FOREWORD

IT IS a very responsible thing to translate the Holy Scriptures from their original languages of Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek into modern speech. Translating the Holy Scriptures means rendering into another language the thoughts and sayings of Jehovah God, the heavenly Author of this sacred library of sixty-six books that holy men of long ago were inspired to write down for our benefit today.

That is a very sobering thought. The translators of this work, who fear and love the Divine Author of the Holy Scriptures, feel toward Him a special responsibility to transmit his thoughts and declarations as accurately as possible. They also feel a responsibility toward the searching readers who depend upon a translation of the inspired Word of the Most High God for their everlasting salvation.

It was with such a sense of solemn responsibility that over the course of many years this committee of dedicated men have produced the New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures. The entire work was originally released in six volumes, from 1950 to 1960. From the start it was the desire of the translators to have all these volumes brought together into one book, inasmuch as the Holy Scriptures are in actuality one book by the One Author. While the original volumes contained marginal references and footnotes, the revised one-volume edition, released in 1961, contained neither footnotes nor marginal references. A second revision was released in 1970 and a third revision with footnotes followed in 1971. In 1969 the committee released The Kingdom Interlinear Translation of the Greek Scriptures, which presented under the Greek text revised by Westcott and Hort (1948 Reprint) a literal word-for-word translation into English. During the past 34 years the New World Translation has been translated in part or in its entirety into ten other languages, with a total printing and distribution surpassing 39 million.

This new edition is not just a refinement of the translated text beyond its already previous revisions, but it offers a complete updating and revision of the footnote apparatus and marginal (cross) references that were initially presented in English, from 1950 to 1960.

For information as to the features of this revised edition and the service it can render to the users, we refer you to the Introduction. This 1984 revision has been released by us to the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society of Pennsylvania for printing, translation into other leading languages and distribution. We thus make it available with a deep sense of gratitude to the Divine Author of the Holy Scriptures, who has so privileged us and in whose spirit we have trusted in producing this revision. We pray for his blessing upon those who use this translation for spiritual advancement.

New World Bible Translation Committee.

INTRODUCTION

THE Holy Bible is a written revelation from the Sovereign Lord Jehovah to all people on this earth. This inspired book has global appeal, since it contains good news of a God-designed Messianic Kingdom that will establish peace and righteousness forever on a united Paradise earth. It shows that God lovingly provided a legal recovery from death for the world of fallen mankind by means of the ransom sacrifice of his Son Jesus Christ.—John 3:16.

Fittingly, the complete Bible has been referred to as the Divine Library (Lat., Bibliotheca Divina), made up of 66 officially cataloged (canonical) books that are accepted as the inspired guide for determining truth. While many divide the two major sections of the Bible into "The Old Testament" and "The New Testament," we designate the first 39 books as the Hebrew Scriptures and the remaining 27 books as the Christian Greek Scriptures, basing such a decision on language rather than on a claimed "Testament (Covenant)" division.—See "All Scripture Is Inspired of God and Beneficial," pages 298-304 and App (Appendix) 7E.

This 1984 revised edition of the New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures richly enhances accurate Bible knowledge by means of several distinctive features such as the marginal (cross) references, an extensive footnote apparatus, a concordance (Bible Words Indexed) and an appendix. Modern computerization has assisted greatly in preparing these features.

LANGUAGES OF THE DIVINE LIBRARY

The Bible was originally written in Hebrew, Aramaic (a language related to Hebrew) and common (koiné) Greek. Since relatively few people today understand these languages, it has become necessary to translate the Holy Bible into modern languages to present its life-giving message to people of all nations.

HEBREW TEXT: The Masoretic Hebrew text used for the preparation of the English text of the Hebrew Scripture portion of the New World Translation was the Codex Leningrad B 19^a (of U.S.S.R.), as presented in R. Kittel's Biblia Hebraica (BHK), seventh, eighth and ninth editions (1951-55). An update of this work known as Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia (BHS), 1977 edition, was used to prepare the footnote apparatus of this 1984 edition. Italicized words designated as "Heb." are transliterated from BHS.

Certain portions of the Hebrew Bible are actually in the Aramaic language but written in Hebrew characters. Transliterations from these portions are preceded by "Aram." Other Aramaic versions are indicated by their respective symbols.

GREEK TEXT: The basic Greek text used for the preparation of the English text of the Christian Greek Scripture portion of the New World Translation was The New Testament in the Original Greek, by Westcott and Hort (originally published in 1881). The Greek texts of Nestle, Bover, Merk and others were also considered. The Greek transliterations for the Christian Greek Scripture portion of the Bible, identified as "Gr.," are from the Westcott and Hort text as reproduced in The Kingdom Interlinear Translation of the Greek Scriptures (1969). In the Hebrew Scriptures "Gr." refers to transliterations from the Greek Septuagint (LXX), by A. Rahlfs, Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft, Stuttgart, 1935. Other Greek sources have been indicated by their respective symbols.

SYRIAC TEXT: "Syr." indicates words transliterated from the Syriac Peshitta (Sy), S. Lee, 1826 edition, reprinted by United Bible Societies, 1979. Other Syriac versions are indicated by their respective symbols.

LATIN TEXT: The edition of the Latin Vulgate (Vg) used was the Biblia Sacra, iuxta Vulgatam Versionem, Württembergische Bibelanstalt, Stuttgart, 1975. "Lat." designates words from this text. Other Latin versions have been indicated by their respective symbols.

THE TRANSLATION INTO ENGLISH

METHOD: Since the Bible sets forth the sacred will of the Sovereign Lord of the universe, it would be a great indignity, indeed an affront to his majesty and authority, to omit or hide his unique divine name, which plainly occurs in the Hebrew text nearly 7,000 times as יהוה (YHWH). Therefore, the foremost feature of this translation is the restoration of the divine name to its rightful place in the English text. It has been done, using the commonly accepted English form "Jehovah" 6,973 times in the Hebrew Scriptures and 237 times in the Christian Greek Scriptures. For a detailed study of this matter, see App 1A-1D.

In the New World Translation an effort was made to capture the authority, power, dynamism and directness of the original Hebrew and Greek Scriptures and to convey these characteristics in modern English.

This translation is presented in modern English, using current speech forms, and does not use archaic English even in the various prayers and addresses to God. Thus we have not used the now-sanctimonious formal pronouns thou, thy, thine, thee and ye, with their corresponding verb inflections.

Paraphrases of the Scriptures are not offered. Rather, an effort has been made to give as literal a translation as possible where the modern-English idiom allows and where a literal rendition does not, by any awkwardness, hide the thought. In that way the desire of those who are scrupulous for getting an almost word-for-word statement of the original is met. It is realized that even such a seemingly insignificant matter as the use or omission of a comma or of a definite or an indefinite article may at times alter the correct sense of the original passage.

Taking liberties with the texts for the mere sake of brevity, and substituting some modern parallel when a literal rendering of the original makes good sense, has been avoided. Uniformity of rendering has been maintained by assigning one meaning to each major word and by holding to that meaning as far as the context permits. At times this has imposed a restriction upon word choice, but it aids in cross-reference work and in comparing related texts.

Special care was taken in translating Hebrew and Greek verbs in order to capture the simplicity, warmth, character and forcefulness of the original expressions. An effort was made to preserve the flavor of the ancient Hebrew and Greek times, the people's way of thinking, reasoning and talking, their social dealings, etc. This has prevented any indulgence in translating as one may think the original speaker or writer should have said it. So, care has been taken not to modernize the verbal renderings to such an extent as to alter their ancient background beyond recognition. This means the reader will encounter many Hebrew and Greek idioms. In many cases the footnotes show the literalness of certain expressions.

The original Hebrew is terse, since its linguistic structure allows for briefness of expression. However, in rendering the sense and feel of the action and state of Hebrew verbs into English, it is not always possible to preserve the brevity due to a lack of corresponding color in English verb forms. Hence, auxiliary words that lengthen the expression are at times required to bring out the vividness, mental imagery and dramatic action of the verbs, as well as the point of view and the concept of time expressed by the Bible writers. In general the same is true of the Greek verbs. Thus, imperfect verbs have been kept in the imperfect state denoting progressive action. Participles have been rendered as participles involving continuous action. For a discussion of Hebrew verb translations, see App 3c.

Note that some original-language words have been carried over into English, for example, "Sheol," "Hades," "Gehenna," "Amen," "manna" and "Messiah."

TECHNICAL FEATURES: The chapter and verse numbering follows that of the King James Version, thus making easy comparison possible, but instead of each verse being made a separate paragraph, the verses are grouped into paragraphs for the proper development of the complete thought. Moreover, poetic sections of the Scriptures, such as the Psalms, are in poetic form. The alphabetic, or acrostic, sections are also indicated.—See Psalm 119.

A uniform system of modern punctuation is followed throughout. Mindful of the Hebrew background of the Christian Greek Scriptures, all proper names of persons and places mainly follow the Hebrew spelling rather than that of the Greek text, which imitates the Greek Septuagint Version (LXX) of the Hebrew Scriptures. Many proper names are syllabified and accented as an aid in English pronunciation, to approximate that of the original languages.

RUNNING HEADS: These appear at the top of most pages of the text of this translation. They present information to aid in quickly locating Bible accounts.

SECOND PERSON PLURALS: Where "you" is printed in small capital letters, it shows that the pronoun is plural. Also, where the plural number of a verb is not apparent, its plurality is indicated by printing it in small capital letters. If the context already clearly indicates plurality, then no special capitalization is used.

BRACKETS: Single brackets [] enclose words inserted to complete the sense in the English text. Double brackets [[]] suggest interpolations (insertions of foreign material) in the original text.—See Luke 23:19, 34.

FEATURES OF THIS NEW EDITION

CONCORDANCES: Located toward the back of this book is a concordance entitled "Bible Words Indexed." Selected words and their location in the text are listed, usually with a condensed excerpt showing the context. There is also a helpful section designed to aid in the use of the footnotes, entitled "Footnote Words Indexed."

APPENDIX: Appendix articles are arranged in categories set out in such a way that they can be used as an aid in explaining basic Bible doctrines and related matters. These appendix articles are designated by a number and a small capital letter

(for example, 1A, 1B, 2A, 2B, 2C). The numbers 1 through 9 indicate the categories of subject material, and the letters A, B, C, etc., indicate subtopics within those categories. Toward the close of the Appendix are charts on money, weights and measures, the calendar months of the Bible, as well as geographical information and maps of Bible places. This additional detailed information should aid many in becoming more thorough students of the Sacred Scriptures and in being better qualified to defend Scriptural truth.—1 Peter 3:15.

MARGINAL REFERENCES: There are more than 125,000 marginal (cross) references in this edition. These citations demonstrate that there is at least a second witness to almost every Biblical matter. A careful comparison of the marginal references and an examination of the accompanying footnotes will reveal the interlocking harmony of the 66 Bible books, proving that they comprise one book, inspired by God.

The center column contains the marginal (cross) references, using abbreviations of Bible books. The alphabetic markers in the text direct the reader to the respective cross-references. Where the column of references cannot contain all the citations presented, these then overflow into the bottom right-hand column of the page. New chapters are indicated in the list of references.

When a reference is followed by "ftn, LXX" it indicates a quotation from the Septuagint (LXX) and further information is found in the footnote to the verse cited. For example, Romans 9:17 cites Exodus 9:16 ftn, LXX.

References are given as to parallel thoughts, events and accounts; biographical information; geographical information; citations of the fulfillment of Bible prophecies within the Bible itself; direct quotations of phrases, expressions and entire verses from other parts of the Bible; and connections between Law covenant patterns and their fulfillment as related in the Christian Greek Scriptures. All of this leads to a wealth of Bible knowledge.

FOOTNOTES: Another prominent feature of this publication is its range of information in the footnotes. An effort has been made to supply important textual information in a simple way. The footnotes help one to see that the three original languages of the Bible, Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek, speak in agreement.

Additionally, where the English text varies from the original-language texts, the footnotes show the basis for the English translation by indicating the manuscripts and versions that support such variations. We have also offered alternative English renderings of the Hebrew and Greek texts, together with variant readings of other manuscripts and versions.

Although the text itself is generally literal, many footnotes contain further valuable literal renderings. These may present (1) basic language meanings, (2) word etymologies or (3) recognized lexicon definitions of the original word or phrase. For the Christian Greek Scriptures the additional literal renderings may be compared with the interlinear readings of The Kingdom Interlinear Translation of the Greek Scriptures.

We thus provide a critical apparatus for the translation rather than a commentary on the Scriptures. However, helpful information of a non-technical nature is also presented.

Light is shed on basic Bible subjects such as "soul," "Sheol," "ransom," "resurrection," "atonement," "God," "Christ," "Kingdom" and "Millennium." Variations in Hebrew, Greek and Latin renderings, including some differences in verse numbering, language variations, loanwords from non-Hebrew languages, and significant textual notes from the margins of manuscripts are presented.

Also included are valuable alternative renderings, literal information and reasons why some variant renderings were favored over the basic Hebrew or Greek texts. Information is provided regarding the meaning of names of Bible books, persons and places, as well as geographical data. Money, weights, measures and calendar dates are converted into modern terms.—See App 8A, 8B.

The footnote apparatus sets out full support for the restoration of the divine name. Due attention is given to titles and descriptive terms applying to Jehovah God. Footnote material is supplied to support the scientific accuracy of the Bible, including items that clear up so-called contradictions. Helpful information regarding important Bible chronology is found. Other items are given that help to clarify Biblical terms regarding moral conduct, sacred service, preaching activities and organization. Footnotes also help maintain the difference between 'the Lord Jehovah' and 'the Lord Jesus.'

Short items regarding things such as composition style, figures of speech, play on words, idioms, metaphors and euphemisms are presented in the footnotes to convey the flavor of the original Bible languages. Grammatical information regarding gender, number, case and verb forms refers to the original languages and not to the English translation.

Parentheses in the footnotes generally enclose words or expressions that are alternative to the word or phrase they follow. Bracketed words or phrases generally involve supplemental or explanatory information.

A footnote is indicated by one of a series of symbols following the footnoted word or phrase in the text. The footnote, which is found below the column of Bible text, is preceded by the verse number in bold type and the same symbol. Multiple footnotes on the same verse are distinguished by the following symbols: *, , Δ, □, +.

TRANSLITERATIONS: The footnotes also present a rich collection of enlightening transliterations of Hebrew, Aramaic, Greek and Syriac words. Transliterations are words of another language presented in English, with their individual characters converted into Roman letters. They approximate the actual pronunciation and are generally syllabified and accented. Latin words do not need transliteration and are thus simply syllabified. Also, since original-language manuscripts did not distinguish between capital and lower-case letters, the use of capitals in transliterations follows what is considered to be most helpful to the reader.

Many Hebrew words include prefixes and suffixes, which at times combine with a base word to make up a complete phrase in translation. Where this is the case, the main part of the transliterated Hebrew word is presented in boldfaced italic type and corresponds with the boldfaced portion of the footnoted English phrase to highlight the base word. In a few instances there is no translation required for the lightfaced portion of the transliteration. This system of lightfaced and boldfaced type also applies to the phrases of Greek, Syriac and Latin words. However, since this contrast applies mainly to the Hebrew language, at times only the word or words under study are shown in the other languages. Examples:

Genesis 23:8*: Lit., "with your soul," used collectively. Heb., 'eth-naph-shekhem'; Gr., psy-khet'.

Mark 10:30*: Or, "order of things." Gr., ai-o'-ni; J^{17,18}(Heb.), u-va-'oh-lam', "and in the order of things."

Transliterations with no contrast correspond to the footnoted word or phrase. Further, transliterations indicate the words quoted but not those omitted by an ellipsis. For further information on prefixes and suffixes, see App 3B.

TEXTUAL SYMBOLS: Throughout our footnotes, when giving textual information, it has been necessary to refer to several early manuscripts and papyri, codices, printed editions, and recent authoritative publications. Following is a chart of the major symbols that are referenced in the footnotes of this publication.

CONCLUSION

The wealth of cross-references and technical information in this 1984 revised edition of the New World Translation helps one to see how the 66 books of the Bible form one interrelated, inspired whole, producing the fabric of the "pure language" of truth. (Zephaniah 3:9) By means of this in-depth study, new vistas of Bible understanding can be opened up for those who truly are "trembling" at

Jehovah's Holy Word. (Isaiah 66:2, 5) It is our desire that by the full use of the several features of this edition of the Holy Scriptures, each reader will be helped to gain an accurate knowledge of truth and will appreciate more fully that "the word of God is alive and exerts power." (Hebrews 4:12) Truly, happy are those who continually feast at Jehovah's rich spiritual table by means of his living Word, the Bible.—Matthew 5:3.

GENESIS

2 Now the earth proved to be formless and waste and there was darkness upon the surface of [the] watery deep;^{*e} and God's active force^e was moving to and fro^f over the surface of the waters.^g

3 And God proceeded to say:^{*h} "Let light come to be." Then there came to be light.ⁱ 4 After that God saw that the light was good, and God brought about a division between the light and the darkness.^j 5 And God began calling the light Day,^k but the darkness he called Night.^l And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, a first day.

6 And God went on to say: "Let an expanse^m come to be in between the waters and let a dividing occur between the waters and the waters."ⁿ 7 Then God proceeded to make the expanse and to make a division between the waters that should be beneath the expanse and the waters that should be above the expanse.^o And it came to be so. 8 And God began to call the expanse Heaven.^p

Ge 1:1* "In the beginning." Heb., Bere'shith. This first book of the Bible is named in Heb. after this opening word. LXXVg name the book "Genesis." 1 "God." Heb., אֱלֹהִים ('Elo-him'), without the definite article. 'Elo-him', "God," with the definite article is first found in 5:22. The title 'Elo-him' is pl. to denote excellence or majesty and not a multiple personality or a number of gods. Gr., ὁ θεός (ho The-os), sing. to denote an individual "God." Compare Jg 16:23 ftn. 2 Or, "surging waters; primeval ocean." Heb., thehothm; Gr., a-bys'sou, "abyss"; Lat., a-bys'si. See 7:11 ftn, "Deep." Compare 6:17 ftn, "Deluge." 2 "And . . . active force (spirit)." Heb., weru'ach. Besides being translated "spirit," ru'ach is also translated "wind" and by other words that denote an invisible active force. See 3:8 ftn, "Breezy part"; 8:1 ftn. 3 "And . . . proceeded to say." Heb., wai-yo'mer. The first of more than 40 cases in Genesis chapter 1 of progressive action indicated by a Heb. verb in the imperfect state. See App 3c.

And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, a second day.

9 And God went on to say: "Let the waters under the heavens be brought together into one place and let the dry land appear."^a And it came to be so. 10 And God began calling the dry land Earth,^b but the bringing together of the waters he called Seas.^c Further, God saw that [it was] good.^d 11 And God went on to say: "Let the earth cause grass to shoot forth, vegetation bearing seed,^e fruit trees yielding fruit according to their kinds,^{*f} the seed of which is in it,^g upon the earth." And it came to be so. 12 And the earth began to put forth grass, vegetation bearing seed according to its kind^h and trees yielding fruit, the seed of which is in it according to its kind.ⁱ Then God saw that [it was] good. 13 And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, a third day.

14 And God went on to say: "Let luminaries come to be in the expanse of the heavens to make a division between the day and the night;^j and they must serve as signs and for seasons and for days and years.^k 15 And they must serve as luminaries in the expanse of the heavens to shine upon the earth."^l And it came to be so. 16 And God proceeded to make^{*m} the two great luminaries, the greater luminary for dominating the day and the lesser luminary for dominating the night, and also the stars.ⁿ 17 Thus God put them in the expanse of the heavens to shine upon the earth,ⁿ 18 and to dominate by day

20 And God went on to say: "Let the waters swarm forth a swarm of living souls^c and let flying creatures fly over the earth upon the face of the expanse of the heavens."^d 21 And God proceeded to create^e the great sea monsters^f and every living soul^g that moves about,^h which the waters swarmed forth according to their kinds, and every winged flying creature according to its kind.ⁱ And God got to see that [it was] good. 22 With that God blessed them, saying: "Be fruitful and become many and fill the waters in the sea basins,^j and let the flying creatures become many in the earth." 23 And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, a fifth day.

24 And God went on to say: "Let the earth^k put forth living souls according to their kinds, domestic^l animal^m and movingⁿ animal and wild beast^o of the earth according to its kind." This expression, without the definite Heb. article ha before 'Elo-him', is used 20 times in Ge 1-3. The first occurrence of the expression Yehwah' ha-'Elo-him' is in 1Ch 22:1, where it is rendered "Jehovah the [true] God." See App 1A. 6* Or, "But a vapor." living soul.^a 8 Further, Jehovah God planted a garden in E'den,^{#b} toward the east,^Δ and there he put the man whom he had formed.^c 9 Thus Jehovah God made to grow out of the ground every tree desirable to one's sight and good for food and also the tree of life^d in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and bad.^e

10 Now there was a river issuing* out of E'den to water the garden, and from there it began to be parted and it became, as it were, four heads. 11 The first one's name is Pi'shon; it is the one encircling the entire land of Hav'ilah,^f where there is gold. 12 And the gold of that land is good.^g There also are the bdellium gum^h and the onyx stone.ⁱ 13 And the name of the second river is Gi'hon; it is the one encircling the entire land of Cush.* 14 And the name of the third river is Hid'de-kei,^{*j} it is the one going to the east of As-syr'i-a.^{#k} And the fourth river is the Eu-phra'tes.^{Δl}

15 And Jehovah God proceeded to take the man and settle him in the garden of E'den^m to cultivate it and to take care of it.ⁿ 16 And Jehovah God also laid this command upon the man: "From every tree of the garden you may eat to satisfaction.^o 17 But as for the tree of the knowledge of good and bad you must not eat from it, for

18 And Jehovah* God went on to say: “It is not good for the man to continue by himself. I am going to make a helper for him, as a complement[#] of him.”^b 19 Now Jehovah God was forming* from the ground every wild beast of the field and every flying creature of the heavens, and he began bringing them to the man to see what he would call each one; and whatever the man would call it, each living soul,^c that was its name.^d 20 So the man was calling the names of all the domestic animals and of the flying creatures of the heavens and of every wild beast of the field, but for man there was found no helper* as a complement of him. 21 Hence Jehovah God had a deep sleep* fall upon the man and, while he was sleeping, he took one of his ribs and then closed up the flesh over its place. 22 And Jehovah* God proceeded to build the rib that he had taken from the man into a woman and to bring her to the man.^f

3 Now the serpent^a proved to be the most cautious^b of all the wild beasts of the field that Jehovah God had made.^c So it began to say to the woman:^d “Is it really so that God said YOU must not eat from every tree of the garden?”^e 2 At this the woman said to the serpent: “Of the fruit of the trees* of the garden we may eat.^f 3 But as for [eating] of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden,^g God has said, ‘YOU must not eat from it, no, YOU must not touch it that YOU do not die.’”^h 4 At this the serpent said to the woman: “YOU positively will not die.ⁱ 5 For God knows that in the very day of YOUR eating from it YOUR eyes are bound to be opened and YOU are bound to be like God,* KNOWING good and bad.”^j

6 Consequently the woman saw that the tree was good for food and that it was something to be longed for to the eyes, yes, the tree was desirable to look upon.^k So she began taking of its fruit and eating it. Afterward she gave some also to her husband* when with her and he began eating it.^l 7 Then the eyes of both of them became opened and they began to realize that they were naked.^m Hence they sewed fig leaves together and made loin coverings for themselves.ⁿ

8 Later they heard the voice* of Jehovah God walking in the garden about the breezy part* of the day,^o and the man^a and his wife went into hiding from the face of Jehovah God in between the trees of the garden.^p 9 And Jehovah God kept calling to the man and saying to him: “Where are you?”^q 10 Finally he said: “Your voice I heard in the

20 After this Adam called his wife’s name Eve,^c because she had to become the mother of everyone living.^d

21 And Jehovah God proceeded to make long garments of skin for Adam and for his wife and to clothe them.^e 22 And Jehovah God went on to say: “Here the man has become like one of us in knowing good and bad,^f and now in order that he may not put his hand out and actually take [fruit] also from the tree of life^g and eat and live to time indefinite,—” 23 With that Jehovah God* put him out of the garden of E’den^h to cultivate the ground from which he had been taken.ⁱ 24 And so he drove the man out and posted* at the east of the garden of E’den^j the cherubs^k and the flaming blade of a sword that was turning itself continually to guard the way to the tree of life.

4 Now Adam had intercourse with Eve his wife and she became pregnant.^l In time she gave birth to Cain*^m and said: “I have produced* a man with the aid of Jehovah.”ⁿ 2 Later she again gave birth, to his brother Abel.^o

And Abel came to be a herder of sheep,^p but Cain became a cultivator of the ground.^q 3 And it came about at the expiration of some time* that Cain proceeded to bring some fruits of the ground^r as an offering to Jehovah.^s 4 But as for Abel, he too brought some firstlings^t of his flock, even their fatty pieces.^u Now while Jehovah was looking with favor upon Abel and his offering,^v 5 he did not look with any favor upon Cain and upon his offering.^w And Cain grew hot with great anger,^x and his countenance began to fall. 6 At this

8 After that Cain said to Abel his brother: ["Let us go over into the field.']* So it came about that while they were in the field Cain proceeded to assault Abel his brother and kill him.^d

9 Later on Jehovah said to Cain: "Where is Abel your brother?"^e and he said: "I do not know. Am I my brother's guardian?"^f 10 At this he said: "What have you done? Listen!* Your brother's blood^g is crying out to me from the ground.^g

13 At this Cain said to Jehovah: "My punishment for error is too great to carry. 14 Here you are actually driving me this day from off the surface of the ground, and from your face I shall be concealed;^l and I must become a wanderer^m and fugitive on the earth, and it is certain that anyone finding me will kill me."ⁿ 15 At this Jehovah said to him: "For that reason* anyone killing Cain must suffer vengeance seven times."^o

And so Jehovah set up a sign for Cain in order that no one finding him should strike him.^p 16 With that Cain went away from the face of Jehovah^q and took up residence in the land of Fugitiveness* to the east of E'den.

17 Afterward Cain had intercourse proceeded to call his name Noah,^a saying: "This one will bring us comfort from our work and from the pain of our hands resulting from the ground which Jehovah has cursed."^b 30 And after his fathering Noah La'mech continued to live five hundred and ninety-five years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters. 31 So all the days of La'mech amounted to seven hundred and seventy-seven years and he died.

32 And Noah got to be five hundred years old. After that Noah became father to Shem,^c Ham^d and Ja'pheth.^e

6 Now it came about that when men started to grow in numbers on the surface of the ground and daughters were born to them,^f 2 then the sons* of the [true] God^g began to notice^h the daughters of men, that they were good-looking; and they went taking wives for themselves, namely, all whom they chose. 3 After that Jehovah said: "My spiritⁱ shall not act toward man indefinitely^j in that he* is also flesh.^k Accordingly his days shall amount to a hundred and twenty years."^l

4 The Neph'ilim* proved to be in the earth in those days, and also after that, when the sons of the [true] God continued to have relations with the daughters of men and they bore sons to them, they were the mighty ones^m who were of old, the men of fame.ⁿ

5 Consequently Jehovah saw that the badness of man was abundant in the earth and every inclination^o of the thoughts of his heart was only bad all the time.^p 6 And Jehovah felt regrets^q that he had made men in the earth, and he felt hurt at his heart.^r

7 So Jehovah said: "I am going to wipe men whom I have created^s off the surface of the ground, from man to domestic animal, to moving animal and to flying creature of the heavens,^t because

8 But Noah found favor in the eyes of Jehovah.

9 This is the history of Noah.

Noah was a righteous man.^b He proved himself faultless among his contemporaries.* Noah walked with the [true] God.^c 10 In time Noah became father to three sons, Shem, Ham and Ja'pheth.^d 11 And the earth came to be ruined in the sight of the [true] God^e and the earth became filled with violence.^f 12 So God saw the earth and, look! it was ruined,^g because all flesh had ruined its way on the earth.^h

13 After that God said to Noah: "The end of all flesh has come before me,ⁱ because the earth is full of violence as a result of them; and here I am bringing them to ruin together with the earth.^j

14 Make for yourself an ark* out of wood of a resinous tree.^k You will make compartments^l in the ark, and you must cover it inside and outside with tar.^l

15 And this is how you will make it: three hundred cubits*^m the length of the ark, fifty cubits its width, and thirty cubits its height. 16 You will make a tso'har [roof; or, window]* for the ark, and you will complete it to the extent of a cubit upward,ⁿ and the entrance of the ark you will put in its side;ⁿ you will make it with a lower [story], a second [story] and a third [story].

17 "And as for me, here I am bringing the deluge*^o of waters upon the earth to bring to ruin all flesh in which the force of life^p is active^q from under the heavens. Everything that is in the earth will expire.^q 18 And I do establish my covenant with you; and you must go into the ark, you and your sons and your wife and your sons' wives with you.^a 19 And of every living creature of every sort of flesh,^b two of each, you will bring into the ark to preserve them alive with you.^c Male and female they will be. 20 Of the flying creatures according to their kinds and of the domestic animals according to their kinds,^d of all moving animals of the ground according to their kinds,* two of each will go in there to you to preserve them alive.^e 21 And as for you, take for yourself every sort of food that is eaten;^f and you must gather it to yourself, and it must serve as food for you and for them.”^g

22 And Noah proceeded to do according to all that God had commanded him. He did just so.^h

7 After that Jehovah said to Noah: “Go, you and all your household,ⁱ into the ark, because you are the one I have seen to be righteous before me among this generation.^j 2 Of every clean beast you must take to yourself by sevens,* the sire and its mate;^k and of every beast that is not clean just two, the sire and its mate; 3 also of the flying creatures of the heavens by sevens, male and female,^l to preserve offspring* alive on the surface of the entire earth.^m 4 For in just seven days more I am making it rainⁿ upon the earth forty days and forty nights;^o and I will wipe every existing thing that I have made off the surface of the ground.”^p 5 And Noah proceeded to do according to all that Jehovah had commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the deluge* of waters occurred on the earth.^q 7 So Noah went in, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him, into the ark ahead of the waters of the deluge.^r 8 Of every clean beast and of every beast that is not clean and of the flying creatures and everything that moves on the ground,^a 9 they went in by twos to Noah inside the ark, male and female, just as God* had commanded Noah. 10 And seven days later it turned out that the waters of the deluge* came upon the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month,* on the seventeenth day of the month, on this day all the springs of the vast watery deep* were broken open and the floodgates^a of the heavens were opened.^b 12 And the downpour upon the earth went on for forty days and forty nights.^c 13 On this very day Noah went in, and Shem and Ham and Ja'pheth, Noah's sons,^d and the wife of Noah and the three wives of his sons with him, into the ark;^e 14 they and every wild beast according to its kind,^f and every domestic animal according to its kind, and every moving animal that moves on the earth according to its kind,^g and every flying creature according to its kind,^h every bird, every winged creature.ⁱ 15 And they kept going to Noah inside the ark, two by two, of every sort of flesh in which the force of life was active.*^j 16 And those going in, male and female of every sort of flesh, went in, just as God had commanded him. After that Jehovah shut the door behind him.^k

17 And the deluge* went on for forty days upon the earth, and the waters kept increasing and began carrying the ark and it was floating high above the earth.

Ge 7:9* “God,” MLXXSy; SamT^JOVg^{mss}, “Jehovah.” This is an instance where mss of Vg lend support to the use of the divine name. See BHK and BHS ftns on Ge 7:9; App 1A, 1D. 10 See vs 6 ftn. 11 “Second month.” Following the Exodus from Egypt, when Jehovah gave the Israelites the sacred calendar, this became the eighth month, known as Bul, corresponding to the latter half of October and first half of November. See App 8B. 11 “Watery deep.” Or, “surging waters; water canopy.” Heb., tehoim; LXX, “the abyss”; Vg, “the great abyss.” See 1:2 ftn, “Deep.” According to 1:7 these must have been “the waters that should be above the expanse.” Compare 6:17 ftn, “Deluge.” 11 Lit., “the windows.” LXX, “the cataracts.” 15 See 6:17 ftn, “Active.” 17 Or, “heavenly ocean.” See 6:17 ftn, “Deluge.”

18 And the waters became overwhelming and kept increasing greatly upon the earth, but the ark kept going on the surface of the waters.^a 19 And the waters overwhelmed the earth so greatly that all the tall mountains that were under the whole heavens came to be covered.^b 20 Up to fifteen cubits the waters overwhelmed them and the mountains became covered.^c

21 So all flesh that was moving upon the earth expired,^d among the flying creatures and among the domestic animals and among the wild beasts and among all the swarms that were swarming upon the earth, and all mankind.^e

22 Everything in which the breath of the force of life was active* in its nostrils, namely, all that were on the dry ground, died.^f 23 Thus he wiped out every existing thing that was on the surface of the ground, from man to beast, to moving animal and to flying creature of the heavens, and they were wiped off the earth;^g and only Noah and those who were with him in the ark kept on surviving.^h 24 And the waters continued overwhelming the earth a hundred and fifty days.

8 After that God rememberedⁱ Noah and every wild beast and every domestic animal that was with him in the ark,^j and God caused a wind* to pass over the earth, and the waters began to subside.^k 2 And the springs of the watery deep*^l and the floodgates*^m of the heavens became stopped up, and so the downpour from the heavens was restrained. 3 And the waters began receding from off the earth, progressively receding;* and at the end of a hundred and fifty days the waters were lacking.ⁿ 4 And in the seventh month,* on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark^a came to rest on the mountains of Ar'a-rat.^b 5 And the waters kept on progressively lessening* until the tenth month.* In the tenth month, on the first of the month, the tops of the mountains appeared.^c

6 So it occurred that at the end of forty days Noah proceeded to open the window^d of the ark that he had made.

7 After that he sent out a raven,^e and it continued flying outdoors,* going and returning, until the waters dried off the earth.

8 Later he sent out from him a dove^f to see whether the waters had abated from the surface of the ground. 9 And the dove did not find any resting-place for the sole of its foot, and so it returned to him into the ark because the waters were yet upon the surface of the whole earth.^g At that he put his hand out and took it and brought it to himself inside the ark. 10 And he went on waiting still another seven days, and once again he sent out the dove from the ark. 11 Later on the dove came to him about the time of evening and, look! there was an olive leaf^h freshly plucked in its bill, and so Noah got to know that the waters had abated from the earth.ⁱ 12 And he went on waiting still another seven days. Then he sent out the dove, but it did not come back again to him anymore.^j

13 Now in the six hundred and first year,^k in the first month,* on the first day of the month, it came about that the waters had drained from off the earth; and Noah proceeded to remove the covering of the ark and to look, and here the surface of the ground had drained dry.^l 14 And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth had dried off.^a

15 God now spoke to Noah, saying: 16 "Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you.^b 17 Every living creature that is with you of every sort of flesh,^c among the flying creatures^d and among the beasts^e and among all the moving animals that move upon the earth,^f bring out with you, as they must swarm in the earth and be fruitful and become many upon the earth."^g

18 At that Noah went out, and also his sons^h and his wife and his sons' wives with him. 19 Every living creature, every moving animal and every flying creature, everything that moves on the earth, according to their families they went out of the ark.ⁱ 20 And Noah began to build an altar^j to Jehovah and to take some of all the clean beasts^k and of all the clean flying creatures^l and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar.^m 21 And Jehovah began to smell a restfulⁿ odor,ⁿ and so Jehovah said in his heart:^o "Never again shall I call down evil upon the ground^p on man's account, because the inclination^q of the heart of man is bad from his youth up;^r and never again shall I deal every living thing a blow just as I have done.^s 22 For all the days the earth continues,^t seed sowing and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night, will never cease."^u

9 And God went on to bless Noah and his sons and to say to them: "Be fruitful and become many and fill the earth."^v 2 And a fear of you and a terror of you will continue upon every living creature of the earth and upon every flying creature of the heavens, upon everything that goes moving on the ground, and upon all the fishes of the sea. 8 And God went on to say to Noah and to his sons with him: 9 "And as for me, here I am establishing my covenant^k with you men and with your offspring^l after you,^m 10 and with every living soul that is with you, among fowls, among beasts and among all living creatures of the earth with you, from all those going out of the ark to every living creature of the earth.ⁿ 11 Yes, I do establish my covenant with you: No more will all flesh be cut off by waters of a deluge, and no more will there occur a deluge to bring the earth to ruin."^o

20 Now Noah started off as a farmer*^g and proceeded to plant a vineyard.^h

21 And he began drinking of the wine and became intoxicated,ⁱ and so he uncovered himself in the midst of his tent.

22 Later Ham^j the father of Ca’naan saw his father’s nakedness^k and went telling it to his two brothers outside.^l

23 At that Shem and Ja’pheth took a* mantle^m and put it upon both their shoulders and walked in backwards. Thus they covered their father’s nakedness, while their faces were turned away,ⁿ and they did not see their father’s nakedness.ⁿ

hundred and fifty years after the deluge.^a 29 So all the days of Noah amounted to nine hundred and fifty years and he died.^b

10 And this is the history of Noah’s sons,^c Shem, Ham and Ja’pheth.

Now sons began to be born to them after the deluge.^d 2 The sons of Ja’pheth were Go’mer^e and Ma’gog^f and Ma’da-i^g and Ja’van^h and Tu’balⁱ and Me’shech^j and Ti’ras.^k

3 And the sons of Go’mer were Ash’ke-naz^l and Ri’phath^m and To-gar’mah.ⁿ

4 And the sons of Ja’van were E-li-shah^o and Tar’shish,^p Kit’tim^q and Do’da-nim.^r

5 From these the population of the isles* of the nations was spread about in their lands, each according to its tongue, according to their families, by their nations.

6 And the sons of Ham were Cush^s and Miz’ra-im^t and Put^u and Ca’naan.^v

7 And the sons of Cush were Se’ba^w and Hav’ilah and Sab’tah and Ra’a-mah^x and Sab’ta-ca.

And the sons of Ra’a-mah were She’ba and De’dan.^y

8 And Cush became father to Nim’rod.^z He made the start in becoming a mighty one* in the earth. 9 He displayed himself a mighty hunter* in opposition to^a Jehovah. That is why there is a saying: “Just like Nim’rod a mighty hunter in opposition to Jehovah.”^a 10 And the beginning of his kingdom came to be Ba’bel*^b and E’rech^c and Ac’cad and Cal’neh, in the land of Shi’nar.^d 11 Out of that land he went forth into As-syr’i-a^e and set himself to building Nin’e-veh^f and Re-

This word occurs first in 6:4, next in this vs, then twice in vs 9. 9* Lit., “mighty one in hunting.” 9* Lit., “in front of,” but in the sense of defiance of and opposition to, as in the case of the same expression in Nu 16:2; Jos 7:12, 13; 1Ch 14:8; 2Ch 14:10; Job 23:4. ho'both-Ir and Ca'lah 12 and Re'sen between Nin'e-veh and Ca'lah: this is the great city.

13 And Miz'ra-im^a became father to Lu'dim^b and An'amim and Le-ha'-bim and Naph-tu'him^c 14 and Path-ru'sim^d and Cas-lu'him^e (from among whom the Philis'tines^f went forth) and Caph'to-rim.^g

15 And Ca'naan became father to Si'don^h his firstborn and Hethⁱ 16 and the Jeb'u-site^j and the Am'or-ite^k and the Gir'ga-shite 17 and the Hi'vite^l and the Ark'ite and the Si'nite 18 and the Ar'vad-ite^m and the Zem'-a-rite and the Ha'math-ite;ⁿ and afterward the families of the Ca'naan-ite were scattered. 19 So the boundary of the Ca'naan-ite came to be from Si'don as far as Ge'rar,^o near Ga'za,^p as far as Sod'om and Go-mor'rah^q and Ad'mah^r and Ze-boi'im,^s near La'sha.* 20 These were the sons of Ham according to their families, according to their tongues, in their lands, by their nations.

21 And to Shem, the forefather of all the sons of E'ber,^t the brother of Ja'pheth the oldest, there was also progeny born. 22 The sons of Shem were E'lam^u and As'shur^v and Ar-pach'shad^w and Lud and A'ram.

23 And the sons of A'ram were Uz and Hul and Ge'ther and Mash.*

24 And Ar-pach'shad became father to She'lah,^y and She'lah became father to E'ber.

25 And to E'ber there were two sons born. The name of the one was Pe'leg,^z because in his days the earth^a was divided;^a and the name of his brother was Jok'tan.^b

26 And Jok'tan became father to Al-mo'dad and She'leph and Ha-zar-ma'veth and Je'rah^c 27 and Ha-do'-ram and U'zal and Dik'lah^d 28 and O'bal and A-bim'a-el and She'ba^e 29 and O'phir^f and Hav'i-lah^g and Jo'bab;^a all these were the sons of Jok'tan.

30 And their place of dwelling came to extend from Me'sha as far as Se'phar, the mountainous region of the East.

31 These were the sons of Shem according to their families, according to their tongues, in their lands, according to their nations.^b

32 These were the families of the sons of Noah according to their family descents, by their nations, and from these the nations were spread about in the earth after the deluge.^c

11 Now all the earth continued to be of one language* and of one set of words.^a 2 And it came about that in their journeying eastward they eventually discovered a valley plain in the land of Shi'nar,^d and they took up dwelling there. 3 And they began to say, each one to the other: "Come on! Let us make bricks and bake them with a burning process." So brick served as stone for them, but bitumen served as mortar for them.^e 4 They now said: "Come on! Let us build ourselves a city and also a tower* with its top in the heavens,^f and let us make a celebrated name* for ourselves,^g for fear we may be scattered over all the surface of the earth."^h

5 And Jehovah proceeded to go down to see the city and the tower that the sons of men had built.ⁱ 6 After that Jehovah said: "Look! They are one people and there is one language for them all,^j and this is what they start to do. Why, now there is nothing that they may have in mind to do that will be unattainable for them.^k 7 Come now! Let us^l go down and there confuse^m their language that they may not listen to* one another's language."ⁿ 8 Accordingly Jehovah scattered them from there over all the surface of the earth,^o and they gradually left off building the city.^p 9 That is why its name was called Ba'bel,*^a because there Jehovah had confused the language of all the earth,[#] and Jehovah had scattered^b them from there over all the surface of the earth.

10 This is the history of Shem.^c

Shem was a hundred years old when he became father to Arpach'shad^d two years after the deluge. 11 And after his fathering Arpach'shad Shem continued to live five hundred years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.^e

12 And Arpach'shad* lived thirty-five years. Then he became father to She'lah.^f 13 And after his fathering She'lah Arpach'shad continued to live four hundred and three years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.

14 And She'lah lived thirty years. Then he became father to E'ber.^g 15 And after his fathering E'ber She'lah continued to live four hundred and three years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.

16 And E'ber lived on for thirty-four years. Then he became father to Pe'leg.^h

17 And after his fathering Pe'leg E'ber continued to live four hundred and thirty years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.

Ge 11:9* "Babel." Heb., Ba-vel'. Moses derived "Babel" from the root verb ba'al', "to confuse; to confound," so giving "Babel" the meaning "Confusion." SyVg, "Babel"; Gr., Syg'khy-sis, "Confusion." In Akkadian, Bab-ilu. Local citizens claimed that Bab meant "Gate" and ilu meant "God" ('El in Heb.), thus "Gate of God." 9* Or, "earth's population." 12* LXX vss 12 and 13 read: (12) "And Arpachshad lived a hundred and thirty-five years and became father to Cainan. (13) And after his producing Cainan Arpachshad lived four hundred and thirty years and became father to sons and daughters, and he died. And Cainan lived a hundred and thirty years and became father to Shelah. And after his producing Shelah Cainan lived three hundred and thirty years and became father to sons and daughters, and he died." This source inserts the name Cainan between the names Shelah and Arpachshad. Compare Lu 3:36.

years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.

20 And Re'u lived on for thirty-two years. Then he became father to Se'rug.^a 21 And after his fathering Se'rug Re'u continued to live two hundred and seven years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.

22 And Se'rug lived on for thirty years. Then he became father to Na'hör.^b 23 And after his fathering Na'hör Se'rug continued to live two hundred years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.

24 And Na'hör lived on for twenty-nine years. Then he became father to Te'rah.^c 25 And after his fathering Te'rah Na'hör continued to live a hundred and nineteen years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters.

26 And Te'rah lived on for seventy years, after which he became father to A'bram,^d Na'hör^e and Ha'ran.

27 And this is the history of Te'rah.

Te'rah became father to A'bram, Na'hör and Ha'ran; and Ha'ran became father to Lot.^f 28 Later Ha'ran died while in company with Te'rah* his father in the land of his birth, in Ur^g of the Chal-de'ans.^{#h} 29 And A'bram and Na'hör proceeded to take wives for themselves. The name of A'bram's wife was Sar'ai,ⁱ while the name of Na'hör's wife was Mil'cah,^j the daughter of Ha'ran, the father of Mil'cah and father of Is'cah. 30 But Sar'ai continued to be barren;^k she had no child.

31 After that Te'rah took A'bram his son and Lot, the son of Ha'ran, his grandson,^l and Sar'ai^m his daughter-in-law, the wife of A'bram his son, and they went with him* out of Ur of the Chal-de'ans to go to the land of Ca'naan.ⁿ In time they came to Ha'ran^o and took up dwelling there. 32 And the days of Te'rah came to be two hundred and five years. Then Te'rah died in Ha'ran.

Ge 11:28* Or, "while Terah still lived." Lit., "before the face of Terah." 28* Or, "Ur of Chaldea." 31* Lit., "they went out with them." M; Sy, "he went out with them"; Sam-LXXVg, "he led them out."

12 And Jehovah proceeded to say to A'bram: "Go your way out of your country and from your relatives* and from the house of your father to the country that I shall show you;^a 2 and I shall make a great nation out of you and I shall bless you and I will make your name great; and prove yourself a blessing.^b 3 And I will bless those who bless you, and him that calls down evil upon you I shall curse,^c and all the families of the ground will certainly bless themselves* by means of you."^d

4 At that A'bram went just as Jehovah had spoken to him, and Lot went with him. And A'bram was seventy-five years old when he went out from Ha'ran.^e 5 So A'bram took Sar'ai his wife^f and Lot the son of his brother^g and all the goods that they had accumulated^h and the souls whom they had acquired in Ha'ran, and they got on their way out to go to the land of Ca'naan.ⁱ Finally they came to the land of Ca'naan. 6 And A'bram went on through the land as far as the site of She'chem,^j near the big trees of Mo'reh;^k and at that time the Ca'naan-ite was in the land. 7 Jehovah now appeared to A'bram and said: "To your seed^l I am going to give this land."^m After that he built an altar there to Jehovah, who had appeared to him. 8 Later he moved from there to the mountainous region to the east of Beth'elⁿ and pitched his tent with Beth'el on the west and A'i^o on the east. Then he built an altar there to Jehovah^p and began to call on the name* of Jehovah.^q 9 Afterward A'bram broke camp, going then from encampment to encampment toward the Neg'eb.^r

10 Now a famine arose in the land and A'bram made his way down toward Egypt to reside there as an alien,^s because the famine was severe in the land.^t 11 And it came about that as soon as he got near to entering Egypt, then he said to Sar'ai his wife: "Please, now! I well know you are a woman beautiful in appearance.^a 12 So it is bound to happen that the Egyptians will see you and will say, 'This is his wife.' And they will certainly kill me, but you they will preserve alive. 13 Please say you are my sister,^b in order that it may go well with me on your account, and my soul will be certain to live due to you."^c

14 So it happened that, as soon as A'bram entered Egypt, the Egyptians got to see the woman, that she was very beautiful. 15 And the princes of Phar'aoh* also got to see her and they began praising her to Phar'aoh, so that the woman was taken to the house of Phar'aoh. 16 And he treated A'bram well on her account, and he came to have sheep and cattle and asses and menservants and maidservants and she-asses and camels.^d 17 Then Jehovah touched Phar'aoh and his household with great plagues^e because of Sar'ai, A'bram's wife.^f 18 With that Phar'aoh called A'bram and said: "What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?^g 19 Why did you say, 'She is my sister,'^h so that I was about to take her as my wife? And now here is your wife. Take her and go!" 20 And Phar'aoh issued commands to men concerning him, and they went escorting him and his wife and all that he had.ⁱ

13 Following that A'bram went up out of Egypt, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot with him, to the Neg'eb.^j 2 And A'bram was heavily stocked with herds and silver and gold.^k 3 And he made his way from encampment to encampment out of the Neg'eb and to Beth'el, to the place where his tent had been at first between Beth'el and A'i,^l 4 to the place of the altar that he had made there originally;^m and A'bram proceeded to call there on* the name of Jehovah.ⁿ

Please, separate from me. If you go to the left, then I will go to the right; but if you go to the right, then I will go to the left."^e 10 So Lot raised his eyes and saw the whole District* of the Jordan,^f that all of it was a well-watered region before Jehovah brought Sod'om and Go-mor'-rah to ruin, like the garden^g of Jehovah,^h like the land of Egypt as far as Zo'ar.^{Δh} 11 Then Lot chose for himself the whole District of the Jordan, and Lot moved his camp to the east. So they separated the one from the other. 12 A'bram dwelt in the land of Ca'naan, but Lot dwelt among the cities of the District.ⁱ Finally he pitched tent near Sod'om. 13 And the men of Sod'om were bad and were gross sinners against Jehovah.^j

14 And Jehovah said to A'bram after Lot had separated from him: "Raise your eyes, please, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward* and eastward and westward,^k 15 because all the land at which you are looking, to you and to your seed I am going to give it until time indefinite.^l 16 And I will constitute your seed like the dust particles of the earth, so that, if a man could be able to count the dust particles of the earth, then your seed could be numbered.^m 17 Get up, go about in the land through its length

14 Now it came about in the days of* Am'ra-pher king^g of Shi'nar,^e Ar'i-och king of El-la-sar, Ched-or-la-o'-mer^f king of E'lam,^h and Ti'dal king of Goi'im,^{Δh} 2 that these made war with Be'ra king of Sod'om,ⁱ and with Bir'sha king of Go-mor'rah,^j Shi'nab king of Ad'mah,^k and Sheme'e-ber king of Ze-boi'im,^l and the king of Be'la (that is to say, Zo'ar).^m 3 All these marched as alliesⁿ to the Low Plain of Sid'dim,^o that is, the Salt Sea.^p

4 Twelve years they had served Ched-or-la-o'-mer, but the thirteenth year they rebelled. 5 And in the fourteenth year Ched-or-la-o'-mer came, and also the kings who were with him, and they inflicted defeats on the Reph'a-im in Ash'te-roth-kar-na'im,^q and the Zu'zim in Ham, and the E'mim^r in Sha'veh-kir-i-a-tha'im, 6 and the Hor'ites^s in their mountain of Se'ir,^t down to El-pa'ran,^u which is at the wilderness. 7 Then they turned about and came to En-mish'pat, that is, Ka'desh,^v and defeated the whole field of the A-mal'ek-ites^w and also the Am'or-ites^x who were dwelling in Haz'-a-zon-ta'mar.^y

8 At this point the king of Sod'om went on the march, and also the king of Go-mor'rah and the king of Ad'mah and the king of Ze-boi'im and the king of Be'la (that is to say, Zo'ar), and they drew up in battle order against them in the Low Plain of Sid'dim,^z 9 against Ched-or-la-o'-mer king of E'lam and Ti'dal

17 The sun was now setting and a dense darkness came and, look! a smoking furnace and a fiery torch that passed in between these pieces.^e 18 On that day Jehovah concluded* with A'bram a covenant,^f saying: "To your seed I will give this land,^g from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Eu-phra'tes:^h 19 the Ken'itesⁱ and the Ken'iz-zites and the Kad'mon-ites 20 and the Hit'tites^j and the Per'iz-zites^k and the Reph'a'im^l 21 and the Am'or-ites and the Ca'naan-ites and the Gir'ga-shites and the Jeb'u-sites."^m

16 Now Sar'ai, A'bram's wife, had borne him no children;ⁿ but she had an Egyptian maidservant and her name was Ha'gar.^o 2 Hence Sar'ai said to A'bram: "Please now! Jehovah has shut me off from bearing children.^p Please, have relations with my maidservant. Perhaps I may get children from her."^q So A'bram listened to the voice of Sar'ai.^r 3 Then Sar'ai, A'bram's wife, took Ha'gar, her Egyptian maidservant, at the end of ten years of A'bram's dwelling in the land of Ca'naan, and gave her to A'bram her husband as his wife.^s 4 Accordingly he had relations with Ha'gar, and she became pregnant. When she became aware that she was pregnant, then her mistress began to be despised in her eyes.^t

5 At this Sar'ai said to A'bram: "The violence done me be upon you. I myself gave my maidservant over to your bosom, and she became aware that she was pregnant, and I began to be despised in her eyes. May Jehovah judge between me and you."^u 6 So A'bram said to Sar'ai: "Look! Your maidservant is at your disposal. Do to her what is good in your eyes."^b Then Sar'ai began to humiliate* her so that she ran away from her.^c

7 Later Jehovah's angel^d found her at a fountain of waters in the wilderness, at the fountain on the way to Shur.^e 8 And he began to say: "Ha'gar, maidservant of Sar'ai, just where have you come from and where are you going?" To this she said: "Why, from Sar'ai my mistress I am running away." 9 And Jehovah's angel went on to say to her: "Return to your mistress and humble yourself under her hand."^f 10 Then Jehovah's angel said to her: "I shall greatly multiply your seed,^g so that it will not be numbered for multitude."^h 11 Further Jehovah's angel added to her: "Here you are pregnant, and you shall give birth to a son and must call his name Ish'ma-el;ⁱ for Jehovah has heard your affliction.^j 12 As for him, he will become a zebra* of a man. His hand will be against everyone, and the hand of everyone will be against him;^k and before the face of all his brothers he will tabernacle."^l

13 Then she began to call the name of Jehovah, who was speaking to her: "You are a God* of sight,"^m for she said: "Have I here actuallyⁿ looked upon him^o who sees me?" 14 That is why the well was called* Be'er-la-hai-roi.^p Here it is between Ka'desh and Be'ed. 15 Later on Ha'gar bore to A'bram a son and A'bram called the name of his son whom Ha'gar bore Ish'ma-el.^q 16 And A'bram was eighty-six years old at Ha'gar's bearing Ish'ma-el to A'bram.

milk and the young bull that he had got ready and set it before them.^a Then he himself kept standing by them under the tree as they were eating.^b

9 They now said to him: “Where is Sarah your wife?”^c To this he said: “Here in the tent!”^d 10 So he continued: “I am surely going to return to you next year at this time,* and, look! Sarah your wife will have a son.”^e Now Sarah was listening at the tent entrance, and it was behind the man. 11 And Abraham and Sarah were old, being advanced in years.^f Sarah had stopped having menstruation.^g 12 Hence Sarah began to laugh inside herself,^h saying: “After I am worn out, shall I really have pleasure, my lord* being old besides?”ⁱ 13 Then Jehovah said to Abraham: “Why was it that Sarah laughed, saying, ‘Shall I really and truly give birth although I have become old?’^j 14 Is anything too extraordinary for Jehovah?^k At the appointed time I shall return to you, next year at this time, and Sarah will have a son.” 15 But Sarah began to deny it, saying: “I did not laugh!” For she was afraid. At this he said: “No! but you did laugh.”^l

16 Later the men got up from there and looked down toward Sod’om,^m and Abraham was walking with them to escort them.ⁿ 17 And Jehovah* said: “Am I keeping covered from Abraham what I am doing?^o 18 Why, Abraham is surely going to become a nation great and mighty, and all the nations of the earth must bless themselves by means of him.^p 19 For I have become acquainted with him in order that he may command his sons and his household after him so that they shall keep

Jehovah’s way to do righteousness and judgment;^a in order that Jehovah may certainly bring upon Abraham what he has spoken about him.”^b

20 Consequently Jehovah said: “The cry of complaint about Sod’om and Gomor’rah,^c yes, it is loud, and their sin, yes, it is very heavy.^d 21 I am quite determined to go down that I may see whether they act altogether according to the outcry over it that has come to me, and, if not, I can get to know it.”^e

22 At this point the men turned from there and got on their way to Sod’om; but as for Jehovah,^f he was still standing before Abraham.^g 23 Then Abraham approached and began to say: “Will you really sweep away the righteous with the wicked?^h 24 Suppose there are fifty righteous men in the midst of the city. Will you, then, sweep them away and not pardon the place for the sake of the fifty righteous who are inside it?ⁱ 25 It is unthinkable of you that you are acting in this manner to put to death the righteous man with the wicked one so that it has to occur with the righteous man as it does with the wicked!^j It is unthinkable of you.^k Is the Judge of all the earth not going to do what is right?”^l 26 Then Jehovah said: “If I shall find in Sod’om fifty righteous men in the midst of the city I will pardon the whole place on their account.”^m 27 But Abraham went on to answer and say: “Please, here I have taken upon myself to speak to Jehovah,* whereas I am dust and ashes.” 28 Suppose the fifty righteous should be lacking five. Will you for the five bring the whole city to ruin?” To this he said: “I shall not bring it to ruin if I find there forty-five.”^o

29 But yet again he spoke further to him and said: “Suppose forty are found there.” In turn he said: “I shall not do it on account of the forty.” 30 But he continued: “May Jehovah,* please, not grow hot with anger,^p but let me go on speaking:^a Suppose thirty are found there." In turn he said: "I shall not do it if I find thirty there." 31 But he continued on: "Please, here I have taken upon myself to speak to Jehovah:^b Suppose twenty are found there." In turn he said: "I shall not bring it to ruin on account of the twenty."^c 32 Finally he said: "May Jehovah,^{*} please, not grow hot with anger,^d but let me speak just this once:^e Suppose ten are found there." In turn he said: "I shall not bring it to ruin on account of the ten."^f 33 Then Jehovah^g went his way when he had finished speaking to Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

19 Now the two angels arrived at Sod'om by evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sod'om.^h When Lot caught sight of them, then he got up to meet them and bowed down with his face to the earth.ⁱ 2 And he proceeded to say: "Please, now, my lords, turn aside, please, into the house of YOUR servant and stay overnight and have YOUR feet washed.^j Then YOU must get up early and travel on YOUR way."^k To this they said: "No, but in the public square is where we shall stay overnight."^l 3 But he was very insistent with them,^m so that they turned aside to him and came into his house. Then he made a feast for them,ⁿ and he baked unfermented cakes,^o and they went to eating.

4 Before they could lie down, the men of the city, the men of Sod'om, surrounded the house,^p from boy to old man, all the people in one mob.^q 5 And they kept calling out to Lot and saying to him: "Where are the men who came in to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may have intercourse with them."^r

6 Finally Lot went out to them to the entrance, but he shut the door behind him. 7 Then he said: "Please, my brothers, do not act badly.^s 8 Please, here I have two daughters who have never had intercourse with a man.^t Please, let me bring them out to you.

Then do to them as is good in YOUR eyes.^a Only to these men do not do a thing,^b because that is why they have come under the shadow of my roof."^c 9 At this they said: "Stand back there!" And they added: "This lone man came here to reside as an alien^d and yet he would actually play the judge.^e Now we are going to do worse to you than to them." And they came pressing heavily in on the man,^f on Lot, and were getting near to break in the door.^g 10 So the men thrust out their hands and brought Lot in to them, into the house, and they shut the door. 11 But they struck with blindness the men who were at the entrance of the house,^h from the least to the greatest,ⁱ so that they were wearing themselves out trying to find the entrance.^j

12 Then the men said to Lot: "Do you have anyone else here? Son-in-law and your sons and your daughters and all who are yours in the city, bring out of the place!^k 13 For we are bringing this place to ruin, because the outcry against them has grown loud before Jehovah,^l so that Jehovah sent us to bring the city^{} to ruin."^m 14 Hence Lot went on out and began to speak to his sons-in-law who were to take^{} his daughters, and he kept on saying: "Get up! Get out of this place, because Jehovah is bringing the city to ruin!"ⁿ But in the eyes of his sons-in-law he seemed like a man who was joking.^o

15 However, when the dawn ascended, then the angels became urgent with Lot, saying: "Get up! Take your wife and your two daughters who are found here,^p for fear you may be swept away in the error of the city!"^q 16 When he kept lingering,^r then in the compassion of Jehovah upon him,^s the men seized hold of his hand and of the hand of his wife and of the hands of his two daughters and they proceeded to bring him out and to station him outside the city.^t 17 And it came about that, as soon as they had brought them forth to the out-

18 Then Lot said to them: "Not that, please, Jehovah!* 19 Please, now, your servant has found favor in your eyes^e so that you are magnifying your loving-kindness,^f which you have exercised with me to preserve my soul alive,^g but I—I am not able to escape to the mountainous region for fear calamity may keep close to me and I certainly die.^h 20 Please, now, this city is nearby to flee there and it is a small thing.ⁱ May I, please, escape there—is it not a small thing?—and my soul will live on."^j 21 So he said to him: "Here I do show you consideration to this extent* also,^k by my not overthrowing the city of which you have spoken.^l 22 Hurry! Escape there, because I am not able to do a thing until your arriving there!"^m That is why he called the name of the city Zo'ar.*ⁿ

23 The sun had gone forth over the land when Lot arrived at Zo'ar.^o 24 Then Jehovah made it rain sulphur and fire from Jehovah, from the heavens, upon Sod'om and upon Gomor'rah.^p 25 So he went ahead overthrowing these cities, even the entire District and all the inhabitants of the cities and the plants of the ground.^q 26 And his wife began to look around from behind him,* and she became a pillar of salt.^r

27 Now Abraham made his way early in the morning to the place where he had stood before Jehovah.^s 28 Then he looked down toward Sod'om and Gomor'rah and toward all the land of the District and saw a sight. Abraham in mind in that he took steps to send Lot out of the midst of the overthrow when overthrowing the cities among which Lot had been dwelling.^a 30 Later Lot went up from Zo'ar and began dwelling in the mountainous region, and his two daughters along with him,^b because he got afraid of dwelling in Zo'ar.^c So he began dwelling in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the firstborn proceeded to say to the younger woman: "Our father is old and there is not a man in the land to have relations with us according to the way of the whole earth.^d 32 Come, let us give our father wine to drink^e and let us lie down with him and preserve offspring from our father."^f

33 So they kept giving their father wine to drink during that night;^g then the firstborn went in and lay down with her father, but he did not know when she lay down and when she got up.*

34 And it came about on the next day that the firstborn then said to the younger: "Here I lay down with my father last night. Let us give him wine to drink tonight also. Then you go in, lie down with him, and let us preserve offspring from our father." 35 So they repeatedly gave their father wine to drink during that night also; then the younger got up and lay down with him, but he did not know when she lay down and when she got up. 36 And both the daughters of Lot became pregnant from their father.^h 37 In time the firstborn became mother to a son and called his name Mo'ab.ⁱ He is the father of Mo'ab, to this day.^j 38 As for the younger, she too gave birth to a son and then called his name Ben-am'mi. He is the father of the sons of Am'mon,^k to this day.

Ge 19:33* "And when she got up." In M the expression thus translated is marked with extraordinary points by the Sopherim to call attention to the original Heb. reading, "but he did not know when she got up." See App 2A. 37 Meaning "From Father." Heb., Moh-'av. LXX adds, "saying, 'From my father.'" 38 Meaning "Son of My People," that is, son of my relatives; not of foreigners like the Sodomites. Heb., Ben-'am-mi.

20 Now Abraham moved camp from there^a to the land of the Neg'eb and took up dwelling between Ka'desh^b and Shur^c and residing as an alien at Ge'rar.^d 2 And Abraham repeated concerning Sarah his wife: "She is my sister."^e With that A-bim'e-lech* king of Ge'rar sent and took Sarah.^f 3 Afterward God came to A-bim'e-lech in a dream by night and said to him: "Here you are as good as dead because of the woman whom you have taken,^g since she is owned by another owner as his wife."^h 4 However, A-bim'e-lech had not gone near her.ⁱ Hence he said: "Jehovah,* will you kill a nation that is really righteous?"^j 5 Did not he say to me, 'She is my sister'? and she—did not she too say, 'He is my brother'? In the honesty of my heart and with innocence of my hands I have done this."^k 6 At that the [true] God said to him in the dream: "I too have known that in the honesty of your heart you have done this,^l and I was also holding you back from sinning against me.^m That is why I did not allow you to touch her."ⁿ 7 But now return the man's wife, for he is a prophet,^o and he will make supplication for you.^p So keep living. But if you are not returning her, know that you will positively die, you and all who are yours."^q

8 So A-bim'e-lech got up early in the morning and proceeded to call all his servants and to speak of all these things in their ears. And the men got very much afraid. 9 Then A-bim'e-lech called Abraham and said to him: "What have you done to us, and what sin have I committed against you, in that you have brought upon me and my kingdom a great sin?"^r Deeds that should not have been done you have done in connection with me."^s 10 And A-bim'e-lech went on to say to Abraham: "What did you have in view in that you have done this thing?"^t 11 To this Abraham said: "It was because I said to myself, 'Doubt-

8 Now the child kept growing and came to be weaned;^e and Abraham then prepared a big feast on the day of Isaac's being weaned. 9 And Sarah kept noticing the son of Ha'gar the Egyptian,^f whom she had borne to Abraham, poking fun.^g 10 So she began to say to Abraham: "Drive out this slave girl and her son, for the son of this slave girl is not going to be an heir with my son, with Isaac!"^h 11 But the thing proved to be very displeasing to Abraham as regards his son.ⁱ 12 Then God said to Abraham: "Do not let anything that Sarah keeps saying to you be displeasing to you about the boy and about your slave girl. Listen to her voice, because it is by means of Isaac that what will be called your seed will be."^j 13 And as for the son of the slave girl,^k I shall also constitute him a nation, because he is your offspring."^l

14 So Abraham got up early in the morning and took bread and a skin water bottle and gave it to Ha'gar,^m setting it upon her shoulder, and the child,ⁿ and then dismissed her. And she went her way and wandered about in the wilderness of Be'er-she'ba.^o 15 Finally the water became exhausted^p in the skin bottle and she threw^q the child under one of the bushes. 16 Then she went on and sat down by herself, about the distance of a bowshot away, because she said: "Let me not see it when the child dies."^a So she sat down at a distance and began to raise her voice and weep.^b

17 At that God heard the voice of the boy,^c and God's angel called to Ha'gar out of the heavens and said to her:^d "What is the matter with you, Ha'gar? Do not be afraid, because God has listened to the voice of the boy there where he is. 18 Get up, lift up the boy and take hold of him with your hand, because I shall constitute him a great nation."^e 19 Then God opened her eyes so that she caught sight of a well of water;^f and she went and began to fill the skin bottle with water and to give the boy a drink. 20 And God continued to be with the boy,^g and he kept growing and dwelling in the wilderness; and he became an archer.^h 21 And he took up dwelling in the wilderness of Pa'ran,ⁱ and his mother proceeded to take a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

22 Now it came about at that time that A-bim'e-lech together with Phi'col the chief of his army said to Abraham: "God^{*} is with you in everything you are doing."^j 23 So now swear to me here by God^k that you will not prove false to me and to my offspring and to my posterity;^l that, according to the loyal love with which I have dealt with you,^m you will deal with me and with the land in which you have been residing as an alien."ⁿ 24 So Abraham said: "I shall swear."^o

25 When Abraham criticized A-bim'e-lech severely as regards the well of water that the servants of A-bim'e-lech had seized by violence,^p 26 then A-bim'e-lech said: "I do not know who did this thing, neither did you yourself tell it to me, and I myself have also not heard of it except today."^q 27 With that Abraham took sheep and cattle and gave them to A-bim'e-lech,^r and both of them proceeded to conclude^{*} a covenant.^s 28 When Abraham set seven female lambs of the flock by themselves,

Ge 21:16* "And raising his voice the young child wept," LXX. 20* Lit., "became an archer, a bowman." 22* Heb., 'Elo-him', pl. to denote excellence and without the definite article. 27* Or, "cut."

Ge 21:14* Meaning "Well of the Oath [or, of Seven]." Heb., Be'er' sha'va'.

29 A-bim'e-lech went on to say to Abraham: "What is the meaning here of these seven female lambs that you have set by themselves?" 30 Then he said: "You are to accept the seven female lambs at my hand, that it may serve as a witness^a for me that I have dug this well." 31 That is why he called that place Be'er-she'ba,^b because there both of them had taken an oath. 32 So they concluded a covenant^c at Be'er-she'ba, after which A-bim'e-lech got up together with Phi'col the chief of his army and they returned to the land of the Phi-lis'tines.^d 33 After that he planted a tamarisk tree at Be'er-she'ba and called there upon the name of Jehovah^e the indefinitely lasting God.^{*f} 34 And Abraham extended his residence as an alien in the land of the Phi-lis'tines many days.^g

22 Now after these things it came about that the [true] God put Abraham to the test.^h Accordingly he said to him: "Abraham!" to which he said: "Here I am!"ⁱ 2 And he went on to say: "Take, please, your son, your only son whom you so love,^j Isaac,^k and make a trip to the land of Mo-ri'ah^l and there offer him up as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I shall designate to you."^m

3 So Abraham got up early in the morning and saddled his ass and took two of his attendants^{*} with him and Isaac his son;ⁿ and he split the wood for the burnt offering. Then he rose and went on the trip to the place that the [true] God designated to him. 4 It was first on the third day that Abraham raised his eyes and began to see the place from a distance. 5 Abraham now said to his attendants:^o "You stay here with the ass, but I and the boy want to go on over there and worship^p and return to you."

6 After that Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and put it upon Isaac his son^a and took in his hands the fire and the slaughtering knife, and both of them went on together.^r

7 And Isaac began to say to Abraham his father:^{*} "My father!"^a In turn he said: "Here I am, my son!"^b So he continued: "Here are the fire and the wood, but where is the sheep for the burnt offering?"^c 8 To this Abraham said: "God will provide himself the sheep for the burnt offering,^d my son." And both of them walked on together.

9 Finally they reached the place that the [true] God had designated to him, and Abraham built an altar^e there and set the wood in order and bound Isaac his son hand and foot and put him upon the altar on top of the wood.^f 10 Then Abraham put out his hand and took the slaughtering knife to kill his son.^g 11 But Jehovah's angel began calling to him out of the heavens and saying:^h "Abraham, Abraham!" to which he answered: "Here I am!" 12 And he went on to say: "Do not put out your hand against the boy and do not do anything at all to him,ⁱ for now I do know that you are God-fearing^{} in that you have not withheld your son, your only one, from me."^j 13 At that Abraham raised his eyes and looked and there, deep in the foreground, there was a ram caught by its horns in a thicket. So Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up for a burnt offering in place of his son.^k 14 And Abraham began to call the name of that place Je-ho'vah-ji'reh.^{} This is why it is customarily said today: "In the mountain of Jehovah it will be provided."^l

15 And Jehovah's angel proceeded to call to Abraham the second time out of the heavens 16 and to say: "'By myself I do swear,' is the utterance of Jehovah,^m 'that by reason of the fact that you have done this thing and you have not withheld your son, your only one,^a 17 I shall surely bless you and I shall surely multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens and like the grains of sand that are on the seashore;^b and your seed will take possession of the gate* of his enemies.^c 18 And by means of your seed^d all nations of the earth will certainly bless themselves* due to the fact that you have listened to my voice.”^e

19 After that Abraham returned to his attendants, and they got up and went their way together to Be'er-she'ba;^f and Abraham continued to dwell at Be'er-she'ba.

20 Now it came about after these things that the report got through to Abraham: “Here Mil'cah^g herself has also borne sons to Na'hor^h your brother: 21 Uz his firstborn and Buzⁱ his brother and Kem-u'el the father of A'ram, 22 and Che'sed and Ha'zo and Pil'dash and Jid'laph and Be-thu'el.”^j 23 And Be-thu'el became the father of Re-bek'-ah.^k These eight Mil'cah bore to Na'hor the brother of Abraham. 24 There was his concubine too, whose name was Reu'mah. In time she herself also gave birth to Te'bah and Ga'ham and Ta'hash and Ma'a-cah.^l

23 And Sarah's life got to be a hundred and twenty-seven years long. They were the years of Sarah's life.^m 2 So Sarah died in Kir'i-ath-ar'ba,ⁿ that is to say, He'bron,^o in the land of Ca'naan,^p and Abraham came in to bewail Sarah and to weep over her. 3 Then Abraham got up from before his dead and proceeded to speak to the sons of Heth,^q saying: 4 “An alien resident and settler I am among YOU.^r Give me the possession of a burial

Ge 22:17* That is, of the city. 18* “Will certainly bless themselves.” The Heb. verb is in the reflexive, or hith-pa'-el form, and so differs from the same verb in the niph'-al form in 12:3b, which at times has the passive meaning but more frequently has the reflexive meaning as it is rendered there. LXXSyVg, “will be blessed,” the same as in 12:3b. Compare De 29:19. 23:3* “The sons of Heth.” Heb., beneh-Cheth'. Or, “the Hittites.”

place among YOU that I may bury my dead out of my sight.”^a 5 At this the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him: 6 “Hear us, my lord.^b A chieftain of God^c you are in the midst of us.^c In the choicest^d of our burial places bury your dead.^d None of us will hold back his burial place from you to prevent burying your dead.”^e

7 Thereupon Abraham got up and bowed down to the natives,^f to the sons of Heth,^g 8 and spoke with them, saying: “If YOUR souls agree* to bury my dead out of my sight, listen to me and urge E'phron the son of Zo'har for me,^h 9 that he may give me the cave of Mach-pe'lah,ⁱ which is his, which is at the extremity of his field. For the full amount of silver let him give it to me in the midst of YOU for the possession of a burial place.”^j

10 As it was, E'phron was sitting among the sons of Heth. So E'phron the Hit'tite^k answered Abraham in the hearing* of the sons of Heth with all those entering the gate of his city, saying:^l 11 “No, my lord! Listen to me. The field I do give to you, and the cave that is in it to you I do give it. Before the eyes of the sons of my people I do give it to you.^m Bury your dead.” 12 At that Abraham bowed down before the natives 13 and spoke to E'phron in the hearing of the natives, saying: “Only if you—no, listen to me! I will give you the amount of silver for the field. Take it from me,ⁿ that I may bury my dead there.”

14 Then E'phron answered Abraham, saying to him: 15 “My lord, listen to me. A land plot worth four hundred silver shekels,* what is that between me and you? So bury your dead.”^o 16 Accordingly Abraham listened to E'phron, and Abraham weighed out to E'phron the amount of silver that he had spoken in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred silver shekels current with the merchants.^a 17 Thus the field of E'phron that was in Mach-pe'lah, which is in front of Mam're, the field and the cave that was in it and all the trees that were in the field,^b which were within all its boundaries round about, became confirmed^c 18 to Abraham as his purchased property before the eyes of the sons of Heth among all those entering the gate of his city.^d 19 And after that Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Mach-pe'lah in front of Mam're, that is to say, He'bron, in the land of Ca'naan.^e 20 Thus the field and the cave that was in it became confirmed to Abraham for the possession of a burial place at the hands of the sons of Heth.^f

24 Now Abraham was old, advanced in years,* and Jehovah had blessed Abraham in everything.^g 2 Hence Abraham said to his servant, the oldest one of his household, who was managing* all he had:^h "Put your hand, please, under my thigh,ⁱ 3 as I must have you swear by Jehovah,^j the God of the heavens and the God of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Ca'naan-ites in among whom I am dwelling,^k 4 but you will go to my country and to my relatives,^l and you will certainly take a wife for my son, for Isaac."

5 However, the servant said to him: "What if the woman does not wish to come with me to this land? Must I be sure to return your son to the land from where you went out?"^m 6 At this Abraham said to him: "Be on your guard that you do not return my son there."ⁿ 7 Jehovah the God of the heavens, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my relatives*^o and who spoke to me and who swore to me,^p saying, "To your seed^a I am going to give this land,"^b he will send his angel ahead of you,^c and you will certainly take a wife for my son from there.^d 8 But if the woman should not wish to come with you, you also will have become free from this oath you gave me.^e Only you must not return my son there." 9 With that the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning this matter.^f

10 So the servant took ten camels from the camels of his master and proceeded to go with every sort of good thing of his master's in his hand.^g Then he rose and got on his way to Mes-o-po-ta'mi-a* to the city of Na'hor. 11 Eventually he had the camels kneel down outside the city at a well of water about evening time,^h about the time that the women who draw water were accustomed to go out.ⁱ 12 And he went on to say: "Jehovah the God of my master Abraham,^j cause it to happen, please, before me this day and perform loving-kindness^k with my master Abraham.^l 13 Here I am stationed at a fountain of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.^m 14 What must occur is that the young woman to whom I shall say, 'Let your water jar down, please, that I may take a drink,' and who will indeed say, 'Take a drink, and I shall also water your camels,' this is the one you must assign to your servant,ⁿ to Isaac; and by this let me know that you have performed loyal love with my master."^o

15 Well, it came about that before he had finished speaking,^p why, here coming out was Re-bek'ah, who had been born to Be-thu-el^q the son of Mil'cah^r the wife of Na'hor,^s Abraham's brother, and her water jar was upon her shoulder.^t 16 Now the young woman* was very attractive in appearance,^u a virgin,^v and no man had had sexual intercourse with her;^a and she made her way down to the fountain and began to fill her water jar and then came up. 17 At once the servant ran to meet her and said: "Give me, please, a little sip of water from your jar."^b 18 In turn she said: "Drink, my lord." With that she quickly lowered her jar upon her hand and gave him a drink.^c 19 When she was finished giving him a drink, then she said: "For your camels too I shall draw water until they are done drinking."^d 20 So she quickly emptied her jar into the drinking trough and ran yet again and again to the well to draw water,^e and kept drawing for all his camels. 21 All the while the man was gazing at her in wonder, keeping silent to know whether Jehovah had made his trip successful or not.^f

22 Consequently it came about that, when the camels had finished drinking, then the man took a gold nose ring^g of a half shekel^h in weight and two braceletsⁱ for her hands, ten shekels of gold was their weight, 23 and he went on to say: "Whose daughter are you? Tell me, please. Is there any room at the house of your father for us to spend the night?"^j 24 At that she said to him: "I am the daughter of Be-thu'el^k the son of Mil'cah, whom she bore to Na'hor."^l 25 And she said further to him: "There is both straw and much fodder with us, also a place to spend the night."^m 26 And the man proceeded to bow down and prostrate himself before Jehovahⁿ 27 and say: "Blessed be Jehovah^o the God of my master Abraham, who has not left his loving-kindness and his trustworthiness toward my master. I being on the way, Jehovah has led me to the house of the brothers of my master."^p

28 And the young woman went running and telling the household of her mother about these things. 29 Now Re-bek'ah had a brother and his name was La'ban.^q So La'ban went running to the man who was outside at the fountain. 30 And it came about that on seeing the nose ring and the bracelets^a on the hands of his sister and on hearing the words of Re-bek'ah his sister, saying: "This is the way the man spoke to me," then he came to the man and there he was, standing by the camels at the fountain. 31 At once he said: "Come, you blessed one of Jehovah.^b Why do you keep standing out here, when I myself have made the house ready and room for the camels?" 32 With that the man came on into the house, and he went unharnessing the camels and giving straw and fodder to the camels and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.^c 33 Then something to eat was set before him, but he said: "I shall not eat until I have spoken about my matters." What must occur is that the maiden^b coming out to draw water to whom I shall actually say: "Please, let me drink a little water from your jar," 44 and who will indeed say to me: "Both you take a drink, and I shall also draw water for your camels," she is the woman whom Jehovah has assigned for the son of my master."^c

45 "Before I was finished speaking^d in my heart,^e why, there was Re-bek'-ah coming out, with her jar upon her shoulder; and she made her way down to the fountain and began to draw water.^f Then I said to her, 'Give me a drink, please.'^g 46 So she quickly lowered her jar from off her and said, 'Take a drink,^h and I shall also water your camels.' Then I took a drink, and she also watered the camels. 47 After that I asked her and said, 'Whose daughter are you?'ⁱ to which she said, 'The daughter of Bethu'el the son of Na'h-or, whom Mil'cah bore to him.' Accordingly I put the nose ring on her nostril and the bracelets on her hands.^j 48 And I proceeded to bow down and prostrate myself before Jehovah and bless Jehovah the God of my master Abraham,^k who had led me in the true way^l to take the daughter of the brother of my master for his son. 49 And now if you are actually exercising loving-kindness and trustworthiness toward my master,^m tell me; but if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand or to the left."ⁿ

50 Then La'ban and Bethu'el answered and said: "From Jehovah this thing has issued.^o We are unable to speak bad or good to you."^p 51 Here is Re-bek'ah before you. Take her and go, and let her become a wife to the son of your master, just as Jehovah has spoken."^q 52 And it came about that when Abraham's servant had heard their words, he at once prostrated himself on the earth before Jehovah.^a 53 And the servant began to bring out articles of silver and articles of gold and garments and to give them to Re-bek'ah; and he gave choice things to her brother and to her mother.^b 54 After that they ate and drank, he and the men who were with him, and they spent the night there and got up in the morning.

Then he said: "SEND me off to my master."^c 55 To this her brother and her mother said: "Let the young woman* stay with us at least ten days." Afterward she can go." 56 But he said to them: "Do not detain me, seeing that Jehovah has given success to my way.^d Send me off, that I may go to my master."^e 57 So they said: "Let us call the young woman and inquire at her mouth."^f 58 Then they called Re-bek'ah and said to her: "Will you go with this man?" In turn she said: "I am willing to go."^g

59 At that they sent off Re-bek'ah^h their sister and her nurseⁱ and Abraham's servant and his men. 60 And they began to bless Re-bek'ah and say to her: "O you, our sister, may you become thousands times ten thousand,* and let your seed take possession of the gate^j of those who hate it."^k 61 After that Re-bek'ah and her lady attendants^l rose and they went riding on the camels^m and following the man; and the servant took Re-bek'ah and got on his way.

chased from the sons of Heth. There Abraham was buried, and also Sarah his wife.^a 11 And it developed that after Abraham's death God continued to bless Isaac his son,^b and Isaac was dwelling close by Be'er-la'hai-roi.^c

12 And this is the history of Ish'ma-el^d the son of Abraham whom Ha'gar the Egyptian the maidservant of Sarah bore to Abraham.^e

13 Now these are the names of the sons of Ish'ma-el, by their names, according to their family origins: Ish'ma-el's firstborn Ne-ba'ioth^f and Ke'dar^g and Ad'be-el and Mib'sam^h 14 and Mish'ma and Du'mah and Mas'sa, 15 Ha'dadⁱ and Te'ma,^j Je'tur, Na'phish and Ked'e-mah.^k 16 These are the sons of Ish'ma-el, and these are their names by their courtyards and by their walled camps:^l twelve chieftains according to their clans.^m 17 And these are the years of Ish'ma-el's life, a hundred and thirty-seven years. Then he expired and died and was gathered to his people.ⁿ

18 And they took up tabernacling from Hav'i-lah^o near Shur,^p which is in front* of Egypt, as far as As-syr'ia. In front of all his brothers he settled down.^q

19 And this is the history of Isaac the son of Abraham.^r

Abraham became father to Isaac. 20 And Isaac happened to be forty years old at his taking Re-bek'ah the daughter of Be-thu'el^s the Syrian^{t} of Pad'dan-a'ram,^u the sister of La'ban the Syrian, as his wife. 21 And Isaac kept on entreating Jehovah especially for his wife,^v because she was barren;^v so Jehovah let himself be entreated for him,^w and Re-bek'ah his wife became pregnant. 22 And the sons within her began to struggle with each other,^x so that she said: "If this is the way it is, just why am I alive?"^{} With that she went to inquire of Jehovah.^y 23 And Jehovah proceeded to say to her: "Two nations are in your belly,^a and two national groups will be separated from your inward parts;^b and the one national group will be stronger than the other national group,^c and the older will serve the younger.”^d

24 Gradually her days came to the full for giving birth, and, look! twins were in her belly.^e 25 Then the first came out red all over like an official garment of hair;^f so they called his name E'sau.^g 26 And after that his brother came out and his hand was holding onto the heel of E'sau;^h so he called his name Jacob.ⁱ And Isaac was sixty years old at her giving them birth.

