She'ba] went passing through all the tribes of Israel to Abel of Beth-ma'a-cah.^e As for all the Bich'rites,^f they then congregated together and also went in after him.

15 And they proceeded to come and lay siege against him in Abel of Beth-ma'a-cah and cast up a siege rampart against the city,^g as it was standing within a rampart. And all the people that were with Jo'ab were undermining the wall, to throw it down. 16 And a wise woman^h began to call from the city: "Listen, men, listen! Say, please, to Jo'ab, 'Come near as far as here, and let me speak to you.'" 17 So he went near to her, and the woman then said: "Are you Jo'ab?" to which he said: "I am." At this she said to him: "Listen to the words of your slave girl."ⁱ In turn he said: "I am listening." 18 And she went on to say: "Without exception they used to speak in former times, saying, 'Let them but inquire in Abel, and thus they will certainly end the matter.' 19 I represent the peaceable^j and faithful^k ones of Israel. You are seeking to put to death a city^k and a mother in Israel. Why should you swallow^l up the inheritance^m of Jehovah?" 20 To this Jo'ab answered and said: "It is altogether unthinkable on my part that I should swallow up and that I should bring to ruin. 21 The matter is not that way, but a man from the mountainous region of E'phra-im,ⁿ whose name is She'ba^o the son of Bich'ri, has lifted up his hand against King David.^p You people, give him over by himself,^q and I will withdraw from the city.”^a Then the woman said to Jo’ab: “Look! His head^b [will be] pitched to you over the wall!”

22 At once the woman went in her wisdom^c to all the people, and they proceeded to cut off the head of She’ba the son of Bich’ri and pitch it to Jo’ab. Upon that he blew the horn,^d and so they were scattered from the city, each one to his home;^e and Jo’ab himself returned to Jerusalem to the king.

23 And Jo’ab was over all the army^e of Israel; and Be-nai’ah^f the son of Jeho’i’a-da^g was over the Cher’e-thites^h and over the Pel’e-thites.ⁱ 24 And A-do’-ram^j was over those conscripted for forced labor; and Je-hosh’a-phat^k the son of A-hi’lud was the recorder.* 25 And She’va^l was secretary,^m and Za’dokⁿ and A-bi’a-thar^o were priests. 26 And I’ra the Ja’ir-ite also became a priest*^p of David.

21 Now there came to be a famine^q in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David proceeded to consult the face of Jehovah. Then Jehovah said: “Upon Saul and upon his house there is bloodguilt,* because he put the Gib’e-on-ites to death.”^r

2 So the king called the Gib’e-on-ites^s and talked to them. (Incidentally, the Gib’e-on-ites were not of the sons of Israel, but of the remainder of the Am’or-ites;^t and the sons of Israel themselves had sworn to them,^u but Saul sought to strike^v them down in his feeling jealous^w for the sons of Israel and Judah.) 3 And David went on to say to the Gib’e-on-ites: “What shall I do to you, and with what shall I make atonement,^x that you may certainly bless the inheritance^y of Jehovah?” 4 So the Gib’e-on-ites said to him: “It is not a matter of silver or gold^z for us in connection with Saul and his household, neither is it ours to put a man to death in Israel.” At that he said: “Whatever you are saying I shall do for you.” 5 At this they said to the king: “The man that exterminated^a us and that schemed^b to annihilate us from subsisting in any of the territory of Israel, 6 let there be given to us seven men of his sons;^c and we must expose*^d them to Jehovah in Gib’e-ah^e of Saul, the chosen one^f of Jehovah.”^g Accordingly the king said: “I myself shall give them.”

7 However, the king felt compassion upon Me-phib’o-sheth^h the son of Jon’a-than the son of Saul on account of the oathⁱ of Jehovah that was between them, between David and Jon’a-than the son of Saul. 8 Consequently the king took the two sons of Riz’pah^j the daughter of A’iah whom she bore to Saul, Ar-mo’ni and Me-phib’o-sheth, and the five sons of Mi’chal*^k the daughter of Saul whom she bore to A’driel^l the son of Bar-zil’lai the Me-hol’ath-ite. 9 Then he gave them into the hand of the Gib’e-on-ites and they proceeded to expose them on the mountain before Jehovah,¹ so that the seven of them fell together; and they themselves were put to death in the first days of harvest, at the start of the barley harvest.^m 10 However, Riz’pah the daughter of A’iahⁿ took sackcloth^o and spread it for herself upon the rock from the start of harvest until water poured down upon them from the heavens;^p and she did not allow the fowls^q of the heavens to rest upon them by day nor the wild beasts^r of the field by night.

11 At length it was reported^s to David what Riz’pah the daughter of A’iah, Saul’s concubine, had done. 12 So David went and took the bones of Saul^t and the bones of Jon’a-than his son from the landowners of Ja’besh-gil’e-ad,^u who had stolen them from the public square of Beth-shan,^v where the Philis’tines had hanged^w them on the day that the Philis'tines struck down Saul on Gil-bo'a.^a 13 And he proceeded to bring up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of Jon'a-than his son; furthermore, they gathered the bones of the men being exposed.^b 14 Then they buried the bones of Saul and of Jon'a-than his son* in the land of Benjamin in Ze'la^c in the burial place of Kish^d his father, that they might do everything that the king had commanded. So God let himself be entreated for the land after this.^e

15 And the Philis'tines^f came to have war again with Israel. Accordingly David and his servants with him went down and fought the Philis'tines; and David grew tired. 16 And Ish'bi-be'nob, who was among those born of the Reph'a-im,^g the weight of whose spear^h was three hundred shekelsⁱ of copper and who was girded with a new sword,^j got to think of striking David down. 17 At once A-bish'ai^k the son of Zeru'iah came to his help^l and struck the Philis'tine down and put him to death. At that time the men of David swore to him, saying: "You must not go out with us to the battle anymore,^k that you may not extinguish^l the lamp^m of Israel!"

18 And it came about after this that war arose once more with the Philis'tines at Gob.* Then it was that Sib'-be-caiⁿ the Hu'shath-ite^o struck down Saph, who was among those born of the Reph'a-im.^p

19 And war arose once again with the Philis'tines at Gob, and El-ha'nan^q the son of Ja'a-re-or'e-gim the Beth'le-hem-ite got to strike down Go-li'ath* the Gittite,^r the shaft of whose spear was like the beam of loom workers.^s

when there happened to be a man of extraordinary size, with six fingers on each of his hands and six toes on each of his feet, twenty-four in number; and he too had been born to the Reph'a-im.^a 21 And he kept taunting^b Israel. 22 These four had been born to the Reph'a-im in Gath;^e and they came to fall by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.^f

22 And David proceeded to speak to Jehovah the words of this song* in the day that Jehovah had delivered him out of the palm of all his enemies^h and out of Saul's palm;ⁱ 2 and he went on to say:

"Jehovah is my crag^j and my stronghold^k and the Provider of escape for me.^l

With my cry for help in his ears.^c

The foundations of the heavens themselves became agitated,^a

And they kept shaking back and forth because he had been angered.^b

9 Smoke went up at his nostrils, and fire itself from his mouth kept devouring;^c

Coals themselves blazed up from him.^d

10 And he proceeded to bend the heavens down and to descend;^e

And thick gloom was beneath his feet.^f

11 And he came riding upon a cherub^g and came flying;

And he was visible^h upon the wings of a spirit.^h

12 Then he put a darkness around him as booths,ⁱ

Dark waters,^j thick clouds.^j

13 From the brightness in front of him burning coals of fire blazed up.^k

14 From heaven Jehovah began to thunder,^l

And the Most High himself began to give forth his voice.^m

15 And he kept sending out arrows, that he might scatter them;ⁿ

Lightning, that he might throw them into confusion.^o

16 And the streambeds of the sea became visible,^p

The foundations of the productive land^q became uncovered,

At the rebuke of Jehovah, from the blast of the breath^r of his nostrils.^r

17 He was sending from on high, he was taking me,^s

He was drawing me out of great waters.^t

He should be fully armed with iron and the shaft of a spear, And with fire they will thoroughly be burned up.^{a}

8 These are the names of the mighty^b men that belonged to David: Jo'shebbas-she'beth^c a Tah-che'mo-nite, the head of the three.* He was brandishing his spear^d over eight hundred slain at one time. 9 Next to him El-e-a'zar^e the son of Do'do^f the son of A-ho'hi was among the three mighty men with David when they taunted the Phi-lis'tines. They* had gathered themselves there for the battle, and so the men of Israel retreated.^g 10 He it was that rose up and kept striking down the Phi-lis'tines until his hand wearied and his hand kept cleaving to the sword,^h so that Jehovah performed a great salvation on that day;ⁱ and as for the people, they returned behind him only to strip [those struck down].^j

11 And next to him was Sham'mah the son of A'gee the Har'a-rite.^k And the Phi-lis'tines proceeded to gather themselves to Le'hi, where there then happened to be a tract of the field full of lentils;^l and the people themselves fled because of the Phi-lis'tines. 12 But he took his stand in the middle of the tract and delivered it and kept striking down the Phi-lis'tines, so that Jehovah performed a great salvation.^m

13 And three of the thirty head onesⁿ proceeded to go down and come at [the] harvest,* to David at the cave of A-dul'-lam;^o and a tent village of the Phi-lis'tines was encamped in the low plain of the Reph'a-im.^p 14 And David was then in the place hard to approach;^q and an outpost^a of the Philis'tines was then in Beth'le-hem. 15 After a while David expressed his craving and said: "O that I might have a drink of the water from the cistern of Beth'le-hem that is at the gate!"^b 16 At that the three mighty men forced their way into the camp of the Philis'tines and drew water from the cistern of Beth'le-hem that is at the gate and came carrying and bringing it to David;^c and he did not consent to drink it, but poured^d it out to Jehovah. 17 And he went on to say: "It is unthinkable on my part,^e O Jehovah, that I should do this! [Shall I drink]* the blood^f of the men going at the risk of their souls?" And he did not consent to drink it.

These are the things the three mighty men did.

Je-hoi'a-da did; and he had a reputation like the three mighty men.^a 23 Although he was distinguished even more than the thirty, to the rank of the three he did not come; but David appointed him to his own bodyguard.^b

24 And again^b the anger of Jehovah came to be hot against Israel, when one^{} incited David[#] against them, saying: "Go, take a count^c of Israel and Judah." 2 So the king said to Jo'ab^d the chief^{} of the military forces who was with him:[#] "Move about, please, through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Be'er-she'ba,^e and you men register the people,^f and I shall certainly know the number of the people."^g hovah your God even add to the people a hundred times as many as they are while the very eyes of my lord the king are seeing it. But as for my lord the king, why has he found delight in this thing?"^a

4 Finally the king's word prevailed^b upon Jo'ab and the chiefs of the military forces. So Jo'ab and the chiefs of the military forces went out from before the king to register^c the people Israel. 5 Then they crossed the Jordan and took up camping at A-ro'er^d to the right of the city* that is in the middle of the torrent valley, toward the Gad'ites,^e and to Ja'zer.^f 6 After that they came on to Gil'e-ad^g and the land of Tah'tim-hod'shi* and continued on to Dan-ja'an and went around to Si'don.^h 7 Then they came to the fortress of Tyreⁱ and all the cities of the Hi'vites^j and of the Ca'naan-ites and came to the terminating point in the Neg'eb^k of Judah at Be'er-she'ba.^l 8 Thus they went moving about through all the land and came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. 9 Jo'ab now gave the number of the registration^m of the people to the king; and Israel amounted to eight hundred thousand valiant men drawing sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.ⁿ

10 And David's heart began to beat^o him after he had so numbered the people. Consequently David said to Jehovah: "I have sinned^p very much in what I have done. And now, Jehovah, let your servant's error pass by,^q please; for I have acted very foolishly."^r 11 When David proceeded to rise up in the morning, Jehovah's word itself came to Gad^s the prophet, David's visionary,^t saying: 12 "Go,* and you must say to David, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Three things I am laying upon you." Let us fall, please, into the hand of Jehovah,^f for many are his mercies;^g but into the hand of man* do not let me fall."^h

15 Then Jehovah gave a pestilenceⁱ in Israel from the morning until the time appointed, so that out of the people from Dan to Be'er-she'ba^j seventy thousand persons died.^k 16 And the angel^l kept his hand thrust out toward Jerusalem to bring it to ruin; and Jehovah began to feel regret^m over the calamity, and so he said to the angel that was bringing ruin among the people: "It is enough! Now let your hand drop." And Jehovah's angel himself happened to be close by the threshing floor of A-rau'-nahⁿ the Jeb'u-site.^o

17 And David proceeded to say to Jehovah, when he saw the angel that was striking the people down, yes, he proceeded to say: "Here it is I that have sinned and it is I that have done wrong; but these sheep^p—what have they done? 18 Later Gad came in to David on that day and said to him: "Go up, set up for Jehovah an altar on the threshing floor of A-rau'nah the Jeb'u-site."^r 19 And David began to go up in accord with the word of Gad, according to what Jehovah had commanded.^s 20 When A-rau'nah looked down and saw the king and his servants passing along toward him, A-rau'nah at once went out and bowed^t down to the king with his

1 Now King* David was old,^a advanced in days; and they would cover him with garments, but he would not feel warm. 2 So his servants said to him: "Let them look for a girl, a virgin,^b for my lord the king, and she will have to attend^c upon the king, that she may become his nurse;^d and she must lie in your bosom,^e and my lord the king will certainly feel warm."^f 3 And they* went looking for a beautiful girl throughout all the territory of Israel, and finally found Ab'ishag^g the Shu'-nam-mite^h and then brought her in to the king. 4 And the girl was beautiful in the extreme;ⁱ and she came to be the king's nurse and kept waiting upon him, and the king himself had no intercourse with her.

22 And, look! while she was yet speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet himself came in.^e 23 At once they told the king, saying: "Here is Nathan the prophet!" 32 Immediately King David said: "You men, call for me Za'dok^b the priest and Nathan the prophet and Be-na'i'ah^c the son of Je-hoi'a-da." So they came in before the king. 33 And the king went on to say to them: "Take with you the servants^d of your lord,* and you must make Sol'o-mon my son ride upon the she-mule that belongs to me^e and lead him down to Gi'hon.^f 34 And Za'dok the priest and Nathan the prophet must anoint^g him there as king over Israel; and you must blow the horn^h and say, 'Let King Sol'o-mon live!'ⁱ 35 And you must come up following him, and he must come in and sit upon my throne; and he himself will be king in place of me, and him I shall have to commission to become leader over Israel and over Judah." 36 At once Be-na'i'ah the son of Je-hoi'a-da answered the king and said: "Amen!"^j Thus may Jehovah the God of my lord the king say.^{ak} 37 Just as Jehovah proved to be with my lord the king,^l so let him prove to be with Sol'o-mon,^m and may he make his throne greaterⁿ than the throne of my lord King David."

sound of the horn, he at once said: "What does the noise of the town in an uproar^a mean?" 42 While he was yet speaking, why, here Jon'a-than^b the son of A-bi'a-thar the priest came. Then Ad-oni'jah said: "Come on in, for you are a valiant man, and you bring good news."^c 43 But Jon'a-than answered and said to Ad-oni'jah: "No! Our lord* King David himself has made Sol'o-mon king.^d 44 So the king sent with him Za'dok the priest and Nathan the prophet and Be-na'i'ah the son of Je-hoi'a-da and the Cher'e-thites and the Pel'e-thites, and they made him ride upon the she-mule of the king.^e 45 Then Za'dok the priest and Nathan the prophet anointed him as king^f in Gi'hon; after which they came up from there rejoicing, and the town is in an uproar. That was the noise that you men heard.^g 46 And, besides, Sol'o-mon has sat down upon the throne of the kingship.^h 47 And, another thing, the servants of the king have come in to wish our lord King David well, saying, 'May your God* make Sol'o-mon's name more splendid than your name, and may he make his throne greater than your throne!'ⁱ At that the king bowed down upon the bed.^j 48 And too this is what the king said, 'Blessed^k be Jehovah the God of Israel, who has today given one to sit upon my throne, with my own eyes seeing it!'"^l

49 And all those invited that were with Ad-oni'jah began to tremble and rise up and go each one on his own way.^m 50 And Ad-oni'jah himself was afraid because of Sol'o-mon. 2 And the days of David gradually drew near for him to die;^d and he proceeded to command Sol'o-mon his son, saying: 2 “I am going in the way of all the earth,^e and you must be strong^f and prove yourself to be a man.^g 3 And you must keep the obligation to Jehovah your God by walking in his ways,^h by keeping his statutes, his commandments and his judicial decisionsⁱ and his testimonies,^{*} according to what is written in the law of Moses,^j in order that you may act prudently in everything that you do and everywhere that you turn; 4 in order that Jehovah may carry out his word that he spoke respecting me,^k saying, ‘If your sons^l will take care of their way by walking^m before me in truthⁿ with all their heart^o and with all their soul, there will not be cut off a man of yours from [sitting] upon the throne of Israel.’^p

19 So Bath-she'ba came in to King Sol'o-mon to speak to him for Ad-o-ni'-jah.^a At once the king rose^b to meet her and bowed down to her.^c Then he sat down upon his throne and had a throne set for the mother of the king, that she might sit at his right.^d 20 And she proceeded to say: "There is one little request that I am making of you. So the king said to her: "Make it, my mother; for I shall not turn your face away." 21 And she went on to say: "Let Abi'shag the Shu'nam-mite be given to Ad-o-ni'-jah your brother as a wife." 22 At this King Sol'o-mon answered and said to his mother: "And why are you requesting Abi'shag the Shu'nam-mite for Ad-o-ni'-jah? Request also for him the kingship^e (because he is my brother older than I am),^f even for him and for A-bi'a-thar^g the priest and for Jo'ab^h the son of Ze-ru'iah."ⁱ

23 With that King Sol'o-mon swore by Jehovah, saying: "So may God do to me, and so may he add to it,^j if it was not against his own soul that Ad-o-ni'-jah spoke this thing.^k 24 And now, as Jehovah is living^l who has firmly established me^m and keeps me seated upon the throne of David my fatherⁿ and who made a house^o for me just as he has spoken,^p today Ad-o-ni'-jah will be put to death."^q 25 Immediately King Sol'o-mon sent by means of Benai'ah^r the son of Je-hoi'a-da; and he proceeded to fall upon him, so that he died.^s fill Jehovah's word that he had spoken against the house of E'li^a in Shi'loh.^b

28 And the report itself came clear to Jo'ab^c—for Jo'ab himself had inclined to follow Ad-o-ni'-jah,^d although Ab'sa-lom^e he had not inclined to follow^e—and Jo'ab went fleeing to the tent^f of Jehovah and began to hold fast to the horns of the altar.^g 29 Then King Sol'o-mon was told: "Jo'ab has fled to the tent of Jehovah, and there he is beside the altar." So Sol'o-mon sent Benai'ah the son of Je-hoi'a-da, saying: "Go, fall upon him!"^h

30 Accordingly Benai'ah came to the tent of Jehovah and said to him: "This is what the king has said, 'Come on out!'" But he said: "No! For hereⁱ is where I shall die." At that Benai'ah brought word back to the king, saying: "This is what Jo'ab spoke, and this is what he answered me." 31 Then the king said to him: "Do just as he has spoken and fall upon him; and you must bury him and remove from off me and from off the house of my father the blood^j undeservedly shed that Jo'ab spilled.^k

32 And Jehovah will certainly bring back his blood upon his own head,^l because he fell upon two men more righteous and better than he was,^m and he proceeded to kill them with the sword, when my father David himself had not known of it,ⁿ namely, Ab'ner^o the son of Ner the chief of the army of Israel^p and A-ma'sa^q the son of Je'ther the chief of the army of Judah.^r 33 And their blood must come back upon the head of Jo'ab and upon the head of his offspring to time indefinite;^s but for David^t and for his offspring and for his house and for his throne there will come to be peace to time indefinite from Jehovah."^u

34 Then Benai'ah the son of Je-hoi'a-da went on up^v and fell upon him and put him to death;^w and he got to be buried at his own house in the wilderness. 35 Upon that the king put Benai'ah^x the son of Je-hoi'a-da in place of him

39 And it came about at the end of three years that two slaves^g of Shim'e-i went running away to A'chish^h the son of Ma'a-cah the king of Gath;ⁱ and people came telling Shim'e-i, saying: "Look! Your slaves are at Gath." 40 Immediately Shim'e-i got up and saddled his ass and went to Gath to A'chish to look for his slaves; after which Shim'e-i went and brought his slaves from Gath. 41 Then Sol'o-mon was told: "Shim'e-i has gone out of Jerusalem to Gath and is back." 42 At that the king sent and called^j Shim'e-i and said to him: "Did I not put you under oath by Jehovah that I might warn you,^k saying, 'On the day of your going outside and when you do go here and there you should unmistakably know that you will positively die,' and so did you not say to me, 'Good is the word that I have heard'?"^l 43 Why, then, did you not keep the oath of Jehovah^m and the commandment that I solemnly laid upon you?"ⁿ 44 And the king went on to say to Shim'e-i: "You yourself certainly know all the injury which your heart well knows that you did to David my father;^o and Jehovah will certainly return the injury by you upon your own head.^p 45 But King Sol'o-mon will be blessed,^q and the throne of David itself will prove to be firmly established before Jehovah forever."^{aa} 46 With that the king commanded Be-na'i'ah the son of Je-hoi'a-da, who then went out and fell upon him, so that he died.^b

And the kingdom was firmly established in the hand of Sol'o-mon.^c

3 And Sol'o-mon proceeded to form a marriage alliance^d with Phar'aoh the king of Egypt and to take Phar'aoh's daughter^e and bring her to the City of David,^f until he finished building his own house^g and the house of Jehovah^h and Jerusalem's wall all around.ⁱ

2 Only the people were sacrificing on the high places,^j for a house had not been built to the name of Jehovah down to those days.^k 3 And Sol'o-mon continued to love^l Jehovah by walking in the statutes of David his father.^m Only it was on the high placesⁿ that he was regularly sacrificing and making offerings smoke.

4 Accordingly the king went to Gib'e-on^o to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place.^p A thousand burnt sacrifices Sol'o-mon proceeded to offer upon that altar.^q 5 In Gib'e-on Jehovah appeared^r to Sol'o-mon in a dream^s by night; and God* proceeded to say: "Request what I should give you."^t 6 At this Sol'o-mon said: "You yourself have exercised great loving-kindness^u toward your servant David my father according as he walked before you in truth and in righteousness^v and in uprightness of heart with you; and you continued keeping toward him this great loving-kindness, so that you gave him a son to sit^w upon his throne as at this day."^x 7 And now, Jehovah my God, you yourself have made your servant king in the place of David my father, and I am but a little boy.^y I do not know how to go out and how to come in.^z 8 And your servant is in the middle of your people whom you

10 And the thing was pleasing* in the eyes of Jehovah,^h because Sol'o-mon had requested this thing.ⁱ 11 And God* went on to say to him: "For the reason that you have requested this thing and have not requested for yourself many days nor requested for yourself riches^b nor requested the soul^h of your enemies, and you have requested for yourself understanding^a to hear judicial cases,^g 12 look! So they brought the sword before the king. 25 And the king proceeded to say: "You men, sever the living child in two and give the one half to the one woman and the other half to the other." 26 At once the woman whose son was the living one said to the king (for her inward emotions^d were excited toward her son,^e so that she said): "Excuse me,^f my lord! 28 And all Israel got to hear of the judicial decision^h that the king had handed down; and they became fearful because of the king,ⁱ for they saw that

7 And it came about that as soon as Hi'ram^e heard the words of Sol'o-mon, he began to rejoice greatly, and he went on to say: "Blessed^f is Jehovah today in that he has given David a wise^g son over this numerous people!"^h 8 Accordingly Hi'ram sent to Sol'o-mon, saying: "I have heard what you sent to me. For my part, I shall do all your delight in the matter of timbers of cedar trees and timbers of juniperⁱ trees. 9 My servants themselves will bring them down out of Leb'a-non^j to the sea; and I, for my part, shall put them in log rafts [to go] by sea clear to the place that you will send me notice of;^k and I shall certainly have them broken up there, and you, for your part, will carry them; and you, for your part, will do my delight by giving the food for my household."^l

10 So Hi'ram became a giver of timbers of cedar trees and timbers of juniper trees to Sol'o-mon according to all his delight. 11 And Sol'o-mon, for his part, gave Hi'ram twenty thousand cor^m measures of wheat as food supplies for his household and twenty cor* measures of beaten-outⁿ oil.^o That was what Sol'o-mon kept giving Hi'ram year by year.^o 12 And Jehovah, for his part, gave Sol'o-mon wisdom, just as he had 13 And King Sol'o-mon kept bringing up those conscripted for forced labor out of all Israel; and those conscripted for forced labor^b amounted to thirty thousand men. 14 And he would send them to Leb'a-non in shifts of ten thousand a month. For a month they would continue in Leb'a-non, for two months at their homes;^c and Ad-o-ni-ram^d was over those conscripted^e for forced labor.^f 15 And Sol'o-mon came to have^g seventy thousand burden bearers^h and eighty thousand cuttersⁱ in the mountain.^j 16 besides Sol'o-mon's princely deputies^{*k} who were over the work, three thousand three hundred foremen^l over the people who were active in the work. 17 Accordingly the king commanded that they should quarry great stones, expensive stones,^m to lay the foundationⁿ of the house with hewn stones.^o 18 So Sol'o-mon's builders and Hi'ram's builders and the Ge'bal-ites^p did the cutting, and they kept preparing the timbers and the stones to build the house.

6 And it came about in the four hundred and eightieth year^{*} after the sons of Israel came out from the land of Egypt,^a in the fourth year,^r in the month of Ziv,^s that is, the second month,^t after Sol'o-mon became king over Israel, that he proceeded to build the house to Jehovah.^u 2 And the house that King Sol'o-mon built^v to Jehovah was sixty cubits^{*w} in its length, and twenty in its width, and thirty cubits in its height.^x 3 And the porch^y in front of the temple^{*z} of the house was twenty cubits in its length, in front of the width of the house. 13 And King Sol'o-mon proceeded to send and fetch Hi'ram^e out of Tyre.

14 He was the son of a widowed woman from the tribe of Naph'ta-li, and his father was a Tyr'ian man,^f a worker in copper;^g and he was full of the wisdom and the understanding^h and the knowledge for doing every sort of work in copper. Accordingly he came to King Sol'o-mon and began to do all his work.

15 Then he cast the two pillars of copper,ⁱ eighteen cubits being the height of each pillar, and a string of twelve cubits would measure around each of the two pillars.^j 16 And two capitals he made to put upon the tops of the pillars, cast in copper.^k Five cubits was the height of the one capital, and five cubits was the height of the other capital. 17 There were nets in network, twisted ornaments in chainwork,^l for the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars;^m seven* for the one capital, and seven for the other capital. 18 And he went on to make the pomegranates* and two rows round about upon the one network to cover the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars;ⁿ and that was what he did for the other capital.ⁿ 19 And the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars at the porch were of lily work,^o of four cubits. 20 And the capitals were upon the two pillars, also up close beside the belly that was adjoining the network; and there were two hundred pomegranates^p in rows all around upon each capital.

21 And he proceeded to set up the pillars^q belonging to the porch^r of the temple. So he set up the right-hand* pillar and called its name Ja'chin,^s and then set up the left-hand* pillar and called its name Bo'az.^a 22 And upon the top of the pillars there was lily work. And the work of the pillars was gradually completed.

23 And he proceeded to make the molten sea^a ten cubits from its one brim to its other brim, circular all around; and its height was five cubits, and it took a line of thirty cubits to circle all around it.^b 24 And there were gourd-shaped^c ornaments^d down below its brim all around, encircling it, ten in a cubit, enclosing the sea all around,^e with two rows of the gourd-shaped ornaments cast in its casting. 25 It was standing upon twelve bulls,^f three facing north, and three facing west,^g and three facing south,^h and three facing east; and the sea was above upon them, and all their hind parts were toward the center.^g 26 And its thickness was a handbreadth;^h and its brim was like the workmanship of the brim of a cup, a lily blossom.ⁱ Two thousand bath^j measures^k were what it would contain.^k

27 And he went on to make the ten carriages^l of copper, four cubits being the length of each carriage, and four cubits its width, and three cubits its height. 28 And this was the workmanship of the carriages: they had sidewalls, and the sidewalls were between the crossbars. 29 And upon the sidewalls that were between the crossbars there were lions,^m bullsⁿ and cherubs,^o and over the crossbars it was like that. Up above and beneath the lions and the bulls there were wreaths^p in hanging work.* 30 And there were four wheels of copper to each carriage, with axles of copper; and its four corner-pieces were supports for them. Beneath the basin were the supports, cast with

And their sidewalls were squared, not round. 32 And the four wheels were down below the sidewalls, and the supports of the wheels were by the carriage; and the height of each wheel was one and a half cubits. 33 And the workmanship of the wheels was like the workmanship of a chariot wheel.^a Their supports and their felloes and their spokes and their hubs, they were all cast. 34 And there were four supports upon the four corners of each carriage; its supports were of one piece with the carriage. 35 And on top of the carriage there was [a stand]* a half a cubit in height, circular all around; and upon the top of the carriage its sides and its sidewalls were of one piece with it. 36 Further, he engraved^b upon the plates of its sides and upon its sidewalls cherubs, lions and palm-tree figures according to the clear space of each, and wreaths all around.^c 37 It was like this that he made the ten carriages;^d they all had one cast,^e one measure, one shape.

38 And he proceeded to make ten basins^f of copper. Forty bath* measures were what each basin would contain. Each basin was four cubits. There was one basin upon each carriage for the ten carriages. 39 Then he put five carriages on the right side* of the house, and five on the left side* of the house;^g and the sea itself he put to the right side of the house eastward, toward the south.^h

40 And Hi'ramⁱ gradually made the basins^j and the shovels^k and the bowls.^l At length Hi'ram finished^m doing all the work that he did for King Sol'omon as respects the house of Jehovah:

47 And Sol'o-mon left all the utensils^m [unweighed] because of so extraordinarily great a quantity.ⁿ The weight of the copper was not ascertained.^o

48 And Sol'o-mon gradually made all the utensils that pertained to the house of Jehovah, the altar^p of gold and the table^q on which was the showbread,* of gold, 49 and the lampstands,^r five to the right and five to the left before the innermost room, of pure gold,^s and the blossoms^t and the lamps^u and the snuffers,^v of gold, 50 and the basins and the extinguishers^w and the bowls^x and the cups^y and the fire holders,^z of pure gold, and the sockets for the doors^a of the inner house, that is, the Most Holy,* and for the doors^b of the house of the temple,^c of gold.

put in the treasures of the house of Jehovah.^a

8 At that time Sol'o-mon^b proceeded to congregate^c the older^d men* of Israel, all the heads of the tribes,^e the chieftains^f of the fathers,^g of the sons of Israel, to King Sol'o-mon at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant^h of Jehovah out of the City of David,ⁱ that is to say, Zion.^j 2 So all the men of Israel congregated themselves to King Sol'o-mon in the lunar month of Eth'-anim in the festival,^k that is, the seventh month.^l 3 So all the older men of Israel came, and the priests began to carry^m the Ark.ⁿ 4 And they came bringing up the ark of Jehovah and the tent^o of meeting^o and all the holy utensils that were in the tent; and the priests and the Levites^p came bringing them up.^q 5 And King Sol'o-mon and with him all the assembly of Israel, those keeping their appointment with him, were before the Ark, sacrific- ing^r sheep and cattle that could not be counted or numbered for multitude.^s

6 Then the priests brought in the ark^t of the covenant of Jehovah to its place,^u to the innermost room of the house, the Most Holy, to underneath the wings of the cherubs.^v

7 For the cherubs were spreading out their wings over the place of the Ark, so that the cherubs kept the Ark and its poles screened over from above.^w

8 But the poles^x proved to be long, so that the tips of the poles were visible from the Holy in front of the innermost room, but they were not visible outside. And there they continue down to this day.^y 9 There was nothing in the Ark but the two stone tablets*^z which Moses had deposited^a there in Ho'reb, when Jehovah had covenanted^b with the sons of Israel while they were coming out from the land of Egypt.^c

10 And it came about that when the priests came out from the holy place, the cloud^a itself filled the house of Jehovah. 11 And the priests^b were unable to stand to do their ministering^c because of the cloud, for the glory^d of Jehovah filled the house of Jehovah.^e 12 At that time Sol'o-mon said: "Jehovah himself said he was to reside in the thick gloom.^f 13 I have successfully built a house of lofty abode for you,^g an established place^h for you to dwell in to time indefinite."ⁱ

14 Then the king turned his face and began to bless^j all the congregation^{*} of Israel, while all the congregation of Israel were standing up. 15 And he went on to say: "Blessed is Jehovah^k the God of Israel, who spoke by his own mouth with David^l my father, and by his own hand has given fulfillment,^m saying, 16 'From the day that I brought my people Israel out from Egypt I have not chosenⁿ a city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house^o for my name^p to continue there; but I shall choose David to come to be over my people Israel.'^q 17 And it came to be close to the heart of David my father to build a house to the name of Jehovah the God of Israel.^r 18 But Jehovah said to David my father, 'For the reason that it proved to be close to your heart to build a house to my name, you did well, because it proved to be close to your heart.^s 19 Only you yourself will not build the house, but your son who is coming forth from your loins is the one that will build the house to my name.'^t 20 And Jehovah proceeded to carry out his word^u that he had spoken, that I might rise up in the place of David my father and sit upon the throne of Israel,^v just as Jehovah had spoken, and that I might build the house to the name of Jehovah the God of Israel,^w 21 and that I might locate a place there for the Ark where the covenant^x of Jehovah is that he concluded with our forefathers when he was bringing them out from the land of Egypt."

24 However, Phar'aoh's daughter^a herself came up out of the City of David^b to her own house that he had built for her. It was then that he built the Mound.^c

25 And Sol'o-mon continued three^d times in the year to offer up burnt sacrifices and communion sacrifices upon the altar that he had built for Jehovah,^e and there was a making of sacrificial smoke* on the [altar],^f which was before Jehovah; and he completed the house.^g

28 And they proceeded to go to O'phir^l and take from there four hundred and twenty talents* of gold^m and bring it in to King Sol'o-mon.

10 Now the queen of She'baⁿ was hearing the report about Sol'o-mon in connection with the name of Jehovah.^o So she came to test him with perplexing questions.*^p 2 Finally she arrived at Jerusalem with a very impressive train,^q camels^r carrying balsam oil^s and very much gold and precious stones; and she came on in to Sol'o-mon and began to speak to him all that happened to be close to her heart.^t 3 Sol'o-mon, in turn, went on to tell her all her matters.^u There proved to be no matter hidden from the king that he did not tell her.^v

10 Then she gave^p the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold^q and a very great deal of balsam oil^r and precious stones. There never came anymore the like of that balsam oil for quantity such as the queen of She'ba gave to King Sol'o-mon.

11 And Hi'ram's fleet of ships^s that carried gold from O'phir^t also brought from O'phir timbers of al-gum^u trees^v in very great amount and precious stones.^w

12 And the king proceeded to make out of the timbers of the al-gum trees supports for the house of Jehovah^x and for the house of the king, and also harps^y and stringed^z instruments for the singers. Timbers of al-gum trees like this have not come in nor have they been seen down to this day.

13 And King Sol'o-mon himself gave the queen of She'ba all her delight for which she asked, apart from what he gave her according to the openhandedness^{aa} of King Sol'o-mon. After that she turned about and went to her own land, she together with her servants.^{ab} came to Sol'o-mon in one year amounted up to six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,^{aa} 15 apart from the men of travel and the profit from the traders and all the kings^b of the Arabs^c and the governors of the land.

16 And King Sol'o-mon went on to make two hundred large shields of alloyed gold^d (six hundred [shekels]^e of gold he proceeded to lay upon each large shield),^f 17 and three hundred bucklers of alloyed gold (three mi'nas^g of gold he proceeded to lay upon each buckler^h).ⁱ Then the king put them in the House of the Forest of Leb'a-non.^j

18 Further, the king made a great ivory^k throne^l and overlaid it with refined gold.^m 19 There were six steps to the throne, and the throne had a round canopy behind it, and there were armrests on this side and on that side by the place of sitting, and two lionsⁿ were standing beside the armrests.^o 20 And there were twelve lions standing there upon the six steps, on this side and on that side. No other kingdom had any made just like it.^p

21 And all the drinking vessels of King Sol'o-mon were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Leb'a-non^q were of pure gold.^r There was nothing of silver; it was considered in the days of Sol'o-mon as nothing at all. 22 For the king had a fleet of ships of Tar'shish^s on the sea along with Hi'ram's fleet of ships. Once every three years the fleet of ships of Tar'shish would come carrying gold^t and silver, ivory,^u and apes and peacocks.

23 So King Sol'o-mon was greater in riches^v and wisdom^w than all the other kings of the earth. 24 And all the people of the earth^x were seeking the face

26 And Sol'o-mon kept gathering more chariots and steeds;^g and he came to have a thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand steeds,^h and he kept them stationed in the chariot cities and close by the king in Jerusalem.^b

27 And the king came to make the silver in Jerusalem like the stones,ⁱ and cedarwood he made like the sycamore trees that are in the She-phe'lah* for great quantity.^j

28 And there was the export of the horses that Sol'o-mon had from Egypt, and the company of the king's merchants would themselves take the horse drove for a price.^k 29 And a chariot customarily came up and was exported from Egypt for six hundred silver pieces, and a horse for a hundred and fifty; and that was the way it was for all the kings of the Hit'tites^l and the kings of Syria. It was by means of them* that they did the exporting.

11 And King Sol'o-mon himself loved many foreign wives^m along with the daughter of Phar'aoh,ⁿ Mo'ab-ite,^o Am'mon-ite,^p E'dom-ite,^q Si-do-ni-an^r [and] Hit'tites^s women, 2 from the nations of whom Jehovah had said to the sons of Israel: "You must not go in among them,^t and they themselves should not come in among you; truly they will incline YOUR heart to follow their gods."^u It was to them that Sol'o-mon clung^v to love [them]. 3 And he came to have seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives gradually^w inclined his heart. 4 And it came about in the time of Sol'o-mon's growing old^x that his wives themselves had inclined^y his heart to follow other gods;^z and his heart did not prove to be complete^a with Jehovah his God like the heart of David his father. 5 And Sol'o-mon began going after Ash'to-reth^b the goddess* of the Si-do-ni-ans and after Mil'com^c the disgusting thing of the Am'mon-ites. 6 And Sol'o-mon began to do what was bad^d in the eyes of Jehovah, and he did not follow Jehovah fully like David his father.^e

7 It was then that Sol'o-mon proceeded to build a high place^f to Che'mosh^g the disgusting^h thing of Mo'ab on the mountainⁱ that was in front^j of Jerusalem, and to Mo'lech the disgusting thing of the sons of Am'mon. 8 And that was the way he did for all his foreign wives^k who were making sacrificial smoke and sacrificing to their gods.^l

9 And Jehovah came to be incensed^m at Sol'o-mon, because his heart had inclined away from Jehovah the God of Israel,ⁿ the one appearing to him twice.^o

10 And respecting this thing he commanded him not to go after other gods;^p but he had not kept that which Jehovah had commanded. 11 Jehovah now said to Sol'o-mon: "For the reason that this has taken place with you and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes that I laid in command upon you, I shall without fail rip the kingdom away from off you, and I shall certainly give it to your servant.^q 12 However, in your days I shall not do it,^r for the sake of David your father.^s Out of the hand of your son I shall rip it away.^t 13 Only it will not be all the kingdom that I shall rip away.^u One tribe I shall give to your son, for the sake of David my servant^v and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen."^w

14 And Jehovah began to raise up a resister^{} to Sol'o-mon,^y namely, Ha'dad the E'dom-ite of the offspring of the king. He was in E'dom.^z 15 And it came about when David struck down

Also, bread he assigned to him, and land he gave him. 19 And Ha'dad continued to find favor^e in the eyes of Phar'aoh, so much that he gave him a wife,^f the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tah'pe-nes the lady. 20 In time the sister of Tah'pe-nes bore him Ge-nu'bath his son, and Tah'pe-nes got to wean^g him right inside the house of Phar'aoh; and Ge-nu'bath continued at the house of Phar'aoh right among the sons of Phar'aoh.

To this he said: "Nothing; but you ought to send me away without fail."

ing in Damascus. 25 And he came to be a resister of Israel all the days of Sol'o-mon,^a and that along with the injury that Ha'dad did; and he had an abhorrence^b of Israel while he continued reigning over Syria.

26 And there was Jer-o-bo'am^c the son of Ne'bat an E'phra-im-ite from Zer'-e-dah, a servant of Sol'o-mon,^d and his mother's name was Ze-ru'ah, a widowed woman. He too began to lift up his hand against the king.^e 27 And this is the reason why he lifted up his hand against the king: Sol'o-mon himself had built the Mound.^f He had closed up the gap of the City of David his father.^g 28 Now the man Jer-o-bo'am was a valiant, mighty man.^h When Sol'o-mon got to see that the young man was a hard worker,ⁱ he proceeded to make him overseer^j over all the compulsory service^k of the house of Joseph.^l 29 And it came about at that particular time that Jer-o-bo'am himself went out from Jerusalem, and A-hi'jah^m the Shi'lo-niteⁿ the prophet got to find him on the road, and [A-hi'jah]* was covering himself with a new garment; and the two of them were by themselves in the field. 30 A-hi'jah now took hold of the new garment that was on him and ripped^o it into twelve^p pieces. 31 And he went on to say to Jer-o-bo'am:

"Take for yourself ten pieces; for this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'Here I am ripping the kingdom out of the hand of Sol'o-mon, and I shall certainly give you ten tribes.'^q 32 And the one tribe^r is what will continue his for the sake of my servant David^s and for the sake of Jerusalem,^t the city that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel. 33 The reason why is that they have left me^u and begun to bow down to Ash'to-reth^v the goddess* of the Si-do'-ni-ans, to Che'mosh^w the god^x of Mo'ab and to Mil'com^a the god of the sons of Am'mon; and they have not walked in my ways by doing what is right in my eyes and my statutes and my judicial decisions like David his father. 34 But I shall not take the entire kingdom out of his hand, because a chieftain* I shall set him for all the days of his life, for the sake of David my servant whom I chose,^b because he kept my commandments and my statutes. 35 And I shall certainly take the kingship out of the hand of his son and give it to you, even ten tribes.^c 36 And to his son I shall give one tribe, in order that David my servant may continue having a lamp always before me in Jerusalem,^d the city that I have chosen for myself to put my name there.^e 37 And you are the one that I shall take, and you will indeed reign over all that your soul craves,^f and you will certainly become king over Israel. 38 And it must occur that, if you obey all that I shall command you, and you do walk in my ways and actually do what is right in my eyes by keeping my statutes and my commandments, just as David my servant did,^g I will also prove to be with you,^h and I will build you a lasting house, just as I have built for David,ⁱ and I will give you Israel. 39 And I shall humiliate the offspring of David on account of this,^j only not always."^k

40 And Sol'o-mon began seeking to put Jer-o-bo'am to death.^l So Jer-o-bo'am got up and went running^m off to Egypt to Shi'shakⁿ the king of Egypt, and he continued in Egypt until Sol'o-mon's death.

41 As for the rest of the affairs of Sol'o-mon and all that he did and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the affairs of Sol'o-mon? 42 And the days that Sol'o-mon had reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel were forty years.^o 43 Then Sol'o-mon lay down with his forefathers,^p and was buried in the City of David^q his father; and Re-ho-bo'am^r his son began to reign in place of him.

12 And Re-ho-bo'am^a proceeded to go to She'chem, for it was to She'chem^b that all Israel came to make him king. 2 And it came about that as soon as Jer-o-bo'am^c the son of Ne'bat heard of it while he was yet in Egypt (because he had run off on account of King Sol'o-mon, that Jer-o-bo'am might dwell in Egypt),^d 3 then they sent and called him. After that Jer-o-bo'am and all the congregation of Israel came and began to speak to Re-ho-bo'am, saying:^e 4 "Your father, for his part, made our yoke hard, and, as for you, now make the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke^f that he put upon us lighter,^g and we shall serve you."^h

5 At this he said to them: "Go away for three days and return to me."ⁱ So the people went away. 6 And King Re-ho-bo'am began to take counsel with the older men^j who had continued attending upon Sol'o-mon his father while he continued alive, saying: "How are you advising to reply to this people?"^k 7 Accordingly they spoke to him, saying: "If today you would prove yourself a servant to this people and actually serve them,^l you must also answer them and speak to them with good words;^m and they will be bound to become your servants always."ⁿ

8 However, he left the counsel of the older men with which they had advised him, and he began to take counsel with the young men that had grown up with him,^o who were the ones attending upon him.^p 9 And he went on to say to them: "What is it that you are offering in counsel^q that we may reply to this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke that your father put upon us lighter'?"^r 10 In turn the young men that had grown up with him spoke to him, saying: "This is what you should say^s to this people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father, for his part, made our yoke heavy, but, as for you, make it lighter upon us'; this is what you should speak to them, 'My little finger itself will certainly be thicker than my father's hips.'^t

11 And now my father, for his part, loaded upon YOU a heavy yoke; but I, for my part, shall add to YOUR yoke.^a My father, for his part, chastised YOU with whips, but I, for my part, shall chastise YOU with scourges.”^{b}

12 And Jer-o-bo'am and all the people proceeded to come to Re-ho-bo'am on the third day, just as the king had spoken, saying: “Return to me on the third day.”^c 13 And the king began to answer the people harshly,^d and to leave the counsel of the older men who had counseled him.^e 14 And he went on to speak to them according to the counsel of the young men,^f saying: “My father, for his part, made YOUR yoke heavy, but I, for my part, shall add to YOUR yoke. My father, for his part, chastised YOU with whips, but I, for my part, shall chastise YOU with scourges.”^g 15 And the king did not listen to the people,^h because the turn of affairs took place at the instance of Jehovah,ⁱ in order that he might indeed carry out his word^j that Jehovah had spoken by means of A-hi'jah^k the Shi'lo-nite to Jer-o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat.

16 When all Israel got to see that the king had not listened to them, then the people replied to the king, saying: “What share do we have in David?^l And there is no inheritance in the son of Jes'se. To your gods,^m O Israel. Now see to your own house, O David!”ⁿ With that Israel began to go to their tents. 17 As for the sons of Israel that were dwelling in the cities of Judah, Re-ho-bo'am continued to reign over them.^o

18 Subsequently King Re-ho-bo'am sent A-do'ram,^p who was over those conscripted for forced labor,^q but all Israel pelted him with stones,^r so that he died. And King Re-ho-bo'am himself managed to get up into the chariot to flee to Jerusalem. 19 And the Israelites kept up their revolt^a against the house of David down to this day.^b

20 And it came about that as soon as all Israel heard that Jer-o-bo'am had returned, they at once sent and called him to the assembly^{*} and made him king over all Israel.^c None became a follower of the house of David except the tribe of Judah by itself.^d

21 When Re-ho-bo'am arrived at Jerusalem,^e he immediately congregated all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin,^f a hundred and eighty thousand choice men able-bodied for war,^{} to fight against the house of Israel, so as to bring the kingship back to Re-ho-bo'am the son of Sol'o-mon. 22 Then the word of the [true] God^{} came to She-mai'ah^g the man of the [true] God,^h saying: 23 “Say to Re-ho-bo'am the son of Sol'o-mon the king of Judah and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin and the rest of the people, 24 ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “You must not go up and fight against YOUR brothers the sons of Israel.ⁱ Go back each one to his house, for it is at the instance of myself that this thing has been brought about.”’”^j So they obeyed the word of Jehovah,^k and went back home according to the word of Jehovah.^l

25 And Jer-o-bo'am proceeded to build She'chem^m in the mountainous region of E'phra-im and to dwell in it. Then he went forth from there and built Pe-nu'-el.ⁿ 26 And Jer-o-bo'am began to say in his heart:^o “Now the kingdom will return to the house of David.” 27 If this people continues going up to render sacrifices in the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem,^q the heart of this people will also be bound to return to their lord,^{*} Re-ho-bo'am the king of Judah; and they will certainly kill me^r and return to Re-ho-bo'am the king of Judah.”

28 Consequently the king took counsel^s and made two golden calves^t and said to the people: "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Here is your God,^a O Israel, that brought you up out of the land of Egypt."^b 29 Then he placed the one in Beth'el,^c and the other he put in Dan.^d 30 And this thing came to be a cause for sin,^e and the people began to go before the one as far as Dan.

31 And he began to make a house of high places^f and to make priests from the people in general, who did not happen to be of the sons of Le'vi.^g 32 And Jer-o-bo'am went on to make a festival in the eighth month on the fifteenth day of the month, like the festival that was in Judah,^h that he might make offerings upon the altar that he had made in Beth'el, to sacrifice to the calves that he had made; and he put in attendance at Beth'elⁱ the priests of the high places that he had made. 33 And he began to make offerings upon the altar that he had made in Beth'el on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, in the month that he had invented by himself;^j and he proceeded to make a festival for the sons of Israel and to make offerings upon the altar to make sacrificial smoke.^k

13 And here there was a man^l of God* that had come out of Judah by the word^m of Jehovah to Beth'el, while Jer-o-bo'am was standing by the altarⁿ to make sacrificial smoke.^o 2 Then he called out against the altar by the word of Jehovah and said: "O altar, altar, this is what Jehovah has said, 'Look! A son born to the house of David, whose name is Jo-si'ah!^p And he will certainly sacrifice upon you the priests of the high places that are making sacrificial smoke upon you, and men's bones he* will burn upon you.'"^q 3 And he gave a portent^r on that day, saying: "This is the portent of which

4 And it came about that, as soon as the king heard the word of the man of the [true] God* that he had called out against the altar in Beth'el, Jer-o-bo'am at once thrust out his hand from off the altar, saying: "You men, grab hold of him!"^a Immediately his hand that he had thrust out against him became dried up, and he was not able to draw it back to himself.^b 5 And the altar itself was ripped apart so that the fatty ashes were spilled out from the altar, according to the portent that the man of the [true] God had given by the word of Jehovah.^c

6 The king now answered and said to the man of the [true] God: "Softened, please, the face of Jehovah your God and pray in my behalf that my hand may be restored to me."^d At this the man of the [true] God softened^e the face of Jehovah, so that the king's hand was restored to him, and it came to be as at first.^f 7 And the king went on to say to the man of the [true] God: "Do come with me to the house and take sustenance,^g and let me give you a gift."^h 8 But the man of the [true] God said to the king: "If you gave me half of your houseⁱ I would not come with you^j and eat bread or drink water in this place. 9 For that is the way he commanded me by the word of Jehovah, saying, 'You must not eat bread^k or drink water, and you must not return by the way that you went.'" 10 And he began to go by another way, and he did not return by the way by which he had come to Beth'el.

11 And a certain old prophet^l was dwelling in Beth'el, and his sons* now came in and related to him all the work that the man of the [true] God had done that day in Beth'el [and] the words that he had spoken to the king, and they went on relating them to their father. 12 Then their father spoke to them:

"Which way, then, did he go?" So his sons showed him the way that the man of the [true] God that had come out of Judah had gone. 13 He now said to his sons: "Saddle the ass for me." Accordingly they saddled the ass^a for him, and he went riding on it.

14 And he went following the man of the [true] God and got to find him sitting under the big tree.^b Then he said to him: "Are you the man of the [true] God who has come out of Judah?"^c to which he said: "I am." 15 And he went on to say to him: "Go with me to the house and eat bread." 16 But he said: "I am not able to go back with you or to come in with you, and I may not eat bread or drink water with you in this place."^d 17 For it has been spoken to me by the word of Jehovah,^e "You must not eat bread or drink water there. You must not go back again by the way by which you went."^f 18 At this he said to him: "I too am a prophet like you, and an angel^g himself spoke to me by the word of Jehovah, saying, 'Have him come back with you to your house that he may eat bread and drink water.'" (He deceived him.)^h 19 So he went back with him that he might eat bread in his house and drink water.ⁱ

20 And it came about, while they were sitting at the table, that the word^j of Jehovah came to the prophet that had brought him back; 21 and he began to call out to the man of the [true] God that had come out of Judah, saying: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'For the reason that you rebelled^k against the order of Jehovah and did not keep the commandment with which Jehovah your God commanded you,^l 22 but you went back that you might eat bread and drink water in the place about which he spoke to you: "Do not eat bread or drink water," your dead body will not come into the burial place of your forefathers."^m er a lion^a found him on the road and put him to death,^b and his dead body came to be thrown onto the road. And the ass was standing beside it, and the lion was standing beside the dead body. 25 And here there were men passing by, so that they got to see the dead body thrown onto the road and the lion standing beside the dead body. Then they came in and spoke of it in the city in which the old prophet was dwelling.