27 And the boys got bigger, and E'sau became a man knowing how to hunt,^j a man of the field,^k but Jacob a blameless man,^k dwelling in tents.^l 28 And Isaac had love for E'sau, because it meant game in his mouth,^{} whereas Re-bek'ah was a lover of Jacob.^m 29 Once Jacob was boiling up some stew,^{} when E'sau came along from the field and he was tired. 30 So E'sau said to Jacob: “Quick, please, give me a swallow of the red—the red^{} there, for I am tired!” That is why his name was called E'dom.ⁿ 31 To this Jacob said: “Sell me, first of all, your right as firstborn!”^o 32 And E'sau continued: “Here I am simply going to die, and of what benefit to me is a birthright?”^{} 33 And Jacob added: “Swear to me first of all!”^p And he proceeded to swear to him and to sell his right as firstborn to Jacob.^q 34 And Jacob gave E'sau bread and lentil stew, and he went to eating and drinking.^r Then he got up and went his way. So E'sau despised the birthright.^s

26 Now there arose a famine in the land, besides the first famine that occurred in the days of Abraham,^t so that Isaac directed himself to A-bim'e-lech, king of the Philis'tines, to Gerar.^a 2 Then Jehovah appeared to him and said:^b “Do not go down to Egypt. Tabernacle in the land that I designate to you.”^c 3 Reside as an alien in this land,^d and I shall continue with you and bless you, because to you and to your seed I shall give all these lands,^e and I will carry out the sworn statement that I swore to Abraham your father,^f 4 ‘And I will multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens and I will give to your seed all these lands;^g and by means of your seed all nations of the earth will certainly bless themselves,’^h 5 due to the fact that Abraham listened to^{*} my voice and continued to keep his obligations to me, my commands, my statutes, and my laws.”ⁱ 6 So Isaac went on dwelling at Ge'rar.^j

7 Well, the men of the place kept asking with respect to his wife, and he would say: “She is my sister.”^k For he was afraid to say “My wife” for fear that, to quote him, “the men of the place should kill me because of Re-bek'ah,” because she was attractive in appearance.^l 8 So it came about that as his days there extended themselves A-bim'e-lech, king of the Philis'tines, was looking out of the window and taking in the sight, and there was Isaac having a good time with Re-bek'ah his wife.^m 9 At once A-bim'e-lech called Isaac and said: “Why, she is no other than your wife! So how is it that you said, ‘She is my sister?’” At this Isaac said to him: “I said it for fear I should die on her account.”ⁿ 10 But A-bim'e-lech continued: “What is this you have done to us?”^o A little more and certainly one of the people would have lain down with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us!”^p 11 Then A-bim'e-lech commanded all the people, saying: “Anybody touching this man and his wife will surely be put to death!”

12 Afterward Isaac began to sow seed in that land,^q and in that year he was getting up to a hundred measures to one,^r as Jehovah was blessing him.^s 13 Consequently the man became great and went on advancing more and more and growing great until he got very great.^a 14 And he came to have flocks of sheep and herds of cattle and a large body of servants,^b so that the Philistines began to envy him.^c

15 As for all the wells that the servants of his father had dug in the days of Abraham his father,^d these the Philistines stopped up and they would fill them with dry earth.^e 16 Finally A-bim'e-lech said to Isaac: "Move from our neighborhood, because you have grown far stronger than we are."^f 17 So Isaac moved from there and encamped in the torrent valley* of Ge'rar^g and took up dwelling there. 18 And Isaac proceeded to dig again the wells of water that they had dug in the days of Abraham his father* but which the Philistines went stopping up after Abraham's death;^h and he resumed calling their names by the names that his father had called them.ⁱ

19 And the servants of Isaac went on digging in the torrent valley and so they found there a well of fresh* water. 20 And the shepherds of Ge'rar fell to quarreling with the shepherds of Isaac,^j saying: "The water is ours!" Hence he called the name of the well E'sek,* because they had contended with him. 21 And they went digging another well, and they fell to quarreling over it also. Hence he called its name Sit'nah.* 22 Later he moved away from there and dug another well,^k but they did not quarrel over it. Hence he called its name Re-ho'both* and said: "It is because now Jehovah has given us ample room^l and has made us fruitful in the earth."^m

23 Then he went up from there to Be'er-she'ba.ⁿ 24 And Jehovah proceeded to appear to him during that night and to say: "I am the God of Abraham your father.^o Do not be afraid,^p because I am with you, and I will bless you and multiply your seed on account of Abraham my servant."^a 25 Accordingly he built an altar there and called on* the name of Jehovah^b and pitched his tent there,^c and the servants of Isaac went excavating a well there.

26 Later on A-bim'e-lech came to him from Ge'rar with A-huz'zath his confidential friend and Phi'col the chief of his army.^d 27 At this Isaac said to them: "Why have you come to me, seeing that you yourselves hated me and so sent me away from your neighborhood?"^e 28 To this they said: "We have unmistakably seen that Jehovah has proved to be with you.^f Hence we said, 'Let, please, an oath of obligation occur between us,^g between us and you, and let us conclude a covenant with you,^h that you will do nothing bad toward us just as we have not touched you and just as we have done only good toward you in that* we sent you away in peace.ⁱ You now are the blessed of Jehovah."^j

30 Then he made a feast for them and they ate and drank.^k 31 Next morning they were early in rising and they made sworn statements one to the other.^l After that Isaac sent them away and they went from him in peace.^m

32 Now on that day it occurred that the servants of Isaac proceeded to come and report to him regarding the well that they had dug,ⁿ and to say to him: "We have found water!" 33 Hence he called its name Shi'bah. That is why the name of the city is Be'er-she'ba,^o down to this day.

34 And E'sau grew to be forty years old. Then he took as wife Ju'dith the daughter of Be'e'ri the Hit'tite and also Bas'e-math the daughter of E'lon the Hit'tite.^p 35 And they were a source of bitterness of spirit* to Isaac and Re-bek'ah.^q

27 Now it came about that when Isaac was old and his eyes were too dim to see^r he then called E'sau his older son and said to him:^s "My son!"

Ge 26:25* Or, "and declared (preached)." 29* Or, "toward you and." 35* Or, "grief of mind."

at which he said to him: "Here I am!"
2 And he went on to say: "Here, now, I have become old.^a I do not know the day of my death."^b 3 So at this time take, please, your implements, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt some venison for me.^c
4 Then make me a tasty dish such as I am fond of and bring it to me and, ah, let me eat, in order that my soul may bless you before I die."^d

5 However, Re-bek'ah was listening while Isaac spoke to E'sau his son. And E'sau went on out into the field to hunt game and to bring it in.^e 6 And Re-bek'ah said to Jacob her son:^f "Here I just heard your father speaking to E'sau your brother, saying, 7 'Bring me some game and make me a tasty dish and, ah, let me eat, that I may bless you before Jehovah before my death.'^g
8 And now, my son, listen to my voice in what I am commanding you.^h 9 Go, please, to the herd and get me from there two kids of the goats, good ones, that I may make them up into a tasty dish for your father such as he is fond of. 10 Then you must bring it to your father and he must eat it, in order that he may bless you before his death."

11 And Jacob proceeded to say to Re-bek'ah his mother: "But E'sau my brother is a hairy man and I am a smooth man."ⁱ 12 What if my father feels me?^j Then I shall certainly become in his eyes like one making a mockery,^k and I shall certainly bring upon myself a malediction and not a blessing."^l 13 At this his mother said to him: "Upon me be the malediction meant for you, my son.^m Only listen to my voice and go, get them for me."ⁿ 14 Accordingly he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and his mother made a tasty dish such as his father was fond of. 15 After that Re-bek'ah took garments of E'sau her older son,^o the most desirable ones which were with her in the house,^p and put them on Jacob her younger son.^q

she gave the tasty dish and the bread that she had made into the hand of Jacob her son.^a

18 So he went on in to his father and said: "My father!" to which he said: "Here I am! Who are you, my son?"

19 And Jacob went on to say to his father: "I am E'sau your firstborn."^b I have done just as you have spoken to me. Raise yourself up, please. Sit down and eat some of my game, in order that your soul may bless me."^c 20 At that Isaac said to his son: "How is it that you have been so quick in finding it, my son?" In turn he said: "Because Jehovah your God caused it to meet up with me." 21 Then Isaac said to Jacob: "Come near, please, that I may feel you, my son, to know whether you are really my son E'sau or not."^d 22 So Jacob came near to Isaac his father, and he went feeling him, after which he said: "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of E'sau."^e
23 And he did not recognize him, because his hands proved to be hairy like the hands of E'sau his brother. Hence he blessed him.^f

24 After that he said: "You are really my son E'sau?" to which he said: "I am."^g 25 Then he said: "Bring it near to me that I may eat some of the game of my son, to the end that my soul may bless you."^h With that he brought it near to him and he began to eat, and he brought him wine and he began to drink. 26 Then Isaac his father said to him: "Come near, please, and kiss me, my son."ⁱ 27 So he came near and kissed him, and he could smell the scent of his garments.^j And he proceeded to bless him and to say:

"See, the scent of my son is like the scent of the field which Jehovah has blessed. 28 And may the [true] God give you the dews of the heavens^k and the fertile soils* of the earth^l and an abundance of grain and new wine.^m
29 Let peoples serve you and let national groups bow low to you.ⁿ Become master over your brothers, and let the sons of your mother bow low to you.^o

Ge 27:28* "The fertile soils." Lit., "the fatnesses," referring to fertility.

Cursed be each one of those cursing you, and blessed be each one of those blessing you.”^a

30 Now it came about as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, yes, it indeed came about when Jacob had barely come out from before the face of Isaac his father, that E'sau his brother came back from his hunting.^b 31 And he too went about making a tasty dish. Then he brought it to his father and said to his father: “Let my father get up and eat some of his son's game, in order that your soul may bless me.”^c

32 At this Isaac his father said to him: “Who are you?” to which he said: “I am your son, your firstborn, E'sau.”^d 33 And Isaac began to shake with a great trembling in extreme measure, and so he said: “Who, then, was it that hunted for game and came bringing it to me, so that I ate of everything before you could come in and I blessed him? Blessed too he will become!”^e

34 On hearing his father's words E'sau began to cry out in an extremely loud and bitter manner and to say to his father:^f “Bless me, even me too, my father!”^g 35 But he went on to say: “Your brother came with deception that he might get the blessing meant for you.”^h 36 At this he said: “Is that not why his name is called Jacob,* in that he should supplant me these two times?ⁱ My birthright he has already taken,^j and here at this time he has taken my blessing!”^k Then he added: “Have you not reserved a blessing for me?” 37 But in answer to E'sau Isaac continued: “Here I have appointed him master over you,^l and all his brothers I have given to him as servants,^m and grain and new wine I have bestowed for his support,ⁿ and where is there anything I can do for you, my son?”

38 Then E'sau said to his father: “Is there just one blessing that you have, my father? Bless me, even me too, my father!”^o With that E'sau raised his voice and burst into tears.^p 39 So in answer Isaac his father said to him:

“Behold, away from the fertile soils of the earth your dwelling will be found, and away from the dew of the heavens above.”^a 40 And by your sword you will live,^b and your brother you will serve.^c But it will certainly occur that, when you grow restless, you will indeed break his yoke off your neck.”^d

41 However, E'sau harbored animosity for Jacob on account of the blessing with which his father had blessed him,^e and E'sau kept saying in his heart:^f “The days of the period of mourning for my father are getting closer.^g After that I am going to kill Jacob my brother.”^h 42 When the words of E'sau her older son were told to Re-bek'ah, she at once sent and called Jacob her younger son and said to him: “Look! E'sau your brother is comforting himself* in regard to you—to kill you.ⁱ 43 Now, then, my son, listen to my voice and get up,^j run away to La'ban my brother at Ha'ran.^k 44 And you must dwell with him for some days until the rage of your brother calms down,^l 45 until the anger of your brother turns away from you and he has forgotten what you have done to him.^m And I shall certainly send and get you from there. Why should I be bereaved also of both of you in one day?”

46 After that Re-bek'ah kept saying to Isaac: “I have come to abhor this life of mine because of the daughters of Heth.ⁿ If Jacob ever takes a wife from the daughters of Heth like these from the daughters of the land, of what good* is life to me?”^o

28 Consequently Isaac called Jacob and blessed him and commanded him and said to him: “You must not take a wife from the daughters of Ca'naan.^p 2 Get up, go to Pad'dan-a'ram to the house of Be-thu'el the father of your mother and from there take yourself a wife from the daughters of La'ban the brother of your mother.^q 3 And God Almighty will bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, and you will certainly become a congregation of peoples.^a 4 And he will give to you the blessing of Abraham,^b to you and to your seed with you,^c that you may take possession of the land of your alien residences,^d which God has given to Abraham.^e

5 So Isaac sent Jacob away, and he struck out for Pad'dan-a'ram, for La-ban the son of Be-thu'el the Syrian,^f the brother of Re-bek'ah,^g mother of Jacob and E'sau.^h

6 When E'sau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him away to Pad'dan-a'ram to take from there a wife for himself, and that when he blessed him he laid the command upon him, saying: "Do not take a wife from the daughters of Ca'naan";ⁱ 7 and that Jacob was obeying his father and his mother and was on his way to Pad'dan-a'ram;^j 8 then E'sau saw that the daughters of Ca'naan were displeasing* in the eyes of Isaac his father.^k 9 Hence E'sau went to Ish'ma-el* and took as wife Ma'ha-lath the daughter of Ish'ma-el the son of Abraham, the sister of Ne-ba'ioth, besides his other wives.^l

10 And Jacob continued on his way out from Be'er-she'ba and kept going to Ha'ran.^m 11 In time he came across a place and set about spending the night there because the sun had set. So he took one of the stones of the place and set it as his head supporter* and lay down in that place.ⁿ 12 And he began to dream,^o and, look! there was a ladder* stationed upon the earth and its top reaching up to the heavens; and, look! there were God's angels ascending and descending on it.^p 13 And, look! there was Jehovah stationed above it, and he proceeded to say:^q

14 And your seed will certainly become like the dust particles of the earth,^a and you will certainly spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south,^b and by means of you and by means of your seed all the families of the ground will certainly bless themselves.^{*c} 15 And here I am with you and I will keep you in all the way you are going and I will return you to this ground,^d because I am not going to leave you until I have actually done what I have spoken to you.^e

16 Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said: "Truly Jehovah is in this place and I myself did not know it." 17 And he grew fearful and added:^f "How fear-inspiring this place is!^g This is nothing else but the house of God^h and this is the gate of the heavens." 18 So Jacob got up early in the morning and took the stone that was there as his head supporter and he set it up as a pillar and poured oil on the top of it.ⁱ 19 Further, he called the name of that place Beth'el;^{*j} but the fact is, Luz was the city's name formerly.^k

20 And Jacob went on to vow a vow,^l saying: "If God will continue with me and will certainly keep me on this way on which I am going and will certainly give me bread to eat and garments to wear^m 21 and I shall certainly return in peace to the house of my father, then Jehovah will have proved to be my God.^{*n} 22 And this stone that I have set up as a pillar will become a house of God,^o and as for everything that you will give me I shall without fail give the tenth of it to you."^p

29 After that Jacob set his feet in motion and traveled on to the land of the Orientals.^{q} 2 Now he looked, and here there was a well in the field and here three droves of sheep were lying down there by it, because from that well they were accustomed to water the droves;^r and there was a

4 So Jacob said to them: "My brothers, from what place are YOU?" to which they said: "We are from Ha'ran."^b 5 Then he said to them: "Do you know La'ban^c the grandson of Na'hor?"^d to which they said: "We know him." 6 At this he said to them: "Is it all right with him?"^e In turn they said: "It is all right."^f And here is Rachel^g his daughter coming with the sheep!"^h 7 And he went on to say: "Why, it is yet full day.* It is not the time for gathering the herds. WATER the sheep, then go feed them."^h 8 To this they said: "We are not allowed to do so until all the droves are gathered and they actually roll away the stone from off the mouth of the well. Then we must water the sheep."

9 While he was yet speaking with them, Rachelⁱ came with the sheep that belonged to her father, for she was a shepherdess.^j 10 And it came about that when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of La'ban his mother's brother and the sheep of La'ban his mother's brother, Jacob immediately approached and rolled away the stone from off the mouth of the well and watered the sheep of La'ban his mother's brother.^k 11 Then Jacob kissed^l Rachel and raised his voice and burst into tears.^m 12 And Jacob began to tell Rachel that he was the brother*ⁿ of her father and that he was the son of Re-bek'ah. La'ban all these things. 14 After that La'ban said to him: "You are indeed my bone and my flesh."^a So he dwelt with him a full month.*

15 After that La'ban said to Jacob: "Are you my brother,^b and must you serve me for nothing?^c Tell me, What are your wages to be?"^d 16 As it was, La'ban had two daughters. The name of the older was Le'ah^e and the name of the younger Rachel. 17 But the eyes of Le'ah had no luster,* whereas Rachel^f had become beautiful in form and beautiful of countenance.^g 18 And Jacob was in love with Rachel. So he said: "I am willing to serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter."^h 19 To this La'ban said: "It is better for me to give her to you than for me to give her to another man.ⁱ Keep dwelling with me." 20 And Jacob proceeded to serve seven years for Rachel,^j but in his eyes they proved to be like some few days because of his love for her.^k

21 Then Jacob said to La'ban: "Give over my wife, because my days are up,* and let me have relations with her."^l 22 With that La'ban gathered all the men of the place and made a feast.^m 23 But it turned out that during the evening he resorted to taking Le'ah his daughter and bringing her to him that he might have relations with her. 24 Moreover, La'ban gave to her Zil'pahⁿ his maidservant, even to Le'ah his daughter, as a maidservant. 25 So it followed in the morning that here it was Le'ah! Consequently he said to La'ban: "What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served with you? So why have you tricked me?"^o 26 To this La'ban said: "It is not customary to do this way in our place, to give the younger woman before the firstborn. 27 Celebrate^p to the full* the week of this woman.^q After that there shall be given to you also this other woman^a for the service that you can serve with me for seven years more.”^a 28 Accordingly Jacob did so and celebrated fully the week of this woman, after which he gave him Rachel his daughter as his wife. 29 Besides, La’ban gave Bil’hah^b his maidservant to Rachel his daughter as her maidservant.

30 Then he had relations also with Rachel and also expressed more love for Rachel than for Le’ah,^c and he went serving with him for yet seven years more.^d 31 When Jehovah came to see that Le’ah was hated, he then opened her womb,^e but Rachel was barren.^f 32 And Le’ah became pregnant and brought a son to birth and then called his name Reu’ben,^g *^g for she said: “It is because Jehovah has looked upon my wretchedness,^h in that now my husband will begin to love me.” 33 And she became pregnant again and brought a son to birth and then said: “It is because Jehovah has listened,ⁱ in that I was hated and so he gave me also this one.” Hence she called his name Sim’e-on.^j 34 And she became pregnant yet again and brought a son to birth and then said: “Now this time my husband will join himself to me, because I have borne him three sons.” His name was therefore called Le’vi.^k 35 And she became pregnant once more and brought a son to birth and then said: “This time I shall laud Jehovah.” She therefore called his name Judah.^l After that she left off giving birth.

30 When Rachel came to see that she had borne nothing to Jacob, Rachel got jealous of her sister and began to say to Jacob:^m “Give me children or otherwise I shall be a dead woman.”ⁿ 2 At this Jacob’s anger burned against Rachel and he said:^o “Am I in the place of God, who has held back the fruit of the belly from you?”^p 3 So she said: “Here is my slave girl Bil’hah.^q Have relations with her, that she may give birth upon my knees and that I, even I,

I have also come off winner!” So she called his name Naph’tali.^{†f}

9 When Le’ah came to see that she had left off giving birth, she proceeded to take Zil’pah her maidservant and to give her to Jacob as wife.^g 10 In time Zil’pah, Le’ah’s maidservant, bore a son to Jacob. 11 Then Le’ah said: “With good fortune!”^{*} So she called his name Gad.^h 12 After that Zil’pah, Le’ah’s maidservant, bore a second son to Jacob. 13 Then Le’ah said: “With my happiness! For the daughters will certainly pronounce me happy.”ⁱ So she called his name Ash’er.^{*j}

14 Now Reu’ben^k went walking in the days of the wheat harvest^l and got to find mandrakes in the field. So he brought them to Le’ah his mother. Then Rachel said to Le’ah: “Give me, please, some of your son’s mandrakes.”^m 15 At this she said to her: “Is this a little thing, your having taken my husband,ⁿ with your now taking also my son’s mandrakes?” So Rachel said: “For that reason he is going to lie down with you tonight in exchange for your son’s mandrakes.”

16 When Jacob was coming from the field in the evening,^o Le’ah went on out to meet him and then said: “It is

Accordingly he lay down with her that night.^a 17 And God heard and answered Le'ah and she became pregnant and in time bore to Jacob a fifth son.^b 18 Then Le'ah said: "God has given me a hireling's wages,* because I have given my maidservant to my husband." So she called his name Is'sa-char.^c 19 And Le'ah became pregnant once more and in time bore a sixth son to Jacob.^d 20 Then Le'ah said: "God has endowed me, yes, me, with a good endowment. the effect that Jehovah is blessing me due to you."^a 28 And he added: "Stipulate your wages to me and I shall give them."^b 29 So he said to him: "You yourself must know how I have served you and how your herd has fared with me;^c 30 that it was little that you actually had before my coming, and it went expanding to a multitude, in that Jehovah blessed you since I stepped in.^d So now when am I to do something also for my own house?"^e

31 Then he said: "What shall I give you?" And Jacob went on to say: "You will give me nothing whatsoever!"^f If you will do this thing for me, I shall resume shepherding your flock.^g I shall continue guarding it.^h 32 I will pass among your whole flock today. You set aside from there every sheep speckled and with color patches, and every dark-brown sheep among the young rams and any color-patched and speckled one among the she-goats. Hereafter such must be my wages.ⁱ 33 And my right-doing must answer for me on whatever future day you may come to look over my wages;^j every one that is not speckled and color-patched among the she-goats and dark brown among the young rams is something stolen if it is with me."^k

34 To this La'ban said: "Why, that is fine!" Let it be according to your word."^l 35 Then he set aside on that day the he-goats striped and color-patched and all the she-goats speckled and color-patched, every one in which there was any white and every one dark brown among the young rams, but he gave them over into the hands of his sons. 36 After that he set a distance of three days' journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob was shepherding the flocks of La'ban that remained over.

37 Then Jacob took for his use staffs* still moist of the storax tree^m and of the almond treeⁿ and of the plane tree^o and peeled in them white peeled spots by laying bare white places which were upon the staffs.^p 38 Finally the staffs that he had peeled he placed in front of the flock, in the gutters, in the water drinking troughs,^a where the flocks would come to drink, that they might get into a heat* before them when they came to drink.

39 Consequently the flocks would get in heat before the staffs, and the flocks would produce striped, speckled and color-patched ones.^b 40 And Jacob separated the young rams and then turned the faces of the flocks to the striped ones and all the dark-brown ones among the flocks of La'ban. Then he set his own droves by themselves and did not set them by the flocks of La'ban. 41 And it always occurred that whenever the robust^c flocks would get in heat, Jacob would locate the staffs in the gutters^d before the eyes of the flocks, that they might get in heat by the staffs. 42 But when the flocks showed feebleness he would not locate them there. So the feeble ones always came to be La'ban's, but the robust ones Jacob's.^e

43 And the man went on increasing more and more, and great flocks and maidservants and menservants and camels and asses came to be his.^f

31 In time he got to hear the words of the sons of La'ban, saying: "Jacob has taken everything that belonged to our father; and from what belonged to our father he has amassed all this wealth."^g 2 When Jacob would look at the face of La'ban, here it was not with him as formerly.^h 3 Finally Jehovah said to Jacob: "Return to the land of your fathers and to your relatives,^{*i} and I shall continue with you."^j 4 Then Jacob sent and called Rachel and Le'ah out to the field to his flock, 5 and he said to them:

"I am seeing the face of YOUR father, that he is not the same toward me as formerly;^k but the God of my father has proved to be with me.^l 6 And you yourselves certainly know that with all my power I have served YOUR father.^m 7 And YOUR father has trifled with

14 At this Rachel and Le'ah answered and said to him: "Is there a share of inheritance* for us anymore in the house of our father?^l 15 Are we not really considered as foreigners to him since he has sold us, so that he keeps eating continually even from the money given for us?^m 16 For all the riches that God* has taken away from our father are ours and our children's.ⁿ So now everything God has said to you do."^o

17 Then Jacob got up and lifted his children and his wives onto the camels;^p 18 and he began driving all his herd and all the goods that he had accumulated,^q the herd of his acquisition that he had accumulated in Pad'dan-a'ram, in order to go to Isaac his father to the land of Ca'naan.^a 19 Now La'ban had gone to shear his sheep. Meantime Rachel stole the teraphim^{*b} that belonged to her father.

20 So Jacob outwitted^{*} La'ban the Syrian, because he had not told him that he was running away.

21 And he proceeded to run away and to get up and cross the River,^c he and all he had. After that he directed his face to the mountainous region of Gil'e-ad.^d

22 Later, on the third day, it was told to La'ban that Jacob had run away.

23 With that he took his brothers with him and went chasing^e after him for a distance of seven days' journey and caught up with him in the mountainous region of Gil'e-ad.

24 Then God came to La'ban the Syrian^f in a dream by night^g and said to him: "Watch yourself that you do not go speaking either good or bad^{*} with Jacob."^h

25 So La'ban approached Jacob, as Jacob had pitched his tent in the mountain and La'ban had encamped his brothers^{*} in the mountainous region of Gil'e-ad.

26 Then La'ban said to Jacob: "What have you done, in that you resorted to outwitting me and driving my daughters off like captives taken by the sword?"ⁱ

27 Why did you have to run away secretly and outwit me and not tell me, that I might send you away with rejoicing and with songs,^j with tambourine and with harp?^k

28 And you did not give me a chance to kiss my children^{*} and my daughters.^l Now you have acted foolishly.

29 It is in the power of my hand to do harm to you people,^m but the God of your father talked to me last night, saying, 'Watch yourself against speaking either good or bad with Jacob.'ⁿ

30 While you have actually gone now because you have been yearning intensely for the house

31 In answer Jacob proceeded to say to La'ban: "It was because I was afraid.^b For I said to myself, 'You might tear your daughters away from me.' 32 Whoever it is with whom you may find your gods,^{*} let him not live.^c Before our brothers, examine for yourself what is with me and take them for yourself."^d But Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.^e 33 So La'ban went on into the tent of Jacob and into the tent of Le'ah and into the tent of the two slave girls,^f but did not find them. Finally he went out of Le'ah's tent and went on into Rachel's tent. 34 Now Rachel had taken the teraphim, and she resorted to putting them in the woman's saddle basket of the camel, and she kept sitting upon them. So La'ban went feeling through the whole tent, but did not find them. 35 Then she said to her father: "Do not let anger gleam in the eyes of my lord,^g because I am not able to get up before you, for the customary thing with women is upon me."^h So he searched on carefully, but did not find the teraphim.ⁱ

36 And Jacob became angry^j and began to quarrel with La'ban, and in answer Jacob went on to say to La'ban: "What is the revolt on my part,^k what the sin of mine, as a reason why you have hotly pursued after me?"^l

43 Then La’ban in answer said to Jacob: “The daughters are my daughters and the children my children and the flock my flock, and everything you are looking at is mine and my daughters’. What can I do against these today or against their children whom they have borne? 44 And now, come, let us conclude a covenant,^g I and you, and it must* serve as a witness between me and you.”^h 45 Accordingly Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.ⁱ 46 Then Jacob said to his brothers: “Pick up stones!” And they went taking stones and making a heap.^j After that they ate there on the heap. 47 And La’ban began calling it Je’gar-sa-ha-du’tha,* but Jacob called it Gal’e-ed.^k

48 And La’ban proceeded to say: “This heap is a witness between me and you today.” That is why he called its name Gal’e-ed,^k 49 and The Watchtower,* because he said: “Let Jehovah keep watch between me and you when we are situated unseen* the one from the other.”^l 50 If you go to afflicting my daughters^m and if you go to taking wives in addition to my daughters, there

6 In time the messengers returned to Jacob, saying: “We got to your brother E’sau, and he is also on his way to meet you, and four hundred men with him.”^b

9 After that Jacob said: “O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac,^f O Jehovah, you who are saying to me, ‘Return to your land and to your relatives and I will deal well with you,’^g 10 I am unworthy of all the loving-kindnesses and of all the faithfulness* that you have exercised toward your servant,^h for with but my staff I crossed this Jordan and now I have become two camps.ⁱ 11 Deliver me, I pray you,^j from my brother’s hand, from E’sau’s hand, because I am afraid of him that he may come and certainly assault me,^k mother together with children. 12 And you, you have said, ‘Unquestionably I shall deal well with you and I will constitute your seed* like the grains of sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.’”^l

ask you, saying, ‘To whom do you belong, and where are you going and to whom do these ahead of you belong?’ 18 then you must say, ‘To your servant, to Jacob. A gift it is,^a sent to my lord,^b to E’sau, and look! he himself is also behind us.’” 19 And he went on to command also the second, also the third, also all those following the droves, saying: “According to this word you are to speak to E’sau on your encountering him.^c 20 And you must say also, ‘Here is your servant Jacob behind us.’”^d For he said to himself: “I may appease him by the gift going ahead of me,^e and afterward I shall see his face. Perhaps he will give a kindly reception.”^f 21 So the gift went crossing over ahead of him, but he himself lodged that night in the camp.^g

22 Later during that night he rose and took his two wives^h and his two maidservantsⁱ and his eleven young sons^j and crossed over the ford of Jab’bok.^k 23 So he took them and brought them over the torrent valley,^{*l} and he brought over what he had.

24 Finally Jacob was left by himself. Then a man began to grapple with him until the dawn ascended.^m 25 When he got to see that he had not prevailed over him,ⁿ then he touched the socket of his thigh joint;^{*o} and the socket of Jacob’s thigh joint got out of place during his grappling with him.^o 26 After that he said: “Let me go,^{*p} for the dawn has ascended.” To this he said: “I am not going to let you go until you first bless me.”^q 27 So he said to him: “What is your name?” to which he said: “Jacob.” 28 Then he said: “Your name will no longer be called Jacob but Israel,^{*r} for you have contended^{*s} with God and with men so that you at last prevailed.” 29 In turn Jacob inquired and said: “Tell me, please, your

31 And the sun began to flash upon him as soon as he passed by Pe-nu’el, but he was limping upon his thigh.^d

32 That is why the sons of Israel are not accustomed to eat the sinew of the thigh nerve,^{*} which is on the socket of the thigh joint, down to this day, because he touched the socket of Jacob’s thigh joint by the sinew of the thigh nerve.^e

33 In time Jacob raised his eyes and looked, and here E’sau was coming and with him four hundred men.^f Consequently he divided off the children to Le’ah and to Rachel and to the two maidservants,^g 2 and he put the maidservants and their children foremost^h and Le’ah and her children after themⁱ and Rachel and Joseph to the rear of them.^j 3 And he himself passed on ahead of them and proceeded to bow down to the earth seven times until he got near to his brother.^k

4 And E’sau went running to meet him,^l and he began to embrace him^m and fall upon his neck and kiss him,^{*} and they burst into tears. 5 Then he raised his eyes and saw the women and the children and said: “Who are these with you?” to which he said: “The children with whom God has favored your servant.”ⁿ 6 At that the maidservants came forward, they and their children, and bowed down; 7 and Le’ah too came forward, and her children, and they bowed down, and afterward Joseph came forward, and Rachel, and they bowed down.^o

12 Later on he said: “Let us pull out and go, and let me go in advance of you.” 13 But he said to him: “My lord is aware that the children are delicate and sheep and cattle that are giving suck are in my charge,ⁱ and should they drive them too quickly for one day, then the whole flock will certainly die.^j 14 Let my lord, please, pass on ahead of his servant, but may I myself continue the journey at my leisure according to the pace of the livestock^k that is before me and according to the pace of the children^l until I shall come to my lord at Se’ir.”^m 15 Then E’sau said: “Let me, please, put at your disposal some of the people who are with me.” To this he said: “Why this? Let me find favor in the eyes of my lord.”ⁿ 16 So on that day E’sau turned back on his way to Se’ir.

17 And Jacob pulled out for Suc’coth,^{*o} and he proceeded to build himself a house and for his herd he made booths.^p That was why he called the name of the place Suc’coth.

18 In time Jacob came safe and sound to the city of She’chem,^q which is in the land of Ca’naan,^r while he was coming from Pad’dan-a’ram;^s and he pitched camp in front of the city. 19 Then he acquired a tract of the field where he pitched his tent at the hand of the sons of Ha’mor the father of She’chem, for a

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Di'nah his daughter. 8 And Ha'mor proceeded to speak with them, saying: "As for She'chem my son, his soul is attached to YOUR daughter.^p Give her, please, to him as a wife,^q 9 and form marriage alliances with us.^r YOUR daughters YOU are to give to us, and our daughters YOU are to take for yourselves.^s 10 And with us YOU may dwell, and the land will become available for you. 13 And Jacob's sons began to answer She'chem and Ha'mor his father with deceit and to speak so because he had defiled Di'nah their sister.^b 14 And they went on to say to them: "We cannot possibly do such a thing, to give our sister to a man who has a foreskin,^c because that is a reproach to us. 15 Only on this condition can we give consent to YOU, that YOU become like us, by every male of YOURS getting circumcised.^d 16 Then we shall certainly give our daughters to YOU, and YOUR daughters we shall take for ourselves, and we shall certainly dwell with YOU and become one people.^e 17 But if YOU do not listen to us to get circumcised, then we will take our daughter and go."

18 And their words seemed good in the eyes of Ha'mor and in the eyes of She'chem, Ha'mor's son,^f 19 and the young man did not delay to perform the condition,^g because he did find delight in Jacob's daughter and he was the most honorable^h of the whole house of his father.ⁱ

20 So Ha'mor and She'chem his son went to the gate of their city and began to speak to the men of their city,^j saying: 21 "These men are peace-loving toward us.^k Hence let them dwell in the land and carry on business* in it, as the land is quite wide^l before them.^l Their daughters we can take as wives for ourselves and our own daughters we can give to them.^m 22 Only on this condition will the men give us their consent to dwell with us so as to become one people, that every male of ours gets circumcised just the way they are circumcised.ⁿ 23 Then their possessions and their wealth and all their livestock, will they not be ours?^o Only let us give them our consent that they may dwell

25 However, it came about that on the third day, when they got to be aching,^b the two sons of Jacob, Sim'e-on and Le'vi,^c brothers of Di'nah,^d proceeded to take each one his sword and to go unsuspectedly* to the city and to kill every male.^e 26 And Ha'mor and She'chem his son they killed with the edge of the sword.^f Then they took Di'nah from She'chem's house and went on out.^g 27 The other sons of Jacob attacked* the fatally wounded men and went plundering the city, because they had defiled their sister.^h 28 Their flocks and their herds and their asses and what was in the city and what was in the field they took.ⁱ 29 And all their means of maintenance and all their little children and their wives they carried off captive, so that they plundered all that was in the houses.^j

30 At this Jacob said to Sim'e-on and to Le'vi:^k "You have brought ostracism upon me in making me a stench to the inhabitants of the land,^l with the Ca'naan-ites and the Per'iz-zites; whereas I am few in number,^m and they will certainly gather together against me and assault me and I must be annihilated, I and my house." 31 In turn they said: "Ought anyone to treat our sister like a prostitute?"ⁿ

35 After that God said to Jacob: "Rise, go up to Beth'el and dwell there,^o and make an altar there to the [true] God who appeared to you when you were running away from E'sau your brother."^p us rise and go up to Beth'el. And there I shall make an altar to the [true] God who answered me in the day of my distress^a in that he proved to be with me in the way that I have gone."^b 4 So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods^c that were in their hands and the ear-rings that were in their ears, and Jacob hid^d them under the big tree that was close by She'chem.

5 After that they pulled away, and the terror of God came to be upon the cities that were round about them,^e so that they did not chase after the sons of Jacob. 6 Eventually Jacob came to Luz,^f which is in the land of Ca'naan, that is to say, Beth'el, he and all the people who were with him. 7 Then he built an altar there and began to call the place El-beth'el,* because there the [true] God had revealed himself to him at the time of his running away from his brother.^g 8 Later Deb'o-rah^h the nursing woman of Re-bek'ah died and was buried at the foot of Beth'el under a massive tree. Hence he called its name Al'lon-bac'uth.*

9 God now appeared to Jacob once again during his coming from Pad'dan-a'ramⁱ and blessed him.^j 10 And God went on to say to him: "Your name is Jacob.^k No longer is your name to be called Jacob, but Israel will your name become." And he began to call his name Israel.^l 11 And God said further to him: "I am God Almighty.^m Be fruitful and become many. Nationsⁿ and a congregation of nations will proceed out of you, and kings will come out of your loins.^o 12 As for the land that I have given to Abraham and to Isaac, to you I shall give it, and to your seed^q after you I shall give the land."^p 13 After that God went up from above him at the place where he had spoken with him.^q

14 Consequently Jacob stationed a pillar in the place where he had spoken with him,^r a pillar of stone, and he poured a drink offering upon it and poured oil

upon it.^a 15 And Jacob continued to call the name of the place where God had spoken with him Beth'el.^b

16 Then they pulled away from Beth'el. And while there was yet a good stretch of land before coming to Eph'rath,^c Rachel proceeded to give birth, and it was going hard with her in making the delivery.^d 17 But so it was that while she had difficulty in making the delivery the midwife said to her: "Do not be afraid, for you will have this son also."^e 18 And the result was that as her soul^f was going out (because she died)^g she called his name Ben-o'ni;^h but his father called him Benjamin.^h 19 Thus Rachel died and was buried on the way to Eph'rath, that is to say, Beth'le-hem.ⁱ 20 Hence Jacob stationed a pillar over her grave. This is the pillar of Rachel's grave down to this day.^j

21 After that Israel pulled away and pitched his tent a distance beyond the tower of E'der.^k 22 And it came about while Israel was tabernacled^l in that land that once Reu'ben went and lay down with Bil'hah his father's concubine, and Israel got to hear of it.^m

So there came to be twelve sons of Jacob. 23 The sons by Le'ah were Jacob's firstborn Reu'benⁿ and Sim'e-on and Le'vi and Judah and Is'sa-char and Zeb'u-lun. 24 The sons by Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin. 25 And the sons by Bil'hah, Rachel's maidservant, were Dan and Naph'ta-li. 26 And the sons by Zil'pah, Le'ah's maidservant, were Gad and Ash'er. These are Jacob's sons who were born to him in Pad'dan-a'ram.

27 At length Jacob came to Isaac his father to Mam're,^o to Kir'i-ath-ar'ba,^p that is to say, He'bron, where Abraham and also Isaac had resided as aliens.^q 28 And the days of Isaac came to be a hundred and eighty years.^r 29 After that Isaac expired and died and was gathered to his people, old and satisfied

2 E'sau took his wives from the daughters of Ca'naan:^d A'dah^e the daughter of E'lon the Hit'tite^f and O-hol-i-ba'mah^g the daughter of A'nah, the granddaughter^h of Zib'e-on the Hi'vite, 3 and Bas'e-math,^h Ish'ma-el's daughter, the sister of Ne-ba'ioth.ⁱ

4 And A'dah proceeded to bear El'i-phaz to E'sau, and Bas'e-math bore Reu'el,

5 and O-hol-i-ba'mah bore Je'ush and Ja'lam and Ko'rah.^j

These are the sons of E'sau who were born to him in the land of Ca'naan. 6 After that E'sau took his wives and his sons and his daughters and all the souls of his house and his herd and all his other beasts and all his wealth,^k which he had accumulated in the land of Ca'naan, and went to a land^l away from Jacob his brother,^l 7 because their goods had become too great for them to dwell together and the land of their alien residences was not able to sustain them as a result of their herds.^m 8 So E'sau took up dwelling in the mountainous region of Se'ir.ⁿ E'sau is E'dom.^o

9 And this is the history of E'sau the father of E'dom in the mountainous region of Se'ir.^p

10 These are the names of the sons of E'sau: El'i-phaz the son of A'dah, E'sau's wife; Reu'el the son of Bas'e-math, E'sau's wife.^q

11 And the sons of El'i-phaz came to be Te'man,^r O'mar, Ze'pho and Ga'tam and Ke'naz.^s 12 And Tim'na^t became the concubine of El'i-phaz, E'sau's son. In time she bore to El'i-phaz Am'a-lek.^u These are the sons of A'dah, E'sau's wife.

37 And Jacob continued to dwell in the land of the alien residences of his father,^f in the land of Ca'naan.^g 2 This is the history of Jacob.

Joseph,^h when seventeen years old, happened to be tending sheep* with his brothers among the flock,ⁱ and, being but a boy, he was with the sons of Bil'hah^j and the sons of Zil'pah,^k the wives of his father. So Joseph brought a bad report about them to their father.^l 3 And Israel loved Joseph more than all his other sons,^m because he was the son of his old age; and he had a long, striped shirtlike garment made for him.ⁿ 4 When his brothers came to see that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they began to hate him,^o and they were not able to speak peacefully to him.^p

5 Later on Joseph had a dream and told it to his brothers,^q and they found further reason to hate him. 6 And he went on to say to them: "Listen, please, to this dream that I have dreamed.^r 7 Well, here we were binding sheaves in the middle of the field when here my sheaf got up and also stood erect and here YOUR sheaves proceeded to encircle and bow down to my sheaf."^s 8 And his brothers began to say to him: "Are you going to be king over us for certain?^t or, Are you going to dominate over us for certain?"^u So they found fresh reason to hate him over his dreams and over his words.

9 After that he had still another dream, and he related it to his brothers and said: "Here I have had a dream once more, and here the sun and the moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me."^v 10 Then he related it to his father as well as his brothers, and his father began to rebuke him and say to him:^a "What does this dream that you have dreamed mean? Am I and also your mother and your brothers for certain going to come and bow down to the earth to you?" 11 And his brothers grew jealous of him,^b but his father observed the saying.^c

12 His brothers now went to feed the flock of their father* close by She'chem.^d 13 After a while Israel said to Joseph: "Your brothers are tending [flocks] close by She'chem, are they not? Come, and let me send you to them." At this he said to him: "Here I am!"^e 14 So he said to him: "Go, please. See whether your brothers are safe and sound and whether the flock is safe and sound,* and bring me back word."^f With that he sent him away from the low plain of He'bron,^g and he went on toward She'chem. 15 Later a man found him and here he was wandering in a field. Then the man inquired of him, saying: "What are you looking for?" 16 To this he said: "It is my brothers I am looking for. Tell me, please, Where are they tending flocks?" 17 And the man continued: "They have pulled away from here, because I heard them saying, 'Let us go to Do'than.'" So Joseph kept on after his brothers and found them at Do'than.

18 Well, they caught sight of him from a distance, and before he could get close by them they began plotting cunningly against him to put him to death.^h 19 So they said to one another: "Look! Here comes that dreamer."ⁱ 20 And now come and let us kill him and pitch him into one of the waterpits;^j and we must say a vicious wild beast devoured him.^k Then let us see what

In M the Heb. particle 'eth, which modifies these words, is marked with extraordinary points by the Sopherim to indicate the words are doubtful and are to be omitted. If so, it may mean that Joseph's brothers had gone to feed themselves. In vs 13 the word "flocks" does not specifically occur, but the verb is the same as in vs 12. See App 2A. 14* Lit., "See the peace of your brothers and the peace of the flock." 19* "Here comes that dreamer." Lit., "The master (lord) of dreams, that one there comes."

will become of his dreams.” 21 When Reu’ben heard this he tried to deliver him out of their hand.^a So he said: “Let us not strike his soul fatally.”^b 22 And Reu’ben went on to say to them: “Do not spill blood.^c Pitch him into this waterpit which is in the wilderness and do not lay a violent hand upon him.”^d His purpose was to deliver him out of their hand in order to return him to his father.

23 So it came about that as soon as Joseph came to his brothers, they went stripping Joseph of his long garment, even the long striped garment that was upon him;^e 24 after which they took him and pitched him into the waterpit.^f At the time the pit was empty; there was no water in it.

25 Then they sat down to eat bread.^g When they raised their eyes and took a look, why, here was a caravan of Ish’mael-ites^h that was coming from Gil’e-ad, and their camels were carrying labdanum and balsam* and resinous bark,ⁱ on their way to take it down to Egypt. 26 At this Judah said to his brothers: “What profit would there be in case we killed our brother and did cover over his blood?” 27 Come and let us sell him to the Ish’mael-ites,^k and do not let our hand be upon him.^l After all, he is our brother, our flesh.” So they listened to their brother.^m 28 Now men, Mid’ianite merchants,ⁿ went passing by. Hence they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the waterpit^o and then sold Joseph to the Ish’mael-ites for twenty silver pieces.^p Eventually these brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 Later Reu’ben returned to the waterpit and here Joseph was not in the waterpit. Consequently he ripped his garments apart.^q 30 When he returned to his other brothers he exclaimed: “The child is gone! And I—where am I really to go?”^r

31 However, they took Joseph’s long garment and slaughtered a male goat and repeatedly dipped the long garment in the blood.^s 32 After that they sent wife and perform brother-in-law marriage* with her and raise up offspring for your brother.”^a 9 But O’nan knew that the offspring would not become his;^b and it occurred that when he did have relations with his brother’s wife he wasted his semen on the earth* so as not to give offspring to his brother.^c 10 Now what he did was bad in the eyes of Jehovah;^d hence he put him also to death.^e 11 So Judah said to Ta’mar his daughter-in-law: “Dwell as a widow in the house of your father until She’lah my son grows up.”^f For he said to himself: “He too may die like his brothers.”^g Accordingly Ta’mar went and continued to dwell at her own father’s house.^h

12 Thus the days became many and the daughter of Shu’a, Judah’s wife,ⁱ died; and Judah kept the period of mourning.^j After that he went up to the shearers of his sheep, he and Hi’rah his companion the A-dul’lam-ite,^k to Tim’nah.^l 13 Then it was told to Ta’mar: “Here your father-in-law is going up to Tim’nah to shear his sheep.”^m 14 With that she removed the garments of her widowhood from her and covered herself with a shawl and veiled herself and sat down at the entrance of E-na’im, which is along the road to Tim’nah. For she saw that She’lah had grown up and yet she had not been given as a wife to him.ⁿ

15 When Judah caught sight of her, he at once took her for a harlot,^o because she had covered her face.^p 16 So he turned aside to her by the road and said: “Allow me, please, to have relations with you.”^q For he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law.^r However, she said: “What will you give me that you may have relations with me?”^s 17 To this he said: “I myself shall send a kid of the goats from the herd.” But she said: “Will you give a security until you send it?”^t 18 And he continued: “What is the security that I shall give you?” to which she said: “Your seal ring^a and your cord and your rod that is in your hand.” Then he gave them to her and had relations with her, so that she became pregnant by him. 19 After that she got up and went and removed her shawl off her and clothed herself with the garments of her widowhood.^b

20 And Judah proceeded to send the kid of the goats by the hand of his companion the A-dul’lam-ite^c in order to get back the security from the hand of the woman, but he never found her.

21 And he went inquiring of the men of her place, saying: “Where is that temple prostitute in E-na’im along the road?” But they kept saying: “No temple prostitute^d has ever been in this place.” 22 Finally he returned to Judah and said: “I never found her and, besides, the men of the place said, ‘No temple prostitute has ever been in this place.’” 23 So Judah said: “Let her take them for herself, in order that we may not fall into contempt.^e At any rate, I have sent this kid, but you—you never found her.”

24 However, about three months later it happened that it was told to Judah: “Ta’mar your daughter-in-law has played the harlot,^f and here she is also pregnant^g by her harlotry.”^h At that Judah said: “BRING her out and let her be burned.”ⁱ 25 As she was being brought out she herself sent to her father-in-law, saying: “By the man to whom these belong I am pregnant.”^j And she added: “Examine,^k please, to whom these belong, the seal ring and the cord* and the rod.”^l 26 Then Judah examined them and said:^m “She is more righteous than I am,ⁿ for the reason that I did not give her to She’lah my son.”^o And he had no further intercourse with her after that.^p

27 Now it developed that in the time of her giving birth, why, here there were twins in her belly. 28 Further, it turned out that when she was giving birth one extended his hand, and the midwife at once took and tied a scarlet piece about his hand, saying: "This one came out first." 29 Finally it developed that as soon as he drew back his hand, why, here his brother came out, so that she exclaimed: "What do you mean by this, that you have produced a perineal rupture for yourself?" Hence his name was called Pe'rez.*a 30 And afterward his brother upon whose hand the scarlet piece was came out and his name came to be called Ze'rah.*b

39 As for Joseph, he was brought down to Egypt,^c and Pot'i-phar,^d a court official of Phar'aoh,* the chief of the bodyguard, an Egyptian, got to buy him from the hand of the Ish'ma-elites^e who had brought him down there. 2 But Jehovah proved to be with Joseph, so that he turned out a successful man^f and came to be over the house of his master,* the Egyptian. 3 And his master got to see that Jehovah was with him and that everything he was doing Jehovah was making turn out successful in his hand.

4 And Joseph kept finding favor in his eyes and waited upon him continually, so that he appointed him over his house,^g and all that was his he gave into his hand. 5 And it followed that from the time he appointed him over his house and in charge of all that was his Jehovah kept blessing the house of the Egyptian due to Joseph, and Jehovah's blessing came to be upon all that he had in the house and in the field.^h 6 Finally he left everything that was his in Joseph's hand;ⁱ and he did not know what was with him at all except the bread he was eating. Moreover, Joseph grew to be beautiful in form and beautiful in appearance.

7 Now after these things it came about that the wife of his master began to raise her eyes^j toward Joseph and say: "Lie down with me."^k 8 But he would refuse^l and would say to his master's wife: "Here my master does not know what is with me in the house, and everything he has he has given into my hand.^a 9 There is no one greater in this house than I am, and he has not withheld from me anything at all except you, because you are his wife.^b So how could I commit this great badness and actually sin against God?^c

10 So it turned out that as she spoke to Joseph day after day he never listened to her to lie alongside her, to continue with her.^d 11 But it happened that on this day as other days* he went into the house to do his business, and there was none of the men of the house there in the house.^e 12 Then she grabbed hold of him by his garment,^f saying: "Lie down with me!"^g But he left his garment in her hand and took to flight and went on outside.^h 13 So it occurred that as soon as she saw that he had left his garment in her hand that he might flee outside, 14 she began to cry out to the men of her house and to say to them: "Look! He brought to us a man, a Hebrew, to make us a laughingstock. He came to me to lie down with me, but I began to cry out at the top of my voice.ⁱ 15 And it followed that as soon as he heard that I raised my voice and began crying out, he then left his garment beside me and took to flight and went on outside." 16 After that she kept his garment laid up beside her until his master came to his house.^j

17 Then she spoke to him according to these words, saying: "The Hebrew servant whom you brought to us came to me to make me a laughingstock.* 18 But it followed that as soon as I raised my voice and began to cry out, he then left his garment beside me and went fleeing outside."^k 19 The result was that as soon as his master heard the words of his wife which she spoke to him, saying: "Like this and this your servant did to me," his anger blazed.^l 20 So Joseph's master took him and gave him over to the prison house,* the house, saying: "For what reason are your faces gloomy today?"^a 8 At this they said to him: "We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter with us." So Joseph said to them: "Do not interpretations belong to God?^b Relate it to me, please."

21 However, Jehovah continued with Joseph and kept extending loving-kindness to him and granting him to find favor in the eyes of the chief officer* of the prison house.^b 22 So the chief officer of the prison house gave over into Joseph's hand all the prisoners who were in the prison house; and everything that they were doing there he proved to be the one having it done.^c 23 The chief officer of the prison house was looking after absolutely nothing that was in his hand, because Jehovah was with [Joseph]* and what he was doing Jehovah was making it turn out successful.^d

9 And the chief of the cupbearers went on to relate his dream to Joseph and to say to him: "In my dream, why, here there was a vine before me. 10 And on the vine there were three twigs, and it was apparently sprouting shoots.^c Its blossoms pushed forth. Its clusters ripened their grapes. 11 And Phar'aoh's cup was in my hand, and I proceeded to take the grapes and squeeze them out into Phar'aoh's cup.^d After that I gave the cup into Phar'aoh's hand."^e 12 Then Joseph said to him: "This is its interpretation:^f The three twigs are three days. 13 In three days from now Phar'aoh will lift up your head and he will certainly return you to your office;^g and you will certainly give Phar'aoh's cup into his hand, according to the former custom when you acted as his cupbearer.^h 14 Nevertheless, you must keep me in your remembrance as soon as it goes well with you,ⁱ and you must, please, perform loving-kindness with me and mention me to Phar'aoh,^j and you must get me out of this house. 15 For I was in fact kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews;^k and here also I have done nothing at all for which they should put me in the prison hole."^l

16 When the chief of the bakers saw that he had interpreted something good, he, in turn, said to Joseph: "I too was in my dream, and here there were three baskets of white bread upon my head, 17 and in the topmost basket there were all sorts of eatables for Phar'aoh,^m the product of a baker, and there were fowlsⁿ eating them out of the basket on top of my head." 18 Then Joseph answered and said: "This is its interpretation:^o The three baskets are three days. 19 In three days from now Phar'aoh will lift up your head from off you and will certainly hang you upon a stake;*^a and the fowls will certainly eat your flesh from off you.”^b

20 Now on the third day it turned out to be Phar'aoh's birthday,^c and he proceeded to make a feast for all his servants and to lift up the head of the chief of the cupbearers and the head of the chief of the bakers in the midst of his servants.^d 21 Accordingly he returned the chief of the cupbearers to his post of cupbearer,^e and he continued to give the cup into Phar'aoh's hand. 22 But the chief of the bakers he hung up,^f just as Joseph had given them the interpretation.^g 23 However, the chief of the cupbearers did not remember Joseph and went on forgetting him.^h

41 And it came about at the end of two full years* that Phar'aoh was dreamingⁱ and here he was standing by the river Nile. 2 And here ascending out of the river Nile were seven cows beautiful in appearance and fat-fleshed, and they went feeding among the Nile grass.^j 3 And here there were seven other cows ascending after them out of the river Nile, ugly in appearance and thin-fleshed,^k and they took their stand alongside the cows by the bank of the river Nile. 4 Then the cows that were ugly in appearance and thin-fleshed began to eat up the seven cows that were beautiful in appearance and fat.^l At this Phar'aoh woke up.^m

5 However, he went back to sleep and dreamed a second time. And here there were seven ears of grain coming up on one stalk, fat and good.ⁿ 6 And here there were seven ears of grain, thin and scorched by the east wind,^o growing up after them.^p 7 And the thin ears of grain began to swallow up the seven fat and full ears of grain.^q At this Phar'aoh woke up and here it was a dream.

8 And it developed in the morning that his spirit became agitated.^r So he sent and called all the magic-practicing priests of Egypt^a and all her wise men,^b and Phar'aoh went on to relate his dreams* to them.^c But there was no interpreter of them for Phar'aoh.

9 Then the chief of the cupbearers spoke with Phar'aoh,^d saying: “My sins I am mentioning today.^e 10 Phar'aoh was indignant at his servants.^f So he committed me to the jail of the house of the chief of the bodyguard,^g both me and the chief of the bakers. 11 After that we both dreamed a dream in the one night, both I and he. We dreamed each one his dream with its own interpretation.^h 12 And there was with us there a young man, a Hebrew,ⁱ a servant of the chief of the bodyguard.^j When we related them to him,^k he proceeded to interpret our dreams to us. He interpreted to each according to his dream. 13 And it turned out that just as he had interpreted to us so it happened. Me he returned to my office,^l but him he hanged.”^m

14 And Phar'aoh proceeded to send and to call Joseph,ⁿ that they might bring him quickly from the prison hole.^o Hence he shaved^p and changed his mantles^q and went in to Phar'aoh. 15 Then Phar'aoh said to Joseph: “I have dreamed a dream, but there is no interpreter of it. Now I myself have heard it said about you that you can hear a dream and interpret it.”^r 16 At this Joseph answered Phar'aoh, saying: “I need not be considered! God will announce* welfare to Phar'aoh.”^s

17 And Phar'aoh went on to speak to Joseph: “In my dream here I was standing on the bank of the river Nile. 18 And here ascending out of the river Nile were seven cows fat-fleshed and beautiful in form, and they began to feed among the Nile grass.^t 19 And here there were seven other cows ascending after them, poor and very bad in form and thin-fleshed.^u For badness I have not seen the like of them in all the land of Egypt. 20 And the skinny and bad cows began to eat up the first seven fat cows.^a 21 So these came into their bellies, and yet it could not be known that they had come into their bellies, as their appearance was bad just as at the start.^b At that I woke up.

22 "After that I saw in my dream and here there were seven ears of grain coming up on one stalk, full and good.^c 23 And here there were seven ears of grain shriveled, thin, scorched by the east wind,^d growing up after them. 24 And the thin ears of grain began to swallow up the seven good ears of grain.^e So I stated it to the magic-practicing priests,^f but there was none telling me."^g

25 Then Joseph said to Phar'aoth: "The dream of Phar'aoth is but one. What the [true] God is doing he has told to Phar'aoth.^h 26 The seven good cows are seven years. Likewise the seven good ears of grain are seven years. The dream is but one. 27 And the seven skinny and bad cows that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears of grain, scorched by the east wind,ⁱ will prove to be seven years of famine.^j 28 This is the thing that I have spoken to Phar'aoth: What the [true] God is doing he has caused Phar'aoth to see.^k

29 "Here there are seven years coming with great plenty in all the land of Egypt. 30 But seven years of famine will certainly arise after them, and all the plenty in the land of Egypt will certainly be forgotten and the famine will simply consume the land.^l 31 And the plenty once in the land will not be known as a result of that famine afterward, because it will certainly be very severe. 32 And the fact that the dream was repeated to Phar'aoth twice means that the thing is firmly established on the part of the [true] God,^m and the [true] God is speeding to do it.ⁿ

33 "So now let Phar'aoth look for a man discreet and wise and set him over the land of Egypt.^o 34 Let Phar'aoth act and appoint overseers over the land,^p and he must take up one fifth of the land of Egypt during the seven years of plenty.^a 35 And let them collect all the foodstuffs of these coming good years, and let them pile up grain under Phar'aoth's hand as foodstuffs in the cities,^b and they must safeguard it. 36 And the foodstuffs must serve as a supply for the land for the seven famine years, which will develop in the land of Egypt,^c in order that the land may not be cut off by the famine."^d

37 Well, the thing proved to be good in the eyes of Phar'aoth and of all his servants.^e 38 So Phar'aoth said to his servants: "Can another man be found like this one in whom the spirit of God is?"^f 39 After that Phar'aoth said to Joseph: "Since God has caused you to know all this,^g there is no one as discreet and wise as you are.^h 40 You will personally be over my house,ⁱ and all my people will obey you implicitly.^j Only as to the throne shall I be greater than you."^k 41 And Phar'aoth added to Joseph: "See, I do place you over all the land of Egypt."^l 42 With that Phar'aoth removed his signet ring^m from his own hand and put it upon Joseph's hand and clothed him with garments of fine linen* and placed a necklace of gold about his neck.ⁿ 43 Moreover, he had him ride in the second chariot of honor that he had,^o so that they should call out ahead of him, "Avrékh!"^p thus putting him over all the land of Egypt.

44 And Phar'aoth further said to Joseph: "I am Phar'aoth, but without your authorization no man may lift up his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt."^q

Then Joseph went out from before Phar'aoh and toured about in all the land of Egypt. 47 And during the seven years of plenty the land went on producing by the handfuls.^d 48 And he kept collecting all the foodstuffs of the seven years that came upon the land of Egypt and he would put the foodstuffs in the cities.^e The foodstuffs of the field that was round about a city he put in the midst of it.^f 49 And Joseph continued piling up grain in very great quantity,^g like the sand of the sea, until finally they gave up counting it, because it was without number.^h

50 And before the year of the famine arrived there were born to Joseph two sons,ⁱ whom As'e-nath the daughter of Poti'phe-ra the priest of On bore to him. 51 So Joseph called the name of the firstborn Ma-nas'seh,^j because, to quote him, "God^k has made me forget all my trouble and all the house of my father."^k 52 And the name of the second he called E'phra-im,^l because, to quote him, "God has made me fruitful in the land of my wretchedness."^m

53 And the seven years of the plenty that had obtained in the land of Egypt gradually ended,ⁿ 54 and, in turn, the seven years of the famine started to come, just as Joseph had said.^o And the famine developed in all the lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was found bread.^p 55 Finally all the land of Egypt became famished and the people began to cry to Phar'aoh for bread.^q Then Phar'aoh said to all the Egyptians: "Go to Joseph. to you, you are to do."^a 56 And the famine obtained over all the surface of the earth.^b Then Joseph began to open up all the grain depositories that were among them* and to sell to the Egyptians,^c as the famine got a strong grip on the land of Egypt. 57 Moreover, people of all the earth* came to Egypt to buy from Joseph, because the famine had a strong grip on all the earth.^d

42 Eventually Jacob got to see that there were cereals in Egypt.^e Then Jacob said to his sons: "Why do you keep looking at one another?" 2 And he added: "Here I have heard that there are cereals in Egypt.^f Go down there and buy for us from there, that we may keep alive and not die off." 3 Accordingly ten brothers^g of Joseph went down to buy grain from Egypt. 4 But Jacob did not send Benjamin,^h Joseph's brother, with his other brothers, because he said: "Otherwise a fatal accident* may befall him."ⁱ

5 So Israel's sons came along with the others who were coming to buy, because the famine existed in the land of Ca'naan.^j 6 And Joseph was the man in power over the land.^k He was the one that did the selling to all people of the earth.^l Consequently Joseph's brothers came and bowed low to him with their faces to the earth.^m 7 When Joseph got to see his brothers, he at once recognized them, but he made himself unrecognizable to them.ⁿ So he spoke harshly with them and said to them: "Where have you come from?" to which they said: "From the land of Ca'naan to buy foodstuffs."^o

8 Thus Joseph recognized his brothers, but they themselves did not recognize him. 9 Immediately Joseph remembered the dreams that he had dreamed respecting them,^p and he went on to say to them: "You are spies! You have come to see the exposed condition* of the land!"^a 10 Then they said to him: "No, my lord,^b but your servants^c have come to buy foodstuffs. 11 We are all of us sons of but one man. We are upright men. Your servants do not act as spies."^d 12 But he said to them: "Not so! Because you have come to see the exposed condition of the land!"^e 13 At this they said: "Your servants are twelve brothers.^f We are the sons of but one man^g in the land of Ca'naan; and here the youngest is with our father today,^h whereas the other one is no more."ⁱ

14 However, Joseph said to them: "It is what I have spoken to you, saying, 'You are spies!' 15 By this you will be tested out. As Phar'aoh lives, you will not go out of here except when YOUR youngest brother comes here.^j 16 Send one of you that he may get YOUR brother while you have been bound, that YOUR words may be tested out as the truth in YOUR case.^k And if not, then, as Phar'aoh lives, you are spies." 17 With that he put them together in custody for three days.

18 After that Joseph said to them on the third day: "Do this and keep alive. I fear! the [true] God. 19 If you are upright, let one of YOUR brothers be kept bound in YOUR house of custody,^m but the rest of YOU go, take cereals for the famine in YOUR houses.ⁿ 20 Then you will bring YOUR youngest brother to me, that YOUR words may be found trustworthy; and you will not die."^o And they proceeded to do so.

21 And they began to say one to the other: "Unquestionably we are guilty with regard to our brother,^p because we saw the distress of his soul when he implored compassion on our part, but we did not listen. That is why this distress has come upon us."^q 22 Then Reu'ben answered them, saying: "Did not I say to you, 'Do not sin against the child,' but you did not listen?"^r And now his blood, here it is certainly asked back."^s 23 As for them, they did not know that Joseph was listening, because there was an interpreter between them. 24 Consequently he turned away from them and began to weep.^a Then he returned to them and spoke to them and took Sim'e-on^b from them and bound him before their eyes.^c 25 After that Joseph gave the command, and they went filling up their receptacles with grain. Also, they were to return the money of the men to each one's individual sack^d and to give them provisions for the journey.^e Accordingly it was done so to them.

26 So they loaded their cereals upon their asses and got on their way from there. 27 When one opened his sack to give fodder to his ass at the lodging place,^f he got to see his money, and here it was in the mouth of his bag.^g 28 At that he said to his brothers: "My money has been returned and now here it is in my bag!" Then their hearts sank, so that they turned trembling to one another,^h saying: "What is this God has done to us?"ⁱ

29 At length they came to Jacob their father to the land of Ca'naan and told him all the things that had befallen them, saying: 30 "The man who is the lord^j of the country spoke harshly with us,^k since he took us for men spying on the country.^l 31 But we said to him, 'We are upright men.^m We do not act as spies. 32 We are twelve brothers,ⁿ the sons of our father.^o One is no more,^p and the youngest is today with our father in the land of Ca'naan.'^q 33 But the man who is the lord of the country said to us,^r 'By this I am going to know you are upright.'^s Have one brother of YOURS stay with me.^t Then you take something for the famine in YOUR houses and go.^u 34 And bring YOUR youngest brother to me, that I may know that you are no spies but you are upright. Your brother I shall give back to you, and you may carry on business in the land.'^v"

35 And it came about that when they were emptying their sacks here was each one's bundle of money in his sack. And they as well as their father got to see their bundles of money, and they became afraid. 36 Then Jacob their father exclaimed to them: "It is I you have bereaved!^a Joseph is no more and Sim'e-on is no more,^b and Benjamin you are going to take! It is upon me that all these things have come!" 37 But Reu'ben said to his father: "My own two sons you may put to death if I do not bring him back to you.^c Give him over to my care, and I shall be the one to return him to you."^d 38 However, he said: "My son will not go down with you men, because his brother is dead and he has been left by himself.^e If a fatal accident* should befall him on the way on which you would go, then you would certainly bring down my gray hairs with grief to She'ol."^f

43 And the famine was severe in the land.^g 2 And it came about that as soon as they had finished eating up the cereals they had brought from Egypt,^h their father proceeded to say to them: "Return, buy a little food for us."ⁱ 3 Then Judah said to him:^j "The man unmistakably bore witness to us, saying, 'You must not see my face again unless your brother is with you.'^k 4 If you are sending our brother with us,^l we are willing to go down and buy food for you. 5 But if you are not sending him, we shall not go down, because the man did say to us, 'You must not see my face again unless your brother is with you.'^m 6 And Israel exclaimed:ⁿ "Why did you have to do harm to me by telling the man you had another brother?" 7 At this they said: "The man directly inquired concerning us and our relatives, saying, 'Is your father yet alive?'^o Do you have another brother?" and we went on to tell him according to these facts.^p How could we know for certain that he would say, 'Bring your brother down?'"^q

8 Finally Judah said to Israel his father: "Send the boy with me,^r that we may get up and go and that we may keep alive and not die off,^s both we and you and our little children.^t 9 I shall be the one to be surety for him.^u Out of my hand you may exact the penalty for him.^a If I fail to bring him to you and present him to you, then I shall have sinned against you for all time.* 10 But if we had not lingered around, we should by now have been there and back these two times."^b

11 So Israel their father said to them: "If, then, that is the case,^c do this: Take the finest products of the land in your receptacles and carry them down to the man as a gift:^d a little balsam,^e and a little honey,^f labdanum and resinous bark,^g pistachio nuts and almonds.^h 12 Also, take double the money* in your hand; and the money that was returned in the mouth of your bags you will take back in your hand.ⁱ Maybe it was a mistake.^j 13 And take your brother and get up, return to the man. 14 And may God Almighty* give you pity before the man,^k that he may certainly release to you your other brother and Benjamin. But I, in case I must be bereaved, I shall certainly be bereaved!"^l

15 Accordingly the men took this gift, and they took double the money in their hand and Benjamin. Then they rose and went their way down to Egypt and got to stand before Joseph.^m 16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he at once said to the man who was over his house: "Take the men to the house and slaughter animals and make preparation,ⁿ because the men are to eat with me at noon." 17 Immediately the man did just as Joseph had said.^o So the man took the men to Joseph's house. 18 But the men got afraid because they had been taken to Joseph's house,^p and they began to say: "It is because of the money that went back with us in our bags at the start that we are being brought here for them to fall upon us and attack us and to take us for slaves and also our asses!"^q

19 Hence they approached the man who was over Joseph's house and spoke to him at the entrance of the house,

Ge 43:9* Lit., "all the days." 11* Or, "balm," that is, of Gilead. 12* Lit., "silver." 14* "And . . . God Almighty." Heb., we'el' Shad-dai. Neither 'EL, "God," nor Shad-dai, "Almighty," has the definite article.

20 and they said: "Excuse us, my lord! We surely did come down at the start to buy food.^a 21 But what occurred was that when we came to the lodging place^b and began opening our bags, why, here was the money of each one in the mouth of his bag, our money in full weight. So we would like to return it with our own hands.^c 22 And more money we have brought down in our hands to buy food. We certainly do not know who placed our money in our bags."^d 23 Then he said: "It is all right with you. Do not be afraid.^e YOUR God and the God of YOUR father gave you treasure in YOUR bags.^f Your money came first to me." After that he brought out Sim'e-on to them.^g

24 Then the man brought the men into Joseph's house and gave water that they might have their feet washed,^h and he gave fodder for their asses.ⁱ 25 And they proceeded to get the gift^j ready for Joseph's coming at noon, because they had heard that it was there they were going to eat bread.^k 26 When Joseph went on into the house, then they brought the gift that was in their hand to him into the house, and prostrated themselves to him to the earth.^l 27 After this he inquired whether they were getting along well^m and said:ⁿ "Is YOUR father, the aged man of whom you have spoken, getting along well?^o Is he still alive?"ⁿ 28 To this they said: "Your servant our father is getting along well. He is still alive." Then they bowed down and prostrated themselves.^o

29 When he raised his eyes and saw Benjamin his brother, the son of his mother,^p he went on to say: "Is this YOUR brother, the youngest one of whom you have spoken to me?"^q And he added: "May God show you his favor,^r my son." 30 Joseph was now in a hurry, because his inward emotions were excited toward his brother,^s so that he looked for a place to weep and he went into an interior room and gave way to tears there.^a 31 After that he washed his face and went out and kept control of himself and said:^b "SET on the meal."^c 32 And they proceeded to set it on for him by himself and for them by themselves and for the Egyptians who were eating with him by themselves; for the Egyptians were not able to eat a meal with the Hebrews, because that is a detestable thing to the Egyptians.^d

33 And they were seated before him, the firstborn according to his right as firstborn^e and the youngest according to his youngness; and the men kept looking at one another in amazement. 34 And he kept having portions carried from before him to them, but he would increase Benjamin's portion five times the size of the portions of all the others.^f So they continued banqueting and drinking with him to the full.^g

44 Later on he commanded the man who was over his house,^h saying: "Fill the bags of the men with food to the extent they are able to carry it and place the money of each one in the mouth of his bag.ⁱ 2 But you must place my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the bag of the youngest and the money for his cereals." So he did according to the word of Joseph which he had spoken.^j

3 The morning had become light when the men were sent away,^k both they and their asses. 4 They went out of the city. They had not gone far when Joseph said to the man who was over his house: "Get up! Chase after the men and be certain to overtake them and to say to them, 'Why have you repaid bad for good?'^l 5 Is not this the thing that my master drinks from and by means of which he expertly reads omens?^m It is a bad deed you have committed."ⁿ

6 Eventually he overtook them and spoke these words to them. 7 But they said to him: "Why does my lord speak with such words as these? It is unthinkable that your servants should do anything like this. 8 Why, the money that we found in the mouth of our bags we brought back to you from the land of Ca'naan.^a How, then, could we steal silver or gold from the house of your master?^b 9 Let the one of your slaves* with whom it may be found die and let us ourselves also become slaves to my master."^c 10 So he said: "Let it be now exactly according to YOUR words.^d Thus the one with whom it may be found will become a slave to me,^e but YOU yourselves will be proved innocent." 11 With that they quickly let down each one his bag to the earth and they opened each one his own bag. 12 And he went searching carefully. He started with the oldest and finished with the youngest. At last the cup was found in Benjamin's bag.^f

13 Then they ripped their mantles^g apart and lifted each one his load back onto his ass and returned to the city. 14 And Judah^h and his brothers went on into Joseph's house, and he was still there; and they proceeded to fall before him to the earth.ⁱ 15 Joseph now said to them: "What sort of deed is this that you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I am can expertly read omens?"^j 16 At this Judah exclaimed: "What can we say to my master? What can we speak? And how can we prove ourselves righteous?^k The [true] God has found out the error of your slaves.^l Here we are slaves to my master,^m both we and the one in whose hand the cup was found!" 17 However, he said: "It is unthinkable for me to do this!ⁿ The man in whose hand the cup was found is the one who will become a slave to me.^o As for the rest of YOU, go up in peace to YOUR father."^p

18 Judah now came near to him and said: "I pray you, my master, please let your slave speak a word in the hearing of my master,^q and do not let your anger^r grow hot against your slave, because it is the same with you as with Phar'aoh.^s" 19 My master* asked his slaves, saying, 'Do you have a father or a brother?' 20 So we said to my master, 'We do have an aged father

If he did leave his father, he would certainly die.'^d 23 Then you said to your slaves, 'Unless YOUR youngest brother comes down with YOU, YOU may not see my face anymore.'^e

24 "And it came about that we went up to your slave my father and then told him the words of my master. 25 Later our father said, 'Return, buy a little food for us.'^f 26 But we said, 'We are not able to go down. 30 "And now, as soon as I should come to your slave my father without the boy along with us, when that one's soul is bound up with this one's soul,^k 31 then it is certain to occur that as soon as he sees that the boy is not there he will simply die, and your slaves will indeed bring down the gray hairs of your slave our father with grief to She'ol.^l 32 For your slave became surety^m for the boy when away from his father, saying, 'If I fail to bring him back to you, then I shall have sinned against my father forever.'ⁿ 33 So now, please, let your slave stay instead of the boy as a slave to my master, that the boy

45 At this Joseph was no longer able to control himself before all those who were stationed by him.^c So he cried out: "HAVE everybody go out from me!" And no one else stood with him while Joseph made himself known to his brothers.^d

2 And he began to raise his voice in weeping,^e so that the Egyptians got to hear it and Phar'aoh's house got to hear it. 3 Finally Joseph said to his brothers: "I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?" But his brothers were unable to answer him at all, because they were disturbed by reason of him.^f 4 So Joseph said to his brothers: "Come close to me, please." With that they came close to him.

Then he said: "I am Joseph YOUR brother, whom YOU sold into Egypt.^g 5 But now do not feel hurt^h and do not be angry with yourselves because YOU sold me here; because for the preservation of life God has sent me ahead of you.ⁱ 6 For this is the second year of the famine in the midst of the earth,^j and there are yet five years in which there will be no plowing time or harvest.^k 7 Consequently God sent me ahead of you in order to place a remnant^{*1} for YOU men in the earth and to keep YOU alive by a great escape. 8 So now it was not YOU who sent me here,^m but it was the [true] God, that he might appoint me a fatherⁿ to Phar'aoh and a lord for all his house and as one dominating over all the land of Egypt.

14 Then he fell upon the neck of Benjamin his brother and gave way to weeping, and Benjamin wept upon his neck.^c 15 And he proceeded to kiss all his brothers and to weep over them,^d and after that his brothers spoke with him.

16 And the news was heard at the house of Phar'aoh, saying: "Joseph's brothers have come!" And it proved to be good in the eyes of Phar'aoh and of his servants.^e 17 Accordingly Phar'aoh said to Joseph: "Say to your brothers, 'Do this: Load YOUR beasts of burden and go enter the land of Ca'naan,^f 18 and take YOUR father and YOUR households and come here to me, that I may give YOU the good of the land of Egypt; and eat the fat part of the land.^g 19 And you yourself are commanded:^{*h} "Do this: TAKE for yourselves wagonsⁱ from the land of Egypt for YOUR little ones and YOUR wives, and YOU must lift YOUR father on one and come here.^j 20 And do not let YOUR eye feel sorry over YOUR equipment,^k because the good of all the land of Egypt is YOURS."^l

21 Following that the sons of Israel did so, and Joseph gave them wagons according to Phar'aoh's orders and gave them provisions^m for the way. 22 To each of them he gave individual changes of mantles,ⁿ but to Benjamin he gave three hundred silver pieces and five changes of mantles.^o 23 And to his father he sent as follows: ten asses carrying good things of Egypt and ten she-asses carrying grain and bread and sustenance for his father for the way. 24 Thus he sent his brothers off, and they proceeded to go. However, he said to them: "Do not get exasperated at one another on the way."^a

25 And they began going up out of Egypt and at length came into the land of Ca'naan to Jacob their father. 26 Then they reported to him, saying: "Joseph is still alive, and he is the one dominating over all the land of Egypt!"^b But his heart grew numb, because he did not believe them.^c 27 When they went on speaking to him all of Joseph's words that he had spoken to them and he got to see the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father began to revive.^d 28 Then Israel exclaimed: "It is enough! Joseph my son is still alive! Ah, let me go and see him before I die!"^e

46 Accordingly Israel and all who were his pulled out and came to Be'er-she'ba,^f and he proceeded to sacrifice sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.^g 2 Then God talked to Israel in visions of the night and said:^h "Jacob, Jacob!" to which he said: "Here I am!"ⁱ 3 And he went on to say: "I am the [true] God,^j the God of your father.^k * Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I shall constitute you there into a great nation.^l 4 I myself shall go down with you to Egypt and I myself shall surely bring you up also;^m and Joseph will lay his hand upon your eyes."ⁿ

5 After that Jacob got up out of Be'er-she'ba, and the sons of Israel continued transporting Jacob their father and their little ones and their wives in the wagons that Phar'aoh had sent to transport him.^o 6 Further, they took along their herds and their goods, which they had accumulated in the land of Ca'naan.^p Eventually they came into Egypt, Jacob and all his offspring with him. 7 He brought his sons and his sons' sons with him, his daughters and his sons' daughters, even all his offspring, with him into Egypt.^a

8 Now these are the names of Israel's sons who came into Egypt:^b Jacob and his sons: Jacob's firstborn was Reu'ben.^c

9 And the sons of Reu'ben were Ha'noch and Pal'lu and Hez'ron and Car'mi.^d

10 And the sons of Sim'e-on^e were Jem'u'el and Ja'min and O'had and Ja'chin^f and Zo'har and Sha'ul^g the son of a Ca'naan-ite woman.

11 And the sons of Le'vi^h were Ger'shon,ⁱ Ko'hath^j and Me-rar'i.^k

12 And the sons of Judah^l were Er^m and O'nanⁿ and She'lah^o and Pe'rez^p and Ze'rah.^q However, Er and O'nan died in the land of Ca'naan.^r

And the sons of Pe'rez came to be Hez'ron^s and Ha'mul.^t

13 And the sons of Is'sa-char^u were To'la^v and Pu'vah^w and Iob and Shim'ron.^x

14 And the sons of Zeb'u-lun^y were Se'red and E'lon and Jah'le-el.^z

15 These are the sons of Le'ah,^a whom she bore to Jacob in Pad'dan-a'ram, together with his daughter Di'nah.^b All the souls of his sons and of his daughters were thirty-three.

16 And the sons of Gad^c were Ziph-ion and Hag'gi, Shu'ni and Ez'bon, E'ri and Ar-o'di and A-re'li.^d

17 And the sons of Ash'er^e were Im'nah and Ish'vah and Ish'vi and Be-ri'ah,^f and there was Se'rah their sister.

And the sons of Be-ri'ah were He'ber and Mal'chi-el.^g

18 These are the sons of Zil'pah,^h whom La'ban gave to his daughter Le'ah. In time she bore these to Jacob: sixteen souls.

19 The sons of Rachel,ⁱ Jacob's wife, were Joseph^j and Benjamin.^k

20 And there came to be born to Joseph in the land of Egypt Man-as'- seh^a and E'phra-im,^{*b} whom As'e-nath^c the daughter of Pot'i'phe-ra the priest of On bore to him.

21 And the sons of Benjamin were Be'la^d and Be'cher^e and Ash'bel, Ge'ra^f and Na'a-man,^g E'hi and Rosh, Mup'pim^h and Hup'pimⁱ and Ard.

22 These are the sons of Rachel who were born to Jacob. All the souls were fourteen.

23 And the sons of Dan^j were Hu'shim.^k

24 And the sons of Naph'ta-li^l were Jah'ze-el and Gu'ni^m and Je'zer and Shil'lem.ⁿ

25 These are the sons of Bil'hah,^o whom La'ban gave to his daughter Rachel. In time she bore these to Jacob; all the souls were seven.

26 All the souls who came to Jacob into Egypt were those who issued out of his upper thigh,^p aside from the wives of Jacob's sons. All the souls were sixty-six. 27 And Joseph's sons who were born to him in Egypt were two souls. All the souls of the house of Jacob who came into Egypt were seventy.^q

28 And he sent Judah^r in advance of him^s to Go'shen. After that they came into the land of Go'shen.^{rs} 29 Then Joseph had his chariot made ready and went up to meet Israel his father at Go'shen.^t When he appeared to him he at once fell upon his neck and gave way to tears upon his neck again and again.^u 30 Finally Israel said to Joseph: "This time I am willing to die,^v now that I have seen your face, since you are still alive."

Ge 46:20* After "Ephraim" LXX adds five more names, as it reads: "But there were sons born to Manasseh, whom his Syrian concubine bore to him, namely, Machir. And Machir became father to Galaad. But the sons of Ephraim, Manasseh's brother, were Suta-laam and Taam. And the sons of Suta-laam were Edem." This may explain why LXX, in Ge 46:27 and Ex 1:5, and Stephen, in Ac 7:14, count 75 souls instead of 70. 27* "Seventy," MTSyVg; LXX, "seventy-five." 28* "To Joseph, that he might make announcement to him," Vg. 28* "To Joseph to meet him at Heroopolis in the land of Rameses," LXX.

31 Then Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household: "Let me go up and report to Phar'aoh and say to him,^a 'My brothers and my father's household who were in the land of Ca'naan have come here to me.'^b 32 And the men are shepherds,^c because they became stock raisers;^d and their flocks and their herds and all they have they have brought here.'^e 33 And what must occur is that when Phar'aoh will call you and actually say, 'What is YOUR occupation?' 34 YOU must say, 'Your servants have continued to be stock raisers from our youth until now, both we and our forefathers,'^f in order that YOU may dwell in the land of Go'shen,^g because every herder of sheep is a detestable thing to Egypt."^h

47 Accordingly Joseph came and reported to Phar'aoh and said:ⁱ "My father and my brothers and their flocks and their herds and all they have have come from the land of Ca'naan, and here they are in the land of Go'shen."^j 2 And from the whole number of his brothers he took five men, that he might present them to Phar'aoh.^k

3 Then Phar'aoh said to his brothers: "What is YOUR occupation?"^l So they said to Phar'aoh: "Your servants are herders of sheep,^m both we and our forefathers."ⁿ 4 After that they said to Phar'aoh: "We have come to reside as aliens in the land,^o because there is no pasturage for the flock that your servants have,^p for the famine is severe in the land of Ca'naan.^q And now let your servants dwell, please, in the land of Go'shen."^r 5 At that Phar'aoh said to Joseph: "Your father and your brothers have come here to you. 6 The land of Egypt is at your disposal.^s Have your father and your brothers dwell in the very best of the land.^t Let them dwell in the land of Go'shen,^u and if you know that there are among them courageous men,^v you must appoint them cattle chiefs^w over what is mine."^w

Ge 47:6* "Industrious men," Vg. 6* Heb., sa-reh'.

7 Then Joseph brought in Jacob his father and introduced him to Phar'aoh, and Jacob proceeded to bless Phar'aoh.^a 8 Phar'aoh now said to Jacob: "How many are the days of the years of your life?" 9 So Jacob said to Phar'aoh: "The days of the years of my alien residences are a hundred and thirty years.^b Few and distressing the days of the years of my life have proved,^c and they have not reached the days of the years of the lives of my fathers in the days of their alien residences."^d 10 After that Jacob blessed Phar'aoh and went out from before Phar'aoh.^e

11 Thus Joseph had his father and his brothers dwell and he gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the very best of the land, in the land of Ram'es-ses,^f just as Phar'aoh had commanded. 12 And Joseph kept supplying his father and his brothers and the entire household of his father with bread,^g according to the number of the little ones.^{*h}

13 Now there was no bread in all the land, because the famine was very severe;ⁱ and the land of Egypt and the land of Ca'naan became exhausted as a result of the famine.^j 14 And Joseph went on picking up all the money that was to be found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Ca'naan for the cereals which people were buying;^k and Joseph kept bringing the money into Phar'aoh's house. 15 In time the money from the land of Egypt and the land of Ca'naan was spent, and all the Egyptians began coming to Joseph, saying: "Give us bread!^l And why should we die in front of you because money has run out?"^m 16 Then Joseph said: "Hand over YOUR livestock and I shall give YOU bread in exchange for YOUR livestock, if money has run out." 17 And they began bringing their livestock to Joseph; and Joseph kept giving them bread in exchange for their horses* and the livestock of the flock and the livestock of the herd and the asses,^a and he kept providing them with bread in exchange for all their livestock during that year.

18 Gradually that year came to its close, and they began coming to him in the next* year and saying to him: "We shall not hide it from my lord but the money and the stock of domestic animals have been spent to my lord.^b There remains nothing before my lord but our bodies and our land.^c 19 Why should we die before your eyes,^d both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread,^e and we together with our land will become slaves to Phar'aoh; and give us seed that we may live and not die and our land not be laid desolate."^f 20 So Joseph bought all the land of the Egyptians for Phar'aoh,^g because the Egyptians sold each one his field, for the famine had got a strong grip on them; and the land came to be Phar'aoh's.

21 As for the people, he removed them into cities from one end of the territory of Egypt to its other end.^h 22 Only the land of the priests he did not buy,ⁱ because the rations for the priests were from Phar'aoh and they ate their rations that Phar'aoh gave them.^j That is why they did not sell their land.^k 23 Then Joseph said to the people: "See, I have today bought YOU and YOUR land for Phar'aoh. Here is seed for YOU, and YOU must sow the land with it.^l 24 When it has resulted in produce,^m then you must give a fifth to Phar'aoh,ⁿ but four parts will become YOURS as seed for the field and as food for YOU and for those who are in YOUR houses and for YOUR little ones to eat."^o 25 Consequently they said: "You have preserved our lives.^p Let us find favor in the eyes of my lord, and we will become slaves to Phar'aoh."^q 26 And Joseph proceeded to make it a decree down to this day over the landed estate of Egypt for Phar'aoh to have to the amount of a fifth. Only the land of the priests as a distinct group did not become Phar'ao'h's.^a

27 And Israel continued to dwell in the land of Egypt, in the land of Go'shen;^b and they became settled in it and were fruitful and grew to be very many.^c 28 And Jacob lived on in the land of Egypt for seventeen years, so that Jacob's days, the years of his life, came to be a hundred and forty-seven years.^d

29 Gradually the days approached for Israel to die.^e So he called his son Joseph and said to him: "If, now, I have found favor in your eyes, place your hand, please, under my thigh,^f and you must exercise loving-kindness and trustworthiness* toward me.^g (Please, do not bury me in Egypt.)^h 30 And I must lie with my fathers,ⁱ and you must carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their grave."^j Accordingly he said: "I myself shall do in keeping with your word."^k 31 Then he said: "Swear to me." So he swore to him.^k At that Israel prostrated himself over the head of the couch.^l

48 And it came about after these things that it was said to Joseph: "Look, your father is becoming weak." At that he took with him his two sons Ma-nas'seh and E'phra-im.^m 2 Then it was reported to Jacob and said: "Here your son Joseph has come to you." So Israel exerted his strength and sat up on his couch. 3 And Jacob proceeded to say to Joseph:

"God Almighty* appeared to me at Luzⁿ in the land of Ca'naan that he might bless me.^o 4 And he went on to say to me, 'Here I am making you fruitful,^a and I will make you many and I will transform you into a congregation of peoples^b and I will give this land to your seed after you for a possession to time indefinite.'^c 5 And now your two sons who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came here to you into Egypt, they are mine.^d E'phra-im and Ma-nas'seh will become mine like Reu-ben and Sim'e-on.^e 6 But your progeny to which you shall* become father after them will become yours. Together with the name of their brothers they will be called in their inheritance.^f 7 And as for me, when I was coming from Pad'dan,^g Rachel died^h alongside me in the land of Ca'naan on the way while there was yet a good stretch of land before coming to Eph'rath,ⁱ so that I buried her there on the way to Eph'rath, that is to say, Beth'le-hem."^j

8 Then Israel saw Joseph's sons and said: "Who are these?"^k 9 So Joseph said to his father: "They are my sons whom God has given me in this place."^l At this he said: "Bring them, please, to me that I may bless them."^m 10 Now the eyes of Israel were dull from old age.ⁿ He was unable to see. Accordingly he brought them close to him, and he then kissed them and embraced them.^o 11 And Israel went on to say to Joseph: "I had no idea of seeing your face,^p but here God has let me see also your offspring." 12 After that Joseph brought them out away from his knees, and he bowed down with his face to the earth.^q

15 And he proceeded to bless Joseph and to say:^a

"The [true] God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked,^b

The [true] God who has been shepherding me during all my existence until this day,^c

And let them increase to a multitude in the midst of the earth."^g

17 When Joseph saw that his father kept his right hand placed on E'phra-im's head, it was displeasing to him,^h and he tried to take hold of his father's hand to remove it from E'phra-im's head to Ma-nas's head.ⁱ 18 Hence Joseph said to his father: "Not so, my father, because this is the firstborn.^j Put your right hand on his head." 19 But his father kept refusing and said: "I know it, my son, I know it. He too will become a people and he too will become great.^k But, just the same, his younger brother will become greater than he will,^l and his offspring will become the full equivalent* of nations."^m 20 And he continued to bless them on that day,ⁿ saying:

"By means of you* let Israel repeatedly pronounce blessing, saying,

'May God constitute you like E'phra-im and like Ma-nas's head.'"^o

Thus he kept putting E'phra-im before Ma-nas's head.^p

33 Thus Jacob finished giving commands to his sons. Then he gathered his feet up onto the couch and expired and was gathered to his people.^e

50 Then Joseph fell upon the face of his father^f and burst into tears over him and kissed him.^g 2 After that Joseph commanded his servants, the physicians, to embalm^h his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel, 3 and they took fully forty days for him, for this many days they customarily take for the embalming, and the Egyptians continued to shed tears for him seventy days.ⁱ

4 Finally the days of weeping for him passed, and Joseph spoke to Phar'aoh's household, saying: "If, now, I have found favor in YOUR eyes,^j speak, please, in the hearing of Phar'aoh, saying, 5 'My father made me swear,^k saying: "Look! 9 There also went up with him both chariots^a and horsemen, and the camp came to be very numerous. 10 Then they came to the threshing floor^b of A'tad,^c which is in the region of the Jordan,^c and there they carried on a very great and heavy wailing and he kept up the mourning rites for his father seven days.^d 11 And the inhabitants of the land, the Ca'naan-ites, got to see the mourning rites in the threshing floor of A'tad, and they exclaimed: "This is a heavy mourning for the Egyptians!" They were born upon Joseph's knees.^c 24 At length Joseph said to his brothers: "I am dying; but God will without fail turn his attention to YOU,^d and he will certainly bring YOU up out of this land to the land about which he swore* to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob."^e 25 Hence Joseph made the sons of Israel swear, saying: "God will without fail turn his attention to YOU. Accordingly YOU must take my bones up out of here."^f 26 After that Joseph died at the age of a hundred and ten years; and they had him embalmed,^g and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

EXODUS

1 Now these are the names* of Israel's sons who came into Egypt with Jacob; each man and his household came:^a 2 Reu'ben,^b Sim'e-on,^c Le'vi^d and Judah,^e 3 Is'sa-char,^f Zeb'u-lun^g and Benjamin,^h 4 Danⁱ and Naph'ta-li,^j Gad* and Ash'er.^k 5 And all the souls who issued out of Jacob's upper thigh^m came to be seventy souls,* but Joseph was already in Egypt.ⁿ 6 Eventually Joseph died,^o and also all his brothers and all that generation. 7 And the sons of Israel became fruitful and began to swarm; and they kept on multiplying and growing mightier at a very extraordinary rate, so that the land got to be filled with them.^p

8 In time there arose over Egypt a new king who did not know Joseph.^q 9 And he proceeded to say to his people: "Look! The people of the sons of Israel are more numerous and mightier than we are.^a 10 Come on! Let us deal shrewdly with them,^b for fear they may multiply, and it must turn out that, in case war should befall us,^c then they certainly will also be added to those who hate us and will fight against us and go up out of the country."

11 So they set over them chiefs of forced labor for the purpose of oppressing them in their burden-bearing;^c and they went building cities as storage places for Phar'aoh, namely, Pi'thom and Ra-am'ses.^d 12 But the more they would oppress them, the more they kept spreading abroad, so that they felt a sickening dread as a result of the sons of Israel.^e 13 Consequently the Egyptians made the sons of Israel slave under tyranny.^f 14 And they kept making their life bitter with hard slavery at clay mortar^g and bricks* and with every form of slavery in the field,^a yes, every form of slavery of theirs in which they used them as slaves under tyranny.^b

15 Later on the king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives,^c the name of one of whom was Shiph'rah and the name of the other Pu'ah, 16 yes, he went so far as to say: "When you help the Hebrew women to give birth and you do see them on the stool for childbirth, if it is a son, you must also put it to death; but if it is a daughter, it must also live." 17 However, the midwives feared the [true] God,^d and they did not do as the king of Egypt had spoken to them,^e but they would preserve the male children alive.^f 18 In time the king of Egypt called the midwives and said to them: "Why is it you have done this thing, in that you preserved the male children alive?"^g 19 In turn the midwives said to Phar'aoh: "Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women. Because they are lively, they have already given birth before the midwife can come in to them."

20 So God dealt well with the midwives;^h and the people kept growing more numerous and becoming very mighty. 21 And it came about that because the midwives had feared the [true] God he later presented them with families.ⁱ 22 Finally Phar'aoh commanded all his people, saying: "Every newborn son you are to throw into the river Nile, but every daughter you are to preserve alive."^j

2 Meantime, a certain man of the house of Le'vi went ahead and took a daughter of Le'vi.^k 2 And the woman became pregnant and brought a son to birth. When she saw how good-looking he was, she kept him concealed^l for three lunar months.^m 3 When she was no longer able to conceal him,ⁿ she then took for him an ark* of papyrus and coated it with bitumen and pitch^o and put the child in it and put it among the reeds^p by the bank of the river Nile. 4 Further, his sister stationed herself at a distance to find out what would be done with him.^a

5 After a while Phar'aoh's daughter came down to bathe in the Nile River, and her female attendants were walking by the side of the Nile River. And she caught sight of the ark in the middle of the reeds. Immediately she sent her slave girl that she might get it.^b 6 When she opened it she got to see the child, and here the boy was weeping. At that she felt compassion for him,^c although she said: "This is one of the children of the Hebrews." 7 Then his sister said to Phar'aoh's daughter: "Shall I go and specially call for you a nursing woman from the Hebrew women that she may nurse the child for you?" 8 So Phar'aoh's daughter said to her: "Go!" At once the maiden went and called the child's mother.^d 9 Phar'aoh's daughter then said to her: "Take this child with you and nurse him for me, and I myself shall give you your wages."^e Accordingly the woman took the child and nursed him. 10 And the child grew up. Then she brought him to Phar'aoh's daughter, so that he became a son to her;^f and she proceeded to call his name Moses* and to say: "It is because I have drawn him out of the water."^g

11 Now it came about in those days, as Moses was becoming strong, that he went out to his brothers that he might look at the burdens they were bearing;^h and he caught sight of a certain Egyptian striking a certain Hebrew of his brothers.ⁱ 12 So he turned this way and that and saw there was nobody in sight. Then he struck the Egyptian down and hid him in the sand.^j

13 However, he went out on the following day and here there were two Hebrew men struggling with each other. So he said to the one in the wrong: "Why should you strike your companion?"^k 14 At this he said: "Who appointed you as a prince and judge over us?^a Are you intending to kill me* just as you killed the Egyptian?"^b Moses now got afraid and said: "Surely the thing has become known!"^c

15 Subsequently Phar'aoh got to hear of this thing, and he attempted to kill Moses;^d but Moses ran away^e from Phar'aoh that he might dwell in* the land of Mid'i-an;^f and he took a seat by a well. 16 Now the priest^g of Mid'i-an had seven daughters, and as usual they came and drew water and filled the gutters to water their father's flock.^h

17 And as usual the shepherds came and drove them away. At this Moses got up and helped the women out* and watered their flock.ⁱ 18 So when they came home to Reu'el^j their father he exclaimed: "How is it you have come home so quickly today?" 19 To this they said: "A certain Egyptian^k delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds and, besides, he actually drew water for us that he might water the flock."

20 Then he said to his daughters: "But where is he? Why is it that you have left the man behind? Call him, that he may eat bread."^l 21 After that Moses showed willingness to dwell with the man, and he gave Zip-po'rah^m his daughter to Moses. 22 Later she bore a son and he called his name Ger'shom,ⁿ because, he said: "An alien resident I have come to be in a foreign land."^o

23 And it came about during those many days that the king of Egypt finally died,^p but the sons of Israel continued to sigh because of the slavery* and to cry out in complaint,^q and their cry for help kept going up to the [true] God because of the slavery.^r 24 In time God heard^s their groaning^t and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.^a 25 So God looked on the sons of Israel and God took notice.*

3 And Moses became a shepherd of the flock of Jeth'ro,^b the priest of Mid'i-an, whose son-in-law he was.^c While he was driving the flock to the west side of the wilderness, he came at length to the mountain of the [true] God,^d to Ho'reb.^e 2 Then Jehovah's angel appeared to him in a flame of fire in the midst of a thornbush.^f As he kept looking, why, here the thornbush was burning with the fire and yet the thornbush was not consumed. 3 At this Moses said: "Let me just turn aside that I may inspect this great phenomenon, as to why the thornbush is not burnt up."^g 4 When Jehovah* saw that he turned aside to inspect, God at once called to him out of the midst of the thornbush and said: "Moses! Moses!" to which he said: "Here I am."^h 5 Then he said: "Do not come near here. Draw your sandals from off your feet, because the place where you are standing is holy ground."ⁱ

6 And he went on to say: "I am the God of your father,* the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob."^j Then Moses concealed his face, because he was afraid to look at the [true] God.^k 7 And Jehovah added: "Unquestionably I have seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and I have heard their outcry as a result of those who drive them to work; because I well know the pains they suffer.^l 8 And I am proceeding to go down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians^m and to bring them up out of that land to a land good and spacious, to a land flowing with milk and honey,ⁿ to the locality of the Ca'naan-ites and the Hit'tites and the Am'or-ites and the Per'iz-zites and the Hi'vites and the Jeb'u-sites.^o 9 And now, look! the outcry of the sons of Israel has come

Heb., אֲנִי אֶהְיֶה אֲשֶׁר אֶהְיֶה ('Eh-ye'h' 'Asher' 'Eh-ye'h'), God's own self-designation; Leeser, "I WILL BE THAT I WILL BE"; Rotherham, "I Will Become whatsoever I please." Gr., E-go' ei-mi ho on, "I am The Being," or, "I am The Existing One"; Lat., e'go sum qui sum, "I am Who I am." 'Eh-ye'h' comes from the Heb. verb ha-yah', "become; prove to be." Here 'Eh-ye'h' is in the imperfect state, first person sing., meaning "I shall become"; or, "I shall prove to be." The reference here is not to God's self-existence but to what he has in mind to become toward others. Compare Ge 2:4 ftn, "Jehovah," where the kindred, but different, Heb. verb ha-wah' appears in the divine name.

shall prove to be with your mouth and I will teach you what you ought to say."^a 13 But he said: "Excuse me, Jehovah,* but send, please, by the hand of the one whom you are going to send." 14 Then Jehovah's anger grew hot against Moses and he said: "Is not Aaron the Levite your brother?"^b I do know that he can really speak. And, besides, here he is on his way out to meet you. When he does see you, he will certainly rejoice in his heart.^c 15 And you must speak to him and put the words in his mouth;^d and I myself shall prove to be with your mouth and his mouth,^e and I will teach you men what you are to do.^f 16 And he must speak for you to the people; and it must occur that he will serve as a mouth to you,^g and you will serve as God* to him.^h 17 And this rod you will take in your hand that you may perform the signs with it."ⁱ

18 Accordingly Moses went and returned to Jeth'ro* his father-in-law and said to him:^j "I want to go, please, and return to my brothers who are in Egypt that I may see whether they are still alive."^k So Jeth'ro said to Moses: "Go in peace."^l 19 After that Jehovah said to Moses in Mid'i-an: "Go, return to Egypt, because all the men who were hunting for your soul* are dead."^m

20 Then Moses took his wife and his sons and made them ride on an ass, and he proceeded to return to the land of Egypt. Moreover, Moses took the rod of the [true] God in his hand.ⁿ 21 And Jehovah went on to say to Moses: "After you have gone and returned to Egypt see that you men actually perform all the miracles that I have put in your hand before Phar'aoh.^o As for me, I shall let his heart become obstinate;^p and he will not send the people away.^q 22 And you must say to Phar'aoh, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Israel is my son, my firstborn."^r 23 And I say to you: Send my son away that he may 24 Now it came about on the road at the lodging place^b that Jehovah* got to meet him^c and kept looking for a way to put him to death.^d 25 Finally Zip-po’rah^e took a flint and cut off her son’s foreskin^f and caused it to touch his feet and said: “It is because you are a bridegroom of blood* to me.””^g 26 Consequently he let go of him. At that time she said: “A bridegroom of blood,” because of the circumcision.*

27 Then Jehovah said to Aaron: “Go to meet Moses into the wilderness.””^h With that he went and met him in the mountain of the [true] God^h and kissed him. 28 And Moses proceeded to tell Aaron all the words of Jehovah, who had sent him,ⁱ and all the signs that he had commanded him to do.*^j 29 After that Moses and Aaron went and gathered all the older men of the sons of Israel.^k 30 Then Aaron spoke all the words that Jehovah had spoken to Moses,^l and he performed the signs^m under the eyes of the people. 31 At this the people believed.ⁿ When they heard that Jehovah had turned his attention^o to the sons of Israel and that he had seen their affliction,^p then they bowed down and prostrated themselves.^q

5 And afterward Moses and Aaron went in and proceeded to say to Phar’ah: “This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, ‘Send my people away that they may celebrate a festival to me in the wilderness.’”^s 2 But Phar’ah said: “Who is Jehovah,^t so that I should obey* his voice to send Israel away?”^u I do not know Jehovah at all^v and, what is more, I am not going to send Israel away.”^w 3 However, they went on to say: “The God of the Hebrews has come in touch with us.^a We want to go, please, a journey of three days into the wilderness and sacrifice to Jehovah our God;^b otherwise he may strike at us with pestilence* or with sword.”^c 4 At this the king of Egypt said to them: “Why is it, Moses and Aaron, that you cause* the people to leave off from their works?^d Go bearing YOUR burdens!”^e 5 And Phar’ah continued: “Look! The people of the land are now many,^f and you indeed make them desist* from their bearing of burdens.””^g

6 Immediately on that day Phar’ah commanded those who drove the people to work and their officers,^h saying: 7 “You must not gather straw to give to the people to make bricksⁱ as formerly. Let them themselves go and gather straw for themselves. 8 Moreover, the required amount of bricks that they were making formerly, you will further impose upon them. You must not make any reduction for them, because they are relaxing.^j That is why they are crying out, saying, ‘We want to go, we want to sacrifice to our God!’”^k 9 Let the service be heavy upon the men and let them work at it, and let them not pay attention to false words.”^l

10 So those who drove the people to work^m and their officers went out and said to the people: “Here is what Phar’ah has said, ‘I am giving you no more straw. 11 You yourselves go, get straw for yourselves wherever you may find it, because there is to be no reducing of YOUR services one bit.’”ⁿ 12 Consequently the people scattered about over all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. 13 And those who drove them to work kept urging them,^o saying: “Finish YOUR works, each one his work, day for day, just as when straw was available.”^p 14 Later on the officers^q of the sons of Israel, whom Phar’ah’s taskmasters* had set over them, were beaten,^r these saying:

Ex 5:3* Or, “(bubonic) plague.” LXX, “death (deadly plague).” 4* Or, “Why, Moses and Aaron, should you cause?” 5* Or, “make them rest (keep a sabbath).” 14* Or, “men who drove them to work.”

"Why is it you did not finish YOUR prescribed task in making bricks^a as formerly, both yesterday and today?"^b

15 Consequently the officers^c of the sons of Israel went in and began to cry out to Phar'aoh, saying: "Why do you deal this way with your servants?"

16 There is no straw given to your servants and yet they are saying to us, 'Make bricks!' and here your servants are beaten, whereas your own people are at fault."^d 17 But he said: "You are relaxing, you are relaxing!"^e That is why you are saying, 'We want to go, we want to sacrifice to Jehovah.' 18 And now go, serve! Though no straw will be given to you, yet you are to give the fixed amount of bricks."^f

19 Then the officers of the sons of Israel saw themselves in an evil plight at the saying:^h "You must not deduct from YOUR bricks one bit of anyone's daily rate."ⁱ 20 After that they encountered Moses and Aaron,^j who were standing there to meet them as they came out from Phar'aoh. 21 At once they said to them: "May Jehovah look upon you and judge,^k since you have made us smell offensive^l before Phar'aoh and before his servants so as to put a sword in their hand to kill us."^m 22 Then Moses turned to Jehovahⁿ and said: "Jehovah,^o why have you caused evil to this people?^p Why is it that you have sent me?" 23 For from the time that I went in before Phar'aoh to speak in your name,^q he has done evil to this people,^r and you have by no means delivered your people."^s

6 So Jehovah said to Moses: "Now you will see what I shall do to Phar'aoh,^t because on account of a strong hand he will send them away and on account of a strong hand he will drive them out of his land."^u

2 And God^v went on to speak to Moses and to say to him: "I am Jehovah.^w 3 And I used to appear to Abraham,"

These are the heads of the fathers of the Levites, according to their families.^e

26 This is the Aaron and Moses to whom Jehovah said:^f "BRING the sons of Israel out from the land of Egypt according to their armies."^g 27 They were the ones speaking to Phar'aoah, Egypt's king, to bring the sons of Israel out from Egypt.^h This is the Moses and Aaron.

28 And it came about on the day that Jehovah spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,ⁱ 29 that Jehovah went on to speak to Moses, saying: "I am Jehovah.^j Speak to Phar'aoah king of Egypt everything I am speaking to you." 30 Then Moses said before Jehovah: "Look! I am uncircumcised in lips, so how will Phar'aoah ever listen to me?"^k

7 Consequently Jehovah said to Moses: "See, I have made you God* to Phar'aoah,^l and Aaron your own brother will become your prophet.^m 2 You—you will speak all that I shall command you;ⁿ and Aaron your brother will do the speaking to Phar'aoah,^o and he must send the sons of Israel away from his land.^p 3 As for me, I shall let Phar'aoah's heart become obstinate,^q and I shall certainly multiply my signs and my miracles in the land of Egypt.^r 4 And Phar'aoah will not listen to you men;^s and I shall have to lay my hand upon Egypt and bring my armies,^t my people,^u the sons of Israel,^v out from the land of Egypt with great judgments.^w 5 And the Egyptians will certainly know that I am Jehovah when I stretch out my hand against Egypt,^x and I shall indeed bring the sons of Israel out from their midst."^y 6 And Moses and Aaron went ahead doing as

Ex 6:12* "Uncircumcised in lips," as though the lips had a foreskin over them, hence, too long and thick to utter speech with ease.

Ex 7:1* "God." Heb., 'elo-him'; Gr., the-on'; Lat., De'um. 3 Or, "I shall make Pharaoh's heart obstinate (hard)."

Jehovah had commanded them.^a They did just so.^b 7 And Moses was eighty years old and Aaron was eighty-three years old at the time of their speaking to Phar'ah.^c

8 Jehovah now said to Moses and Aaron: 9 "In case that Phar'ah speaks to you, saying, 'Produce a miracle for yourselves,'^d then you must say to Aaron, 'Take your rod^e and throw it down before Phar'ah.' It will become^{*} a big snake."^f 10 So Moses and Aaron went on in to Phar'ah and did exactly as Jehovah had commanded. Accordingly Aaron threw his rod down before Phar'ah and his servants and it became a big snake. 11 However, Phar'ah also called for the wise men and the sorcerers;^g and the magic-practicing priests of Egypt themselves also proceeded to do the same thing with their magic arts.^h 12 So they threw down each one his rod, and they became big snakes; but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. 13 Still, Phar'ah's heart became obstinate,ⁱ and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had spoken.

14 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Phar'ah's heart is unresponsive.^{j} He has refused to send the people away.^k 15 Go to Phar'ah in the morning. Look! He is going out to the water!^l And you must put yourself in position to meet him by the edge of the Nile River,^m and the rod that turned into a serpent you are to take in your hand."ⁿ 16 And you must say to him, 'Jehovah the God of the Hebrews has sent me to you,^o saying: "Send my people away that they may serve^{} me in the wilderness,"^p but here you have not obeyed until now. 17 This is what Jehovah has said:^q "By this you will know that I am Jehovah.^r Here I am striking with the rod that is in my hand upon the water that is in the Nile River,^s and it will certainly turn into blood.^t 18 And the fish that are in the Nile River will die,^u and the Nile River will actually stink,^v and the Egyptians will simply have no stomach for drinking water from the Nile River."^{aa}

19 Subsequently Jehovah said to Moses: "Say to Aaron, 'Take your rod and stretch your hand^b out over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their Nile canals and over their reedy pools^c and over all their impounded waters,^{*} that they may become blood.' And there will certainly be blood in all the land of Egypt and in the wooden vessels and in the stone vessels."^d 20 Immediately Moses and Aaron did so,^e just as Jehovah had commanded,^f and he lifted up the rod and struck the water that was in the Nile River under the eyes of Phar'ah and his servants,^g and all the water that was in the Nile River was turned into blood.^h 21 And the fish that were in the Nile River died,ⁱ and the Nile River began to stink; and the Egyptians were unable to drink water from the Nile River;^j and the blood came to be in all the land of Egypt.

22 Nevertheless, the magic-practicing priests of Egypt proceeded to do the same thing with their secret arts;^j so that Phar'ah's heart continued to be obstinate,^k and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had spoken.^l 23 Hence Phar'ah turned and went into his house, and he did not set his heart to have any regard for this either.^m 24 And all the Egyptians went digging round about the Nile River for water to drink, because they were unable to drink any water of the Nile River.ⁿ 25 And seven days came to be fulfilled after Jehovah's striking the Nile River.

8^{*} Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Go in to Phar'ah, and you must say to him, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Send my people away that they may serve me."^o 2 And if you keep refusing to send them away, here I am plaguing all your territory with frogs.^p 3 And the Nile River will fairly teem with frogs, and they will certainly come up and enter into your house and your inner bedroom and upon your couch and into the houses of your servants and on your people and into your ovens and into your kneading troughs.^a 4 And on you and on your people and on all your servants the frogs will come up.”^b

5* Later on Jehovah said to Moses: “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch your hand with your rod^c out over the rivers, the Nile canals and the reedy pools and make the frogs come up over the land of Egypt.’” 6 At that Aaron stretched his hand out over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs began to come up and to cover the land of Egypt. 7 However, the magic-practicing priests did the same thing by their secret arts and made the frogs come up over the land of Egypt.^d 8 In time Phar’ao^e called Moses and Aaron and said: “Entreat Jehovah^e that he may remove the frogs from me and my people, as I want to send the people away that they may sacrifice to Jehovah.”^f 9 Then Moses said to Phar’ao^e: “You take the glory over me to say* when I shall make entreaty for you and your servants and your people in order to cut the frogs off from you and your houses. Only in the Nile River will they be left.” 10 To this he said: “Tomorrow.” So he said: “It will be according to your word, in order that you may know that there is no one else like Jehovah our God,^g 11 in that the frogs will certainly turn away from you and your houses and your servants and your people. Only in the Nile River will they be left.”^h

12 Accordingly Moses and Aaron went out from Phar’ao^e, and Moses cried out to Jehovahⁱ because of the frogs that He had put upon Phar’ao^e. 13 Then Jehovah did according to Moses’ word,^j and the frogs began to die off from the houses, the courtyards and the fields. 14 And they went piling them up, heaps upon heaps, and the land began to stink.^k 15 When Phar’ao^e got to see that relief had taken place, he made his heart unresponsive;^{l} and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had spoken.^a 16 Jehovah now said to Moses: “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch your rod^b out and strike the dust of the earth, and it must become gnats in all the land of Egypt.’” 17 And they proceeded to do this. So Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod and struck the dust of the earth, and the gnats came to be on man and beast. All the dust of the earth became gnats in all the land of Egypt.^c 18 And the magic-practicing priests tried to do the same by their secret arts,^d in order to bring forth gnats, but they were unable.^e And the gnats came to be on man and beast. 19 Hence the magic-practicing priests said to Phar’ao^e: “It is the finger^f of God!”^g But Phar’ao^e’s heart continued to be obstinate,^h and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had spoken.

20 Then Jehovah said to Moses: “Get up early in the morning and take a position in front of Phar’ao^e.ⁱ Look! He is coming out to the water! And you must say to him, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Send my people away that they may serve me.”^j 21 But if you are not sending my people away, here I am sending upon you and your servants and your people and into your houses the gadfly;^{*k} and the houses of Egypt will simply be full of the gadfly, and also the ground upon which they are. 22 And on that day I shall certainly make the land of Go’shen upon which my people are standing distinct, that no gadfly may exist there;^l in order that you may know that I am Jehovah in the midst of the earth.^{*m} 23 And I shall indeed set a demarcation between my people and your people.ⁿ Tomorrow this sign will take place.”^o

Ex 8:17* Or, “the mosquitoes.” Heb., hak-kin-nam’. 24 And Jehovah proceeded to do so; and heavy swarms of gadflies began to invade the house of Phar'ao and the houses of his servants and all the land of Egypt.^a The land came to ruin as a result of the gadflies.^b 25 Finally Phar'ao called Moses and Aaron and said: "Go, sacrifice to your God* in the land."^c 26 But Moses said: "It is not admissible to do so, because we would sacrifice to Jehovah our God a thing detestable to the Egyptians.^d Suppose we would sacrifice a thing detestable to the Egyptians before their eyes; would they not stone us? 27 We shall go a journey of three days into the wilderness and we shall definitely sacrifice to Jehovah our God just as he has said to us."^e

28 Phar'ao now said: "I—I shall send you away,^f and you will indeed sacrifice to Jehovah your God in the wilderness.^g Only do not make it quite so far away that you are going. Make entreaty in my behalf."^h 29 Then Moses said: "Here I am going forth from you, and I shall indeed make entreaty to Jehovah, and the gadflies will certainly turn away from Phar'ao, his servants and his people tomorrow. Only let not Phar'ao trifle again in not sending the people away to sacrifice to Jehovah."ⁱ 30 After that Moses went out from Phar'ao and made entreaty to Jehovah.^j 31 So Jehovah did according to Moses' word,^k and the gadflies turned away from Phar'ao, his servants and his people.^l Not one was left. 32 However, Phar'ao made his heart unresponsive this time also and did not send the people away.^m

9 Consequently Jehovah said to Moses: "Go in to Phar'ao and you must state to him,ⁿ 'This is what Jehovah the God of the Hebrews has said: "Send my people away that they may serve me. 2 But if you continue refusing to send them away and you are still keeping hold of them,^o 3 look! horses, the asses, the camels, the herd and the flock there will be a very heavy pestilence.^a 4 And Jehovah will certainly make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, and not a thing of all that belongs to the sons of Israel will die."^b 5 Moreover, Jehovah set an appointed time, saying: "Tomorrow Jehovah will do this thing in the land."^c

6 Accordingly Jehovah did this thing on the next day, and all sorts of livestock* of Egypt began to die;^d but not one of the livestock of the sons of Israel died. 7 Then Phar'ao sent, and, look! not so much as one of Israel's livestock had died. Nevertheless, Phar'ao's heart continued to be unresponsive,^e and he did not send the people away.

8 After that Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron: "Take for yourselves both hands full of soot from a kiln,^f and Moses must toss it toward the heavens in Phar'ao's sight. 9 And it must become a powder upon all the land of Egypt, and it must become boils breaking out with blisters^g upon man and beast in all the land of Egypt."

10 So they took the soot of a kiln and stood before Phar'ao, and Moses tossed it toward the heavens, and it became boils with blisters,^h breaking out on man and beast. 11 And the magic-practicing priests were unable to stand before Moses as a result of the boils, because the boils had developed on the magic-practicing priests and on all the Egyptians.ⁱ 12 But Jehovah let Phar'ao's heart become obstinate, and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had stated to Moses.^j

13 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Get up early in the morning and take a position in front of Phar'ao,^k and you must say to him, 'This is what Jehovah the God of the Hebrews has said: "Send my people away that they may serve me." 14 For at this time I am sending all my blows against your heart and upon your servants and your people, to the end that you may know that there is none like me in all the earth.^a 15 For by now I could have thrust my hand out that I might strike you and your people with pestilence and that you might be effaced from the earth.^b 16 But, in fact, for this cause I have kept you in existence,^c for the sake of showing you my power and in order to have my name declared in all the earth.^d 17 Are you still behaving haughtily* against my people in not sending them away?^e 18 Here I am causing it to rain down tomorrow about this time a very heavy hail, the like of which has never occurred in Egypt from the day it was founded until now.^f 19 And now send, bring all your livestock and all that is yours in the field under shelter. As for any man and beast that will be found in the field and not gathered into the house, the hail^g will have to come down upon them, and they will have to die.”^h

20 Anyone who feared Jehovah's word among Phar'aoh's servants caused his own servants and his livestock to flee into the houses,^h 21 but whoever did not set his heart to have any regard for Jehovah's word left his servants and his livestock in the field.ⁱ

22 Jehovah now said to Moses: “Stretch out your hand^j toward the heavens, that hail^k may come on all the land of Egypt, upon man and beast and all vegetation of the field in the land of Egypt.” 23 So Moses stretched out his rod toward the heavens; and Jehovah gave thunders and hail,^l and fire would run down to the earth, and Jehovah kept making it rain down hail upon the land of Egypt. 24 Thus there came hail, and fire quivering in among the hail. It was very heavy, so that there had not occurred any like it in all the land of

Egypt from the time it became a nation.^a 25 And the hail went striking at all the land of Egypt. The hail struck everything that was in the field, from man to beast, and all sorts of vegetation* of the field; and it shattered all sorts of trees^g of the field.^b 26 Only in the land of Go'shen, where the sons of Israel were, there occurred no hail.^c

27 Eventually Phar'aoh sent and called Moses and Aaron and said to them: “I have sinned this time.^d Jehovah is righteous,^e and I and my people are in the wrong.* 28 Entreat Jehovah that this may be enough of the occurring of God's thunders and hail.^f Then I am willing to send you away, and you will not stay any longer.” 29 So Moses said to him: “As soon as I go out of the city I shall spread my hands up to Jehovah.^g The thunders will stop and the hail will not continue any longer, in order that you may know that the earth belongs to Jehovah.^h 30 As for you and your servants, I know already that you will not even then show fear because of Jehovah God.”ⁱ

31 As it was, the flax and the barley had been struck, because the barley was in the ear and the flax had flower buds.^j 32 But the wheat and the spelt^k had not been struck, because they were seasonally late. 33 Moses now went out of the city from Phar'aoh and spread his hands up to Jehovah, and the thunders and the hail began to stop and rain did not pour down on the earth.^l 34 When Phar'aoh got to see that the rain and the hail and the thunders had stopped, he went sinning again and making his heart unresponsive,^m he as well as his servants. 35 And Phar'aoh's heart continued obstinate, and he did not send the sons of Israel away, just as Jehovah had stated by means of Moses.ⁿ

10 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Go in to Phar'ah, because I —I have let his heart and the hearts of his servants become unresponsive,^a in order that I may set these signs of mine right before him,^b 2 and in order that you may declare in the ears of your son and your son's son* how severely I have dealt with Egypt and my signs that I have established among them;^c and you will certainly know that I am Jehovah."^d

3 So Moses and Aaron went in to Phar'ah and said to him: "This is what Jehovah the God of the Hebrews has said, 'How long must you refuse to submit yourself to me?'^e Send my people away that they may serve me. 4 For if you continue refusing to send my people away, here I am bringing locusts within your boundaries tomorrow.^f 5 And they will actually cover the visible surface* of the earth and it will not be possible to see the earth; and they will simply eat up the rest of what has escaped, what has been left to you people by the hail, and they will certainly eat every sprouting tree of YOURS out of the field.^g 6 And your houses and the houses of all your servants and the houses of all Egypt will be filled to an extent that your fathers and your fathers' fathers* have not seen it from the day of their existing upon the ground until this day."^h With that he turned and went out from Phar'ah.ⁱ

7 After that Phar'ah's servants said to him: "How long will this man prove to be as a snare to us?^j Send the men away that they may serve Jehovah their God. Do you not yet know that Egypt has perished?"^k 8 So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Phar'ah, and he said to them: "Go, serve Jehovah your God.^l Who in particular* are the ones going?" 9 Then Moses said: "With our young people and our old people we shall go. cattle we shall go,^a for we have a festival to Jehovah."^b 10 In turn he said to them: "Let it prove to be so, that Jehovah is with you when I shall send you and your little ones away!^c See, on the contrary, something evil is your aim."^d 11 Not so! Go, please, you who are able-bodied men, and serve Jehovah, because that is what you are seeking to secure." With that they were driven out from before Phar'ah.^e

12 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Stretch^f your hand out over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up over the land of Egypt and eat up all the vegetation of the land, everything that the hail has let remain."^g 13 At once Moses stretched his rod out over the land of Egypt, and Jehovah caused an east wind^h to blow upon the land all that day and all night. The morning came and the east wind carried the locusts. 14 And the locusts began to come up over all the land of Egypt and to settle down upon all the territory of Egypt.ⁱ They were very burdensome.^j Before them there had never turned up in this way locusts like them, and there will never turn up any in this way after them. 15 And they went covering the visible surface of the entire land,^k and the land grew dark;^l and they went on eating up all the vegetation of the land and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left;^m and there was left nothing green on the trees or on the vegetation of the field in all the land of Egypt.ⁿ

16 So Phar'ah hurriedly called Moses and Aaron and said: "I have sinned against Jehovah your God and against you.^o 17 And now pardon,^p please, my sin just this once and ENTREAT^q Jehovah your God that he may turn away just this deadly plague* from upon me." 18 So he went out from Phar'ah and made entreaty to Jehovah.^r 19 Then Jehovah made a shift to a very stiff west wind, and it carried the locusts away and drove them into the Red Sea.* Not a single locust was let remain in all the territory of Egypt. 20 However, Jehovah let Phar'ao's heart become obstinate,^a and he did not send the sons of Israel away.

21 Jehovah then said to Moses: "Stretch your hand out toward the heavens,^b that darkness may occur over the land of Egypt and the darkness may be felt." 22 Moses immediately stretched his hand out toward the heavens, and a gloomy darkness began to occur in all the land of Egypt for three days.^c

23 They did not see one another, and none of them got up from his own place three days; but for all the sons of Israel there proved to be light in their dwellings.^d 24 After that Phar'ao called Moses and said: "Go, SERVE Jehovah.^e Only YOUR sheep and YOUR cattle will be detained. YOUR little ones also may go with you."^f 25 But Moses said: "You yourself will also give into our hands sacrifices and burnt offerings, as we must render them to Jehovah our God.^g 26 And our livestock will also go with us.^h Not a hoof will be allowed to remain, because it is from them that we shall take some to worship* Jehovah our God,ⁱ and we ourselves do not know what we shall render in worship to Jehovah until our arriving there."^j 27 At this Jehovah let Phar'ao's heart become obstinate, and he did not consent to send them away.^k 28 So Phar'ao said to him: "Get out from me! Watch yourself! Do not try to see my face again, because on the day of your seeing my face you will die."^m 29 To this Moses said: "That is the way you have spoken. I shall not try to see your face anymore."ⁿ

11 And Jehovah proceeded to say to Moses: "One plague more I am going to bring upon Phar'ao and Egypt. After that he will send you away from here.^o At the time he sends you away altogether, he will literally drive you out from here.^a 2 Speak, now, in the ears of the people, that they should ask every man of his companion and every woman of her companion articles of silver and articles of gold."^b 3 Accordingly Jehovah gave the people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians.^c The man Moses too was very great in the land of Egypt, in the eyes of Phar'ao's servants and in the eyes of the people.^d

4 And Moses went on to say: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'About midnight I am going out into the midst of Egypt,^e 5 and every firstborn^f in the land of Egypt must die, from the firstborn of Phar'ao who is sitting on his throne to the firstborn of the maidservant who is at the hand mill and every firstborn of beast.^g 6 And there will certainly occur a great outcry in all the land of Egypt, the like of which has never yet occurred, and the like of which will never be brought about again.^h 7 But against any of the sons of Israel will no dog move eagerly its tongue,ⁱ from man to beast;' in order that you people may know that Jehovah can make a distinction between the Egyptians and the sons of Israel."^j 8 And all these servants of yours will certainly come down to me and prostrate themselves to me,^k saying, 'Go, you and all the people who follow your steps.' And after that I shall go out." With that he went out from Phar'ao in the heat of anger.

9 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Phar'ao will not listen to you men,^l in order for my miracles to be increased in the land of Egypt."^m 10 And Moses and Aaron performed all these miracles before Phar'ao;ⁿ but Jehovah would let Phar'ao's heart become obstinate, so that he did not send the sons of Israel away from his land.^o

12 Jehovah now said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: 2 "This month will be the start of the months for you. It will be the first of the months of the year for you.^p 3 Speak to the entire assembly of Is-

34 Consequently the people carried their flour dough before it was leavened, with their kneading troughs wrapped up in their mantles upon their shoulder.

Ex 12:40* Sam adds, "and their fathers." 40 "Who had dwelt." In Heb. this verb is pl. The relative pronoun "asher", "who," can apply to the "sons of Israel" rather than to the "dwelling." LXX, "But the dwelling of the sons of Israel which they [LXX^a adds "and their fathers"] dwelt in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan [was] four hundred and thirty years long"; Sam, "in the land of Canaan and in the land of Egypt." Likewise Josephus wrote in Jewish Antiquities, Book II, chapter 15, §2: "They left Egypt in the month of Xanthicus [the Macedonian month equated by Josephus with the month Nisan], on the fifteenth by lunar reckoning, 430 years after the coming of our forefather Abraham to Canaan." (Loeb Classical Library, by H. Thackeray, 1967, p. 305) The sons of Israel went out of the land of Egypt on the 15th day of the first month. See Ex 12:37; Nu 33:3, 5. SamLXX and Josephus show that the 430 years are counted from the time Abraham entered the land of Canaan until the time the Israelites went out of Egypt. See Ga 3:17. 43 Lit., "son of a foreign (country)." 45 Or, "stranger; immigrant." 48 In Heb. this is a verb in the infinitive absolute, indefinite as to time and impersonal.

was in battle formation* that the sons of Israel went up out of the land of Egypt.^a 19 And Moses was taking Joseph's bones with him, because he had made the sons of Israel solemnly swear, saying: "God will without fail turn his attention to you,^b and you must take my bones up out of here with you."^c 20 And they proceeded to depart from Suc'coth and to encamp at E'tham at the edge of the wilderness.^d

21 And Jehovah was going ahead of them in the daytime in a pillar of cloud to lead them by the way,^e and in the nighttime in a pillar of fire to give them light to go in the daytime and nighttime.^f 22 The pillar of cloud would not move away from before the people in the daytime nor the pillar of fire in the nighttime.^g

14 Jehovah* now spoke to Moses, saying: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, that they should turn back and encamp before Pi-ha-hi'roth between Mig'dol and the sea in view of Ba'al-ze'phon.^h In front of it you are to encamp by the sea. 3 Then Phar'aoh will certainly say respecting the sons of Israel, 'They are wandering in confusion in the land. The wilderness has closed in upon them.'ⁱ 4 So I shall indeed let Phar'aoh's heart become obstinate,^j and he will certainly chase after them and I shall get glory for myself by means of Phar'aoh and all his military forces;^k and the Egyptians will certainly know that I am Jehovah."^l Accordingly they did just that.

5 Later it was reported to the king of Egypt that the people had run away. Immediately the heart of Phar'aoh as well as his servants was changed regarding the people,^m so that they said: "What is this that we have done, in that we have sent Israel away from slavingⁿ for us?" 6 So he proceeded to make his war chariots ready, and he took his people with him.^o 7 And he proceeded to take six hundred chosen chariots^a and all the other chariots of Egypt and warriors* upon every one of them. 8 Thus Jehovah* let the heart of Phar'ah the king of Egypt become obstinate,^b and he went chasing after the sons of Israel, while the sons of Israel were going out with uplifted hand.^c 9 And the Egyptians went chasing after them, and all the chariot horses of Phar'ah and his cavalymen^d and his military forces were overtaking them while camping by the sea, by Pi-ha-hi'-roth in view of Ba'al-ze'phon.^e

10 When Phar'ah got close by, the sons of Israel began to raise their eyes and here the Egyptians were marching after them; and the sons of Israel got quite afraid and began to cry out to Jehovah.^f 11 And they proceeded to say to Moses: "Is it because there are no burial places at all in Egypt that you have taken us here to die in the wilderness?^g What is this that you have done to us in leading us out of Egypt?"

12 Is this not the word we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, 'Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians'? For it is better for us to serve the Egyptians than for us to die in the wilderness."^h 13 Then Moses said to the people: "Do not be afraid.ⁱ Stand firm and see the salvation of Jehovah, which he will perform for you today.^j For the Egyptians whom you do see today you will not see again, no, never again.^k 14 Jehovah will himself fight for you,^l and you yourselves will be silent."

15 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Why do you keep crying out to me?^m Speak to the sons of Israel that they should break camp. 16 As for you, lift up your rodⁿ and stretch your hand out over the sea and split it apart,^o that the sons of Israel may go through the midst of the sea on dry land.^a 17 As for me, here I am letting the hearts of the Egyptians become obstinate,^b that they may go in after them and that I may get glory for myself by means of Phar'ah and all his military forces, his war chariots and his cavalymen.^c 18 And the Egyptians will certainly know that I am Jehovah when I get glory for myself by means of Phar'ah, his war chariots and his cavalymen."^d

19 Then the angel^e of the [true] God who was going ahead of the camp of Israel departed and went to their rear, and the pillar of cloud departed from their van and stood in the rear of them.^f 20 So it came in between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel.^g On the one hand it proved to be a cloud together with darkness. On the other hand it kept lighting up the night.^h And this group did not come near that group all night long.

21 Moses now stretched his hand out over the sea;ⁱ and Jehovah began making the sea go back by a strong east wind all night long and converting the sea basin into dry ground,^j and the waters were being split apart.^k 22 At length the sons of Israel went through the midst of the sea on dry land,^l while the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.^m 23 And the Egyptians took up the pursuit, and all the horses of Phar'ah, his war chariots and his cavalymen began going in after them,ⁿ into the midst of the sea. 24 And it came about during the morning watch* that Jehovah began to look out upon the camp of the Egyptians from within the pillar of fire and cloud,^o and he went throwing the camp of the Egyptians into confusion.^p 25 And he kept taking wheels off their chariots so that they were driving them with difficulty;^q and the Egyptians began to say: "Let us flee from any contact with Israel, because Jehovah certainly fights for them against the Egyptians."^r

26 Finally Jehovah said to Moses:

Ex 14:7* "And warriors." Lit., "and third men." Heb., wesha-li-shim; Gr., tri-sta'tas. Though Egyptian monuments usually do not show it, three men rode in a war chariot, one of whom managed the horses while the other two fought from the chariot; also, Assyrian bas-reliefs show a third man as an armor-bearer or an umbrella-bearer. 8 Heb., Yehowah. See App 1a.

Ex 14:24* The third and last watch according to the Hebrews, from about 2 a.m. to 6 a.m.

"Stretch your hand out over the sea,^a that the waters may come back over the Egyptians, their war chariots and their cavalymen." 27 Moses at once stretched his hand out over the sea, and the sea began to come back to its normal condition at the approaching of morning. All the while the Egyptians were fleeing from encountering it, but Jehovah shook the Egyptians off into the midst of the sea.^b 28 And the waters kept coming back.^c Finally they covered the war chariots and the cavalymen belonging to all of Phar'aoh's military forces and who had gone into the sea after them.^d Not so much as one among them was let remain.^e

29 As for the sons of Israel, they walked on dry land in the midst of the seabed,^f and the waters were for them a wall on their right hand and on their left.^g 30 Thus on that day Jehovah saved Israel from the hand of the Egyptians,^h and Israel got to see the Egyptians dead on the seashore.ⁱ 31 Israel also got to see the great hand that Jehovah put in action against the Egyptians; and the people began to fear Jehovah and to put faith in Jehovah and in Moses his servant.^j

15 At that time Moses and the sons of Israel proceeded to sing this song to Jehovah and to say the following:^k

"Let me sing to Jehovah, for he has become highly exalted.^l

The horse and its rider he has pitched into the sea.^m

2 My strength and [my] might* is Jah,ⁿ since he serves for my salvation.^o

This is my God, and I shall laud him;^p my father's God,^q and I shall raise him on high.^r

3 Jehovah is a manly person of war.^s Jehovah is his name.^t rines and in dances.^{aa} 21 And Mir'iam kept responding to the men:^{ab}

"Sing" to Jehovah,^c for he has become highly exalted.^d

The horse and its rider he has pitched into the sea."^e

22 Later Moses caused Israel to depart from the Red Sea and they went out to the wilderness of Shur^f and marched on for three days in the wilderness, but they did not find water.^g 23 In time they came to Ma'rah,^h but they were not able to drink the water from Ma'rah because it was bitter. That is why he called its name Ma'rah.ⁱⁱ 24 And the people began to murmur against Moses,^j saying: "What are we to drink?"

25 Then he cried out to Jehovah.^k So Jehovah directed him to a tree, and he threw it into the water and the water became sweet.^l

There He established for them* a regulation and a case for judgment and there he put them to the test.^m

26 And he went on to say: "If you will strictly listen to the voice of Jehovah your God and will do what is right in his eyes and will indeed give ear to his commandments and keep all his regulations,ⁿ I shall put none of the maladies upon you that I put upon the Egyptians;^o because I am Jehovah who is healing you."^p

27 After that they came to E'lim, where there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees.^q So they went camping there by the water.

16 Later they departed from E'lim,^r and the entire assembly of the sons of Israel finally came to the wilderness of Sin,^s which is between E'lim and Si'nai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their coming out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the entire assembly of the sons of Israel began to murmur against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.^t

Ex 15:20* Or, "round dances." 21* "The men." Lit., "them," masc. 21* "Sing." M; LXXVg, "Let us sing." 23* Meaning "Bitterness." 25* "Them," referring to the "people." Lit., "him," or, "it."

3 And the sons of Israel kept saying to them: "If only we had died^a by Jehovah's hand in the land of Egypt while we were sitting by the pots of meat,^b while we were eating bread to satisfaction, because you have brought us out into this wilderness to put this whole congregation to death by famine."^c

4 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Here I am raining down bread for you from the heavens;^d and the people must go out and pick up each his amount day for day,^e in order that I may put them to the test as to whether they will walk in my law or not.^f 5 And it must occur on the sixth day^g that they must prepare what they will bring in, and it must prove double what they keep picking up day by day."^h

6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the sons of Israel: "At evening you will certainly know that it is Jehovah who has brought you out from the land of Egypt.ⁱ 7 And in the morning you will indeed see Jehovah's glory,^j because he has heard YOUR murmurings against Jehovah. And what are we that you should murmur against us?" 8 And Moses continued: "It will be when Jehovah gives you in the evening meat to eat and in the morning bread to satisfaction, because Jehovah has heard YOUR murmurings that you are murmuring against him. And what are we? YOUR murmurings are not against us, but against Jehovah."^k

9 And Moses went on to say to Aaron: "Say to the entire assembly of the sons of Israel, 'Come near before Jehovah, because he has heard YOUR murmurings.'^l" 10 Then it occurred that as soon as Aaron had spoken to the entire assembly of the sons of Israel, they turned and faced toward the wilderness, and, look! Jehovah's glory appeared in the cloud.^m

11 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 12 "I have heard the murmurings of the sons of Israel.ⁿ Speak to them, saying, 'Between the two evenings* you will eat meat and in the morning you will be satisfied with bread;^a and you will certainly know that I am Jehovah YOUR God."^b 13 Accordingly it occurred that in the evening the quails^c began to come up and cover the camp, and in the morning there had developed a layer of dew round about the camp.^d 14 In time the layer of dew evaporated* and here upon the surface of the wilderness there was a fine flaky^e thing,^e fine like hoarfrost^f upon the earth. 15 When the sons of Israel got to see it, they began to say to one another: "What is it?"^g For they did not know what it was. Hence Moses said to them: "It is the bread that Jehovah has given you for food.^g 16 This is the word that Jehovah has commanded, 'Pick up some of it, each one in proportion to his eating. You are to take an omer^h measure for each individual^h according to the number of the souls that each of you has in his tent.'^h 17 And the sons of Israel began to do so; and they went picking it up, some gathering much and some gathering little. 18 When they would measure it by the omer, he that had gathered much had no surplus and he that had gathered little had no shortage.ⁱ They picked it up each one in proportion to his eating.

19 Then Moses said to them: "Let nobody leave any of it until the morning."^j 20 But they did not listen to Moses. When some men would leave some of it until the morning, it would breed worms and stink;^k so that Moses became indignant at them.^l 21 And they would pick it up morning^m by morning, each one in proportion to his eating. When the sun got hot, it melted.

22 And it came about on the sixth day that they picked up twice as much bread,ⁿ two omer measures for one person. So all the chieftains* of the assembly came and reported it to Moses. 23 At that he said to them: "It is what Jehovah has spoken. Tomorrow there will be a sabbath observance* of a holy sabbath to Jehovah.^a What you can bake, bake, and what you can boil, boil,^b and all the surplus that there is save it up for you as something to be kept until the morning.” 24 Accordingly they saved it up until the morning, just as Moses had commanded; and it did not stink nor did maggots develop in it.^c 25 Then Moses said: “Eat it today, because today is a sabbath^d to Jehovah. Today you will not find it in the field. 26 Six days you will pick it up, but on the seventh day is a sabbath.^e On it none will form.” 27 However, it came about on the seventh day that some of the people did go out to pick [it] up, but they found none.

28 Consequently Jehovah said to Moses: “How long must you people refuse to keep my commandments and my laws?^f 29 Mark the fact that Jehovah has given you the sabbath.^g That is why he is giving you on the sixth day the bread of two days. Keep sitting each one in his own place.^h Let nobody go out from his locality on the seventh day.” 30 And the people proceeded to observe the sabbath* on the seventh day.ⁱ

31 And the house of Israel began to call its name “manna.”^j And it was white like coriander seed, and its taste was like that of flat cakes with honey.^k 32 Then Moses said: “This is the word that Jehovah has commanded, ‘Fill an omer measure of it as something to be kept throughout your generations,^l in order that they may see the bread that I made you eat in the wilderness when I was bringing you out of the land of Egypt.’” 33 So Moses said to Aaron: “Take a jar and put in it an omerful of manna and deposit it before Jehovah as something to be kept throughout your generations.”^m 34 Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, Aaron proceeded to deposit it before the Testimonyⁿ as something to be kept. 35 And the sons of Israel ate the manna forty years,^o until their coming to a land inhabited.^a The manna was what they ate until their coming to the frontier of the land of Ca'naan.^b 36 Now an omer is a tenth of an e'phah* measure.

17 And the entire assembly of the sons of Israel proceeded to depart from the wilderness of Sin^c by stages, which they took according to the order* of Jehovah,^d and went camping at Reph'i-dim.^e But there was no water for the people to drink.

2 And the people fell to quarreling with Moses and saying:^f “Give us water that we may drink.” But Moses said to them: “Why are you quarreling with me? Why do you keep putting Jehovah to the test?”^g 3 And the people went on thirsting there for water, and the people kept murmuring against Moses and saying: “Why is it that you have brought us up out of Egypt to put us and our sons and our* livestock to death by thirst?”^h 4 Finally Moses cried out to Jehovah, saying: “What shall I do with this people? A little longer and they will stone me!”ⁱ

5 Then Jehovah said to Moses: “Pass in front of the people^j and take with you some of the older men of Israel and your rod with which you struck the Nile River.^k Take it in your hand and you must walk on. 6 Look! I am standing before you there on the rock in Ho'reb.* And you must strike on the rock, and water must come out of it, and the people must drink it.”^l Subsequently Moses did so under the eyes of the older men of Israel. 7 So he called the name of the place Mas'sah*^m and Mer'i-bah,ⁿ because of the quarreling of the sons of Israel and because of their putting Jehovah to the test,^o saying: “Is Jehovah in our midst or not?”^p

Ex 16:36* An ephah equaled 22 L (20 dry qt). 17:1 Lit., “mouth.” 3 “Us . . . our . . . our.” Lit., “me . . . my . . . my,” referring to the “people.” 6 “Horeb.” Here, not the mountain on which the Ten Commandments were given, but the mountainous region around Mount Sinai, otherwise called the wilderness of Sinai. 7 Meaning “Testing; Trial.” 7 Meaning “Quarreling; Strife; Contention.”

8 And the A-mal'ek-ites^a proceeded to come and fight against Israel in Reph'i-dim.^b 9 At this Moses said to Joshua:^c "Choose men for us and go out,^d fight against the A-mal'ek-ites. Tomorrow I am stationing myself upon the top of the hill, with the rod of the [true] God in my hand."^e 10 Then Joshua did just as Moses had said to him,^f in order to fight against the A-mal'ek-ites; and Moses, Aaron and Hur^g went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it occurred that as soon as Moses would lift his hand up, the Israelites proved superior;^h but as soon as he would let down his hand, the A-mal'ek-ites proved superior. 12 When the hands of Moses were heavy, then they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat upon it; and Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on this side and the other on that side, so that his hands held steady^{*} until the sun set. 13 Hence Joshua vanquished Am'a-lek and his people with the edge of the sword.ⁱ

14 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Write this as a memorial in the book^j and propound it in Joshua's ears, 'I shall completely wipe out the remembrance of Am'a-lek from under the heavens.'^k" 15 And Moses proceeded to build an altar and to call its name Jeho'vah-nis'si,^{} 16 saying: "Because a hand is against the throne^l of Jah,^m Jehovah will have war^{} with Am'a-lek from generation to generation."ⁿ

18 Now Jeth'ro the priest of Mid'-ian, Moses' father-in-law,^o got to hear about all that God had done for Moses and for Israel his people, how Jehovah had brought Israel out of Egypt.^a 2 So Jeth'ro, Moses' father-in-law, took Zippo'rah, Moses' wife, after the sending of her away,^{*} 3 and her two sons,^b the name of one of whom was Ger'shom,^c "because," he said, "an alien resident I have come to be in a foreign land"; 4 and the name of the other was E-li-e'zer,^d "because," to quote him, "the God of my father is my helper in that he delivered me from Phar'aoh's sword."^e

5 So Jeth'ro, Moses' father-in-law, and his sons and his wife came to Moses into the wilderness where he was camping, at the mountain of the [true] God.^f 6 Then he sent word to Moses: "I,^{*} your father-in-law,^g Jeth'ro,^h am come to you, and also your wife and her two sons with her." 7 At once Moses went on out to meet his father-in-law, and he proceeded to prostrate himself and to kiss him;ⁱ and they each one began asking how the other was getting along. After that they went into the tent.

8 And Moses went to relating to his father-in-law all that Jehovah had done to Phar'aoh and Egypt on account of Israel,^j and all the hardship that had befallen them in the way,^k and yet Jehovah was delivering them.^l 9 Then Jeth'ro felt glad over all the good that Jehovah had done for Israel in that he had delivered them^{*} from the hand of Egypt.^l 10 Consequently Jeth'ro said: "Blessed be Jehovah, who has delivered YOU from the hand of Egypt and from the hand of Phar'aoh, and who has delivered the people from under the hand of Egypt."^m 11 Now I do know that Jehovah is greater than all the [other] godsⁿ by reason of this affair in which they acted presumptuously against them."ⁿ

took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God;^a and Aaron and all the older men of Israel came to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law, before the [true] God.^b

13 And it came about on the next day that Moses sat down as usual to serve as judge for the people,^c and the people kept standing before Moses from the morning till the evening. 14 And Moses' father-in-law got to see all that he was doing for the people. So he said: "What kind of business is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you alone continue sitting and all the people continue taking their stand before you from morning till evening?" 15 Then Moses said to his father-in-law: "Because the people keep coming to me to inquire of God.^d 16 In the event that they have a case arise,^e it must come to me and I must judge between the one party and the other, and I must make known the decisions of the [true] God and his laws."^f

17 At this Moses' father-in-law said to him: "It is not good the way you are doing. 18 You will surely wear out, both you and this people who are with you, because this business is too big a load for you.^g You are unable to do it by yourself.^h 19 Now listen to my voice.ⁱ I shall advise you, and God will prove to be with you.^j You yourself serve as representative for the people before the [true] God,^k and you yourself must bring the cases to the [true] God.^l 20 And you must warn them of what the regulations and the laws are,^m and you must make known to them the way in which they should walk and the work that they should do."ⁿ 21 But you yourself should select out of all the people capable men,^o fearing God,^p trustworthy* men,^q hating unjust profit;^r and you must set these over them as chiefs* over thousands,^{as} chiefs over hundreds,^{at} chiefs over fifties and chiefs over tens.^{au} 22 And they must judge the people on every proper occasion; and it must occur that every big case they will bring to you,^a but every small case they themselves will handle as judges. So make it lighter for yourself, and they must carry the load with you.^b 23 If you do this very thing, and God has commanded you, you will then certainly be able to stand it and, besides, this people will all come to their own place in peace."^c

24 Immediately Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law and did all that he had said.^d 25 And Moses proceeded to choose capable men out of all Israel and to give them positions as heads over the people,^e as chiefs of thousands, chiefs of hundreds, chiefs of fifties and chiefs of tens. 26 And they judged the people on every proper occasion. A hard case they would bring to Moses,^f but every small case they themselves would handle as judges. 27 After that Moses saw his father-in-law off,^g and he went his way to his land.

19 In the third month after the sons of Israel came out of the land of Egypt,^h on the same day, they came into the wilderness of Si'nai.ⁱ 2 And they proceeded to pull away from Reph'i-dim^j and to come into the wilderness of Si'nai and to encamp in the wilderness;^k and Israel went camping there in front of the mountain.^l

3 And Moses went up to the [true] God, and Jehovah began to call* to him out of the mountain,^m saying: "This is what you are to say to the house of Jacob and to tell the sons of Israel, 4 'You yourselves have seen what I did to the Egyptians,ⁿ that I might carry you on wings of eagles and bring you to myself.^o 5 And now if you will strictly obey*^p my voice and will indeed keep my covenant,^q then you will certainly become* my special property out of all [other] peoples,^r because the whole earth belongs to me.^s 6 And you yourselves will become to me a kingdom of

7 So Moses came and called the older men^b of the people and set before them all these words that Jehovah had commanded him.^c 8 After that all the people answered unanimously and said: "All that Jehovah has spoken we are willing to do."^d Immediately Moses took back the words of the people to Jehovah.^e 9 At this Jehovah said to Moses: "Look! I am coming to you in a dark cloud,^f in order that the people may hear when I speak with you,^g and that in you also they may put faith to time indefinite."^h Then Moses reported the words of the people to Jehovah.

10 And Jehovah went on to say to Moses: "Go to the people, and you must sanctify them today and tomorrow, and they must wash their mantles."ⁱ 11 And they must prove ready for the third day, because on the third day Jehovah will come down before the eyes of all the people upon Mount Si'nai.^j 12 And you must set bounds for the people round about, saying, 'Guard yourselves against going up into the mountain, and do not touch the edge of it. Anybody touching the mountain will positively be put to death.'^k 13 No hand is to touch him, because he will positively be stoned or will positively be shot through. Whether beast or man, he will not live."^l At the blowing of the ram's horn^m they themselves may come up to the mountain."

14 Then Moses went down from the mountain to the people, and he set about sanctifying the people; and they engaged in washing their mantles.ⁿ 15 Accordingly he said to the people: "Get ready^o during the three days. Do not you men come near a woman."^p

16 And on the third day when it became morning it came about that thunders and lightnings began occurring,^q and a heavy cloud^r upon the mountain and a very loud sound of a horn,^s so that all the people who were in the camp began to tremble.^a 17 Moses now brought the people out of the camp to meet the [true] God, and they went taking their stand at the base of the mountain.^b 18 And Mount Si'nai smoked all over,^c due to the fact that Jehovah came down upon it in fire;^d and its smoke kept ascending like the smoke of a kiln,^e and the whole mountain was trembling very much.^f 19 When the sound of the horn became continually louder and louder, Moses began to speak, and the [true] God began to answer him with a voice.^g

20 So Jehovah came down upon Mount Si'nai to the top of the mountain. Then Jehovah called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went on up.^h 21 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Go down, warn the people, that they do not try to break through to Jehovah to take a look and many of them have to fall."ⁱ 22 And let the priests also who regularly come near to Jehovah sanctify themselves,^j that Jehovah may not break out upon them."^k 23 At this Moses said to Jehovah: "The people are not able to come up to Mount Si'nai, because you yourself already warned us, saying, 'Set bounds for the mountain and make it sacred.'^l"^m 24 However, Jehovah said to him: "Go, descend, and you must come up, you and Aaron with you; but let not the priests and the people break through to come up to Jehovah, that he may not break out upon them."ⁿ 25 Accordingly Moses descended to the people and told them.^o

See 2:14 ftn, "Me." 14^o "You must not commit adultery." Heb., lo' tin'aph'. 15^o "You must not steal." Heb., lo' tigh-nov'; Gr., ou kle'pseis. 16^o Or, "your companion." LXXVg, "your neighbor." 17^o "You must not desire." Heb., lo' thach-modh'. See De 5:21 ftn. 17^a This division of the Ten Commandments, vss 2-17, is the natural division. It agrees with the first-century C.E. Jewish historian Josephus (Jewish Antiquities, Book III, chapter 5, ¶5) and with the first-century Jewish philosopher Philo, who divide off vs 3 as the first commandment, vss 4-6 as the second commandment and vs 17, which forbids all covetousness, as the tenth commandment. Others, including Augustine, consider vss 3-6 as one commandment but divide vs 17 into two commandments, the ninth against coveting a fellowman's house and the tenth against coveting his living possessions. Augustine supported his division on the later parallel statement of the Ten Commandments in De 5:6-21, which uses two different Heb. verbs in vs 21 in forbidding covetous desire for what belongs to a fellowman, whereas Ex 20:17 uses the same Heb. verb both times. Augustine's division has been adopted by the Roman Catholic religious system. 18^o "Seeing." The figure of speech here is called zeugma, meaning a yoke, that is, one verb is unequally yoked to two or more objects, while grammatically a second verb is required. Here the "seeing" applies to the lightning flashes and the mountain smoking, but hearing is required for the thunders and the sound of the horn.

22 And Jehovah went on to say to Moses:^e “This is what you are to say to the sons of Israel, ‘You yourselves have seen that it was from the heavens I spoke with you.’^f 23 You must not make along with me gods* of silver, and you must not make gods of gold for yourselves.^g 24 An altar of ground^h you are to make for me, and you must sacrifice upon it your burnt offerings and your communion sacrifices,* your flock and your herd.ⁱ In every place where I shall cause my name to be remembered I shall come to you and shall certainly bless you.^j 25 And if you should make an altar of stones for me, you must not build them as hewn stones. 21 “And these are the judicial decisions* that you are to set before them:^l

2 “In case you should buy a Hebrew slave,^m he will be a slave six years, but in the seventh he will go out as one set free without charge.” 3 If he should come in by himself, by himself he will go out. It is a covenant to time indefinite.^b 17 Between me and the sons of Israel it is a sign to time indefinite,^c because in six days Jehovah made the heavens and the earth and on the seventh day he rested* and proceeded to refresh himself.’^d

18 Now as soon as he had finished speaking with him on Mount Si’nai he proceeded to give Moses two tablets of the Testimony,^e tablets of stone written on by God’s finger.^f

32 Meanwhile the people got to see that Moses was taking a long time about coming down from the mountain.^g So the people congregated themselves about Aaron and said to him: “Get up, make for us a god* who will go ahead of us,^h because as regards this Moses, the man who led us up out of the land of Egypt,ⁱ we certainly do not know what has happened to him.”

2 At this Aaron said to them: “Tear off the gold earrings^j that are in the ears of YOUR wives, of YOUR sons and of YOUR daughters and bring them to me.”

3 And all the people began tearing off the gold earrings that were in their ears and bringing them to Aaron. 4 Then he took [the gold]* from their hands, and he formed it^k with a graving tool and proceeded to make it into a molten statue of a calf.^l And they^m began to say: “This is your God,ⁿ O Israel, who led you up out of the land of Egypt.”^a

5 When Aaron got to see this, he went to building an altar before it. Finally Aaron called out and said: “There is a festival to Jehovah tomorrow.”

6 So on the next day they were early in rising, and they began offering up burnt offerings and presenting communion sacrifices. After that the people sat down to eat and drink. Then they got up to have a good time.^b

7 Jehovah now said to Moses: “Go, descend, because your people whom you led up out of the land of Egypt have acted ruinously.^c 8 They have turned aside in a hurry from the way I have commanded them to go.^d They have made a molten statue of a calf for themselves and keep bowing down to it and sacrificing to it and saying, ‘This is your God,* O Israel, who led you up out of the land of Egypt.’”^e 9 And Jehovah went on to say to Moses: “I have looked at this people and here it is a stiff-necked people.^f 10 So now let me be, that my anger may blaze against them and I may exterminate them,^g and let me make you into a great nation.”^h

11 And Moses proceeded to soften the face of Jehovah his Godⁱ and to say: “Why, O Jehovah, should your anger^j blaze against your people whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a strong hand? 12 Why should the Egyptians^k say, ‘With evil intent he brought them out in order to kill them among the mountains and to exterminate them from the surface of the ground?’^l Turn from your burning anger^m and feel regretⁿ over the evil against your people. 13 Remember Abraham, Isaac and Israel your servants, to whom you swore by yourself,^o in that you said to them, ‘I shall multiply YOUR seed* like the stars of the heavens,^p and all this land that I have designated I shall give to YOUR seed,^q that they may indeed take possession of it to time indefinite.’”^r

over the evil that he had spoken of doing to his people.^a 15 After that Moses turned and went down from the mountain^b with the two tablets of the Testimony^c in his hand, tablets written upon on both their sides. On this side and on that they were written upon. 16 And the tablets were the workmanship of God, and the writing was the writing of God engraved upon the tablets.^d 17 And Joshua* began to hear the noise of the people because of their shouting, and he proceeded to say to Moses: “There is a noise of battle^e in the camp.” 18 But he said:

“It is not the sound of the singing over mighty performance,^f

And it is not the sound of the singing of defeat;

It is the sound of other singing that I am hearing.”

19 So it came about that as soon as he got near the camp and could see the calf^g and the dances, Moses’ anger began to blaze, and he at once threw the tablets from his hands and shattered them at the foot of the mountain.^h 20 Then he took the calf that they had made and he burnt it with fire and crushed it till it was fine,ⁱ after which he scattered it upon the surface of the waters^j and made the sons of Israel drink it.^k 21 After that Moses said to Aaron: “What did this people do to you that you have brought a great sin upon it?” 22 To this Aaron said: “Do not let the anger of my lord blaze. You yourself well know the people, that they are evil-inclined.^l 23 So they said to me, ‘Make for us a god* who will go ahead of us,^m because as regards this Moses, the man who led us up out of the land of Egypt, we certainly do not know what has happened to him.’ 24 Hence I said to them, ‘Who have any gold? They must tear it off themselves that they may give it to me.’ And I proceeded to throw it into the fire and this calf came on out.”

Ex 32:17* See 17:9 ftn. 23* “A god.” Heb., ‘elo-him’; Gr., the-ous, “gods”; Lat., de-ös, “gods.” See vs 1 ftn.

25 And Moses got to see that the people went unrestrained, because Aaron had let them go unrestrained^a for a disgrace among their opposers.^b 26 Then Moses took his stand in the gate of the camp and said: "Who is on Jehovah's side?" To me!"^c And all the sons of Le'vi began gathering themselves to him. 27 He now said to them: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'Put each one of you his sword on his side. Pass through and return from gate to gate in the camp and kill each one his brother and each one his fellow and each one his intimate acquaintance.'"^d 28 And the sons of Le'vi^e proceeded to do as Moses had said, so that there fell of the people on that day about three* thousand men. 29 And Moses went on to say: "Fill your hand today with power* for Jehovah,^f because each one of you is against his own son and his own brother,^g and that he may confer a blessing upon you today."^h

30 And it came about on the very next day that Moses proceeded to say to the people: "You—you have sinned with a great sin,ⁱ and now I shall go up to Jehovah. Perhaps I can make amends for your sin."^j 31 So Moses returned to Jehovah and said: "Ah, but this people has sinned with a great sin, in that they made a god* of gold for themselves."^k 32 But now if you will pardon their sin,^l—and if not, wipe me out,^m please, from your bookⁿ that you have written." 33 However, Jehovah said to Moses: "Whoever has sinned against me, I shall wipe him out of my book."^o 34 And now, come, lead the people to where I have spoken to you of. Look! My angel will go ahead of you,^p and on the day of my bringing punishment I shall certainly bring punishment upon them for their sin."^q 35 And Jehovah began plaguing the people because they had made the calf, which Aaron had made."

33 And Jehovah said further to Moses: "Go, move up from here, you and the people whom you led up out of the land of Egypt,^a to the land about which I swore* to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, saying, 'To your seed I shall give it.'^b 2 And I will send an angel ahead of you^c and drive out the Ca'naan-ites, the Am'or-ites, and the Hit'tites and the Per'iz-zites, the Hi'vites and the Jeb'u-sites;^d 3 to a land* flowing with milk and honey,^e for I shall not go up in the midst of you, because you are a stiff-necked people,^f that I may not exterminate you on the way."^g

4 When the people got to hear this evil word, they began to mourn;^h and none of them put his ornaments on himself. 5 And Jehovah went on to say to Moses: "Say to the sons of Israel, 'You are a stiff-necked people.' In one momentⁱ I could go up into the midst of you and certainly exterminate you. So now put down your ornaments off yourself, as I want to know what I am going to do to you."^j 6 And the sons of Israel went stripping their ornaments off themselves from Mount Ho'reb^k onward.

7 As for Moses, he proceeded to take his* tent away and he pitched it outside the camp, far away from the camp; and he called it a tent of meeting. And it occurred that everyone inquiring^m of Jehovah would go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp. 8 And it occurred that as soon as Moses went out to the tent, all the people would rise,ⁿ and they stationed themselves each one at the entrance of his own tent, and they gazed after Moses until he went into the tent. 9 It also occurred that as soon as Moses had gone into the tent, the pillar of cloud^o would come down, and it stood at the entrance of the tent and he spoke^p with Moses. 10 And all the people saw the pillar of cloud^q standing at the entrance of the tent, and all the people rose and bowed down each one at the entrance of his own tent.^a 11 And Jehovah spoke to Moses face to face,^b just as a man would speak to his fellow. When he returned to the camp, his minister^c Joshua, the son of Nun,^d as attendant,^e would not withdraw from the midst of the tent.

12 Now Moses said to Jehovah: "See, you are saying to me, 'Lead this people up,' but you yourself have not let me know whom you will send with me. Moreover, you yourself have said, 'I do know you by name^e and, besides, you have found favor in my eyes.' 13 And now, if, please, I have found favor in your eyes,^f make me know, please, your ways,^g that I may know you, in order that I may find favor in your eyes. And consider^h that this nation is your people."^h 14 So he said: "My own personⁱ will go along^j and I shall certainly give you rest."ⁱ 15 At this he said to him: "If your own person^k is not going along, do not lead us up from here. 16 And by what, now, will it be known that I have found favor in your eyes, I and your people? Is it not by your going along with us,^k in that I and your people have been made distinct from all the other people who are upon the surface of the ground?"^j

17 And Jehovah went on to say to Moses: "This thing, too, of which you have spoken, I shall do,^m because you have found favor in my eyes and I know you by name." 18 At this he said: "Cause me to see, please, your glory."ⁿ 19 But he said: "I myself shall cause all my goodness to pass before your face,^o and I will declare^p the name of Jehovah before you;^p and I will favor the one^q whom I may favor, and I will show mercy to the one to whom I may show mercy."^q 20 And he added: "You and woman whose hearts incited them to bring something for all the work that Jehovah had commanded to make by means of Moses did so; the sons of Israel brought a voluntary offering to Jehovah.^a 30 Then Moses said to the sons of Israel: “See, Jehovah has called by name Bez’al-el^b the son of U’ri the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah. 31 And he proceeded to fill him with the spirit of God in wisdom, in understanding and in knowledge and in every sort of craftsmanship 32 and for designing devices, for working in gold and silver and copper,^c 33 and in working of stones to set them and in working of wood to make ingenious products of every sort.^d 34 And he has put it into his heart that he should teach, he and O-ho’liab^e the son of A-his’a-mach of the tribe of Dan. 35 He has filled them with wisdom of heart^f to do all the work of a craftsman and an embroiderer^g and of a weaver in blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple, in coccus scarlet material and fine linen, and of a loom worker, men doing every sort of work and designing devices.

36 “And Bez’al-el must work, also O-ho’liab^h and every wise-hearted man to whom Jehovah has given wisdomⁱ and understanding^j in these things in order to know how to do all the work of the holy service according to all that Jehovah has commanded.”^k

2 And Moses proceeded to call Bez’al-el and O-ho’liab and every wise-hearted man into whose heart Jehovah had put wisdom,^l everyone whose heart impelled him to approach the work in order to do it.^m 3 Then they took from before Moses all the contributionⁿ that the sons of Israel had brought for the work of the holy service so as to do it, and, as for the latter, they still brought to him a voluntary offering morning after morning.

4 And all the wise ones who were doing all the holy work began to come, one man after another, from their work that they were doing, 5 and to say to Moses: "The people are bringing much more than what the service needs for the work that Jehovah has commanded to be done." 6 So Moses commanded that they should cause an announcement to pass through the camp, saying: "Men and women, do not produce any more stuff for the holy contribution." With that the people were restrained from bringing it in. 7 And the stuff proved to be enough for all the work to be done, and more than enough.

8 And all the wise-hearted^a among those doing the work went making the tabernacle,^b the ten tent cloths of fine twisted linen and blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material; with cherubs, the work of an embroiderer, he^c made them. 9 The length of each tent cloth was twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each tent cloth four cubits. There was one measure for all the tent cloths. 10 Then he joined five tent cloths one to another,^c and the five other tent cloths he joined one to another. 11 After that he made loops of blue thread upon the edge of the one tent cloth at the junction end. He did the same on the edge of the outermost tent cloth at the other place of junction.^d 12 He made fifty loops on the one tent cloth, and he made fifty loops on the extremity of the tent cloth that was at the other place of junction, the loops being opposite one another.^e 13 Finally he made fifty hooks of gold and joined the tent cloths to one another by the hooks, so that it became one tabernacle.^f

14 And he went on to make tent cloths of goat's hair for the tent upon the tabernacle. Eleven tent cloths were what he made.^g 15 The length of each tent cloth was thirty cubits, and the width of each tent cloth four cubits. There was one measure for the eleven tent cloths.^h 16 Then he joined five tent cloths together by themselves and the six other tent cloths by themselves.ⁱ

17 Next he made fifty loops upon the edge of the outermost tent cloth at the place of junction, and he made fifty loops upon the edge of the other tent cloth that joined with it.^a 18 After that he made fifty hooks of copper for joining the tent together to become one piece.^b

19 And he proceeded to make a covering for the tent out of ram skins dyed red and a covering out of sealskins^c up on top.^d

20 Then he made the panel frames for the tabernacle out of acacia wood,^e standing on end. 21 Ten cubits was the length of a panel frame, and one cubit and a half the width of each panel frame.^f 22 Each panel frame had two tenons fitted one to the other. That is the way he did to all the panel frames of the tabernacle.^g 23 So he made the panel frames for the tabernacle, twenty panel frames for the side toward the Neg'eb, to the south.^h 24 And he made forty socket pedestals of silver for beneath the twenty panel frames, two socket pedestals beneath the one panel frame with its two tenons and two socket pedestals beneath the other panel frame with its two tenons.ⁱ 25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, the northern side, he made twenty panel frames.^j 26 and their forty socket pedestals of silver, two socket pedestals beneath the one panel frame and two socket pedestals beneath the other panel frame.^k

27 And for the rear sections of the tabernacle to the west* he made six panel frames.^l 28 And he made two panel frames as corner posts of the tabernacle on its two rear sections.^m 29 And they proved to be duplicates at the bottom and together they came to be twins to the top of each one at the first ring. That is what he did to them both, to the two corner posts.ⁿ 30 So they amounted to eight panel frames and their socket pedestals of

31 And he went on to make bars of acacia wood, five for the panel frames of the one side of the tabernacle^b 32 and five bars for the panel frames of the other side of the tabernacle and five bars for the panel frames of the tabernacle for the two rear sections to the west.^c 33 Then he made the middle bar to run through at the middle of the panel frames from one end to the other.^d 34 And he overlaid the panel frames with gold, and he made their rings of gold as supports for the bars, and he went on to overlay the bars with gold.^e

35 And he proceeded to make a curtain^f of blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material and fine twisted linen. With the work of an embroiderer he made it with cherubs.^g 36 Then he made for it four acacia pillars and overlaid them with gold, their pegs being of gold, and cast four socket pedestals of silver for them.^h 37 And he went on to make a screen for the entrance of the tent out of blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material and fine twisted linen, the work of a weaver,ⁱ 38 and its five pillars and their pegs. And he overlaid their tops and their joints with gold, but their five socket pedestals were of copper.^j

37 Bez'al-el^k now made the Ark^l of acacia wood. Two cubits and a half was its length, and a cubit and a half its width, and a cubit and a half its height.^m 2 Then he overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside and made a border of gold round about for it.ⁿ 3 After that he cast four rings of gold for it, for above its four feet, with two rings on its one side and two rings on its other side.^o 4 He next made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.^p 5 Then he put the poles through the rings on the sides of the Ark for carrying the Ark.^q

All of it was one piece of hammered work, of pure gold.^d 23 Then he made its seven lamps and its snuffers and its fire holders out of pure gold.^e 24 Of a talent of pure gold he made it and all its utensils.

25 He now made the altar of incense^f out of acacia wood.^g A cubit* was its length and a cubit its width, it being foursquare, and two cubits was its height. The pegs of the pillars and their joints were of silver and the overlaying of their tops was of silver, and there were silver joinings for all the pillars of the courtyard.^b

18 And the screen of the gate of the courtyard was the work of a weaver, of blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material and fine twisted linen,^c and twenty cubits was the length, and the height throughout its extent was five cubits equally with the hangings of the courtyard.^d

27 And a hundred talents of silver went into the casting of the socket pedestals of the holy place and the socket pedestals of the curtain. A hundred socket pedestals equaled a hundred talents, a talent to a socket pedestal.^e 28 And out of the thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels^f he made pegs for the pillars and overlaid their tops and joined them together.