26 When the prophet that had brought him back from the way heard of it, he immediately said: "It is the man of the [true] God that rebelled against the order of Jehovah;^c and so Jehovah gave him to the lion, that he might crush him and put him to death, according to the word of Jehovah that he spoke to him."^d 27 And he went on to speak to his sons, saying: "Saddle the ass for me." So they saddled it.^e 28 Then he got on his way and found the dead body of him thrown onto the road with the ass and the lion standing beside the dead body. The lion had not eaten the dead body, nor had it crushed the ass.^f 29 And the prophet proceeded to lift up the dead body of the man of the [true] God and to deposit him upon the ass and to bring him back. Thus he came into the city of the old prophet to bewail and bury him. 30 Accordingly he deposited his dead body in his own burial place; and they kept wailing over him:^g "Too bad, my brother!" 31 And it came about after his burying him that he went on to say to his sons: "When I die you must bury me in the burial place in which the man of the [true] God is buried. Beside his bones deposit my own bones."^h 32 For without fail the word that he called out by the word of Jehovah against the altarⁱ that is in Beth'el and against all the houses of the high places^j that are in the cities of Sa-mar'i-a^k will take place."^l

33 After this thing Jer-o-bo'am did not turn back from his bad way, but he again went making priests of high places from the people in general.^m As for anyone delighting in it, he would fill his hand with power,^a [saying]: "And let him become [one of the] priests[#] of high places." 34 And in this thing there came to be a cause of sin on the part of the household of Jer-o-bo'am^b and an occasion for effacing them and annihilating them off the surface of the ground.^c

14 At that particular time A-bi'jah the son of Jer-o-bo'am fell sick.^d 2 So Jer-o-bo'am said to his wife: "Rise up, please, and you must disguise^e yourself that they may not know that you are the wife of Jer-o-bo'am, and you must go to Shi'loh. Look! There is where A-hi'jah^f the prophet is. He is the one that spoke with reference to me as to becoming king^{*} over this people.^g 3 And you must take in your hand ten loaves of bread^h and sprinkled cakes and a flaskⁱ of honey, and you must come in to him.^j He it is that will certainly tell you what is going to happen to the boy."^k

4 And the wife of Jer-o-bo'am proceeded to do so. Consequently she rose up and went to Shi'loh^l and came to the house of A-hi'jah. Now A-hi'jah^{*} himself was unable to see, for his eyes had set because of his age.^m

5 And Jehovah himself had said to A-hi'jah: "Here is the wife of Jer-o-bo'am coming to apply for a word from you regarding her son; for he is sick. This way and that is how you should speak to her. And it will occur^{*} that as soon as she arrives, she will be making herself unrecognizable."ⁿ

6 And it came about that as soon as A-hi'jah heard the sound of her feet as she was coming into the entrance, he began to say: "Come in, you wife of Jer-o-bo'am.^o Why is it that you are making yourself unrecognizable while I am being sent to you with a severe message? 7 Go, say to Jer-o-bo'am, 'This

Here I have sent you a present^f of silver and gold. Come, do break your covenant with Ba'a-sha the king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me."^g 20 Accordingly Ben-ha'dad listened to King A'sa and sent the chiefs of the military forces that were his against the cities of Israel and went striking down I'jon^h and Danⁱ and A'bel-beth-ma'a-cah^j and all Chin'ne-reth, as far as all the land of Naph'ta-li.^k 21 And it came about that as soon as Ba'a-sha heard of it, he immediately quit building Ra'mah^l and continued dwelling in Tir'-zah.^m 22 And King A'sa, for his part, summoned all Judahⁿ—there was none exempt—and they proceeded to carry the stones of Ra'mah and the timbers of it, with which Ba'a-sha had been building; and King A'sa began to build with them Ge'ba^o in Benjamin, and Miz'pah.^p

5 As for the rest of the affairs of Ba'a-sha and what he did and his mightiness, are they not written in the book^c of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 6 Finally Ba'a-sha lay down with his forefathers and was buried in Tir'zah;^d and E'lah his son began to reign in place of him. 7 And also by means of Je'hu the son of Ha-na'ni the prophet, Jehovah's word itself had come against Ba'a-sha and his house,^e both because of all the badness that he committed in the eyes of Jehovah by offending^f him with the work of his hands,^g that it might become like the house of Jer-o-bo'am, and because he struck him* down.^h

8 In the twenty-sixth year of A'sa the king of Judah, E'lah the son of Ba'a-sha became king over Israel in Tir'zah for two years. 9 And his servant Zim'ri the chief of half the chariots began to conspire against him, while he was in Tir'zah drinking^j himself drunk at the house of Ar'za, who was over the household^k in Tir'zah. 10 And Zim'ri proceeded to come in and strike him down^l and put him to death in the twenty-seventh year of A'sa the king of Judah, and he began to reign in place of him.

11 And it came about that when he began to reign, as soon as he sat down upon his throne, he struck down all the house of Ba'a-sha. He did not let anyone of his remain that urinates against a wall*^m or his avengers of bloodⁿ and his friends. 12 Thus Zim'ri annihilated the whole house of Ba'a-sha,^o according to the word of Jehovah^p that he had spoken against Ba'a-sha by means of Je'hu the prophet,^q 13 on account of all the sins of Ba'a-sha and the sins of E'lah^r his son with which they sinned and with which they caused Israel to sin by offending Jehovah the God of Israel with their vain idols.^a 14 As for the rest of the affairs of E'lah and all that he did, are they not written in the book^b of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel?

15 In the twenty-seventh year of A'sa the king of Judah, Zim'ri became king for seven days^c in Tir'zah, while the people were encamping against Gib'bethon,^d which belonged to the Philis'tines. 16 In time the people that were encamped heard it said: "Zim'ri has conspired and also stricken down the king." So all Israel made Om'ri,^e the chief of the army, king over Israel on that day in the camp. 17 Om'ri and all Israel with him now went on up from Gib'bethon and began to lay siege^f to Tir'zah. 18 And it came about that as soon as Zim'ri saw that the city had been captured, he then came into the dwelling tower of the king's house and burned the king's house over himself with fire, so that he died,^g 19 for the sins of his with which he had sinned by doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah^h by walking in the way of Jer-o-bo'am and in his sin which he did by causing Israel to sin.ⁱ 20 As for the rest of the affairs of Zim'ri and his conspiracy with which he conspired, are they not written in the book^j of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel?

21 It was then that the people of Israel began to divide themselves into two parts.^k There was one part of the people that became followers of Tib'ni the son of Gi'nath, to make him king, and the other part followers of Om'ri. 22 Finally the people that were following Om'ri overcame the people that were following Tib'ni the son of Gi'nath; so that Tib'ni met death, and Om'ri began to reign.

23 In the thirty-first year of A'sa the king of Judah, Om'ri became king^{*} over Israel for twelve years. In Tir'zah he reigned six years. 24 And he proceeded to buy the mountain of Sa-

2 The word^h of Jehovah now came to him, saying: 3 "Go away from here, and you must turn your way eastward and concealⁱ yourself at the torrent valley of Che'rith that is east of the Jordan. 4 And it must occur that from the torrent valley you should drink,^j and the ravens^k I shall certainly command to supply you food there."^l 5 Immediately he went and did according to the word of Jehovah,^m and so went and took up dwelling by the torrent valley of Che'rith that is east of* the Jordan. 6 And the ravens themselves were bringing him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and from the torrent valley he kept drinking.ⁿ 7 But it came about at the end of some days that the torrent valley became dry,^o because there had occurred no downpour upon the earth.

said: "As Jehovah your God is living,^a I have no round cake,^{*b} but a handful^c of flour in the large jar and a little oil^d in the small jar; and here I am gathering up a few^e pieces of wood, and I must go in and make something for myself and my son, and we shall have to eat it and die."^e

13 Then E-li'jah said to her: "Do not be afraid.^f Go in, do according to your word. Only from what is there make me a small round cake first,^g and you must bring it out to me, and for yourself and your son you can make something afterward. 14 For this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, "The large jar of flour itself will not get exhausted, and the small jar of oil itself will not fail until the day of Jehovah's giving a downpour upon the surface of the ground."^h 15 So she went and did according to E-li'jah's word; and she continued to eat, she together with him and her household, for days.ⁱ 16 The large jar of flour itself did not get exhausted, and the small jar of oil itself did not fail,^j according to Jehovah's word that he had spoken by means of E-li'jah.

17 And it came about after these things that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick, and his sickness came to be so severe that there was no breath left in him.^k 18 At this she said to E-li'jah: "What do I have to do with you,^{l} O man of the [true] God? You have come to me to bring my error to mind^m and to put my son to death."ⁿ 19 But he said to her:^{} "Give me your son." Then he took him from her bosom and carried him up to the roof chamber,^o where he was dwelling, and laid him upon his own couch.^o 20 And he began calling to Jehovah and saying: "O Jehovah my God,^p is it also upon the widow with whom I am residing as an alien that you must bring injury by putting her son to death?" 21 And he proceeded to stretch himself upon the child^a three times and call to Jehovah and say: "O Jehovah my God, please, cause the soul^b of this child to come back within him." 22 Finally Jehovah listened to E-li'jah's voice,^c so that the soul of the child came back within him and he came to life.^d 23 E-li'jah now took the child and brought him down from the roof chamber into the house and gave him to his mother; and E-li'jah then said: "See, your son is alive."^e 24 Upon that the woman said to E-li'jah: "Now, indeed, I do know that you are a man of God^f and that Jehovah's word in your mouth is true."^g

18 And it came about [after] many days^h that Jehovah's own word came to E-li'jah in the third year, saying: "Go, show yourself to A'hab, as I am determined to give rain* upon the surface of the ground."ⁱ 2 Accordingly E-li'jah went to show himself to A'hab, while the famine was severe^j in Sa-mar'i'a.

3 Meantime, A'hab called O-ba-di'ah,* who was over the household.^k (Now O-ba-di'ah himself had proved to be one greatly fearing^l Jehovah. 4 Hence it came about that when Jez'e-bel^m cut off Jehovah's prophets,ⁿ O-ba-di'ah proceeded to take a hundred prophets and keep them hid by fifties in a cave, and he supplied them bread and water.)^o 5 And A'hab went on to say to O-ba-di'ah: "Go through the land to all the springs of water and to all the torrent valleys. Perhaps we may find green grass,^p that we may preserve the horses and mules alive and may not have [any more] of the beasts cut off."^q 6 So they divided between themselves the land through which to pass. A'hab himself went alone by one way, and O-ba-di'ah himself went alone by another way.^r

7 As O-ba-di'ah continued on the way, why, there was E-li'jah to meet him.^s At once he recognized him and fell upon his face^t and said: "Is this you, my lord^u E-li'jah?" 8 At this he said to him:

"It is I. Go, say to your lord,^a 'Here is E-li'jah.'" 9 But he said: "What sin^b have I committed that you should be putting your servant into the hand of A'hab to put me to death?" 10 As Jehovah your God is living,^c there is not a nation or kingdom where my lord has not sent to look for you. After they had said, 'He is not [here];' he made the kingdom and the nation swear that they could not find you.^d 11 And now you are saying, 'Go, say to your lord: "Here is E-li'jah."'^e 12 And it is bound to occur that, when I myself go from you, then the spirit^f of Jehovah itself will carry you away to where I shall not know; and I shall have come to tell A'hab, and he will not find you, and he will be bound to kill^g me, as your servant himself has feared Jehovah from his youth.^h 13 Has not my lord been told what I did when Jez'e-bel killed the prophets of Jehovah, how I kept some of the prophets of Jehovah hid, a hundred men by fifties in a cave,ⁱ and kept supplying them bread and water?"^j 14 And now you are saying, 'Go, say to your lord: "Here is E-li'jah."'^k And he will be bound to kill me."^l 15 However, E-li'jah said: "As Jehovah of armies^k before whom I do stand* is living,ⁱ to-day I shall show myself to him."

16 Accordingly O-ba-di'ah went off to meet A'hab and told him; and so A'hab went to meet E-li'jah.

17 And it came about that, as soon as A'hab saw E-li'jah, A'hab immediately said to him: "Is this you, the bringer of ostracism upon Israel?"^m

18 To this he said: "I have not brought ostracismⁿ upon Israel, but you and the house of your father have,^o because you men have left the commandments of Jehovah,^p and you went following the Ba'als.^q 19 And now send, collect together all Israel to me at Mount Car'mel^r and also the four hundred and fifty prophets of Ba'al^s and the four hundred prophets of the sacred pole,^t who are eating at the table of Jez'e-bel."^u

21 Then E-li'jah approached all the people and said: "How long will you be limping upon two different opinions?"b If Jehovah is the [true] God,[#] go following him;^c but if Ba'al is, go following him." And the people did not say a word in answer to him. 22 And E-li'jah went on to say to the people: "I myself have been left as a prophet of Jehovah,^d I alone, while the prophets of Ba'al are four hundred and fifty men. 23 Now let them give us two young bulls, and let them choose for themselves one young bull and cut it in pieces and put it upon the wood, but they should not put fire to it. And I myself shall dress the other young bull, and I must place it upon the wood, but I shall not put fire to it. 24 And you must call upon the name of YOUR god,^e and I, for my part, shall call upon the name of Jehovah; and it must occur that the [true] God[#] that answers by fire^f is the [true] God."^g To this all the people answered and said: "The thing is good."

25 E-li'jah now said to the prophets of Ba'al:* "Choose for yourselves one young bull and dress it first, because you are the majority; and call upon the name of YOUR god, but you must not put fire to it." 26 Accordingly they took the young bull that he gave them. Then they dressed it, and they kept calling upon the name of Ba'al from morning till noon, saying: "O Ba'al, answer us!" But there was no voice,^h and there was no one answering.ⁱ And they kept limping around the altar that they had made. 27 And it came about at noon that E-li'jah began to mock^a them and say: "Call at the top of YOUR voice,* for he is a god;^b for he must be concerned with a matter, and he has excrement^c and has to go to the privy.^d Or maybe he is asleep and ought to wake up!"^e 28 And they began calling at the top of their voice and cutting^f themselves according to their custom with daggers and with lances, until they caused blood to flow out upon them. 29 And it came about that, as soon as noon was past and they continued behaving as prophets^g until the going up of the grain offering, there was no voice, and there was no one answering, and there was no paying of attention.^h

30 At length E-li'jah said to all the people: "Approach me." So all the people approached him. Then he proceeded to mend the altar of Jehovah that was torn down.ⁱ 31 So E-li'jah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom Jehovah's word had come,^j saying: "Israel is what your name will become."^k 32 And he went on to build the stones into an altar^l in the name of Jehovah^m and to make a trench, of about the area sowed with two seah* measures of seed, all around the altar. 33 After that he put the pieces of woodⁿ in order and cut the young bull in pieces and placed it upon the pieces of wood. He now said: "FILL four large jars with water and pour it upon the burnt offering and upon the pieces of wood." 34 Then he said: "Do it again." So they did it again. But he said: "Do it a third time." So they did it a third time. 35 Thus the water went all around the altar, and the trench also he filled with water.

36 And it came about at the time^o that the grain offering goes up that E-li'jah the prophet began to approach and say: "O Jehovah, the God of Abraham,^p Isaac^q and Israel,^r today let it be known that you are God in Israel^s and I am your servant and it is by your word^t that I have done all these things.

1Ki 18:27* Lit., "Call with a great voice." 32* A seah equaled 7.33 L (6.66 dry qt).

37 Answer me, O Jehovah, answer me, that this people may know that you, Jehovah,^a are the [true] God* and you yourself have turned their heart back.”^b

38 At that the fire^c of Jehovah came falling and went eating up the burnt^d offering and the pieces of wood and the stones and the dust, and the water that was in the trench it licked up.^e

39 When all the people saw it, they immediately fell upon their faces^f and said: “Jehovah is the [true] God! Jehovah is the [true] God!” 40 Then E-li-jah said to them: “Seize the prophets of Ba’al! Do not let a single one of them escape!” At once they seized them, and E-li-jah then brought them down to the torrent valley of Ki’shon^g and slaughtered them there.^h

41 E-li-jah now said to A’hab: “Go up, eat and drink;ⁱ for there is the sound of the turmoil of a downpour.”^j 42 And A’hab proceeded to go up to eat and drink. As for E-li-jah, he went up to the top of Car’mel and began crouching to the earth^k and keeping his face put between his knees.^l 43 Then he said to his attendant: “Go up, please. Look in the direction of the sea.” So he went up and looked and then said: “There is nothing at all.” And he went on to say, “Go back,” for seven times.^m 44 And it came about at the seventh time that he got to say: “Look! There is a small cloud like a man’s palm ascending out of the sea.”ⁿ He now said: “Go up, say to A’hab, ‘Hitch up!’^o And go down that the downpour may not detain you!” 45 And it came about in the meantime that the heavens themselves darkened up with clouds and wind^p and a great downpour began to occur.^q And A’hab kept riding and made his way to Jez’re-el.^r 46 And the very hand of Jehovah proved to be upon E-li-jah,^s so that he girded up his hips^t and went running ahead of A’hab all the way to Jez’re-el.^u

19 Then A’hab^a told Jez’e-bel^b all that E-li-jah had done and all about how he had killed all the prophets with the sword.^c 2 At that Jez’e-bel sent a messenger to E-li-jah, saying: “So may the gods* do,^d and so may they add to it,^e if at this time tomorrow I shall not make your soul like the soul of each one of them!” 3 And he became afraid.* Consequently he rose up and began to go for his soul^f and came to Be’er-she’ba,^g which belongs to Judah.^h Then he left his attendant behind there. 4 And he himself went into the wilderness a day’s journey, and at length came and sat down under a certain broom tree.ⁱ And he began to ask that his soul might die and to say: “It is enough! Now, O Jehovah, take my soul away,^j for I am no better than my forefathers.”

5 Finally he lay down and fell asleep under the broom^k tree. But, look! now an angel^l was touching^m him. Then he said to him: “Rise up, eat.” 6 When he looked, why, there at his head was a round cakeⁿ upon heated stones and a jug of water. And he began to eat and drink, after which he lay down again. 7 Later the angel^o of Jehovah came back a second time and touched him and said: “Rise up, eat, for the journey is too much for you.”^p 8 So he rose up and ate and drank, and he kept going in the power of that nourishment for forty days^q and forty nights as far as the mountain of the [true] God, Ho’reb.^r

9 There he finally entered into a cave,^s that he might spend the night there; and, look! there was Jehovah’s word for him, and it went on to say to him: “What is your business here, E-li-jah?” 10 To this he said: “I have been absolutely jealous^t for Jehovah the God of armies; for the sons of Israel have left your covenant,^u your altars and found E-li’sha the son of Sha’phat while he was plowing^a with twelve spans before him, and he with the twelfth. So E-li’jah crossed over to him and threw his official garment^b upon him. 20 At that he left the bulls and went running after E-li’jah and said: “Let me, please, kiss my father and my mother.”^c Then I will go following you.” At this he said to him: “Go, return; for what have I done to you?” 21 So he returned from following him and then took a span of the bulls and sacrificed^d them, and with the implements^e of the bulls he boiled their flesh and then gave it to the people, and they proceeded to eat. After that he rose up and went following E-li’jah and began to minister^f to him.

20* As for Ben-ha’dad^g the king of Syria, he collected all his military forces together and also thirty-two kings with him^h and horsesⁱ and chariots,^j and he proceeded to go up and lay siege^k to Sa-mar’ia^l and fight against it. 2 Then he sent messengers^m to A’hab the king of Israel at the city. And he went on to say to him: “This is what Ben-ha’dad has said, 3 ‘Your silver and your gold are mine, and your wives and your sons, the best looking, are mine.’”ⁿ 4 To this the king of Israel answered and said: “According to your word, my lord the king, yours I am with all that belongs to me.”^o

5 Later the messengers came back and said: “This is what Ben-ha’dad has said, ‘I sent to you, saying: “Your silver and your gold and your wives and your sons you will give me. 6 But about this time tomorrow I shall send my servants to you, and they must carefully search your house and the houses of your servants; and it must occur that everything desirable^p to your eyes they will put in their hand, and they must take it away.”’”

7 At that the king of Israel called all the older men of the land^q and said: “Take note, please, and see that it is calamity that this one is seeking;^a for he sent to me for my wives and my sons and my silver and my gold, and I did not hold them back from him.”

8 Then all the older men and all the people said to him: “Do not obey, and you should not consent.” 9 So he said to the messengers of Ben-ha’dad: “Say to my lord the king, ‘All that you sent to your servant at first I shall do; but this thing I am not able to do.’” With that the messengers went off and brought word back to him.

10 Ben-ha’dad now sent to him and said: “So may the gods^b do to me, and so may they add to it,^c if the dust of Samar’ia will be sufficient for handfuls for all the people that follow me!”^d
11 In turn the king of Israel answered and said: “You men, speak [to him], ‘Do not let one girding^e on boast about himself like one unfastening.’”^f 12 And it came about that as soon as he heard this word, while he himself and the kings were drinking^g in the booths, he immediately said to his servants: “Get set!” And they began to get set against the city.

13 And, look! a certain prophet approached A’hab the king of Israel^h and then said: “This is what Jehovah* has said,ⁱ ‘Have you seen all this great crowd? Here I am giving it into your hand today, and you will certainly know that I am Jehovah.’”^j 14 Then A’hab said: “By whom?” to which he said: “This is what Jehovah* has said, ‘By the young men of the princes of the jurisdictional districts.’” Finally he said: “Who will open the battle engagement?” to which he said: “You!”

15 And he proceeded to take the count of the young men of the princes of the jurisdictional districts, and they came to be two hundred and thirty-two;^k and after them he took the count of all the people, all the sons of Israel, seven thousand. 16 And they began to go out at noon while Ben-ha’dad was drinking himself drunk^a in the booths, he together with the kings, the thirty-two kings that were helping him. 17 When the young men^b of the princes of the jurisdictional districts came out first, Ben-ha’dad at once sent out; and they came telling him, saying: “There are men that have come out from Samar’ia.” 18 At that he said: “Whether it is for peace that they have come out, you should seize them alive; or whether it is for battle that they have come out, alive is how you should seize them.”^c

19 And these were the ones that came out from the city, the young men of the princes of the jurisdictional districts and the military forces that were behind them. 20 And they began to strike down each one his man; and the Syrians^d took to flight,^e and Israel went in pursuit of them, but Ben-ha’dad the king of Syria got to escape upon a horse together with the horsemen. 21 But the king of Israel went out and kept striking down the horses and the chariots,^f and he struck down the Syrians with a great slaughter.

22 Later the prophet^g approached the king of Israel and said to him: “Go, strengthen yourself^h and take note and see what you are going to do;ⁱ for at the return of the year* the king of Syria is coming up against you.”^j

23 As for the servants of the king of Syria, they said to him: “Their God is a God of mountains.*^k That is why they proved stronger than we were. So, on the other hand, let us fight against them on the level land [and see] whether we shall not prove stronger than they are. 24 And do this thing: Remove the kings^l each one from his place and put in governors instead of them.”^m

25 As for you, you should number a military force for yourself equal to the military force that fell from your side, with horse for horse and chariot for chariot; and let us fight against them on the level land [and see] whether we shall not prove stronger than they are.”^a Accordingly he listened to their voice and did just that way.

26 And it came about at the return of the year that Ben-hadad proceeded to muster the Syrians^b and to go up to A'phek^c for battle against Israel.

27 As for the sons of Israel, they were mustered and supplied^d and began to go out to meet them; and the sons of Israel went into camp in front of them like two tiny flocks of goats, while the Syrians, for their part, filled the earth.^e

28 Then the man of the [true] God^f approached and said to the king of Israel, yes, he went on to say: “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘For the reason that the Syrians have said: “Jehovah is a God* of mountains, and he is not a God of low plains,” I shall have to give all this great crowd into your hand,^g and you men will certainly know that I am Jehovah.’”^h

29 And they continued encamped for seven days, these in front of those.ⁱ And it came about on the seventh day that the engagement in battle began; and the sons of Israel went striking down the Syrians, a hundred thousand men on foot in one day. 30 And those that were left went fleeing to A'phek,^j to the city; and the wall came falling down upon twenty-seven thousand men that were left.^k As for Ben-hadad, he fled^l and finally came into the city into the innermost^m chamber.

31 So his servants said to him: “Here, now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are kings of loving-kindness.ⁿ Please, let us carry sackcloth^o upon our loins^p and ropes upon our heads, and let us go out to the king of Israel. Perhaps he will preserve your soul alive.”^q 32 Accordingly they girded sackcloth about their loins, with ropes upon their heads, and came in to the king of Israel and said: “Your servant Ben-hadad has said, ‘Please, let my soul live.’” To this he said: “Is he still alive? He is my brother.” 33 So the men^r themselves took it as an omen and quickly took it as a decision of his own accord, and they went on to say: “Ben-hadad is your brother.” At that he said: “Come, fetch him.” Then Ben-hadad went out to him; and he at once had him get up into the chariot.^a 34 [Ben-hadad] now said to him: “The cities^b that my father took from your father I shall return; and streets you will assign to yourself in Damascus the same as my father assigned in Samar’ia.”

“And as for me, in a covenant^c I shall send you away.”

With that he concluded a covenant with him and sent him away.

35 And a certain man of the sons of the prophets^d said to his friend by the word^e of Jehovah: “Strike me, please.” But the man refused to strike him.

36 Therefore he said to him: “For the reason that you did not listen to the voice of Jehovah, here you are going away from me, and a lion will certainly strike you down.” After that he went away from beside him, and the lion^f got to find him and strike him down.^g 37 And he went on to find another man and to say: “Strike me, please.” So the man struck him, striking and wounding.*

38 Then the prophet went and stood still for the king by the road, and he kept himself disguised^h with a bandage over his eyes. 39 And it came about that as the king was passing by, he cried out to the king and proceeded to say: “Your servant himself went out into the thick of the battle; and, look! a man was leaving the line, and he came bringing a man to me and then said, ‘Guard this man. If he should in any way be missing, your soulⁱ will also have to take the place of his soul,^k or else a talent* of silver you will weigh out.” 40 And it came about that as your servant was active here and there, why, he himself was gone.” At this the king of Israel said to him: “Thus your own judgment is.

You yourself have decided.”^a 41 Upon that he hurriedly removed the bandage from over his eyes, and the king of Israel got to recognize him, that he was from the prophets.^b 42 He now said to him: “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘For the reason that you have let go out of your hand the man devoted to me for destruction,^c your soul must take the place of his soul,^d and your people the place of his people.’”^e 43 At that the king of Israel went on his way toward his house, sullen and dejected,^f and came to Samar’ia.^g

21 And it came about after these things that there was a vineyard that happened to belong to Na’both the Jez’re-el-ite, which was in Jez’re-el,^h beside the palace of A’hab the king of Samar’ia. 2 So A’hab spoke to Na’both, saying: “Do giveⁱ me your vineyard,^j that it may serve as a garden^k of vegetables^l to me, for it is close by my house; and let me give you in place of it a vineyard better than it. [Or] if it is good in your eyes,^m I will give you money as the price of this.” 3 But Na’both said to A’hab: “It is unthinkableⁿ on my part, from Jehovah’s standpoint,^o for me to give the hereditary possession of my forefathers to you.”^p 4 Consequently A’hab came into his house, sullen and dejected over the word that Na’both the Jez’re-el-ite had spoken to him, when he said: “I shall not give you the hereditary possession of my forefathers.” Then he lay down upon his couch and kept his face turned,^q and he did not eat bread.

5 Finally Jez’e-bel^r his wife came in to him and spoke to him: “Why is it that your spirit is sad^s and you are not eating bread?” 6 At that he spoke to her: “Because I proceeded to speak to Na’both the Jez’re-el-ite and say to him, ‘Do give me your vineyard for money. Or, if you prefer, let me give you another vineyard in place of it.’ But he said, ‘I shall not give you my vineyard.’”^t 7 Then Jez’e-bel his wife said to him: “Is it you that now exercise the kingship over Israel?”^u Rise up, eat bread and let

I myself shall give you the vineyard of Na’both the Jez’re-el-ite.”^a 8 Accordingly she wrote letters^b in A’hab’s name and sealed them with his seal,^c and sent the letters to the older men^d and the nobles that were in his city dwelling with Na’both. 9 But she wrote in the letters, saying:^e “Proclaim a fast, and HAVE Na’both sit at the head of the people. 10 AND MAKE two men,^f good-for-nothing^g fellows,^h sit in front of him, and let them bear witness against him,^h saying, ‘You have cursedⁱ God and the king!’”ⁱ And BRING him out and stone him that he may die.”^j

11 So the men of his city, the older men and the nobles that were dwelling in his city, did just as Jez’e-bel had sent to them, just as it was written in the letters that she had sent to them.^k 12 They proclaimed a fast^l and had Na’both sit at the head of the people. 13 Then two of the men, good-for-nothing fellows, came in and sat down in front of him; and the good-for-nothing men began to bear witness against him, that is, Na’both, in front of the people, saying: “Na’both has cursed^m God and the king!”^m After that they brought him out to the outskirts of the city and stoned him with stones, so that he died.ⁿ 14 They now sent to Jez’e-bel, saying: “Na’both has been stoned so that he is dead.”^o

15 And it came about that, as soon as Jez’e-bel heard that Na’both had been stoned so that he died, Jez’e-bel immediately said to A’hab: “Rise up, take possession of the vineyard of Na’both the Jez’re-el-ite,^p which he refused to give you for money; for Na’both is no longer alive, but dead.” 16 And it came about that, as soon as A’hab heard that Na’both was dead, A’hab at once rose up to go down to the vineyard of Na’-

17 And Jehovah's word^b came to Eli-jah^c the Tish'bite, saying: 18 "Rise up, go down to meet A'hab the king of Israel, who is in Sa-mar'i-a.^d There he is in the vineyard of Na'both, where he has gone down to take possession of it. 19 And you must speak to him, saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Have you murdered^e and also taken possession?"'^f And you must speak to him, saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "In the place^g where the dogs licked up the blood of Na'both, the dogs will lick up your blood, even yours."^h

27 And it came about that as soon as A'hab heard these words, he proceeded to rip his garments apart and to put sackcloth^a upon his flesh; and he went on a fast and kept lying down in sackcloth and walking despondently.^b 28 And Jehovah's word came to Eli'jah the Tish'bite, saying: 29 "Have you seen how A'hab has humbled himself on my account?^c For the reason that he has humbled himself because of me, I shall not bring the calamity in his own days.^d In the days of his son I shall bring the calamity upon his house."^e

22 And for three years they continued dwelling without war between Syria and Israel. 2 And it came about in the third year that Je-hosh'a-phat^f the king of Judah proceeded to go down to the king of Israel. 3 Then the king of Israel said to his servants: "Do you really know that Ra'moth-gil'e-ad^g belongs to us? Yet we are hesitating to take it out of the hand of the king of Syria." 4 And he went on to say to Je-hosh'a-phat: "Will you go with me to the fight at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad?"^h At this Je-hosh'a-phat said to the king of Israel: "I am the same as you. My people are the same as your people.ⁱ My horses are the same as your horses."

5 However, Je-hosh'a-phat went on to say to the king of Israel: "Inquire,^j please, first of all for the word of Jehovah." 6 So the king of Israel collected the prophets together,^k about four hundred men, and said to them: "Shall I go against Ra'moth-gil'e-ad in war, or shall I refrain?" 9 Accordingly the king of Israel called a certain court official^c and said: "Do bring Mi-cai'ah the son of Im'lah quickly."^d 10 Now the king of Israel and Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah were sitting each one on his throne, clothed in garments,^e in the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samar'i-a; and all the prophets were acting as prophets before them.^f 11 Then Zede-ki'ah the son of Che-na'a-nah made for himself horns of iron and said: "This is what Jehovah has said,^g 'With these you will push the Syrians until you exterminate them.'^h" 12 And all the other prophets were prophesying the same as that, saying: "Go up to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad and prove successful; and Jehovah will certainly give it into the king's hand."ⁱ

13 And the messenger that had gone to call Mi-cai'ah spoke to him, saying: "Look, now! The words of the prophets are unanimously* of good to the king. Let your word, please, become like the word of one of them, and you must speak good."^j 14 But Mi-cai'ah said: "As Jehovah is living,^k what Jehovah will say to me, that is what I shall speak."^l 15 Then he came in to the king, and the king proceeded to say to him: "Mi-cai'ah, shall we go to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad in war, or shall we refrain?" At once he said to him: "Go up and prove successful; and Jehovah will certainly give it into the king's hand."^m 16 At that the king said to him: "For how many times am I putting you under oath that you should not speak to me anything but truth in the name of Jehovah?"ⁿ 17 So he said: "I certainly see all the Israelites scattered^o on the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd.^p And Jehovah went on to say: 'These have no

19 And he went on to say: "Therefore hear the word of Jehovah:^c I certainly see Jehovah sitting upon his throne^d and all the army of the heavens standing by him, to his right and to his left."^e

20 And Jehovah proceeded to say, 'Who will fool A'hab, that he may go up and fall at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad?' 29 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah proceeded to go up to Ra'moth-gilead.^c 30 The king of Israel now said to Jehoshaphat: “There will be a disguising and entering* into the battle^d [for me], but you, for your part, put on your garments.”^e Accordingly, the king of Israel disguised^f himself and entered into the battle.^g 31 As for the king of Syria, he had commanded the thirty-two chiefs^h of the chariots that were his, saying: “You must fight, neither with the small nor the great, but with the king of Israel alone.”ⁱ 32 And it came about that, as soon as the chiefs of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they, for their part, said to themselves: “Surely it is the king of Israel.”^j So they turned aside against him to fight; and Jehoshaphat began to cry for aid.^k 33 And it came about that, as soon as the chiefs of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they immediately came back from following him.^l

34 And there was a man that bent the bow in his innocence, but he got to strike the king of Israel between the appendages and the coat of mail, so that he said to his charioteer:^m “Turn your hand around, and take me out from the camp, because I have been badly wounded.” 35 And the battle kept rising in intensity on that day, and the king himself had to be kept in a standing position in the chariot facing the Syrians, and gradually he diedⁿ in the evening; and the blood of the wound kept pouring out upon the interior of the war chariot.^o 36 And the ringing cry* began to pass through the camp about the setting of the sun, saying: “Everyone to his city, and everyone to his land!”^p 37 Thus

1 And Mo'ab^a began to revolt^b against Israel after the death of A'hab.^c

2 Then A-ha-zi'ah fell down^d through the grating in his roof chamber^e that was in Samar'ia and got sick. ¹⁸ As for the rest of A-ha-zi'ah's^c things that he did, are they not written in the book^d of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel?

2 And it came about that when Je-ho-vah was to take E-li'jah^e in a wind-storm up to the heavens,^f E-li'jah and E-li'sha^g proceeded to go from Gil'gal.^h

² And E-li'jah began to say to E-li'sha: "Sit here, please, because Jehovah himself has sent me clear to Beth'el." But E-li'sha said: "As Jehovah is livingⁱ and as your soul is living,^j I will not leave you."^k So they went down to Beth'el.^l

So they came on to Jer'i-cho. ⁵ Then the sons of the prophets that were at Jer'i-cho approached E-li'sha and said to him: "Do you really know that today Jehovah is taking your master from headship over you?" At this he said: "I, too, well know it. BE silent."^q

⁶ E-li'jah now said to him: "Sit here, please, because Jehovah himself has sent me to the Jordan."^r But he said: "As Jehovah is living and as your soul is living, I will not leave you."^s So both of them went on. ⁷ And there were

9 And it came about that as soon as they had gone across E-li'jah himself said to E-li'sha: "Ask what I should do for you before I am taken from you."^d To this E-li'sha said: "Please, that two parts^e in your spirit^f may come to me."^g

10 At that he said: "You have asked^h a difficult thing. If you see me when taken from you, it will happen to you that way; but if [you do] not, it will not happen."ⁱ

Consequently he took hold of his own garments and ripped them into two pieces.ⁿ 13 After that he picked up the official garment^o of E-li'jah that had fallen off him, and went back and stood by the shore of the Jordan. 14 Then he took the official garment of E-li'jah that had fallen off him and struck the waters^p and said: "Where is Jehovah the God of E-li'jah, even He?"^q When he struck the waters, then they were gradually divided this way and that way, so that E-li'sha went across.

him and bowed down^a to him to the earth. 16 And they went on to say to him: "Here, now, there are with your servants fifty men, valiant persons. Let them go, please, and look for your master. It may be that the spirit^b of Jehovah has lifted him up and then thrown him upon one of the mountains or in one of the valleys." But he said: "You must not send them." 17 And they kept urging him until he was embarrassed, so that he said: "Send." They now sent fifty men; and they kept looking for three days, but they did not find him. 18 When they returned to him, he was dwelling in Jer'i-cho.^c Then he said to them: "Did I not say to you, 'Do not go'?"

19 In time the men of the city said to E-li'sha: "Here, now, the situation of the city is good,^d just as my master is seeing; but the water^e is bad, and the land is causing miscarriages."^f 20 At that he said: "Fetch me a small new bowl and put salt in it." So they fetched it for him. 21 Then he went on out to the source of the water and threw salt in it^g and said: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'I do make this water healthful.^h No more will death or any causing of miscarriages result from it.'" 22 And the water continues healed down to this day,ⁱ according to E-li'sha's word that he spoke.

23 And he proceeded to go up from there to Beth'el.^j As he was going up on the way, there were small boys^k that came out from the city and began to jeer^l him and that kept saying to him: "Go up, you baldhead!^m Go up, you baldhead!" 24 Finally he turned behind him and saw them and called down evilⁿ upon them in the name of Jehovah. Then two she-bears^o came out from the woods and went tearing to pieces forty-two children of their number.^p 25 And he kept going from there to Mount Car'mel,^q and from there he returned to Samar'ia.

3 As for Je-ho'ram^a the son of A'hab, he became king over Israel in Samar'ia in the eighteenth year of Je-hosh'a'phat the king of Judah, and he continued to reign for twelve years. 2 And he kept on doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,^b only not like his father^c or like his mother, but he removed the sacred pillar^d of Ba'al that his father had made.^e 3 Only he stuck to the sins of Jer-o-bo'am^f the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin.^g He did not depart from them.

4 As regards Me'sha^h the king of Mo'ab, he became a sheep raiser, and he paid to the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs and a hundred thousand unshorn male sheep.ⁱ 5 And it came about that as soon as A'hab died,^j the king of Mo'ab began to revolt against the king of Israel. 6 Consequently King Je-ho'ram went out on that day from Samar'ia and mustered^k all Israel. 7 He went farther and now sent to Je-hosh'a'phat the king of Judah, saying: "The king of Mo'ab himself has revolted against me. Will you go with me to Mo'ab in war?" To this he said: "I shall go.^l I am the same as you are; my people are the same as your people;^m my horses are the same as your horses."ⁿ 8 And he went on to say: "By which particular way shall we go up?" So he said: "By the way of the wilderness of E'dom."^o

9 And the king of Israel and the king of Judah and the king of E'dom^p proceeded to go, and they kept going their way around for seven days, and there proved to be no water for the camp and for the domestic animals that were following their steps. 10 At length the king of Israel said: "How unfortunate that Jehovah has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Mo'ab!"^q 11 At that Je-hosh'a'phat said:^r "Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah?"^s Then let us inquire of Jehovah through him.^t So one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said: "There is here E-li'sha^u the son of Sha'phat, who poured out water upon the hands of E-li'jah."^a 12 Then Je-hosh'a'phat said: "The word of Jehovah exists with him." Accordingly the king of Israel and Je-hosh'a'phat and the king of E'dom went down to him.

13 And E-li'sha proceeded to say to the king of Israel: "What do I have to do with you?"^b Go to the prophets^c of your father and to the prophets of your mother.^d But the king of Israel said to him: "No, for Jehovah has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Mo'ab."^e 14 To this E-li'sha said: "As Jehovah of armies before whom I do stand^f is living,^g if it were not that it is the face of Je-hosh'a'phat the king of Judah for which I am having consideration,^h I would not look at you or see you."ⁱ 15 And now YOU men fetch me a string-instrument player."^j And it occurred that, as soon as the string-instrument player played, the hand^k of Jehovah came to be upon him. 16 And he went on to say: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Let there be a making^l of this torrent valley full of ditches;^m 17 for this is what Jehovah has said: "You men will not see a wind, and you will not see a downpour; yet that torrent valley will be filled with water,ⁿ and you men will certainly drink [from it],^o you and your livestock and your domestic animals."^p 18 And this will indeed be a trivial thing in the eyes of Jehovah,^q and he will certainly give Mo'ab into your hand.^r 19 And you must strike down every fortified city^s and every choice city, and every good^t tree you should fell,^u and all the springs of water you should stop up, and every good tract of land you should mar with stones."

20 And it came about in the morning,^v at the time of the going up of the grain offering,^w that, look! water was coming from the direction of E'dom, and the land came to be filled with the water.

21 As regards all the Mo'ab-ites, they heard that the kings had come up to fight against them. Consequently they called together [men] from as many as were girding^a on a belt and upward, and they began standing at the boundary. 22 When they got up early in the morning, the sun itself flashed upon the water, so that the Mo'ab-ites from the opposite side saw the water red like blood. 23 And they began to say: "This is blood! The kings have unquestionably been put to the sword, and they went striking one another down. So now, to the spoil,^b O Mo'ab!" 24 When they came into the camp of Israel, the Israelites^c immediately rose up and began striking the Mo'ab-ites down so that they took to flight from before them.^d Hence they came into Mo'ab,^e striking the Mo'ab-ites down as they came.^f 25 And the cities they went throwing down,^g and, as for every good tract of land, they would pitch each one his stone and actually fill it; and every spring of water they would stop^h up, and every good tree they would fell,ⁱ until they left only the stones of Kir-har'e-se^h remaining in it; and the slingers began going around it and striking it down.

26 When the king of Mo'ab saw that the battle had proved too strong for him, he at once took with him seven hundred men drawing sword to break through to the king of E'dom;ⁱ but they were not able to. 27 Finally he took his firstborn son who was going to reign in place of him and offered^j him up as a burnt sacrifice upon the wall. And there came to be great indignation against Israel, so that they pulled away from against him and returned to their land.

4 Now there was a certain woman of the wives of the sons^k of the prophets that cried out to E-li'sha, saying: "Your servant, my husband, is dead; and you yourself well know that your own servant had continually feared^a Jehovah, and the creditor^b himself has come to take both my children for his slaves." 2 At this E-li'sha said to her: "What shall I do for you?^c Tell me; what do you have in the house?" To this she said: "Your maidservant has nothing at all in the house but a spouted jar of oil."^d 3 Then he said: "Go, ask for vessels for yourself from outside, from all your neighbors, empty vessels. Do not hold yourself to a few. 4 And you must go and close the door behind yourself and your sons, and you must pour out into all these vessels, and the full ones you should set aside." 5 Upon that she went away from him.

When she closed the door behind herself and her sons, they were bringing [the vessels]* near to her, and she was doing the pouring out.^e 6 And it came about that as soon as the vessels were full she went on to say to her son: "Do bring still another vessel near to me."^f But he said to her: "There is no other vessel." At that the oil stopped.^g 7 So she came in and told the man of the [true] God, and he now said: "Go, sell the oil and pay off your debts,^h and you [and] your sons should live from what is left."ⁱ

8 And it came about one day that E-li'sha went passing along to Shu'nem,^j where there was a prominent woman, and she began to constrain^k him to eat bread. And it came about that as often as he would pass by, he would turn aside there to eat bread. 9 At length she said to her husband:^l "Here, now, I well know that it is a holy man of God^m that is passing by us constantly. 10 Please, let us make a little roof chamberⁿ on the wall and put there for him a couch and a table and a chair and a lampstand;^o and it must occur that whenever he comes in to us he can turn aside there."^p

11 And it came about one day that as usual he came in there and turned aside to the roof chamber and lay down there. 12 So he said to Ge-ha'zi^q his attendant: "Call this Shu'nam-mite^r woman."

2Ki 4:5* Lit., "them."

At that he called her that she might stand before him. 13 Then he said to him: "Please, say to her, 'Here you have restricted yourself for us with all this restriction.^a What is there to be done for you?'^b Is there anything to speak to the king^c or to the chief^d of the army for you?" To this she said: "In among my own people I am dwelling."^e 14 And he went on to say: "What, then, is there to be done for her?" Ge-ha'zi now said: "For a fact, a son she does not have,^f and her husband is old."^g 15 Immediately he said: "Call her." So he called her, and she kept standing at the entrance. 16 Then he said: "At this appointed time next year* you will be embracing a son."^h But she said: "No, my master, O man of the [true] God! Do not tell lies in connection with your maidservant."

17 However, the woman became pregnant and gave birth to a sonⁱ at this appointed time the next year, just as E-li'sha had spoken to her.^j 18 And the child kept on growing up, and it came about one day that he went out as usual to his father with the reapers.^k 19 And he kept saying to his father: "My head, O my head!"^l At last he said to the attendant: "Carry him to his mother."^m 20 Accordingly he carried him and brought him to his mother. And he kept sitting upon her knees until noon, and gradually he died.ⁿ 21 Then she went up and laid him upon the couch^o of the man of the [true] God^p and closed the door upon him and went out. 22 She now called her husband and said: "Do send me, please, one of the attendants and one of the she-asses, and let me run as far as the man of the [true] God and return."^q 23 But he said: "Why are you going to him today? It is not a new moon^r nor a sabbath." However, she said: "It is all right." 24 So she saddled up the she-ass^s and said to her attendant: "Drive and go ahead. Do not hold back for my sake from riding unless I shall have said so to you."

25 And she proceeded to go and come to the man of the [true] God at Mount Car'mel. And it came about that, as soon as the man of the [true] God saw her out ahead, he immediately said to Ge-ha'zi his attendant:^a "Look! The Shu'-nam-mite woman over there. 26 Now run, please, to meet her and say to her, 'Is it all right with you? Is it all right with your husband? Is it all right with the child?'" To this she said: "It is all right." 27 When she came to the man of the [true] God at the mountain, she at once took hold of him by his feet.^b At this Ge-ha'zi came near to push her away,^c but the man of the [true] God^d said: "Let her alone,^e for her soul is bitter^f within her; and Jehovah himself has hidden^g it from me and not told me." 28 She now said: "Did I ask for a son through my lord? Did I not say, 'You must not lead me to a false hope?'"^h

29 Immediately he said to Ge-ha'zi:ⁱ "Gird up your loins^j and take my staff^k in your hand and go. In case you encounter anyone, you must not greet him;^l and in case anyone should greet you, you must not answer him. And you must place my staff upon the face of the boy."^m 30 At this the mother of the boy said: "As Jehovah is livingⁿ and as your soul is living,^o I will not leave you."^p Therefore he got up and went with her.* 31 And Ge-ha'zi himself passed along before them and then put the staff upon the boy's face, but there was no voice nor paying of attention.^q So he went back to meet him and told him, saying: "The boy did not wake up."^r

32 At last E-li'sha came into the house, and there the boy was dead, being laid upon his couch.^s 33 Then he came in and closed the door behind them both^t and began to pray to Jehovah.^u 34 Finally he went up and lay down upon the child^v and put his own mouth upon his mouth and his own eyes upon his eyes and his own palms upon his palms and kept bent over him, and gradually the child's flesh grew warm. 35 Then he began walking again in the house, once this way and once that way, after which he went up and bent over him. And the boy began to sneeze* as many as seven times, after which the boy opened his eyes.^a 36 He now called Ge-ha'zi and said: "Call this Shu'-nam-mite^b woman." So he called her and she came in to him. Then he said: "Lift up your son."^c 37 And she proceeded to come in and fall at his feet and bow down to him to the earth,^d after which she lifted up her son and went out.^e

38 And Eli'sha himself returned to Gil'gal,^{*f} and there was famine^g in the land. As the sons^h of the prophets were sitting before him,ⁱ he in time said to his attendant:^j "Put the large cooking pot on and boil stew for the sons of the prophets."^k 39 Accordingly a certain one went out to the field to pick mal-lows,^l and he got to find a wild vine and went picking wild gourds from it, his garment full, and then came and sliced them into the stewpot, for they were not acquainted with them. 40 Later they poured it out for the men to eat. And it came about that, as soon as they ate from the stew, they themselves cried out and began saying: "There is death in the pot,^m O man of the [true] God."ⁿ And they were not able to eat. 41 So he said: "FETCH, then, flour." After he threw it into the pot, he went on to say: "Pour out for the people that they may eat." And nothing injurious proved to be in the pot.^o

42 And there was a man that came from Ba'al-shal'i-shah,^p and he came bringing^q to the man of the [true] God bread of the first ripe fruits,^r twenty barley loaves,^s and new grain in his bread bag. Then he said: "Give it to the people that they may eat."^t 43 However, his waiter said: "How shall I put this before a hundred men?"^u To this he said: "Give it to the people that they may eat, for this is what Jehovah has said, 'There will be an eating and a

5 Now a certain Na'a-man,^c the chief of the army of the king of Syria, had become a great man before his lord* and held in esteem,^d because it was by him that Jehovah had given sal-vation^e to Syria;^d and the man himself had proved to be a valiant, mighty man, though a leper.^g 2 And the Syrians, for their part, had gone out as maraud-er bands,^e and they got to take captive from the land of Israel a little girl,^f and she came to be before Na'a-man's wife. 3 In time she said^g to her mistress: "If only my lord were before the prophet^h that is in Sa-mar'i-a! In that case he would recover him from his leprosy."ⁱ 4 Subsequently someone came and re-ported to his lord, saying: "It was like this and that that the girl spoke^j who is from the land of Israel."

5 Then the king of Syria said: "Get going! Come, and let me send a letter to the king of Israel." So he proceeded to go and take in his hand^k ten tal-ents of silver and six thousand pieces of gold^l and ten changes of garments.^m 6 And he came bringing the letterⁿ to the king of Israel, saying: "And now at the same time that this letter comes to you, here I do send to you Na'a-man my servant, that you may recover him from his leprosy." 7 And it came about that as soon as the king of Israel read the letter, he immediately ripped^o his garments apart and said: "Am I God,^p to put to death and to preserve alive?^q For this person is sending to me to recover a man from his leprosy; for just take note, please, YOU men, and see

8 And it came about that, as soon as Eli'sha the man of the [true] God heard that the king of Israel had ripped his garments apart,^b he at once sent to the king, saying: “Why did you rip your garments apart? Let him come, please, to me that he may know that there exists a prophet in Israel.”^c 9 So Na'a-man came with his horses and his war chariots and stood at the entrance of the house of Eli'sha. 10 However, Eli'sha sent a messenger to him, saying: “Going there,^e you must bathe^d seven times^e in the Jordan that your flesh may come back to you,ⁱ and be clean.” 11 At this Na'a-man grew indignant^g and began to go away and say: “Here I had said [to myself],^h ‘To me he will come out all the way and will certainly stand and call upon the name of Jehovah his God and move his hand to and fro over the place and actually give the leper recovery.’ 12 Are not the A-ba'nah^{*} and the Phar'par, the rivers of Damascus,ⁱ better than all the waters^j of Israel? Can I not bathe in them and certainly be clean?”^k With that he turned and went away in a rage.^l

13 His servants now approached and spoke to him and said: “My father,^m had it been a great thing that the prophet himself had spoken to you, would you not do it? How much more, then, since he said to you, ‘Bathe and be clean?’”

14 At that he went down and began to plunge^{*} into the Jordan seven times according to the word of the man of the [true] God;ⁿ after which his flesh came back like the flesh of a little boy^o and he became clean.^p

15 Then he went back to the man of the [true] God,^q he with all his camp, and came and stood before him and said: “Here, now, I certainly know that there is no God anywhere in the earth but in Israel.^r And now accept, 20 Then Ge-ha'zi^k the attendant of Eli'sha the man of the [true] God^l said: “Here my master^{} has spared Na'a-man^m this Syrian by not accepting from his hand what he brought. As Jehovah is living,ⁿ I will run after him and take something from him.”^o 21 And Ge-ha'zi went chasing after Na'a-man. When Na'a-man saw someone running after him, he at once got down from his chariot to meet him and then said: “Is all well?”^p 22 To this he said: “All is well. My master^q himself has sent me,^r saying, ‘Look! Just now there have come to me two young men from the mountainous region of E'phraim from the sons of the prophets.^s Do give them, please, a talent^{} of silver and two changes of garments.’”^t 23 At that Na'a-man said: “Go on, take two talents.” And he kept urging^u him and finally bound up two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and gave them to two of his attendants, that they might carry them before him.

mediately took them from their hand and deposited them in the house^a and sent the men away. So off they went. 25 And he himself came in and then stood by his master.^b E-li'sha now said to him: "Where [did you come] from, Ge-ha'zi?" But he said: "Your servant did not go anywhere at all."^c 26 At that he said to him: "Did not my heart itself go along just as the man turned [to get down] off his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to accept silver or to accept garments or olive groves or vineyards or sheep or cattle or men-servants or maidservants?"^d 27 So the leprosy^e of Na'a-man will stick to you and your offspring to time indefinite."^f Immediately he went out from before him, a leper white as snow.^g

6 And the sons^h of the prophets began to say to E-li'sha: "Look, now! The placeⁱ where we are dwelling before you is too cramped^j for us. 2 Let us go, please, as far as the Jordan and take from there each one a beam and make for ourselves^k there a place in which to dwell." So he said: "Go." 3 And a certain one went on to say: "Come on, please, and go with your servants." At that he said: "I myself shall go." 4 Accordingly he went with them, and they finally came to the Jordan and began to cut down the trees.^l 5 And it came about that a certain one was felling his beam, and the axhead^m itself fell into the water. And he began to cry out and say: "Alas, my master," for it was borrowed!"ⁿ 6 Then the man of the [true] God said: "Where did it fall?" So he showed him the place. Immediately he cut off a piece of wood and threw it there and made the axhead float.^p 7 He now said: "Lift it up for yourself." At once he thrust his hand out and took it.

8 And the king of Syria,^q for his part, became involved in war against Israel. Accordingly he took counsel with his servants,^r saying: "At such and such a place you will encamp with me."^s 9 Then the man of the [true] God^t sent to the king of Israel, saying: "Guard yourself against passing by this place,^a because there is where the Syrians are coming down."^b 10 So the king of Israel sent to the place that the man of the [true] God had said to him.^c And he warned^d him, and he kept away from there, not once or twice.

11 Consequently the heart of the king of Syria became enraged over this matter,^e so that he called his servants and said to them: "Will you not tell me who from those who belong to us is for the king of Israel?"^f 12 Then one of his servants said: "None, my lord the king, but it is E-li'sha^g the prophet who is in Israel that tells^h the king of Israel the things that you speak in your inner bedroom."ⁱ 13 So he said: "You men go and see where he is, that I may send and take him."^j Later the report was made to him, saying: "There he is in Do'than."^k 14 Immediately he sent horses and war chariots and a heavy military force^l there; and they proceeded to come by night and close in upon the city.

15 When the minister^m of the man of the [true] God rose early to get up, and went out, why, there a military force was surrounding the city with horses and war chariots. At once his attendant said to him: "Alas, my master!"ⁿ What shall we do?" 16 But he said: "Do not be afraid,^o for there are more who are with us than those who are with them."^p 17 And E-li'sha began to pray^q and say: "O Jehovah, open his eyes,^r please, that he may see." Immediately Jehovah opened the attendant's eyes, so that he saw; and, look! the mountainous region was full of horses and war chariots^s of fire all around E-li'sha.^t

18 When they began to come down to him, E-li'sha went on to pray to Jehovah and say: "Please, strike this nation^u with blindness according to the word of E-li'sha." 19 E-li'sha now said to them: "This is not the way, and this is not the city. Follow me, and let me conduct you to the man you look for." However, he conducted them to Samar'ia.^a 20 And it came about that as soon as they arrived at Samar'ia, Eli'sha then said: "O Jehovah, open the eyes of these that they may see."^b Immediately Jehovah opened their eyes, and they got to see; and here they were in the middle of Samar'ia. 21 The king of Israel now said to Eli'sha as soon as he saw them: "Shall I strike [them] down, shall I strike [them] down,^c my father?"^d 22 But he said: "You must not strike [them] down. Are those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow the ones that you are striking down?"^e Set bread and water before them that they may eat and drink^f and go to their lord." 23 Accordingly he spread a great feast for them; and they began to eat and drink, after which he sent them away and they went to their lord. And not once did the marauding bands^g of the Syrians come again into the land of Israel.

24 And it came about afterward that Ben-ha'dad the king of Syria proceeded to collect all his camp together and to go up and besiege^h Samar'ia. 25 In time a great famine arose in Samar'ia,ⁱ and, look! they were besieging it until an ass's head^j got to be worth eighty silver pieces, and the fourth of a cab* measure of dove's dung^k was worth five silver pieces. 26 And it came about as the king of Israel was passing along upon the wall that a certain woman cried out to him, saying: "Do save, O my lord the king!"^l 27 To this he said: "If Jehovah does not save you, from what [source] shall I save you?"^m either from the threshing floor or from the wine or oil press?" 28 And the king went on to say to her: "What is the matter with you?" So she said: "This very woman said to me, 'Give your son that we may eat him today, and my own son we shall eat tomorrow.'ⁿ 29 Accordingly we boiled^o my son and ate him.^p Then I said to her on the next day, 'Give your son that we may eat him.' But she hid her son."

30 And it came about that as soon as the king heard the woman's words, he immediately ripped^a his garments apart; and as he was passing along upon the wall, the people got to see, and, look! sackcloth was underneath upon his flesh. 31 And he went on to say: "So may God do to me, and so may he add to it, if the head of Eli'sha the son of Sha'phat continues standing upon him today!"^b

32 And Eli'sha was sitting in his own house, and the older men* were sitting with him,^c when he sent a man from before him. Before the messenger could come in to him, he himself said to the older men: "Have you seen how this son of a murderer^d has sent to take off my head? See to it: as soon as the messenger comes, close the door, and you must press him back with the door. Is there not the sound^e of the feet of his lord behind him?" 33 While he was yet speaking with them, here was the messenger* coming down to him, and [the king]* proceeded to say: "Here this is the calamity from Jehovah.^f Why should I wait any longer for Jehovah?"^g

7 Eli'sha now said: "Listen, you men, to the word of Jehovah.^h This is what Jehovah has said, 'Tomorrow about this time a seah* measure of fine flour will be worth a shekel,ⁱ and two seah measures of barley worth a shekel in the gateway of Samar'ia.'^j" 2 At that the adjutant upon whose hand the king was supporting^j himself answered the man of the [true] God and said: "If Jehovah were making floodgates in the heavens,^k could this thing take place?"^l To this he said: "Here you are seeing it with your own eyes,^m but from it you will not eat."ⁿ that happened to be at the entrance of the gate;^a and they began to say the one to the other: "Why are we sitting here until we have died?" 4 If we had said, 'Let us enter the city,' when the famine is in the city, we would also have to die there.^b And if we do sit here, we shall also have to die. So now come and let us invade the camp of the Syrians. If they preserve us alive, we shall live; but if they put us to death, then we shall have to die."^c 5 Accordingly they rose up in the evening darkness to enter the camp of the Syrians; and they got to come as far as the outskirts of the camp of the Syrians, and, look! nobody was there.

6 And Jehovah* himself had caused the camp of the Syrians to hear^d the sound of war chariots, the sound of horses, the sound of a great military force,^e so that they said to one another: "Look! The king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hit'tites^f and the kings of Egypt^g to come against us!" 7 Immediately they got up and went fleeing in the evening darkness^h and leaving their tents and their horsesⁱ and their asses—the camp just as it was—and they kept fleeing for their soul.*^j

8 When these lepers came as far as the outskirts of the camp, they then entered into one tent and began to eat and drink and carry from there silver and gold and garments and go off and stick them away. After that they returned and entered into another tent and carried things from there and went off and stuck them away.^k

9 Finally they began to say the one to the other: "It is not right what we are doing. This day is a day of good news!^l If we are hesitating, and we actually wait until the morning light, guilt must also catch up with us.^m So now come and let us enter and make report at the king's house." 10 So they came and called to the gatekeepersⁿ of the city and reported to them, saying:

"We came into the camp of the Syrians, and, look! there was nobody there nor sound of a man, but only the horses tied and the asses tied and the tents just as they were."^a 11 At once the gatekeepers called out and they reported to the king's house inside.

12 Immediately the king rose up by night and said to his servants:^b "Let me tell you, please, what the Syrians have done to us.^c They well know that we are hungry;^d and so they went out from the camp to hide themselves in the field,^e saying, 'They will come out from the city, and we shall catch them alive, and into the city we shall enter.'"

13 Then one of his servants answered and said: "Let them take, please, five of the remaining horses that have remained in the city.^f Look! They are the same as all the crowd of Israel that have remained in it. Look! They are the same as all the crowd of Israel that have perished.^g And let us send out and see." 14 Accordingly they took two chariots with horses and the king sent them out after the camp of the Syrians, saying: "Go and see." 15 At that they went following them as far as the Jordan; and, look! all the way was full of garments and utensils^h that the Syrians had thrown away as they were hurrying away.ⁱ Then the messengers returned and reported to the king.

16 And the people proceeded to go out and plunder^j the camp of the Syrians; and so a seah measure of fine flour came to be worth a shekel, and two seah measures of barley worth a shekel, according to the word^k of Jehovah. 17 And the king himself had appointed the adjutant upon whose hand he was supporting^l himself to have charge of the gateway; and the people kept trampling^m him in the gateway, so that he died, just as the man of the [true] God had spoken,ⁿ when he spoke at the time that the king came down to him.

18 Thus it came about just as the man of the [true] God had spoken to the king, saying: "Two seah measures of barley worth a shekel and a seah measure of fine flour worth a shekel it will come to be tomorrow at this time in the gateway of Samar'ia.^a 19 But the adjutant answered the man of the [true] God and said: "Even if Jehovah were making floodgates in the heavens, could it take place according to this word?"^b To this he said: "Here you are seeing it with your own eyes, but from it you will not eat."^c 20 Thus it happened to him like that,^d when the people kept trampling^e him in the gateway, so that he died.

8 And Eli'sha himself had spoken to the woman whose son he had revived,^f saying: "Rise up and go, you with your household, and reside as an alien wherever you can reside as an alien;^g for Jehovah has called for a famine,^h and, besides, it must come* upon the land for seven years."ⁱ 2 So the woman got up and did according to the word of the man of the [true] God and went,^j she with her household,^k and took up residence as an alien in the land of the Philis'tines^l for seven years.

3 And it came about at the end of seven years that the woman proceeded to return from the land of the Philis'tines and go forth to cry out to the king^m for her house and for her field. 4 Now the king was speaking to Geha'ziⁿ the attendant of the man of the [true] God, saying: "Do relate to me, please, all the great things that Eli'sha has done."^o 5 And it came about that as he was relating to the king how he had revived the dead one,^p why, here the woman whose son he had revived was crying out to the king for her house and for her field.^q At once Geha'zi said: "My lord^r the king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Eli'sha revived." 6 At that the king asked the woman, and she went on to relate to him the story.^s Then the king gave her a court official,^t saying: "Return all that belongs to her and all the products of the field from the day of her leaving the land until now."^u

of Syria was sick. Accordingly the report was made to him, saying: "The man of the [true] God^a has come as far as here." 8 At that the king said to Haz'a-el:^b "Take a gift^c in your hand and go and meet the man of the [true] God, and you must inquire^d of Jehovah through him, saying, 'Shall I revive from this sickness?'" 9 So Haz'a-el went to meet him and took a gift in his hand, even every sort of good thing of Damascus, the load of forty camels, and came and stood before him and said: "Your son,^e Ben-ha'dad, the king of Syria, has sent me to you, saying, 'Shall I revive from this sickness?'" 10 Then Eli'sha said to him: "Go, say to him, 'You will* positively revive,' and Jehovah has shown me^f that he will positively die."^g 11 And he kept a fixed look and kept it set to the point of embarrassment. Then the man of the [true] God gave way to weeping.^h 12 At this Haz'a-el said: "Why is my lord weeping?" To this he said: "Because I well know what injuryⁱ you will do to the sons of Israel. Their fortified places you will consign to the fire, and their choice men you will kill with the sword, and their children you will dash to pieces,^j and their pregnant women you will rip up."^k 13 Upon that Haz'a-el said: "What is your servant, [who is a mere] dog,^l that he could do this great thing?" But Eli'sha said: "Jehovah has shown me you as king over Syria."^m

14 After that he went from Eli'sha and came to his own lord, who then said to him: "What did Eli'sha say to you?" To this he said: "He said to me, 'You will positively revive.'"ⁿ 15 And it came about on the next day that he proceeded to take a coverlet* and dip^o it in water and spread it out over his face,^p so that he died.^q And Haz'a-el^r began to reign in place of him.

20 In his days E'dom^j revolted from under the hand of Judah, and then made a king^k reign over them. 21 Consequently Je-ho'ram passed over to Za'ir, also all the chariots with him. And it came about that he himself rose up by night and got to strike down the E'domites that were surrounding him and the chiefs of the chariots; and the people went fleeing to their tents. 22 But E'dom kept up its revolt from under the hand of Judah down to this day. It was then that Lib'nah^{*1} began to revolt at that time.

was Ath-a-li'ah^a the granddaughter* of Om'ri^b the king of Israel. 27 And he went walking in the way of the house of A'hab^c and kept doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,^d like the house of A'hab, for he was a relative of the house of A'hab by marriage.^e 28 Accordingly he went with Je-ho'ram the son of A'hab to the war against Haz'a-el^f the king of Syria at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad,^g but the Syrians struck^h down Je-ho'ram. 29 So Je-ho'ramⁱ the king returned to get healed at Jez're-el^j from the wounds that the Syrians got to inflict upon him at Ra'mah^k when he fought Haz'a-el the king of Syria. As for A-ha-zi'ah^k the son of Je-ho'ram the king of Judah, he went down to see Je-ho'ram the son of A'hab in Jez're-el, for he was sick.

9 And E-li'sha the prophet, for his part, called one of the sons^l of the prophets and then said to him: "Gird up your loins^m and take this flask^{*n} of oil in your hand and go to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad.^o 2 When you have come in there, see Je'hu^p the son of Je-hosh'a-phat the son of Nim'shi there; and you must come in and make him get up from the midst of his brothers and bring him into the innermost chamber.^q 3 And you must take the flask of oil and pour it out upon his head^r and say, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "I do anoint^s you as king^t over Israel."' And you must open the door and flee and not wait."

4 And the attendant, the prophet's attendant, got on his way to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad. 5 When he came in, why, there the chiefs of the military force were seated. He now said: "There is a word I have for you,^u O chief." At this Je'hu said: "For which one of all of us?" Then he said: "For you, O chief." 6 So he got up and came into the house; and he proceeded to pour the oil out upon his head and say to him: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'I do anoint you as king^v over 11 As for Je'hu, he went out to the servants of his lord, and they began to say to him: "Is everything all right?"^k Why did this crazy^l man come in to you?" But he said to them: "You yourselves well know the man and his sort of talk." 12 But they said: "It is false!* Tell us, please." Then he said: "It was like this and like that that he talked to me, saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "I do anoint you as king over Israel."'"^m

13 At this they hurriedly took each one his garmentⁿ and put it under him upon the bare steps, and they began to blow the horn^o and say: "Je'hu has become king!"^p 14 And Je'hu^q the son of Jehosh'aphat the son of Nim'shi^r proceeded to conspire^s against Je-ho'ram.*

And Je-ho'ram himself had happened to be keeping guard at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad,^t he with all Israel, because of Haz'a-el^u the king of Syria. 15 Later Je-ho'ram^v the king returned to get healed at Jez're-el^w from the wounds that the Syrians got to inflict upon him when he fought Haz'a-el the king of Syria.*

At that Je-ho'ram said: "Take a cavalryman and send him to meet them, and let him say, 'Is there peace?'"^e 18 Accordingly a rider on a horse went to meet him and said: "This is what the king has said, 'Is there peace?'" But Je'hu said: "What do you have to do with 'peace'?*^f Get around to my rear!"

And the watchman^g went on to report, saying: "The messenger came as far as to them, but he has not returned." 19 So he sent out a second rider on a horse, who, when he came to them, proceeded to say: "This is what the king has said, 'Is there peace?'" But Je'hu said: "What do you have to do with 'peace'?^h Get around to my rear!"

20 And the watchman went on to report, saying: "He came as far as to them, but he has not returned; and the driving is like the driving of Je'huⁱ the grandson* of Nim'shi,^j for it is with madness that he drives."^k 21 At that Je-ho'ram said: "Hitch up!"^l So his war chariot was hitched up and Je-ho'ram the king of Israel and A-ha-zi'ah^m the king of Judah went out, each in his own war chariot. As they continued on out to meet Je'hu, they got to find him in the tract of land of Na'bothⁿ the Jez're-el-ite.

22 And it came about that as soon as Je-ho'ram saw Je'hu, he immediately said: "Is there peace, Je'hu?" But he said: "What peace^o could there be as long as there are the fornications of Jez'e-bel^p your mother and her many sorceries?"^q

23 At once Je-ho'ram made a turn with his hands, that he might flee, and said to A-ha-zi'ah: "There is trickery,^r A-ha-

So now, lift him up; throw him into the tract of land according to the word of Jehovah."ⁱ

27 And A-ha-zi'ah^j the king of Judah himself saw it and took to flight by the way of the garden house.^k (Later* Je'hu went in pursuit of him and said: "Him also! STRIKE him down!") So they struck him down^l while in the chariot on the way up to Gur, which is by Ib'le-am.^l And he continued his flight to Me-gid'-do^m and got to die there.ⁿ 28 Then his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and so they buried him in his grave with his forefathers in the City of David.^o 29 And it was in the eleventh year of Je-ho'ram^p the son of A'hab that A-ha-zi'ah^q had become king over Judah.)

30 At length Je'hu came to Jez're-el,^r and Jez'e-bel^s herself heard of it. And she proceeded to paint^t her eyes with black paint and do her head up beautifully^u and to look down through the window.^v 31 And Je'hu himself came in by the gate. She now said: "Did it go all right with Zim'ri^w the killer of his lord?" 32 At that he raised his face toward the window and said: "Who is with me? 10 Now A'hab had seventyⁱ sons in Samar'ia.^j Therefore Je'hu wrote letters and sent them to Samar'ia to the princes^k of Jez're-el, the older men^l and the caretakers of A'hab,* saying: 2 "Now, then, at the very time that this letter comes to you there are with you the sons of your lord, and there are with you the war chariots and the horses^m and a fortified city and the armor. 3 And you must see which is the best and most upright of the sons of your lord and put him upon the throne of his father.ⁿ Then fight for the house of your lord."

4 And they became very greatly afraid and began to say: "Look! Two kings^o themselves did not stand before him, and how shall we ourselves stand?"^p 5 Consequently the one who was over the house and the one who was over the city and the older men and the caretakers^q sent to Je'hu, saying: "We are your servants, and everything that you say to us we shall do. We shall not make anyone king. What is good in your own eyes do."

ing, take the heads of the men that are sons^a of YOUR lord and come to me tomorrow at this time at Jez're-el.”^b

Now the sons of the king, seventy men, were with the distinguished men of the city that were bringing them up. 7 And it came about that as soon as the letter came to them, they went taking the sons of the king and slaughtering [them], seventy men,^c after which they put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jez're-el. 8 Then the messenger^d came in and told him, saying: “They have brought the heads^e of the sons of the king.” So he said: “PUT them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning.”^f 9 And it came about in the morning that he proceeded to go out. Then he stood still and said to all the people: “You are righteous.*^g Here I myself conspired^h against my lord, and I got to kill him;ⁱ but who struck down all these? 10 Know, then, that nothing of Jehovah's word will fall [unfulfilled] to the earth^j that Jehovah has spoken against the house of A'hab;^k and Jehovah himself has done what he spoke by means of his servant E-li'jah.”^l 11 Moreover, Je'hu went on to strike down all who were left over of the house of A'hab in Jez're-el and all his distinguished men^m and his acquaintances and his priests,ⁿ until he had let no survivor of his remain.^o

12 And he proceeded to rise and come in, then get on his way to Sa-mar'i-a. The binding house of the shepherds was on the way.* 13 And Je'hu himself encountered the brothers^p of A-ha-zi'ah^q the king of Judah. When he said to them, “Who are you?” then they said: “We are the brothers of A-ha-zi'ah, and we are on our way down to ask if all is well with* the sons of the king and the sons of the lady.” 14 Immediately he said: “Seize them alive,^r you men!” So they seized them alive and slaughtered them at the cistern of the binding

15 As he was going along from there he got to encounter Je-hon'a-dab*^b the son of Re'chab^c [coming] to meet him. When he blessed^d him, he accordingly said to him: “Is your heart upright with me, just as my own heart is with your heart?”^e

To this Je-hon'a-dab said: “It is.”

“If it is, do give me your hand.”

So he gave him his hand. At that he made him get up into the chariot with him.^f 16 Then he said: “Do go along with me and look upon my toleration of no rivalry^g toward Jehovah.” And they* kept him riding with him in his war chariot. 17 Finally he came to Sa-mar'i-a. Now he went striking down all who were left over of A'hab's in Sa-mar'i-a, until he had annihilated them,^h according to Jehovah's word that he had spoken to E-li'jah.ⁱ

18 Further, Je'hu collected all the people together and said to them: “A'hab, on the one hand, worshiped* Ba'al* a little.^j Je'hu, on the other hand, will worship him a great deal. 19 So now call all the prophets^k of Ba'al, all his worshipers^l and all his priests^m to me. Do not let a single one be missing, because I have a great sacrifice for Ba'al. Anyone that is missing will not keep living.” As for Je'hu, he acted slyly,ⁿ for the purpose of destroying the worshipers of Ba'al.

20 And Je'hu went on to say: “Sanctify a solemn assembly for Ba'al.” Accordingly they proclaimed it. 21 After that Je'hu sent through all Israel,^o so that all the worshipers of Ba'al came in. And not a single one was left over that did not come in. And they kept coming into the house of Ba'al,^p and the house of Ba'al came to be full from end to

So he brought the attire out for them. 23 Then Je'hu entered with Je-hon'a-dab^a the son of Re'chab into the house of Ba'al. He now said to the worshipers of Ba'al: "Search carefully and see that there may be here with YOU none of the worshipers of Jehovah, but only the worshipers of Ba'al."^b 24 Finally they came in to render up sacrifices and burnt offerings, and Je'hu himself stationed eighty* men outside at his disposal and went on to say: "As for the man that escapes from the men whom I am bringing into YOUR hands, the one's soul will go for the other's soul."^c

25 And it came about that as soon as he finished rendering up the burnt offering, Je'hu immediately said to the runners and the adjutants: "Come in, strike them down! Do not let a single one go out."^d And the runners and the adjutants^e began to strike them down with the edge of the sword and to throw them out, and they kept going as far as the city of the house of Ba'al. 26 Then they brought out the sacred pillars^f of the house of Ba'al and burned^g each one.^h 27 Further, they pulled down the sacred pillar of Ba'al^h and pulled down the house of Ba'al,ⁱ and they kept it set aside for privies^j down to this day.

28 Thus Je'hu annihilated Ba'al out of Israel. 29 It was only the sins of Jer-o-bo'am^k the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin,^l that Je'hu did not turn aside from following them, [that is,] the golden calves^m of which one was in Beth'el and one in Dan.ⁿ 30 Consequently Jehovah said to Je'hu: "For the reason that you have acted well in doing what is right in my eyes,^o [and] according to all that was in my heart you have done to the

32 In those days Jehovah started to cut off Israel piece by piece; and Haz'-ael^e kept striking them in all the territory of Israel, 33 from the Jordan toward the rising of the sun, all the land of Gil'e-ad,^f the Gad'ites^g and the Reu'-ben-ites^h and the Ma-nas'sites,ⁱ from A-ro'er,^j which is by the torrent valley of Ar'non, even Gil'e-ad and Ba'shan.^k

34 And the rest of the affairs of Je'hu and all that he did and all his mightiness, are they not written in the book^l of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 35 Finally Je'hu lay down with his forefathers,^m and they buried him in Sa-mar'i-a; and Je-ho'a-hazⁿ his son began to reign in place of him. 36 And the days that Je'hu had reigned over Israel were twenty-eight years in Sa-mar'i-a.

11 Now as regards Ath-a-li'ah^o the mother of A-ha-zi'ah,^p she saw that her son had died. So she rose up and destroyed all the offspring of the kingdom.^q 2 However, Je-hosh'e-ba^r the daughter of King Je-ho'ram, the sister of A-ha-zi'ah, took Je-ho'ash^s the son of A-ha-zi'ah and stole him from among the sons of the king that were to be put to death, even him and his nursing woman, into the inner room for the couches, and they^t kept him concealed^u from the face of Ath-a-li'ah, and he was not put to death. 3 And he continued with her at the house of Jehovah in hiding for six years, while Ath-a-li'ah was reigning over the land.^v

4 And in the seventh year Je-hoi'a-da^w sent and then took the chiefs of hundreds of the Ca'ri-an^x bodyguard and of the runners^y and brought them to

And continue with the king when he goes out and when he comes in."

9 And the chiefs of hundreds^f proceeded to do according to all that Je-hoi'a-da the priest had commanded. So they took each one his men that were coming in on the sabbath,^g together with those that were going out on the sabbath, and then came in to Je-hoi'a-da the priest. 10 The priest now gave the chiefs of hundreds the spears and the circular shields that had belonged to King David, which were in the house of Jehovah.^h 11 And the runnersⁱ kept standing each one with his weapons in his hand, from the right side* of the house clear to the left side^g of the house, by the altar^j and by the house, all around near the king. 12 Then he brought the son^k of the king out and put upon him the diadem^l and the Testimony;^m and so they made* him kingⁿ and anointed^o him.^o And they began to clap their hands^a and say: "Let the king live!"^b

13 When Ath-a-li'ah heard the sound of the people running, she at once came to the people at the house of Jehovah.^c

14 Then she saw, and there the king was standing by the pillar^d according to the custom, and the chiefs and the trumpets^e by the king, and all the people of the land rejoicing^f and blowing the trumpets. Immediately Ath-a-li'ah^g ripped her garments apart and began crying: "Conspiracy! Conspiracy!"^h

15 But Je-hoi'a-da the priest commanded the chiefs of hundreds, the appointed ones of the military force,ⁱ and said to them: "Take her out from inside the rows, and, as for anyone coming after her, let there be an execution of death* with the sword!"^j For the priest had said: "Do not let her be put to death in the house of Jehovah." 16 So they laid their hands upon her and she came by the way of the horse entry^k of the king's house,^l and she got put to death there.^m

17 Then Je-hoi'a-da concluded the covenantⁿ between Jehovah^o and the king^p and the people, that they should prove themselves the people of Jehovah; and also between the king and the people.^q 18 After that all the people of the land came to the house of Ba'al and pulled down his altars;^r and his images they broke up thoroughly,^s and Mat'tan^t the priest of Ba'al they killed before the altars.^u

And the priest proceeded to put overseers* over the house of Jehovah.^v 19 Further, he took the chiefs of hundreds and the Ca'ri-an^w bodyguard and the runners^x and all the people of the land, that they might bring the king down from the house of Jehovah; and they came gradually by the way of

21 Seven years old Je-ho'ash*^e was when he began to reign.^f

12 In the seventh year of Je'hu,^g Je-ho'ash^h became king, and for forty years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zib'i-ah from Be'er-she'ba. 2 And Je-ho'ash continued doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes all the days of his that Je-hoi'a-da the priest instructed him.ⁱ 3 It was only the high places that did not disappear.^j The people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.

4 And Je-ho'ash proceeded to say to the priests:^k "All the money* for the holy offerings^l that is brought to the house of Jehovah,^m the money at which each one is assessed,ⁿ the money for the souls according to individual valuation,^o all the money that it comes up on the heart of each one to bring to the house of Jehovah,^p 5 let the priests take for themselves, each one from his acquaintance,^q and let them, for their part, repair the cracks of the house wherever any crack is found."^r

6 And it came about that by the twenty-third year of King Je-ho'ash, the priests had not yet repaired the cracks of the house.^s 7 So King Je-ho'ash called Je-hoi'a-da^t the priest and the priests and said to them: "Why is it that you are not repairing the cracks of the house? Now, then, do not take any more money from your acquaintances, but for the cracks of the house you should give it."^u 8 At that the priests consented not to take any more money from the people and not to repair the cracks of the house.

9 Je-hoi'a-da the priest now took a chest*^a and bored a hole in its lid and put it beside the altar on the right as a person comes into the house of Jehovah, and there the priests, the doorkeepers,^b put all the money^c that was being brought into the house of Jehovah. 10 And it came about that as soon as they saw that there was a great deal of money in the chest, the secretary^d of the king and the high priest* would come up, and they would bind it up and count the money that was being found at the house of Jehovah.^e 11 And they gave the money that had been counted off over to the hands of doers^f of the work that were appointed [to] the house of Jehovah. In turn they paid it out to the workers in wood and to the builders that were working at the house of Jehovah, 12 and to the masons and to the hewers of stone,^g and to buy timbers and hewn stones for repairing the cracks of the house of Jehovah and for all that was expended upon the house to repair it.

13 Only as respects the house of Jehovah there were not made basins of silver, extinguishers,^h bowls,ⁱ trumpets,^j any sort of gold article and article of silver from the money that was being brought to the house of Jehovah;^k 14 for it was to the doers of the work that they would give it, and with it they repaired the house of Jehovah.^l 15 And they would not call for an accounting^m with the men into whose hand they would give the money to give to the doers of the work,ⁿ because it was with faithfulness^o that they were working. 16 As for the money for guilt offerings^p and the money for sin offerings, it was not being brought to the house of Jehovah. So it came to belong to the priests.^q

17 Then it was that Haz'a-el^r the king of Syria proceeded to go up and fight against Gath^a and capture it, after which Haz'a-el set his face^b to go up against Jerusalem.^c 18 At that Jeho'ash the king of Judah took all the holy offerings^d that Jehosh'a-phat and Jeho'ram and A-ha-zi'ah his forefathers, the kings of Judah, had sanctified and his own holy offerings and all the gold to be found in the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the house of the king and sent^e them to Haz'a-el the king of Syria. So he withdrew from against Jerusalem.

19 As for the rest of the affairs of Jeho'ash* and all that he did, are they not written in the book^f of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 20 However, his servants^g rose up and leagued together in a conspiracy^h and struck Jeho'ash down at the houseⁱ of the Mound,^j [on the way] that goes down to Sil'ia. 21 And Jo'za-car* the son of Shim'eath and Je-hoz'a-bad^k the son of Sho'mer, his servants, were the ones that struck him down, so that he died. Accordingly they buried him with his forefathers in the City of David; and Am-a-zi'ah^l his son began to reign in place of him.

13 In the twenty-third year of Jeho'ash^m the son of A-ha-zi'ahⁿ the king of Judah, Je-ho'a-haz^o the son of Je'hu^p became king over Israel in Sa-mar'ia for seventeen years. 2 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes^q and went walking in pursuit of the sin of Jer-o-bo'am^r the son of Ne'-bat, with which he caused Israel to sin.^s He did not turn aside from it. 3 And Jehovah's anger^t became hot against Israel, so that he gave them into the hand of Haz'a-el^u the king of Syria and into the hand of Ben-ha'dad^v the son of Haz'a-el all their days.

4 In time Je-ho'a-haz softened^w the face of Jehovah, so that Jehovah listened^x to him; for he had seen the oppression upon Israel,^y because the king of Syria had oppressed them.^z 5 Consequently Jehovah gave Israel a savior,^a so that they came out from under the hand of Syria, and the sons of Israel continued to dwell in their homes* as formerly.^b 6 (Only they did not depart from the sin of the house of Jer-o-bo'-am, with which he caused Israel to sin.^c In it he walked;^d and even the sacred pole^e itself stood in Sa-mar'ia.) 7 For he had not left to Je-ho'a-haz any people but fifty horsemen and ten chariots and ten thousand men on foot,^f because the king of Syria had destroyed them,^g that he might make them like the dust at threshing.^h

8 As for the rest of the affairs of Je-ho'a-haz and all that he did and his mightiness, are they not written in the bookⁱ of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 9 Finally Je-ho'a-haz lay down with his forefathers, and they buried him in Sa-mar'ia;^j and Je-ho'ash^k his son began to reign in place of him.

10 In the thirty-seventh year of Je-ho'ash the king of Judah, Je-ho'ash^l the son of Je-ho'a-haz became king over Israel in Sa-mar'ia for sixteen years.

11 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.^m He did not depart from all the sins of Jer-o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat, with which he made Israel sin.ⁿ In them he walked.

12 As for the rest of the affairs of Je-ho'ash and all that he did and his mightiness [and] how he fought^o against Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah, are they not written in the book^p of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 13 Finally Je-ho'ash lay down with his forefathers, and Jer-o-bo'am^q himself sat upon his throne. In turn Je-ho'ash was buried in Sa-mar'ia with the kings of Israel.^r

14 As regards E-li'sha,^s he had taken sick with the sickness with which he was to die.^t So Je-ho'ash the king of Israel came down to him and began to weep over his face and say: "My father,^u my father, the war chariot^v of Israel and his horsemen!"^w 15 And E-li'sha proceeded to say to him: "Take a bow and arrows." So he took to himself a bow and arrows. 16 And he went on to say to the king of Israel: "Put your hand to the bow."* Accordingly he put his hand to it, after which E-li'sha laid his hands upon the hands^a of the king. 17 Then he said: "Open the window to the east." So he opened it. Finally E-li'sha said: "Shoot!" So he shot. He now said: "Jehovah's arrow of salvation, even the arrow of salvation^b against Syria! And you will certainly strike down Syria at A'phek^c to the finishing point."

18 And he went on to say: "Take the arrows." At that he took [them]. Then he said to the king of Israel: "Strike on the earth." So he struck three times and stopped.^d 19 And the man of the [true] God^e grew indignant at him; hence he said: "It was meant to strike five or six times!* In that case you would certainly be striking down Syria to the finishing point, but now it is three times that you will strike down Syria."^f

20 After that E-li'sha died and they buried him.^g And there were marauding bands^h of the Mo'ab-itesⁱ that regularly came into the land at the coming in of the year. 21 And it came about that as they were burying a man, why, here they saw the marauding band. At once they threw the man into E-li'sha's burial place and went off. When the man touched the bones of E-li'sha, he immediately came to life^j and stood upon his feet.^k

22 As for Haz'a-el^l the king of Syria, he oppressed^m Israel all the days of Je-ho'a-haz. 23 However, Jehovah showed them favorⁿ and had mercy^o upon them and turned to them for the sake of his covenant^p with Abraham,^q Isaac^r and Jacob;^s and he did not want to bring them to ruin,^t and he did not cast them away from before his face until now. 24 Finally Haz'a-el the king of Syria died, and Ben-ha'dad his son began to reign in place of him. 25 And

Je-ho'ash the son of Je-ho'a-haz proceeded to take back again from the hand of Ben-ha'dad the son of Haz'a-el the cities that he had taken from the hand of Je-ho'a-haz his father in war. Three times Je-ho'ash struck him down, and he got to recover the cities of Israel.^a 14 In the second year of Je-ho'ash^b the son of Je-ho'a-haz* the king of Israel, Am-a-zi'ah^c the son of Je-ho'ash the king of Judah became king. 2 Twenty-five years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Je-ho-ad'din^d of Jerusalem. 3 And he continued to do what was upright in Jehovah's eyes,^e only not like David his forefather.^f According to all that Je-ho'ash his father had done, he did.^g 4 It was only the high places that did not disappear.^h The people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.ⁱ 5 And it came about that as soon as the kingdom had become firm in his hand, he began to strike down^j his servants that had struck down the king his father.^k 6 And the sons of the strikers he did not put to death, according to what is written in the book of Moses' law that Jehovah gave in command, saying:^l "Fathers should not be put to death for sons, and sons themselves should not be put to death for fathers; but for his own sin should each one be put to death."^m 7 He himself struck down the E'dom-itesⁿ in the Valley of Salt,^o ten thousand men, and got to seize Se'la in the war, and its name came to be called Jok'the-el down to this day.

8 Then it was that Am-a-zi'ah sent messengers to Je-ho'ash the son of Je-ho'a-haz the son of Je'hu the king of Israel, saying: "Do come. Let us look each other in the face."^p 9 At that Je-ho'ash the king of Israel sent to Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah, saying: "The thorny weed itself that was in Leb'anon sent to the cedar^q that was in Leb'- a-non, saying, 'Do give your daughter to my son as a wife.' However, a wild beast of the field that was in Leb'a-non passed by and trampled the thorny weed down.^a 10 You have unmistakably struck down^b E'dom, and your heart has lifted you up.^c Enjoy your honor^d and dwell in your own house. Why, then, should you engage in strife^e under unfavorable conditions^f and have to fall, you and Judah with you?" 11 And Am-a-zi'ah did not listen.^g

So Je-ho'ash the king of Israel came up, and they proceeded to look each other in the face,^h he and Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah, at Beth-she'mesh,ⁱ which belongs to Judah. 12 And Judah came to be defeated before Israel,^j so that they took to flight, each one to his tent. 13 And it was Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah the son of Je-ho'ash the son of A-ha-zi'ah that Je-ho'ash the king of Israel captured at Beth-she'mesh, after which they came to Jerusalem and he made a breach in the wall of Jerusalem at the Gate of E'phra-im^k clear to the Corner Gate,^l four hundred cubits.*

14 And he took all the gold and silver and all the articles to be found at the house of Jehovah^m and in the treasures of the house of the king and the hostages* and then returned to Sam-a-ri'a.

15 As for the rest of the affairs of Je-ho'ash, what he did and his mightiness and how he fought against Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah, are they not written in the bookⁿ of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 16 Finally Je-ho'ash lay down with his forefathers^o and was buried in Sam-a-ri'a^p with the kings of Israel, and Jer-o-bo'am^q his son began to reign in place of him.

17 And Am-a-zi'ah^r the son of Je-ho'ash the king of Judah continued to live after the death of Je-ho'ash^s the son of Je-ho'a-haz the king of Israel for fifteen years.^t 18 As for the rest of the affairs of Am-a-zi'ah, are they not written in the book^u of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah?^v 19 At length

5 It was then that Re'zin^d the king of Syria and Pe'kah^e the son of Rema-li'ah the king of Israel proceeded to come up against Jerusalem in war and laid siege against A'haz, but they were not able to fight.^f 6 At that time Re'zin the king of Syria restored E'lath^g to E'dom,* after which he cleared out the Jews from E'lath; and the E'domites, for their part, entered E'lath and kept dwelling there down to this day. 7 So A'haz sent messengers to Tig'lath-pile-er^h the king of As-syr'i-a, saying: "I am your servantⁱ and your son. Come up and save^j me out of the palm of the king of Syria and out of the palm of the king of Israel, who are rising up against me." 8 Accordingly A'haz took the silver and the gold that was to be found at the house of Jehovah and in the treasures of the king's house^k and sent the king of As-syr'i-a a bribe.^l 9 At that the king of As-syr'i-a listened to him and the king of As-syr'i-a went up to Damascus^m and captured itⁿ and led its [people] into exile at Kir,^o and Re'zin^p he put to death.

As for the copper altar, it will become something for me to take under consideration." 16 And U-ri'jah^g the priest went doing according to all that King A'haz had commanded.^h 17 Furthermore, King A'haz cutⁱ the sidewalls^j of the carriages^k in pieces and removed from off them the basins;^l and the sea^m he took down off the copper bullsⁿ that were underneath it and then put it upon a stone pavement. 18 And the covered structure for the sabbath that they had built in the house and the king's outer entryway he shifted from the house of Jehovah because of the king of As-syr'i-a.

Hence the king of As-syr'i-a shut him up and kept him bound in the house of detention.^f

5 And the king of As-syr'i-a proceeded to come up against all the land and to come up to Sa-mar'i-a and lay siege^g against it for three years. 6 In the ninth year of Ho-she'a, the king of As-syr'i-a captured Sa-mar'i-a^b and then led Israel into exileⁱ in As-syr'i-a and kept them dwelling in Ha'lah^j and in Ha'bor at the river Go'zan^k and in the cities of the Medes.^l

7 And it came about because the sons of Israel had sinned^m against Jehovah their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Phar'aoth the king of Egypt,ⁿ and they began to fear other gods;^o 8 and they kept walking in the statutes^p of the nations whom Jehovah had driven out from before the sons of Israel, and [in the statutes of] the kings of Israel that they had made; 9 and the sons of Israel went searching into the things that were not right toward Jehovah their God^q and kept building themselves high places^r in all their cities, from the tower^s of the watchmen clear to the fortified city; 10 and they kept setting up for themselves sacred pillars^t and sacred poles^u upon every high hill^v and under every luxuriant tree;^w 11 and there on all the high places they continued to make sacrificial smoke the same as the nations^x whom Jehovah had taken into exile because of them, and they kept doing bad things to offend^y Jehovah;

began dwelling in Beth'el,^a and he came to be a teacher of them as to how they ought to fear Jehovah.^b

29 However, each different nation came to be a maker of its own god,^c which they then deposited in the house of the high places that the Samar'i-tans^d had made, each different nation,^e in their cities where they were dwelling. 30 And the men of Babylon, for their part, made Suc'coth-be'noth, and the men of Cuth,^f for their part, made Ner'-gal, and the men of Ha'math, for their part, made A-shi'ma. 31 As for the Av'vites,^g they made Nib'haz and Tar'tak; and the Se'phar-vites^h were burning their sons in the fireⁱ to A-dram'me-lech and A-nam'me-lech the gods of Seph-ar-va'im. 32 And they came to be fearers of Jehovah and went making for themselves from the people in general priests^j of high places, and they came to be functionaries for them in the house of the high places. 33 It was of Jehovah that they became fearers,^k but it was of their own gods that they proved to be worshipers,^l according to the religion of the nations from among whom they had led them into exile.^k

34 Down to this day they are doing according to their former religions.^l There were none fearing Jehovah^m and none doing according to his^{} statutes and his judicial decisionsⁿ and the law^o and the commandment^p that Jehovah had commanded the sons of Jacob,^q whose name he made Israel;^r 35 when Jehovah concluded a covenant^s with them and commanded them, saying: "You must not fear other gods,^t and you must not bow down to them nor serve them^{} nor sacrifice to them." 36 But Jehovah, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power

40 And they did not obey, but it was according to their former religion that they were doing.^m 41 And these nations came to be fearers of Jehovah,ⁿ but it was their own graven images that they proved to be serving. As for both their sons and their grandsons, it was just as their forefathers had done that they themselves are doing down to this day.

18 And it came about in the third year of Ho-she'a^a the son of E'lah the king of Israel that Heze-ki'ah^b the son of A'haz^c the king of Judah became king. 2 Twenty-five years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was A'bi* the daughter of Zech-a-ri'ah.^d 3 And he continued to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes,^e according to all that David his forefather had done.^f 4 He it was that removed the high places^g and broke the sacred pillars^h to pieces and cut down the sacredⁱ pole and crushed to pieces the copper serpent^j that Moses had made;^k for down to those days the sons of Israel had continually been making sacrificial^l smoke to it, and it used to be called the copper serpent-idol.^m 5 In Jehovah the God of Israel he trusted;ⁿ and after him there proved to be no one like him among all the kings of Judah,^o even those who had happened to be prior to him.^p 6 And he kept sticking to Jehovah.^a He did not turn aside from following him, but he continued keeping his commandments that Jehovah had commanded Moses.^b 7 And Jehovah proved to be with him.^c Wherever he would go out, he would act prudently;^d and he proceeded to rebel against the king of As-syr'i-a and did not serve him.^e 8 It was he that struck down the Philis'tines^f clear to Ga'za^g and also its territories, from the tower^h of the watchmen clear to the fortified city.

9 And it came about in the fourth year of King Heze-ki'ah,^{*} that is, the seventh year of Ho-she'aⁱ the son of E'lah the king of Israel, that Shal-man-e'ser^j the king of As-syr'i-a came up against Samar'i-a and began to lay siege to it.^k 10 And they got to capture it^l at the end of three years; in the sixth year of Heze-ki'ah, that is, the ninth year of Ho-she'a the king of Israel, Samar'i-a was captured.^m 11 After that the king of As-syr'i-aⁿ took Israel into exile^o in As-syr'i-a and set them down in Ha'lah^p and in Ha'bor^q at the river Go'zan^r and in the cities of the Medes,^s 12 over the fact that they had not listened^t to the voice of Jehovah their God, but kept overstepping his covenant,^u even all that Moses^v the servant of Jehovah had commanded.^w They neither listened nor performed.

13 And in the fourteenth year of King Heze-ki'ah, Sen-nach'er-ib^x the king of As-syr'i-a^y came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and proceeded to seize them. 14 So Heze-ki'ah the king of Judah sent to the king of As-syr'i-a at La'chish, saying: "I have sinned. Turn back from against me. Whatever you may impose upon me I shall carry."^z Accordingly the king of As-syr'i-a laid upon Heze-ki'ah the king of Judah three hundred silver talents^a and thirty gold talents. 15 Therefore Heze-

17 And the king of As-syr'i-a^e proceeded to send Tar'tan^f and Rab'saris^g and Rab'sha-keh^g from La'chish^h to King Hez-e-ki'ah with a heavy military force to Jerusalem, that they might go up and come to Jerusalem. Jehovah himself said to me,^e 'Go up against this land, and you must bring it to ruin.'

26 At this E-li'a-kim^f the son of Hil-ki'ah and Sheb'nah^g and Jo'ah^h said to Rab'sha-keh:ⁱ "Speak with your servants, please, in the Syrian language,^{*j} for we can listen;^k and do not speak with us in the Jews' language^{ak} in the ears of the people that are on the wall." 27 But Rab'sha-keh said to them: "Is it to your lord and to you that my lord has sent me to speak these words? E'sar-had'don^a his son began to reign in place of him.

20 In those days Hez-e-ki'ah got sick to the point of dying.^b Accordingly Isaiah^c the son of A'moz the prophet came in to him and said to him: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Give commands to your household,^d for you yourself will indeed die and will not live.'^e" 2 At that he turned his face to the wall^f and began to pray to Jehovah,^g saying: 3 "I beseech you, O Jehovah, remember,^h please, how I have walkedⁱ before you in truthfulness^j and with a complete heart,^k and what was good in your eyes I have done." And Hez-e-ki'ah began to weep profusely.^{*m}

4 And it came about that Isaiah himself had not yet gone out to the middle court* when Jehovah's word itself came to him,ⁿ saying: 5 "Go back, and you must say to Hez-e-ki'ah the leader^o of my people, 'This is what Jehovah the God^p of David your forefather has said: "I have heard^q your prayer.^r I have seen your tears.^s Here I am healing^t you."^u On the third day you will go up to the house of Jehovah.^v 6 And I shall certainly add fifteen years to your days, and out of the palm of the king of As-syr'i-a I shall deliver you and this city, and I will defend^w this city for my own sake and for the sake of David my servant."^{xx}

7 And Isaiah went on to say: "You men, take a cake of pressed^y dried figs." So they took and put it upon the boil,^z after which he gradually revived.^a

8 Meantime, Hez-e-ki'ah said to Isaiah: "What is the sign^b that Jehovah will heal me and I shall certainly go up on the third day to the house of Jehovah?" 9 To this Isaiah said: "This is the sign^c for you from Jehovah that Jehovah will perform the word that he has spoken: Shall the shadow actually go forward ten steps [of the stairs] or should it go

12 At that time Be-ro'dach-bal'a-dan^c the son of Bal'a-dan the king of Babylon*^d sent letters^e and a gift to Hez-e-ki'ah;^f for he had heard that Hez-e-ki'ah had been sick. 13 And Hez-e-ki'ah proceeded to listen to them* and show them all his treasure-house,^g the silver and the gold^h and the balsam oilⁱ and the good oil and his armory and all that was to be found in his treasures. There proved to be nothing that Hez-e-ki'ah did not show them in his own house and in all his dominion.^j

14 After that Isaiah the prophet came in to King Hez-e-ki'ah and said to him:^k "What did these men say and from where did they proceed to come to you?"^l So Hez-e-ki'ah said: "From a distant land they came, from Babylon."

15 And he went on to say: "What did they see in your house?" To this Hez-e-ki'ah said: "Everything that is in my house they saw. There proved to be nothing that I did not show them in my treasures."^m

16 Isaiah now said to Hez-e-ki'ah: "Hear the word of Jehovah,"ⁿ 17 "Look! Days are coming, and all that is in your own house^o and that your forefathers have stored up down to this day will actually be carried to Babylon.^p Nothing will be left,"^q Jehovah has said. 18 "And some of your own sons that will come forth from you to whom you will become father will 20 As for the rest of the affairs of Hez-e-ki'ah and all his mightiness and how he made the pool^g and the conduit^h and then brought the water into the city, are they not written in the bookⁱ of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 21 Finally Hez-e-ki'ah lay down with his forefathers;^j and Ma-nas's^k his son began to reign in place of him.

21 Twelve years old was Ma-nas's^l when he began to reign, and for fifty-five years he reigned in Jerusalem. 7 Further, he put the carved image^a of the sacred pole that he had made in the house^b of which Jehovah had said to David and to Sol'o-mon his son: "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I shall put my name to time indefinite.^c 8 And I shall not again make the foot of Israel wander from the ground that I gave to their forefathers,^d provided only they are careful to do according to all that I have commanded them,^e even concerning all the law that my servant Moses commanded them." 9 And they did not listen,^f but Ma-nas'sseh kept seducing them to do what was bad^g more than the nations^h whom Jehovah had annihilated from before the sons of Israel.

19 Twenty-two years old was A'mon^e when he began to reign, and for two years^f he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Me-shul'le-meth the daughter of Ha'ruz from Jot'bah. 20 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, just as Ma-nas'sseh his father had done.^g 21 And he kept walking in all the way that his father had walked,^h and he continued serving the dungy idolsⁱ that his father had served and bowing down to them. 22 Thus he left Jehovah^j the God of his forefathers, and he did not walk in the way of Jehovah.^k 23 Eventually servants of A'mon conspired against him and put the king to death^l in his own house. 24 But the people of the land struck down all the conspirators^m against King A'mon. Then the people of the land made Jo-si'ahⁿ his son king in place of him. 25 As for the rest of the affairs of A'mon, what he did, are they not written in the book^o of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 26 So they* buried him in his grave in the garden of Uz'za;^p and Jo-si'ah^q his son began to reign in place of him.

3 And it came about in the eighteenth year of King Josi'ah that the king sent Sha'phan^d the son of Az-a-li'ah the son of Me-shul'lam the secretary* to the house of Jehovah, saying: 4 "Go up to Hil-ki'ah^e the high priest,^f and let him complete^g the money* that is being brought into the house of Jehovah^h that the doorkeepersⁱ have gathered from the people; 5 and let them put it into the hand of those doing the work,^j the appointed ones, in the house of Jehovah, that they may give it to those doing the work who are in the house of Jehovah to repair the cracks of the house,^k 6 to the craftsmen and the builders and the masons, and to buy timbers and hewn stones to repair the house.^l 7 Only no accounting should be taken of the money with them into whose hand it is being put,^m for it is in faithfulnessⁿ that they are working."

8 Later Hil-ki'ah^o the high priest* said to Sha'phan^p the secretary:^q "The very book of the law^r I have found in the house of Jehovah." So Hil-ki'ah gave the book to Sha'phan, and he began to read it. 9 Then Sha'phan the secretary came in to the king and replied to the king and said: "Your servants have poured out the money that was to be found in the house, and they keep putting it into the hand of the doers of the work, the ones appointed, in the house of Jehovah."^s 10 And Sha'phan the secretary went on to tell the king, saying: "There is a book^t that Hil-ki'ah the priest has given me." And Sha'phan began to read it before the king.

22 For no passover like this had been held from the days of the judges that had judged Israel,^h nor all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah.ⁱ 23 But in the eighteenth year of King Jo-si'ah this passover was held to Jehovah^{*} in Jerusalem.^j

24 And also the spirit mediums^k and the professional foretellers^l of events and the teraphim^{m} and the dungy idolsⁿ and all the disgusting^o things that had appeared in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem Jo-si'ah cleared out, in order that he might actually carry out the words of the law^p that were written in the book^q that Hil-ki'ah the priest had found at the house of Jehovah.^r 25 And like him there did not prove to be a king prior to him who returned^s to Jehovah^{} with all his heart and with all his soul^t and with all his vital force, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him has there risen up one like him.

28 As for the rest of the affairs of Jo-si'ah and all that he did, are they not written in the book^b of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 29 In his days Phar'aoh Ne'choh^c the king of Egypt came up to the king of As-syr'-i-a^d by the river Euphra'tes,^d and King Jo-si'ah proceeded to go to meet him;^e but he put him to death^f at Me-gid'do^g as soon as he saw him. 30 So his servants conveyed him dead in a chariot from Me-gid'do and brought him to Jerusalem^h and buried him in his grave. Then the people of the land took Je-ho'-a-hazⁱ the son of Jo-si'ah and anointed him and made him king in place of his father.

31 Twenty-three years old was Je-ho'a-haz^j when he began to reign, and for three months he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamu'tal^k the daughter of Jeremiah from Lib'nah. 32 And he began to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that forefathers of his had done.^l

33 And Phar'aoh Ne'choh^m got to put him in bondsⁿ at Rib'lah^o in the land of Ha'math, to keep him from reigning^p in Jerusalem, and then imposed a fine^q upon the land of a hundred silver^q talents^q and a gold talent.^r 34 Furthermore, Phar'aoh Ne'choh made E-li'-a-kim^s the son of Jo-si'ah king in place of Jo-si'ah his father and changed his name to Je-hoi'a-kim; and Je-ho'a-haz he took and then brought to Egypt, where he eventually died.^t 35 And the silver^u and the gold Je-hoi'a-kim gave to Phar'aoh. Only he taxed^v the land, to give the silver at the order of Phar'aoh. According to each one's individual tax^w rate he exacted the silver and the gold from the people of the land, to give it to Phar'aoh Ne'choh.

And his mother's name was Ze-bi'dah the daughter of Pe-dai'ah from Ru'mah. 37 And he continued to do what was bad^a in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that forefathers of his had done.^b

24 In his days Neb-u-chad-nez'zar^c the king of Babylon* came up, and so Je-hoi'a-kim became his servant^d for three years. However, he turned back and rebelled against him. 2 And Jehovah began to send against him marauder bands of Chal-de'ans^e and marauder bands of Syrians* and marauder bands of Mo'ab-ites^f and marauder bands of the sons of Am'mon, and he kept sending them against Judah to destroy it, according to Jehovah's word^g that he had spoken by means of his servants the prophets. 3 It was only by the order of Jehovah that it took place against Judah, to remove^h it from his sight for the sins of Ma-nas'seh,ⁱ according to all that he had done; 4 and also [for] the innocent blood^j that he had shed, so that he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and Jehovah did not consent to grant forgiveness.^k

5 As for the rest of the affairs of Je-hoi'a-kim^l and all that he did, are they not written in the book^m of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 6 Finally Je-hoi'a-kim lay down with his forefathers,ⁿ and Je-hoi'a-chin his son began to reign in place of him.

7 And never again^o did the king of Egypt come out from his land,^p for the king of Babylon had taken all that happened to belong to the king of Egypt^q from the torrent valley^r of Egypt up to the river Euphra'tes.^s ing that time the servants of Neb-uchad-nez'zar the king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, so that the city came under siege.^a 11 And Neb-uchad-nez'zar the king of Babylon proceeded to come against the city, while his servants were laying siege against it.^b

12 At length Je-hoi'a-chin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon,^c he with his mother^d and his servants and his princes and his court officials; and the king of Babylon got to take him in the eighth^e year of his being king.

13 Then he brought out from there all the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the king's house,^f and went on to cut to pieces all the gold utensils^g that Sol'o-mon the king of Israel had made in the temple of Jehovah, just as Jehovah had spoken.