29 And the copper of the wave offering was seventy talents and two thousand four hundred shekels. 30 And with this he proceeded to make the socket pedestals of the entrance of the tent of meeting and the copper altar and the copper grating that belonged to it, and all the utensils of the altar, 31 and the socket pedestals of the courtyard round about, and the socket pedestals of the gate of the courtyard, and all the tent pins of the tabernacle and all the tent pinsⁱ of the courtyard round about.

gold, blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material and fine twisted linen. 3 Then they beat plates of gold to thin sheets, and he cut out threads to work in among the blue thread and the wool dyed reddish purple and the coccus scarlet material and the fine linen, as the work of an embroiderer.^a 4 They made shoulder pieces for it that were joined. It was joined at its two extremities. 5 And the girdle, which was upon it for tying it close, was of the same material according to its workmanship, of gold, blue thread, and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material and fine twisted linen,^b just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

They made the breastpiece, when doubled, a span of the hand in its length and a span in its width.^h 10 Then they filled it with four rows of stones. 22 Then he made the sleeveless coatⁱ of the eph'od, the workmanship of a loom worker, all of blue thread. 23 And the opening of the sleeveless coat was in the middle of it, like the opening of a coat of mail. 42 According to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, that was the way the sons of Israel did all the service.^o 43 And Moses got to see all the work, and, look! they had done it just as Jehovah had commanded. That was the way they had done. Consequently Moses blessed them.^p

40 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 2 "On the day of the first month,^q on the first of the month, you are to set up the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.^r 3 And you must place the ark of the testimony^s in it and shut off approach to the Ark with the curtain.^t 4 And you must bring the table^u in and set its arrangement in order, and you must bring in the lampstand^v and light up its lamps.^w 5 And you must put the golden altar for incense^x before the ark of the testimony and put the screen of the entrance for the tabernacle in place.^y

6 "And you must put the altar^z of burnt offering before the entrance of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, 7 and you must put the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it.^a 8 And you must place the courtyard^b round about and put up the screen^c of the gate of the courtyard. 9 And you must take the anointing oil^d and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it,^e and you must sanctify it and all its utensils, and so it must become something holy. 10 And you must anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils and sanctify the altar,^a and so it must become a most holy altar.^b 11 And you must anoint the basin and its stand and sanctify it.

12 "Then you must bring Aaron and his sons near to the entrance of the tent of meeting and wash them with water.^c 13 And you must clothe Aaron with the holy garments^d and anoint him^e and sanctify him, and so he must act as priest to me. 14 After that you will bring his sons near and you must clothe them with robes.^f 15 And you must anoint them just as you anointed their father,^g and so they must act as priests to me, and their anointing must serve continually for them as a priesthood to time indefinite during their generations."^h

16 And Moses proceeded to do according to all that Jehovah had commanded him.ⁱ He did just so.

17 Accordingly it came about that in the first month, in the second year, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was set up.^j 18 When Moses proceeded to set up the tabernacle, he went putting its socket pedestals^k down and placing its panel frames^l and putting its bars^m in and setting up its pillars.ⁿ

19 Then he spread out the tent^o over the tabernacle and placed the covering^p of the tent above upon it, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

20 After that he took the Testimony^q and put it into the Ark^r and placed the poles^s on the Ark and put the cover^t above upon the Ark.^u 21 Then he brought the Ark into the tabernacle and put the curtain^v of the screen in place and shut off approach to the ark of the testimony,^w just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

22 Next he put the table^x in the tent of meeting on the side of the tabernacle to the north outside the curtain, 23 and he arranged the row of bread^y upon it before Jehovah, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

24 Then he placed the lampstand^z in the tent of meeting in front of the table, on the side of the tabernacle to the south.* 25 He then lit up the lamps^a before Jehovah, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

26 He next placed the golden altar^b in the tent of meeting before the curtain, 27 that he might^c make perfumed incense smoke upon it,^c just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

28 Finally he put the screen^d of the entrance of the tabernacle in place.

29 And he placed the altar^e of burnt offering at the entrance of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, that he might offer up the burnt offering^f and the grain offering upon it, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

30 Then he placed the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing.^g 31 And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet at it. 32 When they went into the tent of meeting and when they went near to the altar they would wash,^h just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

33 Finally he set up the courtyardⁱ round about the tabernacle and the altar and put up the screen of the gate of the courtyard.^j

So Moses finished the work. 34 And the cloud^k began to cover the tent of meeting, and Jehovah's glory filled the tabernacle. 35 And Moses was not able to go into the tent of meeting, because the cloud^l resided over it and Jehovah's glory filled the tabernacle.^m

36 And when the cloud lifted itself up from over the tabernacle the sons of Israel would break camp during all their stages of journey.ⁿ 37 However, if the cloud did not lift itself up, then they would not break camp until the day when it lifted itself up.^o 38 For Jehovah's cloud was over the tabernacle by day, and a fire continued upon it by night in the sight of all the house of Israel during all their stages of journey.^p

should at all be eaten on the third day, the one presenting it will not be accepted with approval.^a It will not be put to his account.^b It will become a foul thing, and the soul that eats some of it will answer for his error.^c 19 And the flesh that may touch anything unclean^d is not to be eaten. It is to be burned with fire. As for the flesh, everybody clean may eat the flesh.

20 "And the soul who eats the flesh of the communion sacrifice, which is for Jehovah, while his uncleanness is upon him, that soul must be cut off from his people.^e 21 And in case a soul touches anything unclean, the uncleanness of a man^f or an unclean beast^g or any unclean loathsome thing,^h and actually eats some of the flesh of the communion sacrifice, which is for Jehovah, that soul must be cut off from his people.ⁱ

22 And Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 23 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'You must not eat any fat^j of a bull or a young ram or a goat. 24 Now the fat of a body [already] dead and the fat of an animal torn^k to pieces may be used for anything else conceivable, but you must not eat it at all. 25 For anyone eating fat from the beast from which he presents it as an offering made by fire to Jehovah, the soul that eats must be cut off^l from his people.

26 "And you must not eat any blood^m in any places where you dwell, whether that of fowl or that of beast. 27 Any soul who eats any blood, that soul must be cut offⁿ from his people.^o

28 And Jehovah went on to speak to Moses, saying: 29 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'He who presents his communion sacrifice to Jehovah will bring his offering to Jehovah from his communion sacrifice.^p 30 His hands will bring as Jehovah's offerings made by fire the fat^q upon the breast. He will bring it with the breast to wave it to and fro as a wave offering^r before Jehovah. 31 And the priest must make the fat

32 "And you will give the right leg as a sacred portion^c to the priest from your communion sacrifices. 33 That one of Aaron's sons who presents the blood of the communion sacrifices and the fat, the right leg will become his as a portion.^d 34 For the breast of the wave offering^e and the leg of the sacred portion I do take from the sons of Israel from their communion sacrifices, and I shall give them to Aaron the priest and his sons, as a regulation to time indefinite, from the sons of Israel.

35 "This was the priestly share of Aaron and the priestly share of his sons from Jehovah's offerings made by fire, on the day that he presented^f them to act as priests to Jehovah, 36 just as Jehovah had commanded to give it to them on the day of his anointing^g them from among the sons of Israel. It is a statute to time indefinite for their generations."^h

37 This is the law concerning the burnt offering,ⁱ the grain offering^j and the sin offering^k and the guilt offering^l and the installation sacrifice^m and the communion sacrifice,ⁿ 38 just as Jehovah had commanded Moses in Mount Si'nai^o in the day of his commanding the sons of Israel to present their offerings to Jehovah in the wilderness of Si'nai.^p

8 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses, saying: 2 "Take Aaron and his sons with him^q and the garments^r and the anointing oil^s and the bull of the sin offering^t and the two rams and the basket of unfermented cakes,^u 3 and make all the assembly congregate^v at the entrance of the tent of meeting."^w

4 Then Moses did just as Jehovah had commanded him, and the assembly congregated at the entrance^x of the tent of meeting. 5 Moses now said to the assembly: "This is the thing that Jehovah has given command to do."^y 6 So Moses brought Aaron and his sons near and washed^z them with water.^a 7 Af-

10 Moses now took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle^j and all that was in it and sanctified them.

11 After that he spattered some of it seven times upon the altar and anointed the altar^k and all its utensils and the basin and its stand so as to sanctify them. 12 Finally he poured some of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head and anointed him so as to sanctify him.^l

13 Moses then brought Aaron's sons near^m and clothed them with robes and girded them with sashesⁿ and wrapped the headgear^o upon them, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

14 Then he led up the bull^p of the sin offering and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head^q of the bull of the sin offering. 15 And Moses proceeded to slaughter^r it and take the blood^s and put it with his finger upon the horns of the altar round about and purify the altar from sin, but the rest of the blood he poured at the base of the altar, that he might sanctify it to make atonement^t upon it. 16 After that he took all the fat that was upon the intestines, and the appendage of the liver and the two kidneys and their fat and Moses made them smoke upon the altar.^u 17 And he had the bull and its skin and its flesh and its dung burned with fire outside the camp,^v just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

a wave offering before Jehovah.^a From the installation ram it became the portion^b for Moses, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

30 After that Moses took some of the anointing oil^c and some of the blood that was upon the altar and spattered it upon Aaron and his garments and upon his sons and the garments of his sons with him. Thus he sanctified^d Aaron and his garments and his sons and the garments of his sons^e with him.

31 Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons: "Boil^f the flesh at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and there is where you will eat it^g and the bread that is in the installation basket, just as I was given the command,^h saying, 'Aaron and his sons will eat it.' 32 And what is left over of the flesh and the bread you will burn with fire.ⁱ 33 And you must not go out from the entrance of the tent of meeting for seven days,^j until the day of fulfilling the days of your installation, because it will take seven days to fill your hand with power.^k

34 Just as it has been done this day, Jehovah has commanded to be done so as to make atonement for you.^l 35 And you will stay at the entrance of the tent of meeting day and night for seven days,^m and you must keep the obligatory watch of Jehovah,ⁿ that you may not die; for so I have been commanded."

36 And Aaron and his sons proceeded to do all the things that Jehovah had commanded by means of Moses.

9 And it came about on the eighth^a day that Moses called Aaron and his sons and the older men of Israel. 2 Then he said to Aaron: "Take for yourself a young calf for a sin offering^b and a ram for a burnt offering,^c sound ones, and present them before Jehovah.^d

Le 8:31* According to T^oLXXSy; Vg^r, "just as Jehovah instructed me." Here the Heb. verb is vowel-pointed differently from the same Heb. verb in vs 35. 33* "To fill your hand with power." Or, "to install you; to empower you." Heb., yemalle 'eth-yedh-khem'; Gr., te-lei-o-sei tas kheiras hy-mon' (LXX^{Thomson}, "he will consecrate your hands"). Compare Heb 5:9 fn.

3 But to the sons* of Israel you will speak, saying, "Take a male goat^a for a sin offering and a calf and a young ram,^b each a year old, sound ones, for a burnt offering, 4 and a bull and a ram for communion sacrifices^c to sacrifice them before Jehovah, and a grain offering^d moistened with oil, because today is when Jehovah will certainly appear to you."^e

5 Accordingly they took what Moses had commanded before the tent of meeting. Then the whole assembly came near and stood before Jehovah.^f

6 And Moses went on to say: "This is the thing that Jehovah has commanded you should do, that the glory of Jehovah may appear to you."^g 7 Then Moses said to Aaron: "Go near to the altar and render up your sin offering^h and your burnt offering, and make atonementⁱ in your own behalf and in behalf of your house;^{*} and render up the offering of the people^j and make atonement^k in their behalf, just as Jehovah has commanded."

8 Aaron immediately went near to the altar and slaughtered the calf of the sin offering that was for him.^l 9 Then Aaron's sons presented the blood^m to him and he dipped his finger in the bloodⁿ and put it upon the horns of the altar,^o and the rest of the blood he poured at the base of the altar. 10 And he made the fat^p and the kidneys and the appendage of the liver from the sin offering smoke upon the altar,^q just as Jehovah had commanded Moses. 11 And he burned the flesh and the skin with fire outside the camp.^r

12 Then he slaughtered the burnt offering and Aaron's sons handed him the blood and he sprinkled it round about upon the altar.^s 13 And they handed him the burnt offering in its pieces and the head, and he proceeded to make them smoke upon the altar.^t 14 Further, he washed the intestines and the shanks and made them smoke upon the burnt offering on the altar.^u

15 He now went presenting the offering of the people^a and took the goat of the sin offering that was for the people and slaughtered it and made an offering for sin with it as with the first. 16 Then he presented the burnt offering and handled it according to the regular procedure.^b

17 He next presented the grain offering^c and filled his hand with some of it and made it smoke upon the altar, apart from the burnt offering of the morning.^d

18 After that he slaughtered the bull and the ram of the communion sacrifice^e that was for the people. Then Aaron's sons handed him the blood and he sprinkled it round about upon the altar.^f 19 As for the fatty pieces^g of the bull and the fat tail^h of the ram and the fat coveringⁱ and the kidneys and the appendage of the liver, 20 they^{*} now placed the fatty pieces upon the breasts,^j after which he made the fatty pieces smoke upon the altar. 21 But the breasts and the right leg Aaron waved to and fro as a wave offering^k before Jehovah, just as Moses had commanded.

22 Then Aaron raised his hands toward the people and blessed them^k and came down^l from rendering the sin offering and the burnt offering and the communion sacrifices. 23 Finally Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting and came out and blessed the people.^m

Then Jehovah's gloryⁿ appeared to all the people, 24 and fire came out from before Jehovah^o and began consuming the burnt offering and the fatty pieces upon the altar. When all the people got to see it, they broke out into shouting^p and went falling upon their faces.

10 Later on Aaron's sons Na'dab and A-bi'hu^q took up and brought each one his fire holder^r and put fire in them and placed incense^s upon it, and they began offering before Jeho-

4 So Moses called Mish'a-el and Elza'phan, the sons of Uz'ziel,^g Aaron's uncle, and said to them: "Come near, carry YOUR brothers from in front of the holy place to outside the camp."^h 5 They accordingly came near and carried them in their robes to outside the camp, just as Moses had spoken.

6 Subsequently Moses said to Aaron and to Ele-a'zar and Ith'a-mar his [other] sons: "Do not let YOUR heads go ungroomed,ⁱ and YOU must not tear YOUR garments, that YOU may not die and that he may not become indignant against all the assembly;^j but YOUR brothers of the whole house of Israel will do the weeping over the burning, which Jehovah has made burn. 7 And from the entrance of the tent of meeting YOU must not go out for fear YOU may die,^k because Jehovah's anointing oil is upon you."^l So they did according to Moses' word.

8 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Aaron, saying: 9 "Do not drink wine or intoxicating liquor,^m you and your sons with you, when YOU come into the tent of meeting, that YOU may not die. It is a statute to time indefinite for YOUR generations, 10 both in order to make a distinction between the holy thing and the profane and between the unclean thing and the clean," 11 and in order to teach the sons of Israelⁿ all the regulations that Jehovah has spoken to them by means of Moses."

12 Then Moses spoke to Aaron and to Ele-a'zar and Ith'a-mar, his sons that were left: "Take the grain offering^o that was left over from Jehovah's offerings made by fire and eat it unfermented near the altar, because it is something most holy.^p 13 And you must eat it in a holy place,^a because it is your allowance and the allowance of your sons from Jehovah's offerings made by fire; for so I have been commanded.

14 And you will eat the breast of the wave offering^b and the leg of the sacred portion^c in a clean place, you and your sons and your daughters with you,^d because they have been given as your allowance and the allowance of your sons from the communion sacrifices of the sons of Israel. 15 They will bring the leg of the sacred portion and the breast of the wave offering^e along with the offerings made by fire, of the fatty pieces, in order to wave the wave offering to and fro before Jehovah; and it must serve as an allowance^f to time indefinite for you and your sons with you, just as Jehovah has commanded."

16 And Moses searched thoroughly for the goat of the sin offering,^g and, look! it had been burned up. So he grew indignant at Ele-a'zar and Ith'a-mar, Aaron's sons that were left, saying: 17 "Why did you not eat the sin offering in the place that is holy,^h since it is something most holy and he has given it to you that you may answer for the error of the assembly so as to make atonement for them before Jehovah?ⁱ 18 Look! Its blood has not been brought into the holy place within.^j You should have eaten it without fail in the holy place, just as I had been commanded."^k 19 At this Aaron spoke to Moses: "Look! Today they have presented their sin offering and their burnt offering before Jehovah,^l while such things as these began to befall me; and had I eaten the sin offering today, would it prove satisfactory in Jehovah's eyes?"^m 20 When Moses got to hear that, then it proved satisfactory in his eyes.

11 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses and Aaron, saying to them: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'This is the living creature that YOU may eatⁿ of all the beasts that are upon the earth: 3 Every creature that splits the hoof and forms a cleft

9 "This is what you may eat of everything that is in the waters:^h Everything that has fins and scalesⁱ in the waters, in the seas and in the torrents, those you may eat. 10 And everything in the seas and the torrents that has no fins and scales, out of every swarming creature of the waters and out of every living soul* that is in the waters, they are a loathsome thing for you. 11 Yes, they will become a loathsome thing to you. fore Jehovah.^a 31 It is a sabbath^b of complete rest^c for you, and you must afflict YOUR souls. It is a statute to time indefinite.

32 "And the priest who will be anointed^d and whose hand will be filled with power^e to act as priest^f as successor^g of his father must make an atonement and must put on the linen garments.^h They are holy garments.ⁱ 33 And he must make atonement for the holy sanctuary,^j and for the tent^k of meeting and for the altar^l he will make atonement; and for the priests and for all the people of the congregation he will make atonement.^m 34 And this must serve as a statute to time indefinite for you,ⁿ in order to make atonement for the sons of Israel concerning all their sins once in the year.^o"

Accordingly he did just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

17 And Jehovah went on to speak to Moses, saying: 2 "Speak to Aaron and his sons and all the sons of Israel, and you must say to them, 'This is the thing that Jehovah has commanded, saying:

3 "As for any man of the house of Israel who slaughters a bull or a young ram or a goat in the camp or who slaughters it outside the camp 4 and does not actually bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting^a to present it as an offering to Jehovah before the tabernacle of Jehovah, bloodguilt will be counted to that man. 10 Now a son of an Israelite woman, who, however, was the son of an Egyptian man,ⁿ went out into the midst of the sons of Israel, and the son of the Israelitess and an Israelite man began to struggle^o with each other in the camp.

a month old upward were six thousand two hundred.^a 35 And the chieftain of the paternal house for the families of Mer-ar'i was Zu'ri-el the son of Ab'i-hail. They were encamped on the side of the tabernacle toward the north.^b 36 And the oversight for which the sons of Mer-ar'i were obligated was over the panel frames^c of the tabernacle and its bars^d and its pillars^e and its socket pedestals and all its utensils^f and all its service,^g 37 and the pillars^h of the courtyard round about and their socket pedestalsⁱ and their tent pins and their tent cords.

38 And those camping before the tabernacle toward the east, before the tent of meeting toward the sunrising, were Moses and Aaron and his sons, those taking care of the obligation to the sanctuary,^j as the obligation for the sons of Israel. And any stranger* coming near would be put to death.^k

39 All the registered ones of the Levites whom Moses and Aaron* registered at the order of Jehovah by their families, all the males from a month old upward, were twenty-two thousand.

40 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Register all the firstborn males of the sons of Israel from a month old upward,^l and take the number of their names.

41 And you must take the Levites for me—I am Jehovah—in place of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel,^m and the domestic animals of the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the domestic animals of the sons of Israel."ⁿ

42 And Moses proceeded, just as Jehovah had commanded him, to register all the firstborn among the sons of Israel.

43 And all the firstborn males by the number of the names from a month old upward of their registered ones came to be twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.

Nu 3:38* That is, a non-Levite. See 1:51. 39 "And Aaron," MLXXVg. In M the words thus translated are marked with extraordinary points by the Sopherim. Moses was commanded to do the numbering, but since Aaron took part with Moses, some ancient copyist inserted "and Aaron" in the text. Later the scribes put dots over the words rather than take them out. SamSy and 11 Heb. mss omit. See App 2A.

44 And Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 45 "Take the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the domestic animals of the Levites in place of their domestic animals; and the Levites must become mine.^a I am Jehovah. 46 And as the ransom price^b of the two hundred and seventy-three from the firstborn of the sons of Israel, who are in excess of the Levites,^c 47 you must take five shekels for each individual.^d In the shekel of the holy place you should take it. A shekel is twenty ge'rahs.^e 48 And you must give the money to Aaron and his sons as the ransom price of those who are in excess of them." 49 So Moses took the money of the redemption price from those who were in excess of the ransom price of the Levites. 50 From the firstborn of the sons of Israel he took the money, a thousand three hundred and sixty-five shekels,* in the shekel of the holy place. 51 Then Moses gave the money of the ransom price to Aaron and his sons according to the order of Jehovah, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

4 Jehovah now spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: 2 "There will be a taking* of the sum of the sons of Ko'hath^f from among the sons of Le'vi, according to their families in the house of their fathers, 3 from thirty* years old^g upward to fifty years old,^h all those going into the service groupⁱ to do the work in the tent of meeting.

4 "This is the service of the sons of Ko'hath in the tent of meeting.^j It is something most holy: 5 And Aaron and his sons must come in when the camp is departing, and they must take down the screening curtain^k and must cover the ark^l of the testimony with it. 6 And they must put a covering of sealskins^m over it and spread out an

17 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses and Aaron, saying: 18 "Do not let the tribe of the families of the Ko'hath-ites^f be cut off from among the Levites. 19 But do this for them that they may indeed keep alive and may not die for their approaching the most holy things.^g Aaron and his sons will come in, and they must assign them each one to his service and to his load. 20 And they must not come in to see the holy things for the least moment of time,^h and so they have to die."^h do so, even to send them outside the camp. Just as Jehovah had spoken to Moses, so the sons of Israel did.

5 And Jehovah continued speaking to Moses, saying: 6 "Speak to the sons of Israel, 'As for a man or a woman, in case they do any of all the sins of mankind in committing an act of unfaithfulness against Jehovah, that soul has also become guilty.' 7 And they must confess^b their sin that they have done, and he must return the amount of his guilt in its principal, also adding a fifth of it to it,^c and he must give it to the one against whom he did wrong. 8 But if the latter has no near relative* to whom to return the amount of the guilt, the amount of the guilt that is being returned to Jehovah belongs to the priest,^e except the ram of atonement with which he will make atonement for him.^d

9 "And every contribution^e of all the holy things^f of the sons of Israel, which they will present to the priest, should become his.^g 10 And the holy things of each one will remain his own. Whatever each one may give to the priest, that will become his.'"

11 And Jehovah went on to speak to Moses, saying: 12 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you must say to them, 'In case any man's wife turns aside in that she does commit an act of unfaithfulness against him,^h 13 and another man actually lies down with her and has an emission of semen,ⁱ and it has been hidden from the eyes of her husband^j and has remained undiscovered, and she, on her part, has defiled herself but there is no witness against her, and she herself has not been caught; 14 and the spirit of jealousy^k has passed upon him, and he has become suspicious of his wife's faithfulness, and she in fact has defiled herself, or the spirit of jealousy has passed upon him, and he has become suspicious of his wife's faithfulness, but she in fact has not defiled

He must not pour oil upon it nor put frankincense^b upon it, because it is a grain offering of jealousy, a memorial grain offering bringing error to remembrance.

16 "And the priest must bring her forward and make her stand before Jehovah.^c 17 And the priest must take holy water* in an earthenware vessel, and the priest will take some of the dust that happens to be on the floor of the tabernacle, and he must put it in the water. 18 And the priest must make the woman stand before Jehovah and loosen the hair of the woman's head and put upon her palms the memorial grain offering, that is, the grain offering of jealousy,^d and in the hand of the priest there should be the bitter water that brings a curse.^e

19 "And the priest must make her swear, and he must say to the woman: "If no man has lain down with you and if while under your husband^f you have not turned aside in any uncleanness, be free of the effect of this bitter water that brings a curse. 20 But you, in case you have turned aside while under your husband^g and in case you have defiled yourself and some man has put in you his seminal emission,^h besides your husband,—” 21 The priest must now make the woman swear with an oath involving cursing,ⁱ and the priest must say to the woman: "May Jehovah set you for a cursing and an oath in the midst of your people by Jehovah's letting your thigh^j fall away, and your belly swell. 22 And this water that brings a curse must enter into your intestines to cause your belly to swell and the thigh to fall away." 8 “All the days of his Naziriteship he is holy to Jehovah. 9 But in case anyone dying should die quite suddenly alongside him^e so that he has defiled the head of his Naziriteship, he must then shave^f his head in the day of establishing his purification. On the seventh day he should shave it. 10 And on the eighth day he should bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons* to the priest to the entrance of the tent of meeting.^g 11 And the priest must handle one as a sin offering^h and the other as a burnt offeringⁱ and make atonement for him, since he has sinned because of the [dead] soul.* Then he must sanctify his head on that day. 12 And he must live as a Naz'i-rite^j to Jehovah for the days of his Naziriteship, and he must bring a young ram in its first year as a guilt offering;^k and the former days will go uncounted because he defiled his Naziriteship.*

18 “And the Naz'i-rite must shave^l the head of his Naziriteship at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and he must take the hair of the head of his Naziriteship and put it upon the fire that is under the communion sacrifice. 19 And the priest must take a boiled^m shoulder from the ram and one unfermented ring-shaped cake out of the basket, and one unfermented wafer,ⁿ and put them upon the palms of the Naz'i-rite after he has had the sign of his Naziriteship shaved off. 20 And the priest must wave them to and fro as a wave offering before Jehovah.^o It is something holy for the priest, along with the breast^p of the wave offering and the leg of the contribution.^q And afterward the Naz'i-rite may drink wine.^r

22 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 23 “Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the way you should bless^t the sons of Israel, saying* to them:

24 “May Jehovah bless you^u and keep you.”^v

Nu 6:23* “Saying.” In Heb. this is a verb in the infinitive absolute, indefinite as to time and impersonal.

26 May Jehovah lift up his face toward you^c and assign peace to you."^d

27 And they must place my name^e upon the sons of Israel, that I myself may bless them."^f

7 Now it came about on the day that Moses finished setting up the tabernacle^g that he proceeded to anoint^h it and to sanctify it and all its furnishings^{*} and the altar and all its utensils. Thus he anointed them and sanctified them.ⁱ 2 Then the chieftains of Israel,^j the heads of the house of their fathers, made a presentation,^k they being the chieftains of the tribes and standing over the ones registered, 3 and they brought their offering before Jehovah, six covered wagons and twelve cattle, a wagon for two chieftains and a bull for each one; and they presented them before the tabernacle. 4 At this Jehovah said to Moses: 5 "Accept them from them, as they must serve for carrying on the service of the tent of meeting, and you must give them to the Levites, each one in proportion to his own service."

6 So Moses accepted the wagons and the cattle and gave them to the Levites. 7 Two wagons and four cattle he gave to the sons of Ger'shon in proportion to their service,^l 8 and four wagons and eight cattle he gave to the sons of Merari in proportion to their service,^m under the hand of Ith'amar the son of Aaron the priest.ⁿ 9 But to the sons of Ko'hath he gave none, because the service of the holy place was upon them.^o They did their carrying on the shoulder.^p

10 Now the chieftains made their presentation at^{*} the inauguration^q of the altar on the day of its being anointed, and the chieftains proceeded with presenting their offering before the altar. 11 So Jehovah said to Moses: "One chieftain on one day and another chieftain on another day is the way they

89 Now whenever Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with him,^p then he would hear the voice^q conversing with him from above the cover^r that was upon the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubs;^s and he would speak to him.

8 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses, saying: 2 "Speak to Aaron, and you must say to him, 'Whenever you light up the lamps, the seven lamps should shine on the area in front of the lampstand.'^u 3 And Aaron began to do so. On the day of my striking every first-born in the land of Egypt^a I sanctified them to myself.^b 18 And I shall take the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel.^c 19 And I shall give the Levites as given ones to Aaron and his sons from among the sons of Israel,^d to carry on the service of the sons of Israel in the tent of meeting^e and to make atonement for the sons of Israel, that no plague may occur among the sons of Israel^f because the sons of Israel approach the holy place.^g

20 And Moses and Aaron and all the assembly of the sons of Israel proceeded to do so to the Levites. In accord with all that Jehovah had commanded Moses as regards the Levites, that is the way the sons of Israel did to them. 21 So the Levites purified themselves^h and washed their garments, after which Aaron caused them to move to and fro as a wave offering before Jehovah.ⁱ Then Aaron made an atonement for them to cleanse them.^j 22 First after that the Levites came in to carry on their service in the tent of meeting before Aaron and his sons.^k Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses respecting the Levites, so they did to them.

23 Jehovah now spoke to Moses, saying: 24 "This is what applies to the Levites:^l From twenty-five years old upward he will come to enter into the company in the service of the tent of meeting. 25 But after the age of fifty years he will retire from the service company and serve no longer. 26 And he must minister to his brothers in the tent of meeting in taking care of the obligation, but he must render no service. In accord with this you will do to the Levites in their obligations."^m

9 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses in the wilderness of Si'nai in the second year of their coming out of the land of Egypt, in the first month,ⁿ saying: 2 "Now the sons of Israel should prepare the passover^o sacrifice at its appointed time." 3 On the fourteenth day in this month between the two evenings^a you should prepare it at its appointed time. According to all its statutes and all its regular procedures you should prepare it.”^b

4 So Moses spoke to the sons of Israel to prepare the passover sacrifice.

5 Then they prepared the passover sacrifice in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month between the two evenings, in the wilderness of Si-nai. According to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did.^c

6 Now there happened to be men who had become unclean by a human soul^d so that they were not able to prepare the passover sacrifice on that day. Hence they presented themselves before Moses and Aaron on that day.^e

7 Then those men said to him: “We are unclean by a human soul. Why should we be restrained from presenting the offering^f to Jehovah at its appointed time in the midst of the sons of Israel?”

8 At this Moses said to them: “Stand there, and let me hear what Jehovah may command regarding you.”^g

9 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 10 “Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘Although any man of you or of your generations should happen to be unclean by a soul^h or off on a distantⁱ journey, he too must prepare the pass-over sacrifice to Jehovah. 11 In the second month,^j on the fourteenth day between the two evenings, they should prepare it. Together with unfermented cakes and bitter greens they should eat it.^j 12 They must not let any of it remain until morning,^k and they should break no bone in it.^l According to the whole statute of the passover they should prepare it.^m 13 But when the 15 Now on the day of setting up the tabernacle^f the cloud covered the tabernacle of the tent of the Testimony,^g but in the evening what appeared to be fire^h continued over the tabernacle until morning. 16 That is the way it went on constantly: The cloud would cover it by day,ⁱ and the appearance of fire by night.^j 17 And whenever the cloud would go up from over the tent, the sons of Israel would pull away^k right afterward,^j and in the place where the cloud would reside, there is where the sons of Israel would encamp.^k 18 At the order of Jehovah the sons of Israel would pull away, and at the order of Jehovah they would encamp.^l All the days that the cloud would reside over the tabernacle, they would remain encamped. 19 And when the cloud prolonged its stay over the tabernacle many days, the sons of Israel also kept their obligation to Jehovah that they should not pull away.^m 20 And sometimesⁿ the cloud would continue a few days over the tabernacle. At the orderⁿ of Jehovah they would remain encamped, and at the order of Jehovah they would pull away. 21 And sometimes the cloud^o would continue from evening to morning; and the cloud lifted itself in the morning, and they pulled away. also pulled away.^a 22 Whether it was two days or a month or more days* during which the cloud prolonged its stay over the tabernacle by residing over it, the sons of Israel remained encamped and would not pull away, but when it lifted itself they would pull away.^b

23 At the order of Jehovah they would encamp, and at the order of Jehovah they would pull away. They kept their obligation^c to Jehovah at the order of Jehovah by means of Moses.^d

10 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses, saying: 2 "Make for yourself two trumpets^e of silver. You will make them of hammered work, and they must be at your service for convening^f the assembly and for breaking up the camps. 3 And they must blow on them both, and the whole assembly must keep their appointment with you at the entrance of the tent of meeting.^g 4 And if they should blow on just one, the chieftains as heads of the thousands of Israel must also keep their appointment with you.^h

5 "And you men must blow a fluctuating blast, and the camps of those camping to the eastⁱ must pull away. 6 And you must blow a fluctuating blast a second time, and the camps of those camping to the south^j must pull away.* They should blow a fluctuating blast for each time one of them pulls away.

7 "Now when calling the congregation together, you should blow,^k but you must not sound a fluctuating blast. 8 And Aaron's sons, the priests, should blow on the trumpets,^l and the use of them must serve as a statute for you men to time indefinite during your generations.

war in YOUR land against the oppressor who is harassing you,^a YOU must also sound a war call on the trumpets,^b and YOU will certainly be remembered before Jehovah YOUR God and be saved from YOUR enemies.^c

10 "And in the day of YOUR rejoicing^d and in YOUR festal seasons^e and at the commencements of YOUR months,^f YOU must blow on the trumpets over YOUR burnt offerings^g and YOUR communion sacrifices;^h and their use must serve as a memorial* for you before YOUR God. I am Jehovah YOUR God.ⁱ

11 Now it came about that in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day in the month,^j the cloud lifted itself from over the tabernacle^k of the Testimony. 12 And the sons of Israel began to pull away in the manner of their departures^l from the wilderness of Si'nai, and the cloud proceeded to reside in the wilderness of Pa'ran.^m 13 And they began pulling away for the first time, according to the order of Jehovah by means of Moses.ⁿ

14 So the [three-tribe] division* of the camp of the sons of Judah pulled away first of all in their armies,^o and Nah'shon^p the son of Am-min'a-dab was over its army. 15 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Is'sa-char there was Ne-than'el^q the son of Zu'ar. 16 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Zeb'u-lun there was Eli'ab the son of He'lon.^r

17 And the tabernacle was taken down,^s and the sons of Ger'shon^t and the sons of Me-rari^u as carriers of the tabernacle pulled away.

18 And the [three-tribe] division of the camp of Reu'ben^v pulled away in their armies, and E-li'zur^w the son of Shed'e-ur was over its army. 19 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Sim'e-on^x there was She-lu'mi-el^y the son of Zu-ri-shad'dai. 20 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Gad there was E-li'a-saph^z the son of Deu'el.

21 And the Ko'hath-ites as carriers of the sanctuary^a pulled away, as they will have set up the tabernacle by the time of their coming.

22 And the [three-tribe] division of the camp of the sons of E'phra-im^a pulled away in their armies, and E-lish'-a-ma^b the son of Am-mi'hud was over its army. 23 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Ma-nas'seh^c there was Ga-ma'li-el^d the son of Pe-dah'zur. 24 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin^e there was Ab-i-dan^f the son of Gid-e-o'ni.

25 And the [three-tribe] division of the camp of the sons of Dan^g pulled away as forming the rear guard^h for all the camps in their armies, and A-hi-e'zerⁱ the son of Am-mi-shad'dai was over its army. 26 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Ash'er^j there was Pa'gi-el^k the son of Och'ran. 27 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Naph'ta-li^l there was A-hi'ra^m the son of E'nan. 28 In this manner were the departures of the sons of Israel in their armies when they would pull away.ⁿ

29 Then Moses said to Ho'bab the son of Reu'el^o the Mid'i-an-ite, the father-in-law of Moses:^{*} "We are pulling away for the place about which Jehovah said, 'I shall give it to you.'^p Do come with us, and we shall certainly do good to you,^q because Jehovah has spoken good concerning Israel."^r 30 But he said to him: "I shall not go along, but I shall go to my own country^s and to my relatives."^t 31 At this he said: "Please, do not leave us, because, for the reason that you well know where we may encamp in the wilderness, you must serve as eyes for us. 32 And it must occur that in case you should come with us,^u yes, it must occur that with what goodness Jehovah will do good with us, we, in turn, will do good to you."

33 So they went marching from the mountain of Jehovah^v for a journey of three days, and the ark of Jehovah's covenant^w was marching before them for a journey of three days to search out a resting-place for them.^x 34 And Jehovah's cloud^a was over them by day at their marching out from the encampment.

35 And it would occur that when the Ark would set out, Moses would say: "Do arise, O Jehovah, and let your enemies be scattered;^b and let those who intensely hate you flee from before you."^c 36 And when it would rest, he would say: "Do return, O Jehovah, to^{*} the myriads of thousands of Israel."^d

11 Now the people became as men having something evil to complain about in the ears of Jehovah.^e When Jehovah got to hear it, then his anger grew hot, and a fire of Jehovah began to blaze against them and to consume some in the extremity of the camp.^f 2 When the people began to cry out to Moses, then he made supplication to Jehovah,^g and the fire sank down. 3 And the name of that place got to be called^{*} Tab'e-rah,^h because a fire of Jehovah had blazed against them.

4 And the mixed crowdⁱ that was in the midst of them expressed selfish longing,^j and the sons of Israel too began to weep again and say: "Who will give us meat to eat?^k 5 How we remember the fish that we used to eat in Egypt for nothing,^l the cucumbers and the watermelons and the leeks and the onions and the garlic! 6 But now our soul is dried away. Our eyes are on nothing at all except the manna."^m

7 Incidentally, the mannaⁿ was like coriander^o seed, and its look^{*} was like the look of bdellium gum.^p 8 The people spread out and picked it up^q and ground it in hand mills or pounded it in a mortar, and they boiled it in cooking pots^r or made it into round cakes, and its taste proved to be like the taste of an oiled sweet cake.^s 9 And when the dew descended upon the camp by night, the manna would descend upon it.^t

ple weeping in their families, each man at the entrance of his tent. And Jehovah's anger began growing very hot,^a and in the eyes of Moses it was bad.^b 11 Then Moses said to Jehovah: "Why have you caused evil to your servant,^{*} and why have I not found favor in your eyes, in placing the load of all this people upon me?"^c 12 Have I myself conceived all this people? Is it I who have given them birth, so that you should say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom,'^d just as the male nurse carries the suckling,^e to the soil about which you swore to their forefathers?^f 13 From where do I have meat to give to all this people? 16 In turn Jehovah said to Moses: "Gather for me seventy men of the older men of Israel,ⁱ whom you do know that they are older men of the people and officers of theirs,^j and you must take them to the tent of meeting, and they must station themselves there with you. 17 And I shall have to come down^k and speak with you there;^l and I shall have to take away some of the spirit^m that is upon you and place it upon them, and they will have to help you in carrying the load of the people that you may not carry it, just you alone."ⁿ 18 And to the people you should say, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow,^o as you will certainly eat meat, because you have wept in the ears of Jehovah,^p saying: "Who will give us meat to eat, for it was well with us in Egypt?"'^q And Jehovah will certainly give you meat, and you will indeed eat."^r 19 You will eat, not one day nor two days nor five days nor ten days nor twenty days, 20 but up to a month of days, until it comes out of YOUR nostrils and it has become a loathing to you,^a just because YOU rejected Jehovah, who is in YOUR midst, and you went weeping before him, saying: "Why is it that we have come out of Egypt?"[']"^b

21 Then Moses said: "The people in the midst of whom I am are six hundred thousand men^c on foot, and yet you—you have said, 'Meat I shall give them, and they will certainly eat for a month of days!' 22 Will flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, for it to be adequate for them?^d Or will all the fish of the sea be caught for them, for it to be adequate for them?"

23 At this Jehovah said to Moses: "The hand of Jehovah is cut short, is it?^e Now you will see whether what I say befalls you or not."^f

24 After that Moses went out and spoke to the people the words of Jehovah. And he went gathering seventy men from the older men of the people and proceeded to have them stand round about the tent.^g 25 Then Jehovah came down in a cloud^h and spoke to himⁱ and took away some of the spirit^j that was upon him and put it upon each of the seventy older men.^{*} And it came about that as soon as the spirit settled down upon them, then they proceeded to act as prophets; but they did not do it again.^{#k}

26 Now there were two of the men remaining in the camp. The name of the one was El'dad, and the name of the other was Me'dad. And the spirit began to settle down upon them, as they were among those written down, but they had not gone out to the tent. So they proceeded to act as prophets in the camp. 27 And a young man went running and reporting to Moses and saying: "El'dad and Me'dad are acting as prophets in the camp!" 28 Then Joshua* the son of Nun, the minister^a of Moses from his young manhood on, responded and said: "My lord Moses, restrain them!"^b

29 However, Moses said to him: "Are you feeling jealous for me? No, I wish* that all of Jehovah's people were prophets, because Jehovah would put his spirit^c upon them!"^c 30 Later Moses withdrew to the camp, he and the older men of Israel.

31 And a wind^d burst forth from Jehovah and began driving quails from the sea^e and letting them fall above the camp about a day's journey this way and about a day's journey that way, all around the camp, and about two cubits above the surface of the earth.^f 32 Then the people got up all that day and all night and all the next day and kept gathering the quail. The one collecting least gathered ten ho'mers,^g and they kept spreading them extensively^h all around the camp for themselves. 33 The meat was yet between their teeth,ⁱ before it could be chewed, when Jehovah's anger blazed^h against the people, and Jehovah began striking at the people with a very great slaughter.ⁱ

34 The name of that place came to be called Kib'roth-hat-ta'a-vah,^j because there they buried the people who showed selfish craving.^k 35 From Kib'roth-hat-ta'a-vah the people pulled away for Haze'roth, and they continued in Haze'roth.^l

12 Now Mir'i-am and Aaron began to speak against Moses on account of the Cush'ite* wife whom he had taken, because it was a Cush'ite wife he had taken.^a 2 And they kept saying: "Is it just by Moses alone that Jehovah has spoken? Is it not by us also that he has spoken?"^b And Jehovah was listening.^c 3 And the man Moses was by far the meekest^d of all the men who were upon the surface of the ground.

4 Then Jehovah suddenly said to Moses and Aaron and Mir'i-am: "Go out, the three of you, to the tent of meeting." So the three of them went out. 5 After that Jehovah came down in the pillar of cloud^e and stood at the entrance of the tent and called Aaron and Mir'i-am. At this both of them went out. 6 And he went on to say: "Hear my words, please. If there came to be a prophet of YOURS for Jehovah, it would be in a vision^f I would make myself known to him. In a dream^g I would speak to him. 7 Not so my servant Moses!^h He is being entrusted with all my house.ⁱ 8 Mouth to mouth I speak to him,^j thus showing him, and not by riddles;^k and the appearance of Jehovah is what he beholds.^l Why, then, did you not fear to speak against my servant, against Moses?"^m

9 And Jehovah's anger got to be hot against them, and he went his way. 10 And the cloud turned away from over the tent, and, look! Mir'i-am was struck with leprosy as white as snow.ⁿ Then Aaron turned toward Mir'i-am, and, look! she was struck with leprosy.^o 11 Immediately Aaron said to Moses: "Excuse me, my lord! Do not, please, attribute to us the sin in which we have acted foolishly and which we have committed!^p 12 Please, do not let her continue like someone dead,^q whose flesh at the time of his coming out of his moth-

14 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Were her father to spit^b directly in her face, would she not be humiliated seven days? Let her be quarantined^c seven days outside the camp,^d and afterward let her be received in."^e 15 Accordingly Mir'iam was quarantined outside the camp seven days,^f and the people did not pull away until Mir'iam was received in. 16 And afterward the people pulled away from Haze'roth^g and took up camping in the wilderness of Pa'ran.^h

13 Jehovah now spoke to Moses, saying: 2 "Send out for yourself men that they may spy out the land of Ca'naan, which I am giving to the sons of Israel.ⁱ You will send out one man for each tribe of his fathers, each one a chieftain^j among them."

3 So Moses sent them out from the wilderness of Pa'ran^k at the order of Jehovah. li, Nah'bi the son of Voph'si; 15 of the tribe of Gad, Geu'el the son of Ma'chi. 16 These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses continued to call Ho-she'a the son of Nun Je-hosh'u.a.*

17 When Moses was sending them to spy out the land of Ca'naan, he proceeded to say to them: "Go up here into the Neg'eb,*^b and you must go up into the mountainous region.^c 18 And you must see what the land is^d and the people who are dwelling on it, whether they are strong or weak, whether they are few or many; 19 and what the land is in which they are dwelling, whether it is good or bad, and what the cities are in which they are dwelling, whether it is in encampments or in fortifications; 20 and what the land is, whether it is fat or lean,^e whether there are trees in it or not. And you must show yourselves courageous^f and take some of the fruitage of the land." Now the days were the days of the first ripe fruits of the grapes.^g

21 So they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin^h to Re'hobⁱ to the entering in of Ha'math.^j 22 When they went up into the Neg'eb,^k they then came to He'bron.^l Now A-hi'man, She'shai and Tal'mai,^m those born of A'nak,ⁿ were there. Incidentally, He'bron^o had been built seven years before Zo'an^p of Egypt. 23 When they came to the torrent valley of Esh'-col,^q they then proceeded to cut down from there a shoot with one cluster of grapes.^r And they went carrying it with a bar on two of the men, and also some of the pomegranates^s and some of the figs. 24 They called that place the torrent valley of Esh'col,^t on account of the cluster that the sons of Israel cut down from there.

25 Finally at the end of forty days^a they returned from spying out the land. 26 So they walked and came to Moses and Aaron and all the assembly of the sons of Israel in the wilderness of Pa'ran, at Ka'desh.^b And they came bringing back word to them and all the assembly and showing them the fruitage of the land. 27 And they went on to report to him and say: "We entered into the land to which you sent us out, and it is indeed flowing with milk and honey,^c and this is its fruitage.^d 28 Nevertheless, the facts are that the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the fortified cities are very great;^e and, too, those born of A'nak we saw there.^f 29 The A-mal'-ek-ites^g are dwelling in the land of the Neg'eb,^h and the Hit'tites and the Jeb'-u-sitesⁱ and the Am'or-ites^j are dwelling in the mountainous region, and the Ca'-naan-ites^k are dwelling by the sea and by the side of the Jordan."

30 Then Ca'leb^l tried to still the people toward Moses and went on to say: "Let us go up directly, and we are bound to take possession of it, because we can surely prevail over it."^m 31 But the men who went up with him said: "We are not able to go up against the people, because they are stronger than we are."ⁿ 32 And they kept on bringing forth to the sons of Israel a bad report^o of the land that they had spied out, saying: "The land, which we passed through to spy it out, is a land that eats up its inhabitants; and all the people whom we saw in the midst of it are men of extraordinary size.^p 33 And there we saw the Neph'i-lim, the sons of A'nak,^q who are from the Neph'i-lim; so that we became in our own eyes like grasshoppers, and the same way we became in their eyes."^r

14 Then all the assembly raised their voice, and the people continued giving vent to their voice and weeping^s all through that night. 2 And all the sons of Israel began to murmur against Moses and Aaron,^t and all the assembly began to say against them: "If only we had died in the land of Egypt, or if only we had died in this wilderness! 3 And why is Jehovah bringing us to this land to fall by the sword?^a Our wives and our little ones will become plunder.^b Is it not better for us to return to Egypt?"^c 4 They even went to saying to one another: "Let us appoint a head, and let us return to Egypt!"^d

5 At this Moses and Aaron fell upon their faces^e before all the congregation of the assembly of the sons of Israel. 6 And Joshua the son of Nun^f and Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh,^g who were of those who spied out the land, ripped their garments apart,^h 7 and they proceeded to say this to all the assembly of the sons of Israel: "The land that we passed through to spy it out is a very, very good land.ⁱ 8 If Jehovah has found delight in us,^j then he will certainly bring us into this land and give it to us, a land that is flowing with milk and honey.^k 9 Only against Jehovah do not rebel;^l and you, do not you fear the people of the land,^m for they are bread to us. Their shelter has turned away from over them,ⁿ and Jehovah is with us.^o Do not fear them."^p

10 However, all the assembly talked of pelting them with stones.^q And Jehovah's glory appeared on the tent of meeting to all the sons of Israel.^r

11 Finally Jehovah said to Moses: "How long^s will this people treat me without respect,^t and how long will they not put faith in me for all the signs that I performed in among them?"^u

12 Let me strike them with pestilence and drive them away, and let me make you a nation greater and mightier than they are."^v

13 But Moses said to Jehovah: "Then the Egyptians will be bound to hear that you by your power have led this people up out of their midst.^w 14 And they will be bound to tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that you are Jehovah in among this people,^x who has appeared face to face.^a You are Jehovah, and your cloud is standing over them, and you are going before them in the pillar of cloud by day and in the pillar of fire by night.^b 15 Were you to put this people to death as one man,^c then the nations who have heard of your fame would certainly say this, 16 'Because of Jehovah's not being able to bring this people into the land about which he swore to them he proceeded to slaughter them in the wilderness.'^d 17 And now, please, let your power^e become great,^e O Jehovah,^f just as you have spoken, saying, 18 'Jehovah, slow to anger^g and abundant in loving-kindness,^g pardoning error and transgression,^h but by no means will he give exemption from punishment,ⁱ bringing punishment for the error of the fathers upon sons, upon the third generation and upon the fourth generation.'^j 19 Forgive, please, the error of this people according to the greatness of your loving-kindness, and just as you have pardoned this people from Egypt onward until now."^k

20 Then Jehovah said: "I do forgive according to your word.^l 21 And, on the other hand, as I live, all the earth will be filled with the glory of Jehovah.^m 22 But all the men who have been seeing my gloryⁿ and my signs^o that I have performed in Egypt and in the wilderness and yet kept testing^p me these ten times, and have not listened to my voice,^q 23 will never see^r the land about which I swore to their fathers, yes, all those treating me without respect will not see it.^r 24 As for my servant Ca'leb,^s because a different spirit has proved to be with him and he kept following wholly after me,^t I shall certainly bring him into the land where he has gone, and his offspring will take possession of it.^u 25 While the A-mal'ek-ites and the Ca'naan-ites^v are dwelling in the low plain, you people

39 When Moses proceeded to speak these words to all the sons of Israel, then the people began to mourn a great deal.^d 40 Moreover, they got up early in the morning and tried to go up to the top of the mountain, saying: "Here we are, and we have to go up to the place that Jehovah mentioned. For we have sinned."^e 41 But Moses said: "Why is it that you are passing beyond the order of Jehovah?^f But that will not succeed. 42 Do not go up, because Jehovah is not in your midst, that you may not be defeated before your enemies.^g 43 For the A-mal'ekites and the Ca'naan-ites are there before you;^h and you are certain to fall by the sword, because, for the reason that you turned back from following Jehovah, Jehovah will not continue with you."ⁱ

17 And Jehovah went on to speak to Moses, saying: 18 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you must say to them, 'On YOUR coming into the land where I am bringing you,^b 19 it must also occur that when YOU eat any of the bread of the land,^c YOU should make a contribution to Jehovah. 20 YOU should make a contribution of the firstfruits^d of YOUR coarse meal as ring-shaped cakes. Like the contribution of a threshing floor is the way YOU should contribute it. 21 Some of the firstfruits of YOUR coarse meal YOU should give as a contribution to Jehovah throughout YOUR generations.

22 "Now in case YOU should make a mistake and not do all these commandments,^e which Jehovah has spoken to Moses, 23 all that Jehovah has commanded YOU by means of Moses from the day that Jehovah commanded and onward for YOUR generations, 24 it must then occur that if it has been done far from the eyes of the assembly by mistake, the whole assembly must then render up one young bull as a burnt offering for a restful odor to Jehovah, and its grain offering and its drink offering according to the regular procedure,^f and one kid of the goats as a sin offering.^g 25 And the priest must make atonement^h for the whole assembly of the sons of Israel, and it must be forgiven them; because it was a mistake,ⁱ and they, for their part, brought as their offering an offering made by fire to Jehovah and their sin offering before Jehovah for their mistake. 26 And it must be forgiven^j the whole assembly of the sons of Israel and the alien resident who is residing as an alien in their midst, because it was by mistake on the part of all the people.

27 "And if any soul should sin by mistake,^k then he must present a female goat in its first year for a sin offering.^l 28 And the priest must make atonement for the soul who made a mistake by a sin unintentionally before Jehovah, so as to make atonement for it, and it must be forgiven him.^a 29 As to the native among the sons of Israel and the alien resident who is residing as an alien in their midst, there should prove to be one law for YOU as respects doing something unintentionally.^b

30 "But the soul that does something deliberately,^c whether he is a native or an alien resident, he speaking abusively of Jehovah,^d in that case that soul must be cut off from among his people.^e

31 Because it is Jehovah's word that he has despised^f and his commandment that he has broken,^g that soul should be cut off without fail.^h His own error is upon him."ⁱ

32 While the sons of Israel were continuing in the wilderness, they once found a man collecting pieces of wood on the sabbath day.^j 33 Then those who found him collecting pieces of wood brought him up to Moses and Aaron and the whole assembly. 34 So they committed him into custody,^k because it had not been distinctly stated what should be done to him.

35 In time Jehovah said to Moses: "Without fail the man should be put to death,^l the whole assembly pelting^m him with stones outside the camp."

36 Accordingly the whole assembly brought him forth outside the camp and pelted him with stones so that he died, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

37 And Jehovah went on to say this to Moses: 38 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you must say to them that they must make for themselves fringed edges upon the skirts of their garments throughout their generations, and they must put a blue string above the fringed edge of the skirt,ⁿ 39 'And it must serve as a fringed edge for YOU, and YOU must see it and remember all the commandments^o of Jehovah and do them, and YOU must not go about following YOUR hearts and YOUR eyes,^p which YOU are following in immoral intercourse."^q

Nu 15:30* Lit., "with uplifted hand," that is, openly, proudly, purposely. 35* "Pelting." In Heb. this is a verb in the infinitive absolute, indefinite as to time. 39* Or, "you are committing fornication." Heb., zo-nim; Lat., for-ni-can'tes.

40 The purpose is that YOU may remember and may certainly do all my commandments and indeed prove to be holy to YOUR God.^a 41 I am Jehovah YOUR God, who have brought you out of the land of Egypt in order to prove myself YOUR God.^b I am Jehovah YOUR God.”^c

16 And Ko'rah^d the son of Iz'har,^e the son of Ko'hath,^f the son of Le'vi,^g proceeded to get up,^{} together with Da'than^h and A-bi'ramⁱ the sons of E-li'ab,^j and On the son of Pe'leth, the sons of Reu'ben.^k 2 And they proceeded to rise up before Moses, they and two hundred and fifty men of the sons of Israel, chieftains of the assembly, summoned ones of the meeting, men of fame.^{} 3 So they congregated themselves against^l Moses and Aaron and said to them: “That is enough of YOU, because the whole assembly are all of them holy^m and Jehovah is in their midst.ⁿ Why, then, should you lift yourselves up above the congregation of Jehovah?”^o

4 When Moses got to hear it he at once fell upon his face. 5 Then he spoke to Ko'rah and to his entire assembly, saying: “In the morning Jehovah will make known who belongs to him^p and who is holy^q and who must come near to him,^r and whoever he may choose^s will come near to him. 6 Do this: Take fire holders^t for yourselves, Ko'rah and his entire assembly,^u 7 and put fire in them and place incense upon them before Jehovah tomorrow, and it must occur that the man whom Jehovah will choose,^v he is the holy one. That is enough of you, you sons of Le'vi!”^w

8 And Moses went on to say to Ko'rah: “Listen, please, you sons of Le'vi. 9 Is it such a little thing for you men that the God of Israel has separated^x you men from the assembly of Israel to present you to himself to carry on the service of Jehovah's tabernacle and to stand before the assembly to minister to them,^a 10 and that he should bring you and all your brothers the sons of Le'vi with you near? So must you men also try to secure the priesthood?^b 11 For that reason you and all your assembly who are gathering together are against Jehovah.^c As for Aaron, what is he that you men should murmur against him?”^d

12 Later Moses sent to call Da'than and A-bi'ram^e the sons of E-li'ab, but they said: “We are not going to come up!”^f 13 Is it so little a thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to put us to death in the wilderness,^g that you should also try to play the prince over us to the limit?^h 14 As it is, you have not brought us into any land flowing with milk and honey,ⁱ that you may give us an inheritance of field and vineyard. Is it the eyes of those men that you want to bore out? We are not going to come up!”

15 At this Moses became very angry and said to Jehovah: “Do not turn to look at their grain offering.^j Not one male ass have I taken away from them, nor have I harmed one of them.”^k

16 Then Moses said to Ko'rah:^l “You and all your assembly, be present before Jehovah,^m you and they and Aaron, tomorrow. 17 And take each one his fire holder, and you men must put incense upon them and present each one his fire holder before Jehovah, two hundred and fifty fire holders, and you and Aaron each his fire holder.” 18 So they took each one his fire holder and put fire upon them and placed incense upon them and stood at the entrance of the tent of meeting together with Moses and Aaron. 19 When Ko'rah got all the^{*} assemblyⁿ together against them at the entrance of the tent of meeting, then Jehovah's glory appeared to all the assembly.^o

20 Jehovah now spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: 21 “Separate^p yourselves from the midst of this assembly, that I may exterminate^q them in an instant.” 22 At this they fell upon their faces and said: "O God,* the God[#] of the spirits of every sort of flesh,^a will just one man sin and you become indignant against the entire assembly?"^b

23 In turn Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 24 "Speak to the assembly, saying, 'Get away from around the tabernacles* of Ko'rah, Da'than and A-bi-ram!' "^c

25 After that Moses got up and went to Da'than and A-bi'ram, and the older men^d of Israel went with him. 26 Then he spoke to the assembly, saying: "Turn aside, please, from before the tents of these wicked men and do not touch anything that belongs to them,^e that you may not be swept away in all their sin." 27 Immediately they got away from before the tabernacle of Ko'rah, Da'than and A-bi'ram, from every side, and Da'than and A-bi'ram came out, taking their stand at the entrance of their tents,^f together with their wives, and their sons and their little ones.

28 Then Moses said: "By this YOU will know that Jehovah has sent me to do all these deeds,^g that it is not of my own heart:^h 29 If it is according to the death of all mankind* that these people will die and with the punishment of all mankind that punishment will be brought upon them,ⁱ then it is not Jehovah that has sent me.^j 30 But if it is something created that Jehovah will create,^k and the ground has to open its mouth and swallow up them^l and everything that belongs to them and they have to go down alive into She'ol,^m YOU will then know for certain that these men have treated Jehovah disrespectfully."ⁿ

31 And it came about that as soon as he had finished speaking all these words, the ground that was under them began to be split apart.^o 32 And the earth proceeded to open its mouth and to swallow up them and their households and all humankind that belonged to Ko'rah and all the goods.^a 33 So down they went, and all who belonged to them, alive into She'ol, and the earth went covering them over,^b so that they perished from the midst of the congregation.^c 34 And all the Israelites who were round about them fled at the screaming of them, for they began to say: "We are afraid that the earth may swallow us up!"^d 35 And a fire came out from Jehovah^e and proceeded to consume the two hundred and fifty men offering the incense.*^f

36 Jehovah now spoke to Moses, saying: 37 "Say to Ele-a'zar the son of Aaron the priest that he should take up the fire holders^g from within the conflagration, 'And you scatter the fire over there; for they are holy, 38 even the fire holders of these men who sinned against their own souls.^h And they must make them into thin metal plates as an overlaying for the altar,ⁱ because they presented them before Jehovah, so that they became holy; and they should serve as a sign to the sons of Israel.'" 39 Accordingly Ele-a'zar the priest took the copper fire holders,^k which those who had been burned up had presented, and they proceeded to beat them out into an overlaying for the altar, 40 as a memorial for the sons of Israel, to the end that no strange^l man who is not of the offspring of Aaron should come near to make incense smoke before Jehovah,^m and no one might become like Ko'rah and his assembly,ⁿ just as Jehovah had spoken to him by means of Moses.

41 And directly the next day the whole assembly of the sons of Israel began to murmur against Moses and Aaron,^o saying: "You men, you have put Jehovah's people to death." 42 And it came about that when the assembly had congregated themselves together against Moses and Aaron, they then turned toward the tent of meeting; and, look! the cloud covered it, and Jehovah's glory began to appear.^a

43 And Moses and Aaron proceeded to come before the tent of meeting.^b

44 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses,^{*} saying: 45 "You men, rise up from the midst of this assembly, that I may exterminate them in an instant."^c At this they fell upon their faces.^d 46 After that Moses said to Aaron: "Take the fire holder and put fire from upon the altar in it^e and put on incense and go to the assembly in a hurry and make atonement for them,^f because the indignation has gone out from the face of Jehovah.^g The plague has started!"

47 Aaron at once took it, just as Moses had spoken, and went running into the midst of the congregation; and, look! the plague had started among the people. So he put the incense on and began making atonement for the people.

48 And he kept standing between the dead and the living.^h Eventually the scourge was stopped.ⁱ 49 And those dead from the scourge amounted to fourteen thousand seven hundred, aside from those dead on account of Ko'rah.

50 When at last Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the tent of meeting, the scourge had been stopped.

17 Jehovah now spoke to Moses, saying: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel and take from them one rod^j for each paternal house from all their chieftains,^k by the house of their fathers, twelve rods. You will write the name of each one upon his rod. 3 And Aaron's name you will write upon Le'vi's rod, because there is one rod for the head of the house of their fathers. 4 And you must deposit them in the tent of meeting before the Testimony,^l where I regularly present myself to you.^m 5 And what must occur is that the man whom I shall choose,ⁿ his rod will bud, and I shall certainly make subside from against me the murmurings^o of the sons of Israel, which they are murmuring against you."^p

6 So Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and all their chieftains went giving him a rod for each chieftain, a rod for each chieftain, by the house of their fathers, twelve rods;^a and Aaron's rod was in among their rods.^b 7 Then Moses deposited the rods before Jehovah in the tent of the Testimony.^c

8 And it came about the next day that when Moses went into the tent of the Testimony, look! Aaron's rod for the house of Le'vi had budded, and it was bringing forth buds and blossoming flowers and was bearing ripe almonds.

9 Moses then brought out all the rods from before Jehovah to all the sons of Israel, and they went looking and taking each man his own rod.

10 Subsequently Jehovah said to Moses: "Put Aaron's rod^d back before the Testimony as something to be kept for a sign^e to the sons of rebelliousness,^f that their murmurings may cease from against me, that they may not die."

11 At once Moses did just as Jehovah had commanded him. He did just so.

12 And the sons of Israel began to say this to Moses: "Now we are bound to expire, we are bound to perish, we are all of us bound to perish."^g 13 Anyone approaching,^h coming near to Jehovah's tabernacle, will die!ⁱ Must we end up in expiring that way?"

18 And Jehovah proceeded to say to Aaron: "You and your sons and the house of your father with you will answer for error against the sanctuary,^k and you and your sons with you will answer for error against your priesthood.^l 2 And bring near, also, your brothers of the tribe of Le'vi, the clan of your father, with you, that they may be joined to you and may minister to you,^m to both you and your sons with you, before the tent of the Testimony."ⁿ

3 And they must keep their obligation to you and their obligation to the entire tent.^o Only to the utensils of the holy place and to the altar they must not come near that they may not die,^p neither they nor you men. 4 And they must be joined to you and must keep their obligation to the tent of meeting as respects all the service of the

20 And Jehovah went on to say to Aaron: “In their land you will not have an inheritance, and no share will become yours in their midst.ⁿ I am your share and your inheritance in the midst of the sons of Israel.^o

21 “And to the sons of Le'vi, look! 20 And the sons of Israel, the entire assembly, proceeded to come into the wilderness of Zin^d in the first month, and the people took up dwelling in Ka'desh.^e It was there that Mir'iam^f died and there that she was buried.

2 Now there proved to be no water for the assembly,^g and they began to congregate themselves against Moses and Aaron.^h 3 And the people went quarrelingⁱ with Moses* and saying: "If only we had expired when our brothers expired before Jehovah!^j 4 And why have you men brought Jehovah's congregation into this wilderness for us and our beasts of burden to die there?^k 5 And why have you conducted us up out of Egypt to bring us into this evil place?^l It is no place of seed and figs and vines and pomegranates,^m and there is no water to drink." 6 Then Moses and Aaron came from before the congregation to the entrance of the tent of meeting and fell upon their faces,ⁿ and Jehovah's glory began to appear to them.^o

7 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 8 "Take the rod^p and call the assembly together, you and Aaron your brother, and you must speak to the crag before their eyes that it may indeed give* its water; and you must bring out water for them from the crag^q and give the assembly and their beasts of burden drink."^r

9 So Moses took the rod from before Jehovah,^r just as he had commanded him. 10 After that Moses and Aaron called the congregation together before the crag, and he proceeded to say to them: "Hear, now, you rebels!^s Is it from this crag that we shall bring out water for YOU?"^a 11 With that Moses lifted his hand up and struck the crag with his rod twice; and much water began to come out, and the assembly and their beasts of burden began to drink.^b

12 Later Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron: "Because you did not show faith in me to sanctify^c me before the eyes of the sons of Israel, therefore YOU will not bring this congregation into the land that I shall certainly give them."^d

13 These are the waters of Mer'ibah,^e because the sons of Israel quarreled with Jehovah, so that he was sanctified^f among them.

14 Subsequently Moses sent messengers from Ka'desh to the king of E'dom:^f "This is what your brother Israel^g has said, 'You yourself well know all the hardship that has overtaken us.'^h 15 And our fathers proceeded to go down to Egypt,ⁱ and we continued to dwell in Egypt many days;^j and the Egyptians began doing harm to us and our fathers.^k 16 Finally we cried out to Jehovah^l and he heard our voice and sent an angel^m and brought us out of Egypt; and here we are in Ka'desh, a city at the extremity of your territory. 17 Let us pass, please, through your land. We shall not pass through a field or a vineyard, and we shall not drink the water of a well. On the king's road we shall march.ⁿ We shall not bend toward the right or the left,^o until we shall pass through your territory."

18 However, E'dom said to him: "You must not pass through me, for fear I may come out with the sword to meet you." 19 In turn the sons of Israel said to him: "By the highway we shall go up; and if I and my livestock should drink your water, I shall also certainly give the value of it.^p I want nothing more than to pass through on my feet."^q 20 Still he said: "You must not pass through."^r With that E'dom^s came on out to encounter him with a great many people and a strong hand. 21 So E'dom refused to grant Israel to pass through his territory.^a Hence Israel turned away from him.^b

22 And the sons of Israel, the entire assembly, proceeded to pull away from Ka'desh^c and come to Mount Hor.^d

23 Then Jehovah said this to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor by the border of the land of E'dom: 24 "Aaron will be gathered to his people,^e for he will not enter into the land that I shall certainly give to the sons of Israel, on the ground that YOU men rebelled against my order respecting the waters of Mer'ibah.^f 25 Take Aaron and Ele-a'zar his son and bring them up into Mount Hor. 26 And strip Aaron of his garments,^g and you must clothe with them Ele-a'zar^h his son; and Aaron will be gathered and must die there."ⁱ

27 So Moses did just as Jehovah had commanded; and before the eyes of all the assembly they went climbing Mount Hor. 28 Then Moses stripped Aaron of his garments and clothed Ele-a'zar his son with them, after which Aaron died there on the top of the mountain.^j And Moses and Ele-a'zar came on down from the mountain. 29 And all the assembly got to see that Aaron had expired, and all the house of Israel continued weeping for Aaron thirty days.^k

21 Now the Ca'naan-ite the king of A'rad,^l who dwelt in the Neg'eb,^m got to hear that Israel had come by the way of Ath'a-rim, and he began to fight with Israel and carry away some of them as captives. 2 Consequently Israel made a vow to Jehovah and said:ⁿ "If you will without fail give this people into my hand, I shall also certainly devote their cities to destruction."^o 3 So Jehovah listened to Israel's voice and gave the Ca'naan-ites over; and they devoted them and their cities to destruction. Hence they called the name of the place Hor'mah.^p

Sea to go around the land of E'dom,^a the soul of the people began tiring out because of the way. 5 And the people kept speaking against God^b and Moses:^c "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness?"^d For there is no bread and no water,^e and our soul has come to abhor the contemptible bread."^f 6 So Jehovah sent poisonous serpents^g among the people, and they kept biting the people, so that many people of Israel died.^h

7 Finally the people came to Moses and said: "We have sinned,ⁱ because we have spoken against Jehovah and against you. Intercede with Jehovah that he may remove the serpents from upon us."^j And Moses went interceding in behalf of the people.^k 8 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Make for yourself a fiery snake^{*} and place it upon a signal pole. And it must occur that when anyone has been bitten, he then has to look at it and so must keep alive."^l 9 Moses at once made a serpent of copper^m and placed it upon the signal pole;ⁿ and it did occur that if a serpent had bitten a man and he gazed^o at the copper serpent, he then kept alive.^p

10 After that the sons of Israel pulled away and encamped in O'both.^q 11 Then they pulled away from O'both and encamped in I'ye-ab'a-rim,^{*} in the wilderness that is toward the front of Mo'ab, toward the rising of the sun. 12 From there they pulled away and took up camping by the torrent valley of Ze'red.^r 13 From there they pulled away and went camping in the region of the Ar'non,^s which is in the wilderness that extends from the border of the Am'or-ites; for the Ar'non is the boundary of Mo'ab, between Mo'ab and the Am'or-ites. 14 That is why it is said in the book of the Wars of Jehovah:

17 At that time Israel proceeded to sing this song:^d

"Spring up, O well! Respond to it, you people!

21 Israel now sent messengers to Si'hon¹ the king of the Am'or-ites, saying: 22 "Let me pass through your land. We shall not turn off into a field or a vineyard. We shall drink water of no well. On the king's road we shall march until we pass through your territory."^k 23 And Si'hon did not allow Israel to pass through his territory,¹ but Si'hon gathered all his people and went out to meet Israel in the wilderness, and came to Ja'haz^m and began fighting with Israel. 24 At that Israel struck him with the edge of the swordⁿ and took possession of his land^o from the Ar'non^p to the Jab'bok,^q near the sons of Am'mon; because Ja'zer^r is the border of the sons of Am'mon.^s

"Come to Hesh'bon.

22 Then the sons of Israel pulled away and encamped on the desert plains of Mo'ab^d across the Jordan from Jer'i-cho. 2 And Ba'lak^e the son of Zip'por got to see all that Israel had done to the Am'or-ites. 3 And Mo'ab became very frightened at the people, because they were many; and Mo'ab began to feel a sickening dread of the sons of Israel.^f 4 And Mo'ab proceeded to say to the older men of Mid'ian:^g "Now this congregation* will lick up all our surroundings like the bull licking up the green growth of the field."

And Ba'lak^h the son of Zip'por was king of Mo'ab at that particular time. 5 He now sent messengers to Ba'laamⁱ the son of Be'or at Pe'thor,^j which is by the River^k of the land of the sons of his people, to call him, saying: "Look! A people has come out of Egypt. Look! They have covered the earth as far as one can see,^l and they are dwelling right in front of me. 6 And now do come, please; do curse^m this people for me, for they are mightier than I am. Perhaps I may be able to strike them and I may drive them out of the land; for I well know that the one whom you bless is a blessed one and the one whom you curse is cursed."ⁿ

7 So the older men of Mo'ab and the older men of Mid'ian traveled with the payments for divination^o in their hands and went to Ba'laam^p and spoke to him Ba'lak's words. 8 At that he said to them: "Lodge here tonight, and I shall certainly return you word just as Jehovah may speak to me."^q Accordingly the princes of Mo'ab stayed with Ba'laam.

9 Then God came to Ba'laam and said:^r "Who are these men with you?"

10 So Ba'laam said to the [true] God:

Nu 22:4* "This congregation," SamLXXSyVg; M, "the congregation." 5 "The River," evidently the Euphrates. 5 Lit., "covered the eye of the earth."

"Ba'lak^a the son of Zip'por, the king of Mo'ab, has sent to me, saying,* 11 'Look! The people who are coming out of Egypt, and they go covering the earth as far as the eye can see.^b Now do come, do execrate them for me.^c Perhaps I may be able to fight against them and I shall actually drive them out.'" 12 But God said to Ba'laam: "You must not go with them. You must not curse the people,^d for they are blessed."^e

13 After that Ba'laam got up in the morning and said to the princes of Ba'lak: "Go to YOUR country, because Jehovah has refused to let me go with you." 14 So the princes of Mo'ab got up and came to Ba'lak and said: "Ba'laam has refused to come with us."^f

15 However, Ba'lak sent again other princes in greater number and more honorable than the former. 16 In turn they came to Ba'laam and said to him: "This is what Ba'lak the son of Zip'por has said, 'Do not be detained, please, from coming to me. 17 For I shall without fail honor you greatly,^g and everything you may say to me I shall do.^h So do come, please. Do execrate this people for me.'" 18 But Ba'laam answered and said to the servants of Ba'lak: "If Ba'lak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I should not be able to pass beyond the order of Jehovah my God, so as to do something small or great.ⁱ 19 And now YOU men also stay here, please, tonight that I may know what further Jehovah will speak with me."^j

20 Then God* came to Ba'laam by night and said to him: "If it is to call you that the men have come, get up, go with them. But only the word that I shall speak to you is what you may speak."^k 21 After that Ba'laam got up in the morning and saddled his she-ass and went with the princes of Mo'ab.^l

22 And the anger of God* began to blaze because he was going; and Jehovah's angel proceeded to station himself in the road to resist him.*^a And he was riding upon his she-ass, and two attendants^b of his were with him. 23 And the ass got to see Jehovah's angel stationed in the road with his drawn sword in his hand;^c and the ass tried to turn aside from the road that she might go into the field, but Ba'laam began to strike the ass in order to turn her aside to the road. 24 And Jehovah's angel kept standing in the narrow way between the vineyards, with a stone wall on this side and a stone wall on that side. 25 And the she-ass kept seeing Jehovah's angel and began to squeeze herself against the wall and so to squeeze Ba'laam's foot against the wall; and he went beating her some more.

26 Jehovah's angel now passed by again and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn aside to the right or the left. 27 When the ass got to see Jehovah's angel she now lay down under Ba'laam; so that Ba'laam's anger blazed,^d and he kept beating the ass with his staff. 28 Finally Jehovah opened the mouth of the ass^e and she said to Ba'laam: "What have I done to you so that you have beaten me these three times?"^f 29 At this Ba'laam said to the ass: "It is because you have dealt ruthlessly with me. If only there were a sword in my hand, for now I should have killed you!"^g 30 Then the she-ass said to Ba'laam: "Am I not your she-ass that you have ridden upon all your life long until this day? Have I ever been used to do to you this way?"^h To which he said: "No!" 31 And Jehovah proceeded to uncover Ba'laam's eyes,ⁱ so that he saw Jehovah's angel stationed in the road with his drawn sword in his hand. At once he bowed low and prostrated himself on his face.

For by now even you I should have killed,^c but her I should have preserved alive.” 34 At this Ba’laam said to Jehovah’s angel: “I have sinned,^d because I did not know that it was you stationed in the road to meet me. And now, if it is bad in your eyes, let me go my way back.” 35 But Jehovah’s angel said to Ba’laam: “Go with the men;^e and nothing but the word that I shall speak to you is what you may speak.”^f And Ba’laam continued going with the princes of Ba’lak.

36 When Ba’lak got to hear that Ba’laam had come, he at once went out to meet him at the city of Mo’ab, which is on the bank of the Ar’non, which is on the extremity of the territory.^g

37 Then Ba’lak said to Ba’laam: “Have I not for a fact sent to you to call you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not really and truly able to honor you?”^h 38 At this Ba’laam said to Ba’lak: “Here I have come to you now. Shall I be able at all to speak something?ⁱ The word that God will place in my mouth is what I shall speak.”^j

39 So Ba’laam went with Ba’lak and they came to Kir’i-ath-hu’zoth. 40 And Ba’lak proceeded to sacrifice cattle and sheep^k and to send some to Ba’laam and the princes who were with him. 41 And it came about in the morning that Ba’lak went taking Ba’laam and bringing him up to Ba’moth-ba’al,^l that he might see^m from there the whole of the people.ⁿ

2 Ba’lak immediately did just as Ba’laam had spoken. After that Ba’lak and Ba’laam offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.^a 3 And Ba’laam went on to say to Ba’lak: “Station yourself by your burnt offering,^b and let me go. Perhaps Jehovah will get in touch and meet with me.^c In that case whatever he will show me, I shall certainly tell you.” So he went to a bare hill.

4 When God got in touch with Ba’laam,^d he then said to Him: “I set the seven altars in rows, and I proceeded to offer up a bull and a ram on each altar.”^e 5 Accordingly Jehovah* put a word in the mouth of Ba’laam^f and said: “Return to Ba’lak, and this is what you will speak.”^g 6 So he returned to him, and, look! he and all the princes of Mo’ab were stationed by his burnt offering. 7 Then he took up his proverbial^h utterance and said:

11 At this Ba'lak said to Ba'laam: “What have you done to me? It was in order to execrate my enemies that I took you, and here you have blessed them to the limit.”^b 12 In turn he answered and said: “Is it not whatever Jehovah may put in my mouth that I should take care to speak?”^c

23 And he carried further his proverbial utterance and went on to say:

"Woe! Who will survive when God* causes it?"^a

24 And there will be ships from the coast of Kit'tim,^b

And they will certainly afflict As-syr'i-a,^c

And they will indeed afflict E'ber.* But he too will eventually perish."

25 After that Ba'laam got up and went and returned to his place.^d And Ba'lak also went his own way.

25 Now Israel was dwelling in Shit'tim.^e Then the people started to have immoral relations with the daughters of Mo'ab.^f 2 And the women came calling the people to the sacrifices of their gods,^g and the people began to eat and to bow down to their gods.^h 3 So Israel* attached itself to the Ba'al of Pe'or;ⁱ and the anger of Jehovah began to blaze against Israel.^j 4 Hence Jehovah said to Moses: "Take all the head ones* of the people and expose^k them to Jehovah^k toward the sun, that the burning anger of Jehovah may turn back from Israel." 5 Then Moses said to the judges of Israel:^l "Each one of you kill^m his men who have an attachment with the Ba'al of Pe'or."

6 But, look! a manⁿ of the sons of Israel came, and he was bringing near to his brothers* a Mid'i-an-ite woman^o before Moses' eyes and before the eyes of all the assembly of the sons of Israel, while they were weeping at the entrance of the tent of meeting. 7 When Phin'e-has^p the son of Ele-a'zar the son of Aaron the priest caught sight of it, he at once got up from the midst of the assembly and took a lance in his hand. 8 Then he went after the man of Israel into the vaulted tent* and pierced both of them through, the man of Israel and the woman through her genital parts.[#] At that the scourge was halted from upon the sons of Israel.^a 9 And those who died from the scourge amounted to twenty-four thousand.^b

10 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 11 "Phin'e-has^c the son of El-e-a'zar the son of Aaron the priest has turned back my wrath^d from upon the sons of Israel by his tolerating no rivalry at all toward me in the midst of them,^e so that I have not exterminated the sons of Israel in my insistence on exclusive devotion.^f 12 For that reason say, 'Here I am giving him my covenant of peace. 13 And it must serve as the covenant of a priesthood to time indefinite for him and his offspring after him,^g due to the fact that he tolerated no rivalry toward his God^h and proceeded to make atonement for the sons of Israel.'ⁱ"

14 Incidentally the name of the fatally struck Israelite man who was fatally struck with the Mid'ian-ites was Zim'ri the son of Sa'lu, a chieftain^j of a paternal house of the Sim'e-on-ites. 15 And the name of the Mid'ian-ite woman fatally struck was Coz'bi the daughter of Zur;^k he was a head one of the clans of a paternal house in Mid'ian.^l

16 Later Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 17 "Let there be a harassing* of the Mid'ian-ites, and you men must strike them,^m 18 because they are harassing you with their deeds of cunningⁿ that they committed against you cunningly in the affair of Pe'or^o and in the affair of Coz'bi^p the daughter of a chieftain of Mid'ian, their sister who was fatally struck^q in the day of the scourge over the affair of Pe'or."^r

Nu 25:8* Or, "women's part (of the tent)."⁸ "The genital parts," Vg; LXX, "her womb." 17 "Let there be a harassing." In Heb. this is a verb in the infinitive absolute, indefinite as to time.

the assembly, that is, those who ranged themselves against Jehovah in the assembly of Ko'rah,^a but for his own sin he has died;^b and he did not get to have any sons. 4 Why should the name of our father be taken away from the midst of his family because he had no son?^c O give us a possession in the midst of our father's brothers."^d 5 At that Moses presented their case before Jehovah.^e

6 Jehovah then said this to Moses: 7 "The daughters of Ze-lo'phe-had are speaking right. By all means you should give them the possession of an inheritance in the midst of their father's brothers, and you must cause their father's inheritance to pass to them.^f 8 And to the sons of Israel you should speak, saying, 'In case any man should die without his having a son, YOU must then cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter. 9 And if he has no daughter, YOU must then give his inheritance to his brothers. 10 And if he has no brothers, YOU must then give his inheritance to his father's brothers. 11 And if his father has no brothers, YOU must then give his inheritance to his blood relation^g who is closest to him of his family, and he must take possession of it. And it must serve as a statute by judicial decision for the sons of Israel, just as Jehovah has commanded Moses."^h

12 Subsequently Jehovah said to Moses: "Go up into this mountain of Ab'a-rim^h and see the land that I shall certainly give the sons of Israel.ⁱ 13 When you have seen it, then you must be gathered to your people,^j yes, you, just as Aaron your brother was gathered,^k 14 inasmuch as YOU men rebelled against my order in the wilderness of Zin at the quarreling of the assembly,^l in relation to sanctifying^m me* by the waters before their eyes. These are the waters of Mer'i-bahⁿ at Ka'desh^o in the wilderness of Zin."^p

15 Then Moses spoke to Jehovah,

according to everything that Jehovah had commanded Moses.^a

30 Then Moses spoke to the heads^b of the tribes of the sons of Israel, saying: “This is the word that Jehovah has commanded: 2 In case a man makes a vow^c to Jehovah or swears an oath^d to bind a vow of abstinence^e upon his soul, he must not violate his word.^f According to all that has gone out of his mouth he should do.^g

sils and the trumpets^a for blowing calls were in his hand. 7 And they went waging war against Mid'i-an, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, and they proceeded to kill every male.^b 8 And they killed the kings of Mid'i-an along with the others slain, namely, E'vi and Re'kem and Zur and Hur and Re'ba, the five kings of Mid'i-an;^c and they killed Ba'laam^d the son of Be'or with the sword. 9 But the sons of Israel carried off the women of Mid'i-an and their little ones captive;^e and all their domestic animals and all their livestock and all their means of maintenance they plundered. 10 And all their cities in which they had settled* and all their walled camps they burned with fire.^f 11 And they went taking all the spoils^g and all the booty in the way of humans* and domestic animals. 12 And they came bringing to Moses and El-e-a'zar the priest and to the assembly* of the sons of Israel the captives and the booty and the spoil, to the camp, to the desert plains of Mo'ab,^h which are by the Jordan at Jer'i-cho.

13 Then Moses and El-e-a'zar the priest and all the chieftains of the assembly went out to meet them outside the camp. 14 And Moses grew indignant at the appointed men of the combat forces, the chiefs* of the thousands and the chiefs of the hundreds who were coming in from the military expedition. 15 So Moses said to them: "Have you preserved alive every female?^j 16 Look! They are the ones who, by Ba'laam's word, served to induce the sons of Israel to commit unfaithfulness*^k toward Jehovah over the affair of Pe'or,^l so that the scourge came upon the assembly of Jehovah."^m 17 And now kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has had intercourse with man by lying

21 El-e-a'zar the priest then said to the men of the army who had gone into the battle: "This is the statute of the law that Jehovah commanded Moses, 22 'Only the gold and the silver, the copper, the iron, the tin and the lead, 23 everything that is processed with fire,^g you should pass through the fire, and it must be clean. 25 And Jehovah proceeded to say this to Moses: 26 "Take the sum of the booty, the captives both of humankind and of domestic animals, you and El-e-a'zar the priest and the heads of the fathers of the assembly. 27 And you must divide the booty in two between those taking part in the battle who went out on the expedition and all the rest of the assembly.^k 28 And as a tax^l for Jehovah you must take away from the men of war who went out on the expedition one soul out of five hundred, of humankind and of the herd and of the asses and of the flock. 29 From their half YOU* should take it and you must give it to El-e-a'zar the priest as Jehovah's contribution.^m 30 And from the half of the sons of Israel you should take one out of fifty,* of humankind, of the herd, of the asses and of the flock, of every sort of domestic animal, and you must give them to the Levites,^a the keepers of the obligation of Jehovah's tabernacle."^b

31 And Moses and El-e-a'zar the priest went doing just as Jehovah had commanded Moses. 32 And the booty, the rest of the plunder that the people of the expedition had taken as plunder, amounted to six hundred and seventy-five thousand of the flock, 33 and seventy-two thousand of the herd, 34 and sixty-one thousand asses. 35 As for human souls^c from the women who had not known the act of lying with a male,^d all the souls were thirty-two thousand. 36 And the half that was the share of those who went out on the expedition amounted in number to three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred of the flock. 37 And the tax^e for Jehovah from the flock amounted to six hundred and seventy-five. 38 And of the herd there were thirty-six thousand, and the tax on them for Jehovah was seventy-two. 39 And the asses were thirty thousand five hundred, and the tax on them for Jehovah was sixty-one. 40 And the human souls were sixteen thousand, and the tax on them for Jehovah was thirty-two souls. 41 Then Moses gave the tax as Jehovah's contribution to El-e-a'zar the priest,^f just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.^g

42 And from the half belonging to the sons of Israel, which Moses divided from that belonging to the men who waged war: 43 Now the half of the assembly from the flock amounted to three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred, 44 and of the herd, thirty-six thousand, 45 and the asses, thirty thousand five hundred, 46 and human souls, sixteen thousand. 47 Then Moses took from the half belonging to the sons of Israel the one to be taken out of fifty,* of humankind and of domestic animals, and gave them to the Levites,^a the keepers of the obligation^b of Jehovah's tabernacle, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

48 And the appointed men who were of the thousands of the army,^c the chiefs of the thousands and the chiefs of the hundreds,^d proceeded to approach Moses, 49 and to say to Moses: "Your servants have taken the sum of the men of war who are in our charge and not one has been reported missing from us." 50 So let us present each one what he has found as Jehovah's offering,^e articles of gold, ankle chainlets, and bracelets, signet rings,^f earrings, and female ornaments,^g in order to make atonement for our souls before Jehovah."