14 And he took into exile^h all Jerusalem and all the princesⁱ and all the valiant, mighty^j men—ten thousand he was taking into exile—and also every craftsman^k and builder of bulwarks. No one had been left behind except the lowly class^l of the people of the land.

15 Thus he took Je-hoi'a-chin^m into exile to Babylon;ⁿ and the king's mother^o and the king's wives and his court officials^p and the foremost men of the land he led away as exiled people from Jerusalem to Babylon. 16 As for all the valiant men, seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the builders of bulwarks, a thousand, all the mighty men carrying on war, the king of Babylon proceeded to bring them as exiled people to Babylon.^q 17 Further, the king of Babylon^r made Mat-ta-ni'ah his uncle^s king in place of him. Then he changed his name to Zed-e-ki'ah.*^t

18 Twenty-one years old was Zed-e-ki'ah^u when he began to reign, and for eleven years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Ha-mu'tai^v the daughter of Jeremiah^w from Lib-nah. 19 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that Je-hoi'a-kim had done.^a 20 For on account of the anger^b of Jehovah it took place in Jerusalem and in Judah, until he had cast them out of his sight.^c And Zed-e-ki'ah began to rebel against the king of Babylon.^d

25 And it came about in the ninth^e year of his being king, in the tenth month on the tenth^f day of the month, that Neb-uchad-nez'zar^g the king of Babylon came,^h yes, he and all his military force, against Jerusalem and began camping against it and building against it a siege wall all around.ⁱ

2 And the city came to be under siege until the eleventh year of King Zed-e-ki'ah. 3 On the ninth^j day of the [fourth] month^k the famine^l was severe in the city, and there proved to be no bread^m for the people of the land. 4 And the city got to be breached,ⁿ and all the men of war [fled]^o by night by the way of the gate between the double wall that is by the king's garden,^p while the Chal-de'ans^q were all around against the city; and [the king]^r began to go^s in the direction of the Ar'a-bah.^t

5 And a military force of Chal-de'ans^u went chasing after the king, and they got to overtake him^v in the desert plains of Jer'i-cho;^w and all his own military force was scattered from his side. 6 Then they seized the king^x and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Rib'lah,^y that they might pronounce a judicial decision upon him. 7 And Zed-e-ki'ah's sons they slaughtered before his eyes,^z and Zed-e-ki'ah's eyes he blinded,^{aa} after which he bound him with copper fetters^{ab} and brought him to Babylon.^{ac}

8 And in the fifth month on the seventh [day] of the month, that is to say, the nineteenth^{ad} year of King Neb-uchad-nez'zar the king of Babylon,

19 And the sons of Ho-di'ah's wife, the sister of Na'ham, were the father of Kei'lah^b the Gar'mite and Esh-te-mo'a the Ma-ac'a-thite. 20 And the sons of Shi'mon were Am'non and Rin'nah, Ben-ha'nan and Ti'lou. And the sons of Ish'i were Zo'heth and Ben-zo'heth.

21 The sons of She'lah^c the son of Judah were Er the father of Le'cah and La'a-dah the father of Ma-re'shah and the families of the house of the workers of fine fabric^d of the house of Ash-be'a; 22 and Jo'kim and the men of Co-ze'-ba and Jo'ash and Sa'raph, who became owners of Mo'ab-ite wives,^e and Jash-u-bi-le'hem. And the sayings are of old tradition.^f 23 They were the potters^g and the inhabitants of Ne-ta'im and Ge-de'rah. It was with the king in his work that they dwelt there.^h

10 And the Philis'tines,^g for their part, made war upon Israel; and the men of Israel went fleeing from before the Philis'tines and kept falling slain in Mount Gil-bo'a.^h 2 And the Philis'tines kept in close range of Saul and his sons; and the Philis'tines got to strike down Jon'a-thanⁱ and A-bin'a-dab^j and Mal'chi-shu'a,^k sons of Saul.^l 3 And the fighting became heavy against Saul; and those shooting with the bow finally found him, and he got wounded by the shooters.^m 4 Then Saul said to his armor-bearer:ⁿ "Draw your sword^o and run me through with it, that these uncircumcised^p men may not come and certainly deal abusively^q with me." And his armor-bearer was unwilling,^r because he was very much afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell upon it.^s 5 When his armor-bearer saw that Saul had died, then he too fell upon the sword and died.^t 6 Thus Saul and three sons of his died,^u and all those of his house died together. 7 When all the men of Israel that were in the low plain saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, then they began to leave their cities and flee;^v after which the Philis'tines came on in and took up dwelling in them.

9 And they proceeded to strip him and take off his head^a and his armor and send into the land of the Philis'tines all around to inform^b their idols^c and the people. 10 Finally they put his armor in the house of their god,^d and his skull they fastened to the house of Da'gon.^e

11 And all those of Ja'besh^f in Gil'e-ad got to hear of all that the Philis'tines had done to Saul.^g 12 So all the valiant men rose up and carried off the corpse of Saul and the corpses of his sons and brought them to Ja'besh and buried their bones under the big tree^h in Ja'besh;ⁱ and they went fasting^j for seven days.

13 Thus Saul died for his unfaithfulness with which he had acted faithlessly^k against Jehovah concerning the word of Jehovah that he had not kept and also for asking of a spirit medium^l to make inquiry. 14 And he did not inquire of Jehovah.^m Consequently he put him to death and turned the kingship over to David the son of Jes'se.ⁿ

11 In time all the Israelites^o collected themselves together to David at He'bron,^p saying: "Look! We are your bone and your flesh.^q 2 Both yesterday and previously, even while Saul happened to be king, you were the one leading Israel out and bringing it in;^r and Jehovah your God proceeded to say to you, 'You yourself will shepherd^s my people Israel, and you yourself will become leader^t over my people Israel.'" 3 So all the older men^u of Israel came to the king at He'bron and David concluded a covenant with them in He'bron before Jehovah; after which they anointed^v David as king over Israel, according to Jehovah's word^w by means of Samuel.^x where the Jeb'u-sites^a were the inhabitants of the land. 5 And the inhabitants of Je'bus began to say to David: "You will not come in here."^b Just the same, David proceeded to capture the stronghold of Zion,^c that is to say, the City of David.^d 6 So David said: "Anyone striking^e the Jeb'u-sites first, he will become head and prince." And Jo'ab^f the son of Ze-ru'iah got to go up first, and he came to be head. 7 And David took up dwelling in the place difficult to approach.^g That is why they called it the City of David.^h 8 And he began to build the city all around, from the Mound even to the parts round about, but Jo'ab himself brought to lifeⁱ the rest of the city. 9 And David went on getting greater and greater,^j for Jehovah of armies was with him.^k

10 Now these are the heads of the mighty^l men that belonged to David, holding strongly with him in his kingship together with all Israel, to make him king according to Jehovah's word^m concerning Israel. 11 And this is the list of the mighty men that belonged to David: Ja-sho'be'amⁿ the son of a Hach'mon-ite, the head of the three.* He was brandishing his spear over three hundred slain at one time.^o 12 And after him there was El-e'a'zar^p the son of Do'do the A-ho'hite.^q He was among the three mighty men.^r 13 He it was that happened to be with David at Pas-dam'mim,^s where the Phi-lis'tines had gathered themselves together for war. Now there happened to be a tract of the field full of barley, and the people, for their part, had fled because of the Phi-lis'tines.^t 14 But he* took his stand in the middle of the tract and delivered it, and kept striking down the Phi-lis'tines, so that Jehovah saved^u with a great salvation.^v

David was then in the place hard to approach;^a and a garrison of the Phi-lis'tines^b was then in Beth'le-hem. 17 After a while David showed his craving and said: "O that I might have a drink^c of the water from the cistern of Beth'le-hem,^d which is at the gate!" 18 At that the three forced their way into the camp of the Phi-lis'tines and drew water from the cistern of Beth'le-hem, which is at the gate, and came carrying and bringing it to David.^e And David did not consent to drink it, but poured it out to Jehovah.^f 19 And he went on to say: "It is unthinkable on my part, as regards my God, to do this! using the right hand and using the left^a hand with stones^b or with arrows^c in the bow.^d They were of the brothers of Saul, of Benjamin. 3 There was the head A-hi-e'zer and Jo'ash the sons of She-ma'ah the Gib'e-ath-ite,^e and Je'zi-el and Pel'et the sons of Az'ma-veth,^f and Ber'a-cah and Je'hu the An'a-thoth-ite,^g 4 and Ish-ma'iah the Gib'e-on-ite,^h a mighty man among the thirtyⁱ and over the thirty; and Jeremiah and Ja-ha-zi'el and Jo-ha'nán and Jo'za-bad the Ge-de'-rath-ite,^j 5 E-lu'zai and Jer'i-moth and Be-a-li'ah and She-ma-ri'ah and Sheph-a-ti'ah the Har'i-phite, 6 El-ka'nah and Is-shi'ah and Az'ar-el and Jo-e'zer and Ja-sho'be-am, the Ko'rah-ites,^k 7 and Jo-e'lah and Zeba-di'ah the sons of Je-ro'ham of Ge'dor.

8 And there were some of the Gad'-ites that separated themselves to David's side at the place difficult to approach in the wilderness,^l valiant, mighty men, army men for the war, keeping the large shield and the lance ready,^m whose faces were the faces of lions,ⁿ and they were like the gazelles upon the mountains for speed.^o 9 E'zer was the head, O-ba-di'ah the second, E-li'ab the third, 10 Mish-man'nah the fourth, Jeremiah^p the fifth, 11 At'tai the sixth, E'li-el the seventh, 12 Jo-ha'nán the eighth, El-za'bad the ninth, 13 Jeremiah^q the tenth, Mach'ban-nai the eleventh. 14 These were of the sons of Gad,^r heads of the army. The least one was equal to a hundred, and the greatest to a thousand.^s 15 These are the ones that crossed the Jordan^t in the first month when it was overflowing all its banks,^u and they then chased away all those of the low plains, to the east and to the west.

16 And some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah proceeded to come clear to the place difficult to approach,^v to David. 17 Then David went out before them and answered and said to them: "If it is for peace^w that you have come to me to help me, my own heart will become at unity with you.^x But if it is to betray me to my adversaries when there is no wrong on my palms;^a let the God^b of our forefathers see to it and set it in order."^c 18 And spirit^d itself enveloped^e A-ma'sai, the head of the thirty:

"Yours [we are], O David, and with you [we are],^e O son of Jes'se. Peace, peace be yours, and peace to the one helping you, For your God has helped you."^f

So David received them and put them among the heads of the troops.^g

19 And there were some of Ma-nas'-seh that deserted* to David when he came with the Phi-lis'tines^h against Saul for battle; but heⁱ did not help them, for on counsel the axisⁱ lords of the Phi-lis'tines sent him away, saying: "At the risk of our own heads he will desert to his lord^a Saul."^j 20 When he came to Zik'lag^k there deserted to him from Ma-nas'-seh Ad'nah and Jo'za-bad and Je-di'a-el and Mi'chael and Jo'za-bad and E-li'hu and Zil'le-thai, heads^l of the thousands that belonged to Ma-nas'-seh. 21 And they, for their part, were of help to David against the marauder band,^m because all of them were mighty menⁿ of valor, and they came to be chiefs in the army; 22 for day by day people kept coming^o to David to help him, until it was a great^p camp, like the camp of God.^q

23 And these were the numbers of the heads of those equipped for the army that came to David at He'bron^r to turn the kingship^s of Saul over to him according to Jehovah's order.^t 24 The sons of Judah carrying the large shield and the lance were six thousand eight hundred, equipped for the army. 25 Of the sons of Sim'e-on the mighty men of valor of the army were seven thousand one hundred.

Aaron,^a and with him there were three thousand seven hundred. 28 Also Za'-dok^b a young man, mighty in valor, and the house of his forefathers, twenty-two chiefs.

29 And of the sons of Benjamin,^c the brothers of Saul,^d there were three thousand, and up till then the greater number of them were keeping strict watch of the house of Saul. 30 And of the sons of E'phraim there were twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men^e of valor, men of fame,^f by the house of their forefathers.

31 And of the half tribe of Ma-nas'-seh^g there were eighteen thousand that had been designated by name to come to make David king. 32 And of the sons of Is'sa-char^h having a knowledge of how to discern the timesⁱ to know what Israel ought to do,^j there were two hundred head ones of theirs, and all their brothers were at their orders. 33 Of Zeb'u-lun^j those going out to the army, drawing up in battle formation with all the weapons of war, there were fifty thousand, and for flocking together [to David]* they were not of a double heart. 34 And of Naph'tali^k there were a thousand chiefs, and with them with the large shield and the spear there were thirty-seven thousand. 35 And of the Dan'ites those drawing up in battle formation were twenty-eight thousand six hundred. 36 And of Ash'er^l those going out to the army for drawing up in battle formation were forty thousand.

37 And from across the Jordan^m of the Reu'ben-ites and the Gad'ites and the half tribe of Ma-nas'-seh with all the weapons of the military army there were a hundred and twenty thousand. 38 All these were men of war, flocking together in battle line; with a complete heartⁿ they came to He'bron to make David king over all Israel; and also all the remainder of Israel were of one heart for making David king.^o 39 And they continued there with David three days, eating and drinking,^p for their

13 And David proceeded to consult with the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds and with every leader;^m 2 and David went on to say to all the congregation* of Israel: "If it seems good to you and it is acceptable with Jehovah our God, let us send to our brothers that are left over in all the lands of Israelⁿ and with them [to] the priests^o and the Levites^p in their cities^q with pasture grounds, that they may collect themselves together to us. 3 And let us bring the ark^r of our God around to ourselves." For they had not cared for it in the days of Saul.^s 4 So all the congregation said to do that way, for the thing seemed right in the eyes of all the people.^t 5 Accordingly David congregated^u all Israel from the river of Egypt^{*v} as far as the entering of Ha'math,^{*w} to bring the ark^x of the [true] God from Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim.^y

6 And David and all Israel proceeded to go up to Ba'al-ah,^z to Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of the [true] God, Jehovah, sitting on the cherubs,^a where [his] name is called on. 7 However, they had the ark of the [true] God ride upon a new wagon^b from the house of A·bin'a·dab, and Uz'zah and A·hi'o^c were leading the wagon. 8 And David and all Israel were celebrating^d before the [true] God with full power and with songs^e and with harps^f and with stringed instruments^g and with tambourines^h and with cymbals and with trumpets.ⁱ 9 And they came gradually as far as the threshing floor of Chi'don,^a and Uz'zah now thrust his hand out to grab hold of the Ark,^b for the bulls nearly caused an upset. 10 At that Jehovah's anger blazed against Uz'zah, so that he struck him down because he had thrust his hand out upon the Ark,^c and he died there before God.^d 11 And David became angry^e because Jehovah had broken through in a rupture against Uz'zah; and that place came to be called Pe'rez-uz'zah* down to this day.

12 And David became afraid of the [true] God on that day,^f saying: "How shall I bring the ark of the [true] God to me?"^g 13 And David did not remove the Ark to himself at the City of David, but he carried it aside to the house of O'bed-e'dom^h the Git'tite.ⁱ 14 And the ark of the [true] God kept dwelling with the household of O'bed-e'dom, at his house^j three months; and Jehovah kept blessing^k the household of O'bed-e'dom and all that was his.

14 And Hi'ram^l the king of Tyre^m proceeded to send messengers to David and cedar timbersⁿ and builders of walls and workers in wood to build him a house.^o 2 And David came to know that Jehovah had firmly established^p him as king over Israel, for his kingship was highly exalted on account of his people Israel.^q

3 And David went on to take more wives^r in Jerusalem, and David came to be father to more sons and daughters.^s 4 And these are the names of the children that became his in Jerusalem: Sham·mu'a^t and Sho'bab,^u Nathan^v and Sol'o·mon,^w 5 and Ib'har^x and Eli'shu-a and El'pe·let,^y 6 and No'gah and Ne'pheg^z and Ja·phi'a, 7 and E·lish'a·ma^a and Be·e·li'a·da and E·li·ph'e·let.^b against them.* 9 And the Philis'tines, for their part, came in and kept making raids in the low plain of Reph'a-im.^a 10 And David began to inquire of God,^b saying: "Shall I go up against the Philis'tines, and will you certainly give them into my hand?" At this Jehovah said to him: "Go up, and I shall certainly give them into your hand." 11 So David went up to Ba'al-pe-ra'zim^c and there got to strike them down. At that David said: "The [true] God has broken through my enemies by my hand like a gap made by waters." That is why they called the name of that place^d Ba'al-pe-ra'zim. 12 Consequently they left their gods* there.^e Then David said [the word], and so they were burned in the fire.^f

13 Later the Philis'tines once again made a raid in the low plain.^g 14 At that David inquired^h again of God, and the [true] God now said to him: "You must not go up after them. Go around from directly against them, and you must come at them in front of the ba'ca bushes.ⁱ 15 And let it occur that, when you hear the sound of the marching in the tops of the ba'ca bushes,^j then you go out into the fight,^k because the [true] God will have gone out before you^l to strike the camp of the Philis'tines down." 16 So David did just as the [true] God had commanded him,^m and they went striking down the camp of the Philis'tines from Gib'e-onⁿ to Ge-zer.^o 17 And David's fame^p began to go out into all the lands, and Jehovah himself put the dread of him upon all the nations.^q

15 And he continued building houses^r for himself in the City of David; and he went on to prepare a place^s for the ark of the [true] God and pitch a tent for it. 2 It was then that David said: "No one is to carry the ark of the [true] God but the Levites, for to sacrifice seven young bulls and seven rams.^a 27 And David was dressed in a sleeveless coat of fine fabric, and also all the Levites carrying the Ark and the singers and Chen-a-ni'ah^b the chief of the carrying by the singers;^c but upon David there was an eph'od^d of linen. 28 And all the Israelites were bringing up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah with joyful shouting^e and with the sounding of the horn^f and with trumpets^g and with cymbals,^h playing aloud on stringed instruments and harps.ⁱ

29 And it came about that, when the ark of the covenant^j of Jehovah came as far as the City of David, Mi'chal,^k Saul's daughter, herself looked down through the window and got to see King David skipping about and celebrating;^l and she began to despise^m him in her heart.

16 Thus they brought the ark of the [true] God inⁿ and placed it inside the tent that David had pitched for it;^o and they began to present burnt offerings and communion sacrifices before the [true] God.^p 2 When David finished offering up the burnt offering^q and the communion sacrifices,^r he went on to bless^s the people in the name of Jehovah.^t 3 Further, he apportioned^u to all the Israelites, man as well as woman, to each one a round loaf of bread and a date cake and a raisin cake. 4 Then he put before the ark of Jehovah some of the Levites^v as ministers,^w both to call to remembrance^x and to thank^y and praise^z Jehovah the God of Israel, 5 A'saph^a the head, and second to him Zech-a-ri'ah, [and] Je-i'el and She-mir'a-moth and Je-hi'el and Mat-ti-thi'ah and E-li'ab and Be-nai'ah and O'bed-e'dom and Je-i'el,^b with instruments of the string type and with harps,^c and A'saph^d with the cymbals playing aloud,^e 6 and Be-nai'ah and Ja-ha-zi'el the priests with the trumpets^f constantly before the ark of the covenant of the [true] God.

3 And it came about on that night that the word^j of God came to Nathan, saying: 4 "Go, and you must say to David my servant, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "It will not be you that will build me the house in which to dwell."^k 5 For I have not dwelt in a house from the day that I brought Israel up until this day,^l but I continued from tent to tent and from one tabernacle^m [to another].ⁿ 6 During all the time that I walked^o about in all Israel, did I speak a single word with one of the judges of Israel whom I commanded to shepherd my people, saying, 'Why have you men not built me a house of cedars?'"^p

7 "And now this is what you will say to my servant David, 'This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "I myself took you from the pasture ground from following the flock^q to become a leader^r over my people Israel. 8 And I shall prove to be with you wherever you do walk,^s and I shall cut off all your enemies^t from before you, and I shall certainly make for you a name^u like the name of the great ones that are upon the earth."^v 9 And I shall certainly appoint a place for my people Israel and plant them,^w and they will indeed reside where they are and no more will they be disturbed; and the sons of unrighteousness^x will not wear them out again, just as they did at the first,^y 10 even since the days that I put judges^z in command over my people Israel. 19 And it came about afterward that Na'hash^l the king of the sons of Am'mon came to die, and his son began to reign in place of him.^m 2 At that David said: "I shall exercise loving-kindnessⁿ toward Ha'nun the son of Na'hash, because his father exercised loving-kindness toward me."^o Accordingly David sent messengers to comfort him over his father, and the servants of David proceeded to come into the land of the sons of Am'mon^p to Ha'nun to comfort him. 3 However, the princes of the sons of Am'mon said to Ha'nun: "Is David honoring your father in your eyes in that he has sent comforters to you? Is it not for the sake of making a thorough search and causing an overthrow and for spying^q out the land that his servants have come in to you?"^r 4 So Ha'nun took the servants of David^s and shaved them^t and cut their garments in half to their buttocks^u and sent them away.^v 5 Later people went and told David about the men; and he at once sent to meet them, because they had become men very much humiliated; and the king went on to say: "Dwell in Jer'i-cho^w until your beards grow abundantly. Then you must return."^x

6 In time the sons of Am'mon saw that they had become foul-smelling^y to David, and Ha'nun^z and the sons of Am'mon proceeded to send a thousand silver talents^a to hire for themselves chariots^b and horsemen from Mes-o-po-ta'mi-a^c and from A'ram-ma'a-cah^d and from Zo'bah.^e 7 Thus they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots^a and the king of Ma'a-cah and his people.^b Then they came in and camped before Med'e-ba;^c and as for the sons of Am'mon, they gathered together from their cities and now came in for the war.

8 When David heard of it, he immediately sent Jo'ab^d and all the army [and] the mighty men.^{*e} 9 And the sons of Am'mon began to go out and draw up in battle formation at the entrance of the city, and the kings^f that had come were by themselves in the open field.

10 When Jo'ab saw that the battle charges^g had come to be against him from the front and from the rear, he at once chose some of all the choice men in Israel and drew them up in formation to meet the Syrians.^h 11 And the rest of the people he gave into the hand of A-bish'ai^h his brother, that they might draw up in formation to meet the sons of Am'mon.ⁱ 12 And he went on to say: "If the Syrians^j become too strong for me, you must also serve as a salvation for me;^k but if the sons of Am'mon themselves become too strong for you, I must also save you." 13 Be strong,^m that we may show ourselves courageous in behalf of our people and in behalf of the cities of our God;ⁿ and as for Jehovah, what is good in his own eyes he will do."^o

14 Then Jo'ab and the people that were with him advanced before the Syrians to the battle,^p and they took to flight^q from before him. 15 As for the sons of Am'mon, they saw that the Syrians had fled, and they themselves also took to flight^r from before A-bish'ai his brother and then came into the city.^s Later Jo'ab came into Jerusalem.

the chief of the army of Had-ad-e'zer before them.

17 When the report was made to David, he immediately gathered all Israel together and crossed the Jordan and came to them and drew up in formation against them.^a When David drew up in battle formation to meet the Syrians, they began to fight against him.

18 But the Syrians took to flight^b because of Israel; and David went killing of the Syrians seven thousand charioteers and forty thousand men on foot, and Sho'phach the chief of the army himself he put to death.^c 19 When the servants of Had-ad-e'zer saw that they had been defeated before Israel,^d they promptly made peace with David and began to serve him;^e and Syria did not want to try saving the sons of Am'mon anymore.^f

20 And it came about at the time of the year's return,^g at the time that kings sally forth,^h that Jo'ab proceeded to lead the combat force of the armyⁱ and lay the land of the sons of Am'mon in ruin and to come and besiege Rab'bah,^j while David was dwelling in Jerusalem; and Jo'ab went on to strike^k Rab'bah and throw it down. 2 But David took the crown of Mal'cam^{*} off its head,^l and found it to be a talent^m of gold in weight, and in it there were precious stones;ⁿ and it came to be on David's head. And the spoil of the city that he brought out was very much.^m 3 And the people that were in it he brought out, and he kept them employedⁿ at sawing stones and at sharp instruments of iron and at axes;^{*o} and that was the way David proceeded to do to all the cities of the sons of Am'mon. Finally David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 And it came about after this that war began breaking out at Ge'zer^p with the Philis'tines.^q It was then that Sib'becai^r the Hu'shath-ite struck down Sippai* of those born of the Reph'a-im,^a so that they were subdued.

5 And there came to be war again with the Phi-lis'tines; and El-ha'nan^b the son of Ja'ir got to strike down Lah'mi the brother of Goli'ath^c the Git'tite,* the shaft of whose spear was like the beam of loom workers.^d

6 And there came to be war again at Gath,^e when there happened to be a man of extraordinary size^f whose fingers and toes were in sixes, twenty-four;^g and he, too, had been born to the Reph'a-im.^h 7 And he kept tauntingⁱ Israel. Finally Jon'a-than* the son of Shim'e-a^j the brother of David struck him down.

8 These were the ones that had been born to the Reph'a-im^k in Gath;^l and they came to fall^m by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

21 And Satan* proceeded to stand up against Israel and to inciteⁿ David to number Israel. 2 So David said to Jo'ab^o and the chiefs of the people: "Go, count^p Israel from Be'er-she'ba^q to Dan^r and bring it to me that I may know their number."^s 3 But Jo'ab said: "May Jehovah add to his people a hundred times as many as they are.^t Do they not, O my lord the king, all of them belong to my lord as servants? Why does my lord seek this?^u Why should he become a cause of guilt to Israel?"

4 The king's word,^v however, prevailed over Jo'ab, so that Jo'ab went out^w and walked through all Israel, after which he came to Jerusalem.^x 5 Jo'ab now gave the number of the registration of the people to David; and all Israel amounted to a million* one hundred thousand men drawing sword,^y and Judah four hundred and seventy thousand men drawing sword. 6 And Le'vi^z and Benjamin he did not register in among them,^a because the king's word had been detestable to Jo'ab.

7 Now this thing was bad in the eyes of the [true] God,^b and so he struck down Israel. 8 Consequently David said to the [true] God: "I have sinned^c very much in that I have done this thing. And now, please, cause your servant's error to pass away;^d for I have acted very foolishly."^e 9 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Gad,^f David's visionary,^g saying: 10 "Go, and you must speak to David, saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "There are three things that I am directing against you.^h Choose for yourself one of them, that I may do it to you."'" 11 Accordingly Gad went in to Davidⁱ and said to him: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Take your pick, 12 whether for three years there is to be a famine,^k or for three months there is to be a sweeping away from before your adversaries^l and for the sword of your enemies to overtake [you], or for three days there is to be the sword of Jehovah,^m even pestilence,ⁿ in the land, with Jehovah's angel bringing ruin^o in all the territory of Israel.' And now see what I should reply to the One sending me." 13 So David said to Gad: "It is very distressing to me. Please, let me fall into the hand of Jehovah,^p for very many are his mercies;^q but into the hand of man do not let me fall."^r

14 Then Jehovah gave a pestilence^s in Israel, so that out of Israel seventy thousand persons fell.^t 15 Moreover, the [true] God sent an angel to Jerusalem to bring ruin to it;^u and as soon as he began bringing the ruin, Jehovah saw it and began to feel regret over the calamity;^v and so he said to the angel that was bringing the ruin: "It is enough!^w Now let your hand drop." And Jehovah's angel was standing close by the threshing floor of Or'nan^x the Jeb'u-site.^y

the older men, covered with sackcloth,^a at once fell down upon their faces.^b 17 And David proceeded to say to the [true] God: "Was it not I that said to make a numbering of the people, and is it not I* that have sinned and have unquestionably done bad?^c As for these sheep,^d what have they done? O Jehovah my God, let your hand, please, come to be upon me and my father's house; but not upon your people,^e for a scourge."

18 And Jehovah's angel, for his part, said to Gad^f to say to David that David should go up to erect an altar to Jehovah on the threshing floor of Or'nán the Jeb'u-site.^g 19 Accordingly David went up at the word of Gad that he had spoken in the name of Jehovah.^h 20 Meantime, Or'nánⁱ turned back and saw the angel; and his four sons with him were hiding themselves. Now Or'nán had been threshing wheat. 21 So David came as far as Or'nán. When Or'nán looked and saw David,^j he immediately went out of the threshing floor and bowed down to David with his face to the earth. 22 Then David said to Or'nán: "Do give me the place of the threshing floor, that I may build in it an altar to Jehovah. For the money^k in full give it to me,^l that the scourge^m may be halted from upon the people."ⁿ 23 But Or'nán said to David: "Take it as your own,ⁿ and let my lord the king do what is good in his own eyes. See, I do give the cattle^o for burnt offerings and the threshing^p sledge for the wood^q and the wheat as a grain offering. The whole I do give."^r

24 However, King David said to Or'nán: "No, but without fail I shall make the purchase for the money in full,^s because I shall not carry what is yours to Jehovah to offer up burnt sacrifices without cost." 25 So David gave Or'nán for the place gold shekels^t to the weight of six hundred.^u 26 Then David built there an altar^a to Jehovah and offered up burnt sacrifices and communion sacrifices, and he proceeded to call upon Jehovah,^b who now answered him with fire^c from the heavens upon the altar of burnt offering. 27 Moreover, Jehovah said the word to the angel,^d who accordingly returned his sword to its sheath. 28 At that time, when David saw that Jehovah had answered him at the threshing floor of Or'nán the Jeb'u-site, he continued to sacrifice there.^e 29 But the tabernacle of Jehovah that Moses had made in the wilderness and the altar of burnt offering were at that time on the high place at Gib'e-on.^f 30 And David had not been able to go before it to consult God,^g for he had been terrified^h because of the sword of Jehovah's angel.

22 Then David said: "This is the house^h of Jehovah the [true] God,ⁱ and this is an altar^j for burnt offering for Israel."

2 David now said to bring together the alien residents^k that were in the land of Israel, and then he set them as stone hewers^k to hew squared stones^l for building the house of the [true] God. 3 And iron in great quantity for nails for the doors of the gates and for clamps David prepared, and also copper in such quantity as to be beyond weighing,^m 4 and also cedarⁿ timbers without number; for the Si-do'ni-ans^o and the Tyr'i-ans^p brought in cedar timbers in great quantity to David. 5 Accordingly David said: "Sol'o-mon my son is young and delicate,^q and the house to be built to Jehovah is to be surpassingly magnificent^r for beauteous^s distinction^t to all the lands. Let me, then, make preparation for him." So David made preparation in great quantities before his death.^u

6 Moreover, he called Sol'o-mon his son that he might command him to build a house to Jehovah the God of Israel. 7 And David went on to say to Sol'o-mon his son: "As for myself, it became close to my heart^a to build a house to the name^b of Jehovah my God. 8 But Jehovah's word came against me, saying, 'Blood in great quantity you have spilled,^c and great wars you have waged.^d You will not build a house to my name,^e for a great deal of blood* you have spilled on the earth before me. 9 Look! 11 "Now, my son, may Jehovah prove to be with you, and you must prove successful and build the house of Jehovah your God, just as he has spoken concerning you.ⁿ 12 Only may Jehovah give you discretion and understanding,^o and may he give you commandment concerning Israel even to keep the law of Jehovah your God.^p 13 In that case you will prove successful^q if you take care to carry out the regulations^r and the judicial decisions^s that Jehovah commanded^t Moses respecting Israel. 17 And David went on to command all the princes of Israel to help Sol'o-mon his son: 18 "Is not Jehovah YOUR God with you,^f and has he not given YOU rest all around?^g For he has given into my hand the inhabitants of the land, and the land has been subdued before Jehovah^h and before his people. 19 Now set YOUR heart and YOUR soulⁱ to inquire after Jehovah YOUR God,^j and rise and build the sanctuary^k of Jehovah the [true] God,^l to bring the ark^m of the covenant of Jehovah and the holy utensils of the [true] God to the house built to the nameⁿ of Jehovah."

23 And David himself had grown old^o and satisfied with days, and so he made Sol'o-mon^p his son king over Israel. 2 And he proceeded to gather all the princes^q of Israel and the priests^r and the Levites.^s 3 Accordingly the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years upward;^t and their number, head by head of them, able-bodied man by able-bodied man, came to be thirty-eight thousand. 4 Of these for acting as supervisors over the work of the house of Jehovah there were twenty-four thousand; and as officers^u and judges^v six thousand; 5 and four thousand gatekeepers^w and four thousand givers of praise^x to Jehovah on the instruments^y that [David said] "I have made for giving praise."

6 Then David distributed them in divisions^z to the sons of Le'vi,^a to Ger'shon, Ko'hath and Mer-ar'i. 7 To the Ger'shon-ites, La'dan and Shim'e-i. 8 The sons of La'dan were Je-hi'e-l^b the headman and Ze'tham and Joel,^c three. 9 The sons of Shim'e-i were She-lo'moth and Ha'zi-el and Ha'ran, three. were the heads of the fathers for La'dan. 10 And the sons of Shim'e-i were Ja'hath, Zi'na* and Je'ush and Be-ri'ah. These four were the sons of Shim'e-i. 11 And Ja'hath came to be the head, and Zi'zah the second. As for Je'ush and Be-ri'ah, they did not have many sons; so they became a paternal^a house for one official class.

12 The sons of Ko'hath^b were Am'ram, Iz'har,^c He'bron^d and Uz'zi-el,^e four. 13 The sons of Am'ram were Aaron^f and Moses.^g But Aaron was separated^h that he might sanctify* the Most Holy,ⁱ he and his sons to time indefinite, to make sacrificial^j smoke before Jehovah, to minister to him^k and to pronounce blessing^l in his name to time indefinite. 14 As for Moses the man of the [true] God,^m his sons themselves continued to be called among the tribe of the Levites.ⁿ 15 The sons of Moses were Ger'shom^o and E-li-e'zer.^p 16 The sons of Ger'shom were Sheb'u-el*^q the head. 17 And the sons of E-li-e'zer came to be Re-ha-bi'ah^r the head; and E-li-e'zer did not come to have other sons, but the sons of Re-ha-bi'ah did themselves become exceedingly many. 18 The sons of Iz'har^s were She-lo'mith^t the headman. 19 The sons of He'bron were Je-ri'ah the head, Am-a-ri'ah the second, Ja-ha-zi'el the third and Jek-a-me'am^u the fourth. 20 The sons of Uz'zi-el^v were Mi'cah the head and Is-shi'ah the second.

21 The sons of Mer-a-ri^w were Mah'li and Mu'shi.^x The sons of Mah'li were El-e-a'zar^y and Kish. 22 But El-e-a'zar died; and he had come to have, not sons, but daughters. So the sons of Kish their brothers took them [as wives].^z 23 The sons of Mu'shi were Mah'li and E'der and Jer'e-moth,^a three.

of the fathers, by their commissioned ones, in the number of the names, head by head* of them, the doers of the work for the service^a of the house of Jehovah, from the age of twenty years upward.^b 25 For David had said: "Jehovah the God of Israel has given rest to his people,^c and he will reside in Jerusalem to time indefinite.^d 26 And also the Levites will not have to carry the tabernacle or any of its utensils for its service."^e 27 For by the last words^f of David these were the number of the sons of Le'vi from the age of twenty years upward. 28 For their function was at the disposition* of the sons of Aaron^g for the service of the house of Jehovah over the courtyards^h and over the dining roomsⁱ and over the purification of every holy thing^j and the work of the service of the house of the [true] God, 29 even for the layer bread^k and for the fine flour^l for the grain offering and for the wafers^m of unfermented breadⁿ and for the griddle^o [cakes] and for the mixed^p dough and for all measures of quantity and size;^q 30 and for standing^r morning by morning^s to thank^t and praise^u Jehovah, and likewise at evening; 31 and for every offering up of the burnt sacrifices to Jehovah at the sabbaths,^v at the new moons^w and at the festival seasons,^x by number according to the rule concerning them, constantly before Jehovah. 32 And they took care of the guarding^y of the tent of meeting and the guarding of the holy place^z and the guarding of the sons of Aaron their brothers for the service of the house of Jehovah.^a

24 Now the sons of Aaron had their divisions. The sons of Aaron were Na'dab^b and A-bi'hu,^c El-e-a'zar^d and Ith'a-mar.^e 2 However, Na'dab and A-bi'hu^f died before their father,^g and they did not happen to have any sons, but El-e-a'zar^h and Ith'a-mar continued to act as priests. 3 And David, and Za'dokⁱ from the sons of El-e-a'zar, and A-him'e-lech^j from the sons of Ith'a-mar proceeded to make divisions of

4 But the sons of Ele-a'zar were found to be more numerous in headmen than the sons of Ith'a-mar. So they distributed them to the sons of Ele-a'zar, as heads for [their]* paternal houses, sixteen, and to the sons of Ith'a-mar, [as heads] for their paternal houses, eight.

5 Further, they distributed them by lots,^b these along with those, for there had to be chiefs of the holy place^c and chiefs of the [true] God from the sons of Ele-a'zar and from the sons of Ith'a-mar. 6 Then She-mai'ah the son of Ne-than'el the secretary^d of the Levites wrote them down before the king and the princes and Za'dok^e the priest and A-him'e-lech^f the son of A-bi'a-thar^g and the heads of the fathers of the priests and of the Levites,^h one paternal house being picked out for Ele-a'zarⁱ and one being picked out for Ith'a-mar.^j

7 And the lot proceeded to come out: the first for Je-hoi'a-rib;^k for Je-da'iah the second, 8 for Ha'rim the third, for Se-o'rim the fourth, 9 for Mal-chi'jah the fifth, for Mij'a-min the sixth, 10 for Hak'koz the seventh, for A-bi'jah^l the eighth, 11 for Jesh'u-a the ninth, for Shec-a-ni'ah the tenth, 12 for Eli-a-shib the eleventh, for Ja'kim the twelfth, 13 for Hup'pah the thirteenth, for Je-sheb'e-ab the fourteenth, 14 for Bil'gah the fifteenth, for Im'mer the sixteenth, 15 for He'zir the seventeenth, for Hap'piz-zeh the eighteenth, 16 for Peth-a-hi'ah the nineteenth, for Je-hez'-kel the twentieth, 17 for Ja'chin the twenty-first, for Ga'mul the twenty-second, 18 for De-la'iah the twenty-third, for Ma-a-zi'ah the twenty-fourth.

19 These were their offices^m for their service,ⁿ to come into the house of Je-hovah according to their due right^o by the hand of Aaron their forefather, just as Jehovah the God of Israel had commanded him.

As respects paternal houses,^p the head one was exactly as his younger brother.

25 Further, David and the chiefs^q of the service groups^r separated for the service some of the sons of A'saph, He'man^s and Je-du'thun^t the ones prophesying with the harps,^u with the stringed instruments^v and with the cymbals.^w And from their number the official men for their service came to be. 2 Of the sons of A'saph, Zac'cur and Joseph^x and Neth-a-ni'ah and Ash-a-re'lah,^y the sons of A'saph under the control of A'saph^z the one prophesying under the control of the king. 3 Of Je-du'thun:^a the sons of Je-du'thun, Ged-a-li'ah^b and Ze'ri^c and Je-sha'iah,^d [and Shim'e-i,]* Hash-a-bi'ah and Mat-ti-thi'ah,^e six, under the control of their father Je-du'thun, who was prophesying with the

Under the control of the king were A'saph and Je-du'thun and He'man.^r

7 And the number of them together with their brothers trained in song to Jehovah,^s all experts,^t came to be two hundred and eighty-eight. 8 So they cast lots^u as to the things to be taken care of, the little being just the same as the great,^v the expert^w along with the learner.

These were the princes^e of the tribes of Israel.

23 And David did not take the number of those from twenty years of age and under, because Jehovah had promised to make Israel as many as the stars of the heavens.^f 24 Jo'ab^g the son of Zeru'iah had himself started to take the count, but he did not finish;^h and for this there came to be indignationⁱ against Israel, and the number did not come up into the account of the affairs of the days of King David.

25 And over the treasures of the king^j there was Az'ma-veth the son of Ad'i-el. And over the treasures in the field,^k in the cities^l and in the villages and in the towers there was Jon'a-than^m the son of Uz'zi'ah. 26 And over the doers of work in the field,ⁿ for the cultivation of the soil, there was Ez'ri the son of Che'lub. 27 And over the vineyards^o there was Shim'e-i the Ra'math-ite; and over that which was in the vineyards for the wine supplies there was Zab'di the Shiph'mite. 28 And over the olive groves and the sycamore^p trees that were in the She-phe'lah^q there was Ba'al-ha-nan the Ge-de'rite; and over the oil^r supplies there was Jo'ash. 29 And over the herds that were grazing in Shar'on^s there was Shit'rai the Shar'-on-ite; and over the herds in the low plains there was Sha'phat the son of Ad'lai. 30 And over the camels^t there was O'bil the Ish'ma-el-ite;^u and over the she-asses there was Jeh-de'iah the Me-ron'o-thite. 31 And over the flocks there was Ja'ziz the Hag'rite. All these 32 And Jon'a-athan,^a David's nephew,* was a counselor, a man of understanding,^b he being also a secretary; and Jehi'el the son of Hach'mo-ni^c was with the king's sons.^d 33 And A-hith'o-phel^e was a counselor^f of the king; and Hu'shai^g the Ar'chite^h was the king's companion.ⁱ 34 And after A-hith'o-phel there were Jehoi'a-da the son of Benai'ah^j and A-bi'a-thar;^k and Jo'ab^l was chief of the army of the king.

28 And David proceeded to congregate all the princes^m of Israel, the princesⁿ of the tribes and the princes^o of the divisions of those ministering to the king and the chiefs* of thousands^p and the chiefs of hundreds^q and the chiefs of all the goods^r and livestock^s of the king and of his sons,^t together with the court officials^u and the mighty men,^v even every valiant, mighty man, to Jerusalem. 2 Then David the king rose to his feet and said:

"Hear me, my brothers and my people. As for me, it was close to my heart^w to build a resting house for the ark of the covenant of Jehovah and as the footstool^x of our God, and I had made preparation to build.^y 3 And the [true] God himself said to me, 'You will not build a house to my name;^z for a man of wars you are, and blood you have spilled.'^a 4 Accordingly Jehovah the God of Israel chose me out of all the house of my father^b to become king^c over Israel to time indefinite; for it was Judah that he chose as leader,^d and in the house of Judah my father's house,^e and among my father's sons,^f I was the one whom he approved,^g to make me king over all Israel; 5 and out of all my sons (for many are the sons whom Jehovah has given me)^h he then chose Sol'o-monⁱ my son to sit upon the throne^j of the kingship of Jehovah over Israel.

20 And David went on to say to all the congregation: "Bless,^e now, Jehovah YOUR God." And all the congregation proceeded to bless Jehovah the God of their forefathers and bow low^f and prostrate^g themselves to Jehovah and to the king. 21 And they continued

THE SECOND OF CHRONICLES*

1 And Sol'o-mon the son of David continued to get strength in his kingship,^a and Jehovah his God was with him^b and kept making him surpassingly great.^c

2 And Sol'o-mon proceeded to say the word to all Israel, to the chiefs of the thousands^d and of the hundreds^e and to the judges^f and to all the chieftains of all Israel,^g the heads of the paternal houses.^h

3 Then Sol'o-mon and all the congregationⁱ with him went to the high place that was at Gib'e-on;^j for there was where the tent of meeting^k of the [true] God,^l which Moses the servant^m of Jehovah had made in the wilderness, happened to be.

4 However, the arkⁿ of the [true] God David had brought up from Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim^o to the place that David had prepared for it,^p for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.^q

5 And the copper altar^r that Bez'al-el^s the son of U'ri the son of Hur^t had made had been put^u before the tabernacle of Jehovah; and Sol'o-mon and the congregation applied as usual to it. 6 Sol'o-mon now made offerings there before Jehovah upon the copper altar that belonged to the tent of meeting, and he proceeded to offer upon it a thousand burnt offerings.^v

7 During that night God appeared to Sol'o-mon and then said to him: "Ask! What shall I give you?"^w 8 At that Sol'o-mon said to God: "You are the One that exercised great loving-kindness^x toward David my father^y and that have made me king in place of him.^z 9 Now, O Jehovah God, let your promise with 13 So Sol'o-mon came [from]ⁿ the high place that was at Gib'e-on,^o from before the tent of meeting,^p to Jerusalem and continued to reign over Israel.^q

14 And Sol'o-mon kept gathering chariots and steeds^r so that he came to have a thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand steeds,^s and he kept them stationed in chariot cities^t and close by the king at Jerusalem.

2 Sol'o-mon now gave the word to build a house^c to Jehovah's name^d and a house for his kingship.^{*e} 2 Accordingly Sol'o-mon counted off seventy thousand men as burden bearers and eighty thousand men as cutters in the mountain,^f and as overseers over them three thousand six hundred.^g 3 Further, Sol'o-mon sent to Hi'ram^{h} the king of Tyre, saying: "Just as you dealt with Davidⁱ my father and you kept sending him cedarwood to build himself a house in which to dwell,— 4 here I am building^j a house to the name^k of Jehovah my God to sanctify^l it to him, to burn perfumed incense^m before him, with the constant layer breadⁿ and burnt offerings in the morning and in the evening,^o on the sabbaths^p and on the new moons^q and at the festival seasons^r of Jehovah our God. 3 Finally Sol'o-mon started to build the house of Jehovah^h in Jerusalem on Mount Mo-ri'ah,ⁱ where [Jehovah]^j had appeared to David his father,^j in the place that David had prepared on the threshing floor of Or'nan^k the Jeb'u-site. 2 Accordingly he started to build in the second month on the second [day], in the fourth year of his reign.^l 3 And these things Sol'o-mon laid as a foundation for building the house of the [true] God, the length in cubits by the former measurement being sixty cubits, and the width twenty cubits.^m 4 And the porchⁿ that was in front of the length was twenty cubits in front of the width of the house, and its height was a hundred and twenty;* and he proceeded to overlay it inside with pure gold. 5 And the great house^o he covered with juniper wood, after which he covered it with good gold,^p and then he brought up upon it palm-tree^q figures and chains.^r 6 Further, he overlaid the house with precious stone* for beauty;^s and the gold^t was gold from the gold country.^u

7 And he went on to cover the house, the rafters, the thresholds and its walls and its doors with gold;^a and he engraved cherubs upon the walls.^b

8 And he proceeded to make the house of the Most Holy,^c its length in relation to the width of the house being twenty cubits, and its own width being twenty cubits;^d and then he covered it with good gold to the amount of six hundred talents. 9 And the weight for the nails^e was fifty gold shekels;^f and the roof chambers he covered with gold.

10 Then he made in the house of the Most Holy two cherubs^f in the workmanship of images, and overlaid them with gold.^g 11 As for the wings of the cherubs,^h their length was twenty cubits, the one wing of five cubits reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing of five cubits reaching to the wing of the other cherub.ⁱ 12 And the wing of the one cherub of five cubits was reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing of five cubits was in contact with the wing of the other cherub.^j 13 The wings of these cherubs were spread out twenty cubits; and they were standing upon their feet with their faces inward.

14 Further, he made the curtain^k of blue thread^l and wool dyed reddish purple and crimson and fine fabric, and worked in cherubs upon it.^m

15 Then he made before the house two pillars,ⁿ thirty-five cubits in length,^o and the capital^o that was upon the top of each one was five cubits. 16 Further, he made chains^p in necklace style* and put them upon the tops of the pillars, and made a hundred pomegranates^q and put them on the chains. 17 And he proceeded to set up the pillars in front of the temple, one to the right and one to the left, after which he called the name of the right-hand one Ja'chin* and the name of the left-hand one Bo'az.^r

4 Then he made the copper altar,^a twenty cubits being its length, and twenty cubits its width, and ten cubits its height.^b

2 And he proceeded to make the molten sea^c ten cubits from its one brim to its other brim, circular all around, and its height was five cubits, and it took a line of thirty cubits to circle all around it.^d 3 And there was the likeness of gourd-shaped^e ornaments* under it clear around, surrounding it, ten in a cubit, enclosing the sea all around.^f The gourd-shaped ornaments were in two rows, being cast in its casting. 4 It was standing upon twelve bulls,^g three facing the north and three facing the west and three facing the south and three facing the east; and the sea was above upon them, and all their hind parts were inward.^h 5 And its thickness was a handbreadth;* and its brim was like the workmanship of the brim of a cup, a lily blossom.ⁱ As a receptacle, three thousand bath^j measures^k were what it could contain.^k

6 Further, he made ten basins, and put five to the right and five to the left,^l to wash in them.^m Things having to do with the burnt offeringⁿ they would rinse in them. But the sea was for the priests to wash in it.^o

7 He then made lampstands^p of gold, ten of them of the same plan,^q and put them in the temple, five to the right and five to the left.^r

8 Further, he made ten tables, and stationed them in the temple, five to the right and five to the left,^s and made a hundred bowls of gold.

9 Then he made the courtyard^t of the priests^u and the great enclosure^v and the doors belonging to the enclosure, and their doors he overlaid with copper. 10 And the sea he placed at the right side, to the east, toward the south.^w

11 Finally Hi'ram* made the cans^x and the shovels^y and the howls.^z

So Hi'ram finished doing the work that he did for King Sol'o-mon on the house of the [true] God. 12 The two pillars^a and the round capitals^b upon the top of the two pillars and the two networks^c to cover the two round capitals that were upon the top of the pillars 13 and the four hundred pomegranates^d for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network to cover the two round capitals that were upon the pillars,^e 14 and the ten carriages^f and the ten basins^g upon the carriages; 15 the one sea^h and the twelve bulls under it,ⁱ 16 and the cans and the shovels^j and the forks^k and all their utensils^l Hi'ram-a'biv*^m made for King Sol'o-mon for the house of Jehovah, of polished copper. 17 In the District of the Jordan the king cast them in the thick ground* between Suc'cothⁿ and Zer'e-dah.^o 18 Thus Sol'o-mon made all these utensils in very great quantity, for the weight of the copper was not ascertained.^p

19 And Sol'o-mon proceeded to make all the utensils^q that were at the house of the [true] God and the golden altar^r and the tables^s with the showbread^t upon them, 20 and the lampstands^u and their lamps^v of pure gold, to light them up before the innermost room^w according to the rule; 21 and the blossoms and the lamps and the snuffers,^x of gold, (it was the purest gold,) 22 and the extinguishers and the bowls and the cups and the fire holders, of pure gold,^y and the entrance of the house,^z its inner doors for the Most Holy and the doors^z of the house of the temple, of gold.

5 Finally all the work that Sol'o-mon had to do for the house of Jehovah was at its completion,^a and Sol'o-mon began to bring in the things made holy by David his father;^b and the silver and the gold and all the utensils he put in the treasures of the house of the 4 So all the older men of Israel came,^j and the Levites began to carry the Ark.^k 5 And they came bringing up the Ark^l and the tent of meeting^m and all the holy utensilsⁿ that were in the tent. The priests the Levites* brought them up.^o 6 And King Sol'o-mon and all the assembly of Israelites that were keeping their appointment with him before the Ark were sacrificing^p sheep and cattle that could not be counted or numbered for multitude. 7 Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of Jehovah into its place, into the innermost^q room of the house, into the Most Holy,^r to underneath the wings of the cherubs.^s 8 Thus the cherubs were continually spreading out their wings over the place of the Ark, so that the cherubs covered over the Ark and its poles^t from above.^u 9 But the poles were long, so that the tips of the poles were visible at the Holy* in front of the innermost room, but they were not visible outside, and they^v continue there down to this day.^w 10 There was nothing in the Ark but the two tablets^x that Moses had given at Ho'reb,^y when Jehovah covenanted^z with the sons of Israel while they were coming out from Egypt.^{aa} of them, while all the Israelites were standing.

7 Then Sol'o-mon sanctified^a the middle of the courtyard that was before the house of Jehovah, because there he rendered up the burnt offerings^b and the fat pieces of the communion sacrifices, for the copper altar^c that Sol'o-mon had made was itself not able to contain the burnt offering and the grain offering^d and the fat pieces.^e 8 And Sol'o-mon proceeded to hold the festival^f at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him,^g a very great congregation^h from the entering in of Ha'mathⁱ down to the torrent valley of Egypt.^j 9 But on the eighth day they held a solemn assembly,^k because the inauguration of the altar they had held for seven days and the festival for seven days. 10 And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their homes, joyful^l and feeling good at heart over the goodness^m that Jehovah had performed toward David and toward Sol'o-mon and toward Israel his people.ⁿ

11 Thus Sol'o-mon finished the house of Jehovah^o and the house of the king;^p and in everything that had come into Sol'o-mon's heart to do regarding the house of Jehovah and his own house he proved successful. 12 Jehovah now appeared^q to Sol'o-mon during the night and said to him: "I have heard your prayer,^r and I have chosen^s this place for myself as a house of sacrifice.^t 13 When I shut up the heavens that no rain may occur^u and when I command the grasshoppers to eat up the land^v and if I send a pestilence among my people,^w 14 and my people^x upon whom my name^y has been called humble^z themselves and pray^a and seek my face^b and turn back from their bad ways,^c then I myself shall hear from the heavens^d and forgive their sin,^e and I shall heal their land.^f 15 Now my own eyes^g will prove to be opened and

8 And it came about at the end of twenty years,^e in which Sol'o-mon had built the house of Jehovah^f and his own house,^g 2 that the cities that Hi'ram^h had given to Sol'o-mon—Sol'o-mon rebuilt them and then caused the sons of Israel to dwell there. 3 Furthermore, Sol'o-mon went to Ha'math-zo'bah and prevailed over it. 4 Then

11 And Phar'aoh's daughter^a Sol'o-mon brought up out of the City of David^b to the house that he had built for her,^c for he said: "Although a wife of mine, she should not dwell in the house of David the king of Israel, for the places to which the ark of Jehovah has come are something holy."^d

12 It was then that Sol'o-mon offered up burnt sacrifices^e to Jehovah upon the altar^f of Jehovah that he had built before the porch,^g 13 even as a daily^h matter of course to make offerings according to the commandment of Moses for the sabbathsⁱ and for the new moons^j and for the appointed festivals^k

17 Further, the king made a great ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold.ⁱ 18 And there were six steps to the throne, and there was a footstool in gold to the throne (they were attached), and there were armrests on this side and on that side by the place of sitting, and two lions^j were standing beside the armrests.^k 19 And there were twelve lions^l standing there upon the six steps on this side and on that side. No other kingdom had any made just like it.^m 20 And all the drinking vesselsⁿ of King Sol'o-mon were of gold,^o and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Leb'a-non^p were of pure gold. There was nothing of silver; it was considered as nothing at all^q in the days of Sol'o-mon. 21 For ships belonging to the king were going to Tar'shish^r with the servants of Hi'ram.^s Once every three years ships of Tar'shish would come in, carrying gold and silver,^t ivory,^u and apes^v and peacocks.