51 Accordingly Moses and Ele-a'zar the priest accepted the gold from them,^h all the jewelry. 52 And all the gold of the contribution that they contributed to Jehovah amounted to sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels, from the chiefs of the thousands and the chiefs of the hundreds. 53 The men of the army had taken plunder each for himself.ⁱ 54 So Moses and Ele-a'zar the priest accepted the gold from the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds and brought it into the tent of meeting as a memorial^k for the sons of Israel before Jehovah.

32 Now the sons of Reu'ben^l and the sons of Gad^m had come to have numerous livestock, very many, in fact. And they began to see the land of Ja'zerⁿ and the land of Gil'e-ad, and, look! the place was a place for livestock. 2 Hence the sons of Gad and the sons of Reu'ben came and said this to Moses and Ele-a'zar the priest and to the chieftains of the assembly: 3 "At'a-roth^o and Di'bon^p and Ja'zer and Nim'rah^q and Hesh'bon^r and Ele-a'leh^s and Se'bam and Ne'bo^t and Be'on,^u 4 the land that Jehovah defeated^v before the assembly of Israel, is a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock."^a 5 And they went on to say: "If we have found favor in your eyes, let this land be given to your servants as a possession. Do not make us cross the Jordan."^b

6 Then Moses said to the sons of Gad and the sons of Reu'ben: "Are YOUR brothers to go to war while you yourselves keep dwelling here?^c 7 And why should you dishearten the sons of Israel from crossing into the land that Jehovah will certainly give them? 8 That is the way YOUR fathers did^d when I sent them from Ka'desh-bar'ne-a^e to see the land. 9 When they went up to the torrent valley of Esh'col^f and saw the land, then they disheartened the sons of Israel, so as not to go into the land that Jehovah was certain to give them.^g 10 Consequently Jehovah's anger blazed on that day so that he swore,^h saying, 11 'The men who came up out of Egypt from twenty years old upwardⁱ will not see the soil of which I have sworn^j to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob,^k because they have not followed me wholly, 12 except Ca'leb^k the son of Jephun'neh the Ken'izzite and Joshua^l the son of Nun, because they have followed Jehovah wholly.' 13 So Jehovah's anger blazed against Israel and he made them wander about in the wilderness forty years,^m until all the generation that was doing evil in the eyes of Jehovah came to their end.ⁿ 14 And here YOU have risen in the place of YOUR fathers as the brood of sinful men in order to add further^o to the burning anger of Jehovah^p against Israel. 15 In case you should turn back from following him,^q he also would certainly once again let them stay longer in the wilderness,^r and you would have acted ruinously toward all this people."^r

16 Later they approached him and said: "Let us build here stone flock pens for our livestock and cities for our little ones. 17 But we ourselves shall go equipped in battle formation^a before the sons of Israel until whenever we have brought them to their place, while our little ones must dwell in the cities with fortifications away from the face of the inhabitants of the land. 18 We shall not return to our houses until the sons of Israel have provided themselves with landed property, each with his own inheritance.^b 19 For we shall not get an inheritance with them from the side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has come to us from the side of the Jordan toward the sunrising.”^c

20 At this Moses said to them: “If you will do this thing, if you will equip yourselves before Jehovah for the war,^d 21 and every equipped one of YOURS will actually pass over the Jordan before Jehovah, until he drives away his enemies from before him,^e 22 and the land is actually subdued before Jehovah,^f and afterward YOU return,^g YOU also will indeed prove yourselves free from guilt against Jehovah and against Israel; and this land must become YOURS as a possession before Jehovah.^h 23 But if you will not do this way, YOU will also certainly sin against Jehovah.ⁱ In that case know that YOUR sin will catch up with YOU.^j 24 Build for yourselves cities for YOUR little ones and stone pens for YOUR flocks, and what has gone forth from YOUR mouth YOU should do.”^k

25 Then the sons of Gad and the sons of Reu’ben said this to Moses: “Your servants will do just as my lord is commanding.^l 26 Our little ones, our wives, our livestock and all our domestic animals will stay there in the cities of Gil’e-ad,^m 27 but your servants will pass over, everyone equipped for the army,ⁿ before Jehovah for the war, just as my lord is speaking.”

28 Accordingly Moses gave a command respecting them to El-e-a’zar the priest and to Joshua the son of Nun and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel. 29 So Moses said to them: “If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reu’ben pass with you over the Jordan, everyone equipped for the war,^a before Jehovah, and the land is actually subdued before YOU, YOU must then give them the land of Gil’e-ad as a possession.^b 30 But if they do not pass over equipped with YOU,^c they must then be settled in YOUR midst in the land of Ca’naan.”^c

31 To this the sons of Gad and the sons of Reu’ben answered, saying: “What Jehovah has spoken to your servants is the way we shall do.^d 32 We ourselves will pass over equipped before Jehovah to the land of Ca’naan,^e and the possession of our inheritance will be with us* on this side of the Jordan.”^f

33 At this Moses gave to them, that is, to the sons of Gad^g and to the sons of Reu’ben^h and to half the tribe of Manas’s^h the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Si’honⁱ the king of the Am’orites and the kingdom of Og^k the king of Ba’shan, the land belonging to its cities in the territories, and the cities of the land round about.*

34 And the sons of Gad proceeded to build Di’bon^l and At’a-roth^m and A-ro’er,ⁿ 35 and At’roth-sho’phan and Ja’zer^o and Jog’be-hah,^p 36 and Beth-nim’rah^q and Beth-ha’ran,^r cities with fortifications,^s and stone flock pens.^t 37 And the sons of Reu’ben built Hesh’bon^u and Ele-a’leh^v and Kir-i-a-tha’im,^w 38 and Ne’bo^x and Ba’al-me’on^y—their names being changed—and Sib’mah; and they began to call by their own names* the names of the cities that they built.

39 And the sons of Ma’chir^z the son of Ma-nas’s^h proceeded to march to Gil’e-ad and to capture it and to drive away the Am'or-ites who were in it. 40 So Moses gave Gil'e-ad to Ma'chir the son of Ma-nas'seh, and he took up dwelling in it.^a 41 And Ja'ir the son of Ma-nas'seh marched and went capturing their tent villages, and he began to call them Hav'voth-ja'ir.^b 42 And No'bah marched and went capturing Ke'nath^c and its dependent towns;^{*} and he began to call it No'bah by his own name.

33 These were the stages of the sons of Israel who went out of the land of Egypt^d in their armies^e by the hand of Moses and Aaron.^f 2 And Moses kept recording the departure places by their stages at the order of Jehovah; and these were their stages from one departure place to another.^g 3 And they proceeded to pull away from Ram'es-ses^h in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month.ⁱ Directly the day after the passover^j the sons of Israel went out with uplifted hand before the eyes of all the Egyptians.^k 4 All the while the Egyptians were burying those whom Jehovah had struck among them, that is, all the firstborn;^l and upon their gods Jehovah had executed judgments.^m

5 So the sons of Israel pulled away from Ram'es-sesⁿ and went camping in Suc'coth.^o 6 Then they pulled away from Suc'coth and went camping in E'tham,^p which is on the edge of the wilderness. 7 Next they pulled away from E'tham and turned back toward Pi-ha-hi'roth,^q which is in view of Ba'al-ze'phon;^r and they went camping before Mig'dol.^s 8 After that they pulled away from Pi-ha-hi'roth^{*} and went passing through the midst of the sea^t to the wilderness^u and kept marching a three-day journey in the wilderness of E'tham^v and took up camping at Ma'rah.^w

Beth-jesh'i-moth^a to A'bel-shit'tim^b on the desert plains of Mo'ab.

50 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses on the desert plains of Mo'ab by the Jordan at Jer'i-cho,^c saying: 51 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you must say to them, 'You are crossing the Jordan into the land of Ca'naan.'^d 52 And you must drive away all the inhabitants* of the land from before you and destroy all their stone figures,^e and all their images of molten metal^f you should destroy, and all their sacred high places you should annihilate.^g 53 And you must take possession of the land and dwell in it, because to you I shall certainly give the land to take possession of it.^h 54 And you must apportion the land to yourselves as a possession by lotⁱ according to your families.^j To the populous one you should increase his inheritance, and to the sparse one you should reduce his inheritance.^k To where the lot will come out for him, there it will become his.^l By the tribes of your fathers you should provide yourselves with landed property.^m

55 "If, though, you will not drive the inhabitants of the land away from before you,ⁿ then those whom you leave of them will certainly become as pricks in your eyes and as thorns in your sides, and they will indeed harass you on the land in which you will be dwelling.^o 56 And it must occur that just as I had figured doing to them I shall do to you."^p

13 So Moses commanded the sons of Israel, saying: "This is the land that you will apportion to yourselves as a possession by lot,^a just as Jehovah has commanded to give to the nine and a half tribes.^b 14 For the tribe of the sons of the Reu'ben-ites by the house of their fathers and the tribe of the sons of the Gad'ites by the house of their fathers have already taken, and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh have already taken their inheritance.^c 15 The two and a half tribes have already taken their inheritance from the region of the Jordan by Jer'i'cho eastward toward the sunrising."^d

16 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 17 "These are the names of the men who will divide the land to you people for a possession, Ele-a'zar^e the priest and Joshua the son of Nun.^f 18 And you will take one chieftain out of each tribe to divide the land for a possession.^g 19 And these are the names of the men: Of the tribe of Judah,^h Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'-neh;ⁱ 20 and of the tribe of the sons of Sim'e-on,^j She-mu'el the son of Am-mi'hud; 21 of the tribe of Benjamin,^k Eli'dad the son of Chis'lon; 22 and of the tribe of the sons of Dan^l a chieftain, Buk'ki the son of Jog'li; 23 of the sons of Joseph,^m of the tribe of the sons of Ma-nas'sehⁿ a chieftain, Han'ni-el the son of E'phod; 24 and of the tribe of the sons of E'phra-im^o a chieftain, Kem-u'el the son of Shiph'tan; 25 and of the tribe of the sons of Zeb'u-lun^p a chieftain, Eli-za'phan the son of Par'-nach; 26 and of the tribe of the sons of Is'sa-char^q a chieftain, Pal'ti-el the son of Az'zan; 27 and of the tribe of the sons of Ash'er^r a chieftain, A-hi'hud the son of She-lo'mi; 28 and of the tribe of the sons of Naph'ta-li^s a chieftain,^{*} Ped-ah'el the son of Am-mi'hud." 29 These are the ones whom Jehovah commanded to make the sons of Israel landholders in the land of Ca'naan.^a 35 And Jehovah went on to speak to Moses on the desert plains of Mo'ab by the Jordan^b at Jer'i-cho, saying: 2 "Give the sons of Israel the command that they must give the Levites cities^c to inhabit out of the inheritance of their possession, and they should give the Levites the pasture ground of the cities all around them.^d

3 And the cities must serve for them to inhabit, while their pasture grounds will serve for their domestic animals and their goods and for all their wild beasts.

4 And the pasture grounds of the cities, which you will give the Levites, will be from the wall of the city and out for a thousand* cubits all around. 5 And you must measure outside the city on the east side two thousand cubits and on the south side two thousand cubits and on the west side two thousand cubits and on the north side two thousand cubits, with the city in the middle. This will serve them as pasture grounds of the cities.

6 "These are the cities that you will give to the Levites: six cities of refuge,^e which you will give for the manslayer* to flee there,^f and besides them you will give forty-two other cities. 7 All the cities that you will give to the Levites will be forty-eight cities, they together with their pasture grounds.^g 8 The cities that you will give will be from the possession of the sons of Israel.^h From the many you will take many, and from the few you will take few.ⁱ Each one, in proportion to his inheritance that he will take as a possession, will give some of his cities to the Levites."

9 And Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 10 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you must say to them, 'You are crossing the Jordan to the land of Ca'naan.' 11 And you must choose cities convenient for yourselves. As cities of refuge they will serve for you,

De 1:1* “These are the words (things).” Heb., ‘El'leh had-deva-rim’. In Heb. this fifth book of Moses is named after these opening words. LXXVg name this book “Deuteronomy” (Gr., Deu-te-ro-no'mi-on, meaning “Second Law,” that is, an explanation of the Law [see vs 5]; Lat., Deu-te-ro-no'mi-um). given into your hand Si'hon^a the king of Hesh'bon, the Am'or-ite. So start to take possession of his land, and engage in war with him. 25 This day I shall start to put the dread of you and the fear of you before the peoples beneath all the heavens, who will hear the report about you; and they will indeed be agitated and have pains like those of childbirth because of you.^b

26 "Then I sent messengers from the wilderness of Ked'e-moth^c to Si'hon^d the king of Hesh'bon with words of peace,^e saying, 27 'Let me pass through your land. Only on the road^f I shall walk. I shall not turn to the right or to the left.^f 28 What food you will sell me for money, I must eat; and what water you will give me for money, I must drink. Only let me pass through on my feet,^g 29 just the same as the sons of E'sau dwelling in Se'ir^h and the Mo'-ab-itesⁱ dwelling in Ar did to me, until I shall pass over the Jordan into the land that Jehovah our God is giving to us.^j 30 And Si'hon the king of Hesh'bon did not let us pass through him, because Jehovah your God had let his spirit become obstinate^k and his heart become hard, in order to give him into your hand just as at this day.^l

31 "At this Jehovah said to me, 'See, I have started to abandon Si'hon and his land to you. Start to take possession of his land.'^m 32 When Si'hon came on out, he and all his people, to meet us in battle at Ja'haz,ⁿ 33 then Jehovah our God abandoned him to us,^o so that we defeated him^p and his sons^q and all his people. 34 And we went capturing all his cities at that particular time and devoting every city to destruction,^q men and women and little children. We left no survivor. 35 Only the domestic animals did we take as plunder for ourselves, together with the spoil of the cities that we had captured.^r 36 From A-ro'er,^s which is by the bank of the torrent valley of Ar'non, and the city that is in the torrent valley, as far as Gil'e-ad, there proved to be no town

3 "Then we turned and went up by the way of Ba'shan. At this Og^d the king of Ba'shan came on out, he and all his people, to meet us in battle at Ed'rei.^e 2 So Jehovah said to me, 'Do not be afraid of him,^f for I shall certainly give him and all his people and his land into your hand; and you must do to him just as you did to Si'hon^g the king of the Am'or-ites, who was dwelling in Hesh'bon.' 3 Accordingly Jehovah our God gave into our hand also Og the king of Ba'shan and all his people, and we kept striking him until he had no survivor remaining.^h 4 And we went capturing all his cities at that particular time. There proved to be no town that we did not take from them, sixty cities,ⁱ all the region of Ar'gob,^j the kingdom of Og in Ba'shan.^k 5 All these were cities fortified with a high wall, doors and bar, aside from very many rural towns. 6 However, we devoted them to destruction,^l just as we had done to Si'hon the king of Hesh'bon, in devoting every city to destruction, men, women and little children.^m 7 And all the domestic animals and the spoil of the cities we took as plunder for ourselves."

8 "And we proceeded to take at that particular time the land from the hand of the two kings of the Am'or-itesⁿ who were in the region of the Jordan, from the torrent valley of Ar'nnon^o as far as Mount Her'mon;^q 9 (the Si-do'ni-ans used to call Her'mon Sir'ion,^r and the Am'or-ites used to call it Se'nir,)*^s 10 all the cities of the tableland and all Gil'e-ad and all Ba'shan as far as Sal'e-cah^t and Ed'rei,^u the cities of the king-

Abraham,^a Isaac^b and Jacob.^c 6 And you must know that it is not for your righteousness that Jehovah your God is giving you this good land to take possession of it; for you are a stiff-necked people.^d

7 "Remember: Do not forget how you have provoked Jehovah your God in the wilderness.^e From the day that you went out of the land of Egypt until your coming to this place you people have proved rebellious in your behavior with Jehovah.^f 8 Even in Horeb you provoked Jehovah to anger so that Jehovah got incensed at you to the point of annihilating you.^g 9 When I went up the mountain to receive the stone tablets,^h the tablets of the covenant that Jehovah had concluded with you,ⁱ and I kept dwelling in the mountain forty days and forty nights,^j (I neither ate bread nor drank water,) 10 then Jehovah gave me the two tablets of stone written upon with God's finger;^k and upon them were all the words* that Jehovah had spoken with you in the mountain out of the middle of the fire in the day of the congregation.^l 11 And it came about that at the end of the forty days and forty nights Jehovah gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant;^m 12 and Jehovah proceeded to say to me, 'Get up, go down quickly from here, because your people whom you brought out of Egypt have acted ruinously.ⁿ They have turned aside quickly from the way about which I commanded them. They have made themselves a molten image.^o

13 And Jehovah went on to say this to me, 'I have seen this people, and, look! it is a stiff-necked people.^p 14 Let me alone that I may annihilate^q them and wipe out their name from under the heavens,^r and let me make you a nation mightier and more populous than they are.'^s

15 "After that I turned and went down from the mountain, while the mountain was burning with fire;^a and the two tablets of the covenant were in both my hands.^b 16 Then I looked, and there YOU had sinned against Jehovah YOUR God! You had made yourselves a molten calf.^c You had turned aside quickly from the way about which Jehovah had commanded YOU.^d 17 At that I took hold of the two tablets and flung them down from both my hands and shattered them before YOUR eyes.^e 18 And I proceeded to prostrate myself before Jehovah, as at first, forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water,^f because of all YOUR sin that YOU had committed in doing evil in the eyes of Jehovah so as to offend him.^g 19 For I was scared because of the hot anger with which Jehovah had got indignant at YOU to the point of annihilating YOU.^h However, Jehovah listened to me also that time.ⁱ

20 "At Aaron, too, Jehovah got very incensed to the point of annihilating him;^j but I made supplication^k also in behalf of Aaron at that particular time. 21 And YOUR sin that YOU had made, the calf,^l I took, and I proceeded to burn it in the fire and to crush it, grinding it thoroughly until it had become fine like dust; after which I threw its dust into the torrent that was descending from the mountain.^m

22 "Further, at Tab'e-rahⁿ and at Mas'sah^o and at Kib'roth-hat-ta'a-vah^p you proved yourselves provokers of Jehovah to anger.^q 23 And when Jehovah sent YOU out of Ka'desh-bar'ne-a,^r saying, 'Go up and take possession of the land that I shall certainly give YOU!' then YOU behaved rebelliously against the order of Jehovah YOUR God,^s and you did not exercise faith^t toward him and did not listen to his voice.^u 24 You have proved yourselves rebellious in behavior with Jehovah^v from the day of my knowing YOU.

25 "So I kept prostrating myself before Jehovah forty days and forty nights," for I prostrated myself thus because Jehovah talked^{*} of annihilating YOU.^a 26 And I began to make supplication^b to Jehovah and to say, 'O Sovereign Lord Jehovah,^c do not bring to ruin your people, even your private property,^d whom you redeemed with your greatness, whom you brought out of Egypt^e with a strong hand.^f 27 Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.^g Do not turn your face to the hardness of this people and their wickedness and their sin,^h 28 for fear the landⁱ out of which you brought us may say: "Because Jehovah was unable to bring them into the land that he had promised them, and because he hated them he brought them out to put them to death in the wilderness."^j 29 They are, too, your people and your private property^k whom you brought out with your great power and your outstretched arm.^l

10 "At that particular time Jehovah said to me, 'Carve for yourself two tablets of stone like the first ones,¹ and come up to me into the mountain, and you must make an ark of wood^m for yourself. 2 And I shall write upon the tablets the words that appeared on the first tablets, which you shattered, and you must place them in the ark.' 3 So I made an ark of acacia wood and carved two tablets of stone like the first onesⁿ and went up into the mountain, and the two tablets were in my hand. 4 Then he wrote upon the tablets the same writing as the first,^o the Ten Words,^p which Jehovah had spoken to YOU in the mountain out of the middle of the fire^q in the day of the congregation;^r after which Jehovah gave them to me. 5 Then I turned and went down from the mountain^s and placed the tablets in the ark that I had made, that they might continue there, just as Jehovah had commanded me.^a

8 “At that particular time Jehovah separated the tribe of Le’vi^f to carry the ark of Jehovah’s covenant,^g to stand before Jehovah for ministering to him^h and to bless in his name until this day.ⁱ 9 That is why Le’vi has come to have no share and inheritance^j with his brothers. 12 “And now, O Israel, what is Jehovah your God asking of you^p but to fear^q Jehovah your God, so as to walk in all his ways^r and to love him^s and to serve Jehovah your God with all your heart and all your soul;^t 13 to keep the commandments of Jehovah and his statutes^u that I am commanding you today, for your good?^v 14 Behold, to Jehovah your God belong the heavens,^w even the heavens of the heavens, the earth^x and all that is in it. 15 Only to your forefathers did Jehovah get attached so as to love them, so that he chose their offspring after them,^y even you, out of all the peoples, as at this day. 16 And YOU must circum-cise the foreskin of YOUR hearts^z and not harden* YOUR necks any longer.^a

any sin,^a in the case of any sin that he may commit. At the mouth of two witnesses or at the mouth of three witnesses the matter should stand good.^b

16 In case a witness scheming violence should rise up against a man to bring a charge of revolt against him,^c

17 the two men who have the dispute must also stand before Jehovah, before the priests and the judges who will be acting in those days.^d

18 And the judges must search thoroughly,^e and if the witness is a false witness and has brought a false charge against his brother, 19 you must also do to him just as he had schemed to do to his brother,^f and you must clear away what is bad from your midst.^g

10 "In case you draw near to a city to fight against it, you must also announce to it terms of peace.^h 11 And it must occur that if it gives a peaceful answer to you and it has opened up to you, it must even occur that all the people found in it should become yours for forced labor, and they must serve you.ⁱ 12 But if it does not make peace with you,^j and it actually makes war with you and you have to besiege it, 13 Jehovah* your God also will certainly give it into your hand, and you must strike every male in it with the edge of the sword.^k 14 Only the women and the little children^l and the domestic animals^m and everything that happens to be in the city, all its spoil you will plunder for yourself,ⁿ and you must eat the spoil of your enemies, whom Jehovah your God has given to you.^o

De 29:29* Or, "The things concealed belong to Jehovah our God, and the things revealed. To us and to our sons it belongs for time indefinite to carry out all the words of this law." In Al and Leningrad B 19^a the words "to us and to our sons," and in Al the first consonant of the following Heb. preposition "to," have extraordinary points over them. This is understood by some to mean that these words should either be omitted or not be emphasized. However, these words were written in LXX^p. Fouad Inv. 266 of the first cent. B.C.E. One of the 15 cases of extraordinary points. See App 2A. 30:1 Or, "you have recalled them to your heart." 3 Or, "captivity," that is, a body of captives.

8 "As for you, you will turn and certainly listen to the voice of Jehovah and do all his commandments that I am commanding you today.^a 9 And Jehovah your God will indeed make you have more than enough in every work of your hand,^b in the fruit of your belly and the fruit of your domestic animals^c and the fruitage of your soil,^d resulting in prosperity;^e because Jehovah* will again exult over you for good, just as he exulted over your forefathers;^f 10 for you will listen to the voice of Jehovah your God so as to keep his commandments and his statutes written in this book of the law,^g because you will return to Jehovah your God with all your heart and all your soul.^h

11 "For this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too difficult for you, nor is it far away.ⁱ 12 It is not in the heavens, so as to result in saying, 'Who will ascend for us into the heavens and get it for us, that he may let us hear it that we may do it?'^j 13 Neither is it on the other side of the sea, so as to result in saying, 'Who will pass over for us to the other side of the sea and get it for us, that he may let us hear it that we may do it?'^k 14 For the word is very near you, in your own mouth and in your own heart,^l that you may do it.^m

15 "See, I do put before you today life and good, and death and bad.ⁿ 16 [If you will listen to the commandments of Jehovah your God,]^o which I am commanding you today, so as to love Jehovah your God,^p to walk in his ways and to keep his commandments^q and his statutes and his judicial decisions,^r then you will be bound to keep alive^s and to multiply, and Jehovah your God must bless you in the land to which you are going to take possession of it.^t

De 32:3* See App 1c §1. 4* "The Rock, perfect is his activity." Heb., hats-Tsur' tamim po-'oloh; LXX, "God, true are his works"; Sy, "For without blemish (spotless) are his works"; Vg, "God's works are perfect." 4* "A God," M(Heb., El)Sam; Gr., Theos; Lat., Deus. 5* "They have," SamLXXSyVg; M, "He has." 5* Or, "ruinously toward him." 5* "They have sinned; blameworthy children do not belong to him," LXX. 6* See App 1c §1. 8* "When the Most High was dividing nations," LXXSyVg. Evidently they understood the Heb. verb to be derived from a similar-looking root that means "to sift; to pass through a sieve." According to this, M would read: "When the Most High sprinkled the nations [as through a sieve]." This thought runs parallel, or in poetic balance, with the second part of the vs. See VT, Vol. II, 1952, pp. 356, 357.

the words of this song in the hearing^a of the people,^a he and Ho-she'a^b the son of Nun.^b 45 After Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel, 46 he went on to say to them: "Apply YOUR hearts to all the words that I am speaking in warning to YOU^c today,^c that YOU may command YOUR sons to take care to do all the words of this law.^d 47 For it is no valueless word for YOU,^e but it means YOUR life,^f and by this word YOU may lengthen YOUR days upon the soil to which YOU are crossing the Jordan to take possession of it."^g

48 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses on this same day, saying: 49 "Go up into this mountain of Ab'-a-rim,^h Mount Ne'bo,ⁱ which is in the land of Mo'ab, which fronts toward Jer'i-cho, and see the land of Ca'naan, which I am giving to the sons of Israel as a possession.^j 50 Then die on the mountain into which you are going up, and be gathered to your people,^k just as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor^l and got to be gathered to his people; 51 for the reason that you men acted undutifully toward me^m in the middle of the sons of Israel at the waters of Mer'i-bahⁿ of Ka'desh in the wilderness of Zin; for the reason that you men did not sanctify me^o in the middle of the sons of Israel.^o 52 For from a distance you will see the land, but you will not go there into the land that I am giving to the sons of Israel."^p

33 Now this is the blessing^q with which Moses the man of the [true] God^r blessed the sons of Israel before his death. 2 And he proceeded to say:

"Jehovah—from Si'nai he came,^s

And he flashed forth from Se'ir upon them.^t

De 32:44^u Lit., "ears." 44^v Meaning "Salvation; Deliverance"; the original name of Joshua. 46^w Or, "in witness against you." 49^x Or, "the borderland." 51^y "You men did not sanctify me (hold me sacred; treat me as holy)." De 33:2* Or, "tens of thousands of holy ones." 2* Or, "and with him were myriads of Kadesh, at his right hand warriors [or, angels] thereof." See JTS, Vol. 2, 1951, pp. 30, 31. LXX, "with [the] myriads of Kadesh; at his right hand angels [were] with him"; Vg, "and with him thousands of holy ones. In his right hand [there was] a fiery law." ^Mmargin breaks the Heb. into two words, 'esh (fire) and dath (law), to read, "the fire of a law"; or, "a fiery law." But this would introduce into the Pentateuch a Persian loanword, dath (law), which is found elsewhere in Heb. only in Ezra and Esther. See Ezr 8:36; Es 1:8. 3* "His people," LXX; MSamSyVg, "peoples," referring to the Israelite tribes or their ancestors. 3* Possibly, "his," in the collective sense, referring to "his people," which is pl. in M (Heb., 'am-mim'). 3* Possibly, "And they—they followed at your feet." The meaning of the Heb. verb is uncertain. LXX, "And these are under you"; Vg, "And they who approach his feet." 4* "Moses laid as a command upon us a law." Some consider these words to be a gloss from the margin and so would delete them. 5* Meaning "Upright One"; an honorary title for Israel. 6* "And let his number become complete (perfect)," by a correction proposed in BHK and BHS; LXX, "and let him be great in number"; Vg, "and let him be small in number."

10 And Joshua proceeded to command the officers of the people, saying:

11 "Pass through the midst of the camp and command the people, saying, 'Get provisions ready for yourselves, because three days from now YOU are crossing this Jordan to go in and take possession of the land that Jehovah YOUR God is giving YOU to take possession of it.'"^c

12 And to the Reu'ben-ites and the Gad'ites and the half tribe of Ma-nas'-seh Joshua said: 13 "Let there be a remembering* of the word that Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded YOU,^d saying, 'Jehovah YOUR God is giving YOU rest and has given YOU this land. 14 YOUR wives, YOUR little ones and YOUR livestock will dwell in the land that Moses has given YOU on this side of the Jordan;^e but YOU men will pass over in battle formation^f before YOUR brothers, all the valiant mighty men,^g and YOU must help them. 15 First when Jehovah gives rest to YOUR brothers the same as to YOU and they also have taken possession of the land that Jehovah YOUR God is giving them,^h YOU must also return to the land of YOUR holding and take possession of it,ⁱ the one that Moses the servant of Jehovah has given YOU on the side of the Jordan toward the rising of the sun.'"^j

16 Accordingly they answered Joshua, saying: "All that you have commanded us we shall do, and wherever you may send us we shall go.^k 17 As we listened to Moses in everything, so we shall listen to you. Only may Jehovah your God prove to be with you^l just as he proved to be with Moses.^m

18 Any man that behaves rebelliously against your order^a and does not listen to your words in all that you may command him will be put to death.^b Only be courageous and strong.”^c

2 Then Joshua the son of Nun sent two men out secretly from Shit-tim^d as spies, saying: “Go, take a look at the land and Jer-i-cho.” So they went and came to the house of a prostitute woman whose name was Ra’hab,^e and they took up lodging there. 2 In time it was said to the king of Jer-i-cho: “Look! 4 Meantime the woman took the two men and concealed them. And she proceeded to say: “Yes, the men did come to me, and I did not know from where they were. 5 And it came about at the closing of the gate^g by dark that the men went out. I just do not know where the men have gone. Chase after them quickly, for you will overtake them.” 6 (She, though, had taken them up to the roof,^h and she kept them out of sight among stalks of flax laid in rows for her upon the roof.) 7 And the men chased after them in the direction of the Jordan at the fords,ⁱ and they shut the gate immediately after those chasing after them had gone out.

8 As for these, before they could lie down, she herself came up to them on the roof. 9 And she went on to say to the men: “I do know that Jehovah will certainly give you the land,^j and that the fright of you has fallen upon us,^k and that all the inhabitants of the land have become disheartened because of you.^l 10 For we have heard how Jehovah dried up the waters of the Red Sea from before you when you came out of Egypt,^m and what you did to the two kings of the Am’or-ites who were on the other side of the Jordan, namely,

Si’hon^a and Og,^b whom you devoted to destruction.^c 11 When we got to hear it, then our hearts began to melt,^d and no spirit^e has arisen yet in anybody because of you,^f for Jehovah your God is God in the heavens above and on the earth beneath.^g 12 And now, please, swear to me by Jehovah^h that, because I have exercised loving-kindnessⁱ toward you, you also will certainly exercise loving-kindness toward the household of my father,^j and you must give me a trustworthy sign.^k 13 And you must preserve alive my father^l and my mother and my brothers and my sisters and all who belong to them, and you must deliver our souls from death.”^m

14 At that the men said to her: “Our souls are to die instead of you people!ⁿ If you will not tell about this matter of ours, it must also occur that when Jehovah gives us the land, we also shall certainly exercise loving-kindness and trustworthiness^o toward you.”^m 15 After that she had them descend by a rope through the window, for her house was on a side of the wall, and it was on the wall that she was dwelling.ⁿ 16 And she proceeded to say to them: “Go to the mountainous region, that those in pursuit may not come in contact with you; and you must keep hid there three days, until those in pursuit have come back, and afterward you may go in your own direction.”

17 In turn the men said to her: “We are free from guilt respecting this oath of yours that you have made us swear.” 18 Look! We are coming into the land. This cord of scarlet thread you should tie in the window by which you have had us descend, and your father and your mother and your brothers and all the household of your father you should gather to yourself into the house.^p 19 And it must occur that anyone who goes out of the doors of your house into the open,^q his blood will be upon his own head, and we shall be free from guilt;

With that she sent them off, and they went their way. After that she tied the scarlet cord in the window. 22 So they went and came to the mountainous region and kept dwelling there three days, until the pursuers had come back. Now the pursuers were looking for them on every road, and they did not find them. 23 And the two men proceeded to descend again from the mountainous region and to cross over and come to Joshua the son of Nun, and they began to relate to him all the things that had happened to them. 24 And they went on to say to Joshua: “Jehovah has given all the land into our hand.^b Consequently all the inhabitants of the land have also grown disheartened because of us.”^c

3 Then Joshua got up early in the morning, and he and all the sons of Israel proceeded to pull away from Shit'tim^d and to come as far as the Jordan; and they went spending the night there before they would cross.

2 So it came about at the end of the three days^e that the officers^f proceeded to pass through the midst of the camp 3 and to command the people, saying: “As soon as YOU see the ark of the covenant of Jehovah YOUR God, and the priests, the Levites, carrying it,^g then you yourselves will pull away from YOUR place, and you must follow it, 4 —only let there prove to be a distance between YOU and it of about two thousand cubits* by measure;^h do not get near to it—in order that YOU may know the way by which you should go, for you have not passed over on that way before.”

The ark of the covenant of the Lord* of the whole earth is passing before YOU into the Jordan.

12 And now take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe.^k 13 And it must occur that at the instant that the soles of the feet of the priests carrying the ark of Jehovah, the Lord of the whole earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan will be cut off, the waters descending from above, and they will stand still as one dam.”^l

14 And it came about that when the people pulled away from their tents just before passing over the Jordan, with the priests carrying the ark^m of the covenant before the people, 15 and at the instant that the carriers of the Ark came as far as the Jordan and the feet of the priests carrying the Ark were dipped in the edge of the waters (now the Jordan overflows all its banks^a all the days of harvest), 16 then the waters descending from above began to stand still. They rose up as one dam^b very far away at Adam,^c the city at the side of Zar'e-than,^c while those descending toward the sea of the Ar'a-bah, the Salt Sea,^d were exhausted. They were cut off, and the people passed over in front of Jer'i-cho. 17 Meanwhile the priests carrying the ark of Jehovah's covenant kept standing immovable on dry ground^e in the middle of the Jordan as all Israel were passing over on dry ground,^f until the whole nation had completed passing over the Jordan.

4 And it came about that as soon as the whole nation had completed passing over the Jordan,^g Jehovah proceeded to say to Joshua: 2 "Take for yourselves twelve men from the people, one man from each tribe,^h 3 and command them, saying, 'Take up for yourselves from the very middle of the Jordan, from the place where the priests' feet stood motionless,ⁱ twelve stones,^j and you must carry them over with you and deposit them in the lodging place^k in which you will lodge tonight.'"

4 So Joshua called twelve men^l whom he had appointed from the sons of Israel, one man from each tribe; 5 and Joshua went on to say to them: "Pass ahead of the ark of Jehovah YOUR God to the middle of the Jordan, and lift up for yourselves each one a stone upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel, 6 in order that this may serve as a sign in YOUR midst.^m In case YOUR sons should ask in time to come, saying, 'Why do you have these stones?'ⁿ 7 YOU must also say to them, 'Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off from before the ark of Jehovah's covenant.^o When it passed through the Jordan the waters of the Jordan were cut off, and these stones must serve as a memorial to the sons of Israel to time indefinite.'"^a 8 Accordingly the sons of Israel did so, just as Joshua had commanded, and they took up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, just as Jehovah had stated to Joshua, to correspond with the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel;^b and they went taking them over with them to the lodging place^c and depositing them there.

9 There were also twelve stones that Joshua set up in the middle of the Jordan on the standing place^d of the feet of the priests carrying the ark of the covenant, and they continue there until this day.

10 And the priests carrying the Ark were standing in the middle^e of the Jordan until the whole matter had been completed that Jehovah had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua.^f All the while the people hurried up^g and passed over. 11 And it came about that as soon as all the people had completed passing over, then the ark^h of Jehovah passed over, and the priests, before the people. 12 And the sons of Reu'ben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Ma-nas'sehⁱ proceeded to pass over in battle formation^j in the sight of the sons of Israel, just as Moses had stated to them.^k 13 About forty thousand equipped for the army passed over before Jehovah for the war onto the desert plains of Jer'i-cho.

14 On that day Jehovah made Joshua great in the eyes of all Israel,^l and they began to fear him just as they had feared Moses all the days of his life.^m

15 Then Jehovah said to Joshua: 16 "Command the priests carrying the ark of the testimonyⁿ that they go up out of the Jordan." 17 So Joshua commanded the priests, saying: "Go up out of the Jordan." 18 And it came about that when the priests carrying the ark^o of the covenant of Jehovah came up out of the middle of the Jordan and the soles^p of the feet of the priests were drawn out onto the dry ground, then the waters of the Jordan began returning to their place and went overflowing^a all its banks as formerly.

19 And the people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth of the first month and took up camping at Gil'gal^b on the eastern border of Jer'i-cho.

20 As for the twelve stones that they had taken out of the Jordan, Joshua set these up at Gil'gal.^c 21 And he went on to say to the sons of Israel: "When YOUR sons ask their fathers in time to come, saying, 'What do these stones mean?'^d 22 YOU must then let YOUR sons know, saying, 'On the dry land it was that Israel passed over this Jordan,'^e 23 when Jehovah YOUR God dried up the waters of the Jordan from before them* until they^f had passed over, just as Jehovah YOUR God had done to the Red Sea when he dried it up from before us until we had passed over;^f 24 in order that all the peoples of the earth may know Jehovah's hand,* that it is strong;^h in order that YOU may indeed fear Jehovah YOUR God always."ⁱ

5 And it came about that as soon as all the kings of the Am'or-ites,^j who were on the side of the Jordan to the west,* and all the kings of the Ca'-naan-ites,^k who were by the sea, heard that Jehovah had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the sons of Israel until they had passed over, then their hearts began to melt,^l and there proved to be no spiritedness^m in them anymore because of the sons of Israel.^m

2 At that particular time Jehovah said to Joshua: "Make for yourself flint knives* and circumciseⁿ the sons of Israel again, the second time." 3 Accordingly Joshua made flint knives for himself and circumcised the sons of Israel at Gib'e-ath-ha-ar'a-loth.*^o 4 And this was the reason why Joshua did the circumcising: all the people that came out of Egypt, the males, all the men of war, had died^a in the wilderness on the road when they were coming out of Egypt. 5 For all the people who came out proved to be circumcised, but all the people born in the wilderness on the road when they were coming out of Egypt they had not circumcised. 6 For the sons of Israel had walked forty years^b in the wilderness, until all the nation of the men of war who came out of Egypt that did not listen to the voice of Jehovah had come to its finish, to whom Jehovah swore that he would never let them see the land^c that Jehovah had sworn to their forefathers to give to us,^d a land flowing with milk and honey.^e 7 And their sons he raised up instead of them.^f These Joshua circumcised, because they proved to be uncircumcised, for they had not circumcised them on the road.

8 And it came about that when they had completed circumcising all the nation, they kept sitting in their place in the camp until they revived.^g

9 Then Jehovah said to Joshua: "Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you."^h So the name of that place came to be called Gil'galⁱ until this day.

10 And the sons of Israel continued to camp in Gil'gal, and they proceeded to carry out the passover on the fourteenth day of the month,^j in the evening, on the desert plains of Jer'i-cho. 11 And they began to eat some of the yield of the land the day after the passover, unfermented cakes^k and roasted grains, on this same day. 12 Then the manna ceased on the following day when they had eaten some of the yield of the land, and manna did not occur anymore for the sons of Israel,^l and they began to eat some of the produce of the land of Ca'naan in that year.^m

13 And it came about when Joshua happened to be by Jer'i-cho that he proceeded to raise his eyes and look, and there there was a manⁿ standing in front of him with his drawn sword in his hand.^o So Joshua walked up to him and said to him: "Are you for us or for our adversaries?" 14 To this he said: "No, but I—as prince of the army of Jehovah* I have now come."^a With that Joshua fell on his face to the earth and prostrated^b himself and said to him: "What is my lord saying to his servant?" 15 In turn the prince of the army of Jehovah said to Joshua: "Draw your sandals from off your feet, because the place on which you are standing is holy." At once Joshua did so.^c

6 Now Jer'i-cho was tightly shut up because of the sons of Israel, no one going out and no one entering.^d

2 And Jehovah went on to say to Joshua: "See, I have given Jer'i-cho and its king, the valiant mighty men, into your hand.^e 3 And all you men of war must march round the city, going round* the city once. That is the way you should do for six days. 4 And seven priests should carry seven rams' horns, before the Ark, and on the seventh day you should march round the city seven times and the priests should blow the horns.^f 5 And it must occur that when they sound with the horn of the ram, when you hear the sound of the horn,* all the people should shout a great war cry;^g and the wall of the city must fall down flat,^h and the people must go up, each one straight before him."

6 Accordingly Joshua the son of Nun called the priestsⁱ and said to them: "Take up the ark of the covenant,^j and seven priests should carry seven rams' horns before the ark^k of Jehovah." 7 And he* went on to say to the people: "Pass on and march round the city, and the war-equipped force^l should pass on ahead of the ark of Jehovah." 8 So it came about just as Joshua said to the people; and seven priests carrying seven rams' horns before Jehovah passed on and blew the horns, and the ark of the covenant of Jehovah was following them. 9 And the war-equipped force was going ahead of the priests blowing the horns, while the rear guard^a was following the Ark with a continual blowing* on the horns.

10 Now Joshua had commanded the people,^b saying: "You must neither shout nor let YOUR voices be heard, and no word should come out of YOUR mouths until the day when I say to you, 'Shout!' Then YOU must shout."^c 11 And he had the ark of Jehovah go marching round the city, going round once, after which they went to the camp and stayed overnight in the camp.

12 Then Joshua got up early in the morning,^d and the priests went carrying the ark^e of Jehovah, 13 and seven priests carrying seven rams' horns before the ark of Jehovah were walking, continually blowing the horns, and the war-equipped force was walking ahead of them, while the rear guard was following the ark of Jehovah with a continual blowing on the horns.^f 14 And they went marching round the city on the second day once, after which they returned to the camp. That was the way they did for six days.^g

15 And it came about on the seventh day that they proceeded to get up early, as soon as the dawn ascended, and they went marching round the city in this manner seven times. Just on that day they marched round the city seven times.^h 16 And it came about on the seventh time that the priests blew the horns, and Joshua proceeded to say to the people: "Shout;ⁱ for Jehovah has given you the city.^j 17 And the city must become a thing devoted to destruction;^k it with everything that is in it belongs to Jehovah. 20 Then the people shouted, when they proceeded to blow the horns.^g And it came about that as soon as the people heard the sound of the horn and the people began to shout a great war cry, then the wall began to fall down flat.^h After that the people went up into the city, each one straight before him, and captured the city. 21 And they went devoting all that was in the city, from man to woman, from young man to old man and to bull and sheep and ass, to destruction by the edge of the sword.ⁱ

22 And to the two men who had done the spying on the land, Joshua said: “Go into the house of the woman, the prostitute, and bring out of there the woman and all who belong to her, just as YOU have sworn to her.”^j 23 So the young men who had done the spying went in and brought out Ra’hab and her father and her mother and her brothers and all who belonged to her, yes, all her family relationship they brought out;^k and they proceeded to set them down outside the camp of Israel.

24 And they burned the city with fire and everything that was in it.^l Only the silver and the gold and the articles of copper and iron they gave to the treasure of Jehovah’s house.^m 25 And Ra’hab the prostitute and the household of her father and all who belonged to her, Joshua preserved alive;ⁿ and she dwells in the midst of Israel down to this day,^o because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent out to spy on Jer’icho.^p nounced at that particular time, saying: “Cursed may the man be before Jehovah who gets up and does build this city, even Jer’icho. At the forfeit of his firstborn let him lay the foundation of it, and at the forfeit of his youngest let him put up its doors.”^a

27 So Jehovah proved to be with Joshua,^b and his fame came to be in all the earth.^c

7 And the sons of Israel went committing an act of unfaithfulness respecting the thing devoted to destruction in that A’chan^d the son of Car’mi, the son of Zab’di, the son of Ze’rah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the thing devoted to destruction.^e At this Jehovah’s anger grew hot against the sons of Israel.^f

2 Then Joshua sent men out from Jer’icho to A’i,^g which is close by Beth-a’ven,^h to the east of Beth’el,ⁱ and said to them: “Go up and spy on the land.” Accordingly the men went up and spied on A’i.^j 3 After that they returned to Joshua and said to him: “Let not all the people go up. Let about two thousand men or about three thousand men go up and strike A’i. Do not weary all the people with going there, for they are few.”

4 So about three thousand men of the people went up there, but they took to flight before the men of A’i.^k 5 And the men of A’i got to strike down about thirty-six men of them, and they went pursuing^l them from before the gate as far as Sheb’a-rim* and continued striking them down on the descent. Consequently the heart of the people began to melt and became as water.^m

6 At this Joshua ripped his mantles and fell upon his faceⁿ to the earth before the ark of Jehovah until the evening, he and the older men* of Israel, and they kept putting dust upon their heads.^o 7 And Joshua went on to say: “Alas, Sovereign Lord Jehovah, why did you bring this people all the way across the Jordan, just to give us into the hand of the Am'orites for them to destroy us? And if only we had taken it upon ourselves and continued dwelling on the other side of the Jordan!^a 8 Excuse me, O Jehovah,* but what can I say after Israel has turned his back before his enemies? 9 And the Ca'naan-ites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and they will certainly surround us and cut our name off from the earth;^b and what will you do for your great name?"^c

10 In turn Jehovah said to Joshua: "Get up, you! Why is it that you are falling upon your face? 11 Israel has sinned, and they have also overstepped my covenant^d that I laid as a command upon them; and they have also taken some of the thing devoted to destruction^e and have also stolen^f and also kept it secret^g and have also put it among their own articles.^h 12 And the sons of Israel will not be able to rise up against their enemies.ⁱ The back is what they will turn before their enemies, because they have become a thing devoted to destruction. I shall not prove to be with you again unless you annihilate the thing devoted to destruction out of your midst.^j 13 Get up! Sanctify the people,^k and you must say, 'Sanctify yourselves tomorrow, for this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said: "A thing devoted to destruction is in your midst, O Israel.^l You will not be able to rise up against your enemies until you people have removed the thing devoted to destruction from your midst. 14 And you must present yourselves in the morning, tribe by tribe, and it must occur that the tribe that Jehovah will pick^m will come near, family by family, and the family that Jehovah will pick will come near, household by household, and the household that Jehovah will pick will come near, able-bodied man by able-bodied man. 15 And it must occur that the one picked with the thing devoted to destruction will be burned with fire," he and all that belongs to 20 At this A'chan answered Joshua and said: "For a fact I—I have sinned against Jehovah the God of Israel,ⁱ and this way and that way I have done.

21 When I got to see^j among the spoil an official garment from Shi'nar,^k a good-looking one, and two hundred shekels^l of silver and one gold bar, fifty shekels being its weight, then I wanted them,ⁱ and I took them;^m and, look! they are hidden in the earth in the midst of my tent with the moneyⁿ underneath it."^{an}

22 At once Joshua sent messengers, and they went running to the tent, and, look! it was hidden in his tent with the money underneath it. 23 So they took them from the midst of the tent and brought them to Joshua and all the sons of Israel and poured them out before Jehovah. 24 Joshua, and all Israel with him, now took A'chan^o the son of Ze'rah and the silver and the official garment and the bar of gold^p and his sons and his daughters and his bull and his ass and his flock and his tent and everything that was his and they brought them up to the low plain of A'chor.^a 25 Then Joshua said: "Why have you brought ostracism upon us?^b Jehovah will bring ostracism upon you on this day." With that all Israel went pelting him with stones,^c after which they burned them with fire.^d Thus they stoned them with stones. 26 And they proceeded to raise up over him a big pile of stones, down to this day.^e At this Jehovah turned away from his hot anger.^f That is why the name of that place has been called Low Plain of A'chor,^g down to this day.

8 Then Jehovah said to Joshua: "Do not be afraid or be terrified.^h Take with you all the people of war and get up, go up to A'i. See, I have given into your hand the king of A'i and his people and his city and his land.ⁱ 2 And you must do to A'i and to its king just as you did to Jer'i-cho and its king.^j Only you people may plunder its spoil and its domestic animals for yourselves.^k Set an ambush of yours against the city at its rear."^l

3 Accordingly Joshua and all the people^m of war rose to go up to A'i, and Joshua proceeded to choose thirty thousand men, valiant mighty ones,ⁿ and to send them off by night. 4 And he went on to command them, saying: "See, you are lying in ambush^o against the city to the rear of the city. Do not go very far away from the city, and you must all of you hold yourselves in readiness. 5 As for me and all the people who are with me, we shall go close to the city. And it must occur that, in case they should come out to meet us just as at the first,^p we must then flee before them. 6 And they must come out after us until we have drawn them away from the city, for they will say, 'They are fleeing before us just as at the first.'^q And we must flee before them. 7 Then you—you will rise up from the ambush, and you must take possession of the city; and Jehovah YOUR God will certainly give it into YOUR hands.^a 8 And it must occur that as soon as you have seized the city, you should set the city on fire.^b According to Jehovah's word you should do. See, I have commanded you."^c

9 After that Joshua sent them out and they marched to the place of ambush and took up quarters between Beth'el and A'i to the west of A'i, while Joshua kept lodging on that night in the midst of the people.

10 Then Joshua rose up early in the morning^d and reviewed the people and went up, he and the older men of Israel, before the people to A'i. 11 And all the people of war^e who were with him went up, that they might approach and get in front of the city, and they proceeded to camp to the north of A'i, with the valley between them and A'i. 12 In the meantime he took about five thousand men and set them as an ambush^f between Beth'el^g and A'i, to the west of the city. 13 So the people set the main camp that was to the north of the city^h and the extreme rear of it that was to the west of the city,ⁱ and Joshua proceeded to go during that night into the middle of the low plain.^{*}

14 And it came about that, as soon as the king of A'i saw it, then the men of the city got in a hurry and rose up early and went out to meet Israel in battle, he and all his people, at the appointed time, before the desert plain. As for him, he did not know that there was an ambush against him to the rear of the city.^j 15 When Joshua and all Israel suffered a blow before them,^k then they took to flight by the way of the wilderness.^l 16 At that all the people who were in the city were called out to chase after them, and they went chasing after Joshua and got to be drawn away from the city.^m 17 And there was not a man remaining in A'i and Beth'el^{*} that did not go out after Israel, so that they left the city wide open and went chasing after Israel.

Jos 8:13* Or, "of the valley." 17* LXX omits "and Bethel."

18 Jehovah now said to Joshua: "Stretch out the javelin* that is in your hand toward A'i,^a for into your hand I shall give it."^b Accordingly Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city. 19 And the ambush rose up quickly from its place, and they began to run at the instant that he stretched out his hand, and they proceeded to enter the city and capture it.^c Then they hurried and set the city on fire.^d

20 And the men of A'i began to turn back and look, and there the smoke of the city ascended to the heavens, and there proved to be no ability* in them to flee this way or that. And the people that were fleeing to the wilderness turned upon the pursuers. 21 And Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush^e had captured the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, and so they turned around and went striking the men of A'i down. 22 And these others came out of the city to meet them, so that they got to be in between Israel, these on this side and those on that, and they went striking them down until there did not remain of them either a survivor or an escapee.^f 23 And the king^g of A'i they caught alive and proceeded to bring him near to Joshua.

24 And it came about that while Israel was finishing the killing of all the inhabitants of A'i in the field, in the wilderness in which they had pursued them, they kept falling, all of them, by the edge of the sword until they came to their end. After that all Israel returned to A'i and struck it with the edge of the sword. 25 And all those who fell on that day, from man to woman, amounted to twelve thousand, all the people* of A'i. 26 And Joshua did not draw back his hand with which he stretched out the javelin^h until he had devoted all the inhabitants of A'i to destruction.ⁱ 27 Only the domestic animals and the spoil of that city Israel plundered for themselves, according to

Jehovah's word that he had laid in command upon Joshua.^a

28 Then Joshua burned A'i and reduced it to an indefinitely lasting mound,^b as a desolation down to this day. 29 And he hanged the king of A'i^c upon a stake until the evening time;^d and as the sun was about to set Joshua gave the command, and then they took his dead body down^e from the stake* and pitched it at the entrance of the gate of the city and raised up a great pile of stones over him, down to this day.

30 It was then that Joshua proceeded to build an altar^f to Jehovah the God of Israel, in Mount E'bal,^g 31 just as Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law^h of Moses: "An altar of whole stones, upon which no iron tool has been wielded";ⁱ and they went offering up burnt offerings upon it to Jehovah and sacrificing communion sacrifices.^j

32 Then he wrote there upon the stones a copy*^k of the law of Moses that he had written before the sons of Israel.^l 33 And all Israel and their older men^m and the officers and their judges were standing on this side and on that side of the Ark in front of the priests,ⁿ the Levites, carrying the ark of the covenant of Jehovah,^o the alien resident as well as the native,^p one half of them in front of Mount Ger'i-zim^q and the other half of them in front of Mount E'bal,^r (just as Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded),^s to bless^t the people of Israel first of all. 34 And after this he read aloud all the words of the law,^u the blessing^v and the malediction,^w according to all that is written in the book of the law. 35 There proved to be not a word of all that Moses had commanded that Joshua did not read aloud in front of all the congregation* of Israel,^x together with the women^y and the little ones^z and the alien residents^a who walked in their midst.

9 And it came about that as soon as all the kings^b who were on the side of the Jordan in the mountainous region and in the Shephe'lah* and along the whole coast of the Great Sea^c and[#] in front of Leb'a-non,^d the Hit'tites^e and the Am'orites, the Ca'naan-ites,^f the Per'iz-zites,^g the Hi'vites and the Jeb'u-sites,^h heard of it, 2 they began to assemble themselves all together to make war against Joshua and Israel unanimously.ⁱ

3 And the inhabitants of Gib'e-on^j heard what Joshua had done to Jer'i-cho^k and Ai.^l 4 So they, even of their own accord, acted with shrewdness^m and went and stocked themselves with provisions and took worn-out sacks for their asses, and wine skin-bottles worn out and burst and tied up,ⁿ 5 and worn-out and patched sandals on their feet, and worn-out garments upon themselves, and all the bread of their provisions proved to be dry and crumbly. 6 Then they went to Joshua at the camp at Gil'gal^o and said to him and the men of Israel: "It is from a distant land that we have come. And now CONCLUDE a covenant^p with us." 7 At this the men of Israel said to the Hi'vites:^q "Perhaps it is in our vicinity that you are dwelling. So how could we conclude* a covenant with you?"^r

8 In turn they said to Joshua: "We are your servants."^s

Then Joshua said to them: "Who are YOU, and where do YOU come from?" 9 At this they said to him: "It is from a very distant land^t that your servants have come in regard to the name^u of Jehovah your God, because we have heard of his fame and of all that he did in Egypt,^v 10 and of all that he did to the two kings of the Am'or-ites who were on the other side of the Jordan, namely, Si'hon^w the king of Hesh'bon and Og^x the king of Ba'shan, who was in Ash'ta-roth.^y 11 Hence our older men and all the inhabitants of our land said this to us,^a "Take provisions in YOUR hands for the journey and go to meet them, and YOU must say to them: "We are YOUR servants.^b And now conclude a covenant with us."^c 12 This bread of ours, it was hot when we took it as our provisions out of our houses on the day of our going out to come here to YOU, and now, look! it is dry and has become crumbly.^d 13 And these are the wine skin-bottles that we filled new, and, look! they have burst,^e and these garments and sandals of ours, they have worn out because of the great length of the journey."

14 Upon that the men took some of their provisions, and at the mouth of Jehovah they did not inquire.^f 15 And Joshua went making peace with them^g and concluding a covenant with them to let them live, and so the chieftains^h of the assembly swore to them.ⁱ

16 And it came about that at the end of three days, after they had concluded a covenant with them, they got to hear that they were near to them and it was in their vicinity they were dwelling. 17 Then the sons of Israel pulled out and came to their cities on the third day, and their cities were Gib'e-on^j and Che-phi'rah^k and Beer'oth^l and Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim.^m 18 And the sons of Israel did not strike them, because the chieftains of the assembly had swornⁿ to them by Jehovah the God of Israel.^o And all the assembly began to murmur against the chieftains.^p 19 At this all the chieftains said to all the assembly: "We, for our part, have sworn to them by Jehovah the God of Israel, and now we are not allowed to hurt them.^q 20 This is what we shall do to them while letting them live,* that no indignation may come upon us over the oath that we have sworn to them."^r 21 So the chieftains said to them: "Let them live and let them become gatherers* of wood and drawers of water for all the

22 Joshua now called them and spoke to them, saying: “Why did you trick us, saying, ‘We are very far away from you,’^c whereas you are dwelling in our very midst?^d 23 And now you are cursed^e people, and a slave’s position^f and being gatherers* of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God will never be cut off from you.”^g 24 Then they answered Joshua and said: “It was because your servants were plainly told that Jehovah your God had commanded Moses his servant to give you all the land and to annihilate all the inhabitants of the land from before you,^h and we became very much afraid for our souls* because of you.”ⁱ So we did this thing.^j 25 And now here we are, in your hand. Just as it is good and right in your eyes to do to us, do.”^k 26 And he proceeded to do so to them and to deliver them from the hand of the sons of Israel, and they did not kill them.^l 27 Accordingly Joshua constituted^m them* on that day gatherers of wood and drawers of water for the assemblyⁿ and for Jehovah’s altar, down to this day, at the place that he should choose.”^o

10 And it came about that as soon as A-do’ni-ze’dek the king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had captured A’i^p and then devoted it to destruction,^q that just as he had done to Jer’icho^r and its king,^s so he had done to A’i and its king,^t and that the inhabitants of Gib’e-on had made peace with Israel^u and were continuing in their midst, 2 he* became very much afraid,^v because Gib’e-on was a great city, like one of the royal cities,^w and because it was greater than A’i,^w and all its men were mighty ones. 3 Consequently A-do’ni-ze’dek the king of Jerusalem^a sent to Ho’ham the king of He’bron^b and to Pi’ram the king of Jar’muth^c and to Japhi’a the king of La’chish^d and to De’bir the king of Eg’lon,^e saying, 4 “Come up to me and help me and let us strike Gib’e-on, because it has made peace with Joshua and the sons of Israel.”^f 5 At this they gathered together and went on up, five kings of the Am’or-ites,^g the king of Jerusalem, the king of He’bron, the king of Jar’muth, the king of La’chish, the king of Eg’lon, these and all their camps, and they proceeded to camp against Gib’e-on and to war against it.

6 Upon that the men of Gib’e-on sent to Joshua at the camp at Gil’gal,^h saying: “Do not let your hand relax from your slaves.ⁱ Come up to us quickly and do save us and help us, for all the kings of the Am’or-ites inhabiting the mountainous region have collected together against us.” 7 So Joshua went on up from Gil’gal, he and all the people of war with him^j and all the valiant mighty men.^k

8 Then Jehovah said to Joshua: “Do not be afraid of them,^l for into your hand I have given them.”^m Not a man of them will stand against you.”ⁿ 9 And Joshua proceeded to come against them by surprise. All night long he had gone up from Gil’gal. 10 And Jehovah went throwing them into confusion before Israel,^o and they* began to slay them with a great slaughter at Gib’e-on^p and went pursuing them by way of the ascent of Beth-ho’ron and slaying them as far as A-ze’kah^q and Mak-ke’dah.^r 11 And it came about that while they were fleeing from before Israel and were on the descent of Beth-ho’ron, Jehovah hurled great stones^s from the heavens upon them as far as A-ze’kah, so that they died. There were more who died from the hailstones than those whom the sons of Israel killed with the sword.

12 It was then that Joshua proceeded to speak to Jehovah on the day of Jehovah's abandoning the Am'or-ites to the sons of Israel, and he went on to say before the eyes of Israel:

"Sun,^a be motionless* over Gib'e-on,^b And, moon, over the low plain of Ai'ja-lon."^c

13 Accordingly the sun kept motionless, and the moon did stand still, until the nation could take vengeance on its enemies.^d Is it not written in the book of Ja'shar?^e And the sun kept standing still in the middle of the heavens and did not hasten to set for about a whole day.^f 14 And no day has proved to be like that one, either before it or after it, in that Jehovah listened to the voice of a man,^g for Jehovah himself was fighting for Israel.^h

15 After that Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gil'gal.ⁱ

16 Meantime these five kings fled^j and went hiding themselves in the cave at Mak-ke'dah.^k 17 Then the report was made to Joshua, saying: "The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Mak-ke'dah."^l 18 At that Joshua said: "ROLL great stones up to the mouth of the cave and assign men over it to guard them. 19 As for YOU men, do not stand still. Chase after YOUR enemies, and YOU must strike them in the rear.^m Do not allow them to enter into their cities, for Jehovah YOUR God has given them into YOUR hands."ⁿ

20 And it came about that as soon as Joshua and the sons of Israel had finished slaying them with a very great slaughter, until these came to their end,^o and those who did survive of them escaped and went entering into the fortified cities,^p 21 all the people then began to return to the camp, to Joshua, at Mak-ke'dah in peace. Not a man moved his tongue eagerly against the sons of Israel.^q 22 Then Joshua said: "OPEN the mouth of the cave and bring out these five kings from the cave to me." 23 At that they did so and brought out to him from the cave these five kings, the king of Jerusalem,^a the king of He'bron,^b the king of Jar'muth, the king of La'chish,^c the king of Eg'lon.^d 24 And it came about that as soon as they had brought out these kings to Joshua, Joshua proceeded to call all the men of Israel and to say to the commanders of the men of war that had gone with him: "Come forward. Place YOUR feet on the back of the necks of these kings."^e So they came forward and placed their feet on the back of their necks.^f 25 And Joshua went on to say to them: "Do not be afraid or be terrified.^g Be courageous and strong, for it is like this that Jehovah will do to all YOUR enemies against whom YOU are warring."^h

26 And after that Joshua proceeded to strike them and put them to death and hang them upon five stakes,ⁱ and they continued hanging upon the stakes until the evening.^j 27 And it came about that at the time of the setting of the sun Joshua commanded, and they went taking them down off the stakes^k and throwing them into the cave where they had hid themselves. Then they placed big stones at the mouth of the cave—until this very day.

28 And Joshua captured Mak-ke'dah^l on that day and went striking it with the edge of the sword. As for its king, he devoted him and every soul* that was in it to destruction.^m He let no survivor remain. So he did to the king of Mak-ke'dahⁿ just as he had done to the king of Jer'i-cho.

29 Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Mak-ke'dah to Lib'nah and warred against Lib'nah.^o 30 Accordingly Jehovah gave it also and its king into Israel's hand, and they went striking it and every soul that was in it with the edge of the sword. They did not let a survivor remain in it. So they did to its king just as they had done to the king of Jer'i-cho.^p him passed on from Lib'nah to La'chish^a and went camping against it and warring upon it. 32 Accordingly Jehovah gave La'chish into Israel's hand so that they captured it on the second day, and they went striking it and every soul that was in it with the edge of the sword,^b according to all that they had done to Lib'nah.

31 Next Joshua and all Israel with

33 It was then that Ho'ram the king of Ge'zer^c went up to help La'chish. So Joshua struck him and his people until he had let not a survivor of his remain.^d

34 Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from La'chish to Eg'lon^e and went camping against it and warring against it. 35 And they got to capture it on that day and began to smite it with the edge of the sword, and they devoted every soul that was in it to destruction on that day, according to all that they had done to La'chish.^f

36 Then Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eg'lon to He'bron^g and began to war against it. 37 And they got to capture it and went striking it and its king and all its towns and every soul that was in it with the edge of the sword. He did not let a survivor remain, according to all that he had done to Eg'lon. So he devoted it and every soul that was in it to destruction.^h

38 Finally Joshua and all Israel with him came back to De'birⁱ and began to war against it. 39 And he got to capture it and its king and all its towns, and they went striking them with the edge of the sword and devoting every soul that was in it to destruction.^j He did not let a survivor remain.^k Just as he had done to He'bron, so he did to De'bir and its king, and just as he had done to Lib'nah and its king.^l

40 And Joshua proceeded to strike all the land of the mountainous region^m and the Neg'ebⁿ and the She-phe'lah^o and the slopes^p and all their kings. He did not let a survivor remain, and everything that breathed^q he devoted to

And it came about that as soon as Ja'bin the king of Ha'zor heard of it, he went sending to Jo'bab the king of Ma'don^j and to the king of Shim'ron and the king of Ach'shaph,^k 2 and to the kings that were to the north in the mountainous region and in the desert plains south of Chin'ne-reth^l and in the She-phe'lah^m and on the mountain ridges of Dorⁿ to the west, 3 the Ca'naan-ites^o to the east and the west, and the Am'or-ites^p and the Hit'tites^q and the Per'izzites^r and the Jeb'u-sites^s in the mountainous region and the Hi'vites^t at the base of Her'mon^u in the land of Miz'pah.^v 4 So they went out, they and all their camps with them, a people as numerous as the grains of sand that are on the seashore for multitude,^w and very many horses^x and war chariots. 5 Then all these kings met together by appointment and came and encamped together at the waters of Mer'om to fight against Israel.^y

6 At this Jehovah said to Joshua: "Do not be afraid because of them,^z for tomorrow about this time I am abandoning all of them slain to Israel. 10 More than that, Joshua turned about at that time^d and captured Ha'zor,^e and its king he struck down with the sword,^f because Ha'zor was before that the head of all these kingdoms. 11 And they* went striking every soul that was in it with the edge of the sword, devoting [them] to destruction.^g No breathing thing at all was left over,^h and he burned Ha'zor in the fire. 12 And all the cities of these kings and all their kings Joshua captured and went striking them with the edge of the sword.ⁱ He devoted them to destruction,^j just as Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded.^k 13 It was only all the cities standing on their own mounds that Israel did not burn, except that Joshua did burn Ha'zor by itself. 14 And all the spoil of these cities and the domestic animals the sons of Israel plundered for themselves.^l It was only all humankind that they struck with the edge of the sword until they had annihilated them.^m They did not let anyone that breathed remain.ⁿ 15 Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua,^o and so Joshua did. 24 Furthermore, Moses made a gift to the tribe of Gad, the sons of Gad by their families,^u 25 and their territory came to be Ja'zer^v and all the cities of Gil'e-ad^w and half of the land of the sons of Am'mon^x as far as A-ro'er,^y which is in front of Rab'bah;^z 26 and from Hesh'bon^a to Ra'math-miz'peh and Bet'o-nim and from Ma-ha-na'im^b to the border of De'bir;^c 27 and in the low plain Beth-ha'ram^d and Beth-nim'rah^e and Suc'coth^f and Za'phon, the rest of the royal realm of Si'hon the king of Hesh'bon,^g the Jordan being the border as far as the extremity of the sea of Chin'ne-reth^h on the side of Jordan toward the east. 28 This was the inheritance of the sons of Gadⁱ by their families, with the cities and their settlements.

32 These were what Moses caused [them] to inherit, on the desert plains of Mo'ab on the side of the Jordan, at Jer'i-cho, toward the east.^h

33 And to the tribe of the Levites Moses did not give an inheritance.ⁱ Jehovah the God of Israel is their inheritance, just as he has promised them.^j

14 Now this is what the sons of Israel took as a hereditary possession in the land of Ca'naan,^k which Ele-a'zar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel caused them to inherit.^l 2 Their inheritance was by lot,^m just as Jehovah had commanded by means of Moses for the nine tribes and the half tribe.ⁿ 3 For Moses had given the inheritance of the two other tribes and the other half tribe on the other side of the Jordan;^o and to the Levites he did not give an inheritance in their midst.^p 4 For the sons of Joseph had become two tribes,^q Manas'seh^r and E'phra-im;^s and they had not given a share in the land to the Levites, except cities^t to dwell in and their pasture grounds for their livestock and their property.^u 5 Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did; and they proceeded to apportion the land.

Mich-me'thath^c was on the north, and the boundary went around eastward to Ta'a-nath-shi'loh, and passed over eastward to Ja-no'ah. 7 And it went down from Ja-no'ah to At'a-roth and Na'a-rah and reached to Jer'i-cho^d and went out to the Jordan. 8 From Tap'pu-ah^e the boundary moved on westward to the torrent valley of Ka'nah,^f and its termination proved to be at the sea.^g This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of E'phra-im by their families. 9 And the sons of E'phra-im had enclave* cities^h in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Ma-nas'seh, all the cities and their settlements.

10 And they did not drive away the Ca'naan-itesⁱ who were dwelling in Ge'zer,^j and the Ca'naan-ites continue dwelling in among E'phra-im down to this day^k and came to be subject to slavish forced labor.^l

17 And the lot^m came to be for the tribe of Ma-nas'seh,ⁿ because he was Joseph's firstborn,^o for Ma'chir^p the firstborn of Ma-nas'seh, the father of Gil'e-ad,^q because he was one who proved to be a man of war;^r and Gil'e-ad^s and Ba'shan came to belong to him. 2 And there came to be [a lot]* for the sons of Ma-nas'seh who were left over according to their families, for the sons of Abi-e'zer^t and the sons of He'lek^u and the sons of As'riel and the sons of She'chem^v and the sons of He'pher and the sons of She-mi'da.^w These were the sons of Ma-nas'seh the son of Joseph, the males according to their families. 3 As for Ze-lo'phe-had^x the son of He'pher, the son of Gil'e-ad, the son of Ma'chir, the son of Ma-nas'seh, he proved to have, not sons, but daughters, and these were the names of his daughters: Mah'lah and Noah, Hog'lah, Mil'cah and Tir'zah.^y 4 So they presented themselves before El-e-a'zar^a the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the chieftains, saying: "Jehovah it was who commanded Moses to give us an inheritance in the midst of our brothers."^b Accordingly he gave them, at the order of Jehovah, an inheritance in the midst of the brothers of their father.^c

5 And there were ten allotments falling to Ma-nas'seh apart from the land of Gil'e-ad and Ba'shan, which were on the other side of the Jordan;^d 6 for the daughters of Ma-nas'seh came into an inheritance in the midst of his sons; and the land of Gil'e-ad became the property of the sons of Ma-nas'seh who were left over.

7 And the boundary of Ma-nas'seh came to be from Ash'er to Mich-me'thath,^e which is in front of She'chem,^f and the boundary moved to the right to the inhabitants of En-Tap'pu-ah. 8 The land of Tap'pu-ah^g became Ma-nas'seh's, but Tap'pu-ah at the boundary of Ma-nas'seh belonged to the sons of E'phra-im. 9 And the boundary went down to the torrent valley of Ka'nah, southward to the torrent valley of these cities^h of E'phra-im in the midst of the cities of Ma-nas'seh, and the boundary of Ma-nas'seh was on the north of the torrent valley, and its termination came to be at the sea.ⁱ 10 To the south it was E'phra-im's and to the north, Ma-nas'seh's, and the sea came to be his* boundary;^j and on the north they reach to Ash'er and on the east, to Is'sa-char.

11 And there came to belong to Ma-nas'seh^k in Is'sa-char and in Ash'er Beth-she'an^l and its dependent towns and Ib'le-am^m and its dependent towns and the inhabitants of Dorⁿ and its dependent towns and the inhabitants of En-dor^o and its dependent towns and the inhabitants of Ta'a-nach^p and its dependent towns and the inhabitants of Megid'do^q and its dependent towns, three of the heights.

12 And the sons of Ma-nas'seh did not prove able to take possession of these cities,^r but the Ca'naan-ites persisted in dwelling in this land.^s 13 And it turned out that when the sons of Israel had grown strong,^a they went putting the Ca'naan-ites at forced labor,^b and they did not dispossess them entirely.^c

14 And the sons of Joseph proceeded to speak with Joshua, saying: "Why is it that you have given me as an inheritance one lot^d and one allotment, whereas I am a numerous people for the reason that Jehovah has blessed me until now?"^e 15 At this Joshua said to them: "If you are a numerous people, go your way up to the forest, and you must cut it down for yourself there in the land of the Per'iz-zites^f and the Reph'-aim,^g because the mountainous region^h of E'phra-im has become too narrow for you." 16 Then the sons of Joseph said: "The mountainous region is not enough for us, and there are war chariotsⁱ with iron scythes among all the Ca'naan-ites dwelling in the land of the low plain, both those who are in Beth-she'an^j and its dependent towns and those who are in the low plain of Jez're-el."^k 17 So Joshua said this to the house of Joseph, to E'phra-im and Ma-nas'seh: "A numerous people you are, and great power is yours.^l You ought not to get one lot,^m 18 but the mountainous region should become yours.ⁿ Because it is a forest, you must cut it down, and it must become the termination point for you. For you should drive away the Ca'naan-ites, although they have war chariots with iron scythes* and they are strong."^o

18 Then all the assembly of the sons of Israel were congregated at Shi'loh,^p and they proceeded to locate the tent of meeting there,^q as the land was now subdued before them.^r 2 But there were still left among the sons of Israel those whose inheritance they had not apportioned out, namely, seven tribes. 3 So Joshua said to the sons of Israel: "How long are you going to be delinquent about going in to take possession of the land^s that Jehovah the God of YOUR forefathers has given you?"^t 4 Furnish for yourselves three men of each tribe and let me send them out, that they may get up and walk about in the land and map it out in accord with their inheritance, and let them come to me.^a 5 And they must apportion it among themselves into seven shares.^b Judah will keep standing on his territory to the south,^c and the house of Joseph will keep standing on their territory to the north.^d 6 As for YOU people, YOU will map out the land into seven shares, and YOU must bring them here to me, and I must cast lots^e here for YOU before Jehovah our God. 7 For the Levites have no share in among YOU,^f because the priesthood of Jehovah is their inheritance;^g and Gad and Reu'ben^h and the half tribe of Ma-nas'sehⁱ have taken their inheritance on the side of the Jordan toward the east, which Moses the servant of Jehovah has given them."^j

8 So the men got up that they might go, and Joshua proceeded to command^k those who were going to map out the land, saying: "Go and walk about in the land and map it out and return to me, and here is where I shall draw lots^l for you before Jehovah in Shi'loh."^m 9 With that the men went and passed through the land and mappedⁿ it out by cities in seven shares, in a book. After that they came to Joshua at the camp in Shi'loh, 10 and Joshua went drawing lots for them in Shi'loh before Jehovah.^o Thus Joshua there apportioned the land to the sons of Israel in their shares.^p

11 Then the lot^q came up of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin^r by their families, and the territory of their lot went out between the sons of Judah^s and the sons of Joseph.^t 12 And their boundary came to be at the northern corner from the Jordan, and the boundary went up to the slope of Jer'i-cho^u on the north and went up on the mountain westward, and its termination proved to be at the wilderness of Beth-a'ven.^v 13 And the boundary passed over from there to Luz,^w at the southern slope of Luz, that is to say, Beth'el,^x and the boundary went down to At'a-roth-ad'dar^a upon the mountain that is on the south of Lower Beth-ho'ron.^b 14 And the boundary was marked out and went around at the western side to the south from the mountain that faces Beth-ho'ron to the south; and its termination proved to be at Kir'i-ath-ba'al, that is to say, Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim,^c a city of the sons of Judah. This is the western side.

15 And the side to the south was from the extremity of Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim, and the boundary went out westward and went out to the spring of the waters of Neph-to'ah.^d 16 And the boundary went down to the extremity of the mountain that faces the valley of the son of Hin'nom,^e which is in the low plain of Reph'a-im^f to the north, and it went down to the valley of Hin'nom,^{*} to the slope of the Jeb'u-site^g on the south, and went down to En-ro'gel.^h 17 And it was marked out northward and went out to En-she'mesh and went out to Geli'loth, which is in front of the ascent of A-dum'mim;ⁱ and it went down to the stone^j of Bo'han^k the son of Reu'ben. 18 And it passed over to the northern slope in front of the Ar'a-bah and went down to the Ar'a-bah. 19 And the boundary passed over to the northern slope of Beth-hog'lah,^l and the termination of it (the border) proved to be at the northern bay of the Salt Sea^m at the southern end of the Jordan. This was the southern boundary. 20 And the Jordan served as its boundary on the eastern side. This was the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin by their families, by its boundaries all around.

21 And the cities of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin by their families proved to be Jer'i-choⁿ and Beth-hog'lah and E'mek-ke'ziz, 22 and Beth-ar'a-bah^o and Zem-a-ra'im and Beth'el,^p 23 and Av'vim and Pa'rah and Oph'rah,^q 24 and Che'phar-am'mo-ni and Oph'ni and Ge'ba;^r twelve cities and their settlements.

32 It was for the sons of Naph'tali^e that the sixth lot^f came out, for the sons of Naph'tali by their families. 33 And their boundary came to be from He'leph, from the big tree in Za-a-nan'-nim,^g and Ad'a-mi-ne'keb and Jab'ne-el as far as Lak'kum; and its terminations came to be at the Jordan. 34 And the boundary went back westward to Az'-noth-ta'bor and went out from there to Huk'kok and reached to Zeb'u-lun^h on the south, and to Ash'erⁱ it reached on the west and to Judah^j at the Jordan* toward the rising of the sun. 35 And the fortified cities were Zid'dim, Zer and Ham'math,^k Rak'kath and Chin'ne-reth,^l 36 and Ad'a-mah and Ra'mah and Ha'-zor,^m 37 and Ke'deshⁿ and Ed're-i and En-ha'zor, 38 and Yi'ron and Mig'dal-el, Ho'rem and Beth-a'nath and Beth-she'mesh;^o nineteen cities and their settlements. 39 This was the inheritance^p of the tribe of the sons of Naph'tali by their families,^q the cities and their settlements.

40 It was for the tribe of the sons of Dan^r by their families that the seventh lot^s came out. 41 And the border of their inheritance came to be Zo'rah^t and Esh'ta-ol and Ir-she'mesh, 42 and Sha-al-ab'bin^u and Ai'ja-lon^v and Ith'lah, 43 and E'lon and Tim'nah^w and Ek'ron,^x 44 and El'te-keh and Gib'be-thon^y and Ba'al-ath,^z 45 and Je'hud^a and Ben'e-be'arak and Gath-rim'mon,^b 46 and Me-jar'kon and Rak'kon, with the border in front of Jop'pa.^c 47 And the territory of the sons of Dan was too cramped^d for them.* And the sons of Dan proceeded to go up and war against Le'shem^a and to capture it and strike it with the edge of the sword. Then they took possession of it and went dwelling in it, and they began to call Le'shem Dan, according to the name of Dan their forefather.^b 48 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Dan by their families. These were the cities and their settlements.

49 Thus they finished dividing the land for a possession by its territories. Then the sons of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun in their midst. 50 At the order of Jehovah they gave him the city for which he asked,^c namely, Tim'nath-se'rah,^d in the mountainous region of E'phra-im; and he began to build up the city and dwell in it.

51 These were the inheritances that El-e-a'zar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel distributed^e as a possession by lot in Shi'loh^f before Jehovah, at the entrance of the tent of meeting.^g So they left off from apportioning the land.

20 Then Jehovah spoke to Joshua, saying: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'Give for yourselves the cities of refuge^h of which I spoke to you by means of Moses, 3 for the manslayerⁱ who fatally strikes a soul unintentionally without knowing it to flee there; and they must serve you as a refuge from the avenger^j of blood.' 4 And he must flee^k to one of these cities and stand at the entrance of the gate^l of the city and speak his words in the hearing of the older men^m of that city; and they must receive him into the city to themselves and give him a place and he must dwell with them. 5 And in case the avenger of blood chases after him, then they should not surrender the manslayer into his hand;ⁿ for it was without knowing it that he struck his fellowman fatally, and he was not hating him formerly.^o 6 And he must dwell in that city until his standing before the assembly for judgment,^a until the death of the high priest^b who happens to be in those days. It is then that the manslayer may return,^c and he must enter into his city and into his house, into the city from which he had fled.^d"

7 Accordingly they gave a sacred status to Ke'desh^e in Gal'i-lee^f in the mountainous region of Naph'ta-li, and She'chem^g in the mountainous region of E'phra-im, and Kir'i-ath-ar'ba,^h that is to say, He'bron, in the mountainous region of Judah. 8 And in the region of the Jordan, at Jer'i-cho, toward the east they gave Be'zerⁱ in the wilderness on the tableland out of the tribe of Reu'-ben,^j and Ra'moth^k in Gil'e-ad out of the tribe of Gad, and Go'lan^l in Ba'shan out of the tribe of Ma-nas'seh.

9 These became the cities appointed for all the sons of Israel and for the alien resident who resides as an alien in their midst, for anyone to flee there who fatally strikes a soul unintentionally,^k that he may not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until his standing before the assembly.^l

21 The heads of the fathers of the Levites now approached El-e-a'zar^m the priest and Joshuaⁿ the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel, 2 and they proceeded to speak to them in Shi'loh^o in the land of Ca'naan, saying: "Jehovah by means of Moses commanded cities to be given us in which to dwell, together with their pasture grounds for our domestic animals."^p 3 So the sons of Israel gave the Levites,^q at the order of Jehovah, these cities and their pasture grounds out of their inheritance.^r

4 Then the lot came out for the families of the Ko'hath-ites,^s and thirteen cities came to belong to the sons of Aaron the priest, of the Levites, by lot, out of the tribe of Judah^t and out of the tribe of the Sim'e-on-ites^a and out of the tribe of Benjamin.^b

5 And for the sons of Ko'hath^c that were left over there were by lot ten cities out of the families of the tribe^d of E'phra-im^d and out of the tribe of Dan^e and out of the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh.^f

6 And for the sons of Ger'shon^g there were by lot thirteen cities out of the families of the tribe of Is'sa-char^h and out of the tribe of Ash'erⁱ and out of the tribe of Naph'ta-li^j and out of the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh in Ba'shan.^k

7 For the sons of Me-rar'i^l by their families there were twelve cities out of the tribe of Reu'ben^m and out of the tribe of Gadⁿ and out of the tribe of Zeb'u-lun.^o

8 Thus the sons of Israel gave the Levites these cities and their pasture grounds^p by lot,^q just as Jehovah had commanded by means of Moses.^r

9 So out of the tribe of the sons of Judah and out of the tribe of the sons of Sim'e-on they gave these cities that were called by name,^s 10 and they came to belong to the sons of Aaron out of the families of the Ko'hath-ites of the sons of Le'vi, because the first lot became theirs.^t 11 Thus they gave them Kir'i-ath-ar'ba^u ([said Ar'ba being] the father of A'nak),^v that is to say, He'-bron,^w in the mountainous region of Judah,^x and its pasture ground all around it; 12 and the field of the city and its settlements they gave to Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh as his possession.^y

13 And to the sons of Aaron the priest they gave the city of refuge^z for the manslayer,^a namely, He'bron,^b and its pasture ground, also Lib'nah^c and its pasture ground, 14 and Jat'tir^d and its pasture ground, and Esh-te-mo'a^e and its pasture ground, 15 and Ho'lon^f and its pasture ground, and De'bir^g and its pasture ground, 16 and A'in^h and its pasture ground, and Jut'tahⁱ and its pasture ground, Beth-she'mesh^j and its pasture ground; nine cities out of these two tribes.

43 So Jehovah gave Israel all the land that he had sworn to give to their forefathers,^a and they proceeded to take possession^b of it and to dwell in it. 44 Furthermore, Jehovah gave them rest^c all around, according to everything that he had sworn^d to their forefathers, and not one of all their enemies stood before them.^e All their enemies Jehovah gave into their hand.^f 45 Not a promise failed out of all the good promise that Jehovah had made to the house of Israel; it all came true.^g

22 At that time Joshua proceeded to call the Reu'ben-ites and the Gad'ites and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh^h 2 and to say to them: "For YOUR part, you have kept all that Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you,ⁱ and you were obedient to my voice in all that I have commanded you.^j 3 You have not left YOUR brothers these many days^k down to this day, and you have kept the obligation of the commandment of Jehovah YOUR God.^l 4 And now Jehovah YOUR God has given YOUR brothers rest, just as he promised them.^m So now turn and go YOUR way to YOUR tents in the land of YOUR possession, which Moses the servant of Jehovah gave you on the other side of the Jordan.ⁿ 5 Only be very careful to carry out the commandment^o and the law that Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you by loving Jehovah YOUR God^p and by walking in all his ways^q and by keeping his commandments^r and by cleaving to him^s and by serving^t him with all YOUR heart^u and with all YOUR soul."^v

6 With that Joshua blessed^w them and sent them away that they might go to their tents.* 7 And to the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh Moses had made a gift in Ba'shan,^x and to the other half of it Joshua made a gift with their brothers on the side of the Jordan to the west.^y So, too, when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he proceeded to bless them.

9 After that the sons of Reu'ben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Manas'seh returned and went away from the other sons of Israel, from Shi'loh, which is in the land of Ca'naan, so as to go to the land of Gil'e-ad,^c to the land of their possession in which they had been settled at the order of Jehovah by means of Moses.^d 10 When they came to the regions of the Jordan that were in the land of Ca'naan, then the sons of Reu'ben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Manas'seh built there an altar by the Jordan, an altar^e great in conspicuousness. 11 Later on the other sons of Israel heard^f it said: "Look! 13 Then the sons of Israel sent^j to the sons of Reu'ben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Manas'seh in the land of Gil'e-ad Phin'e-has^k the son of El-e-a'zar the priest, 14 and ten chieftains with him, one chieftain of each paternal house of all the tribes of Israel, and they were each a head of the house of their fathers of the thousands of Israel.^l 15 In time they came to the sons of Reu'ben and the sons of Gad and the half tribe of Manas'seh in the land of Gil'e-ad and began to speak with them,^m saying:

8 Furthermore, the sons of Judah carried on war against Jerusalem^c and got to capture it, and they went striking it with the edge of the sword, and the city they consigned to the fire. 9 And afterward the sons of Judah went down to fight against the Ca'naan-ites inhabiting the mountainous region and the Neg'eb^d and the She-phe'lah.^e 10 So Judah marched against the Ca'naan-ites who were dwelling in He'bron^f (now the name of He'bron before that was Kir'i-ath-ar'ba),^g and they went striking down She'shai and A-hi'man and Tal'mai.^h

11 And they marched on from there against the inhabitants of De'bir.ⁱ (Now the name of De'bir before that was Kir'i-ath-se'pher.)^j 12 Then Ca'leb^k said: "Whoever strikes Kir'i-ath-se'pher and does capture it, why, I will give him Ach'sah^l my daughter as a wife."^m 13 And Oth'ni-elⁿ the son of Ke'naz,^o Ca'leb's younger brother,^p got to capture it. For that he gave him Ach'sah his daughter as a wife.^q 14 And it came about that while she was going home, she kept inciting him to ask a field from her father. Then she clapped her hands while upon the ass.^r At this Ca'leb said to her: "What do you want?" 15 So she said to him: "Do grant me a blessing,^s for it is a southern piece of land you have given me, and you must give me Gul'loth-ma'im."^t Accordingly Ca'leb gave her Upper Gul'loth^u and Lower Gul'loth.^v

16 And the sons of the Ken'ite,^w whose son-in-law Moses was,^x came up out of the city of palm trees^y with the sons of Judah to the wilderness of Judah, which is to the south of A'rad.^z Then they went and took up dwelling with the people.^{aa} 17 But Judah marched on with Sim'e-on his brother, and they proceeded to strike the Ca'naan-ites inhabiting Ze'phath and to devote it to destruction.^{ab} Hence the name of the city was called Hor'mah.^{aa} 18 After that Judah captured Ga'za^b and its territory and Ash'ke-lon^c and its territory and Ek'ron^d and its territory. 19 And Jehovah continued with Judah, so that he took possession of the mountainous region, but he could not dispossess the inhabitants of the low plain, because they had war chariots^e with iron scythes.^f 20 When they gave Ca'leb He'bron, just as Moses had promised,^g then he drove out from there the three sons of A'nak.^h

21 And the sons of Benjamin did not drive out the Jeb'u-sites inhabiting Jerusalem;ⁱ but the Jeb'u-sites keep on dwelling with the sons of Benjamin in Jerusalem down to this day.^j

22 Meantime the house of Joseph^k itself also went up against Beth'el,^l and Jehovah was with them.^m 23 And the house of Joseph began to spyⁿ on Beth'el (incidentally, the name of the city before that was Luz),^o 24 and the watchers got to see a man going out of the city. So they said to him: "Show us, please, the way to get into the city, and we shall certainly exercise kindness toward you."^p 25 Accordingly the man showed them the way to get into the city; and they went striking the city with the edge of the sword,^q but the man and all his family they let go.^r 26 Upon that the man went to the land of the Hit'tites^s and built a city and called its name Luz. That is its name down to this day.

27 And Manas'sheh^t did not take possession of Beth-she'an^u and its dependent towns and Ta'a-nach^v and its dependent towns* and the inhabitants of Dor^w and its dependent towns and the inhabitants of Ib'le-am^x and its dependent towns and the inhabitants of Megid'do^y and its dependent towns, but the Ca'naan-ites persisted in dwelling in this land.^z 28 And it came about that Is-

29 Neither did E'phra-im drive out the Ca'naan-ites who were dwelling in Ge'zer, but the Ca'naan-ites continued to dwell in among them in Ge'zer.^d

30 Zeb'u-lun^e did not drive out the inhabitants of Kit'ron and the inhabitants of Na'ha-lol,^f but the Ca'naan-ites continued to dwell in among them^g and came to be subject to forced labor.^h

31 Ash'er-i did not drive out the inhabitants of Ac'co* and the inhabitants of Si'donⁱ and Ah'lab and Ach'zib^k and Hel'bah and A'phik^l and Re'hob.^m 32 And the Ash'er-ites continued to dwell in among the Ca'naan-ites inhabiting the land, because they did not drive them out.ⁿ

33 Naph'ta-li^o did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth-she'mesh, and the inhabitants of Beth-a'nath,^p but they continued to dwell in among the Ca'naan-ites inhabiting the land;^q and the inhabitants of Beth-she'mesh and of Beth-a'nath became theirs for forced labor.^r

34 And the Am'or-ites kept pressing the sons of Dan^s into the mountainous region, for they did not allow them to come down into the low plain.^t 35 So the Am'or-ites persisted in dwelling in Mount He'res and in Ai'ja-lon^u and Shal'bim.^v But the hand of the house of Joseph got to be so heavy that they were forced into task work.^w 36 And the territory of the Am'or-ites was from the ascent of A-krab'bim,^x from Se'la* upward.

have not listened to my voice.^a Why have YOU done this?^b 3 So I, in turn, have said, 'I shall not drive them away from before YOU, and they must become snares to YOU,^c and their gods will serve as a lure to YOU.'^d

4 And it came about that as soon as Jehovah's angel had spoken these words to all the sons of Israel, the people began to raise their voices and weep.^e 5 Hence they called the name of that place Bo'chim.* And they proceeded to sacrifice there to Jehovah.

6 When Joshua sent the people away, then the sons of Israel went their way, each to his inheritance, to take possession of the land.^f 7 And the people continued to serve Jehovah all the days of Joshua and all the days of the older men* who extended their days after Joshua^g and who had seen all of Jehovah's great work that he did for Israel.^h 8 Then Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Jehovah, died at the age of a hundred and ten years.ⁱ 9 So they buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Tim'nath-he'res*^j in the mountainous region of E'phra-im, on the north of Mount Ga'ash.^j 10 And all that generation too were gathered to their fathers,^k and another generation began to rise after them that did not know Jehovah or the work that he had done for Israel.^l

11 And the sons of Israel fell to doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah^m and serving* the Ba'als.ⁿ 12 Thus they abandoned Jehovah the God of their fathers who had brought them out of the land of Egypt^o and went following other gods from among the gods of the peoples who were all around them^p and they began bowing down to 17 And even to their judges they did not listen, but they had immoral intercourse*^l with other gods^m and went bowing down to them. They quickly turned aside from the way in which their forefathers had walked by obeying the commandments of Jehovah.ⁿ They did not do like that. 18 And when Jehovah did raise up judges^o for them, Jehovah proved to be with the judge, and he saved them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for Jehovah would feel regret^p over their groaning because of their oppressors^q and those who were shoving them around.

19 And it occurred that when the judge died they would turn around and act more ruinously than their fathers by walking after other gods to serve them and bow down to them.^r They did not refrain from their practices and their stubborn behavior.^s 20 Finally Jehovah's anger blazed^t against Israel and he said: "For the reason that this nation have overstepped my covenant^u that I commanded their forefathers and have

3 Now these are the nations* that Jehovah let stay so as by them to test^f Israel, that is, all those who had not experienced any of the wars of Ca'naan;^g 2 it was only in order for the generations of the sons of Israel to have the experience, so as to teach them war, that is, only those who before that had not experienced such things: 3 The five axis lords*^h of the Phi-lis'tines,ⁱ and all the Ca'naan-ites,^j even the Si-do-nians^k and the Hi'vites^l inhabiting Mount Leb'a-non^m from Mount Ba'al-her'monⁿ as far as to the entering in of Ha'math.^o 4 And they kept serving as agents to test^p Israel so as to know whether they would obey Jehovah's commandments that he had commanded their fathers by means of Moses.^q 5 And the sons of Israel dwelt in among the Ca'naan-ites,^r the Hi't'tites and the Am'or-ites and the Per'iz-zites and the Hi'vites and the Jeb'u-sites.^s 6 And they proceeded to take their daughters as wives for themselves,^t and their own daughters they gave to their sons,^u and they took up serving their gods.^v

7 So the sons of Israel did what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, and they were forgetful of Jehovah their God^w and went serving the Ba'als^x and the sacred poles.^y 8 At this Jehovah's anger blazed against Israel,^z so that he sold^a them into the hand of Cu'shan-

So they said: "He is just easing nature*^e in the cool interior room." 25 And they kept waiting until they were ashamed, and, look! there was no one opening the doors of the roof chamber. At this they took the key and opened them, and, look! their lord* was fallen to the earth dead!

26 As for E'hud, he escaped while they were lingering, and he himself passed by the quarries^f and made his escape to Se'i'rah. 27 And it came about that when he got there he began blowing the horn*^g in the mountainous region of E'phraim;^h and the sons of Israel began going down with him out of the mountainous region, he being at their head. 28 Then he said to them: "Follow me,^a because Jehovah has given YOUR enemies, the Mo'ab-ites, into YOUR hand."^b And they went following him and got to capture the fords^c of the Jordan against the Mo'ab-ites, and they did not allow anybody to pass over. 29 And at that time they went striking down Mo'ab, about ten thousand men,^d every one robust^e and every one a valiant man; and not a single one escaped.^f 30 And Mo'ab came to be subdued on that day under Israel's hand; and the land had no further disturbance for eighty years.^g

31 And after him there proved to be Shamgar^h the son of A'nath, and he went striking down the Phi-lis'tines,ⁱ six hundred men, with a cattle goad; and he too got to save Israel.^j

4 Then the sons of Israel again began to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes now that E'hud was dead.^k 2 So Jehovah sold^l them into the hand of Ja'-bin the king of Ca'naan, who reigned in Ha'zor;^m and the chiefⁿ of his army was Sis'e-ra,^o and he was dwelling in Ha-ro'sheth^p of the nations.^q 3 And the sons of Israel began to cry out to Jehovah,^r because he had nine hundred war chariots with iron scythes,^s and he himself oppressed the sons of Israel^t with harshness twenty years.

4 Now Deb'o-rah,^u a prophetess,^v the wife of Lap'pidoth, was judging Israel at that particular time. 5 And she was dwelling under Deb'o-rah's palm tree between Ra'mah^w and Beth'el^x in the mountainous region of E'phra-im; and the sons of Israel would go up to her for judgment. 6 And she proceeded to send and call Ba'arak^y the son of A-bin'o-am out of Ke'desh-naph'tali^z and to say to him: "Has not Jehovah the God of Israel given the command? Naph'ta-li^a and out of the sons of Zeb'u-lun.^b 7 And I shall certainly draw to you^c at the torrent valley of Ki'shon^d Sis'e-ra^e the chief of Ja'bin's^f army and his war chariots and his crowd, and I shall indeed give him into your hand."^g

8 At this Ba'arak said to her: "If you will go with me, I also shall certainly go; but if you will not go with me, I shall not go." 9 To this she said: "Without fail I shall go with you. Just the same, the beautifying thing will not become yours on the way that you are going, for it will be into the hand of a woman^h that Jehovah will sellⁱ Sis'e-ra." With that Deb'o-rah got up and went with Ba'arak to Ke'desh.^j 10 And Ba'arak began to call Zeb'u-lun^k and Naph'ta-li together to Ke'desh, and ten thousand men went on up following his steps;^k and Deb'o-rah went on up with him.

11 Incidentally He'ber^l the Ken'ite had separated from the Ken'ites,^m the sons of Ho'bab, whose son-in-law Moses was,ⁿ and he had his tent pitched near the big tree in Za-a-nan'im, which is at Ke'desh.

12 Then they reported to Sis'e-ra that Ba'arak the son of A-bin'o-am^o had gone up to Mount Ta'bor.^p 13 At once Sis'e-ra called together all his war chariots, the nine hundred war chariots with iron scythes,^q and all the people that were with him, out of Ha-ro'sheth of the nations to the torrent valley of Ki'shon.^r

14 Deb'o-rah now said to Ba'arak: "Get up, for this is the day that Jehovah will certainly give Sis'e-ra into your hand. Is it not Jehovah that has gone out before you?"^s And Ba'arak went descending from Mount Ta'bor with ten thousand men behind him. 15 And Jehovah began to throw Sis'e-ra and all his war chariots and all the camp into confusion^t by the edge of the sword before Ba'arak. Finally Sis'e-ra got down off the chariot and took to flight on foot. 16 And Ba'arak chased after^u the war chariots^a and the camp as far as Haro'sheth of the nations, so that all the camp of Sis'e-ra fell by the edge of the sword. Not as much as one remained.^b

17 As for Sis'e-ra,^c he fled on foot to the tent of Ja'el^d the wife of He'ber the Ken'ite,^e for there was peace between Ja'bin the king of Ha'zor^f and the household of He'ber the Ken'ite. 18 Then Ja'el came on out to meet Sis'e-ra and said to him: "Turn this way, my lord, turn this way to me. Do not be afraid." So he turned aside to her into the tent. Later she covered him with a blanket. 19 In time he said to her: "Give me, please, a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." Accordingly she opened a skin bottle^g of milk and gave him a drink,^h after which she covered him. 20 And he went on to say to her: "Stand at the entrance of the tent, and it must occur that if anybody comes and does ask you and says, 'Is there a man here?' you must then say, 'No!'"

21 And Ja'el the wife of He'ber proceeded to take a pin of the tent and to put the hammer into her hand. Then she went to him stealthily and drove the pin into his templesⁱ and beat it into the earth, while he was fast asleep* and weary. So he died.^j

22 And, look! there was Ba'rak pursuing Sis'e-ra. Ja'el now came on out to meet him and said to him: "Come and I shall show you the man you are looking for." So in he went to her, and, look! there was Sis'e-ra fallen dead, with the pin in his temples.

23 Thus God subdued^k Ja'bin the king of Ca'naan before the sons of Israel on that day. 24 And the hand of the sons of Israel went on getting harder and harder against Ja'bin the king of Ca'naan,^l until they had cut off Ja'bin the king^m of Ca'naan.

5 And on that day Deb'o-rahⁿ along with Ba'rak^o the son of A-bin'o-am^p broke out in song,^q saying:

They would come as numerous as the locusts,^b and they and their camels were without number;^c and they would come into the land to ruin it.^d 6 And Israel became greatly impoverished due to Mid'i-an; and the sons of Israel began to call to Jehovah for aid.^e

7 And it came about that because the sons of Israel called to Jehovah for aid on account of Mid'i-an,^f 8 Jehovah proceeded to send a man, a prophet,^g to the sons of Israel and to say to them: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'It was I who brought you up from Egypt^h and thus brought you out of the house of slaves.'ⁱ 9 So I delivered you out of the hand of Egypt and out of the hand of all your oppressors and drove them out from before you and gave you their land.^j 10 Furthermore, I said to you: "I am Jehovah YOUR God.^k YOU must not fear the gods of the Am'or-ites^l in whose land you are dwelling."^m And you did not listen to my voice."ⁿ

16 But Jehovah said to him: "Because I shall prove to be with you,^f and you will certainly strike down Mid'i-an^g as if one man."

17 At this he said to him: "If, now, I have found favor in your eyes,^h you must also perform a sign for me that you are the one speaking with me.ⁱ

18 Do not, please, move away from here until I come to you^j and I have brought out my gift and set it before you."^k Accordingly he said: "I, for my part, shall keep sitting here until you return." 19 And Gid'e-on went in and proceeded to make ready a kid of the goats^l and an e'phah* of flour as unfermented cakes.^m The meat he put in the basket, and the broth he put in the cooking pot, after which he brought it out to him under the big tree and served it.

20 The angel of the [true] God* now said to him: "Take the meat and the unfermented cakes and set them on the big rock there,ⁿ and pour out the broth." At that he did so. 21 Then Jehovah's angel thrust out the tip of the staff that was in his hand and touched the meat and the unfermented cakes, and fire began to ascend out of the rock and to consume the meat and the unfermented cakes.^o As for Jehovah's angel, he vanished from his sight. 22 Consequently Gid'e-on realized that it was Jehovah's angel.^p face!"^a 23 But Jehovah said to him: "Peace be yours.^b Do not fear.^c You will not die."^d 24 So Gid'e-on built an altar^e there to Jehovah, and it continues to be called^f Je-ho'vah-sha'lom^g down to this day. It is yet in Oph'rah^h of the Abi-ez'rites.

25 And it came about during that night that Jehovah went on to say to him: "Take the young bull, the bull that belongs to your father, that is, the second young bull of seven years, and you must tear down the altar of Ba'al^h that is your father's, and the sacred pole* that is by it you should cut down.ⁱ 26 And you must build an altar to Jehovah your God at the head of this stronghold, with the row of stones, and you must take the second young bull and offer it up as a burnt offering on the pieces of wood of the sacred pole that you will cut down." 27 Accordingly Gid'e-on took ten men of his servants and went doing just as Jehovah had spoken to him;^j but it came about that, as he feared the household of his father and the men of the city too much to do it by day, he went doing it by night.^k

28 When the men of the city got up early in the morning as usual, why, look! the altar of Ba'al had been pulled down and the sacred pole^l that was beside it had been cut down, and the second young bull had been offered up on the altar that had been built. 29 And they began to say one to another: "Who has done this thing?" And they went inquiring and seeking. Finally they said: "Gid'e-on the son of Jo'ash is the one that has done this thing." 30 So the men of the city said to Jo'ash: "Bring your son out that he may die,^m because he has pulled down the altar of Ba'al, and because he has cut down the sacred pole that was by it." 31 At this Jo'ashⁿ said to all those who stood against him:^o "Will you be the ones to make a legal defense for Ba'al to see whether you yourselves may save him? Whoever makes a legal defense for him ought to be put to death even this morning.^a If he is God,^b let him make a legal defense for himself,^c because someone has pulled down his altar.” 32 And he began to call him Jer-ub-ba'al^d on that day, saying: “Let Ba'al make a legal defense in his own behalf, because someone has pulled down his altar.”^e

33 And all Mid'i-an^f and Am'a-lek^g and the Easterners^h gathered together as oneⁱ and proceeded to cross over and camp in the low plain of Jez'-re-el.^j 34 And Jehovah's spirit^k enveloped* Gid'e-on so that he went blowing the horn,^l and the Abi-ez'rites^{am} got to be called together after him. 35 And he sent out messengersⁿ through all of Ma-nas'seh, and they too got to be called together after him. He also sent out messengers through Ash'er and Zeb'u-lun and Naph'ta-li, and they came on up to meet him.*

36 Then Gid'e-on said to the [true] God: “If you are saving Israel by means of me, just as you have promised,^o 37 here I am keeping a fleece of wool exposed on the threshing floor. If dew comes to be on the fleece alone but on all the earth there is dryness, then I must know that you will save Israel by means of me, just as you have promised.” 38 And it turned out to be that way. When he rose up early the next day and wrung the fleece, he got to drain off enough dew from the fleece to fill a large banquet bowl with water. 39 However, Gid'e-on said to the [true] God: “Do not let your anger blaze against me, but let me speak just once more. Let me, please, make a test only once more with the fleece. Let, please, dryness occur to the fleece alone, and upon all the earth let there come to be dew.” 40 So God did that way on that night; and dryness came to be on the fleece alone, and upon all the earth dew occurred.

7 Then Jer-ub-ba'al,^a that is to say, Gid'e-on,^b and all the people who were with him, rose early and took up camping at the well of Ha'rod,^c and the camp of Mid'i-an happened to be on the north of him, at the hill of Mo'reh, in the low plain. 2 Jehovah now said to Gid'e-on: “The people who are with you are too many for me to give Mid'i-an into their hand.^c Perhaps Israel would brag^d about itself against me, saying, ‘My hand it was that saved me.’^e 3 And now call out, please, in the hearing of the people, saying, ‘Who is there afraid and trembling? Let him retire.’”^f So Gid'e-on put them to the proof.* With that, twenty-two thousand of the people retired, and there were ten thousand that remained.

4 Still Jehovah said to Gid'e-on: “There are yet too many people.^g Have them go down to the water that I may put them to the proof for you there. And it must occur that of whomever I say to you, ‘This one will go with you,’ he is one that will go with you, but every one of whom I say to you, ‘This one will not go along with you,’ he is one that will not go along.” 5 So he had the people go down to the water.^h

Then Jehovah said to Gid'e-on: “Every one that laps up some of the water with his tongue just as a dog laps, you will set him by himself, also every one that bends down upon his knees to drink.”ⁱ 6 And the number of those lapping with their hand to their mouth turned out to be three hundred men. As for all the rest of the people, they bent down upon their knees to drink water.

7 Jehovah now said to Gid'e-on: “By the three hundred men who did the lapping I shall save you people, and I will give Mid'i-an into your hand.^j As for all the other people, let them go each one to his place.” 8 So they took the provisions of the people in their hand,* and their horns,^k and all the men of Israel

he sent away each one to his home;* and he kept hold of the three hundred men. As for the camp of Mid'ian, it happened to be down below him in the low plain.^a

9 And it came about during that night^b that Jehovah proceeded to say to him: "Rise up, descend upon the camp, for I have given it into your hand."^c

10 But if you are afraid to descend, descend, you with Pu'rah your attendant,* to the camp.^d 11 And you must listen to what they will speak,^e and afterward your hands will certainly grow strong,^f and you will be certain to descend upon the camp." At that he and Pu'rah his attendant made their descent to the edge of those in battle formation who were in the camp.

12 Now Mid'ian and Am'a-lek and all the Easterners^g were plumped in the low plain as numerous as locusts;^h and their camelsⁱ were without number, as numerous as the grains of sand that are on the seashore. 13 Gid'e-on now came, and, look! there was a man relating a dream to his companion, and he went on to say: "Here is a dream that I have dreamed.^j And, look! there was a round cake of barley bread turning over and over into the camp of Mid'ian. Then it came to a tent and struck it so that it fell,^k and it went turning it upside down, and the tent fell flat." 14 At this his companion answered^l and said: "This is nothing else but the sword of Gid'e-on^m the son of Jo'ash, a man of Israel. The [true] Godⁿ has given Mid'ian and all the camp into his hand."^o

15 And it came about that as soon as Gid'e-on heard the relating of the dream and its explanation,^p he began to worship.^q After that he returned to the camp of Israel and said: "Get up,^r for Jehovah has given the camp of Mid'ian into YOUR hand." 16 Then he divided the three hundred men up into three bands and put horns^s in the hands of all of them and large empty jars, and torches inside the large jars. 17 And he went on to say to them: "You should learn from watching me, and that is how you should do. And when I am come to the edge of the camp, it must also occur that just as I shall do, so you will do. 18 When I have blown the horn, I and all who are with me, you also must blow the horns, you too, round about all the camp,^a and you must say, 'Jehovah's^b and Gid'e-on's!'"

19 In time Gid'e-on came with the hundred men who were with him to the edge of the camp at the start of the middle night watch.^c They had just got through posting the sentries. And they proceeded to blow the horns,^d and there was a dashing to pieces of the large water jars that were in their hands.^e

20 At that the three bands blew the horns^f and shattered the large jars and took fresh hold on the torches with their left hand and with their right hand on the horns to blow them, and they began calling out: "Jehovah's^g sword and Gid'e-on's!" 21 All the while they kept standing each one in his place all around the camp, and the whole camp got on the run and broke out into shouting and went fleeing.^h 22 And the three hundredⁱ continued to blow the horns,^j and Jehovah proceeded to set the sword of each one against the other in all the camp;^k and the camp kept up their flight as far as Beth-shit'tah, on to Zer'e-rah,* as far as the outskirts of A'bel-me-ho'lah^l by Tab'bath.

23 Meantime the men of Israel were called together from Naph'tali^m and Ash'erⁿ and all of Ma-nas'seh,^o and they went chasing^p after Mid'ian. 24 And Gid'e-on sent messengers into all the mountainous region of E'phra-im,^q saying: "Go down to meet Mid'ian and capture ahead of them the waters as far as Beth-bar'ah and the Jordan." So all the men of E'phra-im were called together, and they got to capture the waters^r as far as Beth-bar'ah and the Jordan. 25 They also got to capture the two princes of Mid'ian, namely, O'reb and

Ze'eb;^a and they proceeded to kill O'reb on the rock of O'reb,^b and they killed Ze'eb at the wine vat of Ze'eb. And they kept on pursuing Mid'ian,^c and they brought the head of O'reb and that of Ze'eb to Gid'e-on in the region of the Jordan.^{*d}

8 Then the men of E'phra-im said to him: "What sort of thing is this that you have done to us in not calling us when you went to fight against Mid'ian?"^e And they vehemently tried to pick a quarrel with him.^f 2 Finally he said to them: "What now have I done in comparison with you?"^g Are not the gleanings of E'phra-im^h better than the grape gathering of Abi-e'zer?ⁱ 3 It was into your hand that God* gave Mid'ian's princes O'reb and Ze'eb,^j and what have I been able to do in comparison with you?" It was then that their spirit calmed down toward him when he spoke this word.^k

4 Eventually Gid'e-on came to the Jordan, crossing it, he and the three hundred men that were with him, tired but keeping up the pursuit. 5 Later he said to the men of Suc'coth:^l "Please give round loaves of bread to the people that are following my steps,^m for they are tired and I am chasing after Ze'bahⁿ and Zal-mun'na,^o the kings of Mid'ian." 6 But the princes of Suc'coth said: "Are the palms of Ze'bah and of Zal-mun'na already in your hand so that bread has to be given to your army?"^p 7 At this Gid'e-on said: "That is why when Jehovah gives Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na into my hand, I shall certainly give your flesh a threshing with the thorns of the wilderness and the briers."^q 8 And he continued on his way up from there to Pe-nu'el^r and went speaking to them in this same manner, but the men of Pe-nu'el answered him just as the men of Suc'coth had answered. 9 Hence he said also to the men of Pe-nu'el: "When I return in peace, I shall pull down this tower."^s

10 Now Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na^a were in Kar'kor, and their camps with them, about fifteen thousand being all who were left over out of the entire camp of the Easterners;^b and those already fallen were a hundred and twenty thousand men who used to draw the sword.^c

11 And Gid'e-on continued on up by the way of those residing in tents to the east of No'bah and Jog'be-hah^d and began to strike the camp while the camp happened to be off guard.^e 12 When Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na took to flight, he at once went in pursuit of them and got to capture Mid'ian's two kings, Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na;^f and he drove all the camp into trembling.

13 And Gid'e-on the son of Jo'ash began his return from the war by the pass that goes up to He'res.^{*} 14 En route he captured a young man of the men of Suc'coth^g and made inquiries of him.^h So he wrote out for him the names of the princesⁱ of Suc'coth and its older men, seventy-seven men. 15 With that he went to the men of Suc'coth and said: "Here are Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na respecting whom you taunted me, saying, 'Are the palms of Ze'bah and of Zal-mun'na already in your hand so that bread has to be given to your tired-out men?'"^j 16 Then he took the older men of the city and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he put the men of Suc'coth through an experience.^k 17 And the tower of Pe-nu'el^l he pulled down,^m and he proceeded to kill the men of the city.

18 He now said to Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na:ⁿ "What sort of men were they whom you killed in Ta'bor?"^o To this they said: "As you are, so were they, each one, like the sons of a king in form." 19 At that he said: "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As Jehovah lives, if you had preserved them alive, I would not have to kill you."^p 20 Then he said to Je'ther his firstborn: "Get up, kill them." And the young man did not draw his sword, because he was afraid, for he was yet a young man.^q 21 So Ze'bah and Zalmun'na said: "Get up yourself and assault us, for as a man is, so is his mightiness."^a Accordingly Gid'e-on got up and killed^b Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na and took the moon-shaped ornaments that were on the necks of their camels.

22 Later the men of Israel said to Gid'e-on: "Rule over us,^c you and your son and your grandson as well, for you have saved us out of the hand of Mid'i-an."^d 23 But Gid'e-on said to them: "I myself shall not rule over you, nor will my son rule over you.^e Jehovah is the one who will rule over you."^f 24 And Gid'e-on went on to say to them: "Let me make a request of you: Give me, each one of you, the nose ring^g of his booty." (For they had nose rings of gold, because they were Ish'ma-elites.)^h 25 Then they said: "We shall surely give them." With that they spread out a mantle and went throwing each one the nose ring of his booty into it. 26 And the weight of the nose rings of gold that he had requested amounted to one thousand seven hundred gold shekels,ⁱ besides the moon-shaped ornaments and the eardrops and the garments of wool dyed reddish purple^j that were upon the kings of Mid'i-an and besides the necklaces that were on the necks of the camels.^k

27 And Gid'e-on proceeded to make it into an ephod^l and to exhibit it in his city Oph'rah;^m and all Israel began to have immoral intercourse with itⁿ there,^o so that it served as a snare to Gid'e-on and to his household.^p

28 Thus Mid'i-an^q was subdued before the sons of Israel, and they did not lift up their head anymore; and the land had no further disturbance for forty years in the days of Gid'e-on.^r

29 And Jer-ub-ba'al^s the son of Jo'ash went his way and continued to dwell in his house.

30 And Gid'e-on came to have seventy sons^t that issued out of his upper thigh, for he came to have many wives.

in She'chem, she too bore him a son. So he named him A-bim'e-lech.^a 32 Eventually Gid'e-on the son of Jo'ash died at a good old age and was buried in the burial place of Jo'ash his father in Oph'rah of the Abi-ez'rites.^b

33 And it came about that as soon as Gid'e-on had died the sons of Israel again took up having^c immoral intercourse with the Ba'als,^c so that they appointed Ba'al-be'rith as their god.^d

34 And the sons of Israel did not remember Jehovah their God,^e who had delivered them out of the hand of all their enemies round about;^f 35 and they did not exercise loving-kindness^g toward the household of Jer-ub-ba'al, Gid'e-on, in return for all the goodness that he had exercised toward Israel.^h

9 In time A-bim'e-lechⁱ the son of Jer-ub-ba'al went to She'chem^j to the brothers of his mother and began speaking to them and to all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying: 2 "Speak, please, in the hearing of all the landowners^k of She'chem, 'Which is better for you, for seventy men,^l all the sons of Jer-ub-ba'al, to rule over you or for one man to rule over you? And you must remember that your bone and your flesh I am.'^m"

3 So the brothers of his mother began speaking all these words about him in the hearing of all the landowners of She'chem so that their heart inclined toward A-bim'e-lech,ⁿ for they said: "He is our own brother."^o 4 Then they gave him seventy pieces of silver from the house of Ba'al-be'rith,^p and with them A-bim'e-lech proceeded to hire idle and insolent men,^q that they might accompany him. 5 After that he went to the house of his father at Oph'rah^r and killed his brothers,^s the sons of Jer-ub-ba'al, seventy men, upon one stone, but Jo'tham the youngest son of Jer-ub-ba'al was left over, because he had hid.

6 Subsequently all the landowners of She'chem and all the house of Mil'lo^a gathered together and went and made A-bim'e-lech reign as king,^b close by the big tree,^c the pillar that was in She'chem.^d

7 When they reported it to Jo'tham he at once went and stood on the top of Mount Ger'i-zim^e and raised his voice and called out and said to them: "Listen to me, you landowners of She'chem, and let God listen to you:

8 "Once upon a time the trees went to anoint a king over them. So they said to the olive tree,^f 'Do be king* over us.'^g 9 But the olive tree said to them, 'Must I give up my fatness with which they glorify^h God and men, and must I go to wave over the other trees?'ⁱ 10 Then the trees said to the fig tree,^j 'You come, be queen* over us.' 11 But the fig tree said to them, 'Must I give up my sweetness and my good produce, and must I go to wave over the other trees?'^k 12 Next the trees said to the vine, 'You come, be queen over us.' 13 In turn the vine said to them, 'Must I give up my new wine that makes God and men rejoice,^l and must I go to wave over the trees?'

14 Finally all the other trees said to the bramble,^m 'You come, be king over us.' 15 At this the bramble said to the trees, 'If it is in truth that you are anointing me as king over you, come, seek refuge under my shadow.ⁿ But if not, let fire^o come out of the bramble and consume the cedars^p of Leb'a-non.'^q

16 "And now if it is in truth and in faultlessness that you have acted and that you went making A-bim'e-lech king,^r and if it is goodness that you have exercised toward Jer-ub-ba'al and his household, and if you have done to him as the doing of his hands deserved, 17 when my father fought^s for you and went risking his soul*^t that he might deliver you out of Mid'ian's^u hand; 18 and you, for YOUR part, have risen up against the household of my father today that you might kill his sons,^a seventy men,^b upon one stone, and that you might make A-bim'e-lech, the son of his slave girl,^c king^d over the landowners of She'chem just because he is YOUR own brother; 19 yes, if it is in truth and in faultlessness that you have acted toward Jer-ub-ba'al and his household this day, rejoice over A-bim'e-lech and let him too rejoice over you.^e 20 But if not, let fire^f come out of A-bim'e-lech and consume the landowners of She'chem and the house of Mil'lo,^g and let fire^h come out of the landowners of She'chem and the house of Mil'lo and consume A-bim'e-lech."ⁱ

21 Then Jo'tham^j took to flight and went running off and made his way to Be'er, and he took up dwelling there because of A-bim'e-lech his brother.

22 And A-bim'e-lech kept playing the prince* over Israel three years.^k 23 Then God let develop* a bad spirit^l between A-bim'e-lech and the landowners of She'chem, and the landowners of She'chem proceeded to deal treacherously^m with A-bim'e-lech, 24 that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jer-ub-ba'al might come*ⁿ and that he might put their blood upon A-bim'e-lech their brother because he killed them,^o and upon the landowners of She'chem because they strengthened his hands^p to kill his brothers. 25 So the landowners of She'chem set ambush men for him upon the tops of the mountains, and they would rob everyone that would pass by them on the road. In time it was reported to A-bim'e-lech.

26 Then Ga'al^q the son of E'bed and his brothers came and crossed over into She'chem,^r and the landowners of She'chem began to trust in him.^s 27 And they went out as usual into the field and engaged in gathering the grapes of their vineyards and in treading them and in carrying on a festal exultation,^t

after which they went into the house of their god^a and ate and drank^b and called down evil^c upon A-bim'e-lech. 28 And Ga'al the son of E'bed went on to say: "Who is A-bim'e-lech,^d and who is She'chem* that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jer-ub-ba'al,^e and is not Ze'bul^f a commissioner of his? Serve the men of Ha'mor,^g She'chem's father, you others, but why should we ourselves serve him? 29 And if only this people were in my hand!^h Then I would remove A-bim'e-lech." And he went on to sayⁱ to A-bim'e-lech: "Make your army numerous and come on out."^j

30 And Ze'bul the prince of the city got to hear the words of Ga'al the son of E'bed.^j Then his anger blazed. 31 So he sent messengers by subterfuge to A-bim'e-lech,* saying: "Look! Ga'al the son of E'bed and his brothers are now come to She'chem,^k and here they are massing the city against you. 32 And now rise up by night,^l you and the people that are with you, and lie in wait^m in the field. 33 And it must occur in the morning that as soon as the sun shines forth you should get up early, and you must make a dash against the city; and when he and the people that are with him are going out against you, you must also do to him just as your hand finds it possible."

34 Accordingly A-bim'e-lech and all the people that were with him rose up by night, and they began to lie in wait against She'chem in four bands. 35 Later Ga'alⁿ the son of E'bed went out and stood at the entrance of the city gate. Then A-bim'e-lech and the people that were with him rose up from the place of ambush. 36 When Ga'al caught sight of the people, he at once said to Ze'bul: "Look! People coming down from the tops of the mountains." But Ze'bul said to him: "The shadows of the mountains are what you are seeing as though they were men."^a 37 Later Ga'al spoke once more and said: "Look! People coming down out of the center of the land, and one band is coming by the way of the big tree of Me-on'enim."^b 38 At this Ze'bul said to him: "Where now is that saying of yours that you mouthed,^b 'Who is A-bim'e-lech that we should serve him?'"^c Is not this the people whom you rejected?^d Go out now, please, and fight against them."

39 So Ga'al went on out at the head of the landowners of She'chem and took up the fight against A-bim'e-lech. 40 And A-bim'e-lech set out after him, and he went fleeing before him; and the slain kept falling in numbers as far as the entrance of the gate.

41 And A-bim'e-lech continued to dwell in A-ru'mah,* and Ze'bul^e proceeded to drive Ga'al^f and his brothers out from dwelling in She'chem.^g 42 And it came about on the next day that the people began to go out into the field. So they told A-bim'e-lech.^h 43 Hence he took the people and divided them up into three bandsⁱ and began to lie in wait in the field. Then he looked, and there the people were going out of the city. He now rose up against them and struck them down. 44 And A-bim'e-lech and the bands* that were with him made a dash that they might stand at the entrance of the city gate, while two bands made a dash against all who were in the field, and they went striking them down.^j 45 And A-bim'e-lech fought against the city all that day and got to capture the city; and he killed the people that were in it,^k after which he pulled the city down^l and sowed it with salt.^m

46 When all the landowners of the tower of She'chem heard of it, they immediately went to the vault of the house of El-be'rith.*ⁿ 47 Then it was reported to A-bim'e-lech that all the landowners of the tower of She'chem had collected together. 48 At that A-bim'e-lech went up Mount Zal'mon,^a he and all the people that were with him. A-bim'e-lech now took an ax in his hand and cut down a branch of the trees and lifted it up and put it on his shoulder and said to the people that were with him: "What you have seen me do—hurry up, do like me!"^b 49 So all the people cut down also each one a branch for himself and went following A-bim'e-lech. Then they put them against the vault, and over them they set the vault on fire, so that all the men of the tower of She'chem died too, about a thousand men and women.^c

50 And A-bim'e-lech proceeded to go to The'bez^d and to camp against The'bez and capture it. 51 As a strong tower happened to be in the middle of the city, there was where all the men and women and all the landowners of the city went fleeing, after which they shut it behind them and climbed onto the roof of the tower. 52 And A-bim'e-lech made his way to the tower and began fighting against it, and he went on up close to the entrance of the tower to burn it with fire.^e 53 Then a certain woman pitched an upper millstone upon A-bim'e-lech's head and broke his skull in pieces.^f 54 So he quickly called the attendant bearing his weapons and said to him: "Draw your sword and put me to death,^g for fear they should say about me, 'It was a woman that killed him.'" Immediately his attendant ran him through, so that he died.^h

55 When the men of Israel got to see that A-bim'e-lech had died, they now went each one to his place. 56 Thus God made the evil of A-bim'e-lech that he had done to his father by killing his seventy brothers come back.ⁱ 57 And all the evil of the men of She'chem God made come back upon their own heads, that the malediction^j of Jo'tham^k the son of Jer-ub-ba'al^l might come upon them.^m

10 Now after A-bim'e-lech there rose up to save^a Israel To'la the son of Pu'ah, the son of Do'do, a man of Is'sa-char, and he was dwelling in Sha'mir in the mountainous region of E'phra-im.^b 2 And he continued to judge Israel for twenty-three years, after which he died and was buried in Sha'mir.

3 Then after him Ja'ir the Gil'e-adite^c rose up, and he continued to judge Israel for twenty-two years. 4 And he came to have thirty sons who rode on thirty full-grown asses,^d and they had thirty cities.* These they continue to call Hav'voth-ja'ir^e down to this day; they are in the land of Gil'e-ad. 5 After that Ja'ir died and was buried in Ka'mon.

6 And the sons of Israel again proceeded to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah,^f and they began to serve the Ba'als^g and the Ash'to-reth^h images and the gods of Syriaⁱ and the gods of Si'don^j and the gods of Mo'ab^k and the gods of the sons of Am'mon^l and the gods of the Phi-lis'tines.^m So they left Jehovah and did not serve him.ⁿ 7 At this Jehovah's anger blazed against Israel,^o so that he sold^p them into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines^q and into the hand of the sons of Am'mon.^r 8 Hence they shattered and heavily oppressed the sons of Israel in that year—for eighteen years all the sons of Israel that were on the side of the Jordan that were on the side of the Jordan in the land of the Am'or-ites that was in Gil'e-ad. 9 And the sons of Am'mon would cross the Jordan to fight even against Judah and Benjamin and the house of E'phra-im; and Israel was greatly distressed.^s 10 And the sons of Israel began to call to Jehovah for aid,^t saying: "We have sinned^u against you, because we have left our God and we serve the Ba'als."^v

11 Then Jehovah said to the sons of Israel: "Was it not from Egypt^w and from the Am'or-ites^x and from the sons of Am'mon^a and from the Philis'tines^b 12 and the Si-do'ni-ans^c and Am'a-lek^d and Mid'i-an,^{*e} when they oppressed you^f and you went crying out to me, that I proceeded to save you out of their hand? 13 As for you, you abandoned me^g and took up serving other gods.^h That is why I shall not save you again.ⁱ 14 Go and call for aid to the gods^j whom you have chosen.^k Let them be the ones to save you in the time of your distress." 15 But the sons of Israel said to Jehovah: "We have sinned.^l You yourself do to us according to anything that is good in your eyes.^m Only deliver us, please, this day."ⁿ 16 And they began to remove the foreign gods from their midst^o and to serve Jehovah,^p so that his soul^q became impatient because of the trouble of Israel.^r

17 In time the sons of Am'mon^s were called together and pitched camp in Gil'e-ad.^t So the sons of Israel gathered themselves together and pitched camp in Miz'pah.^u 18 And the people and the princes of Gil'e-ad began to say to one another: "Who is the man that will take the lead in fighting against the sons of Am'mon?^v Let him become the head of all the inhabitants of Gil'e-ad."^w

11 Now Jeph'thah^x the Gil'e-ad-ite^y had become a mighty, valiant man,^z and he was the son of a prostitute^a woman, and Gil'e-ad came to be the father of Jeph'thah. 2 And Gil'e-ad's wife kept bearing sons to him. When the sons of the wife got big, they proceeded to drive Jeph'thah out and to say to him: "You must have no inheritance in the household of our father,^b for you are the son of another woman." 3 So Jeph'thah ran away because of his brothers and took up dwelling in the land of Tob.^c And idle men kept bringing themselves together to Jeph'thah, and they would go out with him.^d against Israel,^a the older men of Gil'e-ad immediately went to take Jeph'thah out of the land of Tob.^b 6 Then they said to Jeph'thah: "Do come and serve as our commander, and let us fight against the sons of Am'mon." 7 But Jeph'thah said to the older men^c of Gil'e-ad: "Was it not you that hated me so that you drove me out of my father's house?^d And why is it that you have come to me now just when you are in distress?"^e 8 At this the older men of Gil'e-ad said to Jeph'thah: "That is why now we have returned^f to you, and you must go with us and fight against the sons of Am'mon, and you must become for us the head of all the inhabitants of Gil'e-ad."^g 9 So Jeph'thah said to the older men of Gil'e-ad: "If you are bringing me back to fight against the sons of Am'mon, and Jehovah does abandon^h them to me, I, for my part, shall become your head!" 10 In turn the older men of Gil'e-ad said to Jeph'thah: "Let Jehovah prove to be the listener between usⁱ if the way we shall do is not according to your word."^j 11 Consequently Jeph'thah went with the older men of Gil'e-ad and the people set him over them as head and commander.^k And Jeph'thah proceeded to speak all his words before Jehovah^l in Miz'pah.^m

12 Then Jeph'thah sent messengers to the king of the sons of Am'mon,ⁿ saying: "What do I have to do with you,^o seeing that you have come against me to fight in my land?" 13 So the king of the sons of Am'mon said to the messengers of Jeph'thah: "It is because Israel took my land when they came up out of Egypt,^p from the Ar'non^q as far as the Jab'bok and as far as the Jordan.^r And now do return it peacefully." 14 But Jeph'thah sent once more messengers to the king of the sons of Am'mon 15 and said to him:

and the land of the sons of Am'mon.^a 16 For when they came up out of Egypt Israel went walking through the wilderness as far as the Red Sea^b and got to come to Ka'desh.^c 17 Then Israel sent messengers to the king of E'dom,^d saying: "Let me pass, please, through your land," and the king of E'dom did not listen. And also to the king of Mo'ab^e they sent, and he did not consent. And Israel kept dwelling in Ka'desh.^f 18 When they walked on through the wilderness, they went their way around the land of E'dom^g and the land of Mo'ab, so that they went toward the rising of the sun as respects the land of Mo'ab^h and took up camping in the region of the Ar'non; and they did not come within the boundary of Mo'ab,ⁱ because Ar'non was the boundary of Mo'ab.^j

19 "After that Israel sent messengers to Si'hon the king of the Am'orites, the king of Hesh'bon,^k and Israel said to him: "Let us pass, please, through your land to my own place."^l 20 And Si'hon did not feel sure about Israel's crossing through his territory, and Si'hon went gathering all his people together and camping in Ja'haz^m and fighting against Israel.ⁿ 21 At this Jehovah the God of Israel gave Si'hon and all his people into Israel's hand, so that they struck them and Israel took possession of all the land of the Am'orites inhabiting that land.^o 22 Thus they took possession of all the territory of the Am'orites from the Ar'non as far as the Jab'ok and from the wilderness as far as the Jordan.^p possess that you will dispossess?*" And every one whom Jehovah our God has dispossessed from before us is the one we shall dispossess.^{sa} 25 And now are you any better than Ba'lak the son of Zip'por, the king of Mo'ab?^{sb} Did he ever contend with Israel, or did he ever fight against them? 26 While Israel was dwelling in Hesh'bon and its dependent towns^{sc} and in A-ro'er^{sd} and its dependent towns and in all the cities that are by the banks of Ar'non for three hundred years, why, then, did you never snatch them away during that time?^{se} 27 As for me, I have not sinned against you, but you are dealing wrong with me by fighting against me. Let Jehovah the Judge^f judge today between the sons of Israel and the sons of Am'mon.^{sg}

29 Jehovah's spirit now came upon Jeph'thah,^{si} and he proceeded to pass through Gil'e-ad and Ma-nas'seh and to pass through Miz'peh of Gil'e-ad,^{sj} and from Miz'peh of Gil'e-ad he passed along to the sons of Am'mon.

30 Then Jeph'thah made a vow^{sl} to Jehovah and said: "If you without fail give the sons of Am'mon into my hand, 31 it must also occur that the one coming out, who comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peacesm from the sons of Am'mon, must also become Jehovah's,^{sn} and I must offer that one up as a burnt offering."^{so}

32 So Jeph'thah passed along to the sons of Am'mon to fight against them, and Jehovah proceeded to give them into his hand. 33 And he went striking them from A-ro'er all the way to Min'nith^{ss}—twenty cities—and as far as A'bel-ker'a-mim with a very great slaughter. Thus the sons of Am'mon were subdued before the sons of Israel.

34 Finally Jeph'thah came to Miz'pahst to his home, and, look! his daughter coming out to meet him with tambourine playing and dancing! ^a Now she was absolutely the only child. ^b Besides her he had neither son nor daughter. 35 And it came about that when he caught sight of her, he began to rip his garments ^b and to say: "Alas, my daughter! You have indeed made me bend down, and you yourself have become the one I was ostracizing. And I—I have opened my mouth to Jehovah, and I am unable to turn back." ^c

36 But she said to him: "My father, if you have opened your mouth to Jehovah, do to me according to what has gone forth from your mouth, ^d since Jehovah has executed acts of vengeance for you upon your enemies, the sons of Am'mon." 37 And she went on to say to her father: "Let this thing be done to me: Let me alone for two months, and let me go, and I will descend upon the mountains, and let me weep over my virginity, ^e I and my girl companions."

38 At this he said: "Go!" So he sent her away for two months; and she kept going, she with her girl companions, and weeping over her virginity upon the mountains. 39 And it came about at the end of two months that she made her return to her father, after which he carried out his vow that he had made toward her. ^f As for her, she never had relations with a man. And it came to be a regulation in Israel: 40 From year to year the daughters of Israel would go to give commendation to ^g the daughter of Jeph'thah the Gil'e-ad-ite, four days in the year. ^g

12 Then the men of E'phra-im were called together and crossed over northward and said to Jeph'thah: "Why is it that you crossed over to fight against the sons of Am'mon, and to us you did not issue a call to go with you? ^h Your very house we shall burn over you with fire." ^a 2 But Jeph'thah said to them: "I became a special contender, ^a I and my people, with the sons of Am'mon. ^b And I proceeded to call to you for aid, and you did not save me out of their hand. 3 When I got to see that you were no savior, then I determined to put my soul ^c in my own palm ^c and go over against the sons of Am'mon. ^d At that Jehovah gave them into my hand. So why have you come up against me this day to fight against me?"

4 Immediately Jeph'thah collected all the men of Gil'e-ad together ^e and fought E'phra-im; and the men of Gil'e-ad went striking E'phra-im down, for they had said: "Men escaped from E'phra-im is what you are, O Gil'e-ad, inside of E'phra-im, inside of Ma-nas'seh." 5 And Gil'e-ad got to capture the fords of the Jordan ^f ahead of E'phra-im; and it occurred that when the escaping men of E'phra-im would say: "Let me pass over," then the men of Gil'e-ad would say to each one: "Are you an E'phra-im-ite?" When he would say: "No!" 6 then they would say to him: "Please say Shib'bo-leth." ^g And he would say: "Sib'bo-leth," ^h as he was unable ^a to say the word correctly. And they would lay hold of him and slay him at the fords of the Jordan. So there fell at that time forty-two thousand out of E'phra-im. ^h

7 And Jeph'thah continued to judge Israel for six years, after which Jeph'thah the Gil'e-ad-ite died and was buried in his city in Gil'e-ad. ^{*}

8 And Ib'zan from Beth'le-hem ⁱ began to judge Israel after him. ^j 9 And he came to have thirty sons and thirty daughters. He sent outside and brought in thirty daughters for his sons from 11 And after him E'lon the Ze-bu-lu-nite^a began to judge Israel. And he continued to judge Israel ten years.

12 Then E'lon the Ze-bu-lu-nite died and was buried in Ai'ja-lon in the land of Zeb'u-lun.

13 And after him Ab'don the son of Hil'lél the Pir'a-thon-ite^b began to judge Israel. 14 And he came to have forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode on seventy full-grown asses.^c And he continued to judge Israel eight years. 15 Then Ab'don the son of Hil'lél the Pir'a-thon-ite died and was buried in Pir'a-thon in the land of E'phra-im in the mountain of the A-mal'ek-ite.*^d

13 And the sons of Israel engaged again in doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,^e so that Jehovah gave them into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines^f for forty years.

2 Meanwhile there happened to be a certain man of Zo'rah^g of the family of the Dan'ites,^h and his name was Ma-no'-ah.ⁱ And his wife was barren and had borne no child.^j 3 In time Jehovah's angel appeared to the woman^k and said to her: "Look, now, you are barren and have borne no child. And you will certainly become pregnant and give birth to a son.^l 4 And now watch yourself, please, and do not drink wine or intoxicating liquor,^m and do not eat anything unclean.ⁿ 5 For, look! you will be pregnant,* and you will certainly give birth to a son, and no razor should come upon his head,^o because a Naz'i-rite^p of God is what the child^q will become on leaving the belly;^q and he it is who will take the lead in saving Israel out of the hand of the Phi-lis'tines."^r

6 Then the woman went and said to her husband: "There was a man of the [true] God that came to me, and his appearance was like the appearance of

8 And Ma-no'-ah began to entreat Jehovah and say: "Excuse me, Jehovah.*^f The man of the [true] God that you just sent, let him, please, come again to us and instruct^g us as to what we ought to do to the child^h that will be born."^h 9 Accordingly the [true] God listened to the voice of Ma-no'-ah,ⁱ and the angel of the [true] God came again to the woman while she was sitting in the field, and Ma-no'-ah her husband was not with her. 10 Immediately the woman hurried and ran and told her husband^j and said to him: "Look! The man that came the other day to me has appeared to me."^k

11 At that Ma-no'-ah got up and accompanied* his wife and came to the man and said to him: "Are you the man that spoke to the woman?"^l to which he said: "I am." 12 Then Ma-no'-ah said: "Now let your words come true. fix up a kid of the goats before you.”^a 16 But Jehovah's angel said to Ma-no'-ah: “If you detain me, I shall not feed myself on your bread; but if you will render up a burnt offering to Jehovah,^b you may offer it up.” For Ma-no'-ah did not know that he was Jehovah's angel.

17 Then Ma-no'-ah said to Jehovah's angel: “What is your name,^c that when your word comes true we shall certainly do you honor?” 18 However, Jehovah's angel said to him: “Just why should you ask about my name, when it is a wonderful one?”

19 And Ma-no'-ah proceeded to take the kid of the goats and the grain offering and to offer it upon the rock to Jehovah.^d And He was doing something in a wonderful way while Ma-no'-ah and his wife were looking on. 20 So it came about that, as the flame ascended from off the altar heavenward, then Jehovah's angel ascended in the flame of the altar while Ma-no'-ah and his wife were looking on.^e At once they fell upon their faces to the earth.^f

21 And Jehovah's angel did not repeat appearing to Ma-no'-ah and his wife anymore. Then it was that Ma-no'-ah knew that he had been Jehovah's angel.^g 22 Consequently Ma-no'-ah said to his wife: “We shall positively die,^h because it is God that we have seen.”ⁱ 23 But his wife said to him: “If Jehovah had been delighted only to put us to death, he would not have accepted a burnt offering and grain offering from our hand,^j and he would not have shown us all these things, and he would not as now have let us hear anything like this.”^k

24 Later the woman gave birth to a son and called his name Samson;^l and the boy kept getting bigger, and Jehovah continued to bless him.^m 25 In time Jehovah's spiritⁿ started to impel him in Ma'ha-neh-dan^o between Zo'rah^p and Esh'ta-ol.^q

14 Then Samson went down to Tim'-nah^r and saw a woman in Tim'-nah of the daughters of the Phi-lis'tines. 2 So he went up and told his father and his mother and said: “There is a woman that I have seen in Tim'-nah of the daughters of the Phi-lis'tines, and now get her for me as a wife.”^a 3 But his father and his mother said to him: “Is there not among the daughters of your brothers and among all my people a woman,^b so that you are going to take a wife from the uncircumcised Phi-lis'tines?”^c Still Samson said to his father: “Get just her for me, because she is the one just right in my eyes.” 4 As for his father and his mother, they did not know that that was from Jehovah,^d that he was looking for an opportunity against the Phi-lis'tines, as at that particular time the Phi-lis'tines were ruling over Israel.^e

5 Accordingly Samson went on down with his father and his mother to Tim'-nah.^f When he^g got as far as the vineyards of Tim'-nah, why, look! a maned young lion roaring upon meeting him. 6 Then Jehovah's spirit became operative upon him,^h so that he tore it in two, just as someone tears a male kid in two, and there was nothing at all in his hand. And he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done. 7 And he continued on his way down and began to speak to the woman; and she was still right in Samson's eyes.^h

8 Now after a while he went on back to take her home.ⁱ Meantime he turned aside to look at the carcass of the lion,^{*} and there there was a swarm of bees in the lion's corpse, and honey.^j 9 So he scraped it out into his palms and walked on, eating as he walked.^{kl} When he rejoined^m his father and his mother, he at once gave them some, and they began to eat. And he did not tell them that it was out of the corpse of the lion that he had scraped the honey.

10 And his father continued on his way down to the woman, and Samson proceeded to hold a banquet there;^l for that was the way the young fellows used to do. 11 And it came about that, on their seeing him, they immediately took thirty groomsmen, that these should keep with him. 12 Then Samson said to them: "Let me, please, propound a riddle to you.^a If you will without fail tell it to me during the seven days^b of the banquet and you do solve it, I shall in that case have to give you thirty undergarments and thirty outfits of clothing.^c 13 But if you are unable to tell it to me, you yourselves also must give me thirty undergarments and thirty outfits of clothing." At this they said to him: "Do propound your riddle, and let us hear it." 14 So he said to them:

"Out of the eater^d something to eat came forth,

And out of the strong something sweet came forth."^e

And they proved unable to tell the riddle for three days. 15 And it came about on the fourth* day that they began to say to Samson's wife: "Fool your husband that he may tell us the riddle.^f Otherwise we shall burn you and the house of your father with fire.^g Was it to take our possessions^h that you people invited us here?" 16 Consequently Samson's wife began to weep over himⁱ and to say: "You only hate me, you do, and you do not love me.^j There was a riddle that you propounded to the sons of my people,^k but to me you have not told it." At this he said to her: "Why, to my own father and my own mother I have not told it,^l and ought I to tell it to you?" 17 But she kept weeping over him the seven days that the banquet continued for them, and it came about on the seventh day that finally he told her, because she had pressured him.^m Then she told the riddle to the sons of her people.ⁿ 18 So the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before ever he could go into the interior room:^o

"What is sweeter than honey,
And what is stronger than a lion?"^a

In turn he said to them:

"If you had not plowed with my young cow,^b
You would not have solved my riddle."^c

19 And Jehovah's spirit became operative upon him,^d so that he went down to Ash'ke-lon^e and struck down thirty men of theirs and took what he stripped off them and gave the outfits to the tellers of the riddle.^f And his anger continued hot, and he went his way up to his father's house.

20 And Samson's wife^g came to belong to a groomsmen^h of his who had associated with him.

15 And it came about after a while, in the days of wheat harvest, that Samson went visiting his wife with a kidⁱ of the goats. So he said: "I will go in to my wife in the interior room."^j And her father did not allow him to go in. 2 But her father said: "I really said to myself, 'You must unquestionably hate her.'^k Hence I gave her to your groomsmen.^l Is not her younger sister better than she is? Let her, please, become yours instead of the other." 3 However, Samson said to them: "This time I must be free of guilt against the Philis'tines in case I am dealing with them to their injury."^m

4 And Samson went his way and proceeded to catch three hundred foxes^{*n} and to take torches and turn tail to tail and put one torch between two tails, right in the middle. 5 With that he set fire to the torches and sent them out into the fields of standing grain of the Philis'tines. Thus he set on fire everything from sheaf to standing grain and the vineyards and the olive groves.^o

6 And the Philis'tines began to say: "Who did this?" Then they said: "It was Samson the son-in-law of the Tim'nite, because he took his wife and then gave her to his groomsman.^a At that the Philis'tines went up and burned her and her father with fire.^b 7 In turn Samson said to them: "If you do like this, there is nothing but for me to avenge myself upon you,^c and afterward I shall quit." 8 And he went smiting them, piling legs upon thighs with a great slaughter, after which he went down and began to dwell in a cleft of the crag E'tam.^d

9 Later the Philis'tines^e came up and camped in Judah^f and went tramping about in Le'hi.^g 10 Then the men of Judah said: "Why have you come up against us?" to which they said: "It is to tie Samson that we have come up, to do to him just as he has done to us." 11 So three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the crag E'tam^h and said to Samson: "Do you not know that the Philis'tines are ruling over us?"ⁱ So what does this mean that you have done to us?" Then he said to them: "Just as they did to me is the way I have done to them."^j 12 But they said to him: "It is to tie you that we have come down, to give you into the hand of the Philis'tines." At that Samson said to them: "Swear to me that you yourselves will not assault me." 13 And they went on to say to him: "No, but we shall merely tie you, and we will give you into their hand; but we shall by no means put you to death."

Accordingly they bound him with two new ropes^k and brought him up out of the crag. 14 He, for his part, came as far as Le'hi, and the Philis'tines, for their part, shouted exultantly at meeting him.^l And Jehovah's spirit^m became operative upon him, and the ropes that were upon his arms came to be like linen threads that have been scorched with fire,ⁿ so that his fetters melted off his hands. 15 He now found a moist jawbone^{*} of a male ass and thrust his hand out and took it and went striking down a thousand men with it.^o 16 Then Samson said:

With the jawbone of a male ass I have struck down a thousand men."^a 17 And it came about that when he finished speaking, he immediately threw the jawbone out of his hand and called that place Ra'math-le'hi.^{b} 18 Now he became very thirsty, and he began to call on Jehovah and say: "It was you that gave this great salvation into the hand of your servant,^c and now shall I die of thirst and must I fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?"^d 19 So God^{} split open a mortar-shaped hollow that was in Le'hi,^e and water^e began to come out of it,^f and he proceeded to drink, after which his spirit^f returned and he revived.^g That is why he called its name En-hak-kor'e,^g which is in Le'hi down to this day.

20 And he continued to judge Israel in the days of the Philis'tines twenty years.^h

16 Once Samson went to Ga'zaⁱ and saw a prostitute woman there and came in to her.^j 2 And report was made^{*} to the Ga'zites, saying: "Samson has come in here." So they surrounded him^k and lay in wait for him all night long in the city gate.^l And they kept quiet the whole night, saying: "As soon as the morning gets light, we must also kill him."^m

3 However, Samson kept lying till midnight and then rose at midnight and grabbed hold of the doors of the city gate^a and the two side posts and pulled them out along with the bar and put them upon his shoulders and went carrying^b them up to the top of the mountain that is in front of He'bron.*^c

4 And it came about after that that he fell in love with a woman in the torrent valley of So'rek, and her name was De-li'lah.^d 5 And the axis lords^e of the Phi-lis'tines proceeded to come up to her and to say to her: "Fool^f him and see in what his great power is and with what we can prevail over him and with what we are certain to tie him so as to master him; and we, for our part, shall give you each one thousand one hundred silver pieces."^g

6 Later De-li'lah said to Samson: "Do tell me, please, In what is your great power and with what can you be tied for one to master you?"^h 7 Then Samson said to her: "If they tie me with seven still-moist sinewsⁱ that have not been dried out, I must also grow weak and become like an ordinary man." 8 So the axis lords^j of the Phi-lis'tines brought up to her seven still-moist sinews that had not been dried out. Later she tied him with them. 9 Now the ambush was sitting in the interior room of hers,^k and she began to say to him: "The Phi-lis'tines^l are upon you, Samson!" At that he tore the sinews in two, just as a twisted thread of tow is torn in two when it smells fire.^m And his power did not become known.ⁿ

10 Subsequently De-li'lah^o said to Samson: "Look! You have trifled with me that you might speak lies to me.^p Now tell me, do please, with what you can be tied." 11 So he said to her: "If they tie me tight with new ropes with which no work has been done, I must also grow weak and become like an ordinary man." 12 So De-li'lah took new ropes and tied him with them and said to him: "The Phi-lis'tines are upon you, Samson!" tore them in two from off his arms like a thread.^a 13 After that De-li'lah said to Samson: "Up till now you have trifled with me that you might speak lies to me.^b Do tell me with what you can be tied."^c Then he said to her: "If you will weave the seven braids of my head with the warp^d thread." 14 Accordingly she fixed them with the pin,^e after which she said to him: "The Phi-lis'tines are upon you, Samson!"^e So he awoke from his sleep and pulled out the loom pin and the warp thread.

15 She now said to him: "How dare you say, 'I do love you,'^f when your heart is not with me? These three times you have trifled with me and have not told me in what your great power is."^g

16 And it came about that because she pressured^h him with her words all the time and kept urging him, his soul got to be impatient to the point of dying.ⁱ

17 Finally he disclosed to her all his heart^j and said to her: "A razor^k has never come upon my head, because I am a Naz'i-rite of God from my mother's belly.^l If I did get shaved, my power also would certainly depart from me, and I should indeed grow weak and become like all other men."^m

18 When De-li'lah got to see that he had disclosed to her all his heart, she immediately sent and called the Phi-lis'tine axisⁿ lords, saying: "Come up this time, for he has disclosed to me all his heart."^o And the Phi-lis'tine axis lords came up to her that they might bring up the money in their hand.^p 19 And she proceeded to make him sleep upon her knees. Then she called the man and had him shave off the seven braids of his head, after which she started to show the mastery of him, and his power kept departing from upon him. 20 Now she said: "The Phi-lis'tines are upon you, Samson!" At that he woke up from his sleep and said: "I shall go out as at other times^a and shake myself free." And he himself did not know that it was Jehovah that had departed from him.^b 21 So the Philis'tines grabbed hold of him and bored his eyes out^c and brought him down to Ga'za^d and bound him with two fetters of copper;^e and he came to be a grinder^f in the prison house.^g 22 Meanwhile the hair of his head started to grow luxuriantly as soon as he had been shaved.^h

23 As for the Philis'tine axis lords, they gathered together to sacrifice a great sacrifice to Da'gonⁱ their god* and for rejoicing, and they kept saying: "Our god has given into our hand Samson our enemy!"^j 24 When the people got to see him, they at once gave way to praising their god,^k "because," said they, "our god has given into our hand our enemy^l and the devastator of our land^m and the one who multiplied our slain."ⁿ

25 And it came about that because their heart was merry,^o they began to say: "Call Samson that he may offer us some amusement."^p So they called Samson out of the prison house that he might make sport before them;^q and they proceeded to stand him between the pillars. 26 Then Samson said to the boy that was holding him by his hand: "Do permit me to feel the pillars upon which the house is firmly established and let me lean against them." 27 (Incidentally, the house was full of men and women and all the Philis'tine axis lords were there;^r and upon the roof there were about three thousand men and women who were looking on while Samson offered some amusement.)^s

28 Samson^t now called to Jehovah^u and said: "Sovereign Lord Jehovah,* remember me,^v please, and strengthen^w me, please, just this once, O you the [true] God, and let me avenge myself upon the Philis'tines with vengeance for one of my two eyes."^a

29 With that Samson braced himself against the two middle pillars upon which the house was firmly established, and got a grasp on them, one with his right and the other with his left hand. 30 And Samson proceeded to say: "Let my soul die^b with the Philis'tines." Then he bent himself with power, and the house went falling upon the axis lords and upon all the people that were in it,^c so that the dead that he put to death in his own death came to be more than those he had put to death during his lifetime.^d

31 Later his brothers and all the household of his father came on down and lifted him up and brought him up and buried him between Zo'rah^e and Esh'ta-ol^f in the burial place of Ma-no'ah^g his father. As for him, he had judged Israel twenty years.^h

of E'phraimⁱ whose name was Mi'cah.* 2 In time he said to his mother: "The thousand one hundred silver pieces that were taken from you and over which you pronounced a curse^j and also said it in my hearing—look! the silver is with me. It was I who took it."^k At that his mother said: "Blessed may my son be of Jehovah."^l 3 Accordingly he gave back the thousand one hundred pieces of silver to his mother;^m and his mother went on to say: "I must without fail sanctify the silver to Jehovah from my hand for my son, so as to make a carved imageⁿ and a molten statue;^o and now I shall give it back to you."^p

7 Now there happened to be a young man of Beth'le-hem^k in Judah of the family of Judah,* and he was a Levite.^{al} And he was residing there for a time. 8 And the man proceeded to go from the city of Beth'le-hem in Judah to reside for a time wherever he might find a place. At length while going his way he came into the mountainous region of E'phra-im as far as the house of Mi'cah.^m 9 Then Mi'cah said to him: "Where do you come from?" At that he said to him: "I am a Levite from Beth'le-hem in Judah, and I am on my way to reside for a time wherever I may find a place." 10 So Mi'cah said to him: "Do dwell with me and serve as a fatherⁿ and priest^o for me, and I, for my part, shall give you ten silver pieces a year and the usual outfit of garments and your sustenance." Accordingly the Levite went in. 11 Thus the Levite took it upon himself to dwell with the man, and the young man got to be as one of his sons to him. 12 Furthermore, Mi'cah filled the hand of the Levite with power,^p that the young man might serve as a priest^q for him and might continue in the house of Mi'cah. 13 Hence Mi'cah said: "Now I do know that Jehovah will do me good, because the Levite has become priest for me."^r

18 In those days there was no king in Israel.^a And in those days the tribe of the Dan'ites^b was looking for an inheritance for itself to dwell there; because up to that day an inheritance had not fallen to them in the midst of the tribes of Israel.^c

2 Eventually the sons of Dan sent five men of their family, men from among them, men who were valiant fellows, out from Zo'rah^d and Esh'ta-ol,^e to spy^f out the land and to explore it. So they said to them: "Go, explore the land." In time they came into the mountainous region of E'phra-im^g as far as the house of Mi'cah^h and got to spend the night there. 3 While they were close by the house of Mi'cah, they recognized the voice of the young man, the Levite, so that they turned aside there. And they proceeded to say to him: "Who brought you here, and what are you doing in this place, and what interest do you have here?" 4 In turn he said to them: "Thus and so Mi'cah did for me that he might hire me,ⁱ and that I might serve as priest^j for him." 5 Then they said to him: "Inquire,^k please, of God^l that we may know whether our way on which we are going will be successful." 6 So the priest said to them: "Go in peace. It is before Jehovah that YOUR way is in which YOU go."

7 Accordingly the five men went on and came to La'ish^m and saw how the people that were within it were dwelling in self-reliance according to the custom of the Si-do'ni-ans, quiet and unsuspecting,ⁿ and there was no oppressive conqueror^{*} that was molesting a thing in the land, while they were far off from the Si-do'ni-ans^o and they had nothing to do with mankind.^p

8 At length they came to their brothers at Zo'rah^p and Esh'ta-ol,^q and their brothers began to say to them: "How was it with you?" 9 At this they said: "Do get up, and let us go up against them; for we have seen the land, and, look! it is very good.^a And you are hesitant. Do not be sluggish about walking to come in to take possession of the land."^b 10 When you come in, you will come to an unsuspecting people,^c and the land is quite wide;* for God[#] has given it into YOUR hand,^d a place where there is no lack of any sort of thing that is in the earth."^e

11 Then six hundred men girded with weapons of war, out of the family of the Dan'ites,^f departed from there, that is, from Zo'rah and Esh'ta-ol.^g 12 And they got on their way up and went camping at Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim^h in Judah. That is why they have called that place Ma'ha-neh-dan^{*i} down to this day. Look! It is west[#] of Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim. 13 After that they passed along from there to the mountainous region of E'phra-im and came as far as the house of Mi'cah.^j

14 Then the five men that had gone to spy out^k the land of La'ish^l answered and said to their brothers: "Did you know that there are in these houses an eph'od and teraphim^m and a carved imageⁿ and a molten statue?^o And now have in mind what you ought to do."^p

15 So they turned aside there and came to the house of the young man, the Levite,^q at the house of Mi'cah, and began to ask how he was getting^r along. 16 All the while the six hundred men girded with their weapons of war,^s who were of the sons of Dan,^t were standing at the entrance of the gate. 17 The five men that had gone to spy out the land^u now went on up, that they might enter in there to take^{*} the carved image^v and the eph'od^w and the teraphim^x and the molten image.^y (And the priest^z was standing at the entrance of the

Put your hand over your mouth, and go with us and become a father^c and a priest^d for us. Which is better, for you to continue a priest to the house of one^e man or for you to become a priest to a tribe and family in Israel?"^f 20 At this the heart of the priest was pleased,^g and he now took the eph'od and the teraphim and the carved image^h and came into the midst of the people.

21 Then they turned and went their way and put the little ones and the livestock and the valuable things ahead of them.ⁱ 22 They themselves had got a distance away from the house of Mi'cah when the men who were in the houses that were close by the house of Mi'cah were called together and tried to catch up with the sons of Dan. 23 When they kept crying out to the sons of Dan, then they turned their faces and said to Mi'cah: "What is the matter with you^k that you have been called together?"

24 So he said: "My gods^l that I made^m you have taken, the priestⁿ too, and you go YOUR way, and what do I have anymore?^o How, then, is it that you can say to me, 'What is the matter with you?'" 25 At this the sons of Dan said to him: "Do not let your voice be heard close to us, for fear that men bitter of soul^p may assault you people, and you have to forfeit your own soul^{*} and the soul of your household." 26 And the sons of Dan kept going on their way; and Mi'cah got to see that they were stronger than he was,^q and so he turned and went back to his house.

19 Now it happened in those days that there was no king in Israel.^r And it came about that a certain Levite was residing for a time in the remotest parts of the mountainous region of E'phra-im.^s In time he took as his wife a concubine^t from Beth'le-hem^u in Judah. 2 And his concubine began to commit fornication^v against him.^w Finally she went away from him to the house of her father at Beth'le-hem in Judah and continued there fully four months. 3 Then her husband got up and went after her to speak consolingly to her* so as to bring her back; and there were with him his attendant^{aa} and a couple of he-asses. So she had him come into her father's house. When the father of the young woman got to see him, he at once rejoiced to meet him. 4 Consequently his father-in-law, the young woman's father, took hold of him, so that he continued to dwell with him three days; and they would eat and drink, and he* would stay overnight there.^b

5 And it came about on the fourth day, when they got up early in the morning as usual, he now rose to go, but the father of the young woman said to his son-in-law: "Sustain your heart with a bit of bread^c and afterward you people may go." 6 So they sat down, and both of them began to eat and to drink together; after which the father of the young woman said to the man: "Come on, please, and stay overnight,^d and let your heart feel good."^e 7 When the man rose to go, his father-in-law kept begging him, so that he stayed overnight there again.^f

8 When he got up early in the morning on the fifth day to go, the father of the young woman then said: "Please, take sustenance for your heart."^g And they lingered until the fading away of the day. And both of them kept eating. 9 The man^h now rose to go, he and his concubineⁱ and his attendant;^j but his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him: "Look, now! The day has declined toward becoming evening. Please, STAY overnight.^k Here the day is settling down. Stay here overnight, and let your heart feel good.^l And tomorrow you people must get up early for YOUR journey, and you must go to your tent." 10 However, the man did not consent to stay overnight, but he rose and got on his way and came as far as in front of Je'bus,^a that is to say, Jerusalem;^b and with him there were the couple of he-asses saddled up, and his concubine and his attendant.*

11 While they were close by Je'bus, as the daylight had gone down considerably,^c the attendant now said to his master:* "O come, now, and let us turn aside to this city of the Jeb'u-sites^d and stay in it overnight." 12 But his master said to him: "Let us not turn aside to a city of foreigners^e who are no part of the sons of Israel; and we have to pass on as far as Gib'e-ah."^f 13 And he went on to say to his attendant: "Come and let us approach one of the places, and we must stay overnight either in Gib'e-ah or in Ra'mah."^g 14 So they passed along and kept on their way, and the sun began to set upon them when near to Gib'e-ah, which belongs to Benjamin.

15 Consequently they turned aside there to go in to stay overnight in Gib'e-ah. And they* proceeded to go in and sit down in the public square of the city, and there was nobody taking them on into the house to stay overnight.^h 16 Eventually, look! an old man coming in from his work in the field at evening,ⁱ and the man was from the mountainous region of E'phraim,^j and he was residing for a time in Gib'e-ah; but the men of the place were Ben'ja-mites.^k 17 When he raised his eyes he got to see the man, the traveler, in the public square of the city. So the old man said: "Where are you going, and where do you come from?"^l 18 In turn he said to him: "We are passing along from Beth'le-hem in Judah to the remotest parts of the mountainous region of E'phraim.^m That is where I am from, but I went to Beth'le-hem in Judah;ⁿ and it is

22 While they were making their hearts feel good,^k look! the men of the city, mere good-for-nothing men,^{*l} surrounded the house,^m shoving one another against the door; and they kept saying to the old man, the owner of the house: "Bring out the man that came into your house, that we may have intercourse with him."ⁿ 23 At that the owner of the house went on out to them and said to them:^o "No, my brothers,^p do not do anything wrong, please, since this man has come into my house. that I came, I and my concubine,^a to stay overnight. 5 And the landowners of Gib'e-ah proceeded to rise up against me and to surround the house against me by night. It was I that they figured on killing, but it was my concubine that they raped,^b and she gradually died.^c 6 Hence I grasped my concubine and cut her up and sent her into every field of Israel's inheritance,^d because they had carried on loose conduct^e and disgraceful folly in Israel.^f 7 Look! All YOU sons of Israel, give YOUR word and counsel^g here."

8 So all the people rose up as one man,^h saying: "We shall not go any of us to his tent, nor shall we turn aside any of us to his house.ⁱ 9 And now this is the thing that we shall do to Gib'e-ah. Let us go up* by lot^j against it. 10 And we must take ten men out of a hundred of all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred out of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to procure provisions for the people, that they may take action by going against Gib'e-ah* of Benjamin, in view of all the disgraceful folly^k that they* did in Israel." 11 Thus all the men of Israel were gathered against the city as one man, as allies.

12 Accordingly the tribes of Israel sent men to all the tribesmen* of Benjamin,^l saying: "What is this bad thing that has been brought about among YOU?"^m

13 And now give over the men,ⁿ the good-for-nothing men,^o that are in Gib'e-ah,^p that we may put them to death,^q and let us clear out what is bad from Israel.^r And the sons of Benjamin* did not want to listen to the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel.^s

14 Then the sons of Benjamin went gathering together out of the cities to

Gib'e-ah to go out to battle against the sons of Israel. 15 So the sons of Benjamin got to be mustered on that day from the cities, twenty-six thousand men drawing sword,^a apart from the inhabitants of Gib'e-ah, of whom seven hundred chosen men were mustered. 16 Out of all this people there were seven hundred chosen men left-handed.*^b Every one of these was a slinger of stones^c to a hairbreadth and would not miss.

17 And the men of Israel were mustered apart from Benjamin, four hundred thousand men drawing sword.^d Every one of these was a man of war.

18 And they proceeded to rise up and go on up to Beth'el and to inquire of God.^e Then the sons of Israel said: "Who of us should go up in the lead to the battle against the sons of Benjamin?"^f To this Jehovah said: "Judah in the lead."^g

19 After that the sons of Israel rose up in the morning and camped against Gib'e-ah.

20 The men of Israel now went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel proceeded to draw up in battle formation against them at Gib'e-ah.

21 So the sons of Benjamin came on out from Gib'e-ah^h and brought twenty-two thousand men in Israel down to ruin to the earth on that day.ⁱ 22 However, the people, the men of Israel, showed themselves courageous and again went drawing up in battle formation in the place where they had drawn up in formation on the first day. 23 Then the sons of Israel went up and wept^j before Jehovah until the evening and inquired of Jehovah, saying: "Shall I again approach for battle against the sons of Benjamin my brother?"^k To this Jehovah said: "Go up against him."

24 Accordingly the sons of Israel drew near to the sons of Benjamin on the second day.^l 25 In turn Benjamin came on out from Gib'e-ah to meet them on the second day and brought a further eighteen thousand men among the sons of Israel down to ruin to the earth,^a all of these drawing sword.^b 26 At that all the sons of Israel,^c even all the people, went on up and came to Beth'el^d and wept^d and sat there before Jehovah and fasted^e on that day until the evening and offered up burnt offerings^f and communion offerings^g before Jehovah. 27 After that the sons of Israel inquired of Jehovah,^h as it was there that the ark of the covenantⁱ of the [true] God was in those days. 28 Now Phin'e-has^j the son of Ele-a'zar, the son of Aaron, was standing before it in those days,^k saying: "Shall I go out yet again to battle against the sons of Benjamin my brother or shall I cease to?"^l To this Jehovah said: "Go up, because tomorrow I shall give him into your hand."^m 29 Then Israel set men in ambushⁿ against Gib'e-ah all around.

30 And the sons of Israel proceeded to go up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day, and to draw up in formation against Gib'e-ah the same as at the other times.^o 31 When the sons of Benjamin went on out to meet the people, they were drawn away from the city.^p Then, the same as at the other times, they started to strike down some of the people mortally wounded on the highways, one of which goes up to Beth'el^q and the other to Gib'e-ah,^r in the field, about thirty men in Israel.^s

32 So the sons of Benjamin began to say: "They are suffering defeat before us the same as at the first."^t As for the sons of Israel, they said: "Let us flee,^u and we shall certainly draw them away from the city onto the highways."

33 And all the men of Israel rose up from their places and went drawing up in formation at Ba'al-ta'mar, while those of Israel in ambush^v were making a charge out of their places in the vicinity of Gib'e-ah.^w 34 Thus ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel came in front of Gib'e-ah, and the fighting was heavy; and the Ben'ja-mites* did not know that calamity^a was impending over them.

35 And Jehovah proceeded to defeat Benjamin^b before Israel, so that the sons of Israel on that day brought down to ruin in Benjamin twenty-five thousand one hundred men, all of these drawing sword.^c

36 However, the sons of Benjamin imagined that the men of Israel faced defeat when they kept giving ground^d to Benjamin because they trusted in the ambush that they had set against Gib'e-ah. 37 As for the ambush, they acted quickly and went dashing toward Gib'e-ah.^e Then the ambush^f spread out and struck all the city with the edge of the sword.^g

38 Now the men of Israel had come to the arrangement with the ambush* for them to make a smoke signal* go up from the city.^h

39 When the sons of Israel turned around in the battle, Benjamin started to strike down about thirty men mortally wounded among the men of Israel,ⁱ for they said: "They are unquestionably suffering nothing but defeat before us just as in the first battle."^j 40 And the signal^k started to go up from the city as a pillar of smoke.^l So when Benjamin turned his face back, look! the whole city went up heavenward.^m 41 And the men of Israel made an about-face,ⁿ and the men of Benjamin were disturbed,^o for they saw that calamity had reached them.^p 42 Hence they turned before the men of Israel in the direction of the wilderness, and the battle followed them up closely, while the men from out of the cities were bringing them down to ruin in their midst. 43 They surrounded Benjamin.^q They pursued him without a place to rest.^r They trampled him down directly in front of Gib'e-ah^s toward the rising of the sun. 44 Finally there fell eighteen thousand men of Benjamin, all of these being valiant men.^a

45 Thus they turned and went fleeing to the wilderness to the crag of Rim'mon.^b And they made a gleanings of five thousand men of them on the highways,^c and they kept following closely after them as far as Gi'dom and so struck down two thousand more men of them.

46 And all those of Benjamin that fell on that day amounted at last to twenty-five thousand men drawing sword,^d all these being valiant men. 47 But six hundred men turned and went fleeing to the wilderness to the crag of Rim'mon, and they continued to dwell on the crag of Rim'mon^e four months.

48 And the men of Israel came back against the sons of Benjamin and went striking with the edge of the sword those of the city, [from] men to domestic animal up to all that were found.^f Also, all the cities that were found they consigned to the fire.^g

21 Now the men of Israel had sworn in Miz'pah,^h saying: "Not a man of us will give his daughter to Benjamin as a wife."ⁱ 2 Consequently the people came to Beth'el^j and kept sitting there before the [true] God^k until the evening and continued to raise their voice and indulge in a great deal of weeping.^l 3 And they would say: "Why, O Jehovah the God of Israel, has this occurred in Israel, for one tribe to be missing today from Israel?"^m 4 And it came about the next day that the people proceeded to get up early and to build an altar there and to offer up burnt offeringsⁿ and communion offerings.^o

5 Then the sons of Israel said: "Who is there out of all the tribes of Israel that has not come up in the congregation* to Jehovah, for there is a great oath^p that has taken place respecting the one that has not come up to Jehovah at Miz'pah, saying, 'Let him be put to death without fail.'"^q 6 And the sons of Israel began to feel regret over Benjamin their brother. So they said: "Today one tribe has been chopped off from Israel. 7 What shall we do to those who are left over as to wives, now that we ourselves have sworn^a by Jehovah not to give them any of our daughters as wives?"^b

8 And they went on to say: "Which one out of the tribes of Israel is it that has not come up to Jehovah at Miz'pah?"^c And, look! no one had come into the camp from Ja'besh-gil'e-ad^d to the congregation. 9 When the people were counted, well, look! there was not a man there from the inhabitants of Ja'besh-gil'e-ad. 10 Hence the assembly proceeded to send twelve thousand of the most valiant men* there and to command them, saying: "Go, and you must strike the inhabitants of Ja'besh-gil'e-ad with the edge of the sword, even the women^e and the little ones.^e 11 And this is the thing that you should do: Every male and every woman that has experienced lying with a male you should devote to destruction."^f 12 However, they found out of the inhabitants of Ja'besh-gil'e-ad^g four hundred girls, virgins,^h that had not had intercourse with a man by lying with a male. So they brought them to the camp at Shi'loh,ⁱ which is in the land of Ca'naan.