22 So King Sol'o-mon was greater than all the other kings of the earth in riches^w and wisdom.^x 23 And all the kings of the earth were seeking^y the face of Sol'o-mon to hear his wisdom,^a which the [true] God had put in his heart.^b 24 And they were bringing each his gift,^c articles of silver and articles of gold^d and garments,^e armor and balsam oil, horses and mules as a yearly matter of course.^f 25 And Sol'o-mon came to have four thousand stalls of horses^g and chariots^h and twelve thousand steeds,ⁱ and he kept them stationed in the chariot cities^j and close by the king in Jerusalem. 26 And he came to be ruler over all the kings from the River* down to the land of the Phi-lis'tines and down to the boundary of Egypt.^j 27 Furthermore, the king made the silver in Jerusalem like the stones; and cedarwood he made like the sycamore^k trees that are in the She-phe'lah^l for abundance.^m 28 And there were those bringing out horsesⁿ to Sol'o-mon from Egypt^o and from all the other lands.

29 As for the rest of the affairs of Sol'o-mon,^p the first and the last, are they not written among the words of Nathan^q the prophet and in the prophecy of A-hi'jah^r the Shi'lo-nite^s and in the record of visions of Id'do^t the visionary concerning Jer-o-bo'am^u the son of Ne'bat?^v 30 And Sol'o-mon continued to reign in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years. 31 Finally Sol'o-mon lay down with his forefathers. 10 And Re-ho-bo'am^z proceeded to go to She'chem,^a for it was to She'chem that all the Israelites came to make him king. 2 And it came about that as soon as Jer-o-bo'am^b the son of Ne'bat heard of it while he was yet in Egypt,^c (because he had run away on account of Sol'o-mon the king,) Jer-o-bo'am immediately came back from Egypt.^d 3 So they sent and called him, and Jer-o-bo'am and all Israel came and spoke to

Re-ho-bo'am, saying:^a 4 "Your father, for his part, made our yoke hard;^b and now make the hard service of your father and the heavy yoke^c that he put upon us lighter, and we shall serve you."^d

5 At this he said to them: "Let there be yet three days. Then return to me." So the people went away. 6 And King Re-ho-bo'am began to take counsel^e with the older men that were continually attending upon Sol'o-mon his father while he continued alive, saying: "How are you advising to reply to this people?"^f 7 Accordingly they spoke to him, saying: "If you would prove yourself good to this people and actually be pleasing to them and indeed speak good words to them,^g they also will certainly become your servants always."^h

8 However, he left the counselⁱ of the older men with which they had advised him, and he began to take counsel with the young men that had grown up with him,^j who were the ones attending upon him.^k 9 And he went on to say to them: "What is it that you are offering in counsel^l that we may reply to this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke that your father put upon us lighter'?"^m 10 In turn the young men that had grown up with him spoke with him, saying: "This is what you should say to the people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father, for his part, made our yoke heavy, but, as for you, make it lighter upon us'; this is what you should say to them,ⁿ 'My own little finger will certainly be thicker than my father's hips.'^o 11 And now my father, for his part, loaded upon you a heavy yoke, but I, for my part, shall add to your yoke.^p My father, for his part, chastised you with whips, but I, for my part, with scourges."^q

12 And Jer-o-bo'am and all the people proceeded to come to Re-ho-bo'am on the third^r day, just as the king had spoken, saying: "Return to me on the third day."^s 13 And the king began to answer them harshly.^t Thus King Re-ho-bo'am left the counsel^u of the older men,^v 14 and he went on to speak to them according to the counsel of the young men,^a saying: "I shall make your yoke heavier, and I, for my part, shall add to it. My father, for his part, chastised you with whips, but I, for my part, with scourges."^b 15 And the king did not listen to the people; for it proved to be a turn of affairs from the [true] God^c in order that Jehovah might carry out his word^d that he had spoken by means of A-hi'jah^e the Shi'lo-nite^f to Jer-o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat.^g

16 As for all Israel, because the king did not listen to them, the people now replied to the king, saying: "What share do we have in David?^h And there is no inheritance in the son of Jes'se.ⁱ Each one to your gods,^j O Israel! Now see to your own house, O David."^k With that all Israel began to go to its tents.

17 As for the sons of Israel that were dwelling in the cities of Judah, Re-ho-bo'am continued to reign over them.^l

18 Subsequently King Re-ho-bo'am sent Ha-do'ram,^m who was over those conscripted for forced labor, but the sons of Israel pelted him with stones,ⁿ so that he died. And King Re-ho-bo'am himself managed to get up into his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.^o 19 And the Israelites kept up their revolt^p against the house of David down to this day.

11 When Re-ho-bo'am arrived at Jerusalem,^q he immediately congregated the house of Judah and Benjamin,^r a hundred and eighty thousand choice men able-bodied for war,^s to fight against Israel so as to bring the kingdom back to Re-ho-bo'am. 2 Then the word of Jehovah came to She-mai'ah^t the man of the [true] God, saying: 3 "Say to Re-ho-bo'am the son of Sol'o-mon the king of Judah^a and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, 4 'This is what Jehovah has said: "You must not go up and fight against your brothers.^b Return each one to his house, for it is at my own instance that this thing has been brought about."^c So they obeyed the word of Jehovah and returned from going against Jer-o-bo'am.^d

5 And Re-ho-bo'am continued to dwell in Jerusalem and proceeded to build fortified cities in Judah. 6 Thus he rebuilt Beth'le-hem^e and E'tam^f and Teko'a,^g 7 and Beth-zur^h and So'coⁱ and A-dul'lam,^j 8 and Gath^k and Ma-re'-shah^l and Ziph,^m 9 and Ad-o-ra'im and La'chishⁿ and A-ze'kah,^o 10 and Zo'-rah^p and Aj'jal-on^q and He'bron,^r fortified cities, which were in Judah and Benjamin. 11 Further, he reinforced the fortified places^s and put leaders^t in them and supplies of food and oil and wine, 12 and in all the different cities large shields^u and lances;^v and he went on reinforcing them to a very great degree. And Judah and Benjamin continued his.

13 And the priests and the Levites themselves that were in all Israel took their stand by him out of all their territories. 14 For the Levites left their pasture grounds^w and their possession^x and then came to Judah and Jerusalem,^y because Jer-o-bo'am^z and his sons had discharged^a them from acting as priests to Jehovah. 15 And he proceeded to put in office for himself priests for the high places^b and for the goat-shaped demons^c and for the calves that he had made.^d 16 And following them from all the tribes of Israel those that were giving their heart to seek Jehovah the God of Israel came themselves to Jerusalem^e to sacrifice^f to Jehovah the God of their forefathers. 17 And they kept strengthening the kingship of Judah^g and confirming Re-ho-bo'am the son of Sol'o-mon for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Sol'o-mon for three years.^a

18 Then Re-ho-bo'am took as his wife Ma'ha-lath the daughter of Jer'imoth the son of David, and of Ab'i-hail the daughter of Eli'ab^b the son of Jes'se. 19 In time she bore him sons, Je'ush and Shem-a-ri'ah and Za'ham. 20 And after her he took Ma'a-cah^c the granddaughter of Ab'sa-lom.^d In time she bore him A-bi'jah^e and At'tai and Zi'za and She-lo'mith. 21 And Re-ho-bo'am was more in love with Ma'a-cah the granddaughter of Ab'sa-lom than all his other wives^f and his concubines; for there were eighteen wives that he had taken, also sixty concubines, so that he became father to twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters. 22 Consequently Re-ho-bo'am put A-bi'jah the son of Ma'a-cah in office as head, as leader among his brothers, for [he thought] of making him king. 23 However, he acted understandingly^g and distributed some out of all his sons to all the lands of Judah and of Benjamin,^h to all the fortified cities,ⁱ and gave them food in abundance^j and procured a multitude of wives [for them].^k

12 And it came about that, as soon as the kingship of Re-ho-bo'am was firmly established^l and as soon as he was strong, he left the law of Jehovah,^m and also all Israelⁿ with him. 2 And it came about in the fifth year of King Re-ho-bo'am^o that Shi'shak^p the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, (for they had behaved unfaithfully toward Jehovah),^q 3 with twelve hundred chariots^r and with sixty thousand horsemen; and there was no number^s to the people that came with him out of Egypt—Lib'y-ans,^t Suk'ki-im and E-thi-o-pi-ans.^u 4 And he got to capture the fortified cities that belonged to Judah^v and finally came as far as Jerusalem.^w

5 Now as for She-mai'ah^x the prophet, t Na 3:9; u 2Ch 14:9; 2Ch 16:8; v 2Ch 11:5; Isa 36:1; w 2Ki 18:17; x 1Ki 12:22; 2Ch 11:2.

2Ch 12:3 "Libyans." Heb., Lu-vim'. 3 "And Ethiopians," LXXVg; Heb., weKhu-shim', "and Cushites."

he came to Re-ho-bo'am and the princes of Judah who had gathered themselves at Jerusalem because of Shi'shak, and he proceeded to say to them: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'You, for your part, have left me,^a and I, too, for my part, have left you^b to the hand of Shi'shak.'" 6 At that the princes of Israel and the king humbled^c themselves and said: "Jehovah is righteous."^d 7 And when Jehovah saw^e that they had humbled themselves, the word of Jehovah came to She-mai'ah,^f saying: "They have humbled themselves. I shall not bring them to ruin, and in a little while I shall certainly give them an escape, and my rage^g will not pour forth upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shi'shak.^h" 8 But they will become servants of his,ⁱ that they may know the difference between my service^j and the service of the kingdoms of the lands."^k

9 So Shi'shak^l the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem and took the treasures of the house of Jehovah^m and the treasures of the king's house.ⁿ Everything he took; and so he took the gold shields that Sol'o-mon had made.^o 10 Consequently King Re-ho-bo'am made in their place copper shields, and he committed them to the control of the chiefs of the runners,^p the guards^q of the entrance of the king's house.^r 11 And it would occur that as often as the king came to the house of Jehovah, the runners came in and carried them and returned them to the guard chamber of the runners.^s 12 And because he humbled himself, Jehovah's anger turned back from him,^t and he [did] not [think] of bringing them to ruin completely.^u And, besides, there happened to be good things in Judah.^v

13 And King Re-ho-bo'am continued to make his position strong in Jerusalem and kept reigning; for Re-ho-bo'am^w was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and for seventeen years he reigned in Jerusalem, the city^x that Jehovah had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there.^y And his mother's name was Na'a-mah^z the Am'mon-it-ess.^a 14 But he did what was

15 As for Re-ho-bo'am's affairs, the first and the last,^c are they not written among the words of She-mai'ah^d the prophet and of Id'do^e the visionary by genealogical enrollment? 13 In the eighteenth year of King Jer-o-bo'am it was that A-bi'jah began to reign over Judah.^k 2 Three years he reigned in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Mi-cai'ah^l the daughter of U-ri'el of Gib'e-ah.^m And war itself took place between A-bi'jah and Jer-o-bo'am.ⁿ

came about that, when the men of Judah shouted a war cry, then the [true] God himself defeated^a Jer-o-bo'am and all Israel before A-bi'jah^b and Judah. 16 And the sons of Israel took to flight from before Judah, and then God gave them into their hand.^c 17 And A-bi'jah and his people went striking them down with a vast slaughter; and the slain of Israel kept falling down, five hundred thousand chosen men. 18 Thus the sons of Israel were humbled at that time, but the sons of Judah proved superior because they leaned^d upon Jehovah the God of their forefathers. 19 And A-bi'jah kept chasing after Jer-o-bo'am and got to capture cities from him, Beth'el^e and its dependent towns, and Jesh'a-nah and its dependent towns, and E'phraim^f and its dependent towns.^g 20 And Jer-o-bo'am did not retain any more power^h in the days of A-bi'jah;ⁱ but Jehovah dealt him a blow,^j so that he died.

21 And A-bi'jah continued to strengthen himself.ⁱ In time he got fourteen wives for himself,^j and became father to twenty-two sons^k and sixteen daughters. 22 And the rest of A-bi'jah's affairs, even his ways and his words, are written in the exposition^l of the prophet Id'do.^l

14 Finally A-bi'jah lay down with his forefathers,^m and they buried him in the City of David;ⁿ and A'sa^o his son began to reign in place of him. In his days the land had no disturbance^p for ten years.*

2 And A'sa proceeded to do what was good and right in the eyes of Jehovah his God. 3 So he removed the foreign altars^q and the high places^r and broke up the sacred pillars^s and cut down the sacred poles.^t 4 Further, he said to

Judah to search^a for Jehovah the God of their forefathers and to do the law^b and the commandment.^c 5 Accordingly he removed from all the cities of Judah the high places and the incense stands;^d and the kingdom continued without disturbance^e before him. 6 And he went on to build fortified cities in Judah,^f for the land had no disturbance; and there was no war against him during these years, for Jehovah gave him rest.^g 7 So he said to Judah: "Let us build these cities and make walls^h around and towers,ⁱ double doors and bars.^j For us the land is yet available, because we have searched for Jehovah our God.^k We have searched, and he gives us rest all around."^l And they went building and proving successful.^m

8 And A'sa came to have a military force bearing the large shieldⁿ and lance,^o three hundred thousand out of Judah.^p And out of Benjamin those bearing the buckler and bending the bow^q were two hundred and eighty thousand.^r All these were valiant, mighty men.

9 Later Ze'rah the E-thi-o'pi-an^s went out against them with a military force of a million^t menⁱ and three hundred chariots, and came as far as Mare'shah.^u 10 Then A'sa went out against him^v and they drew up in battle formation in the valley of Zeph'a-thah at Mare'shah. 11 And A'sa began to call to Jehovah his God^v and say: "O Jehovah, as to helping, it does not matter with you whether there are many or [those with] no power.^w Help us, O Jehovah our God, for upon you we do lean,^x and in your name^y we have come against this crowd. Ge'rar,^a and those of the E-thi-o'pi-ans continued falling down till there was no one alive of them; for they were broken to pieces before Jehovah^b and before his camp.^c Afterward they carried off a very great deal of spoil.^d 14 Further, they struck all the cities round about Ge'rar, for the dread^e of Jehovah had come to be upon them; and they went plundering all the cities, for there happened to be much to plunder in them.^f 15 And even the tents^g with livestock they struck so that they took captive^h flocks in great number and camels,ⁱ after which they returned to Jerusalem.

15 Now for Az'a-ri'ah^{} the son of O'ded,^j the spirit^k of God came to be upon him. 2 Consequently he went out before A'sa and said to him: "Hear me, O A'sa and all Judah and Benjamin! Jehovah is with you as long as you prove to be with him;^l and if you search^m for him, he will let himself be found by you, but if you leave him he will leave you.ⁿ 3 And many were the days that Israel^o had been without a true God^{} and without a priest teaching^p and without Law. 4 But when in their distress^q they returned to Jehovah the God of Israel^r and looked for him, then he let himself be found by them.^s 5 And in those times there was no peace for one going out or for one coming in,^t because there were many disorders among all the inhabitants of the lands.^u 6 And they were crushed to pieces, nation against nation^v and city against city, because God himself kept them in disorder with every sort of distress.^w 7 And you, be courageous^x and do not let your hands drop down,^y because there exists a reward for your activity."^z

10 So they were collected together at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of A'sa's reign. 11 Then they sacrificed to Jehovah on that day from the spoil they had brought, seven hundred cattle and seven thousand sheep. 12 Furthermore, they entered into a covenant^g to search for Jehovah the God of their forefathers with all their heart and with all their soul,^h

13 that anyone that would not search for Jehovah the God of Israel should be put to death,ⁱ whether small or great,^j whether man or woman.^k 14 So they swore^l to Jehovah with a loud voice and with joyful shouting and with the trumpets and with horns.^{*}

15 And all Judah gave way to rejoicing^m over the thing sworn; for it was with all their heart that they had sworn and with full pleasure on their part that they had looked for him, so that he let himself be found by them;ⁿ and Jehovah continued to give them rest all around.^o days.^a 18 And he proceeded to bring the things made holy by his father and the things^b made holy by himself into the house of the [true] God, silver and gold and utensils.^c 19 As for war, it did not occur down to the thirty-fifth year of A'sa's reign.^d

16 In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of A'sa, Ba'a-sha^e the king of Israel came up against Judah and began to build Ra'mah,^f so as not to allow anyone to go out or come in to A'sa the king of Judah.^g 2 A'sa now brought out silver and gold from the treasures of Jehovah's house^h and the king's houseⁱ and sent to Ben-ha'dad^j the king of Syria,^k who was dwelling at Damascus,^l saying: 3 "There is a covenant between me and you and between my father and your father. Here I do send you silver and gold. Go, break your covenant with Ba'a-sha^m the king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me."ⁿ

4 So Ben-ha'dad listened to King A'sa and sent the chiefs of the military forces that were his against the cities of Israel, so that they struck I'jon^o and Dan^p and A'bel-ma'im^q and all the storage places^r of the cities of Naph'ta-li.^s

5 And it came about that as soon as Ba'a-sha heard of it, he immediately quit building Ra'mah and stopped his work.^t

6 As for A'sa the king, he took all Judah,^u and they proceeded to carry away the stones of Ra'mah^v and its timbers with which Ba'a-sha had built,^w and he began to build with them Ge'ba^x and Miz'pah.^y

7 And at that time Ha-na'ni^z the seer came to A'sa the king of Judah and then said to him: "Because you leaned upon the king of Syria^a and did not lean upon Jehovah your God,^b for that reason the military force of the king of Syria has escaped out of your hand. 8 Did not the E-thi-o'pi-ans^c and the Lib'y-ans^d themselves happen to be a very great military force in multitude, in chariots and in horsemen;^e and because of your leaning upon Jehovah did he not give them into your hand?^a 9 For, as regards Jehovah, his eyes^b are roving about through all the earth^c to show his strength in behalf of those whose heart^d is complete toward him. You have acted foolishly^e respecting this, for from now on there will exist wars against you.^f

10 However, A'sa became offended at the seer and put him in the house of the stocks,^g because he was in a rage at him over this.^h And A'sa began to crushⁱ some others of the people at that same time. 11 And, look! the affairs of A'sa, the first and the last, there they are written in the Book^j of the Kings of Judah and of Israel.

12 And A'sa in the thirty-ninth year of his reign developed an ailment in his feet until he was very sick;^k and even in his sickness he searched not for Jehovah^l but for the healers.^m 13 Finally A'sa lay down with his forefathersⁿ and died in the forty-first year of his reigning. 14 So they buried him in his grand burial place^o that he had excavated for himself in the City of David;^p and they laid him in the bed that had been filled with balsam oil^q and different sorts of ointment^r mixed in an ointment of special make.^s Further, they made an extraordinarily great funeral burning^t for him.^u

17 And Je-hosh'a-phat^v his son began to reign in place of him and to make his position strong over Israel. 2 And he proceeded to put military forces in all the fortified cities of Judah and to put garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of E'phraim that A'sa his father had captured.^w 3 And Jehovah continued with Je-hosh'a-phat,^x because he walked in the former ways of David his forefather^y and did not search for the Ba'als.^z 4 For it was for the God of his father that he searched^{aa} and in his commandment he walked,^{ab} and not according to the doing of Israel.^a 5 And Jehovah kept the kingdom firmly established in his hand;^b and all Judah continued to give presents^c to Je-hosh'a-phat, and he came to have riches and glory in abundance.^d 6 And his heart became bold in the ways^e of Jehovah, and he even removed the high places^f and the sacred poles^g from Judah.

7 And in the third year of his reigning he sent for his princes, namely, Ben-ha'il and O-ba-di'ah and Zech-a-ri'ah and Ne-than'el and Mi-cai'ah, to teach in the cities of Judah, 8 and with them the Levites, She-mai'ah and Neth-a-ni'ah and Zeb-a-di'ah and As'a-hel and She-mir'a-moth and Je-hon'a-than and Ad-o-ni'jah and To-bi'jah and Tob-ad-o-ni'jah the Levites, and with them E-lish'a-ma and Je-ho'ram the priests.^h 9 And they began teachingⁱ in Judah, and with them there was the book of Jehovah's law;^j and they kept going around through all the cities of Judah and teaching among the people.

10 And the dread^k of Jehovah came to be upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were all around Judah, and they did not fight against Je-hosh'a-phat.^l 11 And from the Phi-lis'tines they were bringing to Je-hosh'a-phat presents^m and money as tribute.ⁿ The Arabs^o also were bringing to him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred he-goats.^p

12 And Je-hosh'a-phat continued advancing and growing great^q to a superior degree; and he went on building fortified places^r and storage cities^s in Judah. 13 And there were many interests that became his in the cities of Judah; and warriors,^t valiant, mighty men,^u were in Jerusalem. 14 And these were their offices by the house of their forefathers: Of Judah the chiefs of thousands, Ad'nah the chief, and with him there were three hundred thousand valiant, mighty men.^v 15 And under his control there was Je-ho-ha'n'an the chief, and with him there were two hundred and eighty thousand. 16 And under his control there was Am-a-si'ah the son of Zich'ri the volunteer^a for Jehovah, and with him there were two hundred thousand valiant, mighty men. 17 And out of Benjamin^b there was the valiant, mighty man E-li'a-da, and with him there were two hundred thousand men equipped with the bow and shield.^c 18 And under his control there was Jehoz'a-bad, and with him there were a hundred and eighty thousand men outfitted for the army. 19 These were the ones ministering to the king apart from those whom the king put in the fortified cities^d throughout all Judah.

18 And Je-hosh'a-phat came to have riches and glory in abundance;^e but he formed a marriage alliance^f with A'hab.^g 2 So years later he went down to A'hab at Sa-mar'i-a;^h and A'hab proceeded to sacrifice sheepⁱ and cattle in abundance for him and for the people that were with him. And he began to allure^j him to go up against Ra'moth-gil'e-ad.^k 3 And A'hab the king of Israel went on to say to Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah: "Will you go with me to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad?"^l At this he said to him: "I am the same as you are, and my people are like your people and with you in the war."^m

4 However, Je-hosh'a-phat said to the king of Israel: "Please, inquireⁿ first of all for the word of Jehovah." 5 So the king of Israel collected the prophets^o together, four hundred men, and said to them: "Shall we go against Ra'moth-gil'e-ad in war, or shall I refrain?"^p And they began to say: "Go up, and the [true] God will give [it] into the king's hand."

6 But Je-hosh'a-phat said: "Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah still?"^q Then let us inquire through him."^r

7 At that the king of Israel said to Je-hosh'a-phat:^s "There is still one man^t through whom to inquire of Jehovah, but I myself certainly hate him,^u for he is prophesying concerning me, not for good, but, all his days, for bad.^v He is Mi-cai'ah^w the son of Im'lah."^w However, Je-hosh'a-phat said: "Do not let the king say a thing like that."^a

8 Accordingly the king of Israel called a court official^b and said: "Bring Mi-cai'ah the son of Im'lah quickly."^c

9 Now the king of Israel and Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah were sitting each one on his throne, clothed in garments,^d and were sitting in the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Sa-mar'i-a; and all the prophets were acting as prophets before them.^e 10 Then Zed-e-ki'ah the son of Che-na'a-nah made for himself horns^f of iron and said: "This is what Jehovah has said,^g 'With these you will push the Syrians until you exterminate them.'"^h 11 And all the other prophets were prophesying the same as that, saying: "Go up to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad and prove successful,ⁱ and Jehovah will certainly give [it] into the king's hand."^j

12 And the messenger that went to call Mi-cai'ah spoke to him, saying: "Look! The words of the prophets are unanimously^k of good to the king; and let your word, please, become like one of them^k and you must speak good."^l

13 But Mi-cai'ah^m said: "As Jehovah is living,^m what my God will say, that is what I shall speak."ⁿ 14 Then he came in to the king, and the king proceeded to say to him: "Mi-cai'ah,^o shall we go to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad in war, or shall I refrain?" At once he said: "Go up and prove successful; and they will be given into YOUR hand."^o 15 At that the king said to him: "For how many times am I putting you under oath^p that you should not speak to me anything but truth in the name of Jehovah?"^q

16 So he said: "I certainly see all the Israelites scattered upon the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd.^r And Jehovah went on to say: 'These have no masters.^s Let them go back each one to his house in peace.'"^t

17 Then the king of Israel said to Je-hosh'a-phat: "Did I not say to you, 'He will prophesy concerning me, not good things, but bad?'"^u

18 And he went on to say: "Therefore HEAR the word of Jehovah:^a I certainly see Jehovah sitting upon his throne^b and all the army^c of the heavens standing at his right and his left.^d 19 And Jehovah proceeded to say, 'Who will fool A'hab the king of Israel that he may go up and fall at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad?' And there was talk, this one saying something like this, and that one saying something like that.^e 20 Finally a spirit^f came out and stood before Jehovah and said, 'I myself shall fool him.' At that Jehovah said to him, 'By what means?'^g 21 To this he said, 'I shall go forth and certainly become a deceptive spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.^h So he said, 'You will fool him, and, what is more, you will come off the winner.ⁱ Go out and do that way.'^j 22 And now here Jehovah has put a deceptive spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours;^k but Jehovah himself has spoken calamity concerning you."^l

23 Zed-e-ki'ah^m the son of Che-na'a-nahⁿ now approached and struck Mi-cai'ah^o on the cheek^p and said: "In just which way did the spirit of Jehovah pass along from me to speak with you?"^q

24 At that Mi-cai'ah said: "Look! You are seeing [which way] on that day^r when you will enter the innermost chamber to hide yourself."^s 25 Then the king of Israel said: "TAKE Mi-cai'ah and turn him back to A'mon the chief of the city and to Jo'ash the king's son.^t 26 And you men must say, 'This is what the king has said: "Put this fellow in the house of detention^u and feed him with a reduced allowance of bread^v and a reduced allowance of water until I return in peace."^w 27 Upon that Mi-cai'ah said: "If you return at all in peace, Jehovah has not spoken with^x me."^x And he added: "Hear, all you peoples."^y

28 And the king of Israel and Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah proceeded to go up to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad.^z 29 The king of Israel now said to Je-hosh'a-phat: "There will be a disguising^a and entering* into the battle [for me], but you, for your part, put on your garments."^a Accordingly the king of Israel disguised himself, after which they entered into the battle.^b 30 As for the king of Syria, he had commanded the chiefs of the chariots that were his, saying: "You must fight, neither with the small nor with the great, but with the king of Israel alone."^c 31 And it came about that, as soon as the chiefs of the chariots saw Je-hosh'a-phat, they, for their part, said to themselves: "It is the king of Israel."^d So they turned around against him to fight; and Je-hosh'a-phat began to cry for aid,^e and Jehovah himself helped him,^f and God at once allured them away from him.^g 32 And it came about that as soon as the chiefs of the chariots saw that it did not prove to be the king of Israel, they immediately came back from following him.^h

33 And there was a man that bent the bow in his innocence, but he got to strikeⁱ the king of Israel between the appendages and the coat of mail, so that he said to the charioteer:^j "Turn your hand around, and you must take me out from the camp, because I have been badly wounded."^k 34 And the battle kept rising in intensity on that day, and the king of Israel himself had to be kept in a standing position in the chariot facing the Syrians until the evening; and gradually he died at the time of the setting of the sun.^l

19 Then Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah returned in peace^m to his own house at Jerusalem. 2 Je'huⁿ the son of Ha-na'ni^o the visionary^p now went out before him and said to King Je-hosh'a-phat: "Is it to the wicked that help is to be given,^q and is it for those hating^r Jehovah that you should have love?^s And for this there is indignation^t against you from the person of Jehovah. 3 Nevertheless, there are good^u

4 And Je-hosh'a-phat continued dwelling in Jerusalem; and he began to go out again among the people from Be'er-she'ba^c to the mountainous region of E'phra'im,^d that he might bring them back to Jehovah the God of their forefathers.^e 5 And he proceeded to station judges throughout the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city.^f 6 And he went on to say to the judges: "See what YOU are doing,^g because it is not for man that you judge but it is for Jehovah;^h and he is with YOU in the matter of judgment.ⁱ 7 And now let the dread^j of Jehovah come to be upon YOU.^k Be careful and act,^l for with Jehovah our God there is no unrighteousness^m or partialityⁿ or taking of a bribe."^o

8 And in Jerusalem also Je-hosh'a-phat stationed some of the Levites^p and the priests^q and some of the heads of the paternal^r houses of Israel for the judgment^s of Jehovah and for the legal cases^t of the inhabitants of Jerusalem.* 9 Further, he laid a command upon them, saying: "This is how YOU should do in the fear^u of Jehovah with faithfulness and with a complete heart. 10 As for every legal case that will come to YOU of YOUR brothers who are dwelling in their cities, involving the shedding of blood,^v involving law^w and commandment^x and regulations^y and judicial decisions,^z YOU must warn them that they may not do wrong against Jehovah and indignation^a may not have to take place against YOU and against YOUR brothers. 20 And it came about afterward that the sons of Mo'ab^d and the sons of Am'mon^e and with them some of the Am'mon-im^f came against Je-hosh'a-phat in war.^g 2 So people came and told Je-hosh'a-phat, saying: "There has come against you a large crowd from the region of the sea,^h from E'dom;ⁱ and there they are in Haz'a-zon-ta'mar, that is to say, En-ge'di.^j 3 At that Je-hosh'a-phat became afraid^k and set his face to search for Jehovah.^l So he proclaimed a fast^m for all Judah. 4 Eventually those of Judah were collected together to inquire of Jehovah.ⁿ Even from all the cities of Judah they came to consult Jehovah.^o

18 At once Je-hosh'a-phat bowed low with his face to the earth,^a and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem themselves fell down before Jehovah to do obeisance to Jehovah.^b 19 Then the Levites^c of the sons of the Ko'hath-ites^d and of the sons of the Ko'rah-ites^e rose up to praise Jehovah the God of Israel with an extraordinarily loud voice.^f

20 And they proceeded to rise early in the morning and go out to the wilderness^g of Te-ko'a.^h And as they went out, Je-hosh'a-phat stood up and then said: "Hear me, O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem!ⁱ Put faith^j in Jehovah your God that you may prove yourselves of long duration. Put faith in his prophets^k and so prove successful."

21 Further, he took counsel^l with the people and stationed singers^m to Jehovah and those offering praiseⁿ in holy adornment^o as they went out ahead of the armed men,^p and saying: "Give praise to Jehovah,^q for to time indefinite is his loving-kindness."^r

22 And at the time that they started off with the joyful cry and praise, Jehovah set men in ambush^s against the sons of Am'mon, Mo'ab and the mountainous region of Se'ir who were coming into Judah, and they went smiting one another.^t 23 And the sons of Am'mon and Mo'ab proceeded to stand up against the inhabitants of the mountainous region of Se'ir^u to devote them to destruction and annihilate them; and as soon as they finished with the inhabitants of Se'ir, they helped each one to bring his own fellow to ruin.^v

24 But as for Judah, it came to the watchtower of the wilderness.^w When they turned their faces toward the crowd, why, there they were, their carcasses fallen to the earth^x without anyone escaping. 25 So Je-hosh'a-phat and his people came to plunder the spoil^y on them, and they got to find among them in abundance both goods and clothing* and desirable articles; and they went stripping them off for themselves until they could carry no more.^a And it came to be three days that they were plundering the spoil, for it was abundant. 26 And on the fourth day they congregated together at the low plain of Ber'a-cah, for there they blessed Jehovah.^b That is why they called the name^c of that place Low Plain of Ber'a-cah*—until today.

28 So they came to Jerusalem with stringed instruments^e and with harps^f and with trumpets^g to the house of Jehovah.^h 29 And the dreadⁱ of God came to be upon all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that Jehovah had fought against the enemies of Israel.^j 30 Thus the royal realm of Je-hosh'a-phat had no disturbance, and his God continued to give him rest all around.^k

31 And Je-hosh'a-phat^l went on reigning over Judah. Thirty-five years old he was when he began to reign, and for twenty-five years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was A-zu'-bah^m the daughter of Shil'hi. 32 And he kept walking in the way of his father A'sa,ⁿ and he did not turn aside from it, by doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes.^o 33 Only the high places^p themselves did not disappear; and the people themselves had not yet prepared their heart for the God of their forefathers.^q

34 As for the rest of the affairs of Je-hosh'a-phat, the first and the last, there they are written among the words of Je'hu^r the son of Ha-na'ni,^s which were inserted in the Book^t of the Kings of Israel. 35 And after this Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah had partnership with A-ha-zi'ah^u the king of Israel, who acted wickedly.^v 36 So he made him a partner with himself in making ships to go to Tar'shish^a and they made ships in E'zi-on-ge'ber.^b 37 However, Eli'e-zer the son of Dod'av'a-hu of Ma-re'sha spoke prophetically against Je-hosh'a-phat, saying: "Inasmuch as you have had partnership with A-ha-zi'ah,^c Jehovah will certainly break down your works."^d Accordingly the ships were wrecked,^e and they did not retain strength to go to Tar'shish.^f

21 Finally Je-hosh'a-phat lay down with his forefathers^g and was buried with his forefathers^h in the City of David; and Je-ho'ramⁱ his son began to reign in place of him. 2 And he had brothers, Je-hosh'a-phat's sons, Az-a-ri'-ah^j and Je-hi'el and Zech-a-ri'-ah and Az-a-ri'-ah^k and Mi'cha-el and Sheph-a-ti'ah, all these being the sons of Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Israel.^l 3 Consequently their father gave them many gifts^m in silver and in gold and in choice things along with fortified cities in Judah;ⁿ but the kingdom he gave to Je-ho'ram,^o for he was the firstborn.^p

4 When Je-ho'ram rose up over the kingdom of his father he proceeded to make his position strong, and so he killed all his brothers^q with the sword and also some of the princes of Israel. 5 Thirty-two years old was Je-ho'ram when he began to reign, and for eight years he reigned^r in Jerusalem. 6 And he went on walking in the way of the kings of Israel,^s just as those of the house of A'hab had done; for A'hab's own daughter had become his wife,^t and he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.^u 7 And Jehovah did not want to bring the house of David to ruin,^v for the sake of the covenant^w that he had concluded with David, and just as he had said he would give him^x and his sons a lamp always.^y

ho'ram together with his chiefs passed over and also all the chariots with him. And it came about that he rose up by night and went striking down the E'dom-ites that were surrounding him and also the chiefs of the chariots. 10 But E'dom kept up its revolt from under the hand of Judah down to this day. It was then that Lib'nah^a began to revolt at the same time from under his hand, because he had left Jehovah the God of his forefathers.^b 11 He himself also had made high places^c on the mountains of Judah, that he might cause the inhabitants of Jerusalem to have immoral intercourse,^d and that he might drive Judah away.^e

12 Eventually there came a writing^f to him from E-li'jah*^g the prophet, saying: "This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather has said, 'Due to the fact that you have not walked in the ways of Je-hosh'a-phat^h your father or in the ways of A'saⁱ the king of Judah, 13 but you walk in the way of the kings of Israel^j and cause Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to have immoral intercourse^k the same way that the house of A'hab caused the having of immoral intercourse,^l and even your own brothers, the household of your father, who were better than you, you have killed;^m 14 look! 16 Accordingly Jehovah aroused against Je-ho'ram the spirit^s of the Philistines^t and the Arabs^u that were by the side* of the E-thi-o'pi-ans.^{vv} 17 So they came up into Judah and forced it open and took captive all the goods that were to be found in the king's house and also his sons^w and his wives,^x and there was not left to him a son but Je-ho'ahaz,^a his youngest son. 18 And after all this Jehovah plagued him in his intestines with a sickness for which there was no healing.^b 19 And it came about that in the days to come, even when the term of two full years had expired, his intestines^c came out during his sickness, and he gradually died in his bad maladies; and his people did not make a burning for him like the burning^d for his forefathers. 20 Thirty-two years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for eight years he reigned in Jerusalem. Finally he went away without being desired.^e So they buried him in the City of David,^f but not in the burial places of the kings.^g

22 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made A-ha-zi'ah*^h his youngest son king in place of him, (for the marauder band that came with the Arabsⁱ to the camp had killed all the older ones,^j and A-ha-zi'ah the son of Je-ho'ram began to reign as king of Judah. 2 Twenty-two* years old was A-ha-zi'ah when he began to reign,^k and for one year he reigned in Jerusalem. 3 He himself also walked in the ways of the house of A'hab,^a for his mother^o herself became his counselor in doing wickedly. 4 And he went on doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, the same as the house of A'hab, for they themselves became counselors^p to him after the death of his father, to his ruin. 5 It was also in their counsel that he walked,^q so that he went with Je-ho'ram^r the son of A'hab the king of Israel to the war against Haz'a-el^s the king of Syria at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad,^t at which the shooters got to strike Je-ho'ram.*^u 6 Hence he returned to get healed at Jez're-el^v from the wounds that they had inflicted upon him at Ra-mah^a when he fought Haz'a-el the king of Syria.

As for Az-a-ri'ah^{b} the son of Je-ho-ram^c the king of Judah, he went down to see Je-ho-ram^d the son of A'hab in Jez-re-el, for he was sick.^e 7 But it was from God^f that the downfall^g of A-ha-zi'ah occurred by [his] coming to Je-ho-ram; and when he came, he went out^h with Je-ho-ram to Je-huⁱ the grandson^{} of Nim'shi,^j whom Jehovah had anointed^k to cut off the house of A'hab.^l 8 And it came about that as soon as Je-hu had entered into controversy with the house of A'hab,^m he got to find the princes of Judah and the sons of the brothers of A-ha-zi'ah,ⁿ ministers of A-ha-zi'ah, and he proceeded to kill them.^o 9 Then he went looking for A-ha-zi'ah, and they finally captured him,^p as he was hiding in Sa-mar'i-a,^q and brought him to Je-hu. Then they put him to death and buried him,^r for they said: "He is the grandson of Je-hosh'a-phet,^s who searched for Jehovah with all his heart."^t And there was no one of the house of A-ha-zi'ah to retain power for the kingdom.

10 As regards Ath-a-li'ah^u the mother of A-ha-zi'ah, she saw that her son had died. So she rose up and destroyed all the royal offspring of the house of Judah.^v 11 However, Je-ho-shab'e-ath^w the daughter of the king took Je-ho-ash^{x} the son of A-ha-zi'ah and stole him away from among the sons of the king that were to be put to death, and put him and his nursing woman in the inner room for the couches. 23 And in the seventh year Je-hoi'a-da^a showed himself courageous and proceeded to take the chiefs of hundreds,^b namely, Az-a-ri'ah the son of Je-ro'ham, and Ish'ma-el the son of Je-ho-ha'nan and Az-a-ri'ah the son of O'bed and Ma-a-sei'ah the son of A-dai'ah and E-li-sha'phat the son of Zich'ri, with him into the covenant. 2 Afterward they went around throughout Judah and collected together the Levites^c from all the cities of Judah and the heads^d of the paternal^e houses of Israel. So they came to Jerusalem. 3 Then all the congregation concluded a covenant^f with the king in the house^g of the [true] God, after which he said to them:

"Look! The son^h of the king himself will reign,ⁱ just as Jehovah promised concerning the sons of David.^j 4 This is the thing that you will do: one third of you who are coming in on the sabbath,^k of the priests^l and of the Levites,^m will be for doorkeepers;ⁿ 5 and one third will be at the house of the king;^o and one third will be at the Gate of the Foundation;^p and all the people will be in the courtyards^q of the house of Jehovah. 6 And do not let anyone enter the house of Jehovah^r but the priests and those of the Levites ministering.^s These are the ones that will enter, because they are a holy group,^t and all the people themselves will keep the obligation to Jehovah. 7 And the Levites must encircle the king all around,^u each one with his weapons in his hands; and as for anyone coming into the house, he should be put to death. And continue with the king when he comes in and when he goes out."

8 And the Levites and all Judah proceeded to do according to all that Je-hoi'a-da^v the priest had commanded.^w So they took each one his men that were coming in on the sabbath together with those going out on the sabbath,^x for Je-hoi'a-da the priest had not set the divisions^y free from duty. 9 Further, Je-hoi'a-da the priest gave the chiefs of hundreds^z the spears and the shields and the circular shields^a that had belonged to King David,^a which were in the house of the [true] God.^b 10 And he went on to station all the people,^c even each one with his missile in his hand, from the right side of the house clear to the left side of the house, by the altar and by the house, all around near the king. 11 Then they brought the king's son out^d and put upon him the diadem^e and the Testimony^f and made him king, and so Je-hoi'a-da and his sons anointed^g him and said: "Let the king live!"^h

12 When Ath-a-li'ah heard the sound of the people running and praising the king,ⁱ she at once came to the people at the house of Jehovah. 13 Then she saw, and there was the king standing by his pillar^j at the entry, and the princes^k and the trumpets^l by the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing^m and blowingⁿ the trumpets, and the singers^o with the instruments of song and those giving the signal for offering praise. Immediately Ath-a-li'ah ripped her garments apart and said: "Conspiracy! Conspiracy!"^p 14 But Je-hoi'a-da the priest brought out the chiefs of hundreds, the appointed ones of the military force, and said to them: "Take her out from inside the rows;^q and as for anyone coming after her, he should be put to death with the sword!" For the priest had said: "You must not put her to death at the house of Jehovah." 15 So they laid their hands upon her. When she came to the entry of the horse gate of the king's house, they at once put her to death there.^r

16 Then Je-hoi'a-da concluded a covenant between himself^s and all the people and the king that they would continue as the people^t of Jehovah. 17 After that all the people came to the house of Ba'al and pulled it down;^u and his altars^v and his images they broke up,^w and Mat'tan^x the priest of Ba'al they killed^y before the altars. 18 Further, Je-hoi'a-da put the offices of the house of Jehovah in the hand of the priests

[and] the Levites,^{*} whom David^a had put in divisions over the house of Jehovah to offer up the burnt sacrifices of Jehovah according to what is written in the law of Moses,^b with rejoicing and with song by the hands of David. 19 So he stationed the gatekeepers^c by the gates^d of the house of Jehovah that no one unclean in any respect might enter. 20 He now took the chiefs of hundreds^e and the lordly ones and the rulers over the people and all the people of the land and brought the king down from the house of Jehovah.^f Then they came right through the upper gate to the king's house and seated the king upon the throne^g of the kingdom. 21 And all the people of the land continued to rejoice,^h and the city itself had no disturbance, and Ath-a-li'ah they had put to death with the sword.ⁱ

24 Seven years old was Je-ho'ash^{*} when he began to reign,^j and for forty years he reigned in Jerusalem.^k And his mother's name was Zib'iah from Be'er-she'ba.^l 2 And Je-ho'ash^m kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyesⁿ all the days of Je-hoi'a-da the priest.^o 3 And Je-hoi'a-da proceeded to get two wives for him, and he came to be father to sons and daughters.^p

4 Now it occurred afterward that it became close to the heart of Je-ho'ash to renovate the house of Jehovah.^q 5 Accordingly he collected the priests^r and the Levites together and said to them: "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel to repair^s the house of YOUR God from year to year;^t and YOU, for YOUR part, should act quickly in the matter." And the Levites did not act quickly.^u 6 So the king called Je-hoi'a-da the head and said to him:^v "Why is it that you have not required an account of the Levites for bringing in from Judah and Jerusalem the sacred tax ordered by Moses^w the servant of Jehovah, even that of the congregation of Israel, for the tent of the Testimony?^a 7 For as regards Atha-li'ah the wicked woman, her sons^b themselves had broken into the house of the [true] God,^c and even all the holy^d things of the house of Jehovah they had rendered up to the Ba'als.^e 8 Then the king said [the word], and so they made a chest^f and put it outside at the gate of the house of Jehovah. 9 After that they issued a call throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring to Jehovah the sacred tax^g ordered by Moses^h the servant of the [true] Godⁱ upon Israel in the wilderness. 10 And all the princes^j and all the people began to rejoice,^k and they kept bringing and casting it into the chest^k until they all had given.

11 And it came about at the proper time he would bring the chest to the care of the king by the hand of the Levites,^l and, as soon as they saw that there was plenty of money,^m the secretaryⁿ of the king and the commissioner of the chief priest came and then emptied the chest and lifted it up and returned it to its place. That was the way they did from day to day, so that they gathered money in abundance. 12 Then the king and Je-hoi'a-da would give it to the doers^o of the work of the service of Jehovah's house,^p and they came to be hirers of the stonecutters^q and of the craftsmen^r for renovating Jehovah's house,^s and also of the workers in iron and copper for repairing Jehovah's house.^t 13 And the doers of the work began operations,^u and the repair work kept advancing by their hand, and finally they made the house of the [true] God stand as it structurally should and made it strong. 14 And as soon as they had finished they brought before the king and Je-hoi'a-da the rest of the money, and they proceeded to make utensils for the house of Jehovah, utensils for the ministry^v and for making offerings and cups^w and utensils of gold^x and of silver; and they came to be offerers of burnt sacrifices^y in the house of Jehovah constantly all the days of Je-hoi'a-da.

15 And Je-hoi'a-da got to be old and satisfied with years^a and gradually died, being a hundred and thirty years old at his death. 16 So they buried him in the City of David along with the kings,^b because he had done good in Israel^c and with the [true] God and His house.

17 And after Je-hoi'a-da's death the princes^d of Judah came in and proceeded to bow down to the king. At that time the king listened to them.^e 18 And gradually they left the house of Jehovah the God of their forefathers and began serving the sacred poles^f and the idols,^g so that there came to be indignation against Judah and Jerusalem because of this guilt of theirs.^h 19 And he kept sending prophetsⁱ among them to bring them back to Jehovah; and they kept bearing witness^j against them, but they did not give ear.^j

20 And God's spirit^k itself enveloped^{*1} Zech-a-ri'ah^m the son of Je-hoi'a-daⁿ the priest, so that he stood up above the people and said to them: "This is what the [true] God has said, 'Why are you overstepping the commandments of Jehovah, so that you cannot prove successful?'^o Because you have left Jehovah, he will, in turn, leave you.'^p" 21 Finally they conspired against him^q and pelted him with stones^r at the king's commandment in the courtyard of Jehovah's house. 22 And Je-ho'ash the king did not remember the loving-kindness that Je-hoi'a-da his father had exercised toward him,^s so that he killed his son, who, when he was at the point of dying, said: "Let Jehovah see to it and ask it back."^t

23 And it came about at the turn^u of the year a military force of Syria^v came up against him,^w and they began to invade Judah and Jerusalem. Then they brought all the princes^x of the people to ruin from among the people, and all their spoil they sent to the king of Damascus.^a 24 For it was with a small number of men that the military force of the Syrians made an invasion,^b and Jehovah himself gave into their hand a military force of very great number,^c because they had left Jehovah the God of their forefathers; and upon Jeho^h-ash they executed acts of judgment.^d

25 And when they went away from him (for they left him with many diseases),^e his own servants conspired^f against him because of the blood^g of the sons^h of Jeho^h-a^h-da^h the priest; and they got to kill him upon his own couch, so that he died.ⁱ Then they buried him in the City of David,^j but they did not bury him in the burial places of the kings.^k

26 And these were the conspirators against him: Za^h-badⁱ the son of Shim^h-eath the Am^h-mon-it-ess and Jeho^h-z^h-a^h-bad the son of Shim^h-rith the Mo^h-ab-i-tess. 27 As for his sons and the abundance of the pronouncement against him^m and the foundingⁿ of the house of the [true] God, there they are written in the exposition^o of the Book^o of the Kings. And Am-a^h-zi^h his son began to reign in place of him.

25 At the age of twenty-five years Am-a^h-zi^h became king, and for twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jeho^h-ad^h-danⁱ of Jerusalem. 2 And he continued to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes,^s only not with a complete^t heart. 3 And it came about that as soon as the kingdom had become strong upon him, he promptly killed^u his servants^v who had struck down the king his father.^w 4 And their sons he did not put to death, but [did] according to what is written in the law, in the book of Moses,^x that Jehovah commanded, saying: "Fathers should not die for sons,^y neither should sons themselves die for fathers;^z but it is each one for his own sin that they should die."^a

5 And Am-a^h-zi^h proceeded to collect Judah together and to have them stand according to the house of the forefathers,^a by the chiefs of thousands^b and by the chiefs of hundreds^c for all Judah and Benjamin; and he went on to register them from twenty^d years of age upward, and finally he found them [to be] three hundred thousand choice men going out to the army, handling lance^e and large shield.^f 6 Further, he hired from Israel a hundred thousand valiant, mighty men for a hundred silver talents.* 7 And a certain man of the [true] God^g came to him, saying: "O king, do not let the army of Israel come with you, for Jehovah is not with Israel,^h [that is,] all the sons of E^h-phra-im. 8 But come you yourself, act, be courageous for the war.ⁱ The [true] God could cause you to stumble before an enemy; for there exists power with God^g to help^j and to cause stumbling."^k 9 At this Am-a^h-zi^h said to the man of the [true] God: "But what is there to do about the hundred talents that I have given to the troops of Israel?"^m To this the man of the [true] God said: "There exists with Jehovah the means to give you much more than this."ⁿ 10 Accordingly Am-a^h-zi^h separated them, namely, the troops that had come to him from E^h-phra-im, to go to their own place. However, their anger got very hot against Judah, so that they returned to their own place in the heat of anger.^o

11 And Am-a^h-zi^h, for his part, took courage and proceeded to lead his own people and go to the Valley of Salt;^p and he went striking down the sons of Se^h-ir,^q ten thousand [of them].^r 12 And there were ten thousand that the sons of Judah captured alive. So they brought them to the top of the crag, and proceeded to throw them from the top of the crag; and they, one and all, burst apart.^s 13 As for the members of the troop whom Am-a^h-zi^h had sent back from going with him to the war,^t they began making raids upon the cities of Judah, from Samar'ia^a clear to Beth-ho'ron,^b and went striking down three thousand of them and taking a great plunder.

14 But it occurred after Am-a-zi'ah came from striking down the E'dom-ites that he now brought the gods^c of the sons of Se'ir and set them up for himself as gods,^d and before them he began to bow down,^e and to them he began to make sacrificial smoke.^f 15 Consequently Jehovah's anger became hot against Am-a-zi'ah, and so he sent a prophet to him and said to him: "Why have you searched^g for the people's gods^h that did not deliver their own people out of your hand?"ⁱ 16 And it came about when he spoke to him that [the king] immediately said to him: "Was it a counselor of the king that we constituted you?^j Quit for your own sake.^k Why should they strike you down?" Accordingly the prophet quit, but he said: "I certainly know that God has resolved to bring you to ruin,^l because you have done this^m and you have not listened to my counsel."ⁿ

17 Then Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah took counsel and sent to Je-ho'ash the son of Je-ho'a-haz the son of Je'hu the king of Israel,^o saying: "Come! Let us look each other in the face."^p 18 At that Je-ho'ash the king of Israel sent to Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah, saying:^q "The thorny weed itself that was in Leb'a-non^r sent to the cedar that was in Leb'a-non, saying, 'Do give your daughter to my son as a wife.'^s However, a wild beast^t of the field that was in Leb'a-non passed by and trampled the thorny weed down. 19 You have said to yourself, Here you have struck down E'dom."^u And your heart^v has lifted you up to be glorified.^w Now do keep dwelling in your own house.^x Why should you engage in strife in a bad position^y and have to fail, you and Judah with you?"^z

20 But Am-a-zi'ah did not listen; for it was from the [true] God^a for the purpose of giving them into his hand, because they had searched for the gods of E'dom.^b 21 So Je-ho'ash the king of Israel went up,^c and they proceed-

Consequently his fame^h went out to a great distance, for he was helped wonderfully until he was strong.

16 However, as soon as he was strong, his heart became haughtyⁱ even to the point of causing ruin,^j so that he acted unfaithfully against Jehovah his God and came into the temple of Jehovah to burn incense upon the altar of incense.^k 17 Immediately Az-a-ri'ah the priest and with him priests of Jehovah, eighty valiant men, came in after him. 18 Then they stood up against Uz-zia'ah the king^l and said to him: "It is not your business,^m O Uz-zia'ah, to burn incense to Jehovah, but it is the business of the priests the sons of Aaron,ⁿ the ones sanctified, to burn incense. Go out from the sanctuary; for you have acted unfaithfully, and it is not for any glory^o to you on the part of Jehovah God."