13 And all the assembly now sent and spoke to the sons of Benjamin that were on the crag of Rim'mon^j and offered them peace. 14 Accordingly Benjamin came back at that time. Then they gave them the women that they had preserved alive from the women of Ja'besh-gil'e-ad;^k but they did not find enough for them.^l 15 And the people felt regret over Benjamin^m because Jehovah had made a rupture between the tribes of Israel. 16 Consequently the older men of the assembly said: "What shall we do to the men that are left over as to wives, for womankind has been annihilated out of Benjamin?" 17 Then they said: "There should be a possession for those who have escaped of Benjamin,ⁿ that a tribe might not be wiped out of Israel. 18 As for us, we are not allowed to give them wives from our daughters, because the sons of Israel have sworn, saying, 'Cursed is the one that gives a wife to Benjamin.'^a 19 Finally they said: "Look! There is a festival of Jehovah from year to year in Shi'loh,^b which is to the north of Beth'el, toward the east of the highway that goes up from Beth'el to She'chem^c and toward the south of Le-bo'nah."

20 So they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying: "Go, and you must lie in wait in the vineyards. 21 And you must look, and, there now, when the daughters of Shi'loh come on out to dance^d in circle dances, you must also come out from the vineyards and carry off for yourselves by force each one his wife from the daughters of Shi'loh, and you must go to the land of Benjamin.

22 And it must occur that should their fathers or their brothers come to conduct a legal case against us,* we^e also shall certainly say to them, 'Do us a favor for their sakes, because we have not taken for each one his wife by war,^e for it was not you that did the giving to them at a time when you^d would become guilty.'^f

23 Accordingly the sons of Benjamin did just that way, and they proceeded to carry off wives for their number^g from the women dancing^h around, whom they snatched away; after which they went off and returned to their inheritance and built the citiesⁱ and took up dwelling in them.

24 And the sons of Israel began to disperse from there at that time, each one to his own tribe and his own family; and they went their way out from there, each one to his own inheritance.^j

1 Now it came about in the days when the judges^a administered justice that a famine^b arose in the land, and a man proceeded to go from Beth'le-hem^c in Judah to reside as an alien in the fields of Mo'ab,^d he with his wife and his two sons. 2 And the man's name was E-lim'e-lech,* and his wife's name Na'o-mi, and the names of his two sons were Mah'lon and Chil'i-on, Eph'rath-ites^{ee} from Beth'le-hem in Judah. Eventually they came to the fields of Mo'ab and continued there.

3 In time E-lim'e-lech the husband of Na'o-mi died, so that she remained with her two sons. 4 Later the men took wives for themselves, Mo'ab-ite women.^f The name of the one was Or'pah, and the name of the other Ruth.^g And they went on dwelling there for about ten years. 5 In time the two of them, Mah'lon* and Chil'i-on,* also died, so that the woman remained without her two children and her husband. 6 And she proceeded to get up with her daughters-in-law and to return from the fields of Mo'ab, for she had heard in the field of Mo'ab that Jehovah had turned his attention to* his people^h by giving them bread.ⁱ

7 And she went her way out from the place where she had continued,^j and both of her daughters-in-law were with her, and they kept walking on the road to return to the land of Judah. 8 Finally Na'o-mi said to both of her daughters-in-law: "Go, return, each one to the house of her mother. May Jehovah exercise loving-kindness* toward you,^k just as you have exercised it toward the men now dead and toward me.^l 9 May Jehovah make a gift^m to you, and do you find a resting-placeⁿ each one in the house of her husband." Then she kissed^a them, and they began to raise their voices and weep. 10 And they kept saying to her: "No, but with you we shall return to your people."^b 11 But Na'o-mi said: "Return, my daughters. Why should you go with me? Do I still have sons in my inward parts, and will they have to become your husbands?^c 12 Return, my daughters, go, for I have grown too old to get to belong to a husband. If I had said I had hope also that I should certainly become a husband's tonight and also should certainly bear sons,^d 13 would you keep waiting for them* until they could grow up? Would you keep yourselves secluded for them so as not to become a husband's? No, my daughters, for it is very bitter to me because of you, that the hand of Jehovah has gone out against me."^e

14 At that they raised their voices and wept some more, after which Or'pah kissed her mother-in-law. As for Ruth, she stuck with her.^f 15 So she said: "Look! Your widowed sister-in-law* has returned to her people and her gods.^g Return with your widowed sister-in-law."^h

16 And Ruth proceeded to say: "Do not plead with me to abandon you, to turn back from accompanying you;* for where you go I shall go, and where you spend the night I shall spend the night.ⁱ Your people will be my people,^j and your God my God.^k 17 Where you die I shall die,^l and there is where I shall be buried. May Jehovah do so to me and add^m to it if anything but death should make a separation between me and you."

18 When she got to see that she was persistent about going with her,^a then she left off speaking to her. 19 And they both continued on their way until they came to Beth'le-hem.^b And it came about that as soon as they came to Beth'le-hem, all the city became stirred up over them,^c and the women kept saying: "Is this Na'o-mi?"^d 20 And she would say to the women: "Do not call me Na'o-mi.* Call me Ma'ra,^e for the Almighty^{Δe} has made it very bitter for me.^f 21 I was full when I went,^g and it is empty-handed that Jehovah has made me return.^h Why should you call me Na'o-mi, when it is Jehovah that has humiliated meⁱ and the Almighty that has caused me calamity?"^j

22 Thus Na'o-mi made her return, Ruth the Mo'ab-ite woman, her daughter-in-law, being with her when returning from the fields of Mo'ab;^k and they came to Beth'le-hem^l at the commencement of barley harvest.^m

2 Now Na'o-mi had a kinsman*ⁿ of her husband, a man mighty in wealth,^o of the family of E-lim'e-lech, and his name was Bo'az.^{op}

2 In time Ruth the Mo'ab-ite woman said to Na'o-mi: "Let me go, please, to the field and glean^q among the ears of grain following after whoever it is in whose eyes I may find favor." So she said to her: "Go, my daughter." 3 At that she went off and entered and began to glean in the field behind the harvesters.^r Thus by chance she lighted on the tract of the field belonging to Bo'az,^s who was of the family of E-lim'e-lech.^t 4 And, look! Bo'az came from Beth'le-hem and proceeded to say to the harvesters: "Jehovah be with you."^u In turn they would say to him: "Jehovah bless you."^v who returned with Na'o-mi from the field of Mo'ab.^a 7 Then she said, 'Let me glean,^b please, and I shall certainly gather among the cut-off ears of grain behind the harvesters.' So she entered and kept on her feet from that time in the morning until her sitting down just now in the house a little while."^c

8 Later Bo'az said to Ruth: "You have heard, have you not, my daughter? Do not go away to glean in another field,^d and you must also not cross over from this place, and in that way you should keep close by my young women.^e 9 Let your eyes be on the field that they will harvest, and you must go with them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch^f you? When you are thirsty, you must also go to the vessels and drink from what the young men will draw."^g

10 At that she fell upon her face and bowed down to the earth^h and said to him: "How is it I have found favor in your eyes so that I am taken notice of, when I am a foreigner?"ⁱ 11 Then Bo'az answered and said to her: "The report^j was fully made to me of all that you have done to your mother-in-law after the death of your husband,^k and how you proceeded to leave your father and your mother and the land of your relatives and to go to a people whom you had not known formerly.^l 12 May Jehovah reward the way you act,^m and may there come to be a perfect wageⁿ for you from Jehovah the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to seek refuge."^o 13 To this she said: "Let me find favor in your eyes, my lord, because you have comforted me and because you have spoken reassuringly to* your maidservant,^p although I myself may not happen to be like one of your maidservants."^q

14 And Bo'az proceeded to say to her at mealtime: "Approach here, and you must eat some of the bread^r and dip your piece in the vinegar." So she sat down beside the harvesters, and he would hold out roasted grain^s to her

15 Then she got up to glean.^a Bo'az now commanded his young men, saying: "Let her glean also among the cut-off ears of grain, and you must not molest^b her. 16 And you should also be sure to pull out some from the bundles of ears for her, and you must leave them behind that she may glean them,^c and you must not rebuke her."

17 And she continued to glean in the field until the evening,^d after which she beat out^e what she had gleaned, and it came to be about an e'phah^{*f} of barley. 18 Then she took it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law got to see^g what she had gleaned. After that she took out what food she had left over^h when she had satisfied herself and gave it to her.

19 Her mother-in-law now said to her: "Where did you glean today, and where did you work? May the one who took notice of you become blessed."^h So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked; and she went on to say: "The name of the man with whom I worked today is Bo'az." 20 At that Na'o-mi said to her daughter-in-law: "Blessed be he of Jehovah," who has not left his loving-kindnessⁱ toward the living and the dead.^j 21 And Na'o-mi went on to say to her: "The man is related to us.¹ He is one of our repurchasers."^{km} 22 Then Ruth the Mo'ab-ite said: "He also said to me, 'Close by the young people that are mine is where you should keep until they have finished the entire harvest that I have.'ⁿ 23 So Na'o-mi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law:^p "It is better, my daughter, that you should go out with his young women, that they may not annoy you in another field."^q

23 And she continued to keep close by the young women of Bo'az to glean until the harvest of the barley^r and the harvest of the wheat came to an end. And she kept on dwelling with her mother-in-law.^a

3 Na'o-mi her mother-in-law now said to her: "My daughter, ought I not to look for a resting-place^b for you, that it may go well with you? 2 And now, is not Bo'az, with whose young women you have continued, our kinsman?^c Look! He is winnowing^d barley at the threshing floor tonight. 3 And you must wash and rub yourself with oil^e and put your mantles upon you^f and go down to the threshing floor. Do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. 4 And it should occur that when he lies down, you must also take note of the place where he lies down; and you must come and uncover him at his feet and lie down; and he, for his part, will tell you what you ought to do."

5 At that she said to her: "All that you say to me^g I shall do." 6 And she proceeded to go down to the threshing floor and to do according to all that her mother-in-law had commanded her. 7 Meantime Bo'az ate and drank, and his heart was feeling good.^h Then he went to lie down at the extremity of the grain heap. After that she came stealthily and uncovered him at his feet and lay down. 8 And it came about at midnight that the man began to tremble. So he bent himself forward, and, look! a woman lying at his feet! 9 Then he said: "Who are you?" In turn she said: "I am Ruth your slave girl, and you must spread out your skirt over your slave girl, for you are a repurchaser."^h 10 At that he said: "Blessed may you be of Jehovah,ⁱ my daughter. You have expressed your loving-kindness^j better in the last instance than in the first instance,^k in not going after the young fellows whether lowly or rich. 11 And now, my daughter, do not be afraid. All that you say I shall do for you,^l for everyone in the gate^m of my people is aware that you are an excellent woman.^m 12 And now while it is a fact that I am a repurchaser,^a there is also a repurchaser closer related than I am.^b 13 Lodge here tonight, and it must occur in the morning that if he will repurchase^c you, fine! Let him do the repurchasing. But if he does not take delight in repurchasing you, I will then repurchase you, I myself, as sure as Jehovah lives.^d Keep lying down until the morning.”

14 And she kept lying at his feet until the morning and then got up before anyone could recognize another. He now said: “Do not let it be known that a woman came to the threshing floor.”^e

15 And he went on to say: “Bring the cloak that is on you, and hold it open.” So she held it open, and he proceeded to measure out six measures* of barley and to place it upon her, after which he^f went into the city.

16 And she went her way to her mother-in-law, who now said: “Who are you, my daughter?” Accordingly she told her everything that the man had done to her. 17 And she went on to say: “These six measures of barley he gave me, for he said to me,^g ‘Do not come empty-handed to your mother-in-law.’”ⁱ 18 At that she said: “Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will turn out, for the man will have no rest unless he has brought the matter to an end today.”^g

4 As for Bo'az, he went up to the gate^h and began to sit there. And, look! the repurchaser was passing by, whom Bo'az had mentioned.ⁱ Then he said: “Do turn aside, do sit down here, So-and-so.”^j Hence he turned aside and sat down. 2 After that he took ten men of the older men*^j of the city and said: “Sit down here.” So they sat down.

3 He now said to the repurchaser:^k “The tract of the field that belonged to our brother E-lim'e-lech,^l Na'o-mi, who has returned from the field of Mo'ab,^m must sell. 4 As for me, I thought* that I should disclose it to you,^h saying, ‘Buy it^a in front of the inhabitants and the older men of my people.’^b If you will repurchase it, repurchase it; but if you will not repurchase it, do tell me, that I may know, for there is no one else but you to do the repurchasing,^c and I am next to you.” At that he said: “I shall be the one to repurchase it.”^d 5 Then Bo'az said: “On the day that you buy the field from Na'o-mi's hand, it is also from Ruth the Mo'ab-i-tess, the wife of the dead man, that you must buy it so as to cause the name of the dead man to rise upon his inheritance.”^e 6 To this the repurchaser said: “I am unable to repurchase it for myself, for fear I may ruin my own inheritance. You repurchase it for yourself with my right of repurchase, because I am not able to do the repurchasing.”

7 Now this was the custom* of former times in Israel concerning the right of repurchase and concerning the exchange, to establish every sort of thing: A man had to draw his sandal^f off and give it to his fellow, and this was the attestation in Israel. 8 So when the repurchaser* said to Bo'az: “Buy it for yourself,” he proceeded to draw his sandal off.^g 9 Then Bo'az said to the older men and all the people: “You are witnesses^h today that I do buy all that belonged to E-lim'e-lech and all that belonged to Chil'i-on and Mah'l-on from the hand of Na'o-mi. 10 And also Ruth the Mo'ab-i-tess, the wife of Mah'l-on, I do buy for myself as a wife to cause the name of the dead manⁱ to rise upon his inheritance and that the name of the dead man may not be cut off from among his brothers and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses today.”^j

11 At this all the people that were in the gate and the older men said: “Witnesses! May Jehovah grant the wife* who is coming into your house to be like Rachel^a and like Le'ah,^b both of whom built the house of Israel;^c and you prove your worth in Eph'ra-thah^d and make a notable name^e in Beth'le-hem.^e 12 And may your house become like the house of Pe'rez, whom Ta'mar bore to Judah,^f from the offspring that Jehovah will give you out of this young woman."^g

13 Accordingly Bo'az took Ruth and she became his wife and he had relations with her. So Jehovah granted her conception^h and she bore a son. 14 And the women began to sayⁱ to Na'o-mi: "Blessed be Jehovah,^j who has not let a repurchaser fail for you today; that his^k name may be proclaimed in Israel. 15 And he has become a restorer of your soul^k and one to nourish your old age,^k because your daughter-in-law who does love you,ⁱ who is better to you than seven sons,^m has given birth to him."

A woman hard pressed in spirit I am; and wine and intoxicating liquor I have not drunk, but I pour out my soul before Jehovah.^c 16 Do not make your slave girl like a good-for-nothing^d woman,* for it is out of the abundance of my concern and my vexation that I have spoken until now."^e 17 Then E'li answered and said: "Go in peace,^f and may the God of Israel grant your petition that you have asked of him."^g 18 To this she said: "Let your maidservant find favor in your eyes."^h And the woman proceeded to go on her way and to eat,ⁱ and her face became self-concerned no more.^j

19 Then they got up early in the morning and prostrated themselves before Jehovah, after which they returned and came into their house at Ra'mah.^k El-ka'nah now had intercourse^l with Han'nah his wife, and Jehovah began remembering her.^m 20 So it came about at the rolling around of a year* that Han'nah became pregnant and brought a son to birth and proceeded to call his nameⁿ Samuel,^o because, said she, "it is from Jehovah that I have asked^o him."

21 In time the man El-ka'nah went up with all his household to sacrifice to Jehovah the yearly sacrifice^p and his vow offering.^q 22 As for Han'nah, she did not go up,^r for she had said to her husband: "As soon as the boy is weaned,^s I must bring him, and he must appear before Jehovah and dwell there to time indefinite."^t 23 At this El-ka'nah her husband^u said to her: "Do what is good in your eyes.^v Stay at home until you wean him. So he went and lay down. 6 And Jehovah went on to call yet again: "Samuel!"^a At this Samuel got up and went to E'li and said: "Here I am, for you did call me." But he said: "I did not call, my son.^b Lie down again." 7 (As regards Samuel, he had not yet come to know Jehovah, and the word of Jehovah had not yet begun to be revealed to him.)^c 8 So Jehovah called again for the third time: "Samuel!" At that he got up and went to E'li and said: "Here I am, for you must have called me."

And E'li began to discern that it was Jehovah that was calling the boy. 9 Consequently E'li said to Samuel: "Go, lie down, and it must occur that, if he should call you, you must say, 'Speak, Jehovah, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 Then Jehovah came and took his position and called as at the other times: "Samuel, Samuel!" until the morning.* Then he opened the doors of Jehovah's house.^a And Samuel was afraid to tell E'li of the appearing.^b 16 But E'li called Samuel and said: "Samuel, my son!" At this he said: "Here I am." 17 And he went on to say: "What is the word that he has spoken to you? Do not, please, hide it from me.^c May God do so to you and so may he add to it^d if you should hide from me a word of all the word that he has spoken to you." 18 So Samuel told him all the words, and he did not hide anything from him. At that he said: "It is Jehovah. What is good in his eyes let him do."^e

19 And Samuel continued growing up, and Jehovah himself proved to be with him^f and did not cause any of all his words to fall to the earth.^g 20 And all Israel from Dan to Be'er-she'ba^h became aware that Samuel was one accredited for the position of prophet to Jehovah.ⁱ 21 And Jehovah proceeded to appear again^j in Shi'loh, because Jehovah revealed himself to Samuel in Shi'loh by the word of Jehovah.^k

Then Israel went out to meet the Philis'tines^a in battle; and they took up camping alongside^b Eb-en-e'zer,^c and the Philis'tines themselves encamped in A'phek.^m 2 And the Philis'tines proceeded to draw up in formationⁿ to meet Israel, and the battle went badly,* so that Israel was defeated before the Philis'tines,^o who went striking down about four thousand men^p in closed battle line

in the field. 3 When the people came to the camp the older men* of Israel began to say: "Why did Jehovah defeat us today before the Philis'tines?^a Let us take to ourselves from Shi'loh the ark of Jehovah's covenant,^b that it may come into our midst and may save us from the palm of our enemies." 4 So the people sent to Shi'loh and carried from there the ark of the covenant of Jehovah of armies, who is sitting upon* the cherubs.^c And the two sons of E'li were there with the ark of the covenant of the [true] God,^d namely, Hoph'ni and Phin'e-has.^d

5 And it came about that as soon as the ark of the covenant of Jehovah came into the camp, all the Israelites broke out into loud shouting,^e so that the earth was in a stir. 6 The Philis'tines also got to hear the sound of the shouting and began saying: "What does the sound of this loud shouting^f in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" Finally they got to know that the ark of Jehovah itself had come into the camp. 7 And the Philis'tines became afraid, because, they said: "God* has come into the camp!"^g So they said: "Woe to us, for such a thing as this never occurred before! 8 Woe to us! Who will save us from the hand of this majestic God? This is the God that was the smiter* of Egypt with every sort of slaughter in the wilderness.^h 9 Show yourselves courageous and prove yourselves men, you Philis'tines, that you may not serve the Hebrews just as they have served you;ⁱ and you must prove yourselves men and fight!" 10 Accordingly the Philis'tines fought and Israel was defeated,^j and they went fleeing each one to his tent;^{k} and the slaughter came to be very great,^a so that out of Israel there fell thirty thousand men on foot.^b 11 And the ark of God itself was captured,^c and the two sons of E'li, Hoph'ni and Phin'e-has, died.^d

12 And a man of Benjamin went running from the battle line so that he arrived at Shi'loh on that day with his garments ripped apart^e and dirt on his head.^f 13 When he arrived, there was E'li sitting on the seat by the roadside, watching, because his heart had become atremble over the ark of the [true] God.^g And the man himself went in to report in the city, and the whole city began crying out. 14 And E'li got to hear the sound of the outcry. So he said: "What does the sound of this turmoil mean?"^h And the man himself hurried that he might go in and report to E'li. 15 (Now E'li was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes had set so that he was unable to see.)ⁱ 16 And the man proceeded to say to E'li: "I am the one coming from the battle line,^{*} and I—it is from the battle line that I have fled today." At this he said: "What is the thing that has happened, my son?" 17 So the news bearer answered and said: "Israel has fled before the Philis'tines, and there has also occurred a great defeat among the people;^j and also your own two sons have died—Hoph'ni and Phin'e-has^k—and the very ark of the [true] God has been captured."^l

18 And it came about that at the moment that he mentioned* the ark of the [true] God, he began to fall from the seat backward beside the gate, and his neck got broken so that he died, because the man was old and heavy; and he himself had judged Israel forty years. 19 And his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phin'e-has, was pregnant near to giving birth, and she got to hear the report that the ark of the [true] God was captured and that her father-in-law and her husband had died. At that she bowed herself and began giving birth, because her pangs came unexpectedly* upon her.^a 20 And about the time of her death, the women standing by her began to speak: "Do not be afraid, because it is a son that you have borne."^b And she did not answer and did not set her heart on it. 21 But she called the boy Ich'a-bod,^c saying: "Glory has gone away from Israel into exile,"^d [this] with reference to the ark of the [true] God's being captured and with reference to her father-in-law and her husband.^e 22 So she said: "Glory has gone away from Israel into exile,^f because the ark of the [true] God* has been captured."^g

5 As for the Philis'tines, they took the ark^h of the [true] God and then brought it from Ebene'ezer to Ash'dod.ⁱ 2 And the Philis'tines proceeded to take the ark of the [true] God and bring it into the house of Da'gon and station it beside Da'gon.^j 3 Then the Ash'dod-ites got up early the very next day,^k and there Da'gon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of Jehovah.^k So they took^l Da'gon and returned him to his place.^l 4 When they got up early in the morning the very day after, there Da'gon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of Jehovah, with the head of Da'gon and the palms of both his hands cut off, to the threshold.^m Only the fish partⁿ had been left upon him. 5 That is why the priests of Da'gon and all those going into the house of Da'gon do not tread upon the threshold of Da'gon in Ash'dod down to this day.*

6 And the hand of Jehovahⁿ came to be heavy upon the Ash'dod-ites, and he began causing panic* and striking side of it. And you must send it away, and it must go. 9 And you must look: if it is the road to its territory that it goes up, to Beth-she'mesh,^a it is he that has done to us this great evil; but if not, we must know that it was not his hand that touched us; an accident^b it was that happened to us."

10 And the men proceeded to do accordingly. So they took two cows that were giving suck and hitched them to the wagon, and their young ones they shut up at home. 11 Then they put the ark of Jehovah upon the wagon,^c and also the box and the golden jerboas and the images of their piles.* 12 And the cows began to go straight ahead* on the road to Beth-she'mesh.^d On the one highway they went, lowing as they went,^e and they did not turn aside to the right or to the left. All the while the axis lords^f of the Philis'tines were walking after them as far as the boundary of Beth-she'mesh. 13 And people of Beth-she'mesh were reaping the wheat harvest^g in the low plain. When they raised their eyes and saw the Ark, they gave way to rejoicing at seeing it. 14 And the wagon itself came into the field of Joshua the Beth-she'mite and kept standing there, where there was a large stone. And they went splitting up the wood of the wagon, and the cows^g they offered up as a burnt offering to Jehovah.^h

15 And the Levitesⁱ themselves took the ark of Jehovah down and the box that was with it, in which the golden articles were, and they proceeded to put it upon the large stone. And the men of Beth-she'mesh,^j for their part, offered up burnt offerings, and they continued rendering up sacrifices on that day to Jehovah.

16 And the five axis^k lords of the Philis'tines themselves saw it and went their way back to Ek'ron on that day. 17 Now these are the golden piles that 1Sa 6:11* "Piles," 18 Heb. mss, to agree with vs 5; M, "tumors." 12 Lit., "began to be straight." 12 "Lowing as they went." In Heb. these are two verbs in the infinitive absolute, indefinite as to time and impersonal.

the Philis'tines returned as a guilt offering to Jehovah:^a for Ash'dod^b one, for Ga'za^c one, for Ash'ke-lon^d one, for Gath^e one, for Ek'ron^f one. 18 And the golden jerboas were to the number of all the cities of the Philis'tines belonging to the five axis lords, from the fortified city to the village of the open country.

And the great stone* upon which they rested the ark of Jehovah is a witness^z down to this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-she'mite. 19 And he went striking down the men of Beth-she'mesh,^g because they had looked upon the ark of Jehovah. So he struck down among the people seventy men—fifty thousand men^z—and the people began mourning because Jehovah had struck down the people with a great slaughter.^h 20 Further, the men of Beth-she'mesh said: "Who will be able to stand before Jehovah this holy God,ⁱ and to whom will he withdraw from off us?"^j 21 Finally they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim,^k saying: "The Philis'tines have returned the ark of Jehovah. Come down. Take it up to yourselves."^l 1Sa 6:18* "The great stone," TLXX and three Heb. mss; SyVg, "Abel the Great," to agree with M, which has 'A-vel', "Abel," instead of 'e-ven, "stone." 18 "A witness," or, "still (yet)," by different vowel pointings; M, "as far as." 19 "And he went striking down the men of Beth-shemesh," M(Sy)Vg; LXX, "And the sons of Jechoniah were not pleased with the men of Beth-shemesh," or, "And among the men of Beth-shemesh the sons of Jechoniah did not receive [it] gladly." 19 "Seventy men—fifty thousand men." In M "fifty thousand men" is not connected with "seventy men" by the conjunction waw, "and," as is the case with numbers elsewhere, as in Nu 1:21-46. This might suggest that "fifty thousand men" is an interpolation. Sy, "And Jehovah struck down among the people five thousand and seventy men"; the Arabic agrees. T^j, "And he struck down seventy men among the older men of the people, and fifty thousand among the congregation"; LXX, "And he struck down seventy men among them, and fifty thousand of the men"; Josephus (Jewish Antiquities, Book VI, chapter 1, ¶4) mentions only 70 men as killed and omits any reference to 50,000.

7 Accordingly the men of Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim^a came and brought the ark of Jehovah up and took it into the house of A-bin'a-dab^b on the hill,* and El-e-a'zar his son was the one whom they sanctified to guard the ark of Jehovah.

2 And it came about that from the day of the Ark's dwelling in Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim the days kept multiplying, so that they amounted to twenty years, and all the house of Israel went lamenting after* Jehovah.^c 3 And Samuel proceeded to say to all the house of Israel: "If it is with all YOUR heart YOU are returning to Jehovah,^d put away the foreign gods* from YOUR midst^e and also the Ash'to-reth images,^f and direct YOUR heart unswervingly to Jehovah and serve him alone,^g and he will deliver YOU from the hand of the Philis'tines."^h 4 At that the sons of Israel put away the Ba'alsⁱ and the Ash'to-reth^j images and began serving Jehovah alone.

5 Then Samuel said: "Collect all Israel^k together at Miz'pah,^l that I may pray^m in YOUR behalf to Jehovah." 6 So they were collected together at Miz'pah, and they went drawing water and pouring it out before Jehovah* and kept a fast on that day.ⁿ And they began saying there: "We have sinned against Jehovah."^o And Samuel took up judg-^ping^p the sons of Israel in Miz'pah.

7 And the Philis'tines came to hear that the sons of Israel had collected themselves together at Miz'pah, and the axis lords^q of the Philis'tines got on their way up against Israel. When the sons of Israel heard of it, they began to be afraid on account of the Philis'tines.^r 8 So the sons of Israel said to Samuel: "Do not keep silent for our sakes from calling to Jehovah our God for aid,^s that he may save us from the hand of the Philis'tines." 9 Then Samuel took a sucking lamb and offered it up as a burnt offering, a whole offering,^t to Jehovah; and Samuel began calling to Jehovah for aid in behalf of Israel,^a and Jehovah proceeded to answer him.^b 10 And it came about that while Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines themselves drew near for battle against Israel. And Jehovah now caused it to thunder with a loud noise^c on that day against the Philistines, that he might throw them into confusion;^d and they got defeated before Israel.^e 11 At that the men of Israel sallied forth from Miz'pah and went in pursuit of the Philistines and kept striking them down as far as south of Beth-car. 12 Then Samuel took a stone^f and set it between Miz'pah and Jesh'a-nah* and began to call its name Ebene-e'zer.^g Accordingly he said: "Till now Jehovah has helped us."^h 13 Thus the Philistines were subdued, and they did not come anymore into the territory of Israel;ⁱ and the hand of Jehovah continued to be against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.^j 14 And the cities that the Philistines had taken from Israel kept coming back to Israel from Ek'ron to Gath, and the territory of them Israel delivered from the hand of the Philistines.

And there came to be peace between Israel and the Am'or-ites.^j

15 And Samuel kept on judging Israel all the days of his life.^k 16 And he traveled from year to year and made the circuit of Beth'el^l and Gil'gal^m and Miz'pahⁿ and judged Israel^o at all these places. 17 But his return was to Ra'mah,^p because there was where his house was, and there he judged Israel. And he proceeded to build an altar there to Jehovah.^q

8 And it came about that as soon as Samuel had grown old he made appointments^r of his sons as judges for Israel. 2 Now the name of his firstborn son happened to be Joel,^s and the name of his second A-bi'jah;^t they were judging in Be'er-she'ba. 3 And his sons did not walk in his ways,^a but they were inclined to follow unjust profit^b and would accept a bribe^c and pervert judgment.^d

4 In time all the older men of Israel^e collected themselves together and came to Samuel at Ra'mah. 5 And said to him: "Look! You yourself have grown old, but your own sons have not walked in your ways. Now do appoint for us a king^f to judge us like all the nations." 6 But the thing was bad in the eyes of Samuel inasmuch as they had said: "Do give us a king to judge us," and Samuel began to pray to Jehovah.^g 7 Then Jehovah said to Samuel:^h "Listen to the voice of the people as respects all that they say to you;ⁱ for it is not you whom they have rejected, but it is I whom they have rejected from being king^j over them. 8 In accord with all their doings that they have done from the day of my bringing them up out of Egypt^k until this day in that they kept leaving me^l and serving other gods,^m that is the way they are doing also to you. 9 And now listen to their voice. Only this, that you should solemnly warn them, and you must tell them the rightful due of the king who will reign over them."ⁿ

10 So Samuel said all the words of Jehovah to the people who were asking a king of him. 11 And he proceeded to say: "This will become the rightful due^o of the king that will reign over you: YOUR sons he will take^p and put them as his in his chariots^q and among his horsemen,^r and some will have to run before his chariots;^s 12 and to appoint for himself chiefs* over thousands^t and chiefs over fifties,^u and [some] to do his plowing^v and to reap his harvest^w and to make his war instruments* and his chariot instruments.^y 13 And YOUR daughters he will take for ointment mixers and cooks and bakers.^z 14 And YOUR fields and YOUR vineyards* and YOUR olive groves,^b the best ones,

19 However, the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel^g and said: "No, but a king is what will come to be over us. 20 And we must become, we also, like all the nations,^h and our king must judge us and go out before us and fight our battles." 21 And Samuel gave a hearing to all the words of the people; then he spoke them in the ears of Jehovah.ⁱ 22 And Jehovah proceeded to say to Samuel: "Listen to their voice, and you must cause a king to reign for them."^j Accordingly Samuel said to the men of Israel: "Go each one to his city."

9 Now there happened to be a man of Benjamin, and his name was Kish,^k the son of A-bi'el, the son of Ze'ror, the son of Be-co'rath, the son of A-phi'-ah, a Ben'ja-min-ite,^{1} a man mighty in wealth.^m 2 And he happened to have a son whose name was Saul,ⁿ young and handsome,^{} and there was no man of the sons of Israel that was handsomer than he; from his shoulders upward he was taller than all the people.^o and they did not find [them]. And they went passing on through the land of Sha'a-lim, but they were not [there]. And he went passing on through the land of the Ben'ja-min-ites, and they did not find [them].

5 They themselves came into the land of Zuph; and Saul, for his part, said to his attendant that was with him: "Do come, and let us return, that my father may not quit attending to the she-asses and actually become anxious about us."^a 6 But he said to him: "Look, please! There is a man of God^{*b} in this city, and the man is held in honor. All that he says comes true without fail.^c Let us go there now. Perhaps he can tell us our way that we must go." 7 At this Saul said to his attendant: "And if we should go, what shall we bring to the man?^d because the bread itself has disappeared from our receptacles, and, as a gift,^e there is nothing to bring to the man of the [true] God. What is there with us?" 8 So the attendant answered Saul once more and said: "Look! There is a quarter of a shekel^{*f} of silver found in my hand, and I shall^g have to give it to the man of the [true] God, and he will have to tell us our way."^h 9 (In former times in Israel this was the way the man would have talked on his going to seek God: "COME, and let us go to the seer."ⁱ For the prophet of today used to be called a seer in former times.) 10 Then Saul said to his attendant: "Your word is good.^h Do come, let us go." And they went their way to the city where the man of the [true] God was.

11 While they were going up on the ascent to the city, they themselves found girls going out to draw water.ⁱ So they said to them: "Is the seer^j in this place?" 12 Then they answered them and said: "He is. Look! He is ahead of you. Hurry now, because today he has come to the city, for there is a sacrifice^k today for the people on the high place.^l 13 As soon as you men come into the city, you will directly find him before he goes up to the high place to eat; because the people may not eat until his coming, for he is the one that blesses the sacrifice.^a First after that those who are invited may eat. And now go up, because him—just now you will find him.” 14 Accordingly they went on up to the city. As they were coming into the middle of the city, why, there was Samuel coming out to meet them to go up to the high place.

15 As for Jehovah, he had uncovered the ear^b of Samuel the day before Saul came, saying: 16 “Tomorrow about this time I shall send to you a man from the land of Benjamin,^c and you must anoint^d him as leader over my people Israel; and he must save my people from the hand of the Philis’tines,^e because I have seen [the affliction of] my people,^{*} for their outcry has come to me.”^f 17 And Samuel himself saw Saul, and Jehovah, for his part, answered him: “Here is the man of whom I said to you, ‘This is the one that will keep my people within bounds.’”^g

18 Then Saul approached Samuel in the middle of the gate and said: “Do tell me, please, Just where is the house of the seer?” 19 And Samuel proceeded to answer Saul and say: “I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, and you men must eat with me today,^h and I must send you away in the morning, and all that is in your heart I shall tell you.” 20 As regards the she-asses that were lost to you three days ago,ⁱ do not set your heart^k on them, for they have been found. And to whom does all that is desirable of Israel belong?^l Is it not to you and to the whole house of your father?” 21 At this Saul answered and said: “Am I not a Ben’jaminite of the smallest^m of the tribes of Israel,ⁿ and my family the most insignificant of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin?^o So why have you spoken to me a thing like this?”^p

will certainly find two men close by the tomb of Rachel^a in the territory of Benjamin at Zel'zah, and they will certainly say to you, "The she-asses that you have gone to look for have been found, but now your father has given up the matter of the she-asses^b and has become anxious about YOU men, saying: "What shall I do about my son?"^c 3 And you must pass on from there still farther and come as far as the big tree of Ta'bor, and there there must encounter you three men going up to the [true] God at Beth'el,^d one carrying three kids^e and one carrying three round loaves of bread^f and one carrying a large jar of wine.^g 4 And they will certainly ask about your welfare^h and give you two loaves, and you must accept them from their hand. 5 It is after that that you will come to the hill of the [true] God,ⁱ where there is a garrison^j of the Philis'tines. And it should come about that at the time of your coming there to the city, you will certainly meet a group of prophets^k coming down from the high place,^l and ahead of them a stringed instrument^m and tambourineⁿ and flute^o and harp,^p while they are speaking as prophets. 6 And the spirit^q of Jehovah will certainly become operative upon you, and you will certainly speak as a prophet^r along with them and be changed into another man. 7 And it must occur that when these signs^s come to you, do for yourself what your hand finds possible,^t because the [true] God is with you.^u 8 And you must go down ahead of me to Gil'gal,^v and, look! 9 And it occurred that as soon as he turned his shoulder to go from Samuel, God began changing the heart of his into another;^y and all these signs^z proceeded to come true on that day. 10 So they went from there to the hill, and here there was a group of prophets to meet him; at once the spirit of God became operative upon him,^a and he began to speak as a prophet^b in the middle of them. 11 And it came about that when all those knowing him formerly saw him, look! it was with prophets that he prophesied. Consequently the people said one to another: "What is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?"^c 12 Then a man from there answered and said: "But who is their father?" That is why it has become a proverbial^d saying: "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

13 At length he finished speaking as a prophet and came to the high place. 14 Later the brother of Saul's father said to him and to his attendant: "Where did you go?" Upon that he said: "To look for the she-asses,^e and we kept on going to see, but they were not [there]. So we came to Samuel." 15 At this Saul's uncle said: "Do tell me, please, What did Samuel say to YOU men?" 16 In turn Saul said to his uncle: "He told us unmistakably that the she-asses had been found." And the matter of the kingship about which Samuel had talked, he did not tell him.^f

17 And Samuel proceeded to call the people together to Jehovah at Miz'pah^g 18 and to say to the sons of Israel: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said,^h 'It was I who brought Israel up out of Egypt and who went delivering you from the hand of Egyptⁱ and from the hand of all the kingdoms that were oppressing YOU.^j 19 But YOU—today YOU have rejected YOUR God^k who was a savior to YOU out of all YOUR evils and YOUR distresses, and YOU went on to say: "No, but* a king is what you should put over us." And now take YOUR stand before Jehovah by YOUR tribes^l and by YOUR thousands.'"^m

20 Accordingly Samuel had all the tribes of Israel draw near,ⁿ and the tribe of Benjamin came to be picked.^o 21 Then he had the tribe of Benjamin draw near by its families, and the family of the Mat'rites came to be picked.^a Finally Saul the son of Kish came to be picked.^b And they went looking for him, and he was not to be found. 22 Hence they inquired^c further of Jehovah: "Has the man come here as yet?" To this Jehovah said: "Here he is, hidden^d among the luggage." 23 So they went running and took him from there. When he took his stand in the middle of the people, he was taller than all the other people from his shoulders upward.^e 24 Then Samuel said to all the people: "Have you seen the one whom Jehovah has chosen,^f that there is none like him among all the people?" And all the people began to shout and say: "Let the king live!"^g

25 Upon that Samuel spoke to the people about the rightful due of the kingship^h and wrote it in a book and deposited it before Jehovah. Then Samuel sent all the people away, each one to his house. 26 As for Saul himself, he went to his home at Gib'e-ah,ⁱ and the valiant men whose heart God had touched proceeded to go with him.^j 27 As for the good-for-nothing men,^k they said: "How will this one save us?"^l Accordingly they despised^m him, and they did not bring any gift to him.ⁿ But he continued like one grown speechless.^{*o}

11 And Na'hash the Am'mon-ite^p proceeded to go up and camp against Ja'besh^q in Gil'e-ad.^{*} At that all the men of Ja'besh said to Na'hash: "Conclude a covenant with us that we may serve you."^r 2 Then Na'hash the Am'mon-ite said to them: "On this condition I shall conclude it with you, on the condition of boring^s out every right eye of yours, and I must put it as a reproach upon all Israel."^t 3 In turn the older men of Ja'besh said to him: "Give us seven days' time, and we will send messengers into all the territory of Israel and, if there is no savior^u of us, we must then go out to you." 4 In time the messengers came to Gib'e-ah^a of Saul and spoke the words in the ears of the people, and all the people began raising their voice and weeping.^b

5 But here is Saul coming after the herd from the field, and Saul proceeded to say: "What is the matter with the people, that they should weep?" And they began relating to him the words of the men of Ja'besh. 6 And the spirit^c of God^{} became operative upon Saul on his hearing these words, and his anger got very hot.^d 7 So he took a pair of bulls and cut them in pieces and sent these into all the territory of Israel^e by the hand of the messengers, saying: "Whoever of us is not going out as a follower of Saul and of Samuel, this is the way it will be done to his cattle!"^f And the dread^g of Jehovah^h began to fall upon the people so that they came out as one man.ⁱ 8 Then he took the sum^j of them in Be'zek, and the sons of Israel amounted to three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. 9 They^{} now said to the messengers that had come: "This is what you will say to the men of Ja'besh in Gil'e-ad, 'Tomorrow salvation will take place for you when the sun gets hot.'"^k With that the messengers came and told the men of Ja'besh, and they gave way to rejoicing. 10 Accordingly the men of Ja'besh said: "Tomorrow we shall come out to you people, and you must do to us in harmony with all that is good in your eyes."^l

11 And it came about on the next day that Saul^m proceeded to put the people into three bands;ⁿ and they made their way into the middle of the camp during the morning watch^{o} and went striking down the Am'mon-ites^p till the day grew hot. 14 Later Samuel said to the people: "Come and let us go to Gil'gal^f that we may there make the kingship anew."^g 15 So all the people went to Gil'gal, and there they proceeded to make Saul king before Jehovah in Gil'gal. Then they rendered up communion sacrifices there before Jehovah,^h and there Saul and all the men of Israel continued rejoicing to a great degree.ⁱ

12 Finally Samuel said to all Israel: "Here I have listened to YOUR voice as respects all that you have said to me,^j that I should cause a king to reign over you.^k 2 And now here is the king walking before you!^l As for me, I have grown old^m and gray,ⁿ and my sons, here they are with you,^o and I—I have walked before you from my youth until this day.^p 3 Here I am. 13 Saul was [?]* years old when he began to reign,^f and for two years he reigned over Israel. 2 And Saul proceeded to choose for himself three thousand men out of Israel; and two thousand came to be with Saul at Mich'mash^g and in the mountainous region of Beth'el, and a thousand proved to be with Jon'a-than^h at Gib'eahⁱ of Benjamin, and the rest of the people he sent away, each one to his tent.*

As for Saul, he had the horn blown^m throughout all the land, saying: "Let the Hebrews hear!" 4 And all Israel itself heard tell: "Saul has struck down a garrison of the Philis'tines, and now Israel has become foul-smelling" among the Philis'tines." So the people were called together to follow Saul to Gil'gal.^o

5 And the Philis'tines, for their part, collected themselves together to fight against Israel, thirty* thousand war chariots^p and six thousand horsemen and people like the grains of sand that are upon the seashore for multitude;^q and they went their way up and began camping in Mich'mash to the east of Beth-a'ven.^r 6 And the men of Israel themselves saw that they were in sore straits,^s because the people were hard pressed; and the people went hiding themselves in the caves^t and the hollows and the crags and the vaults* and the waterpits. 7 Hebrews even in Ge'ba^a of Benjamin. As for the Philis'tines, they had encamped in Mich'mash.^b 17 And the force of pillagers would sally forth from the camp of the Philis'tines in three bands.^c The one band would turn to the road to Oph'rah,^d to the land of Shu'al, 18 and the other band would turn to the road of Beth-ho'ron,^e and the third band would turn to the road to the boundary that looks toward the valley of Ze-bo'im,^{*} toward the wilderness.

19 Now there was not a smith to be found in all the land of Israel, because the Philis'tines had said: "That the Hebrews may not make a sword or a spear."^f 20 And all the Israelites would go down to the Philis'tines to get each one his plowshare or his mattock or his ax or his sickle sharpened.^g 21 And the price for sharpening proved to be a pim^{*} for the plowshares and for the mattocks and for the three-toothed instruments and for the axes and for fixing fast the oxgoad.^h 22 And it happened on the day of battle that not a swordⁱ or a spear was found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jon'a-than; but there could be found one belonging to Saul^j and to Jon'a-than his son.

23 Now an outpost^k of the Philis'tines would sally forth to the ravine pass of Mich'mash.^l

14 And it came about one day that Jon'a-than^m the son of Saul proceeded to say to the attendant carrying his weapons: "Do come and let us cross over to the outpost of the Philis'tines who are across over there." But to his father he did not tell it.ⁿ 2 And Saul was dwelling at the outskirts of Gib'e-ah^o under the pomegranate tree that is in Mig'ron; and the people that were with him were about six hundred men.^p 3 (And A-hi'jah the son of A-hi'tub,^q the brother of Ich'a-bod,^r the son of Phin'e-has,^s the son of E'li,^t the priest of Jehovah in Shi'loh,^a was carrying the eph'od.^b And the people themselves did not know that Jon'a-than had gone. 4 Now between the passages that Jon'a-than looked for to cross over against the outpost^c of the Philis'tines there was a toothlike crag* here on this side and a toothlike crag there on that side, and the name of the one was Bo'zez and the name of the other was Se'neh. 5 The one tooth was a pillar* on the north facing Mich'mash,^d and the other was on the south facing Ge'ba.^e

6 So Jon'a-than* said to the attendant, his armor-bearer: "Do come and let us cross over to the outpost of these uncircumcised^f men. Perhaps Jehovah will work for us, for there is no hindrance to Jehovah to save by many or by few."^g 7 At this his armor-bearer said to him: "Do whatever is in your heart. Turn where you wish to. Here I am with you in accord with your heart."^h 8 Then Jon'a-than said: "Here we are crossing over to the men, and let us expose ourselves to them. 9 If this is the way they should say to us, 'Stand still until we make contact with you!' we must then stand where we are, and we should not go on up to them. 10 But if this is the way they should say, 'Come up against us!' we must then go up, because Jehovah will certainly give them into our hand, and this is for us the sign."ⁱ

11 With that the two of them exposed themselves to the outpost of the Philis'tines. And the Philis'tines proceeded to say: "Here are the Hebrews coming out from the holes where they have hidden themselves."^j 12 So the men of the outpost answered Jon'a-than and his armor-bearer and said: "Come on up to us, and we will let you know a thing!"^k At once Jon'a-than said to his armor-bearer: "Come up after me, because Jehovah will certainly give them into the hand of Israel."^l 13 And Jon'a-than kept going up on his hands^m and his feet, and his armor-bearer after him; and they began to fall before Jon'a-than,^a and his armor-bearer was putting them to death behind him.^b 14 And the first slaughter with which Jon'a-than and his armor-bearer struck them down amounted to about twenty men within about half the plowing line in an acre of field.*

15 Then a trembling^c occurred in the camp in the field and among all the people of the outpost; and the force of pillagers^d trembled, even they, and the earth began quaking,^e and it developed into a trembling from God.^f 16 And the watchmen belonging to Saul in Gib'eah^g of Benjamin got to see it, and, look! the turmoil swayed this way and that.^h

17 And Saul proceeded to say to the people that were with him: "Take the count, please, and see who has gone out from us." When they took the count, why, look! Jon'a-than and his armor-bearer were not there. 18 Saul now said to A-hi'jah:ⁱ "Do bring the ark of the [true] God near!"^j (For the ark of the [true] God proved to be on that day with the sons of Israel.)^k 19 And it came about that while Saul was speaking to the priest,^l the turmoil that was in the camp of the Philis'tines continued to go on, getting greater and greater. Then Saul said to the priest: "Withdraw your hand." 20 Thus Saul and all the people that were with him were called out.^m So they came as far as the battle, and there the sword of each one had come to be against his fellowman;ⁿ the rout was very great. 21 And the Hebrews that had come to belong to the Philis'tines^o as formerly and that had gone up with them into the camp round about, even they too were for proving themselves to be with Israel who was

24 And the men of Israel themselves were hard pressed* on that day, and yet Saul put the people under the pledge of an oath,^{#d} saying: "Cursed is the man that eats bread before the evening and until I have taken vengeance^e upon my enemies!" And none of the people tasted bread.^f

25 And all those of the land came into the woods, when honey^g happened to be over all the surface of the field. 26 When the people came into the woods, why, look! there was a dripping of honey,^h but there was no one putting his hand to his mouth, because the people were afraid of the oath.ⁱ

27 As for Jon'a-than, he had not been listening when his father put the people under an oath,^j so he stretched out the tip of the rod that was in his hand and dipped it into the honeycomb and drew his hand back to his mouth, and his eyes began to beam.^k 28 At this one of the people answered and said: "Your father solemnly put the people under oath, saying, 'Cursed is the man that eats bread today!'"^l (And the people began to get tired.)^m 29 However, Jon'a-than said: "My father has brought ostracismⁿ upon the land. how my eyes have beamed because I tasted this little bit of honey.^a 30 How much more so if the people had but eaten^b today from the spoil of their enemies that they found!^c For now the slaughter upon the Phi-lis'tines has not been great."^d

31 And on that day they kept striking down the Phi-lis'tines from Mich'mash^e to Ai'ja-lon,^f and the people got to be very tired.^g 32 And the people began darting greedily at the spoil^h and taking sheep and cattle and calves and slaughtering them on the earth, and the people fell to eating along with the blood.ⁱ 33 So they told Saul, saying: "Look! The people are sinning against Jehovah by eating along with the blood."^j At this he said: "YOU have dealt treacherously. First of all, roll a great stone to me." 34 After that Saul said: "Scatter among the people, and YOU must say to them, 'Bring near to me, each one of you, his bull and, each one, his sheep, and you must do the slaughtering in this place and the eating, and YOU must not sin against Jehovah by eating along with the blood.'"^k Accordingly all the people brought near each one his bull that was in his hand that night and did the slaughtering there. 35 And Saul proceeded to build an altar^l to Jehovah. With it he started altar building to Jehovah.^m

36 Later Saul said: "Let us go down after the Phi-lis'tines by night and plunder them until the morning lightens up,ⁿ and let us not leave a single one among them."^o To this they said: "Anything that is good in your eyes do." Then the priest said: "Let us approach here to the [true] God."^p 37 And Saul began to inquire of God: "Shall I go down after the Phi-lis'tines?^q Will you give them into the hand of Israel?"^r And he did not answer him on that day.^s 38 So Saul said: "Come near here,^t all YOU keymen* of the people,^u and ascertain and see in what way this sin has come to be today. 39 For as Jehovah, who is the Deliverer of Israel, is alive, even if it is in Jon'a-than my son, yet he will positively die."^a But there was no one answering him out of all the people. 40 And he went on to say to all Israel: "YOU yourselves will come to be on the one side, and I and Jon'a-than my son—we will come to be on the other side." At this the people said to Saul: "What is good in your eyes do."^b

41 And Saul proceeded to say to Jehovah: "O God of Israel,* do give Thum'mim!"^c Then Jon'a-than and Saul were taken, and the people themselves went out.^d 42 Saul now said: "CAST lots^e to decide between me and Jon'a-than my son." And Jon'a-than got to be taken. 43 Then Saul said to Jon'a-than: "Do tell me, What have you done?"^f So Jon'a-than told him and said: "I did for a fact taste a little honey on the tip of the rod that is in my hand.^g Here I am! Let me die!"

44 At this Saul said: "Thus may God do and thus may he add to it,^h if you do not positively die,ⁱ Jon'a-than." 45 But the people said to Saul: "Is Jon'a-than to die, who has performed this great salvation^j in Israel? It is unthinkable!^k As Jehovah is alive,^l not as much as a single hair^m of his head will fall to the earth; for it was with God that he worked this day."ⁿ With that the people redeemed^o Jon'a-than, and he did not die.

46 So Saul withdrew from following the Philis'tines, and the Philis'tines themselves went to their place.^p

47 And Saul himself took the kingship over Israel^q and went warring round about against all his enemies, against Mo'ab^r and against the sons of Am'mon^s and against E'dom^t and against the kings of Zo'bah^u and against the Philis'tines;^v and wherever he would turn he administered condemnation.*^w 48 And he went on acting valiantly^x

1Sa 14:41* LXX adds: "why is it that you did not answer your servant today? If in me or in Jonathan my son the unrighteousness is, O Jehovah, the God of Israel, give clear manifestations [Urim]. And if thus you should say, In your people Israel, then give holiness [Thummim]"; ItVg^c make a similar addition. See Ex 28:30 ftn, "Thummim." 47 Or, "he was victorious," in agreement with LXXVg; M, "he treated as wicked (condemned)."

22 In turn Samuel said: "Does Jehovah have as much delight in burnt offerings^p and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of Jehovah? Look! among women.”^a With that Samuel went hacking A'gag to pieces before Jehovah in Gil'gal.^b

34 Samuel now went his way to Ra'mah, and Saul, for his part, went up to his own house at Gib'e-ah^c of Saul.

35 And Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, because Samuel had gone into mourning^d for Saul. As for Jehovah, he regretted that he had made Saul king over Israel.^e

16 Eventually Jehovah said to Samuel: “For how long will you be mourning for Saul,^f while I, on the other hand, have rejected him from ruling as king over Israel?^g Fill your horn with oil^h and go. I shall send you to Jes'seⁱ the Beth'le-hem-ite, because I have provided among his sons a king for myself.”^j 2 But Samuel said: “How can I go? Once Saul has heard of it he will certainly kill me.”^k And Jehovah went on to say: “A young cow of the herd you should take with you,^{*} and you must say, ‘To sacrifice to Jehovah is why I have come.’” 3 And you must call Jes'se to the sacrifice; and I, for my part, shall make known to you what you should do,^m and you must anointⁿ for me the one whom I designate to you.”

4 And Samuel proceeded to do what Jehovah spoke. When he came to Beth'le-hem^o the older men of the city began to tremble^p at meeting him, and so they said: “Does your coming mean peace?”^q 5 To this he said: “It means peace. To sacrifice to Jehovah is why I have come. Sanctify^r yourselves, and you must come with me to the sacrifice.” Then he sanctified Jes'se and his sons, after which he called them to the sacrifice. 6 And it came about that, as they came in and he caught sight of E-li'ab,^s he at once said: “Surely his anointed one* is before Jehovah.” 7 But Jehovah said to Samuel: “Do not look at his appearance and at the height of his stature,^t for I have rejected him. For not the way man sees [is the way God sees],^u because mere man sees what appears to the eyes;^a but as for Jehovah, he sees what the heart^b is.”^c 8 Then Jes’s^e called A-bin’a-dab^c and had him pass before Samuel, but he said: “Neither has Jehovah chosen this one.” 9 Next Jes’s^e had Sham-mah^d pass by, but he said: “Neither has Jehovah chosen this one.” 10 So Jes’s^e had seven of his sons pass before Samuel; still Samuel said to Jes’s^e: “Jehovah has not chosen these.”

11 Finally Samuel said to Jes’s^e: “Are these all the boys?” To this he said: “The youngest one has till now been left out,^e and, look! he is pasturing the sheep.”^f At that Samuel said to Jes’s^e: “Do send and fetch him, because we shall not sit down to meal until his coming here.” 12 Accordingly he sent and had him come. Now he was ruddy,^g a young man with* beautiful eyes and handsome in appearance. Then Jehovah said: “Get up, anoint him, for this is he!”^h 13 Accordingly Samuel took the horn of oilⁱ and anointed him in the midst of his brothers. And the spirit of Jehovah began to be operative upon David from that day forward.^j Later Samuel rose and went his way to Ra’mah.^k

14 And the very spirit of Jehovah departed^l from Saul, and a bad spirit^m from Jehovah terrorized him. 15 And the servants of Saul began to say to him: “Here, now, God’s* bad spirit is terrorizing you. 16 Let our lord, please, command your servants before you that they should look for a skilled manⁿ playing upon the harp.^o And it must occur that, when God’s bad spirit comes to be upon you, he will have to play with his hand, and it will certainly be well with you.” 17 So Saul said to his servants: “Provide me, please, a man doing well at playing, and you must bring him to me.”^p

18 And one of the attendants proceeded to answer and say: “Look! I have seen how a son of Jes’s^e the Beth’le-

17 And the Philis’tines^m went collecting their camps together for war. When they were collected together at So’coh,ⁿ which belongs to Judah, then they took up camping between So’coh and A-ze’kah,^o in E’phes-dam’mim.^p 2 As for Saul and the men of Israel, they collected themselves together and took up camping in the low plain of E’lah,^q and they went drawing up in battle formation to meet the Philis’tines. 3 And the Philis’tines were standing on the mountain on this side, and the Israelites were standing on the mountain on that side, with the valley between them.

4 And a champion began to go out from the camps of the Philis’tines, his name being Goli’ath,^r from Gath,^s his height being six cubits and a span.^t 5 And there was a helmet of copper on his head, and he was clad with a coat of mail, of overlapping scales, and the weight of the coat of mail^u was five thousand shekels* of copper. 6 And there were greaves of copper above his feet and a javelin^a of copper between his shoulders. 7 And the wooden shaft of his spear was like the beam of loom workers,^b and the blade of his spear was six hundred shekels^c of iron; and the bearer of the large shield was marching ahead of him. 8 Then he stood still and began to call to the battle lines of Israel^c and say to them: "Why do you come out to draw up in battle formation? Am I not the Philis'tine and you servants^d belonging to Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. 9 If he is able to fight with me and he does strike me down, we must then become servants to you. But if I myself am a match for him and I do strike him down, you must also become servants to us, and you must serve us."^e 10 And the Philis'tine went on to say: "I myself do taunt^f the battle lines of Israel this day. Give me a man, and let us fight together!"^g

11 When Saul^h and all Israel heard these words of the Philis'tine, then they became terrified and were greatly afraid.ⁱ

12* Now David was the son of this Eph'rath-ite^j from Beth'le-hem of Judah whose name was Jes'se. And he had eight sons.^k And in the days of Saul the man was already old among men.^l

13 And the three oldest sons of Jes'se proceeded to go. They went after Saul to the war,^m and the names of his three sons that went into the war were E-li'abⁿ the firstborn, and his second son A-bin'a-dabⁿ and the third Sham'mah.^o 14 And David was the youngest,^p and the three oldest themselves went after Saul.

15 And David was going and returning from Saul to tend the sheep^q of his father at Beth'le-hem. 16 And the Philis'tine kept coming forward at early morning and at evening and taking his position for forty days.

17 Then Jes'se said to David his son:

20 Accordingly David got up early in the morning and left the sheep to the keeper's charge and picked up and went just as Jes'se had commanded him.^f When he came to the camp enclosure,^g the military forces were going out to the battle line,^h and they raised a shout for the battle. 21 And Israel and the Philis'tines began drawing up battle line to meet battle line. 22 Immediately David left the baggageⁱ from off him to the care of the keeper of the baggage^j and went running to the battle line. When he came, he began asking about the welfare of his brothers.^k

23 While he was speaking with them, why, here the champion, his name being Goli'ath^l the Philis'tine from Gath,^m was coming up from the battle lines of the Philis'tines, and he began speaking the same words as before,ⁿ and David got to listen in. 24 As for all the men of Israel, on their seeing the man, why, they went fleeing on account of him and were very much afraid.^o 25 And the men of Israel began to say: "Have you seen this man that is coming up? For it is to taunt^p Israel that he is coming up. And it must occur that, the man who strikes him down, the king will enrich him with great riches, and his own daughter he will give him,^q and the house of his father he will set free in Israel."^r

26 And David began to say to the men that were standing close by him: "What will be done to the man that strikes down that Philis'tine^s over there and actually turns away reproach from upon Israel?^a For who is this uncircumcised^b Philis'tine that he has to taunt^c the battle lines of the living God?"^d

27 Then the people said to him the same words as before, saying: "This is the way it will be done to the man that strikes him down." 28 And E-li'ab^e his oldest brother got to hear as he spoke to the men, and E-li'ab's anger grew hot against David,^f so that he said: "Why is it that you have come down? And in whose charge did you leave those few sheep behind in the wilderness?"^g I myself well know your presumptuousness and the badness of your heart,^h because you have come down for the purpose of seeing the battle."ⁱ 29 To this David said: "What have I done now? Was it not just a word?"^j 30 With that he turned about from beside him toward someone else and went saying the same word as before,^k and, in turn, the people gave him the same reply as formerly.^l

31 So the words that David spoke came to be heard, and they went telling them before Saul. Hence he fetched him.* 32 And David proceeded to say to Saul: "Do not let the heart of any man* collapse within him.^m Your servant himself will go and actually fight with this Philis'tine."ⁿ 33 But Saul said to David: "You are not able to go against this Philis'tine to fight with him,^o for you are but a boy,^p and he is a man of war from his boyhood." 34 And David went on to say to Saul: "Your servant became a shepherd of his father among the flock, and there came a lion,^q and also a bear, and [each] carried off a sheep from the drove. 35 And I went out after it and struck it down^r and made the rescue from its mouth. 37 Then David added:* "Jehovah, who delivered me from the paw^e of the lion and from the paw of the bear, he it is who will deliver me from the hand of this Philis'tine."^f At this Saul said to David: "Go, and may Jehovah himself prove to be with you."^g

38 Saul now went clothing David with his garments, and he put a copper helmet upon his head, after which he clothed him with a coat of mail. 39 Then David girded his sword on over his garments and undertook to go [but could not], because he had not tried them out.* Finally David said to Saul: "I am unable to go in these things, for I have not tried them out." So David removed them off him.^h 40 And he proceeded to take his staff in his hand and to choose for himself the five smoothest stones from the torrent valley and to place them in his shepherds' bag that served him as a receptacle, and in his hand was his sling.ⁱ And he began approaching the Philis'tine.

41 And the Philis'tine began to come, coming nearer and nearer to David, and the man carrying the large shield was ahead of him. 42 Now when the Philis'tine looked and saw David, he began despising^j him because he proved to be a boy^k and ruddy,^k of beautiful appearance.^l 43 So the Philis'tine said to David: "Am I a dog,^m so that you are coming to me with staves?" With that the Philis'tine called down evil upon David by his gods.ⁿ 44 And the Philis'tine went on to say to David: "Just come to me, and I will give your flesh to the fowls of the heavens and to the beasts of the field."^o

45 In turn David said to the Philis'tine: "You are coming to me with a sword and with a spear and with a javelin,^p but I am coming to you with the name of Jehovah of armies,^q the

48 And it occurred that the Philis'tine rose and kept coming and drawing nearer to meet David, and David began hurrying and running toward the battle line to meet the Philis'tine.^h 49 Then David thrust his hand into his bag and took a stone from there and slung it, so that he struckⁱ the Philis'tine in his forehead and the stone sank into his forehead,^{*} and he went falling upon his face to the earth.^j 50 So David, with a sling and a stone, proved stronger than the Philis'tine and struck the Philis'tine down and put him to death; and there was no sword in David's hand.^k 51 And David continued running and got to stand over the Philis'tine. Then he took his sword^l and pulled it out of its sheath and definitely put him to death when he cut his head off with it.^m And the Philis'tines got to see that their mighty one had died, and they took to flight.ⁿ

the Philis'tines kept falling on the way from Sha'ara'im,^{*a} both as far as Gath and as far as Ek'ron. 53 Afterward the sons of Israel returned from hotly pursuing the Philis'tines and went pillaging^b their camps.

55* Now at the moment that Saul saw David going out to meet the Philis'tine, he said to Ab'ner^e the chief of the army: "Whose^f son is the boy,^g Ab'ner?" To this Ab'ner said: "By the life of your soul, O king, I do not know at all!" 56 So the king said: "You inquire whose son the lad is." 57 Accordingly, as soon as David returned from striking the Philis'tine down, Ab'ner proceeded to take him and bring him before Saul with the head^h of the Philis'tine in his hand. 58 Saul now said to him: "Whose son are you, boy?" to which David said: "The son of your servant Jes'seⁱ the Beth'le-hem-ite."^j

18 And it came about that, as soon as he had finished speaking to Saul, Jon'a-than's*^k very soul became bound^l up with the soul of David, and Jon'a-than began to love him as his own soul.^m 2 Then Saul took him on that day, and he did not allow him to return to his father's house.ⁿ 3 And Jon'a-than and David proceeded to conclude a covenant,^o because of his loving him as his own soul.^p 4 Further, Jon'a-than stripped himself of the sleeveless coat that was on him and gave it to David, and also his garments, and even his sword and his bow and his belt. 5 And David began going out. Wherever Saul would send him he would act prudently,^q so that Saul placed him over the men of war;^r and it seemed good in the eyes of all the people and also in the eyes of the servants of Saul.

6 And it came about that at their coming in, when David returned from striking the Philis'tines* down,^a the women began coming out from all the cities of Israel with song^a and dances to meet Saul the king, with tambourines,^b with rejoicing^c and with lutes. 7 And the women that were celebrating kept responding and saying:

"Saul has struck down his thousands,
And David his tens of thousands."^d

8 And Saul began to be very angry,^e and this saying was bad from his viewpoint,^{*} so that he said: "They have given David tens of thousands, but to me they have given the thousands, and there is yet only the kingship to give him!"^f 9 And Saul was continually looking suspiciously at David from that day forward.^g

10 And it came about the next day^h that God's bad spirit became operative upon Saul,ⁱ so that he behaved like a prophet^j within the house, while David was playing music with his hand,^k as in former days; and the spear was in Saul's hand.^l 11 And Saul proceeded to hurl the spear^m and say: "I will pin David even to the wall!"ⁿ but David turned aside from before him, twice.^o 12 And Saul grew afraid^p of David because Jehovah proved to be with him,^q but from Saul he had departed.^r 13 Consequently Saul removed him from his company^s and appointed him as chief of a thousand for him; and he regularly went out and came in before the people.^t 14 And David was continually acting prudently^u in all his ways, and Jehovah was with him.^v 15 And Saul kept seeing that he was acting very prudently,^w so that he was scared of him. 16 And all Israel and Judah were lovers of David, because he was going out and coming in before them.

17 Finally Saul said to David: "Here is my oldest daughter Me'rab.^x She is the one that I shall give you as a wife.^y Only prove yourself a valiant person to me and fight the wars* of Jehovah."^z But as for Saul, he said to himself:

"Do not let my hand come to be upon him, but let the hand of the Philis'tines come to be upon him."^a 18 At this David said to Saul: "Who am I and who are my kinsfolk, my father's family, in Israel, so that I should become son-in-law to the king?"^b 19 However, it came about that at the time for giving Me'rab, Saul's daughter, to David, she herself had already been given to A'dri-el^c the Me-hol'ath-ite^d as a wife.

20 Now Mi'chal,^e Saul's daughter, was in love with David, and they went reporting it to Saul, and the matter was to his liking.^{} 21 So Saul said: "I shall give her to him that she may serve as a snare to him,^f and that the hand of the Philis'tines may come to be upon him." Accordingly Saul said to David: "By [one of] the two women you will form a marriage alliance with me today." 22 Further, Saul commanded his servants: "Speak to David secretly, saying, 'Look! The king has found delight in you, and all his servants themselves have fallen in love with you. So now form a marriage alliance with the king.'" 23 And the servants of Saul began to speak these words in the ears of David, but David said: "Is it an easy thing in YOUR eyes to form a marriage alliance with the king, when I am a man of little means^g and lightly esteemed?"^h 24 Then the servants of Saul reported to him, saying: "It was with words like these that David spoke."

25 At that Saul said: "This is what YOU men will say to David, 'The king has delight, not in marriage money,ⁱ but in a hundred foreskins^j of the Philis'tines, to avenge^k himself on the enemies of the king.'" But as for Saul, he had schemed to have David fall by the hand of the Philis'tines. 26 So his servants reported these words to David, and the matter was to David's liking,^{*} to form a marriage alliance^l with the

In turn Saul gave him Mi'chal his daughter as a wife.^c 28 And Saul got to see and know that Jehovah was with David.^d As for Mi'chal, Saul's daughter, she loved him.*^e 29 And again Saul felt still more fear because of David, and Saul came to be an enemy of David always.^f

30 And the princes^g of the Philistines would go out, and it would happen that as often as they went out David acted most prudently^h of all the servants of Saul; and his name came to be very precious.ⁱ

19 At length Saul spoke to Jon'a-athan* his son and to all his servants of putting David to death.^j 2 As for Jon'a-athan, Saul's son, he took great delight in David.^k So Jon'a-athan told David, saying: "Saul my father is seeking to have you put to death. And now be on your guard, please, in the morning, and you must dwell in secrecy and keep yourself hidden.^l 3 And I, for my part, shall go out and certainly stand at the side of my father in the field where you will be, and I myself shall speak for you to my father, and I shall certainly see what will happen, and I shall be sure to tell you."^m

4 Accordingly Jon'a-athan spoke wellⁿ of David to Saul his father and said to him: "Do not let the king sin^o against his servant David, for he has not sinned toward you and his works have been very good toward you.^p 5 And he proceeded to put his soul in his palm^q and strike the Philistine down,^r so that Jehovah performed a great salvation^s for all Israel. way to rejoicing. So why should you sin against innocent blood in having David put to death^a for nothing?"^b 6 Then Saul obeyed the voice of Jon'a-athan, and Saul swore: "As Jehovah is living,^c he will not be put to death." 7 Afterward Jon'a-athan called David and Jon'a-athan told him all these words. Then Jon'a-athan brought David to Saul, and he continued before him the same as formerly.^d

8 In time war broke out again and David went sallying forth and fighting against the Philistines and striking them down with a great slaughter,^e and they took to flight from before him.^f

9 And Jehovah's* bad spirit^g came to be upon Saul when he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand, while David was playing music with his hand.

10 Consequently Saul sought to pin David to the wall^h with the spear, but he dodgedⁱ from before Saul, so that he struck the spear into the wall. And David himself fled that he might escape during that night.^j 11 Later Saul sent messengers^k to David's house to watch it and to have him put to death in the morning;^l but Mi'chal his wife told David, saying: "If you are not letting your soul escape tonight, tomorrow you will be a man put to death." 12 Immediately Mi'chal had David descend through the window, that he might go and run away and escape.^m 13 Then Mi'chal took the teraphimⁿ image and placed it on the couch, and a net* of goats' hair she put at the place of his head, after which she covered it with a garment.

14 Saul now sent messengers to take David, but she said: "He is sick."^o

15 So Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying: "Bring him on his couch up to me to have him put to death."^p

16 When the messengers came in, why, there was the teraphim image on the couch and a net of goats' hair at the place of his head. 17 At this Saul said to Mi'chal: "Why did you trick^a me like this, so that you sent my enemy^b away that he might escape?" In turn Mi'chal said to Saul: "He himself said to me, 'Send me away! Why should I put you to death?'"*

18 As for David, he ran away and made his escape^c and got to come to Samuel at Ra'mah.^d And he proceeded to tell him all that Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel went away, and they took up dwelling in Nai'oth.^e

19 In time the report got to Saul, saying: "Look! David is in Nai'oth in Ra'mah." 20 At once Saul sent messengers to take David. When they got to see the elderly ones* of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing in his position over them, the spirit^f of God came to be upon Saul's messengers, and they began behaving like prophets,^g they also.

21 When they told it to Saul, he immediately sent other messengers, and they began behaving like prophets, they also. So Saul sent messengers again, the third set, and they began behaving like prophets, they also. 22 Finally he too went to Ra'mah. When he got as far as the great cistern that is in Se'cu,* he began to inquire and say: "Where are Samuel and David?" To this they said: "There in Nai'oth^h in Ra'mah." 23 And he kept on his way from there to Nai'oth in Ra'mah, and the spiritⁱ of God came to be upon him, yes, him, and he went on walking and continued behaving like a prophet until he came into Nai'oth in Ra'mah. 24 And he also proceeded to strip off his garments and behave, he also, like a prophet before Samuel, and he lay fallen naked* all that day and all that night.^j That is why they came to say: "Is Saul also among the prophets?"^k

My father will not do a big thing or a little thing and not disclose it to my ear;^d and for what reason should my father conceal this matter from me?"^e This does not happen." 3 But David swore^f in addition and said: "Your father must surely know that I have found favor in your eyes,^g and so would say, 'Do not let Jon'a-than know this for fear he may feel hurt.' But, in fact, as Jehovah is living^h and as your soul is living,ⁱ there is just about a step between me and death!"^j

4 And Jon'a-than went on to say to David: "Whatever your soul may say* I shall do for you." 5 At this David said to Jon'a-than: "Look! Tomorrow is new moon,^k and I myself ought, without fail, to be sitting with the king to eat; and you must send me away, and I must conceal^l myself in the field until the evening on the third day.* 6 If your father should miss me at all, then you must say, 'David earnestly asked leave of absence of me to run to Beth'le-hem^m his city, because there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.'ⁿ 7 If the way he should say is, 'It is all right!' it means peace to your servant. But if he should at all become angry, know that what is bad has been determined upon by him.^o 8 And you must render loving-kindness* toward your servant,^p for it is into a covenant^q of Jehovah that you have brought your servant with you. But if there is error in me,^r put me to death yourself, since why should it be to your father that you should bring me?"

9 To this Jon'a-than said: "That is unthinkable respecting you! But if I should at all get to know that evil has been determined upon by my father to come upon you, shall I not tell it to you?"^a 10 Then David said to Jon'a-than: "Who will tell me whether what your father may answer you is harsh?" 11 In turn Jon'a-than said to David: "Just come, and let us go out into the field." So both of them went out into the field. 12 And Jon'a-than went on to say to David: "Jehovah the God of Israel^b [be a witness]^c that I shall sound out my father about this time tomorrow, or the third day, and if he is well-disposed toward David,^d shall I not then send to you and certainly disclose it to your ear?^e 13 So may Jehovah do to Jon'a-than and so may he add to it,^d if, in case it should seem good to my father to do evil against you, I do not indeed disclose it to your ear and send you away, and you do not certainly go in peace. And may Jehovah prove to be with you,^e just as he proved to be with my father.^f 14 And will you not, if I shall be still alive,^g yes, will you not exercise the loving-kindness of Jehovah toward me, that I may not die?^h 15 And you will notⁱ cut off your own loving-kindness from being with my household to time indefinite.ⁱ Nor, when Jehovah cuts off the enemies of David, every one from the surface of the ground, 16 will [the name of] Jon'a-than be cut off from the house of David.^j And Jehovah must require it at the hand of David's enemies." 17 So Jon'a-than swore again to David^k because of his love for him; for as he loved his own soul he loved him.^k 18 And Jon'a-than went on to say to him: "Tomorrow is new moon,^l and you will certainly be missed, because your seat will be vacant. 19 And certain-

At this Saul said to Jon'a-than his son: "Why has not the son of Jesseⁱ come to the meal either yesterday or today?" 28 So Jon'a-than answered Saul: "David earnestly asked leave of absence from me [to go] to Beth'le-hem.^j 29 And he went on to say, 'Send me away, please, because we have a family sacrifice in the city, and it was my own

32 However, Jon'a-than answered Saul his father and said to him: "Why should he be put to death?"^f What has he done?"^g 33 At that Saul went hurling the spear at him to strike him;^h and Jon'a-than came to know that it had been determined upon by his father to put David to death.ⁱ 34 Immediately Jon'a-than rose up from the table in the heat of anger,^j and he did not eat bread on the second day after the new moon, for he had been hurt respecting David,^k because his own father had humiliated him.^l

35 And it came about in the morning that Jon'a-than made his way out to the field of David's appointed place,^m and a young attendant was with him. 36 And he proceeded to say to his attendant: "Run, please, find the arrows that I am shooting."ⁿ The attendant ran, and he himself shot the arrow to make it pass beyond him. 37 When the attendant came as far as the place of the arrow that Jon'a-than had shot, Jon'a-than began to call from behind the attendant and say: "Is not the arrow farther away from you?"^o 38 And Jon'a-than went on calling from behind the attendant: "In haste! attendant, he did not know anything; only Jon'a-than and David themselves knew about the matter. 40 After that Jon'a-than gave his weapons to the attendant that belonged to him and he said to him: "Go, take them to the city."

41 The attendant went. As for David, he rose up from nearby to the south. Then he fell on his face to the earth^a and bowed three times; and they began kissing^b each other and weeping for each other, until David had done it the most.^c 42 And Jon'a-than went on to say to David: "Go in peace,^d since we have sworn,^e both of us, in the name of Jehovah, saying, 'May Jehovah himself prove to be between me and you and between my offspring and your offspring to time indefinite.'"^f

Accordingly David^g rose up and went his way, and Jon'a-than himself came into the city.

21 Later David came into Nob^h to A-him'e-lech the priest; and A-him'e-lech^h began to tremble at meeting David and then said to him: "Why is it you are by yourself, and no one is with you?"ⁱ 2 At this David said to A-him'e-lech the priest: "The king himself commanded me as to a matter,^j and he went on to say to me, 'Let no one know anything at all of the matter concerning which I am sending you and concerning which I have commanded you.' And I have made an appointment with the young men* for such and such a place. 3 And now, if there are five loaves of bread at your disposal, just give them into my hand, or* whatever may be found."^k 4 But the priest answered David and said: "There is no ordinary bread under my hand, but there is holy bread;^l provided that the young men have at least kept themselves from womankind."^m 5 So David answered the priest and said to him: "But womankind has been kept away from us the same as formerly when I went out,*^a and the organisms[#] of the young men continue holy, although the mission itself is ordinary. And how much more so today, when one becomes holy in [his] organism?"

6 At that the priest gave him what was holy,^b because there happened to be no bread there but the showbread* that had been removed from before Jehovah^c so as to place fresh[#] bread there on the day of its being taken away.

7 Now one of Saul's servants was there on that day, detained^d before Jehovah, and his name was Do'eg^e the E'dom-ite,^f the principal one of the shepherds* that belonged to Saul.^g

8 And David went on to say to A-him'e-lech: "And is there nothing here at your disposal, a spear or a sword? For neither my own sword nor my weapons did I take in my hand, because the king's matter proved to be urgent."

9 To this the priest said: "The sword of Goli'ath^h the Phi-lis'tine, whom you struck down in the low plain of E'laiⁱ—here it is, wrapped up in a mantle, behind the eph'od.^j If it is what you would take for yourself, take it, because there is no other here except it." And David went on to say: "There is none like it. Give it to me."

10 Then David rose up and continued running away^k on account of Saul on that day, and at length came to A'chish the king of Gath.^l 11 And the servants of A'chish began to say to him: "Is not this David the king^m of the land? Was it not to this one that they kept responding with* dances,ⁿ saying,

'Saul has struck down his thousands, And David his tens of thousands?'"^o

12 And David began to take these words to his heart, and he became very much afraid^p on account of A'chish the king of Gath. 13 So he disguised^q his sanity under their eyes^r and began acting

Why should you bring him to me? 15 Am I in need of people driven crazy, so that you have brought this one to behave crazy by me? Should this one come into my home?"

22 So David proceeded to go from there^a and escape^b to the cave^c of A-dul'lam;^d and his brothers and the entire house of his father got to hear of it and made their way down there to him. 2 And all men in distress^e and all men who had a creditor^f and all men bitter in soul^g began to collect together to him,^h and he came to be a chief* over them;ⁱ and there came to be with him about four hundred men.

3 Later David went from there to Miz'peh in Mo'ab and said to the king of Mo'ab:^j "Let my father and my mother,^k please, dwell with you people* until I know what God will do to me."

4 Accordingly he settled them before the king of Mo'ab, and they continued dwelling with him all the days that David happened to be in the inaccessible place.^{*1}

5 In time Gad^m the prophet said to David: "You must not keep dwelling in the inaccessible place. Go away, and you must come yourself into the land of Judah."ⁿ Hence David went away and came into the forest of He'reth.

6 And Saul got to hear that David and the men that were with him had been discovered, while Saul was sitting in Gib'e-ah under the tamarisk^o tree on the high place* with his spear^p in his hand and all his servants stationed about him. 7 Then Saul said to his times?" In turn Jehovah said to David: "Go, and you must strike down the Philistines and save Keilah." 3 At this the men of David said to him: "Look! We are afraid while here in Judah,^a and how much more so in case we should go to Keilah against the battle lines of the Philistines!"^b 4 So David inquired yet again of Jehovah.^c Jehovah now answered him and said: "Rise up, go down to Keilah, because I am giving the Philistines into your hand."^d 5 Accordingly David went with his men to Keilah and fought against the Philistines and drove off with their livestock, but struck them down with a great slaughter; and David came to be the savior of the inhabitants of Keilah.^e

6 Now it came about that when A-bi-a-thar^f the son of A-him'e-lech ran away to David at Keilah, there was an ephod^g that went down^h in his hand. 7 In time the report was made to Saul: "David has come to Keilah."ⁱ And Saul began to say: "God has sold^j him into my hand,^k for he has shut himself up by coming into a city with doors and bar."^l 8 So Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men. 9 And David got to know that Saul was fabricating mischief^m against him. Hence he said to A-bi-a-thar the priest: "Do bring the ephod near."ⁿ 10 And David went on to say: "O Jehovah the God of Israel,^o your servant has definitely heard that Saul is seeking to come to Keilah to lay the city in ruin on my account."^p 11 Will the landowners^q of Keilah surrender me into his hand? Will Saul come down just as your servant has heard? O Jehovah the God of Israel, tell your servant, please." To this Jehovah said: "He will come down."^r 12 And David went on to say: "Will the landowners of Keilah surrender me and my men into Saul's hand?" In turn Jehovah said: "They will do the surrendering."^s

13 At once David rose up with his men, about six^a hundred men,^a and they went out of Keilah and continued walking about wherever they could walk about. And to Saul it was reported that David had escaped from Keilah, and so he gave up going out. 14 And David took up dwelling in the wilderness in places difficult to approach, and he kept dwelling in the mountainous region in the wilderness of Ziph.^b And Saul kept looking for him always,^c and God^d did not give him into his hand.^d 15 And David continued in fear^e because Saul had gone out to look for his soul while David was in the wilderness of Ziph at Ho'resh.^{ee}

16 Jon'a-than the son of Saul now rose up and went to David at Ho'resh, that he might strengthen^f his hand in regard to God.^g 17 And he went on to say to him: "Do not be afraid;^h for the hand of Saul my father will not find you, and you yourself will be kingⁱ over Israel, and I myself shall become second to you; and Saul my father also has knowledge to that effect."ⁱ 18 Then the two of them concluded a covenant^k before Jehovah; and David kept dwelling in Ho'resh, and Jon'a-than himself went to his own home.

19 Later the men of Ziph^l went up to Saul at Gib'e-ah,^m saying: "Is not David concealingⁿ himself close by us in the places difficult to approach at Ho'resh,^o on the hill of Hach-i'lah,^p which is to the right side of Je-shi'mon?"^q 20 And now in harmony with all the craving of your soul,^r O king, to come down, come down, and our part will be to surrender him into the hand of the king."^s 21 At this Saul said: "Blessed are you of Jehovah,^t for you have had compassion on me. 22 Go, please, persevere some more and ascertain and see his place where his foot comes to be—whenever 24 So they rose up and went to Ziph^c ahead of Saul, while David and his men were in the wilderness of Ma'on^d in the Ar'a-bah^e to the south[#] of Je-shi'mon. 25 Later Saul came with his men to look for him.^f When they told David, he at once went down to the crag^g and continued dwelling^{} in the wilderness of Ma'on. When Saul got to hear of it, he went chasing^h after David into the wilderness of Ma'on. 26 Eventually Saul came to this side of the mountain, and David and his men were on that side of the mountain. So David became hurried to go awayⁱ because of Saul; all the while Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men to grab hold of them.^j 27 But there was a messenger that came to Saul, saying: “Do hasten and go, for the Philis'tines have made a raid on the land!” 28 At that Saul turned back from chasing after David^k and went to meet the Philis'tines. That is why they have called that place the Crag of the Divisions.

29* Then David made his way up from there and took up dwelling in the places difficult to approach at En-ge'di.^l and to go looking for David^a and his men upon the bare rocks of the mountain goats.^b 3 At length he came to the stone sheepfolds along the road, where a cave was. So Saul came in to ease nature,^c while David and his men were in the parts of the cave^d farthest back, sitting down. 4 And David's men began to say to him: “Here is the day on which Jehovah does say to you, ‘Look! I am giving your enemy into your hand,^e and you must do to him just as it may seem good in your eyes.’”^f So David rose up and quietly cut off the skirt of the sleeveless coat that belonged to Saul. 5 But it came about afterward that David's heart kept striking^g him for the reason that he had cut off the skirt [of the sleeveless coat]^{*} that belonged to Saul. 6 Hence he said to his men: “It is unthinkable, on my part, from Jehovah's standpoint, that I should do this thing to my lord, the anointed^h of Jehovah, by thrusting out my hand against him, for he is the anointed of Jehovah.”ⁱ 7 Accordingly David dispersed his men with these words, and he did not allow them to rise up against Saul.^j As for Saul, he rose up from the cave and kept going on his way.

8 So David rose up afterward and went out from the cave and called out after Saul, saying: “My lord^k the king!” At this Saul looked behind him, and David proceeded to bow low with his face to the earth^l and prostrate himself. 9 And David went on to say to Saul: “Why do you listen to the words of man,^m saying, ‘Look! David is seeking your hurt?’ 10 Here this day your eyes have seen how Jehovah gave you today into my hand in the cave; and someone said to killⁿ you, but I felt sorry for you and said, ‘I shall not thrust out my hand against my lord, for he is the anointed^o of Jehovah.’ 11 And, my father,^a see, yes, see the skirt of your sleeveless coat in my hand, for when I cut off the skirt of your sleeveless coat I did not kill you. Know and see that there is no badness^b or revolt in my hand, and I have not sinned against you, while you are lying in wait for my soul to take it away.^c 12 May Jehovah judge between me and you;^d and Jehovah must take vengeance^e for me from you, but my own hand will not come to be upon you.^f 13 Just as the proverb of the ancients says, 'From the wicked ones wickedness will go forth,'^g but my own hand will not come to be upon you. 14 After whom has the king of Israel gone out? After whom are you chasing? After a dead dog?^h After a single flea?ⁱ 15 And Jehovah must become judge, and he must judge between me and you, and he will see and he will conduct the legal case^j for me and judge me [to free me] from your hand."

16 And it came about that, at the moment that David finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul proceeded to say: "Is this your voice, my son David?"^k And Saul began to raise his own voice and weep.^l 17 And he went on to say to David: "You are more righteous than I am,^m for it is you who have rendered me good,ⁿ and it is I who have rendered you evil. 18 And you—you have told today what good you have done in connection with me in that Jehovah surrendered me into your hand^o and you did not kill me. 19 Now in the case where a man finds his enemy, will he send him away on a good road?^p So Jehovah himself will reward you with good,^q due to the fact that this day you have done it to me. 20 And now, look! I well know that you will, without fail, rule as king,^r and that in your hand the kingdom of Israel will certainly endure. 21 So now do swear to me by Jehovah^s that you will not cut off my seed after me and that you will not annihilate my name out of the house of my father."^t 22 Accordingly David swore to Saul, after which Saul went to his home.^u As for David and his

25 In time Samuel^b died; and all Israel proceeded to collect together and bewail^c him and bury him at his house* in Ra'mah.^d Then David rose up and went down to the wilderness of Pa'ran.^e

2 Now there was a man in Ma'on,^f and his work was in Car'mel.^g And the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats; and he came to be [engaged] in shearing^h his sheep at Car'mel. 3 And the man's name was Na'bal,ⁱ and his wife's name was Ab'i-gail.^j And the wife was good in discretion^k and beautiful in form, but the husband was harsh and bad in his practices;^l and he was a Ca'leb-ite.^m 4 And David got to hear in the wilderness that Na'bal was shearingⁿ his sheep. 5 So David sent ten young men and David said to the young men: "Go up to Car'mel, and you must come to Na'bal and ask him in my name about his welfare.^o 6 And this is what you must say to my brother,* 'May you be well^p and also your household be well and all that you have be well. 7 And now I have heard that you have shearers. Now the shepherds that belong to you happened themselves to be with us.^q We did not molest them,^r and nothing at all showed up missing of theirs all the days they happened to be in Car'mel. 8 Ask your own young men, and they will tell you, that my* young men may find favor in your eyes, because it was upon a good day that we came.^s Just give, please, whatever your hand may find to your servants and to your son David.'^t"

came and spoke to Na'bal in accord with all these words in the name of David and then waited. 10 At this Na'bal answered David's servants and said: "Who is David,^a and who is the son of Jes'se? Nowadays the servants that are breaking away, each one from before his master,^{} have become many.^b 11 And do I have to take my bread^c and my water^{} and my slaughtered meat that I have butchered for my shearers and give it to men of whom I do not even know from where they are?"^d

12 Upon that David's young men turned around on their way and went back and came and reported to him in accord with all these words. 13 Immediately David said to his men: "Gird on every one his sword!"^e So they girded on every one his sword and David also girded on his own sword; and they began to go up after David, about four hundred men, while two hundred sat by the baggage.^f

14 Meanwhile, to Abigail, Na'bal's wife, one of the young men reported, saying: "Look! David sent messengers from the wilderness to wish our master well,^{*} but he screamed rebukes^g at them. 15 And the men were very good to us, and they did not molest us, and we did not miss a single thing all the days of our walking about with them while we happened to be in the field.^h 16 A wallⁱ was what they proved to be around us both by night and by day, all the days that we happened to be with them, shepherding the flock. 17 And now know and see what you are going to do, for calamity has been determined^j against our master and against all his house, as he is too much of a good-for-nothing fellow^{} to speak to him."

18 At once Abigail^l hastened and took two hundred loaves of bread and two large jars of wine^m and five sheep dressedⁿ and five seah^{*} measures of roasted^o grain and a hundred cakes of raisins^p and two hundred cakes of

24 She then fell at his feet^j and said: "Upon me myself, O my lord, be the error;^k and, please, let your slave girl speak in your ears,^l and listen to the words of your slave girl. 25 Please, do not let my lord set his heart upon this good-for-nothing^m man Na'bal, for, as his name is, so is he. Na'bal^{} is his name, and senselessnessⁿ is with him.ⁿ As for me your slave girl, I did not see my lord's young men that you had sent. 26 And now, my lord, as Jehovah is living^o and as your soul is living,^p Jehovah has held you back^q from entering into bloodguilt^{} and having your own hand come to your salvation.^{rs} And now let your enemies and those seeking injury to my lord become like Na'bal.^t 27 And now as regards this

32 At this David said to Ab'i-gail: "Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel,ⁿ who has sent you this day to meet me! 33 And blessed be your sensibleness,^o and blessed be you who have restrained me this day from entering into blood-guilt^p and having my own hand come to my salvation.^q 34 And, on the other hand, as Jehovah the God of Israel is living, who has held me back from doing injury to you,^r if you had not hastened that you might come to meet me,^s there would certainly not have remained to Na'bal until the morning light anyone urinating against a wall."^t 35 With that David accepted from her hand what she had brought him, and to her he said: "Go up in peace^u to your house. See, I have listened to your voice that I may have consideration^a for your person."

36 Later Ab'i-gail came in to Na'bal, and there he was having a feast in his house like the feast of the king;^b and Na'bal's heart was feeling good within him, and he was as drunk^c as could be; and she did not tell him a thing, small or great, until the morning light. 37 And it came about in the morning, when the wine had gone out of Na'bal, that his wife went telling him these things. And his heart^d came to be dead inside him, and he himself became as a stone. 38 After that about ten days elapsed and then Jehovah struck^e Na'bal, so that he died.

39 And David got to hear that Na'bal had died, and so he said: "Blessed be Jehovah, who has conducted the legal^f case of my reproach^g [to free me] from Na'bal's hand and has kept his servant back from badness,^h and the badness of Na'bal Jehovah has turned back upon his own head!"ⁱ And David proceeded to send and propose to Ab'i-gail to take her as his wife.^j 40 So David's servants came to Ab'i-gail at Car'mel and spoke to her, saying: "David himself has sent us to you to take you as his wife." 41 Immediately she rose up and bowed with her face to the earth^k and said: "Here is your slave girl as a maidservant to wash the feet^l of the servants of my lord."^m 42 Then Ab'i-gailⁿ hastened and rose up and went riding^o on the ass with five maids of hers walking behind her;^{*} and she went accompanying[†] the messengers of David and then became his wife.

43 David had also taken A-hin'o-am^p from Jez're-el;^q and the women came to be, even both of them, his wives.^r

44 As for Saul, he had given Mi'chal^s his daughter, David's wife, to Pal'ti the son of La'ish, who was from Gal'lim.^u

26 In time the men of Ziph^a came to Saul at Gib'e-ah,^b saying: "Is not David concealing himself^a on the hill of Hach-i'lah,^c facing Je-shi'mon?"^d 2 And Saul proceeded to rise up^e and go down to the wilderness of Ziph, and with him three thousand men,^f the chosen ones of Israel, to look for David in the wilderness of Ziph. 3 And Saul took up camping on the hill of Hach-i'lah, which faces Je-shi'mon, by the road, while David was dwelling in the wilderness. And he got to see that Saul had come after him into the wilderness. 4 So David sent spies^g that he might know that Saul had for a fact come. 5 Later David rose up and went to the place where Saul had encamped, and David got to see the place where Saul had lain down, and also Ab'ner^h the son of Ner the chief of his army; and Saul was lying in the camp enclosureⁱ with the people camping all around him. 6 Then David answered and said to A-him'e-lech the Hit'tite^j and A-bish'ai^k the son of Zeru'iah,^l the brother of Jo'ab: "Who will go down with me to Saul into the camp?" To this A-bish'ai said: "I myself shall go down with you."^m 7 And David made his way with A-bish'ai to the people by night; and, look! Saul was lying asleep in the camp enclosure with his spear stuck into the earth at his head, and Ab'ner and the people were lying all around him.

8 A-bish'ai now said to David: "God^a has today surrendered your enemy into your hand.^b And now let me, please, pin him to the earth with the spear just once, and I shall not do it to him twice." 9 However, David said to A-bish'ai: "Do not bring him to ruin, for who is it that has thrust his hand out against the anointed^c of Jehovah^d and has remained innocent?"^e 10 And David went on to say: "As Jehovah is living,^f Jehovah himself will deal him a blow;^g or his day will come^a and he will have to die, or down into battle^b he will go, and he will certainly be swept away.^c 11 It is unthinkable,^d on my part, from Jehovah's standpoint,^e to thrust my hand out^f against the anointed of Jehovah!^g So now take, please, the spear that is at his head and the water jug, and let us get on our way." 12 Accordingly David took the spear and the water jug from the place at Saul's head, and then they got on their way; and there was no one seeing^h nor anyone taking note nor anyone waking up, for all of them were asleep, because it was a deep sleepⁱ from Jehovah that had fallen upon them. 13 Then David passed on to the other side and stood upon the top of the mountain at a distance, the space between them being vast.

14 And David began to call out to the people and to Ab'ner the son of Ner, saying: "Will you not answer, Ab'ner?" And Ab'ner^j began to answer and say: "Who are you that have called out to the king?" 15 And David went on to say to Ab'ner: "Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why, then, did you not watch over your lord^k the king? For one of the people came in to bring the king your lord to ruin.^k 16 This thing that you have done is not good. As Jehovah is living,^l YOU men deserve to die,^m because YOU have not watchedⁿ over YOUR lord, over the anointed of Jehovah.^o And now see where the king's spear and the water jug^p are that were at his head."

17 And Saul began to recognize the voice of David and to say: "Is this your voice, my son David?"^q To this David said: "It is my voice, my lord the king." 18 And he added: "Why is this that my lord is chasing after his servant,^r for what have I done, and what badness is there in my hand?"^s 19 And now let my lord the king, please, listen to the words of his servant: If it is Jehovah that has incited you against me, let him smell a grain offering.^a But if it is the sons of man,^b they are cursed before Jehovah,^c because they have driven me out today from feeling myself attached to the inheritance of Jehovah,^d saying, 'Go, serve other gods!'^e 20 And now do not let my blood fall to the earth before the face of Jehovah;^f for the king of Israel has gone out to look for a single flea,^g just as one chases a partridge upon the mountains."^h

21 In turn Saul said: "I have sinned.ⁱ Come back, my son David, for I shall no more do you injury, in view of the fact that my soul has been precious^j in your eyes this day. Look! I have acted foolishly and am very much mistaken."^k 22 Then David answered and said: "Here is the spear of the king, and let one of the young men come on over and fetch it. 23 And Jehovah it is who will repay to each one his own righteousness^k and his own faithfulness, in that Jehovah today gave you into my hand, and I was unwilling to thrust my hand out against the anointed of Jehovah.^l 24 And, look! just as your soul was great this day in my eyes, so may my soul be great in the eyes of Jehovah,^m that he may deliver me out of all distress."ⁿ 25 At this Saul said to David: "Blessed may you be, my son David. Not only will you without fail work but you will also without fail come off the winner."^o And David proceeded to go on his way; and as for Saul, he returned to his place.^p

27 However, David said in his heart: "Now I shall be swept away one day by Saul's hand. There is nothing better for me than that I should escape^q without fail to the land of the Philis'tines;^r and Saul must despair of me in looking for me any longer in all the territory of Israel,^s and I shall certainly escape from his hand."^t 2 So David rose up and he and six hundred men^t that were with him passed over to A'chish^u the son of Ma'och, the king of Gath. 3 And David continued to dwell with A'chish in Gath, he and his men, each one with his household,^a David and his two wives, A-hin'o-am^b the Jez're-el-ite^c and Ab'i-gail,^c Na'bal's wife, the Car'mel-ite^c. 4 In time report was made to Saul that David had run away to Gath, and so he did not go looking for him still another time.^d

5 Then David said to A'chish: "If, now, I have found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities of the countryside, that I may dwell there; for why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?" 6 Accordingly A'chish gave him Zik'lag^e on that day. That is why Zik'lag has come to belong to the kings of Judah down to this day.

7 And the number of the days that David dwelt in the countryside of the Philis'tines came to be a year and four months.^f 8 And David proceeded to go up with his men that they might raid the Gesh'ur-ites^g and the Gir'zites and the A-mal'ek-ites;^h for they were inhabiting the land that [extended] from Te'lam^{*i} as far as Shur^j and down to the land of Egypt. 9 And David struck the land, but he preserved neither man nor woman alive;^k and he took flocks and herds and asses and camels and garments, after which he returned and came to A'chish. 10 Then A'chish said: "Where did you men make a raid today?" To this David said:^l "Upon the south of Judah^m and upon the south of the Je-rah'me-el-itesⁿ and upon the south of the Ken'ites."^o 11 As for man and woman, David was not preserving any alive to bring them to Gath, saying: "That they may not tell on us, saying, 'This is the way David did.'"^p (And this way has been his procedure all the days that he dwelt in the countryside of the Philis'tines.) 12 Consequently A'chish believed^q David, saying to himself: "He has unquestionably become a stench among his people Israel;^r and

he will have to become my servant to time indefinite."

28 And it came about in those days that the Philis'tines began to collect their camps for the army to make war against Israel.^a So A'chish said to David: "You undoubtedly know that it is with me that you should go out into the camp, you and your men."^b 2 At that David said to A'chish: "That is why you yourself* know what your servant is to do." Accordingly A'chish said to David: "That is why guardian of my head I shall appoint you always."^c

3 Now Samuel himself had died, and all Israel had proceeded to bewail him and bury him in Ra'mah his own city.^d As for Saul, he had removed the spirit mediums* and the professional foretellers of events from the land.^e

4 Subsequently the Philis'tines collected together and came and pitched camp in Shu'nem.^f So Saul collected all Israel together and they pitched camp in Gil-bo'a.^g 5 When Saul got to see the camp of the Philis'tines he became afraid, and his heart began to tremble very much.^h 6 Although Saul would inquire of Jehovah,ⁱ Jehovah never answered him,^j either by dreams^k or by the U'rim^l or by the prophets.^m 7 Finally Saul said to his servants: "Seek for me a woman who is a mistress of spirit mediumship,ⁿ and I will go to her and consult her." Then his servants said to him: "Look! There is a woman who is a mistress of spirit mediumship in En-dor."^o

8 So Saul disguised^p himself and clothed himself with other garments and went, he and two men with him; and they came to the woman by night.^q He now said: "Employ divination,^r please, for me by spirit mediumship and bring up for me the one whom I shall designate to you." 9 However, the woman said to him: "Here you yourself well know what Saul did, how he cut off the spirit mediums and the professional foretellers of events from the land.^a Why, then, are you acting like a trapper against my soul to have me put to death?"^b 10 Immediately Saul swore to her by Jehovah, saying: "As Jehovah is alive,^c guilt for error will not befall you in this matter!" 11 At this the woman said: "Whom shall I bring up for you?" To this he said: "Bring up Samuel for me."^d 12 When the woman saw "Samuel"^e she began crying out at the top of her voice;^f and the woman went on to say to Saul: "Why did you trick me, when you yourself are Saul?" 13 But the king said to her: "Do not be afraid, but what did you see?" And the woman went on to say to Saul: "A god^g I saw coming up out of the earth." 14 At once he said to her: "What is his form?" to which she said: "It is an old* man coming up, and he has himself covered with a sleeveless coat."^h At that Saul recognized that it was "Samuel,"ⁱ and he proceeded to bow low with his face to the earth and to prostrate himself.

15 And "Samuel" began to say to Saul: "Why have you disturbed me by having me brought up?" To this Saul said: "I am in very sore straits,^j as the Philis'tines are fighting against me, and God* himself has departed^k from me and has answered me no more, either by means of the prophets or by dreams;^l so that I am calling you to let me know what I shall do."^m

16 And "Samuel" went on to say: "Why, then, do you inquire of me, when Jehovah himself has departed from youⁿ and proves to be your adversary?^o 17 And Jehovah will do for himself* just as he spoke by means of me, and

Jehovah will rip the kingdom away from your hand^a and give it to your fellow-man David.^b 18 As you did not obey the voice of Jehovah,^c and you did not execute his burning anger against Am'-a-lek,^d that is why this is the thing that Jehovah will certainly do to you this day. 19 And Jehovah will also give Israel with you into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines,^e and tomorrow you^f and your sons^g will be with me.* Even the camp of Israel Jehovah will give into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines.^h

20 At that Saul quickly fell down his full length to the earth and became very much afraid because of "Samuel's" words. Also, there happened to be no power in him, because he had not eaten food the whole day and the whole night. 21 The woman now came to Saul and saw that he had been greatly disturbed. So she said to him: "Here your maid-servant has obeyed your voice, and I proceeded to put my soul in my palmⁱ and obey the words that you spoke to me. 22 And now, please, you, in turn, obey the voice of your maidservant; and let me set before you a piece of bread, and you eat, that power may come to be in you, because you will go on your way." 23 But he refused and said: "I am not going to eat." However, his servants and also the woman kept urging him. Finally he obeyed their voice and rose up from the earth and sat on the couch. 24 Now the woman had a fattened calf^j in the house. So she quickly sacrificed* it^k and took flour and kneaded dough and baked it into unfermented cakes. 25 Then she served them to Saul and his servants, and they ate. After that they rose up and went away during that night.^l

29 And the Phi-lis'tines^m proceeded to collect all their camps together at A'phek, while the Israelites were camping by the spring that was in Jez'-re-el.ⁿ 2 And the axis lords^o of the Phi-lis'tines were passing along by hundreds and by thousands, and David and his men were passing along afterward with A'chish.^a 3 And the princes of the Phi-lis'tines began to say: "What do these Hebrews^b mean?" At this A'chish said to the princes of the Phi-lis'tines: "Is this not David the servant of Saul king of Israel, who happened to be with me here a year or two,^c and I have not found^d in him a single thing from the day of his deserting [to me] until this day?" 4 And the princes of the Phi-lis'tines became indignant at him; and the princes of the Phi-lis'tines went on to say to him: "Make the man go back,^e and let him go back to his place where you assigned him; and do not let him go down with us into the battle, that he may not become a resister^f of us in the battle. And with what should this person put himself in favor with his lord?" Is it not with the heads of those [our] men? 5 Is this not David to whom they kept responding in the dances, saying, 'Saul has struck down his thousands, and David his tens of thousands'?"^g

6 Consequently A'chish^h called David and said to him: "As Jehovah is living,ⁱ you are upright, and your going out and your coming in^j with me in the camp has been good in my eyes;^k for I have not found badness in you from the day of your coming to me until this day.^l But in the eyes of the axis lords^m you are not good. 7 And now return and go in peace, that you may not do anything bad in the eyes of the axis lords of the Phi-lis'tines." 8 However, David said to A'chish: "Why, what have I done,ⁿ and what have you found in your servant from the day that I came to be before you until this day,^o that I should not come and actually fight against the enemies of my lord the king?" 9 At this A'chish answered and said to David: "I well know that you have been good in my own eyes, like an angel of God.^p Only it is the princes of the Phi-lis'tines that have said, 'Let him not go up with us into the battle.' 10 And now rise up early in the morning with the servants of your lord that came with you; and you men must rise up early in the morning when it has become light for you. Then go."^a

11 Accordingly David rose up early, he and his men, to go in the morning^b and return to the land of the Philistines; and the Philistines themselves went up to Jez're-el.^c

30 And it came about while David and his men were coming to Ziklag^d on the third day, that the Amalekites^e made a raid on the south and on Ziklag; and they proceeded to strike Ziklag and burn it with fire, 2 and to carry off captive the women^f [and all] that^g were in it, from the smallest to the greatest. They did not put anyone^h to death, but they drove them along and went on their way. 3 When David came with his men to the city, why, there it was burned with fire, and, as for their wives and their sons and their daughters, they had been carried off captive. 4 And David and the people that were with him began to raise their voice and weep,ⁱ until there was in them no power to weep [anymore]. 5 And David's two wives had been carried off captive, A-hin'o-am^j the Jez're-el-ite and Ab'i-gail^k the wife of Na'bal the Car'mel-ite. 6 And it became very distressing to David,^l because the people said to stone him;^m for the soul of all the people had become bitter,ⁿ each one because of his sons and his daughters. So David took to strengthening himself by Jehovah his God.^o

7 Hence David said to A-bi'a-thar^p the priest, the son of A-him'e-lech: "Do, please, bring the eph'od^q near to me." And A-bi'a-thar came bringing the eph'od near to David. 8 And David began to inquire of Jehovah,^r saying: "Shall I chase after this marauder band? Shall I overtake them?" At this he said^s to him: "Go in chase, for you will without

9 Promptly David got on his way, he and the six hundred men^b that were with him, and they went on as far as the torrent valley of Be'sor, and the men that were to be left behind stood still. 10 And David kept up the chase,^c he and four hundred men, but two hundred men that were too tired to pass over the torrent valley of Be'sor^d stood still.

11 And they got to find a man, an Egyptian,^e in the field. So they took him to David and gave him bread that he might eat and gave him water to drink.

12 Further, they gave him a slice of a cake of pressed figs and two cakes of raisins.^f Then he ate and his spirit^g returned to him; for he had not eaten bread or drunk water for three days and three nights. 13 David now said to him: "To whom do you belong, and where are you from?" to which he said: "I am an Egyptian attendant, a slave of an A-mal'ek-ite man, but my master left me because I took sick three days ago.^h 14 We were the ones that made a raid on the south of the Cher'e-thitesⁱ and upon that which belongs to Judah and upon the south of Ca'leb;^j and Ziklag we burned with fire." 15 At this David said to him: "Will you lead me down to this marauder band?" To this he said: "Do swear^k to me by God^l that you will not put me to death, and that you will not surrender me into the hand of my master,^m and I shall lead you down to this marauder band."ⁿ

16 Accordingly he led him down,^o and there they were spread disorderly over the surface of all the land eating and drinking and having a feast^p on account of all the great spoil that they had taken from the land of the Philistines and the land of Judah.^q 17 And David went striking them down from the morning darkness until the evening, that he might devote them to destruc-

18 And David got to deliver all that the A-mal'ek-ites had taken,^b and his two wives David delivered. 19 And there was nothing of theirs lacking, from the smallest to the greatest and to sons and daughters and from the spoil, even to anything that they had taken for themselves.^c Everything David recovered. 20 So David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before that [other] livestock. Then they said: "This is David's spoil."^d

21 At length David came to the two hundred men^e who had been too tired to go along with David,* and whom they^f had kept sitting by the torrent valley of Be'sor; and they came out to meet David and to meet the people that were with him. When David came near to the people he began to ask them how they were. 22 However, every bad and good-for-nothing man^f out of the men that had gone with David answered and kept saying: "For the reason that they did not go with us,* we will give them none of the spoil that we delivered, except to each one his wife and his sons, and let them lead them and go." 23 But David said: "You must not do that way, my brothers, with what Jehovah has given us,^g in that he safeguarded us^h and gave the marauder band that came against us into our hand.ⁱ 24 And who will listen to you as to this saying?*" For as the share of the one that went down into the battle even so will the share of the one that sat by the baggage^j be. All will have a share together."^k 25 And it came about from that day forward that he kept it set as a regulation and a judicial decision^l for Israel down to this day.

26 When David came to Zik'lag he

1 And it came about after Saul's death, and when David himself had returned from striking down the A-mal'-ek-ites,^a that David continued to dwell at Zik'lag^b two days. 2 And it came about on the third day that, look! a man^c was coming from the camp, from Saul, with his garments ripped apart^d and dirt upon his head;^e and it came about that when he came to David, he at once fell down to the earth^f and prostrated himself.

3 And David proceeded to say to him: "Where do you come from?" at which he said to him: "From the camp of Israel I have escaped." 4 And David went on to say to him: "How did the matter turn out? Tell me, please." To this he said: "The people have fled from the battle and also many of the people have fallen so that they died,^g and even Saul^h and Jon'a-thanⁱ his son have died." 5 Then David said to the young man that was telling him: "How do you really know

13 David now said to the young man that was telling him: "Where are you from?" to which he said: "I am the son of an alien resident, an A-mal'ek-ite."^d

14 Then David said to him: "How was it that you did not fear^e to thrust your hand out to bring the anointed^f of Jehovah to ruin?" 15 With that David called one of the young men and said: "Go near. Smite him." Accordingly he struck him down so that he died.^g

16 David then said to him: "The blood-guilt for you* be upon your own head,^h because your own mouth has testified against you,ⁱ saying, 'I myself definitely put the anointed of Jehovah to death.'"^j

17 And David proceeded to chant this dirge^k over Saul and Jon'a-than his son^l

18 and to say that the sons of Judah^m should be taught "The Bow."ⁿ Look! It is written in the book of Ja'shar.^{*o}

2 And it came about afterward that David proceeded to inquire of Jehovah,^m saying: "Shall I go up into one of the cities of Judah?" At this Jehovah said to him: "Go up." And David went on to say: "Where shall I go up?" Then he said: "To He'bron."ⁿ 2 Accordingly David went up there and also his two wives, A-hin'o-am^o the Jez're-el-ite^s and Ab'i-gail^p the wife of Na'bal the Car'mel-ite. 3 And the men^q that were with him David brought up, each with his household; and they took up dwelling in the cities of He'bron [territory]. 4 Then the men of Judah* came and anointed^s David there as king over the house of Judah.^t

And they came telling David, saying: "The men of Ja'bes-gil'e-ad are the ones that buried Saul." 5 Hence David sent messengers to the men of Ja'bes-gil'e-ad^a and said to them: "Blessed may you be of Jehovah,^b because you exercised this loving-kindness^c toward your lord,^d toward Saul, in that you buried him.^d 6 And now may Jehovah exercise toward you loving-kindness^e and trustworthiness,^e and I too shall exercise to you this goodness because you have done this thing.^f 7 And now let your hands strengthen themselves and prove yourselves valiant men,^g because your lord Saul is dead, and it is even I whom the house of Judah have anointed as king^h over them."

8 As for Ab'nerⁱ the son of Ner the chief of the army that had belonged to Saul, he took Ish-bo'sheth,^j Saul's son, and proceeded to bring him across^k to Ma-ha-na'im,^k 9 and to make him king over Gil'e-ad^l and the Ash'ur-ites^m and Jez're-el^m and over E'phra-imⁿ and Benjamin^o and over Israel, all of it. 10 Forty years old Ish-bo'sheth, Saul's son, was when he became king over Israel, and for two years he ruled as king. Only the house of Judah^p proved themselves followers of David. 11 And the number of the days that David proved to be king in He'bron over the house of Judah came to be seven years and six months.^q

12 In time Ab'ner the son of Ner and the servants of Ish-bo'sheth, Saul's son, went out from Ma-ha-na'im^r to Gib'e-on.^s 13 As for Jo'ab^t the son of Ze-ru'iah^u and the servants of David, they went out^v and later met together by the pool of Gib'e-on; and they kept sitting, these on this side of the pool and those on that side of the pool. 14 Finally Ab'ner said to Jo'ab: "Let the young men rise up, please, and let them put on a combat before us." To this Jo'ab said: "Let them rise up." 15 So they rose up and went across by number, twelve belonging to Benjamin and Ish-bo'sheth,^a Saul's son, and twelve from the servants of David. 16 And they began grabbing hold of one another by the head, with the sword of each one in the side of the other, so that they fell down together. And that place came to be called Hel'kath-haz-zu'rim,^b which is in Gib'e-on.^b

17 And the fighting came to be extremely hard on that day, and Ab'ner^c and the men of Israel were finally defeated before the servants of David. 18 Now the three sons of Ze-ru'iah^d happened to be there, Jo'ab^e and A-bish'ai^f and As'a-hel;^g and As'a-hel was swift on his feet, like one of the gazelles^h that are in the open field. 19 And As'a-hel went chasing after Ab'ner, and he did not incline to go to the right or to the left from following Ab'ner. 20 At length Ab'ner looked behind him and said: "Is this you, As'a-hel?" to which he said: "It is I." 21 Then Ab'ner said to him: "Veer to your right or to your left and seize one of the young men as yours and take what you stripⁱ off him as yours." And As'a-hel did not want to turn aside from following him. 22 So Ab'ner said to As'a-hel yet again: "Turn your course aside from following me. Why should I strike^j you down to the earth?^j How, then, could I raise my face to Jo'ab your brother?" 23 But he kept refusing to turn aside; and Ab'ner got to strike him in the abdomen^k with the butt end^k of the spear, so that the spear came out from his back; and he fell there and died where he was. And it came about that all those who came to the place where As'a-hel fell and then died would stand still.^l

24 And Jo'ab and A-bish'ai went chasing after Ab'ner. As the sun was setting they themselves came to the hill of Am'mah, which is in front of Gi'ah on the way to the wilderness of Gib'e-

2Sa 2:16^a Meaning "Field of Flint Knives"; or, by an emendation, "Field of Sides." Compare Jos 5:2 ftn. 22^b "Following me lest I strike," LXX. 23^c Or, "the hinder part," possibly striking with a backward movement of the spear.

e-on.^a 25 And the sons of Benjamin went collecting together behind Ab'ner, and they came to be one company and kept standing upon the top of one hill. 26 And Ab'ner began to call to Jo'ab and say: "Is the sword going to eat^b endlessly? Do you not really know that bitterness is what will develop at last?^c How long, then, will it be before you say to the people to turn back from following their brothers?"^d 27 At that Jo'ab said: "As the [true] God* is living,^e if you had not spoken,^f then only by the morning would the people have been withdrawn, each one from following his brother." 28 Jo'ab now blew the horn,^g and all the people came to a halt and did not continue chasing after Israel anymore, and they did not renew the fighting anymore.

29 As for Ab'ner and his men, they marched through the Ar'a-bah^h all that night and went crossing the Jordanⁱ and marching through the entire gully and finally came to Ma-ha-na'im.^j 30 As for Jo'ab, he turned back from following Ab'ner and began to collect all the people together. And there were missing from the servants of David nineteen men and As'a-hel. 31 And the servants of David, for their part, had struck down those of Benjamin and of the men of Ab'ner—there were three hundred and sixty men that died.^k 32 And they proceeded to carry As'a-hel^l and bury him in the burial place of his father,^m which is at Beth'le-hem.ⁿ Then Jo'ab and his men went marching on all night long, and it became daylight for them at He'bron.^o

3 And the war between the house of Saul and the house of David came to be long drawn out;^p and David kept getting stronger,^q and the house of Saul kept declining more and more.^r

2 Meantime, sons^s were born to David in He'bron,^t and his firstborn came to be Am'non^u by A-hin'o-am^v the Jez're-el-ite. 3 And his second was Chil'e-ab^w by Ab'i-gail^x the wife of Na'bal the Car'mel-ite, and the third was Ab'sa-

6 And it came about that while the war between the house of Saul and the house of David kept up, Ab'ner^g himself was continually strengthening his position in the house of Saul. 7 Now Saul had had a concubine whose name was Riz'pah,^h the daughter of A'iah.ⁱ Later Ish-bo'sheth^j said to Ab'ner: "Why was it that you had relations with the concubine^k of my father?" 8 And Ab'ner got very angry^l at the words of Ish-bo'sheth and went on to say: "Am I a dog's^m head that belongs to Judah? Today I keep exercising loving-kindness toward the house of Saul your father, to his brothers and his personal friends, and I have not let you find yourself in the hand of David; and yet you call me to account for an error concerning a woman today. 9 So may God do to Ab'ner and so may he add to it,ⁿ if, just as Jehovah swore to David,^o that is not the way that I shall do to him, 10 so as to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and to establish the throne of David over Israel and over Judah from Dan to Be'er-she'ba."^p 11 And he was not able to say one word more in reply to Ab'ner because of being afraid of him.^q

12 Accordingly Ab'ner sent messengers to David on the spot, saying: "To whom does the land belong?" adding: "Do conclude your covenant with me, and, look! my hand will be with you to turn to your side the whole of Israel."^r 13 To this he said: "Good! I myself shall conclude a covenant with you. Only one thing there is that I am asking of you, saying, 'You may not see my face^s except first you bring Mi'-

At that he returned.

17 Meanwhile there had come to be communication by Ab'ner with the older men of Israel, saying: "Both yesterday and previously^f you proved yourselves seeking David as king over you. 18 And now act, for Jehovah himself said to David, 'By the hand of David^g my servant I shall save my people Israel from the hand of the Philis'tines and from the hand of all their enemies.'" 19 Then Ab'ner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin,^h after which Ab'ner also went to speak in the ears of David at He'bron all that was good in the eyes of Israel and in the eyes of the whole house of Benjamin.

20 When Ab'ner came to David at He'bron, and with him twenty men, David proceeded to make a feastⁱ for Ab'ner and for the men that were with him. 21 Then Ab'ner said to David: "Let me rise up and go and collect all Israel together to my lord the king, that they may conclude a covenant with you, and you will certainly become king over all that your soul craves."^j So David sent Ab'ner off, and he got on his way in peace.^k

22 And here David's servants and Jo'ab were coming from a raid, and the spoil^l that they brought with them was abundant. As for Ab'ner, he was not with David in He'bron, for he had sent him off, and he was on his way in peace. 23 And Jo'ab^m and all the army that was with him came in, and they now reported to Jo'ab, saying: "Ab'nerⁿ the to weeping.^a 33 And the king went on to chant over Ab'ner and say:

"As with the death of a senseless^b person should Ab'ner die?

34 Your hands had not been bound ones,^c

And your feet had not been put into fetters of copper.^d

At that all the people wept^f over him again.

35 Later all the people came to give David bread^g for consolation while it was yet that day, but David swore, saying: "So may God do to me^h and so may he add to it, if before the sun setsⁱ I shall taste bread or anything at all!"

36 And all the people themselves took notice, and it was good in their eyes. Like everything that the king did, it was in the eyes of all the people good.^j

37 And all the people and all Israel got to know on that day that it had not originated with the king to have Ab'ner the son of Ner put to death.^k

38 And the king went on to say to his servants: "Do you not know that it is a prince and a great man that has fallen this day in Israel?" 39 And I today am weak although anointed^m as king, and these men, the sons of Ze-ru'iah,ⁿ are too severe for me.^o May Jehovah repay the doer of what is bad according to his own badness."^p

4 When the son^q of Saul heard that Ab'ner had died in He'bron,^r then his hands became feeble^s and all the Israelites themselves were disturbed. 2 And there were two men, chiefs of the marauding bands,^t that happened to belong to the son of Saul,^u the name of the one being Ba'a-nah and the name of the other being Re'chab, the sons of Rim'mon the Be-er'oth-ite, of the sons of Benjamin; for Be-er'oth,^v too, used to be counted as part of Benjamin. 3 And the Be-er'oth-ites went running away to Git'ta'im,^w and they came to be alien residents there down to this day.

4 Now Jon'a-than,^a the son of Saul, had a son lame in the feet.^b Five years old he happened to be when the report about Saul and Jon'a-than came from Jez're-el;^c and his nurse began to carry him and flee, but it came about that as she was running in panic to flee, he then had a fall and was lamed. And his name was Me-phib'o-sheth.^d

5 And the sons of Rim'mon the Be-er'oth-ite, Re'chab and Ba'a-nah, proceeded to go and come to the house of Ish-bo'sheth^e about when the day had heated up, as he was taking his noonday siesta. 6 And here they came into the middle of the house as men fetching wheat, and then struck him in the abdomen;^f and Re'chab and Ba'a-nah^g his brother themselves escaped detection.

7 When they went into the house, he was lying upon his couch in his inner bedroom, and then they struck him so that they put him to death,^h after which they removed his headⁱ and took his head and walked on the road to the Ar'a-bah all night long. 8 Eventually they came bringing the head of Ish-bo'sheth^j to David at He'bron and said to the king: "Here is the head of Ish-bo'sheth the son of Saul your enemy^k who looked for your soul;^l but Jehovah gives to my lord the king revenge^m this day upon Saul and his offspring."

9 However, David answered Re'chab and Ba'a-nah his brother, the sons of Rim'mon the Be-er'oth-ite, and said to them: "As Jehovah who redeemedⁿ my soul^o out of all distress^p is living,^q 10 when there was one reporting to me,^r saying, 'Here Saul is dead,' and he himself in his own eyes became like a bringer of good news, I, however, took hold of him and killed^s him in Zik'lag when it was due [for me] to give him the messenger's fee; 11 how much more so when wicked men^t themselves have killed a righteous man in his own house upon his bed? And now should I not require his blood from your hands,^u and must I not clear you out of the earth?"^v

young men and they killed them^a and cut off their hands and their feet and hanged^b them by the pool in He'bron; and the head of Ish-bo'sheth they took and then buried in the burial place of Ab'ner in He'bron.^c

5 In time all the tribes of Israel came to David^d at He'bron^e and said: "Look! We ourselves are your bone and your flesh.^f 2 Both yesterday and previously^g while Saul happened to be king over us, you yourself became the one leading Israel out and bringing it in.^h And Jehovah proceeded to say to you, 'You yourself will shepherdⁱ my people Israel, and you yourself will become leader^j over Israel.'^k 3 So all the older men^l* of Israel came to the king at He'bron, and King David concluded a covenant^l with them in He'bron before Jehovah; after which they anointed^m David as king over Israel.ⁿ

4 Thirty years old was David when he became king. For forty years^o he ruled as king. 5 In He'bron he ruled as king over Judah for seven years and six months;^p and in Jerusalem^q he ruled as king for thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah. 6 Consequently the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jeb'u-sites^r inhabiting the land, and they began to say to David: "You will not come in here, but the blind and the lame ones will certainly turn you away,"^s they thinking: "David will not come in here." 7 Just the same, David proceeded to capture the stronghold of Zion,^t that is, the City of David.^u 8 So David said on that day: "Anyone striking the Jeb'u-sites,^v let him, by means of the water tunnel,^w make contact with both the lame and the blind, hateful to the soul of David.^x That is why they say: "The blind one and the lame one will not come into the house." 9 And David took up dwelling in the stronghold, and it came to be called the City of David; and David began to build all around from the

11 And Hi'ram^e the king of Tyre proceeded to send messengers^f to David, and also cedar trees^g and workers in wood and workers in stone for walls, and they began to build a house for David.^h 12 And David came to know that Jehovah had firmly established him as king over Israelⁱ and that he had exalted^j his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.^k

13 Meantime, David went on taking more concubines^l and wives^m out of Jerusalem after he came from He'bron; and more sons and daughters continued to be born to David. 14 And these are the names of those born to him in Jerusalem: Sham-mu^a and Sho'bab^b and Nathan^c and Sol'o-mon,^d 15 and Ib'har and Eli'shu^a and Ne'pheg^s and Ja'phi'a,^t 16 and Elish'a-ma^u and E-li-a-da and E-liph'e-let.^v

17 And the Phi-lis'tines got to hear that they had anointed David as king over Israel.^w At that all the Phi-lis'tines came up to look for David. When David heard of it, then he went down to the place hard to approach.^x 18 And the Phi-lis'tines, for their part, came in and kept tramping about in the low plain of Rep'h'a-im.^y 19 And David began to inquire^z of Jehovah, saying: "Shall I go up against the Phi-lis'tines? Will you give them into my hand?" At this Jehovah said to David: "Go up, for I shall without fail give the Phi-lis'tines into your hands."^a 20 So David came to Ba'al-pe-ra-zim,^b and David got to strike them down there. At that he said: "Jehovah has broken through my enemies^c ahead of me, like a gap made by waters." That is why he called the name of that place Ba'al-pe-ra-zim.^a 21 Consequently they left their idols^b there, and so David and his men took them away.^c

22 Later the Philis'tines came up once again^d and tramped about in the low plain of Reph'a'im.^e 23 At that David inquired^f of Jehovah, but he said: "You must not go up. Go around to the rear of them, and you must come against them in front of the ba'ca bushes.^g 24 And let it occur that, when you hear the sound of a marching in the tops of the ba'ca bushes, at that time you act with decision,^h because at that time Jehovah will have gone out ahead of you to strike down the camp of the Philis'tines."ⁱ 25 Accordingly David did that way, just as Jehovah had commanded him,^j and he went striking down^k the Philis'tines from Ge'ba*^l to as far as Ge'zer.^m

6 And David proceeded again to gather all the choice men in Israel,ⁿ thirty thousand. 2 Then David and all the people that were with him rose up and went to Ba'a-le-ju'dah^o to bring up from there the ark^p of the [true] God, where a name is called on, the name^q of Jehovah of armies,^r sitting on the cherubs.* 3 However, they had the ark of the [true] God ride upon a new wagon,^s that they might carry it from the house of A-bin'a-dab,^t which was on the hill; and Uz'zah and A-hi'o,^v the sons of A-bin'a-dab, were leading the new wagon.

4 So they carried it from A-bin'a-dab's house, which was on the hill—with the ark of the [true] God; and A-hi'o was walking ahead of the Ark. 5 And David and all the house of Israel were celebrating before Jehovah with all sorts of instruments of juniper wood and with harps* and with stringed instruments* and with tambourines^y and with sist-rums* and with cymbals.^z 6 And they came gradually as far as the threshing floor of Na'con,* and Uz'zah^a now thrust [his hand] out to the ark of the [true] God and grabbed hold of it,^b for the cattle nearly caused an upset. 7 At that Jehovah's anger^c blazed against Uz'zah and the [true] God struck him down^d there for the irreverent act, so that he died there close by the ark of the [true] God.^e 8 And David became angry over the fact that Jehovah had broken through in a rupture against Uz'zah, and that place came to be called Pe'rez-uz'zah* down to this day.^f 9 And David became afraid of Jehovah^g on that day and began to say: "How will the ark of Jehovah come to me?"^h 10 And David was not willing to remove the ark of Jehovah to him at the City of David.ⁱ So David had it carried aside to the house of O'bed-e'dom^j the Git'tite.^k

11 And the ark of Jehovah kept dwelling at the house of O'bed-e'dom the Git'tite three months; and Jehovah kept blessing^l O'bed-e'dom and all his household.^m 12 Finally the report was made to King David, saying: "Jehovah has blessed the house of O'bed-e'dom and all that is his on account of the ark of the [true] God." At that David proceeded to go and bring the ark of the [true] God out of the house of O'bed-e'dom up to the City of David with rejoicing.ⁿ 13 And it came about that when the carriers^o of the ark of Jehovah had marched six steps, he immediately sacrificed a bull and a fatling.^p

14 And David was dancing around before Jehovah with all his power, all the while David being girded with an eph'od^q of linen. 15 And David and all the house of Israel were bringing up the ark^r of Jehovah with joyful shouting^s and sound of horn.^t 16 And it occurred that when the ark of Jehovah came into the City of David, Mi'chal,^u Saul's daughter, herself looked down through the window and got to see King David leaping and dancing around before Jehovah; and she began to despise^a him in her heart.^b 17 So they brought the ark of Jehovah in and set it in its place inside the tent that David had pitched for it;^c after which David offered up burnt sacrifices^d and communion sacrifices^e before Jehovah. 18 When David was finished with offering up the burnt sacrifices and the communion sacrifices, he then blessed^f the people in the name of Jehovah^g of armies. 19 Further, he apportioned^h to all the people, to the whole crowd of Israel, man as well as woman, to each one a ring-shaped cake of bread and a date cake and a raisin cake,ⁱ after which all the people went each to his own house.

20 David now returned to bless his own household,^j and Mi'chal,^k Saul's daughter, came on out to meet David and then said: "How glorious the king of Israel made himself today^l when he uncovered himself today to the eyes of the slave girls of his servants, just as one of the empty-headed men* uncovers himself outright!"^m 21 At this David said to Mi'chal: "It was before Jehovah, who* chose me rather than your father and all his household to put me in commandⁿ as leader over Jehovah's people Israel, and I will celebrate before Jehovah.^o 22 And I will make myself even more lightly esteemed than this,^p and I will become low in my* eyes; and with the slave girls whom you mentioned, with them I am determined to glorify myself."^q 23 So, as regards Mi'chal,^r Saul's daughter, she came to have no child down to the day of her death.

7 And it came about that, when the king dwelt in his own house^s and Jehovah himself had given him rest from all his enemies round about,^t 2 then the king said to Nathan^u the prophet: "See, now, I am dwelling in a house himself, the grandson of your master, will eat bread at my table constantly."^a

Now Zi'ba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.^b 11 So Zi'ba said to the king: "In accord with all that my lord the king commands for his servant is the way that your servant will do; but Mephib'o-sheth^c is eating at my table^{} like one of the sons of the king." 12 Now Mephib'o-sheth had a young son^{} whose name was Mi'ca,^d and all those dwelling in the house of Zi'ba were servants to Mephib'o-sheth. 13 And Mephib'o-sheth himself was dwelling in Jerusalem, for it was constantly at the table of the king that he was eating;^e and he was lame in both of his feet.^f

10 And it came about afterward that the king of the sons of Am'mon^g came to die, and Ha'nun his son began to reign instead of him.^h 2 At this David said: "I shall exercise loving-kindness toward Ha'nun the son of Na'hash, just as his father exercised loving-kindness toward me."ⁱ Accordingly David sent by means of his servants^j to comfort him over his father, and the servants of David proceeded to come into the land of the sons of Am'mon. 3 However, the princes of the sons of Am'mon said to Ha'nun their lord: "Is David honoring your father in your eyes in that he has sent to you comforters? Is it not for the sake of searching through the city^{*} and to spy^k it out and to overthrow it that David has sent his servants to you?"^l 4 So Ha'nun took the servants of David and shaved off half their beards^m and cut their garments in half to their buttocks and sent them away.ⁿ 5 Later people reported it to David, and he at once sent to meet them, because the men had come to feeling very humiliated; and the king went on to say: "Dwell in Jer'i-cho^o until YOUR beards grow abundantly. Then YOU must return."^p

David, and the sons of Am'mon proceeded to send and hire Syrians of Beth-re'hob^a and Syrians of Zo'bah,^b twenty thousand men on foot, and the king of Ma'a-cah,^c a thousand men, and Ish'tob,^{*} twelve thousand men. 7 When David heard of it, then he sent Jo'ab and all the army [and] the mighty men.^d 8 And the sons of Am'mon began to go out and draw up in battle formation at the entrance of the gate,^e also the Syrians of Zo'bah and of Re'hob,^e and Ish'tob and Ma'a-cah by themselves in the open field.^f

9 When Jo'ab saw that the battle charges had come to be against him from the front and from the rear, he at once chose some of all the choice^g men in Israel and drew them up in formation to meet the Syrians. 10 And the rest of the people he gave into the hand of A-bish'ai^h his brother, that he might draw them up in formation to meet the sons of Am'mon.ⁱ 11 And he went on to say: "If the Syrians become too strong for me, then you must serve as a salvation for me; but if the sons of Am'mon themselves become too strong for you, I must also come to save you.^j 12 Be strong, that we may show ourselves courageous^k in behalf of our people and in behalf of the cities of our God;^l and as for Jehovah, he will do what is good in his own eyes."^m

13 Then Jo'ab and the people that were with him advanced to the battle against the Syrians, and they went fleeing from before him.ⁿ 14 As for the sons of Am'mon, they saw that the Syrians had fled, and they took to flight from before A-bish'ai and hence came into the city.^o After that Jo'ab returned from the sons of Am'mon and came to Jerusalem.^p

15 When the Syrians saw that they had been defeated before Israel, they proceeded to gather themselves together. 16 So Had-ad-e'zer^q sent and brought out the Syrians that were in the region of the River;^r and then they came to He'lam,^{*} with Sho'bach^a the chief of the army of Had-ad-e'zer before them.

17 When the report was made to David, he immediately gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan and came to He'lam. The Syrians now drew up in formation to meet David and began to fight against him.^b 18 And the Syrians took to flight^c from before Israel; and David got to kill of the Syrians seven hundred charioteers^d and forty thousand horsemen, and Sho'bach the chief of their army he struck down so that he died there.^e 19 When all the kings,^f the servants of Had-ad-e'zer, saw that they had been defeated before Israel,^g they promptly made peace with Israel and began to serve them;^h and the Syrians were afraid to try saving the sons of Am'mon anymore.ⁱ

11 And it came about at the return of the year,^j at the time that kings sally forth,^k that David proceeded to send Jo'ab and his servants with him and all Israel, that they might bring the sons of Am'mon to ruin^l and lay siege to Rab'bah,^m while David was dwelling in Jerusalem.

2 And it came about at the time of evening that David proceeded to rise from his bed and walk about on the rooftopⁿ of the king's house; and from the rooftop he caught sight^o of a woman bathing herself,^{*} and the woman was very good in appearance.^p 3 Then David sent and inquired about the woman^q and someone said: "Is this not Bath-she'ba^r the daughter of E-li'am^s the wife of Uri'ah^t the Hittite?"^u 4 After that David sent messengers that he might take her.^v So she came in to him^w and he lay down with her,^x while she was sanctifying herself from her uncleanness.^y Later she returned to her house.

5 And the woman became pregnant.

2Sa 10:16* "Then they came to Helam." MLXXSy; Vg, "he led their army there." 11:1* Or, "it came about the next spring." 2* Or, "and he caught sight of a woman bathing herself on a rooftop." 3* "Ammiel" in 1Ch 3:5.

Consequently she sent and told David and said: "I am pregnant." 6 At this David sent to Jo'ab, saying: "Send to me U-ri'ah the Hit'tite." So Jo'ab sent U-ri'ah to David. 7 When U-ri'ah came to him, David began to ask how Jo'ab was getting along and how the people were getting along and how the war was getting along. 8 Finally David said to U-ri'ah: "Go down to your house and bathe your feet."^a Accordingly U-ri'ah went out from the king's house, and the king's courtesy gift* went out following him. 9 However, U-ri'ah lay down at the entrance of the king's house with all the other servants of his lord, and he did not go down to his own house. 10 So they told David, saying: "U-ri'ah did not go down to his own house." Upon that David said to U-ri'ah: "It is from a journey that you have come in, is it not? Why have you not gone down to your own house?" 11 At this U-ri'ah said to David: "The Ark^b and Israel and Judah are dwelling in booths, and my lord Jo'ab and the servants of my lord^c are camping on the face of the field, and I—shall I go into my own house to eat and drink and to lie down with my wife?^d As you are living and as your soul is living,^e I shall not do this thing!"

12 Then David said to U-ri'ah: "Dwell here also today, and tomorrow I shall send you away." Therefore U-ri'ah kept dwelling in Jerusalem on that day and the day following. 13 Further, David called him that he might eat before him and drink. So he got him drunk.^f Nevertheless, he went out in the evening to lie down on his bed with the servants of his lord, and to his own house he did not go down. 14 And it came about in the morning that David proceeded to write a letter^g to Jo'ab and send it by the hand of U-ri'ah. 15 So he wrote in the letter, saying:^h "Put U-ri'ah in front of the heaviest battle charges,ⁱ and you men must retreat from behind him, and he must be struck down and die."^j

16 And it came about that while Jo'ab was keeping guard over the city he kept U-ri'ah put in the place where he knew that there were valiant men.^a 17 When the men of the city came on out and went fighting against Jo'ab, then some of the people, the servants of David, fell and U-ri'ah the Hit'tite also died.^b 18 Jo'ab now sent that he might report to David all the matters of the war. 19 And he went on to command the messenger, saying: "As soon as you finish speaking to the king about all the matters of the war, 20 then it must occur that if the rage of the king comes up and he does say to you, 'Why did you have to go so near to the city to fight? Did you men not know that they would shoot from on top of the wall?' 21 Who was it that struck down A-bim'e-lech^c the son of Je-rub'-be-sheth?^d Was it not a woman that pitched an upper millstone upon him^e from on top of the wall so that he died at The'bez?^f Why did you men have to go so close to the wall?' you must also say, 'Your servant U-ri'ah the Hit'tite died too.'^g"

22 So the messenger went and came and told David all about which Jo'ab had sent him. 23 And the messenger went on to say to David: "The men proved superior to us, so that they came out against us into the field; but we kept pressing them right up to the entrance of the gate. 24 And the shooters kept shooting at your servants from on top of the wall,^h so that some of the servants of the king died; and your servant U-ri'ah the Hit'tite also died."ⁱ 25 At that David said to the messenger: "This is what you will say to Jo'ab, 'Do not let this matter appear bad in your eyes, for the sword eats^j up one as well as another. Intensify your battle against the city and throw it down.'^k And encourage him."

26 And the wife of U-ri'ah got to hear that U-ri'ah her husband had died, and she began to wail^l over her owner.^a 27 When the mourning period^b was past, David immediately sent and took her home to his house, and she came to be his wife.^c In time she bore to him a son, but the thing that David had done appeared bad^d in the eyes^e of Jehovah.

12 And Jehovah proceeded to send Nathan^f to David. So he came in to him^g and said to him: "There were two men that happened to be in one city, the one rich and the other of little means. 2 The rich man happened to have very many sheep and cattle;^h 3 but the man of little means had nothing but one female lamb, a small one, that he had bought.ⁱ And he was preserving it alive, and it was growing up with him and with his sons, all together. From his morsel it would eat, and from his cup it would drink, and in his bosom it would lie, and it came to be as a daughter to him. 4 After a while a visitor came to the rich man, but he spared taking some from his own sheep and his own cattle to get such ready for the traveler that had come in to him. So he took the female lamb of the man of little means and got it ready for the man that had come in to him."

5 At this David's anger grew very hot against the man,^k so that he said to Nathan: "As Jehovah is living,^l the man doing this deserves to die!"^m 6 And for the female lamb he should make compensationⁿ with four,^o as a consequence of the fact that he has done this thing and because he did not have compassion."^p

7 Then Nathan said to David: "You yourself are the man! This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'I myself anointed^q you as king over Israel, and I myself delivered^r you out of the hand of Saul. 8 And I was willing to give you the house of your lord^s and the wives of your lord^t into your bosom, and to give you the house^u of Israel and of Judah.^v And if it were not enough,

I was willing to add to you things like these as well as other things.^a 9 Why did you despise the word of Jehovah by doing what is bad^b in his eyes? U-ri'ah the Hit'tite you struck down with the sword,^c and his wife you took as your wife,^d and him you killed by the sword of the sons of Am'mon. 10 And now a sword^e will not depart from your own house to time indefinite,^f as a consequence of the fact that you despised me so that you took the wife of U-ri'ah the Hit'tite to become your wife.' 11 This is what Jehovah has said, 'Here I am raising up against you calamity out of your own house;^g and I will take your wives under your own eyes and give them to your fellowman,^h and he will certainly lie down with your wives under the eyes of this sun.' 12 Whereas you yourself acted in secret,ⁱ I, for my part, shall do this thing in front of all Israel^k and in front of the sun."^l

13 David now said^m to Nathan: "I have sinned against Jehovah."ⁿ At this Nathan said to David: "Jehovah, in turn, does let your sin pass by.^o You will not die.^p 14 Notwithstanding this, because you have unquestionably treated Jehovah with disrespect^q by this thing, also the son himself, just born to you, will positively die."^r

And Jehovah proceeded to deal a blow^s to the child that the wife of U-ri'ah had borne to David so that it took sick. 16 And David began to seek the [true] God in behalf of the boy, and David went on a strict fast^t and came in and spent the night and lay down on the earth.^u 17 So the older men of his house stood up over him to raise him up from the earth, but he did not consent and did not take bread^v in company with them. 18 And it came about on the seventh day that the child gradually died. the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child had died; for they said: "Look! While the child continued alive we did speak to him, and he did not listen to our voice; so how can we say to him, 'The child has died'? Then he will certainly do something bad."

19 When David got to see that his servants were whispering together, David began to discern that the child had died. So David said to his servants: "Has the child died?" To this they said: "He has died." 20 Then David got up from the earth and washed and rubbed^a himself with oil and changed his man-tles and came to the house^b of Jehovah and prostrated^c himself; after which he came into his own house and asked, and they promptly set bread before him and he began to eat. 21 Consequently his servants said to him: "What does this thing mean that you have done? For the sake of the child while alive you fasted and kept weeping; and just as soon as the child had died you got up and began to eat bread." 22 To this he said: "While the child was yet alive I did fast^d and I kept weeping,^e because I said to myself, 'Who is there knowing whether Jehovah may show me favor, and the child will certainly live?'^f 23 Now that he has died, why is it I am fasting? Am I able to bring him back again?^g I am going to him,^h but, as for him, he will not return to me."ⁱ

24 And David began to comfort Bath-she'ba his wife.^j Further, he came in to her and lay down with her. In time she bore a son,^k and his name came to be called Sol'o-mon.^{1} And Jehovah himself did love him.^m 25 So he sent by means of Nathanⁿ the prophet and called his name Jed-i-di'ah,^{} for the sake of Jehovah.

kingdom.* 27 So Jo'ab sent messen-gers to David and said: "I have fought against Rab'bah.^a I have also captured the city of waters. 28 And now gather the rest of the people and encamp against the city, and capture it; that I myself may not be the one to capture the city, and my name should not have to be called upon it."

29 Accordingly David gathered all the people and went to Rab'bah and fought against it and captured it. 30 And he got to take the crown of Mal'cam^{} off its head,^b the weight of which was a talent^c of gold, along with precious stones; and it came to be upon David's head. And the spoil^c of the city that he brought out was very much. 31 And the people that were in it, he brought out that he might put them at sawing stones and at sharp instruments of iron^d and at axes of iron, and he made them serve^{} at brickmaking. And that was the way he proceeded to do to all the cities of the sons of Am'mon. Finally David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

13 And it came about after such things that Ab'sa-lom^e the son of David had a beautiful sister whose name was Ta'mar,^f and Am'non^g the son of David fell in love^h with her. 2 And it was so distressing to Am'non that he felt sickⁱ on account of Ta'mar his sister, because she was a virgin, and it was difficult in the eyes^j of Am'non to do anything at all to her.^k 3 Now Am'non had a companion whose name was Je-hon'a-dab,^{*1} the son of Shim'e-ah,^m David's brother; and Je-hon'a-dab was a very wise man. 4 So he said to him: "Why are you, the son of the king, so downcast as this, morning by morning? Will you not tell me?"ⁿ At this Am'non said to him: "With Ta'mar the sister^o of Ab'sa-lom my brother I

6 Accordingly Am'nion lay down and played sick,^d and so the king came in to see him. Then Am'nion said to the king: "Please, let Ta'mar my sister come in and bake two heart-shaped cakes under my eyes, that I may take bread as a patient from her hand." 7 At that David sent to Ta'mar at the house, saying: "Go, please, to the house of Am'nion your brother and make the bread of consolation for him." 8 So Ta'mar went to the house of Am'nion^e her brother while he was lying down. Then she took the flour dough and kneaded it and made the cakes under his eyes and cooked the heart-shaped cakes.* 9 Finally she took the deep pan and poured it out before him, but Am'nion refused to eat and said: "HAVE everybody go out from me!"^f Then everybody went out from him.

10 Am'nion now said to Ta'mar: "Bring the bread of consolation to the interior room, that I may take it as a patient from your hand." So Ta'mar took the heart-shaped cakes that she had made and brought them in to Am'nion her brother in the interior room. 11 When she came near to him for him to eat, he at once grabbed^g hold of her and said to her: "Come, lie down^h with me, my sister."ⁱ 12 However, she said to him: "No, my brother! listen to her voice, but used strength superior to hers and humiliated^a her and lay down with her.^b 15 And Am'nion began hating her with a very great hatred, because the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her, so that Am'nion said to her: "Get up, go away!" 16 At this she said to him: "No, my brother; for^c this badness in sending me away is greater than the other that you have done with me!" And he did not consent to listen to her.

17 With that he called his attendant who waited upon him and said: "Send this person away from me, please, to the outside, and lock the door behind her." 18 (Now upon her there was a striped^e robe; for that was the way the daughters of the king, the virgins, used to dress with sleeveless coats.) So his waiter proceeded to lead her clear outside, and he locked the door behind her. 19 Then Ta'mar placed ashes^d upon her head, and the striped robe that was upon her she ripped apart; and she kept her hands^e put upon her head^e and went walking away, crying out as she walked.

20 At this Ab'sa-lom^f her brother said to her: "Was it Am'nion^g your brother that happened to be with you? And now, my sister, keep silent. He is your brother.^h Do not set your heart on this matter." And Ta'mar began to dwell, while being kept from association [with others], at the house of Ab'sa-lom her brother. 21 And King David himself heard about all these things,ⁱ and he became very angry.^j 22 And Ab'sa-lom did not speak with Am'nion either bad or good; for Ab'sa-lom hated^k Am'nion over the fact that he had humiliated Ta'mar his sister.

23 And it turned out after two full years that Ab'sa-lom came to have sheepshearers^l at Ba'al-ha-zor, which is close by E'phraim;^m and Ab'sa-lom proceeded to invite all the sons of the king.ⁿ 24 So Ab'sa-lom came in to the king and said: "Here, now, your servant has sheepshearers! Let the king go, please, and also his servants, with your servant.” 25 But the king said to Ab’sa-lom: “No, my son! Do not let all of us go, please, that we may not be a burden upon you.” Although he kept urging^a him, he did not consent to go but blessed^b him. 26 Finally Ab’sa-lom said: “If not [you], let Am’nion my brother go with us, please.”^c At this the king said to him: “Why should he go with you?” 27 And Ab’sa-lom began to urge^d him, so that he sent Am’nion and all the sons of the king* with him.

28 Then Ab’sa-lom commanded his attendants, saying: “See, please, that just as soon as Am’nion’s heart is in a merry mood with wine,^e and I shall certainly say to you, ‘Strike down Am’nion!’ YOU must then put him to death. Do not be afraid.^f Have not I myself commanded you? Be strong and prove yourselves to be valiant men.” 29 And Ab’sa-lom’s attendants proceeded to do to Am’nion just as Ab’sa-lom had commanded;^g and all the other sons of the king began to rise up and mount each one his mule* and take to flight. 30 And it came about that, while they were on the way, the report itself came to David, saying: “Ab’sa-lom has struck down all the sons of the king, and not one of them has been left over.” 31 At this the king got up and ripped his clothes apart^h and lay upon the earth,ⁱ and all his servants were standing by with their garments ripped^j apart.*

have died”; but it is Am’nion alone that has died.”

34 Meantime, Ab’sa-lom went running away.^a Later the young man, the watchman,^b raised his eyes and saw, and, look! there were many people coming from the road behind him by the mountainside.* 35 At this Je-hon’a-dab^c said to the king: “Look! The king’s sons themselves have come in. In accord with the word of your servant so it has taken place.”^d 36 And it came about that, as soon as he finished speaking, here the king’s sons themselves came in, and they began to raise their voice and weep; and even the king and all his servants wept with a very great weeping. 37 As for Ab’sa-lom, he ran off that he might go to Tal’mair^e the son of Am-mi’hud the king of Gesh’ur.^f And [David]* continued to mourn^g over his son all the days. 38 As for Ab’sa-lom, he ran off and made his way to Gesh’ur;^h and he came to be there three years.

39 Finally [the soul of]* David the king longed to go outⁱ to Ab’sa-lom; for he had comforted himself concerning Am’nion, because he was dead.

14 Now Jo’abⁱ the son of Ze-ru’iah^j came to know that the king’s heart was toward Ab’sa-lom.^k 2 Accordingly Jo’ab sent to Te-ko’a^l and took from there a wise^m woman and said to her: “Go in mourning, please, and dress yourself, please, with garments of mourning, and do not rub yourself with oil;ⁿ and you must become like a woman here who has been mourning many days over someone dead.^o 3 And you must come in to the king and speak to him a word like this.” With that Jo’ab put the words in her mouth.^p

4 And the Te-ko’ite woman proceeded to come in* to the king and fall upon her face to the earth^a and prostrate herself and say: "Do save.^b O king!" 5 At this the king said to her: "What is the matter with you?" To this she said: "For a fact I am a widowed^c woman, now that my husband is dead. 6 And your maidservant had two sons, and the two of them began to struggle with each other in the field^d while there was no deliverer^e to part them.* Finally the one struck the other down and put him to death. 7 And here all the family have risen up against your maidservant and keep saying, 'Give over the striker of his brother, that we may put him to death for the soul of his brother^f whom he killed,^g and let us even annihilate the heir.' And they will certainly extinguish the glow of my charcoals that has remained, so as to assign to my husband neither a name nor a remnant* on the surface of the ground."^h

8 Then the king said to the woman: "Go to your house, and I myself shall give command regarding you."ⁱ 9 At this the Te-ko'ite woman said to the king: "Upon me, O my lord the king, be the error, and also upon the house of my father,^j while the king and his throne are innocent." 10 And the king went on to say: "If there is anyone speaking to you, you must also bring him to me, and he will never hurt you again." 11 But she said: "Let the king, please, remember Jehovah your God,^k that the avenger of blood^l may not be continually causing ruin and that they may not annihilate my son." To this he said: "As Jehovah is living,^m not a single hairⁿ of your son will fall to the earth." 12 The woman now said: "Let your maidservant,^o please, speak a word^p to my lord the king." So he said: "Speak!"^q 13 And the woman went on to say: "Why, then, have you reasoned like this^r against the people of God?^s As the king is speaking this word he is like one that is guilty,^t in that the king does not bring back his own banished one."^u

14 For we shall die without fail^a and be like waters that are being poured down to the earth, which cannot be gathered. But God will not take away a soul,^b and he has thought out reasons why the one banished should not be banished from him. 15 And now that I have come in to speak this word to the king my lord, it is because the people made me afraid. So your maidservant said, 'Let me speak, please, to the king. Perhaps the king will act on the word of his slave girl. 16 Because the king proceeded to listen so as to deliver his slave girl out of the palm of the man [seeking] to annihilate me* and my lone son from the inheritance given by God,'^c 17 then your maidservant said, 'Let the word of my lord the king serve, please, to give rest.' For just like an angel^d of the [true] God is the way my lord the king is, to distinguish what is good and what is bad,^e and may Jehovah your God himself prove to be with you."

18 The king now answered and said to the woman: "Do not, please, hide from me a thing about which I am asking you."^f To this the woman said: "Let my lord the king speak, please." 19 And the king went on to say: "Is the hand of Jo'ab^g with you in all this?"^h Then the woman answered and said: "As your soul is living,ⁱ O my lord the king, no man can go to the right or go to the left from all that my lord the king has spoken; for it was your servant Jo'ab that commanded me, and he it was that put in the mouth of your maidservant all these words.^j 20 For the sake of altering the face of the matter your servant Jo'ab has done this thing, but my lord is wise as with the wisdom of the angel^k of the [true] God so as to know all that is in the earth."

21 Subsequently the king said to Jo'ab: "Here, now, I shall certainly do* this thing.^l So go, bring the young man Ab'sa-lom back."^m 22 At this Jo'ab fell upon his face to the earth and prostrated himself and blessed the king;^a and Jo'ab went on to say: "Today your servant does know that I have found favor in your eyes,^b O my lord the king, because the king has acted on the word of his servant." 23 With that Jo'ab rose up and went to Gesh'ur^c and brought Ab'sa-lom to Jerusalem.^d 24 However, the king said: "Let him turn toward his own house, but my face he may not see."^e So Ab'sa-lom turned toward his own house, and the face of the king he did not see.

25 Now compared with Ab'sa-lom there proved to be no man so beautiful^f in all Israel as to be praised so much. From the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there proved to be no defect in him. 26 And when he shaved his head—and it occurred at the end of every year that he would shave it; because it was so heavy^g upon him, he shaved it—he weighed the hair of his head, two hundred shekels* by the royal stone weight.^h 27 And there came to be born to Ab'sa-lom three sonsⁱ and one daughter whose name was Ta'mar. She proved to be a woman most beautiful in appearance.^j

28 And Ab'sa-lom continued dwelling in Jerusalem for two full years, and the face of the king he did not see.^j 29 So Ab'sa-lom sent for Jo'ab to send him to the king, and he did not consent to come to him. Then he sent again, a second time, and he did not consent to come. 30 Finally he said to his servants: "See Jo'ab's tract of land beside mine, and there he has barley. Go and set it ablaze with fire."^k Accordingly the servants of Ab'sa-lom set the tract of land ablaze with fire.^l 31 At this Jo'ab rose up and came to Ab'sa-lom at the house and said to him: "Why did your servants set the tract of land that is mine ablaze with fire?" 32 So Ab'sa-lom said to Jo'ab: "Look! I sent to you, saying, 'Come here and let me send you to the king, saying: "Why have I come from Gesh'ur?^a It would be better for me that I should still be there. And now let me see the face of the king and, if there is any error in me,^b he must then put me to death."^c

33 Subsequently Jo'ab came in to the king and told him. Then he called Ab'sa-lom, who now came in to the king and prostrated himself to him, [falling]* upon his face to the earth before the king; after which the king kissed Ab'sa-lom.^c

15 And it came about following such things that Ab'sa-lom proceeded to have a chariot made for himself, with horses and with fifty men running before him.^d 2 And Ab'sa-lom rose up early^e and stood at the side of the road to the gate.^f And it came about, when any man happened to have a legal case to come to the king for judgment,^g then Ab'sa-lom would call him and say: "From what city are you?" and he would say: "From one of the tribes of Israel your servant is." 3 And Ab'sa-lom would say to him: "See, your matters are good and straight; but there is no one from the king giving you a hearing."^h 4 And Ab'sa-lom would go on to say: "O that I were appointed judge in the land,ⁱ that to me every man might come that happens to have a legal case or judgment! Then I should certainly do justice to him."^j

5 It also occurred that, when a man drew near to bow down to him, he thrust his hand out and grabbed hold of him^k and kissed him. 6 And Ab'sa-lom kept doing a thing like this to all Israelites that would come in for judgment to the king; and Ab'sa-lom kept stealing the hearts of the men of Israel.^l

7 And it came about at the end of forty years* that Ab'sa-lom proceeded to say to the king: "Let me go, please, and pay in He'bron^m my vow that I solemnly made to Jehovah.ⁿ 8 For your servant made a solemn vow^o when I was dwelling in Gesh'ur^a in Syria, saying, 'If Jehovah will without fail bring me back to Jerusalem, I must also render service to Jehovah.'^b 9 So the king said to him: "Go in peace."^c With that he rose up and went to He'bron.

10 Ab'sa-lom now sent spies^d through all the tribes of Israel, saying: "As soon as you hear the sound of the horn, you must also say, 'Ab'sa-lom has become king^e in He'bron!'"^f 11 Now there had gone with Ab'sa-lom two hundred men from Jerusalem, being called and going unsuspectingly,^g and they did not know a single thing. 12 Further, when he offered the sacrifices, Ab'sa-lom sent for^h A-hith'o-phel^h the Gi'lon-ite,ⁱ David's counselor,^j from his city Gi'loh.^k And the conspiracy^l kept getting stronger, and the people were continually growing in number^m with Ab'sa-lom.

13 In time an informer came to David, saying: "The heartⁿ of the men of Israel has come to be behind Ab'sa-lom." 14 At once David said to all his servants that were with him in Jerusalem: "Get up, and let us run away;^o for there will prove to be no escaping for us because of Ab'sa-lom! Go hurriedly, for fear he may hurry up and actually catch up with us and bring down upon us what is bad and strike the city with the edge of the sword!"^p 15 At this the king's servants said to the king: "According to all that my lord the king may choose, here are your servants."^q 16 So the king went out with all his household at his feet,^r and the king left ten women, concubines,^s to take care of the house. 17 And the king continued on his way out with all the people at his feet; and they came to a stop at Beth-mer'hak.*

18 And all his servants were crossing at his side; and all the Cher'e-thites and all the Pel'e-thites^t and all the Git'tites,^u six hundred men that had followed him^v from Gath,^w were crossing before the king's face. 19 Then the everything that you may hear." 37 So Hu'shai, David's companion,^a came into the city. As for Ab'sa-lom,^b he proceeded to come into Jerusalem.

16 When David himself had crossed over a little beyond the summit,^c there was Zi'ba^d the attendant of Mephib'o-sheth^e to meet him with a couple of asses^f saddled and upon them two hundred loaves of bread^g and a hundred cakes of raisins^h and a hundred loads of summer fruitⁱ and a large jar of wine.^j 2 Then the king said to Zi'ba: "What do these things mean on your part?"^k To this Zi'ba said: "The asses are for the household of the king to ride, and the bread and the load of summer fruit are for the young men^l to eat, and the wine is for the one tired out^m in the wildernessⁿ to drink." 3 The king now said: "And where is the son of your master?"^o At this Zi'ba said to the king: "There he is dwelling in Jerusalem; for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will give back to me the royal rule of my father.'"^p 4 The king then said to Zi'ba: "Look! Yours is everything that belongs to Mephib'o-sheth."^q Upon that Zi'ba said: "I do bow^r down. Let me find favor in your eyes, my lord the king."

5 And King David came as far as Ba-hu'rim,^s and, look! coming out from there was a man of the family of Saul's house, and his name was Shim'e-i,^t the son of Ge'ra, coming out and calling down evil as he came out.^u 6 And he began throwing stones at David and at all the servants of King David; and all the people and all the mighty men were at his right and at his left. 7 And this is what Shim'e-i said as he called down evil: "Get out, get out, you bloodguilty^v man^{*} and good-for-nothing man!"^w 8 Jehovah has brought back upon you all the bloodguilt for the house of Saul

w De 13:13; 1Sa 2:12; 1Sa 25:17; Job 34:18.

2Sa 16:3^{} "Your master." Heb., 'adho-ney'-kha, pl. of 'a-dhohn', to denote excellence. 7^{} Lit., "man of the bloods." Heb., 'ish had-da-mim', pl. 7^{*} Or, "and man of worthlessness." Lit., "and man of the belial." Heb., we'ish' hab-beli-ya'al.

in place of whom you have ruled as king; and Jehovah gives the kingship into the hand of Ab'sa-lom your son. And here you are in your calamity, because you are a bloodguilty man!"^a

9 Finally A-bish'ai the son of Ze-ru'iah^b said to the king: "Why should this dead dog^c call down evil upon my lord the king?"^d Let me go over, please, and take off his head."^e 10 But the king said: "What do I have to do with you men,"^f you sons of Ze-ru'iah?^g Thus let him call down evil,^h because Jehovah himself has said to him,ⁱ 'Call down evil upon David!' So who^h should say, 'Why did you do that way?'"^j 11 And David went on to say to A-bish'ai and all his servants: "Here my own son, who has come forth out of my own inward parts, is looking for my soul;^k and how much more now a Ben'ja-min-ite!^l Let him alone that he may call down evil, for Jehovah has said so to him!^m 12 Perhaps Jehovah will seeⁿ with his eye,* and Jehovah will actually restore to me goodness instead of his malediction this day."ⁿ 13 With that David and his men kept going on in the road, while Shim'e-i was walking on the side of the mountain, walking abreast of him that he might call down evil;^o and he kept throwing stones while abreast of him, and he threw a lot of dust.^p

14 At length the king and all the people that were with him arrived tired. So they refreshed themselves there.^q

15 As for Ab'sa-lom and all the people, the men of Israel, they entered Jerusalem;^r and A-hith'o-phel^s was with him. 16 And it came about that, as soon as Hu'shai^t the Ar'chite,^u David's companion,^v came in to Ab'sa-lom, Hu'shai proceeded to say to Ab'sa-lom: "Let the king live!"^w Let the king live!"

2Sa 16:10* Lit., "What [is there] to me and to you men?" A Heb. idiom; a repellent question indicating objection to the action proposed by Abishai. See App 7B. 10* According to M^{margin}; M, "In case he calls down evil and in case Jehovah has said to him, 'Call down evil upon David!' who, then?" 12* "With his eye." One of the Eighteen Emendations. Here the Sopherim made the text read "on my error," that is, on the error committed against me. LXXSyVg, "on my affliction." See App 2B.

17 At this Ab'sa-lom said to Hu'shai: "This is the loving-kindness of yours toward your companion, is it? Why did you not go with your companion?"^a 18 So Hu'shai said to Ab'sa-lom: "No; but the one whom Jehovah has chosen and also this people and all the men of Israel, his I shall become,* and with him I shall dwell. 19 And for the second time [I must say], Whom shall I myself serve? Is it not before his son? Just as I served before your father, so I shall prove to be* before you."^b

20 Later Ab'sa-lom said to A-hith'o-phel: "You men, give counsel on your part.^c What shall we do?" 21 Then A-hith'o-phel said to Ab'sa-lom: "Have relations with the concubines of your father,^d whom he left behind to take care of the house.^e And all Israel will certainly hear that you have made yourself foul-smelling^f to your father,^g and the hands^h of all those who are with you will certainly become strong."^h 22 Accordingly they pitched a tent for Ab'sa-lom upon the roof,ⁱ and Ab'sa-lom began to have relations with the concubines of his father^j under the eyes of all Israel.^k

23 And the counsel of A-hith'o-phel, with which he counseled in those days, was just as when a man* would inquire of the word of the [true] God.^l That was the way all the counsel^l of A-hith'o-phel^m was both to David and to Ab'sa-lom.

17 And A-hith'o-phel proceeded to say to Ab'sa-lom: "Let me choose, please, twelve thousand men and rise up and chase after David to-night."ⁿ 2 And I shall come upon him when he is weary and feeble in both hands,^o and I shall certainly drive him

2Sa 16:18* Or, "I shall prove to be." Compare Ex 3:14. 19* See vs 18 fn. 23* "A man," 30 Heb. mss; in M only the vowel point appears. This is qere but not kethib (read but not written). See Jg 20:13 fn. 23* "Of the word of the [true] God." Heb., bidh-var' ha-'Elo-him'. The definite article ha, "the," preceding the title 'Elo-him' is for emphasis. This is the first occurrence of the expression. Many translators take bidh-var' (from da-var, "word") to be equivalent to devir, "innermost room," as in 1Ki 6:5. See App 1f.

into trembling; and all the people that are with him will have to flee, and I shall certainly strike down the king by himself.^a 3 And let me bring all the people back to you. Equivalent to the returning of all is the man whom you are seeking; [and] all the people will themselves come to be at peace.”^a 4 And the word was just right in the eyes of Ab'sa-lom^b and in the eyes of all the older men of Israel.

5 However, Ab'sa-lom said: “Call, please, Hu'shai^c the Ar'chite also, and let us hear what is in his mouth, even his.” 6 So Hu'shai came in to Ab'sa-lom. Then Ab'sa-lom said to him: “According to this word is the way A-hith'o-phel spoke. Shall we act upon his word? If not, you yourself speak.” 7 At this Hu'shai said to Ab'sa-lom: “The counsel with which A-hith'o-phel has counseled is not good in this instance!”^d

8 And Hu'shai went on to say: “You yourself well know your father and the men of his, that they are mighty,^e and they are bitter of soul,^f like a female bear that has lost her cubs in the field;^g and your father is a warrior,^h and he will not spend the night with the people. 9 Look! Now he is in hidingⁱ in one of the hollows or in one of the other places; and it will certainly occur that, just as soon as he falls upon them at the start, the one hearing of it will then be bound to hear and say, ‘A defeat has taken place among the people that are following Ab'sa-lom!’ 10 And even the valiant man whose heart is as the heart of the lion^j will himself surely soften in weakness;^k for all Israel is aware that your father is a mighty man^l and so, too, are the valiant men that are with him.^m 11 I myself do say in counsel: Let all Israel without fail be gathered to you, from Dan to Be'er-she'ba,ⁿ as the sand particles that are by the sea for multitude,^o with your own

2Sa 17:3* Possibly, “Let me bring all the people back to you just as the bride returns to her husband. It is only the soul of one man that you are seeking, and all the people will themselves come to be at peace.” LXX agrees. 10* “The lion.” Heb., ha'ar-yeh', the African lion.

person* going into the fight.^a 12 And we must come against him in one of the places where he is certain to be found,^b and we ourselves will be upon him just as the dew^c falls upon the ground; and there will certainly not be left even a single one among him and all the men that are with him. 13 And if it is into some city that he will withdraw, all Israel must also carry ropes to that city, and we shall certainly drag it down to the torrent valley, until there shall not be found there even a pebble.”^d

14 Then Ab'sa-lom and all the men of Israel said: “The counsel of Hu'shai the Ar'chite is better^e than the counsel of A-hith'o-phel!” And Jehovah himself had given command^f to frustrate the counsel^g of A-hith'o-phel although good,^h in order that Jehovah might bring calamityⁱ upon Ab'sa-lom.

15 Later Hu'shai said to Za'dok^j and A-bi'a-thar the priests: “This and that was the way that A-hith'o-phel counseled Ab'sa-lom and the older men of Israel; and this and that was the way that I myself counseled. 16 And now send speedily and tell David,^k saying, ‘Do not lodge in the desert plains of the wilderness tonight, but you also ought to cross over without fail,^l for fear that the king and all the people that are with him may be swallowed^m up.’”^a

17 As Jon'a-thanⁿ and A-him'a-az^o were standing at En-ro'gel,^p a maidervant went off and told them. So they themselves went off, as they had to tell King David; for they were not able to appear entering the city. 18 However, a young man got to see them and told Ab'sa-lom. So the two of them went off speedily and came to the house of a man in Ba-hu'rim,^q who had a well in his courtyard; and they went down into it. 19 After that the woman took and spread out a screen over the face of the well and heaped up cracked grain upon it;^r and not a thing became known of it. 20 The servants of Ab'sa-lom now came to the woman at her house and said: "Where are A-him'a-az and Jon'a-than?" At this the woman said to them: "They passed on from here to the waters."^a Then they kept on searching, and they did not find them^b and so returned to Jerusalem.

2Sa 17:11* Lit., “and with your own face.” 11* Or, “into battle.” LXXSyVg, “in among them.” 16* Or, “for fear that it may be communicated to the king and to all the people that are with him.”

21 And it came about after their going away that then they came up out of the well and went on and told King David and said to David: "YOU people, rise up and speedily pass over the waters; for this is the way that A-hith'o-phel counseled^c against YOU."

22 Immediately David rose up and also all the people that were with him, and they kept crossing the Jordan until the morning became light,^d until not a one was lacking that had not passed over the Jordan.

23 As for A-hith'o-phel, he saw that his counsel had not been acted upon,^e and he proceeded to saddle an ass and rise up and go off to his house at his own city.^f Then he gave commands to his household^g and strangled^h himself* and thus died.ⁱ So he was buried^j in the burial place of his forefathers.

24 As for David, he came to Ma-ha-na'im,^k and Ab'sa-lom himself crossed the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. 25 And A-ma'sa^l was the one whom Ab'sa-lom put in the place of Jo'ab^m over the army; and A-ma'sa was the son of a man whose name was Ith'raⁿ the Israelite,* who had relations with Ab'i-gail^o the daughter of Na'hash,^p the sister of Ze-ru'iah, Jo'ab's mother.

26 And Israel and Ab'sa-lom took up camping in the land of Gil'e-ad.^q

27 And it came about that, as soon as David came to Ma-ha-na'im, Sho'bi the son of Na'hash from Rab'bah^r of the sons of Am'mon,^s and Ma'chir^s the son of Am'mi-el^t from Lo-de'bar, and Bar-zil'lai^u the Gil'e-adite from Rog'e-lim^v 28 [brought]* beds and basins and potter's vessels, and wheat and barley and flour^w and roasted grain^x and