19 But Uz-zia'ah became enraged^p while in his hand there was a censer^q for burning incense, and, during his rage against the priests, leprosy^r itself flashed up^s in his forehead before the priests in the house of Jehovah beside the altar of incense. 20 When Az-a-ri'ah the chief priest^t and all the priests turned toward him, why, there he was stricken with leprosy in his forehead!^u So they excitedly began to remove him from there, and he himself also hastened to go out, because Jehovah had smitten him.^v

21 And Uz-zia'ah^w the king continued to be a leper until the day of his death, and he kept dwelling in a house exempt from duties, as a leper;^x for he had been severed from the house of Jehovah, while Jo'tham his son was over

22 And the rest of the affairs of Uz-ziah,^a the first and the last, Isaiah^{*b} the son of A'moz^c the prophet has written. 23 Finally Uz-ziah lay down with his forefathers; and so they buried him with his forefathers, [but] in the burial field that belonged to the kings,^d for they said: "He is a leper." And Jo'tham^e his son began to reign in place of him.

27 Twenty-five years old was Jo'tham^f when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jeru'shah^g the daughter of Za'dok. 2 And he kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes,^h according to all that Uz-ziahⁱ his father had done.ⁱ Only he did not invade the temple of Jehovah.^j However, the people were yet acting ruinously.^k 3 He himself built the upper gate^l of Jehovah's house, and on the wall of O'phel^m he did a great deal of building. 4 And citiesⁿ he built in the mountainous region of Judah,^o and in the woodlands^p he built fortified places^q and towers.^r 5 And he himself warred against the king of the sons of Am'mon^s and eventually proved stronger than they were, so that the sons of Am'mon gave him in that year a hundred silver talents^t and ten thousand cor^u measures of wheat^v and ten thousand of barley.^v This was what the sons of Am'mon paid to him, also in the second year and the third.^w 6 So Jo'tham kept strengthening himself, for he prepared his ways before Jehovah his God.^x

7 As for the rest of the affairs of Jo'tham^y and all his wars and his ways, there they are written in the Book^z of the Kings of Israel and of Judah. 8 Twenty-five years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem.^a 9 Finally Jo'tham lay down with his forefathers,^b and they buried him in the City of David.^a And A'haz^b his son began to reign in place of him.

28 Twenty years old was A'haz^c when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem,^d and he did not do what was right in Jehovah's eyes like David his forefather.^e 2 But he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel,^f and even molten^g statues he made of the Ba'als.^h 3 And he himself made sacrificial smokeⁱ in the valley of the son of Hin'nom^j and proceeded to burn up his sons^k in the fire, according to the detestable^l things of the nations that Jehovah had driven out from before the sons of Israel.^m 4 And he regularly sacrificedⁿ and made sacrificial smoke on the high places^o and upon the hills^p and under every sort of luxuriant tree.^q

5 Consequently Jehovah his God gave him into the hand^r of the king of Syria,^s so that they struck him and carried off from him a great number of captives and brought them to Damascus.^t And also into the hand of the king of Israel^u he was given, so that he struck him with a great slaughter. 6 Accordingly Pe'kah^v the son of Rem-a-li'ah^w killed in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all valiant men, because of their leaving Jehovah^x the God of their forefathers. 7 Further, Zich'ri, a mighty man of E'phra-im,^y killed Ma-a-sei'ah the son of the king and Az-ri'kam the leader of the household and El-ka'nah the one next to the king. 8 Moreover, the sons of Israel took two hundred thousand of their brothers captive, women, sons and daughters; and also a great deal of spoil they took from them as plunder, after which they brought the spoil to Samar'i-a.^z

9 And there happened to be a prophet of Jehovah there whose name was O'ded. So he went out before the army that was coming to Sa-mar'i-a and said to them: "Look! It was because of the rage^a of Jehovah the God of YOUR forefathers against Judah that he gave them into YOUR hand, so that YOU did a killing among them with a raging^b that has reached clear to the heavens.^c

10 And now the sons of Judah and of Jerusalem YOU are thinking* of reducing to menseservants^d and maidservants for yourselves. Nevertheless, are there not with YOU yourselves cases of guilt against Jehovah YOUR God? 11 And now listen to me and return the captives that you have captured from YOUR brothers,^e for Jehovah's burning anger is against YOU."^f

12 At that [certain] men of the heads^g of the sons of E'phra-im,^h Aza-ri'-ah the son of Je-ho-ha'-nan, Ber-e-chi'-ah the son of Me-shil'-le-moth and Je-hiz-ki'-ah the son of Shal'lum and Ama'-sa the son of Had'lai, rose up against those coming in from the military campaign, 13 and they said to them: "YOU must not bring in the captives here, for it will result in guilt against Jehovah on our part. YOU are thinking of adding to our sins and to our guilt, for abundant is the guilt we have,ⁱ and there is burning anger^j against Israel."

14 Accordingly the armed^k men left the captives^l and the plunder before the princes^m and all the congregation. 15 Then the men that were designated by their namesⁿ rose up and took hold of the captives, and all their naked ones they clothed from the spoil. So they clothed them^o and furnished them with sandals and fed them^p and gave them drink^q and greased them. Furthermore, in the case of anyone tottering, they gave them transportation^r on the asses and brought them to Jer'i-cho,^s the city of palm trees,^t beside their brothers. After that they returned to Sa-mar'i-a.^u

16 At that time King A'haz^v sent to the kings of As-syr'i-a^w for them to help him. 17 And once again the E'dom-ites^x themselves came in and went striking down Judah and carrying off captives. 18 As for the Phi-

19 For Jehovah humbledⁱ Judah on account of A'haz the king of Israel,^j because he let unrestraint grow in Judah,^j and there was an acting with great unfaithfulness^k toward Jehovah.

20 Eventually Til'gath-pil-ne'ser^k the king of As-syr'i-a came against him and caused him distress,^l and did not strengthen him. 21 For A'haz stripped the house of Jehovah^m and the house of the kingⁿ and of the princes^o and thus made a gift to the king of As-syr'i-a;^p but it was of no assistance to him.

22 However, at the time that he was causing him distress, he acted unfaithfully still more toward Jehovah, that is, King A'haz did.^q 23 And he began to sacrifice to the gods^r of Damascus^s that were striking him, and he went on to say: "Because the gods of the kings of Syria are helping them,^t to them I shall sacrifice, that they may help^u me." And they themselves became to him a cause for making him and all Israel stumble.^v 24 Furthermore, A'haz gathered together the utensils^w of the house of the [true] God and cut to pieces the utensils of the house of the [true] God,^x and closed the doors^y of the house of Jehovah, and made altars for himself at every corner in Jerusalem.^z 25 And in all cities, even the cities of Judah, he made high places^a for making sacrificial smoke to other gods,^b so that he offended^c Jehovah the God of his forefathers.

29 Heze-ki'ah^{*c} himself became king at the age of twenty-five years, and for twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was A-bi'jah the daughter of Zech-a-ri'ah.^d 2 And he kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes,^e according to all that David his forefather had done.^f 3 He himself, in the first year of his reigning, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of Jehovah and began to repair them.^g 4 Then he brought the priests and the Levites and gathered them to the open place^h to the east. 5 And he proceeded to say to them: "Listen to me, YOU Levites. 12 At that the Levites^f rose up, Ma'hath the son of A-ma'sai and Joel the son of Az-a-ri'ah of the sons of the Ko'hath-ites;^g and from the sons of Mer-a-ri,^h Kish the son of Ab'di and Az-a-ri'ah the son of Je-hal'le-lel; and from the Ger'shon-ites,ⁱ Jo'ah the son of Zim'mah and E'den the son of Jo'ah; 13 and from the sons of E-li-za'phan,^j Shim'ri and Je-u-el; and from the sons of A'saph,^k Zech-a-ri'ah and Mat-ta-ni'ah; 14 and from the sons of He'man,^l Je-hi-el and Shim'-e-i; and from the sons of Je-du'thun,^m She-mai'ah and Uz'zi-el. 15 Then they gathered their brothers together and sanctifiedⁿ themselves and came according to the king's commandment in the words^o of Jehovah, to cleanse^p the house of Jehovah. 16 The priests now came inside the house of Jehovah to do the cleansing and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of Jehovah to the courtyard^q of the house of Jehovah. In turn the Levites received it to take it out to the torrent valley of Kid'ron^r outside. 17 Thus they got started on the first [day] of the first month at sanctifying, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch^s of Jehovah; so that they sanctified the house of Jehovah in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first^t month they finished.

18 After that they came inside to Heze-ki'ah the king and said: "We have cleansed the whole house of Jehovah, the altar^u of burnt offering and all its utensils,^v and the table^w of the layer bread and all its utensils.^x 19 And all the utensils^y that King A'haz^z removed from employment during his reign in his unfaithfulness*^a we have prepared, and have sanctified^b them; and there they are before the altar of Jehovah.”

20 And Hez-e-ki’ah^c the king proceeded to get up early^d and gather the princes^e of the city together and go up to the house of Jehovah. 21 And they came bringing seven bulls^f and seven rams and seven male lambs and seven male goats as a sin offering^g for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. So he said to the sons of Aaron the priests^h to offer them up upon the altar of Jehovah. 22 Accordingly they slaughteredⁱ the cattle and the priests received the blood^j and sprinkled^k it upon the altar; after which they slaughtered the rams^l and sprinkled the blood^m upon the altar, and they slaughtered the male lambs and sprinkled the blood upon the altar. 23 Then they brought the male goatsⁿ of the sin offering near before the king and the congregation and laid their hands upon them.^o 24 The priests now slaughtered them and made a sin offering with their blood upon the altar, to make atonement for all Israel,^p because it was for all Israel^q that the king said the burnt offering and the sin offering [should^r be].

25 Meantime, he had the Levites^s stationed at the house of Jehovah, with cymbals,^t with stringed instruments^u and with harps,^v by the commandment of David^w and of Gad^x the king’s visionary and of Nathan^y the prophet, for it was by the hand of Jehovah that the commandment was by means of his prophets.^z 26 So the Levites kept standing with the instruments^a of David, and also the priests with the trumpets.^b

27 Then Hez-e-ki’ah said to offer up the burnt sacrifice on the altar; and at the time that the burnt offering started, the song^c of Jehovah started and also the trumpets, even under the direction of the instruments of David the king of Israel. 28 And all the congre-

So they began to offer praise even with rejoicing,^g and they kept bending down and prostrating themselves.^h

31 Finally Hez-e-ki’ah answered and said: “Now you have filledⁱ your hand with power for Jehovah. Approach, and bring sacrifices^j and thanksgiving^k sacrifices to the house of Jehovah.” And the congregation began to bring sacrifices and thanksgiving sacrifices,^l and also every one willing of heart, burnt offerings. 32 And the number of the burnt offerings that the congregation brought came to be seventy cattle, a hundred rams, two hundred male lambs—all these as a burnt offering to Jehovah;^m 33 and also the holy offerings, six hundred cattle and three thousand of the flock. 34 Only the priestsⁿ themselves happened to be too few, and they were not able to skin all the burnt offerings.^o So their brothers^p the Levites helped them out until the work was finished^q and until the priests could sanctify themselves, for the Levites^r were more upright^s of heart for sanctifying themselves than the priests. 35 And, too, the burnt offerings^t were in great quantity with the fat^u pieces of the communion^v sacrifices and with the drink^w offerings for the burnt offerings. Thus the service of the house of Jehovah was prepared.^x 36 Consequently Hez-e-ki’ah and all the people rejoiced over the fact that the [true] God had made preparation for the people,^y because it was all of a sudden that the thing had occurred.^z

6 Accordingly the runners^q with the letters from the hand of the king and of his princes^r went throughout all Israel and Judah, even according to the commandment of the king, saying: "You sons of Israel, return^s to Jehovah the God^t of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, that he may return to the escaped^u ones that are left of you out of the palm of the kings of As-syr'i-a.^v 7 And do not become like your forefathers^w and like your brothers that acted unfaithfully toward Jehovah the God of their forefathers, so that he constituted them an object of astonishment,^x just as you are seeing. 8 Now do not stiffen your neck^y as your forefathers did. 21 So the sons of Israel that were found in Jerusalem held the festival^g of the unfermented cakes seven days with great rejoicing;^h and the Levitesⁱ and the priests^j were offering praise to Jehovah day by day with loud instruments, even to Jehovah.^k 22 Moreover, Heze-ki'ah spoke to the heart^l of all the Levites who were acting with fine discretion toward Jehovah.^m And they proceeded to eat the appointed feast for seven days,ⁿ sacrificing communion sacrifices^o and making confession^p to Jehovah the God of their forefathers.

In all the different cities there were men that had been designated by [their] names, to give portions to every male among the priests and to the entire genealogical enrollment among the Levites.

How much less, then, will your own God deliver^k you out of my hand?"^l

16 And his servants spoke yet further against Jehovah the [true] God^m and against Heze-ki'ah his servant. 17 Even letters he wroteⁿ to reproach Jehovah the God of Israel^o and to talk against him, saying: "Like the gods^p of the nations of the lands who did not deliver their people out of my hand,^q so the God of Heze-ki'ah will not deliver his people out of my hand."^r 18 And they^s kept calling with a loud voice^t in the Jews^u language to the people of Jerusalem that were upon the wall, to make them afraid^v and to disturb them, in order that they might capture the city. 19 And they went on speaking against^w the God of Jerusalem^x the same way as against the gods of the peoples of the earth, the work of man's hands.^y 20 But Heze-ki'ah^z the king and Isa-

Later on he entered the house of his godⁱ and there certain ones that had come out of his own inward parts felled him with the sword.^j 22 Thus Jehovah saved Heze-ki'ah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem out of the hand of Sen-nach'er-ib the king of As-syr'i-a^k and out of the hand of all others and gave them rest all around.^k 23 And there were many bringing gifts^l to Jehovah at Jerusalem and choice things to Heze-ki'ah the king of Judah,^m and he came to be exaltedⁿ in the eyes of all the nations after that.

24 In those days Heze-ki'ah fell sick to the point of dying,^o and he began to pray^p to Jehovah. So He talked to him,^q and a portent^r He gave him. 25 But according to the benefit rendered him Heze-ki'ah made no return,^s for his heart became haughty^t and there came to be indignation^u against him and against Judah and Jerusalem. 26 However, Heze-ki'ah humbled^v himself for the haughtiness of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and Jehovah's indignation did not come upon them in the days^w of Heze-ki'ah.

32 As for the rest of the affairsⁿ of Heze-ki'ah and his acts of loving-kindness,^o there they are written in the vision of Isaiah^p the prophet, the son of A'moz,^q in the Book^r of the Kings of Judah and Israel. 33 Finally Heze-ki'ah lay down with his forefathers,^s and they buried him in the ascent to the burial places of the sons of David;^t and honor was what all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem rendered to him at his death.^u And Ma-nas's^v son began to reign in place of him.

33 Twelve years old was Ma-nas's^v when he began to reign, and for fifty-five years he reigned in Jerusalem.^w

7 Furthermore, he put the carved image^m that he had made in the house of the [true] God,ⁿ respecting which God had said to David and to Sol'o-mon his son: "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen^o out of all the tribes of Israel, I shall put my name^p to time indefinite.^q 8 And I shall not remove the foot of Israel again from off the ground that I assigned^r to their^s forefathers,^t provided only that they take care to do all that I have commanded them^u concerning all the law^v and the regulations^w and the judicial decisions^x by the hand of Moses."^y 9 And Manas'sseh^z kept seducing Judah^{aa} and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do worse^{ab} than the nations that Jehovah had annihilated from before the sons of Israel.^{ac}

10 And Jehovah kept speaking to Manas'sseh and his people, but they paid no attention.^{ad} 11 Finally Jehovah brought against them^{ae} the chiefs of the army that belonged to the king of As-syr'i-a,^{af} and so they captured Manas'sseh in the hollows^{ag} and bound^{ah} him with two fetters of copper and took him to Babylon. 12 And as soon as it caused him distress,^{ai} he softened the face of Jehovah his God^{aj} and kept humbling^{ak} himself greatly because of the God of his forefathers. 13 And he kept praying to Him, so that He let himself be entreated^{al} by him and He heard his request for favor and restored him to Jerusalem to his kingship;^{am} and Manas'sseh came to know that Jehovah is the [true] God.^{an}

12 And the men were acting in faithfulness^o in the work; and over them there were appointed Ja'hath and O-ba-di'ah the Levites, from the sons of Me-rari,^p and Zech-a-ri'ah and Meshul'-lam, from the sons of the Ko'hath-ites,^q to act as overseers. With that Hil-ki'ah gave the book to Sha'phan. 16 Then Sha'phan brought the book to the king and replied further to the king, saying: "All that has been put in the hand of your servants they are doing. 17 And they pour out the money that is found in the house of Jehovah and put it in the hand of the appointed men and into the hand of the doers of the work."^a 18 And Sha'phan the secretary went on to report to the king, saying: "There is a book^b that Hil-ki'ah the priest gave me."^c And Sha'phan began to read out of it before the king.^d

19 And it came about that as soon as the king heard the words of the law, he immediately ripped his garments apart.^e 20 Then the king commanded Hil-ki'ah^f and A-hi'kam^g the son of Sha'phan and Ab'don the son of Mi'cah and Sha'phan^h the secretaryⁱ and A-sai'ah^j the king's servant, saying: 21 "Go, inquire^k of Jehovah in my own behalf^l and in behalf of what is left in Israel and in Judah concerning the words of the book^m that has been found, for great is Jehovah's rageⁿ that must be poured out against us because of the fact that our forefathers did not keep the word of Jehovah by doing according to all that is written in this book."^o

22 Accordingly Hil-ki'ah along with those whom the king [had said]^p went to Hul'dah^q the prophetess,^r the wife of Shal'lum the son of Tik'vah^s the son of Har'has^t the caretaker^u of the garments, as she was dwelling in Jerusalem in the second quarter; and they proceeded to speak to her like this. 23 In turn she said to them:

Judah,^a 25 due to the fact that they have left me^b and gone making sacrificial smoke to other gods,^c in order to offend^d me with all the doings of their hands^e and that my rage^f may pour forth upon this place and not be extinguished."^g 26 And to the king of Judah, who is sending you to inquire of Jehovah, this is what you should say to him: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said,^h 'As regards the wordsⁱ that you have heard, 27 for the reason that your heart^j was soft so that you humbled^k yourself because of God^l at your hearing his words concerning this place and its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before me^l and ripped^m your garments apart and wept before me, I, even I, have heard,ⁿ is the utterance of Jehovah. 28 Here I am gathering you to your forefathers, and you will certainly be gathered to your graveyard^o in peace,^o and your eyes will not look upon all the calamity^p that I am bringing upon this place and its inhabitants."^q

Then they brought the reply to the king. 29 And the king proceeded to send and gather all the older men of Judah and of Jerusalem.^r 30 The king now went up to the house of Jehovah^s with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the priests^t and the Levites and all the people, the great as well as the small; and he began to read^u in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant, which had been found at the house of Jehovah.^v 31 And the king kept standing in his place^w and proceeded to conclude the covenant^x before Jehovah to go following Jehovah and to keep his commandments^y and his testimonies^z and his regulations^{aa} with all his heart^b and with all his soul,^c to perform^d the words of the covenant that were written in this book.^e 32 Furthermore, he had all those who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to take their stand [to it].

And the inhabitants of Jerusalem proceeded to do according to the covenant of God, the God of their forefathers.^a 33 After that Jo-si'ah removed all the detestable^b things out of all the lands that belonged to the sons of Israel,^c and he had all who were found in Israel take up service, to serve Jehovah their God. 35 Then Jo-si'ah^e held in Jerusalem a passover^f to Jehovah and they slaughtered the passover victim^g on the fourteenth^h day of the firstⁱ month. 2 So he stationed the priests over the things under their care^j and encouraged^k them in the service of the house of Jehovah.^l 3 And he went on to say to the Levites, the instructors^m of all Israel, those holy to Jehovah: "Put the holyⁿ Ark in the house^o that Sol'o-mon the son of David the king of Israel built; it is not yours as a burden upon the shoulder.^p Now serve^q Jehovah YOUR God and his people Israel. 4 And make preparation by the house of YOUR forefathers^r according to YOUR divisions,^s by the writing^t of David the king of Israel and by the writing^u of Sol'o-mon his son. 5 And stand^v in the holy place by the classes^w of the house of the forefathers for YOUR brothers, the sons of the people, and the portion of a paternal^x house belonging to the Levites.^y 6 And slaughter the pass-over^z victim and sanctify^{aa} yourselves and make preparation for YOUR brothers to do according to the word of Jehovah by means of Moses."^{ab}

hi'el themselves as leaders of the house of the [true] God gave to the priests for the passover victims two thousand six hundred, and three hundred cattle. 9 And Con-a-ni'ah and She-mai'ah and Ne-than'el his brothers and Hash-a-bi'ah and Je'i'el and Jo'za-bad, the chiefs of the Levites, contributed to the Levites for passover victims five thousand, and five hundred cattle.

10 And the service was prepared^a and the priests kept standing^b at their places,^c and the Levites by their divisions,^d according to the king's commandment.^e 11 And they proceeded to slaughter the passover victim^f and the priests^g sprinkled^h [the blood] from their hand,ⁱ while the Levites were stripping the skins^j off. 12 Further, they prepared^k the burnt offerings so as to give them to the classes^l by the paternal^m house, to the sons of the people, so as to make a presentationⁿ to Jehovah according to what is written in the book of Moses;^o and thus also with the cattle.

13 And they went boiling^p the passover^q offering over the fire according to the custom; and the things made holy they boiled^r in cooking pots and in round-bottomed pots and in banquet bowls, after which they brought it quickly to all the sons of the people.^s 14 And afterward they prepared for themselves and for the priests,^t because the priests the sons of Aaron were engaged in offering up the burnt sacrifices^u and the fat^v pieces until night, and the Levites, for their part, prepared^w for themselves and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

their brothers the Levites themselves prepared^a for them. 16 And all the service of Jehovah was prepared on that day to hold the passover^b and to offer up the burnt offerings upon the altar of Jehovah, according to the commandment of King Jo-si'ah.^c

17 And the sons of Israel that were to be found proceeded to hold the pass-over^d at that time and also the festival of the unfermented cakes for seven days.^e

18 And there had never been held a passover like it in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet,^f neither had any of the other kings^g of Israel themselves held a passover like that which Jo-si'ah and the priests and the Levites and all Judah and Israel that were to be found and the inhabitants of Jerusalem held.

19 In the eighteenth year of Jo-si'ah's reign this passover was held.^h

20 After all this when Jo-si'ah had prepared the house, Ne'choⁱ the king of Egypt^j came up to fight at Car'chemish^k by the Eu-phra'tes. Then Jo-si'ah^l went out to an encounter with him.^m

21 At that he sent messengers to him, saying: "What do I have to do with you,ⁿ O king of Judah? It is not against you that I am coming today,^o but it is against another house that my fight is and that God himself said that I should cause disturbance. Refrain for your own sake because of God, who is with me, and do not let him bring you to ruin."^p

22 And Jo-si'ah did not turn his face away from him,^q but to fight against him he disguised^r himself and did not listen to the words of Ne'cho^s from the mouth of God. So he came to fight in the valley plain of Me-gid'do.^t

23 And the shooters^u got to shoot at King Jo-si'ah, so that the king said to his servants: "Take me down, for I have been very severely wounded."^v

17 So he brought up against them the king of the Chal-de'ans,^a who proceeded to kill their young men with the sword^b in the house of their sanctuary,^c neither did he feel compassion for young man or virgin, old or decrepit.^d Everything He gave into his hand. 18 And all the utensils,^e great^f and small, of the house of the [true] God and the treasures^g of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the king^h and of his princes, everything he brought to Babylon. 19 And he proceeded to burn the house of the [true] Godⁱ and pull down the wall^j of Jerusalem; and all its dwelling towers they burned with fire and also all its desirable articles,^k so as to cause ruin.^l 20 Furthermore, he carried off those remaining from the sword captive to Babylon,^m and they came to be servants to himⁿ and his sons until the royalty of Persia^o began to reign; 21 to fulfill Jehovah's word by the mouth of Jeremiah,^p until the land had paid off its sabbaths.^q All the days of lying desolated it kept sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.^r

22 And in the first year of Cyrus^s the king of Persia,^t that Jehovah's word^u by the mouth of Jeremiah^v might be accomplished, Jehovah roused the spirit^w of Cyrus^x the king of Persia, so that he caused a cry to pass through all his kingdom, and also in writing,^y saying: 23 "This is what Cyrus the king of Persia^z has said, 'All the kingdoms of the earth Jehovah the God of the heavens^a has given me,^b and he himself has commissioned me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah.^b Whoever there is among you of all his people,^c Jehovah his God be with him.^d So let him go up.'^e"

1 And in the first year of Cyrus*^a the king of Persia, that Jehovah's word from the mouth of Jeremiah^b might be accomplished, Jehovah roused^c the spirit of Cyrus the king of Persia so that he caused a cry^d to pass through all his realm, and also in writing,^e saying:

2 "This is what Cyrus the king of Persia has said,^f 'All the kingdoms of the earth Jehovah the God of the heavens^g has given me,^h and he himself has commissioned me to build him a house in Jerusalem,ⁱ which is in Judah.

3 Whoever there is among you of all his people, may his God prove to be with him.^j So let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and rebuild the house of Jehovah the God of Israel—he is the [true] God*^k—which was in Jerusalem.^l 4 As for anyone that is left from all the places where he is residing as an alien,^m let the men of his place assist him with silver and with gold and with goods and with domestic animals along with the voluntary offeringⁿ for the house of the [true] God, which was in Jerusalem."^o

5 Then the heads^p of the fathers of Judah and of Benjamin and the priests and the Levites rose up, even everyone whose spirit^q the [true] God had roused, to go up and rebuild the house of Jehovah,^r which was in Jerusalem. 6 As for all those round about them, they strengthened^s their hands with utensils of silver, with gold, with goods and with domestic animals and with choice things, besides all that which was voluntarily offered.^t

4 When the adversaries^c of Judah and Benjamin heard that the sons of the Exile^d were building a temple to Jehovah the God of Israel, 2 they immediately approached Ze-rub'ba-bel^e and the heads^f of the paternal houses and said to them: "Let us build along with YOU,^g for, just like YOU, we search for YOUR God^h and to him we are sacrificing since the days of E'sar-had'donⁱ the king of As-syr'ia, who brought us up here."^j 3 However, Ze-rub'ba-bel and Jesh'u-a^k and the rest of the heads^l of the paternal houses of Israel said to them: "YOU have nothing to do with us* in building a house to our God,^m for we ourselves shall together build to Jehovah the God of Israel, just as King Cyrusⁿ the king of Persia has commanded us."

17 The king sent word to Re'hum^b the chief government official and Shim'shai the scribe and the rest of their colleagues^c who were dwelling in Samar'i-a and the rest beyond the River:

"Greetings!^d And now 18 the official document that you have sent us^e has been distinctly read before me. 19 So an order has been put through by me, and they have investigated^f and found that that city has from the days of old been one rising up against kings and one in which rebellion and revolt have been carried on.^g 20 And there proved to be strong kings^h over Jerusalem and governing all beyond the River,ⁱ and tax, tribute and toll were being given to them.^j 21 Now put an order through for these able-bodied men to stop, that that city may not be rebuilt until the order is put through by me. 22 So be careful that there be no negligence about acting in this regard, that the harm may not increase to the injury of kings."^k

23 Now after the copy of the official document of Artaxerxes the king had been read before Re'hum^k and Shim'shai^l the scribe and their colleagues,^m they went in a hurry to Jerusalem to the Jews and stopped them by force of arms.ⁿ 24 It was then that the work on the house of God, which was in Jerusalem, stopped; and it continued stopped until the second year of the reign of Dari'us^o the king of Persia.

7 Consequently some of the sons of Israel and of the priests^z and the Levites^a and the singers^b and the gatekeepers^c and the Neth'i-nim^d went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of Ar-ta-xerx'es^e the king. 8 At length he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, that is, in the seventh year of the king. 9 For on the first [day] of the first month he himself appointed the going up from Babylon, and on the first [day] of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.^f 10 For Ez'ra himself had prepared^g his heart to consult the law of Jehovah^h and to do [it]ⁱ and to teach^j in Israel regulation^k and justice.^l respects all the mighty princes of the king. And I, for my part, strengthened myself according to the hand^a of Jehovah my God upon me, and I proceeded to collect out of Israel the head ones to go up with me.

8 Now these were the heads of their paternal^b houses and the genealogical^c enrollment of those going up with me during the reign of Ar-ta-xerxes^d the king out of Babylon: 2 Of the sons of Phin'e-has,^e Ger'shom;^f of the sons of Ith'a-mar,^g Daniel;^h of the sons of David,ⁱ Hat'tush; 3 of the sons of Shec-a-ni'ah, of the sons of Pa'rosh,^j Zech-a-ri'ah, and with him there was an enrollment of a hundred and fifty males; 4 of the sons of Pa'hath-mo'ab,^k El'ie-ho-e'nai the son of Zera-hi'ah, and with him two hundred males; 5 of the sons [of Zat'tu],^l Shec-a-ni'ah the son of Jaha-zi'el, and with him three hundred males; 6 and of the sons of A'din,^m E'bed the son of Jon'a-than, and with him fifty males; 7 and of the sons of E'lam,ⁿ Je-sha'iah the son of Ath-a-li'ah, and with him seventy males; 8 and of the sons of Sheph-a-ti'ah,^o Zeb-a-di'ah the son of Mi'chael, and with him eighty males; 9 of the sons of Jo'ab, O-ba-di'ah the son of Je-hi'el, and with him two hundred and eighteen males; 10 and of the sons of [Ba'ni],^p She-lo-mith the son of Jo-si-phi'ah, and with him a hundred and sixty males; 11 and of the sons of Be'bai, Zech-a-ri'ah the son of Be'bai,^q and with him twenty-eight males; 12 and of the sons of Az'gad,^r Jo-ha'n-an the son of Hak'katan, and with him a hundred and ten males; 13 and of the sons of Ad-o-ni'kam,^s those who were the last, and these were their names: E-liph'e-let, Je-i'el and She-mai'ah, and with them sixty males; 14 and of the sons of Big'vai,^t U'thai and Zab'bud,^u and with them seventy males.

15 And I proceeded to collect them at the river^a that comes to A-ha'va;^b and we kept encamped there three days, that I might scrutinize the people^c and the priests,^d but none of the sons of Le'vi did I find there. 16 Accordingly I sent for E-li-e'zer, Ar'i-el, She-mai'ah and El-na'than and Ja'rib and El-na'than and Nathan and Zech-a-ri'ah and Me-shul'lam, head ones, and for Joi'a-rib and El-na'than, instructors.ⁱ 17 Then I gave them a command concerning Id'do the head one in the place Ca-si-phi'a, and I put in their mouth words^k to speak to Id'do [and] his brothers the Neth'i-nim^h in the place Ca-si-phi'a, to bring to us ministers^{ai} for the house of our God. 18 So they brought to us, according to the good handⁱ of our God upon us, a man of discretion^k from the sons of Mah'liⁱ the grandson of Le'vi^m the son of Israel, namely, She-re-bi'ah^a and his sons and his brothers, eighteen; 19 and Hash-a-bi'ah and with him Je-sha'iah from the sons of Me-rari,^o his brothers, and their sons, twenty. 20 And from the Neth'i-nim, whom David and the princes gave to the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Neth'i-nim, all of whom had been designated by [their] names.

21 Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river A-ha'va, to humble^p ourselves before our God, to seek from him the right way^q for us and for our little ones^r and for all our goods. 22 For I felt ashamed to ask a military force^s and horsemen^t from the king to help us against the enemy in the way, because we had said to the king: "The hand^u of our God is over all those seeking him for good,^v but his strength and his anger^w are against all those leaving him."^x 23 Therefore we fasted^y and made request^z of our God concerning this, so that he let himself be entreated^a by us.

24 I now separated from the chiefs of the priests twelve, namely, She-re-bi'ah,^a Hash-a-bi'ah,^b and with them ten of their brothers. 25 And I proceeded to weigh out to them the silver and the gold and the utensils,^c the contribution to the house of our God that the king^d and his counselors^e and his princes and all the Israelites^f who were to be found had contributed. 26 Thus I weighed out into their hand six hundred and fifty talents* of silver^g and a hundred silver utensils worth [two] talents, [and] gold a hundred talents, 27 and twenty small gold bowls worth a thousand darics* and two utensils of good copper, gleaming red, as desirable as gold.

28 Then I said to them: "You are something holy^h to Jehovah, and the utensilsⁱ are something holy, and the silver and the gold are a voluntary offering to Jehovah the God of YOUR forefathers. 29 Keep awake and be on guard until you weigh^j [them] out before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites and the princes of the fathers of Israel in Jerusalem, in the dining halls^k of the house of Jehovah." 30 And the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold and the utensils, to bring [them] to Jerusalem to the house of our God.^l

31 Finally we pulled away from the river A-ha'va^m on the twelfth [day] of the first monthⁿ to go to Jerusalem, and the very hand of our God proved to be over us, so that he delivered^o us out of the palm of the enemy and the ambush by the way. 32 So we came to Jerusalem^p and dwelt there three days. 33 And on the fourth day we proceeded to weigh out the silver and the gold^q and the utensils^r in the house of our God into the hand of Mer'e-moth^s the son of U-ri'jah the priest and with him El-e-a'zar the son of Phin'e-has and with them Jo'za-bad^t the son of Jesh'u-a* and No-a-di'ah the son of Bin'nu-i^u the Levites, 34 by number [and] by weight for everything, after which all the weight was written down at that time. 35 Those coming out of the captivity, the former exiles,^a themselves presented burnt sacrifices^b to the God of Israel, twelve bulls^c for all Israel, ninety-six rams,^d seventy-seven male lambs, twelve he-goats^e as a sin offering, everything as a burnt offering to Jehovah.

36 Then we gave the laws^f of the king to the satraps^g of the king and the governors^h beyond the River,^{h1} and they assisted the peopleⁱ and the house of the [true] God.

9 And as soon as these things were finished, the princes^k approached me, saying: "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated^l themselves from the peoples of the lands as regards their detestable things,^m namely, the Ca'naan-ites,ⁿ the Hit'tites,^o the Per'iz-zites,^p the Jeb'-u-sites,^q the Am'mon-ites,^r the Mo'ab-ites,^s the Egyptians^t and the Am'or-ites."2 For they have accepted some of their daughters for themselves and for their sons;^v and they, the holy seed,^w have become mingled^x with the peoples of the lands, and the hand^y of the princes and the deputy rulers has proved to be foremost^z in this unfaithfulness."

3 Now as soon as I heard of this thing I ripped apart my garment^a and my sleeveless coat, and I began to pull out some of the hair of my head^b and of my beard, and I kept sitting stunned.^c4 Also to me they came gathering themselves, everyone trembling^d because of the words of the God of Israel against the unfaithfulness of the exiled people, while I was sitting stunned until the grain offering of the evening.^e

5 And at the grain offering^f of the evening I stood up from my humiliation, with my garment and my sleeveless coat torn apart, and I proceeded

5 At that Ez'ra rose and had the chiefs of the priests, the Levites and all Israel take an oath^a to do according to this word. Accordingly they took an oath. 6 Ez'ra now rose from before the house of the [true] God and went to the dining hall^b of Je-ho-ha'nán the son of E-li'a-shib. Although he went there, he ate no bread^c and drank no water, for he was mourning^d over the unfaithfulness of the exiled people.

7 Then they caused a call to pass throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the former exiles^e to collect themselves together at Jerusalem; 8 and anyone that did not come^f in three days' time according to the counsel of the princes^g and the older men—all his goods would be put under a ban^h and he himself be separatedⁱ from the congregation of the exiled people. 9 So all the men of Judah and Benjamin collected themselves together at Jerusalem within three days, that is, in the ninth^j month on the twentieth [day] of the month, and all the people kept sitting in the open place of the house of the [true] God, shivering because of the matter and on account of the showers of rain.^k

10 At length Ez'ra the priest rose and said to them: “You yourselves have acted unfaithfully in that you gave a dwelling to foreign wives^l so as to add to the guiltiness of Israel.”^m 11 And now make confessionⁿ to Jehovah the God of your forefathers and do his pleasure^o and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives.”^p 12 To this all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice: “Exactly according to your word it devolves upon us to do.”^q 13 However, the people are many, and it is the season of showers of rain, and it is not possible to stand outside; and the business will not take one day or two, for we have rebelled to a great extent in this matter. 14 So, please, let our princes^r act representatively for all the congregation; and, as for all in our cities who have given a dwelling to for-foreign wives, let them come at the times appointed and along with them the older men of each individual city and its judges, until we have turned back the burning anger of our God from us, on account of this matter."

15 (However, Jon'a-than the son of As'a-hel and Jah-zei'ah the son of Tik'vah themselves stood up against^a this,* and Meshul'lam and Shab'be-thai^b the Levites were the ones that helped them.)

16 And the former exiles^c proceeded to do that way; and Ez'ra the priest [and] the men that were the heads of the fathers for their paternal house,^d even all of them by [their] names, now separated themselves and began sitting on the first day of the tenth month^e to inquire into the matter;^f 17 and gradually they finished with all the men that had given a dwelling to foreign^g wives by the first day of the first month. 18 And some of the sons of the priests^h came to be found that had given a dwelling to foreign wives; of the sons of Jesh'u-aⁱ the son of Je-hoz'a-dak^j and his brothers, Ma-a-sei'ah and Eli-e-zer and Ja'rib and Ged-a-li'ah. 19 But they promised by shaking hands* to put their wives away, and that, they being guilty,^k there should be a ram^l of the flock for their guiltiness.*

20 And of the sons of Im'mer^m there were Ha-na'ni and Zeb-a-di'ah; 21 and of the sons of Ha'rim,ⁿ Ma-a-sei'ah and Eli'jah and She-mai'ah and Je-hi'el and Uz-zi'ah; 22 and of the sons of Pash'hur,^o Eli-o-e'nai, Ma-a-sei'ah, Ish-ma-el, Nethan'el, Jo'za-bad and Ele-a-sah. 23 And of the Levites, Jo'za-bad and Shim'e-i and Ke-lai'ah (that is, Ke-li'ta), Peth-a-hi'ah, Judah and Eli-e-zer; 24 and of the singers, Eli'a-shib; and er had I happened to be gloomy before him.^a 2 So the king said to me: "Why is your face gloomy^b when you yourself are not sick? This is nothing but a gloominess of heart."^c At this I became very much afraid.

3 Then I said to the king: "Let the king himself live to time indefinite!^d Why should not my face become gloomy when the city,^e the house of the burial places of my forefathers,^f is devastated, and its very gates have been eaten up with fire?"^g 4 In turn the king said to me: "What is this that you are seeking to secure?"^h At once I prayedⁱ to the God of the heavens.^j 5 After that I said to the king: "If to the king it does seem good,^k and if your servant seems good before you,^l that you would send me to Judah, to the city of the burial places of my forefathers, that I may rebuild^m it." 6 At this the king said to me, as his queenly consort was sitting beside him: "How long will your journey come to be and when will you return?" to hear [of it], then it seemed to them something very bad^a that a man^b had come to seek something good for the sons of Israel.

11 At length I came to Jerusalem, and I continued there for three days. 12 Then I rose up by night, I and a few men with me, and I did not tell a man^c what my God was putting into my heart to do for Jerusalem,^d and there was no domestic animal with me except the domestic animal on which I was riding. 13 And I proceeded to go out by the Valley Gate^e by night and in front of the Fountain of the Big Snake^f and to the Gate of the Ash-heaps,^g and I was constantly examining the walls^h of Jerusalem, how they were broken down and the gatesⁱ of it had been eaten up by fire. 14 And I went passing along to the Fountain Gate^j and to the King's Pool, and there was no place for the domestic animal under me to pass along. 15 But I kept on ascending in the torrent^k valley by night, and I kept on examining the wall; after which I came back and entered by the Valley Gate,^l and so got back.

16 And the deputy rulers^m themselves did not know where I had gone and what I was doing; and to the Jews and the priests and the nobles and the deputy rulers and the rest of the doers of the work I had not yet told anything.

17 Finally I said to them: "You are seeing the bad plight in which we are, how Jerusalem is devastated and its gates have been burned with fire. Come and let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, that we may no longer continue to be a reproach."ⁿ 18 And I went on to tell them of the hand^o of my God, how it was good upon me,^p and also of the king's words^q that he had said to me. At this they said: "Let us get up, and we must build." So they strengthened their hands for the good work.^r

19 Now when San-bal-lat^a the Hor-onite and To-bi'ah^b the servant,^c the Am'mon-ite,^d and Ge'shem^e the Arabian^f heard of it, they began to deride us^g and look on us despidingly and say: "What is this thing that you are doing? Is it against the king that you are rebelling?"^h 20 However, I replied to them and said to them: "The God of the heavensⁱ is the One that will grant us success,^j and we ourselves, his servants, shall get up, and we must build; but you yourselves have no share,^k nor just claim, nor memorial^l in Jerusalem."

3 And Eli'a-shib^m the high priest and his brothers, the priests, proceeded to get up and build the Sheep Gate.ⁿ They themselves sanctified it^o and went setting up its doors; and as far as the Tower of Me'ah^p they sanctified it, as far as the Tower of Hanan'el.^q 2 And at their side the men of Jer'i-chor^r did building. And at their side Zac'cur the son of Im'ri did building.

27 After them the Te-ko'ites^a repaired another measured section, from in front of the great protruding tower as far as the wall of O'phel.

28 Above the Horse Gate^b the priests did repair work, each one in front of his own house.

29 After them Za'dok^c the son of Im'mer did repair work in front of his own house.

And after him She-mai'ah the son of Shec-a-ni'ah, the keeper of the East Gate,^d did repair work.

30 After him Han-a-ni'ah the son of Shel-e-mi'ah and Ha'nun the sixth son of Za'laph repaired another measured section.

After him Me-shul'lam^e the son of Bere-chi'ah did repair work in front of his own hall.^f

31 After him Mal-chi'jah, a member* of the goldsmiths^g guild, did repair work as far as the house of the Neth'i-nim^h and the traders,ⁱ in front of the Inspection Gate^j and as far as the roof chamber of the corner.

32* And between the roof chamber of the corner and the Sheep Gate^k the goldsmiths and the traders did repair work.

4* Now it came about that, as soon as San-bal'lat^k heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry^l and highly offended, and he kept deriding^m the Jews. 2 And he began to say before his brothersⁿ and the military force of Samar'i-a, yes, he began to say: "What are the feeble Jews doing? Will they depend upon themselves? Will they sacrifice?^o Will they finish up in a day? Will they bring the stones to life out of the heaps of dusty rubbish^p when they are burned?"

3 Now To-bi'ah^q the Am'mon-ite^r was alongside him, and he went on to say:

"Even what they are building, if a fox^a went up [against it], he would certainly break down their wall of stones."

4 Hear,^b O our God, for we have become an object of contempt;^c and make their reproach^d return upon their own head, and give them to the plunder in the land of captivity. 5 And do not cover over their error^e and their sin from before you. Let it not be wiped out, for they have committed offense against the builders.

6 So we kept building the wall, and the entire wall came to be joined together clear to half its [height], and the people continued to have a heart for working.^f

7* Now it came about that, as soon as San-bal-lat^g and To-bi'ah^h and the Arabiansⁱ and the Am'mon-ites^j and the Ash'-dod-ites^k heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem had gone forward, for the gaps had started to be stopped up, they became very angry. 8 And all of them began to conspire^l together to come and fight against Jerusalem and cause me^m disturbance. 9 But we prayedⁿ to our God and kept a guard posted against them day and night on account of them.

10 And Judah began to say: "The power of the burden bearer^o has stumbled, and there is a great deal of rub-bish;^p and we ourselves are not able to build on the wall."

11 Moreover, our adversaries kept saying: "They will not know^q and they will not see until we come right in among them, and we shall certainly kill them and put a stop to the work."

12 And it came about that, whenever the Jews dwelling close by them came in, they proceeded to say to us ten times: "[They will come up]* from all the places where you people will return to us."

13 So I kept [men] posted at the lowest parts of the place behind the wall at the open places, and I kept the people posted by families with their swords,^r their lances^a and their bows. 14 When I saw [their fear] I immediately rose and said to the nobles^b and the deputy rulers^c and the rest of the people: "Do not be afraid^d on their account. Jehovah^e the great^e and the fear-inspiring^f! One keep in YOUR mind; and fight for YOUR brothers,^g YOUR sons and YOUR daughters, YOUR wives and YOUR homes."

15 Now it came about that as soon as our enemies heard that it had become known to us, so that the [true] God^h had frustrated their counsel^h and we had all of us gone back to the wall, each one to his work, 16 yes, it came about that from that day forward half of my young menⁱ were active in the work and half of them were holding the lances, the shields and the bows and the coats of mail;^j and the princes^k were behind the whole house of Judah.

17 As for the builders on the wall and those who were carrying the burden of load bearers, [each] one was active in the work with his one hand while the other [hand]^l was holding the missile.^m 18 And the builders were girded, each one with his sword upon his hip,ⁿ while building;^o and the one to blow the horn^p was alongside me.

19 And I proceeded to say to the nobles and the deputy rulers^a and the rest of the people: "The work is large and extensive, and we are spread about upon the wall far apart from one another. 20 In the place where YOU hear the sound of the horn,^q there is where you will collect yourselves together to us. Our God himself will fight for us."

21 While we were active in the work, the other half of them also were holding the lances, from the ascending of the dawn until the stars came out. 22 Besides, at that time I said to the people: "Let the men spend the night, each one with his attendant, in the midst of Jerusalem,^s and they must become for us a guard by night and workers^t by

5 However, there came to be a great outcry^f of the people and their wives against their Jewish brothers.^g 2 And there were those who were saying: "Our sons and our daughters we are giving as security* that we may get grain and eat and keep alive."^h 3 And there were those who were saying: "Our fields and our vineyards and our houses we are giving as securityⁱ that we may get grain during the food shortage." 4 And there were those who were saying: "We have borrowed money for the king's tribute^j on our fields and our vineyards.^k 5 And now our flesh is the same as the flesh of our brothers;^l our sons are the same as their sons, but here we are reducing our sons and our daughters to slaves,^m and there are some of our daughters already reduced; and there is no power in our hands while our fields and our vineyards belong to others."

6 Now I became very angry as soon as I heard their outcry and these words. 7 So my heart took consideration within me, and I began finding faultⁿ with the nobles and the deputy rulers, and went on to say to them: "Usury^o is what you are exacting, each one from his own brother."

Further, I arranged a great assembly on their account.^p 8 And I proceeded to say to them: "We ourselves have bought back^q our own Jewish brothers who were sold to the nations, as far as it was in our power; and at the same time will you yourselves sell your own brothers,^r and must they be sold to us?" At this they became speechless, and they did not find a word.^s 9 And I* went on to say: "The thing that you are doing is not good.^t Is it

12 To this they said: "We shall make restoration,^h and from them we shall ask nothing back.ⁱ We shall do precisely as you are saying."^j So I called the priests and made them swear to do according to this word.^k 13 Also, my bosom I shook out and then said: "In this manner may the [true] God shake out from his house and from his acquired property every man that does not carry out this word; and in this manner may he become shaken out and empty." To this all the congregation^l said: "Amen!"^m And they began to praise Jehovah.ⁿ And the people proceeded to do according to this word.^o

14 Another thing: From the day that he commissioned me to become their governor^p in the land of Judah, from the twentieth^q year to the thirty-second^r year of Artaxerxes^s the king, twelve years, I myself and my brothers did not eat the bread due the governor.^t 15 As for the former governors that were prior to me, they had made it heavy upon the people, and they kept taking from them for bread and wine daily* forty silver shekels.^u Also, their attendants themselves domineered over the people.^v As for me, I did not do that way^w on account of the fear of God.^x

this wall I took a hand,^a and not a field did we acquire;^b and all my attendants were collected together there for the work. 17 And the Jews and the deputy rulers, a hundred and fifty men, and those coming in to us from the nations that were around us were at my table.^c 18 As for that which happened to be made ready daily, one bull, six select sheep and birds were made ready for me, and once every ten days every sort of wine^d in abundance. And along with this the bread due the governor I did not demand, because the service upon this people was heavy. 19 Do remember for me,^e O my God, for good,^f all that I have done in behalf of this people.^g

6 Now it came about that, as soon as it was told to San-bal-lat^h and To-bi-ahⁱ and to Ge'shem^j the Arabian^k and to the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall^l and there had not been left in it a gap (although up to that time the doors^m themselves I had not set up in the gates),ⁿ 2 San-bal-lat and Ge'shem immediately sent to me, saying: "Do come, and let us meet^o together by appointment in the villages of the valley plain of O'no."^p But they were scheming to do me harm.^q 3 So I sent messengers to them,^r saying: "It is a great work that I am doing,^s and I am not able to go down. Why should the work cease while I take off from it and have to go down to you?"^t 4 However, they sent me the same word four times, and I kept replying to them with the same word.

5 Finally San-bal-lat^u sent his attendant to me with the same word a fifth time, with an open letter in his hand. 6 There was written in it: "Among the nations it has been heard, and Ge'shem^v is saying [it], that you and the Jews are scheming to rebel.^w That is why you are building the wall; and you are becoming a king to them,^x according to these words. 7 And there are even prophets that you have appointed to call out concerning you throughout Jerusalem, saying, 'There is a king in

Judah!" And now things like these will be told to the king. So now do come, and let us consult together."^a

8 However, I sent to him, saying: "Things such as you are saying have not been brought about,^b but it is out of your own heart that you are inventing them."^c 9 For all of them were trying to make us afraid, saying: "Their hands^d will drop down from the work so that it will not be done." But now strengthen^e my hands.^f

10 And I myself entered the house of She-mai'ah the son of De-la'iah the son of Me-het'a-bel while he was shut up.^g And he proceeded to say: "Let us meet by appointment^h at the house of the [true] God, within the temple,ⁱ and let us close the doors of the temple; for they are coming in to kill you, even by night^j they are coming in to kill you."^k

11 But I said: "Should a man like me run away?^l And who is there like me that could enter into the temple and live?^m I shall not enter!" 12 So I investigated, and here it was not Godⁿ that had sent him, but he had spoken^o this prophecy against me as To-bi-ah and San-bal-lat^p themselves had hired him.^q 13 For this reason he had been hired^r in order that I might be afraid^s and do that way, and I should certainly sin^t and it should certainly become in their possession a bad reputation,^u in order that they might reproach me.^v

14 Do remember,^w O my God, To-bi-ah^x and San-bal-lat, according to these deeds of [each] one, and also No-a-di-ah the prophetess^y and the rest of the prophets that were continually trying to make me afraid.

15 At length the wall^z came to completion on the twenty-fifth [day] of E'lul,^a in fifty-two days.

16 And it came about that, as soon as all our enemies^b heard [of it] and all the nations that were around us got to see it, they at once fell very much in their own eyes, and they got to know that it was from our God^a that this work had been done. 17 In those days also the nobles^b of Judah were making numerous their letters that were going to To-bi'ah^c and those of To-bi'ah that were coming in to them. 18 For many in Judah were sworn* to him, for a son-in-law he was to Shec-a-ni'ah the son of A'rah;^d and Je-ho-ha-nan his son had himself taken the daughter of Meshul'-lam^e the son of Bere-chi'ah. 19 Also, good things about him they were continually saying before me.^f And my own words they were continually taking out to him. There were letters that To-bi'ah sent to make me afraid.^g

7 And it came about that, as soon as the wall had been rebuilt,^h I at once set up the doors.ⁱ Then there were appointed the gatekeepers^j and the singers^k and the Levites.^l 2 And I went on to put in command of Jerusalem Ha-na-ni^m my brother and Han-a-ni'ah the prince of the Castle,ⁿ for he was such a trustworthy^o man* and feared^p the [true] God more than many others. 3 So I* said to them: "The gates^q of Jerusalem should not be opened until the sun gets hot; and while they are standing by they should shut the doors and bolt [them].^r And station^s guards of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each one at his own guardpost and each one in front of his own house."^t 4 Now the city was wide* and great, and there were few people inside it,^u and there were no houses built.

5 But my God put [it] into my heart^v that I should collect together the nobles and the deputy rulers and the people to get themselves enrolled genealogically.^w Then I found the book of genealogical enrollment^x of those who came up at the first, and found written in it:

In Heb. this is a verb in the infinitive absolute, indefinite as to time and impersonal. 10* "To our Lord." Heb., la-Adho-neh nu.

11 And the Levites were ordering all the people to be silent, saying: "Keep quiet! for this day is holy; and do not feel hurt." 12 So all the people went away to eat and drink and to send out portions^a and to carry on a great rejoicing,^b for they had understood the words that had been made known to them.^c

13 And on the second day the heads of the fathers of all the people, the priests and the Levites, gathered themselves together to Ez'ra the copyist, even to gain insight into the words of the law.^d

14 Then they found written in the law that Jehovah had commanded by means of Moses^e that the sons of Israel should dwell in booths^f during the festival in the seventh month.^g 15 and that they should make proclamation^h and cause a call to pass throughout all their cities and throughout Jerusalem,ⁱ saying: "Go out to the mountainous region^j and bring in olive^k leaves and the leaves of oil trees and myrtle leaves and palm leaves and the leaves of branchy trees to make booths, according to what is written."

16 And the people proceeded to go out and bring [them] in and make booths for themselves, each one upon his own roof^l and in their courtyards and in the courtyards^m of the house of the [true] God and in the public squareⁿ of the Water Gate^o and in the public square of the Gate of E'phra-im.^p

17 Thus all the congregation of those who had come back from the captivity made booths and took up dwelling in the booths; for the sons of Israel had not done that way from the days of Joshua^q the son of Nun^r until that day, so that there came to be very great rejoicing.^s 18 And there was a reading aloud of the book of the law of the [true] God day by day,^t from the first day until the last day; and they went on holding the festival seven days, and on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly, according to the rule.^u

9 And on the twenty-fourth day of this month^a the sons of Israel gathered themselves together with fasting^b and with sackcloth^c and dirt^d upon themselves. 2 And the seed of Israel proceeded to separate^e themselves from all the foreigners,^f and to stand and make confession^g of their own sins^h and the errors of their fathers.ⁱ 3 Then they rose up at their place^j and they read aloud from the book of the law^k of Jehovah their God a fourth part of the day;^l and a fourth part they were making confession^m and bowing down to Jehovah their God.ⁿ

4 And Jesh'u-a and Ba'ni, Kad'mi-el, Sheb-a-ni'ah, Bun'ni, She-re-bi'ah,^o Ba'ni [and] Che-na'ni proceeded to rise on the platform^p of the Levites and cry out with a loud voice^q to Jehovah their God.

5 And the Levites Jesh'u-a and Kad'mi-el, Ba'ni, Hash-ab-nei'ah, She-re-bi'ah, Ho-di'ah, Sheb-a-ni'ah [and] Peth-a-hi'ah went on to say: "Rise, bless^r Jehovah YOUR God from time indefinite to time indefinite.^s And let them bless your glorious name,^t which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 And during all this [time] I did not happen to be in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second^g year of Artaxerxes^h the king of Babylonⁱ I came to the king, and sometime later^j I asked leave of absence from the king.^k 7 Then I came to Jerusalem and got to notice the badness that Eli'a-shib^l had committed for To-bi'ah^m by making for him a hall in the courtyard of the houseⁿ of the [true] God. 8 And it seemed very bad to me.^o So I threw^p all the furniture of To-bi'ah's house outside the dining hall. 9 After that I said [the word] and they cleansed^q the dining halls;^r and I proceeded to put back there the utensils^s of the house of the [true] God, with the grain offering and the frankincense.^t

10 And I got to find out that the very portions^u of the Levites had not been given [them], so that the Levites and the singers doing the work went running off, each one to his own field.^v

11 And I began to find fault^w with the deputy rulers^x and say: "Why has the house of the [true] God been neglected?"^y Consequently I collected them together and stationed them at their standing place. 12 And all Judah, for their part, brought in the tenth^z of the grain^{aa} and of the new wine^{ab} and of the oil^{ac} to the stores.^{ad} 13 Then I put Shel-e-mi'ah the priest and Za'dok the copyist and Pe-dai'ah of the Levites in charge^{ae} of the stores; and under their control there was Ha'nan the son of Zac'cur the son of Mat-ta-ni'ah,^{af} for they were 14 Do remember me,^c O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe^d out my acts of loving-kindness* that I have performed in connection with the house^e of my God and the guardianship of it.

15 In those days I saw in Judah people treading winepresses on the sabbath^f and bringing in grain heaps and loading^g [them] upon asses,^h and also wine, grapes and figsⁱ and every sort of burden, and bringing [them] into Jerusalem on the sabbath day;^j and I proceeded to bear witness [against them] on the day of their selling provisions. 16 And the Tyri'ans^k themselves dwelt in [the city],^{*} bringing in fish and every sort of merchandise^l and making sales on the sabbath to the sons of Judah and in Jerusalem. 17 So I began to find fault with the nobles^m of Judah and say to them: "What is this bad thing that you are doing, even profaning the sabbath day? 18 Was it not this way that YOUR forefathers did,ⁿ so that our God brought upon us all this calamity,^o and also upon this city? Yet you are adding to the burning anger against Israel by profaning the sabbath."^p tion would be given her, to come with her from the house of the women to the king's house.^a 14 In the evening she herself came in, and in the morning she herself returned to the second house of the women in charge of Sha-ash'gaz the king's eunuch,^b the guardian of the concubines. She would not come in anymore to the king unless the king had taken delight in her and she had been called by name.^c

15 And when the turn of Esther the daughter of Ab'i-hail the uncle of Mor'de-cai, whom he had taken as his daughter,^d arrived to come in to the king, she did not request anything^e except what Heg'ai^f the king's eunuch, the guardian of the women, proceeded to mention (all the while Esther was continually gaining favor in the eyes of everyone seeing her).^g 16 Then Esther was taken to King A-has-u-e'rus at his royal house in the tenth month, that is, the month Te'beth,* in the seventh year^h of his reign. 17 And the king came to love Esther more than all the other women, so that she gained more favor and loving-kindness before him than all the other virgins.ⁱ And he proceeded to put the royal headdress upon her head and make her queen^j instead of Vash'ti. 18 And the king went on to hold a great banquet for all his princes and his servants, the banquet of Esther; and an amnesty^k for the jurisdictional districts he granted, and he kept giving presents according to the means of the king.

19 Now when virgins^l were collected together a second time, Mor'de-cai was sitting in the king's gate.^m 20 Esther was not telling about her relatives and her people,ⁿ just as Mor'de-cai^o had laid the command upon her;^p and the saying of Mor'de-cai Esther was performing, just as when she happened to be under care by him.^q

21 In those days while Mor'de-cai was sitting in the king's gate, Big'than and Te'resh, two court officials of the king, doorkeepers, became indignant and kept seeking to lay hand^a on King A-has-u-e-rus. 22 And the thing came to be known to Mor'de-cai, and he immediately told^b Esther the queen. In turn Esther talked to the king in Mor'de-cai's name.^c 23 So the matter was sought out and eventually found out, and both of them got to be hanged^d on a stake;^e after which it was written in the book of the affairs^f of the days before the king.

3 After these things King A-has-u-e-rus magnified Ha'man^g the son of Ham-meda'tha the Ag'ag-ite^h and proceeded to exalt himⁱ and to put his throne above all the other princes that were with him.^j 2 And all the king's servants that were in the king's gate^k were bowing low and prostrating themselves to Ha'man, for so the king had commanded respecting him. But as for Mor'de-cai, he would neither bow low nor prostrate himself.^l 3 And the king's servants who were in the king's gate began to say to Mor'de-cai: "Why are you sidestepping the king's commandment?"^m 4 And it came about that, as they talked to him day by day, and he did not listen to them, then they told Ha'man to see whether Mor'de-cai's affairs would stand;ⁿ for he had told them that he was a Jew.^o

5 Now Ha'man kept seeing that Mor'de-cai was not bowing low and prostrating himself to him,^p and Ha'man became filled with rage.^q 6 But it was despicable in his eyes to lay hand upon Mor'de-cai alone, for they had told him about Mor'de-cai's people; and Ha'man began seeking to annihilate^r all the Jews who were in all the realm of A-has-u-e-rus, Mor'de-cai's people.^s

A'dar.^{aa} 8 And Ha'man proceeded to say to King A-has-u-e-rus: "There is one certain people scattered^b and separated among the peoples in all the jurisdictional districts of your realm;^c and their laws are different from all other people's, and the king's own laws they are not performing,^d and for the king it is not appropriate to let them alone. 9 If to the king it does seem good, let there be a writing that they be destroyed; and ten thousand^e silver talents* I shall pay into the hands of those doing the work^f by bringing [it] into the king's treasury."

10 At that the king removed his signet ring^g from his own hand and gave it to Ha'man^h the son of Ham-meda'tha the Ag'ag-ite,ⁱ the one showing hostility to the Jews.^j 11 And the king went on to say to Ha'man: "The silver^k is given to you, also the people, to do with them according to what is good in your own eyes."^l 12 The king's secretaries^m were then called in the first month on the thirteenth day of it, and writingⁿ went on according to all that Ha'man commanded the king's satraps and the governors who were over the different jurisdictional districts,^o and the princes of the different peoples, of each jurisdictional district, in its own style of writing,^p and each people in its own tongue; in the name^q of King A-has-u-e-rus it was written and it was sealed with the king's signet ring.^r

13 And there was a sending^s of the letters by means of couriers^t to all the king's jurisdictional districts, to annihilate, to kill and to destroy all the Jews, young man as well as old man, little ones and women, on one day,^u on the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month, that is, the month A'dar,^v and to plunder the spoil of them.^v 14 A copy of the writing to be given as law^a in all the different jurisdictional districts^b was being published to all the peoples, [for them] to become ready for this day. 15 The couriers themselves went out, being moved to speed^c because of the king's word, and the law itself was given in Shu'shan^d the castle. As for the king and Ha'man, they sat down to drink;^e but as for the city of Shu'shan,^f it was in confusion.^g

4 And Mor'de-cai^h himself got knowledge of everything that had been done;ⁱ and Mor'de-cai proceeded to rip his garments apart and put on sackcloth^j and ashes^k and go out into the middle of the city and cry out with a loud and bitter outcry.^l 2 Finally he came as far as in front of the king's gate,^m for no one was to come into the king's gate in clothing of sackcloth. 3 And in all the different jurisdictional districts,ⁿ wherever the king's word and his law were reaching, there was great mourning^o among the Jews, and fasting^p and weeping and wailing. Sackcloth^q and ashes^r themselves came to be spread out as a couch for many. 4 And Esther's young women and her eunuchs^s began to come in and tell her. And the queen was very much pained. Then she sent garments to clothe Mor'de-cai and to remove his sackcloth off him. And he did not accept [them].^t 5 At this Esther called Ha'thach,^u one of the king's eunuchs, whom he had made to attend upon her, and she proceeded to give him a command concerning Mor'de-cai, to know what this meant and what this was all about.

6 So Ha'thach went out to Mor'de-cai into the public square of the city that was before the king's gate. 7 Then Mor'de-cai told him about all the things that had befallen him^v and the exact statement of the money that Ha'man had said to pay to the king's treasury^w against the Jews, to destroy them.^x 8 And a copy^y of the writing of the law that had been given in Shu'shan^z to have them annihilated he gave him to show Esther and to tell her and to lay the command upon her^a to come in to the king and implore favor of him^a and make request directly before him for her own people.^b

9 Ha'thach^c now came in and told Esther Mor'de-cai's words. 10 Then Esther said to Ha'thach and commanded him concerning Mor'de-cai:^d 11 "All the king's servants and the people of the king's jurisdictional districts are aware that, as regards any man or woman that comes in to the king at the inner courtyard^e who is not called, his one law^f is to have [him] put to death; only in case the king holds out to him the golden scepter, he will also certainly stay alive.^g As for me, I have not been called to come in to the king now for thirty days."

12 And they proceeded to tell Mor'de-cai the words of Esther. 13 Then Mor'de-cai said to reply to Esther: "Do not imagine within your own soul that the king's household will escape any more than all the other Jews.^h 14 For if you are altogether silent at this time, relief and deliverance themselves will stand up for the Jews from another place;ⁱ but as for you and your father's house, YOU people will perish. And who is there knowing whether it is for a time like this that you have attained to royal dignity?"^j

15 Accordingly Esther said to reply to Mor'de-cai: 16 "Go, gather all the Jews that are to be found in Shu'shan^k and fast^l in my behalf and neither eat nor drink for three days,^m night and day. I too with my young women,ⁿ I shall fast likewise, and upon that I shall come in to the king, which is not according to the law; and in case I must perish,^o I must perish." 17 At this Mor'de-cai passed along and proceeded to do according to all that Esther had laid in command upon him.

5 And it came about on the third day^p that Esther went dressing up royally,^q after which she took her stand in the inner courtyard^r of the king's house opposite the king's house, while the king was sitting on his royal throne in the royal house opposite the entrance of the house. 2 And it came about that, as soon as the king saw Esther the queen standing in the courtyard, she gained favor^a in his eyes, so that the king held out to Esther the golden scepter^b that was in his hand. Esther now came near and touched the top of the scepter.

3 Then the king said to her: "What do you have, O Esther the queen, and what is your request?^c To the half of the kingship^d—let it even be given to you!"

4 In turn Esther said: "If to the king it does seem good, let the king with Ha'man^e come today^f to the banquet^g that I have made for him." 5 Accordingly the king said: "You men, have Ha'man act quickly^h on the word of Esther." Later the king and Ha'man came to the banquet that Esther had made.

6 In time the king said to Esther during the banquet of wine: "What is your petition?ⁱ Let it even be granted you! And what is your request? To the half of the kingship—let it even be done!" 7 To this Esther answered and said: "My petition and my request is, 8 If I have found favor in the king's eyes^j and if to the king it does seem good to grant my petition and to act on my request, let the king and Ha'man come to the banquet that I shall hold for them [tomorrow],^k and tomorrow I shall do according to the king's word."

9 Consequently Ha'man went out on that day joyful^k and merry of heart; but as soon as Ha'man saw Mor'de-cai in the king's gate^l and that he did not rise^m and did not quake on account of him,ⁿ Ha'man was immediately filled with rage^o against Mor'de-cai. 10 However, Ha'man kept control of himself and came into his house. Then he sent and had his friends^p and Ze'resh^q his wife brought in; 11 and Ha'man proceeded to declare to them the glory of his riches^r

12 And Ha'man went on to say: "What is more, Esther the queen brought in with the king to the banquet that she had made no one but me,^c and tomorrow^d also I am invited to her with the king. 13 But all this—none of it suits me^e as long as I am seeing Mor'de-cai the Jew sitting in the king's gate." 14 At that Ze'resh his wife and all his friends said to him: "Let them make a stake^f fifty cubits^g high. Then in the morning^h say to the king that they should hang Mor'de-cai on it.ⁱ Then go in with the king to the banquet joyful." So the thing seemed good^h before Ha'man, and he proceeded to have the stake made.^j

6 During that night the king's sleep fled.^j Therefore he said to bring the book of the records^k of the affairs of the times. Thus there came to be a reading of them before the king. 2 At length there was found written what Mor'de-cai had reported^l concerning Big-tha'na and Te'resh, two court officials^m of the king, doorkeepers, who had sought to lay hand on King A-has-ue'rus.* 3 Then the king said: "What honor and great thing has been done to Mor'de-cai for this?" To this the king's attendants, his ministers,ⁿ said: "Nothing has been done with him."^o

Consequently the king said: "Is there also to be a raping of the queen, with me in the house?" The word itself went out of the king's mouth,^g and Ha'man's face they covered. 9 Har-bo'na,^h one of the court officialsⁱ before the king, now said: "Also, there is the stake^j that Ha'man made for Mor'de-cai, who had spoken good concerning the king,^k standing in Ha'man's house—fifty cubits* high." At that the king said: "You men, hang him on it."^l 10 And they proceeded to hang Ha'man on the stake^m that he had prepared for Mor'de-cai;ⁿ and the king's rage itself subsided.

8 On that day King A-has-u-e'rus* gave to Esther the queen the house of Ha'man,^o the one showing hostility to the Jews;^p and Mor'de-cai himself came in before the king, because Esther had told what he was to her.^q 2 Then the king removed his signet ring^r that he had taken away from Ha'man and gave it to Mor'de-cai; and Esther went on to place Mor'de-cai over the house of Ha'man.^s

3 Moreover, Esther spoke again before the king and fell down before his feet and wept and implored^t favor of him to turn away the badness^u of

Ha'man the Ag'ag-ite and his scheme^a that he had schemed against the Jews.^b 4 Then the king held the golden scepter^c out to Esther, at which Esther rose and stood before the king. 5 She now said: "If to the king it does seem good, and if I have found favor^d before him and the thing is proper before the king and I am good in his eyes, let it be written to undo the written documents,^e the scheme of Ha'man the son of Ham-meda'tha the Ag'ag-ite,^f which he wrote to destroy the Jews^g that are in all the king's jurisdictional districts.^h 6 For how can I [bear it] when I must look upon the calamity that will find my people, and how can I [bear it] when I must look upon the destruction of my relatives?"

7 So King A-has-u-e'rus said to Esther the queen and to Mor'de-cai the Jew: "Look! The house of Ha'man I have given to Esther,ⁱ and him they have hanged on the stake,^j for the reason that he thrust out his hand against the Jews. 8 And you yourselves write in behalf of the Jews according to what is good in your own eyes in the king's name^k and seal [it] with the king's signet ring; for a writing that is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring it is not possible to undo."^l

9 Accordingly the secretaries^m of the king were called at that time in the third month, that is, the month of Si'van,* on the twenty-third [day] of it; and writing went on according to all that Mor'de-cai commanded to the Jews and to the satrapsⁿ and the governors and the princes of the jurisdictional districts that were from In'di-a^o to E-thi-o'pi-a,^a a hundred and twenty-seven jurisdictional districts,^c [to] each jurisdictional district in its own style of writing^p and

[to] each people in its own tongue,^a and to the Jews in their own style of writing and in their own tongue.^b

10 And he proceeded to write in the name of King^c A-has-u-e-rus and do the sealing^d with the king's signet ring^e and send written documents by the hand of the couriers on horses,^f riding post horses used in the royal service, sons of speedy mares, 11 that the king granted to the Jews that were in all the different cities to congregate themselves^g and stand for their souls,^h to annihilate and kill and destroy all the force of the peopleⁱ and jurisdictional district that were showing hostility to them, little ones and women, and to plunder their spoil,^j 12 on the one day^k in all the jurisdictional districts of King A-has-u-e-rus, on the thirteenth [day]^k of the twelfth month, that is, the month of A'dar.^{*1} 13 A copy^m of the writing was to be given as law throughout all the different jurisdictional districts, published to all the peoples, that the Jews should become ready for this day to avengeⁿ themselves upon their enemies.

14 The couriers^o themselves, riding post horses used in the royal service, went forth, being urged forward and being moved with speed^p by the king's word; and the law itself was given out in Shu'shan^q the castle.

15 As for Mor'de-cai, he went forth from before the king in royal apparel^r of blue and linen, with a great crown of gold, and a fine-fabric cloak,^s even of wool dyed reddish purple.^t And the city of Shu'shan itself cried out shrilly and was joyful.^u 16 For the Jews there occurred light and rejoicing^v and exultation and honor. 17 And in all the different jurisdictional districts and in all the different cities wherever the word of the king and his law were reaching there were rejoicing and exultation for the Jews, a banquet^w and a good day; and many of the peoples^x of the land were declaring themselves

Jews,^{*a} for the dread^b of the Jews had fallen upon them.

9 And in the twelfth month, that is, the month of A'dar,^c on the thirteenth day of it, when the king's word and his law came due to be performed,^d on the day for which the enemies of the Jews had waited to domineer over them, there was even a turning to the contrary,^e in that the Jews themselves domineered over those hating them.^f 2 The Jews congregated themselves^g in their cities in all the jurisdictional districts of King A-has-u-e-rus^h to lay hand on those seeking their injury,ⁱ and not a man stood his ground before them, for the dread^j of them had fallen upon all the peoples. 3 And all the princes^k of the jurisdictional districts and the satraps^l and the governors and the doers of the business^m that belonged to the king were assisting the Jews, for the dreadⁿ of Mor'de-cai had fallen upon them. 4 For Mor'de-cai was great^o in the king's house and his fame^p was traveling throughout all the jurisdictional districts, because the man Mor'de-cai was steadily growing greater.^q

5 And the Jews went striking down all their enemies with a slaughter by the sword^r and with a killing and destruction, and they went doing to those hating them according to their liking.^s 6 And in Shu'shan^t the castle the Jews killed and there was a destroying of five hundred men. 7 Also, Par-shan-da'tha and Dal'phon and As-pa'tha 8 and Po-ra'tha and A-da'li-a and A-ri-da'tha 9 and Par-mash'ta and Ar'i-sai and Ar'i-dai and Vai-za'tha, 10 the ten sons^u of Ha'man^v the son of Hamme-da'tha, the one showing hostility to the Jews,^w they killed; but on the plunder^x they did not lay their hand.

In Heb. this is a verb in the infinitive absolute, indefinite as to time and impersonal.

11 On that day the number of those killed in Shu'shan the castle came before the king.

12 And the king proceeded to say to Esther the queen:^a "In Shu'shan the castle^b the Jews have killed, and there has been a destroying^c of five hundred men and the ten sons of Ha'man. In the rest of the jurisdictional districts^c of the king what have they done?^d And what is your petition? Let it even be given to you.^e And what is your further request?^f Let it even be done." 13 Accordingly Esther said: "If to the king it does seem good,^g let it be granted tomorrow also to the Jews that are in Shu'shan to do according to the law of today;^h and let the ten sons of Ha'man be hanged upon the stake."ⁱ 14 So the king said for it to be done that way.^j Then a law was given out in Shu'shan, and the ten sons of Ha'man were hanged.

15 And the Jews that were in Shu'shan proceeded to congregate themselves also on the fourteenth^k day of the month A'dar, and they got to kill in Shu'shan three hundred men; but on the plunder they did not lay their hand.^l

16 As for the rest of the Jews that were in the jurisdictional districts^m of the king, they congregated themselves, and there was a standⁿ for their souls,^o and there was an avenging^p of themselves upon^a their enemies and a killing^q among those hating them of seventy-five thousand; but on the plunder they did not lay their hand, 17 on the thirteenth day of the month A'dar; and there was a rest on the fourteenth [day] of it, and there was a making^r of it a day of banqueting^p and of rejoicing.^q shan, they congregated themselves on the thirteenth^a [day] of it and on the fourteenth [day] of it, and there was a rest on the fifteenth [day] of it, and there was a making of it a day of banqueting and of rejoicing.^b 19 That is why the country Jews, inhabiting the cities of the outlying districts, were making the fourteenth day of the month A'dar^c a rejoicing^d and a banqueting and a good day^e and a sending of portions^f to one another.

20 And Mor'de-cai^g proceeded to write these things and send written documents to all the Jews that were in all the jurisdictional districts^h of King A-has-u-er-us,ⁱ the nearby and the distant ones, 21 to impose upon them the obligation^j to be regularly holding the fourteenth day of the month A'dar and the fifteenth day of it in each and every year, 22 according to the days on which the Jews had rested from their enemies^j and the month that was changed for them from grief to rejoicing and from mourning^k to a good day, to hold them as days of banqueting and rejoicing and sending of portions to one another^l and of gifts to the poor people.^m

23 And the Jews accepted what they had started to do and what Mor'de-cai had written to them. 24 For Ha'manⁿ the son of Ham-me-da'tha,^o the Ag'agite,^p the one showing hostility^q to all the Jews, had himself schemed against the Jews to destroy them,^r and he had had Pur,^s that is, the Lot,^t cast, to disquiet them and destroy them. 25 But when Esther^u came in before the king he said with the written document:^v "Let his bad scheme^v that he has schemed against the Jews come back upon his own head";^w and they hanged him and his sons upon the stake.^x 26 That is why they called these days Pu'rim, by the name of the Pur.^y That is why, according to all the words of this letter^z and what they had seen as to this and what had come upon them, 27 the Jews imposed and accepted upon themselves and upon their offspring^z and ceeded to say: "The cattle themselves happened to be plowing^a and the she-asses were grazing at the side of them 15 when the Sa-be'ans^{ab} came making a raid and taking them, and the attendants they struck down with the edge of the sword; and I got to escape, only I by myself, to tell you."^c

16 While this one was yet speaking that one came and proceeded to say: "The very fire of God fell from the heavens^d and went blazing among the sheep and the attendants and eating them up; and I got to escape, only I by myself, to tell you."

17 While that one was yet speaking another one came and proceeded to say: "The Chal-de'ans^e made up three bands and went dashing against the camels and taking them, and the attendants they struck down with the edge of the sword; and I got to escape, only I by myself, to tell you."

18 While this other one was yet speaking, still another one came and proceeded to say: "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine^f in the house of their brother the firstborn. 19 And, look! there came a great wind^g from the region of the wilderness, and it went striking the four corners of the house, so that it fell upon the young people and they died. And I got to escape, only I by myself, to tell you."

20 And Job proceeded to get up and rip^h his sleeveless coat apart and cut the hairⁱ off his head and fall to the earth^j and bow down^k 21 and say:

"Naked I came out of my mother's belly,^l

And naked shall I return there.^m Jehovah himself has given,ⁿ and Jehovah himself has taken away.^o

Let the name of Jehovah continue to be blessed."^p

22 In all this Job did not sin or ascribe anything improper to God.^q

Job 1:15* Lit., "Sheba." 19* "Wind." Heb., ru'ach. See Ge 1:2 ftn, "Force."

2 Afterward it came to be the day when the sons* of the [true] God entered to take their station before Jehovah, and Satan* also proceeded to enter right among them to take his station before Jehovah.^a

2 Then Jehovah said to Satan: "Just where do you come from?" At that Satan answered Jehovah and said: "From roving about in the earth and from walking about in it."^b 3 And Jehovah went on to say to Satan: "Have you set your heart upon my servant Job,^c that there is no one like him in the earth, a man blameless and upright,^d fearing God* and turning aside from bad?^e Even yet he is holding fast his integrity,^f although you incite^h me against him to swallow him up without cause."ⁱ 4 But Satan^j answered Jehovah and said: "Skin in behalf of skin, and everything that a man has he will give in behalf of his soul."^k 5 For a change, thrust out your hand, please, and touch as far as his bone and his flesh [and see] whether he will not curse* you to your very face."^l

6 Accordingly Jehovah said to Satan: "There he is in your hand! Only watch out for his soul* itself!" 7 So Satan went out away from the person* of Jehovah^m and struck Job with a malignant boilⁿ from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. 8 And he proceeded to take for himself a fragment of earthenware with which to scrape himself; and he was sitting in among the ashes.^o

9 Finally his wife said to him: "Are you yet holding fast your integrity?^p Curse* God and die!" 10 But he said to her: "As one of the senseless^q women speaks, you speak also. Shall we accept merely what is good from the [true] God and not accept also what is bad?"^r In all this Job did not sin with his lips.^s

11 And three companions of Job got to hear of all this calamity that had come upon him, and they proceeded to come, each one from his own place, El'iphaz

3 It was after this that Job opened his mouth and began to call down evil upon his day.^j 2 Job now answered and said:

3 "Let the day perish on which I came to be born,^k

Also the night that someone said, 'An able-bodied man* has been conceived!'

4 As for that day, let it become darkness.

Let not God* look for it from above,

5 Let darkness and deep shadow* reclaim it.

Let a rain cloud reside over it.

Let the things that darken a day terrorize it.^l

6 That night—let gloom take it;^m

Let it not feel glad among the days of a year;

Among the number of the lunar months let it not enter.

7 Look! That night—let it become sterile;

Let no joyful cry come in it.ⁿ

Job 3:3 "An able-bodied man." Heb., gha-ver. 4 "God." Heb., 'Eloh'ah, sing. of 'Elohim'. 'Eloh'ah occurs 41 times in Job and 16 times in other books of M. Let it wait for the light and there be none;

And so conceal trouble from my eyes.
- 11 Why from the womb did I not proceed to die?^b [Why did I not] come forth from the belly itself and then expire?
- 12 Why was it that knees confronted me,
And why breasts^c that I should take suck?
- 13 For by now I should have lain down that I might be undisturbed;^d
I should have slept then; I should be at rest^e
- 14 With kings and counselors of the earth,^f
Those building desolate places* for themselves,^g
- 15 Or with princes who have gold,
Those who fill their houses with silver;

4 And El'i-phaz¹ the Te'man-ite proceeded to reply and say:

But to put a restraint on words who is able?
- 3 Look! You have corrected many,*

- 7 Remember, please: Who that is innocent has ever perished?
And where have the upright^a ever been effaced?
- 8 According to what I have seen, those devising what is hurtful
And those sowing trouble will themselves reap it.^b
- 9 Through the breath of God they perish,
And through the spirit of his anger they come to an end.

But the teeth of maned young lions do get broken down.

When deep sleep falls upon men.
- 14 A dread came over me, and a trembling,
And the multitude of my bones it filled with dread.
- 15 And a spirit itself went passing over my face;
The hair of my flesh began to bristle.
- 16 It began to stand still,
But I did not recognize its appearance;
A form was in front of my eyes;
There was a calm, and I now heard a voice:

12 Is there not wisdom among the aged^h
And understanding [in] length of days?^g

13 With him there are wisdom and mightiness;ⁱ

He has counsel and understanding.^j

14 Look! He tears down, that there may be no building up;^k

He makes it shut to man, that it may not be opened up.^l

15 Look! He puts a restraint upon the waters and they dry up;^m

And he sends them, and they change the earth.ⁿ

16 With him there are strength and practical wisdom;^o

17 He is making counselors go barefoot,^q

And he makes judges themselves go crazy.

18 The bonds* of kings he actually loosens;^r

And he binds a belt upon their hips.

- 11 Are the consolations of God* not enough for you,
Or a word [spoken] gently with you?

Even this I have beheld, so let me relate [it],

And he is reserved for a sword.
- 23 He is straying about in search of bread*—where is it?ⁱ
He well knows that the day of darkness^j is ready at his hand.
- 24 Distress and anguish keep terrifying him;^k
They overpower him like a king in readiness for the assault.

And my hope—who is it that beholds it?

18 And Bil'dad the Shu'hite proceeded to answer and say:

- 2 "How long will you people be at putting an end to words?
You should understand, that afterward we may speak.
- 3 Why should we be reckoned as beasts^a [And] be regarded as unclean in your eyes?
- 4 He is tearing his soul to pieces in his anger.
For your sake will the earth be abandoned,
Or a rock move away from its place?
- 5 The light also of wicked ones will be extinguished^b
And the spark of his fire will not shine.
- 6 A light itself will certainly grow dark in his tent,^c
And in it his own lamp will be extinguished.
- 7 His steps of vigor* will become cramped.
Even his counsel will cast him off.^d
- 8 For he will indeed be let go into a net by his feet,
And onto a network he will walk.^e
- 9 A trap will seize [him] by the heel;^f
A snare^g keeps hold upon him.
- 10 A cord for him is hidden on the earth,
And a catching device for him on [his] pathway.
- 11 Round about, sudden terrors certainly make him start up in fright,^h And indeed chase him at his feet.
- 12 His vigor becomes famished,
And disasterⁱ stands ready to make him limp.
- 13 It will eat the pieces of his skin;^j
The firstborn of death^k will eat his limbs.
- 14 His confidence will be torn away from his own tent^l

Job 18:7 Or, "uncanny power." 13 "His skin will be eaten by disease," by a slight correction of M. 13 "The firstborn of death," that is, the most deadly disease.

- And it will march him to the king of terrors.
- 15 There will reside in his tent something that is not his;
Sulphur^a will be strewed upon his own abiding place.
- 16 Underneath will his very roots dry up,^b
And up above, his bough will wither.
- 17 The very mentioning of him will certainly perish from the earth,^c
And he will have no name out in the street.
- 18 They will push him out of the light into the darkness,
And from the productive land* they will chase him away.
- 19 He will have no posterity and no progeny among his people,^d
And there will be no survivor in his place of alien residence.
- 20 At his day the people in the West will indeed stare in amazement,
And a shudder will certainly seize even the people in the East.
- 21 Only these are the tabernacles of a wrongdoer,
And this is the place of one that has not known God.”*

19 And Job proceeded to answer and say:

- 2 “How long will you men keep irritating my soul^e
And keep crushing me with words?^f
- 3 These ten times you proceeded to rebuke me;
You are not ashamed [that] you deal so hard with me.^g
- 4 And, granted that I have made a mistake,^h
It is with me that my mistake will lodge.*

Job 18:18* “And from the productive land.” Heb., u-mit-te-vel; Lat., et de or-be, “and from the [terrestrial] circle.” 21 “God.” Heb., ’El. 19:4 LXX adds: “by saying a thing that was not necessary, and my sayings (utterances) are mistaken (err) and not seasonable (timely).”

23 If you return to the Almighty,^e you will be built up;

[If] you will keep unrighteousness far from your tent,

24 And [if] there is a placing of precious ore in the dust

And gold of O'phir^f in the rock of torrent valleys,

25 The Almighty also will indeed become your precious ores,

And silver, the choicest, to you.^g

26 For then in the Almighty you will find your exquisite delight,^h

And you will raise your face to God* himself.ⁱ

27 You will make entreaty to him, and he will hear you;^j

And your vows you will pay.^k

28 And you will decide on something, and it will stand for you;

And upon your ways light will certainly shine.^l

29 For there must be a humiliation when you speak arrogantly;^m

But one with downcast eyes he will save.ⁿ

30 He will rescue an innocent man,^o

Job 22:17* "Against us," LXXSy; M, "against him." 20 "Our antagonists," M; by a correction, "their property." 26 "God." Heb., 'Eloh'ah. 30 Possibly, "God will rescue the innocent one." Lit., "He will rescue one not innocent." M appears defective here.

3 O that I really knew where I might find him!^c

4 I would present before* him a case of justice,

And my mouth I would fill with counterarguments;

5 I would know the words with which he answers me,

And I would consider what he says to me.^e

6 Would he with an abundance of power contend with me?

O no! Surely he himself would pay heed to me.^f

7 There the upright one himself will certainly set matters straight with him,

And I would go safe forever from my judge.*

8 Look! To the east I go, and he is not there;

And back again, and I cannot discern him;^g

9 To the left where he is working, but I cannot behold [him];

- 10 Naked, they have to go about without a garment,

And, hungry, they have to carry the reaped ears.^f

- 11 Between the terrace walls they pass the noontime;^g

Winepresses they have to tread, and yet they go thirsty.^h

- 12 From out of the city the dying keep groaning,

And the soul of deadly wounded ones cries for help;ⁱ

And God* himself considers [it] not as anything improper.^j

- 13 As for them, they proved to be among the rebels against light;^j

They did not recognize its ways, And they did not dwell in its roadways.

- 14 At daylight the murderer gets up,

He proceeds to slay the afflicted and the poor one;^k

And during the night he becomes a regular thief.^l

- 15 As for the eye of the adulterer,^m it has watched for evening darkness,ⁿ

Saying, 'No eye will behold me!'^o

He will not turn toward the way of the vineyards.

19 The drought, also the heat, snatch away the snow waters;
So does She'ol those who have sinned!^b

20 The womb will forget him, the maggot will sweetly suck him,^c
He will be remembered no more.^d

21 He is having dealings with a barren woman who does not bear,

- 12 For I would rescue the afflicted one crying for help,^l

And the fatherless boy and anyone that had no helper.^m

- 13 The blessingⁿ of the one about to perish—upon me it would come,

And the heart of the widow I would make glad.^o

- 14 With righteousness I clothed myself, and it was clothing me.^p

Job 29:2* "God." Heb., 'Elo-hah. 6* Lit., "was being poured out as streams of oil with me."

My justice was like a sleeveless coat—and a turban.

15 Eyes I became to the blind one;^a And feet to the lame one I was.

16 I was a real father to the poor ones;^b And the legal case of one whom I did not know—I would examine it.^c

17 And I would break the jawbones of the wrongdoer,^d
And from his teeth I would tear* away the prey.

18 And I used to say, "Within my nest*
I shall expire,"^e
And like the grains of sand I shall multiply [my] days.^f

19 My root is opened for the waters,^g
And dew itself will stay overnight upon my bough.

20 My glory is fresh with me,
And my bow in my hand will shoot repeatedly.^h

21 To me they listened; and they waited,
And they would keep silent for my counsel.ⁱ

22 After my word they would not speak again,
And upon them my word would drip.^j

23 And they waited for me as for the rain,^k
And their mouth they opened wide for the spring rain.^l

24 I would smile at them—they would not believe [it]—
And the light of my face^m they would not cast down.

25 I would choose the way for them, and I was sitting as head;
And I resided as a king among [his] troops,ⁿ
As one who comforts the mourners.^o

30 "And now they have laughed at me,^p
Those younger in days than I am,^q
Whose fathers I would have refused

To place with the dogs of my flock.

2 Even the power of their hands—of what use was it to me?

In them vigor has perished.^a 3 Because of want and hunger they are sterile,

Gnawing at a waterless region,^b

[Where] yesterday there were storm and desolation.

4 They were plucking the salt herb by the bushes,

And the root of broom trees was their food.

5 From the community they would be driven away;^c

People would shout at them as at a thief.

6 [They have] to reside on the very slope of torrent valleys,

In holes of the dust and in rocks.

7 Among the bushes they would cry out;

Under the nettles they would huddle together.

8 Sons of the senseless one,^d also sons of the nameless one,

They have been scourged out of the land.

9 And now I have become even the theme of their song,^e

And I am to them for a byword.^f

10 They have detested me, they have kept themselves far from me;^g

And from my face they did not hold back [their] spit.^h

11 For he loosened [my] own bowstring and proceeded to humble me,

And the bridle they left loose on my account.

12 At [my] right hand they rise up as a brood;

My feet they have let go,

But they proceeded to cast up against me their disastrous barriers.ⁱ

13 They have torn down my roadways;
They were beneficial only for adversity to me,^j

Without their having any helper.

14 As through a wide gap they proceed to come;

Job 29:17* "Tear," by a slight correction; M, "throw." 18* "Within my nest." Possibly, "In my old age," to agree with LXX.

Under a storm they have rolled along.

15 Sudden terrors have been turned upon me;

My noble bearing is chased like the wind,*

And like a cloud my salvation has passed away.

16 And now my soul is poured out within me;^a

Days of affliction^b take hold upon me.

17 At night my very bones^c have been bored through [and dropped] from off me,

And [pains] gnawing me do not take any rest.^d

18 By the abundance of power my garment takes on a change;

Like the collar of my long garment it engirdles me.

19 He has brought me down to the clay,
So that I show myself like dust and ashes.

20 I cry to you for help, but you do not answer me;^e

I have stood, that you might show yourself attentive to me.

21 You change yourself to become cruel to me;^f

With the full might of your hand you harbor animosity toward me.

22 You lift me to the wind, you cause me to ride [it];

Then you dissolve me with a crash.

23 For I well know that to death you will make me turn back;^g

And to the house of meeting for everyone living.

24 Only no one thrusts his hand out against a mere heap of ruins,^h Nor during one's decay is there a cry for help respecting those things.

25 Certainly I have wept for the one having a hard day;ⁱ

My soul has grieved for the poor one.^j

26 Although for good I waited, yet bad came;^k

32 So these three men ceased from answering Job, for he was righteous in his* own eyes.^a 2 But the anger of E-li'hu* the son of Bar'a-chel the Buz'ite^b of the family of Ram came to be hot. Against Job his anger blazed over his declaring his own soul righteous rather than God.^c 3 Also, against his three companions his anger blazed over the fact that they had not found an answer but they proceeded to pronounce God* wicked.^d 4 And E-li'hu himself had waited for Job with words, because they were older than he was in days.^e 5 And E-li'hu gradually saw that there was no answer in the mouth^f of the three men, and his anger kept getting hotter. 6 And E-li'hu the son of Bar'a-chel the Buz'ite proceeded to answer and say:

"Young I am in days

And you men are aged.^g

That is why I drew back* and was afraid

To declare my knowledge to you men.

7 I said, 'Days themselves should speak,

And a multitude of years are what should make wisdom known.'^h

8 Surely it is the spirit in mortal men And the breath of the Almighty [that] gives them understanding.ⁱ

9 It is not those merely abundant in days that prove wise,^j

Nor those just old that understand judgment.^k

10 Therefore I said, 'Do listen to me. I shall declare my knowledge, even I.'

11 Look! I have waited for the words of you men,

I kept giving ear to your reasonings,^l

Until you could search for words [to say].

12 And to you I kept my attention turned,

And here there is no one reproving Job,

None of you answering his sayings,

13 That you may not say, 'We have 14 As he has not arrayed words

So with the sayings of you men
I shall not reply to him.

15 They have been terrified, they have answered no more;

Words have moved away from them.

16 And I have waited, for they do not continue speaking;

For they stood still, they answered no more.

17 I shall give in answer my part, even I;

I shall declare my knowledge,
even I;

18 For I have become full of words; Spirit has brought pressure^b upon me in my belly.

19 Look! My belly is like wine that has no vent;

Like new skin bottles it wants to burst open.^c

20 Let me speak that it may be a relief to me.

I shall open my lips that I may answer.^d

21 Let me not, please, show partiality

And on an earthling man^f I shall not bestow a title;^f

22 For I certainly do not know how I can bestow a title;

Easily my Maker^g would carry

- And He will restore His righteousness to mortal man.*
- 27 He will sing to men and say,
'I have sinned;^a and what is upright I have perverted,
And it certainly was not the proper thing for me.
- 28 He has redeemed my* soul from passing into the pit,^b And my life itself will see the light.'
- 29 Look! All these things God* performs,
Two times, three times, in the case of an able-bodied man,
- 30 To turn his soul back from the pit,^c
That he may be enlightened with the light* of those living.^d
- 31 Pay attention, O Job! Listen to me!
Keep silent, and I myself shall continue speaking.
- 32 If there are any words [to say],
make reply to me;
Speak, for I have taken delight in your righteousness.
- 33 If there are none, you yourself listen to me;^e Keep silent, and I shall teach you wisdom."

34 And E-li'hu continued to answer and say:

- 2 "Listen, you wise ones, to my words;
And you who know, give ear to me.
- 3 For the ear itself makes a test of words,^f
Just as the palate tastes when eating.^g
- 4 Judgment let us choose for ourselves;
Let us know among ourselves what is good.
- 5 For Job has said, 'I certainly am in the right,^h
But God* himself has turned aside the judgment of me.'
- 6 Against my own judgment do I tell lies?

Job 33:26* "To mortal man." Heb., le-'enohsh'. 28* "My," MLXXSY; M^{mark}TVg, "his." 29* "God." Heb., EL. 30* According to M; Sy, "to see the light." 34:5* "But God." Heb., we'EL.

My severe wound is incurable though there is no transgression.^a 7 What able-bodied man* is like Job,^b [Who] drinks up derision like water?^c

8 And he is certainly on his way to companionship with practicers of what is hurtful
And to walking with men of wickedness.^d

9 For he has said, 'An able-bodied man does not profit^e

By his taking pleasure in God.*

10 Therefore, you men of heart,^f listen to me.

Far be it from the [true] God* to act wickedly,^g

And the Almighty to act unjustly!^h

11 For [according to] the way earthling man* acts he will rewardⁱ him, And according to the path of man^j he will cause it to come upon him.

12 Yes, for a fact, God* himself does not act wickedly,^j

And the Almighty himself does not pervert judgment.^k

13 Who has assigned to him the earth,
And who has appointed [to him] the productive land,* even all of it?

14 If he sets his heart upon anyone, [If] that one's spirit and breath he gathers to himself,^l

15 All flesh will expire together, And earthling man* himself will return to the very dust.^m

16 So if [you have] understanding, do listen to this;

Do give ear to the sound of my words.

17 Really will anyone hating justice control,ⁿ

And if a powerful one is righwicked?^a

18 Shall one say* to a king, 'You are good for nothing'?^a

To nobles, 'You are wicked'?^b

19 [There is One] who has not shown partiality to princes

And has not given more consideration to the noble^c one than to the lowly one,

For all of them are the work of his hands.^d

20 In a moment they die,^e even in the middle of the night;^f

The people shake back and forth and pass away,

And powerful ones depart by no hand.^g

21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man,^h

And all his steps he sees.

22 There is no darkness nor any deep shadow

For those practicing what is hurtful to conceal themselves there.ⁱ

23 For he sets no appointed time for any man

To go to God* in judgment.

24 He breaks powerful ones^j without any investigation,

And he makes others stand up instead of them.^k

25 Therefore he recognizes what their works are,^l

And he does overthrow [them] at night, and they get crushed.^m

26 As wicked ones he does slap them
In the place of onlookers;ⁿ

27 For the reason that they have turned aside from following him,^o

And none of his ways have they considered,^p

28 So as to cause the outcry of the lowly one to come to him;

And so he hears the outcry of the afflicted ones.^q

p Ps 28:5; Isa 5:12; q Ex 22:23; Job 35:9; Jas 5:4.

Job 34:18* Lit., "Shall there be a saying."
In Heb. this is a verb in the infinitive construct, indefinite as to time and impersonal.
18* Lit., "king, 'Belial!'" 21* Or, "each one."
Heb., 'ish, as in vs 23. 23* "God." Heb., 'El.

29 When he himself causes quietness, who, then, can condemn?

And when he conceals [his] face,^a who can behold him,

Whether it is toward a nation^b or toward a man,* it being the same thing?

30 So that an apostate man may not reign,^c

Nor there be snares^d of the people.

31 For will anyone actually say to God himself,

'I have borne, although I do not act corruptly;^e

32 Although I behold nothing, instruct me yourself;

If any unrighteousness I have committed,

I shall not do [it] again?'

33 Will he make good for it from your standpoint because you do refuse [judgment],

Because you yourself choose, and not I?

Even what you well know, speak.

34 Men of heart* themselves will say
to me—

Even a wise able-bodied man that is listening to me,

35 'Job himself speaks without knowledge,^h

And his words are without [his] having insight.'

36 My father, let Job be tested* out to the limit

Over his replies among men of hurtfulness.'

37 For on top of his sin he adds revolt;ⁱ Among us he claps [his hands] and multiplies his sayings against the [true] God!"^k

35 And E-li-hu continued answering and saying:

2 "Is this what you have regarded as justice?

You have said, 'My righteousness is more than God's.'"^l

Job 34:29* Or, "an earthling man." Heb.,
'a-dham'. 36* Or, "O that Job may be tested."

37* "Against the [true] God." Heb., la-'El'.
See App 1G. 35:2* "More than God's." Heb., 5 Who set its measurements, in case you know,

Or who stretched out upon it the measuring line?

6 Into what have its socket pedestals^a been sunk down,

Or who laid its cornerstone,

7 When the morning stars^b joyfully cried out together,

And all the sons of God^c began shouting in applause?

8 And [who] barricaded the sea with doors,^d

Which began to go forth as when it burst out from the womb;

9 When I put the cloud as its^e garment And thick gloom as its swaddling band,

10 And I proceeded to break up^e my regulation upon it

And to set a bar and doors,^e

11 And I went on to say, "This far you may come, and no farther;^f

And here your proud waves are limited?"^g

12 Was it from your days onward that you commanded the morning?^h

Did you cause the dawn to know its place,

13 To take hold on the extremitiesⁱ of the earth,

That the wicked ones^j might be shaken out from it?ⁱ

14 It transforms itself like clay^j under a seal,

And things^k take their station as in clothing.

15 And from the wicked ones^k their light is held back,^k

And the high arm itself gets broken.^l

16 Have you come to the sources^k of the sea,

Job 38:7* "Sons of God." Or, "godlike ones." Heb., beneh 'Elo-him; T, "the bands of angels"; LXX, "my angels." 8* Or, "double doors," as in 2Ch 14:7. 9* That is, the sea's. 10* "Break up," M; LXX, "put." 13* Lit., "wings." 13* "The wicked ones." Here in M the Heb. letter 'A'yin (v) is suspended as an insertion to indicate that the word should read "wicked ones" instead of "poor ones." Compare Jg 18:30 ftn, "Moses." 14* Lit., "they." 15* See vs 13 ftn, "Ones." 16* Or, "sandy ground."

- Or in search of the watery deep^a have you walked about?^b
- 17 Have the gates of death^c been uncovered to you,
Or the gates of deep shadow^{a,d} can you see?
- 18 Have you intelligently considered the broad spaces of the earth?^e Tell, if you have come to know it all.
- 19 Where, now, is the way to where light resides?^f
As for darkness, where, now, is its place,
- 20 That you should take it to its boundary
And that you should understand the roadways to its house?
- 21 Have you come to know because at that time you were being born,^g
And [because] in number your days are many?
- 22 Have you entered into the storehouses of the snow,^h
Or do you see even the storehouses of the hail,ⁱ
- 23 Which I have kept back for the time of distress,
For the day of fight and war?^j
- 24 Where, now, is the way by which the light^k distributes itself, [And] the east wind^k scatters about upon the earth?
- 25 Who has divided a channel for the flood And a way for the thunderous storm cloud,^l
- 26 To make it rain upon the land where there is no man,^m [Upon] the wilderness in which there is no earthling man,ⁿ
- 27 To satisfy storm-stricken and desolate places
And to cause the growth of grass to sprout?^o

5 Once have I spoken, and I will not answer;

And twice, and I will add nothing."

7 "Gird up your loins, please, like an able-bodied man;^f

After taking an Arabian wife, he became father to a son whose name was Ennon. But he himself was the son of his father Zare, a son of the sons of Esau, but [was the son] of his mother Bosorra, so that he was the fifth [in line] from Abraham. And these are the kings that reigned in Edom, of which country he also was ruler: first, Balak, the son of Beor, and the name of his city was Dennaba; but after Balak, Jobab, the one called Job; but after this one Asom, who happened to be governor out of the country of Thaimanitis; but after this one Adad, the son of Barad, who cut off Madiam in the plain of Moab, and the name of his city was Gethaim. But the friends that came to him [were] Eliphaz, of the sons of Esau, king of the Thaimanites; Bildad the absolute ruler of the Sauchaia; Zophar the king of the Minaiaans."

(Psalms 1 - 11)

- 1 Happy^a is the man* that has not walked in the counsel of the wicked ones,^b
And in the way of sinners has not stood,^c
And in the seat of ridiculers has not sat.^d
- 2 But his delight is in the law of Jehovah,^e
And in his law he reads in an undertone day and night.^f
- 3 And he will certainly become like a tree planted by streams of water,^g
That gives its own fruit in its season^h
And the foliage of which does not wither,ⁱ
And everything he does will succeed.^j
- 4 The wicked are not like that,
But are like the chaff that the wind* drives away.^k
- 5 That is why the wicked ones will not stand up in the judgment,^l
Nor sinners in the assembly of righteous ones.^m
- 6 For Jehovah is taking knowledge of the way of righteous ones,ⁿ
But the very way of wicked ones will perish.^o

- 2 Why have the nations been in tumult^p
And the national groups themselves kept muttering an empty thing?^q
- 2 The kings of earth take their stand^r

Heb., le'oh-lam'. 6:Sup "The lower octave." Heb., hash-shemi-nith. This is the fem. form of the word for "eighth," and its exact reference here is uncertain, whether to an eighth key, to an octave, to an instrument of eight strings or to the eighth day (the day of circumcision). 4 Or, "loyal love." 5 Or, "remembrance." 5 "Sheol," MSy; Gr., hai'dei; Lat., infer'no. 5 There they were filled with a great dread,^a

For Jehovah^a is among the generation of the righteous one.^b

6 The counsel of the afflicted one you people would put to shame, Because Jehovah is his refuge.^c

7 O that out of Zion there were the salvation of Israel!^d

When Jehovah gathers back the captive ones of his people,^e

Let Jacob be joyful, let Israel rejoice.^f

A melody of David.

15 O Jehovah, who will be a guest in your tent?^g

Who will reside in your holy mountain?^h

2 He who is walking faultlesslyⁱ and practicing righteousness^j

And speaking the truth in his heart.^k

3 He has not slandered with his tongue.^l

To his companion he has done nothing bad,^m

And no reproach has he taken up against his intimate acquaintance.ⁿ

4 In his eyes anyone contemptible is certainly rejected,^o

But those fearing Jehovah he honors.^p

He has sworn to what is bad [for himself],^q and yet he does not alter.^r

5 His money he has not given out on interest,^s

And a bribe against the innocent one he has not taken.^t

He that is doing these things will never be made to totter.^u t Ps 16:8; Ps 55:22; Pr 12:3; 2Pe 1:10.

Ps 14:5* Lit., "they dreaded a dread." 5* One of eight scribal changes from YHWH to 'Elo-him'; TVg^c, "Jehovah." See App 1B. 15:4* "Sworn to his neighbor," LXXSyVg.

A mik'tam* of David.

16 Keep me, O God,* for I have taken refuge in you.^a 2 I have said* to Jehovah: "You are Jehovah;"^a my goodness is, not for your sake,^b

3 [But] to the holy ones that are in the earth.

They, even the majestic ones, are the ones in whom is all my delight."^c

4 Pains become many to those [who], when there is someone else, do hurry [after him].^d

I shall not pour out their drink offerings of blood,^e

And I shall not carry their names upon my lips.^f

5 Jehovah is the portion of my allotted share^g and of my cup.*^h

You are holding fast my lot.

6 The measuring lines themselves have fallen for me in pleasant places.ⁱ

Really, [my own] possession* has proved agreeable to me.

7 I shall bless Jehovah, who has given me advice.^j

Really, during the nights my kidneys* have corrected me.^k

8 I have placed Jehovah in front of me constantly.^l

Because [he] is at my right hand, I shall not be made to totter.^m

9 Therefore my heart does rejoice, and my glory* is inclined to be joyful.ⁿ

Ps 16:Sup* Heb., mikh-tam'. A suggested meaning was "Psalm of expiation," KB, p. 523. However, KB³, p. 552, gives the meaning "inscription." This would indicate that the six psalms (Ps 16, 56-60) with the superscription "miktam" are inscriptions of the numerous episodes described therein. 1 "God." Heb., 'El. 2 "I have said," LXXSyVg and some Heb. mss; M, "You have said," addressed to something fem. 2 One of 134 scribal changes from YHWH to 'Adhonai'. See App 1b. 5 "Jehovah, you have appointed my share and my cup," by a correction of M. 6 "My own possession," LXXSyVg. 7 Or, "my deepest emotions." Heb., khil-yoh-thai'. 9 "Tongue," LXXVg.

To the director. Of Jehovah's servant, of David, who spoke to Jehovah the words of this song in the day that Jehovah had delivered him out of the palm of all his enemies and* out of the hand of Saul.^a And he proceeded to say:

- 18 I shall have affection for you,*
O Jehovah my strength.^b
- 2 Jehovah is my crag and my strong-hold and the Provider of escape for me.^c
My God* is my rock. I shall take refuge in him,^d
My shield and my horn of salvation, my secure height.^e
- 3 On the One to be praised, Jehovah, I shall call,^f
And from my enemies I shall be saved.^g
- 4 The ropes of death encircled me;^h
Flash floods of good-for-nothing [men]* also kept terrifying me.ⁱ
- 5 The very ropes of She'ol surrounded me;^j
The snares of death confronted me.^k
- 6 In my distress I kept calling upon Jehovah,
And to my God* I kept crying for help.^l
Out of his temple he proceeded to hear my voice,^m
And my own cry before him for help now came into his ears.ⁿ
- 7 And the earth began to shake and rock,^o
And the foundations of the mountains themselves became agitated,^p
And they kept shaking back and forth because he had been angered.^q
- 8 Smoke went up at his nostrils, and fire itself from his mouth kept devouring;^r Coals themselves blazed forth from him.

Ps 18:Sup* Or, "especially." 1* Or, "I shall exalt you," by a correction of M. 2* "My God." Heb., 'Eli. 2* Or, "my rock in which I shall take refuge." 4* Or, "of no usefulness." Lit., "of belial." 6* "My God." Heb., 'Elo-hai.

- 9 And he proceeded to bend the heavens down and descend.^a And thick gloom was beneath his feet.
- 10 And he came riding upon a cherub and came flying,^b
And he came darting upon the wings of a spirit.^c
- 11 He then made darkness his concealment place,^d
All around him as his booth,
Dark waters,* thick clouds.^e
- 12 Out of the brightness in front of him there were his clouds that passed by,^f
Hail and burning coals of fire.^g
- 13 And in the heavens Jehovah began to thunder,^h
And the Most High himself began to give his voice,ⁱ Hail and burning coals of fire.
- 14 And he kept sending out his arrows, that he might scatter them;^j
And lightnings he shot out, that he might throw them into confusion.^k
- 15 And the streambeds of waters became visible,^l
And the foundations of the productive land* became uncovered^m
From your rebuke, O Jehovah, from the blastⁿ of the breath^o of your nostrils.^o
- 16 He was sending* from on high, he was taking me,^p
He was drawing me out of great waters.^p
- 17 He was delivering me from my strong enemy,^q
And from those hating me; because they were stronger than I was.^r

And sweeter than honey^b and the flowing honey of the combs.^c

11 Also, your own servant has been warned by them;^d

In the keeping of them there is a large reward.^e

12 Mistakes—who can discern?^f

From concealed sins pronounce me innocent.^g

13 Also from presumptuous acts* hold your servant back;^h

Do not let them dominate me.ⁱ

In that case I shall be complete,^j

And I shall have remained innocent from much transgression.

14 Let the sayings of my mouth and the meditation of my heart^k

Become pleasurable before you, O Jehovah my Rock^l and my Redeemer.*^m

To the director. A melody of David.

20 May Jehovah answer you in the day of distress.ⁿ

May the name of the God* of Jacob protect you.^o

To the director. A melody of David.

31 In you, O Jehovah,* have I taken refuge.^a

O may I never be ashamed.^b

In your righteousness provide escape for me.^c

2 Incline to me your ear.^d

Deliver me speedily.^e

Become for me a rocky stronghold,^f

A house of strongholds to save me.^g

3 For you are my crag and my stronghold;^h

And for the sake of your nameⁱ you will lead me and conduct me.^j

4 You will bring me out of the net that they have hidden for me,^k

For you are my fortress.^l

5 Into your hand I entrust my spirit.^m

You have redeemed me,ⁿ O Jehovah* the God of truth.^o

6 I do hate those paying regard to worthless, vain idols;^p

But as for me, in Jehovah* I do trust.^q

7 I will be joyful and rejoice in your loving-kindness,^r

In that you have seen my affliction;^s

You have known about the distresses of my soul,^t

8 And you have not surrendered me into the hand of the enemy.^u

You have made my feet stand in a roomy place.^v

9 Show me favor, O Jehovah,* for I am in sore straits.^w

With vexation my eye has become weak,^x my soul and my belly.^y

10 For with grief my life has come to an end,^z

And my years in sighing.^a

Because of my error my power has stumbled,^b

And my very bones have become weak.^c

- 11 From the standpoint of all those showing hostility to me^a I have become a reproach,^b
And to my neighbors very much so,^c
And a dread to my acquaintances.^d
When seeing me out of doors, they have fled from me.^e
- 12 Like someone dead [and] not in the heart, I have been forgotten;^f
I have become like a damaged* vessel;^g
- 13 For I have heard the bad report by many,^h Fright being on all sides.ⁱ
When they mass together as one against me,^j
It is to take away my soul* that they do scheme.^k
- 14 But I—in you I have put my trust, O Jehovah.^l
I have said: "You are my God."^m
- 15 My times are in your hand.ⁿ
Deliver me from the hand of my enemies and from those pursuing me.^o
- 16 Do cause your face to shine upon your servant.^p
Save me in your loving-kindness.^q
- 17 O Jehovah, may I not be ashamed, for I have called on you.^r
May the wicked ones be ashamed;^s
May they keep silent in She'ol.^t
- 18 May false lips become speechless,^u
That are speaking against the righteous one,^v unrestrainedly in haughtiness and contempt.^w
- 19 How abundant your goodness is,^x which you have treasured up for those fearing you!^y
[Which] you have rendered to those taking refuge in you, In front of the sons of men.^z
- 20 You will conceal them in the secret place of your person.^{aa}

What I have not known they ask me.^l

12 They reward me with bad for good,^m Bereavement to my soul.ⁿ

13 As for me, when they became ill, my clothing was sackcloth,^o

With fasting I afflicted my soul,^p

And upon my bosom my own prayer would return.^q

14 As for a companion, as for a brother of mine,^r

I walked about like one mourning for a mother.^s

Saddened, I bowed down.

15 But at my limping they rejoiced and gathered together;^t

They gathered together against me,^u

Striking [me] down when I did not know it;^v

They ripped [me] to pieces and did not keep silent.^w

16 Among the apostate mockers for a cake^x

There was a grinding^y of their teeth even against me.^z

17 O Jehovah,^a how long will you keep seeing [it]?^z

Ps 36:9* Or, “well.” Heb., meqohr’. 37:1* In M this psalm is arranged in acrostic, or Heb. alphabetic, order.

Do not show yourself heated up at anyone making his way successful,^a
At the man carrying out [his] ideas.^b

□ [He']

- 8 Let anger alone and leave rage;^c
Do not show yourself heated up only to do evil.^d 9 For evildoers themselves will be cut off,^e
But those hoping in Jehovah are the ones that will possess the earth.^f

† [Waw]

the wicked one will be no more;^g tion to his place, and he will not be.^h 11 But the meek ones themselves will possess the earth,ⁱ

And they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace.^j

† [Za'yin]

- 12 The wicked one is plotting against the righteous one,^k
And at him he is grinding his teeth.^l
13 Jehovah* himself will laugh at him,^m
For he certainly sees that his day will come.ⁿ

□ [Chehth]

itself and have bent their bow,^o
To cause the afflicted and poor one to fall,^p
To slaughter those who are upright in [their] way.^q 15 Their own sword will enter into

- You yourself proceeded to answer,
O Jehovah* my God.^a rejoice at me;^b

When my foot moved unsteadily,^c they would certainly assume great airs against me."^d
- 17 For I was ready to limp,^e
And my pain was in front of me constantly.^f
- 18 For I proceeded to tell about my own error;^g
I began to be anxious over my sin.^h
- 19 And my enemies who are alive became mighty,ⁱ son became many.^j

bad for good;^k
They kept resisting me* in return for my pursuing what is good.^l

O my God, do not keep far away from me.^m

I kept quiet from what is good,^v

During my sighing the fire kept burning.
I spoke with my tongue:

To the director. Of David, a melody.

40 I earnestly hoped in Jehovah,^a And so he inclined [his ear] to me and heard my cry for help.^b

2 He also proceeded to bring me up out of a roaring pit,^c

Out of the mire of [the] sediment.^d
Then he raised up my feet upon a crag;^e

He firmly established my steps.^f

3 Further, he put in my mouth a new song,

Praise to our God.^g

Many will see [it] and will fear,^h

And they will trust in Jehovah.ⁱ

4 Happy is the able-bodied man^j that has put Jehovah as his trust^k

And that has not turned his face to defiant people,

Nor to those falling away to lies.^k

5 Many things you yourself have done,^l

O Jehovah my God, even your wonderful works and your thoughts toward us;^m

There is none to be compared to you.ⁿ

Were I inclined to tell and speak [of them],

They have become more numerous than I can recount.^o

6 Sacrifice and offering you did not delight in;^p

These ears of mine you opened up.^q

Burnt offering and sin offering you did not ask for.^r

7 In view of that, I said: "Here I have come,^s

In the roll of the book it being written about me.^t

8 To do your will,^u O my God, I have delighted,^u

And your law is within my inward parts.^v

- 9 I have told the good news* of righteousness in the big congregation.^a Look! My lips I do not restrain.^b O Jehovah, you yourself know that well.^c
- 10 Your righteousness I have not covered over within my heart.^d
Your faithfulness and your salvation I have declared.^e
I have not hidden your loving-kindness* and your trueness in* the big congregation.^f
- 11 You yourself, O Jehovah, do not restrain your pity from me.^g
Let your loving-kindness and your trueness themselves constantly safeguard me.^h
- 12 For calamities encircled me until there was no numbering of them.ⁱ
More errors of mine overtook me than I was able to see;^j
They became more numerous than the hairs of my head,^k
And my own heart left me.^l
- 13 Be pleased, O Jehovah, to deliver me.^m O Jehovah, to my assistance do make haste.ⁿ
- 14 May those be ashamed and abashed all together^o
Who are seeking my soul to sweep it away.^p
May those turn back and be humiliated who are delighting in my calamity.^q
- 15 Let those stare in amazement in consequence of their shame^r
Who are saying to me: "Aha! Aha!"^s
- 16 Let those exult and rejoice in you,^t
All those who are seeking you.^u
Let those say constantly: "May Jehovah be magnified,"^v

He will gather up for himself something hurtful;
He will go out; on the outside he will speak [of it].^p

You went breaking national groups and sending them away.^g

For it was your right hand and your arm^j and the light of your face, Because you took pleasure in them.^k

- 4 You yourself are my King, O God.^l Command grand salvation* for Jacob.^m

- 13 You set us as a reproach to our neighbors,^e

A derision and jeering to those all around us.^f

- 14 You set us as a proverbial saying among the nations,^g

A shaking of the head among the national groups.^h

Nor do our footsteps deviate from your path.ⁿ

- 19 For you have crushed us in the place of jackals,^o

And you cover us over with deep shadow.^p

Or we spread out our palms to a strange god,^{ra}

- 7 For on your account I have borne reproach,^d Humiliation has covered my face.^e
- 8 I have become one estranged to my brothers,^f
And a foreigner to the sons of my mother.^g
- 9 For sheer zeal for your house has eaten me up,^h

- 10 And I proceeded to weep with the fasting of my soul,^j
But it came to be for reproaches to me.^k
- 11 When I made sackcloth my clothing,
Then I became to them a proverbial saying.^l
- 12 Those sitting in the gate began concerning themselves about me,^m
And [I was] the subject of the songs of drinkers of intoxicating liquor.ⁿ
- 13 But as for me, my prayer was to you, O Jehovah,^o
At an acceptable time, O God.^p
In the abundance of your loving-kindness answer me with the truth of salvation by you.^q
- 14 Deliver me from the mire, that I may not sink down.^r
O may I be delivered from those hating me^s and from the deep waters.^t

BOOK THREE
(Psalms 73 - 89)

A melody of A'saph.^a 73 God is indeed good to Israel, to those clean in heart.^b

2 As for me, my feet had almost turned aside,^c

My steps had nearly been made to slip.*^d

3 For I became envious of the boast-ers,^e

[When] I would see the very peace of wicked people.^f

4 For they have no deathly pangs;^g
And their paunch is fat.^h

5 They are not even in the trouble of mortal man,ⁱ

And they are not plagued the same as other men.*^j

6 Therefore haughtiness has served as a necklace to them;^k

Violence envelops them as a garment.^l

7 Their eye has bulged from fatness;^m
They have exceeded the imaginations of the heart.ⁿ

8 They scoff and speak about what is bad;^o

About defrauding they speak in an elevated style.^p

A mas'kil.* Of A'saph.*

74 Why, O God, have you cast off forever?^b

Why does your anger keep smoking against the flock of your pasturage?^c

2 Remember your assembly that you acquired long ago,^d

The tribe that you redeemed as your inheritance,^e

This Mount Zion in which you have resided.^f

3 Do lift up your steps to the long-lasting desolations.^g

Everything the enemy has treated badly in the holy place.^h

4 Those showing hostility to you have roared in the middle of your meeting place.ⁱ

They have set their own signs as [the] signs.^j

5 One is notorious in being like him that brings up axes on high against a thicket of trees.

6 And now the very engravings of it, one and all, they strike even with hatchet and iron-tipped beams.^k

7 They have thrust your sanctuary into the fire itself.^l

They have profaned the tabernacle of your name to the very earth.^m

8 They, even their offspring, have said together in their own heart:

"All the meeting places of God* must be burned in the land."ⁿ

9 Our signs we have not seen; there is no prophet anymore,^o

And there is no one with us knowing how long.

10 How long, O God, will the adversary keep reproaching?^p

Will the enemy keep treating your name with disrespect forever?^q

11 Why do you keep your hand, even your right hand, withdrawn^r

From the midst of your bosom to make an end [of us]?

Mas'kil.* Of A'saph.*

- 78 Do give ear, O my people, to my law;^a Incline YOUR ear to the sayings of my mouth.^b
- 2 In a proverbial saying I will open my mouth;^c
I will cause riddles of long ago to bubble forth,^d
- 3 Which we have heard and know,^e
And which our own fathers have related to us;^f
- 4 Which we do not hide from their sons,^g
Relating [them] even to the generation to come,^h
The praises of Jehovah and his strengthⁱ
And his wonderful things that he has done.^k
- 5 And he proceeded to raise up a reminder in Jacob,^l
And a law he set in Israel,^m
Things that he commanded our forefathers,ⁿ
To make them known to their sons;^o
- 6 In order that the generation to come, the sons that were to be born, might know [them],^p
That they might rise up and relate [them] to their sons,^q
- 7 And that they might set their confidence in God* himself^r
And not forget the practices of God*^s but observe his own commandments.^t
- 8 And they should not become like their forefathers,^u
A generation stubborn and rebellious,^v
A generation who had not prepared their heart^w
And whose spirit was not trustworthy with God.*^x
- 9 The sons of E'phra-im, though armed shooters of the bow,^y Retreated in the day of fight.^z

- 10 They did not keep the covenant of God,^a
And in his law they refused to walk.^b
- 11 They also began to forget his dealings^c
And his wonderful works that he caused them to see.^d
- 12 In front of their forefathers he had done marvelously^e
In the land of Egypt,^f the field of Zo'an.^g
- 13 He split the sea, that he might let them pass over,^h
And he caused the waters to stand like a dam.ⁱ
- 14 And he continued to lead them with a cloud by day^j
And the whole night with a light of fire.^k
- 15 He proceeded to split rocks in the wilderness,^l
That he might cause [them] to drink an abundance just like watery deeps.^m
- 16 And he went bringing forth streams out of a cragⁿ
And causing waters to descend just like rivers.^o
- 17 And they kept sinning still more against him^p
By rebelling against the Most High in the waterless region;^q
- 18 And they proceeded to test God* in their heart^r
By asking for something to eat for their soul.^s
- 19 So they began to speak against God.*^t
They said: "Is God able to arrange a table in the wilderness?"^u
- 20 Look! He struck a rock^v
That waters might flow and torrents themselves might flood forth.^w
"Is he able also to give bread itself,^x Or can he prepare sustenance for his people?"^y

- 21 That was why Jehovah heard and began to be furious;^a
And fire itself was kindled against Jacob,^b And anger also ascended against Israel.^c
- 22 For they did not put faith in God,^d
And they did not trust in salvation by him.^e
- 23 And he proceeded to command the cloudy skies above,
And he opened the very doors of heaven.^f
- 24 And he kept raining upon them manna to eat,^g
And the grain of heaven he gave to them.^h
- 25 Men* ate the very bread of powerful ones;ⁱ
Provisions he sent them to satisfaction.^j
- 26 He began making an east wind burst forth in the heavens^k
And making a south wind blow by his own strength.^l
- 27 And he proceeded to make sustenance rain upon them just like dust,^m
Even winged flying creatures just like the sand grains of the seas.ⁿ
- 28 And he kept making [them] fall in the middle of his camp,^o
All around his tabernacles.^p
- 29 And they went eating and satisfying themselves very much,^q
And what they desired he proceeded to bring to them.^r
- 30 They had not turned aside from their desire, While their food was yet in their mouth,^s
- 31 When God's wrath itself ascended against them.^t
And he went killing among their stout ones;^u
And the young men of Israel he made collapse.

- 32 Despite all this they sinned some more^a
And did not put faith in his wonderful works.^b
- 33 So he brought their days to an end as if a mere exhalation,^c
And their years by the disturbance.
- 34 As often as he killed them, they also inquired for him,^d
And they returned and looked for God.^e
- 35 And they began to remember that God^f was their Rock,^g
And that God the Most High was their Avenger.^h
- 36 And they tried to fool him with their mouth;ⁱ
And with their tongue they tried to lie to him.^j
- 37 And their heart was not steadfast with him;^k
And they did not prove faithful in his covenant.^l
- 38 But he was merciful;^m he would cover the errorⁿ and not bring ruin.^o
And many times he made his anger turn back,^p
And he would not rouse up all his rage.
- 39 And he kept remembering that they were flesh,^q
That the spirit^r is going forth and does not come back.^s
- 40 How often they would rebel against him in the wilderness,^t
They would make him feel hurt in the desert!^u
- 41 And again and again they would put God^v to the test,^w
And they pained even the Holy One of Israel.^x
- 42 They did not remember his hand,^y
The day that he redeemed them from the adversary,^z
- 43 How he put his signs in Egypt itself^a

He did not hold back their soul from death itself;

A song. A melody of A'saph.^a

83 O God, let there be no silence on your part;^b

Do not keep speechless, and do not stay quiet, O Divine One.^c

2 For, look! your very enemies are in an uproar;^d

And the very ones intensely hating you have raised [their] head.^e

3 Against your people they cunningly carry on their confidential talk;^f

And they conspire against your concealed ones.^g

4 They have said: "Come and let us efface them from being a nation,^h That the name of Israel may be remembered no more."ⁱ

5 For with the heart they have unitedly exchanged counsel;^j

Against you they proceeded to conclude even a covenant,^{kl}

6 The tents of E'dom^l and the Ish'ma-el-ites, Mo'ab^m and the Hag'-rites,ⁿ

7 Ge'bal and Am'mon^o and Am'a-lek, Phi-lis'tia^p together with the inhabitants of Tyre.^q

8 Also, As-syr'ia* itself has become joined with them;^r

They have become an arm to the sons of Lot.^s Se'lah.

9 Do to them as to Mid'i-an,^t as to Sis'e-ra,^u

As to Ja'bin^v at the torrent valley of Ki'shon.^w

10 They were annihilated at En-dor;^x They became manure for the ground.^y

And like a flame that scorches the mountains,^f

15 In just that way may you pursue them with your tempest^g

BOOK FOUR
(Psalms 90 - 106)

A prayer of Moses, the man of the [true] God.^a 90 O Jehovah,* you yourself have proved to be a real dwelling for us^b

During generation after generation.^c

2 Before the mountains themselves were born,^d

Or you proceeded to bring forth as with labor pains the earth^e and the productive land,^f

Even from time indefinite to time indefinite you are God.^g

3 You make mortal man* go back to crushed matter,^h

And you say: "Go back, YOU sons of men."ⁱ

4 For a thousand years are in your eyes but as yesterday when it is past,^j

And as a watch during the night.^k

5 You have swept them away;^l they become a mere sleep;^m

In the morning [they are] just like green grass that changes.ⁿ

6 In the morning it puts forth blossoms and must change;^o

At evening it withers and certainly dries up.^p

7 For we have come to an end in your anger,^q

And by your rage we have been disturbed.^r

8 You have set our errors right in front of you,^s

Our hidden things before your bright face.^t

9 For all our days have come to their decline in your fury;^a

We have finished our years just like a whisper.^b

10 In themselves the days of our years are seventy years;^c

And if because of special mightiness they are eighty years,^d

Yet their insistence is on trouble and hurtful things;^e

For it must quickly pass by, and away we fly.^f

11 Who is there knowing the strength of your anger^g

And your fury according to the fear of you?^h

12 Show [us] just how to count our days in such a wayⁱ

That we may bring a heart of wisdom^j in.

13 Do return, O Jehovah!^k How long will it be?^l

And feel regret over your servants.^m

14 Satisfy us in the morning with your loving-kindness,ⁿ

That we may cry out joyfully and may rejoice during all our days.^o

15 Make us rejoice correspondingly to the days that you have afflicted us,^p

The years that we have seen calamity.^q

16 May your activity appear to your own servants^r

And your splendor upon their sons.^s

2 I will say to Jehovah: * “[You are]

3 For he himself will deliver you from the trap of the birdcatcher,^f
From the pestilence causing ad-

4 With his pinions he will block approach to you,^h
And under his wings you will take refuge.ⁱ
His truiness^j will be a large

5 You will not be afraid of anything dreadful by night,^l Nor of the arrow^m that flies by day,

6 Nor of the pestilence that walks in the gloom,ⁿ Nor of the destruction that despoil at midday.^o

7 A thousand will fall at your very side
And ten thousand at your right hand;

To you it will not come near.^p

8 Only with your eyes will you look on^q And see the retribution itself of the wicked ones.^r

9 Because you [said]: “Jehovah* is my refuge,”^s
You have made the Most High himself your dwelling;^t

10 No calamity will befall you,^u
And not even a plague will draw near to your tent.^v

11 For he will give his own angels a command concerning you,^w
To guard you in all your ways.^x

12 Upon their hands they will carry you,^y
That you may not strike your foot against any stone.^z

Neither will he to time indefinite keep resentful.^b
- 10 He has not done to us even according to our sins;^c goodwill toward your people.^h Take care of me with your sal-chosen ones,^jThat I may rejoice with the rejoicing of your nation,^kThat I may make my boast with kindness,^pBut they behaved rebelliously at the sea, by the Red Sea.^q8 And he proceeded to save them for

I do love, because Jehovah hears.^a

My voice, my entreaties.^b

2 For he has inclined his ear to me,^c

And throughout my days I shall call.^d

3 The ropes of death encircled me^e

And the distressing circumstances of She'ol themselves found me.^f

Distress and grief I kept finding.^g

4 But upon the name of Jehovah I proceeded to call.^h

"Ah, Jehovah, do provide my soul with escape!"ⁱ

5 Jehovah is gracious and righteous;^j

And our God is One showing mercy.^k

6 Jehovah is guarding the inexperienced ones.^l

I was impoverished, and he proceeded to save even me.^m

7 Return to your resting-place, O my soul,ⁿ

For Jehovah himself has acted appropriately toward you.^o

8 For you have rescued my soul from death,^p

My eye from tears, my foot from stumbling.^q

9 I will walk^r before Jehovah in the lands of those living.^s

10* I had faith,^t for I proceeded to speak.^u

I myself was very much afflicted.

11 I, for my part, said, when I became panicky:^v

"Every man^{*} is a liar."^w

12 What shall I repay to Jehovah^x

For all his benefits to me?^y

3 Then they would have swallowed us up even alive,^c

When their anger was burning against us.^d

4 Then the very waters would have washed us away,^e

126 When Jehovah gathered back the captive ones* of Zion,^e

We became like those who were dreaming.^f

2 At that time our mouth came to be filled with laughter,^g

139 O Jehovah, you have searched through me, and you know [me].^a

2 You yourself have come to know my sitting down and my rising up.^b

3 My journeying and my lying outstretched you have measured off,^d

It is so high up that I cannot attain to it.ⁱ

7 Where can I go from your spirit,^j
And where can I run away from your face?^k

8 If I should ascend to heaven, there you would be;^l

And if I should spread out my couch in She'ol,* look! you [would be there].^m

9 Were I to take the wingsⁿ of the dawn,

That I might reside in the most remote sea,^o

10 There, also, your own hand would lead me^p

And your right hand would lay hold of me.^q

11 And were I to say: "Surely darkness itself will hastily seize me!"^r
Then night would be light about me.^s

But night itself would shine just as the day does;^u

9 Honor Jehovah with your valuable things^a and with the firstfruits of all your produce.^b 10 Then your stores of supply will be filled with plenty;^c and with new wine your own press vats will overflow.^d

11 The discipline of Jehovah, O my son, do not reject;^e and do not abhor his reproof;^f 12 because the one whom Jehovah loves he reproves,^g even as a father does a son in whom he finds pleasure.^h

13 Happy is the man that has found wisdom,ⁱ and the man that gets discernment,^j 14 for having it as gain is better than having silver as gain and having it as produce than gold^k itself.

15 It^l is more precious than corals,^l and all other delights of yours cannot be made equal to it. 16 Length of days is in its right hand;^m in its left hand there are riches and glory.ⁿ 17 Its ways are ways of pleasantness, and all its roadways are peace.^o 18 It is a tree of life^p to those taking hold of it, and those keeping fast hold of it^q are to be called happy.^q

19 Jehovah himself in wisdom founded the earth.^r He solidly fixed the heavens in discernment.^s 20 By his knowledge the watery deeps^t themselves were split apart,^u and the cloudy skies keep dripping down light rain.^v 21 My son, may they not get away from your eyes.^w Safeguard practical wisdom and thinking ability,^x 22 and they will prove to be life to your soul^y and charm to your throat.^z 23 In that case you will walk in security^a on your way, and even your foot will not strike against anything.^b 24 Whenever you lie down you will feel no dread;^c and you will certainly

5 A faithful witness is one that will not lie,^p but a false witness launches forth mere lies.^q

6 The ridiculer has sought to find wisdom, and there is none; but to the understanding one knowledge is an easy thing.^r

7 Go away from in front of the stupid man,^s for you will certainly not take note of the lips of knowledge.^t

8 The wisdom of the shrewd is to understand his way,^u but the foolishness of stupid ones is deception.^v

9 Foolish are those who make a derision of guilt,^w but among the upright ones there is agreement.^x

10 The heart is aware of the bitterness of one's soul,^y and with its rejoicing no stranger will intermeddle.

11 The house of wicked people will be annihilated,^z but the tent of the upright ones will flourish.^a

12 There exists a way that is upright before a man,^a but the ways of death are the end of it afterward.^b

13 Even in laughter the heart may be in pain;^c and grief is what rejoicing ends up in.^d

14 The one faithless at heart will be satisfied with the results of his own ways,^e but the good man with the results of his dealings.^f

15 Anyone inexperienced puts faith in every word,^g but the shrewd one considers his steps.^h

16 The wise one fears and is turning away from badness,ⁱ but the stupid is becoming furious and self-confident.^j

17 He that is quick to anger will commit foolishness,^k but the man of thinking abilities is hated.^l

18 The inexperienced ones will certainly take possession of foolishness,^m but the shrewd ones will bear knowledge as a headdress.ⁿ

19 Bad people will have to bow down before the good ones,^o and the wicked people at the gates of the righteous one.

20 Even to his fellowman one who is of little means is an object of hatred,^p but many are the friends of the rich person.^q

21 The one despising his own fellowman is sinning,^r but happy is he who is showing favor to the afflicted ones.^s

22 Will not those devising mischief go wandering about?^t But there are loving-kindness* and trueness as regards those devising good.^u

23 By every kind of toil there comes to be an advantage,^v but merely the word of the lips [tends] to want.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches; the foolishness of the stupid ones is foolishness.^w souls,^a but a deceitful one* launches forth mere lies.^b

26 In the fear of Jehovah there is strong confidence,^c and for his sons there will come to be a refuge.^d

27 The fear of Jehovah is a well of life,^e to turn away from the snares of death.^f

28 In the multitude of people there is an adornment of a king,^g but in the lack of population is the ruin of a high official.^h

29 He that is slow to anger is abundant in discernment,ⁱ but one that is impatient* is exalting foolishness.^j

30 A calm heart is the life of the fleshly organism,^k but jealousy is rottenness to the bones.^l

31 He that is defrauding the lowly one has reproached his Maker,^m but the one showing favor to the poor one is glorifying Him.ⁿ

32 Because of his badness the wicked will be pushed down,^o but the righteous will be finding refuge in his integrity.^p

33 In the heart of the understanding one there rests wisdom,^q and in the midst of stupid ones it becomes known.

34 Righteousness is what exalts a nation,^r but sin is something disgraceful to national groups.^s

35 The pleasure of a king is in the servant who is acting with insight,^t but his fury comes to be toward one acting shamefully.^u

15 An answer, when mild, turns away rage,^v but a word causing pain makes anger to come up.^w

2 The tongue of wise ones does good with knowledge,^x but the mouth of the stupid ones bubbles forth with foolishness.^y

3 The eyes of Jehovah are in every place,^z keeping watch upon the bad ones and the good ones.^a

4 The calmness of the tongue is a tree of life,^b but distortion in it means a breaking down in the spirit.^c

19 Anyone loving transgression is loving a struggle.^a Anyone making his entryway high is seeking a crash.^b

20 He that is crooked at heart will not find good,^c and he that is turned around in his tongue will fall into calamity.^d

21 Anyone becoming father to a stupid child—it is a grief to him;^e and the father of a senseless child does not rejoice.^f

22 A heart that is joyful does good as a curer,^g but a spirit that is stricken makes the bones dry.^h

23 One who is wicked will take even a bribe from the bosomⁱ to bend the paths of judgment.^j

24 Wisdom is before the face of the understanding one,^k but the eyes of the stupid one are at the extremity of the earth.^l

25 A stupid son is a vexation to his father^m and a bitterness to her that gave him birth.ⁿ

26 Furthermore, the laying of a fine upon the righteous one is not good.^o To strike nobles is against what is upright.^p

27 Anyone holding back his sayings is possessed of knowledge,^q and a man of discernment is cool of spirit.^r

28 Even anyone foolish, when keeping silent, will be regarded as wise;^s anyone closing up his own lips, as having understanding.

18 One isolating himself will seek [his own] selfish longing;^t against all practical wisdom he will break forth.^u

2 Anyone stupid finds no delight in discernment,^v except that his heart should uncover itself.^w

3 When a wicked one comes in, contempt also must come in;^x and along with dishonor^y there is reproach.

5 The showing of partiality to the wicked one is not good,^c nor the turning aside of the righteous one in judgment.^d

6 The lips of one who is stupid enter into quarreling,^e and his very mouth calls even for strokes.^f

7 The mouth of the stupid one is the ruin of him,^g and his lips are a snare for his soul.^h

8 The words of the slanderer are like things to be swallowed greedily,ⁱ which do go down into the innermost parts of the belly.^j

9 Also, the one showing himself slack in his work^k—he is a brother to the one causing ruin.^{*1}

10 The name of Jehovah is a strong tower.^m Into it the righteous runs and is given protection.^{*n}

11 The valuable things of the rich are his strong town,^o and they are like a protective wall in his imagination.^p

12 Before a crash the heart of a man is lofty,^q and before glory there is humility.^r

13 When anyone is replying to a matter before he hears [it],^s that is foolishness on his part and a humiliation.^t

14 The spirit of a man* can put up with his malady;^u but as for a stricken spirit, who can bear it?^v

15 The heart of the understanding one acquires knowledge,^w and the ear of wise ones seeks to find knowledge.^x

16 A man's gift* will make a large opening for him,^y and it will lead him even before great people.^z

17 The one first in his legal case is righteous;^a his fellow comes in and certainly searches him through.^b

24 Do not be envious of bad men,ⁱ and do not show yourself craving to get in with them.^j 2 For despoiling is what their heart keeps meditating, and trouble is what their own lips keep speaking.^k

3 By wisdom a household will be built up,^l and by discernment it will prove firmly established.^m 4 And by knowledge will the interior rooms be filled with all precious and pleasant things of value.ⁿ

5 One wise in strength is an able-bodied man,^o and a man of knowledge is reinforcing power.^p 6 For by skillful direction you will carry on your war,^q and in the multitude of counselors there is salvation.^r

7 For a foolish one true wisdom is too high;^s in the gate he will not open his mouth.

8 As for anyone scheming to do bad, he will be called a mere master at evil ideas.^t

5 Answer someone stupid according to his foolishness, that he may not become someone wise in his own eyes.^a

6 As one that is mutilating [his] feet, as one that is drinking mere violence, is he that is thrusting matters into the hand of someone stupid.^b

7 Have the legs of the lame one drawn up water? Then there is a proverb in the mouth of stupid people.^c

8 Like one shutting up a stone in a heap of stones, so is the one giving glory to a mere stupid one.^d

9 As a thorny weed has come up into the hand of a drunkard, so a proverb into the mouth of stupid people.^e

10 As an archer piercing everything is the one hiring someone stupid^f or the one hiring passersby.

11 Just like a dog returning to its vomit, the stupid one is repeating his foolishness.^g

12 Have you seen a man wise in his own eyes?^h There is more hope for the stupid oneⁱ than for him.

13 The lazy one has said: "There is a young lion in the way, a lion in among the public squares."^j

14 A door keeps turning upon its pivot, and the lazy one upon his couch.^k

15 The lazy one has hidden his hand in the banquet bowl; he has become too weary to bring it back to his mouth.^l

16 The lazy one is wiser in his own eyes^m than seven giving a sensible reply.

17 As one grabbing hold of the ears of a dog is anyone passing by that is becoming furious at the quarrel that is not his.ⁿ

18 Just like someone mad that is shooting fiery missiles,^o arrows and death, 19 so is the man that has tricked his fellowman and has said: "Was I not having fun?"^p

20 Where there is no wood the fire goes out, and where there is no slanderer contention grows still.^q

21 As charcoal for the embers and wood for the fire, so is a contentious man for causing a quarrel^r to glow.

22 The words of a slanderer are like things to be swallowed greedily, which do go down into the innermost parts of the belly.^a

23 As a silver glazing overlaid upon a fragment of earthenware are fervent lips along with a bad heart.^b

24 With his lips the hater makes himself unrecognizable, but inside of him he puts deception.^c 25 Although he makes his voice gracious,^d do not believe in him,^e for there are seven detestable things^f in his heart. 26 Hatred is covered over by deceit. His badness will be uncovered in the congregation.^g

27 He that is excavating a pit will fall into the same,^h and he that is rolling away a stone—back to him it will return.ⁱ

28 A tongue that is false hates the one crushed by it,^j and a flattering mouth^k causes an overthrow.^k

27 Do not make your boast about the next day,^l for you do not know what a day will give birth to.^m

2 May a stranger, and not your own mouth, praise you; may a foreigner, and not your own lips, do so.ⁿ

3 The heaviness of a stone and a load of sand^o—but the vexation by someone foolish is heavier than both of them.^p

4 There is the cruelty of rage, also the flood of anger,^q but who can stand before jealousy?^r

5 Better is a revealed reproof^s than a concealed love.

6 The wounds inflicted by a lover^t are faithful,^u but the kisses of a hater are things to be entreated.^u

7 A soul that is satisfied will tread down comb honey, but to a hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.^v

8 Just like a bird fleeing away from its nest,^w so is a man fleeing away from his place.^x them merely for the one showing favor to the lowly ones.^a

9 He that is turning his ear away from hearing the law^b—even his prayer is something detestable.^c

10 He that is causing the upright ones to go astray^d into the bad way will himself fall into his own pit,^e but the faultless ones themselves will come into possession of good.^f

11 A rich man is wise in his own eyes,^g but the lowly one who is discerning searches him through.^h

12 When the righteous ones are exulting,ⁱ there is abundant beauty; but when the wicked ones rise up, a man disguises himself.^j

13 He that is covering over his transgressions will not succeed,^k but he that is confessing and leaving [them] will be shown mercy.^l

14 Happy is the man that is feeling dread constantly,^m but he that is hardening his heart will fall into calamity.ⁿ

15 As a growling lion and an on-rushing bear is a wicked ruler over a lowly people.^o

16 A leader that is in want of true discernment is also abundant in fraudulent practices,^p but he that is hating unjust profit^q will prolong [his] days.

17 A man burdened with the blood-guilt for a soul will himself flee even to the pit.^r Let them not get hold of him.

18 He that is walking faultless will be saved,^s but he that is made crooked in [his] ways will fall at once.^t

19 He that is cultivating his own ground will have his sufficiency of bread,^u and he that is pursuing valueless things will have his sufficiency of poverty.^v

20 A man of faithful acts* will get many blessings,^w but he that is hastening to gain riches will not remain innocent.^x

Pr 28:20* "A man of faithful acts." Heb., 'ish 'emu-nohth'.

21 The showing of partiality* is not good,^a nor that an able-bodied man should transgress over a mere piece of bread.

22 A man of envious eye is bestirring himself after valuable things,^b but he does not know that want itself will come upon him.

23 He that is reproving a man^c will afterward find more favor than he will that is flattering with his tongue.*

24 He that is robbing his father and his mother^d and is saying: "It is no transgression,"^e is a partner of a man causing ruin.

25 He that is arrogant in soul stirs up contention,^f but he that is relying upon Jehovah will be made fat.^g

26 He that is trusting in his own heart is stupid,^h but he that is walking in wisdom is the one that will escape.ⁱ

27 He that is giving to the one of little means will have no want,^j but he that is hiding his eyes will get many curses.^k

28 When the wicked rise up, a man* conceals himself;^l but when they perish, the righteous become many.^m

29 A man* repeatedly reprovedⁿ but making his neck hard^o will suddenly be broken, and that without healing.^p

2 When the righteous become many, the people rejoice;^q but when anyone wicked bears rule, the people sigh.^r

3 A man that is loving wisdom makes his father rejoice,^s but he that is having companionship with prostitutes destroys valuable things.^t

4 By justice a king makes a land keep standing,^u but a man out for bribes* tears it down.^v

5 An able-bodied man that is flattering his companion^w is spreading out a mere net for his steps.^x

6 In the transgression of a bad man there is a snare,^y but he that is righteous cries out joyfully and is glad.^z

Pr 28:21* Lit., "To discern faces." 23* Lit., "making smooth a tongue." Or, "using a smooth tongue." 28* Lit., "an earthling man." Heb., 'a-dham'. 29:1* Lit., "A man." Heb., 'ish. 4* Lit., "contributions."

7 The righteous one is knowing the legal claim of the lowly ones.^a He that is wicked does not consider such knowledge.^b

8 Men of boastful talk inflame a town,^c but those who are wise turn back anger.^d

9 A wise man having entered into judgment with a foolish man—he has become excited and has also laughed, and there is no rest.^e

10 Bloodthirsty men hate anyone blameless;^f and as for the upright ones, they keep seeking for the soul of each one.^g

11 All his spirit is what a stupid one lets out, but he that is wise keeps it calm to the last.^h

12 Where a ruler is paying attention to false speech, all those waiting on him will be wicked.ⁱ

13 The one of little means and the man of oppressions have met each other;^j [but] Jehovah is lighting up the eyes of them both.^k

14 Where a king is judging the lowly ones in truiness,^l his throne will be firmly established for all time.^m

15 The rod and reproof are what give wisdom;ⁿ but a boy let on the loose will be causing his mother shame.^o

16 When the wicked become many, transgression abounds; but those who are righteous will look on their very downfall.^p

17 Chastise your son and he will bring you rest and give much pleasure to your soul.^q

18 Where there is no vision the people go unrestrained,^r but happy are they* that are keeping the law.^s

19 A servant will not let himself be corrected by mere words,^t for he understands but he is paying no heed.^u

21 If one is pampering one's servant from youth on, in his later life he will even become a thankless one.*

22 A man given to anger stirs up contention,^a and anyone disposed to rage* has many a transgression.^b

23 The very haughtiness of earthling man will humble him,^c but he that is humble in spirit will take hold of glory.^d

24 He that is partner with a thief is hating his own soul.^e An oath involving a curse he may hear, but he reports nothing.^f

25 Trembling at men* is what lays a snare,^g but he that is trusting in Jehovah will be protected.^h

26 Many are those seeking the face of a ruler,ⁱ but the judgment of a man is from Jehovah.^j

Ec Title* "Ecclesiastes." Heb., Qo-he'leth. In Heb. this book is named after the active participle of the verb qahal, "to congregate; to assemble." Although Qo-he'leth is fern., King Solomon applied it to himself in 1:1. Gr., Ekklesiastes; Lat., Lib'er Ecclesiastes. 1:1 Or, "assembler; convener; convoker," M; LXXVg, "Ecclesiastes," that is, a member of an ecclesia (congregation; assembly). 2 "The greatest vanity!" Lit., "Vanity of vanities," M(Heb., havel' hava'im) LXXSY-Vg. 3 Lit., "to an earthing man," Heb., la'a-dham'. 3 "Under the sun." Heb., ta-chath' hash-sha'mesh. This phrase occurs 29 times in Ecclesiastes. 6 "The wind." Lit., "It," possibly referring to the sun in its movements southward and northward between the summer and winter solstices. 6 "It." Lit., "the wind," but in translation it is transferred to the beginning of the vs. 6 "The wind." Heb., ha-ru'ach; Gr., pneu'ma. Compare Ge 1:2 ftn, "Force."

It has already had existence for time indefinite;^d what has come into existence is from time prior to us.^e 11 There is no remembrance of people of former times, nor will there be of those also who will come to be later.^f There will prove to be no remembrance even of them among those who will come to be still later on.^g

12 I, the congregator,* happened to be king over Israel in Jerusalem.^h

15 That which is made crooked cannot be made straight,^m and that which is wanting cannot possibly be counted.

I myself have greatly increased in wisdom more than anyone that happened to be before me in Jerusalem,^o and my own heart saw a great deal of wisdom and knowledge."^p 17 And I proceeded to give my heart to knowing wisdom and to knowing madness,^q and I have come to know folly,^r that this too is a striving after wind.^s 18 For in the abundance of wisdom there is an abundance of vexation,^a so that he that increases knowledge increases pain.^b

2 I said, even I, in my heart:^c "Do come now, let me try you out with rejoicing.^d Also, see good."^e And, look! that too was vanity. 2 I said to laughter: "Insanity!"^f and to rejoicing:^g "What is this doing?"

3 I explored with my heart by cheering my flesh even with wine,^h while I was leading my heart with wisdom,ⁱ even to lay hold on folly until I could see what good there was to the sons of mankind in what they did under the heavens for the number of the days of their life.^j

4 I engaged in greater works.^k I built houses for myself;^l I planted vineyards for myself.^m 5 I made gardens and parks^{*} for myself,ⁿ and I planted in them fruit trees of all sorts. 6 I made pools of water for myself,^o to irrigate with them the forest, springing up with trees.^p 7 I acquired menservants and maidservants,^q and I came to have sons of the household.^r Also, livestock, cattle and flocks in great quantity I came to have, more so than all those who happened to be before me in Jerusalem.^s

8 I accumulated also silver and gold for myself,^t and property peculiar to kings and the jurisdictional districts.^u I made male singers and female singers^v for myself and the exquisite delights^w of the sons of mankind, a lady, even ladies.^x 9 And I became greater and increased more than anyone that happened to be before me in Jerusalem.^y Moreover, my own wisdom remained mine.^z

10 And anything that my eyes asked for I did not keep away from them.^a I did not hold back my heart from any sort of rejoicing, for my heart was joyful because of all my hard work,^b and this came to be my portion from all my hard work.^c 11 And I, even I, turned toward all the works of mine that my hands had done and toward the hard work that I had worked hard to accomplish,^d and, look! everything was vanity and a striving after wind,^e and there was nothing of advantage under the sun.^a

12 And I, even I, turned to see wisdom^b and madness and folly;^c for what can the earthling man do who comes in after the king? The thing that people have already done. 13 And I saw, even I, that there exists more advantage for wisdom than for folly,^d just as there is more advantage for light than for darkness.^e

14 As regards anyone wise, his eyes are in his head;^f but the stupid one is walking on in sheer darkness.^g And I have come to know, I too, that there is one eventuality that eventuates to them all.^h 15 And I myself said in my heart:ⁱ "An eventuality like that upon the stupid one^j will eventuate to me, yes, me."^k Why, then, had I become wise, I overmuch so^l at that time? And I spoke in my heart: "This too is vanity."^m

16 For there is no more remembrance of the wise one than of the stupid one to time indefinite.ⁿ In the days that are already coming in, everyone is certainly forgotten; and how will the wise one die? Along with the stupid one.^o

17 And I hated life,^p because the work that has been done under the sun was calamitous from my standpoint,^q for everything was vanity and a striving after wind.^r 18 And I, even I, hated all my hard work at which I was working hard under the sun,^s that I would leave behind for the man who would come to be after me.^t 19 And who is there knowing whether he will prove to be wise or foolish?^u Yet he will take control over all my hard work at which I worked hard and at which I showed wisdom under the sun.^v This too is vanity. 20 And I myself turned around toward making my heart despair^w over all the hard work at which I had worked hard under the sun. 21 For there exists the man whose hard work has been with wisdom and with knowledge and

22 For what does a man come to have* for all his hard work and for the striving of his heart with which he is working hard under the sun?^d 23 For all his days his occupation means pains and vexation,^e also during the night his heart just does not lie down.^f This too is mere vanity.

13 There exists a grave calamity that I have seen under the sun: riches being kept for their grand owner* to his calamity.^a 14 And those riches have perished^b because of a calamitous occupation, and he has become father to a son when there is nothing at all in his hand.^c

15 Just as one has come forth from his mother's belly, naked will one go away again,^d just as one came; and nothing at all can one carry away^e for his hard work, which he can take along with his hand.

16 And this too is a grave calamity: exactly as one has come, so one will go away; and what profit is there to the one who keeps working hard for the wind?^f 17 Also, all his days he eats in darkness itself, with a great deal of vexation,^g with sickness on his part and [cause for] indignation.

18 Look! The best thing that I myself have seen, which is pretty, is that one should eat and drink and see good for all his hard work^h with which he works hard under the sun for the number of the days of his life that the [true] God has given him, for that is his portion. 19 Also every man to whom the [true] God has given riches and material possessions,ⁱ he has even empowered him to eat from it^j and to carry off his portion and to rejoice in his hard work.^k This is the gift of God.^l 20 For not often will he remember the days of his life, because the [true] God is preoccupying* [him] with the rejoicing of his heart.^m

This is vanity and it is a bad sickness. 3 If a man should become a father a hundred times,^e and he should live many years, so that numerous the days of his years should become,^f yet his own soul is not satisfied with good things^g and even the grave has not become his,^h I must say that one prematurely born is better off than he is.ⁱ 4 For in vain has this one come and in darkness he goes away, and with darkness his own name will be covered.^j 5 Even the sun itself he has not seen, neither known.^k This one has rest rather than the former one.^l 6 Even supposing that he has lived a thousand years twice over and yet he has not seen what is good,^m is it not to just one place that everyone is going?ⁿ

10 Whatever has come to be, its name has already been pronounced, and it has become known what man* is;^s and he is not able to plead his cause with one that is more powerful than he is.^t

11 Because there exist many things that are causing much vanity,^u what advantage does a man have? 12 For who is there knowing what good a man has in life^v for the number of the days of his vain life, when he spends them like a shadow?^w For who can tell man

15 Everything I have seen during my vain days.^f There exists the righteous one perishing in his righteousness,^g and there exists the wicked one continuing long in his badness.^h

16 Do not become righteous overmuch,ⁱ nor show yourself excessively wise.^j Why should you cause desolation to yourself?^k 17 Do not be wicked overmuch,^l nor become foolish.^m Why should you die when it is not your time?ⁿ 18 It is better that you should take hold of the one, but from the other also do not withdraw your hand;^o for he that fears God will go forth with them all.^p

19 Wisdom itself is stronger for the wise one than ten men in power who happened to be in a city.^q 20 For there is no man righteous in the earth that keeps doing good and does not sin.^r

21 Also, do not give your heart to all the words that people may speak,^s that you may not hear your servant calling down evil upon you.^t 22 For your own heart well knows even many times that you, even you, have called down evil upon others.^u

23 All this I have tested with wisdom. I said: "I will become wise." But it was far from me.^v 24 What has come to be is far off and exceedingly deep. to be,^a because who can tell him just how it will come to be?

8 There is no man having power over the spirit* to restrain the spirit;^b neither is there any power of control in the day of death;^c nor is there any discharge in the war.^d And wickedness will provide no escape for those indulging in it.^{ae}

9 All this I have seen, and there was an applying* of my heart to every work that has been done under the sun, [during] the time that man has dominated man to his injury.^f 10 But, though this is so, I have seen the wicked ones being buried,^g how they came in and how they would go away from the holy place^h itself and be forgotten in the city where they acted that way.ⁱ This too is vanity.

11 Because sentence against a bad work has not been executed speedily,^j that is why the heart of the sons of men has become fully set in them to do bad.^k

12 Although a sinner may be doing bad^l a hundred times and continuing a long time as he pleases, yet I am also aware that it will turn out well with those fearing the [true] God,^m because they were in fear of him.ⁿ 13 But it will not turn out well at all with the wicked one,^o neither will he prolong his days that are like a shadow,^p because he is not in fear of God.^q

14 There exists a vanity that is carried out on the earth, that there exist righteous ones to whom it is happening as if for the work of the wicked ones,^r and there exist wicked ones to whom it is happening as if for the work of the righteous ones.^s I said that this too is vanity.

15 And I myself commended rejoicing,^t because mankind* have nothing better under the sun than to eat and

17 And I saw all the work of the [true] God,^f how mankind are not able to find out the work that has been done under the sun;^g however much mankind keep working hard to seek, yet they do not find out.^h And even if they should say they are wise enough to know,ⁱ they would be unable to find out.^j

9 For I took all this to my heart, even to search out all this,^k that the righteous ones and the wise ones and their works are in the hand of the [true] God.^l Mankind are not aware of either the love or the hate that were all prior to them.^m 2 All are the same in what all have.ⁿ One eventuality^o there is to the righteous one^p and the wicked one,^q the good one and the clean one and the unclean one, and the one sacrificing and the one that is not sacrificing. The good one is the same as the sinner;^r the one swearing is the same as whoever has been afraid of a sworn oath.^s 3 This is what is calamitous in all that has been done under the sun, that, because there is one eventuality to all,^t the heart of the sons of men is also full of bad,^u and there is madness^v in their heart during their lifetime, and after it—to the dead ones!^w taken in an evil net,^a and like birds that are being taken in a trap,^b so the sons of men themselves are being ensnared at a calamitous time,^c when it falls upon them suddenly.^d

13 Also this I saw as respects wisdom under the sun—and it* was great to me: 14 There was a little city, and the men* in it were few; and there came to it a great king, and he surrounded it and built against it great strongholds.^e 15 And there was found in it a man,* needy [but]^f wise, and that one provided escape for the city by his wisdom.^g But no man remembered that needy man.^h 16 And I myself said: "Wisdom is better than mightiness;ⁱ yet the wisdom of the needy one is despised, and his words are not listened to."^j

18 Wisdom is better than implements for fighting, and merely one sinner can destroy much good.^l

10 Dead flies* are what cause the oil of the ointment maker^m to stink, to bubble forth. [So] a little foolishness does to one who is precious for wisdom and glory.ⁿ

2 The heart of the wise is at his right hand,^o but the heart of the stupid at his left hand.^p 3 And also in whatever way the foolish one is walking,^q his own heart is lacking,^r and he certainly says to everybody that he is foolish.^r

4 If the spirit of a ruler should mount up against you, do not leave your own place,^s for calmness itself allays great sins.^t

5 There exists something calamitous that I have seen under the sun, as when there is a mistake^a going forth on account of the one in power:^b 6 Foolishness* has been put in many high positions,^c but the rich ones themselves keep dwelling merely in a low condition.

7 I have seen servants on horses but princes walking on the earth just like servants.^d

8 He that is digging a pit will himself fall right into it;^e and he that is breaking through a stone wall, a serpent will bite him.^f

9 He that is quarrying out stones will hurt himself with them. He that is splitting logs will have to be careful with them.^g

10 If an iron tool has become blunt and someone has not whetted its edge,^h then he will exert his own vital energies. So the using of wisdom to success means advantage.ⁱ

11 If the serpent bites when no charming results,^j then there is no advantage to the one indulging in the tongue.

12 The words of the mouth of the wise one mean favor,^k but the lips of the stupid one swallow him up.^l 13 The start of the words of his mouth is foolishness,^m and the end afterward of his mouth is calamitous madness. 14 And the foolish one speaks many words.ⁿ

Man* does not know what will come to be; and that which will come to be after him, who can tell him?^o

15 The hard work of the stupid ones makes them weary,^p because not one has come to know how to go to the city.^q

16 How will it be with you, O land, when your king is a boy^r and your own princes keep eating even in the morning? 17 Happy are you, O land, when your king is the son of noble ones and your own princes eat at the proper time for mightiness, not for mere drinking.^s

2 Hear,ⁱ O heavens, and give ear, O earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken: "Sons I have brought up and raised,^j but they themselves have revolted^k against me."^l

3 A bull well knows its buyer, and the ass the manger of its owner;^m Israel itself has not known,ⁿ my own people have not behaved understandingly.^o

4 Woe to the sinful nation,^p the people heavy with error, an evildoing seed,^q ruinous sons!^r They have left Jehovah,^s they have treated the Holy One of Israel with disrespect,^t they have turned backwards.^u

5 Where else will YOU be struck still more,^v in that YOU add more revolt?^w The whole head is in a sick condition, and the whole heart is feeble.^x

6 From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no sound spot in it.^y Wounds and bruises and fresh stripes—they have not been squeezed out or bound up, nor has there been a softening with oil.^z
